2892. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d As-Sa’idi: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “To guard Muslims from infidels in Allah’s Cause for one day is better than the world and whatever is on its surface, and a place in Paradise as small as that occupied by the whip of one of you is better than the world and whatever is on its surface; and a morning’s or an evening’s journey which a slave (person) travels in Allah’s Cause is better than the world and whatever is on its surface.”

(74) CHAPTER. Whoever sets off for a holy battle accompanied by a boy-servant.

2893. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet ﷺ said to Abū Talha, “Choose one boy from your boys to serve me till the expedition to Khaibar.” Abū Talha took me letting me ride behind him while I was a boy nearing the age of puberty. I used to serve Allah’s Messenger ﷺ when he stopped to rest. Very often I used to hear him saying, “O Allah! I seek refuge with You from distress and sorrow, from helplessness and laziness, from miserliness and cowardice, from being overpowered by (other) men.” When we reached Khaibar; and Allah enabled him to conquer the fort (of Khaibar), the beauty of Safiyya bint Huyai bin Akhtab was described to him. Her husband had been killed while she was a bride. So, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ selected her for himself and took her along with him till we reached a place called Sad As-Sahba’, where she was clean from her menses, he took her for his wife. Ḥaṣ (a kind of dish) was served on a small leather sheet. Then Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ told me to call those who were around me. So, that was the marriage banquet of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and Ṣafīyya. Then we left for Al-Madīna. I saw Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ folding a cloak round the hump of the camel so as to make a wide space for Ṣafīyya (to sit on behind him). He sat beside his camel letting his knees for Ṣafīyya to put her feet on so as to mount the camel, we proceeded till we approached Al-Madīna; he looked at Uḥūd (mountain) and said, “This is a mountain which loves us and is loved by us.” Then he ﷺ looked at Al-Madīna and said, “O Allāh! I make the area between its (i.e., Al-Madīna’s) two mountains a sanctuary as Ibrāhīm (Abraham) made Makka a sanctuary. O Allāh! Bless them (i.e., the people of Al-Madīna) in their Mudd and Śā‘ (i.e., units of measuring).”

(75) CHAPTER. To go on a sea-voyage.

2894, 2895. Narrated Anas bin Mālik ﷺ: Umm Uʿāram told me that the Prophet ﷺ one day took a midday nap in her house. Then he woke up smiling. Umm Uʿāram asked, “O Allāh’s Messenger! What makes you smile?” He replied, “I was astonished to see (in my dream) some people amongst my followers on a sea-voyage looking like kings on the thrones.” She said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Invoke Allāh to make me one of them.” He replied, “You are amongst them.” He slept again and then woke up smiling and said the same as before, twice or thrice. And she said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Invoke Allāh to make me one of them.” And he said, “You are amongst the first batch.”

‘Ubaydah bin As-Samit married her (i.e., Umm Harâm) and then he took her for Jihad. When she returned, an animal was presented to her to ride, but she fell down and her neck was broken. (And she died).

(76) CHAPTER. Whoever sought the help of poor and pious men in war.

Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: Abu-Sufyân said to me, “Caesar said to me, ‘I asked you whether the wealthy people followed him (i.e., Muhammad) or the poor, and you said that the poor. Really, such are the followers of the Messengers.’”

2896. Narrated Mu‘âsab bin Sa‘d: Once Sa‘d (bin Abi Waqqâs) thought that he was superior to those who were below him in rank. On that the Prophet said, “You gain no victory or livelihood except through (the blessings and invocations of) the poor amongst you.”

2897. Narrated Abû Sa‘id Al-Khudri: The Prophet said, “A time will come when groups of people will go for Jihad and it will be asked, ‘Is there anyone amongst you who has enjoyed the company of the Prophet?’ The answer will be, ‘Yes.’ Then they will be given victory (by Allâh). Then a time will come when it will be asked,” ‘Is there anyone amongst you who has enjoyed Allâh’s mercy?”
the company of the companions of the Prophet ﷺ?" It will be said, ‘Yes,’ and they will be given victory (by Allah). Then a time will come when it will be said: ‘Is there anyone amongst you who has enjoyed the company of the companions of the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ?’ It will be said, ‘Yes,’ and they will be given victory (by Allah).”

(77) CHAPTER. Do not say that so-and-so is a martyr.

Narrated Abū Hurairah that the Prophet ﷺ said, “Allah knows him who fights in His Cause, and Allah knows him who gets wounded in His Cause”.

2898. Narrated Sahl bin Sa'd As-Sā'īdī: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and Al-Mushrikūn met each other in a battle and started fighting. When Allah’s Messenger ﷺ returned to his camp and when Al-Mushrikūn returned to their camp, somebody talked about a man amongst the companions of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ who would follow and kill with his sword any Mushrik going alone. He (or they) said, “Nobody did his job (i.e., fighting) so properly today as that man.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Indeed, he is one of the people of the (Hell) Fire.” A man amongst the people said, “I shall accompany him (to watch what he does).” Thus he accompanied him, and wherever he stood, he would stand with him, and wherever he ran, he would run with him. Then the (brave) man got wounded seriously and he hurried to die quickly. So he planted the blade of the sword in the ground directing its sharp end towards his chest between his two breasts. Then he leaned on the sword and killed himself. Another man came to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “I testify that you are Allah’s Messenger ﷺ.” The Prophet ﷺ asked, “What has happened?” He replied, “(It is about) the man whom you had described as one of the people of the (Hell) Fire. The people were greatly surprised at what you said, and I said, ‘I will find out his reality for you.’ So, I came out seeking him. He got severely wounded, and hastened to die by planting the blade of his sword in the ground directing its sharp end towards his chest between his two breasts. Then he leaned on his sword and killed himself.”

Then Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “A man may seem to the people as if he were doing the deeds of the people of Paradise, while in fact he is from the people of the (Hell) Fire, another may seem to the people as if he were doing the deeds of the people of Hell (Fire), while in fact he is from the people of Paradise.”

(78) CHAPTER. Exhortation to archery (i.e., arrow throwing).

And the Statement of Allâh ﷻ:
“...And make ready against them all you can of power, including steeds of war (tanks, planes, missiles, artillery etc.) to threaten the enemy of Allâh and your enemy...” (V.8:60)

2899. Narrated Salama bin Al-Akwa’ رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ passed by some people of the tribe of Bani Aslam who were practising archery. The Prophet ﷺ said, “O Bani Ismâ’il! Practise archery as your father Ismâ’il was a great archer. Keep on throwing arrows and I am with Bani so-and-so.” So, one of the parties ceased throwing. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “What is the matter with you? Why have you ceased throwing?” They replied, “How should we throw while you are with them (i.e., on their side)?” On that the Prophet said, “Throw, and I am with all of you.”

2900. Narrated Ābū Usaid: On the day (of the battle) of Badr when we stood in rows against (the army of) Quraish and they stood in rows against us, the Prophet said, “When they come near you, throw arrows at them.”

(79) CHAPTER. To play with spears and other similar arms.

2901. Narrated Ābū Hurairah: While some Ethiopians were playing in the presence of the Prophet, ‘Umar came in, picked up a stone and hit them with it. On that the Prophet said, “O ‘Umar! Allow them (to play).” Ma’mar (the subnarrator) added that they were playing in the mosque.

(80) CHAPTER. The shield, and shielding oneself with the shield of his companion.

2902. Narrated Anas b. Mālik: Abū Talḥa and the Prophet used to shield themselves with one shield. Abū Talha was a good archer, and when he threw (his arrows) the Prophet would look at the target of his arrows.

2903. Narrated Sahl: When the helmet of the Prophet was smashed on his head and blood covered his face, and one of his front teeth got broken, ‘Ali brought the water in his shield and Fāṭima (the Prophet’s daughter) washed him. But when she saw that the bleeding increased more by the water, she took a mat, burnt it, and the wound of the Prophet, was filled with its ashes and so the blood stopped oozing out. (See H. 243)

2904. Narrated ‘Umar: The properties of Bani An-Nadir which Allāh had transferred to His Messenger as Fai—booty(1) were not gained by the Muslims with their horses and camels. The properties therefore, belonged especially to Allāh’s Messenger who used to give his family their yearly expenditure and spend what remained thereof on arms and horses to be used in Allāh’s Cause.

(1) (H. 2904) Fai – booty: See glossary.
2905. Narrated 'Ali: I never saw the Prophet saying, “Let my parents sacrifice their lives for you,” to any man after Sa’d [i.e., Sa’d bin Malik (Abi Waqqas)]. I heard him saying (to him), “Throw (the arrows)! Let my parents sacrifice their lives for you.”’

[See Vol.5, Ch.16 and Hadith No.3725]

2906. Narrated 'Aishah: Allâh’s Messenger came to my house while two girls were singing beside me the songs of Bu’âth [a story about the battle between the two tribes of the Ansâr (i.e., Khazraj and Aûs) before Islâm]. The Prophet reclined on the bed and turned his face to the other side. Abû Bakr came and scolded me and said protestingly, “Instruments of Satan in the presence of Allâh’s Messenger?” Allâh’s Messenger turned his face towards him and said, “Leave them.” When Abû Bakr became inattentive, I waved the two girls to go away and they left.

2907. 'Aishah added: It was the day of 'Eid and negroes were playing with leather shields and spears. Either I requested Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ, or he himself asked me whether I would like to see the display. I replied in the affirmative. Then he let me stand behind him and my cheek was touching his cheek and he was saying, “Carry on, O Banî Arfida!” When I got tired, he asked me if that was enough. I replied in the affirmative and he told me to go.

(82) CHAPTER. The straps for suspending swords and the hanging of the sword by the neck.

2908. Narrated Anas ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ was the best and the bravest amongst the people. Once the people of Al-Madîna got terrified at night, so they went in the direction of the noise (that terrified them). The Prophet ﷺ met them (on his way back) after he had found out the cause of the noise. He was riding an unsaddled horse belonging to Abû Talba  and a sword was hanging by his neck, and he was saying, “Don’t be afraid! Don’t be afraid!” He further said, “I found it (i.e., the horse) very fast,” or said, “This horse is very fast.” (Qaṣṭalânî)

(83) CHAPTER. (What has been said regarding) the decoration of swords (with gold and silver etc.).

2909. Narrated Abû Umâma: Some people conquered many countries and their swords were decorated neither with gold nor silver, but they were decorated with leather, lead and iron.
2910. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāhرضي الله عنه that he proceeded in the company of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ towards Najd to participate in a Ghazwa\(^{(1)}\) (holy battle). When Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ returned, he too returned with him. Midday came upon them while they were in a valley having many thorny trees. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and the people dismounted and dispersed to rest in the shade of the trees. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ rested under a tree and hung his sword on it. We all took a nap and suddenly we heard Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ calling us. (We woke up) to see a bedouin with him. The Prophet said, “This bedouin took out my sword while I was sleeping and when I woke up, I found the unsheathed sword in his hand and he challenged me saying, ‘Who will save you from me?’ I said thrice, ‘Allāh.’”\(^{(2)}\) The Prophet ﷺ did not punish him and he was sitting there.

(84) CHAPTER. Whoever hung his sword on a tree at midday nap.

(85) CHAPTER. The wearing of a helmet.

\(^{(2)}\) (H. 2910) Jibril (Gabriel) then hit the bedouin on the hand and let fall the sword which was picked up by Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ forgave the bedouin although he could have killed him on the spot if he had wished. (Qaṣṭalānī, Vol.5).
2911. Narrated Sahl that he was asked about the wound of the Prophet on the day (of the battle) of Uhud. He said, “The face of the Prophet was wounded and one of his front teeth was broken and the helmet over his head was smashed. Fatima washed off the blood while Ali held water. When she saw that bleeding was increasing, she burnt a mat (of date-palm leaves) till it turned into ashes and she filled the wound with those ashes and thus the bleeding ceased.”

2912. Narrated ‘Amr bin Al-Harith: The Prophet did not leave behind him after his death, anything except his arms, his white mule, and a piece of land at Khairar which he left to be given in charity.

2913. Narrated Jabir bin Abdullah that he participated in a Ghazwa (holy battle) in the company of Allah’s Messenger. Midday came upon them while they were in a valley having many thorny trees. The people dispersed to rest in the shade of the thorny trees.

(86) CHAPTER. Whoever does not consider it logical to break the weapons and to slaughter the animals of the deceased.

(87) CHAPTER. The dispersing of the people away from the Imam at midday to rest in the shade of trees.

(1) (Ch. 86) This contradicts the practice of the people of the Pre-Islamic Period who used to break the weapons of their dead chief and kill his animals. Islam abolished such practice. (Fath Al-Bari).
trees. The Prophet ﷺ rested under a tree, hung his sword on it, and then slept. Then he woke up to find near to him, a man whose presence he had not noticed before. The Prophet ﷺ said, “This (man) took my sword (out of its scabbard) and said, ‘Who will save you from me.’ I replied, ‘Allah.’ So, he put the sword back into its scabbard, and you see him sitting here.” Anyhow, the Prophet ﷺ did not punish him.

[See Hadith No.2910]

(88) CHAPTER. What is said regarding spears.

Narrated Ibn ‘Umar that the Prophet ﷺ said, “My livelihood is under the shade of my spear, (1) and he who disobeys my orders will be humiliated by paying Jizya.”(2)

2914. Narrated Abū Qatāda that he was in the company of Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ and when they had covered a portion of the road to Makkah, he and some of the companions lagged behind. The latter were in a state of Ihram (3) while he was not. He saw an onager and rode his horse and requested his companions to give him his lash but they refused. Then he asked them to give

(1) (Ch. 88) “Under the shade of my spear” means, from war booty.
(2) (Ch. 88) Jizya: See glossary.
(3) (H. 2914) Ihram: See the glossary.
him his spear but they refused, so he took it himself, attacked the onager, and killed it. Some of the companions of the Prophet ate of it while some others refused to eat. When they caught up with Allâh’s Messenger they asked him about that, and he said, “That was a meal Allâh fed you with.” (It is also said that Allâh’s Messenger asked, “Have you got something of its meat?”).

(89) CHAPTER. What is said regarding the armour of the Prophet and the coat of mail during the battle.

The Prophet said, “As for Khâlid, he has kept his armour for Allâh’s Cause.”

2915. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet, while in a tent (on the day of the battle of Badr) said, “O Allâh! I request You to fulfil Your Covenant and Your Promise. O Allâh! If Your Will is that none should worship You after today.” Abû Bakr then held him by the hand and said, “This is sufficient, O Allâh’s Messenger! You have appealed to your Lord too pressingly.” The Prophet was clad in his armour at that time. He went out, saying, “Their multitude will be put to flight, and they will show their backs. Nay, but the Hour is their appointed time (for their full recompense), and that Hour will be more grievous and more bitter.” (V.54:45,46)

Khalid said, “That was on the day of the battle of Badr.”

[See Vol. 5. Hadith No.3953].

2916. Narrated 'Aishah: Allâh's Messenger ﷺ died while his (iron) armour was mortgaged to a Jew for thirty ṣâ' of barley.

2917. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The example of a miser and the one who gives in charity, is like the example of two men wearing iron cloaks so tightly that their arms are raised forcibly towards their collar-bones. So, whenever a charitable person intends to give in charity, his cloak spreads over his body so much so that it wipes out his traces,(1) but whenever the miser intends to give in charity, the rings (of the iron cloak) come closer to each other and press over his body, and his hands get connected to his collar-bones.”(2) Abu Hurairah heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “The miser then tries to widen it but in vain.”

(2) (H. 2917) When a miser thinks of paying in charity, he feels dispirited and bored and remains clinging to his miserliness.
(90) CHAPTER. The (wearing of a) cloak on journeys and in war.

2918. Narrated Al-Mughira bin Shu’ba: Allah’s Messenger went out to answer the call of nature and on his return I brought some water for him. He performed the ablution while he was wearing a Sham cloak. He rinsed his mouth and washed his nose by putting water in it and then blowing it out, and then washed his face. Then he tried to take out his hands through his sleeves but they were tight, so he took them out from underneath, washed them and passed wet hands over his head and over his leather socks.

(91) CHAPTER. The wearing of silk in war.

2919. Narrated Anas: The Prophet allowed ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin ‘Aûf and Az-Zubair to wear silken shirts because they had a skin disease causing itching.

2920. Narrated Anas: ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin ‘Aûf and Az-Zubair complained to the Prophet, i.e., about the lice (that caused itching) so he allowed them to wear silken clothes. I saw them wearing such clothes in a Ghazwa (holy battle).
2921. Narrated Anas: The Prophet allowed 'Abdur-Rahmân bin 'Aûf and Az-Zubair bin Al-'Awwâm to wear silk.

2922. Narrated Anas: (Wearing of silk) was allowed to them (i.e., 'Abdur-Rahmân and Az-Zubair) because they suffered from itching.

(92) CHAPTER. What is said about the knife.

2923. Narrated Umaiyya Ad-Ḍâmri: I saw the Prophet eating of a shoulder (of a sheep) by cutting from it; and then he was called to Salât (prayer) and he offered Salât (prayer) without repeating his ablution.

Narrated Az-Zuhri as above (Hadîth No.2923) and added that the Prophet put the knife down.

(93) CHAPTER. What is said about the fighting against Ar-Rüm (the Byzantines).
2924. Narrated Khalid bin Ma‘dan that ‘Umar bin Al-Aswad Al-‘Ansi told him that he went to ‘Ubada bin As-Samit while he was staying in his house of Himis with (his wife) Umm Haram. ‘Umar said: Umm Haram informed us that she heard the Prophet saying, “Paradise will be granted to the first batch of my followers who will undertake a naval expedition.” Umm Haram added, “I said, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! Will I be amongst them?’ He replied, ‘You are amongst them.’ The Prophet then said, ‘The first army amongst my followers who will invade Caesar’s city will be forgiven their sins.’ I asked, ‘Will I be one of them, O Allah’s Messenger?’ He replied in the negative.”

(94) CHAPTER. Fighting against the Jews.

2925. Narrated Abdullah bin Umar: Allah’s Messenger said, “You (Muslims) will fight against the Jews till some of them will hide behind stones. The stones will (betray them) saying, ‘O Abdullah (i.e., slave of Allah)! There is a Jew hiding behind me; so kill him.’”

2926. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “The Hour will not be established until you fight against the Jews, and the stone behind which a Jew will be hiding will say, ‘O Muslim! There is a Jew hiding behind me, so kill him.’”
(95) CHAPTER. Fighting against the Turks.

2927. Narrated 'Amr bin Taghlib: The Prophet ﷺ said, “One of the portents of the Hour is that you will fight against people wearing shoes made of hair; and one of the portents of the Hour is that you will fight against broad-faced people whose faces will look like shields coated with leather.”

2928. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The Hour will not be established until you fight against the Turks; people with small eyes, red faces, and flat noses. Their faces will look like shields coated with leather. The Hour will not be established till you fight against people wearing shoes made of hair.”

(96) CHAPTER. Fighting against people wearing shoes made of hair.

2929. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The Hour will not be established till you fight against people...”
wearing shoes made of hair. And the Hour will not be established till you fight against people whose faces look like shields coated with leather." Abū Hurairah added, “They will be small-eyed, flat-nosed, and their faces will look like shields coated with leather.”

(97) CHAPTER. Whoever arranged his companions at the time of defeat, and got down from his riding animal and requested Allāh for help.

2930. Narrated Abū 'Ishaq: A man asked Al-Barā’, “O Abū 'Umrā! Did you all flee on the day (of the battle) of Hunain?” He replied, “No, by Allāh! Allāh's Messenger did not flee, but his young unarmed companions passed by the archers of the tribe of Hawāzīn and Bānī Naṣr, whose arrows hardly missed a target, and they threw arrows at them hardly missing a shot. So, the Muslims retreated towards the Prophet while he was riding his white mule which was being led by his cousin Abū Sufyān bin Al-Ḥārith bin ‘Abdul Muttalib. The Prophet dismounted and invoked Allāh for victory; then he said, ‘I am the Prophet, without a lie; I am the son of ‘Abdul Muṭṭalib,’ and then he arranged his companions in rows.”
(98) CHAPTER. To invoke Allah to defeat and shake Al-Muṣḥrikūn (polytheists, idolaters, pagans).

2931. Narrated ‘Ali: When it was the day of the battle of Al-Ahzab (i.e., the Confederates), Allah’s Messenger said, “O Allah! Fill their (i.e., the infidels’) houses and graves with fire as they busied us so much that we did not perform the middle Salāt (prayer) (i.e., ‘Asr prayer) till the sun had set.”

“O Allah! Save Salama bin Hishâm.
O Allah! Save Al-Walid bin Al-Walid.
O Allah! Save ‘Ayyāsh bin Rabi’a.
O Allah! Save the weak Muslims.
O Allah! Be very hard on Muṣṭar tribe.
O Allah! Afflict them with years (of drought or famine) similar to the (drought or famine) years of the time of (Prophet) Yūsuf (Joseph).”

2933. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Abi Aūfa: Allah’s Messenger invoked evil upon Al-Muṣḥrikūn (polytheists, idolaters, pagans) on the day (of the battle) of Al-Ahzāb, saying, “O Allah! The Revealer of the Holy Book, the Swift-Taker of Accounts, O Allah, defeat Al-Ahzāb (the Confederates), O Allah, defeat them and shake them.”
56 – THE BOOK OF JIHĀD (Fighting for Allāh’s Cause)

2934. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: Once the Prophet was offering the Šalāt (prayers) in the shade of the Ka’bah. Abū Jahl and some Quraisḥi men sent somebody to bring the abdominal contents of a she camel which had been slaughtered somewhere in Makkah, and when he brought them, they put them over the Prophet. Then Fāṭima (i.e., the Prophet’s daughter) came and threw them away from him, and he said, “O Allāh! Destroy (Al-Musjirikūn of) Quraisḥ; O Allāh! Destroy Quraisḥ; O Allāh! Destroy Quraisḥ,” naming especially Abū Jahl bin Ḥishām, ‘Utbā bin Rabī‘a, Ṣhaibā bin Rabī‘a, Al-Walīd bin ‘Utbā, Uba‘ī or (Umaiyya) bin Khalaf and ‘Uqba bin Abī Mu‘āṭ. The narrator, ‘Abdullāh added, “I saw them all killed and thrown in a well at Badr.”

2935. Narrated ‘Ā’ishah: Once, the Jews came to the Prophet and said, “Death be upon you.” So I cursed them. The Prophet said, “What is the matter”? I said, “Have you not heard what they said?”
The Prophet ﷺ said, “Have you not heard what I replied (to them)? (I said), ‘The same is upon you.’” (1)

(99) CHAPTER. Can a Muslim preach to the people of the Scriptures, or teach them the Holy Book?

2936 Narrated ‘Abdullah bin Abbas رضي الله عنهما: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ wrote a letter to Caesar saying, “If you reject Islam, you will be responsible for the sins of the peasants (i.e., your people).”

(100) CHAPTER. To invoke Allah to bestow guidance upon Al-Mushrikūn (polytheists, idolaters, pagans) in order to attract them.

2937 Narrated Abu Hurairah رضي الله عنه: Tufail bin ‘Amr Ad-Dausi and his companions came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! The people of the tribe of Daus disobeyed and refused to follow you; so invoke Allah against them.”

(1) (H. 2935) There is great similarity between the pronunciations of the Arabic words meaning “peace” and “death”. The first is “As-Salamu” and the second is “As-Samu”. The Jews, instead of saying “As-Salāmū ‘Alaikum” said, “As-Sāmu ‘Alaikum”, intending to invoke evil upon the Prophet ﷺ rather than to greet him, but the Prophet ﷺ noticed what they had said and invoked evil upon them in his turn. They were the losers, for Allah would accept the Prophet’s invocation and reject theirs.
The people said, “The tribe of Daus is ruined.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “O Allah! Give guidance to the people of Daus, and let them embrace Islam.”

(101) CHAPTER. (What is said regarding the invitation of the Jews and Christians (to Islam), and for what Muslims should declare war against them and what the Prophet ﷺ wrote to Khusrau and Caesar. The invitation to Islam is essential before declaring war.

2938. Narrated Anas ﷺ: When the Prophet ﷺ intended to write a letter to the ruler of the Byzantines, he was told that those people did not read any letter unless it was stamped with a seal. So, the Prophet ﷺ got a silver ring — as if I were just looking at its white glitter on his hand — and stamped on it the expression “Muḥammad, the Messenger of Allāh”.

2939. Narrated `Abdullāh bin ‘Abbās ﷺ: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ sent his letter to Khusrau and ordered his messenger to hand it over to the Governor of Bahrain who was to hand it over to Khusrau. So, when Khusrau read the letter he tore it. [Sa'id bin Al-Musaiyab said, “The Prophet ﷺ then invoked Allāh to disperse them with full dispersion, (i.e., destroy Khusrau and his followers).”]
(102) CHAPTER. The invitation of Prophet (Muhammad) ﷺ to the people to embrace Islam, and to believe in his Prophethood and not to take each other as Lords instead of Allah. The Statement of Allah ﻪ تعالى:

“It is not (possible) for any human being whom Allah has given the Book.” (V.3:79)

2940.Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Abbas رضي الله عنهما: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ wrote to Caesar and invited him to Islam, and sent him his letter with Diyya Al-Kalbi whom Allah’s Messenger ﷺ ordered to hand it over to the Governor of Basrah, who would forward it to Caesar. Caesar, as a sign of gratitude to Allah, had travelled from Himṣ to Ilyā (Jerusalem) when Allah had granted him victory over the Persian forces. So, when the letter of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ reached Caesar, he said after reading it, “Seek for me any one of his people (Arabs of Quraish tribe) if present here, in order to ask him about Allah’s Messenger ﷺ.”

2941. Ibn Abbas added: At that time Abû Sufyân bin Harb was in Sham with some men from Quraish who had come (to Sham) as merchants during the truce that had been concluded between Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and the infidels of Quraish. Abū Sufyān said, “Caesar’s messenger found us somewhere in Sham, so he took me and my companions to Ilyā and we were admitted into Caesar’s court to find him sitting in his royal court wearing a crown and surrounded by the senior dignitaries of the Byzantines. He said to his translator, ‘Ask them who amongst them is closely related to the man who claims to be a Prophet.’” Abū Sufyān added, “I replied, ‘I am the nearest relative to him.’ He asked, ‘What degree of relationship do you have with him?’ I replied, ‘He is my cousin,’ and there was none of Banī ‘Abd Manāf in the caravan except myself. Caesar said, ‘Let him come nearer.’ He then ordered that my companions stand behind me, near my shoulder and said to his translator, ‘Tell his companions that I am going to ask this man about the man who claims to be a Prophet. If he tells a lie, they should contradict him immediately.’” Abū Sufyān added, “By Allāh! Had it not been shameful that my companions label me a liar, I would not have spoken the truth about him (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ) when he asked me. But I considered it shameful to be called a liar by my companions. So, I told the truth. He then said to his translator, ‘Ask him what is that man’s family status among you?’ I replied, ‘He belongs to a noble family amongst us.’ He said, ‘Have anybody else amongst you ever claimed the same before him?’ I replied, ‘No’. He said, ‘Had you ever blamed him for telling lies before he claimed what he claimed?’ I replied, ‘No.’ He said, ‘Was anybody amongst his ancestors a king?’ I replied, ‘No.’ He said, ‘Do the noble or the poor follow him?’ I replied, ‘It is the poor who follow him.’ He said, ‘Are they increasing or decreasing (day by day)?’ I replied, ‘They are increasing.’ He said, 'Does anybody amongst those who embrace his (the Prophet's) religion become displeased and then discard his religion?' I replied, 'No.' He said, 'Does he ever betray or prove treacherous to his covenants?' I replied, 'No, but we are now at truce with him, and we are afraid that he may betray us.'” Abū Sufyān added, “Other than the last sentence, I could not say anything against him. Caesar then asked, 'Have you ever had a battle with him?' I replied, 'Yes.' He said, 'What was the outcome of your battles with him?' I replied, 'The result was undecided; the victory is shared by us in turns.' He said, 'What does he order you to do?' I said, 'He tells us to worship Allāh Alone, and not to worship others along with Him, and to leave all that our forefathers used to worship. He orders us to offer ʿSalāt (prayer), give in charity, be chaste, keep promises and return what is entrusted to us.' When I had said that, Caesar said to his translator, 'Say to him: I ask you about his lineage and your reply was that he belonged to a noble family. In fact, all the Messengers came from the noblest lineage of their nations. Then I questioned you whether anybody else amongst you had claimed such a thing, and your reply was in the negative. If the answer had been in the affirmative, I would have thought that this man was following a claim that had been said before him. When I asked you whether he was ever blamed for telling lies, your reply was in the negative, so I took it for granted that a person who did not tell a lie about (others) the people, could never tell a lie about Allāh. Then I asked you whether any of his ancestors was a king. Your reply was in the negative, and if it had been in the affirmative, I would have thought that this man wanted to take back his ancestral kingdom. When I asked you whether the rich or the poor people followed him, you replied that it was the poor who followed him. In fact, such are the followers of the Messengers. Then I asked you whether his followers were increasing or decreasing. You replied that they were increasing. In fact, this is the result of True Faith till it is complete (in all respects). I asked you whether there was anybody who, after embracing his religion, became displeased and discarded his religion; your reply was in the negative. In fact, this is the sign of True Faith, for when its cheerfulness enters and mixes in the hearts completely, nobody will be displeased with it. I asked you whether he had ever betrayed or proved treacherous to his covenants; you replied in the negative. And such are the Messengers; they never betray or prove treacherous to their covenants. When I asked you whether you fought with him and he fought with you, you replied that he did, and that sometimes he was victorious and sometimes you. Indeed, such are the Messengers; they are put to trials and the final victory is always theirs. Then I asked you what he ordered you. You replied that he ordered you to worship Allâh Alone, and not to worship others along with Him, to leave all that your forefathers used to worship, to offer Salâr (prayer), to speak the truth, to be chaste, to be faithful to one's covenants and to return what is entrusted to you. These are really the qualities of a Prophet who, I knew (from the previous Scriptures) would appear, but I did not know that he would be from amongst you. If what you say is true, he will very soon occupy the earth under my feet, and if I knew that I would reach him, definitely, I would go immediately to meet him; and were I with him, then I would certainly wash his feet.'" Abû Sufyâan added, "Caesar then asked for the letter of Allâh's Messenger ﷺ and it was read. Its contents were:

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. (This letter is) from Muhammad, the slave of Allah, and His Messenger, to Heraclius, the ruler of the Byzantines. Peace be upon him, who follows the (true) guidance. Now then, I invite you to Islam (i.e., surrender to Allah), embrace Islam and you will be safe; embrace Islam and Allah will bestow on you a double reward. But if you reject this invitation of Islam, you shall be responsible for misleading the peasants (i.e., your nation).

‘O people of the Scriptures (Jews and Christians)! Come to a word that is just between us and you, that we worship none but Allah, and that we associate no partners with Him, and that none of us shall take others as lords besides Allah. Then if they turn away, say: Bear witness that we are Muslims.’” (V.3:64)

Abū Sufyān added, “When Heraclius had finished his speech, there was a great hue and cry caused by the Byzantinian royalties surrounding him, and there was so much noise that I did not understand what they said. So, we were turned out of the court. When I went out with my companions and we were alone, I said to them, ‘Verily, Ibn Abī Kabsha’s (i.e., the Prophet’s) affair has become so prominent that even the king of Banī Al-Asfar (Byzantines) is afraid of him.’” Abū Sufyān added, “By Allah, I remained in a state of humility and was sure that his religion would be victorious till Allah opened my heart for Islam, though I disliked (i.e., embraced Islam).”

(1) (H. 2941) The name Ibn Abī Kabsha was said by Abū Sufyān just to slight the Prophet ﷺ, for this was not one of the Prophet’s names.
2942. Narrated Sahl bin Sa‘d that he heard the Prophet ﷺ on the day (of the battle) of Khaibar saying, “I will give the flag to a person at whose hands Allah will grant victory.” So, the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ got up, wishing eagerly to see to whom the flag will be given, and everyone of them wished to be given the flag. But the Prophet ﷺ asked for ‘Ali. Someone informed him that he was suffering from eye-trouble. So, he ordered them to bring ‘Ali in front of him. Then the Prophet ﷺ spat in his eyes and his eyes were cured immediately as if he never had any eye-trouble. ‘Ali said, “We will fight with them (i.e., infidels) till they become like us (i.e., Muslims).” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Be patient, till you face them and invite them to Islam, and inform them of what Allah has enjoined upon them. By Allah! If a single person embraces Islam at your hands (i.e., through you), that will be better for you than the red camels.”

[See Hadith No.2975]

2943. Narrated Anas: Whenever Allah’s Messenger ﷺ attacked some people, he would never attack them till it was dawn. If he heard the Adhãn i.e., call for Salât (prayer) he would delay the fight, and if he did not hear the Adhãn, he would attack them immediately after dawn. We reached Khaibar at night.

2945. Narrated Anas: The Prophet set out for Khaibar and reached there at night. He used not to attack if he reached the people at night, till the day broke. So, when the day dawned, the Jews came out with their bags and spades. When they saw the Prophet, they said, “Muhammad (ﷺ) and his army!” The Prophet said, “Allahu-Akbar! and Khaibar is ruined, for whenever we approach a nation (i.e., enemy to fight) then it will be a miserable morning for those who have been warned.”

2946. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “I have been ordered (by Allah) to fight against the people till they say La ilāha illāllāh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah), and whoever said La ilāha illāllāh, he saved his life and property from me except for Islamic law, and his accounts will be with Allah (either to punish him or to forgive him)”. (See H. 25, 1399)
(103) CHAPTER. Concealing the true destination of a Ghazwa by using an equivocation which indicates apparently that one is going to a different destination; and the preference of Thursday for journeys (by the Prophet).

2947. Narrated Ka'b bin Malik: Whenever Allah’s Messenger intended to lead a Ghazwa, he would use an equivocation from which one would understand that he was going to a different destination.

2948. Narrated Ka'b bin Malik: Whenever Allah’s Messenger intended to carry out a Ghazwa, he would use an equivocation to conceal his real destination, till it was the Ghazwa of Tabuk which Allah’s Messenger carried out in very hot weather, as he was going to face a very long journey through a wasteland, and was to meet and attack a large number of enemies. So, he made the situation clear to the Muslims so that they might prepare themselves accordingly and get ready to conquer their enemy. The Prophet informed them of the destination he was heading for.

2949. Ka'b bin Malik used to say, “Scarcely did Allah’s Messenger set out for a journey on a day other than Thursday.”
2950. Narrated Ka'b bin Malik: The Prophet set out on Thursday for the Gharza of Tabuk and he used to prefer to set out on Thursday.

2952. Narrated Aishah: We set out in the company of Allâh's Messenger five days before the end of Dhul-Qa'da, intending to perform Hajj only. When we approached Makkah, Allâh's Messenger

(104) CHAPTER. Setting out after midday.

(105) CHAPTER. Setting out in the last part of the month.

Narrated Ibn 'Abbâs: The Prophet set out from Al-Madina five days before the end of Dhul-Qa'da and reached Makkah on the fourth of Dhul-Hijjah. ordered those who did not have the Hady (i.e., an animal for sacrifice) with them, to perform the Tawaf around the Ka'bah, and (Sa'iy) between As-Safa and Al-Marwa and then finish their Ihram. Beef was brought to us on the day of (i.e., the days of slaughtering) and I asked, “What is this?” Somebody said, “Allah’s Messenger ﷺ has slaughtered (a cow) on behalf of his wives.”

(106) CHAPTER. Travelling in Ramadān.

2953. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās رضي الله عنهما:
Once, the Prophet ﷺ set out in the month of Ramadān. He observed Saum (fasting) till he reached a place called Kadid where he broke his fast.

(107) CHAPTER. Bidding farewell.

2954. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ:
Allah’s Messenger ﷺ sent us on a military expedition telling us, “If you find such and such persons (he named two men from Quraish), burn them with fire.” Then we came to bid him farewell, when we wanted to... set out, he said, “Previously I ordered you to burn so-and-so and so-and-so with fire, but as punishment with fire is done by none except Allâh, if you capture them, kill them, (instead).”

(108) CHAPTER. Listening to and obeying the Imam (i.e., Muslim ruler) (if he abides by Allâh’s Orders).

2955. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet said, “It is obligatory for one to listen to and obey (the Muslim ruler’s orders) unless these orders involve one in disobedience (to Allâh); but if an act of disobedience (to Allâh) is imposed, one should not listen to or obey it.”

(109) CHAPTER. The Imam (i.e., Muslim ruler) should be defended (by the Muslims) and he is to be taken as their protector.

2956. Narrated Abû Hurairah: that he heard Allâh’s Messenger saying, “We are the last but will be the foremost (to enter Paradise).” (See H. 238, 876, 896) 2957. The Prophet ﷺ added, “He who obeys me, obeys Allah, and he who disobeys me, disobeys Allah. He who obeys the Muslim chief, obeys me; and he who disobeys the Muslim chief, disobeys me. The Imam (Muslim ruler) is like a shelter for whose safety the Muslims should fight and they should seek protection with him. If the Imam (Muslim ruler) orders people to be dutiful to Allah and fear Him and rules justly, then he will be rewarded for that; and if he does the opposite, he will be responsible for that.”

(110) CHAPTER. To give a Bai'a (pledge) for not to flee during a battle.

Some said, “(To give the Bai'a pledge) for death,” according to the Statement of Allah ﷻ:

“Indeed, ‘Allah was pleased with the believers…” (V.48:18)

2958. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: When we reached (Hudaibiya) in the next year (of the treaty of Hudaibiya), not even two men amongst us agreed unanimously as to which was the tree under which we had given the Bai'a (pledge) and that was out of Allah’s Mercy. (1) (The subnarrator asked Nafi’, “For what did the Prophet ﷺ take their Bai'a (pledge), was it for death?” Nafi’ replied “No, but he took their Bai'a (pledge) for to be patient.”)

2959. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin Zaid: that during the time (of the battle) of Al-Harra a person came to him and said, “Ibn

(1) (H. 2958) The narrator thanks Allah for disabling them to recognize the tree, lest people should take it as something sacred because of the good that started under it when the first group of Ansar embraced Islam.
Hanẓala is taking the Bai'a (pledge) from the people for death.” He said, “I will never give a Bai'a (pledge) for such a thing to anyone after Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ.”

2960. Narrated Yazid bin ‘Ubaid: Salama ẓ u said, “I gave the Bai'a (pledge) (Ar-Radwān) to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and then I moved to the shade of a tree. When the number of people around the Prophet ﷺ diminished, he said, ‘O Ibn Al-Akwa’! Will you not give to me the Bai'a (pledge)?’ I replied, ‘O Allāh’s Messenger! I have already given to you the Bai'a (pledge).’ He said, ‘Do it again.’ So I gave the Bai'a (pledge) for the second time.” I asked “O Abū Muslim! For what did you give the Bai'a (pledge) on that day?” He replied, “We gave the Bai'a (pledge) for death.”

2961. Narrated Anas ḥ: On the day (of the battle) of the Trench, the Ansār were saying, “We are those who have given the Bai'a (pledge) to Muhammad ﷺ for Jihad (for ever) as long as we live.” The Prophet ﷺ replied to them, “O Allāh! There is no life except the life of the Hereafter. So, honour the Ansār and emigrants with Your Blessings and Generosity.”

2962, 2963. Narrated Mujāshi: My brother and I came to the Prophet ﷺ and I requested him to take the Bai'a (pledge) from us for emigration. He said, “Emigration has passed away with its people.” (1) I asked, “For what will you take the Bai’a (pledge) from us then?” He said, “I will take [the Bai’a (pledge)] for Islam and Jihad.”

(111) CHAPTER. The Imam should order the people to do only those things that are within their ability.

2964. Narrated ‘Abdullah: Today a man came to me and asked a question which I did not know how to answer. He said, “Tell me, if a wealthy active man, well-equipped with arms, goes out on military expeditions with our chiefs, and orders us to do such things as we cannot do (should we obey him?)” I replied, “By Allāh, I do not know what to reply you, except that we were in the company of the Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم and he used to order us to do a thing once only till we finished it. And no doubt, everyone among you will remain in a good state as long as he obeys Allāh. If one is in doubt as to the legality of something, he should ask somebody who would satisfy him, but soon will come a time when you will not find such a man. By Him, except Whom none has the right to be worshipped, I see that the example of what has passed of this life (to what remains thereof) is like a pond whose fresh water has been used up and nothing remains but muddy water.”

(1) (H. 2962, 2963) Emigration was no longer required after the conquest of Makkah.
(112) CHAPTER. If the Prophet had not started fighting during the early hours of the day, he would delay it till the sun had declined (i.e., after midday).

2965. Narrated Sālim Abū An-Naḍr, the freed slave of ‘Umar bin ‘Ubaydullāh who was ‘Umar’s clerk: ‘Abdullāh bin Ābī Aūfa wrote him (i.e., ‘Umar) a letter that contained the following:

Allāh’s Messenger during some of his holy battles waited till the sun had declined.

2966. And then he (Allāh’s Messenger) got up among the people and said, “O people! Do not wish to meet the enemy (in a battle) and ask Allāh to save you (from calamities), but if you should meet the enemy, then be patient and let it be known to you that Paradise is under the shades of swords.” He then said “O Allāh! The Revealer of the (Holy) Book, the Mover of the clouds, and Defeater of Al-Ahzâb (i.e., the Confederates of infidels), defeat them (infidels) and bestow victory upon us.”

(113) CHAPTER. Asking the permission of the Imam (if one wishes not to participate in a holy battle), as Allāh’s Statement indicates:

“The true believers are only those who believe in (the Oneness of) Allāh and His Messenger (Muḥammad), and when they are with him on some common matter, they do not go away unless they have asked his permission. Verily! Those who ask your permission... (to the end of verse).”
(V.24:62)

2967. Narrated Jâbir bin 'Abdullãh رضي الله عنهما: I participated in a Gḥazwa along with Allah's Messenger ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ met me (on the way) while I was riding a camel of ours used for irrigation, and it had got so tired that it could hardly walk. The Prophet ﷺ asked me, “What is wrong with the camel?” I replied, “It has got tired.” So, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ came from behind it and rebuked it and prayed for it so it started surpassing the other camels and going ahead of them. Then he asked me, “How do you find your camel (now)?” I replied, “I find it quite well, as it has received your blessings.” He said, “Will you sell it to me?” I felt shy (to refuse his offer) though it was the only camel for irrigation we had. So, I said, “Yes.” He said, “Sell it to me then.” I sold it to him on the condition that I should keep on riding it till I reached Al-Madîna. Then I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I am a bridegroom,” and requested him to allow me to go home. He allowed me, and I set out for Al-Madîna before the people till I reached Al-Madîna, where I met my uncle, who asked me about the camel and I informed him all about it and he blamed me for that. When I took the permission of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, he asked me whether I had married a virgin or a matron and I replied that I had married a matron. He said, “Why hadn't you married a virgin who would have played with you, and you would have played with her?” I replied, “O Allah’s Messenger! My father died (or was martyred) and I have some young sisters, so I felt it not proper that I should marry a young girl like them who would neither teach them manners nor serve them. So, I have married a matron so that she may serve them. and teach them manners." When Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ arrived in Al-Madina, I took the camel to him the next morning and he gave me its price and gave me the camel itself as well.

(114) CHAPTER. The participation in Jihad by one who has recently married.

Jâbir narrated a Hadîth from the Prophet ﷺ related to this chapter. (See H. 2967)

(115) CHAPTER. Participation in Jihad after the consummation of marriage.

Abû Hurairah narrated a Hadîth from the Prophet ﷺ related to this chapter.

(116) CHAPTER. The setting out of the Imam, before the people at the time of fright.

2968. Narrated Anas bin Malik رضي الله عنه: Once there was a feeling of fright at Al-Madina, so Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ rode a horse belonging to Abû Ţalîha and (on his return) he said, “We have not seen anything (to be afraid of), but we found this horse very fast.”

(117) CHAPTER. To be quick and to make the horse gallop at the time of fright.
2969.Narrated Anas bin Malik Z:

Once the people got frightened, so Allah's Messenger rode a slow horse belonging to Abü Talha, and he set out all alone, making the horse gallop. Then the people rode, making their horses gallop after him. On his return he said, "Don't be afraid (there is nothing to be afraid of), (and I have found) this horse a very fast one." That horse was never excelled in running henceforward.

(Qastalānī, Vol.5)

(118) CHAPTER. Setting out alone at a time of fright.

(119) CHAPTER. The wages given to somebody to fight on somebody else's behalf, and the riding animals presented to be used in Allah's Cause.

Mujāhid said, "Once I said to Ibn 'Umar, 'Let us proceed for Jihad.' Ibn 'Umar replied, 'I would like to support you with some of my money.' I replied, 'Allah has given me enough.' He said, 'Your wealth is for you, but I like that some of my money be spent in this cause.'"

'Umar said, "Some people take money (from the Muslim's Treasury) to strive in Allah's Cause, but they don't strive. So, if someone does so, we have the right to take back whatever he has taken."

Tawûs and Mujāhid said, "If something is given to you, so that you may strive in Allah's Cause, then do whatever you like with it and keep it with your family."

2970. Narrated 'Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb:

I gave a horse to be used in Allah's Cause, but later on I saw it being... sold. I asked the Prophet ﷺ whether I could buy it. He said, “Don’t buy it and don’t take back your gift of charity.”

2971. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: ‘Umar gave a horse to be used in Allāh’s Cause, but later on he found it being sold. So, he intended to buy it and asked Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ who said, “Don’t buy it and don’t take back your gift of charity.”

2972. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Were it not for the fear that it would be difficult for my followers, I would not have remained behind any Sārīya (army-unit going for Jihād in Allāh’s Cause), but I don’t have riding camels and have no other means of conveyance to carry them on, and it is hard for me that my companions should remain behind me. No doubt I wish I could fight in Allāh’s Cause and be martyred and come back to life again and then again to be martyred and then come back to life once more.” (See H. 36, 2797)

(120) CHAPTER. The labourer (whose services are hired for the purpose of Jihād).

Al-Ḥasan and Ibn Sirin state that a labourer should be given a share from the war booty. ‘Āṭiyya bin Qais hired a horse for half of its share (of the war booty). The share of the horse amounted to four hundred Dinâr, so he retained two hundred and gave two hundred to the owner of the horse.

2973. Narrated Ya’la b. Ziyâ: I participated in the Ghâzwâ of Tabuk along with Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ and I gave a young camel to be ridden in Jihâd and that was, to me, one of my best deeds. Then I employed a labourer who quarrelled with another person. One of them bit the hand of the other, and the latter drew his hand from the mouth of the former; pulling out his front tooth. Then the former instituted a suit against the latter before the Prophet ﷺ who rejected that suit saying, “Do you expect him to put (forward) his hand for you to snap as a male camel snaps?”

(121) CHAPTER. What has been said regarding the flag of the Prophet ﷺ.

2974. Narrated Thâ‘labâ b. Abî Mâlik Al-Qurâzî: When Qais b. Sa’d Al-Ansâri ﷺ who used to carry the flag of the Prophet ﷺ intended to perform Hajj, he combed his hair.

2975. Narrated Salâma b. Al-Akwa’: ‘Allâh ﷺ remained behind the Prophet ﷺ during the battle of Khaibar as he was suffering from some eye trouble but then he said, “How should I stay behind Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ?” So, he set out till he joined the Prophet ﷺ. On the eve of the day of the conquest of Khaibar, Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, "(No doubt) I will give the flag" or said, "tomorrow, a man whom Allāh and His Messenger love" or said, "who loves Allāh and His Messenger will take the flag. Allāh will bestow victory upon him." Suddenly 'Alī joined us though we were not expecting him. The people said, "Here is 'Alī." So, Allāh's Messenger gave the flag to him and Allāh bestowed victory upon him.

2976. Narrated Nāfi' bin Jubair: I heard Al-‘Abbās telling Az-Zubair, "The Prophet ordered you to fix the flag here."

(122) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet: I have been made victorious for a distance of one month journey with terror (cast in the hearts of the enemy).

The Statement of Allāh:
“We shall cast terror into the hearts of those who disbelieve…” (V.3:151)

2977. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh's Messenger said, "I have been sent with the shortest expressions bearing the widest meanings, and I have been made victorious with terror (cast in the hearts of the enemy), and while I was sleeping, the keys of the treasures of the world were brought to me and put in my hand." Abū Hurairah added: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ has left the world; and now you people are bringing out those treasures (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ did not benefit by them).

2978. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās RA: Abū Sufyān said, “Heraclius sent for me when I was in ‘Ilyā (Jerusalem). Then he asked for the letter of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and when he had finished its reading, there was a great hue and cry around him and the voices grew louder and we were asked to quit the place. When we were turned out, I said to my companions, ‘The cause of Ibn Abī Kabsha(1) has become so prominent that even the king of Bānî Al-Asfar is afraid of him’.”

(123) CHAPTER. Providing oneself with food when going on a military expedition.

And the Statement of Allāh ﷻ:

“...And take a provision (with you) for the journey, but the best provision is At-Taqwa (piety, righteousness).” (V.2:197)

2979. Narrated Asmā’ bint Abū Bakr RA: I prepared the journey-food for Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ in Abū Bakr’s house when he intended to emigrate to Al-Madīna.

(1) (Ch. 123) Taqī and Al-Muttaqūn: means pious and righteous persons who fear Allāh much (abstain from all kinds of sins and evil deeds which Allāh has forbidden) and love Allāh much (perform all kinds of good deeds which Allāh has ordained).
(2) (H. 2978) Abī Kabsha was not the father of the Prophet ﷺ but it was a mockery done by Abū Sufyān out of hostility against Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ.
I could not find anything to tie the food-container and the water-skin with. So, I said to Abū Bakr, “By Allāh, I do not find anything to tie (these things) with except my waistbelt.” He said, “Cut it into two pieces and tie the water-skin with one piece and the food-container with the other, [the subnarrator added, “She did accordingly and for that reason she was named Dḥāt-\(\text{un-Nīṭaqāin}\) (i.e., the owner of two belts)].”

2980. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh:
During the lifetime of the Prophet we used to take the meat of sacrificed animals (as journey-food) to Al-Madīnah.

[See Vol. 7, Hadīth No. 5567]

2981. Narrated Suwaid bin An-Nu'mān:
that he went out in the company of the Prophet during the year of Khaibar (campaign) till they reached a place called Aṣ-Ṣāḥbā', which is in the lower part of Khaibar. They offered the 'Aṣr prayer (there) and the Prophet asked for the food. Nothing but Sawīq\(^{(1)}\) was brought to the Prophet. So, they chewed it and ate it and drank water. After that the Prophet got up, washed his mouth, and they too washed their mouths and then offered the Salāt (prayer).

2982. Narrated Salama: Once the journey-food of the people ran short and they were in great need. So, they came to the Prophet to take his permission for slaughtering their camels, and he permitted them. Then ‘Umar met them and they informed him about it. He said, “What will sustain you after your camels (are finished)?”

Then ‘Umar went to the Prophet and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! What will sustain them after their camels (are finished)?” Allah’s Messenger said, “Make an announcement amongst the people that they should bring all their remaining food (to me).” (They brought it and) the Prophet invoked Allah and asked for His Blessings for it. Then he asked them to bring their food utensils and the people started filling their food utensils with their hands till they were satisfied. Allah’s Messenger then said, “I testify that La ilaha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah) and I am the Messenger of Allah.”

(124) CHAPTER. To carry the journey-food on one’s shoulder.

2983. Narrated Wahb bin Kaisan: Jâbir bin ‘Abdullah said, “We set out, and we were three hundred men, carrying our journey-food on our shoulders. Then we began to eat a single date each per day.”

A man asked (Jâbir), “O Abû ‘Abdullah! How could a person be satisfied with a single date?” Jâbir replied, “We realised the value of that one date when we could not even have that much till we reached the seashore, when all of a sudden we saw a huge fish cast by the sea. So, we ate of it as much as we need.”
(125) CHAPTER. The sitting of a woman behind her brother as a companion-rider.

2984. Narrated ‘Aishah that she said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Your companions are returning with the reward of both Hajj and ‘Umra, while I am returning with (the reward of) Hajj only.” He said to her, “Go, and let ‘Abdur-Rahmān (i.e., your brother) make you sit behind him (on the animal).” So, he ordered ‘Abdur-Rahmān to let her perform ‘Umra from At-Tan‘im. Then the Prophet waited for her at the higher region of Makkah till she returned (after performing ‘Umra).

2985. Narrated ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Abī Bakr Aṣ-Ṣiddīq: The Prophet ordered me to let ‘Aishah sit behind me (on the animal) and to let her perform ‘Umra from At-Tan‘im.

(126) CHAPTER. The sitting of two men together over a riding animal in military expeditions and in the Hajj.

2986. Narrated Anas: I was riding behind Abū Ṭalḥa (on the same riding animal) and (the Prophet’s companions) were reciting Talbiya\(^1\) aloud for both Hajj and Umra.

(127) CHAPTER. The sitting of two men together on a donkey.

2987. Narrated ‘Urwa on the authority of Usâma bin Zaid: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ rode a donkey, on which there was a saddle covered by a velvet sheet, and let ’Umar ride behind him (on the donkey).

2988. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ’Umar: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ came to Makkah through its higher region, on the day of the Conquest (of Makkah) riding his she-camel on which Usâma was riding behind him. Bilal and ‘Uthmân bin Talhâ, from Al-Hajabah (i.e., the one who keeps the key of the Ka’bah and is considered as a servant of the Ka’bah), were also accompanying him till he made his camel kneel in the mosque and ordered the latter to bring the key of the Ka’bah. He opened the door of the Ka’bah and Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ entered in the company of Usâma, Bilal and ‘Uthmân, and stayed in it for a long period. When he came out, the people rushed to it, and I (Abdullâh bin ’Umar) was the first to enter it and found Bilal standing behind the door. I asked Bilal, “Where did the Prophet ﷺ offer his Salât (prayer)?” He pointed to the place where he had offered his Salât.

\(^1\) (H. 2986) Talbiya: See glossary.
(prayer). ‘Abdullāh added, “I forgot to ask him how many Rak‘a he had performed.”

(128) CHAPTER. Holding the riding animal of somebody else (to help him ride).

2989. Narrated Aḥū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “There is a (compulsory) Ṣadaqa (charity) to be given for every joint of the human body (as a sign of gratitude to Allāh) everyday the sun rises. To judge justly between two persons is regarded as Ṣadaqa (charity), and to help a man concerning his riding animal by helping him to ride it or by lifting his luggage on to it, is also regarded as Ṣadaqa (charity), and (saying) a good word is also Ṣadaqa (charity), and every step taken on one’s way to offer the compulsory congregational Ṣalāt (prayer) (in the mosque) is also Ṣadaqa (charity), and to remove a harmful thing from the way is also Ṣadaqa (charity).”(1)

(129) CHAPTER. It is disliked for one to travel to a hostile country carrying copies of the Qur‘ān.

Ibn ‘Umar said, “No doubt, the Prophet ﷺ and his companions travelled in the land of the enemy and they knew the Qur‘ān then.”

(1) (H. 2989) Ṣadaqa means something given in charity. Such deeds as are mentioned in this Ḥadīth are considered as charitable deeds as rewardable as gifts given in charity, and are taken for signs of gratitude to Allāh for creating our complicated yet handy body.
2990. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ forbade the people to travel to a hostile country carrying (copies of) the Qur’ān.

Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ forbade the people to travel to a hostile country carrying (copies of) the Qur’ān.

2991. Narrated Anas رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ reached Khaibar in the morning, while the people were coming out carrying their spades over their shoulders. When they saw him they said, “This is Muḥammad and his army!” So, they took refuge in the fort. The Prophet ﷺ raised both his hands and said, “Allāhu Akbar, Khaibar is ruined, for when we approach a nation (i.e., enemy to fight), then miserable is the morning of the warned ones.” Then we found some donkeys which we (killed and) cooked: The announcer of the Prophet ﷺ announced: “Allāh and His Messenger ﷺ forbid you to eat donkey’s meat.” So, all the pots including their contents were turned upside down.

(130) CHAPTER. The recitation of Tākbir (Allāhu Akbar) in the war.

(131) CHAPTER. What is disliked as regards raising the voice when saying Tākbir (i.e., Allāh is the Most Great)

2992. Narrated Abū Mūsā Al-аш’ārī رضي الله عنه: We were in the company of Allāh’s Messenger (during Hajj). Whenever we went up a high place we used to say: “La ilaha illallah and Allahu Akbar (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah, and Allah is the Most Great),” and our voices used to raise. So the Prophet said, “O people! Be merciful to yourselves (i.e., don’t raise your voice), for you are not calling a deaf or an absent one, but One Who is with you, no doubt He is All-Hearer, Ever Near (to all things).”

(132) CHAPTER. The recitation of Subhãn Allah(1) when going down a valley.

2993. Narrated Jãbir bin ‘Abdullah: Whenever we went up a place we would say “Allahu Akbar (i.e., Allah is the Most Great)”, and whenever we went down a place we would say: “Subhãn Allah.”

(133) CHAPTER. To say Takbir (Allahu Akbar Allah is the Most Great) on ascending a high place.

2994. Narrated Jãbir: Whenever we went up a place we would say Takbir (i.e., Allahu Akbar – Allah is the Most Great) and whenever we went down we would say: “Subhãn Allah.”

2995. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar: Whenever the Prophet returned from the Hajj or the ‘Umra or a G/azwa, he would say Takbîr thrice. Whenever he came upon a mountain path or wasteland, and then he would say, “Lâ 'ilâh âllâh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh Alone), Who has no partner. All the kingdom belongs to Him and all the Praises are for Him and He is Omnipotent. We are returning with repentance, worshipping, prostrating ourselves and praising our Lord. Allâh fulfilled His Promise, granted victory to His slave and He Alone defeated all the Ahrâb (Confederates).”

(1) (Ch. 132) Subhãn Allah : See glossary.

[See Hadîth No. 3084]

(134) CHAPTER. A traveller is granted reward similar to that given for good deeds practised at home, as if he is practising the same while travelling.

2996. Narrated Ibrâhîm Abû Isma’îl As-Saksâki: I heard Abû Burda who accompanied Yazîd bin Abî Kabsha on a journey. Yazîd used to observe Saum (fasting) on journeys. Abû Burda said to him, “I heard Abû Mûsâ several times saying that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘When a slave (a believer) falls ill or travels, then he will get written to his accounts (the reward) similar to that he used to get for his good deeds practised at home and in good health’ (as if he is doing them in journey and in illness).”
(135) CHAPTER. Travelling alone.

2997. Narrated Jābir bin Abdullāh: On the day of the battle of the Trench, the Prophet wanted somebody from amongst the people to volunteer to be a reconnoitier. Az-Zubair volunteered. He demanded the same again and Az-Zubair volunteered again. Then he repeated the same demand (thrice) and Az-Zubair volunteered once more. The Prophet then said, "Every Prophet has a Hawāri (disciple) and my Hawāri is Az-Zubair."

2998. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet said, "If the people knew what I know about travelling alone, then nobody would travel alone at night."(1)

(136) CHAPTER. Hastening in travel.

2999. Narrated Hishām’s father: Usāma bin Zaid was asked at what pace the Prophet rode during Hajjat-ul-Wadā‘. Usāma

(1) Hadith No. 2997 shows that travelling alone is permissible if necessary. Hadith No. 2998 indicates that it is not recommended for one to travel alone if it is not necessary to do so.
replied, “He (ﷺ) rode at a medium pace, but when he came upon an open way he would go at full pace.”

3000.Narrated Aslam: While I was in the company of ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar on the way to Makkah, he received the news of the severe illness of Şafīyya bint Abī ‘Ubaid (i.e., his wife), so he proceeded at a high speed, and when the twilight disappeared, he dismounted and offered the Maghrib and ‘Ishā’ Salāt (prayer) together and said, “I saw the Prophet (ﷺ) delaying the Maghrib prayer to offer it along with the ‘Ishā’ when he was in a hurry on a journey.”

3001. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) said, “Journey is a piece of torture, for it disturbs one’s sleep, eating and drinking. So, when you fulfil your job, you should hurry up to your family.”

(137) CHAPTER. If someone gives his horse to be used for Allāh’s Cause and then he sees it being sold.

(137) باب: إذا حمل على قرس فلها تباع
3002. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنُّهمَا: ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb gave a horse to be used for Allâh’s Cause and then he found it being sold. He intended to purchase it. So, he consulted Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ who said, “Don’t buy it and don’t take back your gift of charity.”

3003. Narrated Aslam: I heard ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb saying, “I gave a horse to be used for Allâh’s Cause and the person who got it intended to sell it or neglected it. So, I wanted to buy it as I thought he would sell it cheap. I consulted the Prophet ﷺ who said, “Do not buy it even if for one Dirham, because he who takes back his gift is like a dog swallowing its vomit.”

(138) CHAPTER. The participation in Jihâd with one’s parent’s permission.

3005. Narrated Abu Bashir Al-Ansari that he was in the company of Allah's Messenger on some of his journeys. The subnarrator Abdullah adds, "I think that Abu Bashir also said, 'And the people were at their sleeping places.'" Allah's Messenger sent a messenger ordering: "There shall not remain any necklace of string or any other kind of necklace round the necks of camels except it is cut off."

3006. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas that he heard the Prophet saying, "It is not permissible for a man to be alone with a woman, and no lady should travel except with a Mahram (i.e., her husband or a person whom she cannot marry in any case forever; e.g., her father, brother, etc.)." Then a man got up and said, "O Allah's Messenger! I have been enlisted in the army for such and such Ghazwa and my wife is proceeding for Hajj." Allah's Messenger said, "Go, and perform the Hajj with your wife."
(141) CHAPTER. The spy.

Spying means secret investigations. The Statement of Allah

“Take not My enemy and your enemy (i.e., disbelievers and polytheists, etc.) as friends…” (V.60:1)

3007. Narrated ‘Ubaidullah bin Abi Râfi’:
I heard ‘Ali saying, “Allah’s Messenger sent me, Az-Zubair and Al-Miqdâd somewhere saying, ‘Proceed till you reach Rawdat Khâkh. There you will find a lady with a letter. Take the letter from her.’”

So, we set out and our horses ran at full pace till we got at Ar-Rawâd, where we found the lady and said (to her), ‘Take out the letter.’ She replied, ‘I have no letter with me.’ We said, ‘Either you take out the letter or else we will take off your clothes (to search the letter).’ So, she took it out of her braid. We brought the letter to Allah’s Messenger and it contained a statement from Hàtib bin Abi Balta’a to some of the Makkan Mushrikûn informing them of some of the intentions of Allah’s Messenger. Then Allah’s Messenger said, ‘O Hàtib! What is this?’ Hàtib replied, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! Don’t hasten to give your judgement about me. I was a man closely connected with the Quraish, but I did not belong to this tribe, while the other emigrants with you had their relatives in Makkah who would protect their dependents and property. So, I wanted to recompense for my lacking blood relation to them by doing them a favour so that they might protect my dependents. I did this neither because of disbelief nor apostasy nor out of preferring Kufr (disbelief) to Islâm.’ Allah’s Messenger said, ‘Hàtib has told you the truth.’ ‘Umar said, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! Allow me to chop off the head of this hypocrite.’ Allah’s Messenger said, ‘Hàtib participated in the battle of Badr, and who knows, perhaps Allâh has already looked at the Badr warriors and said: ‘Do whatever you like, for I have forgiven you.’”

(142) CHAPTER. Providing the prisoners of war with clothes.

3008. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh: When it was the day (of the battle) of Badr, prisoners of war were brought including Al-`Abbas who did not have a body covering. The Prophet looked for a shirt for him. It was found that the shirt of `Abdullâh bin Uba[ would do, so the Prophet let him wear it. That was the reason why the Prophet took off and gave his own shirt to 'Abdullâh. The narrator adds, “He had done the Prophet some favour for which the Prophet liked to reward him.”(1).

(1) (H. 3008) When 'Abdullâh bin Uba[ (the chief of hypocrites) died, the Prophet let him be shrouded in his (i.e., the Prophet's) own shirt.
(143) CHAPTER. The superiority of the one through whom a man embraces Islam.

3009. Narrated Sahi Z: On the day (of the battle) of Khāibar, the Prophet said, “Tomorrow I will give the flag to somebody who will be given victory (by Allāh) and who loves Allāh and His Messenger, and is loved by Allāh and His Messenger.” The people wondered all that night as to who would receive the flag, and in the morning everyone hoped that he would be that person. Allāh’s Messenger asked, “Where is ‘Alī?” He was told that ‘Alī was suffering from eye-trouble. Then the Prophet spat (saliva) in his eyes and invoked Allāh to cure him. ‘Alī, at once, got cured as if he had no ailment. The Prophet gave him the flag. ‘Alī asked, “Should I fight them till they become like us (i.e., Muslim)?” The Prophet said, “Go to them patiently and calmly till you enter the land. Then, invite them to Islam, and inform them what is enjoined upon them, for, by Allāh, if Allāh gives guidance to somebody through you, it is better for you than possessing red camels.”

[See Hadīth No.2975].

(144) CHAPTER. The prisoners of war in chains.

3010. Narrated Abū Hurairah Z: The Prophet said, “Allāh wonders at those people who will enter Paradise in chains.”

(1) (H. 3010) The people referred to here may be the prisoners of war who were captured and chained by the Muslims and their imprisonment was the cause of their conversion to Islām. So, it is as if their chains were the means of winning Paradise.
(145) CHAPTER. The superiority of the people of the Scriptures (Jews and Christians) who embrace Islam.

3011. Narrated Abū Burda’s father: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Three persons will get their reward twice: (1) a person who has a slave-girl and he educates her properly and teaches her good manners properly (without violence) and then manumits and marries her. Such a person will get a double reward; (2) a believer from the people of the Scriptures (Jews and Christians) who has been a true believer and then he believes in the Prophet (Muḥammad) ﷺ. Such a person will get a double reward; (3) (The third is) a slave who fulfils his duty to Allāh and is sincere and dutiful to his master [will (also) get a double reward].” (See H. 97, 5083)

(146) CHAPTER. (Is it permissible) to attack the enemies with the probability of killing the babies and children (unintentionally)?

3012. Narrated Aṣ-Ṣa’b bin Jaththāma: The Prophet ﷺ passed by me at a place called Al-Abwā’ or Waddān, and was asked whether it was permissible to attack Al-Mushrikūn’ warriors at night with the probability of exposing their women and children to danger. The Prophet ﷺ replied, “They (i.e., women and children) are from them (i.e., Al-Mushrikün).” I also heard the Prophet saying, “The institution of Hīma\(^{(1)}\) is invalid except for Allāh and His Messenger.”

(147) CHAPTER. Killing the children in the war.

3014. Narrated ‘Abdullāh, r.ALLAH\(^{(2)}\) of the Prophet, a woman was found killed. Allāh’s Messenger disapproved the killing of women and children.

(148) CHAPTER. Killing the women in the war.

3015. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar, r.ALLAH\(^{(2)}\) of the Prophet: ‘That is not permissible for you until the law is promulgated other than what the Prophet has promulgated.’

\(^{(1)}\) (H. 3012) Hīma was a pre-Islamic institution by means of which the chief of the tribe took a pasture for his animals preventing others from grazing their animals in it while he himself could graze his animals in the others’ pastures. Islām cancelled such an institution and allowed it only for grazing the animals collected as Zakāt.

\(^{(2)}\) (H. 3013) Ghazawāt: Plural of Ghazwa: See glossary.
During some of the Ghazawāt of Allāh’s Messenger, a woman was found killed, so Allāh’s Messenger forbade the killing of women and children.

(149) CHAPTER. One should not punish (anybody) with Allāh’s punishment.

3016. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger sent us in an expedition (i.e., an army-unit) and said, “If you find so-and-so and so-and-so, burn both of them with fire.” When we intended to depart, Allāh’s Messenger said, “I have ordered you to burn so-and-so and so-and-so, and it is none but Allāh Who punishes with fire, so, if you find them, kill them.”

3017. Narrated ‘Ikrimah: ‘Allā’s Prophet said: ‘Alī burnt some people and this news reached Ibn ‘Abbas, who said, “Had I been in his place I would not have burnt them, as the Prophet said, ‘Don’t punish (anybody) with Allāh’s punishment.’ No doubt, I would have killed them, for the Prophet said, ‘If somebody (a Muslim) discards his religion, kill him.’”

(150) CHAPTER. (Allāh’s Statement): “...Thereafter (is the time) either for generosity (i.e., free them without ransom) or ransom (according to what benefits Islam)...” (V.47:4).

And the Statement of Allah ج: "It is not for a Prophet that he should have prisoners of war (and free them with ransom) until he had made a great slaughter (among his enemies) in the land.\(^{(1)}\) You desire the good of this world (i.e., money of ransom for freeing the captives).” (V.8:67)

(151) CHAPTER. Is it legal for a Muslim captive to kill or deceive those who have captured him so that he may save himself from the infidels?

Al-Miswar narrated a Hadith from the Prophet ﷺ concerning this issue.

(See Hadith No.2731, 2732, Vol.3. The story of Abū Başîr).

(152) CHAPTER. If a Mushrîk (polytheist, idolater pagan) burns a Muslim, should he be burnt (in retaliation)?

3018. Narrated Anas bin Malik ﷺ: A group of eight men from the tribe of ‘Ukl came to the Prophet ﷺ and then they found the climate of Al-Madīnah unsuitable for them. So, they said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Provide us with some milk.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “I recommend that you should join the herd of camels.” So, they went and drank the urine and the milk of the camels (as a medicine) till they became healthy and fat. Then they killed the shepherd and drove away the camels, and they became disbelievers after embracing Islâm. When the Prophet ﷺ was informed by a shouter for help, he sent some men in their pursuit, and before the sun rose high, they were caught and brought, and he had their hands and feet cut off. Then he ordered for nails which were heated and were branded with those nails, their eyes, and they were left in the Harra (i.e., rocky land in Al-Madina). And when they asked for water, no water was given to them till they died. Abū Qilāba, a subnarrator said, “They committed murder and theft and fought against Allāh and His Messenger and spread evil in the land.”

(153) CHAPTER.

3019.Narrated Abū Hurairah

I heard Allāh’s Messenger saying, “An ant bit a Prophet amongst the Prophets, and he ordered that the place of the ants be burnt. So, Allāh inspired to him, ‘It is because one ant bit you that you burnt a nation amongst the nations that glorify Allāh?’”

[See Hadīth No.3319]

(154) CHAPTER. The burning of houses and date-palms.

3020. Narrated Jarīr: Allāh’s Messenger said to me, “Will you relieve me from Dhul-Khalasa?” It (Dhul-Khalasa) was a house belonging to the tribe of Khath'am and there used to be worshipped the Taghiyas (idols) of Ad-Daus, Khath'am, and Bajaila tribes, and it was called Al-Ka'ba-al-Yamānīya. So, I proceeded with one hundred and fifty cavalry men from the tribe of Alimas, who were excellent knights. It happened that I could not sit firm on horses, so the Prophet stroke me over my chest till I saw his finger-marks over my chest. He said, “O Allāh! Make him firm and make him a guide and rightly-guided man.” Jarīr proceeded towards that house, and dismantled and burnt it. Then he sent a messenger to Allâh’s Messenger informing him of that. Jarîr’s messenger said, “By Him Who has sent you with the Truth, I did not come to you till I had left it like an emanciated or scabby camel (i.e., completely marred and spoilt).” Jarîr added, “The Prophet invoked Allâh to bless the horses and the men of Ahmîs five times.”

(155) CHAPTER. Killing a sleeping Mushrik (polytheist, idolater, pagan).

and hit him and came back. He shouted and I came out, pretending to be a helper. I said, ‘O Abū Rāfī’, changing the tone of my voice. He asked me, ‘What do you want; woe to your mother?’ I asked him, ‘What has happened to you?’ He said, ‘I don’t know who came to me and hit me.’ Then I drove my sword into his belly and pushed it forcibly till it touched the bone. Then I came out, filled with puzzlement and went towards a ladder of theirs in order to get down but I fell down and sprained my foot. I came to my companions and said, ‘I will not leave till I hear the wailing of the women.’ So, I did not leave till I heard the women bewailing Abū Rāfī, the merchant of Hijāz. Then I got up, feeling no ailment, (and we proceeded) till we came to the Prophet ﷺ and informed him.”

3023. Narrated Al-Barâ’ bin ‘Azib: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ sent a group of the Ansār to Abū Rāfī. ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Atik entered his house at night and killed him while he was sleeping.
(156) CHAPTER. Do not wish to meet the enemy.

3024. Narrated Sālim Abū An-Naḍr, the freed slave of ‘Umar bin ‘Ubaidullāh: I was ‘Umar’s clerk. Once, ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Aūfa wrote a letter to ‘Umar bin ‘Ubaidullāh when he proceeded to Al-Ḥarūrīya. I read in it that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ during some of his military expeditions against the enemy, waited till the sun declined.

3025. And then he got up amongst the people saying, “O people! Do not wish to meet the enemy, and ask Allāh for safety, but when you come face to face with the enemy, be patient, and remember that Paradise is under the shades of swords.” Then he said, “O Allāh, the Revealer of the Holy Book, and the Mover of the clouds and the Defeater of the Ahzāb (Confederates), defeat them, and grant us victory over them.”
3026. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said: “Do not wish to meet the enemy, and in case you meet (face) the enemy then be patient.”

3027. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Khosrau will be ruined, and there will be no Khosrau after him, and Caesar will surely be ruined, and there will be no Caesar after him, and you will spend their treasures in Allah’s Cause.”

3028. He named, ‘War: Deceit’.

(158) CHAPTER. Telling lies in the war.

3031. Narrated Jābir bin ʿAbdullāh: The Prophet  said, “Who will kill Kaʿb bin Al-Ashraf, indeed he has hurt Allāh and His Messenger?” Muḥammad bin Maslama said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Do you like me to kill him?” He replied in the affirmative. So, Muḥammad bin Maslama went to him (i.e., Kaʿb) and said, “This person (i.e., the Prophet ) has put us to task and asked us for charity.” Kaʿb replied, “By Allāh, you will get tired of him.” Muḥammad said to him, “We have followed him, so we dislike to leave him till we see the end of his affair.” Muḥammad bin Maslama went on talking to him in this way till he got the chance to kill him.

(159) CHAPTER. Killing non-Muslim warriors secretly.

3032. Narrated Jābir: The Prophet  said, “Who will kill Kaʿb bin Ashraf.” Muḥammad bin Maslama replied, “Do you like me to kill him?” The Prophet  replied in the affirmative. Muḥammad bin Maslama said, “Then allow me to say what I like.” The Prophet  replied, “I do (i.e., allow you).”

(160) CHAPTER. What tricks and means of security may be adopted to protect oneself against someone who is expected to be vicious and mischievous.

3033. Narrated ʿAbdullāh bin ʿUmar: Once, Allāh’s Messenger  said: "Who will kill Kaʿb bin Al-Ashraf, indeed he has hurt Allāh and His Messenger?” Muḥammad bin Maslama said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Do you like me to kill him?” He replied in the affirmative. So, Muḥammad bin Maslama went to him (i.e., Kaʿb) and said, “This person (i.e., the Prophet ) has put us to task and asked us for charity.” Kaʿb replied, “By Allāh, you will get tired of him.” Muḥammad said to him, “We have followed him, so we dislike to leave him till we see the end of his affair.” Muḥammad bin Maslama went on talking to him in this way till he got the chance to kill him.
accompanied by Ubaî bin Ka‘b set out to Ibn Saiyyâd. He was informed that Ibn Saiyyâd was in a garden of date-palms. When Allâh’s Messenger صلی‌اللہ علیٰ‌هی۱ entered the garden of date-palms, he started hiding himself behind the trunks of the palms while Ibn Saiyyâd was covered with a velvet sheet with murmurs emanating from under it. Ibn Saiyyâd’s mother saw Allâh’s Messenger صلی‌اللہ علیٰ‌هی۱ and said, “O Sâf! This is Muhammad.” So Ibn Saiyyâd got up. Allâh’s Messenger صلی‌اللہ علیٰ‌هی۱ said, “If she had left him (in his state), the truth would have been clear.”

(161) CHAPTER. The recitation of poetic verses in the war and raising the voices while digging the trench.

3034.Narrated Al-Barâ’ رضی‌اللہ عنہ : I saw Allâh’s Messenger صلی‌اللہ علیٰ‌هی۱ on the day (of the battle) of the Trench carrying earth till the hair of his chest were covered with dust, and he was a hairy man. He was reciting the following verses of ‘Abdullâh (bin Rawâha):

‘O Allah, were it not for You,
We would not have been guided,
Nor would we have given in charity, nor offered Salât (prayer).
So, bestow on us calmness, and when we meet the enemy,
Then make our feet firm, for indeed,
Yet if they want to put us in Fitnah (trial, affliction), (i.e., want to fight against us) we would not (flee but withstand them).

The Prophet صلی‌اللہ علیٰ‌هی۱ used to raise his voice while reciting these verses.
CHAPTER. Whosoever is unable to sit firm on a horse.

3035. Narrated Jarir: Allah’s Messenger did not screen himself from me since my embracing Islam, and whenever he saw me he would receive me with a smile.

3036. Once, I told him that I could not sit firm on horses. He stroked me on the chest with his hand and said, “O Allah! Make him firm and make him a guiding and a rightly-guided man.”

CHAPTER. The treatment of a wound with the ashes of a mat (made of date-palm leaves), and the washing of blood by a lady off her father’s face, and conveying water in a shield (for this purpose).

3037. Narrated Abu Hazim: The people asked Sahl bin Sa’d As-Sa’idi, “With what thing (medicine) was the wound of Allah’s Messenger treated?” He replied, “There is none left (living) amongst the people who knows it better than I. ‘Ali used to bring water in his shield and Fatima (i.e., the Prophet’s daughter) used to wash the blood off his face. Then a mat (of palm leaves) was burnt and its ash was filled in the wound of Allah’s Messenger.”
(164) CHAPTER. What quarrels and mutual differences are hated in the war, and the punishment of the one who disobeys his Imam.

And Allah said:
‘...And do not dispute (with one another) lest you lose courage and your strength departs...’ (V.8:46)

3038. Narrated Abu Burda that his father said, “The Prophet sent Mu‘adh and Abu Musa to Yemen telling them, ‘Make the things easy for the people and do not make the things difficult for them; give them glad tidings and do not repel them; and you both love each other, and don’t differ’.”

3039. Narrated Al-Bara‘ bin ‘Azib: The Prophet appointed ‘Abdullàh bin Jubair as the commander of the infantrymen (archers) who were fifty on the day (of the battle) of Uhud. He instructed them, “Stick to your place, and don’t leave it even if you see birds snatching us, till I send for you; and if you see that we have defeated the infidels and made them flee, even then you should not leave your place till I send for you.” Then the infidels were defeated. By Allah, I saw the women fleeing lifting up their clothes, revealing their leg-bangles and their legs. So, the companions of ‘Abdullàh bin Jubair said, “The booty! O people, the booty! Your companions have become victorious, what are you waiting for now?” ‘Abdullàh bin Jubair said, “Have you forgotten what Allah’s Messenger said to you?” They replied, “By Allah! We will go to the people (i.e., the enemy) and collect our share from the war booty.” But when they went to them, they were forced to turn back defeated. At that time Allah’s Messenger in their rear was calling them back. Only twelve men remained with the Prophet and the infidels martyred seventy men from us.

On the day (of the battle) of Badr, the Prophet and his companions had caused Al-Mushrikûn to lose 140 men, seventy of whom were captured and seventy were killed. Then Abû Sufyân said thrice, “Is Muhammad present amongst these people?” The Prophet ordered his Companions not to answer him. Then he said thrice, “Is the son of Abû Quhâfa present amongst these people?” He said again thrice, “Is the son of Al-Khattãb present amongst these people?” He then returned to his companions and said, “As for these (men), they have been killed.” ‘Umar could not control himself and said (to Abû Sufyân), “You told a lie, by Allah! 0 enemy of Allah! All those you have mentioned are alive, and the thing which will make you unhappy is still there.” Abû Sufyân said, “Our victory today is a counterbalance to yours in the battle of Badr, and in war (the victory) is always undecided and is shared in turns by the belligerents, and you will find some of your (killed) men mutilated, but I did not urge my men to do so, yet I do not feel sorry for their deed.” After that he started reciting cheerfully, “O Hubal, be high! O Hubal be high!” On that the Prophet said (to his companions), “Why don’t you answer him back?” They said, “O Allah’s Messenger! What shall we say?” He said, “Say, Allah is Higher and more Sublime.” (Then) Abû Sufyân said, “We have the (idol) Al-'Uzza, and you have no 'Uzza.” The Prophet ﷺ said (to his companions), “Why don’t you answer him back?” They asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! What shall we say?” He said, “Say: Allah is our Maulâ (Patron, Lord, Protector, Helper, and Supporter) and you have no Maulâ.”

(1) (H. 3039) Hubal was the name of an idol in the Ka’bah in the pre-Islâmic period.

(165) CHAPTER. If the people get frightened at night.

Narrated Anas: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ was the (most handsome), most generous and the bravest of all the people. Once, the people of Al-Madina got frightened having heard an uproar at night. So, the Prophet ﷺ met the people while he was riding an unsaddled horse belonging to Abû Tałha and carrying his sword (slung over his shoulder). He said (to them), “Don’t get scared, don’t get scared.” Then he added, “I found it (i.e., the horse) very fast.”

(166) CHAPTER. Shouting, “Yā Šabâhâh!”(1) as loudly as possible on seeing the enemy to let the people hear it.

Narrated Salama: I went out of Al-Madina towards Al-Ghâba. When I reached the mountain path of Al-Ghâba, a slave of ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin ‘Aţf met me. I said to him “Woe to you! What brought you here?”

(1) (Ch. 166) This is an exclamation indicating an appeal for help.
He replied, “The she-camels of the Prophet have been taken away.” I said, “Who took them?” He said, “Ghata’n and Fazara.” So, I shouted thrice, “Ya Sabah! Ya Sabah!” so loudly that I made the people in between its (i.e., Al-Madina’s) two mountains hear me. Then I rushed till I met them after they had taken the camels away. I started throwing arrows at them saying, “I am the son of Al-Akwa’; and today perish the mean people!” So, I saved the she-camels from them before they (i.e., the robbers) could drink. When I returned driving the camels, the Prophet met me, I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Those people are thirsty and I have prevented them from drinking, so send some people to chase them.” The Prophet said, “O son of Al-Akwa’, you have gained power (over your enemy), so forgive (them). (Besides) those people are now being entertained by their folk.”

(167) CHAPTER. Saying: “Take it! I am the son of so-and-so.”

And Salama said, “Take it! I am the son of Al-Akwa’.”

3042. Narrated Abû Ishâq: A man asked Al-Barâ’. “O Abû ‘Umâra! Did you flee on the day (of the battle) of Ḥunain?” Al-Barâ’ replied while I was listening, “As for Allah’s Messenger, he did not flee on that day. Abû Sufyân bin Al-Ḥārith was holding the reins of his mule and when Al-Mushrikûn (polytheists idolaters, pagans) attacked him, he dismounted and started saying, 'I am the Prophet, without a lie, I am the son of ‘Abdul Mu’talib.' On that day nobody was seen more brave than the Prophet ﷺ.”

(168) CHAPTER. If the enemy is ready to accept the judgement of a Muslim (his judgement will be valid if the Imãm agrees to it).

3043. Narrated Abû Sa’îd Al-Khudri: When the tribe of Bani Quraîţa was ready to accept Sa’d’s judgement, Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ sent for Sa’d who was near to him. Sa’d came, riding a donkey and when he came near, Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said (to the Ansâr), “Stand up for your leader.” Then Sa’d came and sat beside Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ who said to him, “These people are ready to accept your judgement.” Sa’d said, “I give the judgement that their warriors should be killed and their children and women should be taken as captives.” The Prophet ﷺ then remarked, “O Sa’d! You have judged amongst them with (or similar to) the judgement of the King (Allâh).”

(169) CHAPTER. The killing of a captive, and the killing of somebody who is in confinement.

3044. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ entered (Makkah) in the year of the Conquest (of Makkah) wearing a helmet over his head. After he took it off, a man came and said, “Ibn Khâtal is clinging to the curtains of the Ka'bah.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Kill him.”

(170) CHAPTER. Can a man present himself to captivity, and whosoever refuses to surrender to captivity? And the performance of a two Rak'a Salah (prayer) before being put to death.

3045. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ sent a Sarīya (army-unit) of ten men as spies under the leadership of Ṭālim bin Ṭabīt al-Ansārī, the grandfather of Ṭālim bin Umar Al-Khaṭṭāb. They proceeded till they reached Hādā’, a place between ‘Usfān, and Makkah, and their news reached a branch of the tribe of Hudhail called Banī Liyān. So they sent about two hundred men, who were all archers, in their pursuit to follow their tracks till they found the place where they had eaten dates they had brought with them from Al-Madīnah. They said, “These are the dates of Yathrib” (i.e., Al-Madīnah), and continued following their tracks. When Ṭālim and his companions saw their pursuers, they went up a high place and the infidels circled them. The infidels said to them, “Come down and surrender, and we promise and guarantee you that we will not kill anyone of you.” Ṭālim bin Ṭabīt, the leader of the Sarīya said, “By Allah! I will not come down to be under the protection of infidels. O Allah! Convey our news to Your Prophet ﷺ.” Then the infidels threw arrows at them till they martyred Ṭālim along with six other men, and three men came down accepting their promise and convention, and they were Khubaib Al-Anšārī and Ibn Dathina and another man. So, when the infidels captured them, they undid the strings of their bows and tied them. Then the third (of the captives) said, “This is the first betrayal. By Allah! I will not go with you. No doubt these, namely the martyred, have set a good example to us.” So, they dragged him and tried to compel him to accompany them, but as he refused, they killed him. They took Khubaib and Ibn Dathina with them and sold them (as slaves) in Makkah (and all that took place) after the battle of Badr.

Khubaib was bought by the sons of Al-Ḥārith bin ‘Amir bin Naufal bin ‘Abd-Manãf. It was Khubaib who had killed Al-Ḥārith bin ‘Amir on the day (of the battle of) Badr. So, Khubaib remained a prisoner with those people.

Narrated Az-Zuhri: ’Ubadullah bin ‘Iyād said that the daughter of Al-Ḥārith had told him, “When those people gathered (to kill Khubaib) he borrowed a razor from me to shave his pubes and I gave it to him. Then he took a son of mine while I was unaware when he came upon him. I saw him placing my son on his thigh and the razor was in his hand. I got scared so much that Khubaib noticed the agitation on my face and said, ‘Are you afraid that I will kill him? No, I will never do so.’ By Allah, I never saw a prisoner better than Khubaib. By Allah, one day I saw him eating of a bunch of grapes in his hand while he was chained in irons, and there was no fruit at that time in Makkah.” The daughter of Al-Ḥārith used to say, “It was a boon Allāh bestowed upon Khubaib.” When they took him out of the sanctuary (of Makkah) to kill him outside its boundaries, Khubaib requested them to let him offer two Rak’a [Ṣalāt (prayer)]. They allowed him and he offered a two Rak'a (prayer) and then said, “Hadn’t I been afraid that you would think that I was afraid (of being killed), I would have prolonged the Salāt (prayer). O Allah, kill them all with no exception.” (He then recited the poetic verse):

‘I, being martyred as a Muslim
Do not mind how I am killed in Allah’s Cause,
For my killing is for Allah’s sake,
And if Allah wishes,
He will bless the amputated parts of a torn body.’

Then the son of Al-Harith killed him. So, it was Khubaib who set the tradition for any Muslim sentenced to death in captivity, to offer a two-Rak’a Salāt (prayer) (before being killed). Allah fulfilled the invocation of ‘A’im bin Thābit(1) on that very day on which he was martyred. The Prophet informed his companions of their news and what had happened to them. Later on when some infidels from Quraish were informed that ‘A’im had been killed, they sent some people to fetch a part of his body (i.e., his head) by which he would be recognized. (That was because) ‘A’im had killed one of their chiefs on the day (of the battle) of Badr. So, a swarm of wasps, resembling a shady cloud, were sent to hover over ‘A’im and protect him from their messenger and thus they could not cut off anything from his flesh.
(171) CHAPTER. The freeing of a captive.

3046. Narrated Abū Mūsa: The Prophet said, “Free the captives, feed the hungry and pay a visit to the sick.”

3047. Narrated Abū Juhaifa: I asked ‘Ali, “Do you have the knowledge of any Divine Revelation besides what is in Allah’s Book?” ‘Ali replied, “No, by Him Who splits the grain of corn and creates the soul! I don’t think we have such knowledge, but we have the ability of understanding which Allah may endow a person with, so that he may understand the Qur’an, and we have what is written in this paper as well.” I asked, “What is written in this paper?” He replied, “Al-‘Aql [the regulations of Diya (blood-money)], the ransom (freeing) of captives, and the judgement that no Muslim should be killed for killing a disbeliever.”

(172) CHAPTER. The ransom of Al-Mushrikūn (polytheists, idolaters, pagans).

3048. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Some Anṣārī men asked permission from Allah’s Messenger saying, “O Allah’s Messenger! Allow us not to take the ransom of our nephew Al-‘Abbās.”

(1) (H. 3046) The Muslim captives should be freed by paying their ransoms from the Muslim Treasury.

(2) (H. 3048) Before embracing Islām, Al-‘Abbās was taken prisoner by the Muslims and had to ransom himself. After embracing Islām, he asked for recompensation for=
The Prophet replied, “Do not leave a single Dirham thereof.”

3049. (In another narration) Anas said, “Some wealth was brought to the Prophet from Bahrain. Al-'Abbas came to him and said, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! Give me (some of it), as I have paid my and ‘Aqil’s ransom.’ The Prophet said, ‘Take,’ and gave him (the wealth) in his garment.”

3050. Narrated Jubair (who was among the captives of the battle of Badr): I heard the Prophet reciting ‘Surat-At-Tur’ in the Maghrib prayer.

(173) CHAPTER. If an infidel warrior comes in an Islamic territory without having the assurance of protection (is it permissible to kill him?)

3051. Narrated Salama bin Al-Akwa: An infidel spy came to the Prophet while he was on a journey. The spy sat with the companions of the Prophet and started talking and then went away. The Prophet said (to his companions), “Chase and kill him.” So, I killed him. The Prophet then gave me the belongings of the killed spy (in addition to my share of the war booty).

=the ransom he had paid when he was an infidel.

Chapter 174. One should fight for the protection of the Dhimmi (i.e., free non-Muslim subjects living in a Muslim country) and they should not be enslaved.

3052. Narrated ‘Amr bin Maimtin: ‘Umar (after he was stabbed), instructed (his would-be-successor) saying, ‘I urge him (i.e., the new Caliph) to take care of those non-Muslims who are under the protection of Allâh and His Messenger in that he should observe the convention agreed upon with them, and fight on their behalf (to secure their safety) and he should not overtax them beyond their capability.”

Chapter 175. The presents given to the foreign delegates.

Chapter 176. Can one intercede for the Dhimmi or deal with them?

3053. Narrated Sa‘îd bin Jubair: Ibn ‘Abbâs (رضي الله عنه) said, “Thursday! What (great thing) took place on Thursday!” Then he started weeping till his tears wetted the gravels of the ground. Then he said, “On Thursday the illness of Allâh’s Messenger (رسول الله ﷺ) was aggravated and he said, ‘Bring for me (writing) paper and I will write for you a statement after which you will never go astray.” The people (present there) differed in this matter, and people should not differ before a Prophet. They said, ‘Allâh’s Messenger (رسول الله ﷺ) is seriously sick.’ The Prophet (ﷺ) said, ‘Let me alone, as the state in which I am now, is better than what you are calling me for.' The Prophet ﷺ on his deathbed, gave three orders saying, ‘Expel the Al-Mushrikūn (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allāh, and His Messenger Muḥammad ﷺ) from the Arabian Peninsula, respect and give gifts to the foreign delegates as you have seen me dealing with them,’ I forgot the third (order).” (Ya’qūb bin Muḥammad said, “I asked Al-Mughīra bin ‘Abdur-Rahmān about the Arabian Peninsula and he said, ‘It comprises Makkah, Al-Madīna, Al-Yamāma and Yemen.’” Ya’qūb added, “And Al-‘Arj, the beginning of Tiḥāma.”)

(177) CHAPTER. Sprucing oneself up before receiving a delegation.

3054. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: ‘Umar saw a silken cloak being sold in the market and he brought it to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Buy this cloak and adorn yourself with it on the ‘Eid festivals and on meeting the delegations.” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ replied, “This is the dress for the one who will have no share in the Hereafter” or said, “This is worn by one who will have no share in the Hereafter.” Later on Allāh’s Messenger sent a silken cloak to ‘Umar. ‘Umar took it and brought it to Allāh’s Messenger and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! You said aforetime that this dress is for those who will have no share in the Hereafter (or, this is worn by one who will have no share in the Hereafter), yet you have sent me this!” The Prophet ﷺ said, “(I have sent it) so that you may sell it or fulfil with it some of your needs.”

181 (178) Chapter. How to present Islam to a (non-Muslim) boy.

3055. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: 'Umar and a group or the companions of the Prophet set out with the Prophet to Ibn Saiyyad. He found him playing with some boys near the hillocks of Banî Maghâla. Ibn Saiyyad at that time was nearing the age of puberty. He did not notice (the Prophet's presence) till the Prophet stroked him on the back with his hand and said, "Ibn Saiyyad! Do you testify that I am Allah's Messenger?" Ibn Saiyyad looked at him and said, "I testify that you are the Messenger of the illiterates." Then Ibn Saiyyad asked the Prophet, "Do you testify that I am the Messenger of Allah?" The Prophet said to him, "I believe in Allah and His Messengers." Then the Prophet said (to Ibn Saiyyad), "What do you see?" Ibn Saiyyad replied, "True people and false ones visit me." The Prophet said, "Your mind is confused as to this matter." The Prophet added, "I have kept something (in my mind) for you." Ibn Saiyyad said, "It is Ad-Dukh(1)." The Prophet said (to him), "Shame be on you! You cannot cross your limits." On that 'Umar said, "O Allah's Messenger! Allow me to chop his head off." The Prophet said, "If he should be him

(1) (H. 3055) When the Prophet said to Ibn Saiyyad, "I have kept something (in my mind) for you," he meant Sûrat Ad-Dukhân. Ibn Saiyyad guessed imperfectly for he mentioned just part of the word, i.e., 'Dukh.' By this way the Prophet proved that Ibn Saiyyad was just a soothsayer to whom the devils conveyed nonsensical fragments of information.
(i.e., Ad-Dajjāl) then you cannot overpower him, and should he not be him, then you are not going to benefit by murdering him.”

3056.Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: (Later on) Allah’s Messenger went along with Ubaib bin Ka‘b to the garden of date-palms where Ibn Sāiyyād was staying. When the Prophet entered the garden, he started hiding himself behind the trunks of the date-palms as he wanted to hear something from Ibn Sāiyyād before the latter could see him. Ibn Sāiyyād was lying in his bed, covered with a velvet sheet from where his murmurs were heard. Ibn Sāiyyād’s mother saw the Prophet while he was hiding himself behind the trunks of the date-palms. She addressed Ibn Sāiyyād, “0 Saf!” (And this was his name). Ibn Sāiyyād got up. The Prophet said, “Had this woman let him to himself, he would have revealed the reality of his case.”

3057. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Then the Prophet got up amongst the people, glorified Allāh as He deserves, he then mentioned Ad-Dajjāl, saying, “I warn you about him (i.e., Ad-Dajjāl) and there is no Prophet who did not warn his nation about him, and Nūh (Noah) warned his nation about him, but I tell you a statement which no Prophet informed his nation of. You should understand that he is a one-eyed man and Allāh is not one-eyed.”
(179) CHAPTER. The saying of the Prophet ﷺ to the Jews, “Embrace Islam and you will be safe.”

This is narrated by Abū Hurairah.

(180) CHAPTER. If some people in a hostile non-Muslim country embrace Islam and they have possessions and land, then what they have will remain for them.

3058. Narrated Usāma bin Zaid: I asked the Prophet ﷺ during his Hajj, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Where will you stay tomorrow?” He said, “Has ‘Aqīl left for us any house?” He then added, “Tomorrow we will stay at Khāif Bāni Kīnāna, i.e., Al-Muḥāṣṣab, where (Al-Muṣḥrikūn) of Quraish took an oath of Kafr (i.e., to be loyal to heathenism) in that oath Bāni Kīnāna got allied with Quraish against Bāni Ḥāshim on the terms that they would not deal with the members of this tribe or give them shelter.” (Az-Zuhri said, “Al-Khaif means the valley.”)

[See Vol. 2, Hadith No.1589]

3059. Narrated Aslam: ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb ṣ said that Allāh’s Messenger (ﷺ), appointed a freed slave of his, called Hunaiyya, manager of the Ḥimā (i.e., a pasture devoted for grazing the animals of the Zakāt or other specified animals). He said to him, “O Hunaiyya! Don’t oppress the Muslims and ward off their curse (invocations against you), for the invocation of the oppressed is responded to (by Allāh); and allow the shepherd having a few camels and those having few sheep (to graze their animals), and take care not to allow the livestock of ‘Abdur-Raḥmān bin ‘Aūf and the livestock of (‘Uthmān) bin“ ‘Affan, for if their livestock should perish, then they have their farms and gardens, while those who own a few camels and those who own a few sheep, if their livestock should perish, they would bring their dependents to me and appeal for help saying, ‘O chief of the believers! O chief of the believers!’ Would I then neglect them? (No, of course) So, I find it easier to let them have water and grass rather than to give them gold and silver (from the Muslim’s Treasury). By Allâh, these people think that I have been unjust to them. This is their land, and during the pre-Islamic period, they fought for it and they embraced Islâm willingly while it was in their possession. By Him in Whose Hand my soul is! Were it not for the animals (in my custody) which I give to be ridden for striving in Allâh’s Cause, I would not have turned even a span of their land into a Himâ.”

(181) CHAPTER. To write down the names of (i.e., listing) the people by the Imam.

3060. Narrated Hudâifa: The Prophet said (to us), “List the names of those people who have announced that they are Muslims.” So, we listed one thousand and five hundred men. Then we wondered, “Should we be afraid (of infidels) although we are one thousand and five hundred in number?” No doubt, we witnessed ourselves being afflicted with such bad trials that a man would offer the Salât (prayer) alone while he was in fear. (1)

Narra ted Al-A’mash, “We (listed the Muslims and) found them five hundred.” And Abû Mu‘awiya said, “Between six

3061. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: A man came to the Prophet and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I have enlisted in the army for such and such Ghazwa, and my wife is leaving for Hajj.” Allah’s Messenger said, “Go and perform Hajj with your wife.”

3062. Narrated Abū Hurairah: We were in the company of Allah’s Messenger in a Ghazwa, and he remarked about a man who claimed to be a Muslim, saying, “This (man) is from the people of the (Hell) Fire.” When the battle started, the man fought violently till he got wounded. Somebody said, “O Allah’s Messenger! The man whom you described as being from the people of the (Hell) Fire fought violently today and died.” The Prophet said, “He will go to the (Hell) Fire.” Some people were on the point of doubting (the truth of what the Prophet had said). While they were in this state, suddenly someone said that he was still alive but severely wounded. When night fell, he lost patience and committed suicide. The Prophet was informed of that, and he said, “Allah is the Most Great! I testify that I am Allâh’s slave and His Messenger.” Then he ordered Bilâl to announce amongst the people: “None will enter Paradise but a Muslim, and Allâh may support this religion (i.e., Islâm) even with a Fajîr (disobedient, evil, wicked) man.” (See H. 2898)

(183) CHAPTER. (It is permissible for) somebody to take over the leadership of the army during a battle without being appointed when there is danger from the enemy.

3063. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ delivered a Khûthba (religious talk) and said, “Zaid took the flag and was martyred, then Ja’far took it and was martyred, then ‘Abdullâh bin Rawâha took it and was martyred, and then Khâlid bin Al-Walîd took it without being appointed, and Allâh gave him victory.” The Prophet ﷺ added, “I am not pleased (or said, ‘They will not be pleased’) that they should remain (alive) with us,” while his eyes were overflowing with tears. (See H. 1246)
(184) CHAPTER. Supporting with reinforcements.

3064. Narrated Anas: The people of the tribes of Ri‘il, Dhakwãn, ‘Uṣaiyya and Bani Liyân came to the Prophet and claimed that they had embraced Islam, and they requested him to support them with some men to fight their own people. The Prophet supported them with seventy men from the Ansâr whom we used to call Al-Qurra’ (i.e., scholars), who (out of piety) used to cut wood during the day and offer Salât (prayer) all the night. So, those people took the (seventy) men till they reached a place called Bi’r Ma‘ûna, where they betrayed and martyred them. So, the Prophet invoked evil on the tribe of Ri‘il, Dhakwãn and Bani Liyân for one month in the Salât.

Narrated Qatâda: Anas told us that they (i.e., Muslims) used to recite a Qur’anic Verse concerning those martyrs which was:

“O Allah! Let our people be informed on our behalf that we have met our Lord Who has got pleased with us and made us pleased.”

Then the Verse was cancelled.

(185) CHAPTER. Staying in the (enemy) town for three (days and nights) on having victory over the enemy.

3065. Narrated Abu Ṭalha: Whenever the Prophet conquered some people, he would stay in their town for three nights.
(186) CHAPTER. The distribution of the war booty after a Ghazwa and during a journey.

Narrated Râfi': Rasûlullâh ﷺ: We were in the company of the Prophet ﷺ at Dhul-Ḥulaifa and we got some camels and sheep. He distributed them, considering ten sheep as equal to one camel.

3066. Narrated Anas: Rasûlullâh ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ performed 'Umra, setting out from Al-Jî'rânâ where he distributed the war booty of Ḥunain.

(187) CHAPTER. If Al-Mushrikûn take the property of a Muslim as war booty and later on the Muslim gets it back (on overcoming them), (does the owner have the right to get it back or should it be included in the war booty gained by the Muslims)?

3067. Narrated Nâfi': Rasûlullâh ﷺ: A horse of Ibn ‘Umar fled and the enemy took it. Then the Muslims conquered the enemy and the horse was returned to him during the lifetime of Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ. And also, once a slave of Ibn ‘Umar fled and joined the Byzantines, and when the Muslims conquered them, Khalîd bin Al-Walîd returned the slave to him after the death of the Prophet ﷺ.
3068.Narrated Nafi': Once a slave of Ibn 'Umar fled and joined the Byzantines. Khalid bin Al-Walid got him back and returned him to 'Abdullâh (bin 'Umar).

Once a horse of Ibn 'Umar also ran away and followed the Byzantines, and he (i.e., Khalid) got it back and returned it to 'Abdullâh.

3069. Narrated Ibn 'Umar that he was riding a horse on the day the Muslims fought (against the Byzantines), and the commander of the Muslim army was Khalid bin Al-Walid who had been appointed by Abu Bakr. The enemy took the horse away, and when the enemy was defeated, Khalid returned the horse to him.

(188) CHAPTER. Speaking Persian and speaking (Arabic) with an unfamiliar accent.

The Statement of Allâh ﷻ:
“And difference of your languages and colours…” (V.30:22)

And also His Statement:
“And We sent not a Messenger except with the language of his people…” (V.14:4)

3070. Narrated Jâbir bin 'Abdullâh: I said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! We have slaughtered a young sheep of ours and have ground one masha of barley. So, I invite you along with some persons.” So, the Prophet ﷺ said in a loud voice, “O the people of Al-Khandaq (the Trench)! Jâbir has prepared Sûr\(^{(1)}\), so come along.”

3071. Narrated Umm Khâlid, the daughter of Khâlid bin Sa‘îd: I went to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ with my father and I was wearing a yellow shirt. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Sanah, Sanah!” (‘Abdullâh, the narrator, said that Sanah meant ‘beautiful’ in the Ethiopian language). Then I started playing with the seal of Prophethood (in between the Prophet’s shoulders) and my father rebuked me harshly for that. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Leave her,” and then Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ (invoked Allâh to grant me a long life) by saying, “Wear this dress till it is worn out and then wear it till it is worn out, and then wear it till it is worn out.” (The narrator adds, “It is said that she lived for a long period, wearing that (yellow) dress till its colour became dark because of long wear.”)

3072. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Al-Hasan bin ‘Ali took a date from the dates of the Sadaqa (charity) and put it in his mouth. The Prophet ﷺ said (to him) in Persian, “Kakh, Kakh! [i.e., throw it out from your mouth] Don’t you know that we do not eat the Sadaqa (i.e., what is given in charity and charity is the dirt of the people).”

\(^{(1)}\) (H. 3070) Sûr is a Persian word meaning food.
(189) CHAPTER. Al-Ghulul (stealing from the war booty before its distribution).

And the Statement of Allah Ṭan:َُّرُونَ يَتَّلِلُّ يَا خَلْقَ الْيَوْمِ الْيَمِينِ وَلا يَأْتِيُّوْنَ (116)

...And whosoever deceives his companions as regard booty, he shall bring forth on the Day of Resurrection that which he took (illegally)...” (V.3:161)

3073. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet got up amongst us and mentioned Al-Ghulul, emphasized its magnitude and declared that it was a great sin saying, “Don’t commit Ghulul, for I should not like to see anyone amongst you on the Day of Resurrection, carrying over his neck a sheep that will be bleating, or carrying over his neck a horse that will be neighing. Such a man will be saying: ‘O Allah’s Messenger! Intercede with Allah for me’, and I will reply, ‘I can’t help you, for I have conveyed Allah’s Message to you.’ Nor should I like to see a man carrying over his neck, a camel that will be grunting. Such a man will say, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! Intercede with Allah for me’, and I will say, ‘I can’t help you for I have conveyed Allah’s Message to you,’ or one carrying over his neck gold and silver and saying, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! Intercede with Allah for me, and I will say, ‘I can’t help you for I have conveyed Allah’s Message to you,’ or one carrying clothes that will be fluttering, and the man will say, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! Intercede with Allah for me’. And I will say, ‘I can’t help you, for I have conveyed Allah’s Message to you.’”

(190) CHAPTER. A little Ghulul (i.e., a minor theft).

(1) (Ch. 189) Ghulul: See glossary.
3074. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Amr: There was a man who looked after the family and the belongings of the Prophet and he was called Kirkira. The man died and Allah’s Messenger said, “He is in the (Hell) Fire.” The people then went to look at him and found in his place, a cloak he had stolen from the war booty.

3075. Narrated ‘Abaya bin Rifa‘a: My grandfather, Rafi’ said, “We were in the company of the Prophet at Dhul-Hulaifa, and the people suffered from hunger. We got some camels and sheep (as booty) and the Prophet was still behind the people. They hurried and put the cooking pots on the fire. (When he came) he ordered that the cooking pots should be upset and then he distributed the booty (amongst the people), regarding ten sheep as equal to one camel. Then a camel fled and the people chased it till they got tired, as they had a few horses (for chasing it). So a man threw an arrow at it and caused it to stop (with Allah’s Permission). On that the Prophet said, ‘Some of these animals behave like wild beasts, so, if any animal flees from you, deal with it in the same way.’” My grandfather asked (the Prophet), “We hope (or are afraid) that we may meet the enemy tomorrow and we have no knives. Can we slaughter our animals with canes?” Allah’s Messenger replied, “If the instrument...”
used for slaughtering causes the animal to bleed profusely, and if Allah’s Name is mentioned on slaughtering it, then eat it (i.e., it is lawful), but don’t use a tooth or nails, and I am telling you the reason: a tooth is a bone (and slaughtering with a bone is forbidden), and nail is the slaughtering instrument of the Ethiopians.”

(192) CHAPTER. The conveyance of the good tidings of victories.

3076. Narrated Qais: Jarir bin ‘Abdullah said to me, “Allah’s Messenger said to me, ‘Won’t you relieve me from Dhul-Khalasa?’ Dhul-Khalasa was a house belonging to the tribe of Khath’am and there used to be worshipped the Taghiyas (idols) (of the Daus Khath’am, and Bajaila tribes) and it used to be called Ka’ba-al-Yamaniya. So, I proceeded with one hundred and fifty (men) from the tribe of A’hmas who were excellent knights. I informed the Prophet that I could not sit firm on horses, so he stroked me on the chest with his hand and I noticed his finger-marks on my chest. He invoked, ‘O Allah! Make him firm and a guide and a rightly-guided man.’ Jarir set out towards that place, dismantled and burnt it, and then sent the good news to Allah’s Messenger. The messenger of Jarir said to Allah’s Messenger, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! By Him Who has sent you with the Truth, I did not come to you till it (i.e., the house) had been turned (black) like a scabby camel (covered with tar).’ So, the Prophet invoked Allah to bless the horses of the men of A’hmas five times.

(193) CHAPTER. What may be given to the bringer of glad tidings.

Ka'b bin Mālik gave two garments to the person who brought the glad tidings of the acceptance of his repentance.

(194) CHAPTER. There is no emigration (from Makkah) after the Conquest (of Makkah).

3077.Narrated Ibn `Abbas: The Prophet said on the day of the conquest of Makkah, “There is no emigration (after the Conquest), but Ḥijād and good intentions, and when you are called for Ḥijād, you should immediately respond to the call.”

3078, 3079.Narrated Abū 'Uthmān An-Nahdī: Mujāshi' bin Mas'ūd took his brother Mujālid bin Mus'ūd to the Prophet and said, “This is Mujālid, and he will give the Bai'a (pledge) to you for emigration.” The Prophet said, “There is no emigration after the conquest of Makkah, but I will take his Bai'a (pledge) for Islam.”

3080.Narrated ‘Atā': I and ‘Ubayd bin Umair went to ‘Aishah while she was staying near Thabar (i.e., a mountain). She said, “There is no emigration after Allāh gave His Prophet victory over Makkah.”

(1) (H. 3077) See the footnote of Hadith No. 2825.
(195) CHAPTER. (It is permissible for a man) to look in (or search) the hair of the Dhimmī women (i.e., non-Muslims living under the protection of Muslims) and that of the lady-believers if they disobey Allāh, and to compel them to take off their clothes if there is necessity.

3081. Narrated Sa‘d bin ‘Ubaida: Abū `Abdur-Raḥmān, who was one of the supporters of ‘Uthmān, said to Abū Ṭalḥa who was one of the supporters of ‘Ali, “I perfectly know what encouraged your leader (i.e., ‘Alī) to shed blood. I heard him saying: Once the Prophet ﷺ sent me and Az-Zubair saying, ‘Proceed to such and such Ar-Raudah (place) where you will find a lady, whom Ḥāṭib has given a letter.’ So when we arrived at Ar-Raudah, we requested the lady to hand over the letter to us. She said, ‘Ḥāṭib has not given me any letter.’ We said to her, ‘Take out the letter or else we will strip off your clothes (to search the letter).’ So, she took it out of her braid. So, the Prophet ﷺ sent for Utaib, (who came) and said, ‘Don’t hasten to give your judgement about me, for by Allāh, I have neither become a disbeliever, nor an apostate by discarding Islām. (The reason for writing this letter was) that there is none of your companions but has relatives in Makkah, through whom Allāh protects their families and property, while I have nobody there, so I wanted to do them some favour (so that they might look after my family and property).’ The Prophet ﷺ believed him. ‘Umar said, ‘Allow me to chop off his (Ḥāṭib’s) neck as he has proved to be a hypocrite.’ The Prophet ﷺ said, (to looked at the warriors of Badr and said (to them): Do whatever you like, for I have given you.’” ‘Abd-Rahmân added, “So this is what encouraged him (i.e., ‘Ali).”

[See Hadith No. 3007]

(196) CHAPTER. The reception of Al-Ghuzá
(i.e., Muslim fighters returning after participating in Jihâd).

3082. Narrated Ibn Abû Mulaika : Ibn Az-Zubâir said to Ibn Ja’âr, “Do you remember when I, you and Ibn ‘Abbâs went out to receive Allâh’s Messenger s.a.w.?“ Ibn Ja’âr replied in the affirmative. Ibn Az-Zubâir added, “And Allâh’s Messenger s.a.w. made us (i.e., I and Ibn ‘Abbâs) ride along with him and left you.”

3083. Narrated As-Sâ’ib bin Yazîd: I along with some boys went out to receive Allâh’s Messenger s.a.w. at Thâniyat Al-Wadâ.

(197) CHAPTER. What to say on returning from Jihâd.

3084. Narrated ‘Abdullâh:
When the Prophet s.a.w. returned (from Jihâd), he would say Takbîr thrice and add, “We are returning, if Allâh wills, with repentance and worshipping and praising (our Lord) and prostrating ourselves before our Lord. Allâh fulfilled His Promise, granted victory to His slave, and He Alone defeated the Ahzâb (Confederates).” (See H. 2995)
3085. Narrated Anas bin Malik: We were in the company of the Prophet while returning from Uṣfān, and Allâh’s Messenger was riding his she-camel keeping Sâfiyya bint Ḥuyai riding behind him. His she-camel slipped and both of them fell down. Abû Ṭalḥa jumped from his camel and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! May Allâh sacrifice me for you.” The Prophet said, “Take care of the lady.” So, Abû Ṭalḥa covered his face with a garment and went to Sâfiyya and covered her with it, and then he set right the condition of their she-camel so that both of them rode, and we were encircling Allâh’s Messenger like a cover. When we approached Al-Madîna, the Prophet said, “We are returning with repentance and worshipping and praising our Lord.” He kept on saying this till he entered Al-Madîna.

3086. Narrated Anas bin Malik that he and Abû Ṭalḥa came in the company of the Prophet and Sâfiyya was accompanying the Prophet, who let her ride behind him on his she-camel. During the journey, the she-camel slipped and both the Prophet and (his) wife fell down. Abû Ṭalḥa (the subnarrator thinks that Anas said that Abû Ṭalḥa jumped from his camel quickly) said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! May Allâh sacrifice me for your sake! Did you get hurt?” The Prophet replied, “No, but take care of the lady.” Abû Ṭalḥa covered his face with his garment and proceeded towards her and covered her with his garment, and she got... up. He then set right the condition of their she-camel and both of them (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ and his wife) rode and proceeded till they approached Al-Madīnā. The Prophet ﷺ said, “We are returning with repentance and worshipping and praising our Lord.” The Prophet ﷺ kept on saying this statement till he entered Al-Madīnā.

(198) CHAPTER. The performance of ʿSalāt (prayer) on returning from a journey.

3087. Narrated Jābir ibn ʿAbdullāh رضي الله عنه: I was on a journey in the company of the Prophet ﷺ and when we reached Al-Madīnā, he said to me, “Enter the mosque and offer two Rakʿa (prayer).”

3088. Narrated Kaʿb: Whenever the Prophet ﷺ returned from a journey in the forenoon, he would enter the mosque and offer two Rakʿa (prayer) before sitting.

(199) CHAPTER. Taking meals on arrival (from a journey).
Ibn ‘Umar used to present meals to the one who used to visit him (on returning from a journey).

3089. Narrated Muḥārib bin Dithār: Jábir bin ‘Abdullāh ﷺ said, “When Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ arrived at Al-Madīnah, he slaughtered a camel or a cow.” Jábir added, “The Prophet ﷺ bought a camel from me for two Uqiyā (of gold) and one or two Dirham. When he reached Sirār, he ordered that a cow be slaughtered, and they ate its meat. When he arrived at Al-Madīnah, he ordered me to go to the mosque and offer two Rakʿa (prayer), and weighed (and gave) me the price of the camel.”

3090. Narrated Jábir bin ‘Abdullāh ﷺ: Once, I returned from a journey and the Prophet ﷺ said (to me), “Offer two Rakʿa (prayer).” [Sirār is a place near Al-Madīnah].
57 - THE BOOK OF THE OBLIGATIONS OF KHUMUS

(1) CHAPTER. The obligations of Khumus.

3091. Narrated 'Ali b. Abi Talib: I got a she-camel in my share of the war booty on the day (of the battle) of Badr, and the Prophet had given me a she-camel from the Khumus. When I intended to marry Fatima, the daughter of Allâh’s Messenger, I had an appointment with a goldsmith from the tribe of Bani Qainuqâ' to go with me to bring ldhkhhir (a grass of pleasant smell) and sell it to the goldsmiths and spend its price on my wedding banquet. I was collecting for my she-camels, equipment of saddles, sacks and ropes while my two she-camels were kneeling down beside the room of an Ansârî man. I returned after collecting whatever I collected, to see the humps of my two she-camels cut off and their flanks cut open and some portion of their livers was taken out. When I saw that state of my two she-camels, I could not hold back my tears. I asked, “Who has done this?” The people replied, “Hâmza b. 'Abdul-Muttâlib who is staying with some Ansârî drunks in this house.” I went away till I reached the Prophet, and Zaid b. Hârîthah was with him. The Prophet noticed on my face the effect of what I had suffered, so the Prophet asked, “What is wrong with you?” I replied, “O Allâh’s Messenger! I have never seen such a day as today. Hâmza attacked my two she-camels, cut off their humps, and ripped open their flanks, and he is sitting there in a house in the company of some drunks.” The Prophet then asked for his covering sheet, put it on, and set out walking, followed by me and Zaid b. Hârîthah, till he came to the house where Hâmza was staying. He asked permission to enter, and they allowed him, and they were drunk. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ started rebuking Ḥamza for what he had done, but Ḥamza was drunk and his eyes were red. Ḥamza looked at Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and then he raised his eyes, looking at his knees, then he raised up his eyes looking at his umbilicus, and again he raised up his eyes looking at his face. Ḥamza then said, “Aren’t you but the slaves of my father?” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ realised that he was drunk, so Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ retreated, and we went out with him.

3092. Narrated ‘Āishah Mother of the believers: After the death of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, Fāṭima, the daughter of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ asked Ābū Bakr Aṣ-Ṣiddiq to give her, her share of inheritance from what Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ had left of the Fai (i.e., booty gained without fighting. See V.59:6) — which Allāh had given him.
3093. Abū Bakr said to her, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘Our property will not be inherited, whatever we (i.e., Prophets) leave is Sadaqa (to be used for charity).’” Fāṭima, the daughter of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ got angry and stopped speaking to Abū Bakr, and continued assuming that attitude till she died. Fāṭima remained alive for six months after the death of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ. She used to ask Abū Bakr for her share from the property of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ which he left at Khāibār, and Fadak, and his property at Al-Madīna (devoted for charity). Abū Bakr refused to give her that property and said, “I will not leave anything Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ used to do, because I am afraid that if I left something from all that which the Prophet ﷺ used to order, then I would go astray.” (Later on) ‘Umar gave the Prophet’s property (of Sadaqa) at Al-Madīna to ‘Alī and ‘Abbās, but he withheld the properties of Khāibār and Fadak in his custody and said, “These two properties are the Sadaqa which Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ used to use for his expenditures and urgent needs. Now, their management is to be entrusted to the ruler.” (Az-Zuhrī said, “They have been managed in this way till today.”)

3094. Narrated Mālik bin Aūs: While I was at home, the sun rose high and it got hot. Suddenly the messenger of ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb came to me and said, “The chief of the believers has sent for you.” So, I went along with him till I entered the place where ‘Umar was sitting on a bedstead made of date-palm leaves and covered with no mattress, and he was leaning over a leather pillow. I greeted him and sat down. He said, “O Mālik! Some persons of your people who have families came to me and I have ordered that a gift should be given to them, so take it and distribute it among them.” I said, “O chief of the believers! I wish that you order someone else to do it.” He said, “O man! Take it.” While I was sitting there with him, his doorman Yarfa came saying, “‘Uthmān, ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin ‘Auf, Az-Zubair and Sa‘d bin AbI Waqqās are asking your permission (to see you); may I admit them?” ‘Umar said, “Yes.” So, they were admitted and they came in and greeted (him) and sat down. After a while Yarfa came again and said, “May I admit ‘Ali and ‘Abbās?” ‘Umar said, “Yes.” So, they were admitted and they came in and greeted (him) and sat down. Then ‘Abbās said, “O chief of the believers! Judge between me and this (i.e., ‘Ali).” They had a dispute regarding the property of Bānī An-Nadīr which Allāh had given to His Messenger ﷺ as Fai (booty). The group (i.e., ‘Uthmān and his companions) said, “O chief of the believers! Judge between them and relieve both of them from each other.” ‘Umar said, “Be patient! I beseech you by Allāh by Whose Permission the heaven and the earth exist, do you know that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘Our (i.e., Prophets’) property will not be inherited, and whatever we leave, is Sadaqa (to be used for charity),’ and Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ meant himself (by saying “we”)?” The group said, “He said so.” ‘Umar then turned to ‘Ali and ‘Abbās and said, “I beseech you by Allāh, do you know that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said so?” They replied, “He said so.” ‘Umar then said, “So, I will talk to you about this matter. Allāh bestowed on His Messenger with a special favour of something of this Fai which he gave to nobody else.” ‘Umar then recited the Holy Verse:

“And what Allāh gave as booty Fai to His Messenger (Muhammad) from them... (up to)... And Allāh is able to do all things.” (V.59:6)

‘Umar added, “So, this property was especially given to Allāh’s Messenger. But, by Allāh, neither did he take possession of it and leave you, nor did he favour himself with it to your exclusion, but he gave it to all of you and distributed it amongst you till this property remained out of it. Allāh’s Messenger used to meet the yearly expenses of his family out of this property, and used to keep the rest of its revenue to be spent in Allāh’s Cause. Allāh’s Messenger kept on doing this during all his lifetime. I ask you by Allāh, do you know this?” They replied in the affirmative. ‘Umar then said to ‘Ali and ‘Abbās. “I ask you by Allāh, do you know this?” ‘Umar added, “When Allāh took His Prophet unto Him, ‘Abū Bakr said, ‘I am the successor of Allāh’s Messenger, so, Abū Bakr took over that property and managed it in the same way as Allāh’s Messenger used to do, and Allāh knows that he was true, pious, and rightly-guided, and he was a follower of what was right. Then Allāh took Abū Bakr unto Him and I became Abū Bakr’s successor. And I kept that property in my possession for the first two years of my caliphate, managing it in the same way as Allāh’s Messenger used to do and as Abū Bakr used to do, and Allāh knows that I have been true, pious, rightly-guided, and a follower of what is right. Now you both (i.e., ‘Ali and ‘Abbās) came to talk to me, bearing the same claim and presenting the same case; you, 'Abbās, came to me asking for your share from your nephew's property, and this man, (i.e., 'Alī), came to me asking for his wife's share from her father's property. I told you both that Allāh's Messenger ﷺ said, 'Our (Prophets') properties are not to be inherited, but what we leave is Sadaqā (to be used for charity).'

When I thought it right that I should hand over this property to you, I said to you, 'I am ready to hand over this property to you if you wish, on the condition that you would take Allāh's Pledge and Convention that you would manage it in the same way as Allāh's Messenger ﷺ used to do, and as Abū Bakr used to do and as I have done since I was incharge of it.' So, both of you said (to me), 'Hand it over to us,' and on that condition I handed it over to you. So, I ask you by Allāh, did I hand it over to them on this condition?'

The group said, "Yes." Then 'Umar faced 'Alī and 'Abbās saying, "I ask you by Allāh, did I hand it over to you on this condition?"

They said, "Yes." He said, "Do you want now to give a different decision? By Allāh, with Whose Leave both the heaven and the earth exist, I will never give any decision other than that (I have already given). And if you are unable to manage it, then return it to me, and I will do the job on your behalf."
(2) CHAPTER. The payment of Khumus is a part of religion.

3095. Narrated Ibn 'Abbās: The delegates of the tribe of ‘Abdul-Qais came and said, “O Allah's Messenger! We are from the tribe of Rabī‘a, and there is the infidels of the tribe of Muṣlar intervening between you and us, so we cannot come to you except in the Sacred Months. So, please order us some instructions that we may apply it to ourselves and also invite our people whom we left behind us to observe as well.”

The Prophet ﷺ said, “I order you (to do) four (things) and forbid you from four: I order you to believe in Allah, to testify that La ilaha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah) (the Prophet ﷺ pointed with his hand); to offer Salât (prayer) (Iqamāt-as-Salāt); to pay Zakāt; to observe Saum (fast) the month of Ramadan, and to pay the Khumus (i.e., one-fifth) of the war booty to be given in Allah's Cause, (1) and I forbid you Ad-Dubba‘, An-Naqir, Al-Hantam and Al-Muzaffat (these are utensils used for preparing alcoholic drinks).”

[See Vol. 1, Hadith No.53]

(3) CHAPTER. The expenditure of the wives of the Prophet after his death.

3096. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “My heirs should not take even a single Dinār (i.e., anything from my property), and whatever I leave, (1) (H. 3095) The Prophet ﷺ said that he was going to order them to observe four things, yet he mentioned five when giving details. That is because the first matter of belief in Allah was not a new order, for they had already believed in Allah.
excluding the expenditure of my wives and my labourers, will be \textit{Sadaqa} (i.e., be used for charity)."

3097. Narrated ‘\textit{Aishah} \(\setminus\) died, and there was nothing in my house that a living being could eat, except some barley lying on a shelf. So, I ate of it for a long period and measured it, and (after a short period) it was consumed.

3098. Narrated ‘\textit{Amr bin Al-\textit{H}arîth}: The Prophet \(\setminus\) did not leave anything (after his death) except his arms, a white mule, and a (piece of) land which he had given as \textit{Sadaqa}.

(4) \textbf{CHAPTER}. What has been said regarding the houses of the wives of the Prophet \(\setminus\) and that which were named after them of the houses (e.g., ‘\textit{Aishah’s} house).

And the Statement of \textit{Allah}:

“\textit{And stay in your houses}, \(\setminus\) \textit{(O wives of the Prophet)...}” (V.33:33)

And also: “\textit{Enter not the Prophet’s houses, unless permission is given to you...}” (V.33:53)

3099. Narrated ‘\textit{Aishah}, the wife of the Prophet \(\setminus\): When the sickness of \textit{Allah’s} Messenger \(\setminus\) got aggravated, he asked the permission of his wives that he should be treated in my house, and they permitted him.
3100. Narrated Ibn AbI Mulaika: ‘Aishah said, “The Prophet died in my house on the day of my turn while he was leaning on my chest closer to my neck, and Allah made my saliva mix with his saliva.” ‘Aishah added, “Abdur-Rahmân came with a Siwâk and the Prophet was too weak to use it so I took it, chewed it and then (gave it to him and he) cleaned his teeth with it.”

3101. Narrated Safiyya, the wife of the Prophet that she came to visit Allah’s Messenger while he was in I’tikâf (i.e., seclusion) in the mosque during the last ten days of Ramaḍân. When she got up to return, Allah’s Messenger got up with her and accompanied her, and when he reached near the gate of the mosque close to the door (of the house) of Umm Salama, the wife of the Prophet, two Ansârî men passed by them and greeted Allah’s Messenger; and then went away. Allah’s Messenger addressed them saying, “Don’t hurry! (She is my wife).” They said, “Glorified be Allah! O Allah’s Messenger. (You are far away from any suspicion),” and his saying was hard on them. Allah’s Messenger said, “Satan circulates in a human being as blood does (in his body). I was afraid that Satan might put some (evil) thoughts in your hearts.”

(H. 3100) This is what she meant by “Allah made my saliva mix with his saliva.”
3102. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar that once I went upstairs in Ḥafṣa’s house and saw the Prophet answering the call of nature with his back towards the Qiblah and facing Sham.

3103. Narrated ‘Aishah that Allah’s Messenger used to offer the ‘Asr prayer while the sun was still shining in her Hūjra (i.e., her dwelling place).

3104. Narrated ‘Abdullah: The Prophet stood up and delivered a Khutba (religious talk), and pointing to ‘Aishah’s house (i.e., eastwards), he said thrice, Al-Fitnah (trial or affliction) (will appear from) there, from where comes out the side of the Satan’s head (i.e., from the East).”

3105. Narrated ‘Amra bint ‘Abdur-Rahmān: ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet told her that once Allāh’s Messenger was with her and she heard somebody asking permission to enter Ḥafṣa’s house. She said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! This man is asking permission to enter your house.” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ replied, “I think he is so-and-so (meaning) the foster-uncle of Ḥafṣa. What is rendered illegal because of blood relations is also rendered illegal because of the corresponding foster suckling relations.”

(5) CHAPTER. What has been said regarding the armour of the Prophet ﷺ, his staff, sword, cup and ring, and what the caliphs after him used of these things which had not been distributed, and also (what is said) about his hair, shoes and utensils which were considered as blessed things by his companions and others after his death.

3106. Narrated Anas that when Abū Bakr became the caliph, he sent him to Bahrain and wrote this letter for him, and stamped it with the ring of the Prophet ﷺ. Three lines were engraved on the ring, (the word) ‘Muḥammad’ was in a line, ‘Messenger’ was in another line, and ‘Allāh’ in a third line.

3107. Narrated ‘Īsā bin Ṭahmān: Anas brought out to us two worn out leather shoes without hair and with pieces of leather straps.

Later on Ṯābit Al-Bunānī told me that Anas said that they were the shoes of the Prophet ﷺ.
3108. Narrated Abū Burda: ‘Aishah brought out to us a patched woollen garment, and she said, “(It chanced that) the soul of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ was taken away while he was wearing this.” Abū-Burda added, ‘Aishah brought out to us a thick waist sheet like the ones made by the Yemenites, and also a garment of the type called Al-Mulabbada.”

3109. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: When the cup of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ got broken, he fixed it with a silver wire at the crack. The subnarrator, ‘Aṣim said, “I saw the cup and drank (water) in it.”

3110. Narrated ‘Ali bin Al-Ḥusain that when they reached Al-Madina after returning from Yazīd bin Mu‘āwiya after the martyrdom of Ḥusain bin ‘Alī, Al-Miswar bin Makhrama met him and said to him, “Do you have any need you may order me to satisfy?” ‘Ali said, “No.” Al-Miswar said, “Will you give me the sword of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ for I am afraid that people may take it from you by force? By Allah, if you give it to me, they will never be able to take it till I die.” When Ali bin Abi Talib demanded the hand of the daughter of Abu Jahl to be his wife besides Fatima, I heard Allah’s Messenger on his pulpit delivering a Khutba (religious talk) in this connection before the people, and I had then attained my age of puberty. Allah’s Messenger said, “Fatima is from me, and I am afraid she may be put to trials in her religion (because of jealousy).” The Prophet then mentioned one of his son-in-law who was from the tribe of ‘Abd Shams, and he praised him as a good son-in-law, saying, “Whatever he said was the truth, and he promised me and fulfilled his promise. I do not make a legal thing illegal, nor do I make an illegal thing legal, but by Allah, the daughter of Allah’s Messenger and the daughter of the enemy of Allah, (i.e., Abu Jahl) can never get together (as the wives of one man).”

[See Vol. 5, Hadith No.3729]

3111. Narrated Ibn Al-Hanafiyya: If Ali had spoken anything bad about ‘Uthman then he would have mentioned the day when some persons came to him and complained about the Zakat officials of ‘Uthman. ‘Ali then said to me, “Go to ‘Uthman and say to him, ‘This document contains the regulations of spending the Sadaqa of Allah’s Messenger. So, order your Zakat officials to act accordingly.'” I took the document to ‘Uthman. ‘Uthman said, “Take it away, for we are not in need of..."
it.” I returned to ‘Ali with it and informed him of that. He said, “Put it whence you took it.”

3112. Narrated Muḥammad bin Ṣūqa: I heard Mundhir Ath-Thauri reporting Ibn Ḥanafiyya who said, “My father sent me saying, ‘Take this letter to ‘Uthmān for it contains the orders of the Prophet concerning the Ṣadaqa.’”

(6) CHAPTER. The evidence that confirms that the Ḥumus (i.e., one-fifth of the war booty) is meant for the needs of Allāh’s Messenger and the poor; and the fact that Allāh’s Messenger favoured the people of As-Suffa and the widows in this matter, for when Fāṭima complained of suffering from grinding and the hand-mill and requested him to provide her with a slave-girl (from the booty), he (did not give her a slave-girl) but told her to ask for Allāh’s Aid.

3113. Narrated ‘Ali: Fāṭima complained of what she suffered from the hand-mill and from grinding, when she got the news that some slave-girls of the booty had been brought to Allāh’s Messenger. She went to him to ask for a maidservant, but she could not find him, and told ‘Aishah of her need. When the Prophet came, ‘Aishah informed him of that. The Prophet came to our house when we had gone to our beds. (On seeing the Prophet) we were going to get up, but he said, “Keep at your places.” I felt the coolness of the Prophet’s feet on my chest. Then he said, “Shall I tell you a thing which is better than what you asked me for? When you go to your beds, say: Allāhu Akbar (i.e., Allāh is the Most Great) for 34 times, and Alhamdu Lillah (i.e., all the praises are for Allah) for 33 times, and Subhān Allah(1) (i.e., Glorified be Allah) for 33 times. This is better for you than what you have requested.

(7) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah (ب) ت: “Verily one-fifth (1/5th) of it is assigned to Allah and to the Messenger ...” (V. 8:41) It means that Allah’s Messenger had the authority of distributing it (i.e., the fifth share), for Allah’s Messenger said, “I am a distributor and a treasurer, and Allah is the Giver.”

3114. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: A boy was born to one of our men, the Aṣārī, and he wanted to name him Muḥammad. The Aṣārī man said, “I took the boy to the Prophet . The Prophet said, “Name your child by my name, but do not name (them) by my Kunya, for I have been made Qāsim (i.e., a distributor) to distribute (the booty etc.) amongst you.” The narrator, Ḥusain said that the Prophet said, “I have been sent as a Qāsim (i.e., distributor) to distribute (things) amongst you.” [The subnarrator Sālim said that he heard Jābir saying that the man wanted to name the boy Al-Qāsim, but the Prophet said, “Call (your sons) by my name, but do not name (them) by my Kunya.”]

(1) (H. 3113) See glossary.
3115. Narrated Jábir bin ‘Abdullãh Al-Anãrî: A man amongst us begot a boy whom he named Al-Qãsim. On that the Ansãr said, (to the man), “We will never call you Abûl-Qãsim and will never please you with this blessed title.” So, he went to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! I have begotten a boy whom I named Abu-l-Qãsim and the Ansãr said, ‘We will never call you Abûl-Qãsim, nor will we please you with this title.’” The Prophet ﷺ said, “The Ansãr have done well. Name by my name, but do not name by my Kunya, (1) for I am Qãsim.”

3116. Narrated Mu‘awiya: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If Allâh wants to do good for somebody, He makes him comprehend the religion [i.e., Islâm, the understanding of the Qur‘ân and the Sunna (legal ways of the Prophet ﷺ)], and Allâh is the Giver and I am Al-Qãsim (i.e the distributor), and this (Muslim) nation will remain victorious over their opponents, till Allâh’s Order comes and they will still be victorious.” (See H. 71)

(1) (H. 3115) Kunya: Means calling a man father of so-and-so or a woman mother of so-and-so and this is a custom of Arabs.
3117. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger said, "Neither do I give you (anything) nor withhold (anything) from you, but I am just a distributor (i.e., Qasim), and I give as I am ordered (by Allah)."

3118. Narrated Khawla bint Al-Anṣāriyya: I heard Allah's Messenger saying, "Some people spend Allah's Wealth (i.e., Muslim's wealth) in an unjust manner; such people will be put in the (Hell) Fire on the Day of Resurrection."

(8) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet: "Booty has been made legal for you Muslims."

And the Statement of Allah: "Allah has promised you abundant spoils that you will capture..." (V.48:20)

So, the booty is for all the Muslim fighters who took part in the battle till Allah's Messenger explained (the details) of those who deserved or not.

[See Fath Al-Bārî].

3119. Narrated Urwa-al-Bakri: The Prophet said, "Good will remain (as a permanent quality) in the forelock of horse (meant for Jihad) as a source of rewards (in the Hereafter) and booty, till the Day of Resurrection."

[Vol.4, Hadith No.2849, 2850, 2851, 2852].
3120. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “When Khosrau is ruined, there will be no Khosrau after him; and when Caesar is ruined, there will be no Caesar after him. By Him in Whose Hands my soul is, you will spend their treasures in Allah’s Cause.”

3121. Narrated Jabir bin Samura: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “When Khosrau is ruined, there will be no Khosrau after him; and when Caesar is ruined, there will be no Caesar after him. By Him in Whose Hands my soul is, you will spend their treasures in Allah’s Cause.”

3122. Narrated Jabir bin ‘Abdullãh: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Booty has been made legal for me.”

3123. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Allah guarantees him who strives in His Cause and whose motivation for going out is nothing but Jihad in His Cause and belief in His Words (Islamic Monotheism) that He will admit him into Paradise (if martyred) or bring him back to his dwelling place, whence he has come out, with what he gains of reward or booty."

3124. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, "A Prophet amongst the Prophets carried out a holy military expedition, so he said to his followers, ‘Anyone who has married a woman and wants to consummate the marriage and has not done so yet, should not accompany me; nor should a man who has built a house but has not completed its roof; nor a man who has sheep or she-camels and is waiting for the birth of their young ones.’ So, the Prophet carried out the expedition and when he reached that town at the time or nearly at the time of the ‘Salāt-ul-Asr (‘Asr prayer), he said to the sun, ‘O sun! You are under Allah’s Order. O Allah! Stop it (i.e., the sun) from setting.’ It was stopped till Allah made him victorious.

‘Then he collected the booty and the fire came to burn it, but it did not burn it. He said (to his men), ‘Some of you have stolen something from the booty. So, one man from every tribe should give me the Bait’a (pledge) by shaking hands with me.’ (They did so and) the hand of a man got stuck in the hand of their Prophet. Then that Prophet said (to the man), ‘The theft has been committed by your people. So, all the persons of your tribe should give me the Bait’a (pledge) by shaking hands with me.’ The hands of two or three men got stuck in the hand of their Prophet and he said, ‘You have committed the theft.’ Then they brought a head of gold like the head of a cow and put it there, and the fire came and consumed the booty.” The Prophet added: “Then Allah saw our weakness (1) (H. 3124) Booty used to be burnt by a fire sent by Allah.
and disability, so He made booty legal for us."

(9) CHAPTER. The war booty is for those who witness the battles.

3125. Narrated Aslam: ‘Umar said, “Were it not for those Muslims who have not come to existence yet, I would have distributed (the land of) every town I conquer among the fighters as the Prophet distributed the land of Khaibar.”

(10) CHAPTER. If somebody fights for the sake of booty, will his reward (in the Hereafter) be reduced?

3126. Narrated Abū Mūsa Al-As'ārī: A bedouin asked the Prophet, “A man may fight for the sake of booty, and another may fight so that he may be mentioned by the people, and a third may fight to show his position (i.e., bravery); which of these is regarded as fighting in Allāh’s Cause?” The Prophet said, “He who fights so that Allāh’s Word [i.e., Lā ilāha iIlallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah and i.e., Allah’s religion of Islamic Monotheism)] should be superior, is for Allāh’s Cause.”

(11) CHAPTER. The Imam distributes what (war booty) is presented before him and keeps aside the share of those who are not present or are absent at the time (of distribution).

3127. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Mulaika: Some silken cloaks with golden... buttons were presented to the Prophet ﷺ. He distributed them amongst his companions and kept one for Makhrama bin Naufal. Later on, Makhrama came along with his son Al-Miswar bin Makhrama, and stood up at the gate and said (to his son), “Call him (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ) to me.” The Prophet ﷺ heard his voice, took a silken cloak and brought it to him, placing those golden buttons in front of him saying, “O Abūl-Miswar! I have kept this aside for you! O Abūl-Miswar! I have kept this aside for you!” Makhrama was a bad-tempered man.\(^1\)

\(^1\) (H. 3127) This was the reason why the Prophet ﷺ treated him gently and mercifully and he always used to treat his companions in this manner.
(13) CHAPTER. Blessed is the wealth of a living or a dead Ghâzi (i.e., Muslim fighter) who fought along with the Prophet ﷺ or along with the ruler.

3129. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin Az-Zubair: When Az-Zubair got up during the battle of Al-Jamal, he called me and I stood up beside him, and he said to me, “O my son! Today one will be killed either as an oppressor or as an oppressed one. I see that I will be killed as an oppressed one. My biggest worry is my debts. Do you think, if we pay the debts, there will be something left for us from our money?” Az-Zubair added, “O my son! Sell our property and pay my debts.” Az-Zubair then willed one-third of his property and willed one-third of that portion to his sons; namely, ‘Abdullãh’s sons. He said, “One-third of the one-third. If any property is left after the payment of the debts, one-third (of the one-third of what is left) is to be given to your sons.” (Hishâm, a subnarrator added, “Some of the sons of ‘Abdullãh were equal in age to the sons of Az-Zubair e.g., Khubaib and ‘Abbâd. ‘Abdullãh had nine sons and nine daughters at that time.”) (The narrator ‘Abdullãh added:) My father (Az-Zubair) went on drawing my attention to his debts saying, “If you should fail to pay part of the debts, appeal to my Master to help you.” By Allah! I could not understand what he meant till I asked, “O father! Who is your Master?” He replied, “Allah,” whenever I had any difficulty regarding his debts, I would say, “O Master of Az-Zubair! Pay his debts on his behalf,” and Allah would (help me to) pay it. Az-Zubair was martyred leaving no Dinãr or Dirham but two pieces of land, one of which was (called) Al-Ghâba, and eleven houses in Al-Madîna, two in Basrah, one in Kûfâ and one in Egypt. In fact, the source of the debt which he owed was (the money people used to deposit with him) that if somebody brought some money to deposit with him. Az-Zubair would say, “No, (I won't keep it as a trust), but I take it as a debt, for I am afraid it might be lost.” Az-Zubair was never appointed governor or collector of the tax of Kharâj or any other similar thing, but he collected his wealth (from the war booty he gained) during the holy battles he took part in, in the company of the Prophet, Abû Bakr, ‘Umar, and ‘Uthmân. (‘Abdullâh bin Az-Zubair added:) When I counted his debt, it turned to be two million and two hundred thousand. (The subnarrator added:) Hakim bin Hizâm met ‘Abdullâh bin Az-Zubair and asked, “O my nephew! How much is the debt of my brother?” ‘Abdullâh kept it as a secret and said, “One hundred thousand.” Hakim said, “By Allah! I don't think your property will cover it.” On that ‘Abdullâh said to him, “What if it is two million and two hundred thousand?” Hakim said, “I don't think you can pay it; so if you are unable to pay all of it, I will help you.” Az-Zubair had already bought Al-Ghâba for one hundred and seventy thousand. ‘Abdullâh sold it for one million and six hundred thousand. Then he called the people saying, “Any person who has any money claim on Az-Zubair should come to us in Al-Ghâba.” There came to him ‘Abdullâh bin Ja’far whom Az-Zubair owed four hundred thousand. He said to ‘Abdullâh bin Az-Zubair, “If you wish I will forgive you the debt.” ‘Abdullâh (bin Az-Zubair) said, “No.” Then Ibn Ja’far said, “If you wish you can defer the payment if you should defer the payment of any debt.” Ibn Az-Zubair said, “No.” ‘Abdullâh bin Ja’far said, “Give me a piece of the land.” ‘Abdullãh bin Az-Zubair said (to him), “Yours is the land extending from this place to this place.” So, ‘Abdullãh bin Az-Zubair sold some of the property (including the houses) and paid his debt perfectly, retaining four and a half shares from the land (i.e., Al-Ghãba). He then went to Mu’awiya while ‘Amr bin ‘Uthmãn, Al-Mundhir bin Az-Zubair and Ibn Zam’a were sitting with him. Mu’awiya asked, “At what price have you appraised Al-Ghãba?” He said, “One hundred thousand for each share.” Mu’awiya asked, “How many shares have been left?” ‘Abdullãh replied, “Four and a half shares.” Al-Mundhir bin Az-Zubair said, “I would like to buy one share for one hundred thousand.” ‘Amr bin ‘Uthmãn said, “I would like to buy one share for one hundred thousand.” Ibn Zam’a said, “I would like to buy one share for one hundred thousand.” Mu’awiya said, “How much is left now?” ‘Abdullãh replied, “One share and a half.” Mu’awiya said, “I would like to buy it for one hundred and fifty thousand.” ‘Abdullãh also sold his part to Mu’awiya for six hundred thousand. When Ibn Az-Zubair had paid all the debts, Az-Zubair’s sons said to him, “Distribute our inheritance among us.” He said, “No, by Allãh, I will not distribute it among you till I announce in four successive Hajj seasons, ‘Would those who have money claims on Az-Zubair come so that we may pay them their debt.’” So, he started to announce that in public in every Hajj season, and when four years had elapsed, he distributed the inheritance among the inheritors. Az-Zubair had four wives, and after the one-third of his property was excluded (according to the will), each of his wives received one million and two hundred thousand. So the total amount of his property was fifty million and two hundred thousand.

(14) CHAPTER. If the Imam sends some messenger to carry out a certain duty, or orders one to stay at home (by virtue of which he does not join the battle), will he be given a share from the booty?

3130. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: ‘Uthmān did not join the battle of Badr because he was married to one of the daughters of Allāh’s Messenger and she was ill. So, the Prophet said to him, “You will get a reward and a share (from the war booty) similar to the reward and the share of one who has taken part in the battle of Badr.”

(15) CHAPTER. The proof that the Khumus is to be used for the needs of the Muslims, is that when the people of the tribe of Hawāţin appealed to the Prophet (to give them back what he had gained from them as war booty) mentioning the fact that he had been nursed by one of their women, he (as) asked the Muslims to give up their shares of the booty to them. (The second proof is) that the Prophet (as) used to promise the people to give them from the Fai’ (i.e., booty gained without fight) and from the Khumus (i.e., one-fifth of war booty) as extra rewards.
(Another proof is) what the Prophet ﷺ gave the Ansâr and what he gave to Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh from the dates of Khaibar.

3131, 3132. Narrated Marwân bin Al-Ḥakîm and Miswar bin Makhrama: When the Hawâzin delegation came to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ after they had embraced Islam and requested him to return their properties and war prisoners to them, Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “To me the best talk is the Truth, so you may choose either of two things; the war prisoners or the wealth, for I have delayed their distribution.” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ had waited for them for over ten days when he returned from Ta’îf. So, when those people came to know that Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ was not going to return to them except one of the two things, they said, “We choose our war prisoners.” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ stood up amongst the Muslims, and after glorifying Allâh as He deserved, he said, “Now then, these brothers of yours have come to us with repentance, and I see it logical that I should return their captives to them. So, whoever of you likes to do that as a favour then he can do it, and whoever amongst you likes to stick to his share, let him give up his prisoners and we will compensate him from the very first Fai (i.e., war booty received without fight) which Allâh will give us.” On that, all the people said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! We have agreed willingly to do so (return the captives).” Then Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said to them, “I do not know who amongst you has agreed to this and who has not. You should return and let your leaders inform me of your agreement.” The people returned and their leaders spoke to them, and then came to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “All the people have agreed willingly to do so and have given the permission to return the war prisoners (without compensation)."

(Az-Zuhri, the subnarrator states:) This is what has been related to us about the captives of Hawāzin.

3133. Narrated Zahdam: Once, we were in the house of Abū Mūsa who presented a meal containing cooked chicken. A man from the tribe of Banī Taimilāh with red complexion as if from the Byzantine war prisoners, was also present. Abū Mūsa invited him to share the meal but he (apologized) saying, “I saw chickens eating dirty things and so I have had a strong aversion to eating them, and have taken an oath that I will not eat chickens.” Abū Mūsa said, “Come along, I will tell you about this matter (i.e., how to cancel one’s oath). I went to the Prophet in the company of a group of Al-Ash’arīyūn, asked him to provide us with means of conveyance. He said, ‘By Allāh, I will not provide you with any means of conveyance and I have nothing to make you ride on.’ Then some camels as booty were brought to Allāh’s Messenger and he asked for us saying, ‘Where is the group of Al-Ash’arīyūn?’ Then he ordered that we should be given five camels with white humps. When we set out we said, ‘What have we done? We will never be blessed (with what we have been given).’ So, we returned to the Prophet and said, ‘We asked you to provide us with means of conveyance, but you took an oath that you would not provide us with any means of conveyance. Did you forget (your oath when you gave us the camels)?’ He replied. ‘I have not provided you with means of conveyance, but Allāh has provided you with it, and by Allāh, if Allāh will, if ever I take an oath to do something, and later on I find that it is more beneficial to do something different, I will do the thing which is better, and give expiation for my oath’.”

3134. Narrated Nāfi’ on the authority of Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما : Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ sent a Sāriya (an army-unit) towards Najd, and ‘Abdullah bin ‘Umar was in that Sāriya. They gained a great number of camels as war booty. The share of each one of them was twelve or eleven camels, and they were also given an extra camel each.

3135. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما : Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ used to give extra share to some of the members of a Sāriya (an army-unit) he used to send; in addition to the shares they shared with the army in general.

3136. Narrated Abū Müsa: We got the news of the emigration of the Prophet ﷺ while we were in Yemen, so we set out emigrating to him. We were, I and my two brothers, I being the youngest, and one of my brothers was Abū Burda and the other was

(1) (H. 3134) Sāriya: See glossary.
Abū Ruhm. We were over fifty (or fifty-three or fifty-two) men from our people. We got on board a ship which took us to An-Najashi in Ethiopia, and there we found Ja'far bin Abi Ṭālib and his companions with An-Najashi. Ja'far said (to us), “Allāh’s Messenger  has sent us here and ordered us to stay here, so you too, stay with us.” We stayed with him till we all left (Ethiopia) and met the Prophet at the time when he had conquered Khaibar. He gave us a share from its booty (or gave us from its booty). He gave only to those who had taken part in the Ghazwa with him, but he did not give any share to any person who had not participated in the conquest of Khaibar’s except the people of our ship, along with Ja'far and his companions, whom he gave a share as he gave to the people of the ship.

3137. Narrated Jābir: Allāh’s Messenger  said (to me), “If the property of Bahrain had come to us, I would have given you so much and so much.” But the Bahrain property did not come till the Prophet  had died. When the Bahrain property came, Abū Bakr ordered somebody to announce, “Any person who has money claim on Allāh’s Messenger  or whom Allāh’s Messenger  had promised something, should come to us.” So, I went to him and said, “Allāh’s Messenger  had promised to give me so much and so much.” Abū Bakr scooped up money with both hands.
thrice for me. (The subnarrator Sufyān illustrated this action by scooping up with both hands and said, “Ibn Al-Munkadir, another subnarrator, used to illustrate it in this way.”)

Narrated Jābir: Once I went to Abū Bakr and asked for the money but he did not give me, and I went to him again, but he did not give me, so I went to him for the third time and said, “I asked you, but you did not give me; then I asked you (for the second time) and you did not give me; then I asked you (for the third time) but you did not give me. You should either give me or allow yourself to be considered a miser regarding my case.” Abū Bakr said, “You tell me that I am a miser with regard to you. But really, whenever I rejected your request, I had the inclination to give you.”

In another narration Jābir added: So, Abū Bakr scooped up money with both hands for me and asked me to count it. I found out that it was five hundred. Abū Bakr told me to take twice that amount (extra over the first amount).

3138. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: While Allāh’s Messenger was distributing the booty at Al-Ji’rāna, somebody said to him, “Be just (in your distribution).” The Prophet replied, “Verily I would be miserable if I did not act justly.”

(16) CHAPTER. The free emancipation of the captives by the Prophet without taking out the Khumus from the booty.

3139. Narrated Jubair bin (Mu’tim): The Prophet talked about war prisoners of Badr saying, “Had Al-Mut'im bin ‘Adi been alive and interceded with me for these mean and miserly people, I would have freed them for his sake.”

(17) CHAPTER. The proof of the fact that Khumus is for the Imam (i.e., ruler), and that he has the right to give thereof to some of his relatives to the exclusion of others.

What the Prophet distributed to Banī Al-Muṭṭālib and Banī Ḥāshim from the Khumus of the Khai-bar booty.

‘Umar bin ‘Abdul ‘Azîz said, “The Prophet did not give all of them (i.e., his relatives) in general, and he did not give to a near relative if there was a needy relative of a remoter relation. He would give the latter because of what they complained to him about their needs, and because of what they had suffered from these people (i.e., Quraish) and their allies for his sake.”

3140. Narrated Jubair bin Muṭ’im: I and ‘Uthmân bin ‘Affān went to Allâh’s Messenger and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! You have given to Banī Al-Muṭṭālib and left us although they and we are of the same kinship to you.” Allâh’s Messenger said, “Banī Muṭṭālib and Banī Ḥāshim are one and the same.” The Prophet did not give a share to Banī ‘Abd Shams and Banī Naufal. (Ibn Ishâq said, “‘Abd Shams and Ḥāshim and Al-Muṭṭālib were maternal brothers and their mother was ‘Atika bint Murra and Naufal was their paternal brother.”
(18) CHAPTER. Not taking the Khumus from the spoils of a killed infidel.

And he who kills an infidel will possess his belongings without giving the Khumus, and what is the verdict of the Imam in this respect.

3141. Narrated ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin ‘Aúf: While I was standing in the row on the day (of the battle) of Badr, I looked to my right and my left and saw two young Ansârî boys, and I wished if I were between some stronger (men) than they. One of them called my attention saying, “O Uncle! Do you know Abû Jahl?” I said, “Yes, what do you want from him, O my nephew?” He said, “I have been informed that he abuses Allah’s Messenger ﷺ. By Him in Whose Hands my soul is, if I should see him, then my body will not leave his body till either of us meet his death.” I was astonished at that talk. Then the other boy called my attention saying the same as the other had said. After a while I saw Abû Jahl walking amongst the people. I said (to the boys), “Look! This is the man you asked me about.” So, both of them attacked him with their swords and struck him to death and returned to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ to inform him of that. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ asked, “Which of you has killed him?” Each of them said, “I have killed him.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ asked, “Have you cleaned your swords?” They said, “No.” He then looked at their swords and said, “No doubt, you both have killed him and the spoils of the deceased will be given to Mu‘adh bin ‘Amr bin Al-Jamūh.”¹ The two boys were Mu‘adh bin ‘Afrā’ and Mu‘adh bin ‘Amr bin Al-Jamūh.

3142. Narrated ‘Abū Qatāda:
We set out in the company of Allah’s Messenger on the day (of the battle) of Ḥunain. When we faced the enemy, the Muslims retreated and I saw a Mushrik² throwing himself over a Muslim. I turned round and came upon him from behind and hit him on his shoulder with the sword. He came towards me and seized me so violently that I felt as if it were death itself, but death overtook him and he released me. I followed ‘Umar bin Al-Khattāb and asked (him), “What is wrong with the people (fleeing)” He replied, “This is the Will of Allāh.” After the people returned, the Prophet sat and said, “Anyone who has killed an enemy and has a proof of that, will possess his spoils.” I got and then sat down. The Prophet said, "Anyone who has killed an enemy and has proof of that, will possess his spoils." I got up and said, "Who will be a witness for me?" and sat down. Then the Prophet said the same for the third time. I got up, and Allah’s Messenger said, “O Abū Qatāda! What is your story?” Then I narrated the whole story to him. A man (got up and) said, “0 Allah’s Messenger! He is speaking the truth, and the spoils of the killed man are with me. So, please compensate him on my behalf.” On that Abū Bakr Aṣ-Ṣiddiq said, "No, by Allâh, he (i.e., Allah’s Messenger) will not agree to give you the spoils gained by one of Allâh’s Lions who fights on behalf of Allâh and His Messenger.” The Prophet said, “Abu Bakr has spoken the truth.” So, Allah’s Messenger gave the spoils to me. I sold that armour (i.e., the spoils) and with its price I bought a garden at Bani Salima, and this was my first property which I gained after my conversion to Islam.

(19) CHAPTER. What the Prophet used to give to those Muslims whose faith was not so firm, and to other Muslims, from the Khuṣmus or other resources.

This has been said by ‘Abdullâh bin Zaid from the Prophet.

3143. Narrated ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair: Ḥakîm bin Ḥizâm said, “I asked Allah’s Messenger for something, and he gave me. I asked him again and he gave me, and said to me, ‘O Ḥakîm! This wealth is like green sweet (i.e., fruit), if one takes it without greed, then one is blessed in it, and if one takes it with greediness, then one is not blessed in it and will be like the one who eats without satisfaction. And an upper (i.e., giving) hand is better than a lower (i.e., taking) hand.' I said, 'O Allah's Messenger! By Him Who has sent you with the Truth, I will not ask anyone for anything after you till I leave this world.'” So, when Abū Bakr during his caliphate called Ḥakīm to give him (some money), Ḥakīm refused to accept anything from him. Then 'Umar also called him (during his caliphate) in order to give him something, but Ḥakīm refused to accept it, whereupon 'Umar said, ‘O Muslims! I give him (i.e., Ḥakīm) his right which Allah has assigned to him from this Fāi (booty), but he refuses to take it.” So, Ḥakīm never took anything from anybody after the Prophet  till he died.

3144. Narrated Nāfi‘; ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb  said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I vowed to observe I’tikāf for one day during the pre-Islamic period.” The Prophet  ordered him to fulfil his vow. ‘Umar gained two female captives from the war prisoners of Ḥunain and he left them in some of the houses at Makkah. When Allah’s Messenger  freed the captives of Ḥunain without ransom, they came out walking in the streets. ‘Umar said (to his son), “O ‘Abdullāh! See what is the matter”.
‘Abdullāh replied, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ has freed the captives without ransom.” He said (to him), “Go and set free those two slave-girls.” (Nāfi’ added:) Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ did not perform the ‘Umra from Al-Ji’rānā, and if he had performed the ‘Umra, it would not have been hidden from ‘Abdullāh.

Allāh ﷻ on Sāliḥi: ﴿قَالَ أَمَامُ عُمَّرَ مُنْ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ عَلَيْهِ السَّمَٰئُ لَسْتُمْ بِلٰكَانَ﴾.

3145. Narrated ‘Amr bin Taglib رضي الله عنه: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ gave (gifts) to some people to the exclusion of some others. The latter seemed to be displeased by that. The Prophet ﷺ said, “I give to some people lest they should deviate from True Faith or lose patience, while I do not give to others because of the goodness and contentment which Allāh has put in their hearts, and ‘Amr bin Taglib is amongst them.” ‘Amr bin Taglib said, “The statement of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ is dearer to me than red camels.”

Narrated Al-Ḥasan: ‘Amr bin Taglib told us that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ got some property or some war prisoners and he distributed them in the above way (i.e., giving to some people to the exclusion of others).
3146. Narrated Anas: "The Prophet said, "I give to Quraish people in order to attract their hearts and let them adhere to Islam, for they are near to their life of ignorance (i.e., they have recently embraced Islam and it is still not strong in their hearts)."

3147. Narrated Anas bin Malik: When Allah bestowed His Messenger with the properties of Hawazin tribe as Fai (booty), he started distributing to some Quraishi men even up to one hundred camels each, whereupon some Ansar men said about Allah’s Messenger, "May Allah forgive His Messenger! He is giving to (men of) Quraish and leaves us, in spite of the fact that our swords are still dropping blood (of the infidels)." When Allah’s Messenger was informed of what they had said, he called the Ansar and gathered them in a leather tent and did not call anybody else along with them. When they gathered, Allah’s Messenger came to them and said, "What is the statement which I have been informed, and that which you have said?" The learned ones among them replied, "O Allah’s Messenger! The wise ones amongst us did not say anything, but the youngsters amongst us said, 'May Allah forgive His Messenger; he gives the Quraish and leaves the Ansar, in spite of the fact that our swords are still dropping blood (of the infidels).'"

Allah’s Messenger replied, "I give to such people as are still close to the period of infidelity (i.e., they have recently embraced Islam and faith is still weak in their hearts). Won’t you be pleased to see people go with wealth, while you return with Allâh's Messenger  to your houses? By Allâh, what you will return with is better than what they are returning with." The Ansâr replied, "Yes, O Allâh's Messenger, we are satisfied". Then the Prophet  said to them, "You will find after me, others being preferred to you. Then be patient till you meet Allâh and meet His Messenger at Al-Haud (Al-Kauthar)." (Anas added:) But we did not remain patient.

3148. Narrated Jubair bin Mu't'im that while he was with Allâh's Messenger who was accompanied by the people on their way back from Hunain, the bedouins started begging things of Allâh's Messenger  so much so that they forced him to go under a Samura tree where his Rida' (upper-half body-cover garment) was snatched away. On that, Allâh's Messenger  stood up and said to them, "Return my Rida' to me. If I had as many camels as these trees, I would have distributed them amongst you; and you will not find me a miser or a liar or a coward."

3149. Narrated Anas bin Malik: While I was walking with the Prophet  who was wearing a Najrani Burd (outer garment) with a thick hem, a bedouin came upon the Prophet  and pulled his garment so violently that I could recognize the impress of the hem of the garment on his shoulder caused by the violence of his pull. Then the bedouin said, “Order for me something from Allâh’s Wealth which you have.” The Prophetﷺ turned to him and smiled, and ordered that a gift be given to him.

3150. Narrated ‘Abdullãh رضي الله عنه: On the day (of the battle) of Ḥunain, Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ favoured some people in the distribution of the booty (to the exclusion of others); he gave Al-Aqra’ bin Ḥabis one-hundred camels and he gave ‘Uyaina the same amount, and also gave to some of the eminent Arabs, giving them preference in this regard. Then a person came and said, “By Allâh, in this distribution justice has not been observed, nor has Allâh’s Pleasure been aimed at.” I said (to him), “By Allâh, I will inform the Prophet ﷺ (of what you have said).” I went and informed him, and he said, “If Allâh and His Messenger did not act justly, who else would act justly. May Allâh be Merciful to Mûsâ (Moses), for he was harmed with more than this, yet he kept patient.”

3151. Narrated Asmã’ bint Abi Bakr رضي الله عنها: I used to carry the date-stones on my head from the land of Az-Zubair which Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ had given to him, and it was at a distance of 2/3 of a Farsakh.

Narrated Hishâm’s father: The Prophet ﴿ gave Az-Zubair a piece of land from the property of Banî An-Nadîr (gained as war booty).

3152. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: ‘Umar bin Al-Khattâb expelled all the Jews and Christians from the land of Hijaz. Allâh’s Messenger ﴿, after conquering Khaibar, thought of expelling the Jews from the land which, after he conquered it, belonged to Allâh, Allâh’s Messenger and the Muslims. But the Jews requested Allâh’s Messenger ﴿ to leave them there on the condition that they would do the labour and get half of the fruits (the land would yield). Allâh’s Messenger ﴿ said, “We shall keep you on these terms as long as we wish.” Thus they stayed till the time of ‘Umar’s caliphate when he expelled them to Ta’imâ and Arihâ.

(20) CHAPTER. The food gained as war booty in the battlefield.

3153. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin Mugaffâl: While we were besieging the fort of Khaibar, a person threw a leather container containing fat, and I ran to take it, but when I turned I saw the Prophet ﴿ (standing behind), so I felt embarrassed in front of him.

3154. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: In our holy battles, we used to get honey and grapes as war booty which we would eat and would not store.

3155. Narrated Ibn Abi Aufa: We were afflicted with hunger during the siege of Khaibar, and when it was the day of (the battle of) Khaibar, we slaughtered the donkeys, and when the pots got boiling (with their meat), Allah's Messenger made an announcement that all the pots should be upset and that nobody should eat anything of the meat of the donkeys. We thought that the Prophet prohibited that because the Khumus had not been taken out of the booty (i.e., donkeys); other people said, “He prohibited eating them forever.” [The un­narrator added, “I asked Sa‘id bin Jubair who said, ‘He has made the eating of donkeys’ meat illegal forever.’”]
CHAPTER. Al-Jizya (i.e., tax taken from all non-Muslims living under the protection of the Islamic state) taken from the Dhimmi, and the stoppage of war for a while with the enemies.

And the Statement of Allâh (SWT): "Fight against those who (1) believe not in Allâh (2) nor in the Last Day, (3) nor forbid that which has been forbidden by Allâh and His Messenger (Muhammad (PBUH)), (4) and those who acknowledge not the religion of truth (i.e. Islam) among the people of Scripture (Jews and Christians), until they pay the Jizya with willing submission, and feel themselves subdued." (V.9:29)

And what has been said regarding the taking of Jizya from the Jews, Christians, Magians and non-Arab infidels.

Narrated Ibn Abi Najîh: I asked Mujâhid, "Why are the Syrians charged four Dinârs as Jizya while the Yemenites are charged one Dinár only?" Mujâhid replied, "This (Jizya) has been fixed on the basis of the degree of prosperity."

3156. Narrated ‘Umar (bin Dinâr): I was sitting with Jâbir bin Zaid and ‘Amr bin ‘Aus; and Bâjâla was narrating to them in 70 A.H., the year when Muṣ’ab bin Az-Zubair was the leader of the pilgrims of Baṣrah. We were sitting at the steps of Zamzam well and Bâjâla said, “I was the clerk of Jâz’ bin Mu‘awiya, Al-Aḥnâf’s paternal uncle. A letter came from ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭâb one year before his death; and it was read:

‘Cancel every marriage contracted among the Magians between relatives of close...
kinship (marriages that are regarded illegal in Islam: a relative of this sort being called Dhū-Mahram.)"(1)

‘Umar did not take the Jizya from the Magian infidels

3157. Till ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin ‘Auf testified that Allâh’s Messenger had taken the Jizya from the Magians of Hajar.

3158. Narrated ‘Amr bin ‘Auf Al-Ansâri, who was an ally of Bâni ‘Amr bin Lu’ai and one of those who had taken part in (the Ghazwa of) Badr: Allâh’s Messenger sent Abû ‘Ubaida bin Al-Jarrâh to Bahrain to collect the Jizya. Allâh’s Messenger had established peace with the people of Bahrain and appointed Al-‘Alâ’ bin Al-‘Ardhrami as their governor. When Abû ‘Ubaida came from Bahrain with the money, the Ansâr heard of Abû Ubaida’s arrival which coincided with the time of the morning Salât (prayer) with the Prophet. When Allâh’s Messenger led them in the morning prayer (Salât-al-Fajr) and finished, the Ansâr approached him, and he looked at them and smiled on seeing them and said, “I feel that you have heard that Abû ‘Ubaida has brought something?” They said, “Yes, O Allâh’s Messenger!” He said, “Rejoice and hope for what will please you! By Allâh, I am not afraid of your poverty but I am afraid that you will lead a life of luxury as past nations did, whereupon you will compete with each other for it, as they competed for it, and it will destroy you as it destroyed them.”

(1) (H. 3156) ‘Umar did not want to force the Magians to give up their tradition, but to prevent them from practising publicly what was prohibited in Islam.
3159. Narrated Jubair bin Haiyya: ‘Umar sent the Muslims to the great countries to fight Al-Mushrikun [polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ)]. When Al-Hurmuzan embraced Islam, ‘Umar said to him, “I would like to consult you regarding these countries which I intend to invade.” Al-Hurmuzan said, “Yes, the example of these countries and their inhabitants who are the enemies of the Muslims, is like a bird with a head, two wings and two legs; if one of its wings got broken, it would get up over its two legs with one wing and the head, and if the other wing got broken, it would get up with two legs and a head, but if its head got destroyed, then the two legs, two wings and the head would become useless. The head stands for Khosrau, and one wing stands for Caesar and the other wing stands for Fāris. So, order the Muslims to go towards Khosrau.” So, ‘Umar sent us (to Khosrau) appointing An-Nu‘mān bin Muqarrin as our commander. When we reached the land of the enemy, the representative of Khosrau came out with forty thousand warriors, and an interpreter got up saying, “Let one of you talk to me!” Al-Mughira replied, “Ask whatever you wish.” The other asked, “Who are you?” Al-Mughira replied, “We are some people from the Arabs; we led a hard, miserable, disastrous life; we used to suck the hides and the date-stones from hunger; we used to wear clothes made up of fur of camels and hair of goats, and used to worship trees and stones. While we were in this state, the Lord of the heavens and of the earths, be elevated His Remembrance and be Majestic His Highness, sent to us from among ourselves a Prophet whose father and mother are known to us. Our Prophet ﷺ, the Messenger of our Lord, has ordered us to fight you till you worship Allâh Alone or give Jizya (i.e., tribute); and our Prophet ﷺ has informed us that our Lord says:

‘Whoever amongst us is killed (i.e., martyred), shall go to Paradise to lead such a luxurious life as he has never seen, and whoever amongst us remains alive, shall become your master.’

3160. (Al-Mughîra, then blamed An-Nu‘mân for delaying the attack) and An-Nu‘mân said to Al-Mughîra, “If you had participated in a similar battle, in the company of Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ he would not have blamed you for waiting, nor would he have disgraced you. But I accompanied Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ in many battles and it was his custom that if he did not fight early by daytime, he would wait till the wind had stared blowing and the time for the Salât (prayer) was due (i.e., after midday).”

(2) CHAPTER. If the Imam concludes a truce with the king of a country, will peace be observed in regard to all the people of that country?

(1) (H. 3159) Al-Mughîra wanted the Muslims to attack the enemy after their talk to the interpreter immediately while An-Nu‘mân delayed it till the afternoon.

3161.Narrated Abū Ḥumaid As-Sa‘īdī: We accompanied the Prophet in the Ghazwa of Tabūk and the king of ‘Aila presented a white mule and a cloak as a gift to the Prophet. And the Prophet wrote to him a peace treaty allowing him to keep authority over his country.

3162. Narrated Juwairiya bin Qudāma At-Tamimi: We said to ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb, “O Chief of the believers! Advise us.” He said, “I advise you to fulfil Allah’s Dhimma (financial obligation) (made with the Dhimmi) as it is the Dhimma of your Prophet and the source of the livelihood of your dependents (i.e., the taxes from the Dhimmi).”

3163. Narrated Yahyā bin Sa‘īd: Once, the Prophet called the Anṣār in order to grant them part of the land of Bahra‘n. On that they said, “No! By Allah, we will not accept it unless you grant a similar thing to... our Quraishi brothers as well.” He said, “That will be their’s if Allâh wills.” But when the Ansâr persisted in their request, he said, “After me you will see others given preference over you in this respect (in which case) you should be patient till you meet me at Al-Haud (of Al-Kauthar).”

3164. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ once said to me, “If the revenue of Bahrain came, I would give you this much and this much and this much.” When Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ died, and the revenue of Bahrain came, Abû Bakr announced, “Let whoever was promised something by Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ come to me.” So, I went to Abû Bakr and said, “Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said to me, ‘If the revenue of Bahrain came, I would give you this much and this much and this much.’” On that Abû Bakr said to me, “Scoop (money) with both your hands.” I scooped money with both my hands and Abû Bakr asked me to count it. I counted it and it was five hundred (gold pieces). The total amount he gave me was one thousand and five hundred (gold pieces).

3165. Narrated Anas: Money from Bahrain was brought to the Prophet ﷺ. He said, “Spread it in the mosque.” It was the biggest amount that had ever been brought to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ. In the meantime Al-‘Abbâs came to him and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Give me, for I gave the ransom of myself and ‘Aqil.” The Prophet ﷺ said (to him), “Take.” He scooped money with both hands and poured it in his garment and tried to lift it, but he could not and appealed to the Prophet ﷺ, “Will you order someone to help me in lifting it?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “No.” Then Al-‘Abbās said, “Then will you yourself help me carry it?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “No.” Then Al-‘Abbās threw away some of the money, but even then he was not able to lift it, and so he again requested the Prophet ﷺ, “Will you order someone to help me carry it?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “No.” Then Al-‘Abbās said, “Then will you yourself help me carry it?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “No.” So, Al-‘Abbās threw away some more money and lifted it on his shoulder and went away. The Prophet ﷺ kept on looking at him with astonishment at his greediness till he went out of our sight. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ did not get up from there till not a single Dirham remained from that money.

(5) CHAPTER. The sin of one who kills an innocent person having a treaty with the Muslims.

3166.Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever killed a person having a treaty with the Muslims, shall not smell the smell of Paradise though its smell is smelled from a distance of forty years.”

(6) CHAPTER. The expelling of the Jews from the Arabian Peninsula.

Narrated ‘Umar that the Prophet ﷺ said (to the Jews), “We shall keep you here as long as Allāh keeps you here.”

3167. Narrated Abū Hurairah

While we were in the mosque, the Prophet came out and said, “Let us go to the Jews.” We went out till we reached Bait-ul-Midrās. He said to them, “If you embrace Islām, you will be safe. You should know that the earth belongs to Allāh and His Messenger, and I want to expel you from this land. So, if anyone amongst you owns some property, he is permitted to sell it, otherwise you should know that the earth belongs to Allāh and His Messenger.”

3168. Narrated Sa‘īd bin Jubair that he heard Ibn ‘Abbas saying,

“Thursday! And (you know not) what Thursday is?” After that Ibn ‘Abbas wept till the stones on the ground were soaked with his tears. On that I asked Ibn ‘Abbas, “What is (about) Thursday?” He said, “When the condition (i.e., health) of Allāh’s Messenger deteriorated, he said, ‘Bring me a bone of scapula, so that I may write something for you after which you will never go astray.’ The people differed in their opinions, although it was improper to differ in front of a Prophet. They said, ‘What is wrong with him? Do you think he is delirious? (1) Ask him (to understand).’ The Prophet replied, ‘Leave me as I am in a better state than what you are asking me to do.’ (2) Then the

(1) (H. 3168) The speakers here disapproved of the opinion of other people who suggested that the Prophet should not be asked to write as he was seriously ill.

Prophet ﷺ ordered them to do three things saying, “Turn out all Al-Mushrikûn from the Arabian Peninsula, show respect to all foreign delegates by giving them gifts as I used to do.” The subnarrator added, “The third order was something beneficial which either Ibn ‘Abbâs did not mention or he mentioned but I forgot.”

(7) CHAPTER. If Al-Mushrikûn (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad ﷺ) prove treacherous to the Muslims, may they be forgiven?

3169. Narrated Abu Hurairah: When Khaibar was conquered, a roasted poisoned sheep was presented to the Prophet ﷺ as a gift (by the Jews). The Prophet ﷺ ordered, “Let all the Jews who have been here, be assembled before me.” The Jews were collected and the Prophet ﷺ said (to them), “I am going to ask you a question. Will you tell the truth?” They said, “Yes.”

The Prophet ﷺ asked, “Who is your father?”

They replied, “So-and-so.” He said, “You have told a lie; your father is so-and-so.”

They said, “You are right.” He said, “Will you now tell me the truth, I will ask you about something?” They replied, “Yes, O Abûl-Qasim; and if we should tell a lie, you can know our lie as you have done regarding our father.” On that he asked, “Who are the people of the (Hell) Fire?” They said, “We shall remain in the (Hell) Fire for a short period, and after that you will replace us.”

(1) (H. 3168) This third order not mentioned here is explained by Fath Al-Bârî as to be one of the following four things: (A) To act on the orders of the Qur’ân, (B) To equip the army-unit under the command of Usâma (رضي الله عنّه), (C) To not to take the Prophet’s grave as a place of worship, and (D) To offer the Salât (prayers) perfectly and regularly (Iqâmat-as-Salât) and to be good to your slaves (what your right hand possesses). [Fath Al-Bârî].

The Prophet  said, “You may be cursed and humiliated in it! By Allah, we shall never replace you in it.” Then he asked, “Will you now tell me the truth if I ask you a question?”

They said, “Yes, O Abul-Qasim.” He asked, “Have you poisoned this sheep?” They said, “Yes.” He asked, “What made you do so?” They said, “We wanted to know if you were a liar, in which case we would get rid of you, and if you are a Prophet then the poison would not harm you.”

(8) CHAPTER. The invocation of the Imam against those who break their covenant (with the Muslims).

3170. Narrated ‘Āśim: I asked Anas about the Qunūt [i.e., invocation in the Salāt (prayer)]. Anas said, “It should be recited before bowing.” I said, “So-and-so claims that you say that it should be recited after bowing.” He replied, “He is mistaken.”

Then Anas narrated to us that the Prophet  invoked evil on the tribe of Bani Sulaim for one month after bowing. Anas further said, “The Prophet had sent 40 or 70 Qāri (i.e., men well-versed in the knowledge of the Qur’an) to some Mushrikān, but the latter stood against them and martyred them, although there was a peace pact between them and the Prophet . I had never seen the Prophet so sad over anybody as he was over them (i.e., the Qāri).”

[See Vol. 8, Ḥadīth No.6394]
(9) CHAPTER. The offering of shelter and peace to someone by women.

3171. Narrated Umm Hanî, the daughter of Abû Ṭalîb: I went to Allah's Messenger  on the day of the conquest of Makkah and found him taking a bath, and his daughter Fatîma was screening him. I greeted him and he asked, “Who is that?” I said, “I, Umm Hanî bint Abî Ṭalîb.” He said, “Welcome, O Umm Hanî.” When he had finished his bath, he stood up and offered eight Rak'a prayer while dressed in one garment. I said, “O Allah's Messenger! My brother 'All has declared that he will kill a man to whom I have granted asylum. The man is so-and-so bin Hubaira.” Allah's Messenger  said, “O Umm Hanî! We will grant asylum to the one whom you have granted asylum.” [Umm Hanî said, “That (visit) was at the time of Duḥa (i.e., forenoon)].”

(10) CHAPTER. The asylum and protection granted by the Muslims should be respected and observed by all of them, even if it is granted by one of the lowest social status.

3172. Narrated Ibrâhîm At-Taimî's father: 'Allî delivered a Khuṭba (religious talk) saying, “We have no book to read except the Book of Allah and what is written in this paper which contains verdicts regarding (retaliation for) wounds, the ages of the camels (given as Zakāt or as blood money) and the fact that Al-Madīna is a sanctuary in between ‘Air mountain to so-and-so (mountain). So, whoever innovates in it an heresy or commits a sin or gives shelter in it to such an innovator, will incur the Curse of Allāh, the angels and all the people, and none of his compulsory or optional good deeds (of worship) will be accepted. And whoever (freed slave) takes as his master other than his real masters will incur the same (curse). And the asylum granted by any Muslim is to be respected by all the other Muslims, and whoever betrays a Muslim in this respect will incur the same (curse).”

(11) CHAPTER. If non-Muslims (in war) say, “Saba‘nā” and could not say “Aslamnā” (i.e., we have embraced Islām), (their claim is accepted).

And Ibn ‘Umar said, “Khalīd started killing such infidels (thinking that they should have said “Aslamnā” to be safe). The Prophet ﷺ said, “O Allāh! I am free from what Khalīd has done.” ‘Umar said, “If one says to another ‘Matras‘, he is granting him security thereby. Allāh knows all the tongues.” ‘Umar said (to Al-Hurμuzān, a Persian leader), “Speak, there is no harm.” (And that was taken as a sign of granting security.)

(12) CHAPTER. Making peace with Al-Muṣrīkān (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allāh and in His Messenger Muhammad ﷺ) and the reconciliation with them by means of money or other means, and the sin of the person who does not fulfil the terms of the treaty.

And Allāh’s Statement:

(1) (Ch. 11) “Matras” is a Persian word meaning, “Don’t be afraid.”
"But if they (enemy) incline toward peace...." (V:8:61)

3173. Narrated Sahl bin Ḥathma: ‘Abdullāh bin Sahl and Muḥayyaṣa bin Masʿūd bin Zaid set out to Khaibar, the inhabitants of which had a peace treaty with the Muslims at that time. They parted and later on Muḥayyaṣa came upon ‘Abdullāh bin Sahl and found him murdered agitating in his blood. He buried him and returned to Al-Madīna. ‘Abdūr-Rahmān bin Sahl, Muḥayyaṣa and Ḥuwayyāṣa, the sons of Masʿūd came to the Prophet ﷺ and ‘Abdūr-Rahmān intended to talk, but the Prophet ﷺ said (to him), “Let the eldest of you speak,” as ‘Abdūr-Rahmān was the youngest. ‘Abdūr-Rahmān kept silent and the other two spoke. The Prophet ﷺ said, “If you swear as to who has committed the murder, you will have the right to take your right from the murderer.” They said, “How should we swear if we did not witness the murder or see the murderer?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Then the Jews can clear themselves from the charge by taking Al-Qasama (an oath taken by men that it was not they who committed the murder).” They said, “How should we believe in the oaths of Al-Kafirān (disbelievers in Allāh, in His Oneness and in His Messenger Muḥammad ﷺ)?” So, the Prophet ﷺ himself paid the blood money (of ‘Abdullāh).

(13) CHAPTER. The superiority of fulfilling one's covenant.

3174. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Abbās that Abū Sufyān bin Ḥarb informed him that Heraclius called him and the members of a caravan from Quraish who had gone to Shām as traders, during the truce which Allāh's Messenger had concluded with Abū Sufyān and the Quraish infidels.\(^{(1)}\)

(14) CHAPTER. If a Dhimmī practises magic, can he be excused?

Ibn Shihāb was asked, “If one of those with whom Muslims have made a covenant bewitches people, will he be sentenced to death?” He replied, “We have been informed that Allah’s Messenger was bewitched, yet he did not kill the magician who was from the people of the Scriptures.”

3175. Narrated ‘Āishah: Once, the Prophet was bewitched so that he began to imagine that he had done a thing which in fact, he had not done.

(15) CHAPTER. Caution against treachery.

And the Statement of Allah: “And if they intend to deceive you, then verily, Allah is All-Sufficient for you…” (V.8:62) 3176. Narrated ‘Auf bin Mālik: I went to the Prophet during the Ghazwa of Tabūk while he was sitting in a leather tent. He said,

\(^{(1)}\) (H. 3174) In the meeting between Abū Sufyān and Heraclius, the latter, praising Allah’s Messenger said, “And so the Messengers never act treacherously.” (See Vol. 1, Ḥadīth No.6).
“Count six signs that indicate the approach of the Hour: my death, the conquest of Jerusalem, a plague that will afflict you (and kill you in great numbers) as the plague that afflicts sheep, the increase of wealth to such an extent that even if one is given one hundred Dinãrs, he will not be satisfied; then a Fitnah (an affliction) which no Arab house will escape, and then a truce between you and Banî Al-Aśfar (i.e the Byzantines) who will betray you and attack you under eighty flags. Under each flag will be twelve thousand soldiers.

(16) CHAPTER. How to revoke a covenant.

And the Statement of Allâh ﷺ:

“If you (O Muhammad ﷺ) fear treachery from any people, throw back (their covenant) to them (so as to be) on equal terms (that there will be no more covenant between you and them).” (1) (V.8:58)

3177. Narrated Abû Hurairah ﷺ: Abû Bakr, on the day of Nahr (i.e., slaughtering of animals for sacrifice), sent me to Mina in the company of others to make this announcement: “After this year, no Mushrik(1) will be allowed to perform the Hajj, and none will be allowed to perform the Tawâf of the Ka'bah in a naked state.” And the day of Al-Hajj-al-Akbar is the day of Nahr, and it is called Al-Akbar because the people call the ‘Umra as Al-Hajj-al-Asgar (i.e., the minor Hajj). Abū Bakr threw back the Mushrīkun’s covenant that year, and therefore, no Mushrik performed the Hajj in the year of Hajj-ul-Wada’ of the Prophet ﷺ.

(1) (H. 3177) Al-Mushrik: polytheist, pagan, idolater, disbeliever in the Oneness of Allâh, the one who worships others along with Allâh or sets up rivals or partners to Allâh.

(17) CHAPTER. The sin of a person who makes a covenant and then proves treacherous.

And the Statement of Allāh ﷻ:

“They are those with whom you made a covenant, but they break their covenant every time, and they do not fear Allāh.”
(V.8:56)

3178. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr ﷺ: “Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Whoever has (the following) four characteristics will be a pure hypocrite:

If he speaks, he tells a lie; if he gives a promise, he breaks it; if he makes a covenant he proves treacherous; and if he quarrels, he behaves in a very imprudent, evil, insulting manner (unjust). And whoever has one of these characteristics, has one characteristic of hypocrisy unless he gives it up.”

3179. Narrated ‘Ali: “We did not write anything from the Prophet ﷺ except the Qur’an and what is written in this paper, (wherein) the Prophet ﷺ said, “Al-Madīna is a sanctuary from (the mountain of) ‘Air to so-and-so (mountain); therefore, whoever innovates (in it) an heresy or commits a sin, or gives shelter to such an innovator, will incure the Curse of Allah, the angels and all the people; and none of his compulsory or optional good deeds of worship will be accepted. And the asylum granted by any Muslim is to be respected by all the Muslims even if it is granted by one of the lowest social status among them. And whoever betrays a Muslim in this respect will incur the Curse of Allah, the angels and all the people, and his compulsory and optional good deeds of worship will not be accepted. And any freed slave who take as masters, people other than his own real masters who freed him without taking the permission of the latter, will incur the Curse of Allah, the angels and all the people, and his compulsory and optional good deeds of worship will not be accepted."

3180. Narrated Sa‘îd: Abû Hurairah:

3180. Narrated Sa‘îd: Abû Hurairah: ‘Once I said (to the people), “What will your state be when you can get no Dinär or Dirham (i.e., taxes from the Dîjimmi)?” On that someone asked him, “What makes you know that this state will take place, 0 Abû Hurairah?” He said, “By Him in Whose Hands Abû Hurairah’s soul is, I know it through the statement of the true and truly inspired one (i.e., the Prophet).” The people asked, “What does the statement say?” He replied, “Alläh and His Messenger’s asylum (granted to Dîjimmi, i.e., non-Muslims living in a Muslim territory) will be outraged, and so Alläh will make the hearts of these Dîjimmi so daring that they will refuse to pay the Jizya they will be supposed to pay.”

bin Ḥunaif (when he was blamed for lack of zeal for fighting) saying, 'You’d better blame your wrong opinions. I wish you had seen me on the day of Abū Jandal(1). If I had had the courage to disobey the Prophet’s orders, I would have done so. We had kept out swords on our necks and shoulders, for a thing which frightened us. And we did so, we found it easier for us, except in the case of the above battle (of ours).’"

3182. Narrated Abū Wā’il: We were in (the battle of) Ṣiffin and Sahl bin Ḥunaif got up and said, ‘O people! Blame yourselves! We were with the Prophet on the day of Hudaibiya, and if we had been called to fight, we would have fought. But ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb came and said, ‘O Allâh’s Messenger! Aren’t we in the right (path) and our opponents in the wrong (path)?’ Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘Yes.’ ‘Umar said, ‘Aren’t our killed persons in Paradise and their’s in Hell?’ He said, ‘Yes.’ ‘Umar said, ‘Then why should we accept hard terms in matters concerning our religion? Shall we return, before Allâh judges between us and them?’ Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘O Ibn Al-Khaṭṭāb! I am the Messenger of Allâh and Allâh will never degrade me’. Then ‘Umar went to Abū Bakr and told him the same as he had told the Prophet ﷺ. On that Abū Bakr said (to ‘Umar), ‘He is the Messenger of Allâh and Allâh will never degrade him.’ Then Sûrat Al-Fath (i.e., Victory) was revealed and Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ recited

it to the end in front of ‘Umar. On that ‘Umar asked, ‘O Allāh’s Messenger! Was it (i.e., the Hudaibiya Treaty) a victory?’ Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘Yes’.

3183. Narrated Asmā’ bint Abī Bakr رضي الله عنها: During the period of the peace treaty of Quraish with Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, my mother, accompanied by her father, came to visit me, and she was a Mushrikah. I consulted Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ (by asking), “O Allāh’s Messenger! My mother has come to me and she desires to receive a reward from me, shall I keep good relation with her?” He said, “Yes, keep good relation with her.”

(19) CHAPTER. It is permissible to conclude a peace treaty of three days or any other fixed period.

3184. Narrated Al-Barā’ رضي الله عنه: When the Prophet ﷺ intended to perform ‘Umra, he sent a person to the people of Makkah asking their permission to enter Makkah. They stipulated that he would not stay for more than three days and would not enter it except with sheathed arms and would not preach (Islam) to any of them. So ‘A‘ī bin Abī Ṭālib started writing the treaty between them. He wrote, “This is what Muḥammad, Messenger of Allāh ﷺ has agreed to.” The (Makkans) said, “If we knew that you (Muhammad) are the Messenger of Allah, then we would not have prevented you and would have followed you. But write, ‘This is what Muhammad bin ‘Abdullah has agreed to...’” On that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “By Allah, I am Muhammad bin ‘Abdullah, and, by Allah, I am the Messenger of Allah.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ used not to write; so he asked ‘Ali to erase the expression ‘Messenger of Allah’. On that ‘Ali said, “By Allah, I will never erase it.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said (to ‘Ali), “Let me see the paper.” When ‘Ali showed him the paper, the Prophet ﷺ erased the expression with his own hand. When Allah’s Messenger ﷺ had entered Makkah and three days had elapsed, the Makkans came to ‘Ali and said, “Let your friend (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ) quit Makkah.” ’Ali informed Allah’s Messenger ﷺ about it and Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Yes,” and then he departed.

(20) CHAPTER. To make a peace treaty without a limited period.

As the Prophet ﷺ told (the Khaiibar Jews), “We will keep you as long as Allah will keep you.”

(21) CHAPTER. The throwing of the dead bodies of Al-Mushrikün in a well, and no price should be accepted for such dead bodies (in case their families want to take them).

3185. Narrated ‘Abdullah: While the Prophet ﷺ was in the state of prostration, surrounded by a group of people from Mushrikūn of the Quraish, ‘Uqba bin Abī Mu‘āt came and brought the intestines of a camel and threw them on the back of the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ did not raise his head from prostration till Fāṭima (i.e., his daughter) came and removed those intestines from his back, and invoked evil on whoever had done (that evil deed). The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘O Allāh! Destroy the chiefs of Quraish, O Allāh! Destroy Abū Jahl bin Hīshām, ‘Uthbā bin Rabī‘a, Shaibā bin Rabī‘a, ‘Uqba bin Abī Mu‘āt, Umaiyya bin Khalaf (or Ubaib bin Khalaf).’ Later on I saw all of them killed during the battle of Badr and their bodies were thrown into a well except the body of Umaiyya or Ubaib, because he was a fat man, and when he was pulled, the parts of his body got separated before he was thrown into the well.

(22) CHAPTER. The sin of a betrayer (treacherous and perfidious person) whether he betrays a good or a bad person.

3186, 3187. Narrated Abdullah and Anas ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Every betrayer (treacherous and perfidious person) will have a flag on the Day of Resurrection.” One of the two subnarrators said that the flag would be fixed, and the other said that it would be shown on the Day of Resurrection, so that the betrayer might be recognized by it.”
3188. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet said, “For every betrayer (treacherous and perfidious person) there will be a flag which will be fixed on the Day of Resurrection, and the flag’s prominence will be made in order to show the betrayal (perfidy) he committed.”

[See Vol. 8, Hādīth No. 6177]

3189. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Allāh’s Messenger said on the day of the conquest of Makkah, “There is no emigration now, but there is Jihād (i.e., holy battle) and good intentions(1). And when you are called for Jihād, you should come out at once.” Allāh’s Messenger also said, on the day of the conquest of Makkah, “Allāh has made this town a sanctuary since the day He created the heavens and the earth. So, it is a sanctuary by Allāh’s Decree till the Day of Resurrection. Fighting in it was not legal for anyone before me, and it was made legal for me only for an hour by daytime. So, it (i.e., Makkah) is a sanctuary by Allāh’s Decree till the Day of Resurrection. Its thorny bushes should not be cut, and its game should not be chased, its Luqata (fallen property) should not be picked up except by one who will announce it publicly; and its grass should not be uprooted.” On that Al-‘Abbās said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Except the Idhkhir, because it is used by the goldsmiths and by the people for their houses.” On that the Prophet said, “Except the Idhkhir.”

(1) CHAPTER. What is mentioned in the Statement of Allah (in this respect):

"And He it is Who originates the creation; then will repeat it (after it has been perished) and this is easier for Him..."

(V.30:27)

Ar-Rabi' bin Khuthaim and Al-Hasan said, "Everything is easy for Allah."

3190. Narrated 'Imrân bin Ḥuṣain: Some people of Bâni Tamîm came to the Prophet ﷺ and said (to them), "O Bâni Tamîm! Rejoice with glad tidings." They said, "You have given us glad tidings, now give us something." On hearing that the colour of his face changed(1). Then the people of Yemen came to him and he said, "O people of Yemen! Accept the good tidings, as Bâni Tamîm has refused them." The Yemenites said, "We accept them." Then the Prophet ﷺ started talking about the beginning of creation and about (Allah's) Throne. In the meantime a man came saying, "O 'Imrân! Your she-camel has run away!" (I got up and went away), but I wish I had not left that place (for I missed what Allah's Messenger ﷺ had said).

(1) (H. 3190) Because he was disappointed to see those people prefer worldly benefits to the knowledge of the Hereafter which would grant them Paradise; or because he did not then have anything to satisfy their request.
3191. Narrated 'Imrân bin Ḥusayn: I went to the Prophet and tied my she-camel at the gate. The people of Bâni Tamîm came to the Prophet who said, “O Bâni Tamîm! Accept the good tidings.” They said twice, “You have given us the good tidings, now give us something.” Then some Yemenites came to him and he said, “Accept the good tidings, O people of Yemen, for Bâni Tamîm has refused them.” They said, “We accept it, O Allâh’s Messenger! We have come to ask you about this matter (i.e., the beginning of creation).” He said, “First of all, there was nothing but Allâh, and (then He created His Throne). His Throne was over the water, and He wrote everything in the Book (in the heaven) and created the heavens and the earth.” Then a man shouted, “O Ibn Ḥusayn! Your she-camel has gone away!” So, I went away and could not see the she-camel because of the mirage. By Allâh, I wished I had left that she-camel (but not that gathering).

3192. Narrated 'Umar: One day the Prophet stood amongst us for a long period and informed us about the beginning of creation (and talked about everything in detail) till he mentioned how the people of Paradise will enter their places and the people of Hell will enter their places. Some remembered what he had 3193. Narrated Abü Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Allah the Most Superior said:

‘The son of Adam abuses Me, and he should not slight Me, and he tells a lie against Me (or disbelieves in) Me, and he ought not to do so. As for his slighting Me, it is that he says that I have a son (or offspring) and his telling a lie against (or disbelieve in) Me is his statement that I shall not recreate him as I have created (him) before’.” (See H. 4482)

3194. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “When Allah completed the creation, He wrote in His Book which is with Him on His Throne, ‘My Mercy has overcome My Anger.’”

(2) CHAPTER. What has been said regarding the seven earths.

And the Statement of Allah ﷻ: “It is Allah Who has created seven heavens and of the earth the like thereof (i.e., seven). His Command descend between them (heavens and earth), that you may know that Allah has power over all things, and that Allâh surrounds (comprehends) all things in (His) Knowledge.” (V.65:12) 3195. Narrated Muhammad bin Ibrâhîm bin Al-Ḥarîth from Ābu Salama bin ‘Abdur-Rahmân who had a dispute with some people on a piece of land, and so he went to Āishah and told her about it. She said, “O Ābu Salama, avoid the land, for Allâh's Messenger ﷺ said, ‘Any person who takes even a span of land unjustly, his neck shall be encircled with seven earths (on the Day of Resurrection.’”

3196. Narrated Sâlim’s father: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Any person who takes a piece of land unjustly will sink down the seven earths on the Day of Resurrection.”
3197. Narrated Abū Bakra: The Prophet said, "Time has come back to its original state which it had when Allah created the heavens and the earth. The year is twelve months, four of which are sacred; three of them are in succession: Dhul-Qa‘da, Dhul-Hijjah and Al-Muḥarram, and (the fourth being) Rajab Mudar (named after the tribe of Mudar as they used to respect this month) which is between Jumāda-ath-Thāniyah and Sha‘bān."

3198. Narrated Sa‘īd bin Zaid bin ‘Amr bin Nufail that Arwa (the daughter of Unais) sued him before Marwān for a right, which she claimed, he had deprived her of. On that Sa‘īd said, "How should I deprive her of her right? I testify that I heard Allah’s Messenger saying, “If anyone takes a span of land unjustly, his neck will be encircled with seven earths on the Day of Resurrection.'"

(3) CHAPTER. (About the) Stars.

Abū Qatāda mentioning Allah’s Statement:

“And indeed We have adorned the nearest heaven with lamps..." (V.67:5)

said, “The creation of these stars is for three purposes, and they are: 1) as decoration of the nearest heaven, 2) as missiles to hit the devils, and 3) as signs to guide travellers. So, if anybody tries to find a different interpretation, he is mistaken and just wastes his efforts and troubles himself with what is beyond his limited knowledge.”

(4) CHAPTER. Characteristic of the sun and the moon. [The sun and the moon run on their fixed courses (exactly) calculated with measured out stages for each (for reckoning)]. (V.55:5)

Mujahid said, “They move like the hand mill.” And others said, “With measured out stages (in order to know the number of years, months and the Reckoning etc.) exactly calculated.”
3199. Narrated Abū Dhar: The Prophet asked me at sunset, “Do you know where the sun goes (at the time of sunset)?” I replied, “Allāh and His Messenger know best.” He said, “It goes (i.e., travels) till it prostrates itself underneath the Throne, and takes the permission to rise again, and it is permitted and then (a time will come when) it will be about to prostrate itself but its prostration will not be accepted, and it will ask permission to go on its course, but it will not be permitted, but it will be ordered to return whence it has come, and so it will rise in the west. And that is the interpretation of the Statement of Allāh:

‘And the sun runs on its fixed course for a term (appointed). That is the Decree of Allāh the All-Mighty, the All-Knowing.’” (V.36:38)
3200. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “The sun and the moon will be folded up (or joined together or deprived of their lights) on the Day of Resurrection.”

3201. Narrated ʿAbdullāh bin ʿUmar: The Prophet said, “The sun and the moon do not eclipse because of someone’s death or life (i.e., birth), but they are two signs amongst the Signs of Allāh. So, if you see them (i.e., eclipse), offer the Šalāt (eclipse prayer).”

3202. Narrated ʿAbdullāh bin ʿAbbās: The Prophet said, “The sun and the moon are two signs amongst the Signs of Allāh. They do not eclipse because of someone’s death or life (i.e., birth). So, if you see them (i.e., eclipse), remember Allāh (i.e., offer the eclipse prayer).”

3203. Narrated ʿAishah: On the day of a solar eclipse, Allāh’s Messenger stood up (to offer the eclipse prayer). He recited Takbīr, recited a long recitation (of Holy Verses), bowed a long bowing, and then he raised his head saying, “Allāh hears him who sends his praises to Him." Then he stayed standing, recited a long recitation again, but shorter than the former, bowed a long bowing, but shorter than the first, then prostrated (two) long prostrations and then performed the second Rak'a in the same way as he had done the first. By the time he had finished his Salāt (prayer) with Taslīm, the solar eclipse had cleared. Then he addressed the people referring to the solar and lunar eclipses saying, "These are two signs amongst the Signs of Allāh, and they do not eclipse because of anyone's death or life (i.e., birth). So, if you see them, hasten for the Salāt (eclipse prayer)."

3204. Narrated Abū Mas'ūd: The Prophet ﷺ said, "The sun and the moon do not eclipse because of the death or life (i.e., birth) of someone, but they are two signs amongst the Signs of Allāh. So, if you see them, offer the Salāt (eclipse prayer)."

(5) CHAPTER. Allāh's Statement: "And it is He Who sends the winds as heralds of glad tidings, going before His Mercy (rain)...." (V.25:48)
3205. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet said, “I have been made victorious with the Saba (i.e., easterly wind) and the people of ‘Ad were destroyed with the Dabur (i.e., westerly wind).”

3206. Narrated ‘Ata’: ‘Aishah said, “Whenever the Prophet saw a cloud in the sky, he would walk to and fro in agitation, go out and come in, and the colour of his face would change, and if it rained, he would feel relaxed.” So ‘Aishah knew that state of his. The Prophet said, “I don’t know, it may be similar to what happened to some people referred to in the following Verse: ‘Then, when they saw it as a dense cloud coming towards their valleys.’” (V.46:24)

(6) CHAPTER. The reference to angels.

Anas said, “‘Abdullah bin Salam said to the Prophet, ‘Amongst the angels Jibril (Gabriel) is the enemy of the Jews.’” Ibn ‘Abbas said, “(The Verse): Verily, we stand in rows for the prayers (as you Muslims stand in rows for your prayers)... (V.37:165) refers to the angels.”

3207. Narrated Malik bin Sa’fa’a: The Prophet said, “While I was...
beside the House (Ka'bah) in a state midway between sleep and wakefulness, (an angel recognized me) as the man lying between two men. A golden tray full of wisdom and belief was brought to me and my body was cut open from the throat to the lower part of the abdomen and then my abdomen was washed with Zamzam water and (my heart was) filled with wisdom and belief. Al-Burāq, a white animal, smaller than a mule and bigger than a donkey was brought to me and I set out with Jibril (Gabriel). When I reached the nearest heaven, Jibril said to the gatekeeper of the heaven, ‘Open the gate.’ The gatekeeper asked, ‘Who is it?’ He said, ‘Jibril.’ The gatekeeper said, ‘Who is accompanying you?’ Jibril said, ‘Muḥammad.’ The gatekeeper said, ‘Has he been called?’ Jibril said, ‘Yes.’ Then it was said, ‘He is welcome. What a wonderful visit his is!’ Then I met ʿĀdām and greeted him and he said, ‘You are welcome, O son and a Prophet.’ Then we ascended to the second heaven. It was asked, ‘Who is it?’ Jibril said, ‘Jibril.’ It was said, ‘Who is with you?’ He said, ‘Muḥammad ʿa.s.’ It was asked, ‘Has he been sent for?’ He said, ‘Yes.’ It was said, ‘He is welcome. What a wonderful visit his is!’ Then I met ʿĪsā (Jesus) and Yahya (John) who said, ‘You are welcome O brother and a Prophet.’ Then we ascended to the third heaven. It was asked, ‘Who is it?’ Jibril said, ‘Jibril.’ It was asked, ‘Who is with you?’ Jibril said, ‘Muḥammad.’ It was asked, ‘Has he been sent for?’ Jibril said, ‘Yes.’ It was said, ‘He is welcome. What a wonderful visit his is!’” (The Prophet ʿa.s added:) “There I met Yūsuf (Joseph) and greeted him, and he replied, ‘You are welcome, O brother and a Prophet!’ Then we ascended to the fourth heaven and again the same questions and answers were exchanged as in the previous heavens. There
I met Idris and greeted him. He said, ‘You are welcome’ O brother and a Prophet.’ Then we ascended to the fifth heaven and again the same questions and answers were exchanged as in previous heavens. There I met and greeted Hārūn (Aaron) who said, ‘You are welcome, O brother and a Prophet’. Then we ascended to the sixth heaven and again the same questions and answers were exchanged as in previous heavens. There I met and greeted Mūsá (Moses) who said, ‘You are welcome, O brother and a Prophet’. When I proceeded on, he started weeping and on being asked why he was weeping, he said, ‘O Lord! Followers of this youth who was sent after me will enter Paradise in greater number than my followers.’ Then we ascended to the seventh heaven and again the same questions and answers were exchanged as in the previous heavens. There I met and greeted Ibrahim (Abraham) who said, ‘You are welcome, O son and a Prophet.’ Then I was shown Al-Bait-ul-Ma‘mūr (i.e., Allāh’s House). I asked Jibrīl about it and he said, ‘This is Al-Bait-ul-Ma‘mūr where seventy thousand angels perform Salāt (prayer) daily, and when they leave they never return to it (but always a fresh batch comes into it daily).’ Then I was shown Sidrat-ul-Muntahā (i.e., the lote-tree of the utmost boundary) and I saw its Nabiq fruits which resembled the clay jugs of Hajar (i.e., a town in Arabia), and its leaves were like the ears of elephants, and four rivers originated at its root, two of them were apparent and two were hidden. I asked Jibrīl about those rivers and he said, ‘The two hidden rivers are in Paradise, and the apparent ones are the Nile and the Euphrates.’ Then fifty Salāt (prayer) were enjoined on me. I descended till I met Mūsā who asked me, ‘What have you done?’
I said, ‘Fifty Salāt (prayers) have been enjoined on me.’ He said, ‘I know the people better than you because I had the hardest experience to bring Bānī Isrāʾil to obedience. Your followers cannot put up with such obligation. So, go back to your Lord and request Him (to reduce the number of Salāt).’ I returned and requested Allāh (for reduction) and He made it forty. I returned and (met Mūsā) and had a similar discussion, and then returned again to Allāh for reduction, and He made it thirty, then twenty, then ten, and then I came to Mūsā who repeated the same advice. Ultimately Allāh reduced it to five. When I came to Mūsā again, he said, ‘What have you done?’ I said, ‘Allāh has made it five only.’ He repeated the same advice but I said that I surrendered (to Allāh’s Final Order).’ Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was addressed by Allāh, “I have decreed My Obligation and have reduced the burden on My slaves, and I shall reward a single good deed as if it were ten good deeds.”
3208. Narrated 'Abdullãh (bin Mas'ûd): Allah's Messenger, the true and truly inspired said, "(The matter of the creation of) a human being is put together in the womb of the mother in forty days, and then he becomes a clot of thick blood for a similar period, and then a piece of flesh for a similar period. Then Allah sends an angel who is ordered to write four things. He is ordered to write down his (i.e., the new creature's) deeds, his livelihood, his (date of) death, and whether he will be blessed or wretched (in the Hereafter). Then the soul is breathed into him. So, a man amongst you may do (good) deeds till there is only a cubit between him and Paradise and then what has been written for him decides his behaviour and he starts doing (evil) deeds characteristic of the people of the (Hell) Fire. And similarly a man amongst you may do (evil) deeds till there is only a cubit between him and the (Hell) Fire, and then what has been written for him decides his behaviour, and he starts doing deeds characteristic of the people of Paradise."

[See Hadîth No. 3332]

3209. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet said, "If Allâh loves a person, He calls Jibrîl (Gabriel) saying, 'Allâh loves so-and-so; O Jibrîl! Love him.' Jibrîl would love him and make an announcement amongst the inhabitants of the heaven: 'Allāh loves so-and-so, therefore you should love him also,' and so all the inhabitants of the heaven would love him, and then he is granted the pleasures of the people on the earth.'

[See Vol. 9, Hādīth No.7485]

3210. Narrated 'Āishah the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: I heard Allāh's Messenger ﷺ saying, "The angels descend in the clouds and mention this or that matter decreed in the heaven. The devils listen stealthily to such true statement and then inspire it (or pour it in the ears of) the foretellers, and the latter would add to it one hundred lies of their own." (See H. 5762)

3211. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, "On every Friday the angels take their stand at every gate of the mosques to write the names of the people chronologically (i.e., according to the time of their arrival for the Friday prayer), and when the Imām sits (on the pulpit) they fold up their scrolls and get ready to listen to the 3212. Narrated Sa‘îd bin Al-Musaiyab: ‘Umar came to the mosque while Hassân was reciting a poem. (‘Umar disapproved of that). On that Hassân said, “I used to recite poetry in this very mosque in the presence of one (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ) who was better than you.” Then he turned towards Abû Hurairah and said (to him), “I ask you by Allah, did you hear Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying (to me), ‘Retort on my behalf. O Allah! Support him (i.e., Hassân) with the Ruh Al-Qudus [i.e., Jibrîl (Gabriel)]?’” Abû Hurairah said, “Yes.”

3213. Narrated Al-Barâ’: The Prophet ﷺ said to Hassân, “Lampoon them (i.e., Al-Muṣṭrikûn) and Jibrîl (Gabriel) is with you.”

3214. Narrated Ḥûmaid bin Hilâl: Anas bin Mâlik رضي الله عنه said, “As if! saw a cloud of dust swirling up in the lane of Bâni Ghanm.” Mûsâ added, “That was caused by the mounted escort of Gabriel.”
3215. Narrated 'Aishah: Al-Harîth bin Hishâm asked the Prophet, “How is the Divine Revelation revealed to you?” He replied, “In all these (following) ways: The angel sometimes comes to me with a voice which resembles the sound of a ringing bell, and when this state passes away from me, I grasp what the angel has said, and this type of Divine Revelation is the hardest on me; and sometimes the angel comes to me in the shape of a man and talks to me, and I understand and grasp what he says.”

(See H. 2)

3216. Narrated Abû Hurairah: I heard the Prophet saying, “Whoever spends two things in Allâh’s Cause, will be called by the gatekeepers of Paradise who will say, “O so-and-so, come on!” Abû Bakr said, “Such a person will never perish or be miserable”. The Prophet said, “I hope you will be among such persons.”

3217. Narrated Abû Salama: ‘Aishah said that the Prophet said to her, “O ‘Aishah! This is Jibrîl (Gabriel) and he sends his salutations (greetings) to you.” ‘Aishah said, “Salutations (greetings) to him, and Allâh’s Mercy and Blessings be on him,” and addressing the Prophet she said, “You see what I don’t see.”
3218. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: Allah's Messenger asked Jibril (Gabriel), "Why don't you visit us more often than you do?" Then the following Holy Verse was revealed (in this respect):

"And we (angels) descend not except by the Command of your Lord (O Muhammad). To Him belongs what is before us and what is behind us." (V.19:64)

3219. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: Allah's Messenger said, "Jibril (Gabriel) read the Qur'an to me in one way (i.e., dialect), and I continued asking him to read it in different ways till he read it in seven different ways."

3220. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: Allah's Messenger was the most generous of all the people, and he used to be more generous in the month of Ramadan when Jibril (Gabriel) used to meet him. Jibril used to meet him every night in Ramadan to study the Noble Qur'an carefully together. Allah's Messenger used to become more generous than the fair winds sent (by Allah) with glad tidings (rain) when he met Jibril. (See H. 6)

(1) (H. 3219) The Prophet wished that the Qur'an would be easily read and understood by the various Arab tribes of his time.
3221. Narrated Ibn Shihab: Once 'Umar bin Abdul 'Aziz delayed the 'Asr prayer a little. 'Urwa said to him, “Jibril (Gabriel) descended and led the Salat (prayer) in front of the Prophet ﷺ.” On that 'Umar said, “O 'Urwa! Be sure of what you say.” 'Urwa said: “I heard Bashir bin Abi Mas'ud narrating from Ibn Mas'ud who heard Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ saying, 'Jibril descended and led me in Salat (prayer); and I offered Salât with him, then again I offered Salât (prayer) with him, and then offered Salât (prayer) with him again, and then offered Salât (prayer) with him again, and then offered Salât (prayer) with him again, counting with his fingers five Salât (prayer).”

3222. Narrated Abû Dhar: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Jibril (Gabriel) said to me, “Whoever amongst your followers die without having worshipped others besides Allâh, will enter Paradise, or will not enter the (Hell) Fire.” The Prophet ﷺ asked, “Even if he has committed illegal sexual intercourse or theft?” He replied, “Even then.”
3223. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Angels come to you in succession by night and day, and all of them get together at the time of the Fajr and ‘Asr prayers. Then those who have stayed with you overnight, ascend unto Allâh Who asks them… and He knows the answer better than they… ‘How have you left My slaves?’ They reply, ‘We left them while they were offering Salât (prayer) and we came to them while they were offering Salât (prayer).’”

(7) CHAPTER. “If anyone of you says Āmīn [during the Salât (prayer) at the end of the recitation of Sūrat Al-Fātihā], and the angels in heaven say the same, and the sayings of two coincide, all his past sins will be forgiven.”

3224. Narrated ‘Aishah: I stuffed for the Prophet ﷺ a pillow decorated with pictures which looked like a Numruqa (i.e., a small cushion). He came and stood among the people with signs of a change apparent on his face. I said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! What is wrong?” He said, “What is this pillow?” I said, “I have prepared this pillow for you, so that you may recline on it.” He said, “Don’t you know that angels do not enter a house wherein there are pictures; and whoever makes a picture will be punished on the Day of Resurrection and will be asked to give life to what he has created?”
3225. Narrated Abū Tālha: I heard Allah’s Messenger saying, “Angels do not enter a house wherein there is a dog or some images (or pictures etc.) of living creatures (a human being or an animal etc.).”

[See Fath Al-Bari, for details about pictures].

3226. Narrated Busr bin Sa’id that Zaid bin Khālid Al-Juhāni narrated to him something in the presence of Sa’id bin ‘Ubaidullāh Al-Khulānī who was brought up in the house of Maimūna, the wife of the Prophet. Zaid narrated to them that Abū Tālha said that the Prophet said, “The angels (of mercy) do not enter a house wherein there is a picture.” Busr said, “Later on Zaid bin Khālid fell ill and we called on him. To our surprise we saw a curtain decorated with pictures in his house. I said to ‘Ubaidullāh Al-Khulānī, “Didn’t he (i.e., Zaid) tell us about the (prohibition of) pictures?” He said, “But he said, except the embroidery on garments. Didn’t you hear him?” I said, “No”. He said, “Yes, he did.”

3227. Narrated Sālim’s father: Once, Jibril (Gabriel) promised the Prophet (that he would visit him, but Jibril did not come) and later on he said, “We angels, do not enter a house in which there is a picture or a dog.”

3228. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger said, “When the Imam, during the Salāt (prayer), says, ‘Allāh hears him who praises Him’, say: ‘O Allāh! Our Lord! All the praises and thanks are for You’, for if the saying of anyone of you coincides with the saying of the angels, his past sins will be forgiven.”

3229. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “As long as anyone of you is waiting for the Salāt (prayer), he is considered to be offering Salāt (prayer) actually, and the angels say, ‘O Allāh! Be Merciful to him and forgive him’, (and go on saying so) unless he leaves his place of offering Salāt (prayer) or passes wind (i.e., breaks his ablution).”

3230. Narrated ‘Ya’la: I heard the Prophet reciting the following Verse on the pulpit:

“And they will cry: O Mālī...” and Sufyān said that ‘Abdullāh recited it: ‘They will call: O Mālī.’ (V.43:77)

(1) (H. 3230) This is a part of a Verse. Mālī (or Mālik) is the name of the gate-keeper of Hell. The people of Hell will call him saying, “O Mālī(k)! Let your Lord make an end of us!” He will say: “Verily you shall abide forever.” (V.43:77) 3231.Narrated 'Aishah that she asked the Prophet "Have you encountered a day harder than the day (of the battle) of Uhud?" The Prophet replied, "Your tribes have troubled me a lot, and the worse trouble was the trouble on the day of 'Aqaba when I presented myself to Ibn 'Abd-Yalil bin 'Abd-Kulãl and he did not respond to my demand. So, I departed, overwhelmed with excessive sorrow, and proceeded on, and could not relax till I found myself at Qarn-ath-Tha‘âlib, where I lifted my head towards the sky to see a cloud shading me unexpectedly. I looked up and saw Jibril (Gabriel) in it. He called me saying, 'Alläh has heard your people's saying to you, and what they replied back to you, Alläh has sent the angel of the mountains to you so that you may order him to do whatever you wish to these people.'
The angel of the mountains called upon me and greeted me, and then said, 'O Muḥammad! Order what you wish. If you like, I will let Al-Akhâhabain (i.e., two mountains) fall on them.'" The Prophet said, "No, but I hope that Alläh will let them beget children who will worship Allâh Alone, and will worship none besides Iâlim."
Statement of Allah:

“And was at a distance of two bows’ length or (even) nearer, so (Allah) revealed to His slave [Muhammad] through Jibril (Gabriel)…” (V.53:9,10)

On that, Zir said, “Ibn Mas‘ūd informed us that the Prophet had seen Jibril having six hundred (600) wings.”

3233. Narrated ‘Abdullāh regarding the Verse:

“Indeed he (Muḥammad) did see of the Greatest Signs of his Lord (Allah).” (V.53:18), that the Prophet had seen a green carpet(1) spread all over the horizon of the sky.

3234. Narrated ‘Āishah: Whoever claimed that (the Prophet) Muḥammad saw his Lord, is committing a great fault, for he only saw Jibril (Gabriel) in his genuine shape in which he was created covering the whole horizon.

3235. Narrated Masrūq: I asked ‘Āishah, “What about Allāh’s Statement:

“Then he [Jibril (Gabriel)] approached and came closer, and was at a distance of two bows’ length or (even) nearer?” (V.53:8, 9)

She replied, “It was Jibril who used to come to the Prophet in the figure of a

(1) (H. 3233) Perhaps Jibril’s (Gabriel) wings.
man, but on that occasion, he came in his actual and real figure and (he was so huge) that he covered the whole horizon.”

3236. Narrated Samura: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Last night I saw (in a dream) two men coming to me. One of them said, ‘The person who kindles the fire is Mālik, the gatekeeper of the (Hell) Fire, and I am Jibril (Gabriel), and this is Mikā’el (Michael).’”

3237. Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه that he heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “If a husband calls his wife to his bed (i.e., to have sexual relation) and she refuses and causes him to sleep in anger, the angels will curse her till morning.”

3238. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنه that he heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “The Divine Revelation was delayed for a short period but suddenly, as I was walking, I heard a voice in the sky, and when I looked up towards the sky, to my surprise, I saw the angel who had come to me in the Ḥirā cave, and he was sitting on a chair in between the sky and the earth. I was so frightened by him that I fell on the ground and came to my family and said (to them), 'Cover me (with a blanket)! Cover me!' Then Allâh Ta'âlî sent the Revelation:

"O you (Muhammad ﷺ) enveloped (in garments)! Arise and warn! (up to) And keep away from Ar-Rujz (the idols)!" (V.74:1-5) (See H. 4) 3239. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, "On the night of my Al-Isrâ (Journey by Night) to the heaven, I saw Mûsâ (Moses) who was a tall brown curly-haired man, as if he was one of the men of Shanu'a tribe, and I saw 'Isâ (Jesus), a man of medium height and moderate complexion inclined to the red and white colour and of lank hair. I also saw Mâlik, the gatekeeper of the (Hell) Fire, and Ad-Dajjâl amongst the signs which Allâh showed me." (The Prophet ﷺ then recited the Holy Verse):

"...So, be not you in doubt of meeting him (i.e., when you met Mûsâ during the night of Al-Isrâ’ and Al-Mi’raj over the heavens)..." (V.32:23).

Narrated Anas and Abû Bakra: “The Prophet ﷺ said, “The angels will guard Al-Madînâ from Ad-Dajjâl (who will not be able to enter the city of Al-Madînâ).”

(8) CHAPTER. What is said regarding the characteristics of Paradise, and the fact that it has already been created (and does exist now).

And Abū Al-'Āliya said: The people of Paradise will not have menses, urine or spittle. Whenever they are given a thing and then another thing, they will say, ‘We have already been provided with this’, for they are given things similar in shape but different in taste. The bunches of fruits will be near to them, and they will pluck fruits as they like. (The rest of the chapter is the interpretation of some of the Qur'ānic words concerning the characteristics of Paradise and the people who live in it. Such words are not translated).
3240. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “When anyone of you dies, his destination is displayed before him in the forenoon and in the afternoon; so, if he is from the people of Paradise, he is shown his place in Paradise, and if he is from the people of Hell, he is shown his place in Hell.”

3241. Narrated ‘Imrân bin Ḥuṣain: The Prophet ﷺ said, “I looked at Paradise and found poor people forming the majority of its inhabitants; and I looked at Hell and saw that the majority of its inhabitants were women.”
3242. Narrated Abū Hurairah: While we were in the company of the Prophet ﷺ he said, “While I was asleep, I saw myself in Paradise; and there I beheld a woman making ablution beside a palace. I asked, ‘To whom does this palace belong?’ They said, ‘To Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb.’ Then I remembered Umar’s Ghairā (concerning women), and so I quickly went away from that palace.” Umar wept (when he heard this from the Prophet ﷺ) and said, “How dare I think of my Ghairā being offended by you, O Allah’s Messenger?”

3243. Narrated ʿAbdullāh bin Qais Al-Ashʿarī: The Prophet ﷺ said, “A tent (in Paradise) is like a hollow pearl which is thirty miles in height; and on every corner of the tent a believer will have a family that cannot be seen by others.” [Narrated Abū ʿImrān in another narration, “(The tent is) sixty miles (in height)”].

3244. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Allāh said: ‘I have prepared for My pious slaves things which have neither been seen by an eye, nor heard by an ear, nor (even) imagined by a human being.’ If you wish, you can recite this Verse from the Noble Qur'an: ‘No person knows what is kept hidden for them of joy.’”

3245. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The first group (of people) who will enter Paradise will be (glittering) like the moon on a full-moon night. They will neither spit therein nor blow their noses nor relieve nature. Their utensils therein will be of gold and their combs of gold and silver; in their censers the aloeswood will be used, and their sweat will smell like musk. Everyone of them will have two wives; the marrow of the bones of the wives’ legs will be seen through the flesh out of excessive beauty. They (i.e., the people of Paradise) will neither have differences nor hatred amongst themselves; their hearts will be as if one heart, and they will be glorifying Allah in the morning and in the afternoon.”

themselves, and everyone of them shall have two wives, each of whom will be so beautiful, pure and transparent that the marrow of the bones of their legs will be seen through the flesh. They will be glorifying Allāh in the morning and afternoon, and will never fall ill, and they will neither blow their noses, nor spit. Their utensils will be of gold and silver, and their combs will be of gold, and the fuel used in their censers will be the aloeswood, and their sweat will smell like musk.”

3247. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d L: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Verily! 70,000 or 700,000 of my followers will enter Paradise altogether; so that the first and the last amongst them will enter at the same time, and their faces will be glittering like the moon on a full-moon night.

3248. Narrated Anas (bin Mālik): A silken cloak was presented to the Prophet ﷺ and he used to forbid the usage of silk (by men). When the people were fascinated by the cloak, he said, “By Him (Allāh) in Whose Hands the soul of Muḥammad is, the handkerchiefs of Sa’d bin Mu‘ādh in Paradise are better than this.”
3249. Narrated Al-Bara’ bin ‘Azib: Allah’s Messenger was given a silken garment, and its beauty and delicacy astonished the people. On that, Allah’s Messenger said, “No doubt, the handkerchiefs of Sa’d bin Mu‘adh in Paradise are better than this.”

3250. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d As-Sa‘idi: Allah’s Messenger said, “A place in Paradise equal to the size of a lash is better than the whole world and whatever is in it.”

3251. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet said, “There is a tree in Paradise (which is so big and huge that) if a rider travels in its shade for one hundred years, he will not be able to cross it.”

3252. Narrated Abü Hurairah: The Prophet said, “There is a tree in Paradise (which is so big and huge that) a rider could travel in its shade for a hundred years. And if you wish, you can recite:

‘In shade long-extended.” (V.56:30)

3253. “...And a place in Paradise equal to an arrow bow of one of you, is better than (the whole earth) on which the sun rises and sets.”

3254. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The first batch (of people) who will enter Paradise will be (glittering) like the moon on a full-moon night, and the batch next to them will be (glittering) like the most brilliant star in the sky. Their hearts will be as if the heart of a single man, for they will have neither enmity nor jealousy amongst themselves; everyone will have two wives from the Hūr, (who will be so beautiful, pure and transparent that) the marrow of the bones of their legs will be seen through the bones and the flesh.” (See H. 1382)

3255. Narrated Al-Barā’ (bin ‘Azib): The Prophet ﷺ, after the death of his son Ibrāhim, said, “There is a wet-nurse for him (i.e., Ibrāhim) in Paradise.” (See H. 1382)
3256. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The people of Paradise will look at the dwellers of Al-Ghuraf (the lofty mansions i.e., a superior place in Paradise) in the same way as one looks at a brilliant star far away in the east or in the west on the horizon; all that is because of their superiority over one another (in rewards).” On that the people said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Are these residences (lofty mansions) for the Prophets which nobody else can reach?” The Prophet ﷺ replied, “No! By Him (Allāh) in Whose Hands my soul is, these are for the men who believed in Allāh and also believed in the Messengers.”

(9) CHAPTER. The characteristics of the gates of Paradise.

3257. Narrated Sahl bin Sa‘d: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Paradise has eight gates, and one of them is called Ar-Raiyyān through which none will enter but those who used to observe Saum (fasts).”

The Prophet ﷺ also said, “Whoever spends two things in Allāh’s Cause, he will be called from the gate of Paradise.”

[See Hadith No. 3216]

(10) CHAPTER. The description of the (Hell) Fire and the fact that it has already been created.

3258. Narrated Abû Dhar (رضي الله عنه): (During a very hot summer) while the Prophet ﷺ was on a journey, he said (regarding the performance of the Zuhr prayer - “Wait till it (i.e., the weather) gets cooler.” He said the same again till the shade of the hillocks extended. Then he said, “Delay the Zuhr prayer till it gets cooler, for the severity of heat is from the increase in heat of Hell (fire).”

3259. Narrated Abû Sa’îd (رضي الله عنه): The Prophet ﷺ said, “Delay the Zuhr prayer till it gets cooler, for the severity of heat is from the increase in heat of Hell (fire).”

3260. Narrated Abû Hurairah (رضي الله عنه): Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The (Hell) Fire complained to its Lord saying, ‘O my Lord! My different parts eat up each other.’ So, He allowed it to take two breaths, one in the winter and the other in summer, and this is the reason for the severe heat and the bitter cold you find (in weather).”

3261. Narrated Abû Jamra Ad-Ḍuba’î: I used to sit with Ibn ‘Abbâs in Makkah. Once
I had a fever and he said (to me), “Cool your fever with Zamzam water, for Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said: ‘It (the fever) is from the heat of the (Hell) Fire, so abate it with water (or Zamzam water).’”

3262. Narrated Rāfi’ bin Khadij: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “Fever is from the heat of the Hell-fire, so abate it with water.”

3263. Narrated ‘Āishah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Fever is from the heat of the Hell-fire, so abate it with water.”

3264. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Fever is from the heat of the Hell-fire, so abate it with water.”

3265. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Your (ordinary) fire is one of 70 parts of the Hell-fire." Someone asked, "O Allah's Messenger! This (ordinary) fire would have been sufficient (to torture the disbelievers)." Allah's Messenger said, "The (Hell) Fire has 69 parts more than the ordinary (worldly) fire, each part is as hot as this (worldly) fire."

3266. Narrated Ya'la that he heard the Prophet on the pulpit reciting:

"They will cry: 'O Malik!' (V.43:77) [Malik is the keeper (angel) of the (Hell) Fire.]

3267. Narrated Abū Wā'il: Somebody said to Usāma, "Will you go to so-and-so (i.e., 'Uthmān) and talk to him (i.e., advise him)." He said, "You see that! don't talk to him except to inform you that I shall talk to him secretly without opening a gate (of affliction), for neither do I want to be the first to open it (i.e., rebellion), nor shall I say to a man who is my ruler that he is the best of all the people, after I have heard something from Allah's Messenger." They said, "What have you heard him saying?" He said, "I have heard him (the Prophet) saying, 'A man will be brought on the Day of Resurrection and thrown in the (Hell) Fire, so that his intestines will come out, and he will go around like a donkey goes around a millstone. The people of (Hell) Fire will gather around him and say: O so-and-so! What is wrong with you? Didn't you use to order us for Al-Ma'rūf (i.e., Islāmic Monotheism and all that Islām has ordained) and forbid us from Al-Munkar (i.e., disbelief, polytheism of all kinds, and all that Islām forbids i.e., evil and bad)? He will reply: Yes, I used to order you for Al-Ma'rūf, but I did not do it myself. I used to forbid you from Al-Munkar, while I used to do it myself.”

[See Vol. 9, Ḥadīth No. 7098]

(11) CHAPTER. The characteristics of Iblīs (Satan) and his soldiers.

3268. Narrated ʿĀishah  the Messenger’s wife: Magic was worked on the Prophet so that he began to fancy that he was doing a thing which he was not actually doing. One day he invoked (Allāh) for a long period and then said, “I feel that Allāh has inspired me as how to cure myself. Two persons came to me (in my dream) and sat, one by my head and the other by my feet. One of them asked the other, ‘What is the ailment of this man?’ The other replied, ‘He has been bewitched.’ The first asked, ‘Who has bewitched him?’ The other replied, ‘Labid bin Al-ʿAṣām.’ The first one asked, ‘What material has he used?’ The other replied, ‘A comb, the hair gathered on it, and the outer skin of the pollen of the male date-palm.’ The first asked, ‘Where is that?' The other replied, 'It is in the well of Dharwân.' So, the Prophet went out towards the well and then returned and said to me on his return, "Its date-palms (the date-palms near the well) were like the heads of the devils." I asked, "Did you take out those things with which the magic was worked?" He said, "No, as for me, Allâh has cured me and I am afraid that this action may spread evil amongst the people." Later on the well was filled up with earth.

3269. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allâh's Messenger said, "During your sleep, Satan knots three knots at the back of the head of each of you, and he reads and exhales the following words at each knot: 'The night is long, so keep on sleeping.' If that person wakes up and remembers Allâh, then one knot is undone, and when he performs ablution the second knot is undone, and when he offers Salât (prayers), all the knots are undone, and he gets up in the morning energetic in a good mode and with a good heart, otherwise he gets up lazy and with not a good heart and mode."

3270. Narrated 'Abdullâh: It was mentioned before the Prophet that... there was a man who slept the night till morning (after sunrise). The Prophet ﷺ said, “He is a man in whose ears (or ear) Satan had urinated.”

3271. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās ﷺ:
The Prophet ﷺ said, “If anyone of you, when having sexual relation with his wife, says, ‘In the Name of Allāh. O Allāh! Protect us from Satan and prevent Satan from approaching our offspring You are going to give us,’ and if he begets a child (as a result of that relation) Satan will not harm it.”

3272. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar ﷺ:
Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “When the (upper) edge of the sun appears (in the morning), don’t pray [perform a Ẓalāt (prayer)] till the sun appears in full, and when the lower edge of the sun sets, don’t pray [perform a Ẓalāt (prayer)] till it sets completely.”

3273. (Contd. H. 3272): “And you should not seek to offer Ẓalāt (prayer) at sunrise or sunset for the sun rises between two sides of the head of the Satan.”

3274. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī ﷺ:
The Prophet ﷺ said, “If, while you are offering Salāt (prayer), somebody intends to pass in front of you, prevent him; and should he insist, prevent him again; and if he insists again, fight with him (i.e., prevent him violently, e.g., pushing him violently), because such a person is a Satan.” (See H. 509)

3275. Narrated Muḥammad bin Sirīn: Abū Hurairah  said, “Allāh’s Messenger put me in charge of the Zakāt of Ramadān (i.e., Zakāt-ul-Fitr). Someone came to me and started scooping some of the foodstuff of (Zakāt) with both hands. I caught him and told him that I would take him to Allāh’s Messenger .” Then Abū Hurairah told the whole narration and added “He (i.e., the thief) said, ‘Whenever you go to your bed, recite (the Verse) Ayat Al-Kurṣī, (V.2 :255) for then a guardian from Allāh will be guarding you, and Satan will not approach you till dawn.’” On that the Prophet  said, “He told you the truth, though he is a liar, and he (the thief) himself was the Satan.”

3276. Narrated Abū Hurairah : Allāh’s Messenger  said, “Satan comes to one of you and says, ‘Who created so-and-so? Who created so-and-so?’ till he says, ‘Who has created your Lord?’ So, when he reaches up to such a question, one should seek refuge with Allāh and give up such thoughts.”

3277. Narrated Abū Hurairah : Allāh’s Messenger  said, “When the month when the month of Ramadan comes, the gates of Paradise are opened and the gates of the (Hell) Fire are closed, and the devils are chained.”

3278. Narrated Ubaï bin Ka'b that he heard Allah's Messenger saying, “(The Prophet) Mûsa (Moses) said to his boy-servant…, ‘Bring us our morning meal…” (V.18:62) The latter said, ‘Do you remember when we betook ourselves to the rock? I indeed forgot the fish, and none but Shaitân (Satan) made me forget to remember it…” (V.18:63) Mûsa did not feel tired till he had crossed the place which Allah ordered him to go to.”

3279. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar: I saw Allah’s Messenger pointing towards the east saying, “Look! There will be Al-Fitnah (trial or affliction). Surely Al-Fitnah will emerge from there, where the side of the head of Satan comes out.” (See H. 3104)

3280. Narrated Jâbir: The Prophet said, “When night falls, then keep your children close to you, for the devils spread out then. An hour later you can let them free; and close the gates of your house (at night), and mention Allāh’s Name thereupon, and put off your lights, mention Allāh’s Name thereupon and cover your utensils, and mention Allāh’s Name thereupon, (and if you don’t have something to cover your utensil) you may put across it something (e.g., a piece of wood etc.).”

3281. Narrated Šafiyya bint Ḥuyai: While Allāh’s Messenger was in I’tikāf(1), I called on him at night and having had a talk with him, I got up to depart. He got up also to accompany me to my dwelling place, which was then in the house of Usāma bin Zaid. Two Ansārī men passed by, and when they saw the Prophet they hastened away. The Prophet said (to them), “Don’t hurry! It is Šafiyya, the daughter of Ḥuyai (i.e., my wife).” They said, “Glorified be Allāh! O Allāh’s Messenger! (You are far away from any suspicion?)” He said, “Sātān circulates in a human being as blood circulates in it, and I was afraid that Satan might put an evil thought (or something) in your hearts.”

(1) (H. 3281) I’tikāf: See glossary.
3282. Narrated Sulaiman bin Surad: While I was sitting in the company of the Prophet ﷺ, two men abused each other and the face of one of them became red with anger, and his jugular veins swelled (i.e., he became furious). On that the Prophet ﷺ said, “I know a word, the saying of which will cause him to relax, if he does say it. If he says: ‘A’udhu billahi minash-Shai’tan (I seek refuge with Allah from Satan), then all his anger will go away.” Somebody said to him, “The Prophet ﷺ has said, ‘Seek refuge with Allah from Satan.’” The angry man said, “Am I mad?”

3283. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: The Prophet ﷺ said, “If anyone of you, on having sexual relation with his wife, says: ‘O Allah! Protect me from Satan, and prevent Satan from approaching the offspring you are going to give me,’ and if it happens that the lady conceives a child, Satan will neither harm that child nor will overpower him.”

3284. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ offered a Salât (prayer), and (after finishing) he said, “Satan came in front of me trying persistingly to divert my attention from the Salât (prayer), but Allah gave me the strength to overpower him.”

3285. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, "When the call for the Salāt (prayer) is pronounced, Satan takes to his heels, passing wind with noise. When the call for the Salāt (prayer) is finished, he comes back. And when the Iqāma is pronounced, he again takes to his heels, and after its completion, he returns again to interfere between the person [offering Salāt (prayer)] and his heart, saying to him, 'Remember this or that thing,' till the person forgets whether he has offered three or four Rak'a, so if one forgets whether he has offered three or four Rak'a, he should perform two prostrations of Sahw (i.e., forgetfulness)."

3286. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, "When any human being is born, Satan touches him at both sides of the body with his two fingers, except ‘Īsā (Jesus), the son of Maryam (Mary), whom Satan tried to touch (but failed), so he touched the placenta-cover (instead)."

3287. Narrated ‘Alqama: I went to Sham (1) (and asked, "Who is here?"). The people said, "Abū Ad-Dardā’." Abū Ad-Dardā’ said, "Is the person whom Allāh has protected against Satan (as Allah’s Messenger said), amongst you”. The subnarrator, Mughira, said that the person who was given Allah’s Refuge through the tongue of the Prophet was ‘Ammar (bin Yāsir).

3288. Narrated ‘Āishah: The Prophet said, “While the angels talk amidst the clouds about things that are going to happen on earth, the devils hear a word of what they say and pour it in the ears of a foreteller as one pours something in a bottle, and they add one hundred lies to that (one word).”

3289. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Yawning is from Satan and if anyone of you yawns, he should check his yawning as much as possible, for if anyone of you (during the act of yawning) should say: ‘Ha‘, Satan will laugh at him.”

“O slaves of Allāh! Beware of the forces at your back,” and on that the Muslims of the front files fought with the Muslims of the back files (thinking they were Al-Mushrikūn). Ḥudhaifa looked back to see his father Al-Yaman, (being attacked by the Muslims). He shouted, “O Allāh's slaves! My father! My father!” By Allāh, they did not stop till they killed him. Hudhaifa said, “May Allāh forgive you.” ‘Urwa said that Ḥudhaifa continued invoking good (invoking Allāh to forgive the killer of his father) till he met Allāh (i.e., died).

3291. Narrated ‘Aishah: I asked the Prophet about the one looking here and there during the Salāt (prayer). He replied, “It is what Satan steals from the Salāt (prayer) of anyone of you.” (See H. 751)

3292. Narrated Abū Qatāda: The Prophet said, “A good righteous dream is from Allāh, and a bad or evil dream is from Satan; so if anyone of you has a bad dream of which he gets afraid, he should spit on his left side and should seek refuge with Allāh from its evil, for then it will not harm him.”
3293. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If one says one hundred times in a day: ‘None has the right to be worshipped but Allah, the (Alone), He is the One and has no partner; to Him belongs the kingdom (of the universe) and for Him are all the praises, and He has the power to do everything (the Omnipotent)’, one will get the reward of manumitting ten slaves, and one hundred good deeds will be written in his account, and one hundred bad deeds will be wiped off or erased from his account, and on that day he will be protected from the morning till evening from Satan, and nobody will be superior to him except one who has done more than that which he has done.”

3294. Narrated Sa’d bin Abi Waqqās: Once ‘Umar asked the permission to see Allah’s Messenger ﷺ in whose company there were some Quraisy women who were talking to him and asking him for more financial support raising their voices.

(1) (H. 3293) The Arabic version of this prayer is as follows: ‘La ilaha illallahu, Wahdahu la sharika lahu, laahlul-mulku wa laahlul-hamdu wa Huwa ‘ala kulli shai’in Qadfr.’

(2) (H. 3293) ‘More’ may mean here more times of recitation of this prayer or more good deeds of different nature.

(3) (H. 3294) Perhaps this took place before the believers were ordered to lower their=
When ‘Umar asked permission to enter, the women got up (quickly) hurrying to screen themselves. When Allāh’s Messenger admitted ‘Umar, Allāh’s Messenger was smiling, ‘Umar asked, “O Allāh’s Messenger! May Allāh keep you always happy.” Allāh’s Messenger said, “I am astonished at these women who were with me. As soon as they heard your voice, they hastened to screen themselves.” ‘Umar said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! You have more right to be feared by them.” Then he addressed (those women) saying, “O enemies of your own souls! Do you fear me and not Allāh’s Messenger?” They replied, “Yes, for you are a fearful and fierce man as compared with Allāh’s Messenger.” On that Allāh’s Messenger said (to ‘Umar), “By Him in Whose Hands my soul is, whenever Satan sees you taking a path, he follows a path other than yours.”

3295. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “If anyone of you rouses from sleep and performs the ablution, he should wash his nose by putting water in it and then blowing it out thrice, because Satan has stayed in the upper part of his nose all the night.”(1)

=voices when talking to Allāh’s Messenger.

(1) (H. 3295) We should believe that Satan actually stays in the upper part of one’s nose, though we cannot perceive how, for this is related to the unseen world of which we know nothing, except what Allāh tells us through His Messenger.
(12) CHAPTER. The mention of Jinn, their reward and retribution.

As is referred to by Allah's Statement:

"O you assembly of jinn and mankind! Did not there come to you Messengers from amongst you, reciting unto you My Verses and warning you of the meeting of this Day of yours? They will say: 'We bear witness against ourselves'. It was the life of this world that deceived them. And they will bear witness against themselves that they were disbelievers." (V.6:130)

Mujahid said about the interpretation of the Verse: "And they have invented a kinship between Him and the jinn, but the jinn know well that they have indeed to appear (before Him) (i.e., they will be brought for accounts)". (V.37:158). "The Quraish infidels said: 'The angels are Allah's daughters whose mothers are the daughters of the mistresses among the jinn.' Allah said: '... but the jinn knew well that they have indeed to appear (before Him i.e., they will be brought for accounts)... but they will be brought forward as a troop.'" (V. 36:75)

3296. Narrated 'Abdur-Rahmān bin 'Abdullāh bin 'Abdur-Rahmān bin Abī Sa'ā'sa' a Al-Anṣārī that Abū Sa'īd Al-Khudrī (رضي الله عنه said to his father, 'I see you are fond of sheep and the desert, so when you want to pronounce the Adhān, raise your voice with it, for whoever will hear the Adhān whether a human being, or a jinn, or anything else, will be a witness for you on the Day of Resurrection.' Abū Sa'īd added, "I have heard this from Allah's

[See Vol. 1, Hadith No.609]

(13) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh جل جل:

“And (remember) when We sent towards you (Muḥammad ﷺ) a group (three to ten persons) of the jinn... (till)... Those are in manifest error.” (V.46:29-32).

(14) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh جل جل:

“...And the moving (living) creatures of all kinds that He (Allāh) has scattered therein...” (V.2:164)

3297. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما that he heard the Prophet ﷺ delivering a Khutba (religious talk) on the pulpit saying, “Kill snakes and kill Ḍḥṭ-Tufyatain (i.e., a snake with two white lines on its back) and Al-Abtar (i.e., a snake with short or mutilated tail) for they destroy the sight of one’s eyes and bring about abortion.”
3298. (‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar further added): Once, while I was chasing a snake in order to kill it, Abū Lubāba called me saying: “Don’t kill it.” I said, “Allāh’s Messenger ordered us to kill snakes.” He said, “But later on he prohibited the killing of snakes living in the houses.” (Azh-Zuhri said, “Such snakes are called Al-‘Awāmir.”)

3300. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudri: Allāh’s Messenger said, “There will come a time when the best property of a man will be sheep which he will graze on the tops of mountains and the places where rain falls (i.e., pastures) escaping to protect his religion from Al-Fitan (trials or afflictions).

3301. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger said, “The head (main source) of disbelief is in the east. Pride and arrogance are characteristics of the owners of horses and camels, and those rural bedouins who are busy with their camels and pay no attention to religion; while modesty and gentleness are the characteristics of the owners of sheep.”

3302. Narrated 'Uqba bin 'Amr and Abū Mas'ūd: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ pointed with his hand towards Yemen and said, “True Belief is Yemenite yonder (i.e., the Yemenites have true belief and they embrace Islām readily), but sternness and mercilessness are the qualities of those rural bedouins who are busy with their camels and pay no attention to the religion. (Then pointing towards the east he ﷺ said:) “There, from where comes out the two sides of the head of Satan, namely the tribes of Rabī‘a and Muḍar.”

3303. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “When you hear the crowing of a cock, ask for Allah’s Blessings for (its crowing indicates that) it has seen an angel. And when you hear the braying of a donkey, seek refuge with Allah from Satan for (its braying indicates) that it has seen a Satan.”

3304. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “When night falls (or it is evening), keep your children close to you for the devils spread out at that time. But when an hour of the night elapses, you can let them free. Close the doors and mention the Name of Allah, for Satan does not open a closed door.”

3305. Narrated Abū Hurairah Ṭabīb: The Prophet ﷺ said, “A group of Israelites were lost. Nobody knows what they did. But I do not see them except that they were cursed and transformed into mouses or rats, for if you put the milk of a she-camel in front of a mouse or a rat, it will not drink it, but if the milk of a sheep is put in front of it, it will drink it.”(1) I told this to Ka'b who asked me, “Did you hear it from the Prophet ﷺ?” I said, “Yes.” Ka'b asked me the same question several times; I said to Ka'b, “Do I read the Taurat (Torah)? (i.e., I tell you this from the Prophet ﷺ.”(2)

3306. Narrated ‘Aishah Ṭabīb: The Prophet ﷺ called house-lizards as Al-Fuwaisiq (harmful animals). I have not heard him ordering that it should be killed. Sa'd bin Abi Waqqās claims that the Prophet ﷺ ordered that it should be killed.

(1) (H. 3305) It was illegal for the Isrāelites to eat the meat or drink the milk of camels while they were allowed to eat the meat and drink the milk of sheep. The Prophet ﷺ inferred from the rats' habit that some Isrāelites had been transformed into rats.

(2) (H. 3305) Later on the Prophet ﷺ was informed through revelation about the fate of those Isrāelites: They were transformed into pigs and monkeys.
3307. Narrated Umm Sharik that the Prophet ﷺ ordered her to kill house-lizards.

3308. Narrated ‘Aishah ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Kill the snake with two white lines on its back, for it blinds the onlooker and causes abortion.”

3309. Narrated ‘Aishah ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ ordered that a short-tailed or mutilated-tailed snake (i.e., Al-Abtar) should be killed, for it blinds the onlooker and causes abortion.”

3310. Narrated Abū Mulaika: Ibn ‘Umar used to kill snakes, but afterwards he forbade their killing and said, “Once, the Prophet ﷺ pulled down a wall and saw a cast-off skin of a snake in it. He said, ‘Look for the snake.’ They found it and the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Kill it.’ For this reason I used to kill snakes.
3311. Later on I met Abū Lubāba who told me (Ibn 'Umar رضي الله عنهم) the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Do not kill snakes except the short-tailed or mutilated-tailed snake with two white lines on its back, for it causes abortion and makes one blind. So kill it.’”

3312. Narrated Nāfi’: Ibn ‘Umar used to kill snakes.

3313. But when Abū Lubāba informed him (Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهم) that the Prophet ﷺ had forbidden the killing of snakes living in houses, he gave up killing them.

(16) CHAPTER. If a housefly falls in the drink of anyone of you, he should dip it (in the drink), for one of its wings has a disease and the other has the cure (antidote for that disease). (1) Five kinds of animals are Fuwaisiq (harmful), and one is allowed to kill them even in the Sanctuary (Al-Haram) of Makkah and Al-Madīnah.

3314. Narrated ‘Āishah ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Five kinds of animals are Fuwaisiq (harmful) and can be killed even in Al-Haram (Sanctuary). They are: a mouse, a scorpion, a kite, a crow and a rabid dog.”

(1) (Ch. 16) For details see Vol. 7, Hadith No.5782.
3315. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger said, “It is not sinful of a person in the state of Ihram to kill any of these five animals: a scorpion, a mouse, a rabid dog, a crow and a kite.”

3316. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh: The Prophet said, “Cover your utensils and tie your water-skins, and close your doors and keep your children close to you at night, as the jinn spread out at such time and snatch things away. When you go to bed, put out your lights, for the Fuwaisiq (harmful) animals (i.e., mouse or animals) may drag away the wick of the candle and burn the dwellers of the house.” ‘Âtâ’ said, “The devils.” (instead of the jinn).

3317. Narrated ‘Abdullâh: Once we were in the company of Allah’s Messenger in a cave. Sûrat Al-Mursalât (No. 77) was revealed there, and we were learning it from Allah’s Messenger. Suddenly a snake came out of its hole and we rushed towards it to kill it, but it hastened and entered its hole before we were able to catch it. Allah’s Messenger said, “It has been saved from your evil and you have been saved from its evil.”
3318. Narrated Ibn 'Umar رضي الله عنهما: The Prophet ﷺ said, “A woman entered the (Hell) Fire because of a cat which she had tied; she neither gave it food nor set it free to eat from the vermin of the earth.”

3319. Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Once, while a Prophet amongst the Prophets was taking a rest underneath a tree, an ant bit him. He, therefore, ordered that his luggage be taken away from underneath that tree and then ordered that the dwelling place of the ants should be set on fire. Allāh sent him a revelation:

‘Wouldn’t it have been sufficient to burn a single ant? (that bit you).’” [See Hadīth No. 3019]
(17) CHAPTER. If a housefly falls in the drink of anyone of you, he should dip it (in the drink), for one of its wings has a disease and the other has the cure for the disease. (1)

3320. Narrated Abü Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “If a housefly falls in the drink of anyone of you, he should dip it (in the drink), for one of its wings has a disease and the other has the cure for the disease.” (2)

3321. Narrated Abü Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “A prostitute passed by a panting dog near a well and saw that the dog was about to die of thirst, she took off her Khuff (leather sock or shoe) and tied it with her head-cover and drew out some water for it. So, Allâh forgave her because of that.”

(1) (Ch. 17) See Vol. 7, Hadith No.5782.
(2) (H. 3320) Medically it is well-known now that a fly carries some pathogens on some parts of its body as mentioned by the Prophet ﷺ (before 1400 years approx. when the humans knew very little of modern medicine.) Similarly, Allâh ﷺ created organisms and other mechanisms which kill these pathogens e.g., Penicillin fungus kills pathogenic organisms like Staphylococci and others etc. Recently, experiments have been done under supervision which indicate that a fly carries the disease (pathogens) plus the antitode for those pathogenic organisms. Ordinarily, when a fly touches a liquid food it infects the liquid with its pathogens, so it must be dipped in order to release also the antitode for those pathogens to act as a counterbalance to the pathogens. Regarding this subject I also wrote through a friend of mine to Dr. Muhammad M. El-Samahy, chief of Hadith Dept. in Al-Azhar University, Cairo (Egypt), who has written an article upon this Hadith, and as regards medical aspects, he has mentioned that the microbiologists have proved that there are longitudinal yeast cells living as parasites inside the belly of the fly and these yeast cells in order to repeat their life cycle protrude through respiratory tubules of the fly and if the fly is dipped in a liquid, these cells burst in the fluid and the content of those cells is an antitode for the pathogens which the fly carries.
3322. Narrated Abū Ţalḥa: The Prophet said, "Angels do not enter a house which has either a dog or a picture in it."

3323. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar: Allah's Messenger ordered that the dogs should be killed.\(^1\)

3324. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger said, "If somebody keeps a dog, he will get a daily deduction of one Qirāt (of the reward) of his good deeds, except if he keeps it for the purpose of agriculture or for the protection of livestock."

3325. Narrated Sufyān bin Abī Zuhair Ash-Sha‘bāni that he heard Allah's Messenger saying, "If somebody keeps a dog that is neither used for farmwork nor for guarding the livestock, he will get a daily deduction of\(^1\) (H. 3323) The companions of the Prophet thought that this order was concerned with rabid dogs. Scholars differ as to harmless dogs, i.e. whether to kill them or not.
one Qirāt (of the reward) of his good deeds.” Then As-Sa’ib said, “Have you heard this from Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ?” He replied, “Yes, I did by the Lord (Allāh) of this Qiblah!”

3326. Narrated Abū Hurairah Ṣahabah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allāh created ʿĀdām, and his height was 60 cubits. (When He created him), He said to him:

‘Go and greet that group of angels, and listen to their reply, for it will be your greeting (salutation) and the greeting (salutation) of your offspring.’

So, ʿĀdām said (to the angels): ‘As-Sala ‘Alaikum’ (i.e., peace be upon you). The angels replied (saying), ‘As-Sala ‘Alaika wa Rahmatullahi’ (i.e., peace and Allāh’s Mercy be upon you). Thus the angels added to ʿĀdām’s salutation the expression ‘Wa Rahmatullahi.’ Any person who will enter Paradise will resemble ʿĀdām (in appearance and figure). People have been decreasing in stature since ʿĀdām’s creation.”

3327. Narrated Abū Hurairah Ṣahabah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The first group of people who will enter Paradise will be glittering like the moon on a full-moon night, and those who will follow them will glitter like the most brilliant star in the sky. They will not urinate, relieve nature, spit, or have any nasal secretions. Their combs will be of gold and their sweat will smell like musk. The aloes-wood will be used in their censers. There wives will be Hūr. All of them will look alike as if they are one person in the image of their father Ādam, sixty cubits tall.”

3328. Narrated Abū Salama: Umm Salama said, “Umm Sulaim said, ‘O Allāh’s Messenger! Verily, Allāh is not shy of (telling you) the truth! Is it necessary for a woman to take a bath after she has a wet dream (nocturnal sexual discharge)?’ He said, ‘Yes, if she notices the water (i.e., discharge).’ Umm Salama smiled and said, ‘Does a woman get discharge?’ Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said: ‘Then why does a child resemble (its mother)?’ ”

[See Vol. 1, Hadīth No. 130]

3329. Narrated Anas: When ‘Abdullāh bin Sa‘lām heard of the arrival of the Prophet ﷺ at Al-Madīna, he came to him and said, “I am going to ask you about three things which nobody knows except a Prophet:

(1) What is the first portent of the Hour?
(2) What will be the first meal taken by the people of Paradise?

(3) Why does a child resemble its father, and why does it resemble its maternal uncle (mother’s brother)"

Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Jibril (Gabriel) has just now told me of their answers.” ‘Abdullah said, “He (i.e., Jibril), from amongst all the angels, is the enemy of the Jews.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “As for the first sign of the Hour, it will be a fire that will collect (or gather) the people from the east to the west; the first meal of the people of Paradise will be extra lobe (caudate lobe) of fish-liver. As for the resemblance of the child to its parents: If a man has sexual intercourse with his wife and gets discharge first, the child will resemble the father, and if the woman gets discharge first, the child will resemble her.” On that ‘Abdullah bin Salâm said, “I testify that you are the Messenger of Allah.” ‘Abdullah bin Salâm further said, “O Allah’s Messenger! The Jews are liars, and if they should come to know about my conversion to Islam before you ask them (about me), they would tell a lie about me.”

The Jews came to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and ‘Abdullãh went inside the house. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ asked (the Jews), “What kind of man is ‘Abdullãh bin Salâm amongst you?” They replied, “He is the most learned person amongst us, and the best amongst us, and the son of the best amongst us.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “What do you think if he embraces Islam (will you do like him)?”

The Jews said, “May Allah save him from it.” Then ‘Abdullãh bin Salâm came out in front of them saying, “I testify that La ilaha illallah, wa anna Muhammad-ar-Rasûl Allah, (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah and that Muhammad ﷺ is the Messenger of Allah)”. Thereupon they said, “He is the most wicked amongst us, and the son of the most wicked amongst us,”
So they degraded him and continued talking badly of him.

3330. Narrated Abū Hurairah
The Prophet ﷺ said, “But for the Israelites, meat would not decay, and but for Ḥawwā (Eve), wives would never betray their husbands.” (1)

3331. Narrated Abū Hurairah
Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Treat women nicely, for a woman is created from a rib, and the most curved portion of the rib is its upper portion (2). So, if you should try to straighten it, it will break, but if you leave it as it is, it will remain crooked. So treat women nicely.”

3332. Narrated ‘Abdullāh
Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, the true and truly inspired said, (as regards your creation) everyone of you is collected in the womb of his mother for the first forty days, and then

(1) (H. 3330) The Israelites stored the meat which Allah provided them with, though they were ordered not to do so; therefore Allah caused the meat they had stored, to decay. Ḥawwā (Eve) tempted her husband to eat from the forbidden tree, and by doing so, she cheated him.

he becomes a clot for another forty days, and then a piece of flesh for another forty days. Then Allâh sends an angel to write four words: He writes his deeds, time of his death, means of his livelihood, and whether he will be wretched or blessed (in the Hereafter). Then the soul is breathed into his body. So, a man may do deeds characteristic of the people of the (Hell) Fire, so much so that there is only the distance of a cubit between him and it, and then what has been written (by the angel) surpasses and he starts doing deeds characteristic of the people of Paradise and enters Paradise. Similarly, a person may do deeds characteristic of the people of Paradise, so much so that there is only the distance of a cubit between him and it and then what has been written (by the angel) surpasses and he starts doing deeds of the people of the (Hell) Fire and enters the (Hell) Fire.” (See H. 3208)

3333. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allâh has appointed an angel in the womb, and the angel says, ‘O Lord! Nutafâh! (mixed drops of male and female sexual discharge) O Lord! A clot, O Lord! A piece of flesh.’ And then, if Allâh wishes to complete the child’s creation, the angel will say, ‘O Lord! A male or female? O Lord! Wretched or blessed (in the Hereafter)? What will his livelihood be? What will his age be?’ The angel writes all this while the child is in the womb of its mother.”

3334. Narrated Anas: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allâh will say to that person of the (Hell) Fire who will receive the least punishment, ‘If you had everything on the earth, would you give it as a ransom to free yourself (i.e., save yourself from this Fire)?’ He will say, ‘Yes.’ Then Allah will say, ‘While you were in the backbone of Adam, I asked you much less than this, i.e., not to worship others besides Me, but you insisted on worshipping others besides me’.”

3335. Narrated ‘Abdullãh, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Whenever a person is murdered unjustly, there is a share from the burden of the crime on the first son of Adam, for he was the first to start the tradition of murdering.”

3336. Narrated ‘Aishah, Allah’s ﷺ Grandmother: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “Souls are like recruited troops: Those who are of like qualities are inclined to each other, but those who have dissimilar qualities, differ.”(1)

(1) (H. 3336) The Hadith may also mean that the souls of all the people had been created before the creation of Adam, and then they had acquaintance with each other. The people whose souls had friendly relations will have a similar relation in this physical life, while those whose souls were not on good terms with each other will not have good relations in this physical life. [See Fath al-Bãrî for details].
(3) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh: “And indeed We sent Nūh (Noah) to his people...” (V.11:25)

3337. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Once Allah’s Messenger stood amongst the people, glorified and praised Allāh as He deserved and then mentioned Ad-Dajjāl saying, “I warn you against him (i.e., Ad-Dajjāl) and there was no Prophet but warned his people against him. No doubt, Nūh (Noah) warned his people against him, but I tell you about him something of which no Prophet told his people before me. You should know that he is one-eyed. and Allāh is not one eyed.”
3338. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “Shall I not tell you about Ad-Dajjal, and a thing about him which no Prophet told his people (before)? Ad-Dajjal is one-eyed and will bring with him what will resemble Hell and Paradise, and what he will call Paradise will be actually Hell; so I warn you (against him) as Nūh (Noah) warned his people against him.”

3339. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd: Allah’s Messenger said, “Nūh (Noah) and his people will come (on the Day of Resurrection and Allah will ask Nūh), ‘Did you convey (the Message)?’ He will reply, ‘Yes, O my Lord!’ Then Allah will ask Nūh’s people, ‘Did Nūh convey My Message to you?’ They will reply, ‘No, no Prophet came to us.’ Then Allah will ask Nūh, ‘Who will stand a witness for you?’ He will reply, ‘Muhammad and his followers (will stand witness for me)’. So, I and my followers will stand as witnesses for him (that he conveyed Allah’s Message).’” That is, (the interpretation) of the Statement of Allah. "Thus We have made you (true Muslims—real believers of Islamic Monotheism, true followers of Prophet Muhammad and his Sunna—legal ways), a just (and the best) nation, that you might be witnesses over mankind..." (V.2:143)

Do you know how Allah will gather all the first and the last (people) in one level ground, where an observer will be able to see (all) of them and they will be able to hear the announcer, and the sun will come near to them. Then some people will say: Don’t you see, in what condition you are and the state to which you have reached? Why don’t you look for a person who can intercede for you with your Lord? Some people will say: Appeal to your father, Adam. They will go to him and say, ‘O Adam! You are the father of all mankind, and Allah created you with His Own Hands, and breathed into you the Spirit which He created for you and ordered the angels to prostrate for you so they did, and made you live in Paradise. Will you not intercede for us with your Lord? Don’t you see in what miserable state we are, and to what condition we have reached?’ On that Adam will reply, ‘My Lord has become angry as He has never become before and will never become thereafter; (besides), He forbade me (to eat from) the tree, but I disobeyed (Him). Myself! Myself! Go to somebody else; go to Nūḥ (Noah).’ They will go to Nūḥ and say; ‘O Nūḥ! You are the first amongst the Messengers of Allah to the people of the earth, and Allah named you a thankful slave. Don’t you see in what a miserable state we are and to what condition we have reached? Will you not intercede for us with your Lord?’ Nūḥ will reply, ‘Today my Lord has become angry as He had never become before and will never become thereafter. Myself! Myself! Go to the Prophet (Muḥammad ﷺ).’ The people will come to me, and I will prostrate myself underneath Allah’s Throne. Then I will be addressed: ‘O Muḥammad! Raise your head; intercede, for your intercession will be accepted, and ask (for anything), for you will be given.’”

[See Vol. 9, Hadith No.7440]

3341. Narrated ‘Abdullãh رضي الله عنه: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ recited the following Verse in the usual tone:
‘Fahal mim-muddakir.’ (V.54:15)

(4) CHAPTER. (The Statement of Allah ﷻ):
“And Verily! Iliyãs (Elias) was one of the Messengers. When he said to his people:
“Will you not fear Allah? (up to) and We left for him (a goodly remembrance) among the later generations.” (V.37:123-129)

(And also Allah’s Statement): “Salâm (peace) be upon Ilyãsin (Elias). Verily! Thus do We reward the good-doers. Verily he was one of Our believing slaves.”
(V.37:130-132)

And Ibn Mas’ûd and Ibn ‘Abbûs said that Iliyãs was Idris (himself).

(5) CHAPTER. The reference to Idris ﷺ:
He was Nûh’s (Noah) great-grandfather, and it is said that he was Nûh’s grandfather.

The Statement of Allah ﷻ:
‘We raised him (i.e., Idris) to a high station’. (V.19:57)
3342. Narrated Anas: Abu Dhar used to say that Allah's Messenger said, "While I was at Makkah, the roof of my house was opened and Jibril descended, opened my chest, and poured water with Zamzam into my chest. Then he brought a golden tray full of wisdom and faith, and having poured its contents into my chest, he closed it. Then he took my hand and ascended with me to the heaven. When Jibril reached the nearest heaven, he said to the gatekeeper of the heaven, 'Open (the gate).' The gatekeeper asked, 'Who is it?' Jibril answered, 'Jibril.' He asked, 'Is there anyone with you?' Jibril replied, 'Muhammad is with me.' He asked, 'Has he been called?' Jibril said, 'Yes.' So, the gate was opened and we went over the nearest heaven, and there we saw a man sitting with Aswida (a large number of people) on his right and Aswida on his left. When he looked towards his right, he laughed and when he looked towards his left he wept. He said to me, 'Welcome, O pious Prophet and pious son.' I said, 'Who is this man O Jibril?' Jibril replied, 'He is Idam, and the people on his right and left are the souls of his offspring. Those on the right are the people of Paradise, and those on the left are the people of the (Hell) Fire. So, when he looks to the right, he laughs, and when he looks to the left he weeps.' Then Jibril ascended with me till he reached the second heaven and said to its gatekeeper, 'Open (the gate). The gatekeeper said to him the same as the gatekeeper of the first heaven had said, and he opened the gate.'"

Anas added: Abu Dhar mentioned that the Prophet met Idris, Mūsā (Moses), Isa (Jesus) and Ibrāhīm (Abraham) over the heavens, but he did not specify their places (i.e., on which heaven each of them was) but he mentioned that he (the Prophet ﷺ) had met Ádam on the nearest heaven, and Ibráhím on the sixth. Anás said, “When Jibríl and the Prophet ﷺ passed by Idrís, the latter said, ‘Welcome, O pious Prophet and pious brother!’ the Prophet ﷺ asked, ‘Who is he?’ Jibríl said, ‘He is Idrís.’” The Prophet ﷺ added, “Then I passed by Músa who said, ‘Welcome, O pious Prophet and pious brother!’ I said, ‘Who is he?’ Jibríl said, ‘He is Músa.’ Then I passed by Ísá who said, ‘Welcome, O pious Prophet and pious brother!’ I said, ‘Who is he?’ He replied, ‘He is Ísá.’ Then I passed by the Prophet Ibráhím who said, ‘Welcome, O pious Prophet and pious son!’ I said, ‘Who is he?’ Jibríl replied, ‘He is Ibráhím.”

Narrated Ibn ‘Abbás and Abú Háiyyá Al-Ansãrî: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Then Jibríl ascended with me to a place where I heard the creaking of the pens.” Ibn Hazm and Anás bin Málık state that the Prophet ﷺ said, “Alláh enjoined fifty 保驾护航 (prayers) on me. When I returned with this order of Alláh, I passed by Músa who asked me, ‘What has Alláh enjoined on your followers?’ I replied, ‘He has enjoined fifty 保驾护航 (prayers) on them.’ On that Músa said to me, ‘Go back to your Lord (and appeal for reduction), for your followers will not be able to bear it.’ So, I returned to my Lord and asked for some reduction, and He reduced it to half. When I passed by Músa again and informed him about it, he once more said to me, ‘Go back to your Lord, for your followers will not be able to bear it.’ So, I returned to my Lord similarly as before, and half of it was reduced. I again passed by Músa and he said to me, ‘Go back to your Lord, for your followers will not be able to bear it.’ I again returned to my Lord and He said, ‘These are five 保驾护航 (prayers) and they are

قال ابن حزم: فأسلم ابن مالك: قال النبي ﷺ: "ففرض الله عليَّ حمسيي صلاة، فرجعت بذلك حتى أمر بموسى فقال: لين موسي: ما الذي فرض علي all (equal to) fifty (in reward), for My Word does not change.' I returned to Mūsa, he again told me to return to my Lord (for further reduction) but I said to him 'I feel shy of asking my Lord now.' Then Jibril took me till we reached Sidrat-ul-Muntahā (i.e., lotus tree of utmost boundary) which was shrouded in colours indescribable. Then I was admitted into Paradise where I found small tents (made) of pearls and its earth was musk (a kind of perfume)."

(6) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh ṯayyāb al-Qoḥūl al-AllamāHU Ta‘ālā:
"And to ‘Ād (people, We sent), their brother Hüd.” (V.7:65)
And Allāh’s Statement:
“When he warned his people in Al-Ahqāf... (till the end of the Verse...) Thus do We recompense the people who are Mujrimūn.”
(V.46:21-25)

And also the Statement of Allāh ṯayyāb al-Qoḥūl al-AllamāHU Ta‘ālā:
“And as for ‘Ād, they were destroyed by a furious violent wind! Which Allāh imposed on them for seven nights and eight days in succession, so that you could see men lying overthrown (destroyed), as if they were hollow trunks of date-palms. Do you see any remnants of them?” (V.69:6-8)
3343. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: The Prophet ﷺ said, “I have been made victorious with As-Sabā (i.e., an easterly wind) and the people of ‘Ad were destroyed by Ad-Dabûr (i.e., a westerly wind).”

3344. Narrated Abü Sa‘īd: ‘Ali sent a piece of gold to the Prophet ﷺ who distributed it among four persons: Al-Aqra’ bin Ḥâbis Al-Ḥanẓali from the tribe of Mujaššâ‘î, ‘Uyaina bin Badr Al-Fazâ‘ârî, Zaid At-Ṭâ‘î who belonged to (the tribe of) Bani Nabhân, and ‘Alqama bin ‘Ulâtha Al-‘Amäri who belonged to (the tribe of) Bani Kilâb. So, the Quraish and the Ansâr became angry and said, “He (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ) gives to the chiefs of Najd and does not give us.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “(I give them) so as to attract their hearts (to Islam).” Then a man with sunken eyes, prominent checks, a raised forehead, a thick beard and a shaven head came (in front of the Prophet ﷺ) and said, “Be afraid of Allah, O Muhammad!” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Who would obey Allah if I disobeyed Him? (Is it fair that) Allah has trusted all the people of the earth to me while, you do not trust me?” Somebody, who, I think was Khalid bin Al-Walîd, requested the Prophet ﷺ to let him chop that man’s head off, but he prevented him. When the men left, the Prophet ﷺ said, “Among the offspring of this man will be some who will recite the Qur’ân, but the Qur’ân will not reach beyond their throats (i.e., they will recite like parrots and will not understand it nor act on it), and they will renegade from the religion (i.e., discard Islam) as an arrow goes out through the game's body. They will kill the Muslims but will leave the idolaters. If I should live up to their time I will kill them as the people of 'Ad were killed (i.e., I will kill all of them).

3345. Narrated 'Abdullãh رضي الله عنه: I heard the Prophet سaying: 'Fahal mim-Muddakir.'

[See Hadith No.3341]

(7) CHAPTER. The story of Gog and Magog.

And the Statement of Allâh عزّ وجلّ:

“They said: O Dhul-Qarnain! Verily! Y'ajüj and Ma'jûj (Gog and Magog) are doing great mischief in the land.” (V.18:94)

“And they ask you about Dhul-Qarnain... (up to)... a way.” (V.18:83-85)
3346.Narrated Zainab bint Jahsh that the Prophet ﷺ once came to her in a state of fear and said, “Lā ilāha illāllāh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh) Woe unto the Arabs from a danger that has come near. An opening has been made in the wall of Ya’qūb and Mā’jū (Gog and Magog) like this. Making a circle with his thumb and index finger, Zainab bint Jahsh said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Shall we be destroyed even though there are pious persons among us?” He said, “Yes, when the “Al-Khabūt” (evil persons) will increase.”

(1) (II, 3346) The word “Al-Khabūt” is interpreted as illegal sexual intercourse, illegitimate children, and every kind of evil deed. [See Fath Al-Bāri].
3347. Narrated Abu Hurairah

The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allâh has made an opening in the wall of the Ya’jûj and Ma’jûj (Gog and Magog) (people) like this.” and he made with his hand 90 (with the help of his fingers).

3348. Narrated Abu Sa’îd Al-Khudrî

The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allâh will say (on the Day of Resurrection), ‘O Adam’, Adam will reply, ‘Labbaik waSn daik, and all the good is in Your Hand.’ Allâh will say: ‘Bring out the people of the Fire.’ Adam will say: ‘O Allâh! How many are the people of the Fire?’ Allâh will reply: ‘From every one thousand, take out nine hundred and ninety-nine’. At that time children will become hoary headed, ‘...Every pregnant one will drop her load, and you shall see mankind as in a drunken state, yet they will not be drunken, but severe will be the Torment of Allâh. (V.22:2).’” The companions of the Prophet ﷺ asked, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Who will be that one from us (saved from the Fire)?” He said, “Rejoice with glad tidings; one person will be from you and one thousand will be from Ya’jûj and Ma’jûj (Gog and Magog).” The Prophet ﷺ further said, “By Him in Whose Hands my soul is, I hope that you will be one-fourth of the people of Paradise." We shouted, “Allâhu Akbar!” He added, “I hope that you will be one-third of the people of Paradise.” We shouted, “Allâhu Akbar!” He said, “I hope that you will be one-half of the people of Paradise.” We shouted, “Allâhu Akbar!” He further said, “You (Muslims) (compared with non-Muslims) are like a black hair in the skin of a white ox, or like a white hair in the skin of a black ox (i.e., your number is very small as compared with theirs)."

(8) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh ﷺ.

"...And Allâh did take Ibrâhîm (Abraham) as a Khâlîl (an intimate friend)." (V.4:125)

And His Statement:

“Verily, Ibrâhîm (Abraham) was an ’Ammah (a leader having all the good righteous qualities or a nation), obedient to Allâh ﷺ, a Qâ’im (i.e., to worship none but Allâh)...’ (V.16:120)

And His Statement:

“Verily, Ibrâhîm (Abraham) was a ’Awwâh (one who invokes Allâh with humility, glorifies Him and remembers Him much) and was forebearing.” (V.9:114)

3349. Narrated Ibûn ’Abbâs ﭼ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “You will be gathered (on the Day of Judgement). bare-footed, naked and not circumcised.” He then recited:

“As We began the first creation. We shall repeat it: (It is) a promise binding upon Us. Truly we shall do it.” (V.21:104)

He added, “The first to be dressed on the Day of Resurrection will be Ibrâhîm (Abraham), and some of my companions will be taken towards the left side [i.e., to the (Hell) Fire, and I will say: ‘My companions! My companions!’ It will be said: ‘They had been renegades (deserted Islam) after you left them.’ Then I will say as the pious slave of Allah [i.e., 'Isa (Jesus)] said:

‘And I was a witness over them while I dwelt amongst them... (up to)... the All-Wise.’” (V.5:117,118).

[See Hadith No. 3447]

3350. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “On the Day of Resurrection Ibrāhīm (Abraham) will meet his father Azar whose face will be dark and covered with dust. (The Prophet) Ibrāhīm (Abraham) will say (to him): ‘Didn’t I tell you not to disobey me?’ His father will reply: ‘Today I will not disobey you.’ Ibrāhīm (Abraham) will say: ‘O Lord! You promised me not to disgrace me on the Day of Resurrection; and what will be more disgraceful to me than cursing and dishonouring my father?’ Then Allah will say (to him): ‘I have forbidden Paradise for the disbelievers.’ Then he will be addressed, ‘O Ibrāhīm (Abraham)! Look! What is underneath your feet?’ He will look and there he will see a Dhikh (or hyena — an animal) bloodstained, which will be caught by the legs and thrown in the (Hell) Fire.”

\[(1) (H. 3350) Ibrāhīm’s (Abraham) father will be transformed into an animal and thrown into the Fire, for his Muslim son’s intercession will not avail, as he was an infidel. Ibrāhīm then will repudiate his father.\]
3351. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet entered Ka’bah and found in it the pictures of (Prophet) Ibrāhīm (Abraham) and Maryam (Mary). On that he said, “What is the matter with them (i.e., Quraish)? They have already heard that angels do not enter a house in which there are pictures; yet this is the picture of Ibrāhīm (Abraham). And why is he depicted as practising divination by arrows?”

3352. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: When the Prophet saw pictures in the Ka’bah, he did not enter it till he ordered them to be erased. When he saw (the pictures of) Ibrāhīm (Abraham) and Isma’īl (Ishmael) having the Azlām (arrows of divination) in their hands he said, “May Allah curse them (i.e., the Quraish)! By Allah, neither Ibrāhīm nor Isma’īl practised divination by arrows.”

3353. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The people said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Who is the most honourable amongst the people (with Allah)?” He said, “Al-Muttaqūn (1) (the most pious and righteous) amongst them.” They said, “We do not ask you about this.” He said, “Then Yūsuf (Joseph), Allah’s Prophet, the son of Allah’s Prophet, the son of Allah’s Prophet the son of Allah’s Khālit (2) [i.e., Ibrāhīm (Abraham).]” They said, “We do not want to ask about this.” He said “Then you want to ask about the descent of the Arabs. Those who were the best in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance will be the best in Islam provided they comprehend the religious knowledge.”

3354. Narrated Samura: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Two persons came to me at night (in dream) (and took me along with them). We passed by a tall man who was so tall that I was not able to see his head and that person was Ibrâhîm (Abraham) عليه السلام.”

3355. Narrated Mujähid that when the people mentioned before Ibn ‘Abbas that Ad-Dajjâl would have the word Kâfir (i.e., disbeliever) or the letters K F R (the root of the Arabic verb ‘disbelieve’) written on his forehead. I heard Ibn ‘Abbas saying, “I did not hear this, but the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘If you want to see Ibrahim (Abraham), then look at your companion (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ) but Mûsâ (Moses) was a curly-haired, brown man (who used to ride) a red camel, the reins of which was made of fibres of date-palms. As if I were now looking at him descending down a valley.’”

(1) (H. 3355) Ibrâhîm (Abraham)
(Abraham) did his circumcision with Qaddām (an adze) at the age of eighty."

Narrated Abū Az-Zinād (as above in Hadith No.3356): With Qaddām (a short adze).

Abū Hurairah narrated: "Ibrāhīm (Abraham) did not tell a lie except on three occasions."

Abū Hurairah narrated: "Ibrāhīm (Abraham) did not tell a lie except on three occasions. Twice for the sake of Allah when he said, "I am sick," and he said, "I have not done this but the big idol has done it." The (third was) that while Ibrāhīm (Abraham) and Sārah (his wife) were going (on a journey), they passed by (the territory of) a tyrant from amongst the idolaters.

the tyrants. Someone said to the tyrant, “This man [i.e., Ibrāhīm (Abraham)] is accompanied by a very charming lady.” So, he sent for Ibrāhīm and asked him about Sārah saying “Who is this lady?” Ibrāhīm (Abraham) said, “She is my sister.” Ibrāhīm (Abraham) went to Sārah and said, “O Sārah! There are no believers on the surface of the earth except you and I. This man asked me about you and I have told him that you are my sister, so don’t contradict my statement.” The tyrant then called Sārah and when she went to him, he tried to take hold of her with his hand, but (his hand got stiff and) he was confounded. He asked Sārah, “Pray to Allāh for me, and I shall not harm you.” So Sārah asked Allāh to cure him and he got cured. He tried to take hold of her for the second time, but [his hand got as stiff as (or stiffer than) before and] was more confounded. He again requested Sārah, “Pray to Allāh for me, and I will not harm you.” Sārah asked Allāh again and he became alright. He then called one of his guards (who had brought her) and said, “You have not brought me a human being but have brought me a devil.” The tyrant then gave Hājar as a girl-servant to Sārah. Sārah came back [to Ibrāhīm (Abraham)] while he was offering Ṣalāt (prayer). Ibrāhīm (Abraham) gesturing with his hand, asked, “What has happened?” She replied, “Allāh has spoiled the evil plot of the infidel (or immoral person) and gave me Hājar for service.” (Abū Hurairah then addressed his listeners saying, “That (Hājar) was your mother, O Bani Mā’-is-Sama’ (i.e., the Arabs).”

(1) (H. 3358) Bani Mā’-is-Sama’ means ‘the children of the water of sky (rain)’. It is said that he called the Arabs by this name because they depended for their livelihood on natural pastures grown by means of rain.
3359. Narrated Umm Sharik Ṭabī‘ah: ALLAH’s Messenger Ṭabī‘ah ordered that house-lizards should be killed and said, “It (i.e., the house-lizard) blew (the fire) on Ibrāhīm (Abraham).” ¹(¹)

3360. Narrated ‘Abdullāh L. Ṭabī‘ah: When the following Verse was revealed:

“It is those who believe (in the Oneness of ALLAH and worship none but Him Alone) and confuse not their belief with Zulm (wrong i.e., by worshipping others besides ALLAH)...”² (V.6:82)

We said, “O ALLAH’s Messenger! Who is there amongst us who has not done Zulm (wrong) to himself?” He replied, “It is not as you say, for Zulm in the Verse and ‘confuse not their belief, with Zulm means ‘Shirk’ (i.e., joining others in worship with ALLAH). Haven’t you heard Luqmaan’s saying to his son, ‘...O my son! Join not in worship others with ALLAH. Verily! Joining others in worship with ALLAH is a great Zulm (wrong) indeed.’” (V.31:13)

(9) CHAPTER. And ALLAH’s Statement: “… hastening.” (V.37:94)

3361. Narrated Abū Hurairah Ṭabī‘ah: One day some meat was given to the Prophet Ṭabī‘ah and he said, “On the Day of Resurrection ALLAH will gather all the first and the last (people) on one level ground, and the voice of the announcer will reach all of them, and one will be able to see them all, and the sun

¹ (H. 3359) When Ibrāhīm (Abraham) was thrown into the fire, it is said, all the animals tried to extinguish the fire except house-lizard which blew it.

² (H. 3360) The rest of the Verse is: ‘for them (only) there is security and they are the (rightly) guided.’ (V.6:82) will come near to them.” (The narrator then mentioned the narration of intercession):

“The people will go to Ibrâhîm (Abraham) and say: ‘You are Allâh’s Prophet and His Khalîl on the earth. Will you intercede for us with your Lord?’ Abraham will then remember his lies and say: ‘Myself! Myself! Go to Müsâ (Moses).’” (1) (See H. 3340)

3362. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs رضي الله عنهما: The Prophet ﷺ said, “May Allâh bestow His Mercy on the mother of Ismâ’il (Ishmael)! Had she not hastened (to fill her water-skin with water from the Zamzam well), Zamzam would have been a stream flowing on the surface of the earth.”

3363. Ibn ‘Abbâs further added, “(The Prophet) Ibrâhîm (Abraham) brought Ismâ’il (Ishmael) and his mother (to Makkah) and she was suckling Isma’il, and she had a waterskin with her.”

1) (H. 3361) See Vol. 6, Hadîth No.4712.
The first lady to use a girdle was the mother of Isma'îl (Ishmael). She used a girdle so that she might hide her tracks from Sârah. (1) Ibîrahîm (Abraham) brought her and her son Isma'îl while she used to nurse him at her breast, to a place near the Ka'bah under a tree on the spot of Zamzam, at the highest place in the mosque. During those days there was nobody in Makkah nor was there any water. So he made them sit over there and placed near them a leather bag containing some dates, and a small water-skin containing some water, and set out homeward. Isma'îl’s (Ishmael) mother followed him saying, “O Ibîrahîm! Where are you going, leaving us in this valley where there is no person whose company we may enjoy, nor is there anything (to enjoy)?” She repeated that to him many times, but he did not look back at her. Then she asked him, “Has Allah ordered you to do so?” He said, “Yes.” She said, “Then He will not neglect us,” and returned while Ibîrahîm proceeded onwards, and on reaching the Thaniya where they could not see him, he faced the Ka'bah, and raising both hands, invoked Allah saying the following supplication:

'O our Lord! I have made some of my offspring to dwell in an uncultivable valley, by Your Sacred House (Ka'bah at Makkah)... so that they may give thanks.'

Isma'îl’s mother went on suckling Isma'îl and drinking from the water (she had). When the water in the water-skin had all been used up, she became thirsty and her child also became thirsty. She started looking at him (i.e., Isma’il) tossing in agony. She left him, for she could not endure looking at him, and found that the mountain of Aṣ-Ṣafā was the nearest mountain to her on that land. She stood on it and started looking at the valley keenly so that she might see somebody, but she could not see anybody. Then she descended from Aṣ-Ṣafā and when she reached the valley, she tucked up her robe and ran in the valley like a person in distress and trouble, till she crossed the valley and reached Al-Marwa mountain, where she stood and started looking, expecting to see somebody, but she could not see anybody. She repeated that (running between Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa) seven times.”

Ibn Abbas said: The Prophet said, “This is the source of the tradition of Sā’y (the walking) of people between them (i.e., Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa). When she reached Al-Marwa (for the last time) she heard a voice and she asked herself to be quiet and listened attentively. She heard the voice again and said, ‘O, (whoever you may be)! You have made me hear your voice; have you got something to help me?’ And behold! She saw an angel at the place of Zamzam, digging the earth with his heel (or his wing), till water flowed from that place. She started to make something like a basin around it, using her hands in this way, and started filling her water-skin with water with her hands, and the water was flowing out after she had scooped some of it.” The Prophet added, “May Allah bestow mercy on Isma’il’s mother! Had she let the Zamzam (flow without trying to control it) (or had she not scooped from that water) (to fill her water-skin), Zamzam would have been a stream flowing on the surface of the earth.”
The angel said to her, ‘Don’t be afraid of being neglected, for this is the House of Allah which will be built by this boy and his father, and Allah never neglects His people.’ The House (i.e., Ka‘bah) at that time was on a high place resembling a hillock, and when torrents came, they flowed to its right and left. She lived in that way till some people from the tribe of Jurhum or a family from Jurhum passed by her and her child, as they (i.e., the Jurhum people) were coming through the way of Kada’. They landed in the lower part of Makkah where they saw a bird that had the habit of flying around water and not leaving it. They said, ‘This bird must be flying around water, though we know that there is no water in this valley.’ They sent one or two messengers who discovered the source of water, and returned to inform them of the water. So, they all came (towards the water).’ The Prophet added, ‘Isma’il’s mother was sitting near the water. They asked her, ‘Do you allow us to stay with you?’ She replied, ‘Yes, but you will have no right to possess the water.’ They agreed to that.” The Prophet further said, ‘Isma’il’s mother was pleased with the whole situation as she used to love to enjoy the company of the people. So, they settled there, and later on they sent for their families who came and settled with them so that some families became permanent residents there. The child (i.e., Ismā’il) grew up and learnt Arabic from them and (his virtues) caused them to love and admire him as he grew up, and when he reached the age of puberty they made him marry a woman from amongst them. After Ismā’il’s mother had died, Ibrāhim (Abraham) came after Ismā’il’s marriage in order to see his family that he had left long ago, but he did not find Ismā’il there. When he asked Ismā’il’s wife about him, she replied, ‘He has gone in search of our livelihood.’ Then he asked her about their way of living and their condition, and she replied, ‘We are living in misery; we are living in hardship and destitution,’ complaining to him. He said, ‘When your husband returns, convey my salutation to him and tell him to change the threshold of the gate (of his house).’ When Ismā’il came, he seemed to have felt something unusual, so he asked his wife, ‘Has anyone visited you?’ She replied, ‘Yes, an old man of so-and-so description came and asked me about you and I informed him, and he asked about our state of living, and I told him that we were living in hardship and poverty.’ On that Ismā’il said, ‘Did he advise you anything?’ She replied, ‘Yes, he told me to convey his salutation to you and to tell you to change the threshold of your gate.’ Ismā’il said, ‘It was my father, and he has ordered me to divorce you. Go back to your family.’ So, Ismā’il divorced her and married another woman from amongst them (i.e., Jurhum). Then Ibrāhīm (Abraham) stayed away from them for a period as long as Allāh wished and called on them again but did not find Ismā’il. So he came to Ismā’il’s wife and asked her about Ismā’il. She said, ‘He has gone in search of our livelihood.’ Ibrāhīm (Abraham) asked her, ‘How are you getting on?’ asking her about their sustenance and living. She replied, ‘We are prosperous and well-off (i.e., we have everything in abundance).’ Then she thanked Allāh. Ibrāhīm (Abraham) asked, ‘What kind of food do you eat?’ She said, ‘Meat.’ He said, ‘What do you drink?’ She said, ‘Water.’ He said, ‘O Allāh! Bless their meat and water.’” The Prophet added, “At that time they did not have grain, and if they had grain, he would have also invoked Allah to bless it.” The Prophet ﷺ added, “If somebody has only these two things as his sustenance, his health and disposition will be badly affected, unless he lives in Makkah.” The Prophet ﷺ added, “Then Ibrāhīm (Abraham) said to Ismā’īl’s wife, ‘When your husband comes, give my regards to him and tell him that he should keep firm the threshold of his gate.’ When Ismā’īl came back, he asked his wife, ‘Did anyone call on you?’ She replied, ‘Yes, a good-looking old man came to me,’ so she praised him and added: ‘He asked about you, and I informed him, and he asked about our livelihood and I told him that we were in a good condition.’ Ismā’īl asked her, ‘Did he give you any piece of advice?’ She said, ‘Yes, he told me to give his regards to you and ordered that you should keep firm the threshold of your gate.’ On that Ismā’īl said, ‘It was my father, and you are the threshold (of the gate). He has ordered me to keep you with me.’ Then Ibrāhīm (Abraham) stayed away from them for a period as long as Allah wished, and called on them afterwards. He saw Ismā’īl under a tree near Zamzam, sharpening his arrows. When he saw Ibrāhīm (Abraham), he rose up to welcome him (and they greeted each other as a father does with his son or a son does with his father). Ibrāhīm (Abraham) said, ‘O Ismā’īl! Allah has given me an order.’ Ismā’īl said, ‘Do what your Lord has ordered you to do.’ Ibrāhīm (Abraham) asked, ‘Will you help me?’ Ismā’īl said, ‘I will help you.’ Ibrāhīm (Abraham) said, ‘Allah has ordered me to build a house here, pointing to a hillock higher than the land surrounding it.’” The Prophet ﷺ added: “Then they raised the foundations of the House (i.e., the Ka’bah). Ismā’īl brought the stones and Ibrāhīm (Abraham) was building, and when the walls became high, Ismā'il brought this stone and put it for Ibrāhīm who stood over it and carried on building, while Ismā'il was handing him the stones, and both of them were saying:

'...Our Lord! Accept (this service) from us. Verily! You are the All-Hearer, the All-Knower.' (V.2:127)

The Prophet added, "Then both of them went on building and going round the Ka'bah saying:

'Our Lord! Accept (this service) from us. Verily! You are the All-Hearer, the All-Knower.'" (V.2:127)

3365. Narrated Ibn 'Abbās (On the authority of the Prophet) (See Hadith No. 3364). When Ibrāhīm (Abraham) had differences with his wife, [because of her jealousy of Hājar, Ismā'īl's (Ishmael) mother], he took Ishmael and his mother and went away. They had a water-skin with them containing some water, Ismā'īl's mother used to drink water from the water-skin so that her milk would increase for her child. When Ibrāhīm reached Makkah, he made her sit under a tree and afterwards returned home. Ismā'īl's mother followed him, and when they reached Kada', she called him from behind, 'O Ibrāhīm! To whom are you leaving us?' He replied, '(I am leaving you) to Allah's (Care).'</ref> She said, 'I am satisfied to be with Allah.' She returned to her place and started drinking water from the water-skin, and her milk increased for her child. When the water had all been used up, she said to herself, 'I'd better go and look so that I may see somebody.' She ascended As-Safā mountain and looked, hoping to see somebody, but in vain. When she came down to the valley, she ran till she reached Al-

Marwa mountain. She ran to and fro (between the two mountains) many times. Then she said to herself, ‘I’d better go and see the state of the child,’ she went and found the child in a state of one on the point of dying. She could not endure to watch it dying and said (to herself), ‘If I go and look, I may find somebody.’ She went and ascended Aş-Şafâ mountain and looked for a long while but could not find anybody. Thus she completed seven rounds (of running) between Aş-Şafâ and Al-Marwa. Again she said (to herself), ‘I’d better go back and see the state of the child.’ But suddenly she heard a voice, and she said to that strange voice, ‘Help us if you can offer any help.’ Lo! It was Jibrîl (Gabriel) (who had made the voice). Jibrîl hit the earth with his heel like this (Ibn ‘Abbâs hit the earth with his heel to illustrate it), and so the water gushed out. Ismâ‘îl’s mother was astonished and started digging. (Abul-Qâsim) (i.e., the Prophet) said, “If she had left the water, (flow naturally without her intervention), it would have been flowing like a (stream) on the surface of the earth.” Ismâ‘îl’s mother started drinking from the water and her milk increased for her child. Afterwards some people of the tribe of Jurhum, while passing through the bottom of the valley, saw some birds, and that astonished them, and they said, ‘Birds can only be found at a place where there is water.’ They sent a messenger who searched the place and found the water, and returned to inform them about it. Then they all went to her and said, ‘O Ishmael’s mother! Will you allow us to be with you (or dwell with you)’? (And thus they stayed there.) Later on, her boy reached the age of puberty and married a lady from them. Then an idea occured to İbrahim (Abraham) which he disclosed to his wife (Sârah), ‘I want to call on my dependents I left (at Makkah).’ When he went there, he greeted (Ismā’īl’s wife) and said, ‘Where is Ismā’īl?’ She replied, ‘He has gone out hunting.’ Ibrāhīm (Abraham) said (to her), ‘When he comes, tell him to change the threshold of his gate.’ When he came, she told him the same whereupon Ismā’īl said to her, ‘You are the threshold, so go to your family (i.e., you are divorced).’ Again Ibrāhīm (Abraham) thought of visiting his dependents whom he had left (at Makkah), and he told his wife (Sārah) of his intentions. Ibrāhīm (Abraham) came to Ismā’īl’s house and asked, ‘Where is Ismā’īl?’ Ismā’īl’s wife replied, ‘He has gone out hunting,’ and added, ‘Will you stay (for some time) and have something to eat and drink?’ Ibrāhīm (Abraham) asked, ‘What is your food and what is your drink?’ She replied, ‘Our food is meat and our drink is water.’ He said, ‘0 Allah! Give Your Blessings in their food and in their drink.’ Abul-Qasim (i.e., Prophet) said, “Because of Ibrāhīm’s invocation there are blessings (in Makkah).” Once more Ibrāhīm (Abraham) thought of visiting his family he had left (at Makkah), so he told his wife (Sārah) of his decision. He went and found Ismā’īl behind the Zamzam well, mending his arrows. He said, “O Ismā’īl, Your Lord has ordered me to build a house for Him.” Ismā’īl said, “Obey (the order of) your Lord.” Ibrāhīm (Abraham) said, “Allah has also ordered me that you should help me therein.” Ishmael said, “Then I will do.” So, both of them rose and Ibrāhīm started building (the Ka’bah) while Ismā’īl went on handing him the stones, and both of them were saying, “Our Lord! Accept (this service) from us. Verily! You are the All-Hearing, the All-Knower.” (V.2:127). When the building became high and the old man (i.e., Ibrāhīm) could no longer lift the stones (to such a high position), he stood over the stone of Al-Maqām(1) and Ismā‘īl carried on handing him the stones, and both of them were saying, ‘Our Lord! Accept (this service) form us. Verily! You are All-Hearer, All-Knower.’” (V.2:127)

(10) CHAPTER.

3366. Narrated Abū Dhar: I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Which mosque was first built on the surface of the earth?”
He said, “Al-Masjid-al-Haram (at Makkah).”
I said, “Which (was built) next?” He replied, “Al-Masjid-al-Aqṣā (at Jerusalem).”
I said, “What was the period of construction between the two?” He said, “Forty years.”
He added, “Wherever (you may be, and) the Ṣalāt (prayer) time becomes due, perform the Ṣalāt there, for the best thing is to do so [i.e., to offer the Ṣalāt (prayer) in time].”

3367. Narrated Anas bin Malik: When the mountain of Uhud came in the sight of Allah’s Messenger, he said: “This is a mountain that loves us and is loved by us. O Allah! Ibrāhīm (Abraham) made Makkah a sanctuary, and I make (the area) in between these two mountains (of Al-Madīnah) a sanctuary.”

(1) (H. 3365) This very stone is still preserved in Al-Masjid-al-Haram (the Sacred Mosque in Makkah) and is situated between the Ka’bah and Zamzam, and one can see the footmarks of Ibrāhīm over it.
3368.Narrated 'Āishah the wife of the Prophet, said (to her), “Don't you see that when your folk built the Ka'bah, they did not build it on all the foundations built by Ibrāhīm (Abraham)?” I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Why don’t we rebuild it on the foundations of Ibrāhīm?” He said, “But for the fact that your folk have recently given up infidelity (1) I would have done so.”

Narrated Ibn ‘Umar, “'Aishah must have heard this from Allah’s Messenger for I see that Allah’s Messenger used not to touch the two corners facing Al-Hijr only because the House (the Ka'bah) had not been built on the foundations of Ibrāhīm.”
on Muhammad and on his wives and on his offspring, as You sent Your Blessings on Ibrahim's family, for You are the Most Praiseworthy, the Most Glorious.”] 3370. Narrated ‘Abdur-Rahman bin Abi Laila: Ka'b bin ‘Ujrah met me and said, “Shall I not give you a present I got from the Prophet؟” ‘Abdur-Rahman said, “Yes, give it to me.” I said, “We asked Allah’s Messenger saying, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! How should one (ask Allah to) send As-Salat on you, the members of the family, for Allah has taught us how to greet you’. He said, ‘Say: Allahuamma salli ‘ala Muhammadin wa ‘ala Ali Muhammadin, kamâ saallaita ‘ala Ibrâhima wa ‘ala Ali Ibrâhima, Innaka Hamidun Majid. Allahumma bârik ‘ala Muhammadin wa ‘ala Ali Muhammadin, kama bârakta ‘ala Ibrâhima wa ‘ala Ali-Ibrâhima, Innaka Hamidun Majid.” [O Allah! Send Your Salat (Graces, Honours and Mercy) on Muhammad and on the family (or the followers) of Muhammad, as You sent Your Salat (Graces, Honours and Mercy) on Abraham and on the family (or the followers) of Ibraheem, for You are the Most Praiseworthy, the Most Glorious. O Allah! Sent Your Blessings on Muhammad and the family (or the followers) of Muhammad, as You sent Your Blessings on Ibraheem and on the family (or the followers) of Ibraheem, for You are the Most Praiseworthy, the Most Glorious.”

3371. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet used to seek refuge with Allah for Al-Hasan and Al-Husain and say: “Your forefather [i.e., Ibraheem (Abraham)] used to seek refuge with Allah for Isma’il (Ishmael) and Ishaq (Isaac) by reciting the following: ‘O Allah! I seek refuge with Your Perfect Words from every devil and from poisonous pests and from every evil, harmful, envious eye.'"

(11) CHAPTER. Allâh's Statement:

"And tell them about the guests (the angels) of Ibrâhim (Abraham)." (V.15:51)

And also Allâh's Statement:

"And (remember) when Ibrâhim said, My Lord! Show me how you give life to the dead." (V.2:260)

3372. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allâh's Messenger ﷺ said, "We are more liable to be in doubt when Ibrâhim (Abraham) when he said, 'Lord! Show me how You give life to the dead.' He (Allâh) said: 'Do you not believe?' He (Ibrâhim) said: 'Yes, (I believe), but to be stronger in Faith...'" (V.2:260)

And may Allâh send His Mercy on Lout (Lot)! Certainly he used to lean on a powerful support. If I were to stay in prison for such a long time as Yûsuf (Joseph) did, I would have accepted the offer (of freedom without insisting on having my guiltlessness declared)."(1)

(12) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh

"And mention in the Book (the Qur'an) Ismā’il (Ishmael): Verily! He was true to what he promised...” (V.19:54)

3373. Narrated Salama bin Al-Akwa’:

The Prophet passed by some persons of the tribe of Aslam practising archery (i.e., the throwing of arrows). Allâh’s Messenger said, “O offspring of Ismā’il (Ishmael)! Practise archery (i.e., arrow-throwing) as your father was a great archer (i.e., arrow-thrower). I am with (on the side of) the sons of so-and-so.” Hearing that, one of the two teams stopped throwing. Allâh’s Messenger asked them, “Why are you not throwing?” They replied, “O Allâh’s Messenger! How shall we throw when you are with the opposite team?” He said, “Throw, for I am with you all.”

(13) CHAPTER. The story of Išhāq (Isaac), the son of Ibrāhîm (Abraham):

(14) CHAPTER.

“Or were you witnesses when death approached Ya’qûb (Jacob)? When he said unto his sons:” (V.2:133)

3374. Narrated Abû Hurairah:

Some people asked the Prophet: “Who is the most honourable amongst the people?” He replied, “The most honourable among them is the one who fears Allâh and keeps his duty to Him.” They said, “O Allâh’s Prophet! We do not ask about this.” He said, “Then the most honourable person is Yusûf (Joseph), Allâh’s Prophet, the son of Allâh’s Prophet, the son of Allâh’s Prophet, the son of Allâh’s Khaṭîl.” They said, “We do not ask about this.” He said, “Then you want...”
to ask me about the Arabs descent?” They said, “Yes.” He said, “Those who were best in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance are the best in Islam, if they comprehend (the religious knowledge).”

(15) CHAPTER. “And (remember) Lout (Lot)! When he said to his people, ‘Do you commit Al-Fâhishah (evil, great sins, every kind of unlawful sexual intercourse, sodomy) (up to) so, evil was the rain of those who were warned.” (V.27:54-58)

3375. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet (ﷺ) said, “May Allah forgive Lout (Lot): He used to lean on a powerful support.”

(16) CHAPTER.
Then, when the messengers (the angels) came unto the family of Lout (Lot), he said, ‘Verily you are people unknown to me.’” (V.15:61,62)

“Fahal mim-muddakir”
(Then is there any that will remember or receive admonition) (and avoid evil).
(V.54:15)

(17) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh

“And to Thamûd (people, We sent) their brother Šâlih ...” (V.7:73)
And His Statement:
“The dwellers of Al-Ḥijr (the rocky tract) denied.” (V.15:80)
Al-Ḥijr is the land of the tribe of Thamûd.

3377. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin Zam’a رضي الله عنه: I heard the Prophet ﷺ while referring to the person who killed the she-camel (of the Prophet Šâlih), saying, “The man who was appointed for doing this job was a man of honour and power in his nation like Abû Zam’a.”

3378. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: When Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ landed at Al-Ḥijr during the Ghâzwa of Tabûk, he ordered his companions neither to drink nor to take water from its well. They said, “We have already kneaded the dough with its water, and also filled our bags with its water.” On that, the Prophet ﷺ ordered them to throw away the dough and pour out the water.

3379. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar: The people landed at the land of Thamûd called Al-Hijr along with Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, and they took water from its well for drinking and kneading the dough with it as well. (When Allah’s Messenger ﷺ heard about it) he ordered them to pour out the water they had taken from its wells and feed the camels with the dough, and ordered them to take water from the well whence the she-camel (of Prophet Šālih) used to drink.

3380. Narrated ‘Abdullãh (bin ‘Umar) ﷺ: When the Prophet ﷺ passed by (a place called) Al-Hijr, he said, “Do not enter the house of those who were unjust to themselves unless (you enter) weeping, lest... you should suffer the same punishment as was inflicted upon them." After that he covered his face with his sheet-cloth while he was on the camel.

3381. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Do not enter the ruined dwellings of those who were unjust to themselves unless (you enter) weeping, lest you should suffer the same punishment as was inflicted upon them.”

(18) CHAPTER. “Or were you witnesses when death approached Ya’qūb (Jacob)?...” (V.2:133) (See chapter before Hadīth No.3374)

3382. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The honourable is the son of the honourable, the son the honourable, i.e., Yūsuf (Joseph), the son of Ya’qūb (Jacob), the son of Isḥāq (Isaac), the son of Ibrāhīm (Abraham).”

(19) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh ﷻ: “Verily, in Yūsuf (Joseph) and his brethren there were Ayāt (proofs, evidences, verses, lessons, signs, revelations, etc.) for those who ask.” (V.12:7)
3383. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger was asked, “Who is the most honourable amongst the people?” He replied, “The one who fears Allah and keeps his duty to Him”. The people said, “We do not want to ask you about this.” He said, “The most honourable person is Yūsuf (Joseph), Allāh’s Prophet, the son of Allāh’s Prophet, the son of Yūsuf, the son of Allāh’s Khalil (intimate friend).” The people said, “We do not want to ask you about this.” He said, “Then you want to ask me about the metal (origins) of the Arabs? People are like metals (of various natures and origins). The best in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance are the best in Islam, provided they comprehend (the religious knowledge).”

3384. Narrated ‘Aīshah that the Prophet said (to her), “Order Abū Bakr to lead the people in Salāt (prayer).” She replied, “Abū Bakr is a soft-hearted person and when he stands at your place, he will weep (so he will not be able to lead the Salāt).” The Prophet repeated the same order and she gave the same reply. The narrator, Shu’ba said that the Prophet said on the third or fourth time: “You are (like) the female companions of Yūsuf (Joseph).” Order Abū Bakr to lead the Salāt (prayer). (1)

(1) (H. 3384) The women who cut their hands with their knives on looking at Yūsuf (Joseph), for they were fascinated and embarrassed by his beauty.
3385. Narrated Abū Mūsā: When the Prophet ﷺ fell ill, he said, “Order Abū Bakr to lead the people in Salāt (prayer).” ‘Aishah said, “Abū Bakr is a soft-hearted person.” The Prophet ﷺ gave the same order again and she again gave the same reply. He again said, “Order Abū Bakr (to lead the Salāt)! You are (like) the female companions of Yūsuf (Joseph).” Consequently Abū Bakr led the people in Salāt (prayer) in the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ.

3387. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, “May Allah bestow His Mercy on Lōt (Lot). Certainly he used to lean on a powerful support. If I were to stay in prison (for a period equal to) the stay of Yūsuf (Joseph) (in prison) and then the offer of freedom came to me, surely I would have accepted it.”

[See Hādiḥ No. 3372]
3388. Narrated Masruq: I asked ‘Aishah’s mother Umm Ruman, about the accusation forged against ‘Aishah. She said, “While I was sitting with ‘Aishah, an Ansari woman came to us and said, ‘Let Allah condemn such and such person.’ I asked her, ‘Why do you say so?’ She replied, ‘For he has spread the (slanderous) story.’ ‘Aishah said, ‘What story?’ The woman then told her the story. ‘Aishah asked, ‘Have Abu Bakr and Allah’s Messenger heard about it?’ She said, ‘Yes.’ ‘Aishah fell down unconscious (on hearing that), and when she came to her senses, she got fever and shaking of the body. The Prophet came and asked, ‘What is wrong with her?’ I said, ‘She has got fever because of a story which has been rumoured.’ ‘Aishah got up and said: By Allah! Even if I took an oath, you would not believe me, and if I put forward an excuse, you would not excuse me. My example and your example is just like that example of Ya’qub (Jacob) and his sons. ‘It is Allah (Alone) Whose Help can be sought against that (lie) which you describe.” (V.12:18)

“The Prophet left and then Allah revealed the Verses (concerning the matter), and on that ‘Aishah said, ‘Thanks to Allah (only) and not to anybody else.’”

3389. Narrated ‘Urwa: I asked ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet about the meaning of the following Verse: “(They were reprieved) until, when the Messengers gave up hope and thought that they were denied (by their people)...” (V.12:110)

‘Aishah replied, “Really, their nations (people) denied them.” I said, “By Allâh! They were definite that their nations treated them as liars and it was not a matter of suspecting.” ‘Aishah said, “O ‘Uraiyya (i.e., ‘Urwa)! No doubt, they were quite sure about it.”

I said, “May the Verse be read in such a way as to mean that the Messengers thought that Allâh did not help them?”(1) ‘Aishah said, “Allâh forbid (impossible)! The Messengers did not suspect their Lord of such a thing. But this Verse is concerned with the Messengers’ followers who had faith in their Lord and believed in their Messengers, and their period of trials was long and Allâh’s Help was delayed till the Messengers gave up hope for the conversion of the disbelievers amongst their nation, and the Messengers thought that their followers treated them as liars, thereupon Allâh’s Help came to them.”

[See Vol. 6, Hadith No. 4695]

3390. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet said, “The honourable, the son of the honourable, the son of the honourable, (was) Yûsuf (Joseph), the son of Ya’qûb (Jacob), the son of Išhâq (Isaac), the son of Ibrâhîm (Abraham).

(1) (H. 3389) The Verse contains a word which may be read as ‘Kudhibû’ or ‘Kudhibu’.

Hence the difference in its interpretation.
(20) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

And (remember) Ayyūb (Job), when he cried to his Lord: ‘Verily, distress has seized me, and You are the Most Merciful of all those who show mercy.’” (V.21:83)

3391. Narrated Abū Hurairah Ḥarrān: The Prophet ﷺ said, “While Ayyūb (Job) was taking a bath in a naked state, a swarm of gold locusts fell on him and he started collecting them in his garment. His Lord called him, ‘O Ayyūb! Have I not given you enough so that you are not in need of what you see?’ He said, ‘Yes, O Lord! But I cannot dispense with Your Blessing’.”

(21) CHAPTER:

“And mention in the Book (this Qur’ān) Mūsā (Moses). Verily! He was chosen and he was a Messenger (and) a Prophet. And We called him from the right side of the Mount, and made him to draw near to Us for a talk with him.’ (Mūsā). (V.19:51, 52)

3392. Narrated ‘Āishah Ḥarrān: The Prophet ﷺ returned to Khadija while his heart was beating rapidly. She took him to Waraqa bin Naufal, who was a Christian convert and used to read the Injīl (Gospel) in Arabic. Waraqa asked (the Prophet ﷺ), “What do you see?” When he told him, Waraqa said, “That is the same angel whom Allāh sent to (the Prophet) Mūsā (Moses). Should I live till you receive the Divine Message, I will support you strongly.” (See H. 3)

(22) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

“And has there come to you the story of Mūsā (Moses)? When he saw a fire... (up to)... in the sacred valley, Ṭuwā.” (V.20:9-12)

3393. Narrated Mālik bin Ṣa‘ṣā’a: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ talked to his companions about his Al-Isra (Journey by Night). When he reached the fifth heaven, he met Harūn (Aaron). [Jibril (Gabriel) said to the Prophet ﷺ], “This is Harūn.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Jibril greeted and so did I, and he returned the greeting saying, ‘Welcome, O pious brother and pious Prophet.’”

(23) CHAPTER:
“And a believing man of Fir‘aun’s (Pharaoh) family, who hid his faith said... (up to)... a Musriف (a polytheist, or a murderer who shed blood without a right, or those who commit great sins, oppressor, transgressor), a liar” (V. 40:2)

(24) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh ﷺ:
“Has there come to you the story of Mūsā (Moses)?” (V. 79:15)
And Allāh’s Statement:
“...And to Moses Allāh spoke directly.” (V. 4:164)

3394. Narrated Abū Hurairah Ṭ. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “On the night of my Al-Isra (Journey by Night) (to the heavens), I saw (the Prophet) Mūsā (Moses) who was a thin person with lank hair, looking like one of the men of the tribe of Shānī’a; and I saw ‘Īsā (Jesus) who was of average height with red face as if he had just come out of a bathroom. And I resemble Prophet Ibrāhīm (Abraham) more than any of his offspring does. Then I was given two cups, one containing milk and the other wine. Jibril (Gabriel) said, ‘Drink whichever you like.’ I took the milk and drank it. Jibril said, ‘You have accepted what is natural (True Religion i.e., Islam), and if you had taken the wine, your followers would have gone astray.’”

3395. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet ﷺ said, “One should not say that I am better than Yūnūs (Jonah) bin Mattā.” So, he mentioned his father Mattā.

3396. The Prophet ﷺ mentioned the night of his Al-Isra’ (Journey by Night to the heavens) and said, “The Prophet Mūsā (Moses) was brown, and tall person as if from the people of the tribe of Shanu‘a. ‘Isā (Jesus) was a curly-haired man of moderate height.” He also mentioned Malik, the gate-keeper of the (Hell) Fire, and Ad-Dajjāl.

3397. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: When the Prophet ﷺ came to Al-Madīna, he found (the Jews) observing fasting on the day of ‘Ashūra’ (i.e., 10th of Muharram). They used to say: “This is a great day on which Allāh saved Mūsā (Moses) and drowned the folk of Fir’aun (Pharaoh). Mūsa observed the fast on this day, as a sign of gratitude to Allāh.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “I am closer to Mūsa than they.” So, he observed the fast (on that day) and ordered (the Muslims) to observe fasting on that day.

(25) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

“...And We appointed for Mūsa (Moses) thirty nights… (up to)… And I am the first of the believers’ (V.7:142,143) 3399. Narrated Abü Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, "Were it not for Bani Isra'îl, meat would not decay; and were it not for Hawwa (Eve), no woman would ever betray her husband."(1)

[See Hadîth No. 3330]

(26) CHAPTER. Torrential flood.
(Explanation of few Arabic words not translated.)

(27) CHAPTER. The story of Al-Khîdîr with Mûsâ (Moses) .

3400. Narrated Ibn 'Abbâs that he differed with Al-'Hur bin Qais Al-Fazârî regarding the companion of Moses. Ibn 'Abbâs said that he was Al-Khîdîr. Meanwhile Ubaï bin Ka'b passed by them and Ibn 'Abbâs called him saying, "My friend and I have differed regarding Musa's companion whom Musa asked the way to meet. Have you heard Allâh's Messenger ﷺ mentioning something about him?" He said, "Yes, I heard Allâh's Messenger ﷺ saying, 'While Musa was sitting in the company of some Israeîites, a man came and asked (him): Do you know anyone who is more learned than you? Musa replied: No. So, Allâh sent the Divine Revelation to Musa: 'Yes, Our slave, Khîdîr (is more learned than you). Mūsā asked how to meet him (i.e., Khidr). So, the fish was made as a sign for him, and he was told that when the fish was lost, he should return and there he would meet him. So, Mūsā went on looking for the sign of the fish in the sea. The boy-servant of Mūsā said to him: Do you know that when we were sitting by the side of the rock, I forgot the fish, and it was only Satan who made me forget to tell (you) about it. Mūsā said: That was what we were seeking after. And both of them returned, following their footmarks and found Khidr; and what happened further to them, is mentioned in Allāh’s Book (the Qur’ān).”

3401. Narrated Sa’īd bin Jubair: I said to Ibn ‘Abbās, “Nauf Al-Bikāli claims that Mūsā, the companion of Al-Khidr was not Mūsā (the Prophet) of the Children of Isrā’īl, but some other Mūsā.” Ibn ‘Abbās said, “Allāh’s enemy (i.e., Nauf) has told a lie. Ubai bin Ka’b told us that the Prophet said, ‘Once Mūsā stood up and addressed Bani Isrā’īl. He was asked who was the most learned man amongst the people. He said, ‘I.’ Allāh admonished him as he did not attribute absolute knowledge to Him (Allāh). So, Allāh said to him, ‘Yes, at the junction of the two seas there is a slave of Mine who is more learned than you.’ Mūsā said, ‘O my Lord! How can I meet him?’ Allāh said, ‘Take a fish and put it in a basket and you will find him at the place where you will lose the fish.' Müsa took a fish and put it in a basket and proceeded along with his boy-servant,
Yūsha' bin Nūn, till they reached the rock where they laid their heads (i.e., lay down).
Moses slept, and the fish, moving out of the basket, fell into the sea.

'It took its way into the sea (straight) as in a tunnel. Allāh stopped the flow of water over the fish and it became like an arch (the Prophet pointed out this arch with his hands). They travelled the rest of the night, and the next day. Müsa said to his boy-servant, 'Bring us our early meal; indeed, we have suffered much fatigue in this journey of ours.' Müsa did not feel tired till he crossed that place which Allāh had ordered him to seek after. His boy-servant said to him, 'Do you know that when we betook ourselves to the rock, I indeed forgot the fish, and none but Satan made me forget to remember it. It took its course into the sea in a strange way?
So there was a tunnel for the fish and for them (Mūsā and his servant) there was astonishment. Musa said, 'That is what we have been seeking.' So, both of them went back retracing their footsteps till they reached the rock. There they saw a man lying covered with a garment. Müsa greeted him and he replied saying, 'Is there such a greeting in your land?' Müsa said, 'I am Mūsā.' The man asked, 'Mūsā of Bani Israel?' Müsa said, 'Yes, I have come to you so that you may teach me something of that knowledge which you have been taught (by Allāh).' He said, 'O Mūsā! I have some of the knowledge of Allāh, which Allāh has taught me, and which you do not know, while you have some of the knowledge of Allāh which Allāh has taught you and which I do not know.' Müsa asked, 'May I follow you?'
He said, 'But you will not be able to remain patient with me, for how can you be patient about things which you know not?’ (Mūsā said, ‘You will find me, if Allāh will, truly patient, and I will not disobey you in aught.’) So, both of them set out walking along the seashore, a ship passed by them and they asked the crew of the boat to take them on board. The crew recognized Al-Khīḍr and so they took them on board without fare. When they were on board the ship, a sparrow came and stood on the edge of the boat and dipped its beak once or twice into the sea. Al-Khīḍr said to Mūsā, ‘O Mūsā! My knowledge and your knowledge have not decreased Allāh’s Knowledge except as much as this sparrow has decreased the water of the sea with its beak.’ Then suddenly Al-Khīḍr took an adze and plucked a plank, and Mūsā did not notice it till he had plucked a plank with the adze. Mūsā said to him, ‘What have you done? They took us on board charging us nothing; yet you have intentionally made a hole in their ship so as to drown its passengers. Verily, you have done a dreadful thing.’ Al-Khīḍr replied, ‘Did I not tell you that you would not be able to have patience with me?’ Mūsā replied, ‘Do not blame me for what I have forgotten, and do not be hard upon me for my affair (with you).’ So, the first excuse of Mūsā was that he had forgotten. When they had left the sea, they passed by a boy playing with other boys. Al-Khīḍr took hold of the boy’s head and plucked it with his hand like this. (Sufyān, the subnarrator, pointed with his fingertips as if he was plucking some fruit.) Mūsā said to him, ‘Have you killed an innocent person who has not killed any person? You have really done an horrible thing.’ Al-Khīḍr said, ‘Did I not tell you that you would not be able to have patience with me?’ Mūsā said, ‘If I ask you about anything after this, keep me... not in your company. You have received an excuse from me.' Then both of them proceeded till they came to some people of a town, and they asked its inhabitants for food but they refused to entertain them as guests. Then they saw therein a wall which was just going to collapse (and Al-Khiḍr repaired it just by touching it with his hands).

(Sufyān, the subnarrator, pointed with his hands, illustrating how Al-Khiḍr passed his hands over the wall upwards.) Mūsā said, ‘These are the people whom we have called on, but they neither gave us food, nor entertained us as guests, yet you have repaired their wall. If you had wished, you could have taken wages for it.’ Al-Khiḍr said, ‘This is the parting between you and me, and I shall tell you the explanation of those things on which you could not remain patient’. The Prophet ﷺ added, ‘We wished that Mūsā could have remained patient by virtue of which Allah might have told us more about their story.’ (Sufyān, the subnarrator, said that the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘May Allah bestow His Mercy on Mūsā! If he had remained patient, we would have been told further more about their case.’)
3402. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Al-Khīḍr(1) was named so, because if he sat over a barren white land, it turned green with plantation after (his) sitting over it.”

(28) CHAPTER.

3403. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “It was said to Bani Isrā’îl, ‘Enter the gate (of the town) bowing with humility (prostrating yourselves) and saying: Repentance.’ But they changed the word and entered the town crawling on their buttocks and saying: ‘A grain in Sha’āra (a spike or a hair).’”(2) (See H. 4479)

(1) (H. 3402) The word ‘Khīḍr’ in Arabic related to the word ‘Akhdār’ which means green.
(2) (H. 3403) They disobeyed Allah both in action and in word. Thus, Allah punished them severely by sending on them an epidemic of plague disease. [See Tafsīr At-Tabari. (V. 2:59).]
3404. Narrated Abū Hurairah:
Allāh's Messenger ﷺ said, "(Prophet) Mūsa (Moses) was a shy person and used to cover his body completely because of his extensive shyness. One of the people of Isrāēl annoyed him by saying, 'He covers his body in this way only because of some defect in his skin, either leprosy or scrotal hernia, or he has some other defect.' Allāh wished to clear Mūsa of what they said about him, so one day while Mūsa was in seclusion, he took off his clothes and put them on a stone and started taking a bath. When he had finished the bath, he moved towards his clothes so as to take them, but the stone took his clothes and fled; Mūsa picked up his stick and ran after the stone saying, 'O stone! Give me my garment!' Till he reached a group of Bani Isrāēl who saw him naked then, and found him the best of what Allāh had created, and Allāh cleared him of what they had accused him of. The stone stopped there and Mūsa took and put his garment on and started hitting the stone with his stick. By Allāh, the stone still has some traces of the hitting, three, four or five marks. This was what Allāh said in His Statement:

'O you who believe! Be not like those who annoyed Mūsa, but Allāh cleared him of that which they alleged, and he was honourable before Allāh.'" (V.33:69)

3405. Narrated ‘Abdullāh:
Once, the Prophet ﷺ distributed something (among his followers). A man said, "This distribution has not been done (with justice) seeking Allâh’s Countenance.” I went to the Prophet ë and told him (of that). He became so angry that I saw the signs of anger on his face. Then he said, “May Allâh bestow His Mercy on Mûsâ (Moses), for he was harmed more (in a worse manner) than this; yet he endured patiently.”

(29) CHAPTER. Allâh’s Statement:
“...And they came upon a people devoted to some of their idols (in worship)…”
(V.7:138)

3406. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullah: We were with Allâh’s Messenger ë picking Al-Kabâth (the fruits of the ‘Arâk trees), and Allâh’s Messenger ë said, “Pick the black ones for they are the best.” The companions asked, “Were you a shepherd?” He replied, “There was none amongst the Prophets but was a shepherd.”

(30) CHAPTER:
“And (remember) when Mûsâ (Moses) said to his people: ‘Verily, Allâh commands you that you slaughter a cow…”’ (V.2:67) (Explanation of some Arabic words not translated).
CHAPTER. The death of Mūsā (Moses) and his remembrance after his death.

3407. Narrated Abū Hurairah:

The angel of death was sent to Mūsā (Moses). When he came to Mūsā, Mūsā slapped him, (and spoiled one of his eyes). The angel returned to his Lord (Allāh) and said, "You have sent me to a slave who does not want to die." Allāh (restored his eye and) said, "Return to him and tell him to put his hand on the back of an ox and for every hair that will come under it, he will be granted one year of life." Mūsā said, "O Lord! What will happen after that?" Allāh replied, "Then death." Mūsā said, "Let it come now." Mūsā then requested Allāh to let him die close to the Sacred Land so much so that he would be at a distance of a stone's throw from it." Abū Hurairah added, "Allāh's Messenger said, 'If I were there, I would show you his grave below the red sandhill on the side of the road'.”

[See Vol. 2, Hadith No. 1339]
3408. Narrated Abū Hurairah: A Muslim and a Jew quarrelled. The Muslim taking an oath, said, “By Him Who has preferred Muhammad over all people!” The Jew said, “By Him Who has preferred Mūsā (Moses) over all people.” The Muslim raised his hand and slapped the Jew, who came to the Prophet to tell him what happened between him and the Muslim. The Prophet said, “Don’t give me superiority over Mūsā, for the people will become unconscious (on the Day of Resurrection) and I will be the first to gain consciousness to see Mūsā standing and holding a side of Allāh’s Throne. I will not know if he has been amongst those people who have become unconscious and that he has gained consciousness before me, or he has been amongst those whom Allāh has exempted.”

3409. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger said, “Ādam and Mūsā (Moses) argued with each other. Mūsā said to Ādam, ‘You are Ādam whose mistake expelled you from Paradise.’ Ādam said to him, ‘You are Mūsā whom Allāh selected as His Messenger and as the one to whom He spoke directly; yet you blame me for a thing which had already been preordained for me by Allāh before my creation?’” Allāh’s Messenger said twice, “So, Ādam overpowered Mūsā.”
3410. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbãs: The Prophet ﷺ once came to us and said, “All the nations were displayed in front of me, and I saw a large multitude of people covering the horizon. Somebody said, ‘This is Mûsa (Moses) and his followers.’"

3411. Narrated Abû Mûsa: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Many amongst men reached (the level of) perfection but none amongst the women reached this level except ‘Ásiya, Fir’aun’s (Pharaoh) wife; and Maryam (Mary), the daughter of ‘Imrãn. And no doubt, the superiority of ‘Aishah to other women is like the superiority of Tharîd (i.e., a meat and bread dish) to other meals.”

tell:
“And verily, Yūnus (Jonah) was one of the Messengers… (up to)… and he had done an act worthy of blame.” (V.37:139-148)
3412. Narrated `Abdulläh: The Prophet ﷺ said, “None of you should say that I am better than Yûnus (Jonah).” Musaddad added, “Yûnus bin Mattâ.”

3413. Narrated Ibn `Abbas: The Prophet ﷺ said, “No slave (of Allâh) should say that I am better than Yûnus (Jonah) bin Mattâ.” So, the Prophet ﷺ mentioned his father’s name with his name.

3414. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Once, while a Jew was selling something, he was offered a price that he was not pleased with. So, he said, “No, by Him Who gave Mûsa (Moses) superiority over all human beings!” Hearing him, an Ansârî man got up and slapped him on his face and said, “You say: By Him Who gave Mûsa superiority over all human beings although the Prophet (Mūhammad) is present amongst us!” The Jew went to the Prophet and said, “O Abul-Qāsim! I am under the assurance and contract of security, so what right does so-and-so have to slap me?” The Prophet asked the other, “Why have you slapped him on his face”. He told him the whole story. The Prophet became angry till anger appeared on his face, and said, “Don’t give superiority to any Prophet amongst Allah’s Prophets, for when the trumpet will be blown, everyone on the earth and in the heavens will become unconscious except those whom Allah will exempt. The trumpet will be blown for the second time and I will be the first to be resurrected to see Mūsa holding Allah’s Throne. I will not know whether the unconsciousness which Mūsa received on the Day of Tūr has been sufficient for him, or he has got up before me.”

3415. The Prophet added: “And I do not say that there is anybody who is better than Yūnūs (Jonah) bin Matta.”

3416. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “None should say that I am better than Yūnūs (Jonah) bin Matta.”

(36) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah:

"And to David We gave the Zabûr (Psalms)..." (V.4:163)

“And indeed We bestowed grace on Dāwûd (David) from Us (saying): ‘O you mountains, glorify (Allah) with him! And you birds (also)! And We made the iron soft for him.... (up to) I am the All-Seer of what you do” (V.34:10,11)

3417. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The reciting of the Zabûr (Psalms) was made easy for Dāwûd (David) عليه السلام. He used to order that his riding animals be saddled, and would finish reciting the Zabûr before they were saddled. And he would never eat except from the earnings of his manual work.”

=come up openly to their water pools only on the Sabbath day and this tempted them greatly, so they could not resist it and when they transgressed Allâh’s Prohibitions, He said to them: “Be you monkeys.” And so they were.
3418. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin 'Amr: Allah's Messenger ﷺ was informed that I have said: “By Allah, I will observe Saum (fast) all the days and offer Salāt (prayers) all the nights as long as I live.” On that, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ asked me: “Are you the one who says: ‘I will observe Saum (fast) all the days and offer Salāt (prayer) all the nights as long as I live?” I said, “Yes, I have said it.” He said, “You cannot do that. So, observe Saum (fast) and do not fast (for a period). Offer Salāt (prayer) and sleep. Observe Saum (fast) for three days a month, for the reward of a good deed is multiplied by ten time, and so the fasting of three days a month equals the fasting of a year.” I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I can do more than this.” He said, “Observe Saum (fast) on every third day. I said, “I can do more than that.” He said, “Fast on alternate days and this was the fasting of Dawūd (David) which is the best sort of observing fast.” I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I can do more than that.” He said, “There is nothing better than that.”

3419. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin 'Amr bin Al-'Āṣ: The Prophet ﷺ said to me, “I have been informed that you offer Salāt (prayer) all the nights and observe Saum (fast) all the days; is this true?” I replied, “Yes.” He said, “If you do so, your eyes will become weak and you will get bored. So observe Saum (fast) three days a month, for this will be the Saum (fast) of a whole year.” I said, “I find myself able to observe Saum (fast) more.” He said: “Then observe Saum (fast) like the fasting of (the Prophet) Dāwūd (David) who used to fast on alternate days and would not flee on facing the enemy.”

(38) CHAPTER. The most beloved Salāt (prayer) to Allāh was the Salāt (prayer) of (the Prophet) Dāwūd (David), and the most beloved Saum (fasting) to Allāh was the Saum (fast) of (the Prophet) Dāwūd. He used to sleep the (first half) of the night and offer Salāt (prayer) for one-third of it and sleep one-sixth of it, and he used to observing fasting on alternate days.

‘Āishah said, “When the Prophet was in my house, he always slept before dawn [after performing the night Salāt (prayer)].”

3420. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr: Allah’s Messenger said to me, “The most beloved Saum (fasting) to Allāh was the Saum (fast) of (the Prophet) Dāwūd (David) who used to observe Saum (fast) on alternate days. And the most beloved Salāt (prayer) to Allāh was the Salāt (prayer) of Dāwūd who used to sleep for (the first) half of the night and offer Salāt (prayer) for 1/3 of it and (again) sleep for a sixth of it.”
(39) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

“And remember Our slave Dāwūd (David), endowed with power. Verily, he was ever oft-returning in all matters and in repentance (toward Allāh)... (up to)... And sound judgement in speech and decision.”
(V.38:17-20)

3421. Narrated Mujāhid: I asked Ibn 'Abbās, “Should we perform a prostration on reciting Sūrat Sād?” He recited (the Sūrah) including: ‘...And among his progeny, Dāwūd (David), Sulaimān
(Solomon) ... (up to)... so follow their guidance...’ (V.6:84-91)

And then he said, “Your Prophet is amongst those people who have been ordered to follow them (i.e., the preceding Messengers).”

3422. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The prostration in Sūrat Sād is not amongst the compulsory prostrations, though I saw the Prophet prostrating on reciting it.

(40) CHAPTER.
The Statement of Allāh: “And to Dāwūd (David) We gave Sulaimān (Solomon). How excellent (a) slave! Verily, he was ever oft-returning in repentance (to Us).” (V.38:30)

And His Statement: “and bestow upon me a kingdom such as shall not belong to any other after me...” (V.38:35)

And His Statement: “They followed what the devils gave out (falsely of the magic) in the lifetime of Sulaimān (Solomon)...”’” (V.2:102)

And His Statement: “And to Sulaimān (We subjected) the wind, its morning (stride from sunrise till midday) was a month’s (journey), and its afternoon (stride from midday till the decline of the sun to sunset), was a month’s (journey, i.e., in one day he could travel two months journey.) And We caused a fount of (molten) brass to flow for him; and there were jinn that worked in front of him by the Leave of his Lord; and whosoever of them turned aside from Our Command, We shall cause him to taste of the torment of the blazing Fire. They worked for him what he desired, (making) high rooms, images, basins as large as reservoirs and (cooking) cauldrons fixed (in their places). 'Work you, O family of Dāwūd (David), with thanks!' But few of My slaves are grateful. Then, when We decreed death for him (Sulaimān), nothing informed them (jinn) of his death except a little worm of the earth, which kept (slowly) gnawing away at his stick, so when he fell down... (up to)... in the humiliating torment.” (V.34:12-14)

The Prophet ﷺ said, “A strong demon from the jinns came to me yesterday suddenly, so as to spoil my Šalāt (prayer), but Allāh enabled me to overpower him, and so I caught him and intended to tie him to one of the pillars of the mosque so that all of you might see him, but I remembered the invocation of my brother Sulaimān (Solomon): ‘...And bestow upon me a kingdom such as shall not belong to any other after me...’ (V.38:35) So, I let him go disgraced.”
3424. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Sulaimān (Solomon) the son of Dāwūd (David) said, ‘Tonight I will sleep with seventy ladies, each of whom will conceive a child who will be a knight fighting for Allāh’s Cause. His companion said to him (say): ‘If Allāh will.’ But Sulaimān did not say so; therefore none of those women got pregnant except one, who gave birth to a half child.’” The Prophet further said, “If the Prophet Sulaimān had said it (i.e., ‘If Allāh will’) he would have begotten children who would have fought in Allāh’s Cause.”

[Shu‘a‘ib and Ibn Abī Az-Zinād said, “Ninety (women) is more correct (than seventy).”]

3425. Narrated Abū Dhar: I said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Which mosque was built first?” He replied, “Al-Masjid-al-Harām.” I asked, “Which (was built) next?” He replied, “Al-Masjid-al-Aqṣā (at Jerusalem).” I asked, “What was the period of construction in between them?” He replied, “Forty (years).” He then added, “Wherever the time for the Salāt (prayer) is due, you should perform the Salāt (prayer), for all the earth is a place of worship for you.”

3426. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger said, “My example and the example of the people is like that of a person who lit a fire; moths, and other insects started falling into it.”

[This is a part of Hadith No.6483, Vol.8. Please see it for details].

3427. Narrated Abû Hurairah: I heard Allah’s Messenger saying: “There were two women, each of whom had a child with her. A wolf came and took away the child of one of them, whereupon the other said, ‘It has taken your child.’ The first said, ‘But it has taken your child.’ So, they both carried the case before Dâwûd (David) who judged that the living child be given to the elder lady. So, both of them went to Sulaimân (Solomon) the son of Dâwûd (David) and informed him (of the case). He said, ‘Bring me a knife so as to cut the child into two pieces and distribute it between them.’ The younger lady said, ‘May Allah be Merciful to you! Don’t do that, for it is her (i.e., the other lady’s) child.’ So, he gave the child to the younger lady.”

(41) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh

“And indeed We bestowed upon Luqman Al-Hikmah (wisdom and religious understanding) (up to) a great Zulm (wrong) indeed.” (V.31:12,13)

3428. Narrated ‘Abdullâh: When the Verse: “...Those who believe (in the Oneness of Allâh and worship none but Him Alone) and confuse not their belief with Zulm (wrong)…” (V.6:82), was revealed, the companions of the Prophet ﷺ said, “Who amongst us has not confused his belief with Zulm (wrong)?” Then Allâh revealed:
...Join not in worship others with Allâh, Verily! Joining others in worship with Allâh is a great Zulm (wrong) indeed.” (V.31:13) 3429. Narrated ‘Abdullâh b. Ubâdah (r): When the Verse: “Those who believe (in the Oneness of Allâh and worship none but Him Alone) and confuse not their belief with Zulm (wrong)” (V.6:82), was revealed, the Muslims felt it very hard and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Who amongst us has not done Zulm (wrong) to himself?” He replied, “The Verse does not mean this. But that Zulm (wrong) means to associate others in worship to Allâh. Don’t you listen to what Luqmân said to his son when he was advising him, “...O my son! Join not others in worship with Allâh. Verily! Joining others in worship with Allâh is a great Zulm (wrong) indeed.’” (V.31:13)

(42) CHAPTER. “And put forward to them a similitude; the (story of the) Dwellers of the Town [It is said that the town was Antioch (Antakiya) — now it is a town in Turkey].” (V.36:13)

(43) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh (r): “(This is) a mention of the mercy of your Lord to His slave Zakariya (Zachariah) ... (up to) We have given that name to none before (him).” (V.19:2-7)

“He said: ‘My Lord! How can I have a son, when my wife is barren, and I have reached the extreme old age... (up to)’ three nights...” (V.19:8-10)“Then he (Zakariyâ) came out to his people from Al-Mihrab (a praying place or a private room) and he told them by signs to glorify Allâh’s Praises in the morning and in the afternoon. (It was said to his son): ‘O Yahya (John)! Hold fast the Scripture…’ (up to)… and the day he will be raised up to life (again)!” (V.19:11-15)

3430. Narrated Malik bin Sa’aa’a that the Prophet talked to them about his Al-Isra’ (Journey by Night to the heavens). He said, ‘[Then Jibril (Gabriel) took me] and ascended up till he reached the second heaven where he asked for the gate to be opened, but it was asked, ‘Who is it?’ Jibril replied, ‘I am Jibril.’ It was asked, ‘Who is accompanying you?’ He replied, ‘Muhammad.’ It was asked, ‘Has he been called?’ He said, ‘Yes.’ When we reached over the second heaven, I saw Yahya (John) and ‘Isa (Jesus) who were cousins. Jibril said, ‘These are Yahya (John) and ‘Isa (Jesus), so greet them.’ I greeted them and they returned the greeting saying, ‘Welcome, O pious brother and pious Prophet!’”

(44) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

“And mention in the Book (the Qur’an, O Muhammad, the story of) Maryam (Mary), when she withdrew in seclusion from her family to a place facing east.” (V.19:16)

“(Remember) when the angels said: ‘O Maryam (Mary)! Verily, Allah gives you the glad tidings of a Word [Be! — and he was! i.e., ‘Isa (Jesus) the son of Maryam (Mary)] from Him...” (V.3:45)
“الله chose أَدَم, نُوح (Noah), the family of إِبْرَاهِيم (Abraham), and the family of ابْنِ عَبَاس: أَكْرَمَنَّى إِبْرَاهِيم وآَخَرْهُ عِمْراً، وَأَيْتَى بَيْنَيْنِي وَأَمْهَيْنِي. فَيَقُولُون: ِ إِنَّكَ أَولُ آدَمَ إِلَى جَمِيعِ ِ الفُلُوْدُوْغَةُ. (V.3:33-37).
Ibn ‘Abbās said, “The believers among the families of إِبْرَاهِيم (Abraham), ابْنِ عَبَاس, يَسِين and مُحَمَّد (are meant here). إِلَى جَمِيعِ ِ الفُلُوْدُوْغَةُ: وَيَقُولُ: أَلَّا يَعْفَوَ أَهْلُ ِ بَعْضٌ. فَإِذًا ِ الفُلُوْدُوْغَةُ. (V.3:68), those who follow him are the believers.”

(45) CHAPTER. “And (remember) when the angels said: O Maryam (Mary)! Verily, الله has chosen you... (up to)... As to which of them should be charged with the care of Maryam (Mary)…” (V.3:42-44)
3432. Narrated `Ali: I heard the Prophet saying, “Maryam (Mary), the daughter of `Imrân, was the best among the women (of the world of her time) and Khadija is the best amongst the women (of this nation).”

3433. Narrated Abû Mûsâ Al-Ash'arî: The Prophet said, “The superiority of `Aishah to other ladies is like the superiority of Tharîd (i.e., meat and bread dish) to other meals. Many men reached the level of perfection, but no woman reached such a level except Maryam (Mary), the daughter of `Imrân and Asiya, the wife of Fir`aun (Pharaoh).”
3434. Narrated Abū Hurairah: I heard Allâh’s Messenger saying, “Amongst all those women who ride camels (i.e., Arabs), the ladies of Quraish are the best. They are merciful and kind to their offspring and the best guardians of their husbands’ properties.” Abū Hurairah added, “Maryam (Mary) the daughter of ‘Imrân never rode a camel.”

3435. Narrated ‘Ubāda: ‘The Prophet said, “If anyone testifies that ‘Lā ilāha illallah’ (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh Alone), Who has no partners, and that Muhammad is His slave and His Messenger, and that ‘Isâ (Jesus) is Allah’s slave and His Messenger and His Word (“Be!” — and he was) which He bestowed on Maryam (Mary) and a Ruh (spirit) created by Him, and that Paradise is the truth and Hell is the truth,’ Allâh will admit him into Paradise with the deeds which he had done even if those deeds were few.” (Junāda, the subnarrator said, “‘Ubāda added, ‘Such a person can enter Paradise through any of its eight gates he likes.’”)

(47) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh

“O people of the Scriptures (Jews and Christians)! Do not exceed the limits in your religion... (up to) ... as a Disposer of affairs.” (V.4:171)
And mention in the Book (the Qur’an, O Muhammad) the story of Maryam (Mary), when she withdrew in seclusion from her family…” (V.19:16)

3436. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “None spoke in cradle but three: (The first was) ‘Īsā (Jesus), (the second was:) There was a man from Bāni Isrā‘īl called Juraij. While he was offering prayer, his mother came and called him. He said (to himself), ‘Shall I answer her or keep on offering prayer (He went on offering prayer and did not answer her). His mother said, ‘O Allāh! Do not let him die till he sees the faces of prostitutes.’ So, while he was in his hermitage, a lady came and sought to seduce him, but he refused. So, she went to a shepherd and presented herself to him to commit illegal sexual intercourse with her and... then later on she gave birth to a child and claimed that it belonged to Juraij. The people, therefore, came to him and dismantled his hermitage and expelled him out of it and abused him. Juraij performed the ablution and offered prayer and then came to the child and said, ‘O child! Who is your father?’ The child replied, ‘The shepherd.’ (After hearing this) the people said, ‘We shall rebuild your hermitage of gold,’ but he said, ‘No, of nothing but mud.’

(The third was the hero of the following story:) A lady from Bani Isra'il was nursing her child at her breast when a handsome rider passed by her. She said, ‘O Allah! Make my child like him.’ On that the child left her breast, and facing the rider said, ‘O Allah! Do not make me like him.’ The child then started sucking her breast again. [Abu Hurairah further said, “As if I were now looking at the Prophet sucking his finger (in way of demonstration.”)]

(1016:6) [Abu Hurairah continued], “After a while they (some people) passed by, with a lady-slave and she (i.e., the child’s mother) said, ‘O Allah! Do not make my child like this (slave-girl)!’ On that the child left her breast and said, ‘O Allah! Make me like her.’ When she asked why, the child replied, ‘The rider is one of the tyrants while this slave-girl is falsely accused of theft and illegal sexual intercourse’.”

3437. Narrated Abu Hurairah:

The Prophet said, “I met Musa (Moses) on the night of my Al-Isra’ (Journey by Night to the heavens).” The Prophet then described him saying, “As I think, he was a tall person with lank hair as if he belonged to the people of the tribe of Shanu’a.” The Prophet further said, “I met Isa (Jesus).” The Prophet described him saying, “He was one of moderate height and was red-faced as if he had just come out of a bathroom. I saw Ibrāhīm (Abraham) whom I resembled more than any of his offspring did.” The Prophet  further said, “(That night) I was given two cups; one full of milk and the other full of wine. I was asked to take either of them which I liked, and I took the milk and drank it. On that it was said to me, ‘You have taken the right path (religion). If you had taken the wine, your (Muslim) nation would have gone astray.’”

3438. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet  said, “I saw Mūsā (Moses), ‘Īsā (Jesus) and Ibrāhīm (Abraham) on the night of Al-Isrā’ (Journey by Night to the heavens). ‘Īsā was of red complexion, curly hair and a broad chest. Mūsā was of brown complexion, straight hair and tall stature as if he was from the people of Az-Zuṭṭ.”

3440. While sleeping near the Ka'bah last night, I saw in my dream a man of brown colour, the best one can see amongst brown colour, and his hair was so long that it fell between his shoulders. His hair was lank and water was dribbling from his head and he was placing his hands on the shoulders of two men while circumambulating the Ka'bah. I asked, ‘Who is this?’ They replied, ‘This is ‘Isā (Jesus), son of Maryam (Mary)’. Behind him I saw a man who had short and curly hair and was blind in the right eye, resembling Ibn Qatān in appearance. He was placing his hands on the shoulders of a person while performing Ṭawāf around the Ka'bah. I asked, ‘Who is this?’ They replied, ‘Al-Masih Ad-Dajjāl.’”

3441. Narrated Sālim from his father: No, By Allah, the Prophet did not tell that ‘Isā (Jesus) was of red complexion but said, “While I was sleeping, (in my dream) I saw myself circumambulating the Ka'bah, suddenly I saw a man of brown complexion and lank hair walking between two men, and water was dropping from his head. I asked, ‘Who is this?’ The people said, ‘He is the son of Maryam (Mary).’ Then I looked behind and I saw a red-complexioned, fat, curly-haired man, blind in the right eye which looked like a bulging out grape. I asked, ‘Who is this?’ They replied, ‘He is Ad-Dajjāl.’ The one who resembled to him among the people, was Ibn Qatān.” (Az-Zuhrī said, “He (i.e., Ibn Qatān) was a man from the Khuza‘a tribe who died in the pre-Islamic period.”)
3442. Narrated Abū Hurairah: I heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “I am the nearest of all the people to the son of Maryam (Mary), and all the Prophets are paternal brothers, and there has been no Prophet between me and him [i.e., Ḥusayn (Jesus)].”

3443. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Both in this world and in the Hereafter, I am the nearest of all the people to Ḥusayn (Jesus), the son of Maryam (Mary). The Prophets are paternal brothers; their mothers are different, but their religion is one (i.e., Islamic Monotheism).”

3444. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Ḥusayn (Jesus), the son of Maryam (Mary) seeing a man stealing, asked him, ‘Did you steal?’ He said, ‘No, by Allah, except Whom there is no other Ilāh (God). Lā ilāha illallāh (none who has the right to be worshipped but Allah).’ Iesa said, ‘I believe in Allah and deny (or suspect) my eyes.’”
3445. Narrated 'Umar: I heard the Prophet saying, "Do not exaggerate in praising me as the Christians praised the son of Maryam (Mary), for I am only a slave. So, call me the slave of Allāh and His Messenger."

3446. Narrated Abū Mūsa Al-Ash'ari: Allāh’s Messenger said, “If a man teaches his slave-girl good manners properly, educates her properly, and then manumits and marries her, he will get a double reward. And if a man believes in 'Īsā (Jesus) and then believes in me, he will get a double reward. And if a slave fears, obeys, and keeps his duty to his Lord (i.e., Allāh) and (also) obeys his masters, he too will get a double reward.” (See H. 97)

3447. Narrated Ibn 'Abbās: Allāh’s Messenger said, “You will be resurrected (and assembled) barefooted, naked and uncircumcised.” The Prophet

(1) (H. 3445) The Christians over-praised 'Īsā (Jesus) till they took him as an Ilāh (God) besides Allāh.
then recited the Divine Verse:

"...As We began the first creation, We shall repeat it, (it is) a promise binding upon Us. Truly, We shall do it." (V.21:104)

He added, “The first to be dressed will be Ibrāhīm (Abraham). Then some of my companions will be taken to the right and to the left. I will say: ‘My companions!’ It will be said, ‘They had been renegades (deserted Islam) since you left them.’ I will then say what the pious slave ‘Īsā (Jesus), the son of Maryam (Mary) said: ‘...And I was a witness over them while I dwelt amongst them, but when You took me up, You were the Watcher over them, and You are a Witness to all things. (This is a great admonition and warning to the Christians of the whole world). If You punish them, they are Your slaves, and if You forgive them, You, only You are the All-Mighty, the All-Wise’.”

Narrated Qābīṣa, “Those were the apostates who deserted Islam during the caliphate of Abū Bakr, who fought them”.

[See Hadith No. 3349]

(49) CHAPTER. The advent (descent) of ‘Īsā (Jesus), son of Maryam (Mary)

3448. Narrated Abū Hurairah Ḥasan: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “By Him (Allāh) in Whose Hands my soul is, surely [Īsā (Jesus)] is the son of Maryam (Mary) will shortly descend amongst you (Muslims) and will judge mankind justly by the law of the Qur'ān (as a just ruler); he will break the Cross and kill the pigs and there will be no
Jizya\(^{(1)}\) (i.e., taxation taken from non-Muslims). Money will be in abundance so that nobody will accept it, and a single prostration to Allâh [in Salât (prayers)] will be better than the whole world and whatever is in it.” Abû Hurairah added: “If you wish, you can recite (this Verse of the Qur’an):–

> And there is none of the people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians), but must believe in him (i.e., ‘Isâ, son of Maryam, as only a Messenger of Allâh and a human being) before his [‘Isâ عليه السلام or a Jew’s or a Christian’s] death; (at the time of the appearance of the angel of death). And on the Day of Resurrection he (‘Isâ عليه السلام) will be a witness against them.”’ (V.4:159)

(See Fath Al-Bârî) [According to the quotation of Kushmaihani there is “Al-Jizya” instead of Al-Harb”].

3449. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “How will you be when the son of Maryam (Mary) [‘Isâ عليه السلام] descends amongst you, and he will judge people by the law of the Qur’an and not by the law of the Gospel.”

[See Fath Al-Bârî].

(50) CHAPTER. What has been said about Bani Isrâîl.

3450. Narrated Rib’î bin Hirâsh: ‘Uqba bin ‘Amr said to Ḥudhaifa, “Won’t you relate to us of what you have heard from Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ?” He said, “I heard him saying, ‘When Ad-Dajjâl appears, he will have fire and water along with him.’ What the

(1) (H. 3448) Al-Jizya: A tax imposed on non-Muslims, who would keep their own religion rather than embrace Islâm. This will not be accepted by ‘Isâ (Jesus) عليه السلام, but all people will be required to embrace Islâm and there will be no other alternative.
people will consider as fire, will be cold water and what the people will consider as cold water, will be fire that will burn (things). So, if anyone of you comes across this, he should fall in the thing which will appear to him as fire, for in reality, it will be fresh cold water.'"

3451. Hudhaifa added, "I also heard him (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ) saying, 'From among the people preceding your generation, there was a man whom the angel of death visited to take away his soul. (So his soul was taken away) and he was asked if he had done any good deed.' He replied, 'I don’t remember any good deed.' He was asked to think it over. He said, 'I do not remember, except that I used to trade with the people in the world; and I used to give a respite to the rich and forgive the poor (among my debtors). So, Allah made him enter Paradise.'"

3452. Hudhaifa further said, "I also heard him saying, 'Once there was a man on his deathbed, who, losing every hope of surviving said to his family: When I die, gather for me a large heap of wood and make a fire (to burn me). When the fire eats my meat and reaches my bones, and when the bones have burnt, take and crush them into powder and wait for a windy day to throw it (i.e., the powder) over the sea'. They did so, but Allah collected his particles and asked him: 'Why did you do so?' He replied: 'For fear of You'. So Allah forgave him.'"

‘Uqba bin ‘Amr said, “I heard him saying that the Israeli used to dig the grave of the dead (to steal their shrouds).”
3453, 3454. Narrated 'Aishah and Ibn 'Abbās: On his deathbed Allah's Messenger put a sheet over his face and when he felt hot, he would remove it from his face. When in that state (of putting and removing the sheet) he said, "May Allah's Curse be on the Jews and the Christians for they built places of worship at the graves of their Prophets." (By that) he intended to warn (the Muslims) from what they (i.e., Jews and Christians) had done. (See H. 435)

3455. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet, "The Isrā'īlites used to be ruled and guided by Prophets. Whenever a Prophet died, another would take over his place. There will be no Prophet after me, but there will be caliphs who will increase in number." The people asked, "O Allah's Messenger! What do you order us (to do)?" He said, "Obey the one who will be given the Bai'a (pledge) first. Fulfil their (i.e., the caliphs') rights, for Allah will ask them about (any shortcomings) in ruling those whom Allah has put under their guardianship."

3456. Narrated Abū Sa'īd: The Prophet said, "You surely will follow the ways of those nations who were before you, (1) (H. 3455) If the Bai'a (pledge) is given to a caliph and after a while another caliph is given the Bai'a by some members of the society, the common Muslims should abide by the Bai'a given to the first Caliph, for the election of the second is invalid.
span by span and cubit by cubit (i.e., inch by inch) so much so that even if they entered the hole of a mastigar (sand lizard), you would follow them." We said, "O Allah's Messenger! Do you mean the Jews and the Christians?" He replied, "Whom else?" (meaning, of course, the Jews and the Christians.)

[See Vol. 9, Hadith No. 7320]

3457. Narrated Anas: The people mentioned the fire and the bell [as means proposed for announcing the time of Salat (prayer)] and by such a suggestion they referred to the Jews and the Christians. But Bilal was ordered, "Pronounce the words of the Adhân (i.e., call for the Salat) by saying its wordings twice in doubles, and for the Iqâma by saying its wordings once in singles." (1)

3458. Narrated 'Aishah: that she used to hate that one should keep his hands on his flanks while offering Salât (prayer). She said that the Jews used to do so.

3459. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: Allah's Messenger said, "Your period (i.e., the Muslims' period) in comparison to the periods of the previous nations, is like the period between the Salât-ul-'Asr ('Asr prayer) and sunset. And your example in comparison

(1) (H. 3457) The suggestion that they should use fire or a bell to announce the time of the Salât (prayer) was rejected, and the Adhân was adopted instead. [See Vol. 1, Hadith No. 603] to the Jews and the Christians is like the example of a person who employed some labourers and asked them, ‘Who will work for me till midday for one Qirat each?’ The Jews worked for half a day for one Qirat each. The person asked, ‘Who will do the work for me from midday to the time of the Salat-ul-‘Asr for one Qirat each?’ The Christians worked from midday till the Salat-ul-‘Asr for one Qirat. Then the person asked, ‘Who will do the work for me from the Salat-ul-‘Asr till sunset for two Qirats each?’ The Prophet added, “It is you (i.e., Muslims) who are doing the work from the Salat-ul-‘Asr till sunset, so you will have a double reward. The Jews and the Christians got angry and said, ‘We have done more work but got less wages.’ Allah said, ‘Have I been unjust to you as regards your rights?’ They said, ‘No.’ So Allah said, ‘Then it is My Blessing which I bestow on whomever I like.’”

3460. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbás: I heard ‘Umar saying, “May Allah curse so-and-so! Doesn’t he know that the Prophet said, ‘May Allah curse the Jews, for though they were forbidden (to eat) fat, they melted (liquified) it and sold it.”

[References: 416]
3461. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin 'Amr: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Convey (my teachings) to the people even if it were a single Verse or a sentence (from the Qur’ān or As-Sunna) and tell others the stories of Bānī Isrā’īl (which have been taught to you), for it is not sinful to do so. And whoever tells a lie against me intentionally, then surely let him occupy his seat in the (Hell) Fire.”

3462. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The Jews and the Christians do not dye (their grey hair), so you shall do the opposite of what they do (i.e., dye your grey hair and beards).”

3463. Narrated Jundub: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Amongst the nations before you there was a man who got a wound, and growing impatient (with its pain), he took a knife and cut his hand with it and the blood did not stop till he died. Allāh Teāla said, ‘My slave hurried to bring death upon himself so I have forbidden him (to enter) Paradise.’”
(51) CHAPTER. (The tale of three Israelites, a leper, a bald man and a blind man.)

3464. Narrated Abü Hurairah that he heard Allah's Messenger saying, "Allah willed to test three Israelites who were a leper, a blind man and a bald-headed man. So He sent them an angel who came to the leper and said, 'What thing do you like most?' He replied, 'Good colour and good skin, for the people have a strong aversion to me.' The angel touched him and his illness was cured, and he was given a good colour and beautiful skin. The angel asked him, 'What kind of property do you like best?' He replied, 'Camels (or cows).'

"The angel then went to the bald-headed man and said, 'What thing do you like most?' He said, 'I like good hair and wish to be cured of this disease, for the people feel repulsion for me.' The angel touched him and his illness was cured, and he was given good hair. The angel asked (him), 'What kind of property do you like best?' He replied, 'Cows.' The angel gave him a pregnant cow and said, 'May Allah bless you in it.' The angel went to the blind man and asked, 'What thing do you like best?' He said, '(I like) that Allah may restore my eyesight to me so that I may see the people.' The angel touched his eyes and Allah gave him back his eye-sight. The angel asked him, 'What kind of property do you like best?' He replied, 'Sheep.' The angel gave him a pregnant ewe. Afterwards, all the three pregnant animals gave birth to young ones, and multiplied and brought forth so much that one of the (three) men had a herd of camels filling a valley, and one had a herd of cows filling a valley, and one had a flock of sheep filling a valley. Then the angel, disguised in the shape and appearance of a leper, went to the leper and said, 'I am a poor man, who has lost all means of livelihood while on a journey. So, none will satisfy my need except Allâh and then you. In the Name of Him Who has given you such nice colour and beautiful skin and so much property, I ask you to give me a camel so that I may reach my destination'. The man replied, 'I have many obligations (so I cannot give you)'. The angel said, 'I think I know you; were you not a leper to whom the people had a strong aversion? Weren't you a poor man, and then Allâh gave you (all this property)?' He replied, 'This is all wrong, I got this property through inheritance from my forefathers'. The angel said, 'If you are telling a lie, then let Allâh make you as you were before.'

"Then the angel, disguised in the shape and appearance of a bald man, went to the bald man and said to him the same as he told the first one, and he too answered the same as the first one did. The angel said, 'If you are telling a lie, then let Allâh make you as you were before.'

"The angel, disguised in the shape of a blind man, went to the blind man and said, 'I am a poor man and a traveller, whose means of livelihood have been exhausted while on a journey. I have nobody to help me except Allâh, and after Him, you yourself. I ask you in the Name of Him Who has given you back your eyesight to give me a sheep, so that with its help, I may complete my journey'. The man said, 'No doubt, I was blind and Allâh gave me back my eye-sight; I was poor and Allâh made me rich; so take anything you wish from my property. By Allah, I will not stop you for taking anything (you need) of my property which you may take for Allah's sake.' The angel replied, 'Keep your property with you. You (i.e., three men) have been tested and Allah is pleased with you and is angry with your two companions.'

(52) CHAPTER.
(Allah's Statement): "Do you think that the people of the Cave and the Inscription (the news or the names of the people of the Cave)?" (V.18:9)

(53) CHAPTER. The tale of the cave.
3465. Narrated Ibn `Umar: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Once, three persons (from the previous nations) were travelling, and suddenly it started raining and they took shelter in a cave. The entrance of the cave got closed (suddenly by the falling of a huge rock) while they were inside. They said to each other, 'O you! Nothing can save you except the truth, so each of you should ask Allah's Help by referring to such a deed as he thinks he did sincerely (i.e just for gaining Allah's Pleasure).'

So one of them said, 'O Allah! You know that I had a labourer who worked for me for one Faraq (i.e., three 5a') of rice, but he departed, leaving it (i.e., his wages). I sowed that Faraq of rice and with its yield I bought cows (for him). Later on when he came to me asking for his wages, I said to him, 'Go to those cows and drive (take) all of them.' He said to me, 'But you have to pay me only a Faraq of rice.' I said to him, 'Go to those cows and take them, for they are the product of that Faraq (of rice).'

So he drove (took) them. O Allah! If You consider that I did that for fear of You, then please remove the rock.' The rock shifted a bit from the mouth of the cave.

The second one said, 'O Allah! You know that I had old parents whom I used to provide with the milk of my sheep every night. One night I was delayed and when I came, they had slept, while my wife and children were crying with hunger. I used not to let them (i.e., my family) drink unless my parents had drunk first. So I disliked to wake them up and also disliked that they should sleep without drinking it. I kept on waiting (for them to wake) till it dawned. O Allah! If You consider that I did that for fear of You, then please remove the rock.'

The (third) one said, 'O Allah! You know that I had a cousin (i.e., my paternal uncle's daughter) who was most beloved to me and I sought to seduce her, but she refused, unless I paid her one hundred Dinár (i.e., gold pieces). So, I collected the amount and brought it to her, and she allowed me to sleep with her. But when I sat between her legs, she said: Be afraid of Allah, and do not deflower me but legally. I got up and left the hundred Dinãr (for her). O Allah! If You consider that I did that for fear of You then please remove the rock’. So, Allah released them (removed the rock) and they came out (of the cave)."

[This Hadith indicates that one can only ask Allah for help directly or through his performed good deeds. But to ask Allah through dead or absent (Prophets, saints, spirits, holy men, angels etc.) is absolutely forbidden in Islam and it is a kind of ‘Shirk’ — polytheism].

(54) CHAPTER.

3466. Narrated Abû Hurairah that he heard Allah’s Messenger saying, “While a lady was nursing her child, a rider passed by and she said, ‘O Allah! Don’t let my child die till he becomes like this (rider).’ The child said, ‘O Allah! Don’t make me like him,’ and then returned to her breast (sucking it). (After a while) they (some people) passed by a lady who was being pulled and teased (by the people). The child’s mother said, ‘O Allah! Do not make my child like her.’ The child said, ‘O Allah! Make me like her.’ Then he said, ‘As for the rider, he is a disbeliever (an infidel), while the lady is accused of illegal sexual intercourse (falsely) and she says: Allah is Sufficient for me (He knows the truth), and they also accuse her of theft (falsely) and she says: Allah is Sufficient for me.’”

[See Hadith No. 3436]
3467. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “While a dog was going round a well and was about to die of thirst, an Israeli prostitute saw it and took off her shoe (and used the shoe to draw water from the well) and watered it. So Allāh forgave her because of that good deed.” (See H. 3321)

3468. Narrated Humaid bin ‘Abdur-Rahmān that he heard Mu‘āwiya bin Abī Sufyān (talking) on the pulpit in the year when he performed the Hajj. He took a tuft of hair that was in the hand of an orderly and said, “O people of Al-Madīna! Where are your learned men? I heard the Prophet ﷺ forbidding such a thing as this (i.e., false hair) and he used to say, ‘The Isrā‘elites were destroyed when their ladies practised this habit (of using false hair to lengthen their locks)’."

3469. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Amongst the people preceding you there used to be Muhaddithūn (i.e., persons who can guess things that come true later on, as if those persons have been inspired divinely), and if there are any such persons amongst my followers, it is ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb.”
3470. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: The Prophet ﷺ said, "There was a man from Banī Isrā‘el who murdered ninety-nine persons. Then he set out asking (whether his repentance could be accepted or not). He came upon a monk and asked him if his repentance could be accepted. The monk replied in the negative and so the man killed him. He kept on asking till a man advised him to go to such a village. (So he left for it) but death overtook him on the way. While dying, he turned his chest towards that village (where he had hoped his repentance would be accepted), and so the angels of mercy and the angels of punishment quarrelled amongst themselves regarding him. Allāh ordered the village (towards which he was going) to come closer to him, and ordered the village ( whence he had come), to go far away, and then He ordered the angels to measure the distances between his body and the two villages. So, he was found one span closer to the village (he was going to). So he was forgiven."

3471. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Once, Allah's Messenger ﷺ offered the morning Salàt (prayer) and then faced the people and said, "While a man was driving a cow, he rode over it and beat it. The cow said, 'We have not been created for this, but we have been created for ploughing.'" On that the people said astonishingly, "Glorified be Allāh! A cow speaks!" The Prophet ﷺ said, "I believe this, and Abū Bakr and ‘Umar, too, believe it, although neither of them was present there." The Prophet ﷺ added: "While a person was amongst his sheep, a wolf attacked and took one of the sheep. The man chased the wolf till he rescued it (the sheep) from the wolf, whereupon the wolf said, ‘You have rescued it (the sheep) from me; but who will guard it on the day of the wild beasts when there will be no shepherd to guard them except I?’” The people said surprisingly, “Glorified be Allah! A wolf speaks!” The Prophet ﷺ said, “But I believe this and Abu Bakr and ‘Umar, too, believe this, although neither of them was present there.”

[See Vol. 3, Hadith No. 2324 and also Vol. 5, Hadith No. 3663]

3472. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “A man bought a piece of land from another man, and the buyer found an earthenware jar filled with

(1) (H. 3471) It has been written that a wolf also spoke to a shepherd during the Prophet’s lifetime near Al-Madina as narrated in Musnad Imam Ahmad in the Musnad of Abu Sa’id Al-Khudri رضي الله عنه: Narrated Abu Sa’id Al-Khudri: (While a shepherd was in his herd of sheep), suddenly a wolf attacked a sheep and took it away, the shepherd chased the wolf and took back the sheep, the wolf sat on its tail and addressed the shepherd saying: “Be afraid of Allah, you have taken the provision from me which Allah gave me”. The shepherd said: “What an amazing thing! A wolf sitting on its tail speaks to me in the language of a human being”. The wolf said: “Shall I tell you something more amazing than this? There is Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ in Yathrib (Al-Madina) informing the people about the news of the past”. Then the shepherd (after hearing that) proceeded (towards Al-Madina) driving his sheep till he entered Al-Madina, cornered his sheep in a place, and came to Allah’s Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) and informed the whole story. Allah’s Messenger ordered for the proclamation of a congregational Salah (prayer) صلاة جامعة, then he ﷺ came out and asked the shepherd to inform the people (about his story), and he informed them. Then Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said: “He (the shepherd) has spoken the truth. By Him (Allah) in Whose Hands my soul is, the Day of Resurrection will not be established till beasts of prey (سبيع) speak to the human beings, and the stick lash and the shoe-laces of a person speak to him and his thigh informs him about his family as to what happened to them after him.”

gold in the land. The buyer said to the seller, ‘Take your gold, as I have bought only the land from you, but I have not bought the gold from you.’ The (former) owner of the land said, ‘I have sold you the land with everything in it.’ So both of them took their case before a man who asked, ‘Do you have children?’ One of them said, ‘I have a boy.’ The other said, ‘I have a girl.’ The man said, ‘Marry the girl to the boy and spend the money on both of them and give the rest of it in charity.’”

3473. Narrated Usâma bin Zaid: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Plague was a means of torture sent on a group of Israélites (or on some people before you). So, if you hear of its spread in a land, don’t approach it, and if plague should appear in a land where you are present, then don’t leave that land in order to run away from it (i.e., plague).”
3474. Narrated 'Aishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: I asked Allah’s Messenger ﷺ about the plague. He told me that it was a punishment sent by Allah on whom he wished, and Allah made it a source of mercy for the believers, for if one at the time of the spread of a plague epidemic stays in his country patiently hoping for Allah’s Reward, and believing that nothing will befall him except what Allah has written for him, he will get a reward similar to that of a martyr.

3475. Narrated 'Aishah: The people of Quraish worried about the lady from Baní Makhzûm who had committed theft. They asked, “Who will intercede for her with Allah’s Messenger ﷺ?” Some said, “No one dare to do so except Usâma bin Zaid, the beloved one to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ.” When Usâma spoke about that to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ; Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said (to him), “Do you try to intercede for somebody in a case connected with Allah’s prescribed punishments?” Then he got up and delivered a Khutba (religious talk) saying, “What destroyed the nations preceding you was that if a noble amongst them stole, they would forgive him, and if a poor person amongst them stole, they would inflict Allah’s punishment on him. By Allah, if Fâtima, the daughter of Muhammad stole, I would cut off her hand.”

3476. Narrated Ibn Mas'ûd: I heard a person reciting a (Qur’anic) Verse in a certain way, and I had heard the Prophet reciting the same Verse in a different way. So, I took him to the Prophet and informed him of that but I noticed the sign of disapproval on his face, and then he said, “Both of you are correct, so don’t differ, for the nations before you differed, so they were destroyed.”

3477. Narrated ‘Abdullâh (bin Mas’ûd) [رضي الله عنه]: As if I saw the Prophet talking about one of the Prophets whose nation had beaten him and caused him to bleed, while he was cleaning the blood off his face and saying, “O Allâh! Forgive my nation, for they have no knowledge.”

3478. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd Ĥârîrî [رضي الله عنه]: The Prophet said, “Amongst the people preceding your age, there was a man whom Allâh had given a lot of wealth. While he was in his deathbed, he called his sons and said, ‘What type of father have I been to you?’ They replied, ‘You have been a good father.’ He said, ‘I have never done a single good deed; so when I die, burn me and crush my body, and scatter the resulting ashes on a windy day.’ His sons did accordingly, but Allâh gathered his particles and asked (him), ‘What made you do so?’ He replied, ‘Fear of You.’ So Allâh bestowed His Mercy upon him (forgave him).”
3479. Narrated Rib‘i bin Hirāsh: ‘Uqba said to Ḥudhaifa, “Won’t you narrate to us what you heard from Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ?” Ḥudhaifa said, “I heard him saying, ‘Death approached a man and when he had no hope of surviving, he said to his family, ‘When I die, gather for me much wood and build a fire (to burn me). When the fire has eaten my flesh and reached my bones, take the bones and grind them and scatter the resulting powder in the sea on a hot (or windy) day.’ (That was done.) But Allāh collected his particles and asked (him), ‘Why did you do so?’ He replied, ‘For fear of You.’ So Allāh forgave him.”

3480. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “A man used to give loans to the people and used to say to his servant, ‘If the debtor is poor, forgive him, so that Allāh may forgive us.’ So, when he met Allāh (after his death), Allāh forgave him.”
3481. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “A man used to do sinful deeds, and when death came to him, he said to his sons, ‘After my death, burn me and then crush me, and scatter the powder in the air, for by Allah, if Allāh would get hold of me, He will give me such a punishment as He has never given to anyone else.’ When he died, his sons did accordingly. Allāh ordered the earth saying, ‘Collect what you hold of his particles.’ It did so, and behold! There he was (the man) standing. Allāh asked (him), ‘What made you do what you did?’ He replied, ‘O my Lord! I was afraid of You.’ So Allāh forgave him.”

Another narrator said, “The man said, ‘Fear of You, O Lord!’ ”

3482. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “A lady was punished because of a cat which she had imprisoned till it died. She entered the (Hell) Fire because of it, for she neither gave it food nor water as she had imprisoned it, nor set it free to eat from the vermin of the earth.”

(See H. 745, 3318)
3483. Narrated Abū Mas‘ūd ‘Uqba: The Prophet ﷺ said, “One of the (basic) sayings of An-Nubuwwa (the Prophethood) which the people have got is, ‘If you do not feel ashamed, then do whatever you like.’”

[See Vol. 8, Ḥadīth No. 6120]

3484. Narrated Abū Mus‘ūd: The Prophet ﷺ said, “One of the sayings of An-Nubuwwa (the Prophethood) which the people have got is, ‘If you do not feel ashamed, then do whatever you like.’”

3485. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet ﷺ said, “While a man was walking, dragging his dress with pride, he was caused to be swallowed by the earth and will go on sinking in it till the Day of Resurrection.”

3486. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “We (Muslims) are the last (to come) but we will be the foremost on the Day of Resurrection, though the former nations were given the Book (i.e., Scripture) before us, and we were given the Holy Book after them. This (i.e., Friday) is the day about which they differed (but Allah gave us the guidance for that). So the next day (i.e., Saturday) was prescribed for the Jews and the day after it (i.e., Sunday) for the
It is obligatory on every Muslim to (take a bath) wash his head and body once (i.e., Friday) at least) in every seven days."
(See Vol. 2, Hādīth No. 897)

3488. Narrated Sa‘īd bin Al-Musaiyab:
When Mu‘āwiya bin Abī Sufyān came to Al-Madīnā for the last time, he delivered a Ḥuṭba (religious talk) before us. He took out a tuft of hair and said, “I never thought that someone other than the Jews would do such a thing (i.e., use false hair). The Prophet named such a practice, Az-Zūr (i.e., falsehood), meaning the use of false hair.”

(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh: ‘O Mankind! We have created you from a male and a female. (V.49:13)

...And fear Allâh through Whom you demand your mutual (rights), and (do not cut the relations of) the womb (kinship). Surely, Allâh is Ever an All-Watcher over you.” (V.4:1)
The prohibition of bad customs of the Period of Ignorance.

3489. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas regarding the Verse:
‘And (We) made you Shu‘ûba (nations) and Qâbâ’il (tribes) that you may know one another...’ (V.49:13)
That Shu‘ûba means the big Qâbâ’il (i.e., nations) while the Qâbâ’il (i.e., tribes) means the branch tribes.

3490. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Once, Allâh’s Messenger was asked, “Who is the most honourable amongst the people?” He said, “The one who fears Allâh and keeps his duty to Him.” They said, “We do not ask you about this.” He said, “Then Yûsuf (Joseph), the Prophet of Allâh.”

3491. Narrated Kulaib bin Wa’il: I asked Zainab bint Abî Salama (i.e., daughter of the wife of the Prophet), “Tell me about the Prophet. Did he belong to the tribe of Muçlar?” She replied, “Yes, he belonged to the tribe of Muçlar and was from the offspring 3492. Narrated Kulaib: I was told by the Rabiba (i.e., daughter of the wife of the Prophet * who, I think, was Zainab, that the Prophet * forbade the utensils (of wine called) Ad-Dubbā', Al-Hantam, Al-Muqaiyar and Al-Muzaffal. I said to her, “Tell me as to which tribe the Prophet * belonged; was he from the tribe of Muçlar?” She replied, “He belonged to the tribe of Muçlar and was from the offspring of An-Naçlr bin Kinâna.”
61 - THE BOOK OF VIRTUES

3493. Narrated AbU Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger * said, “You see that the people are (like) metals (of different origins and natures). Those who were the best in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance are also the best in Islam if they comprehend religious knowledge. You see that the best amongst the people in this respect (i.e., ambition of ruling) are those who hate it most."

3494. (Allah’s Messenger * added:) And you see that the worst among people is the double faced (person) who appears to these with one face and to the others with another face (i.e., hypocrite)."

3495. Narrated AbU Hurairah: The Prophet * said, “The tribe of Quraish has precedence over the people in this connection (i.e., the right of ruling). The Muslims follow the Muslims amongst them, and the infidels follow the infidels amongst them.

3496. (Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ added:) And people are (like) metals (of different origins and natures). The best amongst them in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance are the best in Islam provided they comprehend the religious knowledge. You will find that the best amongst the people in this respect (i.e., of ruling) is he who hates it (i.e., the idea of ruling) most, till he is given the Bai‘a pledge.”

3497. Narrated Tāwūs: Ibn ‘Abbās رضي الله عنهم recited the Qur’ānic Verse:
“...Except to be kind to me for my kinship with you...” (V.42:23)
Sa‘īd bin Jubair said, “(The Verse implies) the kinship of Muḥammad ﷺ.” Ibn ‘Abbās said, “There was not a single house (i.e., sub-tribe) of Quraish but had a kinship with the Prophet ﷺ; and so the above Verse was revealed in this connection, and its interpretation is: ‘O Quraish! You should keep good relations between me (i.e., Muḥammad ﷺ) and you.’”

3498. Narrated Abū Ma‘ṣūd رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “From this side, pointing towards the east, Al-Fitan (trials and afflictions) will appear. Rudeness and lack of mercy are characteristics of the rural bedouins who are busy with their camels and cows (and pay no attention to religion). Such are the tribes of Rabī‘a and Muḍar.”
3499. Narrated Abū Hurairah (may Allah’s blessing be upon him) saying, “Pride and arrogance are characteristics of the rural bedouins, while calmness is found among the owners of sheep. Belief is Yemenite, and wisdom is also Yemenite (i.e., the Yemenites are well-known for their true belief and wisdom).” Abū ‘Abdullāh (Al-Bukhāri) said, “Yemen was called so because it is situated to the right of the Ka’bah, and Sham was called so because it is situated to the left of the Ka’bah.”

(2) CHAPTER. Virtues of Quraish.

3500. Narrated Muḥammad bin Jubair bin Muṭ‘im, that while he was with a delegation from Quraish to Mu‘āwiyah, the latter heard the news that ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr bin Al-‘Aṣi said that there would be a king from the tribe of Qaḥṭān. On that Mu‘āwiyah became angry, got up and then praised Allah as He deserved, and said, “Now then, I have heard that some men amongst you narrate things which are neither in Allah’s Book (Qur’an), nor have been told by Allah’s Messenger (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him). Those men are the ignorant amongst you. Beware of such hopes as make the people go astray, for I heard Allah’s Messenger saying, ‘Authority of ruling will remain with Quraish, and whoever bears hostility to them, Allah will destroy him as long as they abide by the laws of the religion.”

3501. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Authority of ruling will remain with Quraish, even if only two of them remained.”

3502. Narrated Jubair bin Mu’tim: ‘Uthmân bin ‘Affân ﷺ went (to the Prophet ﷺ) and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! You gave property to Bani Al-Muttalib and did not give us, although we and they are of the same degree of relationship to you.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Only Bani IHlãshim and Bani Al-Muttalib are one thing (as regards family status).”

3503. Narrated ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair: ‘Abdullah bin Az-Zubair went with some women of the tribe of Bani Zuhra to ‘Aishah who used to treat them nicely because of their relation to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ.

3504. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The tribes of Quraish, Al-Ansâr, the (people of the tribe of) Juhaina, Muzaina, Aslam, Ash'a, and Ghifâr are my Mawâdî (helpers, protectors) and they have no Maulâ (Protector, helper) except Allâh and His Messenger."

3505. Narrated 'Urwa bin Az-Zubair : 'Abdullâh bin Az-Zubair was the most beloved person to 'Aishah excluding the Prophet and Abu Bakr, and he in his turn, was the most devoted to her. 'Aishah used not to withhold the money given to her by Allâh, but she used to spend it in charity. ('Abdullah) bin Az-Zuhair said, 'Aishah should be stopped from doing so.' (When 'Aishah heard this), she said protestingly, "Shall I be stopped from doing so? I vow that I will never talk to 'Abdullâh bin Az-Zubair.”

On that, Ibn Az-Zubair asked some people from Quraish and particularly the two uncles of Allâh’s Messenger to intercede with her, but she refused (to talk to him). Az-Zuhriyün, the uncles of the Prophet, including 'Abdur-Rahmân bin Al-Aswad bin 'Abd Yaghûth and Al-Miswar bin Makhrama said to him, "When we ask for the permission to visit her, enter her house alone with us (without taking her leave)." He did accordingly (and she accepted their intercession). He sent her ten slaves whom she manumitted as an expiation for (not keeping) her vow. ‘Aishah manumitted more slaves for the same purpose till she manumitted forty slaves. She said, “I wish I had specified what I would have done in case of not fulfilling my vow when I made the vow, so that I might have done it easily.”(1)

(3) CHAPTER. The Qur’an was revealed in the language of Quraish.

3506. Narrated Anas:

‘Uthmân called Zaid bin Thãbit, Abdullãh bin Az-Zubair, Sa’d bin Al-‘Aṣ and ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin Al-Ḥãrîth bin Hishâm, and then they wrote the manuscripts of the Noble Qur’an in the form of book in several copies. ‘Uthmân said to the three Quraishi persons, “If you differ with Zaid bin Thãbit on any point of the Qur’an, then write it in the language of Quraish, as the Qur’an was revealed in their language.” So, they acted accordingly. (Zaid bin Thãbit was an Anṣârî and not from Quraish).

(4) CHAPTER. The descent of the Yemenites from Ismã’il (Ishmael). Among such Yemenites are the tribes of Aslam bin Afṣa bin Ḥãrîth and ‘Amir from Khuzâ’a.

3507. Narrated Salama:

Allâh’s Messenger passed by some people from the tribe of Aslam practising archery. He said, “O children of Ismã’il (Ishmael)! Throw (arrows), for your father was an archer. I am on the side of Bani so-and-so (meaning one of the two teams).” The other team stopped throwing; whereupon the Prophet said, “What has happened to them?” They replied, “How shall we throw while you are with Bani so-and-so?”” He said, “Throw, for I am with all of you.”
3508. Narrated Abu Dhar: The Prophet said: "None claims to be the son of any other than his real father knowingly, but he has disbelieved in Allah, and if somebody claims to belong to some folk to whom he does not belong, then let such a person take his place in the (Hell) Fire."

3509. Narrated Wāthila bin Al-Asqa': Allah's Messenger said, "Verily, one of the worst lies is to claim falsely to be the son of someone other than one's real father, or to claim to have had a dream one has not had, or to attribute to me what I have not said."

3510. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: The delegates of 'Abdul-Qais came to Allah's Messenger and said, "O Allah's Messenger! We are from the tribe of Rabî'a and the infidels of Muðar tribe intervene between us and you, so that we cannot come to you except in the Sacred Months. Therefore we would like you to give us some instructions which we may follow and convey to our people staying behind us." The Prophet said, "I order you to observe four things and forbid you (to do) four things:

I order you: (1) To believe in Allah i.e., to testifying that \textit{La ilaha illallah} (none has the right to be worshipped except Allah), (2) to perform (the prayer) \textit{As-Salat} (Iqamat-as-Salât), (3) to pay the Zakât, (4) and to give one-fifth of the war booty to Allah. And I forbid you to use \textit{Ad-Dubbà}, \textit{Al-Hantam}, \textit{An-Naqir} and \textit{Al-Muzaffat}.” (These are names of utensils in which alcoholic drinks used to be prepared).

3511.Narrated ‘Abdullàh bin ‘Umar,RadhiALLAH uttanma: I heard Allah’s Messenger on the pulpit saying, “Verily, Al-Fitnah (trial and affliction) (will start) from here,” pointing towards the east, “whence the side of the head of Satan comes out.”

[See Hadîth No. 3504]

3513. Narrated ‘Abdullàh (bin ‘Umar, RadhiALLAH uttanma): While Allah’s Messenger, \textit{La ilaha illallah} (none has the right to be worshipped except Allah), was on the pulpit, he said, “(The tribe of) Ghifâr, Allâh forgave them. And the tribe of Aslam, Allâh saved them. The tribe of ‘Uṣaiya disobeyed Allâh and His Messenger.”
61 - THE BOOK OF VIRTUES

3514. Narrated Abû Hurairah

The Prophet ﷺ said, “The tribe of Aslam, Allâh saved them. And the tribe of Ghifâr, Allâh forgave them.”

3515. Narrated Abû Bakra

The Prophet ﷺ said, “Do you think that the tribes of Juhaina, Muzaina, Aslam and Ghifâr are better than the tribes of Bani Tamîm, Bani Asad, Bani ‘Abdullâh bin Ghatafan and Bani ‘Amir bin Sa’â’â’?” A man said, “They were unsuccessful and losers.” The Prophet ﷺ added, “(Yes), they are better than the tribes of Bani Tamîm, Bani Asad, Bani ‘Abdullâh bin Ghatafan and Bani ‘Amir bin Sa’â’â’.”

3516 (A). Narrated Abû Bakra

Al-Aqra’ bin Ḥabis said to the Prophet ﷺ, “Nobody gave you the Bai’a (pledge) but the robbers of the pilgrims (i.e., those who used to rob the pilgrims) from the tribes of Aslam, Ghifâr, Muzaina.” (Ibn Abî Ya’qûb is in doubt whether Al-Aqra’ added, ‘And Juhaina.’) The Prophet ﷺ said, “Don’t you think that the tribes of Aslam, Ghifār, Muzaina (and also perhaps) Juhaina are better than the tribes of Banī Tamīm, Banī ‘Amir, Asad, and Ghatafan?” Somebody said, “They were unsuccessful and losers!” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Yes, by Him in Whose Hands my soul is, they (i.e., the former) are better than they (i.e., the latter).”

3516 (B). Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه: (The Prophet ﷺ said), “(The people of) Banī Aslam, Ghifār and some people of Muzaina (or some people of Juhaina or Muzaina) are better with Allāh (or on the Day of Resurrection) than the tribes of Asad, Tamīm, Hawāzin and Ghatafan.’”

(7) CHAPTER. The mention of Qahtān tribe.

3517. Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The Hour will not be established unless a man from the tribe of Qahtān appears, driving the people with his stick (ruling them with violence and oppression).

(8) CHAPTER. What is forbidden of the Da’wah (call, tradition or custom) of the (Pre-Islāmic) Period of Ignorance.
3518. Narrated Jābir ibn Abī Hurayrā: We were in the company of the Prophet  in a Ghazwa. A large number of Muhājrūn (emigrants) joined him, and among the Muhājrūn there was a person who used to play jokes (or play with spears); so he (jokingly) stroked an Aņsārī man on the hip. The Aņsārī got so angry that both of them called their people. The Aņsārī said, “Help, O Aņsārī!” And the Muhājrīn said, “Help, O Muhājrīn!” The Prophet  came out and said, “What is wrong with the people (as they are calling) this call of the (Pre-Islāmic) Period of Ignorance?” Then he said, “What is the matter with them?” He was told about the stroke of the Muhājrīn to the Aņsārī. The Prophet  said, “Stop this for it is an evil call.” ‘Abdullāh ibn Ubaï ibn Salūl (a hypocrite) said, “The Aņsārī have called and (gathered against us); so when we return to Al-Madīna, surely, the more honourable people will expel therefrom the meaner.” Upon that ‘Umar said, “O Allāh’s Prophet! Shall we not kill this Khulāth (evil person i.e., Abdullāh ibn Ubaï ibn Salūl)?” The Prophet  said, “(No), lest the people should say that Muhammad used to kill his companions.”

3519. Narrated ‘Abdullāh (bin Mas‘ūd): The Prophet  said, “Whoever slaps his face or tears the front of his dress, or calls the calls of the (Pre-Islāmic) Period of Ignorance, is not from us.”
(9) CHAPTER. The story of Khuzã’a.

3520. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “‘Amr bin Luḥa’il bin Qam’a bin Khindif was the father of Khuzã’a.”

3521. Narrated Sa’îd bin A-Musaiyab: Al-Bahira was a she-camel whose milk was spared for the idols and other deities, and so nobody was allowed to milk it. As-Sâ’iba was a she-camel which they (i.e., infidels) used to set free in the names of their gods so that it would not be used for carrying anything. Abû Hurairah said, “The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘I saw ‘Amr bin ‘Amir bin Luhâ’il Al-Khuzi dragging his intestines in the (Hell) Fire, for he was the first man who started (the tradition of As-Sâ’iba) (setting free she-camels in the names of their false gods—idols and other false deities).’”

(10) CHAPTER. The story of the conversion of Abû Dhar Al-Ghifari to Islam.

claims to be a Prophet receiving information from the Heaven. Listen to him and then come to me." His brother set out till he met the Prophet and listened to his speech and returned to Abū Dhar and said to him, "I have seen him exhorting people to virtues and his speech was not like poetry." Abū Dhar said, "You have not satisfied me as to what I wanted." So, he took his journey-food and a water-skin full of water and set out till he reached Makkah, where he went to the mosque looking for the Prophet, whom he did not know, and he would not like to ask someone about him. So, a portion of the night had passed when 'Ali saw him and realised that he was a stranger. Abū Dhar followed him (to his house), but neither of them asked the other about anything till it was morning, when he carried his water-skin and food and went to the mosque. He spent that day without being observed by the Prophet till it was night, when he returned to his sleeping place. 'Ali again passed by him and said, "Hasn't the man (i.e. Abū Dhar) recognised his dwelling place yet?" So, 'Ali let him get up and took him (to his house), but neither of them asked the other about anything, till it was the third day when 'Ali had the same experience with him and Abū Dhar again stayed with him. 'Ali then asked, "Won't you tell me what has brought you here?" He replied, "If you give me a promise and a convention that you will guide me, then I will tell you." When 'Ali did, Abū Dhar informed him (of his purpose). 'Ali said, "It is the Truth, and he (i.e., Muhammad) is the Messenger of Allah. So when the morning comes, follow me, and if I should perceive any danger threatening you, I will give you a hint by pretending to go to pass water (the water closet). But if I carried on walking, follow me..." till you enter the place that I will enter." Abū Dhar agreed and followed 'Ali till he entered the place of the Prophet. And Abū Dhar entered with him. He then listened to the speech of the Prophet and embraced Islam on that very spot. The Prophet said to him, “Go back to your people and inform them (of this religion) till you receive my (further) orders.” Abū Dhar said, “By Him in Whose Hands my soul is! I will proclaim my conversion to Islam publicly amongst them (i.e. infidels).” He went out till he reached the mosque and announced as loudly as possible: “I testify that La ilāha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah) and that Muḥammad is the Messenger of Allah.” The people then got up and beat him till they knocked him down. Al-Abbās came and threw himself over him (to protect him) saying, “Woe to you! Don’t you know that he is from Ghifar and there is the route (road) to your merchants towards Sham (i.e. through the place where this tribe dwells)?” Thus he saved him from them. Abū Dhar did the same on the next day and the people beat him again and Al-Abbās threw himself over him (to save him as before).

(11) CHAPTER. The story of Zamzam. (See H. 3369 and 3370)
what is evil.' I said to him, 'You have not satisfied me with this little information.' So, I took a water-skin and a stick and proceeded towards Makkah. Neither did I know him (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ), nor did I like to ask anyone about him. I kept on drinking Zamzam water and staying in the mosque. Then 'Ali passed by me and said, 'It seems you are a stranger?' I said, 'Yes.' He proceeded to his house and I accompanied him. Neither did he ask me anything, nor did I tell him anything. Next morning, I went to the mosque to ask about the Prophet ﷺ but no one told me anything about him. 'Ali passed by me again and asked, 'Hasn't the man recognised his dwelling place yet?' I said, 'No.' He said, 'Come along with me.' He asked me, 'What is your business? What has brought you to this town?' I said to him, 'If you keep my secret, I will tell you.' He said, 'I will do.' I said to him, 'We have heard that a person has appeared here, claiming to be a Prophet. I sent my brother to speak to him and when he returned, he did not bring a satisfactory report; so I thought of meeting him personally.' 'Ali said (to Abū Dhar), 'You have reached your goal; I am going to him just now, so follow me, and wherever I enter, enter after me. If I should see someone who may cause you trouble, I will stand near a wall pretending to mend my shoes (as a warning), and you should go away then.' 'Ali proceeded and I accompanied him till he entered a place, and I entered with him to the Prophet ﷺ to whom I said, 'Present (the principles of) Islam to me.' When he did, I embraced Islam immediately. He (ﷺ) said to me, 'O Abū Dhar! Keep your conversion a secret and return to your town; and when you hear of our victory, return to us.' I said, 'By Him Who has sent you with the Truth, I will announce my conversion to Islam publicly amongst them (i.e., the infidels).’ Abū Dhar went to the mosque, where some people from Quraish were present, and said, ‘O folk of Quraish! I testify that Lā ilāha illā Allāh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah), and I (also) testify that Muḥammad is His (Allāh’s) slave and His Messenger.’ (Hearing that) the Quraishi men said, ‘Get at this Sābi (i.e., Muslim)!’ They got up and beat me nearly to death. A’-Abbas saw me and threw himself over me to protect me. He then faced them and said, ‘Woe to you! You want to kill a man from the tribe of Ghifar, although your trade and your communications are through the territory of Ghifar?’ They therefore left me. The next morning I returned (to the mosque) and said the same as I have said on the previous day. They again said, ‘Get at this Sābi!’ I was treated in the same way as on the previous day, and again A’-Abbas found me and threw himself over me to protect me and told them the same as he had said the day before.’ So, that was the conversion of Abū Dhar (may Allah be Merciful to him) to Islam.”

(12) CHAPTER. The story of Zam-zam and the ignorance of the Arabs.

3523. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, (The people of) Aslām, Ghifār and some people of Muzaina and Juhaina or said (some people of Juhaina or Muzaina) are better with Allâh or said (on the Day of Resurrection) than the tribe of Asad, Tamîm, Hawâzîn and Ghatafân.

3524. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: If you wish to know about the ignorance of the Arabs, read Sûrat Al-An'am, (No.6) after Verse No.130:

"Indeed lost are they who have killed their children, foolishly without knowledge. (up to) they have indeed gone astray and were not guided." (V.6:140)

(13) CHAPTER. Whoever related kinship to his forefathers either in Islâm or in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance.

Narrated Ibn 'Umar and Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said, "The honourable, the son of the honourable, the son of the honourable, i.e., Yûsuf (Joseph), the son of Ya'qûb (Jacob), the son of Ishâq (Isaac), the son of Ibrâhîm (Abraham), the Khalîl of Allâh."

Narrated Al-Bara': The Prophet said, "I am the son of 'Abdul-Mu'talib."

3525. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: When the Verse:

"And warn your tribe (O Miîmmad) of near kindred" (V.26:214) was revealed, the Prophet started calling (the Arab \begin{center}

(1) (Ch. 13) Khalîl: See glossary.
\end{center}

3526. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: When the Verse:

“And warn your tribe (O Muhammad) of near kindred.” (V.26:214) was revealed, the Prophet started calling every tribe by its name.

3527. Narrated Abü Hurairah: The Prophet said, “O Banī ‘Abd Munāf! Buy yourselves(1) from Allāh; O Banī ‘Abdul-Muţṭalib! Buy yourselves from Allāh; O mother of Az-Zubair bin Al-Awwām, the aunt of Allāh’s Messenger, and O Fāṭima bint Muḥammad! Buy yourselves from Allāh, for I cannot defend you before Allāh. You (both) can ask me from my property as much as you like.”

(14) CHAPTER. The son of some people’s sister is considered as belonging to the same people; and the freed slave of some people belongs to those people (who have freed him).

(1) (H. 3527) Buying oneself from Allāh means saving oneself from the (Hell) Fire by obeying Allāh and His Messenger, and leading a pious righteous life.
3528. Narrated Anas: The Prophet sent for the Ansâr (and when they came), he asked, ‘Is there any stranger amongst you?” They said, “No, except the son of our sister.” Allâh’s Messenger said, “The son of the sister of some people belongs to them.”

(15) CHAPTER. The story of the Ethiopians, and the saying of the Prophet, “O Bani Arfida!”

3529. Narrated ‘Aishah, that during the Minâ days, Abû Bakr came to her while there were two girls with her, beating drums, and the Prophet was lying covering himself with his garment. Abû Bakr rebuked the two girls, but the Prophet uncovered his face and said, “O Abû Bakr! Leave them, for these are the days of ‘Eid (festival).” Those days were the days of Minâ.

3530. ‘Aishah added, “I was being screened by the Prophet while I was watching the Ethiopians playing in the mosque. ‘Umar rebuked them, but the Prophet said, “Leave them, O Bani Arfida! Play, (for) you are safe.”

(16) CHAPTER. Whoever liked that his ancestors should not be abused.

3531. Narrated ‘Aishah: Once Hassan bin Thâbit asked the permission of the Prophet ﷺ to lampoon (i.e., compose satirical poetry defaming) the infidels. The Prophet ﷺ said, “What about the fact that I have common descent with them?” Ḥassān replied, “I shall take you out of them as a hair is taken out of dough.”

Narrated ‘Urwa: I started abusing Ḥassān in front of ‘Āishah, whereupon she said, “Don’t abuse him, for he used to defend the Prophet ﷺ (with his poetry).”

(17) CHAPTER. What has been said about the names of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ.

And the Statement of Allah ﷻ:

“Muḥammad (ﷺ) is the Messenger of Allah. And those who are with him are severe against the disbelievers…” (V.48:29)

And His Statement:

“...And remember when ‘Īsā (Jesus), son of Mary, said: O Children of Israel! I am the Messenger of Allah unto you, confirming the Torah (which came) before me, and giving glad tidings of a Messenger to come after me, whose name shall be Aḥmad…” (The second name of Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ) (V.61:6)

3532. Narrated Jubair bin Muṭ‘īm: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “I have five names: I am Muhammad and Aḥmad; I am Al-MAḥī through whom Allah will eliminate Al-Kufr (i.e., disbelief—in fidelity); I am Al-Hāṣīr who will be the first to be resurrected, the people being resurrected thereafter; and I am also Al-‘Aqīb (i.e., there will be no Prophet after me).”
3533. Narrated Abū Hurairah

Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Doesn’t it astonish you how Allāh protects me from the Quraish’s abusing and cursing? They abuse Mudhammam and curse Mudhammam while I am Muḥammad (and not Mudhammam).”

(1) (H. 3533) ‘Muḥammad’ literally means ‘highly praised,’ while Mudhammam means ‘greatly dispraised’. The infidels, out of hatred, refrained from calling the Prophet ﷺ by his right name: they called him by a name bearing bad sense. The curses and abuses then fell on that name which was not the name of the Prophet ﷺ.

3534. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh

The Prophet ﷺ said, “My example and the example of the other Prophets is that of a man who has built a house completely and excellently, except for a place of one brick. When the people entered the house, they wondered at its beauty and said, ‘But for the place of this brick (how splendid the house will be)!’ [So I am that brick—last (end) of all the Prophets].”

3535. Narrated Abū Hurairah

Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “My example and the example of the other Prophets before me, is that of a man who has built a house nicely and beautifully, except for a place of one brick in a corner. The people go round about it and wonder at its beauty, but say: ‘Would that this brick be put in its place!’ So I...”
am that brick, and I am the end (last) of all the Prophets."

(19) CHAPTER. The death of the Prophet

3536. Narrated 'Aishah : The Prophet died when he was sixty-three years old.

(20) CHAPTER. The Kunya of the Prophet

3537. Narrated Anas : While the Prophet was in the market, a man called (somebody), "O Abul-Qasim!" The Prophet turned to him and said "Name yourselves after me but do not call yourselves by my Kunya."

3538. Narrated Jâbir : The Prophet said, "Name yourselves after me, but do not call yourselves by my Kunya."

(1) (Ch. 20) Kunya means calling a man: O father of so-and-so, or a woman: O mother of so-and-so and this is a custom of Arabs.
3539. Narrated Abū Hurairah: (The Prophet) Abul-Qāsim said, “Name yourselves after me, but do not call yourselves by my Kunya.”

(21) CHAPTER.

3540. Narrated Al-Ju‘aid bin ‘Abdur-Rahmān: I saw As-Sā‘ib bin Yazīd when he was ninety-four years old, quite strong and of straight figure. He said, “I know that I enjoyed my hearing and seeing powers only because of the invocation of Allāh’s Messenger. My aunt took me to him and said, ‘O Allāh’s Messenger! My nephew is sick; will you invoke Allāh for him?’ So he invoked (Allāh) for me.”

3541. Narrated As-Sā‘ib bin Yazīd: My aunt took me to Allāh’s Messenger and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! My nephew is sick”. The Prophet passed his hands over my head and invoked Allāh to bless me. Then he performed ablution and I drank the remaining water. Then I stood behind him and saw the seal of Prophethood in between his shoulders.

(22) CHAPTER. The seal of Prophethood.
3542. Narrated ‘Uqba bin Al-Ḥārith: (Once) Abü Bakr offered the ‘Asr prayers and then went out walking and saw Al-Ḥasan playing with the boys. He lifted him on his shoulders and said, “Let my parents be sacrificed for your sake! (You) resemble the Prophet ﷺ and not ‘Ali,” while ‘Ali was smiling.

3543. Narrated Abū Juhaifa: I saw the Prophet ﷺ, and Al-Ḥasan resembled him.

3544. Narrated Ismā’īl bin Abi Khālid: I heard Abū Juḥaifa saying, “I saw the Prophet ﷺ, and Al-Ḥasan bin ‘Ali resembled him.” I said to Abū Juḥaifa, “Describe him for me.” He said, “He was white and his beard was black with some white hair. He promised to give us thirteen (13) young she-camels, but he expired before we could get them.”
3545. Narrated Wahb Abü Juhaifa As-Sawwâ'i: I saw the Prophet ﷺ and saw some white hair below his lower lip above the chin.

3546. Narrated Ḥarîz bin ‘Uthmân that he asked ‘Abdullâh bin Busr (i.e., the companion of the Prophet ﷺ), “Did you see the Prophet ﷺ when he was old?” He said, “He had a few white hair between the lower lip and the chin.”

3547. Narrated Rabî‘a bin Abî ‘Abdur-Rahmân: I heard Anas bin Mâlik describing the Prophet ﷺ saying, “He was of medium height amongst the people, neither tall nor short; he had a rosy complexion, neither absolutely white nor deep brown; his hair was neither completely curly nor quite lank. Divine Revelation was revealed to him when he was forty years old. He stayed ten years in Makkah receiving the Divine Revelation, and stayed in Al-Madîna for ten more years. When he expired, he had scarcely twenty white hair in his head and beard.”

Rabî‘a said, “I saw some of his hair and it was red. When I asked about that, I was told that it turned red because of perfume.”

[See Vol. 5, Hâdiîth No. 3851]

3548. Narrated Anas: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ was neither very tall nor short, neither absolutely white nor deep brown. His hair was neither curly nor lank. Allāh sent him (as a Messenger) when he was forty years old. Afterwards he resided in Makkah for ten years and in Al-Madīna for ten more years. When Allāh took him unto Him, there were scarcely twenty white hair in his head and beard.

[See Vol. 5, Hadith No. 3851]

3549. Narrated Al-Barā’ī: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was the most handsome of all the people, and had the best appearance. He was neither very tall nor short.

3550. Narrated Qatāda: I asked Anas, “Did the Prophet ﷺ use to dye (his) hair?” He said, “No, for there were only a few white hair on his temples.”

3551. Narrated Al-Barā’ī: The Prophet ﷺ was of moderate height, having broad shoulders (long) hair reaching his earlobes. Once, I saw him in a red cloak and I had never seen a more handsome person than him.”
3552. Narrated Abū Ishâq: Al-Barâ’ was asked, “Was the face of the Prophet (as bright) as a sword?” He said, “No, but (as bright) as a moon.”

3553. Narrated Abū Juhaifa: Once, Allah’s Messenger went to Al-Bâṭhâ’ at noon, performed the ablution and offered two Rak’a of Zuhr prayer and two Rak’a of ‘Asr prayer while a spear-headed stick was planted in front of him (as a Sutra); and the passersby were passing behind that (Sutra). [After the Salât (prayer),] the people got up and held the hands of the Prophet and passed them on their faces. I also took his hand and kept it on my face and noticed that it was colder than ice, and its smell was nicer than musk.

3554. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: The Prophet was the most generous of all the people, and he used to become more generous in Ramadân when Jibrîl (Gabriel) met him. Jibrîl used to meet him every night during Ramadân to revise the Qurân with him. Allâh’s Messenger then used to be more generous than the fair wind.
3555. Narrated ‘Aishah that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ came to her in a happy mood with his features glittering with joy, and said, “Have you not heard what the Qa’if(1) has said about Zaid and Usâma? He saw their feet and remarked, ‘These belong to each other.’” (i.e., they are father and son).

3556. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin Ka’b: I heard Ka’b bin Mãlik talking after his failure to join (the Ghazwa of) Tabûk. He said, “When I greeted Allah’s Messenger ﷺ his face was glittering with happiness, for whenever Allah’s Messenger ﷺ was happy, his face used to glitter, as if it was a piece of the moon, and we used to recognise it (i.e., his happiness) from his face.”

3557. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “I have been sent…\(\text{[sent by Allah with glad tidings (rain) (in readiness and haste to do charitable deeds)]}\) [See Vol. 1, Hadith No. 6]

(1) Qa’if is one who is expert in recognising whether somebody is the son of another by examining some of their physical features.
(as a Messenger) in the best century of all the generations of Adam's offspring since their creation."

3558. Narrated Ibn 'Abbās: Allah's Messenger used to let his hair hang down while the infidels used to part their hair. The people of the Scriptures were used to letting their hair hang down and Allah's Messenger liked to follow the people of the Scriptures in the matters about which he was not instructed otherwise. Then Allah's Messenger parted his hair.

3559. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin 'Amr: The Prophet was neither a Fāhish nor a Mutafahhish (never used bad language). He used to say, "The best amongst you are those who have the best manners and character." [See Hadith No. 6029, Vol. 8]

3560. Narrated 'Aishah: Whenever Allah's Messenger was given the choice of one of two matters, he would choose the easier of the two, as long as it was not sinful to do so, but if it was sinful to do so, he would not approach it. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ never took revenge (over anybody) for his own sake but (he did) only when Allāh’s Legal Laws and Bindings were outraged, in which case he would take revenge for Allāh’s sake.

(1) (H. 3559) Fāhish: one who speaks bad words. Mutafahhish: one who speaks obscene evil words to make the people laugh.

3561. Narrated Anas ﷺ: I have never touched silk or Dībāj (i.e., thick silk) softer than the palm of the Prophet ﷺ, nor have I smelt a perfume nicer than the sweat of the Prophet ﷺ.

3562. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudri ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ was shier than a veiled virgin girl. (1)

Narrated Shu‘ba a similar Hadīth as above with this addition: And if he (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ) disliked something, the sign of aversion would appear on his face.

3563. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ never criticized any food (presented to him), but he would eat it if he liked it; otherwise, he would leave it (without expressing his dislike).

(1) (H. 3562) This means that he refrained from doing or saying anything shameful or indecent, and disliked to see people doing such things in front of him.
3564. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin Málîk bin Bußaina Al-Asdî: When the Prophet ﷺ prostrated, he used to keep his arms so widely apart that we used to see his armpits. (The subnarrator, Ibn Bukair said, “The whiteness of his armpits.”)

3565. Narrated Anas: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ did not use to raise his hands in his invocations except in the Istimqâ (i.e., invoking Allâh for the rain) in which he used to raise his hands so high that one could see the whiteness of his armpits.

[Note: It may be that Anas did not see the Prophet (as) raising his hands but it has been narrated that the Prophet (as) used to raise his hands for invocations other than Istisqâ.

[See Vol. 2, Hâdîth No. 1751, 1752 and Vol. 5 and Hâdîth No. 4323].

3566. Narrated Abu Ju’fa: By chance I went to the Prophet ﷺ at noon while he was at Al-Abtâh (resting) in a tent. Bilal came out (of the tent) and pronounced the Adhân for the Salah (prayer), and entering again, he brought out the water which was left after Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ had performed the ablution. The people rushed to take some of the water. Bilal again went in and brought out a spear-headed stick, and then Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ came out. As if I were now looking at the whiteness of his leg. Bilal fixed the stick [to act as a Sutra for the Salah (prayer)] and then the Prophet ﷺ offered two Rak’a Zuhr prayer and two Rak’a ‘Asr prayer, while women and donkeys were passing in front of the
The Prophet ﷺ (beyond the stick).

3567. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ used to talk so clearly that if somebody wanted to count the number of his words, he could do so.

3568. Narrated ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair: ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها said (to me), “Don’t you wonder at Abu so-and-so(1) who came and sat by my dwelling and started relating something on the authority of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ intending to let me hear that, while I was offering an optional Salah (prayer). He left before I finished my optional Salah (prayer). Had I found him still there, I would have said to him, ‘Allah’s Messenger ﷺ never talked so quickly and vaguely as you do.’”

(24) CHAPTER. The eyes of the Prophet ﷺ used to sleep, but his heart used not to sleep.(2)

Jābir narrated it on the authority of the Prophet ﷺ.

3569. Narrated Abu Salama bin ‘Abdur-Rahmān that he asked ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها, “How was the Salah (prayer) of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ in the month of Ramadān?” She replied, “He used not to offer Salah (prayer) during the month of Ramadān.”

(prayer) more than eleven Rak'a whether in Ramaḍān or in any other month. He used to offer four Rak'a — let alone their beauty and length, and then four Rak'a — let alone their beauty and length. Afterwards he would offer three Rak'a. I said, 'O Allāh’s Messenger! Do you go to bed before offering the Witr prayer?' He said, 'My eyes sleep, but my heart does not sleep.’”

3570. Narrated Shārīk bin ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Namr: I heard Anas bin Mālik telling us about the night [journey to the heavens (Al-Isra' and Al-Mi'raj)] when the Prophet ﷺ was made to travel from the Ka’bah Mosque (Al-Masjid-al-Harām). Three persons (i.e., angels) came to the Prophet ﷺ before he was divinely inspired (as a Messenger), while he was sleeping in Al-Masjid-al-Harām. The first (of the three angels) said, “Which of them is he?” The second said, “He is the best of them.” The last of them said, “Take best of them.” That was all that happened then, and he did not see them till they came at another night and he perceived their presence with his heart, for the eyes of the Prophet ﷺ were closed when he was asleep, but his heart was not asleep. This is characteristic of all the Prophets: Their eyes sleep but their hearts do not sleep. Then Jibril (Gabriel) took charge of the Prophet ﷺ and ascended along with him to the heaven. (See H. 3207, 3886, 3887)

(25) CHAPTER. The signs of Prophethood in Islām.
Narrat. ‘Imrân bin Ḥuṣain:

3571. That they were with the Prophet on a journey. They travelled the whole night, and when dawn approached, they took rest and sleep overwhelmed them till the sun rose high in the sky. The first to get up was Abū Bakr. Allâh’s Messenger used not to be awakened from his sleep, but he would wake up by himself. ‘Umar woke up and then Abū Bakr sat by the side of the Prophet’s head and started saying: “Allâhu Akbar” raising his voice till the Prophet woke up, (and after travelling for a while) he dismounted and led us in the morning prayer. A man amongst the people failed to join us in the prayer. When the Prophet had finished the prayer, he asked (the man), “O so-and-so! What prevented you from offering the prayer with us?” He replied, “I am Junub.” Allâh’s Messenger ordered him to perform Tayammum with clean earth. The man then offered the prayer. Allâh’s Messenger ordered me and a few others to go ahead of him. We had become very thirsty. While we were on our way (looking for water), we came across a lady (riding an animal), hanging her legs between two waterskins. We asked her, “Where can we get water?” She replied, “Oh! There is no water.” We asked, “How far is your house from the water?” She replied, “A distance of a day and a night.” We said, “Come on to Allâh’s Messenger.” She asked, “What is Allâh’s Messenger?” So we brought her to Allâh’s Messenger against her will, and she told him what she had told us before and added that she was the mother of orphans. So, the Prophet ordered that her two waterskins be brought and he touched or rubbed the mouths of the waterskins (with his hand). As we were thirsty, we drank till we quenched our thirst and we were forty men. We also filled all our water-skins and other utensils with water, but we did not water the camels. The water-skin was so full that it was almost about to burst. The Prophet then said, “Bring what (foodstuff) you have.” So, some dates and pieces of bread were collected for the lady, and when she went to her people, she said, “I have met either the greatest magician or a Prophet as the people claim.” So, Allah guided the people of that village through that lady. She embraced Islam and they all embraced Islam.

[See Vol. 1, Hadith No. 344]

3572. Narrated Anas: A bowl of water was brought to the Prophet while he was at Az-Zaurā'. He placed his hand in it and the water started flowing among his fingers. All the people performed ablution (with that water).

Qatada asked Anas, “How many people were you?” Anas replied, “Three hundred, or nearly three hundred.”

3573. Narrated Anas bin Malik: I saw Allah’s Messenger at the time when the Salāt-ul-‘Aṣr (‘Aṣr prayer) was due. Then the people were searching for water for ablution but they could not find any. Then some water was brought to Allah’s Messenger and he placed his hand in the pot and ordered the people to perform the ablution with the water. I saw water flowing from underneath his fingers and the people started performing the ablution till all of them performed the ablution.

3575. Narrated Humaid: Anas bin Malik said, “Once the time of the Salat (prayer) became due and the people whose houses were close to the mosque went to their houses to perform ablution, while the others remained (sitting there). A stone pot containing water was brought to the Prophet, who wanted to put his hand in it, but it was too small for him to spread his hand in it, and so he had to bring his fingers together before putting his hand in the pot. Then all the people performed the ablution (with that water).” I asked Anas, “How many persons were they?” He replied, “There were eighty men.”
3576. Narrated Sālim bin Abī Al-Ja’d: Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh (رضي الله عنه) said, “The people became very thirsty on the day of Al-Hudaiya (Treaty). A small pot containing some water was in front of the Prophet ﷺ and when he had finished the ablution, the people rushed towards him. He asked, ‘What is wrong with you?’ They replied, ‘We have no water either for performing ablution or for drinking except what is present in front of you.’ So, he placed his hand in that pot and the water started flowing among his fingers like springs. We all drank and performed ablution (from it).’ I asked Jābir, ‘How many were you?’ He replied, ‘Even if we had been one hundred thousand, it would have been sufficient for us, but we were fifteen hundred.’

3577. Narrated Al-Barā’ (رضي الله عنه): We were one thousand and four hundred persons on the day of Al-Hudaiya (Treaty), and (at) Al-Hudaiya (there) was a well. We drew out its water not leaving even a single drop. The Prophet ﷺ sat at the edge of the well and asked for some water with which he rinsed his mouth, and then he threw it out into the well. We stayed for a short while and then drew water from the well and quenched our thirst, and even our riding animals drank water to their satisfaction.

3578. Narrated Anas bin Malik (رضي الله عنه): Abū Ṭalḥa said to Umm Sulaim, “I have noticed feebleness in the voice of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ which I think, is caused by hunger. Have you got any food?” She said, “Yes.” She brought out some loaves of barley and took out a veil belonging to her, and wrapped the bread in part of it and put it under my arm and wrapped part of the veil round me and sent me to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ. I went carrying it and found Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ in the mosque sitting with some people. When I stood there, Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ asked, “Has Abû Talha sent you?” I said, “Yes”. He asked, “With some food?” I said, “Yes” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ then said to the men around him, “Get up!” He set out (accompanied by them) and I went ahead of them till I reached Abû Talha and told him (of the Prophet’s visit). Abû Talha said, “O Umm Sulaim! Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ is coming with the people and we have no food to feed them.” She said, “Allâh and His Messenger know better.” So, Abû Talha went out to receive Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ came along with Abû Talha. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “O Umm Sulaim! Bring whatever you have.” She brought the bread which Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ ordered to be broken into pieces. Umm Sulaim poured on them some butter from an oil-skin. Then Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ recited what Allâh wished him to recite, and then said, “Let ten persons come (to share the meal).” Ten persons were admitted, ate their fill and went out. Then he again said, “Let another ten do the same.” They were admitted, ate their fill and went out. Then he again said, “Let another ten persons (do the same.)” They were admitted, ate their fill and went out. Then he said, “Let another ten persons come.” In short, all of them ate their fill, and they were seventy or eighty men.
3579. Narrated 'Abdullãh: We used to consider miracles as Allah's Blessings, but you people consider them to be a warning. Once, we were with Allah's Messenger on a journey, and we ran short of water. He said, "Bring the water remaining with you." The people brought a utensil containing a little water. He placed his hand in it and said, "Come to the blessed water, and the Blessing is from Allah." I saw the water flowing from among the fingers of Allah's Messenger, and no doubt, we used to hear the meals (food) glorifying Allah, when it was being eaten (by him).

3580. Narrated Jâbir: My father had died in debt. So, I came to the Prophet and said, "My father (died) leaving unpaid debts, and I have nothing except the yield of his date-palms; and their yield for many years will not cover his debts. So, please come with me, so that the creditors may not misbehave with me." The Prophet went round one of the heaps of dates and invoked (Allah), and then did the same with another heap and sat on it and said, "Measure (for them)." He paid them their rights and what remained was as much as had been paid to them.

3581. Narrated ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Abī Bakr: The companions of Suffa were poor people. The Prophet  once said, “Whoever has food enough for two persons, should take a third one (from among them), and whoever has food enough for four persons, should take a fifth or a sixth (or said something similar).” Abū Bakr brought three persons while the Prophet took ten. And Abū Bakr with his three family member (who were I, my father and my mother) (the subnarrator is in doubt whether ‘Abdur-Rahmān said, “My wife and my servant who was common for both my house and Abū Bakr’s house.”). Abū Bakr took his supper with the Prophet  and stayed there till he offered the ‘Ishā prayer. He returned and stayed till Allāh’s Messenger  took his supper. After a part of the night had passed, he returned to his house. His wife said to him, “What has detained you from your guests?” He said, “Have you served supper to them?” She said, “They refused (to take supper) until you come. They (i.e., some members of the household) presented the meal to them but they refused (to eat).” I went to hide myself and he said, “O Ghunthar [ignorant (boy)!]” He invoked Allāh to cause my ears to be cut and he rebuked me. He then said (to them): “Please eat!” and added, “I will never eat the meal.” By Allāh, whenever we took a handful of the meal, the meal grew more underneath than that handful till everybody ate to his satisfaction; yet the remaining food was more than the original meal. Abū Bakr saw that the food was as much or more than the original amount. He called his wife, "O sister of Bani Firäs!" She said, "O pleasure of my eyes. The food has been tripled in quantity than it was before." Abû Bakr then started eating thereof and said, "It (i.e., my oath not to eat) was because of Satan." He took a handful from it, and carried the rest to the Prophet ﷺ. So, that food was with the Prophet ﷺ. There was a treaty between us and some people, and when the period of that treaty had elapsed, he divided us into twelve groups, each being headed by a man. Allâh knows how many men were under the command of each leader. Anyhow, the Prophet ﷺ surely sent a leader with each group. Then all of them ate of that meal.

[See Vol. 8, Hadith No. 6141]

3582. Narrated Anas ﷺ: Once during the lifetime of Allah's Messenger ﷺ, the people of Al-Madina suffered from drought. So, while the Prophet ﷺ was delivering Khutba (religious talk) on a Friday, a man got up saying, "O Allah's Messenger! The horses and sheep have perished. Will you invoke Allah to bless us with rain?" The Prophet ﷺ lifted both his hands and invoked (Allah). The sky at that time was as clear as glass. Suddenly a wind blew, raising clouds that gathered together, and it started raining heavily. We came out (of the mosque) wading through the flowing water till we reached our homes. It went on raining till the next Friday, when the same man or some other man stood up and said, "O Allâh's Messenger! The houses have collapsed: please invoke Allāh to withhold the rain.” On that the Prophet ﷺ smiled and said, “O Allāh, (let it rain) around us and not on us.” I then looked at the clouds to see them separating, forming a sort of a crown round Al-Madīna. (See H. 933) 3583. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهم: The Prophet ﷺ used to deliver his Khutba (religious talk) while standing beside a trunk of a date-palm. When he had the pulpit made, he used it instead. The trunk started crying and the Prophet ﷺ went to it, rubbing his hand over it (to stop its crying).

[See Vol. 2, Hadith No.918]

3584. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنهم: The Prophet ﷺ used to stand by a tree or a date-palm (trunk) on Friday. Then an Anṣārī woman or man said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Shall we make a pulpit for you?” He replied, “If you wish.” So they made a pulpit for him and when it was Friday, he proceeded towards the pulpit [for delivering the Khutba (religious talk)]. The date-palm cried like a child! The Prophet ﷺ descended (from the pulpit) and embraced it while it continued moaning like a child being quietened. The Prophet \( \text{say}, \) said, “It was crying for (missing) what it used to hear of religious knowledge given near it.”

3585. Narrated Anas bin Malik that he heard Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh Ḥārūn
\text{say}, \) saying, “The roof of the mosque was built over the trunks of date-palms which were as pillars (for the roof). When the Prophet \(
\text{delivered a } \Khuṭba \text{ (religious talk)}, \) he used to stand by one of those trunks till the pulpit was made for him, and he used it instead. Then we heard the trunk emitting a sound like that of a pregnant she-camel till the Prophet \(
\text{came to it, and put his hand over it, then it became quiet.”}

3586. Narrated Ḥudhaifa: Once ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb Ḥārūn \(
\text{said}, \) said, “Who amongst you remembers the statement of Allāh’s Messenger \(
\text{regarding the } \Al-Fīṭnah \text{ (trial or affliction)?}” \) Ḥudhaifa replied, “I remember what he said exactly.” ‘Umar said, “Tell (us), you are really a daring man!” Ḥudhaifa said, “Allāh’s Messenger \(
\text{said}, \) said, ‘A man’s \(

disbelief and all that Islam forbids).” ‘Umar said, “I don’t mean these but the Al-Fitnah that will be heaving up and down like waves of the sea.” Ḥudhaifa replied, “O chief of the believers! You need not fear that as there is a closed door between you and it.” ‘Umar asked, “Will that door be opened or broken?” Ḥudhaifa replied, “No, it will be broken.” ‘Umar said, “Then it is very likely that the door will not be closed again.” Later on the people asked Ḥudhaifa, “Did ‘Umar know what that door meant?” He said, “Yes, ‘Umar knew it as everyone knows that there will be night before tomorrow morning. I narrated to ‘Umar an authentic narration, not lies.” We dared not ask Ḥudhaifa; therefore we requested Masrūq who asked him, “What does the door stand for?” He said, “‘Umar.”

3587. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The Hour will not be established till you fight a nation wearing hairy shoes, and till you fight the Turks, who will have small eyes, red faces and flat noses; and their faces will be like flat shields.”

3588. (The Prophet ﷺ added:) “And you will find that the best people are those who hate most to be a ruler, till they are chosen to be the rulers. (1) And the people are (like) metals (of different natures). The best in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance are the best in Islam.”

3589. (The Prophet said:) “A time will come when one of you will love to see me rather than to have his family and property doubled.”

3590. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “The Hour will not be established till you fight with the Khūza and the Kirmān from among the non-Arabs. They will be of red faces, flat noses and small eyes; their faces will look like flat shields, and their shoes will be of hair.”

3591. Narrated Abū Hurairah: I enjoyed the company of Allāh's Messenger for three years, and during the other years of my life, never was I so anxious to understand the (Prophet's) narrations (sayings) as I was during those three years. I heard him saying, beckoning with his hand in this way, “Before the Hour you will fight with people who will have hairy shoes and live in Al-Bāriz.” (Sufyān, the subnarrator once said, “And they are the people of Al-Bāzir.”)

3592. Narrated ‘Umar bin Taglib: I heard Allāh's Messenger saying, “Near the Hour you will fight with people who will wear hairy shoes; and you will also fight people with flat faces like shields.”
3593. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar
I heard Allah’s Messenger saying,
“The Jews will fight with you, and you will be given victory over them so that a stone will say, ‘O Muslim! There is a Jew behind me; kill him!’”

3594. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd Al-Khudrî
The Prophet said, “A time will come when the people will fight a holy battle, and it will be asked, ‘Is there any amongst you who has enjoyed the company of Allah’s Messenger?’ They will say: ‘Yes.’ And then victory will be bestowed upon them.
Then again they will fight a holy battle, and it will be asked: ‘Is there any among you who has enjoyed the company of the companions of Allah’s Messenger?’ They will say:
‘Yes.’ And then victory will be bestowed on them.”

3595. Narrated ‘Adî bin Ḥatîm
While I was in the city of the Prophet, a man came and complained to him (the Prophet) of destitution and poverty.
Then another man came and complained of robbery. The Prophet said, “‘Adî! Have you been to Al-Ḥira?” I said, “I haven’t been to it, but I was informed about it.” He said, “If you should live for a long time, you will certainly see that a lady in a Howdaj travelling from Al-Ḥira will (safely reach Makkah and) perform the Tawaf of the Ka'bah, fearing none but Allah.” I said to myself, “What will happen to the robbers of the tribe of Ṭaʾi who have spread evil throughout the country?” The Prophet ﷺ further said, “If you should live long, the treasures of Khosrau will be opened (and taken as spoils).” I asked, “You mean Khosrau, son of Hurmuz?” He said, “Khosrau, son of Hurmuz; and if you should live long, you will see that one will carry a handful of gold or silver and go out looking for a person to accept it from him, but will find none to accept it from him. And each one of you will meet Allah, on the Day of his Meeting with Him, and there will be no translator between him and Allah to translate for him, and Allah will say to him: ‘Didn’t I send a Messenger to convey Our Message (of Islamic Monotheism) to you?’ He will say: ‘Yes.’ Allah will say: ‘Didn’t I give you wealth and preferred you with favours?’ He will say: ‘Yes.’ Then he will look to his right and see nothing but Hell, and look to his left and see nothing but Hell.

‘Adi further said: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “Save yourself from the (Hell) Fire even with half a date (to be given in charity) and if you do not find a half date, then with a good pleasant word.”’ ‘Adi added: (Later on) I saw a lady in a Howdaj travelling from Al-Ḥira till she performed the Tawaf of the Ka'bah, fearing none but Allah. And I was one of those who opened (conquered) the treasures of Khosrau, son of Hurmuz. If you should live long, you will see what the Prophet Abul-Qasim ﷺ had said: ‘A person will come out with a handful of gold...’ etc.

3597. Narrated Usāmai: Once, the Prophet stood on one of the high buildings (of Al-Madīna) and said, “Do you see what I see? I see Al-Fitan (trials and afflictions) pouring among your houses like raindrops.”
3598. Narrated Zainab bint Jahsh that the Prophet ﷺ came to her in a state of fear saying, “La ilaha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah)! Woe to the Arabs because of evil that has come near. Today, a hole has been made in the wall of Ya’jūj and Ma’jūj (Gog and Magog) as large as this,” pointing with two of his fingers making a circle. Zainab said: I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Shall we be destroyed though amongst us there are pious people?” He said, ‘Yes, if Al-Khabath(1) increased(2).”

3599. Narrated Umm Salama: The Prophet ﷺ woke up and said, “Glorified be Allah: What great (how many) treasures have been sent down, and what great (how many) Al-Fitan (trials and afflictions) have been sent down!”

3600. Narrated Sa‘ā’ā: Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudri said to me, “I notice that you like sheep and you keep them; so take care of them and their food, for I have heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, ‘A time will come upon the people when the best of a Muslim’s property will be sheep, which he will take to the tops of mountains and to the places of rainfalls to run away with his religion in order to save it from Al-Fitan”

3601. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger said, "There will be Fitān (trials and afflictions) (at that time) the sitting person will be better than the standing one, and the standing one will be better than the walking one, and the walking one will be better than the running one. And whoever will expose himself to these Fitān, they will destroy him, whoever will find a refuge or a shelter, should take refuge in it."

[See Vol. 9, Hadith No. 7081, 7082]

3602. The same narration is reported by Abū Bakr, with the addition, "(The Prophet said), 'Among the Salāt (prayer) there is a Salāt (prayer) the missing of which will be to one like losing one’s family and property.'" (See H. 552, 553)

3603. Narrated Ibn Mas'ūd: The Prophet said, "Soon others will be preferred to you, and there will be things which you will not like." The companions of the Prophet asked, "O Allah's Messenger!"

(1) (H. 3602) The Salāt (prayer) meant here is the 'Asr prayer.
61 - THE BOOK OF VIRTUES

What do you order us to do (in this case)?” He said, “(I order you) to give the rights that are on you and to ask your rights from Allāh.”

3604. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “This branch from Quraish will ruin the people.” The companions of the Prophet asked, “What do you order us to do (then)?” He said, “I would suggest that the people should keep away from them.”

3605. Narrated Sa‘īd Al-Umāwī: I was with Marwān and Abū Hurairah, and heard Abū Hurairah saying, “I heard the trustworthy, truly inspired one (i.e., the Prophet) saying, ‘The destruction of my followers will be brought about by the hands of some youngsters from Quraish.’” Marwān asked, “Youngsters?” Abū Hurairah said, “If you wish, I would name them: They are the children of so-and-so and the children of so-and-so.”

3606. Narrated Ḥudhaifa bin Al-Yamān: The people used to ask Allāh’s Messenger about good, but I used to ask him about evil for fear that it might overtake me. Once, I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! We were in ignorance and in evil and Allah has bestowed upon us the present good: will there be any evil after this good?” He said, “Yes.” I asked, “Will there be good after that evil?” He said, “Yes, but it would be tainted with little evil.” I asked, “What will its Dakhan be?” He said, “There will be some people who will lead (people) according to principles other than my Sunna (legal ways). You will see their actions and disapprove of them.” I said, “Will there be any evil after that good?” He said, “Yes, there will be some people who will invite others to the gates of Hell, and whoever accepts their invitation to it, will be thrown in it (by them).” I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Describe those people to us.” He said, “They will belong to us and speak our language.” I asked, “(O Allah’s Messenger)! What do you order me to do if such a thing should take place in my life?” He said, “Adhere to the group of Muslims and their chief.” I asked, “If there is neither a group (of Muslims) nor a chief (what shall I do)?” He said, “Keep away from all those different sects, even if you had to bite (i.e., eat) the root of a tree, till you meet Allah while you are still in that state.”

3607. Narrated Hudhaifa "My companions learned (something about) good
The Day of Judgement will not be established till there is a fight—war between two groups whose claims (to religion) will be the same.

The Hour will not be established till there are about thirty liars, all of whom will be claiming to be the messengers of Allah.
in such a way that you will consider your Salāt (prayer) negligible in comparison to theirs and observe ʿSaum (fast) in such a way that you will consider your fasting (negligible in comparison) to theirs. They recite the Qurān but it does not go beyond their throats (i.e., they do not act on it) and they will desert Islam as an arrow goes out through a victim's body, so that the hunter, on looking at the arrow's blade, would see nothing on it; he would look at its Risāf and see nothing: he would look at its Nādi and see nothing, and he would look at its Qudādhā (1) and see nothing (neither flesh nor blood), for the arrow has been too fast even for the blood and excretions to smear. The sign by which they will be recognized is that among them there will be a black man, one of whose arms will resemble a woman's breast or a lump of meat moving loosely. Those people will appear when there will be differences amongst the people.” Abū Saʿīd added: I testify that I heard this narration from Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, and I testify that ‘Ali bin Abī Talib fought with such people, (2) and I was in his company. He ordered that the man (described by the Prophet ﷺ) should be looked for. The man was brought and I looked at him and noticed that he looked exactly as the Prophet ﷺ had described him.

3611.Narrated ‘Ali bin Abī Talib: I relate the narrations of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ to you for I would rather fall from the sky than attribute something to him falsely. But when I tell you

(1) (H. 3610) Risāf, Nādi and Qudādhā are the names of the different parts of an arrow.

(2) (H. 3610) This example means that those people, in spite of their efforts in the way of worshipping Allah, will gain nothing because of their insincerity.
a thing which is between you and me, then no doubt, war is guile. I heard Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “In the last days of this world there will appear some young foolish people who will use (in their claim) the best speech of all people (i.e., the Qur’ân) and they will abandon Islâm as an arrow going out through the game. Their belief will not go beyond their throats (i.e., they will have practically no belief), so wherever you meet them, kill them, for he who kills them shall get a reward on the Day of Resurrection.”

3612. Narrated Khabbâb bin Al-Aratt: We complained to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ (of the persecution inflicted on us by the infidels) while he was sitting in the shade of the Ka’bâh, leaning over his Burd (i.e., covering sheet). We said to him, “Would you seek help for us? Would you pray to Allâh for us?” He said, “Among the nations before you a (believing) man would be put in a ditch that was dug for him, and a saw would be put over his head and he would be cut into two pieces; yet that (torture) would not make him give up his religion. His body would be combed with iron combs that would remove his flesh from the bones or nerves, yet that would not make him abandon his religion. By Allâh, this religion (i.e., Islâm) will prevail till a traveller from San’â (in Yemen) to Ḥaḍramaut will fear none but Allâh, (not fear) a wolf as regards his sheep, but you (people) are hasty.”
3613. Narrated Anas bin Malik:
The Prophet noticed the absence of Thabit bin Qais. A man said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I shall bring you his news.” So, he went to him and saw him sitting in his house drooping his head (sadly). He asked Thabit, “What’s the matter?” Thabit replied, “An evil situation: A man used to raise his voice over the voice of the Prophet so all his good deeds have been annulled and he is from the people of Hell.” The Prophet then said to the man, “Go and say to Thabit: You are not from the people of Fire, but from the people of Paradise.”

3614. Narrated Al-Barā’ bin ‘Azib:
A man recited ‘Sura Al-Kahf [in his Salāt (prayer)] and in the house there was a (riding) animal which got frightened and started jumping. The man finished his Salāt (prayer) with Taslīm, but behold! A mist or a cloud hovered over him. He informed the Prophet of that and the Prophet said, “O so-and-so! Recite, for this (mist or cloud) was As-Sakīna (tranquillity—a sign of peace and reassurance along with angels) descended because of the recitation of the Qur’ān.” (See H. 5011) 3615. Narrated Al-Barã’ bin ‘Ázib: Abû Bakr came to my father who was at home and purchased a saddle from him. He said to ‘Ázib, “Tell your son to carry it with me.” So I carried it with him and my father followed us so as to take the price (of the saddle). My father said, “O Abû Bakr! Tell me what happened to you on your journey with Allâh’s Messenger (during emigration).” He said, “Yes, we travelled the whole night and also the next day till midday, when nobody could be seen on the way (because of the severe heat). Then there appeared a long rock having shade beneath it, and the sunshine had not come to it yet. So, we dismounted there and I levelled a place and covered it with an animal hide or dry grass for the Prophet to sleep on (for a while). I then said, ‘Sleep, O Allâh’s Messenger, and I will guard you.’ So, he slept and I went out to guard him. Suddenly, I saw a shepherd coming with his sheep to that rock with the same intention we had had. When he came to it, I asked (him), ‘To whom do you belong, O boy?’ He replied, ‘I belong to a man from Al-Madina or Makkah.’ I said, ‘Do your sheep have milk?’ He said, ‘Yes.’ I said, ‘Will you milk them for us?’ He said, ‘Yes.’ He caught hold of an ewe and I asked him to clean its teat from dust, hair and dirt. (The subnarrator said that he saw Al-Barã’ striking one of his hands with the other, demonstrating how the shepherd removed the dust.) The shepherd milked a little milk in a wooden container and I had a leather container which I carried for the Prophet to drink and perform the ablution from it. I went to the Prophet hating to wake him up, but when I reached there, the Prophet had already woken up, so I poured water over the middle part of the milk container, till the milk was cold. Then I said, ‘Drink, O Allah’s Messenger!’ He drank till I was pleased. Then he asked, ‘Has the time for our departure come?’ I said, ‘Yes.’ So, we departed after midday. Surāqā b. Mālik followed us and I said, ‘We have discovered, O Allah’s Messenger!’ He said, ‘Be not sad (or afraid). Surely! Allah is with us.’ The Prophet invoked evil on him (i.e., Surāqā) and so the legs of his horse sank into the earth up to its belly. (The subnarrator, Zuhair is not sure whether Ḥabīb b. ‘Abbās said, “(It sank into solid earth.”) Surāqā said, ‘I see that you have invoked evil on me. Please invoke good on me, and by Allah, I will cause those who are seeking after you to return.’ The Prophet invoked good on him and he was saved. Then, whenever he met somebody on the way, he would say, ‘I have looked for him here in vain.’ So, he caused whomever he met to return. Thus Surāqā fulfilled his promise.”

3616. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet paid a visit to a sick bedouin. The Prophet when visiting a patient used to say, “No harm will befall you, if Allah will, it will be an expiation (for your sins).” So, the Prophet said to the bedouin, “No harm will befall you, if Allah will, it will be an expiation (for your sins).” The bedouin said, “You say an expiation? No, it is but a fever that is boiling or harassing an old man, and will lead him to the grave." The Prophet ﷺ said, "Yes, then may it be as you say."

3617. Narrated Anas ﷺ: There was a Christian who embraced Islam and read Surat Al-Baqarah and Al-Hujurat, and he used to write (the revelations) for the Prophet ﷺ. Later on he reverted to Christianity again, and he used to say: "Muhammad (ﷺ) knows nothing but what I have written for him." Then Allah caused him to die, and the people buried him, but in the morning they saw that the earth had thrown his body out. They said, "This is the act of Muhammad (ﷺ) and his companions. They dug the grave of our companion and took his body out of it because he had run away from them." They again dug the grave deeply for him (and buried him), but in the morning they again saw that the earth had thrown his body out. They said, "This is an act of Muhammad (ﷺ) and his companions. They dug the grave of our companion and threw his body outside it, for he had run away from them." They dug the grave for him as deep as they could (and buried him), but in the morning they again saw that the earth had thrown his body out. So they believed that what had befallen him was not done by human beings and had to leave him thrown (on the ground).

3618. Narrated Abu Hurairah ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, "When Khosrau perishes, there will be no (more) Khosrau after him, and when Caesar perishes, there will be no more Caesar after him. By Him in Whose Hands Muḥammad's soul is, you will spend the treasures of both of them in Allāh's Cause."

3619. Narrated Jābir bin Samura: The Prophet ﷺ said, "When Khosrau perishes, there will be no more Khosrau after him, and when Caesar perishes, there will be no more Caesar after him." The Prophet ﷺ also said, "You will spend the treasures of both of them in Allāh's Cause."

3620. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Musailima Al-Kadhāb (i.e., the liar) came in the lifetime of Allāh's Messenger ﷺ with many of his people (to Al-Madīna) and said, "If Muḥammad (ﷺ) makes me his successor, I will follow him." Allāh's Messenger ﷺ went up to him with Thābit bin Qais bin Shammas; and Allāh's Messenger ﷺ was carrying a piece of a palm leaf-stalk in his hand. He stood before Musailima (and his companions) and said, "If you asked me even this piece (of a palm leaf-stalk), I would not give it to you. You cannot avoid the fate you are destined to by Allāh. If you reject Islām, Allāh will destroy you. I think that you are most probably the same person whom I have seen in the dream."
3621. (The narrator added:) Abû Hurairah told me that Allah’s Messenger said, “While I was sleeping, I saw (in a dream) two gold bracelets round my arm, and that worried me too much. Then I was instructed Divinely in my dream, to blow them off, and so I blew them off, and they flew away. I interpreted the two bracelets as symbols of two liars who would appear after me. And so one of them was Al-‘Ansî and the other was Musailima Al-Kadhdhâb from Al-Yamâma.”

3622. Narrated Abû Musa: The Prophet said, “In a dream I saw myself emigrating from Makkah to a place having plenty of date-palm (trees). I thought that it was Al-Yamâma or Hajar, but it came to be Al-Madina i.e., Yathrib. In the same dream I saw myself moving a sword and its blade got broken. It came to symbolize the defeat which the Muslims suffered from, on the Day of Uhud. I moved the sword again, and it became normal as before, and that was the symbol of the victory Allah bestowed upon Muslims and their gathering together. I saw cows in my dream, and by Allah, that was a blessing, and they symbolized the believers on the Day of Uhud. And the blessing was the good Allah bestowed upon us and the reward of true belief which Allah gave us after the day of (the battle of) Badr.”

3624. She (Fatimah bint Mس�) replied, “(The Prophet said), ‘Every year Jibril (Gabriel) used to revise the Qur’ān with me once only, but this year he has done so twice. I think this portends my death, and you will be the first of my family to follow me.’ So, I started weeping. Then he said, ‘Don’t you like to be chief of all the ladies of Paradise or chief of all the lady-believers?’ So I laughed for that.” (See H. 6286) 3625. Narrated ‘Aishah (may Allah be pleased with her): The Prophet in his fatal illness, called his daughter Fāṭima and told her a secret because of which she started weeping. Then he called her and told her another secret, and she started laughing. When I asked her about that.

3626. She (Fátima) replied, "The Prophet told me that he would die in his fatal illness, and so I wept, but then he secretly told me that from amongst his family, I would be the first to join him, and so I laughed."

3627. Narrated Sa‘īd bin Jubair about Ibn ‘Abbás: ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb used to treat Ibn ‘Abbás very favourably. ‘Abdur Raḥmān bin ‘Auf said to him, "We also have sons that are equal to him (but you are partial to him)." ‘Umar said, "It is because of his knowledge."

Then ‘Umar asked Ibn ‘Abbás about the interpretation of the Verse:

“When come the Help of Allah (to you O Muhammad) against your enemies) and the conquest (of Makkah)” (V.110:1)

Ibn ‘Abbás said, “It portended the death of Allāh’s Messenger which Allāh had informed him of.” ‘Umar said, “I do not know from this Verse but what you know.”

3628. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbás: Allāh’s Messenger in his fatal illness came out, wrapped with a sheet, and his head was wrapped with an oiled bandage. He sat on the pulpit, and after praising and glorifying Allāh, he said, “Now then, people will increase but the Ansār will decrease in number, so much so that they, compared with the people, will be just like the salt in the meals. So, if any of you should take over the authority by which he can either benefit some people or harm some others, he should accept the goodness of their good people (i.e., Ansār) and excuse the faults of their wrongdoers.” That was the last gathering which the Prophet attended.

3629. Narrated Abū Bakra: Once, the Prophet brought out Al-Hasan and took him up the pulpit along with him and said, “This son of mine is a Sayyid (i.e., chief) and I hope that Allāh will help him bring about reconciliation between two Muslim groups.”

3630. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: The Prophet had informed us of the death of Ja‘far and Zaid before the news of their death reached us, and his eyes were overflowing with tears.

3631. Narrated Jābir: (Once) the Prophet said, “Have you got carpets?” I replied, “Whence can we get carpets?” He said, “But you shall soon have carpets.” I used to say to my wife, “Remove your carpets from my sight,” but she would say, “Didn’t the Prophet tell you that you would soon have carpets?” So I would give up my request.
3632. Narrated 'Abdullâh bin Ma'sûd:

"Sa’d bin Mu’âdh came to Makkah with the intention of performing 'Umra, and stayed at the house of Umaiyya bin Khalaf Abî Şafwân, for Umaiyya himself used to stay at Sa’d’s house whenever he passed by Al-Madîna on his way to Sham. Umaiyya said to Sa’d, “Will you wait till midday when the people are (at their homes), then you may go and perform the Tawâf round the Ka’bah?”

So, while Sa’d was going around the Ka’bah, Abû Jahl came and asked, “Who is that who is performing Tawâf?” Sa’d replied, “I am Sa’d.” Abû Jahl said, “Are you circumambulating the Ka’bah safely although you have given refuge to Muḥammad and his companions?” Sa’d said, “Yes,” and they started quarrelling. Umaiyya said to Sa’d, “Don’t shout at Abû Hakam (i.e., Abû Jahl), for he is chief of the valley (of Makkah).” Sa’d then said (to Abû Jahl), “By Allâh, if you prevent me from performing the Tawâf of the Ka’bah, I will spoil your trade with Sham.” Umaiyya kept on saying to Sa’d, “Don’t raise your voice,” and kept on taking hold of him. Sa’d became furious and said (to Umaiyya), “Keep away from me, for I have heard Muḥammad saying that he will kill you.” Umaiyya said, “Will he kill me?” Sa’d said, “Yes.” Umaiyya said, “By Allâh! When Muḥammad says a thing, he never tells a lie.” Umaiyya went to his wife and said to her, “Do you know what and why he is saying?” The woman replied, “Muḥammad has said, ‘The Lord of the heavens and the earth will not say to a created thing, ‘Do this and I will prevent you from doing that.’’” my brother from Yathrib (i.e., Al-Madina) has said to me?” She said, “What has he said?” He said, “He claims that he has heard Muḥammad claiming that he will kill me.” She said, “By Allāh! Muḥammad never tells a lie.” So, when the infidels started to proceed for Badr (battle) and declared fighting (against the Muslims), his wife said to him, “Don’t you remember what your brother from Yathrib told you?” Umaiyya decided not to go but Abū Jahl said to him, “You are from the nobles of the valley (of Makkah), so you should accompany us for a day or two.” He went with them and thus Allāh got him killed.

3633. Narrated Abū ʿUthmān: I got the news that Jibril (Gabriel) came to the Prophet  while Umm Salama was present. Jibril started talking (to the Prophet  and then left). The Prophet  said to Umm Salama, “(Do you know) who it was?” (or a similar question). She said, “It was Dihya (a handsome person amongst the companions of the Prophet ).” Later on Umm Salama said, “By Allāh! I thought he was none but Dihya, till I heard the Prophet  talking about Jibril in his Khuṭba (religious talk).” (The subnarrator asked Abi ʿUthmān, “From where have you heard this narration?” He replied, “From Usāma bin Zaid.”)

[See Hadith No. 4980].

3634. Narrated ʿAbdullāh (bin ʿUmar  رضي الله عنهم) : Allāh’s Messenger  said, “I saw (in a dream) the people assembled in a gathering, and then Abū Bakr got up and drew one or two buckets of water (from a well) but there was weakness in his drawing. May Allāh forgive him. Then ‘Umar took the bucket and in his hands it turned into a very large bucket. I had never seen anyone stronger amongst the people who could draw the water as strongly as ‘Umar, till all the people drank their fill and watered their camels that knelt down there.”

(26) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

"[Those to whom We gave the Scripture (Jews and Christians)] recognise him (Muḥammad or the Ka'bah at Makkah) as they recognise their own sons. But verily, a party of them conceal the truth while they know it — [i.e., the qualities of Muḥammad which are written in the Taurāt (Torah) and the Injeel (Gospel)]. (V.2:146) 3635. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: The Jews came to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and told him that a man and a woman from amongst them had committed illegal sexual intercourse. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said to them, “What do you find in the Taurāt [Torah (Old Testament)] as regarding the legal punishment of Ar-Rajm(1) (i.e., stoning

(1) (H. 3635) Ar-Rajm: (In Islāmic law) it means to stone to death those married persons who commit the crime of illegal sexual intercourse.
to death those married persons who commit the crime of illegal sexual intercourse?"
They replied, "(But) we announce their crime and lash them." ‘Abdullah bin Salâm said, "You are telling a lie; the Taurât (Torah) contains the order of Rajm." They brought and opened the Taurât (Torah) and one of them placed his hand on the verse of Rajm and read the verses preceding and following it. ‘Abdullah bin Salâm said to him, "Lift your hand." When he lifted his hand, the verse of Rajm was written there. They said, "Muhammed (ﷺ) has told the truth; in the Taurât (Torah) there is the verse of Rajm." The Prophet ﷺ then gave the order that both of them should be stoned to death.

(‘Abdullah bin ‘Umar said, "I saw the man leaning over the woman to shelter her from the stones.")

(27) CHAPTER. The demand of Al-Mushrikûn(1) to the Prophet ﷺ to show them a miracle. The Prophet ﷺ showed them the splitting of the moon.

3636. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin Mas‘ûd: During the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ the moon was split into two parts and on that the Prophet ﷺ said, "Bear witness (to this)."

3637. Narrated Anas: that the Makkân people requested Allah’s Messenger ﷺ to show them a miracle, and so he showed

---

(1) (Ch. 27) Al-Mushrikûn: Polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ).
them the splitting of the moon.

The moon was split into two parts during the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ.

(28) CHAPTER.

3638. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās ﷺ: The moon was split into two parts during the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ.

3639. Narrated Anas ﷺ: “Once, two men from the companions of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ went out of the house of the Prophet ﷺ on a very dark night. They were accompanied by (two things) that resembled two lamps lighting the way in front of them, and when they parted, each of them was accompanied by one of those two (things) lamps till they reached their homes.

3640. Narrated Al-Mughīra bin Shu’ba: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Some people from my followers will remain victorious (and on the right path) till Allah’s Order (the Last Day) comes, and they will still be victorious.”
3641. Narrated Mu‘awiyah: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “A group of people amongst my followers will remain obedient to Allah’s Orders (i.e., following strictly the Qur’ân and the Prophet’s Sunna) and they will not be harmed by anyone who will desert them and also who will oppose them, till Allah’s Order (the Last Day) comes upon them while they are still on the right path.”

3642. Narrated ‘Urwa that the Prophet ﷺ gave him one Dinãr so as to buy a sheep for him. ‘Urwa bought two sheep for him with the money. Then he sold one of the sheep for one Dinãr, and brought one Dinãr and a sheep to the Prophet ﷺ. On that, the Prophet ﷺ invoked Allah to bless him in his deals. So, ‘Urwa used to gain (from any deal) even if he bought dust.

3643. (In another narration) ‘Urwa said, “I heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying,
“There is always goodness in the forelocks of horses (meant for Jihād) till the Day of Resurrection.” (The subnarrator added, ‘I saw 70 horses in ‘Urwa’s house.’) (Sufyān said, “The Prophet  asked ‘Urwa to buy a sheep for him as a sacrifice.”)

3644. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar  Ṭābi‘: Allah’s Messenger  said, “There is always goodness in the forelocks of horses (meant for Jihād in Allah’s Cause) till the Day of Resurrection.”

3645. Narrated Anas  Ṭābi‘: The Prophet  said, “There is always goodness in the forelocks of horses (meant for Jihād in Allah’s Cause).”

3646. Narrated Abū Hurairah  Ṭābi‘: The Prophet  said, “A horse may be kept for one of three purposes: For a man it may be a source of reward; for another it may be a means of living; and for a third it may be a burden (a source of committing sins). As for the one for whom it is a source of reward, he is the one who keeps his horse for the sake of Jihād in Allah’s Cause; he ties it with a long rope on a pasture or in a garden. So, whatever its rope allows it to eat, will be regarded as good rewardable deeds (for its owner). And if it breaks off its rope and jumps over one or two hillocks, even its dung will be considered amongst his good deeds. And if it passes by a river and drinks water from it, that will be considered as good deeds...”
(for his benefit) even if he has had no intention of watering it. A horse is a shelter for the one who keeps it so that he may earn his living honestly and takes it as a refuge to keep him from following illegal ways (of gaining money), and does not forget the rights of Allâh (i.e., paying the Zakât and allowing others to use it for Allâh’s sake). But a horse is a burden (and a source of committing sins) for him who keeps it out of pride and show-off and with the intention of harming the Muslims.”

The Prophet ﷺ was asked about donkeys. He replied, “Nothing has been revealed to me concerning them except this comprehensive Verse (which covers everything):

3647. Narrated Anas bin Malik ﷺ: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ reached Khaibar in the early morning and the people of Khaibar came out with their spades, and when they saw the Prophet ﷺ they said, “Muhammad and his army!” and returned hurriedly to take refuge in the fort. The Prophet ﷺ raised his hands and said, “Allâhu Akbar (Allâh is the Most Great)! Khaibar is ruined! When we approach near to a nation, then evil will be the morning of those who had been warned.”

3648. Narrated Abû Hurairah ﷺ: Whether their owner gets a reward for taking care of them and using them for Allâh’s Cause.
said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! I hear many narrations from you but I forget them.” He said, “Spread your covering sheet.” I spread my sheet and he moved both his hands as if scooping something and emptied them in the sheet and said, “Wrap it.” I wrapped it round my body, and since then I have never forgotten a single Hadīth (narration).

(1) CHAPTER. The virtues of the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ, and any Muslim who enjoyed the company of the Prophet ﷺ or saw him, is regarded as one of his Companions.

3649. Narrated Abū Saʿīd Al-Khūdri: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “A time will come upon the people, when a group of people will fight a holy battle and it will be said, ‘Is there amongst you anyone who has enjoyed the company of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ?’ They will say, ‘Yes.’ And so victory will be bestowed on them. Then a time will come upon the people when a group of people will fight a holy battle, and it will be said, ‘Is there amongst you anyone who has enjoyed the company of the Companions of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ?’ They will say, ‘Yes.’ And so victory will be bestowed on them. Then a time will come upon the people when a group of people will fight a holy battle, and it will be said, ‘Is there amongst you anyone who has enjoyed the company of the companions of the Companions of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ?’ They will say, ‘Yes.’ And victory will be bestowed on them.”

[See Vol. 4, Hadith No. 3594]

3650. Narrated ‘Imrān bin Ḥusayn: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The best of my followers are those living in my century (generation), then those coming after them and then those coming after the latter”. ‘Imrān added, “I do not remember whether he mentioned two or three centuries (generations) after his century (generation), then the Prophet added, 'There will come after you, people who will bear witness without being asked to give witness, and they will be dishonest and not trustworthy, and they will vow and will not fulfil their vows; and fatness will appear among them.'”

[See Vol. 3, Hadith No.2651].

3651. Narrated ‘Abdullãh: The Prophet said, “The best amongst the people are those living in my century (generation), and then those coming after them, and then those coming after the latter. Then there will come some people whose witness will precede their oaths, and their oaths will precede their witness.”(1) (Ibrahim, a subnarrator said, “We were beaten for taking oaths by saying: 'I bear witness by the Name of Allãh' or 'by the Covenant of Allãh', when we were still children.”)

[See Vol. 3, footnote of Hadith No.2652]

(2) CHAPTER. The virtues of the emigrants (i.e., Muhãjirûn) and their merits.

Among them is Abû Bakr ‘Abdullãh bin Abû Quhãfa At-Taimi.

The Statement of Allãh: “(And there is also a share in this booty) for the poor emigrants who were expelled from their homes and their property, seeking bounties from Allãh and to please Him. And helping Allãh (i.e. helping His religion — Islamic Monothesim), and His Messenger (Muhammad) such are indeed the truthful (to what they say).” (V.59:8)

---

(1) (H. 3651) They will be ready to bear witness or take oaths (falsely) readily as required.
And also the Statement of Allāh، ﷺ:

“If you help him (Muhammad ﷺ) not (it does not matter), for Allāh did indeed help him... (till the end of the Verse).” (V.9:40)

‘Āishah، ﷺ، Aba Sa‘īd and Ibn ‘Abbās رضي الله عنهم said, “Abū Bakr was with the Prophet ﷺ in the cave (of the mountain called Ath-Thūr at Makkah).”

3652. Narrated Al-Barā’ ﷺ: Abū Bakr ﷺ bought a (camel) saddle from ‘Azīb for thirteen Dirham. Abū Bakr said to ‘Azīb, “Tell Al-Barā’ to carry the saddle for me.” ‘Azīb said, “No, unless you relate to me what happened to you and Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ when you left Makkah while Al-Mushrikūn were in search of you.” Abū Bakr said, “We left Makkah and we travelled continuously for that night and the following day till it was midday. I looked (around) searching for shade to take as shelter, and suddenly I came across a rock, and found a little shade there. So I cleaned the place and spread a bed for the Prophet ﷺ in the shade and said to him, ‘Lie down, O Allāh’s Messenger.’ So the Prophet ﷺ lay down and I went out, looking around to see if there was any person pursuing us. Suddenly I saw a shepherd driving his sheep towards the rock, seeking what we had already sought from it. I asked him, ‘To whom do you belong, O boy?’ He said, ‘I belong to a man from Quraish.’ He named the man and I recognized him. I asked him, ‘Is there any milk with your sheep?’ He said, ‘Yes.’ I said, ‘Will you then milk (some) for us?’ He said, ‘Yes.’ Then I asked him to tie the legs of one of the ewe and clean its udder, and then ordered him to clean his hands from dust. Then the shepherd cleaned his hands by striking his hands against one another. After doing so, he milked a small amount of milk. I used to... keep for Allâh’s Messenger a leather water-container, the mouth of which was covered with a piece of cloth. I poured water on the milk container till its lower part was cold. Then I took the milk to the Prophet, whom I found awake. I said to him, ‘Drink, O Allâh’s Messenger.’ So he drank till I became pleased. Then I said, ‘It is time for us to move, O Allâh’s Messenger!’ He said, ‘Yes.’ So we set out while the people (i.e., Quraish Mushrikûn) were searching for us, but none found us except Surâqa bin Mâlik bin Ju’shum who was riding his horse. I said, ‘These are our pursuers who have found us, O Allâh’s Messenger!’ He said, ‘Do not be sad (or afraid), surely, Allâh is with us.’”

[See Vol. 4, Hadîth No.3615].

3653. Narrated Abû Bakr: I said to the Prophet while I was in the cave, “If any of them should look under his feet, he would see us.” He said, “O Abû Bakr! What do you think of two (persons) the third of whom is Allâh?”
(3) CHAPTER. The saying of the Prophet ﷺ, “Close the gates (in the Mosque), except the gate of Abū Bakr.”

This is narrated by Ibn ‘Abbas on the authority of the Prophet ﷺ.

3654. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ addressed the people saying, “Allāh gave a choice to one of (His) slave to choose this world or what is with Him. The slave chose what is with Allāh.” Abū Bakr wept, and we were astonished at his weeping caused by what the Prophet ﷺ mentioned as to a slave (of Allāh) who had been offered a choice, (we learned later on) that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ himself was the person who was given the choice, and that Abū Bakr knew more than us. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ added, “Abū Bakr has favoured me much with his company and property (wealth) more than anybody else. If I were to take a Khallī(1) other than my Lord, I would have taken Abū Bakr, but the Islamic brotherhood and friendship is sufficient. Close all the gates in the mosque except the gate of Abū Bakr.”

[See Vol. 1, Hadith No. 466]

(4) CHAPTER. The merits of Abū Bakr as next to those of the Prophet ﷺ (in excellence).

3655. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: We used to compare the people as to who was better during the lifetime of Allāh’s

(1) (H. 3654) Khalīl: This word in Arabic means the one whose love is mixed with one’s soul, it is superior than a friend or a beloved. The Prophet ﷺ had only one Khalīl i.e., Allāh but he had many friends.
62 - THE VIRTUES OF THE COMpanIONS OF THE PROPHET ﷺ

We used to regard Abû Bakr as the best, then 'Umar, and then 'Uthmân (رضي الله عنهم).

(5) CHAPTER. The saying of the Prophet ﷺ: “If I were to take a Khalil...”.

This is said by Abû Sa'id.

3656. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “If I were to take a Khalil, I would have taken Abû Bakr, but he is my brother and my companion (in Islâm).”

3657. Narrated Ayyûb: The Prophet ﷺ said, “If I were to take a Khalil, I would have taken him (i.e., Abu Bakr) as a Khalil, but the Islâmic brotherhood is better.”

Narrated Ayyûb as above.

3658. Narrated 'Abdullâh bin Abû Mulaika: The people of Kûfa sent a letter to Ibn Az-Zubair, asking about (the inheritance of) (paternal) grandfather. He replied that the right of the inheritance of (paternal) grandfather is the same as that of father if the father is dead, and added, "Allâh's Messenger ﷺ said, 'If I were to take..."
a Khalil from this nation, I would have taken him (i.e., Abū Bakr)’.”

3659. Narrated Jubair bin Mut‘im: A woman came to the Prophet who ordered her to return to him again. She said, “What if I came and did not find you?” as if she wanted to say, “If I found you dead?” The Prophet said, “If you should not find me, go to Abū Bakr.”

3660. Narrated ‘Ammār: I saw Allah’s Messenger and there was none with him but five slaves, two women and Abū Bakr (i.e., those were the only converts to Islam then).

3661. Narrated Abū Ad-Dardā': While I was sitting with the Prophet, Abū Bakr came, lifting up one corner of his garment uncovering his knee. The Prophet said, “Your companion has had a quarrel.” Abū Bakr greeted (the Prophet) and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! There was something (i.e., quarrel) between me and the son of Al-Khattāb. I talked to him harshly and then regretted that, and requested him to forgive me, but he refused. This is why I have come to you.” The Prophet said thrice, “O Abū Bakr! May Allāh forgive you.” In the meanwhile,
Umar regretted (his refusal of Abu Bakr’s excuse) and went to Abu Bakr’s house and asked if Abu Bakr was there. They replied in the negative. So he came to the Prophet ﷺ and greeted him, but signs of displeasure appeared on the face of the Prophet ﷺ till Abu Bakr pitted (Umar), so he knelt and said twice, “O Allah’s Messenger! By Allah! I was more unjust to him (than he was to me).”

The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allah sent me (as a Prophet) to you (people) but you said (to me), ‘You are telling a lie,’ while Abu Bakr (believed in me and) said (to the people), ‘He has said the truth,’ and consoled me with himself and his money.” He then said twice, “Won’t you then give up harming my companion?” After that nobody harmed Abu Bakr.

3663. Narrated Abu Hurairah: I heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “While a shepherd was amongst his sheep, a wolf attacked them and took away one sheep. When the shepherd chased the wolf, the wolf turned towards him and said, ‘Who will be its guard on the day of wild animals when nobody except I will be its shepherd’. (1)

And while a man was driving a cow with a load on it, it turned towards him and spoke to him saying, 'I have not been created for this purpose (i.e., to carry burden), but for ploughing.' The people said, "Glorified be Allah." The Prophet (ﷺ) said, "But I believe in it and so does Abū Bakr and ‘Umar (رضي الله عنهما)."

3664. Narrated Abū Hurairah (رضي الله عنه): I heard Allah's Messenger (ﷺ) saying, "While I was sleeping, I saw myself standing at a well, on it there was a bucket. I drew water from

(1) (H. 3663) It has been written that a wolf also spoke to a shepherd during the Prophet's lifetime near Al-Madina as narrated in Musnad Imām Ahmad in the Musnad of Abu Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: Narrated Abu Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī (رضي الله عنه): (While a shepherd was in his herd of sheep), suddenly a wolf attacked a sheep and took it away, the shepherd chased the wolf and took back the sheep, the wolf sat on its tail and addressed the shepherd saying: "Be afraid of Allah, you have taken the provision from me which Allah gave me". The shepherd said: "What an amazing thing! A wolf sitting on its tail speaks to me in the language of a human being." The wolf said: "Shall I tell you something more amazing than this? There is Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) in Yathrib (Al-Madina) informing the people about the news of the past." Then the shepherd (after hearing that) proceeded (towards Al-Madina) driving his sheep till he entered Al-Madina, cornered his sheep in a place, and came to Allah's Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) and informed the whole story. Allah's Messenger ordered for the proclamation of a congregational prayer (صلاة جامعة) then he came out and asked the shepherd to inform the people (about his story) and he informed them. Then Allah's Messenger said: "He (the shepherd) has spoken the truth. By Him (Allah) in Whose Hands my soul is, the Day of Resurrection will not be established till beasts of prey (ṣay) speak to the human beings, and the stick lash and the shoe-laces of a person speak to him and his thigh informs him about his family as to what happened to them after him.

[Musnad Imām Ahmad, in the Musnad of Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī]
the well as much as Allâh wished. Then Ibn Abî Qûfâ (i.e., Abû Bakr) took the bucket from me and brought out one or two buckets (of water) and there was weakness in his drawing the water. May Allâh forgive him, his weakness. Then the bucket turned into a very big one and Ibn Al-Khaṭṭâb took it over and I had never seen such a strong person amongst the people as him in performing such hard work, till the people drank to their satisfaction and watered their camels that knelt down there.”

[See Vol. 9, Hadîth No.7019]

3665. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar that Allâh’s Messenger  said, “Allâh will not look on the Day of Judgement at him who drags his robe (behind him) out of conceit (pride, etc.).”

Abû Bakr said, “One side of my robe slacks down unless I get very cautious about it.” Allâh’s Messenger  said, “But you do not do out of conceit (with pride).”

[See Vol. 7, Hadîth No.5784]

3666. Narrated Abû Hurairah: I heard Allâh’s Messenger  saying, “Anybody who spends two things in Allâh’s Cause will be called from all the gates of Paradise, ‘O Allâh’s slave! This is good.’ He who is amongst those who offer Salât (prayer) will be called from the gate of the Salât (prayers) (in Paradise) and he who is from the people of Jihād, will be called from the gate of Jihād, and he who is from those who give As-Sādaqa (charity, Zakāt, etc.) will be called from the gate of As-Sādaqa, and he who is amongst those who observe Sa‘īm (fast) will be called from the gate of As-Siyām the gate of Ar-Rahān.” Abū Bakr said, “He who is called from all those gates will need nothing.” He added, “Will anyone be called from all those gates, O Allah’s Messenger?” He (ﷺ) said, “Yes, and I hope you will be among those, O Abū Bakr.”

3667. Narrated ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ died while Abū Bakr was at a place called As-Sunb (Al-‘Āliya), ‘Umar stood up and said, “By Allah! Allah’s Messenger ﷺ is not dead!” ‘Umar (later on) said, “By Allah! Nothing occurred to my mind except that.” He said, “Verily! Allah will resurrect him and he will cut the hands and legs of some men.” Then Abū Bakr came and uncovered the face of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, kissed him and said, “Let my mother and father be sacrificed for you, (O Allah’s Messenger), you are good (in both states), alive or dead. By Allah in Whose Hands my soul is, Allah will never make you taste death twice.” Then he went out and said, “O oath-taker! Don’t be hasty.” When Abū Bakr spoke, ‘Umar sat down.
Abu Bakr praised and glorified Allah and said, “No doubt! Whoever worshipped Muhammad (ﷺ), then Muhammad is dead, but whoever worshipped Allah, then Allah is Alive and shall never die.” Then he recited Allah’s Statement:

“Verily, you (O Muhammad) will die, and verily, they (too) will die.” (V.39:30)

He also recited: “Muhammad (ﷺ) is no more than a Messenger, and indeed (many) Messengers have passed away before him. If he dies or is killed, will you then turn back on your heels (as disbelievers)? And he who turns back on his heels, not the least harm will he do to Allah, and Allah will give reward to those who are grateful.” (V.3:144)

The people wept loudly, and the Ansâr had assembled with Sa’d bin ‘Ubâda in the shed of Bani Sâ’ida. They said (to the emigrants), “There should be one ‘Amir (ruler, leader etc.) from us and one from you.” Then Abû Bakr, ‘Umar bin Al-Khattâb and Abû ‘Ubaida bin Al-Jarrâh went to them. ‘Umar wanted to speak but Abû Bakr stopped him. ‘Umar later on used to say, “By Allah, I intended only to say something that appealed to me and I was afraid that Abû Bakr would not speak so well.” Then Abû Bakr spoke and his speech was very eloquent. He said in his statement, “We are the rulers and you (Ansâr) are the ministers”. Hubâb bin Al-Mundhir said, “No, by Allah we won’t accept this. But there must be a ruler from us and a ruler from you.” Abû Bakr said, “No, we will be the rulers and you will be the... ministers, for they (i.e., Quraish) are the best family amongst the Arabs and of best origin. So you should elect either 'Umar or Abū 'Ubaida bin Al-Jarrāh as your ruler.' ‘Umar said (to Abū Bakr), “No, but we elect you, for you are our chief and the best amongst us and the most beloved from all of us to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ.” So, ‘Umar took Abū Bakr’s hand and gave the Bai’a (pledge), and the people too gave the Bai’a to Abū Bakr. Someone said, “You have killed Sa’d bin Ubāda.” ‘Umar said, “Allah has killed him.”

3669. ‘Āishah said (in another narration): “When the Prophet ﷺ was on his death-bed) he looked up and said thrice, ‘(Amongst) the highest companions’.” (See the Qur’an V.4:69). ‘Āishah said, “Allah benefited the people by their (two) speeches. ‘Umar frightened the people, some of whom were hypocrites whom Allāh caused to abandon Islam because of ‘Umar’s speech.

3670. Then Abū Bakr led the people to true guidance and acquainted them with the right path that they were to follow, so they went out reciting: ‘Muḥammad ﷺ is no more than a Messenger and indeed many Messengers have passed away before him... (up to)... those who are grateful.” (V.3:144)

'Uthmān, so I said, “Then you?” He said, “I am only (an ordinary) man from amongst the Muslims.” [See Fath Al-Bāri] 3672. Narrated ‘Aishah: We went out with Allāh’s Messenger on one of his journeys till we reached Al-Baidā’ or Dhāt-ul-Jaish, where a necklace of mine was broken (and lost). Allāh’s Messenger stayed there to search for it and the people too stopped with him. There was no water at that place and they had no water with them. So, they went to Abū Bakr and said, “Don’t you see what ‘Aishah has done? She has made Allāh’s Messenger stop where there is no water and they have no water with them.” Abū Bakr came while Allāh’s Messenger was sleeping with his head on my thigh, and said, “You have detained Allāh’s Messenger and the people stop where there is no water and they have no water.” He then admonished me and said what Allāh wished him to say and pinched me at my flanks with his hand. Nothing prevented me from moving (because of pain) but the position of Allāh’s Messenger on my thigh. Allāh’s Messenger woke up when dawn broke and there was no water. Then Allāh revealed the Divine Verses of Tayammum, and the people performed Tayammum. Usaid bin Al-Huḍair said, “O family of Abū Bakr! This is not the first blessings of yours.” Then the camel on which I was riding was caused to move from its place and the necklace was found beneath it.

[See Vol. 1, Hadith No. 334]
62 - THE VIRTUES OF THE COMPANIONS OF THE PROPHET ﷺ

3673. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd ʿAzzā: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Do not abuse my Companions, for if anyone of you spent gold equal to Uḥud (mountain) (in Allāh’s Cause) it would not be equal to a Mudd (two-third of a kilogram) or even a half Mudd spent by one of them.”

3674. Narrated Abū Mūsā Al-Ash‘ārī: I performed ablution in my house and then went out and said, “Today I shall stick to (or remain constantly with) Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and stay with him all this day of mine (in his service).” I went to the mosque and asked about the Prophet ﷺ. They said, “He had gone in this direction.” So I followed his way, asking about him till he entered a place called Bi’r Arīs. I sat at its gate that was made of date-palm leaves till the Prophet ﷺ finished answering the call of nature and performed ablution. Then I went up to him to see him sitting at the well of Arīs at the middle of its edge with his legs uncovered, hanging in the well. I greeted him and went back and sat at the gate. I said, “Today I will be the gatekeeper of the

(1) (H. 3673) The Prophet’s Companions were so pious and faithful that the reward they desired for spending a little amount would be greater than the reward given to others for spending in abundance.
Prophet ﷺ.” Abû Bakr came and pushed the gate. I asked, “Who is it?” He said, “Abu Bakr.” I told him to wait, went in and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Abû Bakr asks the permission to enter.” He said, “Admit him and give him the glad tidings that he will enter Paradise.” So I went out and said to Abû Bakr, “Come in, and Allah’s Messenger ﷺ gives you the glad tidings that you will enter Paradise.” Abû Bakr entered and sat on the right side of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ on the built edge of the well and hung his legs in the well as the Prophet ﷺ did, and uncovered his legs. I then returned and sat (at the gate). I had left my brother performing ablution and he intended to follow me. So I said (to myself), “If Allah wants good for so-and-so (i.e., my brother), He will bring him here.” Suddenly somebody moved the door. I asked, “Who is it?” He said, “‘Umar bin Al-Khattãb.” I asked him to wait, went to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, greeted him and said, “‘Umar bin Al-Khattãb asks the permission to enter.” He said, “Admit him, and give him the glad tidings that he will enter Paradise.” I went to ‘Umar and said, “Come in, and Allah’s Messenger ﷺ gives you glad tidings that you will enter Paradise.” So, he entered and sat beside Allah’s Messenger ﷺ on the built edge of the well on the left side and hung his legs in the well. I returned and sat (at the gate) and said, (to myself), “If Allah wants good for so-and-so, He will bring him here.” Somebody came and moved the door. I asked “Who is it?” He replied, “‘Uthmãn bin ‘Affãn.” I asked him to wait and went to the Prophet ﷺ and informed him. He said, “Admit him, and give him the glad tidings of entering Paradise after a calamity that will befall him.” So, I went up to him and said to him, “Come in, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ gives you the glad tidings of entering Paradise after a calamity that will befall you.” ‘Uthmān then came in and found that the built edge of the well was occupied, so he sat opposite to the Prophet on the other side. Sa‘īd bin Al-Musaiyab said, “I interpret this (narration) in terms of their graves.”

3675. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet once climbed the mountain of Uhud with Abū Bakr, ‘Umar and ‘Uthmān. The mountain shook with them. The Prophet said (to the mountain), “Be firm, O Ubud! For on you there are no more than a Prophet, a Ṣiddiq and two martyrs.”

3676. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: Allāh’s Messenger said, “While (in a dream), I was standing by a well, drawing water from it. Abū Bakr and ‘Umar came to me. Abū Bakr took the bucket (from me) and drew one or two buckets of water, and there was some weakness in his drawing. May Allāh forgive him. Then Ibn Al-Khāṭṭāb took the bucket from Abū Bakr, and the bucket turned into a very large one in his hands. I had never seen such a strong person amongst the people as him in performing such hard work. He drew so much water that the people drank to their satisfaction and watered their camels that knelt down there." (Wahb, a sub-narrator said, "till their camels drank and knelt down.")

3677. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: While I was standing amongst the people who were invoking Allāh for ‘Umar bin Al-Khattāb who was lying (dead) on his bed, a man behind me rested his elbows on my shoulder and said, "(O ‘Umar!) May Allāh bestow His Mercy on you. I always hoped that Allāh will keep you with your two companions, for I often heard Allāh’s Messenger saying, ‘I, Abū Bakr and ‘Umar were (somewhere). I, Abū Bakr and ‘Umar did (something). I, Abū Bakr and ‘Umar set out.’ So I hoped that Allāh will keep you with both of them.” I turned back to see that the speaker was Ali bin ‘Abi Ṭālib.

3678. Narrated ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair: I asked ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr, “What was the worst thing Al-Mushrikūn(1) did to Allāh’s Messenger?” He said, “I saw ‘Uqba bin..."
Abi Mu’ait coming to the Prophet while he was offering Salat (prayer). ‘Uqba put his sheet round the Prophet’s neck and squeezed it very severely. Abū Bakr came and pulled ‘Uqba away from the Prophet and said, “Do you intend to kill a man just because he says: ‘My Lord is Allah, and he has brought forth to you the Evident Signs from your Lord?’”

(6) CHAPTER. The merits of ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb Abi Ḥafṣ Al-Qurashi Al-‘Adawi

(1) (H. 3679) Ghairā: This Arabic word covers a wide meaning including self-respect, jealousy as regard women and it is a feeling of fury with great anger when one’s honour and prestige is challenged or injured.
620. Narrated Abū Hurairah: While we were with Allāh’s Messenger, he said, “While I was sleeping, I saw myself in Paradise, and suddenly I saw a woman performing ablution beside a palace. I asked, ‘For whom is this palace?’ They replied, ‘It is for ‘Umar.’ Then I remembered ‘Umar’s Ghaïra (self-respect) and went away quickly.’ ‘Umar wept and said, ‘O Allāh’s Messenger! How dare I think of my Ghaïra being offended by you?’

621. Narrated Hāmza’s father: Allāh’s Messenger said, “While I was sleeping, I saw myself drinking (milk), and I was so contented that I noticed its (the milk) wetness coming out of my nails. Then I gave (the milk) to ‘Umar.” They (i.e., the Companions of the Prophet) asked, “What have you interpreted (about the dream)?” He said, “It is (religious) knowledge.”

622. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: The Prophet said, “In a dream I saw myself drawing water from a well with a bucket. Then Abū Bakr came and drew a bucket or two and there was some weakness in his drawing. May Allāh forgive him. Then ‘Umar bin Al-Khattāb came and the bucket turned into a very large one in his hands. I had never seen such a strong person as him in doing such hard work. He drew so much water that the people drank to their satisfaction and watered their camels that knelt down there.

3683. Narrated Sa’d bin Abi Waqqās: ‘Umar bin Al-Khattāb asked permission of Allah’s Messenger to see him while some Quraishī women were sitting with him, talking to him and asking him for more expenses, raising their voices above the voice of Allah’s Messenger. When ‘Umar asked for the permission to enter, the women quickly put on their veils. Allah’s Messenger allowed him to enter and ‘Umar came in while Allah’s Messenger was smiling. ‘Umar said, “O Allah’s Messenger! May Allah always keep you smiling.” The Prophet said, “These women who have been here, roused my wonder, for as soon as they heard your voice, they quickly put on their veils.” ‘Umar said, “O Allah’s Messenger! You have more right to be feared by them than I.” Then ‘Umar addressed the women saying, “O enemies of yourselves! You fear me more than you fear Allah’s Messenger?” They replied, “Yes, for you are harsher and stern than Allah’s Messenger.” Then Allah’s Messenger said, “O Ibn Al-Khattāb! By Him in Whose Hands my soul is! Never does Satan lead you going on a way, but he takes one away other than yours.”
3684. Narrated ‘Abdullãh: We have been powerful since ‘Umar embraced Islãm.

3686. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet ascended the mountain of Uhud and he was accompanied by Abu Bakr, Umar and Uthman. The mountain shook beneath them. The Prophet struck it with his foot and said, "O Uhud! Be firm, for on you there is none but a Prophet, a Siddiq and two martyrs."

3687. Narrated Aslam: Ibn Umar asked me about some matters concerning Umar. He said, "Since Allah's Messenger died, I have never seen anybody more serious, hard working and generous than Umar bin Al-Khattab (till the end of his life)."

3688. Narrated Anas: A man asked the Prophet about the Hour (i.e., Day of Judgement) saying, "When will the Hour be?" The Prophet said, "What have you prepared for it?" The man said, "Nothing, except that I love Allah and His Messenger." The Prophet said, "You will be with those whom you love." We had never been so glad as we were on hearing that... saying of the Prophet ﷺ, i.e., “You will be with those whom you love.” Hence, I love the Prophet ﷺ, Abū Bakr and ‘Umar, and I hope that I will be with them because of my love for them though my deeds are not similar to theirs.

3689. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Among the nations (who lived) before you there were Muhaddathūn (people who were inspired, though they were not Prophets). And if there is any of such a person amongst my followers, it is ‘Umar.”

Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Among the nation (who lived) before you from Bani Isrā‘il, there were men who used to be inspired with guidance, though they were not Prophets, and if there is any of such persons amongst my followers, it is ‘Umar.”

3690. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “While a shepherd was amongst his sheep, a wolf attacked them and took away one sheep. The shepherd chased it and got that sheep freed from the wolf. The wolf turned towards the shepherd and said, ‘Who will be its guard on the day of wild animals when it will have no shepherd except I?’” The people said, "Glorified be Allah." The Prophet ﷺ said, "But I believe in it and so do Abū Bakr and 'Umar," although Abū Bakr and 'Umar were not present there (at the place of the event). (1) (See H. 2324, 3471 and 3663)

3691. Narrated Abū Sa'id Al-Khudri ﷺ: I heard Allah's Messenger ﷺ saying, "While I was sleeping, (some) people were displayed before me (in a dream). They were wearing shirts, some of which were merely covering their (chests), and some were a bit longer. Then there passed before me 'Umar and his shirt was so long that he was dragging it." They asked, "What have you interpreted it, O Allah's Messenger?" He said, "Religion."

(1) (H. 3690) It has been written that a wolf also spoke to a shepherd during the Prophet's lifetime near Al-Madina as narrated in Musnad Imām Ahmad in the Musnad of Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri ﷺ (Vol. 3): Narrated Abu Sa'id Al-Khudri ﷺ: (While a shepherd was in his herd of sheep), suddenly a wolf attacked a sheep and took it away, the shepherd chased the wolf and took back the sheep, the wolf sat on its tail and addressed the shepherd saying: "Be afraid of Allah, you have taken the provision from me which Allah gave me". The shepherd said: "What an amazing thing! A wolf sitting on its tail speaks to me in the language of a human being." The wolf said: "Shall I tell you something more amazing than this? There is Muhammad, the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) in Yathrib (Al-Madina) informing the people about the news of the past." Then the shepherd (after hearing that) proceeded (towards Al-Madina) driving his sheep till he entered Al-Madina, cornered his sheep in a place, and came to Allah's Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) and informed the whole story. Allah's Messenger ﷺ ordered for the proclamation of a congregational prayer (صلاة جامعة), then he ﷺ came out and asked the shepherd to inform the people (about his story) and he informed them. Then Allah's Messenger said: "He (the shepherd) has spoken the truth. By Him (Allah) in Whose Hand the shoe-laces of a person speak to him and his thigh informs him about his family as to what happened to them after him." (Musnad of Ahmad, Musnad Abi Sa'id Al-Khudri).
3692. Narrated Al-Miswar bin Makhrama: When 'Umar was stabbed, he showed signs of agony. Ibn 'Abbās, as if intending to encourage 'Umar, said to him, "O chief of the believers! Never mind what has happened to you, you have been in the company of Allah's Messenger and you kept good relations with him and you parted with him (i.e., he died) while he was pleased with you. Then you were in the company of Abū Bakr and kept good relations with him and you parted with him (i.e., he died) while he was pleased with you. Then you were in the company of the Muslims, and you kept good relations with them, and if you leave them, you will leave them while they are pleased with you." 'Umar said, (to Ibn 'Abbās), "As for what you have said about the company of Allah's Messenger and his being pleased with me, it is a favour, Allah did to me; and as for what you have said about the company of Abū Bakr and his being pleased with me, it is a favour, Allah did to me; and concerning my impatience which you see, is because of you and your companions. By Allah! If (at all) I had gold equal to the earth (quantity), I would have ransomed myself with it from the punishment of Allah before I meet Him."

[راجع: 37]
3693. Narrated Êbû Mûsa: While I was with the Prophet in one of the gardens of Al-Madina, a man came and asked me to open the gate. The Prophet said to me, “Open the gate for him and give him the glad tidings that he will enter Paradise.” I opened the gate for him, and behold! It was Abû Bakr. I informed him of the glad tidings the Prophet had said, and he praised and thanked Allah. Then another man came and asked me to open the gate. The Prophet said to me, “Open (the gate) and give him the glad tidings of entering Paradise.” I opened (the gate) for him, and behold! It was ‘Umar. I informed him of what the Prophet had said, and he praised and thanked Allah. Then another man came and asked me to open the gate. The Prophet said to me, “Open (the gate) for him and inform him of the glad tidings of entering Paradise with a calamity which will befall him.” Behold! It was ‘Uthmân. I informed him of what Allah’s Messenger had said. He praised and thanked Allah and said, “It is Allah Whose Help I seek.”

3694. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin Hishâm: We were with the Prophet while he was holding ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭâb by the hand.

(7) CHAPTER. The virtues of ‘Uthmân bin ‘Affân Abî ‘Amr Al-Qurashi.

The Prophet said, “He who digs the well of Rûma will have Paradise.” ‘Uthmân dug it. He also said, “He who equips the army of Al-'Usra (i.e., Ghazwã of Tabûk) will have Paradise.” ‘Uthmãn equipped it.

3695. Narrated Abû Músâ: The Prophet entered a garden and ordered me to guard its gate. A man came and asked permission to enter. The Prophet said, “Admit him and give him the glad tidings of entering Paradise.” Behold! It was Abû Bakr. Another man came and asked the permission to enter. The Prophet said, “Admit him and give him the glad tidings of entering Paradise.” Behold! It was ‘Umar. Then another man came, asking the permission to enter. The Prophet kept silent for a short while and then said, “Admit him and give him the glad tidings of entering Paradise with a calamity which will befall him.” Behold! It was ‘Uthmãn bin ‘Affãn. (‘Asim, in another narration said that the Prophet was sitting in a place where there was water, and he was uncovering both his knees or his knee, and when ‘Uthmãn entered, he covered them).

3696. Narrated ‘Ubaydullãh bin ‘Adî bin Al-Khiyãr: Al-Miswar bin Makhrama and ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin Al-Aswad bin ‘Abd Yaghþúth said (to me), “What forbids you to talk to ‘Uthmãn about his brother Al-Walid because people have talked much about him?” So, I went to ‘Uthmãn and when he went out for Salât (prayer) I said (to him), “I have something to say to you and it is a piece of advice for you.” ‘Uthmān said, “O man, from you.” (Ma’mar said: I see that he said, “I seek refuge with Allāh from you.”) So I left him and went to them. Then the messenger of ‘Uthmān came and I went to him (i.e., ‘Uthmān), ‘Uthmān asked, “What is your advice?” I replied, “Allāh sent Muḥammad ﷺ with the Truth, and revealed the Divine Book (i.e., the Qur’ān) to him, and you were amongst those who followed Allāh and His Messenger, and you participated in the two emigrations (to Ethiopia and to Al-Madīna) and enjoyed the company of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and saw his way. No doubt, the people are talking much about Al-Walīd.” ‘Uthmān said, “Did you receive your knowledge directly from Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ?” I said, “No, but his knowledge did reach me and it reached (even) to a virgin in her seclusion.” ‘Uthmān said, “Amma Ba’du” (then after), Allāh sent Muḥammad ﷺ with the Truth, and I was amongst those who followed Allāh and His Messenger and I believed in whatever he (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ) was sent with, and participated in two emigrations, as you have said, and I enjoyed the company of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and gave the Bā‘a (pledge) to him. By Allāh! I never disobeyed him, nor did I cheat him till Allāh took him unto Him. Then I treated Abū Bakr and then ‘Umar similarly and then I was made caliph. So, don’t I have rights similar to theirs?” I said, “Yes.” He said, “Then what are these talks reaching me from you people? Now, concerning what you mentioned about the question of Al-Walīd, if Allah will, I shall deal with him according to what is right.” Then he called ‘Ali and ordered him to flog him, and ‘Ali flogged him (i.e., Al-Walīd) eighty lashes.
3697. Narrated Anas: Allah’s Messenger ascended the (mountain) of Uhud with Abu Bakr, ‘Umar and ‘Uthmân and it shook. Allah’s Messenger said, “Be calm, O Uhud!” I think he struck it with his foot and added, “There is none on you but a Prophet, a Siddiq and two martyrs.” (The two martyrs were ‘Umar and ‘Uthmân) (See Hadith No.3675)

3698. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: During the lifetime of the Prophet we considered nobody as equal to Abu Bakr and then ‘Umar and then ‘Uthmân (coming next to him in superiority), and then we used not to differentiate between the Companions of the Prophet.

3699. Narrated ‘Uthmân, the son of Mauhab: An Egyptian who came and performed the Hajj (pilgrimage) to the House (Ka‘bah at Makkah) saw some people sitting. He enquired, “Who are these people?” Somebody said, “They are the Quraish.” He said, “Who is the old man sitting amongst them?” The people replied, “He is ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar.” He said, “O Ibn 'Umar! I want to ask you about something; please tell me about it. Do you know that 'Uthmân fled away on the day (of the battle) of Uḥud?” Ibn 'Umar said, “Yes.” The (Egyptian) man said, “Do you know that 'Uthmân was absent on the day (of the battle) of Badr and did not join it?” Ibn 'Umar said, “Yes.” The man said, “Do you know that he failed to attend Ar-Ridwân Pledge and did not witness it (i.e., Hudaibiya Pledge)?” Ibn 'Umar said, “Yes.” The man said, “Allâhu Akbar!” Ibn 'Umar said, “Let me explain to you (all these three things). As for his flight on the day of Uḥud, I testify that Allah has excused him and forgiven him; and as for his absence from the (battle of) Badr, it was due to the fact that the daughter of Allah’s Messenger was his wife and she was sick then, Allah’s Messenger would have sent him instead of him. No doubt, Allah’s Messenger had sent him, and the incident of Ar-Ridwân Pledge happened after ‘Uthmân had gone to Makkah. Allah’s Messenger held out his right hand saying, ‘This is ‘Uthmân’s hand.’ He stroke his (other) hand with it saying, ‘This (pledge) is on behalf of ‘Uthmân.’” Then Ibn 'Umar said to the man, “Bear (these) excuses in mind with you.”

Narrated Anas: Allah’s Messenger ascended the (mountain) of Uḥud with Abû Bakr, ‘Umar and ‘Uthmân

(1) (H. 3699) Ibn ‘Umar agreed that ‘Uthmân had been absent in these three cases referred to by the Egyptian, but at the same time he defended him and proved that ‘Uthmân was no longer to blame for that.
and it shook. Allah's Messenger said, "Be calm, O Uhud!" I think he struck it with his foot and added, "There is none on you but a Prophet, a Siddiq, and two martyrs."

(8) CHAPTER. The story of the Bai'a (pledge) (after 'Umar) and the unanimous election of 'Uthmân bin 'Affân as a caliph.

3700. Narrated 'Amr bin Maimûn: I saw 'Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb a few days before he was stabbed in Al-Madîna. He was standing with Hudhaifa bin Al-Yamân and 'Uthmân bin Hunaif to whom he said, "What have you done? Do you think that you have imposed more taxation on the land of As-Swad (i.e., 'Iraq) than it can bear?" They replied, "We have imposed on it what it can bear because of its great yield." 'Umar again said, "Check whether you have imposed on the land what it can not bear." They said, "No, (we haven’t)." 'Umar added, "If Allah should keep me alive I will let the widows of 'Iraq need no men to support them after me." But only four days had elapsed when he was stabbed (to death). The day he was stabbed, I was standing and there was nobody between me and him (i.e., 'Umar) except 'Ahdûlâh bin 'Abbâs. Whenever 'Umar passed between the two rows, he would say, "Stand in straight lines." When he saw no defect (in the rows), he would go forward and start the Salāt (prayer) with Takbîr. He would recite Surat Yusuf or An-Nâl or the like in the first Rak'a so that the people may have the time to join the Salāt (prayer). As soon as he said Takbîr, I heard him saying, "The dog has killed or eaten me," at the time he (i.e., the murderer) stabbed him. A non-Arab infidel proceeded on, carrying a double-edged knife and stabbing all the persons he passed by on the right and left (till) he stabbed thirteen persons out of whom seven died. When one of the Muslims saw that, he threw a cloak on him. Realising that he had been captured, the non-Arab infidel killed himself. ‘Umar held the hand of ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin ‘Āuf and let him lead the Ṣalāt (prayer). Those who were standing by the side of ‘Umar saw what I saw, but the people who were in the other parts of the mosque did not see anything, but they lost the voice of ‘Umar and they were saying, “Subhān Allāh! Subhān Allāh!” (i.e. Glorified be Allāh).” ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin ‘Āuf led the people in a short Ṣalāt (prayer). When they finished the Ṣalāt (prayer), ‘Umar said, “O Ibn ‘Abbās! Find out who attacked me.” Ibn ‘Abbās kept on looking here and there for a short time and came to say, “The slave of Al-Mughīra.” On that ‘Umar said, “The craftsman?” Ibn ‘Abbās said, “Yes.” ‘Umar said, “May Allāh curse him. I did not treat him unjustly. All the praises and thanks be to Allāh Who has not caused me to die at the hands of a man who claims himself to be a Muslim. No doubt, you and your father (Abbās) used to love to have more non-Arab infidels in Al-Madīna.” Al-‘Abbās had the greatest number of slaves. Ibn ‘Abbās said to ‘Umar, “If you wish, we will do.” He meant, “If you wish we will kill them.” ‘Umar said, “You are mistaken (for you can’t kill them) after they have spoken your language, offered prayers towards your Qiblah, and performed Hajj like yours.” Then ‘Umar was carried to his house, and we went along with him, and the people were as if they had never suffered any calamity before that day. Some said, “Do not worry (he will be alright soon).” Some said, “We are afraid (that he...
Then an infusion of dates was brought to him and he drank it but it came out (of the wound) of his belly. Then milk was brought to him and he drank it, and it also came out of his belly. The people realised that he would die. We went to him, and the people came, praising him. A young man came saying, “O chief of the believers! Receive the glad tidings from Allah to you due to your company with Allah’s Messenger and your superiority in Islam which you know. Then you became the ruler (i.e., caliph) and you ruled with justice and finally you have been martyred.” ‘Umar said, “I wish that all these privileges will counterbalance (my shortcomings) so that I will neither lose nor gain anything.” When the young man turned back to leave, his clothes seemed to be touching the ground. ‘Umar said, “Call the young man back to me.” (When he came back) ‘Umar said, “O son of my brother! Lift your clothes, for this will keep your clothes clean and save you from the punishment of your Lord.” ‘Umar further said, “O ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar! See how much I am in debt to others.” When the debt was checked, it amounted to approximately eighty-six thousand. ‘Umar said, “If the property of ‘Umar’s family covers the debt, then pay the debt thereof; otherwise request it from Bani ‘Adi bin Ka’b, and if that too, is not sufficient, ask for it from Quraish tribe, and do not ask for it from anyone else, and pay this debt on my behalf.” ‘Umar then said (to ‘Abdullah), “Go to ‘Aishah (Mother of the believers) and say: ‘Umar is paying his salutation to you.” But don’t say: chief of the believers, because today I am not chief of the believers. And say: ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb asks the permission to be buried with his two companions (i.e., the Prophet and Abû Bakr).’ Abdullah greeted ‘Aishah and asked for the permission for entering, and then entered to her and found her sitting and weeping. He said to her, ‘‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb is paying his salutations to you, and asks the permission to be buried with his two companions.’ She said, ‘I had the idea of having this place for myself, but today I prefer ‘Umar to myself.’ When he returned it was said (to ‘Umar), ‘‘Abdullah bin ‘Umar has come.’ ‘Umar said, ‘Make me sit up.’ Somebody supported him against his body and ‘Umar asked (‘Abdullah), ‘What news do you have?’ He said, ‘O chief of the believers! It is as you wish. She has given the permission.’ ‘Umar said, ‘Praise be to Allâh, there was nothing more important to me than this. So when I die, take me, and greet ‘Aishah and say: ‘‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb asks the permission (to be buried with the Prophet ﷺ), and if she gives the permission, bury me there, and if she refuses, then take me to the graveyard of the Muslims.’’ Then Ḥafṣa (the Mother of the believers) came with many other women walking with her. When we saw her, we went away. She went in (to ‘Umar) and wept there for sometime. When the men asked for permission to enter, she went into another place, and we heard her weeping inside. The people said (to ‘Umar), ‘O chief of the believers! Appoint a successor.’ ‘Umar said, ‘I do not find anyone more suitable for the job than the following persons, or group, whom Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ had been pleased with before he died.’ Then ‘Umar mentioned ‘Ali, ‘Uthmân, Az-Zubair, Ṭalḥa, Sa’d and ‘Abdur-Raḥmân (bin ‘Aüf) and said, ‘‘Abdullah bin ‘Umar will be a witness to you, but he will have no share in the rule. His being a witness will compensate him for not sharing the right of ruling. If Sa’d becomes the ruler, it will be alright; otherwise, whoever becomes the ruler should seek his help, as I have not dismissed him because of incompetence or dishonesty.” ‘Umar added, “I recommend that my successor takes care of the early emigrants; to know their rights and protect their honour and sacred things. I also recommend that he be kind to the Ansār who had lived in Al-Madīna before the emigrants and Belief had entered their hearts before them. I recommend that the (ruler) should accept the good of the righteous among them and excuse their wrongdoers, and I recommend that he should do good to all the people of the towns (Al-Ansār), as they are the protectors of Islām and the source of wealth and the source of annoyance to the enemy. I also recommend that nothing be taken from them except from their surplus with their consent. I also recommend that he do good to the Al-A’rāb (Arab bedouins), as they are the origin of the Arabs and the material of Islām. He should take from what is inferior, amongst their properties and distribute that to the poor amongst them. I also recommend him concerning Allāh’s and His Messenger’s protégées (i.e., Dhimmi) to fulfil their contracts and to fight for them and not to overburden them with what is beyond their ability.” So when ‘Umar expired, we carried him out and set out walking. ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar greeted (‘Āishah) and said, “‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb asks for the permission.” ‘Āishah said, “Bring him in.” He was brought in and buried beside his two companions. When he was buried, the group (recommended by ‘Umar) held a meeting. Then ‘Abdur-Rahmān said, “Reduce the candidates for rulership to three of you.” Az-Zubair said, “I give up my right to ’Ali.”  Tālha said, “I give up my right to ’Uthmān,” Sa’d said, “I give up my right to ’Abdur-Rahmān bin ’Aūf.” ’Abdur-Rahmān then said (to ’Uthmān and ’Ali), “Now which of you is willing to give up his right of candidacy so that he may choose the better of the two, bearing in mind that Allah will be his witness and so will be Islām.” So both the sheikhs (i.e., ’Uthmān and ’Ali) Kept silent. ’Abdur-Rahmān said, “Will you both leave this matter to me, and I take Allah as my Witness that I will not choose but the better of you?” They said, “Yes.” So ’Abdur-Rahmān took the hand of one of them (i.e., ’Ali) and said, “You are related to Allah’s Messenger and one of the earliest Muslims, as you know well. So, I ask you by Allah to promise that if I select you as a ruler you will do justice, and if I select ’Uthmān as a ruler, you will listen to him and obey him.” Then he took the other (i.e., ’Uthmān) aside and said the same to him. When ’Abdur-Rahmān secured (their agreement to) this covenant, he said, “O ’Uthmān! Raise your hand.” So he (i.e., ’Abdur-Rahmān) gave him (i.e., ’Uthmān) the Bai’ā (pledge), and then ’Ali gave him the Bai’ā and then all the people of Al-Madīnā gave him the Bai’ā.

(9) CHAPTER. The merits of ’Ali bin Abī Ṭālib Al-Qurashi Al-Ḥāshimi, Abul-Ḥasan رضي الله عنهِ.

The Prophet said to ’Ali, “You are from me and I am from you.” ’Umar said (about ’Ali), “Before Allāh’s Messenger died, he had been pleased with him.”

3701. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d رضي الله عنهِ: Allāh’s Messenger said, “Tomorrow I will give the flag to a man with whose leadership Allah will grant (the Muslims) victory.” So the people kept on thinking the whole night as to who would be given the flag. The next morning the people went to Allah’s Messenger and everyone of them hoped that he would be given the flag. The Prophet said, “Where is ‘Ali bin Abi Talib?” The people replied, “He is suffering from eye trouble, O Allah’s Messenger”. He said, “Send for him and bring him to me.” So when ‘Ali came, the Prophet spat in his eyes and invoked good on him, and he became alright as if he had had no ailment. The Prophet then gave him the flag. ‘Ali said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Shall I fight them (i.e., enemy) till they become like us?” The Prophet said, “Proceed to them steadily till you approach near to them and then invite them to Islām, and inform them of their duties towards Allah which Islām prescribed for them, for by Allah, if one man is guided on the right path (i.e., converted to Islām) through you it would be better for you than (a great number of) red camels.”

3702. Narrated Salama: ‘Ali happened to stay behind the Prophet and (did not join him) during the battle of Khaibar for he was having eye trouble. Then he said, “How could I remain behind Allah’s Messenger?” So, ‘Ali set out following the Prophet. When it was the eve of the day in the morning of which Allah helped (the Muslims) to conquer it, Allah’s Messenger said, “I will give the flag (to a man), or tomorrow a man whom Allah and His Messenger love will take the flag,” or said, “A man who loves...”
Allah and His Messenger; and Allah will grant victory under his leadership.” Suddenly ‘Ali came whom we did not expect. The people said, “This is ‘Ali.” Allah’s Messenger gave him the flag and Allah granted victory under his leadership.

3703. Narrated Abu Hazim: A man came to Sahl bin Sa’d and said, “This is so-and-so,” meaning the governor of Al-Madina, “He is calling ‘Ali bad names near the pulpit.” Sahl asked, “What is he saying?” He (i.e., the man) replied, “He calls him (i.e., ‘Ali) Abu Turab.” Sahl laughed and said, “By Allah, none but the Prophet called him by this name and no name was dearer to ‘Ali than this.” So I asked Sahl to tell me more, saying, “O Abu Abbas! How was this name given to ‘Ali?” Sahl said, “‘Ali went to Fatima and then came out and slept in the mosque. The Prophet asked Fatiha, ‘Where is your cousin?’ She said, ‘In the mosque.’ The Prophet asked him and found that his (i.e., Ali’s) covering sheet had slipped of his back and dust had soiled his back. The Prophet started wiping the dust off his back and said twice, ‘Get up! O Abu Turab (i.e., O man with the dust)”

3704. Narrated Sa’d bin Ubaida: A man came to Ibn ‘Umar and asked about ‘Uthman, and Ibn ‘Umar mentioned his good deeds and said to the questioner, “Perhaps these facts annoy you?” The other said, “Yes.” Ibn ‘Umar said, “May Allāh stick your nose in the dust (i.e., degrade you)!” Then the man asked him about ‘Ali. Ibn ‘Umar mentioned his good deeds and said, “It is all true, and that is his house in the midst of the houses of the Prophet ﷺ. Perhaps these facts have hurt you?” The questioner said, “Yes.” Ibn ‘Umar said, “May Allāh stick your nose in the dust (i.e., degrade you or make you do things which you hate)! Go away and do whatever you can against me.”

3705. Narrated ‘Ali ﷺ: Fāṭima complained of the suffering caused to her by the hand-mill. Some captives were brought to the Prophet ﷺ. She came to him but did not find him at home. ‘Aishah was present there to whom she told (of her desire for a servant). When the Prophet ﷺ came, ‘Aishah informed him about Fāṭima’s visit. ‘Ali added, “So the Prophet ﷺ came to us, while we had gone to our bed, I wanted to get up but the Prophet ﷺ said, “Remain at your place.” Then he sat down between us till I found the coolness of his feet on my chest. Then he said, “Shall I teach you a thing which is better than what you have asked me? When you go to bed, say, Allāhu Akbar thirty-four times, and Subhān Allāh thirty-three times, and Alhamdu lillāh thirty-three time(1) for that is better for you both than a servant.”

(1) (H. 3705) The three expressions mean respectively: ‘Allāh is the Most Great,’ ‘Glorified be Allāh,’ and ‘All praises and thanks be to Allāh.’
3706. And narrated Sa’d that the Prophet ﷺ said to ‘Ali, “Will you not be pleased from this that you are to me like Harûn (Aaron) was to Mûsa (Moses)?”

3707. Narrated `Ubaida: ‘Ali said (to the people of Iraq), “Judge as you used to judge, for I hate differences (and I do my best) till the people unite as one group or I die as my companions have died.”

(10) CHAPTER. The merits of Ja'far bin Abi Talib Al-Hashimi ﷺ:

The Prophet ﷺ said (to him), “You resemble me both in appearance and character.”

3708. Narrated Abû Hurairah ﷺ: The people used to say, “Abû Hurairah narrates too many narrations.” In fact, I used to keep close to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and was satisfied with what filled my stomach. I ate no leavened bread and dressed no decorated striped clothes, and never did a man or a woman serve me, and I often used to press my belly against gravel because of hunger, and I used to ask a man to recite a Qur’ânic Verse to me although I knew it, so that he would take me to his home and feed me. And the most generous of all the people to the poor was Ja'far bin Abi Talib. He used to take us to his home and offer us what was available therein. He would even offer us an empty folded leather container (of butter) which we would split and lick whatever was in it.

3709. Narrated Ash-Sha’bi: Whenever Ibn ‘Umar greeted Ibn Ja’far, he used to say: “As-Salāmu ‘Alaika (i.e., greetings of salutation and peace be on you) O son of Dhul-Janāhain (son of the two-winged person).”(1)

3710. Narrated Anas: Whenever there was drought, Umar bin Al-Khattāb used to ask Allāh for rain through Al-‘Abbās bin ‘Abdul-Muṭṭalib, saying, “O Allāh! We used to request our Prophet to ask You for rain, and You would give us. Now we request the uncle of our Prophet to ask You for rain, so give us rain.” So Allāh used to provide them with rain.”(2)

(1) (H. 3709) The Prophet (in another Hadith) said, “I saw Ja’far bin Abi Talib flying with the angels”.

62 - THE VIRTUES OF THE COMPANIONS OF THE PROPHET ﷺ

(12) CHAPTER. The virtues of the relatives of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ. And the merits of Fāṭima bint Ḥabībah, the daughter of the Prophet ﷺ, and the Prophet ﷺ said, “Fāṭima is the chief of the women in Paradise.”

3711. Narrated 'Aishah: “Fāṭima sent somebody to Abū Bakr asking him to give her, her inheritance from the Prophet ﷺ from what Allah had given to His Messenger ﷺ through Fai’ (i.e., booty gained without fighting). She asked from the Sadaqa (i.e., wealth assigned for charitable purposes) of the Prophet ﷺ at Al-Madīnah, and Fadak, and what remained of the Khumus (i.e., one-fifth) of the Khaibar booty.

3712. Abū Bakr said, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘We (Prophets), our property is not inherited, and whatever we leave is Sadaqa, but Muḥammad’s family can eat from this property, i.e., Allāh’s property, but they have no right to take more than the food they need.’ By Allāh! I will not bring any change in dealing with the Sadaqa of the Prophet ﷺ (and will keep them) as they used to be observed in his (i.e., the Prophet’s) lifetime, and I will dispose with it as Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ used to do.” Then ‘Alī said, “I testify that La ilaha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh), and that Muḥammad is His Messenger,” and added, “O Abū Bakr! We acknowledge your superiority.” Then he (i.e., 'Ali) mentioned their own relationship to Allah’s Messenger and their right. Abu Bakr then spoke saying, “By Allah in Whose Hands my soul is. I love to do good to the relatives of Allah’s Messenger rather than to my own relatives.”

3713. Abu Bakr added, “Look at Muhammad through his family (i.e., if you are not good to his family you are not good to him).”

3714. Narrated Al-Miswar bin Makhrama: Allah’s Messenger said, “Fatima is a part of me. and he who makes her angry, makes me angry.”

3715. Narrated Aishah: The Prophet called his daughter Fatima during his illness in which he died, and told her a secret whereupon she wept. Then he called her again and told her a secret whereupon she laughed, when I asked her about that.

3716. She replied: “The Prophet spoke to me in secret and informed me that he would die in the course of the illness, during which he died, so I wept. He again spoke to me in secret and informed me that I would be the first of his family to follow him (after his death) and on that I laughed.”

(13) CHAPTER. The merits of Az-Zubair bin Al-'Awwâm.

Ibn 'Abbâs said, “He (i.e., Az-Zubair) was the Hawâri (i.e., disciple) of the Prophet ﷺ. And the Hawârîyûn(1) were called so because of the whiteness of their clothes.”

3717. Narrated Marwân bin Al-Ḥakâm:

‘Uthmân bin ‘Affân was afflicted with severe nose-bleeding in the year when such illness was prevalent and that prevented him from performing Hajj, and (because of it) he made his will. A man from Quraish came to him and said, “Appoint your successor.” “Uthmân asked, “Did the people name him? (i.e., the successor).” The man said, “Yes.” ‘Uthmân asked, “Who is that?” The man remained silent. Another man came to ‘Uthmân and I think it was Al-Hârîth. He also said, “Appoint your successor.” ‘Uthmân asked, “Did the people name him?” The man replied, “Yes.” ‘Uthmân said, “Who is that?” The man remained silent. ‘Uthmân said, “Perhaps they have mentioned Az-Zubair?” The man said, “Yes.” ‘Uthmân said, “By Him in Whose Hands my soul is, he is the best of them as I know, and the dearest of them to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ.”

3718. Narrated Marwân bin Al-Ḥakâm:

While I was with ‘Uthmân, a man came to him and said, “Appoint your successor.” ‘Uthmân said, “Has such successor been named?” He replied, “Yes, Az-Zubair.” ‘Uthmân said, thrice, “By Allâh! Indeed you know that he is the best of you.”

(1) (Ch. 13) Plural of Hawârî.

3719. Narrated Jãbir: The Prophet ñ said, “Every Prophet used to have a Hawãri (i.e., disciple), and my Hawãri is Az-Zubair bin Al-‘Awwâm.”

3720. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin Az-Zubair: During the battle of Al-Ahzâb (the Confederates), I and ‘Umar bin Abi Salama were kept behind with the women. Behold! I saw (my father) Az-Zubair riding his horse, going to and coming from Bani Qurãiza twice or thrice. So when I came back I said, “O my father! I saw you going to and coming from Bani Qurãiza?” He said, “Did you really see me, O my son?” I said, “Yes.” He said, “Allâh’s Messenger ñ said, ‘Who will go to Bani Qurãiza and bring me their news?’ So I went, and when I came back, Allâh’s Messenger ñ mentioned for me both his parents saying, ‘Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you.’”

3721. Narrated ‘Urwa: On the day of the battle of Al-Yarmûk, the Companions of the Prophet said to Az-Zubair, “Will you attack the enemy vigorously so that we may attack them along with you?” So, Az-Zubair attacked them, and they inflicted two wounds over his shoulder, and in between these two wounds there was an old scar he had received on the day of the battle of Badr. When I was a child, I used to insert my fingers into those scars in play.

(14) CHAPTER. (Narrations) about Ṭalḥa bin ‘Ubaidullāh رضي الله عنه.
‘Umar said, “Before the Prophet died, he was pleased with him.”

3722, 3723. Narrated Abū ‘Uthmān: During one of the Ghazawāt in which Allah’s Messenger was fighting, none remained with the Prophet but Ṭalḥa and Sa’d.

3724. Narrated Qais bin Abī Hāzim: I saw Ṭalḥa’s paralysed hand with which he had protected the Prophet (from an arrow).

(15) CHAPTER. The merits of Sa’d bin Abī Waqqāṣ Az-Zuhri رضي الله عنهما.
Banū Zuhra were maternal uncles of the Prophet and he (i.e., Sa’d) was Sa’d bin Mālik.

3726. Narrated Sa'd: No doubt, (for sometime) I stood for one-third of the Muslims. (1)

3727. Narrated Sa'd bin Abi Waqqās: No man embraced Islam before the day on which I embraced Islam, and no doubt, I remained for seven days as one-third of the then extant Muslims.

3728. Narrated Qais: I heard Sa'd saying, “I was the first amongst the Arabs who shot an arrow in Allāh's Cause. We used to fight along with the Prophet, while we had nothing to eat except the leaves of trees so that one’s excreta would look like the excreta balls of camel or a sheep, containing nothing to mix them together. Today, Banū saying, “I was the first amongst the Arabs who shot an arrow in Allāh’s Cause. We used to fight along with the Prophet, while we had nothing to eat except the leaves of trees so that one’s excreta would look like the excreta balls of camel or a sheep, containing nothing to mix them together. Today, Banū Asad tribe blame me for not having understood Islam. I would be a loser if my deeds were in vain." Those people complained about Sa'id to 'Umar, claiming that he did not offer Salât (prayers) perfectly.

(16) CHAPTER. Narrations about the sons-in-law of the Prophet ﷺ and one of them is Abū Al-ʿĀs bin Ar-Rabīʿ.

3729. Narrated Al-Miswar bin Makhrama: ‘Ali demanded the hand of the daughter of Abū Jahl. Fāṭima heard of this and went to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “Your people think that you do not become angry for the sake of your daughters as ‘Ali is now going to marry the daughter of Abū Jahl.” On that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ got up and after his recitation of Tashahhud(1) I heard him saying, “Then after! I married one of my daughters to Abū Al-ʿĀs bin Ar-Rabīʿ (the husband of Zainab, the daughter of the Prophet ﷺ before Islam and whenever he spoke to me, he spoke the truth. No doubt, Fāṭima is a part of me, I hate to see her being troubled. By Allāh, the daughter of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and the daughter of Allāh’s enemy cannot be the wives of one man.” So ‘Ali gave up that engagement.

Al-Miswar further said: “I heard the Prophet ﷺ talking and he mentioned a son-in-law of his belonging to the tribe of Bani ‘Abd-Shams. He praised him highly concerning his relationship and said (whenever) he spoke to me, he spoke the truth, and whenever he promised me, he fulfilled his promise.”

(1) (H. 3729) To testify that Lā ilāha illāllāh, (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh) and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allāh.
(17) CHAPTER. The virtues of Zaid bin Ḥāritha, the freed slave of the Prophet ﷺ.

Narrated Al-Barā’ that the Prophet ﷺ said (to Zaid bin Ḥāritha), “You are our brother and our freed slave.”

3730. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: The Prophet ﷺ sent an army under the command of Usāma bin Zaid. When some people criticized his leadership, the Prophet ﷺ said, “If you are criticizing Usāma’s leadership, you used to criticize his father’s leadership before. By Allāh! He was worthy of leadership and was one of the dearest persons to me, and (now) this (i.e., Usāma) is one of the dearest to me after him (Zaid).”

3731. Narrated ‘Urwa: ‘Āishah said, “A Qā’if (i.e., one skilled in recognizing the lineage of a person through physiognomy and through examining the body parts of an infant) came to me while the Prophet ﷺ was present, and Usāma bin Zaid and Zaid bin Ḥāritha were lying asleep. The Qā’if said, ‘These feet (of Usāma and his father) are of persons belonging to the same lineage.’” The Prophet ﷺ was pleased with that saying which won his admiration, and he told ‘Āishah of it.
(18) CHAPTER. Narrations about Usâma bin Zaid.

3732. Narrated ‘Aishah: The people of the Quraish tribe were worried about the Makhzumiyah woman. They said, “Nobody dare speak to him (i.e., the Prophet) except Usâma bin Zaid as he is the most beloved to Allah’s Messenger.”

3733. ‘Aishah said, “A woman from Bani Makhzumiyah committed a theft and the people said, ‘Who can intercede with the Prophet for her?’ So, nobody dared speak to him (i.e., the Prophet) but Usâma bin Zaid spoke to him. The Prophet said, ‘If a man of high rank amongst the children of Bani Israel committed a theft, they used to forgive him, but if a poor man of a low rank committed a theft, they would cut his hand. But I would cut even the hand of Fatîma (i.e., the daughter of the Prophet) if she committed a theft.’”

3734. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin Dinâr: One day, Ibn ‘Umar, while in the mosque, looked at a man who was dragging his clothes while walking in one of the corners of the mosque. He said, “See who is that. I wish he was near to me.”(1) Somebody then said (to Ibn

(1) (H. 3734) Ibn ‘Umar wished that the man had been near to him so that he might advise him not to walk in that way.
‘Umar), “Don’t you know him, O Abū ‘Abdur-Rahmān? He is Muḥammad bin Usāma.” On that Ibn ‘Umar bowed his head and dug the earth with his hands and then said, “If Allāh’s Messenger had seen him, he would have loved him.”

3735. Narrated Usāma bin Zaid that the Prophet used to take him (i.e., Usāma) and Al-Ḥasan (in his lap) and say: “O Allāh! Love them, as I love them.”

3736. The freed slave of Usāma bin Zaid said, “Al-Ḥajjāj bin Aiman bin Umm Aiman, and Aiman bin Umm Aiman was Usāma’s brother from the maternal side and he was one of the Ansār, was seen by Ibn ‘Umar not performing his bowing and prostrations in a perfect manner. So, Ibn ‘Umar told him to repeat his Salāt (prayer).”

3737. Ḥarmala, the freed slave of Usāma bin Zaid said that while he was in the company of ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar, Al-Ḥajjāj bin Aiman came in and [while offering Salāt (prayer)] he did not perform his bowing and prostrations properly. So, Ibn ‘Umar told... him to repeat his Salāt (prayer). When he went away, Ibn 'Umar asked me, “Who is he?” I said, “Al-Ḥajjāj bin Aiman bin Umm Aiman.” Ibn 'Umar said, “If Allāh’s Messenger saw him, he would have loved him.” Then Ibn 'Umar mentioned the love of the Prophet for the children of Umm Aiman. Sulaimān said that Umm Aiman was one of the nurses of the Prophet.

(19) The merits of 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb.

3738. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: If a man saw a dream during the lifetime of the Prophet he would narrate it to the Prophet. Once, I wished to see a dream and narrate it to the Prophet. I was young, unmarried, and used to sleep in the mosque during the lifetime of the Prophet. I dreamt that two angels took me and went away with me towards the (Hell) Fire which looked like a well with the inside walls built up, and had two sidewalls like those of a well. There I saw some people in it whom I knew. I started saying, “I seek refuge with Allāh from the (Hell) Fire, I seek refuge with Allāh from the (Hell) Fire.” Then another angel met those two and said to me, “Do not be afraid.” I narrated my dream to Hafṣa.
3739. Ibn ‘Umar added: Hafsa narrated my dream to the Prophet ﷺ. He said, “What an excellent man ‘Abdullāh is if he only observes the night Salāt (prayer).”

Narrated Sālim, as above and added: “Since then ‘Abdullāh used not to sleep at night but very little.”

3740, 3741. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar on the authority of his sister Hafsa that, the Prophet ﷺ had said to her, “‘Abdullāh is a pious man.”

(20) CHAPTER. The virtues of ‘Ammār (bin Yasir) and Ḥudhaifa (bin Al-Yamān)

3742. Narrated ‘Alqama: I went to Sham and offered a two Rak’a prayer and then said, “O Allāh! Bless me with a righteous pious companion.” So I went to some people and sat with them. An old man came and sat by my side. I asked, “Who is he”? They replied, “(He is) Abū Ad-Darda.’” I said (to him), “I prayed to Allāh to bless me with a pious companion and He sent you to me.” He asked me, “From where are you?” I replied, “From the people of Al-Kūfa.” He said, “Isn’t there amongst you Ibn Umm ‘Abd, the one who used to carry the shoes, the cushion (or pillow) and the water for ablution?” Is there amongst you the one whom Allāh gave refuge from Satan through the request of His Prophet ﷺ?

(1) (H. 3742) The person meant here was ‘Abdullah bin Mas’ūd who used to carry the things mentioned here for the Prophet ﷺ.
(2) (H. 3742) The person meant here is ‘Ammār.
who keeps the secrets of the Prophet which nobody knows except him?" (1) Abū Ad-Dardā’ further asked, "How does ʿAbdullāh (bin Masʿūd) recite the Sūrah starting with, 'By the night as it envelops.'" (V.92:1) Then I recited before him:

"By the night as it envelops; and by the day as it appears in brightness; and by male and female." (V.92:1-3) (2)

On this Abū Ad-Dardā’ said, "By Allāh, the Prophet made me recite the Sūrah in this way while I was listening to him (reciting it)."

3743. Narrated Ibrāhīm: ‘Alqama went to Sham and when he entered the mosque, he said, “O Allāh! Bless me with a righteous, pious companion.” So he sat with Abū Ad-Dardā’. Abū Ad-Dardā’ asked him, “Where are you from?” ‘Alqama replied, “From the people of Kūfa.” Abū Ad-Dardā’ said, “Isn’t there amongst you the keeper of the secret which nobody else knows i.e., Hudhaifa?” ‘Alqama said, “Yes.” Then Abū Ad-Dardā’ further asked, “Isn’t there amongst you the person whom Allāh gave refuge from Satan through the invocation of His Prophet namely ‘Ammār?’ ‘Alqama replied in the affirmative. Abū Ad-Dardā’ said, “Isn’t

(1) (H. 3742) The person meant here is Ḥudhaifa.
(2) (H. 3742) The third Verse of Sūrah 92 in the Qur’a n is:

‘Wa mā khalāqadh-dhakara wal-unthā.’
‘By Him Who created male and female.’

Abū Ad-Dardā’ and ʿAbdullāh bin Masʿūd used to read this Verse as:

‘Wadh-dhakara wal-unthā.’
‘And by male and female,’ excluding, Wamā Khiṭaqa. i.e., by Him Who created.

Perhaps they did not hear the complete Verse from the Prophet while many other Companions of the Prophet did.
there amongst you the person who carries the Siwāk or the secrets (i.e., of the Prophet namely ‘Abdullāh bin Mas‘ūd)?’ ‘Aqāma said, “Yes.” Then Abū Ad-Dārđa’ asked, “How (Abdullāh bin Mas‘ūd) used to recite the Sūrah starting with: ‘By the night as it envelopes; by the day as it appears in brightness?’” (V.92:1,2). ‘Aqāma said, “And by male and female.” Abū Ad-Dārđa’ then said, “These people (of Sham) tried hard to make me accept something other than what I had heard from the Prophet.”

(21) CHAPTER. The virtues of Abū ‘Ubaida bin Al-Jarrāḥ.

3744. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) said, “Every nation has an Āmin (trustworthy man), and the Āmin (trustworthy man) of this (i.e., Muslim) nation is Abū ‘Ubaida bin Al-Jarrāḥ.”

3745. Narrated Ḥudhaifa: The Prophet (ﷺ) said to the people of Najrān, “I will send you the most trustworthy man.” (Every one of) the Companions of the Prophet (ﷺ) was looking forward (to be that person). He then sent Abū ‘Ubaida.

CHAPTER. The mention of Muṣ‘ab bin ‘Umair. (See Vol. 2, “The Book of Funerals, Hadith” No.1276)
(22) CHAPTER. The merits of Al-Hasan and Al-Husain.

Narrated Abü Hurairah: The Prophet took and put Al-Hasan, over his shoulder.

3746. Narrated Abü Bakra: I heard the Prophet talking at the pulpit while Al-Hasan was sitting beside him, and he (i.e., the Prophet) was once looking at the people and at another time Al-Hasan, and saying, "This son of mine is a Sayyid (i.e., chief) and perhaps Allah will bring about an agreement between two sects of the Muslims through him."

3747. Narrated Usāma bin Zaid: that the Prophet used to take him and Al-Hasan, and used to say, "O Allah! I love them, so please love them," or said something similar.

3748. Narrated Muḥammad: Anas bin Mālik said, "The head of Al-Husain bin 'Ali was brought to 'Ubaidullah bin Ziyād and was put in a tray, and then Ibn Ziyād started playing with a stick at the nose and mouth of Al-Husain's head and saying something about his handsome features." Anas then said (to him), "Al-Husain resembled the Prophet more than the others did." Anas added, "His (i.e., Al-Husain's) hair was dyed with Wasma (i.e., a kind of plant used as a dye)."
3749. Narrated Al-Barâ’i: I saw the Prophet ã while Al-Hasan was over his shoulder, saying, “O Allâh! I love him, so please love him.”

3751. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar ã: Abû Bakr used to say, “In order to please (the Prophet) Muhammad ã do good to his family.”

3752. Narrated Anas ã: None resembled the Prophet ã more than Al-Hasan bin ‘Ali did.
3753. Narrated Ibn Abi Nu'aim: A person asked ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar whether a Muhrim (a person in the state of Ihram) could kill flies. I heard him saying (in reply), “The people of Iraq are asking about the killing of flies while they themselves murdered the son of the daughter of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ. And the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘They (i.e., Al-Hasan and Al-Ḥusain) are my two sweet basils(1) in this world.’”

3754. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: ‘Umar used to say, “Abū Bakr is our chief, and he manumitted our chief,” meaning Bilāl.

3755. Narrated Qais: Bilāl said to Abū Bakr, “If you bought me for yourself then keep me (for yourself), but if you have bought me for Allāh’s sake, then leave me for Allāh’s Work.”

(23) The merits of Bilāl bin Rabāh, the freed slave of Abū Bakr ﷺ.

The Prophet ﷺ said (to Bilāl), “I heard the sound of your shoes in Paradise just in front of me.”

(24) Narrated Jabir bin ‘Abdullāh: ‘Umar used to say, “Abū Bakr is our chief, and he manumitted our chief,” meaning Bilāl.

3753. (H. 3753) The Prophet ﷺ compared Al-Ḥasan and Al-Ḥusain to two sweet basils because he used to embrace and smell them.
(24) CHAPTER. Narrations about Ibn 'Abbãs.

3756. Narrated Ibn 'Abbãs: Once, the Prophet embraced me (pressed me to his chest) and said, "O Allah, teach him Al-Hikmah (i.e., the understanding of the knowledge of the Qur’an)."

Narrated ‘Abdul-Warith the same but said, "O Allah, teach him (Ibn ‘Abbãs) the Book (i.e., the understanding of the knowledge of the Qur’an)."

Narrated Khãlid as above.

(25) CHAPTER. The merits of Khãlid bin Al-Walid.

3757. Narrated Anas: The Prophet announced about the death of Zaid, Ja’far and Ibn Rawãha to the people before the news of their death reached them. He said with his eyes overflowing with tears, "Zaid took the flag and was martyred; then Ja’far took the flag and was martyred, and then Ibn Rawãha took the flag and was martyred. Finally the flag was taken by a sword from Allah’s Swords (i.e., Khãlid bin Al-Walid) and Allah gave them (i.e., the Muslims) victory.”

(26) CHAPTER. The merits of Sãlim, the freed slave of Abû Hudhaifa.

3758. Narrated Masrûq: ‘Abdullah (bin Mas‘ûd) was mentioned before ‘ Abdullãh bin...
The latter said, “That is a man I continue to love because I heard Allah’s Messenger saying, ‘Learn the recitation of the Qur’an from (any of these) four persons: ‘Abdulläh bin Mas‘ūd, Sālim the freed slave of Abū Hudhaifa, Ubai bin Ka‘b, and Mu‘ādh bin Jabal.’” I do not remember whether he mentioned Ubai first or Mu‘ādh.

(27) CHAPTER. The merits of ‘Abdulläh bin Mas‘ūd

3759. Narrated ‘Abdulläh bin ‘Amr: Allah’s Messenger was neither a Fāhish (one who talks evil) nor a Mutafahhish (one who conveys evil talk). He used to say, “The most beloved to me amongst you is the one who has the best character and manners.” (See H. 3559, 6029 and 6035)

3760. He added, “Learn the Qur’an from (any of these) four persons: ‘Abdulläh bin Mas‘ūd, Sālim the freed slave of Abū Hudhaifa, Ubai bin Ka‘b, and Mu‘ādh bin Jabal.”

[See Hadith No.3806]

3761. Narrated ‘Alqama: I went to Sham and was offering a two Rak‘a Salât (prayer); I said, “O Allah! Bless me with a (pious) companion.” Then I saw an old man coming towards me, and when he came near I said, (to myself), “I hope Allâh has granted me my request.” The man asked (me), “Where are you from?” I replied, “I am from the people of Kûfa.” He said, “Weren’t there amongst you the one who used to carry the (Prophet’s) shoes, Siwâk and the ablution water container? Wherever you are amongst you, the one who used to carry the shoes, Siwâk and the ablution water container? Weren’t there amongst you the man who was given Allâh’s refuge from the Satan? And weren’t there amongst you the man who used to keep the (Prophet’s) secrets which nobody else knew? How did Ibn Umm ‘Abd (i.e., ‘Abdul-lâh bin Mas’ûd) use to recite Surât Al-Lail (No. 92)?” I recited:

“By the night as it envelops, by the day as it appears in brightness, and by male and female”. (V.92:1-3)

On that, Abû Ad-Dardâ’ said, “By Allâh, the Prophet made me read the Verse in this way after listening to him, but these people (of Sham) tried their best to let me say something different.”

3762. Narrated ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin I zi: We asked Hûdhaifa to tell us of a person resembling (to some extent) the Prophet in good appearance and straightforward behaviour so that we may learn from him (good manners and acceptable conduct). Hûdhaifa replied, “I do not know anybody resembling the Prophet (to some extent) in appearance and conduct more than Ibn Umm ‘Abd (i.e., ‘Abdul-lâh bin Mas’ûd).

3763. Narrated Abû Mûsâ Al-Ash’ârî: My brother and I came from Yemen, and for some time we continued to consider ‘Abdullāh bin Mas‘ūd as one of the members of the family of the Prophet ṣaḥīḥ because we used to see him and his mother going in the house of the Prophet ṣaḥīḥ very often.

(28) CHAPTER. Narration about Mu‘āwiyah ṣaḥīḥ.

3764. Narrated Ibn Abū Mulaika:
Mu‘āwiyah offered one Rak‘ah Witr prayer after the ‘Ishā prayer, and at that time a freed slave of Ibn ‘Abbās was present. He (i.e., the slave) went to Ibn ‘Abbās (and told him that Mu‘āwiyah offered one Rak‘ah in Witr prayer). Ibn ‘Abbās said, “Leave him, for he was in the company of Allāh’s Messenger ṣaḥīḥ.”

3765. Narrated Ibn Abī Mulaika:
Somebody said to Ibn ‘Abbās, “Can you speak to chief of the believers Mu‘āwiyah, as he does not offer except one Rak‘ah as Witr?” Ibn ‘Abbās replied, “He is a Faqīh (i.e., a learned man who can give religious verdict).”

3766. Narrated Ḥumrān bin Abbān:
Mu‘āwiyah ṣaḥīḥ said (to the people), “You offer a Salāt (prayer) which we, who were the Companions of the Prophet ṣaḥīḥ never saw the Prophet ṣaḥīḥ offering, and he forbade its offering, i.e., the two Rak‘ah after

(1) (H. 3764) Mu‘āwiyah must have seen the Prophet ṣaḥīḥ doing the same.
the compulsory 'Asr prayer."

(29) CHAPTER. The merits of Fāṭima

The Prophet ﷺ said, "Fāṭima is the chief mistress of the women in Paradise."

3767. Narrated Al-Miswar bin Makhrama: Allâh's Messenger ﷺ said, "Fāṭima is a part of me, and whoever makes her angry, makes me angry."

(30) CHAPTER. The superiority of 'Āishah

3768. Narrated Abû Salama: 'Āishah ﷺ said, "Once, Allâh's Messenger ﷺ said (to me), 'O 'Āish (Âishah)! This is Jibrîl (Gabriel) greeting you.' I said, 'Peace and Allâh's Mercy and Blessings be on him, you see what I don't see.'" She was addressing Allâh's Messenger ﷺ.

3769. Narrated Abû Mûsâ Al-Ash'ârî: Allâh's Messenger ﷺ said, "Many amongst men attained perfection but amongst women none attained the perfection except Maryam (Mary), the daughter of 'Imrân, and Âsîya, the wife of Fir‘aun (Pharaoh). And the superiority of ‘Āishah to other women is like the superiority of Tharid (i.e., an Arabic dish) to other meals.”

3770. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The superiority of ‘Āishah over other women is like the superiority of Tharid to other meals.”

3771. Narrated Al-Qāsim bin Mu‘ammad: Once ‘Āishah became sick and Ibn ‘Abbas went to see her and said, “O Mother of the believers! You are leaving for truthful forerunners, i.e., for Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and Abū Bakr.

3772. Narrated Abū Wā’il: When ‘Ali sent ‘Ammār and Al-Ḥasan to (the people of) Kūfa to urge them to fight, ‘Ammār addressed them saying, “I know that she (i.e., ‘Āishah) is the wife of the Prophet ﷺ in this world and in the Hereafter, but Allah has put you to test, whether you will follow Him (i.e., Allāh) or her.”(1)

(1) (H. 3772) Allāh’s Order is to obey the Imām (i.e., ‘Ali ﷺ) and for the ladies to stay at home. [See the Qur’ān (V. 33:33)].
3773. Narrated 'Aishah that she borrowed a necklace from Asmâ’ and it was lost. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ sent some of his Companions to look for it. During their journey the time of Salât (prayer) was due and they offered the Salât (prayer) without ablution. When they returned to the Prophet ﷺ they complained about it. So the Divine Verse of Tawârîsh was revealed. Usaid bin Hûdais said (to ‘Aishah), “May Allâh reward you handsomely. By Allâh, whenever you have a difficulty, Allâh took you out of it and brought it with a blessing for the Muslims.”

3774. Narrated Hishâm’s father: When Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ was in his fatal illness, he started visiting his wives and saying, “Where will I be tomorrow?” He was anxious to be in ‘Aishah’s home. ‘Aishah said, “So, when it was my day, the Prophet ﷺ became silent (no longer asked the question).”

3775. Narrated Hishâm’s father: The people used to send presents to the Prophet ﷺ on the day of ‘Aishah’s turn. ‘Aishah said, “My companions (i.e., the other wives of the Prophet ﷺ) gathered in the house of Umm Salama and said, “O Umm Salama! By Allâh, the people choose to send presents on the day of ‘Aishah’s turn and we too, love the good (i.e., presents etc.) as ‘Aishah does. You should tell Allâh’s Messenger to tell the people to send their presents to him wherever he may be, or wherever his turn may be.” Umm Salama said that to the Prophet and he turned away from her, and when the Prophet returned to her (i.e., Umm Salama), she repeated the same, and the Prophet again turned away, and when she told him the same for the third time, the Prophet said, “O Umm Salama! Don’t trouble me by harming ‘Aishah, for by Allâh, the Divine Revelation never came to me while I was under the blanket of any woman amongst you except her.”
63 – THE MERITS OF AL-ANSÄR

(1) CHAPTER. The merits of Al-Ansär

And the Statement of Allâh: “Those who gave (them) asylum and help.” (V.8:72, 74)
“And those who, before them, had homes (in Al-Madîna) and had adopted the Faith, – love those who emigrate to them, and have no jealousy in their breasts for that which they have been given…” (V.59:9)

3776. Narrated Ghâilân bin Jarîr: I asked Anas, “Tell me about the name Al-Ansâr. Did you call yourselves by this name or did Allâh call you by it?” He said, “Allâh called us by this name.” We used to visit Anas (at Baṣrâh) and he used to narrate to us the virtues and deeds of Al-Ansâr, and he used to address me or a person from the tribe of Al-Azd and say, “Your tribe did so-and-so on such and such a day.”

3777. Narrated ‘Âishah: The day of Bu‘ãth [i.e., day of fighting between the two tribes of the Ansâr, the ‘Aûs and Al-Khazraj] was brought about by Allâh for the good of His Messenger so that when Allâh’s Messenger reached (Al-Madîna), the tribes of Al-Madîna had already divided and their chiefs had been killed and wounded. So, Allâh had brought about the battle for the good of His Messenger in order that they (i.e., the Ansâr) might embrace Islâm.
3778. Narrated Anas: On the day of the conquest of Makkah, when the Prophet had given the Quraish (from the booty), the Ansãr said, “By Allah, this is indeed very strange. While our swords are still dribbling with the blood of Quraish, our war booty are distributed amongst them.” When this news reached the Prophet he called the Ansãr and said, “What is this news that has reached me from you?” They used not to tell lies, so they replied, “What has reached you is true.” He said, “Doesn’t it please you that the people take the booty to their homes and you take Allah’s Messenger to your homes? If the Ansãr took their way through a valley or mountain path, I would take the Ansãr’s valley and their mountain path.”

(2) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet: “But for the emigration, I would have been one of the Ansãr.”

This narration of the Prophet has come through ‘Abdullah bin Zaid.

3779. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet or Abû-Qâsim said, “If the Ansãr took their way through a valley or a mountain path, I would take Ansãr’s valley. And but for the emigration, I would have been one of the Ansãr.” Abu Hurairah used to say, “The Prophet is not unjust (by saying so). May my parents be sacrificed for him, for the Ansãr sheltered and helped him,” or said a similar sentence.
(3) CHAPTER. The Prophet ﷺ established the bond of brotherhood (fraternity) between the Ansâr and the Muhâjirûn (i.e., emigrants).

3780. Narrated Sa’d’s father: When the emigrants reached Al-Madîna, Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ established the bond of brotherhood (fraternity) between ‘Abdur-Rahmân and Sa’d bin Ar-Rabi’. Sa’d said to ‘Abdur-Rahmân, “I am the richest of all the Ansâr, so I want to divide my property (between us), and I have two wives, so see which of the two you like and tell me, so that I may divorce her, and when she finishes her prescribed period (i.e., ‘Idda’\(^{(1)}\)) of divorce, then marry her.” ‘Abdur-Rahmân said, “May Allâh bless your family and property for you, where is your market?” So they showed him the Qainuqa’ market. (He went there and) returned with a profit in the form of dried yoghurt and butter. He continued going (to the market) till one day he came, bearing the traces of yellow scent. The Prophet ﷺ asked, “What is this (scent)?” He replied, “I got married.” The Prophet ﷺ asked, “How much Mahr did you give her?” He replied, “I gave her a date-stone of gold or a gold piece equal to the weight of a date-stone.” (The narrator, Ibrâhîm, is in doubt as to which is correct.)

3781. Narrated Anas: When ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin ‘Auf came to us, Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ made a bond of brotherhood (fraternity) between him and Sa’d bin Ar-Rabi’ who was a rich man. Sa’d said, “The

\(^{(1)}\) (H. 3780) ‘Idda here means a period of three monthly courses for which a divorced woman should wait before she remarries.
Anṣār know that I am the richest of all of them, so I will divide my property into two parts between me and you, and I have two wives; see which of the two you like so that I may divorce her and you can marry her after she becomes lawful to you, by passing her "Iddā" (the prescribed period of divorce)."

'Abdur Rahman said, “May Allah bless your family (i.e., wives) for you.” (But ‘Abdur-Rahmn went to the market) and did not return on that day except with some gain of dried yoghurt and butter. He went on trading just a few days till he came to Allah’s Messenger bearing the traces of yellow scent over his clothes. Allah’s Messenger asked him, “What is this scent?” He replied, “I have married a woman from the Anṣār.” Allah’s Messenger asked, “How much Mahr have you given to her?” He said, “A date-stone weight of gold or a golden date-stone.” The Prophet said, “Give a Walima (marriage banquet party), even with a sheep.”

3782. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Anṣār said (to the Prophet), “Please divide the date-palm trees between us and them (i.e., emigrants).” The Prophet said, “No.” The Anṣār said, “Let them (i.e., the emigrants) do the labour for us in the gardens and share the date-fruits with us.” The emigrants said, “We accept this.”

3783. Narrated Al-Barā‘: I heard the Prophet saying (or the Prophet said), “None loves the Anṣār but a believer, and none hates them but a hypocrite. So, Allāh will love him who loves them, and He will hate him who hates them.”

3784. Narrated Anas bin Mālik
The Prophet said, “The sign of Belief is to love the Anṣār, and the sign of hypocrisy is to hate the Anṣār.”

3785. Narrated Anas: The Prophet saw the women and children (of the Anṣār) coming forward. (The sub-narrator said, “I think that Anas said, ‘They were returning from a wedding party.’”) The Prophet stood up and said thrice, “By Allāh! You are from the most beloved people to me.”

3786. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Once an Anṣārī woman, accompanied by a son of hers, came to Allāh’s Messenger. Allāh’s Messenger spoke to her and said twice, “By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, you are the most beloved people to me.”
(6) CHAPTER. The followers of the Anṣār.

3787. Narrated Zaid bin Al-Arqam: The Anṣār said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Every Prophet has his followers and we have followed you. So please invoke Allāh to let our followers be considered from us (as Anṣār too)?” So he invoked Allāh accordingly.

3788. Narrated Abū Ťāsī, a man from the Anṣār: The Anṣār said, “Every nation has followers and (O Prophet) we have followed you, so invoke Allāh to let our followers be considered from us (as Anṣār like ourselves).” So the Prophet invoked Allāh accordingly.

(7) CHAPTER. The superiority of the families (houses) of the Anṣār.

3789. Narrated Abū Usaid: The Prophet said, “The best of the Anṣār’s families (homes) are those of Banū An-Najjar and then (those of) Banū 'Abdal-Ashhal, then (those of) Banū Al-Ḥarīth bin Al-Khazraj and then (those of) Banū Sā'ida; nevertheless, there is good in all the families (houses) of the Ansār." On this, Sa'd (bin 'Ubāda)(1) said, “I see that the Prophet has preferred some people to us.” Somebody said (to him), “No, but he has given you superiority to many.”

3790. Narrated Abu Usaid that he heard the Prophet saying, “The best of the Ansār, or the best of the Ansār families (homes) are Banū An-Najjar, Banū 'Abdal-Ashhal, Banū Al-Ḥarīth and Banū Sā'ida.”

3791. Narrated Abu Ḥumaid: The Prophet said, “The best of the Ansār families (homes) are the families (homes) of Banū An-Najjar, and then that of Banū 'Abdal-Ashhal, and then that of Banū Al-Ḥarīth, and then that of Banū Sā'ida, and there is good in all the families (homes) of the Ansār.” Sa'd bin 'Ubāda followed us and said, “O Abu Usaid! Don’t you see that the

(1) (H. 3789) Sa’d belonged to Banū Sā’ida.
Prophet compared the Ansâr and made us the last of them in superiority?” Then Sa’îd met the Prophet and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! In comparing the Ansâr’s families (homes) as to the degree of superiority, you have made us the last of them.” Allâh’s Messenger replied, “Isn’t it sufficient that you are regarded amongst the best?”

(8) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet to the Ansâr: “Be patient till you meet me at Al-Haud [the tank (i.e., Al-Kauthar)].”

3792. Narrated Usâid bin Hudâir: A man from the Ansâr said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Will you appoint me as you have appointed so-and-so?” The Prophet said, “After me you will see others given preference to you; so be patient till you meet me at Al-Haud [the tank (i.e., Al-Kauthar)] (on the Day of Resurrection).”

3793. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet said to the Ansâr, “After me you will see others given preference to you; so be patient till you meet me, and your promised place (of meeting) will be Al-Haud [the tank (i.e., Al-Kauthar)].”
3794. Narrated Yahya bin Sa'id that he heard Anas bin Malik (when he went with him to Al-Walid), saying, “Once, the Prophet called the Anṣār in order to give them the territory of Bahrain. They said, ‘No, unless you give to our emigrant brethren a similar share.’ On that he said, ‘If you do not agree to it, then be patient till you meet me, for after me others will be given preference to you.’”

(9) CHAPTER. The invocation of the Prophet: “O Allah! Improve and make right the state of the Anṣār and the Muhājirūn (i.e., the emigrants).”

3795. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Allah’s Messenger said, “There is no life except the life of the Hereafter; so, O Allah! Improve and make right the state of the Anṣār and the Muhājirūn.” And Anas added that the Prophet also said, “O Allah! Forgive the Anṣār.”

3797. Narrated Sahl: Allah's Messenger came to us while we were digging the trench and carrying out the earth on our backs. Allah's Messenger then said, "O Allah! There is no life except the life of the Hereafter, so please forgive the Muhãjirin and the Ansår."

3798. Narrated Abú Hurairah: A man came to the Prophet (as a guest), so he sent a messenger to his wives (to bring something for that man to eat) but they said that they had nothing except water. Then Allah's Messenger said, "Who will take this (person), or entertain him as a guest?" A man from the Ansår said, "I." So he took him to his wife and said to her, "Entertain generously the guest of Allah's Messenger." She said, "We have got nothing except the meals of our children." He said, "Prepare your meal, light your lamp and let your children sleep if they ask for supper." So, she prepared her meal, lighted her lamp and made her children sleep, and then stood up pretending to mend her lamp, but she put it off. Then both of them (the husband and wife) pretended to be eating, but they really went to bed hungry. In the morning the Ansârî went to Allah's Messenger who said, "Tonight Allah laughed, or wondered at your action."
Then Allâh revealed:

"...And give them (emigrants) preference over themselves, even though they were in need of that. And whosoever is saved from his own covetousness, such are they who will be the successful." (V.59:9)

(11) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “Accept the good (deeds) of the good-doers amongst them, and excuse the wrong-doers amongst them.”

3799. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: Abû Bakr and Al-'Abbās passed by one of the gatherings of the Anṣâr who were weeping then. He (i.e., Abû Bakr or Al-'Abbâs) asked, “Why are you weeping?” They replied, “We are weeping because we remember the gathering of the Prophet ﷺ with us.”(1) So, Abû Bakr went to the Prophet ﷺ and told him of that. The Prophet ﷺ came out, tying his head with a piece of the hem of a sheet. He ascended the pulpit which he never ascended after that day. He glorified and praised Allâh and then said, “I request you to take care of the Anṣâr as they are my near companions to whom I confided my private secrets. They have fulfilled their obligations and rights which were enjoined on them but there remains what is for them. So, accept the good (deeds) of the good-doers amongst them and excuse the wrong-doers amongst them.”

(1) (H. 3799) The Prophet ﷺ was then seriously ill and his Companions were afraid that they would never see him in their gatherings.
3800. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbãs: Allah’s Messenger (in his fatal illness) came out wrapped in a sheet covering his shoulders and his head was tied with an oily type of cloth till he sat on the pulpit, and after praising and glorifying Allah, he said, “Then after, O people! The people will go on increasing, but the Ansãr will go on decreasing till they become just like salt in a meal. So, whoever amongst you will be the ruler and have the power to harm or benefit others, should accept the good (deeds) of the good-doers amongst them and excuse the wrong-doers amongst them.”

3801. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet said, “The Ansãr are my near companions to whom I confided my private secrets. People will go on increasing but the Ansãr will go on decreasing; so, accept the good (deeds) of the good-doers amongst them and excuse the wrong-doers amongst them.”

3802. Narrated Al-Barã: A silken cloth was given as a present to the Prophet. His Companions started touching it and admiring its softness. The Prophet said, “Are you admiring its softness? The handkerchiefs of Sa'd bin Mu'adh (in Paradise) are better and softer than it."

3803. Narrated Jābir: I heard the Prophet saying, "The Throne (of Allah) shook at the death of Sa'd bin Mu'adh."

Through another group of narrators, Jābir added, "I heard the Prophet saying, 'The Throne of the Most Gracious (Allah) shook because of the death of Sa'd bin Mu'adh.'" (1)

3804. Narrated Abū Sa'īd Al-Khudrī: Some people (i.e., the Jews of Banī Quraizah) agreed to accept the verdict of Sa'd bin Mu'adh; so the Prophet sent for him (i.e., Sa'd bin Mu'adh). He came riding a donkey, and when he approached the mosque, the Prophet said, "Get up for the best amongst you," or said, "Get up for your chief." Then the Prophet said, "O Sa'd! These people have agreed to accept your verdict.” Sa’d said, “I judge that their warriors should be killed and their children and women should be taken as captives.” The Prophet said, “You have given a judgment similar to Allâh’s Judgement (or the King’s judgement)”\(^{(1)}\).

(1) (H. 3803) This means the Throne was pleased with the ascent of Sa'd's soul to the heavens.

3805. Narrated Anas: Two men (Usaid and ‘Abbâd) left the Prophet on a very dark night. Suddenly a light came in front of them, and when they separated, the light also separated into two, one with each of them two.

3806. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Amr: I heard the Prophet saying, “Learn the recitation of the Qur’ân from four persons: Ibn Mas‘ûd, Sûlûm, the freed slave of Abû Ḥudâifa, Ubaí and Mu’âdh bin Jabal.”

\(13\) CHAPTER. The merits of Usaid bin Ḥudâiîr and ‘Abbâd bin Bîshr

\(14\) CHAPTER. The virtues of Mu’âdh bin Jabal

[Text continues]
15) CHAPTER The virtues of Sa'd bin Ubâda

‘Āishah narrated: “Before that, he (i.e., Sa’d) was a pious man.”

3807. Narrated Abū Usaid: Allah’s Messenger said, “The best of the Ansâr’s houses are those of Bani An-Najjar, then those of Bani ‘Abdul-Ash‘al, then those of Bani Al-Hārith bin Al-Khazraj, then those of Bani Sa’ida; but there is goodness in all the houses of the Ansâr.” Sa’d bin ‘Ubâda who was one of those who embraced Islam early, said, “I see that Allah’s Messenger is giving others superiority above us.” Some people said to him, “But he has given you superiority above many other people.”

16) CHAPTER. The virtues of Ubayy bin Ka‘b.

3808. Narrated Masrûq: ‘Abdullâh bin Mas‘ûd was mentioned before ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Amr who said, “That is a man I still love, as I heard the Prophet saying, ‘Learn the recitation of the Qur’ân from four: from ‘Abdullâh bin Mas‘ûd — he started with him — Salîm, the freed slave of Abû Hudhaifa, Mu‘âdh bin Jabal and Ubai bin Ka‘b’.” (See H. 3806)

(1) (H. 3807) This Hadîth is a part of the long Hadîth of blame (the story of Ifk) laid upon ‘Āishah (i.e., the slander against ‘Āishah).
3809. Narrated Anas bin Malik:
The Prophet ﷺ said to Ubaï, “Allâh has ordered me to recite to you: ‘Those who disbelieve (Sûrat Al-Baiyinah, No. 98).’” Ubaï said, “Has He mentioned my name?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Yes.” (On hearing that, Ubaï started weeping).

3810. Narrated Qatâda: Anas said, “The Qur’ân was collected in the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ by four (men), all of whom were from the Ansâr: Ubaï, Mu‘âd bin Jabal, Abû Zaid and Zaid bin Thâbit.” I asked Anas, “Who is Abû Zaid?” He said, “One of my uncles.”

3811. Narrated Anas: On the day of the battle of Uhud, the people ran away, leaving the Prophet ﷺ, but Abû Ta‘lîh was shielding the Prophet with his shield in front of him. Abû Ta‘lîh was a strong, experienced archer who used to keep his arrow bow strong and well stretched. On that day he broke two or three arrow bows. If any man passed by carrying a quiver full of arrows, the Prophet ﷺ would say to him, "Empty it in front of Abū Ṭalḥa." When the Prophet ﷺ started looking at the enemy by raising his head, Abū Ṭalḥa said, "O Allāh’s Prophet! Let my parents be sacrificed for your sake! Please don’t raise your head and make it visible, lest an arrow of the enemy should hit you. Let my neck and chest be wounded instead of yours." (On that day) I saw ‘Aīshah, the daughter of Abū Bakr and Umm Sulaim both lifting their dresses up so that I was able to see the ornaments of their legs, and they were carrying the waterskins on their arms to pour water into the mouths of the thirsty people and then go back and fill them and come to pour water into the mouths of the people again. (On that day) Abū Ṭalḥa’s sword fell from his hand twice or thrice.

(19) CHAPTER. The virtues of ‘Abdullāh bin Salām ﷺ.

3812. Narrated Sa’d bin Abī Waqqās ﷺ: I have never heard the Prophet ﷺ saying about anybody walking on the earth that he is from the people of Paradise except ‘Abdullāh bin Salām. The following Verse was revealed concerning him:

‘...And a witness from among the Children of Isrāēl (Abdullāh bin Salām ﷺ) testifies that this Qur’ān is from Allāh [like the Taurāt (Torah)]…’ (V.46:10)
3813. Narrated Qais bin ‘Ubād: While I was sitting in the mosque of Al-Madina, there entered a man (‘Abdullāh bin Salām) with signs of solemnity over his face. The people said, “He is one of the people of Paradise.” He offered two light Rak’a and then left. I followed him and said, “When you entered the mosque, the people said, ‘He is one of the people of Paradise.’” He said, “By Allāh, one ought not say what he does not know; and I will tell you why. In the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ I had a dream which I narrated to him. I saw as if I were in a garden.” He then described its vastness and greenery. He added: “In its centre there was an iron pillar whose lower end was fixed in the earth and the upper end was in the sky, and at its upper end there was a (ring-shaped) hand-hold. I was told to climb it. I said, ‘I can’t.’ Then a servant came to me and lifted my clothes from behind and I climbed till I reached the top (of the pillar). Then I got hold of the hand-hold, and I was told to hold it tightly, then I woke up and (the effect of) the hand-hold was in my hand. I narrated all that to the Prophet ﷺ who said, ‘The garden is Islām, and the hand-hold is the Most Truthworthy Hand-hold. So you will remain as a Muslim till you die.’” (The narrator added): “The man was ‘Abdullāh bin Salām.”
3814. Narrated Abū Burda: When I came to A. dīna, I met ‘Abdullāh bin Salām. He said, “Will you come to me so that I may serve you with Sāwīq (i.e., powdered barley) and dates, and let you enter a (blessed) house that in which the Prophet entered?” Then he added, “You are in a country where the practice of Ribā(1) is prevalent; so if somebody owes you something and he sends you a present of a load of chopped straw, or a load of barley, or a load of provender then do not take it, as it is Ribā.”

(20) CHAPTER. The marriage of the Prophet with Khadija and her superiority.

3815. Narrated ‘Ali: I heard Allāh’s Messenger saying (as below). Narrated ‘Ali: The Prophet said, “The best of the world’s women is Maryam (Mary) (at her lifetime), and the best of the world’s women is Khadija (at her lifetime).”

(1) (H. 3822) Ribā: See the glossary.
3816. Narrated 'Aishah: I did not feel jealous of any of the wives of the Prophet (although) she died before he married me; for I often heard him mentioning her; and Allâh had told him to give her the good tidings that she would have a palace of Qasab (i.e., pipes of precious stones and pearls in Paradise), and whenever he slaughtered a sheep, he would send to her women-friends a good share of it.

3817. Narrated 'Aishah: I did not feel jealous of any woman as much as I did of Khadija; because Allah's Messenger used to mention her very often. He married me after three years of her death, and his Lord or Jibrîl (Gabriel) ordered him to give her the good tidings of having a palace of Qasab in Paradise. (See H. 1791)

3818. Narrated 'Aishah: I did not feel jealous of any of the wives of the Prophet as much as I did of Khadija though I did not see her. The Prophet used to mention her very often, and whenever he slaughtered a sheep, he would cut its parts, and send them to the women-friends of Khadija. When I sometimes said to him, “(You treat Khadija in such a way) as if there is no woman on earth except Khadija,” he would say, “Khadija, was such and such, and from her I had children.” (See H. 1791)

3819. Narrated Ismā'il: I asked ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Atīfa, “Did the Prophet give glad tidings to Khadija?” He said, “Yes, of a palace made of Qasab (in Paradise) where there will be neither any noise nor any toil (fatigue, trouble, etc.).”

3820. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Jibrīl (Gabriel) came to the Prophet and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! This is Khadija, coming to you with a dish having meat soup (or some food or drink). When she reaches you, greet her on behalf of her Lord (Allah) and on my behalf, and give her the glad tidings of having a palace made of Qasab in Paradise, wherein there will be neither any noise nor any toil (fatigue, trouble, etc.).”

3821. Narrated ‘Āishah: Once Hāla bint Khuwailid, Khadija’s sister, asked the permission of the Prophet ﷺ to enter. On that, the Prophet ﷺ remembered the way Khadija used to ask permission, and that upset him. He said, “O Allah! Halal!” So, I became jealous and said, “What makes you remember an old woman amongst the old women of Qurashi (with a toothless mouth) of red gums who died long ago, and in whose place Allâh has given you somebody better than her?”

(21) CHAPTER. The narration about Jarîr bin ‘Abdullâh Al-Bajâli رضي الله عنه

3822. Narrated Jarîr bin ‘Abdullâh رضي الله عنه: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ has never refused to admit me since I embraced Islâm, and whenever he saw me, he would smile.

3823. (In another narration) Jarîr bin ‘Abdullâh narrated: There was a house called Dhûl-Khalasa(1) in the pre-Islamic period and it was also called Al-Ka’ba Al-Yamânîya or Al-Ka’ba Ash-Shâmîya. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said to me, “Will you relieve me from Dhûl-Khalasa?” So I left for it with 150 cavalry men from the tribe of Ahmâs and then we destroyed it and killed whoever we found there. Then we came to the Prophet ﷺ and informed him about it. He invoked good upon us and upon the tribe of Ahmâs.

(1) (H. 3823) Dhûl-Khalasa: See the glossary.
(22) CHAPTER. The narration about Hudhaifa bin Al-Yamân Al-‘Absy.

3824. Narrated ‘Âishah: “On the day of the battle of Uḥud, Al-Mushrikûn [polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad (a)] were defeated completely. Then Satan shouted loudly, “O Allah’s slaves! Beware the ones behind you!” So the front files attacked the back ones. Then Hudhaifa looked and saw his father, and said loudly, “O Allah’s slaves! My father! My father!” By Allah, they did not stop till they killed him (i.e., Hudhaifa’s father). Hudhaifa said, “May Allah forgive you!” The subnarrator said, “By Allah, Hudhaifa continued asking Allah’s Forgiveness for the killers of his father till he met Allah (i.e., died).”

[See Hadith No.4065]

(23) CHAPTER. The narration about Hind bint ‘Utba bin Rabi’a.

3825. Narrated ‘Âishah: Hind bint ‘Utba came and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! (Before I embraced İslâm) there was no family on the surface of the earth I wished to see in degradation more than I did your family, but today there is no family on the surface of the earth I wish to see honoured more than I did yours.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “I thought similarly, by Him in Whose Hand my soul is!” She further said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Abû Sufyân is a miser, so, is it sinful of me to feed my children from his property?” He said, “I do not allow it unless you take for your needs what is just and reasonable.”
(24) CHAPTER. Narration about Zaid bin 'Amr bin Nufail.

3826. Narrated 'Abdullãh bin 'Umar: The Prophet met Zaid bin 'Amr bin Nufail in the bottom of (the valley of) Baldah before any Divine Revelation came to the Prophet. A meal was presented to the Prophet but he refused to eat from it. (Then it was presented to Zaid) who said, "I do not eat anything which you slaughter at your Ansãb (in the name of your idols etc.). I eat only those (animals) on which Allah's Name has been mentioned at the time of (their) slaughtering." Zaid bin 'Amr used to criticize the way Quraish used to slaughter their animals, and used to say, "Allah has created the sheep and He has sent the water for it from the sky, and He has grown the grass for it from the earth; yet you slaughter it in others than the Name of Allah. He used to say so, for he rejected that practice and considered it as something abominable.

3827. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: Zaid bin 'Amr bin Nufail went to Sham, enquiring about a True Religion to follow. He met a Jewish religious scholar and asked...
63 - THE MERITS OF AL-ANSAR

Zaid bin 'Amr bin Nufail narrated: I saw Zaid bin 'Amr bin Nufail standing with his back against the Ka'bah and he said, "I intend to embrace your religion, so tell me something about it." The Jew said, "I do not know any other religion except the Hanif (Islamic Monotheism)." Zaid enquired, "What is Hanif?" He replied, "Hanif is the religion of (the Prophet) Abraham, who was neither a Jew nor a Christian and who used to worship none but Allah (Alone) (i.e. Islamic Monotheism)."

The Christian said, "I do not know any other religion except the Hanif (Islamic Monotheism)." Zaid enquired, "What is Hanif?" He replied, "Hanif is the religion of (the Prophet) Abraham, who was neither a Jew nor a Christian and who used to worship none but Allah (Alone) (i.e. Islamic Monotheism)."

Zaid left that place, and when he came out, he raised both his hands and said, "O Allah! I make You my Witness that I am on the religion of Ibrahim (Abraham)."

Reported by Asma' bint 'Abd Bakr, may Allah be pleased with her.
saying, “O people of Quraish! By Allâh, none amongst you is on the religion of Ibrâhîm except me.” (She added:) He (Zaid) used to preserve the lives of little girls: If somebody wanted to kill his daughter he would say to him, “Do not kill her for I will feed her on your behalf.” So, he would take her, and when she grew up nicely, he would say to her father, “Now if you will (wish), I will give her to you, and If you will (wish), I will feed her on your behalf.”

(25) CHAPTER. The building of the Ka’bah.

3829. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh: When the Ka’bah was re-built, the Prophet ﷺ and ‘Abbâs went to carry stones. ‘Abbâs said to the Prophet ﷺ, “(Take off and) put your waist-sheet over your neck so that the stones may not hurt you.” (But as soon as he took off his waist-sheet) he fell unconscious on the ground with both his eyes towards the sky. When he came to his senses, he said, “My waist-sheet! My waist-sheet!” Then he tied his waist-sheet (round his waist).

3830. Narrated ‘Amr bin Dînâr and ‘Ubaidullâh bin Abî Yazîd: In the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ there was no wall around the Ka’bah and the people used to offer Salât (prayer) around the Ka’bah till ’Umar became the caliph and he built the wall around it. ‘Ubaidullâh further said, “Its wall was low, so Ibn Az-Zubair built it.”
3831. Narrated 'Aishah \(\text{H. 3831}\):

\(\text{Ashūrā}' (i.e., the tenth of Muharram) was a day on which the tribe of Quraish used to observe fasting in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance. The Prophet also used to observe \(\text{Saum}\) (fast) on this day. So when he emigrated to Al-Madina, he observed fasting on it and ordered (the Muslims) to fast on it. When the fasting of (the month of) Ramaḍān was enjoined, it became optional for the people to observe fast or not to observe fast on the day of \(\text{Ashūrā}'.

3832. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas \(\text{H. 3832}\):

The people used to consider the performance of \(\text{Umra}\) in the months of \(\text{Hajj}\) an evil deed on the earth, and they used to call the month of Muḥarram as Ṣafar and used to say, "When (the wounds over) the backs (of the camels) have healed and the footmarks (of the camels) have vanished (after coming from \(\text{Hajj}\)), then \(\text{Umra}\) becomes legal for the one who wants to perform \(\text{Umra}'."

Allāh’s Messenger and his Companions reached Makkah assuming \(\text{Ihram}\) for \(\text{Hajj}\) on the fourth of Dhul-Hijja. The Prophet ordered his Companions to perform \(\text{Umra}\) (with that \(\text{Ihram}\) instead of \(\text{Hajj}\)). \(\text{H. 3832}\) They asked, "O Allāh’s Messenger! What kind of finishing of \(\text{Ihram}\)?" The Prophet said, "Finish the \(\text{Ihram}\) completely."

3833. Narrated Sa‘īd bin Al-Musayyab’s grandfather: In the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance a flood of rain came and filled the valley in between the two mountains (around the Ka'bah).

3834. Narrated Qais bin Abi Hazim: Abū Bakr went to a lady from the Ahmas tribe called Zainab bint Al-Muhajir and found that she refused to speak. He asked, “Why does she not speak?”? The people said, “She has intended to perform Hajj without speaking.” He said to her, “Speak, for it is illegal not to speak, as it is an action (i.e., tradition) of the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance. So she spoke and said, “Who are you?” He said, “A man from the emigrants.” She asked, “Which emigrants?” He replied, “From Quraish.” She asked, “From which branch of Quraish are you?” He said, “You ask too many questions; I am Abū Bakr.” She said, “How long shall we enjoy this good order (i.e., Islamic religion) which Allah has brought after the Period of Ignorance?” He said, “You will enjoy it as long as your Imām keep on abiding by its rules and regulations.” She asked, “What are the Imām?” He said, “Were there not heads and chiefs of your nation who used to order the people and they used to obey them?” She said, “Yes.” He said, “So they (i.e., the Imām) are those whom I meant.”

3835. Narrated ‘Āishah: A black lady slave of some of the Arabs embraced Islām and she had a hut in the mosque. She used to visit us and talk to us, and when she finished her talk, she used to say: “The day of the scarf was one of our Lord’s Wonders. Verily! He has delivered me from the land of Kufr.” When she said the above verse many times, I (‘Aishah) asked her, “What was the day of the scarf?” She replied, “Once the daughter of some of my masters went out and she was wearing a leather scarf (round her neck) and the leather scarf fell from her and a kite descended and picked it up, mistaking it for a piece of meat. They (i.e., my masters) accused me of stealing it and they tortured me to such an extent that they even looked for it in my private parts. So, while they all were around me, and I was in great distress, suddenly the kite came over our heads and threw the scarf and they took it. I said to them “This is what you accused me of stealing, though I was innocent.”

3836. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar. The Prophet ﷺ said, “If anybody has to take an oath, he should swear only by Allah. The people of Quraysh used to swear by their fathers, but the Prophet ﷺ said, “Do not swear by your fathers.”

3837. Narrated ‘Abdur-Rahmän bin Al-Qāsim: Al-Qāsim used to walk in front of the funeral procession. He used not to get up for funeral procession (in case it passed by him). And he narrated from ‘Aishah that she said, “The people of the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance used to stand up for the funeral procession. When they saw it they used to say twice: ‘You were noble in your family. What are you now?’” 3838.Narrated ‘Umar: Al-Mushrikūn used not to leave Jam‘ (i.e., Muzdalifah) till the sun had risen on Thabir mountain. The Prophet ک  contradicted them by leaving (Muzdalifah) before the sun rose.

3839. Narrated Ḥusayn that ‘Ikrimah said, Kā‘san Dīhāqa, means glass full (of something) followed successively with other full glasses.”

3840. Ibn ‘Abbās said, “In the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance I heard my father saying, “Provide us with Kā‘san Dīhāqa.”

3841. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet  said, “The most true words said by a poet were the words of Labid.” He (Labid) said, ‘Verily, everything except Allāh is Batil (perishable),’ and Umaiyya bin Aṣ-Ṣalt was about to be a Muslim (but he did not embrace Islām).

[See Fath Al-Bārī]

(1) (H. 3837) The saying was a way of expressing sorrow.
3842. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: Abū Bakr had a slave who used to give him some of his earnings. Abū Bakr used to eat from it. One day he brought something and Abū Bakr ate from it. The slave said to him, “Do you know what is this?” Abū Bakr then enquired, “What is it?” The slave said, “Once, in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance I foretold somebody’s future though I did not know this knowledge of foretelling, but I cheated him, and when he met me he gave me something for that service, and that is what you have eaten from.” Then Abū Bakr put his hand in his mouth and vomited whatever was there in his stomach.”

3843. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: In the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance the people used to bargain with the meat of camels on the principle of Ḥabal-al-Ḥabala which meant the sale of a she-camel that would be born by a she-camel that had not yet been born. The Prophet ﷺ forbade them such a transaction.

3844. Narrated Ghailān bin Jarīr: We used to visit Anas bin Mālik رضي الله عنه, and he used to talk to us about the Ansār, and used to say to me, “Your people did so-and-so on such and such a day, and your people did so-and-so on such and such a day.”

(27) CHAPTER. Al-Qasāma in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance.

3845. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The first event of Qasāma in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance was practised by us (i.e., Banū Hāshim). A man from Banū Hāshim was employed by a Quraishi man from another branch-family. The Hāshimi labourer set out with the Quraishi driving his camels. There passed by him another man from Banū Hashim. The leather rope of the latter’s bag had broken so he said to the labourer, “Will you help me by giving me a rope in order to tie the handle of my bag, lest the camels should run away from me?” The labourer gave him a rope and the latter tied his bag with it. When the caravan halted, all the camels’ legs were tied with their fetters except one camel. The employer asked the labourer, “Why, from among all the camels has this camel not been fettered?” He replied, “There is no fetter for it.” The Quraishi asked, “Where is its fetter?” and hit the labourer with a stick that caused his death. (Later on just before his death) a man from Yemen passed by him. The labourer asked (him), “Will you go for the pilgrimage?” He replied, “I do not think I will attend it, but perhaps I will attend it.” The Hāshimi labourer said, “Will you please convey a message for me once in your life?” The other man said, “Yes.” The labourer wrote: “When you intend the pilgrimage, call the family of Quraish, and if they respond to you, call the family of Banu Hashim, and if they respond to you, ask about Abū Talib and tell him that so-and-so has killed me for a fetter.” Then the labourer expired.

When the employer reached (Makkah), Abū Talib visited him and asked, “What has happened to our companion?” He said, “He became ill and I looked after him nicely (but he died) and I buried him.” Then Abū Talib said, “The deceased deserved this from you.” After some time, the messenger whom the labourer has asked to convey the message, reached (Makkah) during the pilgrimage season. He called, “O the family of Quraish!” The people replied, “This is Quraish.” Then he called, “O the family of Banu Hashim!” The people replied, “This is Banu Hashim.” He asked, “Who is Abū Talib?” The people replied, “This is Abū Talib.” He said, “So-and-so has asked me to convey a message to you that so-and-so has killed him for a fetter (of a camel).” Then Abū Talib went to the (Quraish) killer and said to him, “Chose one of three alternatives: (i) If you wish, give us one hundred camels because you have murdered our companion, (ii) or if you wish, fifty of your men should take an oath that you have not murdered our companion, and if you do not accept this, (iii) we will kill you in Qisas.(1)" The killer went to his people and they said, “We will take an oath.” Then a woman from Banu Hashim who was married to one of them (i.e., the Quraishis) and had given birth to a child from him, came to Abū

(1) (H. 3845) Qisas: The law of equality in punishment. See Volume 9, Sahih Al-Bukhari "The Book of Blood-Money (Diyār)."
Tālib and said, “O Abū Tālib! I wish that my son, from among the fifty men, should be excused from this oath, and that he should not take the oath when the oath-taking is carried on.” Abū Tālib excused him. Then another man from them came (to Abū Tālib) and said, “O Abū Tālib! You want fifty persons to take an oath instead of giving a hundred camels, and that means each man has to give two camels (in case he does not take an oath). So, there are two camels I would like you to accept from me, and excuse me from taking an oath when the oaths are taken.” Abū Tālib accepted them from him. Then 48 men came and took the oath. (Ibn ‘Abbās further said:) By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, before the end of that year, none of those 48 persons remained alive.

3846. Narrated ‘Aishah: The day of Bu’ath (i.e., the day of fighting between the two tribes of Anṣār) was brought about by Allāh for the good of His Messenger so that when Allāh’s Messenger reached Al-Madina, those people were already divided (in different groups) and their chiefs had been killed and wounded. So, Allāh made that day precede Allāh’s Messenger so that they (i.e., the Anṣār) might embrace Islam.

3847. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: To run along the valley between two green pillars of As-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa (mountains) was not Sunna, but the people in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance used to run along it, and used to say: “We do not cross this rain stream except running in great haste.”

(1) (H. 3847) This statement of Ibn ‘Abbās is wrong as most of the religious scholars consider it As-Sunna of the Prophet.
3848. Narrated Abū As-Safar: I heard Ibn 'Abbās saying, "O people! Listen to what I say to you, and let me hear whatever you say, and don't go (without understanding), and start saying, 'Ibn 'Abbās said so-and-so, Ibn 'Abbās said so-and-so, Ibn 'Abbās said so-and-so.' He who wants to perform the Tawāf around the Ka'bah should go behind Al-Hijr (i.e., a portion of the Ka'bah left out unroofed) and do not call it Al-Hātim, for in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance if any man took an oath, he used to throw his whip, shoes or bow in it.\(^1\)

3849. Narrated 'Amr bin Maimūn: During the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance I saw a she-monkey surrounded by a number of monkeys. They were all stoning it, because it had committed illegal sexual intercourse. I too, stoned it along with them.

3850. Narrated Sufyān: 'Ubaidullāh said: "I heard Ibn 'Abbās saying, 'Following are some traits of the people of the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance: (i) to defame the ancestry of other families, (ii) and to wail over the dead.'" 'Ubaidullāh forgot the third trait. Sufyān said, "They say it (i.e., the third trait) was to believe that rain was caused by the influence of stars (i.e., if a special star appears it will rain)."

(28) CHAPTER: The advent of the Prophet (as Messenger of Allāh).

(He is) Muḥammad bin 'Abdullāh bin \(\text{مُحَمَّدُ بن عَبْدُ اللَّهِ بِن عَبْدِ} \)}}
3851. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: Allah’s Messenger received Divine Revelation at the age of forty. Then he stayed in Makkah for thirteen years, and then was ordered to emigrate, and he emigrated to Al-Madîna and stayed there for ten years and then died.

(29) CHAPTER. (The troubles which) the Mushrikûn [polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad (SAW)] of Makkah caused the Prophet and his Companions to suffer.

3852. Narrated Khâbâb: I came to the Prophet while he was leaning against his Burdâ (sheet cloak) in the shade of the Ka‘bah. We were suffering much from the Mushrikûn [polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad (SAW)] in those days. I said (to him), “Will you invoke Allâh (to help us)?” He sat down with a red face and said, “(A believer among) those who were before you used to be combed with iron combs so that nothing of his flesh, or nerves would remain on his bones; yet that would never make him desert his religion. A saw might be put over the parting of his head which would be split into two parts, yet all that would never make him abandon his religion. Allâh will surely complete this religion (i.e., Islâm) so that a traveller from San‘â to Haḍramaut will not be afraid of anybody except Allâh.” (The sub-narrator, Bayân added, “Or the wolf, lest it should harm his sheep.”)

3853. Narrated ‘Abdullãh i: The Prophet ﷺ recited Sûrat An-Najm and prostrated, and there was nobody who did not prostrate then except a man whom I saw taking a handful of pebbles, lifting it, and prostrating on it. He then said, “This is sufficient for me.” No doubt I saw him killed as a disbeliever afterwards.

3854. Narrated ‘Abdullãh i: While the Prophet ﷺ was prostrating, surrounded by some of Quraish, ‘Uqba bin Abî Mu‘âit brought the intestines (i.e., abdominal contents) of a camel and put them over the back of the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ did not raise his head (till) Fâtîma came and took it off his back and cursed the one who had done the harm. The Prophet ﷺ said, “O Allâh! Destroy the chiefs of Quraish, Abû Jahl bin Hishâm, ‘Utba bin Rabî‘a, Shaiba bin Rabî‘a. Umaiyya bin Khalaf or Ubaî bin Khalaf.” (The subnarrator Shu‘ba, is not sure of the last name.) I saw these people killed on the day of (the battle of) Badr and thrown in the well, except Umaiyya or Ubaî whose body parts were mutilated but he was not thrown in the well.

3855. Narrated Sa‘īd bin Jubair: ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Abzā said, “Ask Ibn ‘Abbās about these two Qur’ānic Verses: ‘...Nor kill such life as Allāh has forbidden, except for just cause...’ (V.25:68)

‘And whoever kills a believer intentionally...’ (V.4:93)

So, I asked Ibn ‘Abbās who said, “When the Verse that is in Sūrat Al-Furqān (1) was revealed, Mushrikān (2) of Makkah said, ‘But we have slain such life as Allāh has made sacred, and we have invoked other gods along with Allāh, and we have also committed illegal sexual intercourse’. So Allāh revealed:

‘Except those who repent and believe (in Islamic Monotheism)...’ (V.25:70)

So this Verse was concerned with those people. As for the Verse in Sūrat An-Nisā (2) (V.4:93), it means that if a man, after understanding Islām and its laws and obligations, murders somebody, then his punishment is to dwell in the (Hell) Fire forever.” Then I mentioned this to Mujāhid who said, “Except the one who regrets (i.e., repents one’s crime).”

(1) (H. 3855) The Verse meant here is: “And those who invoke not any other ilah (god) along with Allāh, nor kill such life as Allāh has forbidden, except for just cause, nor commit illegal sexual intercourse...” (V.25:68)

(2) (H. 3855) See the footnote of Hadith No. 3678.
3856. Narrated ‘Urwā bin Az-Zubair: I asked Ibn ‘Amr bin Al-‘Āṣ, “Tell me of the worst thing which Al-Mushrikūn [polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in his Messenger Muhammad (ṣallallāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam)] did to the Prophet ﷺ.” He said, “While the Prophet ﷺ was offering Salāt (prayer) in the Hijr of the Ka’bah, ‘Uqba bin Abī Mu‘āt came and put his garment around the Prophet’s neck and throttled him violently. Abū Bakr came and caught him by his shoulder and pushed him away from the Prophet ﷺ and said, “Would you kill a man just because he says, ‘My Lord is Allah?’”

Narrated ‘Urwā as above.

(30) CHAPTER. The conversion of Abū Bakr As-Ṣiddīqī to Islām.

3857. Narrated ‘Ammār bin Yasīr رضي الله عنه: I saw Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, and the only converts (to Islām) with him, were five slaves, two women and Abū Bakr.
(31) CHAPTER. The conversion of Sa‘d رضي الله عنه to Islām.

3858. Narrated Abū Iṣḥāq Sa‘d bin Abī Waqqās رضي الله عنه: None embraced Islām, except on the day I embraced it. And for seven days I was one of the three persons who were Muslims (one-third of Islām). (1)

(32) CHAPTER. Narrations about jinns

And the Statement of Allāh ﷺ: “Say (O Muḥammad ﷺ): ‘It has been revealed to me that a group (from three to ten in number) of jinn listened (to this Qur’ān).’” (V.72:1)

3859. Narrated ‘Abdūr-Rahmān ﷺ: “I asked Masrūq, ‘Who informed the Prophet ﷺ about the jinn at the night when they heard the Qur’ān?’ He said, ‘Your father ‘Abdullāh informed me that a tree informed the Prophet ﷺ about them.’”

3860. Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه, that once he was in the company of the Prophet ﷺ carrying a water pot for his ablution and for cleaning his private parts.

(1) (H. 3858) Sa‘d means by ‘one-third of Islām’ that he was one of the three persons who formed the whole Muslim society then.
While he was following him carrying it (i.e., the pot), the Prophet said, “Who is this?” He said, “I am Abu Hurairah.” The Prophet said, “Bring me stones in order to clean my private parts, and do not bring any bones or animal dung.” Abu Hurairah went on narrating: So, I brought some stones, carrying them in the corner of my robe till I put them by his side and went away. When he finished, I walked with him and asked, “What about the bone and the animal dung?” He said, “They are of the food of jinn. The delegate of jinn of (the city of) Nasibin came to me — and how nice those jinn were — and asked me for the remains of the human food. I invoked Allah for them that they would never pass by a bone or animal dung but find food on them.”

(33) CHAPTER. The conversion of Abu Dhar Al-Ghifari to Islam.

3861. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: When Abu Dhar received the news of the advent of the Prophet he said to his brother, “Ride to this valley (of Makkah) and try to find out the truth of the person who claims to be a Prophet and is informed of the news of heaven. Listen to what he says and come back to me.” So, his brother set out and came to the Prophet and listened to some of his talks, and returned to Abu Dhar and said to him, “I have seen him enjoining virtuous behaviour and saying something that is not poetry.” Abu Dhar said, “You have not satisfied me as to what I wanted.” He then took his journey-food and carried a water-skin of his, containing some water till he reached Makkah. He went to the mosque and searched for the Prophet and though he did not know him, he hated to ask anybody about him. When a part of the night had passed away, 'Ali saw him and knew that he was a stranger. So when Abū Dhar saw 'Ali, he followed him, and none of them asked his companion about anything, and when it was dawn, Abū Dhar took his journey-food and his water-skin to the mosque and stayed there all the day long without being perceived by the Prophet ﷺ, and when it was evening, he came back to his retiring place. 'Ali passed by him and said, "Has the man not known his dwelling place yet?" So, 'Ali let him get up and took him to his house and none of them spoke to the other about anything. When it was the third day, 'Ali did the same and Abū Dhar stayed with him. Then 'Ali said, "Will you tell me what has brought you here?" Abū Dhar said, "If you give me a firm promise that you will guide me, then I will tell you." 'Ali promised him, and he informed 'Ali about the matter. 'Ali said, "It is true, and he is the Messenger of Allāh. Next morning when you get up, accompany me, and if I see any danger for you, I will stop as if to pass water, but if I go on, follow me and enter the place which I will enter." Abū Dhar did so, and followed 'Ali till he entered the place of the Prophet ﷺ, and Abū Dhar went in with him. Abū Dhar listened to some of the Prophet's talks and embraced Islam on the spot. The Prophet ﷺ said to him, "Go back to your people and inform them (about it) till you receive my order." Abū Dhar said, "By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, I will proclaim my conversion loudly amongst them (i.e., Al-Mushrikün)." So he went out, and when he reached the mosque, he said as loudly as possible, "I bear witness that 'La ilāha illallāh wa anna Muhammad Rasūl Allāh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh, and Muḥammad ﷺ is the Messenger of Allāh). The people got up and beat him painfully. Then Al-Ḥabīb came and knelt over him (to protect him) and said (to the people), “Woe to you! Don’t you know that this man belongs to the tribe of Ghifār, and your trade to Sham is through their way? So, he rescued him from them. Abū Dhar again did the same the next day. They beat him and took vengeance on him and again Al-Ḥabīb knelt over him (to protect him).

(34) CHAPTER. The conversion of Saʿīd bin Zaid to Islām.

3862. Narrated Qais: I heard Saʿīd bin Zaid bin ‘Amr bin Nufail saying in the mosque of Al-Kūfa, “By Allāh, I have seen myself tied and forced by ‘Umar to leave Islām before ‘Umar himself embraced Islām. And if the mountain of Uhud could move from its place for the evil which you people have done to ‘Uthmān, then it would have the right to move from its place.”

(35) CHAPTER. The conversion of ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb to Islām.

3863. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Mus‘ūd: We have been powerful since ‘Umar embraced Islām.
3864. Narrated 'Abdullâh bin 'Umar : While 'Umar was at home in a state of fear, there came Al-'Âs bin Wâ'il As-Sahmî Abû 'Amr, wearing an embroidered cloak and a shirt having silk hems. He was from the tribe of Banî Sahm who were our allies during the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance. Al-'Âs said to 'Umar, "What is wrong with you?" He said, "Your people claim that they would kill me if I become a Muslim." Al-'Âs said, "Nobody will harm you after I have given protection to you." So Al-'Âs went out and met the people streaming in the whole valley. He said, "Where are you going?" They said, "We want Ibn Al-Khaṭṭâb who has embraced Islâm." Al-'Âs said, "There is no way for anybody to touch him." So the people retreated.

3865. Narrated 'Abdullâh bin 'Umar : When 'Umar embraced Islâm, all the people (disbelievers) gathered around his home and said, "'Umar has embraced Islâm." At that time I was still a boy and was on the roof of my house. There came a man wearing a cloak of Dibâj (i.e., a kind of silk), and said, "'Umar has embraced Islâm. Nobody can harm him for I am his protector." I then saw the people going away from 'Umar, and I asked who the man was, and they said, "Al-'Âs bin Wâ'il." 3866. Narrated `Abdullāh bin `Umar: 'I never heard `Umar saying about something that he thought it would be so-and-so, but he was quite right. Once, while `Umar was sitting, a handsome man passed by him. 'Umar said, "If I am not wrong, this person is still on his religion of the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance or he was their foreteller. Call the man to me." When the man was called to him, he told him of his thought. The man said, "I have never seen such a day on which a Muslim is faced with such an accusation." 'Umar said, "I am determined that you should tell me the truth." He said, "I was a foreteller in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance." Then 'Umar said, "Tell me the most astonishing thing your female jinn has told you of." He said, "One day, while I was in the market, she came to me scared and said, 'Haven't you seen the jinn and their despair and they were overthrown after their defeat (and prevented from listening to the news of the heaven) so that they (stopped going to the sky and) kept following camel-riders (i.e., Arabs)?'" 'Umar said, "He is right," and added, "one day, while I was near their idols, there came a man with a calf and slaughtered it as a sacrifice (for the idols). An (unseen) creature shouted at him, and I have never heard harsher than his voice. He was crying, 'O you bold evil-doer! A matter of success! An eloquent man is saying: Lā ilāha illa Anta' [none has the right to be worshipped but You (O Allah)].' On that the people fled, but I said, 'I shall not go away till I know what is behind this.' Then the cry came again: 'O you bold evil-doer! A matter of success! An eloquent man is saying: Lā ilāha illa Anta.' I then went away and a few days later it was said, 'A Prophet (Muḥammad ﷺ) has appeared.'

3867. Narrated Qais: I heard Sa’īd bin Zaid saying to the people, “If you but saw me and ‘Umar’s sister tied and forced by ‘Umar to leave Ӏsλαm while he was not yet a Muslim. And if the mountain of Uhud could move from its place for the evil which you people have done to ‘Uṯmān, it would have the right to do that.”

(36) CHAPTER. The splitting of the moon (into two pieces).

3868. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The people of Makkah asked Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ to show them a miracle. So, he showed them the moon split in two halves till they saw the Ḥiřā’ mountain,¹ in between them.

3869. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: The moon was split (into two pieces) while we were with the Prophet ﷺ in Minā. He said, “Be witnesses.” Then a piece of the moon went towards the mountain.

63 - THE MERITS OF AL-ANŠAR

3870. Narrated 'Abdullãh bin 'Abbãs رضي الله عنهما: During the lifetime of Allah's Messenger ﷺ the moon was split (into two pieces).

3871. Narrated 'Abdullãh رضي الله عنه: The moon was split (into two pieces).

(37) CHAPTER. The emigration to Ethiopia.

Narrated 'Aishah رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ said, "I have been shown the place of your emigration, a land of date-palm trees situated between two mountains." So some emigrated towards Al-Madina and all those people who had emigrated to Ethiopia returned to Al-Madina.

3872. Narrated 'Ubaidullãh bin 'Adî bin Al-Khiyãr that Al-Miswar bin Makhrama and 'Abdur-Rahmãn bin Al-Aswad bin 'Abd Yaghûth had said to him, "What prevents you from speaking to your uncle 'Uthmãn regarding his brother Al-Walid bin 'Uqba?" The people were speaking against the latter for what he had done. 'Ubaidullãh said, "So,
I kept waiting for 'Uthmân, and when he went out for the ِـَـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِـَِ~ him to die. Then Allah made Abū Bakr caliph, and by Allah, I was never disobedient to him, nor did I cheat him. Then ‘Umar became caliph, and by Allah, I was never disobedient to him, nor did I cheat him. Then I became caliph. Have I not then the same rights over you as they had over me?’ I replied in the affirmative. ‘Uthmān further said, ‘Then what are these talks which are reaching me from you? As for what you have mentioned about Al-Walid bin ‘Uqba, if Allah will, I shall give him the legal punishment justly’, then ‘Uthmān ordered that Al-Walid be flogged forty lashes. He ordered ‘Ali to flog him and he himself flogged him as well.”

3873. Narrated 'Aishah: Umm Ḥabiba and Umm Salama mentioned a church they had seen in Ethiopia, and in the church there were pictures. When they told the Prophet this, he said, "Those people are such that if a pious man amongst them died, they build a place of worship over his grave and paint these pictures in it. Those people will be the most evil creatures before Allah on the Day of Resurrection."

[See Vol. 1, Hadith No. 434]

3874. Narrated Umm Khālid bint Khalid: When I came from Ethiopia (to Al-Madīna), I was a young girl. Allah's Messenger made me wear a sheet having marks on it. Allah's Messenger was rubbing those marks with his hands saying, "Sanāh! Sanāh!" (i.e., good, good).

3875. Narrated 'Abdullāh: We used to greet the Prophet while he used to be in Salāt (prayers), and he used to reply to our greetings. But when we came back from Najāshi (the king of Ethiopia) we greeted him [while he was offering Salāt (prayer)] and he did not reply to us. We said, "O Allah's Messenger! We used to greet you in the past and you used to reply to us.” He said, “Verily, one is occupied and busy with more important matter during the Salāt (prayer).”

3876. Narrated Abū Mūsa: We received the news of the departure of the Prophet (to Al-Madīnā) while we were in Yemen. So, we went on board a ship but our ship took us away to An-Najāshī (the Negus) in Ethiopia. There we met Ja‘far bin Abī Ṭālib and stayed with him till we came (to Al-Madīnā) by the time when the Prophet had conquered Khairāb. The Prophet said, “O you people of the ship! You will have (the reward of) two emigrations.”

(38) CHAPTER. The death of An-Najāshī (the Negus).

3877. Narrated Jābir: When Negus died, the Prophet said, “Today a pious man has died. So, get up and offer the funeral prayer for your brother Aṣhāma.

3878. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh Al-Anṣārī: Allāh’s Messenger led the funeral Salāt (prayer) for the Negus and made us stand in rows behind him and I was in the second or third row.

3879. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنهما: The Prophet ﷺ offered the funeral Salāt (prayer) for Aṣhama, the Negus, with four Takbīr.

3880. Narrated Abū Hurairah that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ informed them (i.e., his Companions) of the death of Negus, the king of Ethiopia, on the very day on which the latter died, and said, “Ask Allāh’s Forgiveness for your brother”.

3881. Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه further said, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ made them (i.e., the Muslims) stand in rows at the Musāllā (i.e., praying place) and led the funeral Salāt (prayer) for the Negus and said four Takbīr.”
(39) CHAPTER. The oath taken by the Mushrikūn [polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allāh and in His Messenger Muhammad (ṣallīllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam)] against the Prophet ﷺ.

3882. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ while going out for the battle of Hunain, said, “Tomorrow if Allāh will, we will encamp at Khāif Bani Kināna (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allāh and in His Messenger Muhammad (ṣallīllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam)) (of Quraish) took the oath of Kufr (against the Prophet ﷺ i.e., to be loyal to heathenism, by boycotting Banū Ḥāshim, the Prophet’s folk).

(40) CHAPTER. The story of Abū Ṭalib.

3883. Narrated Al-‘Abbas bin ‘Abdul-Muṭṭalib: “You have not come to avail to your uncle (Abū Ṭalib), (though) by Allāh, he used to protect you and used to become angry on your behalf.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “He is in a shallow fire, and had it not been for me, he would have been in the bottom of the (Hell) Fire.”

3884. Narrated Al-Musayyab: When Abū Ṭalib was in his deathbed, the Prophet ﷺ went to him while Abū Jahl was sitting beside him. The Prophet ﷺ said, “O my uncle! Say: ‘La ilāha illāllāh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh), an expression with which I will defend your case with, before Allāh.” Abū Jahl and ‘Abdullāh bin Umayya said, “O Abū Tālib! Will you leave the religion of ‘Abdul-Muṭṭalib?” They kept on saying this to him so that the last statement he said to them (before he died) was: “I am on the religion of ‘Abdul-Muṭṭalib.” Then the Prophet ﷺ said, “I will keep on asking for Allāh’s Forgiveness for you unless I am forbidden to do so.” Then the following Verse was revealed:

“It is not (proper) for the Prophet and those who believe to ask Allāh’s Forgiveness for the Mushrikūn [polytheists, pagans, idolaters, disbelievers in the Oneness of Allāh and in His Messenger Muḥammad ﷺ] even though they be of kin, after it has become clear to them that they are the dwellers of the Fire (because they died in a state of disbelief).’ (V.9:113)

The other Verse was also revealed: “Verily! You (O Muḥammad ﷺ) guides not whom you like…” (V.28:56)

3885. Narrated Abū Saʿīd Al-Khudrīرضي الله عنَّهُ that he heard the Prophet ﷺ when somebody mentioned his uncle (Abū Tālib), saying, “Perhaps my intercession will be helpful to him on the Day of Resurrection so that he may be put in a shallow fire reaching only up to his ankles, with which his brain will boil.”

(41) CHAPTER. The narration about Al-Isra’ (Journey by Night)

And the Statement of Allāh تعالى:

“Glorified (and Exalted) be He (Allāh) [above all that (evil) they associate with Him], Who took His slave (Muhammad ﷺ) for a journey by night.” (V.17:1)

3886. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullãh ﷺ that he heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “When the people of Quraish did not believe me [i.e., in the story of my Al-Isra’ (Night Journey)], I stood up in Al-Hijr and Allah displayed Jerusalem in front of me, and I began describing it to them while I was looking at it.”

(42) CHAPTER. Al-Mi’râj (i.e., Ascension of the Prophet ﷺ to the heavens with his body and soul).

3887. Narrated Anas bin Malik : Mâlik bin Sa’âsa’a ﷺ said that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ described to them his Night Journey and said: “While I was lying in Al-Haţim or Al-Hijr, suddenly someone came to me and cut open my body from here to here.” I asked Al-Jârûd who was by my side, “What does he mean?” He said, “It means from his throat to his pubic area,” or said, “From the top of the chest.” The Prophet ﷺ further said, “He then took out my heart. Then a golden tray full of Belief was brought to me and my heart was washed and was filled (with Belief) and then returned to its original place. Then a white animal which was smaller than a mule and bigger than a donkey was brought to me.” On this Al-Jârûd asked, “Was it the Burâq, O Abu Hamza?” I (i.e., Anas) replied in the affirmative. The Prophet ﷺ said, “The animal’s step (was so wide that it) reached the farthest point within the reach of the animal’s sight. I was carried on it, and Jibrîl (Gabriel) set out with me till we reached the nearest heaven. When he asked for the gate to be opened, it was asked, ‘Who is it?’ Jibril answered, ‘Jibril.’ It was asked, ‘Who is accompanying you?’ Jibril replied, ‘Muḥammad (k).’ It was asked, ‘Has Muḥammad (k) been called?’ Jibril replied in the affirmative. Then it was said, ‘He is welcome. What an excellent visit his is!’ The gate was opened, and when I went over the first heaven, I saw Ādām there. Jibril said (to me), ‘This is your father, Ādām; pay him your greetings.’ So I greeted him and he returned the greeting to me and said, ‘You are welcome, O pious son and pious Prophet.’ Then Jibril ascended with me till we reached the second heaven. Jibril asked for the gate to be opened. It was asked, ‘Who is it?’ Jibril answered, ‘Jibril.’ It was asked, ‘Who is accompanying you?’ Jibril replied, ‘Muḥammad (k).’ It was asked, ‘Has he been called?’ Jibril answered in the affirmative. Then it was said, ‘He is welcome. What an excellent visit his is!’ The gate was opened. When I went over the second heaven, there I saw Yāhya (John) and ‘Īsā (Jesus) who were cousins. Jibril said (to me), ‘These are Yāhya and ‘Īsā; pay them your greetings.’ So I greeted them and both of them returned my greetings to me and said, ‘You are welcome, O pious brother and pious Prophet.’ Then Jibril ascended with me to the third heaven and asked for its gate to be opened. It was asked, ‘Who is it?’ Jibril answered, ‘Jibril.’ It was asked, ‘Who is accompanying you?’ Jibril (Gabriel) replied, ‘Muḥammad (k).’ It was asked, ‘Has he been called?’ Jibril replied in the affirmative. Then it was said, ‘He is welcome. What an excellent visit his is!’ The gate was opened, and when I went over the third heaven there I saw Yūsuf (Joseph). Jibril said (to me), ‘This is Yūsuf; pay him your greetings.’ So I greeted him and he returned the greeting to me and said, ‘You are welcome, O pious brother and pious Prophet.’ Then Jibril ascended with me to the fourth heaven and asked for its gate to be opened. It was asked, ‘Who is it?’ Jibril replied, ‘Jibril.’ It was asked, ‘Who is accompanying you?’ Jibril replied, ‘Muhammad (ﷺ).’ It was asked, ‘Has he been called?’ Jibril replied in the affirmative. Then it was said, ‘He is welcome, what an excellent visit his is!’ The gate was opened, and when I went over the fourth heaven, there I saw Idris. Jibril said (to me), ‘This is Idris; pay him your greeting.’ So I greeted him and he returned the greeting to me and said, ‘You are welcome, O pious brother and pious Prophet.’ Then Jibril ascended with me to the fifth heaven and asked for its gate to be opened. It was asked, ‘Who is it?’ Jibril replied, ‘Jibril.’ It was asked, ‘Who is accompanying you?’ Jibril replied, ‘Muhammad (ﷺ).’ It was asked, ‘Has he been called?’ Jibril replied in the affirmative. Then it was said, ‘He is welcome. What an excellent visit his is!’ So when I went over the fifth heaven, there I saw Harun (Aaron). Jibril said, (to me), ‘This is Aaron; pay him your greetings.’ I greeted him and he returned the greeting to me and said, ‘You are welcome, O pious brother and pious Prophet.’ Then Jibril ascended with me to the sixth heaven and asked for its gate to be opened. It was asked, ‘Who is it?’ Jibril replied, ‘Jibril.’ It was asked, ‘Who is accompanying you?’ Jibril (Gabriel) replied, ‘Muhammad (ﷺ).’ It was asked, ‘Has he been called?’ Jibril replied in the affirmative. It was said, ‘He is welcome. What an excellent visit his is!’ When I went (over the sixth heaven), there I saw Mūsa (Moses). Jibril said (to me), ‘This is Mūsa; pay him your greeting.' So I greeted him and he returned the greetings to me and said, 'You are welcome, O pious brother and pious Prophet.' When I left him (i.e., Mūsā) he wept. Someone asked him, 'What makes you weep?' Mūsā said, 'I weep because after me there has been sent (Mukhammad as a Prophet) a young man, whose followers will enter Paradise in greater numbers than my followers.' Then Jibrīl ascended with me to the seventh heaven and asked for its gate to be opened. It was asked, 'Who is it?' Jibrīl replied, 'Jibrīl.' It was asked, 'Who is accompanying you?' Jibrīl replied, 'Muḥammad (眚).' It was asked, 'Has he been called?' Jibrīl replied in the affirmative. Then it was said, 'He is welcome. What an excellent visit his is!' So when I went (over the seventh heaven), there I saw Ibrāhīm (Abraham). Jibrīl said (to me), 'This is your father; pay your greetings to him.' So I greeted him and he returned the greetings to me and said, 'You are welcome, O pious son and pious Prophet.' Then I was made to ascend up to Sidrat-ul-Muntahā (i.e., the lote tree of the utmost boundary). Behold! Its fruits were like the jars of Hajar (a place near Al-Madīnah) and its leaves were as big as the ears of elephants. Jibrīl said, 'This is the lote-tree of the utmost boundary.' Behold! There were four rivers, two were hidden and two were visible. I asked, 'What are these two kinds of rivers, O Jibrīl?' He replied, 'As for the hidden rivers, they are two rivers in Paradise and the visible rivers are the Nile and the Euphrates.' Then Al-Bait-ul-Ma’mūr (i.e., the Sacred House) was shown to me. Then a container full of wine and another full of milk and a third full of honey were brought to me. I took the milk. Jibrīl remarked, 'This is the Islamic religion which you and your followers are following.' Then the Ṣalāt...
(prayers) were enjoined on me. They were fifty Salát (prayers) a day. When I returned, I passed by Mūsā who asked (me), ‘What have you been ordered to do?’ I replied, ‘I have been ordered to offer fifty Salát (prayers) a day.’ Mūsā said, ‘Your followers cannot bear fifty Salát (prayers) a day, and by Allāh, I have tried my level best with Bani Isrā’īl (in vain). Go back to your Lord and ask for reduction to lessen your followers’ burden.’ So I went back, and Allāh reduced ten Salát (prayers) for me. Then again I came to Mūsā, but he repeated the same as he had said before. Then again I went back to Allāh, and He reduced ten more Salát (prayers). When I came back to Mūsā he said the same. I went back to Allāh and He ordered me to observe ten Salát (prayers) a day. When I came back to Mūsā, he repeated the same advice, so, I went back to Allāh and was ordered to observe five Salát (prayers) a day. When I came back to Mūsā, he said, ‘What have you been ordered?’ I replied, ‘I have been ordered to observe five Salát (prayers) a day.’ He said, ‘Your followers cannot bear five Salát (prayers) a day,’(1) and no doubt, I have got an experience of the people before you, and I have tried my level best with Bani Isrā’īl, so go back to your Lord and ask for reduction to lessen your followers’ burden.’ I said, ‘I have requested so much of my Lord that I feel ashamed, but I am satisfied now and surrender to Allāh’s Order.’ When I left, I heard a voice saying, ‘I have passed My Order and have lessened the burden of My worshippers.”’

3888. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Regarding the Statement of Allāh:
"...And We made not the vision which We showed you (O Muhammad as an actual eye-witness and not as a dream on the night of Al-Isra') but a trial for the mankind..." (V.17:60)
Ibn Abbās added: The sights which Allāh’s Messenger was shown on Al-Isra’ (Night Journey) when he was taken to Bait-ul-Maqdis (Jerusalem) were actual eye-witnesses (not dreams). And the accursed tree (mentioned) in the Qur’ān is the tree of Az-Zaqqām (itself).

(43) CHAPTER. The deputation of the Ansār to the Prophet at Makkah, and the Al-Aqaba Pledge.
3889. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Ka‘b, who was Ka‘b’s guide when Ka‘b turned blind: I heard Ka‘b bin Malik narrating when he remained behind (i.e., did not join) the Prophet in the Ghazwâ of Tabūk. Ibn Bukair, in his narration stated that Ka‘b said, "I witnessed with the Prophet the night of Al-Aqaba Pledge, when we jointly agreed to be confident and firm in Islam with all our efforts. I would not like to have attended the battle of Badr instead of that ‘Aqaba Pledge although, the people consider the battle of Badr superior to it (‘Aqaba Pledge).

3890. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: I was present with my two maternal...

uncles at Al-'Aqaba (where the pledge was given). (Ibn ‘Uyaina said, “One of the two was Al-Bara’ bin Ma‘rūr.”) 3891. Narrated Jābir: My father, my two maternal uncles and I were among those who took part in the ‘Aqaba Pledge.

3892. Narrated ‘Ubāda bin As-Sāmit, who had taken part in the battle of Badr with Allāh’s Messenger and had been amongst his Companions on the night of Al-'Aqaba Pledge: Allāh’s Messenger, surrounded by a group of his Companions, said, “Come along and give me the Bai’a (pledge) that you will not worship anything besides Allāh, will not steal, will not commit illegal sexual intercourse, will not kill your children, will not utter slander invented by yourself, and will not disobey me if I order you to do Ma‘rūf (Islamic Monotheism and all that Islām has ordained). Whoever among you will respect and fulfil this pledge, will be rewarded by Allāh. And if one of you commits any of these sins and is punished in this world then that will be his expiation for it, and if one of you commits any of these sins and Allāh screens his sin, then his matter will rest with Allāh. If He will, He will punish him and if He will, He will excuse him.” The narrator added: “So I gave the Bai’a (pledge) to him on these conditions.
3893. Narrated ‘Ubáda bin Aš-Šámit: I was one of the Naqib\(^{1}\) who gave the \(\text{‘Aqaba}^{2}\) Pledge to Allâh’s Messenger. We gave the Bai’a (pledge) to him that we will not associate anything in worship with Allâh, will not steal, will not commit illegal sexual intercourse, will not kill a person whose killing Allâh has made illegal except rightfully, will not rob, and we will be promised Paradise if we did the above, but if we committed any of the above sins, then its judgement will be decided by Allâh."

(44) CHAPTER. The marriage of the Prophet with ‘Aishah, and ‘Aishah’s arrival at Al-Madîna, and the Prophet’s consummation of that marriage.

3894. Narrated ‘Aishah: My marriage (wedding) contract with the Prophet was written when I was a girl of six (years). We came to Al-Madîna and we dismounted at the place of Bani Al-Hârîth bin Khazraj. Then I got ill and my hair fell down. Later on, my hair grew (again) and my mother, Umm Rûmân, came to me while I was playing in a swing with some of my girl friends. She called me, and I went to her, not knowing what she wanted to do to me. She caught me by the hand and made me stand at the door of the house. I was breathless then, and when my breathing became normal, she took some water and rubbed my face and head with it. Then she took me into the house. There in the house I saw some Ansâr women who said, “Best wishes and Allâh’s Blessing and a good luck.” Then she entrusted me to them and they prepared me (for the marriage). Unexpectedly Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ came to me in the forenoon and my mother handed me over to him, and at that time I was a girl of nine years of age.

3895. Narrated ‘Aishah ﷺ that the Prophet ﷺ said to her, “You have been shown to me twice in my dream. I saw you pictured on a piece of silk and someone said (to me), ‘This is your wife.’ When I uncovered the picture, I saw that it was yours. I said, ‘If this is from Allâh it will be accomplished.’”

3896. Narrated Hishâm’s father: Khadija died three years before the Prophet ﷺ departed to Al-Madîna. He stayed there for two years or so and then he wrote the marriage (wedding) contract with ‘Aishah when she was a girl of six years of age, and he consumed that marriage when she was nine years old.
CHAPTER 45. The emigration of the Prophet and his Companions to Al-Madina.

Narrated 'Abdullãh bin Zaid and Abû Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Had there been no emigration, I would have been one of the Ansãr.” And Abû Mûsã narrates that the Prophet said, “In a dream I saw myself emigrating from Makkah to a land of date-palm trees. I thought that that place was either Yamãma or Hajar, but it was Al-Madina, Yathrib.”

3897. Narrated Abû Wã’il: We visited Khabbãb who said, “We emigrated with the Prophet for Allah’s sake, so our reward became due and sure with Allah. Some of us passed away without taking anything of their rewards (in this world) and one of them was Muš’ab bin ‘Umair, who was martyred on the day (of the battle) of Uthud leaving a striped woollen cloak. When we covered his head with it, his feet became bare, and when covered his feet, his head became bare. So, Allah’s Messenger ordered us to cover his head and put some Iðkkhir (i.e., a special kind of grass) on his feet. (On the other hand) some of us have had their fruits ripened (in this world) and they are collecting them.”

3898. Narrated ‘Umar: I heard the Prophet saying, “The reward of deeds depends on the intentions, so, whosoever emigrates for the worldly benefits or to marry a woman, his emigration will be for what he emigrated for, but whoever emigrates for Allāh and His Messenger ﷺ, his emigration will be for Allāh and His Messenger ﷺ. (1)

3899. Narrated Mujāhid bin Jābir Al-Makki: ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar L6 used to say, “There is no more Hijrah (emigration) after the conquest of Makkah.”

3900. Narrated ‘Aṭā bin Aḥbāb Rābaḥ: ‘Ubaid bin ‘Umar Al-Laithi and I visited ‘Aishah and asked her about the Hijrah (emigration), and she said, “Today there is no Hijrah (emigration). A believer used to run away with his religion to Allāh and His Messenger ﷺ lest he should be put to trial because of his religion. Today, Allāh has made Islām triumphant, and today a believer can worship his Lord wherever he likes. But the deeds that are still rewardable (in place of emigration) are Ḥiḍād and (good) intentions.”

[See Vol. 4, Hadith No.2783]

(1) (H. 3898) The rewards of the emigrants differ according to their intentions, i.e., whether they emigrated for worldly benefits or for the Pleasure of Allāh and His Messenger ﷺ.
3901. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: Sa’d said, “O Allah! You know that there is none against whom I am eager to fight more willingly for Your Cause than those people who disbelieved Your Messenger ﷺ and drove him out (of his city). O Allah! I think that You have ended the fight between us and them.”

3902. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas رضي الله عنهما: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ started receiving the Divine Revelation at the age of forty. Then he stayed in Makkah for thirteen years, receiving the Divine Revelation. Then he was ordered to emigrate and he lived as an emigrant for ten years (in Al-Madina), and then died at the age of sixty-three (years).

3903. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbás رضي الله عنهما: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ stayed in Makkah for thirteen years (after receiving the first Divine Revelation and ten years in Al-Madina) and died at the age of sixty-three (years).

3904. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī رضي الله عنه: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ sat on the pulpit and said, “Allah has given one of His slaves the choice of receiving the splendour and luxury of the worldly life (whatever he likes) or to accept the good (of the Hereafter) which is with Him (Allāh). So, he has chosen that good which is with Allāh.” On that Abū Bakr wept and said, “Our fathers and mothers be sacrificed for you.” We were astonished at this. The people said, “Look at this old man! Allāh’s Messenger ℓ talks about a slave of Allāh to whom He has given the option to choose either the splendour of this worldly life or the good which is with Him, while he says, ‘Our fathers and mothers be sacrificed for you.’” But it was Allāh’s Messenger ℓ who had been given option, and Abū Bakr knew it better than we. Allāh’s Messenger ℓ added, “No doubt, Abū Bakr has favoured me much both with his company and his property more than anybody else. And if I had to take a Khalīl(1) from my followers, I would certainly have taken Abū Bakr, but the fraternity of Islam is sufficient. Let no Khaukha(2) of the mosque remain open, except that of Abū Bakr.”

3905. Narrated `Aishah ℓ, the wife of the Prophet ℓ: I never remembered my parents believing in any religion other than the true religion (i.e., Islāmic Monotheism), and (I don’t remember) a single day passing without our being visited by Allāh’s Messenger ℓ in the morning and in the evening. When the Muslims were put to test (i.e., troubled by Al-Mushrīkūn)(3),

(1) (H. 3904) Khalīl: See the glossary.
(2) (H. 3904) Khaukha means a small door (opening) in a big gate.

Abū Bakr set out to emigrate to the land of Ethiopia, and when he reached Bark-al-Ghimād(1), Ibn Ad-Daghina, the chief of the tribe of Qāra, met him and said, “O Abū Bakr! Where are you going?” Abū Bakr replied, “My people have turned me out (of my country), so I want to wander in the land and worship my Lord.” Ibn Ad-Daghina said, “O Abū Bakr! A man like you should not leave his homeland, nor should he be driven out, because you help the destitute, earn their living, and you keep good relations with your kith and kin, help the weak and poor, enthrall guests generously, and help the calamity-stricken persons. Therefore I am your protector. Go back and worship your Lord in your town.” So, Abū Bakr returned and Ibn Ad-Daghina accompanied him. In the evening Ibn Ad-Daghina visited the nobles of Quraish and said to them, “A man like Abū Bakr should not leave his homeland, nor should he be driven out. Do you (i.e., Quraish) drive out a man who helps the destitute, earns their living, keeps good relations with his kith and kin, helps the weak and poor, enthrall guests generously and helps the calamity-stricken persons?” So, the people of Quraish could not refuse Ibn Ad-Daghina’s protection, and they said to Ibn Ad-Daghina, “Let Abū Bakr worship his Lord in his house. He can offer Salāt (prayer) and recite there whatever he likes, but he should not hurt us with it, and should not do it publicly, because we are afraid that he may influence our women and children.” Ibn Ad-Daghina told Abū Bakr of all that. Abū Bakr stayed in that state, worshipping his Lord in his house. He did not offer Salāt (prayer) publicly, nor did he recite the Qur’ān outside his house. Then a thought

(1) (H. 3905) A place about 140 km from Makkah on the way to Yemen.
occurred to Abū Bakr to build a mosque in front of his house, and there he used to offer Ṣalāt (prayer) and recite the Qur'ān. The women and children of Al-Mushrīkūn began to gather around him in great number. They used to wonder at him and look at him. Abū Bakr was a man given to weep much, and he could not help weeping on reciting the Qur'ān. That situation scared the Quraish nobles of Al-Mushrīkūn, so they sent for Ibn Ad-Daghina. When he came to them, they said, “We accepted your protection of Abū Bakr on condition that he should worship his Lord in his house, but he has violated the conditions and he has built a mosque in front of his house where he offers Ṣalāt (prayer) and recites the Qur'ān publicly. We are now afraid that he may influence our women and children unfavourably. So, prevent him from that. If he likes to confine the worship of his Lord to his house, he may do so, but if he insists on doing that openly, ask him to release you from your obligation of his protection, for we dislike to break our pact with you, but we deny Abū Bakr the right to announce his act publicly.” Ibn Ad-Daghina went to Abū Bakr and said, (“O Abū Bakr!) You know well what contract I have made on your behalf; now, you are either to abide by it, or else release me of my obligation of protecting you, because I do not want the Arabs hear that my people have dishonoured a contract I have made on behalf of another man.” Abū Bakr replied, “I release you from your pact to protect me, and am contented with the protection of Allah alone.” At that time, the Prophet was in Makkah, and he said to the Muslims, “In a dream I have been shown the place of your emigration, a land of date-palm trees between two mountains, (the two stony tracts)” So, some people emigrated to Al-Madīna, and most of those people who had previously emigrated to the land of Ethiopia, returned to Al-Madina. Abū Bakr also prepared to leave for Al-Madina, but Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said to him, “Wait for a while, because I hope that I will be allowed to emigrate also.” Abū Bakr said, “Do you indeed expect this? Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you!” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Yes.” So, Abū Bakr did not emigrate for the sake of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ in order to accompany him. He fed two she-camels he possessed with the leaves of As-Samur tree that fell on being struck by a stick for four months. One day, while we were sitting in Abū Bakr’s house at noon, someone said to Abū Bakr, “This is Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, with his head covered coming at a time at which he never used to visit us before.” Abū Bakr said, “May my parents be sacrificed for him. By Allah, he has not come at this hour except for a great necessity.” So Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ came and asked permission to enter, and he was allowed to enter. When he entered, he said to Abū Bakr, “Tell everyone who is present with you to leave.” Abū Bakr replied, “There are none but your family. May my father be sacrificed for you, O Allāh’s Messenger!” The Prophet ﷺ said, “I have been given permission to emigrate.” Abū Bakr said, “Shall I accompany you? May my father be sacrificed for you, O Allāh’s Messenger!” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Yes.” Abū Bakr said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! May my father be sacrificed for you, take one of these two she-camels of mine.” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ replied, “(I will) but with payment.” So we prepared the baggage quickly and put some journey-food in a leather bag for them. Asmā’, Abū Bakr’s daughter, cut a piece from her waistbelt and tied the mouth of the leather bag with it, and for that reason she was named Dhât-un-Nîtâqain (i.e., the owner of two belts). Then Allâh's Messenger ﷺ and Abû Bakr reached a cave on Mount Thaur and stayed there for three nights. 'Abdullâh bin Abî Bakr who was intelligent sagacious youth, used to stay (with them) overnight. He used to leave them before daybreak so that in the morning he would be with Quraish as if he had spent the night in Makkah. He would keep in mind any plot made against them, and when it became dark he would (go and) inform them of it.

‘Amir bin Fuhaira, the freed slave of Abû Bakr, used to bring the milch sheep (of his master, Abû Bakr) to them a little while after nightfall in order to rest the sheep there. So they always had fresh milk at night, the milk of their sheep, and the milk which they warmed by putting heated stones in it. ‘Amir bin Fuhaira would then call the herd away when it was still dark (before daybreak). He did the same in each of those three nights. Allâh's Messenger ﷺ and Abû Bakr had hired a man from the tribe of Bani Ad-Dîl from the family of Bani ‘Abd bin ‘Adi as an expert guide, and he was in alliance with the family of Al-'Âs bin Wâ’il As-Sahmi and he was on the religion of the infidels of Quraish. The Prophet ﷺ and Abû Bakr trusted him and gave him their two she-camels and took his promise to bring their two she-camels to the cave of Mount Thaur in the morning after three nights. And (when they set out), ‘Amir bin Fuhaira and the guide went along with them and the guide led them along the seashore.
The nephew of Suraqa bin Ju'sham said that his father informed him that he heard Suraqa bin Ju' sham saying, "The messengers of the heathens of Quraish came to us declaring that they had assigned for the persons who would kill or arrest Allah's Messenger and Abu Bakr, a reward equal to their bloodmoney." While I was sitting in one of the gatherings of my tribe Bani Mudlij, a man from them came to us and stood up while we were sitting, and said, "O Suraqa! No doubt, I have just seen some people far away on the seashore, and I think they are Muhammad and his Companions." Suraqa added, "I too realised that it must have been they. But I said, 'No, it is not they, but you have seen so-and-so, and so-and-so whom we saw set out.' I stayed in the gathering for a while and then got up and left for my home, and ordered my slave-girl to get my horse which was behind a hillock, and keep it ready for me. Then I took my spear and left by the back door of my house dragging the lower end of the spear on the ground and keeping it low. Then I reached my horse, mounted it and made it gallop. When I approached them (i.e., Muhammad and Abū Bakr), my horse stumbled and I fell down from it. Then I stood up, got hold of my quiver and took out the divining arrows and drew lots as to whether I should harm them (i.e., the Prophet and Abū Bakr) or not, and the lot which I disliked came out. But I remounted my horse and let it gallop, giving no importance to the divining arrows. When I heard the recitation of the Qur'an by Allāh's Messenger who did not look hither and thither while Abū Bakr was doing it often, suddenly the forelegs of my horse sank into the ground up to its knees, and I fell down from it. Then I rebuked it and it got up but could hardly take out its forelegs from the ground, and when it stood up straight again, its forelegs caused dust to rise up in the sky like smoke. Then again I drew lots with the divining arrows, and the lot which I disliked, came out. So I called upon them to feel secure. They stopped and I remounted my horse and went to them. When I saw how I had been hampered from harming them, it came to my mind that the cause of Allāh's Messenger (i.e., Islām) will become victorious. So I said to him, "Your people have assigned a reward equal to the blood-money for your head." Then I told them all the plans the people of Makkah had made concerning them. Then I offered them some journey-food and goods but they refused to take anything and did not ask for anything, but the Prophet said, "Do not tell others about us." Then I requested him to write for me a statement of security and peace. He ordered ‘Amr bin Fuhaira who wrote it for me on a parchment, and then Allāh's Messenger proceeded on his way."

Narrated ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair: Allāh's Messenger met Az-Zubair in a caravan of Muslim merchants who were returning from Sham. Az-Zubair provided Allah's Messenger and Abú Bakr with white clothes to wear. When the Muslims of Al-Madina heard the news of the departure of Allah's Messenger from Makkah (towards Al-Madina), they started going to the Harra every morning. They would wait for him till the heat of the noon forced them to return. One day, after waiting for a long while, they returned home, and when they went into their houses, a Jew climbed up the roof of one of the forts of his people to look for something, and he saw Allah's Messenger and his Companions, dressed in white clothes, emerging out of the desert mirage. The Jew could not help shouting at the top of his voice, "O you Arabs! Here is your great man whom you have been waiting for!" So, all the Muslims rushed to their arms and received Allah's Messenger on the summit of Harra. The Prophet turned with them to the right and alighted at the quarters of Bani 'Amr bin 'Auf, and this was on Monday in the month of Rabi'-ul-Awwal. Abú Bakr stood up, receiving the people while Allah's Messenger sat down and kept silent. Some of the Ansár who came and had not seen Allah's Messenger before, began greeting Abú Bakr, but when the sunshine fell on Allah's Messenger and Abú Bakr came forward and shaded him with his sheet, only then the people came to know Allah's Messenger. Allah's Messenger stayed with Bani 'Amr bin 'Auf for ten nights and established the mosque (mosque of Qubā) which was founded on piety. Allah's Messenger offered Salât (prayer) in it and then mounted his she-camel and proceeded on, accompanied by the people till his she-camel knelt down at (the place of) the mosque of Allah's Messenger at Al-Madina. Some Muslims used to offer Salât
(prayer) there in those days, and that place was a yard for drying dates belonging to Suhail and Sahl, two orphan boys who were under the guardianship of Sa’d bin Zurara. When his she-camel knelt down, Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “This place, if Allâh will, will be our abiding place.” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ then called the two boys and told them to suggest the price for that yard so that he might take it as a mosque. The two boys said, “No, but we will give it as a gift, O Allâh’s Messenger!” (1) Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ then built a mosque there. The Prophet ﷺ himself started carrying unburnt bricks for its building and while doing so, he was saying: “This load is better than the load of Khaibar, for it is more pious before Allâh and purer and better rewardable.” He was also saying, “O Allâh! The actual reward is the reward in the Hereafter, so bestow Your Mercy on the Ansâr and the Muhâjirûn (emigrants).”

(1) (H. 3905) Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ bought it from them ultimately.
3907. Narrated 'Asma': I prepared the journey-food for the Prophet ﷺ and Abu Bakr when they wanted (to emigrate to) Al-Madina. I said to my father (Abu Bakr), “I do not have anything to tie the container of the journey-food with except my waist belt.” He said, “Divide it lengthwise into two.” I did so, and for this reason I was named ‘Dhat-un-Nitaqain’ (i.e., the owner of two belts). (Ibn 'Abbás said, “Asmá’, Dhat-un-Nitaq.”)

3908. Narrated Al-Barâ’: When the Prophet ﷺ emigrated to Al-Madina, Surâqa bin Malik bin Ju'sham pursued him. The Prophet ﷺ invoked evil on him, therefore the forelegs of his horse sank into the ground. Surâqa said (to the Prophet ﷺ), “Invoke Allah to rescue me, and I will not harm you.” The Prophet ﷺ invoked Allâh for him. Then Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ felt thirsty and he passed by a shepherd. Abu Bakr said, “I took a bowl and milked a little milk in it and brought it to the Prophet ﷺ and he drank till I was pleased.”

3909. Narrated Asmá’ that she conceived ‘Abdullâh bin Az-Zubair. She added, “I emigrated to Al-Madina while I was at full term of pregnancy and alighted at Qubā, where I gave birth to him. Then I brought him to the Prophet and put him on his lap. The Prophet asked for a date-fruit, chewed it, and put some of its juice in the child's mouth. So, the first thing that entered the child's stomach was the saliva of Allāh's Messenger. Then the Prophet rubbed the child's palate with a date-fruit and invoked for Allāh's Blessings on him, and he was the first child born (amongst the emigrants) in the Islamic Land (i.e., Al-Madīna)."

3910. Narrated 'Aishah: The first child who was born in the Islamic Land (Al-Madīna) amongst the emigrants, was 'Abdullāh bin Az-Zubair. They brought him to the Prophet. The Prophet took a date-fruit, and after chewing it, put its juice in his mouth. So the first thing that went into the child's stomach, was the saliva of the Prophet.

3911. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Allāh's Messenger arrived at Al-Madīna with Abū Bakr, riding behind him on the same camel. Abū Bakr was an elderly man known to the people, while Allāh's Messenger was a youth that was unknown. Thus, if a man met Abū Bakr, he would say, "O Abū Bakr! Who is this man in front of you?” Abū Bakr would say, “This man shows me the way.” One would think that Abū Bakr meant the road, while in fact, Abū Bakr meant the way of virtue and good. Then Abū Bakr looked behind and saw a horse-rider pursuing them. He said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! There is a horse-rider pursuing us.” The Prophet looked behind and said, “O Allāh! Cause him to fall down.” So the horse threw him down and got up neighing. After that the rider, Sūrāqā said, “O Allāh’s Prophet! Order me whatever you want.” The Prophet said, “Stay where you are and do not allow anybody to reach us.” So, in the first part of the day Sūrāqā was an enemy of Allāh’s Prophet and in the last part of it, he was a protector. Then Allāh’s Messenger alighted by the side of the Al-Harrā and sent a message to the Ānṣār, and they came to Allāh’s Prophet, and Abu Bakr, and having greeted them, they said, “Ride (your she-camel) safe and obeyed.” Allāh’s Messenger and Abū Bakr rode and the Ānṣār, carrying their arms, surrounded them. The news that Allāh’s Prophet had come circulated in Al-Madīna. The people came out and were eagerly looking and saying, “Allāh’s Prophet has come! Allāh’s Prophet has come!” So the Prophet went till he alighted near the house of Abū Ayyūb. While the Prophet was speaking with the family members of Abū Ayyūb, ‘Ābdullāh bin Salām heard the news of his arrival while he himself was picking the dates for his family from his family garden. He hurried to the Prophet, carrying the dates which he had collected for his family from the garden. He listened to Allāh’s Prophet and then went home. Then Allāh’s Prophet said, “Which is the nearest of the houses of our kith and kin?” Abū Ayyūb replied, “Mine, O Allāh’s Prophet! This is my house..."
and this is my gate." The Prophetﷺ said, "Go and prepare a place for our midday rest." Abū Ayyūb said, "Get up (both of you) with Allāh's Blessings." So, when Allāh's Prophetﷺ went into the house, 'Abdullāh bin Salām came and said, "I testify that you (Muḥammad ﷺ) are the Messenger of Allāh and that you have come with the Truth. The Jews know well that I am their chief and the son of their chief and the most learned amongst them and the son of the most learned amongst them. So, send for them (Jews) and ask them about me before they know that I have embraced Islām, for if they know that they will say about me things which are not correct." So Allāh's Messengerﷺ sent for them, and they came and entered. Allāh's Messengerﷺ said to them, "O (the group of) Jews! Woe to you; be afraid of Allāh. By Allah, except Whom none has the right to be worshipped, you people know for certain that I am the Messenger of Allāh and that I have come to you with the Truth, so embrace Islām" The Jews replied, "We do not know this." So they said this to the Prophetﷺ and he repeated it thrice. Then he said, "What sort of a man is 'Abdullāh bin Salām amongst you?" They said, "He is our chief and the son of our chief and the most learned man, and the son of the most learned amongst us." He said, "What would you think if he should embrace Islām?" They said, "Allāh forbid! He can not embrace Islām." He said, "What would you think if he should embrace Islām?" They said, "Allāh forbid! He can not embrace Islām." He said, "O Ibn Salām! Come out to them." He came out and said, "O (the group of) Jews! Be afraid of Allāh except Whom none has the right to be worshipped. You know for certain that he is the Messenger of Allāh and that he has brought a true religion!" They said, "You tell a lie.” On that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ turned them out.

3912. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb رضي الله عنه fixed a grant of 4000 (Dirham) for every early emigrant (i.e., Muhājir) and fixed a grant of 3500 (Dirham) only for Ibn ‘Umar. Somebody said to ‘Umar, “Ibn ‘Umar is also one of the early emigrants; why do you give him less than four thousand?” ‘Umar replied, “His parents took him with them when they emigrated, so he was not like the one who had emigrated by himself.”

3913. Narrated Khabbāb رضي الله عنه: We emigrated with Allah’s Messenger ﷺ (See Hadith No. 3914 below).

3914. Narrated Khabbāb: We emigrated with Allah’s Messenger ﷺ seeking Allah’s Countenance, so our rewards became due and sure with Allah. Some of us passed away without eating anything of their rewards in this world. One of these was Muṣṭāb bin Umair who was martyred on the day (of the battle) of Uhud. We did not find anything to shroud his body with except a striped cloak. When we covered his head with it, his feet remained uncovered, and when we covered his feet with it, his head remained uncovered. So, Allah's Messenger ordered us to cover his head with it and put some Idhkhir (i.e., a kind of grass) over his feet. And there are some amongst us whose fruits have ripened and they are collecting them (i.e., they have received their rewards in this world).

3915. Narrated Abu Burda bin Abi Musa Al-Ash'ari: 'Abdullah bin 'Umar said to me, "Do you know what my father said to your father once?" I said, "No." He said, "My father said to your father, 'O Abu Musa, will it please you that we will be rewarded for our conversion to Islam with Allah's Messenger and our emigration with him, and our Jihad with him and all our good deeds which we did with him, and that all the deeds we did after his death will be disregarded whether good or bad?' (H. 3915) 'Umar wishes that he will not be rewarded or punished and that his good deeds will compensate for his bad ones.
compensate for the bad ones.’” On that I said to Ibn ‘Umar, “By Allâh, your father was better than my father!”

3916. Narrated Abû ‘Uthmân: I heard that Ibn ‘Umar used to become angry if someone mentioned that he had emigrated before his father (‘Umar), and he used to say, “‘Umar and I came to Allâh’s Messenger and found him having his midday rest, so we returned home. Then ‘Umar sent me again (to the Prophet) and said, ‘Go and see whether he is awake.’ I went to him and entered his place and gave him the Bai’a (pledge). Then I went back to ‘Umar and informed him that the Prophet was awake. So, we both went, running slowly, and when ‘Umar entered his place, he gave him the Bai’a and thereafter I too gave him the Bai’a.”

3917. Narrated Al-Barâ’i: Abû Bakr bought a (camel’s) saddle from ‘Azîb, and I carried it for him. ‘Azîb (i.e., my father) asked Abû Bakr regarding the journey of the emigration of Allâh’s Messenger, Abû Bakr said, “Close observers were appointed by our enemies to watch us. So we went out at night and travelled throughout the night and the following day till it was noon, then we perceived a rock and went towards it, and there was some shade under it. I spread a cloak I had with me for Allâh’s Messenger and then the Prophet lay on it. I went out to guard him and all of a sudden I saw a shepherd coming with his sheep looking for the same (the shade of the rock as we did). I asked him, ‘O boy, to whom do you belong?’
He replied, ‘I belong to so-and-so.’ I asked him, ‘Is there any milk with your sheep?’ He replied in the affirmative. I asked him, ‘Will you milk (them for us)?’ He replied in the affirmative. Then he got hold of one of his ewe. I said to him, ‘Remove the dust from its udder.’ Then he milked a little milk. I had a water-skin with me which was tied with a piece of cloth. I had prepared the waterskin for Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ. So, I poured some water over the milk (container) till its bottom became cold. Then I brought the milk to the Prophet ﷺ and said, ‘Drink, O Allâh’s Messenger.’ Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ drank till I was pleased. Then we departed and the pursuers were following us.”

3918. Al-Barâ’ added: I then went with Abû Bakr into his home (carrying that saddle) and there I saw his daughter ‘Aishah lying in a bed because of heavy fever and I saw her father Abû Bakr kissing her cheek and saying, “How are you, little daughter?”

3919. Narrated Anas, the servant of the Prophet ﷺ: When the Prophet ﷺ arrived (at Al-Madîna), there was not a single Companion of the Prophet ﷺ who had grey and black hair except Abû Bakr, and he (i.e., Abû Bakr) dyed his hair with Hînà’ and Katam (i.e., plants used for dying hair).

3920. Through another group of narrators, Anas bin Mâlik رضي الله عنّه said, "When the Prophet arrived at Al-Madina, the eldest amongst his Companions was Abū Bakr. He dyed his hair with Ḥimnā and Katam till it became of dark red colour.

3921. Narrated `Aishah: Abū Bakr married a woman from the tribe of Bani Kalb, she was called Umm Bakr. When Abū Bakr emigrated to Al-Madina, he divorced her and she was married by her cousin, the poet, who said the following poem lamenting the infidels of Quraish:

What is there kept in the well, the well of Badr,
(The owners of) the trays of roasted camel humps?
What is there kept in the well, the well of Badr,
(The owners of) lady singers and friends of the honourable companions; who used to drink (wine) together?
Umm Bakr greets us with the greeting of peace,
But can I find peace after my people have gone?
The Messenger tells us that we shall live again,
But what sort of life will owls and skulls live? (1)

3922. Narrated Abū Bakr: I was with the Prophet in the cave. When I raised my head, I saw the feet of the people. I said, "O Allāh’s Messenger! If some of them should look down, they will see us." The Prophet ﷺ said, "O Abū Bakr, be quiet! (For we are) two (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ and Abū Bakr ﷺ and) Allāh is the Third One of them."

(1) (H. 3921) The Arabs of the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance believed that when a person died, his soul would leave his skull, taking the shape of an owl.

3923. Narrated Abū Sa'īd Ẓi`ī: Once, a bedouin came to the Prophet ﷺ and asked him about the emigration. The Prophet ﷺ said, "Mercy of Allāh be on you! The matter of emigration is very difficult. Have you got some camels?" He replied in the affirmative. Then the Prophet ﷺ said, "Do you give their Zakāt?" He replied in the affirmative. Then the Prophet ﷺ asked, "Do you let others benefit by their milk gratis?" He replied in the affirmative. Then the Prophet ﷺ asked, "Do you milk them on their watering days and give their milk to the poor and needy?" He replied in the affirmative. Then the Prophet ﷺ said, "Go on doing like this from beyond the seas, and there is no doubt that Allāh will not decrease (waste the reward of) any of your good deeds."

(46) CHAPTER. The arrival of the Prophet ﷺ and his Companions at Al-Madīnah.

3924. Narrated Al-Barā' رضي الله عنه: The first people who came to us (in Al-Madīnah) were Muṣ'ab bin 'Umar and Ibn Umm Mākīm. Then came to us 'Ammār bin Bilāl رضي الله عنهم.
3925. Narrated Al-Barā’ bin ‘Azib: The first people who came to us (in Al-Madīna) were Muṣ‘ab bin ‘Umair and Ibn Umm Maktūm who were teaching the Qur’ān to the people. Then there came Bilāl, Sa’d and ‘Ammār bin Yāsir. After that ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb came along with twenty other Companions of the Prophet ﷺ. Later on, the Prophet ﷺ himself came (to Al-Madīna) and I had never seen the people of Al-Madīna so joyful as they were on the arrival of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, for even the slave-girls were saying, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ has arrived!” And before his arrival I had read the Sūrah starting with:

“Glorify the Name of your Lord, the Most High.” (V.87:1) together with other Sūrah from Al-Mufassal family [i.e., the Sūrah starting from Sūrah Qaf (No. 50) till the end of the Qur’ān, Sūrah No. 114].

3926. Narrated ‘Aishah: When Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ came to Al-Madīna, Abū Bakr and Bilāl got fever, and I went to both of them and said, “O my father, how do you feel? O Bilāl, how do you feel?” Whenever Abū Bakr’s fever got worse, he would say, “Everybody is staying alive among his people yet death is nearer to him than his shoe-laces.” And whenever fever deserted Bilāl, he would say aloud, “Would that I could stay overnight in a valley, wherein I would be surrounded by Idhkhir and Jalīl (i.e., two kinds of good smelling grass), would that I could drink one day the water of Mījannah, and would that Shāmāh and Tāfīl (two mountains at Makkah) would appear to me?” Then I went to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and told him of that. He said, “O Allāh, make us love Al-Madīna as much as or more than we used to love Makkah, O Allāh, make it healthy and bless its Sā‘ and Mudd (i.e., measures), and take away its fever to Al-Juhfa.”

3927. Narrated ‘Ubaidullāh bin ‘Adī bin Khiyār: I went to ‘Uthmān. After reciting Tashahhud, he said, “Then after, no doubt, Allāh sent Mūhammad with the Truth, and I was amongst those who responded to the Call of Allāh and His Prophet, and believed in the message of Mūhammad. Then I took part in the two emigrations. I became the son-in-law of Allāh’s Messenger and gave the Bai’a (pledge) to him. By Allāh, I never disobeyed him, nor did I deceive him till Allāh took him unto Him.”

(1) (H. 3926) Al-Juhfa was a village near to Rabagḥ between Jeddah and Al-Madīnah.
3928. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: During the last Hajj led by ‘Umar, ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin ‘Atīf returned to his family at Mina and met me there. ‘Abdur-Rahmān said (to ‘Umar), “O chief of the believers! The season of Hajj is the season when there comes the scum of the people (besides the good amongst them), so I recommend that you should wait till you go back to Al-Madīna, for it is the place of Al-Hijrāh (emigration) and of As-Sunna (i.e., the Prophet’s legal way), and there you will be able to refer the matter (1) to the religious scholars and the nobles and the people of wise opinions.” ‘Umar said, “I will speak of it in Al-Madīna on my very first Khutba (religious talk) I will deliver there.”

3929. Narrated Khārijah bin Zaid bin Thābit: Umm Al-‘Ala’, an Anṣārī woman who gave the Bā‘a (pledge) to the Prophet informed me (saying): The Anṣār drew lots concerning the dwelling of the emigrants. We got in our share ‘Uthmān bin Ma‘ūn. ‘Uthmān fell ill and I nursed him till he died, and we covered him with his clothes. Then the Prophet came to us and I (addressing the dead body) said, “O Abū As-Sa‘ib, may Allāh’s Mercy be on you! I bear witness that Allāh has honoured you.” On that the Prophet said, “How do you know that Allāh has honoured him?” I replied, “I do not know. May my father and my mother be sacrificed for you, O Allāh’s Messenger! But who else is worthy of it (if not ‘Uthmān)?” He said, “As to him, by Allāh, death has overtaken him, and I hope the best for him. By Allāh, though I am the Messenger of Allāh, yet I do not know what Allāh will do to me.” (1) By Allāh, I will never assert the piety of anyone after him. That made me sad, and when I slept I saw in a dream a flowing stream for ‘Uthmān bin Māz‘ūn. I went to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and told him of the dream. He remarked, “That symbolises his (good) deeds.”

(1) (H. 3928) ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin ‘Atīf said to ‘Umar, “So-and-so says, ‘If ‘Umar died (now) I would give the Bā‘a (pledge) to so-and-so, as the pledge which was given to Abū Bakr was nothing but an unexpected event which happened to be fulfilled.’” ‘Umar then became angry and said, “This evening I will deliver a Khutba (religious talk) before the people to warn them of such people who desire to usurp the right of their managing their own affairs.” ‘Abdur-Rahmān then had to quieten ‘Umar as is mentioned in the present Hadith.

3930. Narrated ‘Āishah  the day of Bu‘āth was a day (i.e., the battle between the two tribes of Anṣār) brought about by Allāh just before the mission of His Messenger ﷺ so that when Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ came to Al-Madīna, they (the Anṣār tribes) had divided and their nobles had been killed; and all that facilitated their conversion to Islām.

3931. Narrated ‘Āishah , that once Abū Bakr came to her on the day of ‘Eid-al-Fiṭr or ‘Eid-al-‘Aḍhā while the Prophet ﷺ was with her, and there were two girl-singers with her, singing songs of the Ansār about the day of Bu‘āth. Abū Bakr said twice, “Musical instruments of Satan!” But the Prophet ﷺ said, “Leave them Abū Bakr, for every nation has an ‘Eid (i.e., festival) and this day is our ‘Eid’

3932. Narrated Anas bin Malik رضي الله عنه: When Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ arrived at Al-Madina, he alighted at the upper part of Al-Madina among the tribe called Banū ‘Amr bin ‘Aūf, and he stayed with them for fourteen nights. Then he sent for the chiefs of Banū An-Najjār, and they came, carrying their swords. As if I am just now looking at Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ on his she-camel with Abū Bakr riding behind him (on the same camel) and the chiefs of Banū An-Najjār around him till he dismounted in the courtyard of Abū Ayyūb’s home. The Prophet ﷺ used to offer the Ṣalāt (prayer) wherever the Ṣalāt was due, and he would offer Ṣalāt even in sheepfolds. Then he ordered that the mosque be built. He sent for the chiefs of Banū An-Najjār, and when they came, he said, “O Banū An-Najjār! Suggest to me the price of this garden of yours.” They replied “No! By Allāh, we do not demand its price except from Allāh.” In that garden there were the (following) things that I will tell you: Graves of Mushrikān(1), unlevelled land with holes and pits etc., and date-palm trees. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ ordered that the graves of the Mushrikān be dug up and, the unlevelled land be levelled and the date-palm trees be cut down. The trunks of the trees were arranged so as to form the wall facing the Qiblah. Stone pillars were built at the sides of its gate. The Companions of the Prophet were carrying the stones and reciting some lyrics, and Allâh’s Messenger was with them and they were saying, “O Allâh! There is no good except the good of the Hereafter.

(1) (H. 3932) See the footnote of Ḥadīth No.3678.

So bestow victory on the Ansâr and the emigrants.”

(47) CHAPTER. The stay of the emigrants in Makkah after performing all the ceremonies of Hajj.

3933. Narrated ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin Humaid Az-Zuhri: I heard ‘Umar bin ‘Abdul-Azîz asking As-Sâ’ib, the nephew of An-Namir, “What have you heard about residing in Makkah?” The other said, “I heard Al-’Alã’ bin Al-açIrami saying, ‘Allah’s Messenger said: An emigrant is allowed to stay in Makkah for three days after departing from Minä (i.e., after performing all the ceremonies of Hajj)’”.

(48) CHAPTER. At-Târikh (Date—definition of time). When did the Muslim calendar start?

3934. Narrated Sahîl bin Sa’d: The Prophet’s Companions neither took as a starting date for the Muslim calendar, the day the Prophet ﷺ had been sent as a Messenger nor the day of his death, but (they took as the starting date for the Muslim calendar), the day of his arrival at Al-Madina.

3935. Narrated `Aishah ﷺ:
Originally, two Rak'a were prescribed in every Salāt (prayer). When the Prophet ﷺ emigrated (to Al-Madīna) four Rak'a were enjoined, while the Salāt (prayer) during a journey remained unchanged (i.e., two Rak'a).

(49) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “O Allāh! Complete the emigration of my Companions,” and his lamentation for those (emigrants) who died in Makkah.”

3936. Narrated Sa’d bin Mālik ﷺ:
In the year of Hajjat-ul-Wadā’, the Prophet ﷺ visited me when I fell ill and was about to die because of that illness. I said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! I am very ill as you see, and I am a rich man and have no heir except my only daughter. Shall I give two-third of my property in charity?” He said, “No.” I said, “Shall I then give half of it in charity?” He said, “O Sa’d! Give one-third (in charity) and even one-third is too much. No doubt, it is better to leave your children rich than to leave them poor, reduced to begging from others. And Allāh will reward you for whatever you spend with the intention of gaining Allāh’s Pleasure, even if it were a mouthful of food you put into your wife’s mouth.” I said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Am I to be left behind (in Makkah) after my Companions have gone?” He said, “If you should be left behind, you will be upgraded and elevated for every deed you will do with a desire to achieve Allah’s Pleasure. I hope that you will live long so that some people will be benefited by you while others will be harmed. O Allah! Please fulfil the emigration of my Companions and do not make them turn back on their heels.” But (we feel sorry for) the unlucky Sa’d bin Khaulah.” Allah’s Messenger  lamented his death in Makkah.

(50) CHAPTER. How the Prophet  established the bond of brotherhood between his Companions.

‘Abdur-Rahmân bin ‘Aûf said, “The Prophet  established the bond of brotherhood between me and Sa’d bin Ar-RABI’ on our arrival at Al-Madîna.” Abû Juhaifa said, “The Prophet  established the bond of brotherhood between Salmân and Abû Ad-Dardâ’.”

3937. Narrated Anas : When ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin ‘Aûf came to Al-Madîna and the Prophet  established the bond of brotherhood between him and Sa’d bin Ar-RABI’ Al-Ansârî, Sa’d suggested that ‘Abdur-

(1) (H. 3936) So, Sa’d bin Malik (i.e., Abî Waqqâs) did not die at Makkah (who is mentioned in this Hadîth) but another man Sa’d bin Khaulah died in Makkah.
Rahman should accept half of his property and family. ‘Abdur-Rahman said, “May Allah bless you in your family and property; guide me to the market.” So ‘Abdur-Rahman (while doing trade in the market) made profit of some dry yoghurt and butter. After a few days the Prophet saw him wearing clothes stained with yellow perfume. The Prophet asked, “What is this, O ‘Abdur-Rahman?” He said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I have married an Ansari woman.” The Prophet asked, “What have you given her as Mahr?” He (i.e., ‘Abdur-Rahman) said, “A piece of gold, about the weight of a date-stone.” Then the Prophet said, “Give a Walima party (banquet) even with one sheep.”

(51) CHAPTER.

discharge precedes the man’s, then the child attracts the similarity to the woman.” On this, ‘Abdullãh bin Salám said, “I testify that ‘Lâ lâha illallãh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah)’, and that you are the Messenger of Allah,” and added, “O Allah’s Messenger! Jews invent such lies as make one astonish, so please ask them about me before they know about my conversion to Islam.”

The Jews came, and the Prophet said, “What kind of man is ‘Abdullãh bin Salâm among you?” They replied, “The best of us and the son of the best of us and the most superior among us, and the son of the most superior among us.” The Prophet repeated his question and they gave the same answer. Then ‘Abdullãh (bin Salâm) came out to them and said, “I testify that ‘Lâ lâha illallãh, and that Muhammad (in) is the Messenger of Allah!” On this, the Jews said, “He is the most wicked among us and the son of the most wicked among us.” So they degraded him. On this, he (i.e., ‘Abdullãh bin Salâm) said, “It is this that I was afraid of, O Allah’s Messenger.”

3939, 3940. Narrated Abú Al-Minhal ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin Mu’tîm: A partner of mine sold some Dirham on credit in the market. I said, “Glorified be Allah! Is this legal?” He replied, “Glorified be Allah! By Allah, when I sold them in the market, nobody objected to it.” Then I asked Al-Bara’ bin ‘Azib (about it) he said, “We used to make such a transaction when the Prophet came to Al-Madîna. So he (in) said, ‘There is no harm in it if it is done from hand to hand (and equal in weight), but it is not allowed on credit.’ Go to Zaid bin Al-Arqâm and ask him about it for he was the greatest scholar in the Prophet’s time. Follow what he says and you will be safe.”
trader of all of us.” So I asked Zaid bin Al-Arqam, and he said the same (as Al-Bara’).”

[See Vol. 3, Hadith No.2174]

(52) CHAPTER. The coming of the Jews to the Prophet on his arrival at Al-Madina.

3941. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Had only ten Jews (amongst their chiefs) believed me, all the Jews would definitely have believed me (would have embraced Islām).”

3942. Narrated Abū Mūsa: When the Prophet arrived at Al-Madina, he noticed that some people among the Jews used to respect ‘Ashūra’ (i.e., 10th of Muharram) and observe fast on it. The Prophet then said, “We have more right to observe fast on this day,” and ordered that fasting should be observed on it. [Later on the fasting on the day of ‘Ashūra’ was optional.]

[See Vol.3, Hadith No. 2002]

3943. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: When the Prophet arrived at Al-Madina
he found that the Jews observed fast on the day of ‘Ashurã’. They were asked the reason for the fast. They replied, “This is the day when Allah gave Mûsâ (Moses) and the children of Isrâ’el a victory over Fir’aun (Pharoah), so we observe fast on this day as a sign of gratitude to Allah.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “We are closer to Mûsâ than you.” Then he ordered that fasting on this day should be observed.

3944. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Abbâs ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ used to keep his hair, falling loose while Al-Mushrûkûn(1) used to part their hair, and the people of the Scriptures used to keep their hair falling loose, and the Prophet ﷺ liked to follow the people of the Scriptures in matters about which he had not been instructed differently, but later on the Prophet ﷺ started parting his hair.

3945. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs ﷺ: They, the people of the Scriptures, divided the Qur’ân into parts, believing in some portions of it and disbelieving the others.
(See V. 15:91- the Qur’ân) [See Fath Al-Bârî, Al-Kushmaihani] [See Vol. 6, Hadîth No. 4705, 4706]
(53) CHAPTER. The conversion of Salmān Al-Fārisī to Islām

3946. Narrated Salmān Al-Fārisī that he was sold (as a slave) by one master to another for more than ten times (i.e., between 13 and 19 times).

3947. Narrated Salmān: I am from Rām-Hurmuz (i.e., a Persian town).

3948. Narrated Salmān: The interval between ‘Īsā (Jesus) and Muḥammad was six hundred years.
(1) CHAPTER. The Ghazwā of Al-'Ushaira or Al-'Usaira.

Ibn Isḥaq said, “The first battle the Prophet fought was the battle of Al-Abwā and then Buwāt and then Al-'Ushaira.”

3949. Narrated Abū Ishaq: Once, while I was sitting beside Zaid bin Al-Arqam, he was asked, “How many Ghazwāt did the Prophet undertake?” Zaid replied, “Nineteen.” They said, “In how many Ghazwāt did you join him?” He replied, “Seventeen.” I asked, “Which of these was the first?” He replied, “Al-'Ushair or Al-'Ugaira.”

(2) CHAPTER. The Prophet’s prediction about whom he thought would be killed at Badr.

3950. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin Mas‘ūd regarding Sa’d bin Mu‘ādh: Sa’d bin Mu‘ādh was an intimate friend of Umaiyya bin Khalaf and whenever Umaiyya passed through Al-Madina, he used to stay with Sa’d, and whenever Sa’d went to Makkah, he used to stay with Umaiyya. When Allāh’s Messenger arrived at Al-Madina, Sa’d went to perform ‘Umra and stayed at Umaiyya’s home in Makkah. He said to Umaiyya, “Tell me of a time when (the mosque) is empty so that I may be able to perform Tawaf around the Ka'bah.” So Umaiyya went with him about midday. Abū Jahl met them and said, “O Abū Ṣafwān! Who is this man accompanying you?” He said, “He is Sa’d.” Abū Jahl addressed Sa’d saying, “I see you wandering about safely in Makkah in spite of the fact that you have given shelter to the people who have changed their religion (i.e., became Muslims) and have claimed that you will help them and support them. By Allāh, if you were not in the company of Abū Ṣafwān, you would not have gone to your family safe and sound.”

Sa’d, raising his voice, said to him, “By Allāh, if you should stop me from doing this (i.e., performing Tawaf), I would certainly prevent you from something which is more valuable for you, that is, your passage through Al-Madīnah.” On this, Umaiyya said to him, “O Sa’d, do not raise your voice before Abūl-Hakam, the chief of the people of the Valley (of Makkah).” Sa’d said, “O Umaiyya, stop that! By Allāh, I have heard Allāh’s Messenger predicting that they (i.e., Muslims) will kill you.” Umaiyya asked, “In Makkah?” Sa’d said, “I do not know.” Umaiyya was greatly scared by that news. When Umaiyya returned to his family, he said to his wife, “O Umm Ṣafwān! Don’t you know what Sa’d told me?” She said, “What has he told you?” He replied, “He claims that Muḥammad (ﷺ) has informed them (i.e., his Companions) that they will kill me. I asked him, ‘In Makkah?’ He replied, ‘I do not know.’” Then Umaiyya added, “By Allāh, I will never go out of Makkah.” But when the day of (the Ghazwā of) Badr came, Abū Jahl called the people to war, saying, “Go and protect your caravan.” But Umaiyya disliked to go out (of Makkah).
Abū Jahl came to him and said, “O Abū Ṣafwān! If the people see you staying behind, though you are the chief of the people of the Valley, then they will remain behind with you.” Abū Jahl kept on urging him to go until he (i.e., Umaiyyah) said, “As you have forced me to change my mind, by Allāh, I will buy the best camel in Makkah.” Then Umaiyyah said (to his wife), “O Umm Ṣafwān, prepare what I need (for the journey).” She said to him, “O Abū Ṣafwān! Have you forgotten what your Yathribi brother told you?” He said, “No, but I do not want to go with them but for a short distance.” So when Umaiyyah went out, he used to tie his camel wherever he camped. He kept on doing that till Allāh killed him (caused him to be killed) at Badr.

(3) CHAPTER. The story of the Ghazwah of Badr.

And the Statement of Allāh: “And Allāh has already made you victorious at Badr, when you were a weak little force. So fear Allāh much [abstain from all kinds of sins and evil deeds which He has forbidden and love Allāh much, perform all kinds of good deeds which He has ordained], that you may be grateful... So that they retire frustrated” (V.3:123-127)

Walshi said, “Hamza killed Tuʾaimah bint Adi bint Khiyār on the day of Badr.”

And Allāh’s Statement: “And (remember) when Allāh promised you (Muslims) one of the two parties (of the

(1) (H. 3950) So that he might be able to run away if he should find himself in danger.
enemy i.e., the army or the caravan) that it should be yours, you wished that the one not armed (i.e., the caravan) should be yours…”

(V.8:7)

3951. Narrated Ka'b bin Malik:
I never failed to join Allah’s Messenger in any of his Ghazwāt except in the Ghazwā of Tabūk. However, I did not take part in the Ghazwā of Badr, but none who failed to take part in it was blamed, for Allah’s Messenger had gone out to meet the caravans of Quraish, but Allah caused them (i.e., Muslims) to meet their enemy unexpectedly (with no previous intention).

(4) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah:
“(Remember) when you sought help of your Lord and He answered you (saying: ‘I will help you with a thousand of the angels each behind the other (following one another) in succession.’) Allah made it only as glad tidings, and that your hearts be at rest therewith. And there is no victory except from Allah. Verily, Allah is All-Mighty, All-Wise.

(Remember) when He covered you with a slumber as a security from Him, and He caused water (rain) to descend on you from the sky, to clean you thereby and to remove from you the Rijz (whispering, evil-suggestions) of Shaitân (Satan), and to strengthen your hearts, and make your feet firm thereby.

(Remember) when your Lord revealed to the angels, ‘Verily, I am with you, so keep firm those who have believed. I will cast terror into the hearts of those who have disbelieved, so strike them over the necks, and smite over all their fingers and toes.’ This is because they defied and disobeyed Allah and His Messenger. And whoever defies and disobeys Allah and His Messenger, then verily, Allah is Severe in punishment.” (V.8:9-13)

3952. Narrated Ibn Mas‘ūd: I witnessed Al-Miqdād bin Al-Aswad in a scene which would have been dearer to me than anything, had I been the hero of that scene. He (i.e., Al-Miqdād) came to the Prophet while the Prophet was urging the Muslims to fight against Al-Mushrikin [polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muḥammad (نبي)]. Al-Miqdād said, “We will not say as the people of Müsa (Moses) said: ‘...So, go you and your Lord and fight you two...’ (V.5:24). But we shall fight on your right and on your left and in front of you and behind you.” I saw the face of the Prophet getting bright with happiness, for that saying delighted him.

3953. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: On the day of the battle of Badr, the Prophet said, “O Allāh! I appeal to You (to fulfil) Your Covenant and Your Promise. O Allāh! If Your Will is that none should worship
You.” Then Abū Bakr took hold of him by the hand and said, “This is sufficient for you.” The Prophet came out saying, “Their multitude will be put to flight and they will show their backs.” (V.54:45)

(5) CHAPTER.

3954.Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The believers who failed to join (the Ghazwā of) Badr and those who took part in it are not equal (in reward).

(6) CHAPTER. The number of the warriors of Badr.

3955. Narrated Al-Bara‘ī: I and Ibn ‘Umar were considered too young (to take part in the battle of Badr).

3956. Narrated Al-Bara‘ī: I and Ibn ‘Umar were considered too young (to take part) in the battle of Badr, and the number of the emigrant warriors were over sixty (men) and the Anṣār were over 249.

3957. Narrated Al-Bara‘ī: The Companions of (the Prophet) Muḥammad who took part in (the battle of) Badr, told me that their number was that of Ṭālūt’s (i.e., Saul’s) companions who crossed the river (of Jordan) with him, and they were over three hundred and ten men. By Allah, none crossed the river with him but a believer. [See the Qur’an V.2:249]

3958. Narrated Al-Barā’ī: We, the Companions of (the Prophet) Muhammad ﷺ used to say that the number of the warriors of Badr was the same as the number of Ṭālūt’s (Saul’s) companions who crossed the river (of Jordan) with him, and none crossed the river with him but a believer, and they were over three hundred and ten men.

3959. Narrated Al-Barā’ī: We used to say that the warriors of Badr were over three hundred and ten, as many as the companions of Ṭālūt (Saul) who crossed the river (of Jordan) with him; and none crossed the river with him but a believer.

(7) CHAPTER. Invoking evil of the Prophet ﷺ on the disbelievers of Quraish, (Shaiba, ‘Utba, Al-Walid and Abū Jahl, etc.) and (the mention of their death.

3960. Narrated 'Abdullah bin Mas'ûd: The Prophet faced the Ka'bah and invoked evil on some people of Quraish, on Shaiba bin Rab'a, 'Utba bin Rab'a, Al-Walid bin 'Utba and Abu Jahl bin Hishâm. I bear witness, by Allah, that I saw them all dead, putrefied by the sun as that day was a very hot day (i.e., the day of the battle of Badr).

(8) CHAPTER. The killing of Abû Jahl.

3961. Narrated 'Abdullâh that he came across Abû Jahl while he was on the point of death on the day of (the battle of) Badr. Abû Jahl said, “You should not be proud that you have killed me, nor I am ashamed of being killed by my own folk.”

3962. Narrated Anas: The Prophet said, “Who will go and see what has happened to Abû Jahl?” Ibn Mas'ûd went and found that the two sons of 'Afrâ' had struck him fatally (and he was in his last breaths). 'Abdullâh bin Mas'ûd said, “Are you Abû Jahl?” And took him by the beard. Abû Jahl said, “Can there be a man superior to one whom they have killed, or one whom his own folk have killed?”
3963. Narrated Anas: On the day of (the battle of) Badr, the Prophet said, “Who will go and see what has happened to Abū Jahl?” Ibn Mas‘ūd went and found that the two sons of ‘Afrā’ had struck him fatally. ‘Abdullāh bin Mas‘ūd got hold of his beard and said, “Are you Abū Jahl?” He replied, “Can there be a man more superior to one whom his own folk have killed (or they have killed)?”

3964. Narrated ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin ‘Aūf (the grandfather of Šāliḥ bin Ibrāhīm) the story of Badr, namely, the narration regarding the sons of ‘Afrā’.

3965. Narrated Qais bin ‘Ubād: ‘Ali bin Abī Ṭalib said, “I shall be the first man to kneel down before (Allāh), the Gracious to receive His Judgement on the Day of Resurrection (in my favour).” Qais bin ‘Ubād also said, “The following Verse was revealed in their connection:

‘These two opponents (believers and disbelievers) dispute with each other about their Lord…’” (V.22:19) Qais said that they were those who fought on the day of (the battle of) Badr, namely, Ḥamza, ‘Alī, ‘Ubaida or Abū ‘Ubaida bin Al-Ḥārith, and Shaiba bin Rabī‘a, ‘Utba and Al-Walid bin ‘Utba.

3966. Narrated Abū Dhar: The following Holy Verse:

“These two opponents (believers and disbelievers) dispute with each other about their Lord…” (V.22:19) was revealed concerning six men from Quraish, namely, ‘Alī, Ḥamza, ‘Ubaida bin Al-Ḥārith, and Shaiba bin Rabī‘a, ‘Utba bin Rabī‘a and Al-Walid bin ‘Utba.

3967. Narrated ‘Alī: The following Holy Verse:

“These two opponents (believers and disbelievers) dispute with each other about their Lord…” (V.22:19) was revealed concerning us.

3968. Narrated Qais bin ‘Ubād: I heard Abū Dhar swearing that these Holy Verses were revealed in connection with those six persons on the day of (the battle of) Badr.
3969. Narrated Qais: I heard Abu Dhar swearing that the following Holy Verse: “These two opponents (believers and disbelievers) dispute with each other about their Lord…” (V.22:19) was revealed concerning those men who fought on the day of (the battle of) Badr, namely, Hamza, Ali, Ubaida bin Al-Harith, and Utba and Shaiba the two sons of Rabia, and Al-Walid bin Utba.

3970. Narrated Abu Ishaq: A man asked Al-Bara’ and I was listening, “Did Ali take part in (the battle of) Badr?” Al-Bara’ said, “(Yes), he even met (his enemies) in a duel and was clad in two armours (one over the other).”

3971. Narrated ‘Abdur-Rahman bin ‘Auf, I had an agreement with Umaiyya bin Khalaf (that he would look after my relatives and property in Makkah, and I would look after his relatives and property in Al-Madina). ‘Abdur-Rahman then mentioned the killing of Umaiyya and his son on the day of (the battle of) Badr, and Bilal said, “Woe to me if Umaiyya remains safe (i.e., alive).”
3972. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: The Prophet recited Sūrat An-Najm, and then prostrated himself, and all who were with him prostrated too. But an old man took a handful of dust and touched his forehead with it saying, “This is sufficient for me.” Later on, I saw him killed as an infidel.

3973. Narrated ‘Urwā (the son of Az-Zubair): Az-Zubair had three scars caused by the sword, one of which was over his shoulder and I used to insert my fingers in it. (1) He received two of those wounds on the day of (the battle of) Badr and one on the day of (the battle of) Al-Yarmūk. When ‘Abdullāh bin Az-Zubair was killed, ‘Abdul-Malik bin Marwān said to me, “O ‘Urwā, do you recognize the sword of Az-Zubair?” I said, “Yes.” He said, “What marks does it have?” I replied, “It has a dent in its sharp edge which was caused in it on the day of (the battle of) Badr.” ‘Abdul-Malik said, “You are right! (i.e., their swords) have dents because of clashing with the regiments of the enemies.” Then ‘Abdul-Malik returned that sword to me (i.e., ‘Urwā). Hishām, ‘Urwā’s son, said, “We estimated the price of the sword as three thousand (Dinār) and after that it was taken by one of us (i.e., the inheritors) and I wish I could have had it.”

(1) (H. 3973) ‘Urwā used to do so when he was a child.
3974. Narrated Hishām that his father said, “The sword of Az-Zubair was decorated with silver.” Hishām added, “The sword of ‘Urwa was (also) decorated with silver.”

3975. Narrated ‘Urwa: On the day of (the battle of) Al-Yarmūk, the Companions of Allāh’s Messenger said to Az-Zubair, “Will you attack the enemy so that we shall attack them with you?” Az-Zubair replied, “If I attack them, you people would not support me.” They said, “No, we will support you.” So Az-Zubair attacked them (i.e., Byzantines) and pierced through their lines, and went beyond them and none of his companions was with him. Then he returned, and the enemy got hold of the bridle of his horse and struck him two blows (with the sword) on his shoulder. Between these two wounds, there was a scar caused by a blow he had received on the day of (the battle of) Badr. When I was a child, I used to play with those scars by putting my fingers in them. On that day (my brother) ‘Abdullāh bin Az-Zubair was also with him and he was ten years old. Az-Zubair had carried him on a horse and let him to the care of some men.

saying among themselves, “Definitely he (i.e., the Prophet) is proceeding for some great purpose. When he halted at the edge of the well, he addressed the corpses of the Quraish infidels by their names and their fathers’ names, ‘O so-and-so, son of so-and-so and O so-and-so, son of so-and-so! Would it have pleased you if you had obeyed Allāh and His Messenger? We have found true what our Lord promised us. Have you, too, found true what your lord promised you?’ ‘Umar said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! You are speaking to bodies that have no souls!” Allāh’s Messenger said, “By Him in Whose Hand Muhammad’s soul is, you do not hear, what I say better than they do.”

Qatada said, “Allāh brought them to life (again) to let them hear him (i.e., the Prophet), to reprimand them and slight them and take revenge over them and caused them to feel remorseful and regretful.”

3977. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās regarding the Statement of Allāh: “Those who have changed the Blessings of Allāh into disbelief (by denying Prophet Muhammad and his Message of Islam),…” (V.14:28) The people meant here by Allāh, are the infidels of Quraish. ‘Amr, a subnarrator said, “Those are (the infidels of) Quraish, and Muhammad is Allāh’s Blessing.” Regarding Allāh’s Statement:

“...And caused their people to dwell in the house of destruction?” (V.14:28) Ibn ‘Abbās said, “It means the Fire they will suffer from (after their death) on the day (of the battle) of Badr.”
3978. Narrated Hishâm’s father: It was mentioned before ‘Aishah that Ibn ‘Umar attributed the following statement to the Prophet:

“The dead person is punished in the grave because of the crying and lamentation of his family.” On that ‘Aishah said, “But Allâh’s Messenger said, ‘The dead person is punished for his crimes and sins while his family cry over him then.’”

3979. ‘Aishah added, “And this is similar to the statement of Allâh’s Messenger when he stood by the well which contained the corpses of Al-Mushrikûn killed at Badr and said, ‘They hear what I say.’” She added, “But he said: ‘Now they know very well what I used to tell them was the truth.’” ‘Aishah then recited: “So verily, you (O Muhammad) cannot make the dead to hear...” (V.30:52). “...But you cannot make hear those who are in graves.” (V.35:22) that is, when they had taken their places in the (Hell) Fire.

3980, 3981. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet stood at the well of Badr (which contained the corpses of Al-Mushrikûn) and said, “Have you found true what your lord promised you?” Then he further said, “They now hear what I say.” This was mentioned before ‘Aishah and she said, “But the Prophet said, ‘Now they know very well that what I used to tell them was the truth.’” Then she recited (the Holy Verse): So verily, you (O Muḥammad) cannot make the dead to hear...” (V.30:52)
(9) CHAPTER. The superiority of those who fought the battle of Badr.

3982. Narrated Anas: Ḥāritha was martyred on the day (of the battle) of Badr, and he was a young boy then. His mother came to the Prophet and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! You know how dear Ḥāritha is to me. If he is in Paradise, I shall remain patient, and hope for reward from Allah, but if it is not so, then you shall see what I do?” He said, “May Allah be Merciful to you! Have you lost your senses? Do you think there is only one Paradise? There are many Paradises and your son is in the (most superior) Paradise of Al-Firdaus.”

3983. Narrated ‘Ali: Allah’s Messenger sent me, Abū Marthad and Az-Zubair, and all of us were horsemen, and said, “Go till you reach Raudat-Khākh where there is a woman from Al-Mushrikūn carrying a letter from Ḥāṭib bin Abī Balṭa’a to Mushrikūn of Makkah.” So we found her riding her camel at the place which Allah’s Messenger had mentioned. We said (to her), “(Give us) the letter.” She said, “I have no letter.” Then we made her camel kneel down and we searched her, but we did not found any letter. Then we said, “Certainly, Allah’s Messenger had not told us a lie. Take out the letter, otherwise we will strip you naked (to search for the letter).” When she saw that we were determined, she put her hand below her waistbelt, for she had tied her cloak round her waist, and we brought it to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ. Then Úmar said, “O Allah’s Messenger! (This Hàitch) has betrayed Allah, His Messenger ﷺ and the believers! Let me cut off his neck!” The Prophet ﷺ asked Hàitch, “What made you do this?” Hàitch said, “By Allah, I did not intend to give up my belief in Allah and His Messenger ﷺ, but I wanted to have some influence among the (Makkan) people, so that through it Allah might protect my family and property. There is none of your Companions but has some of his relatives there through whom Allah protects his family and property.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “He has spoken the truth; do not say to him but good.” Úmar said, “He has betrayed Allah, His Messenger ﷺ and the faithful believers. Let me cut off his neck!” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Is he not one of the Badr warriors? May be Allah looked at the Badr warriors and said, ‘Do whatever you like, as I have granted Paradise to you’, or said, ‘I have forgiven you.’” On hearing this, tears came out of Úmar’s eyes, and he said, “Allah and His Messenger ﷺ know better.”

(10) CHAPTER:

3984. Narrated Abû Usaid: On the day (of the battle) of Badr, Allah’s Messenger said to us, “When the enemy comes near to you, shoot at them but use your arrows sparingly (so that your arrows should not be wasted).”

3985. Narrated Abū Usaid: On the day (of the battle) of Badr, Allâh’s Messenger said to us, “When your enemy comes near to you, shoot at them but use your arrows sparingly.”

3986. Narrated Al-Barâ’ bin ‘Âzib: On the day (of the battle) of Uhud, the Prophet appointed ‘Abdullâh bin Jubair as chief of the archers, and seventy among us were martyred. On the day (of the battle) of Badr, the Prophet and his Companions had inflicted 140 casualties on the Mushrikûn, 70 were taken prisoners, and 70 were killed. Abû Sufyân said, “This is a day of (revenge) for the day (of the battle) of Badr and (the issue of) war is undecided (with) alternate success.”
3987.Narrated Abū Mūsa that the Prophet ﷺ said, “The good is what Allâh gave us later on (after the Day of the battle of Uhūd), and the reward of truthfulness is what Allâh gave us after the day (of the battle) of Badr.”\(^{(1)}\)

3988. Narrated ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin ‘Auf:

While I was fighting in the front file on the day (of the battle) of Badr, suddenly, I looked behind and saw on my right and left two young boys, and did not feel safe by standing between them. Then one of them asked me secretly so that his companion may not hear, “O Uncle! Show me Abū Jahl.” I asked, “O nephew! What will you do to him?” He said, “I have promised Allâh that if I see him (i.e., Abū Jahl), I will either kill him or be killed before I kill him.” Then the other (boy) said the same to me secretly so that his companion should not hear. I would not have been pleased to be in between two other men instead of them. Then I pointed him (i.e., Abū Jahl) out to them. Both of them attacked him like two hawks till they knocked him down. Those two boys were the sons of ‘Afrā’ (i.e., an Ansârī woman).

3989. Narrated Abū Hurairah:

Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ sent out ten spies under the command of ‘Âsîm bin Thâbit Al-Ansârî, the grandfather of ‘Âsîm bin ‘Umar Al-Khátáb. When they reached (a place called) Al-Hadah between 'Usfán and Makkah, their presence was made known to a subtribe of Hudhail called Banú Libyan. So, they sent about one hundred archers after them. The archers traced the footsteps (of the Muslims) till they found the traces of dates which they had eaten at one of their camping places. The archers said, “These dates are of Yathrib (i.e., Al-Madina),” and went on tracing the Muslims' footsteps. When 'Áshim and his companions became aware of them, they took refuge in a (high) place. But the enemy encircled them and said, “Come down and surrender. We give you a solemn promise and covenant that we will not kill anyone of you.” ‘Áshim bin Thábit said, “O people! As for myself, I will never get down to be under the protection of an infidel. O Allah! Inform Your Prophet about us.” So the archers threw their arrows at them and martyred ‘Áshim. Three of them came down and surrendered to them, accepting their promise and covenant and they were Khubaib, Zaid bin Ad-Dathina and another man. When the archers got hold of them, they untied the strings of the arrow bows and tied their captives with them. The third man said, “This is the first proof of treachery! By Allah, I will not go with you for I follow the example of these.” He meant the martyred companions. The archers dragged him and struggled with him (till they martyred him). Then Khubaib and Zaid bin Ad-Dathina were taken away by them and later on they sold them as slaves in Makkah after the event of the (battle of) Badr. The sons of Al-Ḥārith bin ‘Amr bin Naufal bought Khubaib for he was a person who had killed (their father) Al-Ḥārith bin ‘Amr on the day (of the battle) of Badr. Khubaib remained imprisoned by them till they decided unanimously to kill... him. One day, Khubaib borrowed from a daughter of Al-Hārith, a razor for shaving his pubic hair, and she lent it to him. By chance, while she was inattentive, a little son of hers went to him (Khubaib) and she saw that Khubaib had seated him on his thigh while the razor was in his hand. She was so much terrified that Khubaib noticed her fear and said, “Are you afraid that I will kill him? Never would I do such a thing.” Later on (while narrating the story) she said, “By Allah, I had never seen a better captive than Khubaib. By Allah, one day I saw him eating from a bunch of grapes in his hand while he was fettered with iron chains and (at that time) there was no fruit in Makkah.” She used to say, “It was food Allah had provided Khubaib with.” When they took him to Al-Hill out of Makkah sanctuary to martyr him, Khubaib requested them, “Allow me to offer a two Rak’a prayer.” They allowed him and he offered two Rak’a prayer and then said, “By Allah! Had I not been afraid that you would think I was worried, I would have offered more.” Then he (invoked evil upon them) saying, “O Allah count them and kill them one by one, and do not leave anyone of them.” Then he recited: “As I am martyred as a Muslim, I do not care in what way I receive my death for Allah’s sake, for this is for the Cause of Allah. If He wishes, He will bless the cut limbs of my body.” Then Abū Sarwa’a, ‘Ubayq bin Al-Hārith went up to him and killed him. It was Khubaib who set the tradition of offering Salāt (prayer) for any Muslim to be martyred in captivity (before he is executed). The Prophet  told his Companions of what had happened (to those ten spies) on the same day they were martyred. Some Qurāish people, being informed of ‘Āsim bin Thabit’s death, sent some messengers to bring a part of his body so that his death might be known for certain, for he had previously killed one of their leaders (in the battle of Badr). But Allâh sent a swarm of wasps to protect the dead body of ‘Ašîm, and they shielded him from the messengers who could not cut anything from his body.

3990. Narrated Nâfi': Ibn ‘Umar Zi was once told that Sa‘îd bin Zaid bin ‘Amr bin Nufâl, one of the warriors (of the battle) of Badr, had fallen ill on a Friday. Ibn ‘Umar rode to him late in the forenoon. The time of the Friday Salât (prayer) approached and Ibn ‘Umar did not take part in the Friday Salât.

3991. Narrated Subâ‘î‘a bint Al-Hârith that she was married to Sa‘îd bin Khâula who was from the tribe of Bânî ‘Amr bin Lu‘âî and was one of those who fought in the battle of Badr. He died while she was pregnant during Hajjât-ul-Wadâ‘. Soon after his death, she gave birth to a child. When she completed the term of delivery (i.e., became clean), she prepared herself for suitors. Abû As-Sanâbil bin Ba‘kâk, a man from the tribe of Bânî ‘Abd Ad-Dâr, called on her and said to her, "What! I see you dressed up for the people to ask you in marriage. Do you want to marry? By Allâh, you are not allowed to marry unless four months and ten days have elapsed (after your husband's death)."

Suba'îa in her narration said, "When he (i.e., Abû As-Sanâbl) said this to me, I put on my dress in the evening and went to Allâh's Messenger ﷺ and asked him about this problem. He gave the verdict that I was free to marry as I had already given birth to my child and ordered me to marry if I wished."

(11) CHAPTER. The participation of angels in (the battle of) Badr.

3992. Narrated Rifâ'a who was one of the warriors of the battle of Badr: Jibril (Gabriel) came to the Prophet and said, “How do you look upon the warriors of (the battle of) Badr among yourselves?” The Prophet said, “As the best of the Muslims,” or said a similar statement. On that Jibril said, “And so are the angels who participated in (the battle of) Badr.”

3993. Narrated Mu‘adh bin Rifā‘a bin Rāfi‘: Rifā‘a was one of the warriors of (the battle of) Badr while (his father) Rāfi‘ was one of the people of Al-Aqaba (i.e., those who gave the Al-Aqaba Pledge). Rāfi‘ used to say to his son, “I would not have been happier if I had taken part in the battle of Badr instead of taking part in the ‘Aqaba pledge.” (1) Mu‘adh added, “Jibril (Gabriel) asked the Prophet about that (i.e., the question referred to in Hadith No.3992).”

3994. Narrated Mu‘adh: The one who asked (the Prophet) was Jibril (Gabriel). علمنا السلام.

3995. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet said on the day (of the battle) of Badr, “This is Jibril (Gabriel) holding the head of his horse and equipped with arms for the battle."

(1) (H. 3993) Rāfi‘ regarded the event of Al-Aqaba Pledge as superior to the battle of Badr.

(12) CHAPTER.

3996. Narrated Anas: Abū Zaid died and did not leave any offspring, and he was one of the (warriors of the battle of) Badr.

3998. Narrated 'Urwa: Az-Zubair said, "I met 'Ubaida bin Sa'id bin Al-Āş on the day (of the battle) of Badr and he was covered with armour; so much that only his eyes were visible. He was surnamed Abū Dhāt-al-Karish. He said (proudly), 'I am Abū Dhāt-al-Karish.' I attacked him with the spear and pierced his eye and he died. I put my foot over his body to pull (that spear) out, but even then I had to use great force to take it out as its both ends were bent.” ‘Urwa said, “Later on, Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ asked Az-Zubair for that spear and he gave it to him. When Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ died, Az-Zubair took it back. After that Abû Bakr demanded it and he gave it to him; and when Abû Bakr died, Az-Zubair took it back. ‘Umar then demanded it from him and he gave it to him. When ‘Umar died, Az-Zubair took it back, and then ‘Uthmân demanded it from him and he gave it to him. When ‘Uthmân was martyred, that spear remained with ‘Ali’s offspring. Then ‘Abdullâh bin Az-Zubair demanded it back, and it remained with him till he was martyred.

3999. Narrated ‘Ubâda bin As-Sâmî who was one of the warriors of the battle of Badr: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Give me the Bai’a (pledge).”

4000. Narrated ‘Aishah ﷺ, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: Abû Hudhaifa, one of those who fought the battle of Badr with Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ, adopted Sâlim as his son and married his niece, Hind bint Al-Walîd bin ‘Utba to him. Sâlim was a freed slave of an Anṣârî woman. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ also adopted Zaid as his son. In the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance the custom was that, if one adopted a son, the people would call him by the name of the adopted father whom he would inherit as well, till Allāh revealed: “Call them (adopted sons) by (the names of) their fathers…” (V.33:5)

4001. Narrated Ar-Rubā’ī bint Mu’āwwidh: The Prophet ﷺ came to me after the morning of consummating my marriage and sat down on my bed, as you (the subnarrator) are sitting now, and small girls were beating the tambourine and singing in lamentation of my fathers who had been killed on the day of the battle of Badr. Then one of the girls said, “There is a Prophet amongst us who knows what will happen tomorrow.” The Prophet ﷺ said (to her), “Do not say this, but go on saying what you have spoken before.”

4002. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Abū Ṭalḥa, a Companion of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, and one of those who fought at (the battle of) Badr together with Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ told me that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Angels do not enter a house in which there is a dog or a picture.” He meant the images of creatures that have souls.

[See Vol. 7, Ḥadīth Nos. 5949, 5950, 5951].
4003. Narrated ‘Ali b. Abi Talib: I had a she-camel which I got in my share from the booty of the battle of Badr, and the Prophet ﷺ had given me another she-camel from the Khumus which Allâh had bestowed on him that day. And when I intended to marry Fâtima, the daughter of the Prophet ﷺ, I made an arrangement with a goldsmith from Bani Qainuqâ’ that he should go with me to bring Idhkhir (i.e., a kind of grass used by goldsmiths) which I intended to sell to goldsmiths in order to spend its price on the marriage banquet. While I was collecting ropes and sacks of packsaddles for my two she-camels, which were kneeling down beside an Ansa’î’s dwelling and after collecting what I needed, I suddenly found that the humps of the two she-camels had been cut off and their flanks had been cut open and portions of their livers had been taken out. On seeing that, I could not help weeping. I asked, “Who has done that?” They (i.e., the people) said, “Hamza b. ‘Abdul-Mu’talib has done it. He is present in this house with some Ansa’î drinkers, a girl singer, and his friends. The singer said in her song, “O Ḥamza, get at the fat she-camels!” On hearing this, Ḥamza rushed to his sword and cut off the camels’ humps and cut their flanks open and took out portions from their livers. Then I came to the Prophet ﷺ while Zaid b. Harîthah was with him. The Prophet ﷺ noticed my state and asked, “What is the matter?” I said, “O Allâh’s Messenger, I have never experienced such a day as today! Ḥamza attacked my two she-camels, cut off their humps and cut their flanks open, and he is still present in a house along with some drinkers.” The Prophet ﷺ asked for his cloak, put it on, and proceeded, followed by Zaid bin Hāritha and myself, till he reached the house where Ḥamza was present. He asked the permission to enter, and he was permitted. The Prophet ﷺ started blaming Ḥamza for what he had done. Ḥamza was drunk and his eyes were red. He looked at the Prophet ﷺ then raised his eyes to look at his knees and raised his eyes more to look at his face and then said, “You are not but my father’s slaves.” When the Prophet ﷺ understood that Ḥamza was drunk, he retreated, walking backwards, went out and we left with him.

4005. Narrated 'Abdullãh bin 'Umar

\textit{Umar bin Al-Khattab} said, "When (my daughter) extérieur bint 'Umar lost her husband Khunais bin Ḥudhaifa As-Sahmi, who was one of the Companions of Allāh's Messenger  and had fought in the battle of Badr and had died in Al-Madīna, I met 'Uthmān bin Affān and suggested that he should marry extérieur bint 'Umar saying, 'If you wish, I will marry extérieur bint 'Umar to you.' On that, he said, 'I will think it over.' I waited for a few days and then he said to me, 'I am of the opinion that I shall not marry at present.' Then I met Abū Bakr and said, 'If you wish, I will marry extérieur bint 'Umar.' He kept quiet and did not give me any reply and I became more angry with him than I was with 'Uthmān. Some days later, Allāh's Messenger  demanded her hand in marriage and I married her to him. Later on, Abū Bakr met me and said, 'Perhaps you were angry with me when you offered me extérieur for marriage and I gave no reply to you?' I said, 'Yes.' Abū Bakr said, 'Nothing prevented me from accepting your offer except that I learnt that Allāh's Messenger  had referred to the issue of extérieur; and I did not want to disclose the secret of Allāh's Messenger  , but had he (i.e., the Prophet ) given her up I would surely have accepted her.'"

4006. Narrated Abū Mas'ūd Al-Badri

\textit{The Prophet } said, "A man's..."
spending on his family is a deed of charity.”

4007. Narrated Az-Zuhri: I heard ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair talking to ‘Umar bin ‘Abdul-Aziz during the latter’s governorship (at Al-Madina), he said, “Al-Mughira bin Shu’ba delayed the ‘Asr prayer when he was the ruler of Al-Kufa. On that, Abu Mas’ud ‘Uqba bin Amr Al-Ansari, the grand-father of Zaid bin Hasan, who was one of the warriors of the battle of Badr, came in and said (to Al-Mughira), ‘You know that Jibril (Gabriel) came down and offered the Salat (prayer) and Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) offered five prescribed Salat (prayers), and Jibril said (to the Prophet): I have been ordered to do so (i.e., offer these five Salat (prayers) at these fixed stated times of the day).’”

4008. Narrated Abu Mas’ud Al-Badri: Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) said, “Whosoever recited the last two Verses of Surat Al-Baqarah at night, that will be sufficient for him.”

4009. Narrated Mahmud bin Ar-Rabi’ that ‘Ibân bin Malik who was one of the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ, and one of the warriors of (the battle of) Badr, came to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ.

4010. Narrated Ibn Shihāb: I asked Al-Huṣain bin Mūhammad, who was one of the sons of Sālim and one of the nobles amongst them, about the narration of Māhmūd bin Ar-Rab’ from ‘Ībān bin Mālik, and he confirmed it.

4011. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amir bin Rab‘a who was one of the leaders of Bānī ‘Adī and his father participated in the battle of Badr in the company of the Prophet ﷺ: ‘Umar appointed Qudāma bin Maz‘ūn as ruler of Bahrān, Qudāma was one of the warriors of the battle of Badr and was the maternal uncle of ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar and Hafṣa رضي الله عنهم.

4012, 4013. Narrated Az-Zuhrī: Sālim bin ‘Abdullāh told me that Rāfī’ bin Khadij told ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar that his two paternal uncles, who had fought in the battle of Badr, informed him that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ forbade the renting of fields (for their yields but allowed for money). I said to Sālim, “Do you rent your land?” He said, “Yes, for Rāfī’ is mistaken.”

4015. Narrated Al-Miswar bin Makhrama that ‘Amr bin ‘Aţīf, who was an ally of Bani ‘Amir bin Lu‘ai and one of those who fought at (the battle of) Badr in the company of the Prophet ﷺ, said, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ sent Abū ‘Ubaydah bin Al-Jarrah to Bahrain to bring the Jizya taxation from its people, for Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ had made a peace treaty with the people of Bahrain and appointed Al-‘Ala’ bin Al-Hadramī as their ruler. So, Abū ‘Ubayda arrived with the money from Bahrain. When the Anṣār heard of the arrival of Abū ‘Ubayda (on the next day), they offered the morning Salāt (prayer) with the Prophet ﷺ and when the morning Salāt (prayer) had finished, they presented themselves before him. On seeing the Anṣār, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ smiled and said, “I think you have heard that Abū ‘Ubayda has brought something?” They replied, “Indeed, it is so, O Allāh’s Messenger!” He said, “Be happy, and hope for what will please you. By Allāh, I am not afraid that you will be poor, but I fear that worldly wealth will be bestowed upon you as it was bestowed upon those who lived before you. So, you will compete amongst yourselves for it, as they competed for it and it will destroy you as it destroyed them.”
4016. Narrated Nafi‘: Ibn ‘Umar used to kill all kinds of snakes.

4017. Until Abū Lubāba Al-Badri told him that the Prophet had forbidden the killing of harmless snakes living in houses called jinnān. So Ibn ‘Umar gave up killing them.

4018. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Some men of the Ansār requested Allah’s Messenger to allow them to see him, they said, “Allow us to forgive the ransom of our sister’s son, ‘Abbas.” The Prophet said, “By Allah, you will not leave a single Dirham of it from him.”

4019. Narrated ‘Ubaidullāh bin ‘Adī bin Al-Khiyār that Al-Miqdād bin ‘Amr Al-Kindī, who was an ally of Banī Zuhra, and one of those who fought the battle of Badr together with Allah’s Messenger told him that he said to Allah’s Messenger, “Suppose I met one of the infidels and we fought, and he struck one of my hands with his sword and cut it off and then took refuge in a tree and said, ‘I surrender to Allah (i.e., I have become a Muslim),’ could I kill him, O Allah’s Messenger, after he had said this?” Allah’s Messenger said, “You should not kill him.” Al-Miqdād said, “O Allah’s Messenger! But he had cut off one of my two hands, and then he had uttered those words?” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ replied, “You should not kill him, for if you kill him, he would be in your position where you had been before killing him, and you would be in his position where he had been before uttering those words.”

4020. Narrated Anas: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said on the day (of the battle) of Badr, “Who will go and see what has happened to Abū Jahl?” Ibn Mas’ūd went and saw him struck by the two sons of ‘Afrā’ and was on the point of death. Ibn Mas’ūd said, “Are you Abū Jahl?” Abū Jahl replied, “Can there be a man more superior to the one whom they have killed (or as Sulaimān said, ‘or is killed by his own folk’)?” Abū Jahl added, “Would that I had been killed by other than a mere farmer.”

died I said to Abū Bakr, ‘Let us go to our Anṣāri brethren.’ We met two pious men from them, who had fought in the battle of Badr.” When I mentioned this to ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair, he said, “Those two pious men were ‘Uwaim bin Sā‘īda and Ma‘n bin ‘Adī.”

4022. Narrated Qais: The warriors of the battle of Badr were given five thousand (Dirham) each, yearly. ‘Umar said, “I will surely give them more than what I will give to others.”

4023. Narrated Jubair bin Mu‘t’im: I heard the Prophet  reciting Sūrat At-Tūr in the Maghrib prayer, and that was at a time when Belief was first planted in my heart.

4024. Jubair added: The Prophet  while speaking about the prisoners of war of Badr, said, “Were Al-Muṭ‘im bin ‘Adī alive and interceded with me for these filthy people, I would have definitely forgiven them for his sake.”

Narrated Sa‘īd bin Al-Musaiyab: When the first civil strife (in Islam) took place because of the murder of ‘Uthmān, it left none of the Badr warriors alive. When the second civil strife, that is the battle of Al-Harra, took place, it left none of the Hudaiyya Treaty companions alive. Then the third civil strife took place and it did not subside till it had exhausted all the strength of the people.

4025. Narrated Yūnus bin Yazīd: I heard Az-Zuhri saying, “I heard ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair, Sa‘īd bin Al-Musa‘iyab, ‘Alqama bin Waqqās and ‘Ubaidullāh bin ‘Abdullāh each narrating part of the narrative concerning ‘Āishah, the wife of the Prophet. ‘Āishah said: When I and Umm Mistah were returning, Umm Mistah stumbled by treading on the end of her robe, and on that she said, ‘May Mistah be ruined.’ I said, ‘You have said a bad thing, you curse a man who took part in the battle of Badr!’” Az-Zuhri then narrated the narration of the Al-luk [slander (forged false statement) against ‘Āishah]. (See H. 2661)

4026. Narrated Ibn Shihāb: These were the battles of Allāh’s Messenger (which he fought), and while mentioning (the battle of Badr) he said, “While the corpses of Al-Mushrikūn were being thrown into the well, Allāh’s Messenger said (to them), ‘Have you found what your Lord promised true?’” ‘Abdullāh said, “Some of the Prophet’s Companions said, ‘O Allāh’s Messenger!

(1) (H. 4024) The people of Al-Madīna were massacred by Yazīd’s army.
You are addressing dead people.” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ replied, “You do not hear what I am saying better than they.” The total number of Muslim fighters from Quraish who fought in the battle of Badr and were given their share of the booty were 81 men. Az-Zubair said, “When their shares were distributed, their number was 100 men. Allāh knows it better.”

4027. Narrated Az-Zubair: “On the day (of the battle) of Badr, emigrants received 100 shares of the war booty.”

(13) CHAPTER. A list of the names of those who took part in the battle of Badr, Compiled by Abū ‘Abdullāh (Al-Bukhārī):

Prophet Muḥammad bin ‘Abdullāh Al-Hāshimi ﷺ, Abū Bakr Aṣ-Ṣiddiq, ‘Umar, ‘Uṯmān, ‘Ali bin Abī Ṭālib, Iyās bin Al-Bukair, Bilāl bin Rabāḥ Maulā (i.e., freed slave of) Abū Bakr Aṣ-Ṣiddiq, Hamza bin ‘Abdul-Muṭṭalib Al-Hāshimi, Ḥāṭib bin Abī Balta’a — ally of Quraish, Abū Hudhaiha bin ‘Utba bin Rabi’a Qurashi, Ḥāritha bin Ar-Rabi’ Al-Anṣārī (i.e., Ĥāritha bin Surāqa) who was martyred on the day of the battle of Badr and was one of the scouts (observers). Khubaib bin ‘Adī Al-Anṣārī, Khunais bin Ḥudhaiha As-Sahmi, Rifā’a bin Rāfī’ Al-Anṣārī, Rifā’a bin ‘Abdul-Mundhir, Abū
(14) CHAPTER. The story of Banî An-Nadîr. And the going of Allâh's Messenger ﷺ to them asking their help in collecting the blood-money of the two men. And how Banî An-Nadîr betrayed Allâh's Messenger ﷺ by breaking the covenant with him.

‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair said, "This incident (i.e., the Ghazwâ of Banî An-Nadîr) took place six months after the battle of Badr and before the battle of Uhud."

And the Statement of Allâh ﷻ:

"He it is Who drove out the disbelievers among the people of the Scripture (i.e. the Jews of the tribe of Banî An-Nadîr) from their homes at the first gathering.....(V.59:2)

Ibn Ishâq thinks that it (i.e., that Ghazwâ) took place after the (event of) Bi‘r Ma‘una and (the Ghazwâ) of Uhud.

4028. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهم: Banî An-Nadîr and Banî Quraîsa fought (against the Prophet ﷺ violating their peace treaty), so the Prophet ﷺ exiled Banî An-Nadîr and allowed Banî Quraîsa to remain at their places (in Al-Madîna) taking nothing from them till they fought against the Prophet ﷺ again. He then killed their men and distributed their women, children and property among the Muslims, but some of them came to the Prophet and he granted them safety, and they embraced Islam. He exiled all the Jews from Al-Madina, they were the Jews of Bani Qainuq'a, the tribe of 'Abdullah bin Salām and the Jews of Bani Ḥāritha and all the other Jews of Al-Madina.

4030. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Some people used to allot some date-palm trees to the Prophet as a gift till he conquered Bani Quraiṣa and Bani An-Nadīr, where upon he started returning their date-palms to them.

4031. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allāh’s Messenger burnt and cut down the date-palm trees of Bani An-Nadīr at a place called Al-Buwaira. Allāh then revealed:

“What you (O Muslims) cut down of the date-palm trees (of the enemy) or you left them standing on their stems. It was by the Leave of Allāh…” (V.59:5)
4032. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: The Prophet burnt the date-palm trees of Bani An-Nadir. Hassân bin Thâbit said the following poetic verses about this event:

The terrible burning of Al-Buwaira
Has been received indifferently by the nobles of Bani Lu’â"î
(The masters and nobles of Quraish).”

‘Abû Sufyân bin Al-Hârîth (i.e., the Prophet’s cousin who was still a disbeliever then) replied to Hassân, saying in poetic verses:

May Allah bless that burning
And set all its (i.e., Al-Madîna’s) parts on burning fire.
You will see who is far from it (i.e., Al-Buwaira)
And which of our lands will be harmed by it (i.e., the burning of Al-Buwaira).”

4033. Narrated Mâlik bin Aus Al-Ḥadathân An-Nâṣrî that once ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭâb called him and while he was sitting with him, his gatekeeper, Yarfa came and said, “Will you admit ‘Uthmân, ‘Abdur-Raḥmân bin ‘Auﬁ, Az-Zubair and Sa’d (bin Abî Waqqâs) who are waiting for your permission?” ‘Umar said, “Yes, let them come in.” After a while, Yarfa came again and said, “Will you admit ‘Ali and ‘Abbâs who are asking your permission?” ‘Umar said, “Yes.” So, when the two entered, ‘Abbâs said, “O chief of the believers! Judge between me and this (i.e., ‘Ali).” Both of them had a dispute regarding the property of Bani An-Nadir which Allah (1) (H. 4032) Hassân is abusing Quraish who had tempted Bani An-Nadir to break the covenant with Allah’s Messenger and promised to help them in case he attacked them, but they did not keep their promise when the Prophet attacked and overcame them.
had given to His Messengerﷺ as Fai (i.e., booty gained without fighting), 'Ali and 'Abbās started reproaching each other. The people (i.e., 'Uthmān and his companions) said, "O chief of the believers! Give your verdict in their case and relieve each from the other." 'Umar said, "Wait, I beseech you, by Allāh, by Whose Permission both the heaven and the earth exist! Do you know that Allāh's Messengerﷺ said, 'We, (Prophets) our properties are not to be inherited, and whatever we leave, is to be spent in charity,' and he said it about himself?" They (i.e., 'Uthmān and his companions) said, "(No doubt) he said so." 'Umar then turned towards 'Ali and 'Abbās and said, "I beseech you both, by Allāh! Do you know that Allāh's Messengerﷺ said so?" They replied in the affirmative. He said, "Now I am talking to you about this matter. Allāh, the Glorified, favoured His Messengerﷺ with something of this Fai which He did not give to anybody else. Allāh's Messengerﷺ said:

'And what Allāh gave as booty (Fai) to His Messenger (Muhammadﷺ) from them, for which you made no expedition with either cavalry or camelry... (up to)... Able to do all things.' (V.59:6)

So this property was especially granted to Allāh's Messengerﷺ. But by Allāh, the Prophetﷺ neither took it all for himself only, nor deprived you of it, but he gave it to all of you and distributed it amongst you till only this remained out of it. And from this, Allāh's Messengerﷺ used to spend the yearly maintenance for his family, and whatever used to remain, he used to spend it where Allāh's Property is spent (i.e., in charity). Allāh's Messengerﷺ kept on acting like that during all his life. Then he died, and Abū Bakr said, 'I am the successor of Allāh's Messengerﷺ.' So he (Abū Bakr) took charge of this property and disposed it in the same manner as Allah's Messenger used to do, and all of you (at that time) knew all about it.” Then ‘Umar turned towards ‘Ali and ‘Abbas and said, “You both remember that Abū Bakr disposed it in the way you (‘Ali and Abbas) have both seen and Allah knows that, in that matter, he was sincere, pious, rightly-guided and the follower of the right. Then Allah caused Abū Bakr to die and I said, ‘I am the successor of Allah’s Messenger and Abū Bakr.’ So, I kept this property in my possession for the first two years of my rule (i.e., caliphate) and I used to dispose it in the same way as Allah’s Messenger and Abū Bakr used to do; and Allah knows that I have been sincere, pious, rightly-guided and the follower of the right (in this matter). Later on, both of you (i.e., ‘Ali and ‘Abbas) came to me, and the claim of you both was one and the same. O ‘Abbas! You also came to me. So I told you both that Allah’s Messenger said, ‘Our property is not inherited, but whatever we leave is to be spent in charity.’ Then when I thought that I should better hand over this property to you both. I said to you, ‘If you wish I will hand over this property to you both on the condition that you will promise and pledge before Allah that you will dispose it in the same way as Allah’s Messenger and Abū Bakr did and as I have done since the beginning of my caliphate, or else you should not speak to me (about it).’ So, both of you said to me, ‘Hand it over to us on this condition.’ And on this condition I handed it over to you. Do you want me now to give a decision other than that (decision)? By Allah, with Whose Permission both the heaven and the earth exist, I will never give any decision other than that (decision) till the Hour is established. But if you are unable to manage it (i.e., that property), then return it to me, and I will manage on your behalf.”

4034. The subnarrator said, “I told ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair of this Hadith and he said, ‘Malik bin Aus has told the truth. I heard ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet saying, ‘The wives of the Prophet sent ‘Uthman to Abu Bakr demanding from him their one-eight of the Fai which Allah had granted to His Messenger. But I used to oppose them and say to them: Will you not fear Allah? Don’t you know that the Prophet used to say: Our property is not inherited, but whatever we leave is to be given in charity? The Prophet mentioned that regarding himself.’ He added: The family of Muhammad can take their sustenance from this property. So the wives of the Prophet stopped demanding it when I told them of that.’ So, this property (of Sadaqa) was in the hands of ‘Ali who withheld it from ‘Abbas and overpowered him. Then it came in the hands of Hasan bin ‘Ali, then in the hands of Husain bin ‘Ali, and then in the hands of ‘Ali bin Husain and Hasan bin ‘Hasan, and each of the last two used to manage it in turn, then it came in the hands of Zaid bin Hasan, and it was truly the Sadaqa of Allah’s Messenger.”

4035. Narrated ‘Aishah: ‘Fatima and Al-‘Abbas came to Abu Bakr, claiming their inheritance of the Prophet’s land of Fadak and his share from Khaibar.
4036. Abu Bakr said, “I heard the Prophet – saying, ‘Our property is not inherited, and whatever we leave is to be given as Sadaqa (in charity). But the family of Muhammad – can take their sustenance from this property.’ By Allah, I would love to do good to the kith and kin of Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) rather than to my own kith and kin.”

(15) CHAPTER. The killing of Ka’b bin Al-Ashraf.

4037. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh ．: Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) said “Who will kill Ka’b bin Al-Ashraf who has hurt Allah and His Messenger?” Thereupon Muhammad bin Maslama got up saying, “O Allah’s Messenger! Would you like that I kill him?” The Prophet (ﷺ) said, “Yes.” Muhammad bin Maslama said, “Then allow me to say a thing (i.e., to deceive Ka’b).” The Prophet said, “You may say it.” Then Muhammad bin Maslama went to Ka’b and said, “That man (i.e., Muhammad –) demands Sadaqa from us, and he has troubled us, and I have come to borrow something from you.” On that, Ka’b said, “By Allah, you will get tired of him!” Muhammad bin Maslama said, “Now as we have followed him, we do not want to leave him unless and until we see how his end is going to be. Now, we want you to lend us a camel load or two of food.” (Some difference between narrators about a camel load or two). Ka’b said “Yes (I will lend you), but you should mortgage something to me.” Muhammad bin Maslama and his companion said, “What do you want?” Ka’b replied, “Mortgage your women to me.” They said, “How can we mortgage our women to you and you are the most handsome of the Arabs?” Ka'b said, “Then mortgage your sons to me.” They said, “How can we mortgage our sons to you? Later they would be abused by the people’s saying that so-and-so has been mortgaged for a camel load of food. That would cause us great disgrace, but we will mortgage our arms to you.” Muḥammad bin Maslama and his companion promised Ka'b that they or he (Muḥammad bin Maslama) would return to him. He came to Ka'b at night along with Ka'b’s foster brother (milk suckling brother), Abū Nā'īla. Ka'b invited them to come into his fort, and then he went down to them. His wife asked him, “Where are you going at this time?” Ka'b replied, “None but Muḥammad bin Maslama and my (foster — milk suckling) brother Abū Nā'īla have come.” His wife said, “I hear a voice as if blood is dropping from him.” Ka'b said, “They are none but my brother Muḥammad bin Maslama and my foster (milk suckling) brother Abu Nā'īla. A generous man should respond to a call at night, even if invited to be killed.” Muḥammad bin Maslama went with two men. (Some narrators mention the men as Abū ‘Abs bin Jabr, Al-Ḥārith bin Aūs and ‘Abbād bin Bishr.) So Muḥammad bin Maslama went in together with two men, and said to them, “When Ka'b comes, I will touch his hair and smell it, and when you see that I have got hold of his head, strike him.” The subnarrator also mentioned that Muḥammad bin Maslama said to his companions, “I will let you smell his head.” Ka'b bin Al-Ashraf came down to them, wrapped in his clothes, and diffusing perfume. Muḥammad bin Maslama said, “I have never smelt a better scent than this.” Ka'b replied, “I have got the best Arab women who know how to use the high class of perfume.’ Muhammad bin Maslama requested Ka’b, “Will you allow me to smell your head?” Ka’b said, “Yes.” Muhammad smelled it and made his companions smell it as well. Then he requested Ka’b again, “Will you let me smell your head?” Ka’b said, “Yes.” When Muhammad got a strong hold of him, he said (to his companions), “Get at him!” So, they killed him and went to the Prophet ﷺ and informed him.

(16) CHAPTER. The killing of Abū Rāfī’, ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Al-Ḥuqaiq and he was also called Salām bin Abī Al-Ḥuqaiq who used to live in Khaibar, and some said that he used to live in his castle in the land of Ḥijāz.

Az-Zuhri said, “He (Abū Rāfī’) was killed after Ka’b bin Al-Ashraf.”

4038. Narrated Al-Bara’ bin ‘Āzib ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ sent a group of men to Abū Rāfī’. So, ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Atik entered his house at night, while he (Abū Rāfī’) was sleeping, and killed him.

[See Hadith No. 4039).

4039. Narrated Al-Bara’ bin ‘Āzib ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ sent some men from the Ansār to (kill) the Jew Abū Rāfī’, and appointed ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Atik as their leader. Abū Rāfī’ used to hurt Allah’s Messenger and help his enemies against him. He lived in his castle in the land of Hijāz. When those men approached (the castle) after the sun had set and the people had brought back their livestock to their homes, ‘Abdullâh (bin ‘Atik) said to his companions, “Sit down at your places. I am going, and I will try to play a trick on the gate-keeper so that I may enter (the castle).” So, ‘Abdullâh proceeded towards the castle, and when he approached the gate, he covered himself with his clothes, pretending to answer the call of nature. The people had gone in, and the gate-keeper (considered ‘Abdullâh as one of the castle’s servants) addressing him saying, “O Allah’s slave! Enter if you wish, for I want to close the gate.” ‘Abdullâh added in his story, “So, I went in (the castle) and hid myself. When the people got inside, the gate-keeper closed the gate and hung the keys on a fixed wooden peg. I got up and took the keys and opened the gate. Some people were staying late at night with Abû Rafî’ for a pleasant night chat in one of his room. When his companions of nightly entertainment went away, I ascended to him, and whenever I opened a door, I closed it from inside. I said to myself, ‘Should these people discover my presence, they will not be able to catch me till I have killed him.’ So I reached him and found him sleeping in a dark place (house) amidst his family, I could not recognize his location in the house. So I shouted, ‘O Abû Rafî’! Furniture said, ‘Who is it?’ I proceeded towards the source of the voice and hit him with the sword, and because of my perplexity, I could not kill him. He cried loudly, and I came out of the house and waited for a while, and then went to him again and said, ‘What is this voice, O Abû Rafî’?” He said, ‘Woe to your mother! A man in my house has hit me with a sword!’ I again hit him severely but I did not kill him. Then I drove the point of the sword into his belly (and pressed it through) till it touched his back, and I realised that I have killed him. I then opened the doors one by one till I reached the staircase, and thinking that I had reached the ground, I stepped out and fell down and got my leg broken in a moonlit night. I tied my leg with a turban and proceeded on till I sat at the gate, and said, ‘I will not go out tonight till I know that I have killed him.’ So, when (early in the morning) the cock crowed, the announcer of the casualty stood on the wall saying, ‘I announce the death of Abū Rafi’, the merchant of Hijāz.’ Thereupon I went to my companions and said, ‘Let us save ourselves, for Allāh has killed Abū Rafi.’ So, I (along with my companions proceeded and) went to the Prophet ﷺ and described the whole story to him. He said, ‘Stretch out your (broken) leg’. I stretched it out and he rubbed it and it became alright as if I never had any ailment whatsoever.

4040. Narrated Al-Barā’ī: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ sent ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Atik and ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Utba with a group of men to Abū Rāfī’ (to kill him). They proceeded till they approached his castle, whereupon ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Atik said to them, “Wait (here), and in the meantime I will go and see.” ‘Abdullāh said later on, “I played a trick in order to enter the castle. By chance, they lost a donkey of theirs and came out carrying a flaming light to search for it. I was afraid that they would recognize me, so I covered my head and legs and pretended to answer the call of nature. The gate-keeper called, 'Whoever wants to come in, should come in before I close the gate.' So, I went in and hid myself in a stall of a donkey near the gate of the castle. They took their supper with Abū Rafi' and had a chat till late at night. Then they went back to their homes. When the voices vanished and I no longer detected any movement, I came out. I had seen where the gate-keeper had kept the keys of the castle in a hole in the wall. I took it and unlocked the gate of the castle, saying to myself, 'If these people should notice me, I will run away easily.' Then I locked all the doors of their houses from outside while they were inside, and ascended to Abū Rafi' by a staircase. I saw the house in complete darkness with its light off, and I could not know where the man was. So I called, 'O Abū Rafi!" He replied, 'Who is it?' I proceeded towards the voice and hit him. He cried loudly but my blow was futile. Then I came to him, pretending to help him, saying with a different tone of my voice. 'What is wrong with you, O Abū Rafi?' He said, 'Are you not surprised? Woe on your mother! A man has come to me and hit me with a sword!' So again I aimed at him and hit him, but the blow proved futile again, and on that Abū Rafi' cried loudly and his wife got up. I came again and changed my voice as if I were a helper, and found Abū Rafi' lying straight on his back, so I drove the sword into his belly and bent on it till I heard the sound of a bone break. Then I came out, filled with astonishment and went to the staircase to descend, but I fell down from it and got my leg dislocated. I bandaged it and went to my companions limping. I said (to them), ‘Go and tell Allâh’s Messenger of this good news, but I will not leave (this place) till I hear the news of his (i.e., Abu Râfi’) death.’ When dawn broke, an announcer climbed over the wall and announced, ‘I convey to you the news of the death of Abu Râfi’. I got up and proceeded without feeling any pain till I caught up with my companions before they reached the Prophet to whom I conveyed the good news.”

(17) CHAPTER. The Ghazwâ of Uhud(1).

And the Statement of Allâhتعالى:

“‘And (remember) when you (O Muḥammad) left your household in the morning to post the believers at their stations for battle, (of Uhud). And Allâh is All-Hearer, All-Knower.” (V.3:121)

Also the Statement of Allâhتعالى:

(1) (Ch. 17) Uhud is a well-known mountain in Al-Madîna where the battle took place in the month of Shawwâl in the 3rd year of Hijrah between Muslims and Quraish Mushrikûn.
"So do not become weak (against your enemy), nor be sad, and you will be superior (in victory) if you are indeed (true) believers. If a wound (and killing) had touched you, be sure a similar wound (and killing) has touched the others. And so are the days (good and not so good). We give to men by turns, that Allah may test those who believe, and that He may take martyrs from among you. And Allah likes not the Zalimun (wrong-doers, polytheists). And that Allah may test (or purify) the believers (from sins), and destroy the disbelievers. Do you think that you will enter Paradise before Allah tests those of you who fought (in His Cause) and (also) tests those who are As-Sabirun (the patient)? You did indeed wish for death (Ash-Shahadah – martyrdom) before you met it. Now you have seen it openly with your own eyes." (V.3:139-143)

And His Statement:

"And Allah did indeed fulfil His Promise to you when you were killing them (your enemy)... (till the end of the Verse) ... And Allah is Most Gracious to the believers." (V.3:152)

And His Statement:

"Think not of those as dead who are killed in the Way of Allah ..." (V.3:169)

4041. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: On the day of the battle of Uhud, the Prophet said, "This is Jibril (Gabriel) holding the head of his horse and equipped with war weapons."

4042. Narrated ‘Uqba bin ‘Amir: Allah’s Messenger offered the funeral prayers of the martyrs of the battle of Uḥud eight years after (their death), as if bidding farewell to the living and the dead, then he ascended the pulpit and said, “I am your predecessor before you, and I am a witness over you, and your promised place to meet me, will be Al-Haud (i.e., tank – Al-Kauthar) (on the Day of Resurrection), and I am (now) looking at it from this place of mine. I am not afraid that you will worship others besides Allah, but I am afraid that worldly life will tempt you and cause you to compete with each other for it.” The narrator added, “That was the last look which I cast on Allah’s Messenger ﷺ.”

4043. Narrated Al-Bara’ bin ‘Azīz: We faced Al-Mushrikūn [polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad ﷺ] on that day (of the battle of Uḥud) and the Prophet ﷺ placed a batch of archers (at a special place) and appointed ‘Abdullāh (bin Jubair) as their commander and said, “Do not leave this place; and if you should see us conquering the enemy, do not leave this place, and if you should see them conquering us, do not (come to) help us.” So, when we faced the enemy, they took to their heel till I saw their women running towards the mountain, lifting up their clothes from their legs, revealing their leg-bangles. The Muslims started saying, “The booty, the booty!” ‘Abdullāh bin Jubair said, “The Prophet ﷺ had taken a firm promise from me not to leave this place.” But his companions refused (to stay). So when they refused (to stay there), (Allāh) confused them so that they could not know where to go, and they suffered seventy casualties. Abū Sufyān ascended a high place and said, “Is Muhammad (ﷺ) present amongst the people?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Do not answer him.” Abū Sufyān said, “Is the son of Abū Quḥāfa present among the people?” He then added, “All these people have been killed, for, were they alive, they would have replied.” On that, ‘Umar could not help saying, “You are a liar, O enemy of Allāh! Allāh has kept what will make you unhappy.” Abū Safyān said, “High may be Hubal!” On that the Prophet ﷺ said (to his Companions), “Reply to him.” They asked, “What may we say?” He said, “Say: Allāh is More High and More Majestic!” Abū Sufyān said, “We have (the idol) Al-‘Uzza, whereas you have no ‘Uzza!” The Prophet ﷺ said (to his Companions), “Reply to him.” They asked, “What may we say?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Say: Allāh is our Maulā (Helper) and you have no Maulā (helper).” Abū Sufyān said, “(This) day compensates for our loss at Badr and (in) the battle (the victory) is always undecided and shared in turns by the belligerents. You will see some of your dead men mutilated, but neither did I urge this action, nor am I sorry for it.”

4044. Narrated Jābir: Some people took wine in the morning of the day of Uhud and were then killed as martyrs.

4045. Narrated Sa‘d b. Ibrāhīm: A meal

was brought to 'Abdur-Rahmân bin ‘Aufl while he was observing fast. He said, “Muṣ‘ab bin ‘Umair was martyred, and he was better than I; yet he was shrouded in a Burda (i.e., a sheet) so that, if his head was covered, his feet became bare, and if his feet were covered, his head became bare.” ‘Abdur-Rahmân added, “Hamza was martyred and he was better than I. Then worldly wealth was bestowed upon us and we were given thereof too much. We are afraid that the reward of our deeds have been given to us in this life.” ‘Abdur-Rahmân then started weeping so much that he left the food.

4046. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh: On the day (of the battle) of Uhud, a man came to the Prophet and said, “Can you tell me where I will be if I should get martyred?” The Prophet replied, “In Paradise.” The man threw away some dates he was carrying in his hand, and fought till he was martyred.

4047. Narrated Khabbâb bin Al-Arât: We emigrated in the company of Allah’s Messenger seeking Allah’s Pleasure. So our reward became due and sure with Allah. Some of us have been dead without enjoying anything of their rewards (in this life), and one of them was Muṣ‘ab bin ‘Umair who was martyred on the day (of the battle) of Uhud, and did not leave anything except a Namira (i.e., a sheet in which he was shrouded). If we covered his head with it, his feet became bare, and if we covered his feet with it, his head became bare. So the Prophet \(\text{a}\) said to us, “Cover his head with it and put some \text{Idhkhir} (i.e., a kind of grass) over his feet’’ or said, “throw \text{Idhkhir} over his feet.’’ But some amongst us have got the fruits of their labour ripened, and they are collecting them.

4048. Narrated Anas: His uncle (Anas bin An-Nadr) was absent from the battle of Badr and he said, “I was absent from the first battle of the Prophet \(\text{a}\) (i.e., the battle of Badr), and if Allah should let me participate in (a battle) with the Prophet \(\text{a}\), Allah will see how valiantly I will fight.” So he encountered the day of (the battle of) Uhud. The Muslims fled and he said, “O Allah! I appeal to You to excuse for what these people (i.e., the Muslims) have done, and I am clear from what \text{Al-Mushrikun} have done.” Then he went forward with his sword and met Sa’d bin Mu’adh (fleeing), and asked him, “Where are you going, O Sa’d? I am smelling the aroma of Paradise before Ubud.” Then he proceeded on and was martyred. Nobody was able to recognize him till his sister recognized him by a mole on his body, or by the tips of his fingers. He had over 80 wounds caused by stabbing, striking or shooting with arrows.

4049. Narrated Zaid bin Thabit: When we wrote the Qur’an, I missed one of the Verses of \text{Sūrat Al-Ahzāb} which I used to hear Allah’s Messenger \(\text{a}\) reciting. Then we searched for it and found it with Khuzaima bin Thabit Al-Anṣāri. The Verse was:

“Among the believers are men who have been true to their covenant with Allah [i.e., they had gone out for Jihad (holy fighting), and showed not their backs to the disbelievers] of them, some have fulfilled their obligations to Allah (i.e., they have been martyred), and some of them are still waiting…” (V.33:23)

So we wrote this in its place in the Qur’an.

4050. Narrated Zaid bin Thabit: When the Prophet set out for (the battle of) Uhud, some of those who had gone out with him returned. The Companions of the Prophet were divided into two groups. One group said, “We will fight them (i.e., the enemy),” and the other group said, “We will not fight them.” So there came the Divine Revelation:

“Then what is the matter with you that you are divided into two parties about the hypocrites? Allah has cast them back (to disbelief) because of what they have earned…” (V.4:88)

On that, the Prophet said, “That is Taiba (i.e., the city of Al-Madina), it clears out the sins or clears one from his sins as the fire expels out the impurities of silver.”

(18) CHAPTER: “When two parties from among you were about to lose heart, but Allah was their Wali (Protector and Supporter).” (V.3:122)

4051. Narrated Jâbir: This Verse:

“When two parties from among you were about to lose heart…” was revealed in our connection, i.e., Banî Salama and Banî Hâritha and I would not have liked that, if it was not revealed, for Allah said:

“...But Allah was their Wali (Protector...
4052. Narrated Jâbir: Allah's Messenger said to me, "Have you got married O Jâbir?" I replied, "Yes." He asked "What, a virgin or a matron?" I replied, "(Not a virgin) but a matron." He said, "Why did you not marry a young girl who would have fondled with you?" I replied, "O Allah's Messenger! My father was martyred on the day (of the battle) of Uhud and left nine (orphan) daughters who are my nine sisters; so I disliked to have another young girl of their age, but (I sought) an (elderly) woman who could comb their hair and look after them." The Prophet said, "You have done the right thing."

4053. Narrated Jâbir bin 'Abdullah: that his father was martyred on the day (of the battle) of Uhud and was in debt and left six (orphan) daughters. Jâbir added, "When the season of plucking the dates came, I went to Allah's Messenger and said, "You know that my father was martyred on the day (of the battle) of Uhud, and he was heavily in debt, and I would like that the creditors should see you." The Prophet said, "Go and pile every kind of dates separately." I did so and called him (the Prophet). When the creditors saw him, they started claiming their debts from me in such a harsh manner (as they had never done before). So when he saw their attitude, he went round the biggest heap of dates thrice, and then sat over it and said, "(O Jâbir), call your companions (i.e., the creditors)." Then he kept on measuring (and giving) to the creditors (their due) till Allah paid all the debt of my father. I would have been satisfied to retain nothing of those dates for my sisters after Allah had paid the debts of my father. But Allah saved all the heaps (of dates), so that when I looked at the heap where the Prophet had been sitting, it seemed as if not a single date had been taken away thereof.”

4054. Narrated Sa’d bin Abi Waqqas: I saw Allah’s Messenger on the day (of the battle) of Uhud accompanied by two men fighting on his behalf. They were dressed in white and were fighting with extreme bravery, I had never seen them before, nor did I saw them later on.

[It is said that they were angel Jibril (Gabriel) and angel Mikael (Michael)].

4055. Narrated Sa’d bin Abi Waqqas: The Prophet took out a quiver (of arrows) for me on the day (of the battle) of Uhud and said, “Throw (arrows)! Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you.”(1)

4056. Narrated Sa’d: Allah’s Messenger mentioned both his father and

(1) (H. 4055) By saying so, the Prophet expressed his satisfaction.
mother for me on the day of the battle of Uhud.

4057. Narrated Ibn Al-Musaiyab: Sa'd bin Abi Waqqas, رضي الله عنه, said, “Allah’s Messenger mentioned both his father and mother for me on the day (of the battle) of Uhud.” He meant when the Prophet said (to Sa’d) while the latter was fighting. “Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you!”

4058. Narrated ‘Ali: I have never heard the Prophet mentioning both his father and mother for anybody other than Sa’d.

4059. Narrated ‘Ali: I have never heard the Prophet mentioning his father and mother for anybody other than Sa’d bin Malik, i.e., Sa’d bin Abi Waqqas. I heard him saying on the day of Uhud, “O Sa’d, throw (arrows)! Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you!”

4060, 4061. Narrated Mu’tamir’s father: ‘Uthmân said that on the day (of the battle) of Uhud, none remained with the Prophet but Ťalaṭha and Sa’d.
4062.Narrated As-Sā‘ib bin Yazid: I have been in the company of ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin ‘Āuf, Tālha bin ‘Ubaidullāh, Al-Miqdād and Sa‘d, and I heard none of them narrating anything from the Prophet but Tālha, whom I heard narrating about the day (of the battle) of Uḥud.

4063. Narrated Qais: I saw Tālha’s paralyzed hand with which he had protected the Prophet on the day (of the battle) of Uḥud.

4064. Narrated Anas: When it was the day (of the battle) of Uḥud, the people left the Prophet while Abū Tālha was in front of the Prophet shielding him with his leather shield. Abū Tālha was a skillful archer who used to shoot strongly. He broke two or three arrow bows on that day. If a man carrying a quiver full of arrows passed by, the Prophet would say (to him), “Put (scatter) its contents for Abū Tālha.” The Prophet would raise his head to look at the enemy, whereupon Abū Tālha would say, “Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you! Do not raise your head, lest an arrow of the enemy should hit you. (Let) my neck (be struck) rather than your neck.” I saw ‘Aishah, the daughter of Abū Bakr, and Umm Sulaim rolling up their dresses so that I... saw their leg-bangles while they were carrying water-skins on their backs and emptying them in the mouths of the (wounded) people. They would return to refill them and again empty them in the mouths of the (wounded) people. The sword fell from Abu Talha’s hand twice or thrice (on that day).

4065. Narrated ‘Aishah: When it was the day (of the battle) of Uhud, Al-Mushrikun (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad ﷺ) were defeated. Then Satan; Allah’s Curse be upon him, cried loudly, “O Allah’s worshippers, beware of what is behind!” On that, the front files of the (Muslim) forces turned their backs and started fighting with the back files. Hudhaifa looked, and on seeing his father Al-Yamân, he shouted, “O Allah’s worshippers, my father, my father!” But by Allah, they did not stop till they killed him. Hudhaifa said, “May Allah forgive you.” [The subnarrator, ‘Urwa, said, “By Allah, Hudhaifa continued asking Allah’s Forgiveness for the killers of his father till he met Allah (i.e., died).”]

(19) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah ﷺ: Those of you who turned back on the day... the two hosts met (i.e., the battle of Uḥud) it was Shaitān (Satan) who caused them to backslide (run away from the battlefield) because of some (sins) they had earned. But Allāh, indeed has forgiven them. Surely, Allāh is Oft-Forgiving, Most Forbearing.” (V.3:155)

4066. Narrated ‘Uthmān bin Mauhab: A man came to perform the Hajj to (Allāh’s) House. Seeing some people sitting, he said, “Who are these sitting people?” Somebody said, “They are the Quraysh people.” He said, “Who is the old man?” They said, “Ibn ‘Umar.” He went to him and said, “I want to ask you about something; will you tell me about it? I ask you with the respect due to the sanctity of this (Sacred) House, do you know that ‘Uthmān bin ‘Affān fled on the day of Uḥud?” Ibn ‘Umar said, “Yes.” He said, “Do you know that he (i.e., ‘Uthmān) was absent from the (battle of) Badr and did not join it?” Ibn ‘Umar said, “Yes.” He said, “Do you know that he was absent from the ‘Ar-‘Ridwān Pledge (i.e., Bai’a – pledge at Ḥudaybiya) and did not witness it?” Ibn ‘Umar replied, “Yes.” He then said, “Allāhu Akbar!” Ibn ‘Umar said, “Come along; I will inform you and explain to you what you have asked. As for the flight (of ‘Uthmān) on the day (of the battle) of Uḥud, I testify that Allāh forgave him. As regards his absence from the (battle of) Badr, he was married to the daughter of Allāh’s Messenger and she was ill, so the Prophet said to him, ‘(Stay with your sick wife) and you will get a reward, and a share of the booty similar to a man who has fought the (the battle of) Badr.’ As for his absence from the ‘Ar-‘Ridwān Pledge, if there had been anybody more respected by the Makkans than ‘Uthmān bin ‘Affān, the Prophet would surely have sent that man instead of ‘Uthmān. So, the Prophet sent him (i.e., 'Uthmân to Makkah) and Ar-Ridwân. Pledge took place after 'Uthmân had gone to Makkah. The Prophet raised his right hand saying, 'This is the hand of 'Uthmân,' and clapped it over his other hand and said, This is for 'Uthmân.' Ibn 'Umar then said (to the man), "Go now, after taking this information."

(20) CHAPTER. (Allāh’s Statement):-
"(And remember) when you ran away (dreadfully) without even casting a side glance at anyone (up to) all that you do." (V.3:153)

4067. Narrated Al-Barā’ bin ‘Āzib: The Prophet appointed ‘Abdullāh bin Jubair as the commander of the cavalry archers on the day (of the battle) of Uhud. Then they returned defeated, and that is what is referred to by Allāh's Statement:

"...And the Messenger (Muḥammad) was in your rear calling you back..." (V.3:153)

(21) CHAPTER. (Allāh’s Statement):
"Then after the distress, He sent down security for you. Slumber..." (V.3:154)

4068. Abū Talha said, “I was amongst those who were overtaken by slumber till my sword fell from my hand on several occasions. The sword fell and I picked it up, and again it fell, and I picked it up.”
4069. Narrated Sālim’s father that he heard Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ), when raising his head from bowing of the first Rak’a of the Fajr prayer, saying, “O Allah! Curse so-and-so and so-and-so and so-and-so”, after he had said, “Allah hears him who sends his praises to Him. Our Lord, all the praises are for you!” So Allah revealed:

“Not for you (O Muhammad) is the decision...” (V.3:128)

4070. Sālim bin ‘Abdullāh said, “Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) used to invoke evil upon Safwān bin Umaiyya, Suhail bin ‘Amr and Al-Hārith bin Hishām. So the Verse was revealed:-

‘Not for you (O Muhammad) is the decision... (till the end of Verse)... they are indeed Zalimūn (polytheists, disobedients and wrong-doers).’” (V.3:128)
(23) CHAPTER. Narration regarding Umm Salīṭ.

4071. Narrated Tha'labā bin Abī Mālīk: ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb distributed woolen clothes amongst some women of Al-Maddina, and a nice woollen garment remained. Some of those who were sitting with him said, “O chief of the believers! Give it to the daughter of Allāh’s Messenger who is with you,” and by that, they meant Umm Kulthūm, the daughter of ‘All. ‘Umar said, “Umm Salīṭ has got more right than she.” Umm Salīṭ was amongst those Ansārī women who had given the Bai‘a (pledge) to Allāh’s Messenger. ‘Umar added, “She (Umm Salīṭ) used to carry the filled water-skins for us on the day (of the battle) of Uhud.”

(24) CHAPTER. The martyrdom of Ḥamza bin ‘Abdūl-Muṭṭalib ṫ ].

4072. Narrated Ja‘far bin ‘Amr bin Umaiyya: I went out with ‘Ubaidullāh bin ‘Adī Al-Khiyār. When we reached Ḥimṣ (i.e., a town in Syria), ‘Ubaidullāh bin ‘Adī said (to me), “Would you like to see Wahshi so that we may ask him about the killing of Ḥamza?” I replied, “Yes.” Wahshi used to live in Ḥimṣ. We enquired about him and somebody said to us, “He is there in the shade of his palace, as if he looked like a full water-skin.” So, we went up to him, and when we were at a short distance from him, we greeted him and he greeted us in return. ‘Ubaidullah was wearing his turban and Wahshi could not see except his eyes and feet. ‘Ubaidullah said, “O Wahshi! Do you know me?” Wahshi looked at him and then said, “No, by Allah! But I know that ‘Adi bin Al-Khiyar married a woman called Umm Qitâl, the daughter of Abû Al-‘Iês, and she delivered a boy for him at Makkah, and I looked for a wet nurse for that child. (Once) I carried that child along with his mother and then I handed him over to her, and your feet resemble that child’s feet.” Then ‘Ubaidullah uncovered his face and said (to Wahshi), “Will you tell us (the story of) the killing of Ḥamza?” Wahshi replied, “Yes, Ḥamza killed Ṭu’aimâ bin ‘Adi bin Al-Khiyar at Badr (battle) so my master, Jubair bin Muṭ‘im said to me, ‘If you kill Ḥamza in revenge for my uncle, then you will be set free.’ When the people set out (for the battle of Uḥud) in the year of ‘Ainain – ‘Ainain is a mountain near the mountain of Uḥud, and between it and Uḥud there is a valley – I went out with the people for the battle. When the army aligned for the fight, Sibâ’ came out and said, ‘Is there any (Muslim) to accept my challenge to a duel?’ Ḥamza bin ‘Abdul-Muṭṭalib came out and said, ‘O Sibâ’, O Ibn Umm Anmâr, the one who circumcises other ladies! Do you challenge Allâh and His Messenger?’ Then Ḥamza attacked and killed him, causing him to be nonexistent like the bygone yesterday. I hid myself under a rock, and when he (i.e., Ḥamza) came near me, I threw my spear at him, driving it into his umbilicus so that it came out through his buttocks, causing him to die. When all the people returned to Makkah, I too returned with them. I stayed in (Makkah) till Islâm spread in it (i.e., Makkah). Then I left for Ta'if, and when the people (of Ta'if) sent their messengers to Allah's Messenger, I was told that the Prophet did not harm the messengers. So, I too went out with them till I reached Allah’s Messenger. When he saw me, he said, 'Are you Wabshi?' I said, 'Yes.' He said, 'Was it you who killed Hamza?' I replied, 'What happened is what you have been told of.' He said, 'Can you hide your face from me?' So I went out when Allah’s Messenger died, and Musailima Al-Kadhãb appeared (claiming to be a prophet). I said, 'I will go out to Musailima so that I may kill him, and make amends for killing Hamza. So I went out with the people (to fight Musailima and his followers) and then famous events took place concerning that battle. Suddenly I saw a man (i.e., Musailima) standing near a gap in a wall. He looked like an ash-coloured camel and his hair was dishevelled. So I threw my spear at him, driving it into his chest in between his breasts till it passed out through his shoulders, and then an Ansãri man attacked him and struck him on the head with a sword.’

(1) (H. 4072) Wahshi was then a slave belonging to Jubair.

‘Abdullah bin ‘Umar said, “A slave girl on the roof of a house said: ‘Alas! The chief of the believers (i.e., Musailima) has been killed by a black slave.’”

(1) (H. 4072) The Prophet did not want to see the man who killed his uncle Hamza.
(25) CHAPTER. The wounds inflicted on the Prophet ﷺ on the day (of the battle) of Uhud.

4073. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ (pointing to his broken canine tooth) said, “Allah’s Wrath has become severe on the people who harmed His Prophet. Allah’s Wrath has become severe on a man who is killed by a Messenger of Allah in Allah’s Cause.”

4074. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas ﷺ: Allah’s Wrath became severe on him whom the Prophet ﷺ had killed in Allah’s Cause. Allah’s Wrath became severe on the people who caused the face of Allah’s Prophet ﷺ to bleed.

4075. Narrated Abū Ḥāzim that he heard Sahl bin Sa’d being asked about the wounds of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “By Allah, I know who washed the wounds of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and who poured water (for washes them), and with what he was treated," Sahl added, "Fāṭima, the daughter of Allāh’s Messenger, used to wash the wounds, and ‘Alī bin Abī Ṭālib used to pour water from a shield. When Fāṭima saw that the water aggravated the bleeding, she took a piece of a mat, burnt it, and inserted its ashes into the wound so that the blood was congealed (and bleeding stopped). His (i.e., the Prophet’s) canine tooth got broken on that day, and his face was wounded, and his helmet was broken on his head."

4076. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Allah’s Wrath gets severe on a person killed by a Prophet, and Allah’s Wrath became severe on him who had caused the face of Allāh’s Messenger to bleed.

(26) CHAPTER. (Allāh’s Statement) :-
“Those who answered (the Call of) Allāh and the Messenger (Muḥammad) ...” (V.3:172)

4077. Narrated ‘Aīshah regarding the Holy Verse:
“Those who answered (the Call of) Allāh and the Messenger (Muḥammad), after being wounded; for those of them who did good deeds and feared Allāh, there is a great reward.” (V.3:172)

She said to ‘Urwa, “O my nephew! Your father, Az-Zubair and Abū Bakr were amongst them [i.e., those who answered (the Call of) Allah and the Messenger on the day (of the battle of Uhud)]. When Allah's Messenger ﷺ suffered what he suffered on the day (of the battle) of Uhud and Al-Mushrikūn (polytheists, pagans, idolaters and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muḥammad ﷺ) left, the Prophet ﷺ was afraid that they might return. So he said, 'Who will go on their (i.e., Mushrikūn's) track?' He then selected seventy men from amongst them (for this purpose).'' (The subnarrator) added: "Abū Bakr and Az-Zubair were amongst them."

(27) CHAPTER. The Muslims who were killed on the day (of the battle) of Uhud.

Amongst them were Ḥamza bin ʿAbdul-Muṭṭalib, Al-Yāmān, An-Nadr bin Anas and Muṣʿab bin 'Umair.

4078. Narrated Qatāda: We do not know of any tribe amongst the Arab tribes who had more martyrs than Al-Anṣār, and they will have superiority on the Day of Resurrection. Anas bin Mālik told us that seventy from the Anṣār were martyred on the day (of the battle) of Uhud, and seventy (men) on the day (of the battle of) Biʿr Maʿāna, and seventy (men) on the day of Al-Yamāma. Anas added, "The battle of Biʿr Maʿāna took place during the lifetime of Allah's Messenger ﷺ and the battle of Al-Yamāma, during the caliphate of Abū Bakr, and it was the day when Musailima Al-Kadḥīb was killed."

4079. Narrated Jābir bin ʿAbdullāh رضي الله عنهما: Allah's Messenger ﷺ used to shroud two martyrs of Uḥud in one sheet and then say, “Which of them knew the Qur’ān more?” When one of the two was pointed out, he would put him first in the grave. Then he said, “I will be a witness on them on the Day of Resurrection.” He ordered them to be buried with their blood (on their bodies). Neither was the funeral prayer offered for them, nor were they washed [with a Ghusl (a bath by washing of the whole body)]. (See H. 1343, 1344, 1346)

4080. Jābir added, “When my father was martyred, I started weeping and uncovering his face by removing the clothes from it. The Companions of the Prophet  did not stop me. Then the Prophet  said, ‘(O Jāбир) don’t weep over him, for the angels kept on covering him with their wings till his body was carried away (for burial).’”

4081. Narrated Abū Mūsā: The Prophet  said, “I saw in a dream that I moved a sword and its blade got broken, and that symbolized the casualties which the believers suffered on the day (of the battle) of Uḥud. Then I moved it again, and it became as perfect as it had been, and that symbolized the Conquest (of Makkah) which Allāh helped us to achieve, and the union of all the believers. I (also) saw cows in the dream, and what Allāh does is always beneficial. Those cows appeared to symbolize the faithful believers (who were martyred) on the day (of the battle) of Uḥud.”
4082. Narrated Khābāb: We emigrated with the Prophet for Allāh’s Cause, so our reward became due with Allāh. Some of us passed away (died) without enjoying anything from their reward, and one of them was Muṣḥab bin ‘Umayr who was killed (i.e., martyred) on the day (of the battle) of Uhud. He did not leave behind except a sheet of striped woollen cloth. If we covered his head with it, his feet became bare, and if we covered his feet with it, his head became bare. The Prophet said to us, “Cover his head with it, and put Ḩādkhir (i.e., a kind of grass) over his feet,” or said, “Put some Ḩādkhir over his feet.” But some of us have got their fruits ripened, and they are collecting them.

(28) CHAPTER. “Uhud is a mountain that loves us and is loved by us”.

4083. Narrated Anas: The Prophet said, “This is a mountain (Uḥud) that loves us and is loved by us.”

4084. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: When the mountain of Uḥud appeared before Allāh’s Messenger he said, “This O, Allah! Ibrāhīm (Abraham) made Makkah a sanctuary, and I have made Al-Madina (i.e., the area between its two mountains) a sanctuary.“

4085. Narrated ‘Uqba: One day the Prophet went out and offered the (funeral) prayer for the people (i.e., martyrs) of Uhud as he used to offer a funeral prayer for any dead person, and then (after returning) he ascended the pulpit and said, “I am your predecessor before you, and I am a witness over you, and I am looking at my Haud (Tank Al-Kauthar) just now, and I have been given the keys of the treasures of the world (or the keys of the world). By Allah, I am not afraid that you will worship others besides Allah after me, but I am afraid that you will compete with each other for (the pleasures of) this world.”

(29) CHAPTER. The Ghazwā (i.e., battle) of Ar-Raft’, Ri’l, Dhakwān and Bi’r Ma‘ūna and the narration about (the tribes of) ‘Adal and Al-Qara and (the story of) ‘Asim bin Thābit, Khubaib and his companions.

Narrated Ibn Ishāq: ‘Āsim bin ‘Umar said, “It (i.e., the Ghazwā of Ar-Raft’) happened after (the battle of) Uhud.”

4086. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet sent a Sariya of spies and appointed ‘Āsim bin Thābit, the grandfather of ‘Āsim bin ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb as their leader. So, they set out, and when they reached (a place) between 'Usfân and Makkah, they were mentioned to one of the branch tribes of Bani Ḥudhail called Liyân. So, about one hundred archers followed their traces till they (i.e., the archers) came to a journey station where they (i.e., 'Āsim and his companions) had encamped and found stones of dates they had brought as journey-food from Al-Madîna. The archers said, "These are the dates of Al-Madîna," and followed their traces till they took them over. When 'Āsim and his companions were not able to go ahead, they went up a high place, and their pursuers encircled them and said, "You have a covenant and a promise that if you come down to us, we will not kill anyone of you." 'Āsim said, "As for me, I will never come down on the security of an infidel. O Allah! Inform Your Prophet (ﷺ) about us." So they fought with them till they killed 'Āsim along with seven of his companions with arrows, and there remained Khubaib, Zaid and another man to whom they gave a promise and a covenant. So, when the infidels gave them the covenant and promise, they came down. When they captured them, they opened the strings of their arrow bows and tied them with it. The third man who was with them said, "This is the first breach in the covenant," and refused to accompany them. They dragged him and tried to make him accompany them, but he refused, and they killed him. Then they proceeded on taking Khubaib and Zaid till they sold them in Makkah. The sons of Al-Ḥârîth bin 'Amr bin Naufal bought Khubaib. It was Khubaib who had killed Al-Ḥârîth bin 'Amr on the day (of the battle) of Badr. Khubaib stayed with them for a while as a captive till they decided unanimously to kill him. (At that time) Khubaib borrowed a razor from one of the daughters of Al-Ḥārith to shave his pubic hair. She gave it to him. She said later on, “I was heedless of a little baby of mine, who moved towards Khubaib, and when it reached him, he put it on his thigh. When I saw it, I got scared so much that Khubaib noticed my distress while he was carrying the razor in his hand. He said, ‘Are you afraid that I will kill it? If Allāh will, I will never do that.’” Later on she used to say, “I have never seen a captive better than Khubaib. Once I saw him eating from a bunch of grapes, although at that time no fruits were available at Makkah, and he was fettered with iron chains, and in fact, it was nothing but food bestowed upon him by Allāh.” So, they took him out of the sanctuary (of Makkah) to kill him. He said, “Allow me to offer two Rak’a prayer.” Then he went to them and said, “Had I not been afraid that you would think I was afraid of death, I would have offered prayer for a longer time.” So it was Khubaib who first set the tradition of offering two Rak’a prayer before being executed. He then said, “O Allāh! Count them one by one,” and added, “When I am being martyred as a Muslim, I do not care in what way I receive my death for Allāh’s sake, because this death is in Allāh’s Cause. If He wishes, He will bless the cut limbs.” Then ‘Uqba bīn Al-Ḥārith got up and martyred him. The narrator added: The Quraysh (infidels) sent some people to ‘Āsim in order to bring a part of his body so that his death might be known for certain, for ‘Āsim had killed one of their chiefs on the day (of the battle) of Badr. But Allāh sent a cloud of wasps which protected his body from their messengers who could not harm his body consequently.
4087. Narrated Jābir: The person who killed Khubaib was Abū Sarwā' (i.e., 'Uqba bin Al-Ḥārith).

4088. Narrated 'Abdul-'Azīz: Anas said, “The Prophet sent seventy men, called Al-Qurra' for some purpose. The two groups of Bani Sulaim, called Rīl and Dhakwān, appeared to them near a well called Bi'r Ma'ūna. The people (i.e., Al-Qurra') said, ‘By Allah, we have not come to harm you, but we are passing by you on our way to do something for the Prophet.’ But (the infidels) killed them. The Prophet therefore invoked evil upon them for a month during the morning Salāt (prayer). That was the beginning of Al-Qunūt(1) and we used not to say Qunūt before that.” A man asked Anas about Al-Qunūt saying, “Is it to be said after the bowing (in the Salāt) or after finishing the recitation (i.e., before bowing)?” Anas replied, “No, but (it is to be said) after finishing the recitation.”

4089. Narrated Anas: Allāh's Messenger said, Al-Qunūt for one month after the posture of bowing, invoking evil upon some Arab tribes.

(1) (H. 4088) ‘Qunūt’ means invocation in the Salāt (prayer).
4090. Narrated Anas bin Malik ṭ:
(The tribes of) Ri‘l, Dhakwân, ‘Usaiyya and Bani Liyân asked Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ to provide them with some men to support them against their enemy. He therefore provided them with seventy men from the Ansâr whom we used to call Al-Qurra’ in their lifetime. They used to collect wood by daytime and offer Salât (prayer) at night. When they were at the well of Ma‘ûna, the infidels killed them by betraying them. When this news reached the Prophet ﷺ, he said Al-Qunût for one month in the morning Salât (prayer), invoking evil upon some of the ‘Arab tribes, upon Ri‘l, Dhakwân, ‘Usaiyya and Bani Liyân. We used to read a verse of the Qur’ân revealed in their connection, but later the verse was cancelled. It was:

“Convey to our people on our behalf the information that we have met our Lord, and He is pleased with us, and has made us pleased.”

(Anas bin Malik added:) Allâh’s Prophet ﷺ said Qunût for one month in the morning Salât (prayer), invoking evil upon some of the Arab tribes (namely), Ri‘l, Dhakwân, ‘Usaiyya, and Bani Liyân. (Anas added:) Those seventy Ansârî men were killed at the well of Ma‘ûna.
4091. Narrated Anas that the Prophet ﷺ sent his uncle, the brother of Umm Sulaim as the head of seventy riders. The chief of Al-Mushrikūn, ‘Amir bin At-Tufail proposed three suggestions (to the Prophet ﷺ) saying, “Choose one of three alternatives:

1) that the bedouins will be under your command and the towns’ people will be under my command;

2) or that I will be your successor,

3) or otherwise I will attack you with two thousand men from Bani Ḥaṭṭāfān.” But ‘Amir was infected with plague in the house of Umm so-and-so. He said, “Shall I stay in the house of a lady from the family of so-and-so after having a (swelled) gland like that she-camel? Get me my horse.” So he died on the back of his horse. Then Ḥarām, the brother of Umm Sulaim and a lame man along with another man from so-and-so (tribe) went towards Al-Mushrikūn (i.e., the tribe of ‘Amir). Ḥarām said (to his companions), “Stay near to me, for I will go to them. If they (i.e., infidels) should give me protection, you will be near to me, and if they should kill me, then you should go back to your companions. Then Ḥarām went to them and said, “Will you give me protection so as to convey the message of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ?” So, he started talking to them but they signalled to a man (to kill him) and he went behind him and stabbed him (with a spear). He (i.e., Ḥarām) said, “Allāhu Akbar! I have succeeded, by the Lord of the Ka’bah!” The companion of Ḥarām was pursued by the infidels, and then they (i.e., Ḥarām’s companions) were all killed except the lame man who was at the top of a mountain. Then Allāh revealed to us a verse that was among the cancelled ones later on. It was: ‘We have met our Lord and He is pleased with us and has made us...”
pleased. (After this event) the Prophet invoked evil on the infidels every morning for 30 days. He invoked evil upon the (tribes of) Riq', Dhakwan, Banu Lihyan and Usaiyya who disobeyed Allah and His Messenger.

4092. Narrated Anas bin Malik that when Harâm bin Milhan, his uncle was stabbed on the day (the battle) of Bir Ma'una, he sprinkled his blood over his face and his head this way and then said, “I have succeeded, by the Lord of the Ka'bah.”

4093. Narrated 'Aishah: Abû Bakr asked the Prophet to allow him to go out (of Makkah) when he was greatly annoyed (by the infidels). But the Prophet said to him, “Wait.” Abû Bakr said, “0 Allah's Messenger! Do you hope that you will be allowed (to emigrate)?” Allah's Messenger replied, “I hope so.” So, Abû Bakr waited for him till one day Allah's Messenger came at noon time and addressed him saying, “Let whoever is present with you, should leave.” Abû Bakr said, “None is present but my two daughters.” The Prophet said, “Do you know that I have been allowed to go out (to emigrate)?” Abû Bakr said, “0 Allah's Messenger, I would like to accompany you.” The Prophet said, “You will accompany me.” Abû Bakr said, “0 Allah's Messenger! I have got two she-camels which I had prepared and kept ready for (our) going out.” So, he gave one of the two (she-camels) to the Prophet and it was (called) Al-
They both rode and proceeded till they reached the cave at the mountain of Thaur where they hid themselves. ‘Amir bin Fuhaira was the slave of ‘Abdullāh bin Aḥ-Ṭufail bin Sakhbara, ‘Aishah’s brother from her mother’s side. Abū Bakr had a milch she-camel. ‘Amir used to go with it (i.e., the milch she-camel) in the afternoon and come back to them before noon by setting out towards them in the early morning when it was still dark and then he would take it to the pasture so that none of the shepherds would be aware of his job. When the Prophet ﷺ (and Abū Bakr) went away (from the cave), he (i.e., ‘Amir) too went along with them and they both used to make him ride at the back of their camels in turns till they reached Al-Madīna. ‘Amir bin Fuhaira was martyred on the day (of the battle) of Bi‘r Ma‘ūna.

Narrated ‘Urwa: When those (Muslims) at Bi‘r Ma‘ūna were martyred and ‘Amr bin Umaiyya Aḍ-Ḍamrī was taken prisoner, ‘Amir bin Aḥ-Ṭufail, pointing at a killed person, asked ‘Amr, “Who is this?” ‘Amr bin Umaiyya said to him, “He is ‘Amir bin Fuhaira.” ‘Amir bin Aḥ-Ṭufail said, “I saw him lifted to the sky after he was killed till I saw the sky between him and the earth,(1) and then he was brought down upon the earth. Then the news of the killed Muslims reached the Prophet ﷺ and he announced the news of their death saying, “Your companions (of Bi‘r Ma‘ūna) have been killed, and they have asked their Lord saying, ‘O our Lord! Inform our brothers about us as we are pleased with You, and You are pleased with us.’” So, Allāh informed them (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ and his Companions) about them (i.e., martyrs of Bi‘r Ma‘ūna). On that day, ‘Urwa bin Aṣmā‘ bin Aṣ-Ṣalt who was one of them was killed.

(1) (H. 4093) The angels hid him from Al-Mushrikūn.
and 'Urwa (bin Az-Zubair) was named after 'Urwa bin Asmã and Mundhir (bin Az-Zubair) was named after Mundhir bin 'Amr (who had also been martyred on that day).

4094. Narrated Anas: The Prophet recited Al-Qunut after bowing (i.e., Ar-Rukûn) for one month, invoking evil upon (the tribes of) Ri'l and Dhakwân. He used to say, “Uṣaiyya disobeyed Allâh and His Messenger.”

4095. Narrated Anas bin Mãlik: The Prophet invoked evil for 30 days (in the morning prayer) upon those (people) who killed his Companions at Bi'r Ma'âna. He invoked evil upon (tribes of) Ri'l, Liḥyân and 'Uṣaiyya who disobeyed Allâh and His Messenger. Allâh revealed a Qur'anic Verse to His Prophet regarding those who had been killed, i.e., the Muslims at Bi'r Ma'âna, and we recited the verse till later it was cancelled. (The verse was:) ‘Inform our people that we have met our Lord, and He is pleased with us, and we are pleased with Him.’

4096. Narrated 'Āṣim Al-Ahwâl: I asked Anas bin Mâlik regarding Al-Qunut during the Salât (prayer). Anas replied, “Yes [Al-Qunut was recited by the Prophet in the Salât (prayer)].” I asked, “Is it before bowing or after bowing?” Anas replied, “(It was recited) before (bowing).” I said, “So-and-so informed me that you told him that it was recited after bowing.” Anas replied, “He was mistaken, for Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ recited Al-Qunūt after bowing for one month. The Prophet ﷺ had sent some people called Al-Qurra’ who were seventy in number, to some Mushrikūn who had concluded a peace treaty with Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ. But those who had concluded the treaty with Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ violated the treaty (and martyred all the seventy men). So, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ recited Al-Qunūt after bowing (in the Salāt) for one month, invoking evil upon them.

(30) CHAPTER. The Ghazwā of Al-Khandaq which is called Al-Ahzāb Battle.

Mūsā bin ‘Uqba said, “(This battle took place) in the month of Shawwāl in the fourth year of the Islamic calendar.

4097. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar that the Prophet ﷺ inspected him on the day (of the battle) of Uḥud while he was fourteen years old, and the Prophet ﷺ did not allow him to take part in the battle. He was inspected again by the Prophet ﷺ on the day (of the battle) of Al-Khandaq (i.e., battle of the Trench) while he was fifteen years old, and the Prophet ﷺ allowed him to take part in the battle.

4098. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: We were with Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ in the trench, and some were digging the trench while we were carrying the earth on our shoulders. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “O Allāh! There is no life except the life of the Hereafter, so please forgive the emigrants and the Ansār.”
4099. Narrated Anas: Allah's Messenger went out towards the Khandaq (i.e., trench) and saw the emigrants and the Anṣār digging the trench in the cold morning. They had no slaves to do that (work) for them. When the Prophet saw their hardship and hunger, he said, “O Allah! The real life is the life of the Hereafter, so please forgive Anṣār and the emigrants.” They said in reply to him, “We are those who have given the Bā’ā (pledge) to Muhammad for to observe Jihād (holy fighting) as long as we live.”

4100. Narrated Anas: Al-Muhājirūn (i.e., the emigrants) and the Anṣār were digging the trench around Al-Madīna and were carrying the earth on their backs while saying, “We are those who have given the Bā’ā (pledge) to Muḥammad for Islam as long as we live.” The Prophet said in reply to their saying, “O Allah! There is no goodness except the goodness of the Hereafter; so please grant Your Blessing to the Anṣār and the emigrants.” The people used to bring a handful of barley, and a meal used to be prepared thereof by cooking it with a cooking material (i.e., oil, fat and butter having a change in colour and smell) and it used to be presented to the people (i.e., workers) who were hungry, and it used to stick to their throats and had a nasty smell.
4101. Narrated Jābir ibn ‘Abd Allāh: We were digging (the trench) on the day of [Al-Khandaq (i.e., the trench)] and we came across a big solid rock. We went to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “Here is a rock appearing across the trench.” He said, “I am coming down.” Then he got up, and a stone was tied to his belly for we had not eaten anything for three days. So the Prophet ﷺ took the spade and struck the big solid rock and it became like sand. I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Allow me to go home.” (When the Prophet ﷺ allowed me) I said to my wife, “I saw the Prophet ﷺ in a state that I cannot tolerate (or treat with patience). Have you got something (for him to eat?)” She replied, “I have barley and a she-goat.” So I slaughtered the she-kid and she ground the barley; then we put the meat in the earthenware cooking pot. Then I came to the Prophet ﷺ when the dough had become soft and fermented and (the meat in) the pot over the stone trivet had nearly been well-cooked, and said, “I have got a little food prepared, so get up O Allah’s Messenger, you and one or two men along with you (for the food).” The Prophet ﷺ asked, “How much is that food?” I told him about it. He said, “It is abundant and good. Tell your wife not to remove the earthenware pot from the fire and not to take out any bread from the oven till I reach there.” Then he said (to all his Companions), “Get up.” So the Muhājirūn (i.e., emigrants) and the Ānsār got up. When I came to my wife, I said, “Allah’s Mercy be upon you! The Prophet ﷺ is coming along with the Muhājirūn and the Anṣār and those who were present with them.” She said, “Did the Prophet  ask you (how much food you had)?” I replied, “Yes.” Then the Prophet  said, “Enter and do not throng.” The Prophet  started cutting the bread (into pieces) and put the cooked meat over it. He covered the earthenware pot and the oven whenever he took something out of them. He would give the food to his Companions and take the meat out of the pot. He went on cutting the bread and scooping the meat (for his Companions) till they all ate their fill, and even then, some food remained. Then the Prophet  said to my wife, “Eat and present to others as the people are struck with hunger.”

4102. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh i people of Trench! Jábir has prepared a meal, so let us go." Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said to me, “Don’t put down your earthenware meat-pot (from the fireplace) or bake your dough till I come.” So, I came (to my house) and Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ too, came, proceeding before the people. When I came to my wife, she said, “May Allâh do so-and-so to you.”(1) I said, “I have told the Prophet ﷺ of what you said.” Then she brought out to him (i.e., the Prophet) the dough, and he spat in it and invoked for Allâh’s Blessings in it. Then he proceeded towards our earthenware meat-pot and spat in it and invoked for Allâh’s Blessings in it. Then he said (to my wife), “Call a lady-baker to bake along with you, and keep on taking out scoops from your earthenware meat-pot, and do not put it down from its fireplace.” They were one thousand (who took their meals), and by Allâh they all ate, and when they left the food and went away, our earthenware pot was still bubbling (full of meat) as if it had not decreased, and our dough was still being baked as if nothing had been taken from it.

4103. Narrated ‘Aishah ﷺ as regards the following Qur’ânic Verse:

“...When they came upon you from above you and from below you, and when the eyes grew wild and the hearts reached up to the throats...” (V.33:10) That happened on the day (of the battle) of Al-Khandaq (i.e., the Trench).

4104. Narrated Al-Barâ’ ibn ‘Âishah ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ was carrying earth on the day of

(1) (H. 4102) She means, “You have invited too many people, though we do not have enough food”.
Al-Khandaq till his abdomen was fully covered with dust, and he was saying, “By Allâh, without Allâh we would not have been guided; neither would we have given in charity, nor would we have offered Salât (prayer). So (O Allâh), please send Sakînâ (i.e., tranquillity, peace, reassurance and calmness) upon us, and make our feet firm if we meet the enemy as the enemy have rebelled against us, and if they intended affliction (i.e., want to frighten us and fight against us) then we would not (flee but withstand them).” The Prophet used to raise his voice saying, “Abaina! Abaina! (i.e., we would not, we would not).”

4105. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: The Prophet said, “I have been made victorious by Aṣ-Ṣâbâ (i.e., an easterly wind) and the ‘Ad nation was destroyed by Ad-Dabûr (i.e., westerly wind).”

4106. Narrated Al-Barâ’ ibn ‘Abbâs: When it was the day (of the battle) of Al-Ahzâb (i.e., the Confederates) and Allâh’s Messenger dug the trench, I saw him carrying earth out of the trench till dust made the skin of his abdomen out of my sight and he was a hairy man. I heard him reciting the poetic verses composed by Ibn Rawâha while he was carrying the earth, “O Allâh! Without You we would not have been guided, nor would we have given in charity, nor would we have offered Salât (prayer). So, (O Allâh), please send Sakînâ (i.e., tranquillity, peace, reassurance and calmness) upon us and make our feet firm if we meet the enemy, as they have rebelled against us. And if they intend affliction (i.e., want to frighten us, and fight against us) then we would not (flee but withstand them).” The Prophet would then prolong his voice at the last words.

4107. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The first day (i.e., Ghazwá) I participated in, was the day (of the battle) of Al-Khandaq (i.e., The Trench).

4108. Narrated ‘Ikrima bin Khālid: Ibn ‘Umar said, “I went to Ḥafṣa while water was dribbling from her twined braids. I said, ‘The condition of the people is as you see, and no authority has been given to me.’ Ḥafṣa said, (to me), ‘Go to them, and as they (i.e., the people) are waiting for you, and I am afraid your absence from them will produce division amongst them.’” So Ḥafṣa did not leave Ibn ‘Umar till we went to them. When the people differed, Mu‘āwiya addressed the people saying, “If anybody wants to say anything in this matter of the caliphate, he should show up and not conceal himself, for we are more rightful to be a caliph than he and his father.” On that, Ḥabīb bin Maslama said (to Ibn ‘Umar), “Why don’t you reply to him (i.e., Mu‘āwiya)?” ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar said, "I untied my garment that was going round my back and legs while I was sitting and was about to say, 'He who fought against you and against your father(1) for the sake of Islam, is more rightful to be a caliph,' but I was afraid that my statement might produce differences amongst the people and cause bloodshed, and my statement might be interpreted not as I intended. (So I kept quiet) remembering what Allah has prepared in the Gardens of Paradise (for those who are patient and prefer the Hereafter to this worldly life)." Ḥabīb said, "You did what kept you safe and secure (i.e., you were wise in doing so)."

4109. Narrated Sulaimān bin Ṣurad: On the day (of the battle) of Al-ʾAḥzāb (i.e., the Confederates) the Prophet ﷺ said, "(After this battle) we will go to attack them (i.e., the infidels) and they will not come to attack us."

4110. Narrated Sulaimān bin Ṣurad: When the Confederates were driven away, I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying: "From now onwards we will go to attack them (i.e., the infidels) and they will not come to attack us, but we will go to them."

4111. Narrated ‘Ali: On the day (of the battle) of Al-ʾKhandaq (i.e., the

(1) (H. 4108) Ibn ʿUmar here means ‘Ali bin Abī Ṭalib who had fought against Muʿāwiya, and Abū Sufyān (i.e., Muʿāwiya’s father) in the battles of Uḥud and Al-ʾKhandaq.
Trench), the Prophet ﷺ said, "(Let) Allâh fill their (i.e., the infidels') houses and graves with fire just as they have prevented us from offering the middle `Salât (prayer) (i.e., `Asr prayer) till the sun had set."

4112. Narrated Jâbir bin 'Abdullah Z:

"Umar bin Al-Khattâb ﷺ came on the day (of the battle) of Al-Khandaq after the sun had set and he was abusing the infidels of Quraish saying, "0 Allâh's Messenger! I was unable to offer the (`Asr prayer) till the sun was about to set." The Prophet ﷺ said, "By Allâh, I have not offered this (i.e., `Asr prayer)." So we came down along with the Prophet ﷺ to Buțhân where he performed ablution for the `Salât (prayer) and then we performed the ablution for it. Then he offered the `Asr prayer after the sun had set, and after it he offered the `Maghrib prayer."

4113. Narrated Jâbir:

"On the day of Al-Ahzâb (i.e., the Confederates), Allâh's Messenger ﷺ said, "Who will bring us the news of the people (i.e., the Confederates of Quraish infidels)?" Az-Zubair said, "I." The Prophet ﷺ again said, "Who will bring us the news of the people?" Az-Zubair said, "I." The Prophet ﷺ then said, "Every Prophet has his Hawârî (i.e., disciple, special helper); my Hawârî is Az-Zubair."
4114. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger used to say, "Lā ilāha illallāh Wahdahu (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh Alone) (Who) honoured His soldiers and made His slave victorious, and He (Alone) defeated the Ahzāb (Confederates); so there is nothing after Him."

4115. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin Abī 'Aufa: Allāh's Messenger invoked evil upon the Ahzāb (Confederates) saying, "O Allāh, the Revealer of the Holy Book (i.e., the Qur'ān), the Quick Taker of the accounts! (Please) defeat the Ahzāb (Confederates). O Allāh! Defeat them and shake them."

4116. Narrated 'Abdullāh: Whenever Allāh's Messenger returned from a Ghazwā, Hajj or 'Umra, he used to start (saying), Allahu Akbar, thrice and then he would say, "Lā ilāha illallāh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh Alone) Who has no partners. To Him belongs the kingdom, all praises are for Him, and He is Able to do all things (i.e., He is Omnipotent). We are returning with repentance (to Allāh) worshipping, prostrating, and praising our Lord. Allāh has fulfilled His Promise, made His slave victorious, and He (Alone) defeated the Ahzāb (Confederates)."
(31) CHAPTER. The return of the Prophet  from (the battle of) the Alzh‘ab (Confederates) and his going out to Bani Quraiza and his besieging them.

4117. Narrated ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها: When the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ returned from (the battle of) Al-Khandaq (i.e., the Trench) and laid down his arms and took a bath, (angel) Jibril (Gabriel) came and said (to the Prophet ﷺ), “You have laid down your arms? By Allah, we angels have not laid them down yet. So set out for them.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Where to go?” Jibril said, “Towards this side,” pointing towards Banū Quraiza. So the Prophet ﷺ went out towards them.

4118. Narrated Anas رضي الله عنه: As if I am just now looking at the dust rising in the street of Banū Ghanm (in Al-Madina) because of the marching of Jibril’s (Gabriel’s) regiment when Allah’s Messenger ﷺ set out to Banū Quraiza (to attack them).

4119. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: On the day (of the battle) of Al-Azh‘ab (the Confederates) the Prophet ﷺ said, “None of you (Muslims) should offer the ‘Asr prayer but at Banū Quraiza’s (place).” The ‘Asr prayer became due for some of them on the way. Some of them said, “We will not offer it till we reach it, (the place of Banū Quraiza); while some others said, “No, we will offer at this spot, for the Prophet ﷺ did not mean that for us.” Later on it was mentioned to the Prophet ﷺ and he did not blame any of the two groups.
4120. Narrated Anas b. Abi Anas: Some (of the Ansar) used to present date-palm trees to the Prophet till Banu Quraiza and Banu An-Nadir were conquered (then he returned to the people their date-palms). My people ordered me to ask the Prophet to return some or all the date-palms they had given to him, but the Prophet had given those trees to Umm Aiman. On that, Umm Aiman came and put the garment around my neck and said, "No, by Him except Whom none has the right to be worshipped, he will not return those trees to you as he (i.e., the Prophet) has given them to me." The Prophet said (to her), "Return those trees and I will give you so much (instead of them)." But she kept on refusing, saying, "No, by Allah," till he gave her ten times the number of her date-palms.

4121. Narrated Abū Sa'īd Al-Khudrī: The people of (Banū) Quraiza agreed to accept the verdict of Sa'd b. Mu‘ādh. So the Prophet sent for Sa'd, and the latter came (riding) a donkey and when he approached the mosque, the Prophet said to the Ansār, "Get up for your chief or for the best among you." Then the Prophet said (to Sa'd), "These (i.e., Banū Quraiza) have agreed to accept your verdict." Sa'd said, "Kill their (men) warriors and take their offspring as captives." On that the Prophet said, (1) (H. 4121) The Prophet asked them to help Sa'd because he was sick.
“You have judged according to Allâh’s Judgement,” or said, “according to the King’s (Allâh’s) Judgement.”

4122. Narrated ‘Aishah: Sa’d was wounded on the day (of the battle) of Al-Khandaq (i.e., the Trench) when a man from Quraish, called Hibbân bin Al-‘Ariqa hit him (with an arrow). The man was Hibbân bin Qais from (the tribe of) Bani Ma’is bin ‘Amir bin Lu’ai who shot an arrow at Sa’d’s medial arm vein (or main artery of the arm). The Prophet pitched a tent (for Sa’d) in the mosque so that he might be near to the Prophet to visit. When the Prophet returned from (the battle) of Al-khandaq (i.e., the Trench) and laid down his arms and took a bath, Jibrîl (Gabriel) came to him while he (i.e., Jibrîl) was shaking the dust off his head, and said, “You have laid down the arms? By Allah, I have not laid them down. Go out to them (to attack them).” The Prophet said, “Where?” (Angel) Jibrîl pointed towards Bani Quraiza. So Allâh’s Messenger went to them (i.e., Bani Quraiza) (and besieged them). They then surrendered to the Prophet’s judgement but he directed them to Sa’d to give his verdict concerning them. Sa’d said, “I give my judgement that their warriors should be killed, their women and children should be taken as captives, and their properties distributed.” Narrated Hîshâm: My father informed me that ‘Aishah said, “Sa’d said, ‘O Allâh! You know that there is nothing more beloved to me than to fight in Your Cause against those who disbelieved your Messenger and turned him out (of Makkah), O Allâh! I think you have put to an end the fight between us and them (i.e., Quraish infidels). And if there still remains any fight with the Quraish (infidels), then keep me alive till I fight against them for Your sake. But if you have brought the war to an end, then let this wound burst and cause my death thereby.’ So blood gushed from the wound. There was a tent in the mosque belonging to Banû Ghifâr who were surprised by the blood flowing towards them. They said, ‘O people of the tent! What is this thing which is coming to us from your side?’ Behold! Blood was flowing profusely out of Sa’d’s wound. Sa’d then died because of that.’

4123. Narrated Al-Barâ’ bin ʿÂzib: The Prophet ﷺ said to Ḥassân, “Abuse them (with your poems), and (angel) Jibril (Gabriel) is with you”.

4124. (Through another group of sub-narrators) Al-Barâ’ bin ʿÂzib said, “On the day of Quraïṣa’s (siege), Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said to Ḥassân bin Thâbit, ‘Abuse them (with your poems), and Jibril is with you’.”

(32) CHAPTER. The Ghazwâ (i.e., battle) of Dhât-ur-Riqâ‘

This was the Ghazwâ carried on (by the Muslims) against the tribes of Muḥârib, Khaṣâfa from Banû Tha‘labâ from Ghatafān. The Prophet ﷺ halted at Nakhl. This Ghazwā took place after the conquest of Khaibar, as Abū Mūsā came (to Al-Madīna from Ethiopia) after (the Ghazwā) of Khaibar(1).

4125. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ led his Companions in Fear Prayer(2) in the seventh Ghazwā, i.e., the Ghazwā of Dhat-ur-Riqā’.

Ibn ‘Abbās said, “The Prophet ﷺ offered the Fear Prayer at a place called Dhī-Qarad.”

4126. Jābir said that the Prophet ﷺ led the people in the Fear Prayer on the day of Muhārib and Tha’laba (i.e., the day of the battle of Dhat-ur-Riqā’).

4127. Jābir added, “The Prophet ﷺ set out for (the battle of) Dhat-ur-Riqā’ at a place called Nakhl and he met a group of people from Ghatafān, but there was no clash (between them), and the people were afraid of each other, and the Prophet ﷺ offered the two Rak‘āt of the Fear Prayer.”

Narrated Salama: “I fought in the company of the Prophet ﷺ on the day of Al-Qarad.”

(1) (Ch. 32) Since it has become certain that Abū Mūsā participated in the Ghazwā of Dhat-ur-Riqā’ since his arrival to Al-Madīna coincided with the Ghazwā of Khaibar, we infer that the Ghazwā of Dhat-ur-Riqā’ took place after that of Khaibar.

(2) (H. 4125) Salāt (prayer) performed at the time of battle when the Muslims confront the enemy.
4128. Narrated Abū Burda: Abū Mūsa said, “We went out in the company of the Prophet ﷺ for a Ghazwā and we were six persons having one camel which we rode in rotation. So, (due to excessive walking) our feet became thin and my feet became thin and my nails dropped, and we used to wrap our feet with the pieces of cloth, and for this reason, the Ghazwā was named Dhat-ur-Riqa’(1) as we wrapped our feet with rags.” When Abū Mūsa narrated this (Hadith), he felt regretful to do so and said, “………” as if he disliked to have disclosed a good deed of his.

4129. Narrated Sālih bin Khawwāt (or Sahl bin Abī Ḥathma) concerning those who witnessed the Fear Prayer that was performed in the battle of Dhat-ur-Riqa’ in the company of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ: One batch lined up behind him while another batch (lined up) facing the enemy. The Prophet ﷺ led the batch that was with him in one Rak’a, and he stayed in the standing posture while that batch completed their (two Rak’a) Prayer by themselves and went away, lining in the face of the enemy, while the other batch came and he (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ) offered his remaining Rak’a with them, and then, kept on sitting till they completed their Salāt (prayer) by themselves, and he then finished his Salāt (prayer) with Taslim along with them.

4130. Narrated Ibn Az-Zubair: Jābir said, “We were with the Prophet at Nakhl,” and then he mentioned the Fear Prayer.

Narrated Al-Qāsim bin Muhammad: The Prophet offered the Fear Prayer in the Ghazwā of Banū Anmār.

4131. Narrated Sahl bin Abī Ḥathma (describing the Fear Prayer): The Imām stands up facing the Qiblah and one batch of them (i.e., the army) (out of the two) offers Salāt (prayers) along with him and the other batch faces the enemy. The Imām offers one Rak’a with the first batch, and then they themselves stand up alone and offer one bowing and two prostrations while they are still in their place, and then go away to relieve the second batch, and the second batch comes and takes the place of the first batch in the Salāt (prayer) behind the Imām and he offers the second Rak’a with them. So, he completes his two Rak’ā (with Taslim) and then the second batch (gets up for the second Rak’a) bows and prostrates two prostrations [i.e., complete their second Rak’a and thus all complete their Salāt (prayer)].
4132. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: I took part in a Ghazwã towards Najd along with Allah's Messenger and we clashed with the enemy, and we lined up for them.

4133. Narrated 'Abdullah bin 'Umar: Allah's Messenger led the Fear Prayer with one of the two batches of the army while the other (batch) faced the enemy. Then the first batch went away (after offering one Rak'a) and took places of their companions (i.e., second batch) and the second batch came and he (ﷺ) led his second Rak'a with them. Then he (i.e., the Prophet) finished his Salât (prayer) with Taslim and then each of the two batches got up and completed their remaining one Rak'a.

4134. Narrated Sinãn and Abu Salama: Jabir mentioned that he had participated in a Ghazwã towards Najd in the company of Allah's Messenger.

4135. Narrated Jabir bin 'Abdullah: that he fought in a Ghazwã towards Najd along with Allah's Messenger and when Allah's Messenger returned, he too, returned along with him. The time of the afternoon nap overtook them when they were in a valley full of thorny trees. Allāh’s Messenger dismounted and the people dispersed amongst the thorny trees, seeking the shade of the trees. Allāh’s Messenger took shelter under a Samura tree and hung his sword on it. We slept for a while when Allāh’s Messenger suddenly called us, and we went to him, to find a bedouin sitting with him. Allāh’s Messenger said, “This (bedouin) took my sword out of its sheath while I was asleep. When I woke up, the naked sword was in his hand and he said to me, ‘Who can save you from me?’ I replied, ‘Allāh.’ Now here he is sitting.” Allāh’s Messenger did not punish him (for that).

4136. Through another group of narrators, Jābir said, ‘We were in the company of the Prophet (during the battle of) Dhāt-ur-Riqa’, and we came across a shady tree and we left it for the Prophet (to take rest under its shade). A man from Al-Mushrikūn came while the Prophet’s sword was hanging on the tree. He took it out of its sheath secretly and said (to the Prophet), ‘Are you afraid of me?’ The Prophet said, ‘No.’ He said, ‘Who can save you from me?’ The Prophet said, ‘Allāh.’ The Companions of the Prophet threatened him, then the Iqāma for the Salāt (prayer) was announced and the Prophet offered a two Rak’a Fear Prayer with one of the two batches, and that batch went aside.
then he offered again a two Rak’a prayer with the second batch. So the Prophet ﷺ offered four Rak’a but the people offered two Rak’a only.

(The subnarrator) Abū Bishr added, “The man was Ghaurath bin Al-Hārith and the battle was waged against Muḥārib Ḥaṣaf.”

4137. Jabir added, “We were with the Prophet ﷺ at Nakhl and he offered the Fear Prayer.”

Abū Hurairah said, “I offered the Fear Prayer with the Prophet ﷺ during the Ghazwā (i.e., the battle) of Najd.” Abū Hurairah came to the Prophet ﷺ during the days of Ḥaibar.

(33) CHAPTER. The Ghazwā of Banū Al-Muṣṭaliq which belongs to the tribe of Khuzā’a. It is also called the Ghazwā of Al-Muraisi’.

‘Ibn Isḥāq said, “It took place in the 6th year (of the Hijrah)” Musa bin ‘Uqba said, “It was in the 4th year (of the forged statement against ‘Aishah which was during the Ghazwā of Al-Muraisi’.”

4138. Narrated Ibn Muḥairīz: I entered the mosque and saw Abū Sa’id Al-Khudrī and sat beside him and asked him about Al-‘Azl (i.e., coitus interruptus). Abū Sa’id said, “We went out with Allah’s Messenger ﷺ for the Ghazwā of Banū Al-Muṣṭaliq, and we received captives from among the Arab captives and we desired women and celibacy became hard on us and we loved to do coitus interruptus. So, when we intended to do coitus interruptus, we said, ‘How can we do coitus interruptus without asking Allah’s Messenger while he is present among us?"
We asked (him) about it and he said, 'It is better for you not to do so. There is no person that is destined to exist, but will come to existence, till the Day of Resurrection.'"

4139. Narrated Jābir bin 'Abdullāh رضي الله عنهما: We took part in the Ghazwā of Najd along with Allāh's Messenger ﷺ, and when the time for the afternoon rest approached while he was in a valley with plenty of thorny trees, he dismounted under a tree and rested in its shade and hung his sword (on it). The people dispersed amongst the trees in order to have shade. While we were in this state, Allāh's Messenger ﷺ called us, and we came and found a bedouin sitting in front of him. The Prophet ﷺ said, "This (bedouin) came to me while I was asleep, and he took my sword stealthily. I woke up while he was standing by my head, holding my sword without its sheath. He said, 'Who will save you from me?' I replied, 'Allāh.' So he sheathed it (i.e., the sword) and sat down, and here he is." But Allāh's Messenger ﷺ did not punish him.

(34) CHAPTER. The Ghazwā of Anmār.

4140. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh Al-Anṣārī ﷺ: I saw the Prophet ﷺ offering his Nawāfīl prayer on his mount facing the east during the Ghazwā of Anmār.
4141. Narrated 'Aishah رضي الله عنها: Whenever Allah’s Messenger ﷺ intended to go on a journey, he used to draw lots amongst his wives, and Allah’s Messenger ﷺ used to take with him the one on whom the lot fell. He drew lots amongst us during one of the Ghazwāt which he fought. The lot fell on me and I proceeded with Allah’s Messenger ﷺ after Allah had decreed the use of Hijāb (veil). I was carried (on the back of a camel) in a Hawdaj and dismounted while still in it (when we came to a halt). So we went on till Allah’s Messenger ﷺ had finished from his (that) Ghazwā and returned. (We camped) as we approached near the city of Al-Madina. Then he announced for departure at night. I got up when they announced the departure, and went away from the army camps, and after finishing from the call of nature, I came back to my riding animal. I touched my chest to find that my necklace which was made of Zifar beads (i.e., Yemenite beads partly black and partly white) was missing. So I returned to look for my necklace and my search for it detained me. (In the meanwhile) the people who used to carry me on my camel, came and took my Hawdaj and put it on the back of my camel on which I used to ride, as they considered that I was in it. In those days women were light in weight for they did not get fat, and flesh did not cover their bodies in abundance as they used to eat only a little food. So, those people did not feel the difference in the heaviness of the Hawdaj while lifting it, and they put it near the camel. At that time I was still a young lady. They made the camel rise and all of them left (along with it). I found my necklace after the army had gone. Then I came to their camping place to find no call maker of them, nor one who would respond to the call. So, I intended to go to the place where I used to stay, thinking that they would miss me and come back to me (in my search). While I was sitting in my resting place, I was overwhelmed by sleep and slept. Safwãn bin Al-Mu'attal As-Sulami, Adh-Dhakwani was behind the army. When he reached my place in the morning, he saw the figure of a sleeping person and he recognized me on seeing me as he had seen me before the order of compulsory veiling (was prescribed). So I woke up when he recited Istirjã' (i.e., Inna lillahi wa inna ilaihi raji'un)\(^1\) as soon as he recognized me. I veiled my face with my head cover at once, and by Allah, we did not speak a single word, and I did not hear him saying any word besides his Istirjã'. He dismounted from his camel and made it kneel down, putting his leg on its front legs and then I got up and rode on it. Then he set out leading the camel that was carrying me till we overtook the army in the extreme heat of midday while they were at a halt (taking a rest).

(Because of the event) some people brought destruction upon themselves\(^2\) and

\(^1\) (H. 4141) This saying literally means “Truly to Allah we belong and truly, to Him we shall return (2: 156)”. It is recommended to be said when one is in distress or difficulty.

\(^2\) (H. 4141) By slandering ‘Aishah.
the one who spread the Ifk (i.e., slander) more, was ‘Abdullâh bin Ubai Ibn Salûl.

[‘Urwa said, “The people propagated the slander and talked about it in his (i.e., ‘Abdullâh’s) presence and he confirmed it and listened to it and asked about it to let it prevail.” ‘Urwa also added, “None was mentioned as a member of the slanderous group besides (‘Abdullâh) except Hassân bin Thâbit and Mistâh bin Uthâtha and Ḥamna bint Jahsh along with others about whom I have no knowledge, but they were a group as Allâh said: ‘And as for him who has the greater share therein’ (V. 24:11) (the slander) was ‘Abdullâh bin Ubai bin Salûl.”] ‘Âishah added, “After we returned to Al-Madîna, I became ill for a month. The people were propagating the forged statements of the slanderers while I was unaware of anything of all that, but I felt that in my present ailment, I was not receiving the usual kindness from Allâh’s Messenger which I used to receive when I got sick. (But now) Allâh’s Messenger would only come, greet me and say, ‘How is that (lady)?’ and leave. That roused my doubts, but I did not discover the evil (i.e., slander) till I recovered from my ailment and I went out with Umm Mistâh to Al-Manâṣî where we used to answer the call of nature, and we used not to go out (to answer the call of nature) except at night, and that was before we had latrines near our houses. And this habit of our, was similar to the habits of the old Arabs living in the open country (or away from houses), for it would be troublesome... for us to take latrines near our houses. So, I and Umm Mistah who was the daughter of Abū Ruhm bin Al-Muṭṭalib bin ‘Abd Manāf, whose mother was the daughter of Ṣakhir bin Āmīr and the aunt of Abū Bakr Aṣ-Ṣiddiq and whose son was Mistah bin Uthātha bin ‘Abbad bin Al-Muṭṭalib, went out. I and Umm Mistah returned to my house after we finished answering the call of nature. Umm Mistah stumbled by getting her foot entangled in her covering sheet and on that she said, 'Let Mistah be ruined!' I said, 'What a miserable word you have said. Do you abuse a man who took part in (the battle of) Badr?' On that she said, 'O Hantāh (you there)! Didn't you hear what he (i.e., Mistah) said?' I said, 'What did he say?' Then she told me the slander of the people of Jbf. So my ailment was aggravated, and when I reached my home, Allah's Messenger came to me, and after greeting me, said, 'How is that (lady)?' I said, 'Will you allow me to go to my parents?' as I wanted to be sure about the news through them. Allah's Messenger allowed me (and I went to my parents) and asked my mother, 'O mother! What are the people talking about?' She said, 'O my daughter! Don't worry, for scarcely is there a charming woman who is loved by her husband and whose husband has other wives besides herself, that they (i.e., women) would find faults with her.' I said, 'Subḥān Allāh! Are the people really talking in this way?' I kept on weeping that night till dawn, I could neither stop weeping nor sleep, then in the morning again, I kept on weeping. (When the Divine Revelation was delayed), Allah's Messenger called ‘Alī bin Abī Ṭālib and Usāmā bin Zaid to ask and consult them about divorcing me. Usāmā bin Zaid said what he knew of my innocence, and the respect he had for me. Usāmā said, '(O Allâh’s Messenger!) She is your wife, and we do not know anything except good about her.’ ‘Ali bin Abî TAILb said, ‘O Allâh’s Messenger! Allâh does not put you in difficulty, and there are plenty of women other than she, yet, ask the maid servant (‘Aishah’s slave-girl) who will tell you the truth.’ On that Allâh’s Messenger called Barîrâ (i.e., the maid servant) and asked, ‘O Barîrâ! Did you ever see anything which aroused your suspicion?’ Barîrâ said to him, ‘By Him Who has sent you with the Truth. I have never seen anything in her (i.e., ‘Aishah) which I would conceal, except that she is a young girl who sleeps leaving the dough of her family exposed so that the domestic goats come and eat it.’ So, on that day, Allâh’s Messenger got up on the pulpit and complained about ‘Abdullâh bin Ubai (bin Salûl) before his Companions, saying, ‘O you Muslims! Who will relieve me from that man who has hurt me with his evil statement about my family? By Allâh, I know nothing except good about my family and they have blamed a man about whom I know nothing except good and he never used to enter my home except in my company.’ Sa’d bin Mu’âmîd, the brother of Banû ‘Abd-Al-Ashhal got up and said, ‘O Allâh’s Messenger! I will relieve you from him; if he is from the tribe of Al-Aus, then I will chop his head off, and if he is from our brothers, i.e., Al-Khazraj, then order us, and we will fulfil your order.’ On that, a man from Al-Khazraj got up. Umm Ijassan, was his cousin sister and he was from his branch-tribe, and he was Sa’d bin ‘Ubâda, chief of Al-Khazraj. Before this incident, he was a pious man, but his love for his tribe goaded him into saying to Sa’d (bin Mu’âmîd), ‘By Allâh, you have told a lie; you shall not and cannot kill him. If he belonged to your people, you would not wish him to be killed.' On that, Usaid bin Ḥudair who was the cousin of Sa'd (bin Mū'ādh) got up and said to Sa'd bin 'Ubaydah, ‘By Allāh! You are a liar! We will surely kill him, and you are a hypocrite arguing on behalf of hypocrites.’ On this, the two tribes of Al-Aūs and Al-Khazraj got so much excited that they were about to fight while Allāh’s Messenger was standing on the pulpit. Allāh’s Messenger kept on quietening them till they became silent and so did he. All that day I kept on weeping, neither my tears ceased nor I could sleep.

In the morning, my parents were with me and I wept for two nights and a day, neither my tears ceased nor I could sleep till I thought that my liver would burst from weeping. While my parents were sitting with me and I was weeping, an Ansārī woman asked my permission to enter, and I allowed her to come in. She came in, and sat down and started weeping with me. While we were in this state, Allāh’s Messenger came, greeted us and sat down. He had never sat with me since that day of the slander. A month had elapsed and no Divine Revelation came to him about my case. Allāh’s Messenger then recited Tashahhud (i.e., Lā ilāha illallāh wa anna Muhammad-ur-Rasūl Allah – none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh and Muhammad is Allāh’s Messenger) and then said, ‘Ammā Ba’dū, O ‘Aishah! I have been informed such and such about you; if you are innocent, then soon Allāh will reveal your innocence, and if you have committed a sin, then repent to Allāh and ask Him for forgiveness, for when a person confesses his sins and asks Allāh for forgiveness, Allāh accepts his repentance.’ When Allāh’s Messenger finished his speech, my tears ceased flowing completely and there remained not even a single drop of it. I said to my father, 'Reply to Allâh's Messenger ﷺ on my behalf concerning what he has said.' My father said, 'By Allâh, I do not know what to say to Allâh's Messenger ﷺ.' Then I said to my mother, 'Reply to Allâh's Messenger ﷺ on my behalf concerning what he has said.' She said, 'By Allâh, I do not know what to say to Allâh's Messenger ﷺ.' In spite of the fact that I was a young girl and had a little knowledge of the Qur'ân, I said, 'By Allâh, no doubt I know that you heard this (slanderous) speech so that it has got fixed up in your minds and you have taken it as a truth. Now, if I tell you that I am innocent, you will not believe me, and if I confessed to you falsely that I am guilty, and Allâh knows that I am innocent, you will surely believe me. By Allâh, I find no similitude for me and you except that of Yûsuf's (Joseph's) father when he said: "So (for me) patience is most fitting. And it is Allâh (Alone) Whose Help can be sought against that (lie) which you describe."' (V.12:18). Then I turned to the other side of my bed; hoping that Allâh would prove my innocence. By Allâh, I never thought that Allâh would reveal Divine Revelation in my case, as I considered myself too inferior to be talked of in the Qur'ân. I had hoped that Allâh's Messenger ﷺ might have a dream in which Allâh would prove my innocence. By Allâh, Allâh's Messenger ﷺ had not got up and nobody had left the house before the Divine Revelation came to Allâh's Messenger ﷺ. So, there overtook him the same state which used to overtake him, (when he used to be inspired Divinely). The sweat was dropping from his body like pearls, though it was a (cold) wintry day and that was because of the weighty statement which was being revealed to him. When that state of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was over, he got up smiling, and the first word he said was, ‘O ‘Āishah! Allāh has declared your innocence!’ Then my mother said to me, ‘Get up and go to him (i.e., Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ).’ I replied, ‘By Allāh, I will not go to him, and will not thank but Allāh’. So Allāh revealed the ten Verses: ‘Verily! Those who brought forth the slander (against ‘Āishah) are a group among you...’ (V.24:11-21)

Allāh revealed those Qur’ānic Verses to declare my innocence. Abū Bakr Aṣ-Ṣiddiq who used to provide for Misṭah bin Uthātha because of his relationship to him and his poverty, said, ‘By Allāh, I will never give to Misṭah bin Uthātha anything after what he has said about ‘Āishah.’ But Allāh later revealed: ‘And let not those among you who are blessed with graces and wealth swear not to give (any sort of help) to their kinsmen, Al-Masākin (the poor) and those who left their homes for Allāh’s sake. Let them pardon and forgive. Do you not love that Allāh should forgive you? And Allāh is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.’ (V.24:22) Abū Bakr Aṣ-Ṣiddiq said, ‘Yes, by Allāh, I do love that Allāh should forgive me.’ And resumed giving Misṭah the money he used to give him before. He also added, ‘By Allāh, I will never deprive him of it at all.’ ‘Āishah further said: “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ also asked Zainab bint Jahsh (i.e., his wife) about me saying, ‘What do you know and what did you see?’ She replied, ‘O Allāh’s Messenger! I refrain to claim hearing or seeing what I have not heard or seen. By Allāh, I know nothing except good (about ‘Āishah).’ From amongst the wives of the Prophet ﷺ Zainab was my peer (in beauty and in the love she received from the Prophet ﷺ) yet Allāh protected her (from being malicious) for she had piety. Her sister Hamna, started struggling on her behalf\(^{(1)}\) and she was destroyed along with those who were destroyed. The man who was blamed said, \%'Subhān Allāh! By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, I have never uncovered the cover (i.e., veil) of any female.'\(^{(2)}\) Later on the man was martyred in Allāh's Cause.

\(^{(1)}\) (H. 4141) By spreading the slander so that her sister would not have a rival in the love of Allāh's Messenger ﷺ.

\(^{(2)}\) (H. 4141) This is a figurative expression, meaning, 'I have never had sexual relation with any female.'
4142. Narrated Az-Zuhri: Al-Walid bin ‘Abdul-Malik said to me, “Have you heard that ‘Ali was one of those who slandered ‘Aishah?” I replied, “No, but two men from your people (named) Abū Salama bin ‘Abdur-Rahmān and Abū Bakr bin ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Al-Hārith have informed me that ‘Aishah remained silent about her case.”

4143. Narrated Masrūq bin Al-Ajda’: Umm Rûmān, the mother of ‘Aishah said that while ‘Aishah and she were sitting, an Anṣārī woman came and said, “May Allāh harm such and-such a person!” Umm Rūmān said to her, “What is the matter?” She replied, “My son was amongst those who talked of the story (of the slander).” Umm Rūmān said, “What is that?” She said, “So-and-so...” and narrated the whole story. On that Ā’ishah said, “Did Allāh’s Messenger hear about that?” She replied, “Yes.” Ā’ishah further said, “And Abū Bakr too?” She replied, “Yes.” On that, Ā’ishah fell down fainting, and when she came to her senses, she had got fever with rigors. I put her clothes over her and covered her. The Prophet came and asked, “What is wrong with this (lady)?” Umm Rūmān replied, “O Allāh’s Messenger! She (i.e., Ā’ishah) has got fever with rigors.” He said, “Perhaps it is because of the story that has been talked about?” She said, “Yes.” Ā’ishah sat up and said, “By Allāh, if I took an oath (that I am innocent), you would not believe me, and if I said (that I am not innocent), you would not excuse me. My and your example is like that of Yāqūb (Jacob) and his sons (as Yāqūb said): “… And it is Allāh (Alone) Whose Help can be sought against that (lie) which you describe’…” (V.12:18).” Umm Rūmān said, “The Prophet then went out saying nothing. Then Allāh declared her innocence. On that, Ā’ishah said (to the Prophet), “I thank Allāh only; I thank neither anybody else nor you.”

4144. Narrated Ibn Abī Mulaika: Ā’ishah used to recite this Verse:-

\[ \text{Iddh talaqqunahā bi-alisinatkum (when you were propagating it with your tongues...)} \]

(V.24:15) and she used to say, \textit{Al-Walaq} means telling of a lie.” She knew this Verse more than anybody else as it was revealed about her.

4145. Narrated Hishám’s father: I started abusing Hassan in front of ‘Áishah. She said, “Do not abuse him as he used to defend Alláh’s Messenger ﷺ (against the infidels).” ‘Áishah added, “Once Hassan took the permission from the Prophet ﷺ to say poetic verses against the infidels. On that the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘How will you exclude my forefathers (from that)?’ Hassan replied, ‘I will take you out of them as one takes a hair out of the dough.’” Hishám’s father added, “I abused Hassan as he was one of those who spoke against ‘Áishah.”

4146. Narrated Masrüq: We went to ‘Áishah while Hassan bin Tháltīt was with her reciting poetry to her from some of his poetic verses, saying: “A chaste wise lady about whom nobody can have suspicion. She gets up with an empty stomach because she never eats the flesh of indiscreet (ladies).”(1) ‘Áishah said to him, “But you are not like that.” I said to her, “Why do you grant him admittance, though Alláh ﷺ said: ‘...And as for him among them, who had the greater share therein, his will be a great torment.” (V.24:11) On that, ‘Áishah said, “And what punishment is more than blinding?”(2) She,

(1) (H. 4146) Eating the flesh of other people means backbiting them.
(2) (H. 4146) Hassan had become blind then.
added, “Hassān used to defend or say poetry on behalf of Allāh’s Messenger  against the infidels.”

(36) CHAPTER. The Ghazwã of Al-Iudaibiya.

And the Statement of Allāh تعالى:

“Indeed, Allāh was pleased with the believers when they gave the Bai’a (pledge) to you (O Muhammad ﷺ) under the tree...”

(V.48:18)

4147. Narrated Zaid bin Khālid: We went out with Allāh’s Messenger  in the year of Al-Hudaibiya. One night it rained and Allāh’s Messenger  led us in the Fajr (morning) prayer and (after finishing it), turned to us and said, “Do you know what your Lord has said?” We replied, “Allāh and His Messenger know it better.” He said, “Allāh said: ‘(Some of) My slaves got up believing in Me, and (some of them) disbelieving in Me. The one who said: We have been given rain through Allāh’s Mercy and Allāh’s Blessing and Allāh’s Bounty, then he is a believer in Me, and is a disbeliever in the star. And whoever said: We have been given rain because of such and such star, then he is a believer in the star, and is a disbeliever in Me.’” 4148. Narrated Anas: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ performed four ‘Umra, all in the month of Dhul-Qa’dâ, except the one which he performed with his Hajj (i.e., in Dhul-Hijja). He performed one ‘Umra from Al-Hudâibîyâ in Dhul-Qa’dâ, another ‘Umra in the following year in Dhul-Qa’dâ a third from Al-Jîrîná where he distributed the war booty of Hunain, in Dhul-Qa’dâ, and the fourth ‘Umra he performed was with his Hajj.

4149. Narrated Abû Qatâdâ: We set out with the Prophet ﷺ in the year of Al-Hudâibîyâ, and all his Companions assumed the state of Ihrâm, but I did not.

forth what we required of water for ourselves and our riding animals.

4151. Narrated Al-Barâ’ bin ‘Àzib: they were in the company of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ on the day of Al-Hudaibiya and their number was fourteen hundred or more. They camped at a well and drew its water till it was dried. When they informed Allah’s Messenger ﷺ of that, he came and sat over its edge and said, “Bring me a bucket of its water.” When it was brought, he spat and invoked (Allah) and said, “Leave it for a while.” Then they quenched their thirst and watered their riding animals (from that well) till they departed.

4152. Narrated Salîm: Jâbir said, “On the day of Al-Hudaibiya, the people felt thirsty and Allah’s Messenger ﷺ had a utensil containing water. He performed ablution from it and then the people came towards him. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘What is wrong with you?’ The people said, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! We haven’t got any water to perform ablution with or to drink, except what you have in your utensil.’ So, the Prophet ﷺ put his hand in the utensil and the water started spouting out between his fingers like springs. So, we drank and performed ablution.” I asked Jâbir, “What was your number on that day?” He replied, “Even if we had been one hundred thousand, that water would have been sufficient for us. Anyhow, we were fifteen hundred.”
4153.Narrated Qatada: I said to Sa‘īd bin Al-Musaiyab, “I have been informed that Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh said that the number (of Al-Hudaybiyya Muslim warriors) was fourteen hundred.” Sa‘īd said to me, “Jābir narrated to me that they were fifteen hundred who gave the Bai‘a (pledge) to the Prophet on the day of Al-Hudaybiyya.”

4154. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: On the day of Al-Hudaybiyya, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said to us, “You are the best people on the earth!” We were fourteen hundred then. If I could see now, I would have shown you the place of the tree [beneath which the Bai‘a (pledge) was given by us]. Sālim said, “Our number was fourteen hundred.”

4155. ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Aūfā said, “The people (who gave the Bai‘a (pledge) under the tree numbered thirteen hundred and the number of Bani Aslam was one-eight of the emigrants.”
4156. Narrated Mirdas Al-Aslamî who was among those [who had given the Bai'a (pledge)] under the tree: Pious people will die in succession, and there will remain the dregs of society who will be like the useless residues of dates and barley, and Allâh will pay no attention to them.

4157, 4158. Narrated Marwân and Al-Miswar bin Makhrama: The Prophet went out in the company of thirteen hundred to fifteen hundred of his Companions in the year of Al-Hudaibiya, and when they reached Dhul-Hulaifa, he garlanded and marked his Hady and assumed the state of Ihram.

4159. Narrated Ka'b bin 'Ujra that Allâh's Messenger saw him with the lice falling (from his head) on his face. Allâh's Messenger said, "Are your lice troubling you?" Ka'b said, "Yes." Allâh's Messenger thus ordered him to shave his head while he was at Al-Ḥudaibiyah. Up to then there was no indication that all of them would finish their state of Ḩaram and they hoped that they would enter Makkah. Then the order of Al-Fidya was revealed, so Allāh’s Messenger ᴧ ordered Ka'b to feed six poor persons with one Faraq of food or slaughter a sheep or observe Saum (fast) for three days.\(^{(1)}\)

\[^{(1)}\] (H. 4159) The Prophet ᴧ and his Companions were then in the state of Ḥaram. They could not enter Makkah in that year and had to finish their Ḥaram at Al-Ḥudaibiyah. Ka'b had to pay Fidya for shaving his head because he shaved his head and finished his Ḥaram before the others were ordered to finish their Ḥaram, when they learned that they could not enter Makkah.

4160, 4161. Narrated Aslam: Once, I went with ‘Umar bin Al-Khattāb to the market. A young woman followed ‘Umar and said, “O chief of the believers! My husband has died leaving little children. By Allāh, they have not even a sheep’s trotter to cook; they have no farms or animals. I am afraid that they may die because of hunger, and I am the daughter of Khūfāf bin ʿImā Al-Ghifāri, and my father witnessed the Bai’a (pledge) of Al-Ḥudaibiyah with the Prophet ᴧ.” ‘Umar stopped and did not proceed, and said, “I welcome my near relative.” Then he went towards a strong camel which was tied in the house, and carried on to it two sacks he had loaded with food grains and put between them money and clothes, and gave her its rope to hold and said, “Lead it, and this provision will not finish till Allāh gives you a good supply.” A man said, “O chief of the believers! You have given her too much.” ‘Umar said disapprovingly, “May your mother be bereaved of you! By Allâh, I have seen her father and brother besieging a fort for a long time and conquering it, and then we were discussing what their shares they would have from that war booty.”

4162. Narrated Sa‘îd bin Al-Musaiyab that his father said, “I saw the tree (of the Ar-Ridwân Pledge) and when I returned to it later, I was not able to recognize it.”

[The subnarrator, Mahmûd said, “Al-Musaiyab said, ‘Then I forgot it (i.e., the tree).’”]

4163. Narrated Ṭâriq bin ‘Abdur-Rahmân: When I set out for Hajj, I passed by some people offering a Salât (prayer), I asked, “What is this mosque?” They said, “This is the tree where Allâh’s Messenger took the Bai‘a Ar-Ridwân (pledge).” Then I went to Sa‘îd bin Al-Musaiyab and informed him about it. Sa‘îd said, “My father said that he was amongst those who had given the Bai‘a (pledge) to Allâh’s Messenger beneath the tree. He (i.e., my father) said, ‘When we set out the following year, we forgot the tree and were unable to recognize it.’” Then Sa‘îd said, “The Companions of the Prophet could not recognize it; nevertheless, you do recognize it; therefore you have a better knowledge.”
4164.Narrated Sa’id bin Al-Musayyab that his father was amongst those who had given the Bai’a (pledge) (to the Prophet) beneath the tree, and the next year when they went towards the tree, they were not able to recognize it.

4165.Narrated Tariq: (The tree where Ar-Ridwān Pledge was taken by the Prophet) was mentioned before Sa’id bin Al-Musayyab. On that he smiled and said, “My father informed me (about it) and he had witnessed it (i.e., the pledge).”

4166. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Aūfa who was one of those who had given the Bai’a (pledge) to the Prophet beneath the tree: When the people brought Sadaqa (i.e., charity etc.) to the Prophet he used to say, “O Allāh! Bless them with your Mercy.” Once, my father came with his Sadaqa to him whereupon he (i.e., the Prophet) said, “O Allāh! Bless the family of Abū Aufa.”

4167. Narrated ‘Abbād bin Tamīm: When it was the day (of the battle) of Al-Harrā(1) the people were giving Bai’a (pledge) to ‘Abdullāh bin Hānjāla(2), Ibn Zaid said, “For what are the people giving Bai’a to ‘Abdullāh bin Hānjāla?” It was said to him, “For death.” Ibn Zaid said, “I will never give the Bai’a for that to anybody else after

(1) (H. 4167) A battle that took place between the army of Yazid bin Mu’awiya and the people of Al-Madina.
(2) (H. 4167) ‘Abdullāh bin Hānjāla was the governor of Al-Madina, appointed by ‘Abdullāh bin Az-Zubair.
Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ. Ibn Zaid was one of those who had witnessed the day of Al-Ḥudaibiyah with the Prophet ﷺ.

4168. Narrated Iyās bin Salama bin Al-Akwa: My father who was amongst those who had given the Bai’a (pledge) to the Prophet ﷺ beneath the tree, said to me, “We used to offer the Jumu‘ah prayer with the Prophet ﷺ and then depart at a time when the walls had no shade to shade ourselves therein.”

4169. Narrated Yazid bin Abi ‘Ubaid: I said to Salama bin Al-Akwa, “For what did you give the Bai’a (pledge) to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ on the day of Al-Ḥudaibiyah?” He replied, “For death (in the Cause of Islām).”

4170. Narrated Al-Musaiyab; I met Al-Bara‘ bin ‘Azib رضي الها عنهم and said (to him), “May you live prosperously! You enjoyed the company of the Prophet ﷺ and gave him the Bai’a (pledge) (at Al-Ḥudaibiyah) under the tree.” On that, Al-Bara‘ said, “O my nephew! You do not know what we have done after him (i.e., his death).”

4171. Narrated Abū Qilāba that Thābit bin Ad-Dahhāk had informed him that he was one of those who had given the Bai’a (pledge) (at Al-Ḥudaibiyah) beneath the tree.
4172. Narrated Anas bin Mālik regarding Allāh’s Statement: “Verily! We have given you (O Muḥammad) a manifest victory.” (V.48:1) It refers to the Al-Hudaybiyya Pledge. And the Companions of the Prophet said (to the Prophet), “Congratulations and happiness for you; but what reward shall we get?” So Allāh revealed: “That He may admit the believing men and the believing women to gardens beneath which rivers flow (i.e., Paradise).” (V.48:5)

4173. Narrated Zāhir Al-Aslāmi who was one of those who had witnessed [the Bai'a (pledge) beneath] the tree: While I was making fire beneath the cooking pots containing donkey’s meat, the announcer of Allāh’s Messenger announced, “Allāh’s Messenger forbids you to eat donkey’s meat.”

4174. The same narration was told by Majza’a from a man called Uḥbān bin Aūs who was one of those who had witnessed [the Bai'a (pledge) beneath] the tree, and who had some trouble in his knee so that while doing prostrations, he used to put a pillow underneath his knee.
4175. Narrated Suwaid bin An-Nu'man who was one of those who witnessed [the Bai'a (pledge) beneath] the tree: Allah's Messenger ﷺ and his Companions were given Sawiq and they chewed it.

4176. Narrated Abū Jamra: I asked 'Ādh bin 'Amr رضي الله عنه who was one of the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ and one of those [who gave the Bai'a (pledge) to the Prophet ﷺ] beneath the tree: “Can the Witr prayer be repeated (in one night)?” He said, “If you have offered it in the first part of the night, you should not repeat it in the last part of the night.” [See Fath Al-Bārī].

4177. Narrated Zaid bin Aslam: My father said, “Allah’s Messenger ﷺ was proceeding at night on one of his journeys and 'Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb was going along with him. 'Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb asked him (about something) but Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ did not answer him. 'Umar asked him again, but he did not answer him. He asked him again (for the third time) but he did not answer him. On that 'Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb addressed himself saying, ‘May your mother be bereaved of you, O ‘Umar, for you have asked Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ thrice, yet he has not answered you.’ ‘Umar said, ‘Then I made my camel run fast and took it in front of the other Muslims, and I was afraid that something might be revealed in my connection. I had hardly waited for a moment when I heard somebody calling me, I said, ‘I was afraid that something might have been revealed about me.' Then I came to Allâh's Messenger ﷺ and greeted him. He (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ) said, 'Tonight there has been revealed to me, a Sûrah which is dearer to me than (all the world) on which the sun rises,' and then he recited: 'Verily, We have given you (O Muḥammad ﷺ) a manifest victory.'” (V.48:1) 4178, 4179. Narrated Al-Miswar bin Makhrama and Marwân bin Al-Hakam (one of them said more than his friend): The Prophet ﷺ set out in the company of more than one thousand of his Companions in the year of Al-Hudâbiyâ, and when he reached Dhul-Hulaifa, he garlanded his Hâdy (i.e., sacrificing animal), assumed the state of Iḥrâm for ‘Umra from that place and sent a spy of his from Khuza’â (tribe). The Prophet ﷺ proceeded on till he reached (a village called) Ghâdir-al-Ashtât. There his spy came and said, “The Quraish (infidels) have collected a great number of people against you, and they have collected against you the Ethiopians, and they will fight with you, and will stop you and prevent you from entering the Ka’bah.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “O people! Give me your opinion. Do you recommend that I should destroy the families and offspring of those who want to stop us from (going to) the Ka’bah? If they should come to us (for peace) then Allah would destroy a spy from Al-Mushrikûn, or otherwise we will leave them in a miserable state.” On that Abû Bakr said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! You have come with the intention of visiting this House (i.e., Ka’bah) and you do not want to kill or fight anybody. So proceed to it and whoever should stop us from it, we will fight him.” On that the Prophet ﷺ said, “Proceed on, in the Name of Allah!”

4180, 4181. Narrated ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair that he heard Marwān bin Al-Ḥakam and Al-Miswar bin Makhrama relating one of the events that happened regarding Allah’s Messenger ﷺ when he concluded the truce with Suhail bin ‘Amr on the day of Al-Hudaibiya. One of the conditions which Suhail bin ‘Amr stipulated, was his saying (to the Prophet ﷺ), “If anyone from us (i.e., infidels) ever comes to you, though he has embraced your religion, you should return him to us, and should not interfere between us and him.” Suhail refused to conclude the truce with Allah’s Messenger ﷺ except on this condition. The believers disliked this condition and got disgusted with it and argued about it. But when Suhail refused to conclude the truce with Allah’s Messenger ﷺ except on that condition, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ concluded it. Accordingly, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ then returned Abū Jandal bin Suhail to his father, Suhail bin ‘Amr, and returned every man coming to him from them during that period, even if he was a Muslim. The believing women emigrants came (to Al-Madina) and Umm Kulthūm, the daughter of ‘Uqba bin Abī Mu‘āj was one of those who came to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and she was a fully mature girl at that time. Her relatives came, asking Allah’s Messenger ﷺ to return her to them, and in this connection, Allah revealed the Verses dealing with the believing (women).

4182. ʻAishah (رضي الله عنها) said, "Allāh’s Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم) used to test all the believing women who emigrated to him, with the following Verse: ‘O Prophet! When believing women come to you to give you the Bai‘a (pledge)...’ (V.60:12)

ʻUrwa’s uncle said, “We were informed when Allah ordered His Messenger to return to Al-Mushrikūn what they had given to their wives who lately emigrated (to Al-Madīna) and we were informed that Abū Baṣṣir...”, relating the whole narration.

[See Vol. 3, Hadith No.2731, 2732, for details].

4183. Narrated Nāfi’: ʻAbdullāh bin ʻUmar (رضي الله عنهما) set out for ʻUmra during the period of Al-Fitnah (trial, afflictions), and he said, “If I should be stopped from visiting the Ka‘bah, I will do what we did when we were with Allāh’s Messenger (صلى الله عليه وسلم).” He (Ibn Umar) was one of those who had assumed Ḥiḍām for ʻUmra in the year of Al-Hudaibīyā.

4184. Narrated Nāfi’: Ibn ʻUmar (رضي الله عنهما) assumed Ḥiḍām and said, “If something should intervene between me and the Ka'bah, then I will do what the Prophet did when the Quraish infidels intervened between him and (the Ka'bah). Then Ibn 'Umar recited: “Indeed in the Messenger of Allâh (Muhammad) you have a good example to follow…” (V.33:21)

4185. Narrated Nâfi’: One of 'Abdullâh’s sons said to 'Abdullâh (bin 'Umar), “I wish you would stay this year (and not perform Hajj) as I am afraid that you will not be able to reach the Ka'bah.” On that he (i.e., 'Abdullâh bin 'Umar) said, “We went out with the Prophet (for 'Umra), and when the Quraish infidels intervened between us and the Ka'bah, the Prophet slaughtered his Hady and shaved (his head), and his Companions cut short their hair.” Then 'Abdullâh bin 'Umar said, “I make you witness that I have intended to perform 'Umra and if I am allowed to reach the Ka'bah, I will perform the Tawâf, and if something (i.e., obstacles) intervenes between me and the Ka'bah, then I will do what Allâh’s Messenger did.” Then after going for a while, he said, “I consider the ceremonies (of both 'Umra and Hajj) as one and the same, so I would like you to witness that I have intended to perform Hajj along with my 'Umra.” So, he performed only the Tawâf and one Sa'y (going between As-Sâfa and Al-Marwa) and finished the Ihrâm of both ('Umra and Hajj).

4186. Narrated Nâfi’: The people used to say that Ibn ‘Umar had embraced Islâm (or given the Hudaibiya Pledge) before ‘Umar.
This is not true. What happened is that 'Umar sent 'Abdullah to bring his horse from an _Anṣār_ man so as to fight on it. At that time the people were giving the _Bai'a_ (pledge) to Allah's Messenger near the tree, and 'Umar was not aware of that. So, 'Abdullah (bin 'Umar) gave the _Bai'a_ (to the Prophet) and went to take the horse and brought it to 'Umar. While 'Umar was putting on the armour to get ready for fighting, 'Abdullah informed him that the people were giving the _Bai'a_ to Allah's Messenger beneath the tree. So 'Umar set out and 'Abdullah accompanied him till he gave the _Bai'a_ to Allah's Messenger, and it was this event that made people say that Ibn 'Umar had embraced Islam (or given the Hudaibiya Pledge) before 'Umar.

4187. 'Abdullah bin 'Umar added, "The people were along with the Prophet on the day of _Al-Hudaibiya_ spreading in the shade of the trees. Suddenly the people surrounded the Prophet and started looking at him." 'Umar said, "O 'Abdullah! Go and see why the people are encircling Allah's Messenger and looking at him." 'Abdullah bin 'Umar then saw the people giving the _Bai'a_ to the Prophet. So he also gave the _Bai'a_ and returned to 'Umar, who went out in his turn and gave the _Bai'a_ (to the Prophet).

4188. Narrated 'Abdullah bin Abi Aufa: We were in the company of the Prophet when he performed the 'Umra. He performed the _Tawāf_ and we did the same; he offered the _Ṣalāt_ (prayer) and we also offered the Salāt (prayer) with him. Then he performed the Sa‘y (i.e., going) between As-Ṣafā and Al-Marwa and we were guarding him against the people of Makkah so that nobody should harm him.

4189. Narrated Abū Wā‘il: When Sahl bin Hunayf returned from (the battle of) Siffin, we went to ask him (as to why he had come back). He replied, “(You should not consider me a coward) but blame your own opinions. I saw myself on the day of Abū Jandal (inclined to fight), and if I had the power of refusing the order of Allah’s Messenger , then I would have refused it (and fought the infidels bravely). Allah and His Messenger know (what is convenient and) better. Whenever we put our swords on our shoulders for any matter that terrified us, our swords led us to an easy agreeable solution before the present situation (of disagreement and dispute between the Muslims). When we mend the breach in one side, it opened in another, and we do not know what to do about it.”

4190. Narrated Ka‘b bin ‘Ujra: The Prophet came to me at the time of Al-Hudaybiyya Pledge while lice were falling on my face. He said, “Are the lice of your head troubling you?” I said, “Yes.” He said, “Shave your head and observe Saum (fast)

(1) (H. 4189) A battle between ‘Ali and Mu‘awiya.
(2) (H. 4189) They blamed him for not fighting properly in that battle, but he blamed them for fighting their Muslim brethren.
(3) (H. 4189) During the peace treaty of Al-Hudaybiyya, Abū Jandal, a new convert, sought refuge with the Prophet from the infidels who had persecuted him. But the Prophet , abiding by the conditions of the Treaty, returned him to the infidels. The Companions of the Prophet wished that he had not returned him and prepared to fight the infidels.
for three days, or feed six poor persons, or slaughter a sheep as sacrifice.” (The subnarrator, Ayyūb said, “I do not know with which of these three options he started.”)

4191. Narrated Ka'b bin 'Ujra

We were in the company of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ at Al-Hudaibiyah in the state of Ihram and Al-Mushrikūn did not allow us to proceed (to the Ka’bah). I had thick hair and lice started falling on my face. The Prophet ﷺ passed by me and asked, “Are the lice of your head troubling you?” I replied, “Yes.” (The sub-narrator added, “Then the following Divine Verse was revealed:
’.And whosoever of you is ill or has an ailment in his scalp (necessitating shaving) he must pay a Fidya (ransom) of either observing Saum (fasts) (three days) or giving Sadaqa (charity – feeding six poor) or offering sacrifice (one sheep)...’” (V.2:196)

4192. Narrated Anas

Some people of the tribe of ‘Ukl and ‘Uraina arrived at Al-Madina to meet the Prophet ﷺ and embraced Islam and said, “O Allah’s Prophet! We are the owners of milch livestock (i.e., we are bedouins) and not farmers (i.e., countrymen).” They found the climate of Al-Madina unsuitable for them.
So Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ ordered that they should be provided with some milch camels and a shepherd and ordered them to go out of Al-Madīna and to drink the camels’ milk and urine (as medicine). So they set out and when they reached Al-Ḥarā, they reverted to heathenism after embracing Islām, and killed the shepherd of the Prophet ﷺ and drove away the camels. When this news reached the Prophet ﷺ, he sent some people in pursuit of them. (So they were caught and brought back to the Prophet ﷺ). The Prophet ﷺ gave his orders in their concern. So their eyes were branded with heated pieces of iron and their hands and legs were cut off and they were left away in Ḥarā till they died in that state of theirs.

4193. Narrated Abū Rajā’, the freed slave of Abū Qilāba, who was with Abū Qilāba in Sham: ‘Umar bin ‘Abdul-‘Azīz consulted the people saying, “What do you think of Qasāmā?”(1) They said, “It is a right (judgement) which Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and the caliphs before you acted on.” Abū Qilāba was behind ‘Umar’s bed. ‘Anbasa bin Sa‘īd said, “But what about the narration concerning the people of (‘Ukl and)

"Uraina?" (1) Abū Qilāba said, "Anas bin Malik narrated it to me," and then narrated the whole story.

(38) CHAPTER. Ghazwā Dḥāt-Qarād in which the infidels attacked and took away the she-camels of the Prophet  three days before the battle of Khaibar.

4194. Narrated Salama bin A1-Akwa': Once, I went (from Al-Madīna) towards (Al-Ghāba) before the first Ādhān of the Fajr prayer. The she-camels of Allāh’s Messenger Ḥadīth were used to graze at a place called Dḥī-Qarād. A slave of ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin ‘Aūf met me (on the way) and said, “The she-camels of Allāh’s Messenger Ḥadīth had been taken away by force.” I asked, “Who had taken them?” He replied, “(The people of) Ghatafān.” I made three loud cries (to the people of Al-Madīna) saying, “Ya Ṣabāḥāh!” (2) I made the people between the two mountains of Al-Madīna hear me. Then I rushed onward and caught up with the robbers while they were watering the camels. I started throwing arrows at them as I was a good archer and I was saying, “I am the son of Al-Akwa’, and today will perish the mean people.” I kept on saying like that till I saved the she-camels (of the Prophet صلی الله عليه وآله وسلم), I also snatched thirty Burda (i.e., garments) from them. Then the Prophet صلی الله عليه وآله وسلم and the other people came there, and I said, “O Allāh’s Prophet! I have stopped the people (of Ghaṭafān) from taking water and they are thirsty now. So send (some people) after them now.” On that the Prophet صلی الله عليه وآله وسلم said, “O the son of Al-Akwa’! You have overpowered them, so forgive them.” Then we all came back and Allāh’s Messenger صلی الله عليه وآله وسلم seated me behind him on his she-camel till we entered Al-Madīna.

(1) (H. 4193) The Prophet Ḥadīth did not ask the people of ‘Uraina to take an oath concerning the murder of the shepherd, but he killed them. [See H. No. 4192]

(39) CHAPTER. Ghazwā of Khaibar.

4195. Narrated Suwaid bin An-Nu‘mān: I went out in the company of the Prophet صلی الله عليه وآله وسلم in the year (the battle) of Khaibar, and when we reached As-Ṣahbā’ which is the lower part of Khaibar, the Prophet صلی الله عليه وآله وسلم offered the ‘Aṣr prayer and then asked the people to collect the journey-food. Nothing was brought but Sawiq which the Prophet صلی الله عليه وآله وسلم ordered to be moistened with water, and then he ate it and we also ate it. Then he got up to offer the Maghrib prayer. He washed his mouth, and we too washed our mouths, and then he offered the Salāt prayer without repeating his ablution.

4196. Narrated Salama bin Al-Akwa’ رضي الله عنه: We went out to Khaibar in the company of the Prophet صلی الله عليه وآله وسلم. While we were proceeding at night, a man from the group said to ‘Āmir, “O ‘Āmir! Won’t you let us hear your poetry?” ‘Āmir was a poet, so he got down and started reciting for the people poetry that kept pace with the camel’s footsteps, saying:
"O Allāh! Without You we would not have been guided on the right path
Nor would we have given Ṣadaqa (in charity), nor would we have offered Salāt (prayer).
So please forgive us, what we have committed (i.e., our defects); let all of us be sacrificed for Your Cause.
And send Sākinah (i.e., tranquillity and calmness) upon us
To make our feet firm when we meet our enemy,
And if they will call us towards an unjust thing, we will refuse.
The infidels have made a hue and cry to ask other's help against us."

The Prophet ﷺ on that, asked, “Who is that (camel) driver (reciting poetry)?” The people said, “He is ‘Āmir bin Al-Akwa‘.” Then the Prophet ﷺ said, “May Allāh bestow His Mercy on him.” A man amongst the people said, “O Allāh’s Prophet! Has (martyrdom) been granted to him.” Would that you let us enjoy his company longer.
Then we reached and besieged Khaibar till we were afflicted with severe hunger. Then Allāh ﷺ helped the Muslims conquer it (i.e., Khaibar). In the evening of the day of the conquest of the city, the Muslims made huge fires. The Prophet ﷺ said, “What are these fires? For cooking what are you making the fire?” The people replied, “(For cooking) meat.” He asked, “What kind of meat?” They (i.e., people) said, “The meat of donkeys.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Throw away the meat and break the pots!” Someone asked, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Shall we throw away the meat and wash the pots instead?” He said, “(Yes, you can do) that too.” So when the army files were arranged in rows

(1) (H. 4196) The man, ‘Umar, inferred from the invocation of the Prophet ﷺ that ‘Āmir would be granted martyrdom.
(for the clash), 'Amir's sword was short and he aimed at the leg of a Jew to strike it, but the sharp blade of the sword returned to him and injured his own knee, and that caused him to die. When they returned from the battle, Allâh's Messenger (ﷺ) saw me (in a sad mood). He took my hand and said, "What is bothering you?" I replied, "Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you! The people say that the deeds of 'Amir are lost." The Prophet (ﷺ) said, "Whoever says so, is mistaken, for 'Amir has got a double reward." The Prophet (ﷺ) raised two fingers and added, "He (i.e., 'Amir) was a persevering struggler in the Cause of Allâh and there are few Arabs who achieved the like of (good deeds) 'Amir had done."

4197. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Allâh's Messenger (ﷺ) reached Khaibar at night and it was his habit that whenever he reached the enemy at night, he will not attack them till it was morning. When it was morning, the Jews came out with their spades and baskets, and when they saw him (i.e., the Prophet (ﷺ)), they said, "Muhammad! By Allâh! Muhammad and his army!" The Prophet (ﷺ) said, "Khaibar is destroyed, for whenever we approach a (hostile) nation (to fight), then evil will be the morning for those who have been warned."

4198. Narrated Anas bin Malik: We reached Khaibar early in the morning(1) and the inhabitants of Khaibar came out carrying their spades, and when they saw the Prophet (ﷺ) they said, "Muhammad! By "

(1) (H. 4198) They came at night and stayed near to Khaibar till morning when they attacked it.
Allāh! Muḥammad and his army!” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allahū Akbar! Khaibar is destroyed, for whenever we approach a (hostile) nation (to fight) then evil will be the morning for those who have been warned.” We then got the meat of donkeys (and intended to eat it), but an announcement was made by the announcer of the Prophet ﷺ, “Allāh and His Messenger ﷺ forbid you to eat the meat of donkeys as it is Rijs (an impure thing).”

4199. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Someone came to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “The donkeys have been eaten (by the Muslims).” The Prophet ﷺ kept quiet. Then the man came again and said, “The donkeys have been eaten.” The Prophet ﷺ kept quiet. The man came to him the third time and said, “The donkeys have been consumed.” On that the Prophet ﷺ ordered an announcer to announce to the people, “Allāh and His Messenger ﷺ forbid you to eat the meat of donkeys.” Then the cooking pots were upset while the meat was still boiling in them.

4200. Narrated Anas: The Prophet ﷺ offered the Fajr (morning) prayer near Khaibar when it was still dark and then said, “Allāhu Akbar! Khaibar is destroyed, for whenever we approach a (hostile) nation (to fight), then evil will be the morning for those who have been warned.” Then the inhabitants of Khaibar came out running on the roads. The Prophet ﷺ had their warriors killed, their offspring and woman taken as captives. Safiyya was amongst the captives, she first came in the share of Diya Al-Kalbi but later on she belonged to the Prophet. The Prophet made her manumission as her Mahr.\(^1\)

4201. Narrated 'Abdul-'Aziz bin Suhaib: Anas bin Malik reported that the Prophet took Safiyya as a captive. He manumitted her and married her. Thabit asked Anas, "What did he give her as Mahr?"\(^2\) Anas replied, "Her Mahr was herself, for he manumitted her."

4202. Narrated Abū Mūsa Al-Ash'ari: When Allah's Messenger fought the battle of Khaibar, or when Allah's Messenger proceeded towards it, and the people (passed over a high place) overlooking a valley, they raised their voices saying, "Allahu Akbar! Allahu Akbar! (Allah is the Most Great), Lā ilāha illallāh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah)." On that Allah's Messenger said to them, "Lower your voices, for you are not calling a deaf or an absent one, but you are calling a Hearer Who is near, and He is with you." I was behind the riding animal of Allah's Messenger and he heard me saying, "Lā hawla wa lā quwwata illa billāh (there is neither might, nor power but with Allāh)."

On that he said to me, “O ʿAbdullāh bin Qais!” I said, “Libbaik. O Allāh’s Messenger!” He said, “Shall I tell you a sentence which is one of the treasures of Paradise?” I said, “Yes, O Allāh’s Messenger! Let my father and mother be sacrificed for your sake.” He said, “It is: Lā hawla wa lā qawwata illā billah (there is neither might nor power but with Allāh).”

4203. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’id As-Sa’idi: Allāh’s Messenger (and his army) met in a battle with Al-Mushrikūn (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allāh and in His Messenger Muhammad) and the two armies fought and then Allāh’s Messenger returned to his army camp and the others (i.e. the enemy) returned to their army camps. Amongst the Companions of the Prophet there was a man who would follow and kill with his sword any Mushrik going alone. Somebody said, “None has benefited the Muslims today more than so-and-so.” On that Allāh’s Messenger said, “Verily, he is from the people of the Hell-fire.” A man amongst the people (i.e., Muslims) said, “I will accompany him (to know the fact).” So, he went along with him, and whenever he stopped, he stopped with him, and whenever he hastened, he hastened with him. The (brave) man then got wounded severely, and seeking to die at once, he planted his sword into the ground and put its point against his chest in between his breasts, and then threw himself on it and committed suicide. On that the person (who was accompanying the deceased all the time) came to Allāh’s Messenger and said, “I testify that you are the Messenger of Allāh.” The Prophet 34 said, "Why is that (what makes you say so)?" He said, "It is concerning the man whom you have already mentioned as one of the dwellers of the Hell-fire. The people were surprised by your statement, and I said to them, 'I will try to find out the truth about him for you.' So, I went out after him and he was then inflicted with a severe wound, and because of that, he hurried to bring death upon himself by planting the handle of his sword into the ground and directing its tip towards his chest between his breasts, and then he threw himself over it and committed suicide." Allāh's Messenger ﷺ then said, "A man may do what seem to the people as the deeds of the dweller of Paradise but he is from the dwellers of the Hell-fire, and another may do what seem to the people as the deeds of the dwellers of the (Hell) Fire, but he is from the dwellers of Paradise." (See H. 2898)

4204. Narrated Abū Hurairah:
We witnessed (the battle of) Khaibar. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said about one of those who were with him and who claimed to be a Muslim. "This (man) is from the dwellers of the Hell-fire." When the battle started, that fellow fought so violently and bravely that he received plenty of wounds. Some of the people were about to doubt (the Prophet’s statement), but the man, feeling the pain of his wounds, put his hand into his quiver and took out of it some arrows with which he slaughtered himself (committed suicide). Then some men amongst the Muslims came hurriedly and said, "O Allāh’s Messenger! Allāh has made your statement true; so-and-so has committed suicide." The Prophet ﷺ said, "O so-and-so! Stand up and make an announcement that none will enter Paradise but a believer and that Allāh may support the religion (Islām) with a Fājr [a wicked (sinful) man.”

4205. Narration about the chain of the narrators.

4206. Narrated Yazid bin Abi ‘Ubayd: I saw the trace of a wound in Salama’s leg. I said to him, “O Abu Muslim! What is this wound?” He said, “This was inflicted on me on the day (of the battle) of Khaibar and the people said, ‘Salama has been wounded.’ Then I went to the Prophet and he blew with saliva Nafatha on it (i.e., the wound) thrice, and since then I have not had any pain in it till this hour.”

4207. Narrated Sahl: During one of his Ghazawat, the Prophet met in a battle with Al-Mushrikun (polytheists, pagans,

4208. نARRATED ABU ‘IMRÂN: ANAS LOOKED AT THE PEOPLE WEARING TAYALISA (i.e., A SPECIAL KIND OF HEAD COVERING WORN BY JEWS IN OLDEN DAYS). ON THAT ANAS SAID, “AT THIS MOMENT THEY (i.e., THOSE PEOPLE) LOOK LIKE THE JEWS OF KHAIBAR.”(1)

(1) (H. 4208) Because the Jews of Khaibar used to wear such dresses. Anas did not mean that the wearing of such clothes was disliked, but he disapproved of their yellow colour.
4209. Narrated Salama: ‘Ali remained behind the Prophet during the Ghazwah of Khaibar as he was suffering from eye trouble. He then said, “(How can) I remain behind the Prophet, so he followed him. So when it was the (preceding) night of the conquest of Khaibar, the Prophet said, “I will give the flag tomorrow,” or said “tomorrow the flag will be taken by a man who is loved by Allah and His Messenger, and (Khaibar) will be conquered through him, (with Allah’s Help)”. While everyone of us was hopeful to have the flag, it was said, “Here is ‘Ali”, and the Prophet gave him the flag and Khaibar was conquered through him (with Allah’s Help).

4210. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: On the day (of the battle) of Khaibar, Allah’s Messenger said, “Tomorrow I will give this flag to a man through whose hands Allah will give us victory. He loves Allah and His Messenger, and he is loved by Allah and His Messenger.” The people remained that night, wondering as to who would be given the flag. In the morning the people went to Allah’s Messenger and everyone of them was hopeful to receive it (i.e., the flag). The Prophet asked, “Where is ‘Ali bin Abi Talib?” It was said, “He is suffering from eye trouble, O Allah’s Messenger.” He said, “Send for him.” ‘Ali was brought and Allah’s Messenger spat in his eye and invoked good upon him. So, ‘Ali was cured as if he never had any trouble. Then the Prophet gave him the flag. ‘Ali said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I will fight with them till they become like us.” Allah’s Messenger said, “Proceed, and do not hurry. When you enter their territory, call them to embrace Islam and inform them of Allah’s Rights which they should observe, for by Allah, even if a single man is led on the right path (Islam) by Allah through you, then that will be better for you than the nice red camels.”

4211. Narrated Anas bin Malik:
We arrived at Khaibar, and when Allah helped His Messenger to open the fort, the beauty of Safiyya bint Huyai bin Akhtab, whose husband had been killed while she was a bride, was mentioned to Allah’s Messenger. The Prophet selected her for himself, and set out with her, and when we reached a place called Sadd-as-Sahba’, Safiyya became clean from her menses, then Allah’s Messenger married her. Hais (i.e., an Arabian dish) was served on a small leather mat. Then the Prophet said to me, “Invite the people around you.” So that was the marriage banquet of the Prophet and Safiyya. Then we proceeded towards Al-Madina, and I saw the Prophet making for her a kind of cushion with his cloak behind him (on his camel). He then sat beside his camel and put his knee for Safiyya to put her foot on, in order to ride (on the camel).
4212. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet stayed with Safiyya bint Huyai for three days on the way of Khaibar where he consummated his marriage with her. Safiyya was amongst those who were ordered to use a veil.

4213. Narrated Anas: The Prophet stayed for three nights between Khaibar and Al-Madina and was married to Safiyya. I invited the Muslims to his marriage banquet and there was neither meat nor bread in that banquet, but the Prophet ordered Bilal to spread the leather mats on which dates, dried yoghurt and butter were served. The Muslims said amongst themselves, “Will she (i.e., Safiyya) be one of the Mothers of the believers (i.e., one of the wives of the Prophet) or just (a lady captive) of what his right-hand possesses?” Some of them said, “If the Prophet makes her observe the veil, then she will be one of the Mothers of the believers, and if he does not make her observe the veil, then she will be his lady-slave.” So when he departed, he made a place for her behind him (on his camel) and made her observe the veil.

4214. Narrated 'Abdullah bin Mugaffal: While we were besieging Khaibar, a person threw a leather container containing some fat and I ran to take it. Suddenly I looked behind, and behold! The Prophet was there. So I felt shy (to take it then).
4215. Narrated Ibn `Umar (RA):

On the day (of the battle) of Khaibar, Allah's Messenger forbade the eating of garlic and the meat of donkeys.

[See Vol. 1, Hadith No. 854].

4216. Narrated `Ali bin Abi Talib (RA):

On the day (of the battle) of Khaibar, Allah's Messenger forbade the Mut'a (i.e., temporary marriage) and the eating of the meat of donkeys.

4217. Narrated Ibn `Umar (RA):

On the day (of the battle) of Khaibar, Allah's Messenger forbade the eating of the meat of donkeys.

4218. Narrated Ibn `Umar (RA):

Allah's Messenger forbade the eating of the meat of donkeys.

4219. Narrated Jābir bin 'Abdullāh: On the day (of the battle) of Khāibar, Allāh's Messenger forbade the eating of the meat of donkeys and allowed the eating of the meat of horses.

4220. Narrated Ibn Abī Aūfā: We were afflicted with severe hunger on the day of Khāibar. While the cooking pots were boiling and some of the food was well-cooked, the announcer of the Prophet came to say, “Do not eat anything of the meat of the donkey and upset the cooking pots.” We then thought that the Prophet had prohibited such food because the Khumus had not been taken out of it. Some others said, “He prohibited the meat of donkeys forever, because donkeys used to eat dirty things.”

4221, 4222. Narrated Al-Barā’ and ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Aūfā that when they were in the company of the Prophet, they got some donkeys which they (slaughtered and) cooked. Then the announcer of the Prophet said, “Turn the cooking pots upside down (i.e., throw out the meat)”.
4223, 4224. Narrated Al-Barâ’ and Ibn Abî Aūfa رضي الله عنهما: On the day (of the battle) of Khaibar when the cooking pots were put on the fire (with the meat of donkeys), the Prophet ﷺ said, “Turn the cooking pots upside down.”

4225. Narrated Al-Barâ’ رضي الله عنه: We took part in a Ghazwa with the Prophet ﷺ (same as Hadith No.4223, 4224).

4226. Narrated Al-Barâ’ bin ‘Azib رضي الله عنه: During the Ghazwa of Khaibar, the Prophet ﷺ ordered us to throw away the meat of the donkeys whether it was still raw or cooked. He did not allow us to eat it later on.

4227. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs رضي الله عنهما: I do not know whether the Prophet ﷺ forbade the eating of donkey-meat (temporarily) because they were the beasts of burden for the people, and he disliked that their means of transportation should be lost, or he forbade it on the day (of the battle) of Khaibar permanently.
4228. Narrated Ibn 'Umar L4L. i
On the day (of the battle) of Khaibar, Allah's Messenger divided (the war booty of Khaibar) with the ratio of two shares for the horse and one share for the foot soldier. The subnarrator, Nāfi' explained this, saying, "If a man had a horse, he was given three shares and if he had no horse, then he was given one share."

4229. Narrated Jubair bin Mut'īm ai
"Uthmān bin 'Affān and I went to the Prophet and said, "You had given Banū Al-Muttalib from the Khumus of Khaibar's booty and left us in spite of the fact that we and Banū Al-Muttalib are on equal family status with you." The Prophet said, "Banū Hashim and Banū Al-Muttalib only are one and the same." So, the Prophet did not give anything to Banū 'Abd Shams and Banū Nawfal.\(^{(1)}\)

4230. Narrated Abū Müsa Z i
The news of the emigration of the Prophet (from Makkah to Al-Madīna) reached us while we were in Yemen. So we set out as Muhajirūn (emigrants) towards him. We were (three) I and my two brothers. I was the youngest of them, and one of the two was Abū Burda, and the other, Abū Ruhm, and our total number was either 53 or 52 men from my people. We got on board a boat and our boat took us to Najāshi (Negus) in Ethiopia. There we met Ja‘far bin Abī Talib and stayed with him. Then we all came (to Al-Madīna) and met the Prophet ﷺ at the time of the conquest of Khaibar. Some of the people used to say to us, namely the people of the boat, “We have emigrated before you.” Āsmā‘ bint ‘Umais who was one of those who had come with us, came as a visitor to Ḥafṣa, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ. She had emigrated along with those other Muslims who emigrated to Najāshi. ‘Umar came to Ḥafṣa while Āsmā‘ bint ‘Umais was with her. ‘Umar, on seeing Āsmā‘, said, “Who is this?” She said, “Āsmā‘ bint ‘Umais.” ‘Umar said, “Is she the Ethiopian? Is she the seafaring lady?” Āsmā‘ replied, “Yes.” ‘Umar said, “We have emigrated before you (people of the boat), so we have got more right than you over Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ.” On that Āsmā‘ became angry and said, “No, by Allāh, while you were with Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ who was feeding the hungry ones amongst you, and advising the ignorant ones amongst you, we were in the far-off hated land of Ethiopia, and all that was for the sake of Allāh and (then) His Messenger ﷺ. By Allāh, I will neither eat any food nor drink anything till I inform Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ of all that you have said. There we were harmed and frightened. I will mention this to the Prophet ﷺ and will ask him (about it). By Allāh I will not tell a lie or curtail your saying or add something to it.”

4231. So when the Prophet ﷺ came, she said, “O Allah’s Prophet! ‘Umar has said so-and-so.” He ﷺ said (to Asmā’), “What did you say to him?” Asmā’ said, “I told him so-and-so.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “He (i.e., ‘Umar) has not got more right than you people over me, as he and his companions have (the reward of) only one emigration, and you, the people of the boat, have (the reward of) two emigrations.” Asmā’ later on said, “I saw Abū Mūsā and the other people of the boat coming to me in successive groups, asking me about this narration, and to them nothing in the world was more cheerful and greater than what the Prophet ﷺ had said about them.”

Narrated Abū Burda: Asmā’ said, “I saw Abū Mūsā requesting me to repeat this narration again and again.”

4232. Narrated Abū Burda: Abū Mūsā said, “The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘I recognize the voice of the group of Al-Ash’āriyūn, when they recite the Qur’ān, when they enter their homes at night, and I recognize their houses by (listening) to their voices when they are reciting the Qur’ān at night, although I have not seen their houses where they stayed during the daytime. Amongst them is Hakim who, on meeting the cavalry (or said the enemy), used to say to them (i.e., the enemy): My companions order you to wait for them.’”

4233. Narrated Abū Mūsā: We came upon the Prophet ﷺ after he had conquered Khaibar. He then gave us a share (from the booty), but apart from us he did not give to anybody else who did not participate in the conquest.

4234. Narrated Abū Hurairah: When we conquered Khaibar, we gained neither gold nor silver as booty, but we gained cows, camels, goods and gardens. Then we departed with Allāh’s Messenger to the valley of Al-Qurā, and at that time Allāh’s Messenger had a slave called Mid‘am who had been presented to him by one of Banū Ad-Ḍibāb. While the slave was dismounting the saddle of Allāh’s Messenger, an arrow, the thrower of which was unknown, hit that slave. The people said, “Congratulations to him for the martyrdom.” Allāh’s Messenger said, “No, by Him in Whose Hand my soul is, the sheet (of cloth) which he had taken (illegally) on the day (of the battle) of Khaibar from the booty before the distribution of the booty, has become a flame of fire burning him.” On hearing that, a man brought one or two leather straps of shoes to the Prophet and said, “These are things I took (illegally).” On that Allāh’s Messenger said, “This is a strap” or “these are two straps of fire.”
4235. Narrated ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb: By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, were I not afraid that the other Muslims might be left in poverty, I would divide (the land of) whatever village I may conquer (among the fighters), as the Prophet ﷺ divided the land of Khaibar. But I prefer to leave it as a (source of) a common treasury for them to distribute its revenue amongst themselves.

4236. Narrated ‘Umar: But for the other Muslims (i.e., coming generations) I would divide (the land of) whatever villages the Muslims might conquer (among the fighters), as the Prophet ﷺ divided (the land of) Khaibar.

4237. Narrated ‘Anbasā bin Sa‘īd: Abū Hurairah came to the Prophet ﷺ and asked him (for a share from the Khaibar booty). On that, one of the sons of Sa‘īd bin Al-‘Āṣ said to him, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Do not give him.” Abū Hurairah then said (to the Prophet ﷺ), “This is the murderer of Ibn Qauqal.” Sa‘īd’s son said, “How strange! A guinea pig coming from Qadūm Aḍ-Dā’n!”

4238. Narrated Abū Hurairah: ‘Abī Hurairah said: [Referring to (1) H. 4237] Qadūm Aḍ-Dā’n is the name of a mountain in the land of Abū Hurairah’s tribe.
Allah's Messenger sent Abán from Al-Madina to Najd as the commander of a Sarýa. Abán and his companions came to the Prophet at Khaibar after the Prophet had conquered it, and the reins of their horses were made of the fibre of date palm trees. I said, "O Allah's Messenger! Do not give them a share of the booty." On that, Abán said (to me), "Strange! You suggest such a thing though you are what you are, O guinea pig coming down from the top of Ad-Ḍâl!" On that the Prophet said, "O Abán, sit down!" and did not gave them any share.

4239. Narrated Sa'id: Abán bin Sa'id came to the Prophet and greeted him. Abú Hurairah said, "O Allah's Messenger! This (Abán) is the murderer of Ibn Qauqal." (On hearing that), Abán said to Abú Hurairah, "How strange your saying is! You, a guinea pig, descending from Qadum Ḍâ'n, blaming me for (killing) a person whom Allah favoured (with martyrdom) with my hand, and whom He forbade to degrade me with his hand."(1)

4240, 4241. Narrated 'Āishah: Fátima, the daughter of the Prophet sent someone to Abú Bakr (when he was a caliph), asking for her

(1) (H. 4239) Abán wants to say, "If I had been killed by that person I would have been among the people of the Hell-fire." Abán, before embracing Islam killed Ibn Qauqal who was a Muslim.
inheritance of what Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ had left of the property bestowed on him by Allâh from the Fâî (i.e., booty gained without fighting) in Al-Madîna, and Fadak, and what remained of the Khumus of the Khaibar booty. On that, Abû Bakr said, “Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘Our property is not inherited. Whatever we leave, is Sâdaqa (charity), but the family of (the Prophet) Muhammad ﷺ can eat of this property.’ By Allâh, I will not make any change in the state of the Sâdaqa of Allâh’s Messenger and will leave it as it was during the lifetime of Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ, and will dispose of it as Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ used to do.” So, Abû Bakr refused to give anything of that to Fâtîma. So she became angry with Abû Bakr and kept away from him, and did not talk to him till she died. She remained alive for six months after the death of the Prophet ﷺ. When she died, her husband ‘Alî buried her at night without informing Abû Bakr and he offered the funeral prayer by himself. When Fâtîma was alive, the people used to respect ‘Alî much, but after her death, ‘Alî noticed a change in the people’s attitude towards him. So, ‘Alî sought reconciliation with Abû Bakr and gave him the Bai’a (pledge). ‘Alî had not given the Bai’a (pledge) during those months (i.e., the period between the Prophet’s death and Fâtîma’s death). ‘Alî sent someone to Abû Bakr saying, “Come to us, but let nobody come with you,” as he disliked that ‘Umar should come. ‘Umar said (to Abû Bakr), “No, by Allâh, you shall not enter upon them alone.” Abû Bakr said, “What do you think they will do to me? By Allâh, I will go to them.” So, Abû Bakr entered upon them, and then ‘Alî uttered Tashahhud(1) and said (to Abû Bakr), “We know well your superiority and what Allah has given you, and we are not jealous of the good what Allah has bestowed upon you, but you did not consult us in the question of the rule, and we thought that we have got a right in it because of our near relationship to Allah's Messenger ﷺ. " Thereupon Abu Bakr's eyes flowed with tears. And when Abū Bakr spoke, he said, “By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, to keep good relations with the relatives of Allah's Messenger ﷺ, is dearer to me than to keep good relations with my own relatives. But as for the trouble which arose between me and you about his property, I will do my best to spend it according to what is good, and will not leave any rule or regulation which I saw Allah's Messenger ﷺ following, in disposing of it, but I will follow.” On that ‘Alî said to Abû Bakr, “I promise to give you the Bai’a (pledge) this afternoon.” So, when Abû Bakr had offered the Zuhr prayer, he ascended the pulpit and uttered the Tashah-hud and then mentioned the story of ‘Alî and his failure to give the Bai’a (pledge) and excused him, accepting what excuses he had offered. Then ‘Alî (got up) and praying (to Allah) for forgiveness, he uttered Tashah-hud, praised Abû Bakr’s right, and said, that he had not done what he had done because of jealousy of Abû Bakr or as a protest of what Allah had favoured him with. ‘Alî added, “But we used to consider that we too had some right in this affair (of rulership) and that he (i.e., Abû Bakr) did not consult us in this matter, and therefore caused us to feel sorry.” On that all the Muslims became happy and said, “You have done the right thing.” The Muslims then became friendly with ‘Alî as he did to what the people had done (i.e., giving the Bai’a (pledge) to Abû Bakr).

4242. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها:
When Khaibar was conquered, we said,
“Now we will eat our fill of dates!”

4243. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar : We did not eat our fill except after we had conquered Khaibar.

(40) CHAPTER. The appointment of a ruler for Khaibar by the Prophet ﷺ.

4244, 4245. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudri and Abū Hurairah : Allāh’s Messenger appointed a man as the ruler of Khaibar who later brought some Janīb (i.e., dates of good quality) to the Prophet ﷺ. On that, Allāh’s Messenger said (to him), “Are all the dates of Khaibar like this?” He said, “No, by Allāh, O Allāh’s Messenger! But we take one Sā‘ of these (dates of good quality) for two or three Sā‘ of other dates (of inferior quality).” On that, Allāh’s Messenger said, “Do not do so as it is a kind of usury (Ribā Fadl) but first sell the inferior quality dates for money and then with money, buy Janīb.”

4246, 4247. Abū Sa‘īd and Abū Hurairah said, “The Prophet ﷺ made the brother of Banī ‘Adī from the Anṣār as the ruler of Khaibar.”
(41) CHAPTER. The dealing of the Prophet \( \text{ \vphantom{I}} \) with the people of Khaibar.

4248. Narrated 'Abdullãh: The Prophet gave (the land of) Khaibar to the Jews (of Khaibar) on condition that they would work on it and cultivate it and they would have half of its yield.

4249. Narrated Abü Hurairah: When Khaibar was conquered, a (cooked) sheep containing poison, was given as a present to Alläh's Messenger \( \text{ \vphantom{I}} \).

(42) CHAPTER. The sheep which was poisoned (and presented) to the Prophet \( \text{ \vphantom{I}} \) at Khaibar.

4250. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: Alläh's Messenger appointed Usãma bin Zaid as the commander of some people. Those people criticised his leadership. The Prophet \( \text{ \vphantom{I}} \) said, "If you speak ill of his..."
leadership, you have already spoken ill of his father’s leadership before. By Allâh, he deserved to be a commander, and he was one of the most beloved persons to me and now this (i.e., Usâma) is one of the most beloved persons to me after him.”

(44) CHAPTER. The ‘Umra Al-Qada’ (i.e., an ‘Umra performed in lieu of an abandoned or missed or being prevented ‘Umra.)

4251. Narrated Al-Barâ’î: When the Prophet proceeded to perform ‘Umra in the month of Dhul-Qa’dâ, the people of Makkah stopped him from entering Makkah till he agreed to conclude a peace treaty with them by virtue of which he would stay in Makkah for three days only (in the following year). When the agreement was being written, the Muslims wrote: “This is the peace treaty which Muhammad the Messenger of Allâh has concluded.”

The infidels said (to the Prophet), “We do not agree with you on this, for if we knew that you are the Messenger of Allâh we would not have prevented you for anything (i.e., entering Makkah, etc.), but you are Muhammad, the son of ‘Abdullah.” Then he (ﷺ) said to ‘Âlî, “Erase (the name of) ‘Messenger of Allâh’. ‘Âlî said, “No, by Allâh, I will never erase you (i.e., your name).” Then Allâh’s Messenger (ﷺ) took the writing sheet— and he did not know a better writing... and he wrote(1) or got it the following written!

(1) (H. 4251) See Fath Al-Bâri.
Muhammad, the son of 'Abdullāh, has concluded: Muhammad should not bring arms into Makkah except sheathed swords, and should not take with him any person of the people of Makkah even if such a person wanted to follow him, and if any of his companions wants to stay in Makkah, he should not forbid him."

(In the next year) when the Prophet entered Makkah and when the stipulated period of stay elapsed, the infidels came to 'Āli and said, "Tell your companion (Muhammad) to go out, as the stipulated period of his stay has finished." So the Prophet departed (from Makkah) and the daughter of Ḥamzah followed him shouting "O Uncle, O Uncle!" 'Āli took her by the hand and said to Fāṭima "Take the daughter of your uncle." So, she made her ride (on her horse). (When they reached Al-Madīna) 'Āli, Zaid and Ja'far quarreled about her. 'Āli said, "I took her for she is the daughter of my uncle." Ja'far said, "She is the daughter of my uncle and her aunt is my wife." Zaid said, "She is the daughter of my brother." On that, the Prophet gave her to her aunt and said, "The aunt is of the same status as the mother." He then said to 'Āli, "You are from me, and I am from you," and said to Ja'far, "You resemble me in appearance and character," and said to Zaid, "You are our brother and our freed slave." 'Āli said to the Prophet "Won’t you marry the daughter of Hamza?" The Prophet said, "She is the daughter of my foster milk-suckling brother."

4252. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger set out with the intention of performing ‘Umrah, but the infidels of Quraish intervened between him and the Ka'bah, so the Prophet slaughtered his Hady (i.e., sacrificing animal) and shaved his head at Al-Hudaybiyya and concluded a treaty with them (i.e., the infidels) on condition that he would perform 'Umra the next year and that he would not carry arms against them except swords, and would not stay (in Makkah) more than what they would allow. So, the Prophet performed the 'Umra in the following year and according to the peace treaty, he entered Makkah, and when he had stayed there for three days, the infidels ordered him to leave, and he left.

4253. Narrated Mujahid: 'Urwa and I entered the mosque and found 'Abdullâh bin 'Umar sitting beside the dwelling place of 'Aishah. 'Urwa asked (Ibn 'Umar), "How many 'Umra did the Prophet perform?" Ibn 'Umar replied, "Four, one of which was in the month of Rajab."

4254. Then we heard 'Aishah brushing her teeth whereupon 'Urwa said, 'O Mother of the believers! Don't you hear what Abû 'Abdur-Rahmân is saying? He is saying that the Prophet performed four 'Umra, one of which was in the month of Rajab." 'Aishah said, "The Prophet did not perform any 'Umra but he (i.e., Ibn 'Umar) witnessed it. And he (the Prophet) never did any 'Umra in (the month of) Rajab."

4255. Narrated Ibn Abî Aûfa: When Allâh’s Messenger performed the 'Umra (which he performed in the year following the treaty of Al-Hudaibiya) we were screening Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) from the infidels and their boys lest they should harm him.

4256. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas (may Allah have mercy on him): When Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) and his Companions arrived (at Makkah), Al-Mushrikun” (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ) said, “There have come to you a group of people who have been weakened by the fever of Yathrib (i.e., Al-Madina).” So the Prophet (ﷺ) ordered his Companions to do Ramal in the first three rounds of Tawaf around the Ka’bah and to walk in between the two corners (i.e., the Black Stone and the Yemenite Corner). The only thing which prevented the Prophet (ﷺ) from ordering them to do Ramal in all the rounds of Tawaf, was that he pitied them.

Ibn ‘Abbas added, “When the Prophet (ﷺ) arrived (at Makkah) in the year of peace (following that of Al-Hudaibiya Treaty with the Mushrikün of Makkah), he (ordered his Companions) to do Ramal in order to show their strength to Al-Mushrikun” and Al-Mushrikün were watching (the Muslims) from (the hill of) Qu’aiqi’an.

4257. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas (may Allah have mercy on him): The Prophet (ﷺ) hastened in going around the Ka’bah and between the As-Šaфа and Al-Marwa in order to show Al-Mushrikun” (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muḥammad ﷺ) his strength.

4258. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet ﷺ married Maimūna (during the Umrah Al-Qadā’) while he was in the state of Ihrām but he consummated that marriage after finishing that state. Maimūna died at Sarif (a place near Makkah).

4259. Ibn ‘Abbās added: The Prophet ﷺ married Maimūna during the ‘Umrah Al-Qadā’ (i.e., the ‘Umrah performed in lieu of the ‘Umrah which the Prophet ﷺ could not perform because Al-Mushrikūn, prevented him to perform that ‘Umrah).

(45) CHAPTER. The Ghazwā of Mu’tah in the land of Sham.

4260. Narrated Nāfi’: Ibn ‘Umar informed me that on the day (of the battle of Mu’tah) he stood beside Ja’far who was dead (i.e., killed in the battle), and he counted fifty wounds in his body, caused by stabs or strokes, and none of those wounds was in his back.

4261. ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar ﷺ said, “Allah’s Messenger ﷺ appointed Zaid bin Ḥāritha as the commander of the army during the Ghazwā of Mu’tah and said, ‘If Zaid is martyred, Ja’far should take over his position, and if Ja’far is martyred, ‘Abdullāh bin Rawāḥa should take over his position.’” 'Abdullah bin 'Umar further said, “I was present amongst them in that battle and we searched for Ja'far bin Abi Ṭalib and found his body amongst the bodies of the martyred ones, and found over ninety wounds over his body, caused by stabs or shots (of arrows).

4262. Narrated Anas: The Prophet ῥ said, “I informed the people of the martyrdom of Zaid, Ja'far and Ibn Rawāḥa before the news of their death reached. The Prophet ῥ said, “Zaid took the flag (as the commander of the army) and was martyred, then Ja'far took it and was martyred and then Ibn Rawāḥa took it and was martyred.” At that time the Prophet's eyes were overflowing with tears. He added, “Then the flag was taken by a sword amongst the swords of Allāh (i.e., Khalid) and Allāh made them (i.e., the Muslims) victorious.”

but they did not listen to me.' The Prophet ordered him again to go (and forbid them). He went again and came saying, 'By Allah, they overpowered me (i.e., did not listen to me).’” 'Aishah added: “Allah’s Messenger said (to him), “Go and throw dust into their mouths.” ‘Aishah further added, “I said, ‘May Allah put your nose in the dust! By Allah, neither have you done what you have been ordered, nor have you relieved Allah’s Messenger from (his) distress.’”

4264. Narrated ‘Amir: Whenever Ibn ‘Umar greeted the son of Ja’far, he used to say (to him), “As-Salamu Alaika (i.e., peace be on you) O the son of two-winged person.”

4265. Narrated Khālid bin Al-Walid: On the day (of the battle of) Mu’tah, nine swords were broken in my hand, and nothing was left in my hand except a Yemenite sword of mine.

4266. Narrated Khālid bin Al-Walid: On the day (of the battle of) Mu’tah, nine swords were broken in my hand and only a Yemenite sword of mine remained in my hand.
4267. Narrated An-Nu'man bin Bashir: ‘Abdullah bin Rawaha fell down unconscious and his sister ‘Amra started crying and was saying loudly, “O Jabal! O so-and-so! so-and-so!" and went on calling him by his (good) qualities one by one. When he came to his senses, he said (to his sister), “Whenever you said something, I was asked, ‘Are you really so (i.e., as she says)?’"

4268. Narrated Ash-Sha’bi: An-Nu’mân bin Bashir said, “‘Abdullãh bin Rawaha fell down unconscious....” (and mentioned the above Hadith adding, “Thereupon, when he died she (i.e., his sister) did not weep over him.”

(46) CHAPTER. The despatch of Usãma bin Zaid by the Prophet towards Al-Iuraqat, (a place of the tribe of Juhaina).

4269. Narrated Usãma bin Zaid: Allah’s Messenger sent us towards Al-Huraqa, and in the morning we attacked them and defeated them. I, and an Ansârî man followed a man from among them and when we took him over, he said, “La ilãha illallh” (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah).” On hearing that, the Ansârî man stopped, but I killed him by stabbing him with my spear. When we returned, the Prophet came to know about that and he said, “O Usãma! Did you kill him after he...”

had said ‘La ilaha illallah’?" I said, "But he said so only to save himself." The Prophet kept on repeating that so often that I wished I had not embraced Islam before that day.

4270. Narrated Salama bin Al-Akwa':

I fought in seven Ghazawāt (i.e., battles) in the company of the Prophet, and fought in nine (other) battles, fought by armies despatched by the Prophet. Once Abū Bakr was our commander and at another time, Usāma was our commander.

4271. Narrated Salama in another narration:

I fought seven Ghazawāt (i.e., battles) in the company of the Prophet and also fought in nine (other) battles, in armies sent by the Prophet. Once Abū Bakr was our commander and another time, Usāma was our commander.

4272. Narrated Salama bin Al-Akwa':

I fought in nine Ghazawāt along with the Prophet, I also fought along with Ibn Ḥāritha when the Prophet made him our commander.
4273. Narrated Yazid bin Abi 'Ubad:
Salama bin Al-Akwa' said, "I fought in seven Ghazawāt along with the Prophet ﷺ." He then mentioned Khaibar, Al-Hudaibiya, the day (i.e., battle) of Hunain and the day of Al-Qarad. I forgot the names of the other Ghazawāt.

(47) CHAPTER. The Ghazwā of Al-Fath.

And what Ḥāṭib bin Abi Balta'a sent to the people of Makkah informing them about the Ghazwā of the Prophet ﷺ:

Messenger ﷺ sent me, Az-Zubair and Al-
Miqdād saying, "Proceed till you reach Rawḍa Khakh where there is a lady carrying a letter, and take that (letter) from her." So we proceeded on our way with our horses galloping till we reached Rawḍa, and there we found the lady and said to her, "Take out the letter." She said, "I have no letter." We said, "Take out the letter, or else we will take off your clothes (to search for the letter)." So she took it out of her braid, and we brought the letter to Allah's Messenger ﷺ. The letter was addressed from Ḥāṭib bin Abi Balta'a to some Mushrikūn of Makkah, telling them about what Allah's Messenger ﷺ intended to do. Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "O Ḥāṭib!
What is this?" Ḥāṭib replied, "O Allah's Messenger! Do not make a hasty decision about me. I was a person not belonging to Quraish but I was an ally to them from outside and had no blood relation with them, and all the emigrants who were with you, have got their kinsmen (in Makkah) who can protect their families and properties. So I liked to do them a favour so that they might protect my relatives as I have no blood relation with them. I did not do this to renegade from my religion (Islām), nor did I do it to choose heathenism after Islām.”

Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said to his Companions, “As regards him, he (Hāṭib) has told you the truth.” ‘Umar said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Allow me to chop off the head of this hypocrite!” The Prophet ﷺ said, “He (Hāṭib) has witnessed the battle of Badr (i.e., fought in it) and what could tell you, perhaps Allāh looked at those who witnessed Badr and said, “O the people of Badr (Badr Muslim warriors), do what you like, for I have forgiven you.” Then Allāh revealed the Sūrah:

“O you who believe! Take not My enemies and your enemies (i.e., disbelievers and polytheists) as friends showing affection towards them, while they have disbelieved in what has come to you of the truth (i.e., Islāmic Monotheism, this Qur’ān and Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ), (to the end of Verse)... then indeed he has gone (far) astray (away) from the Straight Path.”

(V.60:1)

(48) CHAPTER. The Ghazwā of Al-Fath (was fought) during Ramaḍān.

Narrated Az-Zuhrī: Ibn Al-Musāiyab (also) said the same. Ibn ‘Abbās رضي الله عنّه
Li added, "The Prophet observed saum (fast) and when he reached Al-Kadid, a place where there is water between Qudaid and ‘Usfân, he broke his saum and did not observe saum afterwards till the whole month had passed away."

4276. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbãs: The Prophet left Al-Madina (for Makkah) in the company of ten thousand (Muslim warriors) in (the month of) Ramadân, and that was eight and a half years after his emigration to Al-Madina. He and the Muslims who were with him, proceeded on their way to Makkah. He was observing saum (fast) and they were observing saum (fast), but when they reached a place called Al-Kadid, which was a place of water between ‘Usfân and Qudaid, he broke his saum (fast) and so did they. [Az-Zuhri said, “One should take the last action of Allah’s Messenger and leave his early action (while taking a verdict).”]

4277. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbãs: Allah’s Messenger set out towards Hunain in the month of Ramadân; and some of the people were observing saum (fast) while some others were not observing saum (fast), and when the Prophet mounted his she-camel, he asked for a tumbler of milk or water and put it on the palm of his hand or on his she-camel and then the people looked at him; and those who were not observing Saum (fast) told those who were observing Saum (fast), to break their Saum (fast) (i.e., as the Prophet had done so).

4278. Ibn ‘Abbās added, “The Prophet went (to Ḥunain) in the year of the conquest (of Makkah).”

4279. Narrated Ťawūs: Ibn ‘Abbās said, “Allah’s Messenger travelled in the month of Ramaḍān and he observed Saum (fast) till he reached (a place called) ‘Usfān, then he asked for a tumbler of water and drank it by the daytime so that the people might see him. He broke his Saum (fast) till he reached Makkah.” ‘Ibn ‘Abbās used to say, “Allah’s Messenger observed Saum (fast) and sometimes did not observe Saum (fast) while travelling, so one may observe Saum (fast) or may not (on journeys).”

(49) CHAPTER. Where did the Prophet fix the flag on the day of the conquest of Makkah?

4280. Narrated Hishām’s father: When Allah’s Messenger set out (towards Makkah) during the year of the conquest (of Makkah) and this news reached (the infidels of Quraish), Abū Sufyān, Ḥakīm bin Ḥizām and Budail bin Warqā’ came out to gather information about Allah’s Messenger. They proceeded on their way till they reached a place called Marr-az-Zahrān (which is near Makkah). Behold! There they saw many fires as if they were the fires of ‘Arafat. Abū Sufyān said, “What is this? It looked like the fires of ‘Arafat.” Budail bin Warqā’ said, “Banū ‘Amr are less in number than that.” Some of the guards of Allah’s Messenger saw them and took them over, caught them and brought them to Allah’s Messenger. Abū Sufyān embraced Islam. When the Prophet proceeded, he said to Al-‘Abbās, “Keep Abū Sufyān standing at the top of the mountain so that he would look at the Muslims. So Al-‘Abbās kept him standing (at that place) and the tribes with the Prophet started passing in front of Abū Sufyān in military batches. A batch passed and Abū Sufyān said, “O ‘Abbās! Who are these?” ‘Abbās said, “They are (Banū) Ghifār.” Abū Sufyān said, “I have got nothing to do with Ghifar.” Then (a batch of the tribe of) Juhaína passed by and Abū Sufyān said what he said before. Then (a batch of the tribe of) Sā’d bin Ḥuzaím passed by and he said similarly as above. Then (Banū) Sulaim passed by and he said similarly as above. Then came a batch, the like of which Abū Sufyān had not seen. He said, “Who are these?” ‘Abbās said, “They are the Anṣār, headed by Sā’d bin ‘Ubāda, the one holding the flag.” Sā’d bin ‘Ubāda said, “O Abū Sufyān! Today is the day of a great battle and today (what is prohibited in) the Ka’bah will be permissible.” Abū Sufyān said, “O ‘Abbās! How excellent the day of destruction is!” Then came another batch (of warriors) which was the smallest of all the batches, and in it there was Allah’s Messenger and his Companions and the flag of the Prophet was carried by Az-Zubair bin Al-‘Awwâm الرضي الله عنه. When Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ passed by Abû Sufyân, the latter said, “Do you know what Sa’d bin ‘Ubâda said?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “What did he say?” Abû Sufyân said, “He said so-and-so.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Sa’d told a lie, but today Allâh will give superiority to the Ka’bah, and today the Ka’bah will be covered with a (cloth) covering.” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ ordered that his flag be fixed at Al-Hajîn.

Narrated ‘Urwa: Nâfi’ bin Jubair bin Mu’tim said, “I heard Al-‘Abbâs saying to Az-Zubair bin Al-‘Awwâm, ‘O Abû ‘Abdullah! Did Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ order you to fix the flag here?’ ” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ ordered Khalîd bin Al-Walîd to enter Makkah from its upper part from Kada while the Prophet ﷺ himself entered from Kuda. Two men from the cavalry of Khalîd bin Al-Walîd الرضي الله عنه named Ḥubaish bin Al-Ash’ar and Kurz bin Jâbir Al-Fihrî were martyred on that day.

4281. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin Mughaffal الرضي الله عنه: I saw Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ on the day of the conquest of Makkah over his she-camel, reciting Sûrat Al-Fath in a vibrant quivering tone. (The subnarrator, Mu’awiya added, “Were I not (afraid) that the people may gather around me, I would recite in vibrant quivering tone as he (i.e., ‘Abdullah bin Mughaffal) did, imitating Allâh’s Messenger.ﷺ.”) 4282. Narrated ‘Amr bin ‘Uthmān: Usāma bin Zaid said during the conquest (of Makkah), “O Allah’s Messenger! Where will we encamp tomorrow?” The Prophet said, “But has ‘Aqīl left for us any house to lodge in?”

4283. He then added, “No believer will inherit an infidel’s property, and no infidel will inherit the property of a believer.” Az-Zuhri was asked, “Who inherited Abū Ṭalib?” Az-Zuhri replied, “‘Aqīl and Ṭalib inherited him.”

4284. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “If Allah makes us victorious, our encamping place will be Al-Khaif, the place where the infidels took an oath to be loyal to heathenism (by boycotting Banū Ḥāshim, the Prophet’s folk).”

4285. Narrated Abū Hurairah: When Allah’s Messenger intended to carry on the Ghazwā of Ḥunain, he said, “Tomorrow, if Allah wished, our encamping place will be Khāif Banī Kināna where (the infidels) took an oath to be loyal to heathenism.”
4286. Narrated Anas bin Malik: On the day of the Conquest, the Prophet entered Makkah, wearing a helmet on his head. When he took it off, a man came and said, “Ibn Khatal is clinging to the curtain of the Ka'bah.” The Prophet said, “Kill him.” (Mālik a sub-narrator said, “On that day the Prophet was not in a state of Ḥaram as it appeared to us, and Allāh knows better.”)

4287. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: When the Prophet entered Makkah on the day of the Conquest (of Makkah), there were 360 idols around the Ka'bah. The Prophet started striking them with a stick he had in his hand and was saying, “Al-Ḥaq (the Truth i.e., Islamic Monotheism, or this Qur'ān or Ḥirād against polytheists) has come and Al-Bātīl (falsehood i.e., Satan, or polytheism) vanished [V.17:81]. The Truth (the Qur'ān and Allāh's Revelation) has come, and Al-Bātīl [falsehood – Iblis (Satan)] can neither create anything nor resurrect (anything).” (V.34:49).

4288. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: When Allāh’s Messenger arrived in Makkah, he refused to enter the Ka'bah while there were idols in it. So, he ordered that they be taken out. The pictures of the (Prophets) Ibrāhīm (Abraham) and Ismā‘īl (Ishmael), holding arrows of divination in their hands, were carried out. The Prophet said, “May Allāh ruin them (i.e., the infidels) for they knew very well that they (i.e., Ibrāhīm and Ismā‘īl) never drew lots by these (divination arrows). Then the Prophet entered the Ka'bah and said, "Alláhu Akbar" in all its directions and came out and did not offer any Salát (prayer) therein.

(50) CHAPTER. The entrance of the Prophet from the upper part of Makkah.

4289. Narrated 'Abdulláh bin 'Umar: Allah's Messenger entered Makkah through its upper part and he was riding his she-camel. Usáma bin Zaid was his Companion-rider behind him (on the same she-camel). In his company were Bilál and 'Uthmán bin 'Atá, who was one of the Al-Hajabah (who keep the key of the gate of the Ka'bah). When he made his she-camel kneel down in the Mosque (i.e., Al-Masjid-al-Haram), he ordered him (i.e., 'Uthmán) to bring the key of the Ka'bah. Then Allah's Messenger entered the Ka'bah along with Usáma bin Zaid, Bilál and 'Uthmán bin 'Atá, and he stayed in it for a long period and then came out. The people rushed (to get in) and 'Abdulláh bin 'Umar was the first to enter and he found Bilál standing behind the door. Ibn 'Umar asked Bilál, "Where did Allah's Messenger offer the Salát (prayer)?" Bilál showed him the place where he ( had offered Salát (prayer). 'Abdulláh later on said, "I forgot to ask Bilál how many prostrations (i.e., Rak'a) the Prophet offered."

4290. Narrated 'Aishah: During the year of the Conquest (of Makkah), the Prophet entered Makkah through Kadá’ which was at the upper part of Makkah.

4291. Narrated Hishám’s father: During the year of the Conquest (of Makkah), the Prophet entered Makkah through its upper part through Kadá’.

(51) CHAPTER. The encamping place of the Prophet on the day of the Conquest (of Makkah).

4292. Narrated Ibn Lailâ: None informed us that he saw the Prophet offering the "Duhâ (i.e., forenoon) Salât (prayer), except Umm Hanî, who mentioned that the Prophet took a bath in her house on the day of the Conquest (of Makkah) and then offered an eight Rak’a Salât (prayer). She added, “I never saw the Prophet offering a lighter alãt (prayer) than that Salât (prayer), but he was performing perfect bowings and prostrations.”

(52) CHAPTER.

4293. Narrated ‘Âishah: The Prophet used to say in his bowings and prostrations, “Subhânaka Allâhumma Rabbanâ wa bihamdika, Allâhumma ighfirli (Glorified be You, O Allâh, our Lord! All the praises are for You. O Allâh, forgive me)!"
4294. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: ‘Umar used to make me sit with elderly men who had fought in the battle of Badr. Some of them said (to ‘Umar), “Why do you allow this young man to sit with us, while we have sons of his age?” ‘Umar said, “You know what a person he is.” One day ‘Umar called them and called me along with them, I had thought he called me on that day to show them something about me (i.e., my knowledge). ‘Umar asked them, “What do you say about (the Sūrah):

“When there comes the Help of Allah (to you, O Muḥammad) against your enemies and the Conquest (of Makkah). And you see that the people enter Allah’s religion (Islām) in crowds.” (V.110:1-3)

Some of them replied, “We are ordered to praise Allah and repent to Him if we are helped and granted victory.” Some said, “We do not know.” Others kept quiet. ‘Umar then said to me, “Do you say the same?” I said, “No.” ‘Umar said, “What do you say then?” I said, “This Verse indicates the approaching of the death of Allah’s Messenger, of which Allah informed him. When there comes the Help of Allah (to you, O Muḥammad) against your enemies) and the Conquest, i.e., the conquest of Makkah, that will be the sign (of your Prophet’s) approaching death, so glorify the praises of your Lord and ask for His forgiveness. Verily, He is the One Who accepts the repentance and forgives.” On that, ‘Umar said, “I do not know about it anything other than what you know.”

4295. Narrated Abū Shuraib Al-‘Adawi that he said to ‘Amr bin Sa‘īd while the latter was sending troops in batches to Makkah, “O chief! Allow me to tell you a statement which Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said on the day following the conquest of Makkah. My two ears heard it and my heart comprehended it and my two eyes saw him when he said it. He (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ) praised Allah and then said, ‘Makkah has been made a sanctuary by Allah and not by the people, so it is not lawful for a person, who believes in Allah and the Last Day (i.e., a Muslim) to shed blood in it, or to cut its trees; and if someone asks the permission to fight in Makkah because Allah’s Messenger ﷺ was allowed to fight in it, say to him: Allah permitted His Messenger ﷺ and did not allow you, and even he (i.e., the Messenger ﷺ) was allowed for a few hours on that day (of the Conquest), and today (now) its (Makkah’s) sanctity is the same valid as it was before. So it is incumbent upon those who are present to convey it (this information) to those who are absent.’”

Then Abû Shuraih was asked, “What did ‘Amr say to you?” Abû Shuraih said, “He said, ‘I knew that better than you, O Abû Shuraih! The Haram (i.e., Makkah) does not give refuge to a sinner or a fleeing murderer or a person running away after committing crimes.’”

[See Vol.1, Hadith No.104]
(53) CHAPTER. The stay of the Prophet ﷺ in Makkah during the period of the Conquest (of Makkah).

4297. Narrated Anas: We stayed (in Makkah) for ten days along with the Prophet ﷺ; and used to offer shortened Salãt (prayer) [i.e., journey Salat (prayer)].

4298. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbãs: The Prophet ﷺ stayed in Makkah for 19 days during which he prayed two Rak’a in each Salat (prayer).

4299. Narrated ‘Ikrima: Ibn ‘Abbãs said, “We stayed for 19 days with the Prophet ﷺ on a journey during which we used to offer shortened Salat (prayer).” Ibn ‘Abbãs added, “We offer the Qasr Salat (prayer) [i.e., shortened Salat (prayer)], if we stay up to 19 days as travellers, but if we stay longer, we offer complete Salat (prayer).”

(54) CHAPTER.

4300. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin Tha’labã bin Šu’air whose face was rubbed by the Prophet ﷺ during the year of the Conquest (of Makkah).
4301. Narrated Az-Zuhri: While we were in the company of Ibn Al-Musaiyab, Sunain Abī Jamila informed us (a Ḥadith). Abū Jamila said that he lived during the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ and that he had accompanied him (to Makkah) during the year of the Conquest (of Makkah).

4302. Narrated ‘Amr bin Salama: We were at a place which was a thoroughfare for the people, and the caravans used to pass by us and we would ask them, “What is wrong with the people? What is wrong with the people? Who is that man?” They would say, “That man claims that Allāh has sent him (as a Messenger), that he has been inspired Divinely, that Allah has revealed to him such and such.” I used to memorize that (Divine) Talk, and feel as if it was inculcated in my chest (i.e., mind). And the Arabs (other than Quraish) delayed their conversion to Islām till the Conquest (of Makkah). They used to say, “Leave him (i.e., Muḥammad ﷺ) and his people Quraish; if he overpowers them, then he is a true Prophet.” So, when Makkah was conquered, then every tribe rushed to embrace Islām, and my father hurried to embrace Islām before (the other members of) my tribe. When my father returned (from the Prophet ﷺ) to his tribe, he said, “By Allāh, I have come to you from the Prophet ﷺ for sure!” The Prophet ﷺ afterwards said to them, “Offer such and such Salāt (prayer) at such and such time, and when the time for the Salāt (prayer) becomes due, then one of you should pronounce the Adhān (for the Salāt), and let the one amongst you who knows the Qur'an most should lead the Salât (prayer)." So they looked for such a person and found none who knew more of the Qur'an than I because of the Qur'ānic Verses which I used to learn from the caravans. They therefore made me their Imām [to lead the Salāt (prayer)] and at that time I was a boy of six or seven years, wearing a Burdā (i.e., a black square garment) proved to be very short for me (and my body became partly exposed). A lady from the tribe said, "Won't you cover the buttocks of your reciter for us?" So they bought (a piece of cloth) and made a shirt for me. I had never been so happy with anything before as I was with that shirt.

4303. Narrated 'Aishah: ‘Utba bin Abī Waqqāš authorized his brother Sa’d to take the son of the slave-girl of Zam‘a into his custody. ‘Utba said (to him), “He is my son.” When Allāh’s Messenger ℓ arrived in Makkah during the conquest (of Makkah), Sa’d bin Abī Waqqāš took the son of the slave-girl of Zam‘a to the Prophet ℓ. ‘Abd bin Zam‘a, too, came along with him. Sa’d said, “This is the son of my brother and the latter has informed me that he is his son.” ‘Abd bin Zam‘a said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! This is my brother who is the son of the slave-girl of Zam‘a and was born on his (i.e., Zam‘a’s) bed.” Allāh’s Messenger ℓ cast a glance at the son of the slave-girl of Zam‘a and noticed that he, of all the people had the greatest resemblance to ‘Utba bin Abī Waqqāš. Allāh’s Messenger ℓ then said (to ‘Abd), “He is yours; he is your brother, O ‘Abd bin Zam‘a, as he was born on the bed (of your father).” (At the same time) Allāh’s Messenger ℓ said (to his wife Sauda), “O Sauda! Screen yourself from him (i.e., the son of the slave-girl),”(1) because of the

(1) (H. 4303) Sauda was the daughter of Zam‘a and the wife of the Prophet ℓ. The son= resemblance he noticed between him and 'Utba bin Abi Waqqa. Allah's Messenger ﷺ added, "The boy is for the bed (i.e., for the owner of the bed where he is born), and stone is for the adulterer."(1)

[Ibn Shihab said, "Abu Hurairah used to say publicly that (i.e., the last statement of the Prophet ﷺ in the above Hadith No.4303.")]

4304. Narrated 'Urwa bin Az-Zubair: A lady committed theft during the lifetime of Allah's Messenger ﷺ in the Ghazwa of Al-Fath (i.e., the conquest of Makkah). Her folk went to Usama bin Zaid to intercede for her (with the Prophet ﷺ). When Usama interceded for her with Allah's Messenger ﷺ, the colour of the face of Allah's Messenger ﷺ changed and he said, "Do you intercede with me in a matter involving one of the legal punishments prescribed by Allah?" Usama said, "O Allah's Messenger! Ask Allah's Forgiveness for me." So in the afternoon, Allah's Messenger ﷺ got up and addressed the people. He praised Allah as He deserved and then said, "Amma ba'du (then after)! The nations before you were destroyed because if a noble amongst them stole, they used to excuse him, and if a poor person amongst them stole, they would apply

(1) (H. 4303) The adulterer is to be stoned to death (if he or she is a married one) according to Islamic Law.
(Allâh's) Legal Punishment to him. By Him in Whose Hand Muhammad's soul is, if Fâtimâ, the daughter of Muhammad stole, I would cut her hand.” Then Allâh's Messenger ﷺ gave his order in the case of that woman and her hand was cut off. Afterwards her repentance proved sincere and she got married. ‘Aishâ said, “That lady used to visit me and I used to convey her demands to Allâh's Messenger ﷺ.”

4305, 4306. Narrated Mujâshî bin Harîm: I took my brother to the Prophet ﷺ after the Conquest (of Makkah) and said, “0 Allâh's Messenger! I have come to you with my brother so that you may take a Bai'â (pledge) from him for emigration.”

The Prophet ﷺ said, “The people of emigration (i.e., those who emigrated to Al-Madîna before the Conquest) enjoyed the privileges of emigration (i.e., there is no need for emigration anymore).” I said to the Prophet ﷺ, “For what will you take his Bai'â?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “I will take his Bai'â for Islâm, 'Imân (belief), and for Jihad (i.e., fighting in Allâh’s Cause).”

4307, 4308. Narrated Mujâshî bin Mas'ûd: I took Abû Ma'âbad to the Prophet ﷺ in order that he might give him the Bai'â (pledge) for emigration. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Emigration has gone along with its people, but I take the Bai'â (pledge) from him (i.e., Abû Ma'âbad) for Islâm and Jihad.”

(1) (H. 4307) Emigration is no longer required after the conquest of Makkah. Before that, emigration was rewardable, but it is not so after the conquest of Makkah.
4309. Narrated Mujahid: I said to Ibn 'Umar: "I want to emigrate to Sham." He said, "There is no emigration, but Jihād (for Allah’s Cause). Go and offer yourself for Jihād, and if you find an opportunity for Jihād (stay there) otherwise, come back."

4310. In another narration Ibn ‘Umar said, "There is no emigration today" or said, "after Allah’s Messenger," (and completed his statement as above.)

4311. Narrated Mujāhid bin Jabr: ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar used to say, “There is no emigration after the Conquest (of Makkah).”

4312. Narrated ‘Āṭā’ bin Abī-Rabāḥ: ‘Ubayd bin ‘Umair and I visited ‘Āishah, and he asked her about the emigration. She said, "There is no emigration today. A believer used to flee with his religion to Allâh and His Prophet ﷺ for fear that he might be put to trial as regards his religion. Today, Allâh has rendered Islâm victorious; therefore a believer can worship his Lord (Allâh) wherever he wishes. But there is Jihâd (for Allâh's Cause) and intentions."

[See Vol. 4, Hadîth No.2783, for its explanation]

4313. Narrated Mujâhid: Allâh's Messenger ﷺ got up on the day of the Conquest of Makkah and said, "Allâh has made Makkah a sanctuary since the day He created the heavens and the earth, and it will remain a sanctuary by virtue of the sanctity Allâh has bestowed on it till the Day of Resurrection. It (i.e., fighting in it) was not made lawful to anyone before me, nor will it be made lawful to anyone after me, and it was not made lawful for me except for a short period of time.(1) Its game should not be chased, nor should its trees be cut, nor its vegetation or grass uprooted, nor its Luqata (i.e., lost things) picked up except by one who makes a public announcement about it." Al-'Abbâs bin 'Abdul-Mu'tâlib said, "O Allâh's Messenger! "Except the Idhkhir, as it is indispensible for blacksmiths and houses." On that, the Prophet ﷺ kept quiet and then said, "Except the Idhkhir as it is lawful to cut."

(1) (H. 4313) For the period between morning and mid-afternoon.
(55) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh (أَنَّ اللَّهُ يَجْعَلُكُمُ الْمُفْتَرِضَةَ عَلَى الْأَيَّامِ). [Reference: 1349]

4314. Narrated Ismâ‘îl: I saw (a healed scar of) hit (blow) over the hand of Ibn Abî Aufâ who said, “I received that hit (blow) in the battle of ûnain in the company of the Prophet ﷺ.” I asked, “Did you take part in the battle of ûnain?” He replied, “Yes (and in other battles) before it.”

4315. Narrated Abû Ishâq: I heard Al-Barâ’ narrating when a man came and said to him, “O Abû 'Umâra! Did you flee on the day (of the battle) of ûnain?” Al-Barâ’ replied, “I testify that the Prophet ﷺ did not flee, but the (new converts) hasty people ran (away) and the people of Hawâzin threw arrows at them.” At that time, Abû Sufyân bin Al-I lArith was holding the white mule of the Prophet ﷺ by the head, and the Prophet ﷺ was saying, “I am the Prophet without a lie, I am the son of 'Abdul-Muţṭalib.”

4316. Narrated Abû Ishâq: Al-Barâ’ was asked while I was listening, “Did you flee (before the enemy) along with the Prophet ﷺ on the day of (the battle of) ûnain?” He replied, “As for the Prophet ﷺ, he did not (flee). The enemy were good archers and the Prophet ﷺ was saying, ‘I am the Prophet without a lie, I am the son of ‘Abdul-Muţṭalib.’”
4317. Narrated Abū Isḥāq that he heard Al-Barā’ narrating when a man from Qais (tribe) asked him, “Did you flee leaving Allāh’s Messenger on the day (of the battle) of Ḥunain?” Al-Barā’ replied, “But Allāh’s Messenger did not flee. The people of Hawāzin were good archers, and when we attacked them, they fled. But rushing towards the booty, we were confronted by the arrows (of the enemy). I saw the Prophet riding his white mule while Abū Sufyān was holding its reins, and the Prophet was saying ‘I am the Prophet without a lie.’” (Isrā’īl and Zuhair said, “The Prophet dismounted from his mule.”)

4318, 4319. Narrated Marwān and Al-Miswar bin Makhrama: When the delegate of Hawāzin came to Allāh’s Messenger declaring their conversion to Islām and asked him to return their properties and captives, Allāh’s Messenger got up and said to them, “There is involved in this matter, the people whom you see with me, and the most beloved talk to me is the truth. So, choose one of two alternatives: Either the captives or the properties. I have been waiting for you (i.e., have not distributed the booty).” Allāh’s Messenger had delayed the distribution of their booty over ten nights after his return from Ta’if. So, when they came to know that Allāh’s Messenger was not going to return to them but one of the two, they said, “We prefer to have our captives.” So, Allāh’s Messenger got up amongst the Muslims, and praising Allāh as He deserved then said, Amma badu (then after)! Your brothers have come to you with repentance and I see (it logical) to return their captives. So, whoever of you likes to do that as a favour, then he can do it. And whoever of you likes to stick to his share till we give him from the very first booty which Allâh will give us, then he can do so.” The people said, “We do that (i.e., return the captives) willingly as a favour, O Allâh’s Messenger!” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “We do not know which of you have agreed to it and which have not; so go back and let your chiefs forward us your decision.” They went back and their chiefs spoke to them, and they (i.e., the chiefs) returned to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ and informed him that all of them had agreed (to give up their captives) with pleasure, and had given their permission (i.e., that the captives be returned to their people).

[The subnarrator said, “That is what has reached me about the captives of Hawâzîn (tribe).”]

4320. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما:
When we returned from (the battle of) Hunain, ‘Umar asked the Prophet ﷺ about a vow which he had made during the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance that he would perform I’tikâf. The Prophet ﷺ ordered him to fulfil, his vow.
Narrated Abū Qatada: We set out along with the Prophet during the year of (the battle of) Ḥunain, and when we faced the enemy, the Muslims (with the exception of the Prophet and some of his Companions) retreated (before the enemy). I saw one of Al-Mushrīkūn (pagans) overpowering one of the Muslims, so I struck the Mushrik (pagan) from behind his neck causing his armour to be cut off. The Mushrik (pagan) headed towards me and pressed me so forcibly that I felt as if I was dying. Then death took him over and he released me. Afterwards I followed ‘Umar and said to him, “What is wrong with the people?” He said, “The matter (or the decision) is with Allāh.” Then the Muslims returned (to the battle after the flight) and (after overcoming the enemy) the Prophet sat and said, “Whoever had killed an infidel and has an evidence to this issue, will have the Salb (i.e., the belonging of the deceased e.g. clothes, arms, horses, etc.).” I (stood up) and said, “Who will be my witness?” and then sat down. Then the Prophet repeated his question. Then the Prophet said the same (for the third time). I got up and said, “Who will be my witness?” and then sat down. The Prophet repeated

(1) (H. 4321) i.e., why have they fled?
the question again. So I got up. The Prophet ﷺ said, “What is the matter, O Abū Qatāda?” So, I narrated the whole story. A man said, “Abū Qatāda has spoken the truth, and the Salb [the belongings (spoils) of the deceased] is with me, so please compensate Abū Qatāda on my behalf.” Abū Bakr said, “No! By Allāh, it will never happen that the Prophet ﷺ will leave a Lion of Allāh who fights for the sake of Allāh and His Messenger ﷺ and give his spoils to you.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Abū Bakr has spoken the truth. Give it (the spoils) back to him (O man)! So, he gave it to me and I bought a garden in (the land of) Baṅtū Salāma with it (i.e., the spoils) and that was the first property I got after embracing Islām.

4322. Narrated Abū Qatāda: When it was the day of (the battle of) Ḥunain, I saw a Muslim man fighting with one of Al-Mushrikūn (pagan) and another Mushrik (pagan) was hiding himself behind the Muslim in order to kill him. So I hurried towards the Mushrik (pagan) who was hiding behind the Muslim to kill him, and he raised his hand to hit me, but I hit his hand and cut it off. That man got hold of me and pressed me so hard that I was afraid (that I would die), then he knelt down and his grip became loose and I pushed him and killed him. The Muslims (except the Prophet ﷺ and some of his Companions) started fleeing and I too, fled with them. Suddenly I met ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb amongst the people and I asked him, “What is wrong with the people?” He said, “The matter (or the decision) is with Allāh.” Then the people returned to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ (after defeating the enemy). Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Whoever produces a proof that he has killed an infidel, will have the spoils of the killed man.” So, I got up to look for an evidence to prove that I had killed an infidel, but I could not find anyone to bear witness for me, so I sat down. Then it came to my mind (that I should speak of it) and I mentioned the case to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ. A man from the persons who were sitting with him (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ), said, “The arms of the deceased one whom he (i.e., Abü Qatâda) has mentioned, are with me, so please compensate him for it (i.e., the spoils). Abû Bakr said, “No, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ will not give it (i.e., the spoils) to a weak humble person from Quraish and leave one of Allah’s Lions who fights on behalf of Allah and His Messenger ﷺ.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ then got up and gave that (spoils) to me, and I bought with it a garden, which was the first property I got after embracing Islam.

(56) CHAPTER. The Ghazwâ of Auţâs.

4323. Narrated Abû Mûsâ: When the Prophet ﷺ had finished from the battle of Ḥunain, he sent Abû ‘Amir as the head of an army to Auţâs. He (i.e., Abû ‘Amir) met (in a combat against) Duraid bin As-Şîma and Duraid was killed and Allah defeated his companions. The Prophet ﷺ sent me with Abû ‘Amir. Abû ‘Amir was shot at his knee with an arrow which a man from Jusham had shot and the arrow got fixed into his knee. I went to him and said, “O Uncle! Who shot you?” He pointed me out (that man) saying, “That is the man who shot me (with an arrow).” So, I headed towards him and overtook him, and when he saw me, he fled, and I followed him and started saying to him, “Won’t you be ashamed? Won’t you stop?” So that person stopped, and we exchanged two hits with the swords and I killed him. Then I said to Abu ‘Amir, “Allah has killed your assailant.” He said, “Take out this arrow.” So I removed it, and water oozed out of the wound. He then said, “O son of my brother! Convey my compliments to the Prophet Ἐ and request him to ask Allāh’s Forgiveness for me.” Abū 'Amir made me his successor in commanding the people (i.e., troops). He survived for a short while and then died. (Later), I returned and entered upon the Prophet Ἐ at his house, and found him lying in a bed made of stalks of date-palm leaves knitted with ropes, and on it there was bedding. The strings of the bed had their traces over his back and sides. Then I told the Prophet Ἐ about our and Abū 'Amir’s news and that he (Abū 'Amir) had said: “Tell him (the Prophet Ἐ) to ask for Allāh’s Forgiveness for me (Abū 'Amir).” The Prophet Ἐ asked for water, performed ablution and then raised his hands, saying, “O Allāh! Forgive 'Ubaid Abū 'Amir.” At that time I saw the whiteness of the Prophet’s armpits. The Prophet Ἐ then said, “O Allāh, make him (i.e., Abū 'Amir) on the Day of Resurrection, superior to many of Your human creatures.” I said, “Will you ask Allāh’s Forgiveness for me?” (On that) the Prophet Ἐ said, “O Allāh, forgive the sins of 'Abdullāh bin Qais (the name of Abū Mūsa Al-Ash'ārī) and admit him to a nice entrance (i.e., Paradise) on the Day of Resurrection.” [Abū Burda said, “One of the invocations was for Abū 'Amir and the other was for Abū Mūsa (i.e., ‘Abdullāh bin Qais).”]

(57) CHAPTER. The Ghazwa of At-Ṭā'if was in the month of Shawwāl, during the 8th year (of Al-Hijrah) Mūsā bin ‘Uqba said so.

4324. Narrated Umm Salama Ἐ: The Prophet Ἐ came to me while there was an effeminate man sitting with me, and I heard him (i.e., the effeminate man) saying to 'Abdullâh bin Abî Umaiyya, "O 'Abdullâh! See if Allâh should make you conquer At-Tâ'if tomorrow, then take the daughter of Ghailân (in marriage) as (she is so beautiful and fat that) she shows four folds of flesh when facing you, and eight when she turns her back."(1) The Prophet ﷺ then said, "These (effeminate men) should never enter upon you (O women!)."

Ibn Juraij said, "That effeminate man was called Hit." Narrated Hishâm, the above narration and added, that at that time, the Prophet ﷺ was besieging At-Tâ'if.

4325. Narrated 'Abdullâh bin 'Umar(2) ﷺ: When Allâh's Messenger ﷺ besieged At-Tâ'if and could not conquer its people, he said, "We will return (to Al-Madîna) if Allâh will." That distressed the Companions (of the Prophet ﷺ) and they said, "Shall we go away without conquering it (i.e., the fort of At-Tâ'if)?" Once the Prophet ﷺ said, "Let us return." Then the Prophet ﷺ said (to them), "Fight tomorrow." They fought and (many of them) got wounded, whereupon the Prophet ﷺ said, "We will return (to Al-Madîna) tomorrow if Allâh will." That delighted them, whereupon the Prophet ﷺ smiled. The subnarrator, Sufyân said once, "(The Prophet ﷺ) smiled."

(1) (H. 4324) When she turns her back, the ends of the four folds appear on both sides, and that is what is meant by the eight folds at her back.
(2) (H. 4325) Fâth Al-Bârî quoted that the narrator was 'Abdullâh bin 'Umar.
4326, 4327. Narrated Abū 'Uthmān: I heard from Sa’d, (the first man who has thrown an arrow in Allāh’s Cause), and from Abū Bakra (who jumped over the wall of At-Tā’if Fort along with a few persons and came to the Prophet ﷺ). They both said, “We heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, ‘If somebody claims to be the son of somebody other than his father knowingly, he will be forbidden to (enter) Paradise (i.e., Paradise will be illegal for him i.e., he will not enter Paradise).’”

Narrated Ma’mar from ‘Āṣim from Abū Al-'Alīya or Abū ‘Uthmān An-Nahdī who said, ‘I heard Sa’d and Abū Bakra narrating on the authority of the Prophet ﷺ. ‘Āṣim said, ‘I said (to him), ‘The most trustworthy persons have narrated that to you.’ He said, ‘Yes, one of them was the first to throw an arrow in Allāh’s Cause and the other came to the Prophet ﷺ in a group as the third of the twenty-three persons from At-Tā’if.’”

4328. Narrated Abū Burda: Abū Mūsa said: I was with the Prophet ﷺ when he was encamping at Al-Jīrānā (a place) between Makkah and Al-Madīnah and Bilāl was with him. A bedouin came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “Won’t you fulfil what you have promised me?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Rejoice (at what I will do for you).” The bedouin said, “(You have said to me) ‘Rejoice,’ too often.” Then the Prophet ﷺ turned to me (i.e., Abū Mūsa) and Bilāl in an angry mood and said, “The bedouin has refused the good tidings, so you both accept them.” Bilāl and I said, “We accept them.”
Then the Prophet ﷺ asked for a drinking bowl containing water and washed his hands and face in it, and then took a mouthful of water and threw it therein saying (to us), “Drink (some of) it and pour (some) over your faces and chests and be happy at the good tidings.” So they both took the drinking bowl and did as instructed. Umm Salama called from behind a screen, “Keep something (of the water) for your mother.” So they left some of it for her.

4329. Narrated Şafwân bin Ya'lã bin Umaiyya: Ya'lã used to say, “I wish I could see Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ at the time when he is being inspired Divinely.” Ya'lã added “While the Prophet ﷺ was at Al-Jîrna, shaded with a sheet of cloth (in the form of a tent) and there were staying with him, some of his Companions under it, suddenly there came to him a bedouin wearing a cloak scented with perfume. He said, “O Allah’s Messenger! What is your opinion regarding a man who assumes the state of Ḥāmā for ‘Umra wearing a cloak after applying perfume to his body?” ‘Umar signalled with his hand to Ya’la to come (near). Ya’la came and put his head (underneath that cloth sheet) and saw the Prophet ﷺ in a state of having a red face, and when that state (of the Prophet ﷺ) was over, he said, “Where is he who has asked me about the ‘Umra?” The man was looked for and brought to the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ said (to him), “As for the perfume you have applied to your body, wash it (off your body) thrice, and take off your cloak, and then do in your ‘Umra the same ceremonies as you do in your Hajj.” 4330. Narrated `Abdullāh bin Zaid bin `Āṣīm: When Allāh gave to His Messenger the war booty on the day (of the battle) of Ḥunain, he distributed that booty amongst the people to attract the hearts of those who have been inclined towards Islām, but did not give anything to the Ḥāṣir. So they seemed to have felt angry and sad as they did not get the same as other people had got. The Prophet then delivered a Khutba (religious talk) before them, saying, “O, the assembly of Ḥāṣir! Didn’t I find you astray, and then Allāh guided you on the Right Path through me? You were divided into groups, and Allāh brought you together through me; you were poor and Allāh made you rich through me.” Whatever the Prophet said, they (i.e., the Ḥāṣir) said, “Allāh and His Messenger have more favours (on us).”

The Prophet then said, “What stops you from answering the Messenger of Allāh?” But whatever he said to them, they replied, “Allāh and His Messenger have more favours (on us).” The Prophet then said, “If you wish you could say: ‘You came to us in such and such state (at Al-Madīna).’ Wouldn’t you be happy to see the people go away with sheep and camels while you go with the Prophet to your homes?

But for the emigration, I would have been one of the Ḥāṣir, and if the people took their way through a valley or a mountain path, I would select the valley or the mountain path of the Ḥāṣir. The Ḥāṣir are Shi‘ār (i.e., those clothes which are in direct contact with the body and worn inside the other garments), and the people are Dīthār (i.e., those clothes which are not in direct contact with the body and are worn over other garments). No doubt, you will see other people favoured over you, so you should be patient till you meet me at Al-Haud (Tank Al-Kauthar)."

4331. Narrated Anas bin Malik: When Allah gave His Messenger what He gave of the properties of the Hawazin tribe as a war booty, the Prophet started giving some men 100 camels each. The Anṣār (then) said, "May Allah forgive Allah's Messenger as he gives to Quraish, and leaves us although our swords are still dribbling with their blood." Allah's Messenger was informed of their statement, so he sent for the Anṣār and gathered them in a leather tent, and did not call anybody else along with them. When they all gathered, the Prophet got up and said, "What is this talk being informed to me about you?" The learned men amongst the Anṣār said, "O Allah's Messenger! Our chiefs did not say anything, but some people amongst us who are younger in age said, 'May Allah forgive Allah's Messenger as he gives (of the booty) to Quraish and leaves us, though our swords are still dribbling with their blood.'" The Prophet said, "I give to these men who have newly deserted heathenism (and embraced Islam) so as to attract their hearts. Won't you be happy that the people take the wealth while you take the Prophet with you to your homes? By Allah, what you are taking is better than whatever they are taking." They (i.e., the Anṣār) said, "O Allah's Messenger! We are satisfied." The Prophet then said to them, "You will find others favoured over you greatly, so be patient till you meet Allah and His Messenger, and I will be at the Al-Haud (Tank Al-Kauthar) then." Anas added: But they did not remain patient.
4332. Narrated Anas: When it was the day of the Conquest (of Makkah), Allâh’s Messenger distributed the war booty amongst the people of Quraish which caused the Ansâr to become angry. So the Prophet said, “Won’t you be pleased that the people take the worldly things and you take Allâh’s Messenger with you?” They said, “Yes.” The Prophet said, “If the people took their way through a valley or mountain path, I would take my way through the Ansâr’s valley or mountain path.”

4333. Narrated Anas: When it was the day of (the battle of) Hunain, the Prophet confronted the tribe of Hawâzin while there were ten thousand (men) besides the Tulaqâ’ (i.e., those who had embraced ‘Ismân on the day of the Conquest of Makkah) with the Prophet. When they (i.e., Muslims) fled, the Prophet said, “O the group of Ansâr!” They replied, “Labbaik, O Allâh’s Messenger, and Sa’daik! We are under your command.” Then the Prophet got down (from his mule) and said, “I am Allâh’s slave and His Messenger.” Then Al-Mushrikûn (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and unbelievers in the Oneness of Allâh and in His Messenger Muhammad) were defeated. The Prophet distributed the war booty amongst the Tulaqâ’ and Muhâjîrûn (i.e., emigrants) and did not give anything to the Ansâr. So the Ansâr spoke (i.e., were dissatisfied), and he called them and made them enter a leather tent and said, “Won’t you be pleased that the people take the sheep and camels, and you take Allâh’s Messenger along with you?” The Prophet added, “If the people took their way through a valley and the Ansâr took their way through a mountain path, then I would take the mountain path of the Ansâr”.

4334. Narrated Anâs: The Prophet gathered some people of Ansâr and said, “The people of Quraish are still close to their Period of Ignorance and have suffered a lot, and I want to help them and attract their hearts (by giving them the war booty). Won’t you be pleased that the people take the worldly things and you take Allâh’s Messenger with you to your homes?” They said, “Yes (i.e., we are pleased with this distribution).” The Prophet said, “If the people took their way through a valley and the Ansâr took their way through a mountain path, then I would take the Ansâr’s valley or the Ansâr’s mountain path.”

4335. Narrated ‘Abdullâh: When the Prophet distributed the war booty of Hûnain, a man from the Ansâr said, “He (i.e., the Prophet) did not intend to please Allâh in this distribution.” So, I came to the Prophet and informed him of that (statement), whereupon the colour of his face changed and he said, “May Allâh bestow His Mercy on Mûsa (Moses), for he was troubled with more than this, but he remained patient.”

(1) (H. 4335) Al-Wâqîdî says, “The man was a hypocrite, Mu‘âb bin Qâshîr.”
4336. Narrated ‘Abdullah: When it was the day (of the battle) of Hunain, the Prophet favoured some people over some others (in the distribution of the booty). He gave Al-Aqra‘ one hundred camels and gave ‘Uyaina the same, and also gave other people (of Quraish). A man said, "Allah’s Pleasure was not the aim in this distribution." I said, "I will inform the Prophet (about your statement)." The Prophet said, "May Allah bestow mercy on Mūsā (Moses), for he was troubled more than this but he remained patient."

4337. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: When it was the day (of the battle) of Hunain, the tribes of Hawāzin and Ghatafan and others, along with their animals and offspring (and wives) came to fight against the Prophet. The Prophet had with him, ten thousand men from the Tulaqā (new converts to Islam from Makkah). So they fled, leaving the Prophet alone. The Prophet then made two calls which were clearly distinguished from each other. He turned right and said, "O the group of Anṣār!" They said, "Labbaik, O Allah’s Messenger! Rejoice, for we are with you!" Then he turned left and said, "O the group of Anṣār!" They said, "Labbaik! O Allah’s Messenger! Rejoice, for we are with you!" The Prophet at that time was riding on a white mule; then he dismounted and said, "I am Allah’s slave and His Messenger." The infidels then were defeated, and on that day the Prophet gained a large amount of booty which he distributed amongst the Muhājirūn and the Tulaqā and did not give anything to the Anṣār. The Anṣār said, "When there is a..."
difficulty, we are called, but the booty is given to others." The news reached the Prophet ﷺ and he gathered them in a leather tent and said, "What is this news reaching me from you, O the group of Ansār?" They kept silent. He added, "O the group of Ansār! Won't you be happy that the people take the worldly things and you take Allāh's Messenger ﷺ to your homes, reserving him for yourself?" They said, "Yes." Then the Prophet ﷺ said, "If the people took their way through a valley, and the Ansār took their way through a mountain path, surely, I would take the Ansār's mountain path." Hishām said, "O Abū ʻIlamza (i.e., Anas)! Did you witness that?" He replied, "And how could I be absent from that?"

(58) CHAPTER. The Sāriya (i.e., an army unit sent by the Prophet ﷺ) which was sent towards Najd.

4338. Narrated Ibn ʻUmar ﺑﻦ: The Prophet ﷺ sent a Sāriya towards Najd and I was in it, and our share from the booty amounted to twelve camels each, and we were given an additional camel each. So we returned with thirteen camels each.

(59) CHAPTER. The Prophet ﷺ sent Khālid bin Al-Walid (to fight) with Banū Jadhima.
4339. Narrated Sālim’s father: The Prophet ﷺ sent Khālid bin Al-Walid to the tribe of Jadhīma; and Khālid invited them to Islām but they could not express themselves by saying: “Aslamnā (i.e., we have embraced Islām)”, but they started saying: “Saba’nā! Saba’nā (i.e., we have come out of one religion to another).” Khālid kept on killing (some of) them and taking (some of) them as captives and gave everyone of us his captive, till the day when Khālid ordered that each man (i.e., Muslim soldier) should kill his captive. I said, “By Allāh, I will not kill my captive, and none of my companions will kill his captive.” When we reached the Prophet ﷺ, we mentioned to him the whole story. On that, the Prophet ﷺ raised both his hands and said twice, “O Allāh! I am free from what Khālid has done.”

(60) CHAPTER. The Sāriyā of ‘Abdullāh bin Ḥudhāfa As-Sahmi and ‘Alqama bin Majazziz Al-Mudlijī, and it is said that it was called the Sāriyā of the Anṣār.

4340. Narrated ‘Ali: The Prophet ﷺ sent a Sāriyā under the command of a man from the Anṣār and ordered the soldiers to obey him. He (i.e., the commander) became angry and said, “Didn’t the Prophet ﷺ order you to obey me!” They replied, “Yes.” He said, “Collect firewood for me.” So they collected it. He said, “Make a fire.” When they made it, he said, “Enter it (i.e., the fire).” So they intended to do that and started holding each other and saying, “We have run towards (i.e., followed or taken refuge with) the Prophet ﷺ (in order to save ourselves) from the fire.” They kept on saying that till the fire was extinguished and the anger of the commander abated. When that news reached the Prophet ﷺ he said, “If they had entered it (i.e., the fire), they would not have come out of it till the Day of Resurrection. Obedience (to somebody) is required when he enjoins what is Al-Ma‘rūf (Islamic Monotheism and all that Islam orders one to do and all that is good).”

(61) CHAPTER. The sending of Abū Mūsa and Mu‘ādh to Yemen before the Hajjat-al-Wadā’. 4341, 4342. Narrated Abū Burda: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ sent Abū Mūsa and Mu‘ādh bin Jabal to Yemen. He sent each of them to administer a province as Yemen consisted of two provinces. The Prophet ﷺ said (to them), “Make things easy for the people and do not make things difficult for them [be kind and lenient (both of you) with the people, and do not be hard on them] and give the people glad tidings and do not repel them (i.e. to make them to run away from Islam).

So, each of them went to carry on his job. So when anyone of them toured his province and happened to come near (the border of the province of) his companion, he would visit him and greet him. Once, Mu‘ādh toured that part of his province which was near (the border of the province of) his companion Abū Mūsa. Mu‘ādh came riding his mule till he reached Abū Mūsa and saw him sitting, and the people had gathered around him. Behold! There was a man with his hands tied behind his neck. Mu‘ādh said to Abū Mūsa, “O ‘Abdullāh bin Qais! What is this?” Abū Mūsā replied, “This man has turned renegade to disbelief after embracing Islām.” Mu‘ādh said, “I will not dismount till he is killed.” Abū Mūsā replied, “He has been brought for this purpose, so come down.” Mu‘ādh said, “I will not dismount till he is killed. So Abū Mūsā ordered that he be killed, and he was killed. Then Mu‘ādh dismounted and said, “O ‘Abdullāh (bin Qais)! How do you recite the Qur’ān?” Abū Mūsā said, “I recite the Qur’ān regularly at intervals and piecemeal. How do you recite it, O Mu‘ādh?” Mu‘ādh said, “I sleep in the first part of the night and then get up after having slept for the time devoted for my sleep, and then recite as much as Allāh has written for me. So I seek Allāh’s Reward for both my sleep as well as my prayer (at night).” (See H. 6124)

4343. Narrated Abū Burda: Abū Mūsā Al-Ash'ārī said that the Prophet had sent him to Yemen and he asked the Prophet about certain (alcoholic) drinks which used to be prepared there. The Prophet said, “What are they?” Abū Mūsā said, “Al-Bī‘ and Al-Mīzr” (He said, “Al-Bī‘ is an alcoholic drink made from honey; and Al-Mīzr is an alcoholic drink made from barley.”) The Prophet said, “All intoxicants are prohibited.”

4344, 4345. Narrated Abū Burda that the Prophet sent his (i.e., Abū Burda’s)

(1) (H. 4342) Mu‘ādh hopes for reward for his sleep, as by sleeping, he intends to get strong enough to worship Allāh.
father (Abū Mūsā) and Muʿādh to Yemen and said to both of them, “Make things easy for the people (i.e., be kind and lenient) and do not make things difficult (for people), and give them glad tidings, and do not repel them (i.e., make them to run away from Islām) and both of you should obey each other.”

Abū Mūsā said, “O Allāh’s Prophet! In our land there is an alcoholic drink (prepared) from barley called Al-Mizr, and another (prepared) from honey, called Al-Bīt.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “All intoxicants are prohibited.” Then both of them proceeded and Muʿādh asked Abū Mūsā, “How do you recite the Qur’ān?” Abū Mūsā replied, “I recite it while I am standing, sitting or riding my riding animals, at intervals and piecemeal.” Muʿādh said, “But I sleep and then get up. I sleep and hope for Allāh’s Reward for my sleep as I seek His Reward for my night Salāt (prayer).” Then he (i.e., Muʿādh) pitched a tent and they started visiting each other. Once Muʿādh paid a visit to Abū Mūsā and saw a chained man. Muʿādh asked, “What is this?” Abū Mūsā said, “(He was) a Jew who embraced Islām and has now turned apostate.” Muʿādh said, “Chop off his neck!” (See H. 6125) intention to perform the Hajj, O ‘Abdullāh bin Qais?’ I replied, “Yes, O Allāh’s Messenger!” He said, “What did you say?” I replied, “I said Labbaik, and expressed the same intention as yours.” He said, “Have you driven the Hady along with you?” I replied, “No, I did not drive the Hady.” He said, “So perform the Tawāf of the Ka’bah and then the Say between Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwah and then finish the state of Ihram.” So I did the same, and one of the women of (the tribe of) Banū Qais combed my hair. We continued following that till the caliphate of ‘Umar.

4347. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said to Mu‘ādh bin Jabal when he sent him to Yemen, “You will come to the people of Scripture, and when you reach them, invite them to testify that “La ilaha illallāh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh) and that Muhammad ﷺ is the Messenger of Allāh.” And if they obey you in that, then tell them that Allāh has enjoined on them five compulsory congregational Salāt (prayers) to be performed every day and night (in 24 hours) (i.e., Iqamat-as-Salāt). And if they obey you in that, then tell them that Allāh has enjoined on them Sadaqa (i.e., Zakāt) to be taken from the rich amongst them and given to the poor amongst them. And if they obey you in that, then be cautious! Don’t take their best properties (as Zakāt) and be afraid of the curse of an oppressed person as there is no screen between his invocation and Allāh." [See Vol. 9, Ḥadīth No. 7371, 7372]

4348. Narrated 'Amr bin Maimūn: When Mu‘ādh arrived at Yemen, he led them (i.e., the people of Yemen) in the Fajr prayer and recited: "And Allāh did take Ibrahim (Abraham) as a Khalil (an intimate friend)." (V. 4:125). A man behind him said, "(How) glad the mother of Ibrahim is!"

4349. Narrated Al-Barā': Allah's Messenger ﷺ sent us to Yemen along with Khālid bin Al-Walid. Later on, he sent ‘Ali bin Abi Ṭalib in his place. The Prophet ﷺ said to ‘Ali, “Give Khālid’s companions the choice of either staying with you (in Yemen) or returning to Al-Madīna.” I was one of those who stayed with him (i.e., ‘Ali) and got several āwāq (of gold) from the war booty.

4350. Narrated Buraida: The Prophet ﷺ sent ‘Ali to Khālid to bring the Khumus (of the booty) and I hated ‘Ali, and ‘Ali had taken a bath (after a sexual act with a slave-girl from the Khumus). I said to Khalid, “Don’t you see this (i.e., ‘Ali)?” When we reached the Prophet ﷺ I mentioned that to him. He said, “O Buraida! Do you hate ‘Ali?” I said, “Yes.” He said, “Don’t hate him, for he deserves more than that from the Khumus.”

4351. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: ‘Ali bin Abi Ṭalib sent a piece of gold not yet taken out of its ore, in a tanned leather container to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ distributed that amongst four persons: ‘Uyaina bin Badr, Aqra‘ bin Ḥābis, Zaid Al-Khāl and the fourth was either ‘Alqama or ‘Amir bin At-Tufail. On that, one of his Companions said, “We are more deserving of this (gold) than these (persons).” When that news reached the Prophet, he said, “Don’t you trust me though I am the trustworthy man of the One in the heavens, and I receive the news of heaven (i.e., Divine Revelation) both in the morning and in the evening?” There got up a man with sunken eyes, raised cheek bones, raised forehead, a thick beard, a shaved head and a waist sheet that was tucked up and he said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Be afraid of Allah.” The Prophet said, “Woe to you! Am I not of all the people of the earth the most entitled to fear Allah?” Then that man went away. Khālid bin Al-Walid said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Shall I chop his neck off?” The Prophet said, “No, may be he offers Salāt (prayers).” Khālid said, “Numerous are those who offer Salāt (prayers) and say by their tongues (i.e., mouths) what is not in their hearts.” Allah’s Messenger said, “I have not been ordered (by Allah) to search the hearts of the people or cut open their bellies.” Then the Prophet looked at him (i.e., that man) while the latter was going away and said, “From the offspring of this (man) there will come out (people) who will recite the Qur’ān continuously and elegantly but it will not exceed their throats. (They will neither understand it nor act upon it.) They would go out of the religion (i.e., Islām) as an arrow goes out through a game’s body.” I think he also said, “If I should be present at their time, I would kill them as the nations of Thamūd were killed.”

(1) (H. 4350) Buraida hated ‘Ali because he had taken a slave-girl from the booty and considered that as something hateful.
4352. Narrated ‘Aţā’: Jabīr said, “The Prophet  ordered ‘Alī to keep the state of Ihram.” Jabīr added, “‘Alī bin Abī Talīb  returned (from Yemen) when he was a governor (of Yemen). The Prophet  said to him, ‘With what intention have you assumed the state of Ihram?’ ‘Alī said, ‘I have assumed Ihram with the same intention as that of the Prophet .’ Then the Prophet  said (to him), ‘Offer a Hady and keep the state of Ihram in which you are now.’ ‘Alī slaughtered a Hady on his behalf.’

4353, 4354. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar : The Prophet  assumed the state of Ihram for ‘Umra and Hajj, and we too assumed it for Hajj with him. When we arrived at Makkah, the Prophet  said, “Whoever does not possess a Hady should regard his Ihram for ‘Umra only.” The Prophet  had a Hady with him. ‘Al’ bin Abī Talīb came to us from Yemen with the intention of performing Hajj. The Prophet  said (to him), “With what intention have you assumed the Ihram, for your wife is with us?” ‘Alī said, “I assumed the Ihram with the same intention as that of the Prophet .” The Prophet  said, “Keep on the state of Ihram, as we have got the Hady.”

4355. Narrated Jarīr : In the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance there was a 4356. Narrated Qais: Jarir said to me, “The Prophet said to me, ‘Won’t you relieve me from Dhul-Khalasa?’ And that was a house in (Yemen belonging to the tribe of) Khath'am called Al-Ka'bah Al-Yamaniya. I proceeded with one hundred and fifty cavalrymen from Ahmas (tribe) who were excellent knights. It happened that I could not sit firm on horses, so the Prophet stroke me over my chest till I saw the marks of his fingers over my chest, and then he said, ‘O Allah! Make him (i.e., Jarir) firm make him a guiding and rightly-guided man.’” So Jarir proceeded to it, dismantled and burnt it, and then sent a messenger to Allah’s Messenger. The messenger of Jarir said (to the Prophet), “By Him Who sent you with the Truth, I did not leave that place till it was like a scabby camel (i.e., completely marred and spoilt).” The Prophet invoked for Allah’s Blessing for the horses of Ahmas and their men, five times.

[See Vol.4., Hadith No.3020]

4357. Narrated Qais: Jarir said, “Allah’s Messenger said to me, ‘Won’t you relieve... me from Dhul-Khalasa?’ I replied, ‘Yes, (I will relieve you).’ So, I proceeded along with one hundred and fifty cavalrymen from Aḥmas (tribe) who were excellent knights. It happened that I could not sit firm over horses, so I informed the Prophet of that, and he stroke my chest till I saw his finger marks over my chest, and he said, ‘O Allah! Make him firm and make him a guiding and a rightly-guided man.’ Since then I have never fallen from a horse. Dhul-Khalasa was a house in Yemen belonging to the tribes of Khath'am and Bajila, and in it there were idols which were worshipped, and it was called Al-Ka'bah. Jarir went there, burnt it with fire and dismantled it. When Jarir reached Yemen, there was a man who used to foretell and give good omens by casting arrows of divination. Someone said to him, “The messenger of Allāh’s Messenger is present here and if he should get hold of you, he would chop off your neck.” One day, while he was using them (i.e., arrows of divination), Jarir stopped there and said to him, “Break them (i.e., the arrows) and testify that Lā ilāha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh), or else I will chop off your neck.” So the man broke those arrows and testified that Lā ilāha illallah. Then Jarir sent a man called Abū Arṭāh from the tribe of Aḥmas to the Prophet to convey the good news (of destroying Dhul-Khalasa). When the messenger reached the Prophet, he said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! By Him Who sent you with the Truth, I did not leave it till it was like a scabby camel.” Then the Prophet invoked for Allāh’s Blessings for the horses of Aḥmas and their men, five times.
(64) CHAPTER. The Ghazwa of Dhât-us-Salâsil, which is the Ghazwa of Lakhm and Judhâm.

‘Urwa said, “It is the land of the tribe of Balâ, ‘Udhra and Banû Al-Qain.”

4358. Narrated ‘Abû ‘Uthmân: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ sent ‘Amr bin Al-‘Âs as the commander of the troops of Dhât-us-Salâsil. ‘Amr bin Al-‘Âs said, “(On my return) I came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, ‘Which people do you love most?’ He replied, ‘‘Âishah’. I said, ‘From amongst the men?’ He replied, ‘Her father (Abû Bakr)’. I said, ‘Whom (do you love) next?’ He replied, ‘Umar.’ Then he counted the names of many men, and I became silent for fear that he might regard me as the last of them.”

(65) CHAPTER. The departure of Jarîr to Yemen.

4359. Narrated Jarîr: While I was at Yemen, I met two men from Yemen called Dhû-Kalâ and Dhû-‘Amr, and I started telling them about Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ. Dhû-‘Amr said to me, “If what you are saying about your friend (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ) is true, then he has died three days ago.” Then both of them accompanied me to Al-Madîna, and when we had covered some distance on the way to Al-Madîna, we saw some riders coming from Al-Madîna. We asked them and they said, “Allāh’s Messenger has died and Abū Bakr has been appointed as the caliph and the people are in a good state.” Then they said, “Tell your friend (Abū Bakr) that we have come (to visit him), and if Allāh will, we will come again.” So they both returned to Yemen. When I told Abū Bakr their statement, he said to me, “I wish you had brought them (to me).” Afterwards I met Dhū‘-Amr, and he said to me, “O Jarir! You have done a favour to me and I am going to tell you something. You, the nation of Arabs, will remain prosperous as long as you choose and appoint another chief whenever the former one is dead. But if authority is obtained by the power of the sword, then the rulers will become kings who will get angry, as kings get angry, and will be delighted as kings get delighted.”

(66) CHAPTER. The Ghazwā of the sea-coast.

(It took place) when they (i.e., Muslims) were waiting for the caravan (of Mushrikūn) of Quraish; the commander of the troops being Abu ‘Ubaida bin Al-Jarrāḥ. Narrated Wahb bin Kaisān: Jabir bin ‘Abdullah said: “Allāh’s Messenger sent troops to the sea-coast and appointed Abū ‘Ubaida bin Al-Jarrāḥ as their commander, and they were 300 (men).” Jabir added: “We set out, and we had covered some distance on the way, our journey-food ran short. So Abū ‘Ubaida ordered that all the food present with the troops be collected, and it was collected. Our journey-food was dates, and Abū ‘Ubaida kept on giving us our daily ration from it little by little (piecemeal) till it decreased to such an extent that we did not receive except a date each.” I asked (Jābir), “How could one date benefit you?” He said, “We came to know its value when even that finished.” Jābir added, “Then we reached the sea (coast) where we found a fish like a small mountain. The people (i.e., troops) ate of it for 18 nights (i.e., days). Then Abū ‘Ubaida ordered that two of its ribs be fixed on the ground (in the form of an arch) and that a she-camel be ridden and passed under them. So it passed under them without touching them.”

4361. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: Allah’s Messenger sent us and we were three hundred riders under the command of Abū ‘Ubaida bin Al-Jarrāh in order to watch the caravan of the Quraish Mushrikūn (pagans). We stayed at the seashore for half a month and were struck with such severe hunger that we ate even the Khabat (i.e., the leaves of the Salām, a thorny desert tree), and because of that, the army was known as Jaīsh-ul-Khabat. Then the sea threw out an animal (i.e., a fish) called Al-’Anbar and we ate of that for half a month, and rubbed its fat on our bodies till our bodies returned to their original state (i.e., became strong and healthy). Abū ‘Ubaida took one of its ribs, fixed it on the ground; then he went to the tallest man of his companions (to let him pass under the rib).

[Once Sufyān said, “He took a rib from its parts and fixed it, and then took a man and camel and they passed from underneath it (without touching it)]. Jābir added: There was a man amongst the people who slaughtered three camels and then slaughtered another three camels and then slaughtered other three camels, and then Abū 'Ubaida forbade him to do so.

Narrated Abū Ṣāliḥ: Qais bin Sa'd said to his father, “I was present in the army and the people were struck with severe hunger.” He said, “You should have slaughtered (camels) (for them).” Qais said, “I did slaughter camels but they were hungry again.” He said, “You should have slaughtered (camels) again.” Qais said, “I did slaughter (camels) again but the people felt hungry again.” He said, “You should have slaughtered (camels) again.” Qais said, “I did slaughter (camels) again, but the people again felt hungry.” He said, “You should have slaughtered (camels) again.” Qais said, “But I was forbidden (by Abū 'Ubaida this time).” (1)

4362. Narrated Jābir: We set out in the army of Al-Khabat and Abū 'Ubaida was the commander of the troops. We were struck with severe hunger and the sea threw out a dead fish the like of which we had never seen, and it was called Al-‘Anbar. We ate of it for half a month. Abū 'Ubaida took (and fixed) one of its (rib) bones and a rider passed underneath it (without touching it). (Jābir added:) Abū 'Ubaida said (to us), “Eat (of that fish).” When we arrived at Al-Madīnā, we informed the Prophet about that, and he said, “Eat, for it is a provision (food) Allāh has brought out for you, and feed us if you have some of it.” So some of them gave him (of that fish) and he ate it.

(1) (H. 4361) He was forbidden lest they should run short of riding animals.
(67) CHAPTER. The Hajj in which Abū Bakr led the people in the 9th year (of Al-Hijrah)

4363.Narrated Abū Hurairah that during the Hajj in which the Prophet ﷺ had made Abū Bakr As-Šiddiq as chief of the Hajj. Before the Ḥajj al-Wādā', on the day of Nahr, Abū Bakr sent him along with a group of persons to announce to the people, "No Al-Mushrik [polytheist, pagan, idolater, and disbeliever in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ)] is permitted to perform Hajj after this year and nobody is permitted to perform the Tawâf of the Ka'bah in a naked state."

4364. Narrated Al-Barâ' bin 'Amer: The last complete Sūrah which was revealed (to the Prophet ﷺ) was Barâ'a (i.e., Sūrat Al-Tauba), and the last Verse (i.e., last part of a Sūrah) which was revealed was the last Verses of Sūrat An-Nisâ':

"They ask you for a legal verdict. Say: Allah directs (thus) about Al-Kalâlah (those who leave neither descendants nor ascendants as heirs)…” (V.4:176)

(68) CHAPTER. The delegation of Bani Tamim.

4365. Narrated 'Imrân bin Husain: A delegation from Banû Tamim came to the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ said, "Accept the good tidings, O Banû Tamim!" They said, "O Allah's Messenger! You have given us good tidings, so give us (something)." Signs of displeasure appeared on his face. Then another delegation from Yemen came and he said
(to them), “Accept the good tidings, for Banū Tamīm refuses to accept them.” They replied, “We have accepted them, O Allāh’s Messenger!”

(69) CHAPTER.

Narrated Ibn Isḥāq: The Ghazwā of ‘Uyainah bin Ḥisn bin Ḥudhaifa bin Badr waged against Banū Al-‘Anbar, a branch of Banū Tamīm. The Prophet ﷺ sent ‘Uyainah to raid them. He raided them and killed some of them and took some others as captives.

[See Fath Al-Bārī]

4366. Narrated Abū Hurairah: رضي الله عنه: I have not ceased to like Banū Tamīm ever since I heard of three qualities attributed to them by Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ. (He said): “They, out of all my followers, will be the strongest opponent of Ad-Dajāl”; ‘Aishah had a slave-girl from them, and the Prophet ﷺ told her to manumit her as she was from the descendants of (the Prophet) Isma’il (Ishmāel); and, when their Zakāt was brought, the Prophet ﷺ said, “This is the Zakāt of my people.”

said (to 'Umar), “You just wanted to oppose me.” 'Umar replied, “I did not want to oppose you.” So both of them argued so much that their voices became louder, and then the following Divine Verses were revealed in that connection:

“O you who believe! Do not put (a decision) in advance\(^{1}\) before Allah and His Messenger... (till the end of Verse)...” (V.49:1).

(70) CHAPTER. The delegation of 'Abdul-Qais.

4368. Narrated Abū Jamra: I said to Ibn 'Abbas: "I have an earthenware pot containing Nabidh (i.e., water and dates or grapes) for me, and I drink of it while it is sweet. If I drink much of it and stay with the people for a long time, I get afraid that they may discover it (for I will appear as if I were drunk)." Ibn 'Abbas said, "A delegation of 'Abdul-Qais came to Allah's Messenger and he said, ‘Welcome, O people! Neither will you have disgrace nor will you regret.’ They said, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! There are the Muṭār Mushrikūn (pagans) between you and us, so we cannot come to you except in the Sacred Months. So please tell us some orders to do something good (religious deeds) on acting upon which we will enter Paradise. Besides, we will preach that to our people who are behind us.’ The Prophet said, ‘I order you to do four things and forbid you from four things (I order you): To believe in Allah. Do you know what is to believe in Allâh? That is to testify that \( {\text{La ilaha illallah} }

\) (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh)... I order you also for \( \text{Iqamât-as-Salât} \) [to perform \( \text{Salât} \) (prayers) perfectly], \( \text{(1)} \) to pay \( \text{Zakât} \); and to observe \( \text{Saum} \) (fasting) during the month of \( \text{Ramadân} \) and to give the \( \text{Khums} \) (i.e., one-fifth of the booty) (for Allâh’s sake). I forbid you from four things (i.e., the wine that is prepared in): \( \text{Ad-Dubba’, An-Naqîr, Al-Hantam and Al-Muzaffat}. \)”

(See Vol. 1, \textit{Hadith No.53})

4369. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas

The delegation of ‘Abdul-Qais came to the Prophet \( \text{S} \) and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! We belong to the tribe of Rabí’a. The infidels of Muđâr tribe intervened between us and you so that we cannot come to you except in the Sacred Months, so please order us some things we may act on and invite those left behind to act on.” The Prophet \( \text{S} \) said, “I order you to observe four things and forbid you from four things: (I order you) to believe in Allâh, i.e., to testify that \(
{\text{La ilaha illallah} }
\) (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh).” The Prophet \( \text{S} \) pointed with finger indicating one and added, “\( \text{Iqamât-as-Salât} \) [perform \( \text{As-Salât} \) (prayers) perfectly], to give \( \text{Zakât} \), and to give one-fifth of the booty (for Allâh’s sake). I forbid you to use \( \text{Ad-Dubba’, An-Naqîr, Al-Hantam and Al-Muzaffat} \) (utensils used for preparing alcoholic liquors and drinks).”

4370. Narrated Bukair : Kuraib, the freed slave of Ibn ‘Abbâs told me that Ibn ‘Abbâs, ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin Azhar and Al-Miswar bin Makhrama sent him to ‘Áishah saying, “Pay her our greetings and ask her about offering of the two Rak'a after 'Asr prayer, and tell her that we have been informed that you offer these two Rak'a while we have heard that the Prophet had forbidden their offering." Ibn 'Abbás said, "I and 'Umar used to beat the people for their offering them." Kuraib added, "I entered upon her and delivered their message to her." She said, "Ask Umm Salama" So, I informed them (of 'Aishah's answer) and they had sent me to Umm Salama for the same purpose as they sent me to 'Aishah. Umm Salama replied, "I heard the Prophet forbidding the offering of these two Rak'a. Once, the Prophet offered the 'Asr prayer, and then came to me. And at that time some Ansári women from the tribe of Banú Ḥarãm were with me. Then (the Prophet) offered those two Rak'a, and I sent my (lady) servant to him, saying, 'Stand beside him and say (to him), Umm Salama says: O Allah's Messenger! Didn't I hear you forbidding the offering of these two Rak'a (after the 'Asr prayer) yet I see you offering them? And if he beckons you with his hand, then wait.' So the (lady) servant did that and the Prophet beckoned her with his hand, and she waited, and when the Prophet finished his Salá (prayer), he said, 'O the daughter of Abú Umaiyya (i.e., Umm Salama), you were asking me about these two Rak'a after the 'Asr prayer. In fact, some people from the tribe of 'Abdul-Qais came to me to embrace Islám and busied me so much that I did not offer the two Rak'a which were offered after the (compulsory) Zuhr prayer, and these are those two Rak'a (you have seen me offering)."

4371. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The first Friday (i.e., Jumu’ah) prayer offered after the Friday prayer offered at the mosque of Allāh’s Messenger was offered at the mosque of ‘Abdul-Qais situated at Juwāthā, that is a village at Al-Bahrain.

(71) CHAPTER. The delegation of Banū Ḥanifa and the narration of Thumāma bin Uthāl.

4372. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet sent some cavalry towards Najd and they brought a man from the tribe of Banū Ḥanifa who was called Thumāma bin Uthāl. They fastened him to one of the pillars of the mosque. The Prophet went to him and said, “What have you got, O Thumāma?” He replied, “I have got a good thought, O Muhammad! If you should kill me, you would kill a person who has already killed somebody, and if you should set me free, you would do a favour to one who is grateful, and if you want property, then ask me whatever wealth you want.” He was left till the next day when the Prophet said to him, “What have you got, O Thumāma?” He said, “What I told you, i.e., if you set me free, you would do a favour to one who is grateful.” The Prophet left him till the day after, when he said, “What have you got, O Thumāma?” He said, “I have got what I told you.” On that the

(1) (H. 4372) This means: What do you think I am going to do to you?
(2) (H. 4372) Thumāma had a good idea about the Prophet for he knew that he would not oppress people, but forgive and help them.
Prophet ﷺ said, “Release Thumāmah.” So he (i.e., Thumāmah) went to a garden of date-palm trees near to the mosque, took a bath and then entered the mosque and said, “I testify that Lā ilāha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh), and also testify that Muḥammad is the Messenger of Allāh! By Allāh, O Muḥammad! There was no face on the surface of the earth most disliked by me than yours, but now your face has become the most beloved face to me. By Allāh, there was no religion most disliked by me than yours, but now it is the most beloved religion to me. By Allāh, there was no town most disliked by me than your town, but now it is the most beloved town to me. Your cavalry arrested me (at the time) when I was intending to perform the 'Umrah. And now what do you think?” The Prophet ﷺ gave him good tidings (congratulated him) and ordered him to perform the ‘Umrah. So when he came to Makkah, someone said to him, “You have become a Sābi (Have you changed your religion)?” Thumāmah replied, “No! By Allāh, I have embraced Islām with Muḥammad, the Messenger of Allāh. No, by Allāh! Not a single grain of wheat will come to you from Yamamah unless the Prophet ﷺ gives his permission.”

4373. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas:

Musaalīma Al-Kadhdhāb came during the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ and started saying, “If Muḥammad gives me the rule after him, I will follow him.” And he came (to Al-Madīnah) with a great number of the people of his tribe. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ went to him in the company of Thābit bin Qais bin Shammās, and at that time, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ had a stick of a date-palm tree branch in his hand. When he (the Prophet ﷺ stopped near Musailima while the latter was amidst his companions, he said to him, “If you ask me for this piece (of stick), I will not give it to you, and Allah’s Order you cannot avoid, (but you will be destroyed), and if you turn your back from this religion (Islam), then Allah will destroy you. And I think you are the same person who was shown to me in my dream, and this is Thābit bin Qais who will answer your questions on my behalf.” Then the Prophet ﷺ went away from him.

4374. I asked about the statement of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ: “You seem to be the same person who was shown to me in my dream,” and Abū Hurairah informed me that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “When I was sleeping, I saw (in a dream) two bangles of gold on my hands, and that worried me. And then I was inspired Divinely in the dream that I should blow on them, so I blew on them and both the bangles flew away. And I interpreted it that two liars (who would claim to be prophets) would appear after me. One of them has proved to be Al-‘Ansī and the other, Musailima.”

4375. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “While I was sleeping, I was given the treasures of the earth and two gold bangles were put in my hands, and I did not like that, but I was inspired that I should blow on them, and I did so, and both of them vanished. I interpreted it as referring to the two liars between whom I am present; the ruler of Ṣan‘ā and the ruler of Yamāma.”
4376. Narrated Abū Rajā' Al-ʻUtāridī:

We used to worship stones, and when we found a better stone than the first one, we would throw the first one and take the latter, but if we could not get a stone then we would collect some earth (i.e., soil) and then bring a sheep and milk that sheep over it, and perform the Ṭawāf around it. When the month of Rajab came, we used (to stop the military actions), calling this month the iron remover, for we used to remove and throw away the iron parts of every spear and arrow in the month of Rajab.

4377. Abū Rajā' added: When Allāh sent the Prophet with His Message I was a boy working as a shepherd for my family camels. When we heard the news about the appearance of the Prophet, we ran to the fire, (i.e.,) to Musailima al-Kadhdhāb.

(72) CHAPTER. The story of Al-Aswad Al-ʻAnṣī.
bin Shammās who was called the orator of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ had a stick in his hand then. The Prophet ﷺ stopped before Musailima and spoke to him. Musailima said to him, “If you wish, we would not interfere between you and the rule, on condition that the rule will be ours after you.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “If you ask me for this stick, I would not give it to you. I think you are the same person who was shown to me in a dream. And this is Thābit bin Qais who will answer you on my behalf.” The Prophet ﷺ then went away.

4379. I asked Ibn ‘Abbās about the dream Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ had mentioned. Ibn ‘Abbās said, “Someone told me that the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘When I was sleeping, I saw in a dream that two gold bangles were put in my hands, and that frightened me and made me dislike them. Then I was allowed (or ordered) to blow on them, and when I blew at them, both of them flew (away). Then I interpreted them as two liars who would appear.’ One of them was Al-‘Ansî who was killed by Fairuz in Yemen and the other was Musailima Al-Kadhdhāb.”

(73) CHAPTER. The story of the people of Najrān (Christians).
4380. Narrated Hudhaifa: Muhammad heard that Li'ân, one of them said to the other, "Do not do (this Li'ân) for, by Allah, if he is a Prophet and we do this Li'ân, neither we, nor our offspring after us will be successful." Then both of them said (to the Prophet), "We will give what you ask but you should send a trustworthy man with us, and do not send any person with us but an honest one.” The Prophet said, “I will send an honest man who is really trustworthy.” Then everyone of the Companions of Allah’s Messenger wished to be that one. Then the Prophet said, "Get up, O Abu ‘Ubaida bin Al-Jarrah.” When he got up, Allah’s Messenger said, “This is the trustworthy man of this (Muslim) nation.”

4381. Narrated Hudhaifa: The people of Najran came to the Prophet and said, “Send an honest man to us.” The Prophet said, “I will send to you an honest man who is really trustworthy.” Everyone of the (Muslim) people hoped to be that one. The Prophet then sent Abu ‘Ubaida bin Al-Jarrah.

(1) (H. 4380) Two groups of people who have differences take their families in a far off place in order to invoke Allah to send His Curse or Punishment on the one who is a liar. This event happened and the first eighty (80) Verses of Surat Al-‘Imran were revealed to the Prophet in this connection. [See Fath Al-Bari, for details].
4382. Narrated Anas: The Prophet said, “Every nation has an Amin (i.e., the most trustworthy, honest man), and the Amin of this nation is Abû ‘Ubaida bin Al-Jarrãh.”

4383. Narrated Jãbir bin ‘Abdullãh: Allah’s Messenger said to me, “If the revenue of Al-Bahrain should come, I will give you so much and so much,” repeating “so much” thrice. But the revenue of Al-Bahrain did not come till Allah’s Messenger had died. When the revenue came during the rule of Abû Bakr, Abû Bakr ordered an announcer to announce, “Whoever had any debt or promise due upon the Prophet should present himself to me (Abû Bakr).” I came to Abû Bakr and informed him that the Prophet had said (to me), “If the revenue of Al-Bahrain should come, I will give you so much and so much,” repeating “so much” thrice. So Abû Bakr gave me. (In another narration, Jâbir said): I met Abû Bakr after that and asked him (to give me what the Prophet had promised me) but he did not give me. I again went to him, but he did not give me. I again went to him (for the third time) but he did not give me. On that I said to him, “I came to you but you did not give me, then I came to you and you did not give me, and then again I came to you, but you did not give me; so you should either give me or else you are like a miser to me.” On that Abû Bakr said, “Do you say, ‘You are like a miserly to me?’ There is no worse disease than...”
miserliness." Abū Bakr said it thrice and added, "Whenever I refused to give you, I had the intention of giving you."

(In another narration) Jābir bin `Abdullāh said, "I went to Abū Bakr (and he gave me a handful of money) and told me to count it, I counted and found it five hundred, and then Abū Bakr said (to me), 'Take the same amount twice'."

(75) CHAPTER. The arrival of Al-Asḥāriyūn and the people of Yemen.

Abū Mūsā said, “The Prophet ﷺ said, 'They are from me and I am from them'.”

4384. Narrated Abū Mūsā: My brother and I came from Yemen (to Al-Madīna) and remained there for some time, thinking that Ibn Mas'ūd and his mother belonged to the family of the Prophet ﷺ because of their frequent entrance (upon the Prophet ﷺ) and their being attached to him.

4385. Narrated Zahdam: When Abū Mūsā arrived (at Kūfah as a governor), he honoured this family of Jarm (by paying them a visit). I was sitting near to him, and he was eating chicken as his lunch, and there was a man sitting amongst the people. Abū Mūsā invited the man to the lunch, but the latter said, “I saw chickens (eating something dirty) so I consider them unclean.” Abū Mūsā said, “Come on! I saw the Prophet ﷺ (eating chicken).” The man said, “I have taken an oath that I will not eat (chicken).” Abū Mūsa said “Come on! I will tell you about your oath. We, a group of Al-Ash’āriyun people went to the Prophet and asked him to give us something to ride, but the Prophet refused. Then we asked him for the second time to give us something to ride, but the Prophet took an oath that he would not give us anything to ride. After a while, some camels of booty were brought to the Prophet and he ordered that five camels be given to us. When we took those camels, we said, ‘We have made the Prophet forget his oath, so we will never be successful after this.’ So I went to the Prophet and said, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! You took an oath that you would not give us anything to ride, but you have given us.’ He said, ‘Yes, for if I take an oath and later I see a better solution than that, I act on the better one (and gave the expiation of that oath).’

4386. Narrated ʼIrmān bin Ḥuṣain: The people of Banū Tamīm came to Allah’s Messenger and he said, “Be glad (i.e., have good tidings). O Banū Tamīm!” They said, “As you have given us good tidings then give us (some material things).” On that the features of Allah’s Messenger changed (i.e., he took it ill). Then some people from Yemen came, and the Prophet said (to them) “Accept good tidings, as Banū Tamīm have not accepted them.” They said, “We accept them, O Allah’s Messenger!”
4387. Narrated Abū Mas'ūd:

The Prophet said, “Belief is there,” and beckoned with his hand towards Yemen. (And added), “The harshness and mercilessness are the qualities of those farmers etc., who are busy with their camels(1), and pay no attention to the religion (is towards the east) from where comes out the side of the head of Satan, namely, the tribes of Rabī‘a and Muḍar.”

4388. Narrated Abū Hurairah:

The Prophet said, “The people of Yemen have come to you and they are more gentle and soft-hearted. Belief is Yemenite and wisdom is Yemenite, while pride and haughtiness are the qualities of the owners of camels (i.e., bedouins). Calmness and solemnity are the characters of the owners of sheep.”

4389. Narrated Abū Hurairah:

The Prophet said “Belief is Yemenite while Al-Fitnah (trial and affliction) will appear from there (the east) from where comes out the side of the head of Satan.”

(1) (H. 4387) Those who are engaged too much in worldly pursuits and neglect their religious duties will usually acquire the vice of being harsh and fierce.
4390. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The people of Yemen have come to you, and they are more soft-hearted and gentle-hearted people. The capacity for understanding religion is Yemenite, and wisdom is Yemenite.”

4391. Narrated ‘Alqama: We were sitting with Ibn Mas‘ūd when Khabbāb came and said, “O Abū ‘Abdur-Rahmān! Can these young fellows recite Qur’ān as you do?” Ibn Mas‘ūd said, “If you wish I can order one of them to recite (the Qur’ān) for you.” Khabbāb replied, “Yes.” Ibn Mas‘ūd said, “Recite, O ‘Alqama!” On that, Zaid bin Ḥudair, the brother of Ziyād bin Ḥudair said, (to Ibn Mas‘ūd), “Why have you ordered ‘Alqama to recite though he does not recite better than we?” Ibn Mas‘ūd said, “If you like, I would tell you what the Prophet ﷺ said about your nation and his (i.e., ‘Alqama’s) nation.” So I recited fifty Verses from Sūrat Maryam. ‘Abdullāh (bin Mas‘ūd) said to Khabbāb, “What do you think (about ‘Alqama’s recitation)?” Khabbāb said, “He has recited well.” ‘Abdullāh said, “Whatever I recite, ‘Alqama recites.” Then ‘Abdullāh turned towards Khabbāb and saw that he was wearing a gold ring, whereupon he said, “Hasn’t the time for its throwing away come yet?” Khabbāb said, “You will not see me wearing it after today,” and he threw it away.
(76) CHAPTER. The story of Daus and Tufail bin 'Amr Ad-Dausi.

4392. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Tufail bin 'Amr came to the Prophet and said, "The Daus (nation) have perished as they disobeyed and refused to accept Islam. So invoke Allah against them." But the Prophet said, "O Allah! Give guidance to the Daus (tribe) and bring them (in the fold of Islam)!

4393. Narrated Abū Hurairah: When I came to the Prophet, I said on my way, "Oh what a long tedious tiresome night; nevertheless, it has rescued me from the land of Kufr (disbelief)." A slave of mine ran away on the way. When I reached the Prophet I gave him the Bai'a (pledge) (for Islam), and while I was sitting with him, suddenly the slave appeared. The Prophet said to me, "O Abū Hurairah! Here is your slave." I said, "He (the slave) is (free) for Allah's sake," and manumitted him.

(77) CHAPTER. The story of the delegation of Taiy', and the narration of 'Adi bin Ḥātim.

4394. Narrated 'Adi bin Ḥātim: We came to 'Umar in a delegation (during his rule). He started calling the men one by one, calling each by his name. (As he did not call me early) I said to him, "Don't you know me, O chief of the believers?” He said, “Yes, you embraced Islam when they (i.e., your people) disbelieved; you have come (to the Truth) when they ran away; you fulfilled your promises when they broke theirs; and you recognized it (the Truth of Islam) when they denied it.” On that, ‘Adi said, “I therefore don’t care.”

(78) CHAPTER. Hajjat-ul-Wada‘.

4395. Narrated ‘Aishah: We set out with Allah’s Messenger during Hajjat-ul-Wada‘ and we assumed the Ihram for ‘Umra. Then Allah’s Messenger said to us, “Whoever has got the Hady should assume the Ihram for Hajj and ‘Umra and should not finish his Ihram till he has performed both (‘Umra and Hajj).” I arrived at Makkah along with him (i.e., the Prophet) while I was menstruating, so I did not perform the Tawaf around the Ka‘bah or Sa‘y between As-Saf and Al-Marwah. I informed Allah’s Messenger about that and he said, “Undo your braids and comb your hair, and then assume the Ihram for Hajj and leave the ‘Umra.” I did so, and when we performed and finished the Hajj, Allah’s Messenger sent me to At-Tan‘im along with (my brother) ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Abū Bakr Aṣ-Ṣiddīq, ‘Amīr al-Mu‘minīn, to perform the ‘Umra. The Prophet said, “This ‘Umra is in lieu of your missed ‘Umra.” Those who had assumed the Ihram for ‘Umra, performed the Tawaf around the Ka‘bah and Sa‘y between As-Saf and Al-Marwah, and then finished their Ihram, and on their return from Mina, they performed another Tawaf (around the Ka‘bah and Sa‘y between

(1) (H. 4394) Since ‘Umar has such a high opinion about ‘Adi, ‘Adi does not care if he is not called before the others.
Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwah), but those who combined their Hajj and 'Umra (Al-Qirān), performed only one Tawāf (between Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwah) (for both).

4396. Narrated Ibn Juraij: ‘Atā’ said, “Ibn ‘Abbas said, ‘If he (i.e., the one intending to perform ‘Umra) has performed the Tawāf around the Ka'bah, (and Sayy of Aṣ-Ṣafā and Al-Marwah) his Ihram is considered to have finished.’ I said, ‘What proof does Ibn ‘Abbas have as to this saying?’ ” ‘Ātā’ said, “(The proof is taken) from the Statement of Allah: And afterwards they are brought for sacrifice unto the ancient House (Al-Haram, — the sacred territory of Makkah city)’ (V.22:33) and from the order of the Prophet to his companions to finish their Ihram during Hajjat-ul-Wadā’. I said (to ‘Ātā’), “That (i.e., finishing the Ihram) was after coming from ‘Arafāt.” ‘Ātā’ said, “Ibn ‘Abbas used to allow it before going to ‘Arafāt (after finishing the ‘Umra) and after coming from it (i.e., after performing the Hajj).” (i.e., Hajj-At-Tamattu).

4397. Narrated Abū Mūsā Al-Ash'āri: I came to the Prophet at a place called Al-Batḥā. The Prophet said, “Did you assume the Ihram for Hajj?” I said, “Yes,” He said, “How did you express your intention (for performing Hajj)?” I said, “Labbaik (i.e., I assume) the Ihram with the same intention as that of Allāh’s Messenger.” The Prophet said, “Perform the Tawāf around the Ka'bah and

(1) (H. 4396) The person meant here is the one who intends to perform ‘Umra along with Hajj (At-Tamattu).
(the Sa'y) between As-Safâ and Al-Marwa, and then finish your Ihram." So I performed the Tawaf around the Ka'bah and the Sa'y between As-Safâ and Al-Marwa (Hajj-at-Tamattu'), and then I came to a woman from the tribe of Qais who removed the lice from my head.

4398. Narrated Hafsa bint Rabi'ah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ ordered all his wives to finish their Ihram during the year of Hajjat-ul-Wada'. On that, I asked the Prophet ﷺ, "What stops you from finishing your Ihram?" He said, "I have matted my hair and garlanded my Hady. So, I will not finish my Ihram unless I have slaughtered my Hady."

4399. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas ﷺ: A woman from the tribe of Khath'am asked for the verdict of Allah's Messenger ﷺ (regarding something) during Hajjat-ul-Wada', while Al-Fadl bin 'Abbâs was the companion-rider behind Allâh's Messenger ﷺ. She asked, "Allah's obligation (i.e., compulsory Hajj) enjoined on His slaves has become due on my old father who cannot sit firmly on the riding animal. Will it be sufficient if I perform the Hajj on his behalf?" He said, "Yes."

4400. Narrated 'Abdullah bin 'Umar ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ arrived (at Makkah) in the year of the Conquest (of Makkah) while Usâma was riding behind him on (his she-camel) Al-Qaswa. Bilãl and ‘Uthmãn bin Talâh were accompanying him. When he made his she-camel kneel down near the Ka’bah, he said to ‘Uthmân, “Get us the key (of the Ka’bah).” He brought the key to him and opened the gate (of the Ka’bah), for him. The Prophet ﷺ, Usâma, Bilãl and ‘Uthmãn (bin Talâh) entered the Ka’bah and then closed the gate behind them (from inside). The Prophet ﷺ stayed there for a long period and then came out. The people rushed to get in, but I went in before them and found Bilãl standing behind the gate, and I said to him, “Where did the Prophet ﷺ offer Salât (prayer)?” He said, “He offered Salât (prayer) between those two front pillars.” The Ka’bah was built on six pillars, arranged in two rows, and he offered Salât (prayer) between the two pillars of the front row leaving the gate of the Ka’bah at his back and facing (in Salât) the wall which faces one when one enters the Ka’bah. Between him and that wall (was the distance of about three cubits). But I forgot to ask Bilãl about the number of Rak’a, the Prophet ﷺ had prayed. There was a red piece of marble at the place where he (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ) had offered the Salât (prayer).

4401. Narrated ‘Aishah the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: Safiyya bint Huyai, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ menstruated during Hajjat-ul-Wada’. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Is she going to detain us?” I said to him, “She has already come to Makkah and performed the Tawâf (ul-Ifada) around the Ka’bah, O Allah’s Messenger”. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Let her then proceed on (to Al-Madîna).”
4402.Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: We were talking about Hajjat-ul-Wada’, while the Prophet was amongst us. We did not know what Hajjat-ul-Wada’ signified. The Prophet praised Allâh and then mentioned Al-Masîh Ad-Dajjâl and described him extensively, saying, “Allâh did not send any Prophet but that Prophet warned his nation of Al-Masîh Ad-Dajjâl. Nûh (Noah) and the Prophets following him warned (their people) of him. He will appear amongst you (O Muhammad’s followers), and if it happens that some of his qualities may be hidden from you, but your Lord’s State is clear to you and not hidden from you.” The Prophet said it thrice. “Verily, your Lord is not blind in one eye while he (Ad-Dajjâl) is blind in the right eye which looks like a grape bulging out (of its cluster).”

4403. “No doubt! Allâh has made your blood and your properties sacred to one another like the sanctity of this day of yours, in this town of yours, in this month of yours.” The Prophet added: “No doubt! Haven’t I conveyed Allâh’s Message to you?” They replied, “Yes,” The Prophet added, “Woe to you!” (or said), “May Allâh be Merciful to you! Do not become infidels after me (i.e., my death) by cutting the necks of one another.”
4404. Narrated Zaid bin Arqam: The Prophet ﷺ fought nineteen Ghazwā (holy battles) and performed only one Hajj after he emigrated (to Al-Madīna), and did not perform another Hajj after it, and that was Ḥajjat-ul-Wādāʾ, Abū Ishāq said, “He performed Hajj (many times) when he was in Makkah.”(1)

4405. Narrated Jarīr: The Prophet ﷺ ordered me during Ḥajjat-ul-Wādāʾ, “Ask the people to be quiet and listen.” He then said, “Do not become infidels after me by cutting the necks of one another.”

4406. Narrated Abū Bakra رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Time has taken its original shape which it had when Allāh created the heavens and the earth. The year is of twelve months, four of which are sacred, and out of these (four) three are in succession, i.e., Dhul-Qa’dā, Dhul-Hijja and Al-Muharram, and the fourth is Rajab which is named after the Mudar tribe, between (the month of) Jumāda (Ath-Thānia) and Sha’bān.” Then the Prophet ﷺ asked, “Which month is this?” We said, “Allāh and His Messenger ﷺ know better.” On that the Prophet ﷺ kept quiet so long that we thought that he might name it with another name. Then the Prophet ﷺ said, “Isn’t it the month of

(1) (H. 4404) The Prophet ﷺ had performed Hajj several times when he was in Makkah before he emigrated to Al-Madīna.
Dhul-Hijja?" We replied, "Yes (it is)." Then he said, "Which town is this?" "We replied, "Allâh and His Messenger know better." On that he kept quiet so long that we thought that he might name it with another name. Then he said, "Isn't it the town of Makkah?" We replied, "Yes (it is)." Then he said, "Which day is today?" We replied, "Allâh and His Messenger know better." He kept quiet so long that we thought that he might name it with another name. Then he said, "Isn't it the day of An-Nahr (i.e., sacrifice)?" We replied, "Yes (it is)." He said, "So your blood, your properties, (the subnarrator Muhammad said, 'I think the Prophet also said: And your honour...) are sacred to one another like the sanctity of this day of yours, in this town of yours, in this month of yours; and surely, you will meet your Lord, and He will ask you about your deeds. Beware! Do not become like those who went astray (as infidels) after me, cutting the necks of one another. It is incumbent on those who are present to convey this message (of mine) to those who are absent. May be that some of those to whom it will be conveyed might comprehend (what I have said) better than the present audience."

(The sub-narrator, Muhammad, on remembering that narration, used to say, "Muhammad spoke the truth!") He (i.e., the Prophet) then said twice, "No doubt! Haven't I conveyed (Allâh's Message) to you?"

4407. Narrated Târiq bin Shihâb: Some Jews said, "Had this Verse been revealed to us, we would have taken that day as 'Eid (festival)." 'Umar said, "What Verse?" They said:

"...This day, I have perfected your religion for you, completed My Favour upon you, and have chosen for you Islâm as your religion..." (V.5:3) ‘Umar said, “I know the place where it was revealed. It was revealed while Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ was staying at ‘Arafât.”

4408. Narrated ‘Âishah رضي الله عنها: We set out with Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ, and some of us assumed the Ihram for ‘Umra, some assumed it for Hajj, and some assumed it for both Hajj and ‘Umra. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ assumed the Ihram for Hajj. So those who had assumed the Ihram for Hajj or for both Hajj and ‘Umra, did not finish their Ihram till the day of An-Nahr (i.e., slaughter of sacrifices). Narrated Mâlik the same as above, saying, “(We set out) with Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ in Hajjat-ul-Wadà...”

Narrated Mâlik the same as above.

4409. Narrated Sa’d رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ visited me during Hajjat-ul-Wadà while I was suffering from a disease which brought me to the verge of death. I said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! My ailment has reached such a (bad) state as you see, and I have much wealth, but I have no one to inherit from me except my only daughter. Shall I give two-third of my property as alms (in charity)?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “No.” I said, “(Shall I give) one-third of it?” He replied, “One-third, and even one-third is... too much. It is better for you to leave your inheritors wealthy rather than to leave them poor, begging people (for their sustenance); and whatever you spend for Allah's sake, you will get reward for it, even for the morsel of food which you put in your wife's mouth.” I said, “O Allah's Messenger! Should I remain (in Makkah) behind my companions (who are going with you to Al-Madina)?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “If you remain behind, any good deed which you will do for Allah's sake, will upgrade and elevate you. May be you will live long so that some people may benefit by you and some other (i.e., infidels) may get harmed by you.” The Prophet ﷺ then added, “O Allah! Complete the emigration of my Companions and do not turn them on their heels. But the poor Sa'd bin Khaula (not the above mentioned Sa'd) (died in Makkah).” Allah's Messenger ﷺ pitied Sa'd for he died in Makkah.

4410. Narrated Ibn 'Umar رضي الله عنهما
The Prophet ﷺ got his head shaved during Hajjat-ul-Wada’.

4411. Narrated Ibn 'Umar رضي الله عنهما
During Hajjat-ul-Wada’, the Prophet ﷺ and some of his Companions got their heads shaved, while some of his Companions got their head-hair cut short.
4412.Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Abbas رضي الله عنهم that he came riding a donkey while Allãh’s Messenger ﷺ was standing at Mina during Hajjat-ul-Wada‘, leading the people in Salãt (prayer). The donkey passed in front of a part of the row of the people offering the Salãt (prayer). Then he dismounted from it and took his position in the row with the people.

4413. Narrated Hishãm’s father: In my presence, Usãma was asked about the speed of the Prophet ﷺ during his Hijj. He replied, “It was Al- ‘Anaq (i.e., moderate, easy speed) and if he encountered an open space, he used to increase his speed.”

4414. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin Yazãd Al-Khaãtmî that Abû Ayyãb informed him that he offered the Maghrib and ’Ishã’ prayers together with the Prophet ﷺ during Hajjat-ul-Wada‘.

(79) CHAPTER. The Ghazwa of Tabûk which is also called Ghazwã Al-Usrah (i.e., the battle of hardship).

4415. Narrated Abû Mûsa رضي الله عنه: My companions sent me to Allãh’s Messenger ﷺ... to ask him for some animals to ride on, as they were accompanying him in the army of Al-'Usrah, and that was the Ghazwā (battle) of Tabuk. I said, "O Allâh's Prophet! My companions have sent me to you to provide them with means of transportation." He said, "By Allâh! I will not make you ride anything." It so happened that when I reached him, he was in an angry mood, and I didn’t notice it. So I returned in a sad mood because of the refusal of the Prophet, and for the fear that the Prophet might have become angry with me. So I returned to my companions and informed them of what the Prophet had said. Only a short while had passed when I heard Bilâl calling, "O 'Abdullah bin Qais!" I replied to his call. Bilâl said, "Respond to Allâh's Messenger who is calling you." When I went to him (i.e., the Prophet), he said, "Take these two camels tied together and also these two camels tied together," referring to six camels he had bought from Sa'd at that time. The Prophet added, "Take them to your companions and say, 'Allâh (or Allâh's Messenger) allows you to ride on these, so ride on them." So I took those camels to them and said, "The Prophet allows you to ride on these (camels), but by Allâh, I will not leave you till some of you proceed with me to somebody who heard the statement of Allâh's Messenger. Do not think that I narrate to you a thing which Allâh's Messenger has not said." They said to me, "We consider you truthful, and we will do what you like." The subnarrator added: So Abû Musa proceeded along with some of them till they came to those who have heard the statement of Allâh's Messenger wherein he denied them (some animals to ride on) and (his statement) whereby he gave them the same. So these people told them the same information as Abū Mūsa had told them.

4416. Narrated Sa'd: Allāh's Messenger ﷺ set out for Tabūk appointing 'Alī as his deputy (in Al-Madīna). 'Alī said, “Do you want to leave me with the children and women?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Will you not be pleased that you will be to me like Harūn (Aaron) to Mūṣā (Moses)? But there will be no Prophet after me.”

for Allâh’s Forgiveness for them, and left the secrets of their hearts for Allâh to judge. Then I came to him, and when I greeted him, he smiled a smile of an angry person and then said, ‘Come on.’ So I came walking till I sat before him. He said to me, ‘What stopped you from joining us? Had you not purchased an animal for carrying you?’ I answered, ‘Yes, O Allâh’s Messenger! But by Allâh, if I were sitting before any person from among the people of the world other than you, I would have avoided his anger with an excuse. By Allâh, I have been bestowed with the power of speaking fluently and eloquently, but by Allâh, I knew well that if today I tell you a lie to seek your favour, Allâh would surely make you angry with me in the near future, but if I tell you the truth, though you will get angry because of it, I hope for Allâh’s Forgiveness. Really, by Allâh, there was no excuse for me. By Allâh, I had never been stronger or wealthier than I was when I remained behind you.’ Then Allâh’s Messenger صلی اللہ عیه وآله وسلم said, ‘As regards this man, he has surely told the truth. So get up till Allâh decides your case.’ I got up, and many men of Banû Salama followed me and said to me, ‘By Allâh, we never witnessed you doing any sin before this. Surely, you failed to offer excuse to Allâh’s Messenger صلی اللہ عیه وآله وسلم as the others who did not join him, have offered. The supplication of Allâh’s Messenger صلی اللہ عیه وآله وسلم to Allâh to forgive you would have been sufficient for you.’ By Allâh, they continued blaming me so much that I intended to return (to the Prophet صلی اللہ عیه وآله وسلم) and accuse myself of having told a lie, but I said to them, ‘Is there anybody else who has met the same fate as I have?’ They replied, ‘Yes, there are two men who have said the same thing as you have, and to both of them was given the same order as given to you.’ I said, ‘Who are they?’ They replied, 'Murâra bin Ar-Rabi' Al-'Amri and Hilâl bin Umaiyya Al-Waqiti.' By that they mentioned to me two pious men who had attended the Ghazwâ (battle) of Badr, and in whom there was an example for me. So I did not change my mind when they mentioned them to me. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ forbade all the Muslims to talk to us, the three aforesaid persons out of all those who had remained behind in that Ghazwâ. So, we kept away from the people and they changed their attitude towards us till the very land (where I lived) appeared strange to me as if I did not know it. We remained in that condition for fifty nights. As regards my two other fellows, they remained shut in their houses and kept on weeping, but I was the youngest of them and the firmest of them, so I used to go out and offer the Salât (prayers) along with the Muslims and roam about in the markets, but none would talk to me, and I would come to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ and greet him while he was sitting in his gathering after the Salât (prayer), and I would wonder whether the Prophet ﷺ did move his lips in return to my greetings or not. Then I would offer my Salât (prayer) near to him and look at him stealthily. When I was busy with my Salât, he would turn his face towards me, but when I turned my face to him, he would turn his face away from me. When this harsh attitude of the people lasted long, I walked till I scaled the wall of the garden of Abû Qatâda who was my cousin and dearest person to me, and I offered my greetings to him. By Allâh, he did not return my greetings. I said, 'O Abû Qatâda! I beseech you by Allâh! Do you know that I love Allâh and His Messenger ﷺ?' He kept quiet. I asked him again, beseeching him by Allâh, but he remained silent. Then I asked him again in the Name of Allâh. He said, 'Allâh and His Messenger ﷺ claim as invalid (i.e. the biter did not get a recompense for his broken incisor). The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Should he leave his hand in your mouth so that you might snap it as if it were in the mouth of a male camel to snap it?’ ”

(80) CHAPTER. The narration of Ka'b bin Mālik.

And the Statement of Allāh ﷲ

“And (He did forgive also) the three [who did not join the Tabūk expedition and whose case was deferred (by the Prophet ﷺ) for Allāh’s Decision]...”. (V.9:118)

4418. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Ka'b bin Mālik who, from among Ka'b’s sons, was the guide of Ka'b when he became blind: I heard Ka'b bin Mālik narrating the story of (the Ghazwā of) Tabūk in which he failed to take part. Ka'b said, “I did not remain behind Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ in any Ghazwā that he fought except the Ghazwā of Tabūk, and I failed to take part in the Ghazwā of Badr, but Allāh did not admonish anyone who had not participated in it, for in fact, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ had gone out in search of the caravan of Quraish till Allāh made them (i.e the Muslims) and their enemy meet without any appointment. I witnessed the night of Al-'Aqaba (pledge) with Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ when we pledged for Islam, and I would not exchange i.e the Muslims) and their enemy meet without any appointment. I witnessed the night of Al-'Aqaba (pledge) with Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ when we pledged for Islam, and I would not exchange it for the battle of Badr although the battle of Badr is more popular amongst the people than it (i.e., Al-'Aqaba Pledge). As for my news (in this battle of Tabūk), I had never been stronger or wealthier than I was when I remained behind the Prophet ﷺ in that Ghazwâ. By Allâh, never had I two she-camels before, but I had then at the time of this Ghazwâ. Whenever Allâh's Messenger wanted to make a Ghazwâ, he used to hide his intention by apparently referring to different Ghazwâ till it was the time of that Ghazwâ (of Tabûk) which Allâh's Messenger fought in severe heat, facing a long journey, desert, and the great number of the enemy. So the Prophet announced to the Muslims clearly (their destination) so that they might get prepared for their Ghazwâ. So he informed them clearly of the destination he was going to. Allâh's Messenger was accompanied by a large number of Muslims who could not be listed in a book namely, a register.” Ka'b added, “Any man who intended to be absent would think that the matter would remain hidden unless Allâh revealed it through Divine Revelation. So Allâh’s Messenger fought that Ghazwâ at the time when the fruits had ripened and the shades looked pleasant. Allâh’s Messenger and his Companions prepared for the battle and I started to go out in order to get myself ready along with them, but I returned having done nothing. I would say to myself, 'I can do that.' So I kept on delaying it every now and then till the people got ready and Allâh’s Messenger and the Muslims along with him departed, and I had not prepared anything for my departure, and I said, 'I will prepare myself (for departure) one or two days after him, and then join them.' In the morning following their departure, I went out to get myself ready but returned having done nothing. Then again in the next morning, I went out to get ready but returned without doing anything. Such was the case with me till they hurried away and the battle was missed (by me). Even then I intended to depart to take them over. I wish I had done so! But it was not written for me. So, after the departure of Allah’s Messenger  when I went out and walked amongst the people (i.e., the remaining persons), it grieved me that I could see none around me, but one accused of hypocrisy or one of those weak men whom Allah had excused. Allah’s Messenger  did not remember me till he reached Tabuk. So while he was sitting amongst the people in Tabuk, he said, ‘What did Ka‘b do?’ A man from Banu Salama said, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! He has been stopped by his two Burda (i.e., garments) and his looking at his own flanks with pride.’ Then Mu‘adh bin Jabal said, ‘What a bad thing you have said! By Allah! O Allah’s Messenger! We know nothing about him but good.’ Allah’s Messenger  kept silent.” Ka‘b bin Malik added, “When I heard that he (i.e., the Prophet  was on his way back to Al-Madina. I got dipped in my concern, and began to think of false excuses, saying to myself, ‘How can I avoid his anger tomorrow?’ And I took the advice of wise members of my family in this matter. When it was said that Allah’s Messenger  had nearly approached (Al-Madina) all the evil false excuses vanished from my mind and I knew well that I could never come out of this problem by forging a false statement. Then I decided firmly to speak the truth. So Allah’s Messenger  arrived in the morning, and whenever he returned from a journey, he used to visit the mosque first of all and offer two-Rak’a prayer therein and then sit for the people. So when he had done all that (this time), those who had failed to join the battle (of Tabuk) came and started offering (false) excuses and taking oaths before him. They were something over eighty men; Allah’s Messenger  accepted the excuses they had expressed, took their Bai’a (pledge), asked for Allah’s Forgiveness for them, and left the secrets of their hearts for Allah to judge. Then I came to him, and when I greeted him, he smiled a smile of an angry person and then said, ‘Come on.’ So I came walking till I sat before him. He said to me, ‘What stopped you from joining us? Had you not purchased an animal for carrying you?’ I answered, ‘Yes, O Allah’s Messenger! But by Allah, if I were sitting before any person from among the people of the world other than you, I would have avoided his anger with an excuse. By Allah, I have been bestowed with the power of speaking fluently and eloquently, but by Allah, I knew well that if today I tell you a lie to seek your favour, Allah would surely make you angry with me in the near future, but if I tell you the truth, though you will get angry because of it, I hope for Allah’s Forgiveness. By Allâh, he did not return my greetings. I said, 'O Abû Qatâda! I beseech you by Allâh! Do you know that I love Allâh and His Messenger?' He kept quiet. I asked him again, beseeching him by Allâh, but he remained silent. Then I asked him again in the Name of Allâh. He said, 'Allâh and His Messenger' • know it better.' Thereupon my eyes flowed with tears and I returned and jumped over the wall." Ka'b added, "While I was walking in the market of Al-Madina, suddenly I saw a Nabati (i.e., a Christian farmer) from the Anbāt (plural of Nabāti) of Sham who came to sell his grains in Al-Madina, saying, 'Who will lead me to Ka'b bin Malik?' The people began to point (me) out for him till he came to me and handed me a letter from the king of Ghassân in which the following was written:

'Amma Ba 'du (then after), I have been informed that your friend (i.e., the Prophet) has treated you harshly. Anyhow, Allah does not let you live at a place where you feel inferior and your right is lost. So, join us, and we will console you.'

When I read it, I said to myself, 'This is also a sort of test.' Then I took the letter to the oven and made a fire therein by burning it. When forty out of the fifty nights elapsed, behold! There came to me the messenger of Allah's Messenger and said, 'Allah's Messenger orders you to keep away from your wife.' I said, 'Should I divorce her; or else what should I do?' He said, 'No, only keep aloof from her and do not cohabit her.' The Prophet sent the same message to my two fellows. Then I said to my wife, 'Go to your parents and remain with them till Allah gives His Verdict in this matter.' Ka'b added, "The wife of Hilāl bin Umaiyya came to Allah's Messenger and said, 'O Allah's Messenger! Hilāl bin Umaiyya is a helpless old man who has no servant to attend on him. Do you dislike that I should serve him?' He said, 'No (you can serve him), but he should not come near you.' She said, 'By Allah, he has no desire for anything. By Allah, he has never ceased weeping till his case began till this day of his.' On that, some of my family members said to me, 'Will you also ask Allah's Messenger to permit your wife (to serve you) as he has permitted the wife of Hilal bin Umaiyya to serve him?' I said, 'By Allah, I will not ask the permission of Allah's Messenger regarding her, for I do not know what Allah's Messenger would say if I asked him to permit her (to serve me) while I am a young man.' Then I remained in that state for ten more nights after that till the period of fifty nights was completed starting from the time when Allah's Messenger prohibited the people from talking to us. When I had offered the Fajr prayer on the 50th morning on the roof of one of our houses and while I was sitting in the condition which Allah described (in the Qur'an) i.e., my very soul seemed straitened to me and even the earth seemed narrow to me for all its spaciousness, there I heard the voice of one who had ascended the mountain of Sal' calling with his loudest voice, 'O Ka'b bin Malik! Be happy (by receiving good tidings).’ I fell down in prostration before Allah, realizing that relief has come. Allah's Messenger had announced the acceptance of our repentance by Allah when he had offered the Fajr prayer. The people then came out to congratulate us. Some bringers of good tidings went out to my two fellows, and a horseman came to me in haste, and a man of Banu Aslam came running and ascended the mountain and his voice was swifter than the horse. When he (i.e., the man) whose voice I had heard, came to me conveying the good tidings, I took off my two garments and dressed him with them; and by Allah, I owned no other garments than them on that day. Then I borrowed two garments and wore them and went to Allah's Messenger. The people started receiving me in batches, congratulating me on Allah's Acceptance of my repentance, saying, ‘We congratulate you on Allâh’s Acceptance of your repentance.’” Ka‘b further said, “When I entered the mosque, I saw Allâh’s Messenger sitting with the people around him. Tâlha bîn ‘Ubaidullâh swiftly came to me, shook hands with me and congratulated me. By Allâh, none of the Muhäjirûn (i.e., emigrants) got up for me except him (i.e., Tâlha), and I will never forget this for Tâlha.” Ka‘b added, “When I greeted Allâh’s Messenger, his face being bright with joy, said, ‘Be happy with the best day that you have got ever since your mother delivered you.’” Ka‘b added, “I said to the Prophet, ‘Is this forgiveness from you or from Allâh?’ He said, ‘No, it is from Allâh.’ Whenever Allâh’s Messenger became happy, his face would shine as if it were a piece of moon, and we all knew that characteristic of him. When I sat before him, I said, ‘O Allâh’s Messenger! Because of the acceptance of my repentance I will give up all my wealth as alms for the sake of Allâh and His Messenger.’ Allâh’s Messenger said, ‘Keep some of your wealth, as it will be better for you.’ I said, ‘So I will keep my share from Khaibar with me,’ and added, ‘O Allâh’s Messenger! Allâh has saved me for telling the truth; so it is a part of my repentance not to tell but the truth as long as I am alive. By Allâh, I do not know anyone of the Muslims whom Allâh has helped for telling the truth more than me, since I mentioned that truth to Allâh’s Messenger I have never intended to tell a lie ever since (I said that to Allâh’s Messenger) till today. I hope that Allâh will also save me (from telling lies) the rest of my life. So Allâh revealed to His Messenger the Verse:

‘Allâh has forgiven the Prophet, the Muhäjirûn (emigrants) and the Ansâr...’
... And be with those who are true (in words and deeds).’ (V.9:117-119)

"By Allah, Allah has never bestowed upon me, apart from His guiding me to Islam, a greater blessing than the fact that I did not tell a lie to Allah’s Messenger which would have caused me to perish as those who have told a lie perished, for Allah described those who told lies with the worst description He ever attributed to anybody else. Allah ṣallallahu 'alaihi wa salam said:

'They (i.e., the hypocrites) will swear by Allah to you (Muslims) when you return to them... (up to His Saying)... Certainly Allah is not pleased with the people who are Al-Fasiqūn (rebellious, disbelient to Allah.)’” (V.9:95,96)

Ka'b added, “We, the three persons, differed altogether from those whose excuses Allah’s Messenger ṣaḥib accepted when they swore to him. He took their Bai'a (pledge) and asked Allah to forgive them, but Allah’s Messenger left our case pending till Allah gave His Judgement about it. As for that Allah said:

‘And (He did forgive also) the three...’ (V.9:118)

"What Allah ṣallallahu 'alaihi wa salam said (in this Verse) does not indicate our failure to take part in the Ghazwā, but it refers to the deferment of making a decision by the Prophet ṣaḥib about our case in contrast to the case of those who had taken an oath before him and he excused them by accepting their excuses.”
4419. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: When the Prophet passed by Al-Hijr, he said, "Do not enter the dwelling places of those people who were unjust to themselves unless you enter in a weeping state, lest the same calamity as of theirs should befall you." Then he covered his head and made his speed fast till he crossed the valley.

4420. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: Allâh’s Messenger said to his Companions who were at Al-Hijr (or said about the companions of Al-Hijr) "Do not enter upon these people who are being punished, except in a weeping state, lest the same calamity as of theirs should befall you."
4421. Narrated 'Urwa bin Al-Mughira: Al-Mughira bin Shu'ba said, "The Prophet went out to answer the call of nature and (when he had finished) I got up to pour water for him." I think that he said that the event had taken place during the Ghazwâ of Tabûk. Al-Mughira added, "The Prophet washed his face, and when he wanted to wash his forearms, the sleeves of his cloak became tight over them, so he took them out from underneath the cloak and then he washed them (i.e., his forearms) and passed wet hands over his Khuff."

4422. Narrated Abû Ḥumaid: We returned in the company of the Prophet from the Ghazwa of Tabûk, and when we came within sight of Al-Madina, the Prophet said, "This is Tâba (i.e., Al-Madina), and this is Uḥud mountain that loves us and is loved by us."

4423. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Allah's Messenger returned from the Ghazwa of Tabûk, and when he approached Al-Madina, he said, "There are some people in Al-Madina who were with you all the time, you did not travel any portion of the journey nor crossed any valley, but they were with you." They (i.e., the people) said, "O Allah's Messenger! Even though they were at Al-Madina?" He said, "Yes, because they were stopped" by a genuine excuse.”

(83) CHAPTER. The letter of the Prophet ﷺ to Kisra (Khosrau) and Qaiser (Caesar).

4424. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: رضي الله عنهما: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ sent a letter to Kisra (Khosrau) with ‘Abdullāh bin Ḥudhāfa As-Sahmī and told him to hand it over to the governor of Al-Bahrain. The governor of Al-Bahrain handed it over to Kisra, and when he read the letter, he tore it into pieces. [The subnarrator added, “I think that Ibn Al-Musaiyab said, ‘Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ invoked (Allāh) to tear them all totally (Kisra and his companions) into pieces.’”]

4425. Narrated Abū Bakra: During the days (of the battle) of Al-Jamal, Allāh benefited me with a word I had heard from Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ after I had been about to join the companions of Al-Jamal (i.e., the camel) and fight along with them. When Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was informed that the Persians had crowned the daughter of Kisra (Khosrau) as their ruler, he said, “Such people as ruled by a lady will never be successful.”(1)

(1) (H. 4425) Abū Bakra did not fight on that side because the army was led by a woman, i.e., ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها.
4426. Narrated As-Sa‘ib bin Yazid: I remember that I went out with the boys to (the place called) Thaniyat-ul-Wadā' to receive Allāh's Messenger ﷺ.

4427. Narrated As-Sa‘ib: I remember I went out with the boys to Thaniyat-ul-Wadā' to receive the Prophet ﷺ when he returned from the Ghazwā of Tabūk.

(84) CHAPTER. The sickness of the Prophet ﷺ and his death.

And the Statement of Allāh ﷻ:

“Verily! You (O Muḥammad ﷺ) will die and verily, they (too) will die.’ (V.39:30)

4428. Narrated ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ in his ailment in which he died, used to say, “O ‘Āishah! I still feel the pain caused by the food I ate at Khaibar, and at this time, I feel as if my aorta is being cut from that poison.”

4429. Narrated Umm Al-Faḍl bint Al-Ḥārith: I heard the Prophet ﷺ reciting Sūrat Al-Mursalāt ‘Urfā (No. 77) in the Maghrib prayer, and after that Ṣalāt (prayer) he did not lead us in any Ṣalāt (prayer) till he died.
4430. Narrated Ibn 'Abbās: 'Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb used to let Ibn 'Abbās sit beside him, so 'Abdūr-Rahmān bin 'Amr said to 'Umar, "We have sons similar to him (in age)." 'Umar replied, "(I respect him) because of his status that you know." 'Umar then asked Ibn 'Abbās about the meaning of this Holy Verse:

“When there comes the Help of Allah (to you, O Muhammad) against your enemies) and the Conquest (of Makkah).” (V.110:1)

Ibn 'Abbās replied, “That indicated the approaching death of Allah’s Messenger which Allah informed him.” 'Umar said, “I do not know of it except what you know.”

4431. Narrated Ibn 'Abbās: Thursday! And how great that Thursday was! The ailment of Allah’s Messenger became worse (on Thursday) and he said, “Fetch me something so that I may write to you something after which you will never go astray.” The people (present there) differed in this matter, and it was not right to differ before a Prophet. Some said, “What is wrong with him? (Do you think) he is delirious (seriously ill)?”(1) Ask him (to understand his state).” So they went to the Prophet and asked him again. The Prophet said, “Leave me, for my present state is better than what you call me for." Then he ordered them to do three things. He said, "Turn Al-Mushrikûn [polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allâh and in His Messenger Muhammad (S)] out of the Arabian Peninsula; respect and give gifts to the foreign delegations as you have seen me dealing with them." (Sa'id bin Jubair, the subnarrator said that Ibn 'Abbas kept quiet as regards the third order, or he said, "I forgot it.")\(^{(1)}\)

(1) (H. 4431) The speaker wants to urge others to fulfil the Prophet’s order.

[See Vol. 1, Hadîth No.114]

4432. Narrated 'Ubaidullâh bin 'Abdullâh: Ibn 'Abbâs Li said, "When Allâh's Messenger ﷺ was on his deathbed and there were some men in the house, he said, 'Come near, I will write for you something after which you will not go astray.' Some of them (i.e., his Companions) said, 'Allâh's Messenger is seriously ill and you have the Qur'an. Allâh's Book is sufficient for us.' So, the people in the house differed and started disputing. Some of them said, 'Give him writing material so that he may write for you something after which you will not go astray.' While the others said the other way round. So when their talk and differences increased, Allâh's Messenger ﷺ said, 'Go away.' Ibn 'Abbâs used to say, "No doubt, it was very unfortunate (a great disaster) that Allâh's Messenger ﷺ was prevented from writing for them that writing because of their differences and noise."\(^{(2)}\)

\(^{(1)}\) (H. 4431) See the footnote of Hadîth No.3168, Vol.4.
4433, 4434. Narrated 'Aishah رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ called Fāṭima ﷺ during his fatal illness and told her something secretly and she wept. Then he called her again and told her something secretly, and she started laughing. When we asked her about that, she said, “The Prophet ﷺ first told me secretly that he would expire in that disease in which he eventually died, so I wept; then he told me secretly that I would be the first of his family to follow him, so I laughed (at that time).”

4435. Narrated 'Aishah رضي الله عنها: I used to hear (from the Prophet ﷺ) that no Prophet dies till he is given the option to select either the worldly life or the life of the Hereafter. I heard the Prophet ﷺ in his fatal disease, with his voice becoming hoarse, saying, “In the company of those on whom Allah has bestowed His Grace... (to the end of the Verse).” (V.4:69) Thereupon I thought that the Prophet ﷺ had been given the option.

4436. Narrated 'Aishah رضي الله عنها: When the Prophet ﷺ fell ill in his fatal illness, he started saying, “With the highest companions.”(1)

(1) (H. 4436) See the Noble Qur’an (V.4:69).
4437. Narrated 'Aishah: When Allâh's Messenger was in good health, he used to say, "Never does a Prophet die unless he is shown his place in Paradise (before his death), and then he is given life or given option." When the Prophet became ill and his last moments came while his head was on my thigh, he became unconscious, and when he came to his senses, he looked towards the roof of the house and then said, "O Allâh! (Please let me be) with the highest companions." Thereupon I said, "So, he is not going to stay with us!" Then I came to know that his state was the confirmation of the narration he used to mention to us while he was in good health.

4438. Narrated 'Aishah: 'Abdur-Rahmân bin Abû Bakr entered upon the Prophet while I was supporting the Prophet on my chest. 'Abdur-Rahmân had a fresh Siwâk then and he was cleaning his teeth with it. Allâh’s Messenger looked at it, so I took the Siwâk, cut it (chewed it with my teeth), shook it and made it soft (with water), and then gave it to the Prophet who cleaned his teeth with it. I had never seen Allâh’s Messenger cleaning his teeth in a better way than that moment. After finishing the brushing of his teeth, he lifted his hand or his finger and said thrice, "O Allâh! Let me be with the highest companions," and then died. 'Aishah used to say, "He died while his head was resting between my chest and chin." 4439. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: Whenever Allah’s Messenger ﷺ became ill, he used to recite Al-Mu’awwidhāt (Surah Nos. 113, 114) and blow his breath over himself (after their recitation) and rub his hands over his body. So when he was afflicted with his fatal illness, I started reciting Al-Mu’awwidhāt and blowing my breath over him as he used to blow and made the hand of the Prophet ﷺ pass over his body.

4440. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: I heard the Prophet ﷺ and listened to him before his death while he was leaning his back on me and saying,

“O Allah! Forgive me, and bestow Your Mercy on me, and let me meet the (highest) companions (of the Hereafter).”

[See the Qur’an, V. 4:69 and Hadith No. 4435]

4441. Narrated ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair: ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها said, “The Prophet ﷺ said during his fatal illness, ‘Allah cursed the Jews for they took the graves of their Prophets as places for worship.’” ‘Aishah added, “Had it not been for that (statement of the Prophet ﷺ) his grave would have been made conspicuous. But he was afraid that it might be taken as a place for worship.”
4442. Narrated 'Aishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ, “When the ailment of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ became aggravated, he requested his wives to permit him to be (treated) nursed in my house, and they gave him permission. He came out (to my house), walking between two men with his feet dragging on the ground, between ‘Abbās bin ‘Abdul-Muṭṭalib and another man’. 'Ubaidullah said, “I told ‘Abdullāh of what ‘Aishah had said. ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Abbās said to me, ‘Do you know who was the other man whom ‘Aishah did not name?’ I said, ‘No.’ Ibn ‘Abbās said, ‘It was ‘All bin Abī Ṭālib.’”

‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ used to narrate saying, “When Allah’s Messenger ﷺ entered my house and his disease became aggravated, he said, ‘Pour on me the water of seven water-skins, the mouths of which have not been untied, so that I may give advice to the people.’ So we let him sit in a big basin belonging to Ḥafsa, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ and then started to pour water on him from these waterskins till he started pointing to us with his hands intending to say, ‘You have done your job.’” ‘Aishah added, “Then he went out to the people and led them in Salāt (prayer) and preached to them.”

Allah's Messenger became seriously ill, he started covering his face with his woolen sheet, and when he felt short of breath, he removed it from his face and said, 'That is so! Allah's Curse be on the Jews and the Christians, as they took the graves of their Prophets as (places of worship),' intending to warn (the Muslims) of what they had done."

4445. Narrated Ubaidullāh: 'Āishah said, "I argued with Allah's Messenger about that matter [i.e., his order that Ābu Bakr should lead the people in Salāt (prayer) in his place when he was ill], and what made me argue so much was, that it never occurred to my mind that after the Prophet, the people would ever love a man who had taken his place, and I felt that anybody standing in his place, would be a bad omen to the people, so I wanted Allah's Messenger to give up the idea of choosing Ābu Bakr [to lead the people in Salāt (prayer)]."

4446. Narrated 'Āishah: The Prophet died while he was between my chest and chin, so I never dislike the death agony for anyone after the Prophet.

4447. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin 'Abbās: 'Ali bin Ābū Tālib came out of the house of Allah's Messenger during his fatal illness. The people asked, "O Ābu Ḥasan (i.e., 'Ali)! How is the health of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ this morning?” ‘Ālî replied, “He has recovered with the Grace of Allāh.” ‘Abbās bin ‘Abdul-Muţţalib held him by the hand and said to him, “In three days you, by Allāh, will be ruled (by somebody else).” And by Allāh, I feel that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ will die from this ailment of his, for I know how the faces of the offspring of ‘Abdul-Muţţalib look at the time of their death. So let us go to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and ask him who will take over the caliphate. If it is given to us, we will know as to it, and if it is given to somebody else, we will inform him so that he may tell the new ruler to take care of us.” ‘Ālî said, “By Allāh, if we asked Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ for it (i.e., the caliphate) and if he refused to give it to us, the people will never give it to us after that. And by Allāh, I will not ask Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ for it.”

4448. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: While the Muslims were offering the Fajr prayer on Monday, and Abū Bakr was leading them in Salât (prayer), suddenly, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ lifted the curtain of ‘Aishah’s dwelling and looked at them while they were in the rows of the Salât (prayer) and smiled. Abū Bakr retreated to join the rows, thinking that Allah's Messenger wanted to come out for the Salāt (prayer). The Muslims were about to be put to trial in their Salāt (prayer) [i.e., were about to give up offering Salāt (prayer)] because of being overjoyed at seeing Allah's Messenger. But Allah's Messenger beckoned them with his hand to complete their Salāt (prayer) and then entered the dwelling and let fall the curtain.

(1) (H. 4447) He means that the Prophet ﷺ will die and you will be under the authority of a new ruler.

4449. Narrated 'Aishah: It was one of the Favours of Allah bestowed upon me that Allah's Messenger expired in my house on the day of my turn while he was leaning against my chest, and Allah made my saliva mix with his saliva at his death. 'Abdur-Rahmān entered upon me with a Siwāk in his hand and I was supporting (the back of) Allah's Messenger (against my chest). I saw the Prophet looking at it (i.e., Siwāk) and I knew that he loved the Siwāk, so I said (to him), "Shall I take it for you?" He nodded in agreement. So I took it and it was too stiff for him to use, so I said, "Shall I soften it for you?" He nodded his approval. So I softened it and he cleaned his teeth with it. In front of him there was a jug or a can, (The subnarrator, 'Umar is in doubt as to which was right) containing water. He started dipping his hand in the water and rubbing his face with it, he said, "La ilaha illallah" (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah). Death has its agonies." He then lifted his hands (towards the sky) and started saying, "With the highest companions," till he expired and his hand dropped down.
4450. Narrated 'Urwa: ‘Aishah said, “Allah’s Messenger in his fatal illness, used to ask, ‘Where will I be tomorrow? Where will I be tomorrow?’(1), seeking ‘Aishah’s turn. His wives allowed him to stay wherever he wished. So he stayed at ‘Aishah’s house till he expired while he was with her.” ‘Aishah added, “The Prophet expired on the day of my turn in my house and he was taken unto Allah while his head was against my chest and his saliva mixed with my saliva.” ‘Aishah added, “‘Abdur-Rahman bin Abü Bakr came in, carrying a Siwāk he was cleaning his teeth with. Allah’s Messenger looked at it and I said to him, ‘O ‘Abdur-Rahmān! Give me this Siwāk.’ So he gave it to me and I cut it, chewed (it’s end) and gave it to Allah’s Messenger who cleaned his teeth with it while he was resting against my chest.”

4451. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet expired in my house and on the day of my turn, leaning against my chest. One of us (i.e., the Prophet’s wives) used to recite an invocation asking Allah to protect him from all evils when he became sick. So I started asking Allâh to protect him from all evils. He raised his head towards the sky and said, “With the highest companions, with the highest companions.” ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin Abû Bakr passed (in front of him) carrying a fresh Siwâk and the Prophet looked at it and I thought that the Prophet was in need of it (for cleaning his teeth). So I took it (from ‘Abdur-Rahmân) and chewed its head and shook it and gave it to the Prophet who cleaned his teeth with it, in the best way he had ever cleaned his teeth, and then he gave it to me, and suddenly his hand dropped down or it fell from his hand (i.e., he expired). So Allâh made my saliva mix with his saliva on his last day on earth and his first day in the Hereafter.

(1) (H. 4450) The Prophet asks in which of his wives’ house his stay will be tomorrow.

4452, 4453. Narrated ‘Aishah: Abû Bakr came from his house at As-Sunh on a horse. He dismounted and entered the mosque, but did not speak to the people till he entered upon ‘Aishah and went straight to Allâh’s Messenger who was covered with Hibara cloth (i.e., a kind of Yemenite cloth). He then uncovered the Prophet’s face and bowed over him and kissed him and wept, saying, “Let my father and mother be sacrificed for you. By Allâh, Allâh will never cause you to die twice. As for the death which was written for you, has come upon you.”

4454. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: Abû Bakr went out while ‘Umar bin Al-
Khaṭṭāb was talking to the people. Abū Bakr said, “Sit down, O 'Umar!” But 'Umar refused to sit down. So, the people came to Abū Bakr and left 'Umar. Abū Bakr said, "Amma Ba’du (then after), whosoever amongst you used to worship Muḥammad ﷺ, then Muḥammad ﷺ is dead, and whosoever amongst you used to worship Allāh, then Allāh is Alive and shall never die. Allāh Ta’ālā said:

‘Muḥammad (ﷺ) is no more than a Messenger, and indeed (many) Messengers have passed away before him... (till the end of the Verse)... who are grateful’. ”

By Allāh, it was as if the people never knew that Allāh had revealed this Verse before, till Abū Bakr recited it and all the people received it from him, and I heard everybody reciting it (then).

4458. Narrated 'Āishah: We poured medicine in one side of the Prophet's mouth during his illness and he started pointing to us, meaning to say, "Don't pour medicine in my mouth." We said, "(He says so) because a patient dislikes medicines." When he improved and felt a little better, he said, "Didn't I forbid you to pour medicine in my mouth?" We said, "(We thought it was because of) the dislike, patients have for medicines." He said, "Everyone present in the house be forced by pouring medicine in his mouth while I am looking at him, except 'Abbās as he has not witnessed your deed."

4459. Narrated Al-Aswad: It was mentioned in the presence of 'Āishah that the Prophet had appointed 'Alī as successor by will. Thereupon she said, "Who said so? I saw the Prophet while I was supporting him against my chest. He asked for a tray, and then fell on one side and expired, and I did not feel it. So how (do the people say) he appointed 'Alī as his successor?"

4460. Narrated Ťālha: I asked 'Abdullāh bin Abū Aufā, "Did the Prophet make a will?" He replied, "No." I further asked, "How comes it that the making of a will was enjoined on the people or that they were ordered to make it?" He said, "The Prophet made a will concerning Allāh's Book."(1)

(1) (H. 4460) He advised the people to understand and act upon the Qur'ān.
4461. Narrated ‘Amir bin Al-Ḥārith: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ did not leave a Dinār or a Dirham or a male or a female slave. He left only his white mule on which he used to ride, and his weapons, and a piece of land which he gave in charity for the needy travellers.

4462. Narrated Anas: When the ailment of the Prophet ﷺ got aggravated, he became unconscious whereupon Fāṭima said, “Oh, how distressed my father is!” He said, “Your father will have no more distress after today.” When he expired, she said, “O Father! Who has responded to the call of the Lord Who has invited him! O Father, whose dwelling place is the Garden of Paradise (i.e., Al-Firdaus)! O Father! We convey this news (of your death) to Gabriel.” When he was buried, Fāṭima said, “O Anas! Do you feel pleased to throw earth over Allah’s Messenger ﷺ?”

(85) CHAPTER. The last statement, the Prophet ﷺ spoke.

4463. Narrated ‘Āishah: When the Prophet ﷺ was healthy, he used to say, “No soul of a Prophet is captured till he is shown his place in Paradise and then he is given the option.” (1) When death approached him while his head was on my thigh, he became unconscious and then recovered his consciousness. He then looked at the ceiling of the house and said,

---

(1) (H. 4463) The option to survive or go to Heaven.
“O Allāh! (with) the highest companions.” (1)
I said (to myself), “So, he is not going to choose us.” Then I realized that what he had said was the application of the narration which he used to mention to us when he was healthy. The last word he spoke was, “O Allāh! (with) the highest companions.”

(86) CHAPTER. The death of the Prophet ﷺ.

4464, 4465.Narrated 'Āishah and Ibn 'Abbās رضي الله عنهم: The Prophet ﷺ stayed for ten years in Makkah with the Qur'ān being revealed to him and he stayed in Al-Madina for ten years.

4466. Narrated 'Āishah ﷺ: Allah's Messenger ﷺ died when he was sixty-three years of age.

(87) CHAPTER.

mortgaged to a Jew for thirty i.e., 30 ša‘ of barley.

(88) CHAPTER. The despatch of Usāma bin Zaid by the Prophet during his fatal illness.

4468. Narrated Sālim’s father: The Prophet appointed Usāma as the commander of the troops (to be sent to Syria). The Muslims spoke about Usāma (unfavourably). The Prophet said, “I have been informed that you spoke about Usāma. (Let it be known that) he is the most beloved of all people to me.”

4469. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: Allāh’s Messenger sent troops and appointed Usāma bin Zaid as their commander. The people criticised his leadership. Allāh’s Messenger got up and said, “If you (people) are criticising his (i.e., Usāma’s) leadership, you used to criticise the leadership of his father before. By Allāh, he (i.e., Zaid) deserved the leadership indeed, and he used to be one of the most beloved persons to me, and now this (i.e., his son, Usāma) is one of the most beloved persons to me after him.”

(89) CHAPTER.

4470. Narrated Ibn Abū Ḥabīb: Abū Al-Khair said, “Aṣ-Ṣunābīhi asked (me), ‘When did you emigrate?’ I (i.e., Abū Al-Khair) said, ‘We went out from Yemen as emigrants and arrived at Al-Juţafa, and there came a rider whom I asked about the news. The rider said: “We buried the Prophet five days ago.” I asked (Aṣ-Ṣanābī), ‘Did you hear anything about the night of Qadr?’ He replied, ‘Bilāl, the Mu‘ādhḏīn of the Prophet informed me that it is one of the seven nights of the last ten days (of Ramaḍān).’”

(90) CHAPTER. How many Ḡazawāt the Prophet fought.

4473. Narrated Buraida that he fought sixteen Ḡazawāt in the company of Allah’s Messenger.

The words ‘Ar-Rahmān’, ‘Ar-Rahīm’ (i.e., the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful) are two words derived from ‘Ar-Rahma’ (i.e., the mercy). And the words ‘Ar-Rahīm’ and ‘Ar-Rahim’ have one meaning as the words ‘Al-Aлим’ and ‘Al-‘Alim’ have one and the same meaning (i.e., the Cognizant One).

(1) SURAT AL-FĀTIHA
(The Opening)

(1) CHAPTER. What has been said about Fātiha-tul-Kitāb (i.e., the Opening of the Book).

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful

It is also called Umm-ul-Kitāb (i.e., the Mother of the Book), because it is the first Sūrah that has been written in the copies of the Qur’ān, and it is also the first Sūrah to be recited in Ṣalāt (prayer).

4474. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd bin Al-Mu‘alla: While I was offering Ṣalāt (prayer) in the mosque, Allāh’s Messenger called me but I did not respond to him. Later I said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! I was offering Ṣalāt (prayer).” He said, “Didn’t Allāh say: ‘Answer Allāh (by obeying Him) and (His) Messenger when he calls you.’” (V.8:24) He then said to me, “I will teach...”
you a Sūrah which is the greatest Sūrah in the Qurʾān, before you leave the mosque.” Then he got hold of my hand, and when he intended to leave (the mosque), I said to him, “Didn’t you say to me, ‘I will teach you a Sūrah which is the greatest Sūrah in the Qurʾān’?” He said, “Al-hamdulillahi Rabbil ʿalāmin [all the praises and thanks be to Allāh, the Lord(1) of the ‘Alāmin (mankind, jinn and all that exists)] (Sūrat-al-Fāṭihah) which is As-Saba Al-Mathani (i.e., the seven repeatedly recited Verses) and the Grand Qurʾān which has been given to me.”

(2) CHAPTER. “…Not (the way) of those who earned Your Anger (such as the Jews), nor of those who went astray (such as the Christians).” (V.1:7)

4475. Narrated Abū Hurairah, Allah’s Messenger said, “When the Imam says: ‘Ghair-il-Magjadubi ’ala/him wa/ad-dallīn’ [i.e., not (the way) of those who earned Your Anger (such as the Jews), nor of those who went astray (such as the Christians) (V.1:7)], then you must say, ‘Āmīn’, for if one’s utterance of Āmīn coincides with that of the angels, then his past sins will be forgiven.”

(1) (H. 4474) Lord: The actual word used in the Qurʾān and in Sahih Al-Bukhāri is Rabb. There is no proper equivalent for Rabb in English language. It means the One and the Only Lord for all the universe, its Creator, Owner, Organizer, Provider, Master, Planner, Sustainer, Cherisher, and Giver of security, etc. Rabb is also one of the Names of Allāh. We have used the word “Lord” as the nearest to Rabb. All occurrences of “Lord” in the interpretation of the meanings of the Noble Qurʾān and in Sahih Al-Bukhāri actually mean Rabb and should be understood as such.
In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious,
the Most Merciful

(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

And He taught Adam all the names (of everything)…” (V.2:31)

4476. Narrated Anas: The Prophet said, ‘On the Day of Resurrection the believers will assemble and say, ‘Let us ask somebody to intercede for us with our Lord.’ So they will go to Adam and say, ‘You are the father of all the people, and Allah created you with His Own Hands, and ordered the angels to prostrate to you, and taught you the names of all things; so please intercede for us with your Lord, so that He may relieve us from this place of ours.’ Adam will say, ‘I am not fit for this (i.e., intercession for you).’ Then Adam will remember his sin and feel ashamed thereof. He will say, ‘Go to Nūh (Noah), for he was the first Messenger Allah sent to the inhabitants of the earth.’ They will go to him and Nūh will say, ‘I am not fit for this undertaking.’ He will remember his appeal to his Lord to do something of which he had no knowledge, then he will feel ashamed thereof and will say, ‘Go to Khālid Ar-Rahmān (I.e., Ibrāhim (Abraham)).’ They will go to him and he will say, ‘I am not fit for this undertaking. Go to Mūsā (Moses), the slave to whom Allah spoke (directly) and gave him the Ta'urāt (Torah).’ So they will go to him and he will say, ‘I am not fit for this undertaking,’ and he will mention (his) killing a person who was not a killer, and so he will feel ashamed thereof before his Lord. and he will say, ‘Go to ‘Isā (Jesus), Allāh’s slave, His Messenger and Allāh’s Word and a Spirit coming from Him’. (1) ‘Isā will say, ‘I am not fit for this undertaking, go to Muḥammad  the slave of Allāh, whose past and future sins were forgiven by Allāh.’ So, they will come to me and I will proceed till I will ask my Lord’s Permission and I will be given permission. When I will see my Lord, I will fall down in prostration and He will let me remain in that state as long as He will wish and then I will be addressed: ‘(Muḥammad!) Raise your head. Ask, and your request will be granted; say, and your saying will be listened to; intercede, and your intercession will be accepted.’ I will raise my head and praise Allāh with a saying (i.e., invocation) He will teach me, and then I will intercede. He will fix a limit for me (to intercede for) whom I will admit into Paradise. Then I will come back again to Allāh, and when I will see my Lord, the same thing will happen to me. And then I will intercede and Allāh will fix a limit for me to intercede whom I will admit into Paradise, then I will come back for the third time; and then I will come back for the fourth time, and will say, ‘None remains in Hell but those whom the Qur’ān has imprisoned (in Hell) and who have been destined to an eternal stay in Hell.’ ” (The compiler) Abū ‘Abdullah said: “But those whom the Qur’ān has imprisoned in Hell,” refers to the Statement of Allāh  : “To abide therein!...” (V.16:29)

(2) CHAPTER.

Mujāhid said, “‘With their Shayātīn (devils, polytheists, hypocrites).’” (V.2:14) means their companions from the hypocrites and Al-Mushrikūn. (1)

(Qur'anic vocabulary not translated).

(3) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh (V.2:22)

...Then do not set up rivals unto Allāh (in worship) while you know (that He Alone has the right to be worshipped)...

4477. Narrated ‘Abdullāh Ṭayyāb: I asked the Prophet (n), “What is the greatest sin in consideration with Allāh?” He said, “That you set up a rival unto Allāh though He Alone created you.” I said, “That is indeed a great sin.” Then I asked, “What is next?” He said, “To kill your son lest he should share your food with you.” I asked, “What is next?” He said, “To commit illegal sexual intercourse with the wife of your neighbour.”

(Ch. 2) Al-Mushrikūn: the polytheist, idolaters, pagans and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allāh and in His Messenger Muhammad (n).

(4) CHAPTER. “And We shaded with clouds and sent down on you Al-Manna and the quail.... (up to) wronged themselves.” (V.2:57)

Mujahid said, “Al-Manna is a kind of sweet gum, and As-Salwa, a kind of bird (i.e., quail).”

4478. Narrated Sa’id bin Zaid: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The Kam’a (truffle — i.e., a kind of edible fungus) is like Al-Manna (as it is obtained without any effort) and its water is a (medicinal) cure for eye trouble.”

(5) CHAPTER. “And (remember) when We said: Enter this town (Jerusalem) and eat bountifully therein with pleasure and delight wherever you wish...” (V.2:58)

4479. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “It was said to the Children of Israel, ‘Enter the gate (of the town), in prostration (or bowing with humility) and say: Hittatun (i.e., forgive us).’ But they entered by dragging themselves on their buttocks, so they did something different (from what they had been ordered) and said, ‘A grain in a Sha’ra (a spike or a hair) instead of Hittatun.” (1)

(1) (H. 4479) They said so just to ridicule Allâh’s Order as they were disobedient to Him.
65 – THE BOOK OF COMMENTARY

(6) CHAPTER. “Whoever is an enemy to Jibril (Gabriel)…” (V.2:97)

‘Ikrima said, “Each of the words: Jabra and Mika and Saraf means ‘slave’; and (the word) ‘Il means Allah.”(1)

4480. Narrated Anas: ‘Abdullãh bin Salâm heard the news of the arrival of Allah’s Messenger (at Al-Madina) while he was on a farm collecting its fruits. So he came to the Prophet and said, “I will ask you about three things which nobody knows unless he be a Prophet — What is the first portent of the Hour? What is the first meal of the people of Paradise? And what makes a baby resemble its father or mother?” The Prophet said, “Just now Jibril (Gabriel) has informed me about that.”’ Abdullah said, “Jibril?” The Prophet said, “Yes.” Abdullah said, “He, among the angels is the enemy of the Jews.” On that the Prophet recited this Holy Verse:

‘...Whoever is an enemy to Jibril (let him die in his fury), for indeed he has brought it (this Qur’an) down to your heart...’” (V.2:97) Then he added, “As for the first portent of the Hour, it will be a fire that will collect the people from the east to west. And as for the first meal of the people of Paradise, it will be the caudate (i.e., extra lobe) of the fish liver. And if a man’s discharge preceded that of the women, then the child resembles the father, and if the woman’s discharge preceded that of the man, then the child resembles the mother.” On hearing that,

So, Allâh punished them severely by sending on them punishment in the form of an epidemic of plague (disease). See also Vol.4, Hadith No. 3403.

(1) (Ch. 6) Thus Jibril (Gabriel), Mikâ’el (Michael) and ‘Isrâfil (Sarafil) each means Allâh’s slave.
‘Abdullâh said, “I testify that La ilâha illallâh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh) and that you are the Messenger of Allâh, O Allâh’s Messenger; the Jews are liars, and if they should come to know that I have embraced Islâm, they would accuse me of being a liar.” In the meantime some Jews came (to the Prophet ﷺ) and he asked them, “What is ‘Abdullâh’s status amongst you?” They replied, “He is the best amongst us, and he is our chief and the son of our chief.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “What would you say if ‘Abdullâh bin Salâm embraced Islâm?” They replied, “May Allâh protect him from this!” Then ‘Abdullâh came out and said, “I testify that La ilâha illallâh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh) and that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allâh.” The Jews then said, “Abdullâh is the worst of us, and the son of the worst of us,” and disparaged him. On that ‘Abdullâh said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! This is what I was afraid of!”

(7) CHAPTER. His Statement: “Whatever a Verse (revelation) do We abrogate or cause to be forgotten, We bring a better one or similar to it…” (V.2:106)

4481. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: ‘Umar ﷺ said, “Our best Qur’ân reciter is Ubayy and our best judge is ‘Ali; and in spite of this, we leave some of the statements of Ubayy because Ubayy says, ‘I do not leave anything that I have heard from Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ, while Allâh’s ﷺ said:

‘Whatever a Verse (revelation) do We abrogate or cause to be forgotten, We bring a better one or similar to it…”’ (V.2:106)

(8) CHAPTER. “And they (pagans, Jews and Christians) say: ‘Allâh has begotten a son 4482. Narrated Ibn 'Abbās : The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Allāh said, ‘The son of Adam tells a lie against Me, though he has no right to do so; and he abuses Me, though he has no right to do so. As for his telling a lie against Me, it is that he claims that I cannot recreate him as I created him before; and as for his abusing Me, it is his statement that I have a son (children or offspring etc.). No! Glorified be Me! I am far from taking a wife or a son (or offspring).’”

4483. Narrated Anas: ‘Umar said, ‘I agreed with Allāh in three things,’ or said, ‘My Lord agreed with me (accepted my invocation) in three things. I said, ‘O Allāh’s Messenger! Would that you took the Maqām (place) of Ibrāhīm (Abraham) as a place of Salāt (prayer).’ I also said, ‘O Allāh’s Messenger! Good and bad persons visit you! Would that you ordered the Mothers of the believers to cover themselves with veils.’ So the Divine Verses of Al-Hijāb (i.e., veiling of the women) were revealed. I came to know that the Prophet ﷺ had blamed some of his wives, so, I entered upon them and said, ‘You should either stop (troubling the Prophet ﷺ) or else Allāh will give His Messenger ﷺ better wives than you.’ When I came to one of his wives, she said to me, 'O 'Umar! Does Allâh's Messenger ﷺ haven't what he could advise his wives with, that you try to advise them?' Thereupon Allâh revealed: 'It may be if he divorced you (all) that his Lord will give him instead of you, wives better than you. – Muslims (who submit to Allâh)...'” (V.66:5) the Ka'bah was not built on all Abraham’s foundations.”

(11) CHAPTER. “Say (O Muslims), We believe in Allāh and that which has been sent down to us…” (V.2:136)

4485. Narrated Abū Hurairah:
The people of the Scripture (Jews) used to recite the Taurāt (Torah) in Ibrānī (Hebrew) and they used to explain it in Arabic to the Muslims. On that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Do not believe the people of the Scripture or disbelieve them, but say: - 'We believe in Allāh and that which has been sent down to us…’” (V.2:136)

(12) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh ﷺ: “The fools (pagans, hypocrites and Jews) among the people will say, ‘What has turned them (Muslims) from their Qiblāḥ [Salāt (prayer) direction (towards Jerusalem)]...”’ (V.2:142)

4486. Narrated Al-Barā’ Ibn ‘Aśār: The Prophet ﷺ offered Salāt (prayer) facing Ba‘it-ul-Maqdis (i.e., Jerusalem) for sixteen or seventeen months but he wished that his Qiblāḥ would be the Ka'bah (at Makkah). [So Allāh revealed (V.2:144)]. And he offered ‘Asr prayer (in his mosque facing Ka'bah at Makkah) and some people offered Salāt (prayer) with him. A man from among those who had offered Salāt (prayer) with him, went out and passed by some people offering Salāt (prayer) in another mosque, and they were in the state of bowing. He said, “I (swearing by Allāh) testify that I have offered Salāt (prayer) with the Prophet facing Makkah.” Hearing that, they turned their faces towards the direction of Ka’bah while they were still bowing. Some men had died before the Qiblāh was changed towards the Ka’bah. They had been killed and we did not know what to say about them (i.e., whether their Salāt (prayer) towards Jerusalem were accepted or not). So Allāh revealed:

“... And Allāh would never make your faith (prayers) to be lost (i.e., your prayer offered towards Jerusalem). Truly, Allāh is full of kindness, the Most Merciful towards mankind.” (V.2:143)

(13) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh:

“Thus We have made of you [true Muslims—real believers of Islāmic Monotheism, true followers of Prophet Muḥammad and his Sunna (legal ways)], a just (and the best) nation, that you may be witnesses over mankind, and the Messenger (Muḥammad) will be a witness over you...” (V.2:143)

4487. Narrated Abū Sa’īd Al-Khudrī: Allāh’s Messenger said, “Nūḥ (Noah) will be called on the Day of Resurrection and he will say, ‘Labbaik and Sa’daik (I respond to Your Call and I am obedient to You Orders), O my Lord!’ Allāh will say, ‘Did you convey Our Message (of Islāmic Monotheism)?’ Nūḥ will say, ‘Yes.’ His nation will then be asked, ‘Did he convey Our Message of Islāmic Monotheism to you?’ They will say, ‘No warner came to us.’ Then Allāh will say (to Nūḥ), ‘Who will bear witness in your favour?’ He will say, ‘Muḥammad (ṣa) and his followers.’ So they (i.e., Muslims) will testify that he conveyed the Message. And the Messenger (Muḥammad ṣa) will be a witness over you, and that is what is meant by the Statement of Allāh ʿazza wa jall: ‘Thus We have made of you [true Muslims—real believers of Islamic Monotheism, true followers of Prophet Muḥammad ṣa and his Sunna (legal ways)], a just (and the best) nation, that you may be witnesses over mankind, and the Messenger (Muḥammad ṣa) will be a witness over you.’” (V.2:143)

(14) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh ʿazza wa jall: “…And We made the Qiblah (prayer direction towards Jerusalem) which you used to face, only to test those who followed the Messenger (Muḥammad ṣa)…” (V.2:143)

4488. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: While some people were offering prayer in the Qubā’ mosque, someone came and said, “Allāh has revealed to the Prophet ṣa Qur’anic instructions that you should face the Ka’bah [while offering Salāt (prayer)], so you, too, should face it.” Those people then turned towards the Ka’bah (in their prayer).

(15) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh ʿazza wa jall: “Verily! We have seen the turning of your (Muḥammad’s ṣa) face towards the heaven…” (V.2:144) 4489. Narrated Anas زا حفظ الرب: None remains of those who offered Salāt (prayer) facing both Qiblah (that is, Jerusalem and Makkah) except myself.

(16) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah: "And even if you were to bring to the people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians), all the Ayāt (proofs, evidences, verses, lessons, signs, revelations, etc.) they would not follow your Qiblah (prayer direction)...." (V.2:145)

4490. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: While some people were offering morning prayer at Quba’, a man came to them and said, “Some Qur’ānic verses have been revealed to Allah’s Messenger tonight and he has been ordered to face the Ka’bah at Makkah [in Ṣalāt (prayer)], so you, too, should turn your faces towards it.” At that moment their faces were towards Sham (i.e., Jerusalem), so they turned towards the Ka’bah (at Makkah).

(17) CHAPTER. “Those to whom We gave the Scripture (Jews and Christians) recognise him (Muhammad or the Ka’bah at Makkah) as they recognise their sons...” (V.2:146).

4491. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: While some people were offering morning prayer at Quba’ (mosque), someone came to them and said, “Tonight some Qur’ānic Verses have been revealed to the Prophet, and he has been ordered to face the Ka’bah (at Makkah) [during Ṣalāt (prayers)], so you, too, should turn your faces towards it.” At that time their faces were towards Sham (Jerusalem), so they turned towards the Ka’bah (at Makkah).
(18) CHAPTER. “For every nation there is a direction to which they face (in their prayers)...” (V.2:148)

4492. Narrated Al-Bara': We offered Salāt (prayer) along with the Prophet facing Bait-ul-Maqdis (Jerusalem) for sixteen or seventeen months. Then Allāh ordered him to turn his face towards the Qiblah (at Makkah).

(19) CHAPTER. “And from wheresoever you start forth (for prayers) turn your face in the direction of Al-Masjid-al-Ḥarām (at Makkah)...” (V.2:149)

4493. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: While some people were at Qubā' (offering) morning prayer, a man came to them and said, “Last night Qurā’nic Verses have been revealed whereby the Prophet has been ordered to face the Ka’bah (at Makkah), so you, too, should face it.” So they, keeping their postures, turned towards the Ka’bah. Formerly the people were facing Sham (Jerusalem).

(20) CHAPTER. “And from wheresoever you start forth (for prayers), turn your face in the direction of Al-Masjid-al-Ḥarām (at Makkah), and wheresoever you are, turn your face towards it [when you pray]...” (V.2:150)

4494. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: While some people were offering the morning prayer at Qubā’ someone came to them and said, “Some Qur’ānic Verses have been revealed to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ tonight, and he has been ordered to face the Ka’bah (at Makkah) so you, too, should turn your faces towards it.” Their faces were then towards Sham (Jerusalem), so they turned towards the Qiblah (i.e., Ka’bah at Makkah).

(21) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh ﷺ

“Verily! Aş-Şafā and Al-Marwa (two mountains in Makkah) are of the Symbols of Allāh…” (V.2:158)

4495. Narrated ‘Urwa: I said to ‘Āishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ, and I was at that time a young boy, “How do you interpret the Statement of Allāh ﷺ: ‘Verily, As-Safa and Al-Marwa (two mountains in Makkah) are of the Symbols of Allāh.’”? Ibarak and ‘Umra:

‘Verily, Aş-Şafā and Al-Marwa (two mountains in Makkah) are of the Symbols of Allāh. So, it is not a sin on him who performs Hajj or ‘Umra (pilgrimage) of the House (the Ka’bah at Makkah) to perform the going (Tawāf) between them. (As-Şafā and Al-Marwa).’ In my opinion it is not sinful for one not to ambulate (Tawāf) between them.” ‘Āishah said, “Your interpretation is wrong, for as you say, the Verse should have been: ‘So it is not a sin on him who performs the Hajj or ‘Umra to the House, not to perform the going (Tawāf) between them.’ This Verse was revealed in connection with the Ansār who (during the pre-Islāmic period) used to visit Manāt (i.e., an idol) after assuming their
Ihram, and it was situated near Qudaïd (i.e., a place near Makkah), and they used to regard it sinful to ambulate between As-Šafâ and Al-Marwa, after embracing Islâm. When Islâm came (i.e., after they embraced Islam), they asked Allah’s Messenger about it, whereupon Allah revealed:-

‘Verily! As-Šafâ and Al-Marwa (two mountains in Makkah) are of the Symbols of Allâh. So, it is not a sin on him who performs Hajj or 'Umra (pilgrimage) of the House (the Ka’bah at Makkah) to perform the going (Tawâf) between them (As-Šafâ and Al-Marwa)…’” (V.2:158)

4496. Narrated ‘Ašîm bin Sulaimân: I asked Anas bin Mâlik about As-Šafâ and Al-Marwa. Anas replied, “We used to consider (going around) them a custom of the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance, so when Islâm came, we gave up going around them. Then Allah revealed: ‘Verily, As-Šafâ and Al-Marwa (two mountains at Makkah) are of the Symbols of Allâh. So, it is not a sin on him who perform Hajj or 'Umra (pilgrimage) of the House (the Ka’bah at Makkah)…”” (V.2:158)

(22) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh

“And of mankind are some who take (for worship) others besides Allâh as rivals (to Allâh). They love them as they love Allâh…”” (V.2:165)

Andâd is a plural of Nidd and it means opponent, or rival, etc.

4497. Narrated ‘Abdullâh: The وكانَتْ مَنَةٌ مَّثَلُ اللهِ عَنْهُ أَبَيَّةٌ} (V.2:165)

(1) (H. 4495) Because at As-Šafâ and Al-Marwa, there were placed two idols belonging to other nations.
Prophet ﷺ said, one statement and I said another. The Prophet ﷺ said “Whoever dies while still invoking anything other than Allāh as a rival to Allāh, will enter Hell (Fire).” And I said, “Whoever dies without invoking anything as a rival to Allāh, will enter Paradise.”

(23) CHAPTER. “O you who believe! Al-Qīsās (the Law of Equality in punishment) is prescribed for you…” (V.2:178)

4498. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: "Al-Qīsās (the Law of Equality in punishment) was prescribed for the children of Isrāēl, but the Diya (i.e., blood-money) was not ordained for them. So Allāh said to this nation (i.e., Muslims):

‘O you who believe! Al-Qīsās (the Law of Equality in punishment) is prescribed for you in cases of murder: the free for the free, the slave for the slave, and the female for the female. But if the killer is forgiven by the brother (or the relatives) of the killed against blood-money, then adhering to it with fairness and payment of the blood-money to the heir should be made in fairness. This is an alleviation and a mercy from your Lord. So, after this whoever trangresses the limits (i.e., kills the killer after taking the blood-money) he shall have a painful torment.” (V.2:178) 4499. Narrated Anas: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The prescribed Law of Allāh is the equality in punishment (i.e., Al-

\[\text{Qisās).}^{\text{\textsuperscript{9}}}\] (In cases of murders, etc.)

4500. Narrated Anas that his aunt, Ar-Rubai', broke an incisor tooth of a girl. My aunt's family requested the girl's relatives for forgiveness, but they refused; then they proposed a compensation, but they refused. Then they went to Allah's Messenger and refused everything except Al-Qisās (i.e., equality in punishment). So Allah's Messenger passed the judgement of Al-Qisās. Anas bin An-Nadr said, "O Allah's Messenger! Will the incisor tooth of Ar-Rubai' be broken? No, by Him Who sent you with the Truth, her incisor tooth will not be broken." Allah's Messenger said, "O Anas! The prescribed Law of Allah is equality in punishment (i.e., Al-Qisās)."

Thereupon those people became satisfied and forgave her. Allah's Messenger said, "Among Allah's worshippers there are some who, if they took Allah's Oath (for something), Allah fulfils their oaths."

(24) CHAPTER. "O you who believe! Observing As-Saum (the fasting) is prescribed for you as it was prescribed for those before you that you may become Al-Muttaqūn.\(^{(1)}\) (V.2:183).

4501. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: Fasting was observed on the day of 'Ashūra' (i.e., 10th of Muḥarram) by the people of the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance. But when (the order of observing compulsory fasting in) the month of Ramadan was revealed, the Prophet said, "It is up to one to observe fast on it (i.e., the day of 'Ashūra') or not.”

4502. Narrated 'Aishah: The people used to fast on the day of 'Ashūra' before the fasting in Ramadān was prescribed, but when (the order of observing compulsory fasting in) Ramadān was revealed, it was up to one to fast on it (i.e., 'Ashūra') or not.

4503. Narrated 'Abdullāh that Al-Ash'ath entered upon him while he was eating. Al-Ash'ath said, “Today is 'Ashūra.'” I said (to him), “Fasting had been observed (on such a day) before (the order of compulsory fasting in) Ramadān was revealed. But when (the order of fasting in) Ramadān was revealed, observing fasting (on 'Ashūra') was given up, so come and eat.”

4504. Narrated 'Aishah: During the Pre-Islāmic Period of Ignorance, the Quraysh used to observe fasting on the day of 'Ashūra', and the Prophet used himself to observe fast on it too. But when he came to Al-Madīnah, he observed fasting on that day and ordered the Muslims to observe fasting on it. When (the order of observing compulsory fasting in) Ramadān was revealed, fasting in Ramadān became an obligation, and fasting on 'Ashūra' was given up, and whoever wished to fast (on it) did so, and whoever did not wish to observe fast on it, did not fast.

(25) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

"[Observing Saum (fasts)] for a fixed number of days but if any of you is ill, or on a journey, the same number (should be made up) from other days. And as for those who can fast with difficulty (e.g., an old man, etc.) they have (a choice, either to fast or) to feed a Miskin (poor person) (for every day). But whoever does good of his own accord, it is better for him. And that you fast is better for you, if only you know.” (V.2:184)

[Note: The provision of this Verse has been abrogated by the next Verse (V.2:185) with few exceptions (i.e., very old person, pregnancy, etc.). ‘Atã’ said, “One may stop fasting if one is suffering from any kind of disease, as Allâh says concerning nursing or pregnant women.” Al-Hasan and Ibrâhim said, “If they are afraid of harming themselves or their babies, they can give up fasting for the time being and make up for the missed fasts later on. If an old man has no strength to observe fast (he can feed a poor person daily). When Anas bin Mâlik became old, he used to provide a poor person with bread and meat everyday while he gave up fasting during the last one or two years of his life.”

4505. Narrated ‘Atã’ that he heard Ibn ‘Abbâs: “And for those who can fast with difficulty (e.g., an old man, etc.) they have (a choice either to fast, or) to feed a Miskin (poor person) (for every day).” (V.2:184) Ibn ‘Abbâs said, “This Verse is not abrogated, but it is meant for old men and old women who do not have strength to fast, so they should feed one poor person for each day of fasting (instead of fasting).”
(26) CHAPTER. “So whoever of you sights (the crescent on the first night of) the month (of Ramadân, i.e., is present at his home), he must observe Saum (fast) that month…” (V.2:185)

4506. Narrated Nāfī‘: Ibn ‘Umar recited, “They have (a choice, either to fast or) to feed a Miskīn (poor person) for every day…” and added, “This Verse is abrogated.” (See H. 4505 and its Chap. 25)

4507. Narrated Salama: When the Divine Revelation: “For those who can fast, with difficulty (e.g., an old man etc.) they have (a choice either to fast, or) to feed a poor for every day…” (V.2:184) was revealed, it was permissible for one to give a ransom and give up fasting, till the Verse succeeding it was revealed and abrogated it. (See H. 4505 and its Chap. 25)

(27) CHAPTER. “It is made lawful for you to have sexual relation with your wives on the night of Aṣ-Ṣaum (the fasts) ... (till) ... and seek that which Allāh has ordained for you (offspring)…” (V.2:187)

4508. Narrated Al-Barā’: When the order of compulsory fasting of Ramadân was revealed, the people did not have sexual relations with their wives for the whole month of Ramadân, but some men cheated themselves (by violating that restriction). So...
Allāh revealed: “...Allāh knows that you used to deceive yourselves, so He turned to you (accepted your repentance) and forgave you...” (V.2:187)

(28) CHAPTER. “...And eat and drink until the white thread (light) of dawn appears to you distinct from the black thread (darkness of the night)...” (V.2:187)

4509. Narrated Ash-Sha‘bī: ‘Adī took a white rope (or thread) and a black one, and when some part of the night had passed, he looked at them but he could not distinguish one from the other. The next morning he said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I put (a white thread and a black thread) underneath my pillow.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Then your pillow is too wide if the white thread (light of dawn) and the black thread (darkness of the night) are underneath your pillow!”(1)

4510. Narrated ‘Adī bin Ḥātim: I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! What is the meaning of the ‘white thread distinct from the black thread?’ Are these two threads?” He said, “You have too wide back of your neck (i.e., are not intelligent) if you watch the two threads.” He then added, “No, it is

(1) (H. 4509) The man thought that actual white and black threads were meant; he did not realize that it was the whiteness of the dawn and the darkness of the night.
the darkness of the night and the whiteness of the day.”

4511. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: The Verse:

“...And eat and drink until the white thread appears to you distinct from the black thread...” was revealed, but ‘of dawn’ was not revealed (along with it). So some men, when intending to observe Saum (fast), used to tie their legs, one with white thread and the other with black thread and would keep on eating till they could distinguish one thread from the other. Then Allâh revealed ‘... of dawn,’ whereupon they understood that it meant the night and the day.

(29) CHAPTER. “...It is not Al-Birr (piety, righteousness) that you enter the houses from the back, but Al-Birr (is the quality of the one) who fears Allâh.” (V.2:189)

4512. Narrated Al-Barâ’i: In the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance, when the people assumed Ihram, they would enter their houses from the back. So Allâh revealed:

“...And it is not Al-Birr (piety, righteousness) that you enter houses from the back, but Al-Birr (is quality of the one) who fears Allâh. So enter houses through their proper doors...” (V.2:189)

(30) CHAPTER. Allâh’s Statement:

“And fight them until there is no more Fitnah (disbelief and worshipping of others along with Allāh) and (all and every kind of) worship is for Allāh (Alone). But if they cease, let there be no transgression except against Az-Zālimūn (the polytheists and wrong-doers).” (V.2:193)

4513.Narrated Nāfi': During the Fitnah (trial and affliction) of Ibn Az-Zubair, two men came to Ibn ‘Umar and said, “The people are lost, and you are the son of ‘Umar, and the Companion of the Prophet ﷺ, so what forbids you from coming out?” He said, “What forbids me is that Allāh has prohibited the shedding of my brother’s blood.” They both said, “Didn’t Allāh say, ‘And fight them until there is no more Fitnah?’” He said, “We fought until there was no more Fitnah and the worship became for Allāh (Alone), while you want to fight until there is Fitnah, and until the worship becomes for other than Allāh.”

4514. Narrated Nāfi' (through another group of subnarrators): A man came to Ibn ‘Umar and said, “O Abū ‘Abdur-Rahmān! What made you perform Hajj in one year and ‘Umra in another year and leave the Jihād for Allāh’s Cause, though you know how much Allāh recommends it?” Ibn ‘Umar replied, “O son of my brother! Islām is founded on five principles (and they are): (1) To believe in Allāh and His Messenger ﷺ, (2) To offer the five compulsory Salāt (prayers), (3) To observe fasts in the month of Ramadan, (4) To pay the Zakāt, (5) To perform the Hajj [pilgrimage to the House (of Allāh)].” The man said, “O Abū ‘Abdur-Rahmān! Won’t you listen to what Allāh has mentioned in His Book: ‘And if two parties (or groups) among 4515. The man said, "What is your opinion about 'Uthmān and 'Aли?" Ibn 'Umar said, "As for 'Uthmān, it seems that Allāh has forgiven him, but you people dislike that he should be forgiven. And as for 'Aли, he is the cousin of Allāh's Messenger and his son-in-law." Then he pointed with his hand and said, "That is his house which you see."(1)

(31) CHAPTER. Allāh's Statement: "And spend in the Cause of Allāh (i.e., Jihād of all kinds), and do not throw yourselves into destruction (by not spending your wealth in the Cause of Allāh), and do good. Truly, Allāh loves Al-Muḥsinūn (the good-doers)."
(V.2:195)

4516. Narrated Abū Wā'il: Ḥudhaifa said, "The Verse:
'And spend in the Cause of Allāh (i.e., Jihād of all kinds) and do not throw yourselves into destruction...'
(V.2:195) was revealed concerning spending in Allāh’s Cause (i.e., Jihād).”

(32) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

“And whosoever of you is ill or has an ailment in his scalp…” (V.2:196)

4517. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Ma‘qīl: I sat with Ka‘b bin ‘Ujra in this mosque, i.e., Kūfā mosque, and asked him about the meaning of: “...Pay a Fidya (ransom) of either observing Saum (fast) (three days) or giving Sadaqa (charity — feeding six poor persons) or offering sacrifice (one sheep)…”
(V.2:196)

He said, “I was taken to the Prophet ﷺ while lice were falling on my face. The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘I did not think that your trouble reached to such an extent. Can you afford to slaughter a sheep (as a ransom for shaving your head)?’ I said, ‘No.’ He said, ‘Then observe fast for three days, or feed six poor persons by giving half a ٍ$ã‘ of food for each and shave your head.’ So, the above Verse was revealed especially for me and generally for all of you.”

(33) CHAPTER. “…And whosoever performs the ‘Umra in the months of Ḥājī before (performing) the Ḥājī (i.e., Ḥājī At-Tamattû and Al-Qirān).” (V.2:196)

4518. Narrated ‘I’mrān bin Ḥuṣain رضي الله عنه: The Verse of Ḥājī-at-Tamattû was revealed in Allāh’s Book, so we performed it with Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and nothing was revealed in the Qur’ān to make it illegal, nor did the Prophet ﷺ prohibit it till he died. But the man (who regarded it illegal) just expressed what his own mind suggested.

(1) (H. 4516) To cease spending in Allāh’s Cause (i.e., Jihād) means to destroy oneself.
CHAPTER. "There is no sin on you if you seek the Bounty of your Lord (during pilgrimage by trading)...." (V.2:198)

4519. Narrated Ibn `Abbas: `Ukáz, Majanna and Dhul-Majáz were markets during the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance. They (i.e., Muslims) considered it a sin to trade there during the Hajj time (i.e., season), so this Verse was revealed: "...There is no sin on you if you seek the Bounty of your Lord (during pilgrimage by trading)...." (V.2:198)

(35) CHAPTER. "Then depart from the place whence all the people depart..." (V.2:199)

4520. Narrated `Aishah: The Quraish people and those who embraced their religion, used to stay at Muzdalifa and used to call themselves Al-Hums, while the rest of the Arabs used to stay at `Arafát. When Islam came, Allâh ordered His Prophet ﷺ to go to `Arafát and stay at it, and then pass on from there, and that is what is meant by the Statement of Allâh ﷻ:

"Then depart from the place whence all the people depart..." (V.2:199) 4521. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: A man can perform the Tawāf around the Ka'bah as long as he is not in the state of Ihram till he assumes the Ihram for Hajj. Then, if he rides and proceeds to ‘Arafāt, he should take a Hady (animal for sacrifice), either a camel, a cow or a sheep, whatever he can afford; but if he cannot afford it, he should observe fast for three days during the Hajj before the day of ‘Arafah, but if the third day of his fasting happens to be the day of ‘Arafah (i.e., 9th of Dhul-Hijja), then it is no sin on him (to observe fast on it). Then he should proceed to ‘Arafāt and stay there from the time of the ‘Asr prayer till darkness falls (sunset). Then they (the pilgrims) should proceed from ‘Arafāt, and when they have departed from it, they reach Jam‘ (i.e., Al-Muzdalifa) where they ask Allāh to help them to be righteous and dutiful to Him, and there they remember Allāh much and say Takbīr [i.e., Allāhu Akbar (Allāh is the Most Great)] and Tahālī (i.e., Lā ilāha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh)] repeatedly before dawn breaks. Then, after offering the morning (Fajr) prayer you should depart and proceed on (to Mina) for the people used to depart (from there at that time), and Allāh Ta‘ālā said:

“Then depart from the place whence all the people depart. And ask Allāh for His forgiveness. Truly, Allāh is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.” (V.2:199) Then you should go on doing so till you throw pebbles at the Jamrat (Al-‘Aqaba).

(36) CHAPTER. “And of them there are some who say: ‘Our Lord! Give us in this world that which is good and in the Hereafter that which is good...’” (V.2:201)

4522. Narrated Anas: The Prophet ﷺ used to say, “O Allāh! Our Lord!
Give us in this world that which is good and in the Hereafter that which is good and save us from the torment of the Fire.” (V.2:201)

(37) CHAPTER. “...Yet he is the most quarrelsome of the opponents.” (V.2:204)

4523. Narrated ‘Aisyah: The Prophet said, “The most hated man (person) to Allah is the one who is the most quarrelsome of the opponents.”

(38) CHAPTER. “Or think you that you will enter Paradise without such (trials) as came to those who passed away before you?” (V.2:214)

4524. Narrated Ibn Abü Mulaika: Ibn ‘Abbás recited: “(They were reprieved) until, when the Messengers gave up hope and thought that they were denied (by their people).” (12:110) reading ‘Kudhibu’ without doubling the sound ‘dh’, and that was what he understood of the Verse. Then he went on reciting: “... even the Messenger and those who believed along with him said, ‘When (will come) the Help of Allah?’ Yes! Certainly, the Help of Allah is near.” (V.2:214)
Then I met ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair and I mentioned that to him.

4525. He said: Aishah said, “Allah forbid! By Allah, Allah never promised His Messenger anything but he knew that it would certainly happen before he died. But trials were continuously presented before the Messengers till they were afraid that their followers would accuse them of telling lies. So I used to recite:

‘And thought that they were denied (by their people)...’ (V.12:110) reading ‘Kudh-dhiba’ with double ‘dh.’”

(39) CHAPTER. “Your wives are a tilth for you; so go to your tilth (have sexual relations with your wives in any manner as long as it is in the vagina and not in the anus) when or how you will…” (V.2:223)

4526. Narrated Näfi’: Whenever Ibn ‘Umar recited the Qur’an, he would not speak to anyone till he had finished his recitation. Once I held the Qur’an and he recited Sūrat Al-Baqarah from his memory and then stopped at a certain Verse and said, “Do you know in what connection this Verse was revealed?” I replied, “No.” He said, “It was revealed in such and such connection.”

4527. Ibn ‘Umar then resumed his recitation. Näfi’ added regarding the Verse:

“...So go to your tilth (have sexual relations with your wives in any manner as long as it is in the vagina and not in the anus) when or how you will…”

Ibn ‘Umar said, “It means one should...”

[Reference: Rājū: 3389] approach his wife in….\(^{(1)}\)

4528. Narrated Jābir: Jews used to say, “If one has sexual intercourse with his wife from the back, then she will deliver a squint-eyed child.” So this Verse was revealed:

“This your wives are a tilth for you; so go to your tilth (have sexual relations with your wives in any manner as long as it is in the vagina and not in the anus) when or how you will…” (V.2:223)

40 CHAPTER. “And when you have divorced women and they have fulfilled the term of their prescribed period, do not prevent them from marrying their (former) husbands…” (V.2:232)

4529. Narrated Al-Hasan: The sister of Ma'qu'il bin Yasār was divorced by her husband who left her till she had fulfilled her term of ‘Idda (i.e., the period which should elapse before she can remarry) and then he wanted to remarry her but Ma'qu'il refused, so this Verse was revealed, “Do not prevent them from marrying their (former) husbands…” (V.2:232)

\(^{(1)}\) (H. 4527) Al-Bukhārī left a blank space here because he was not sure of what Ibn ‘Umar had said.
(41) CHAPTER. “And those of you who die and leave wives behind them, they (the wives) shall wait (as regards their marriage) for four months and ten days. Then when they have fulfilled their term, there is no sin on you if they (the wives) dispose of themselves in a just and honourable manner (i.e., they can marry). And Allâh is Well-Acquainted with what you do.” (V.2:234)

4530. Narrated Ibn Az-Zubâir: I said to ʿUthmân bin ʿAffân (while he was collecting the Qurʾân) regarding the Verse:

“And those of you who die and leave behind wives …” (V.2:240) — “This Verse was abrogated by another Verse. So why should you write it? (Or leave it in the Qurʾân?)” ʿUthmân said, “O son of my brother! I will not shift anything of it from its place.”

4531. Narrated Mujâhid (regarding the Verse):

“And those of you who die and leave wives behind them…” (V.2:234)

The widow, according to this Verse, was to spend this period of waiting with her husband’s family, so Allâh revealed:

“And those of you who die and leave behind wives (i.e., widows) should bequeath for their wives a year’s maintenance and residence without turning them out, but if they (wives) leave, there is no sin on you for that which they do with themselves, provided it is honourable (e.g. lawful marriage)…” (V.2:240)

So Allâh entitled the widow to be bequeathed extra maintenance for seven months and twenty nights, and that is the completion of one year. If she wished she could stay (in her husband’s home) according to the will, and she could leave it if she wished, as Allâh says:

"...Without turning them out, but if they (wives) leave, there is no sin on you..."

So the 'Idda (i.e., four months ten days as it) is obligatory for her.

‘Aţâ said: Ibn ‘Abbâs said, “This Verse, i.e., the Statement of Allâh تعالى:

‘...Without turning them out...’ cancelled the obligation of staying for the waiting period in her dead husband’s house, and she can complete this period wherever she likes.” ‘Aţâ said, “If she wished, she could complete her ‘Idda by staying in her dead husband’s residence according to the will or leave it according to Allâh’s Statement:

‘...There is no sin on you for that which they do with themselves...’” ‘Aţâ added, “Later the regulations of inheritance came and abrogated the order of the dwelling of the widow (in her dead husband’s house), so she could complete the ‘Idda wherever she likes. And it was no longer necessary to provide her with a residence. Ibn ‘Abbâs said, “This Verse abrogated her (i.e., widow’s) dwelling in her dead husband’s house and she could complete the ‘Idda (i.e., four months and ten days) wherever she liked, as Allâh’s Statement says:

‘...Without turning them out...’"

4532. Narrated Muḥammad bin Sirîn: I sat in a gathering in which the chiefs of the Anṣâr were present, and ‘Abdūr-Rahmān bin Abû Lailâ was amongst them. I mentioned the narration of ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Utba regarding the question of Subā‘î bint Al-Ḥârîth. ‘Abdūr-Rahmān said, “But ‘Abdullâh’s uncle used not to say so.” I said, “I am too brave if I tell a lie concerning a person who is now in Al-Kûfa,” I raised my voice. Then I went out and met Mâlik bin ‘Āmir or Mālik bin ‘Aūf, and said, “What was the verdict of Ibn Mas‘ūd about the pregnant widow whose husband had died?” He replied, “Ibn Mas‘ūd said, ‘Why do you impose on her the hard order and don't let her make use of the leave? The shorter Sūrah of women (i.e. Sūrat At-Ṭalāq) was revealed after the longer Sūrah (i.e., Sūrat Al-Baqara).’” (i.e., her ’Idda is up till she delivers.)

(42) CHAPTER. “Guard strictly the (five obligatory) Aṣ-Ṣalawāt (the prayers), especially the middle Salāt (i.e., the best prayer — ‘Aṣr)…” (V.2:238)

4533. Narrated ‘Ali: On the day of Al-Khandaq (the battle of the Trench). The Prophet said, “They (i.e., Mushrikūn) prevented us from offering the middle Salāt (the best — ‘Aṣr prayer) till the sun had set. May Allāh fill their graves, their houses (or their bellies) with fire.”
(43) CHAPTER. “...And stand before Allâh with obedience [and do not speak to others during the Šalât (prayers)],” (V. 2: 238)

Narrated Zaid bin Arqam: We used to speak while in Šalât (prayer). One of us used to speak to his brother (while in Šalât) about his need, till the Verse was revealed:

“Guard strictly the (five obligatory) As-Salawât (the prayers), especially the middle Šalât (i.e., the best – 'Asr). And stand before Allâh with obedience [and not speak to others during the Šalât (prayers)].” (V. 2: 238)

Then we were ordered not to speak in the Šalât.

(44) CHAPTER. Allâh’s Statement: “If you fear (an enemy), perform Šalât (prayer) on foot or riding. And when you are in safety...” (V. 2: 239)
4535. Narrated Nāfi': Whenever 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar was asked about Salāt-al-Khauf (i.e., Fear Prayer) he said, "The Imām comes forward with a group of people and leads them in a one Rak'a Salāt (prayer) while another group from them who has not offered Salāt (prayer) yet, stay between the offering Salāt (prayer) group and the enemy. When those who are with the Imām have finished their one-Rak'a, they retreat and take the positions of those who have not offered Salāt (prayer) but they will not finish their Salāt (prayer) with Taslim. Those who have not offered Salāt (prayer) come forward to offer a Rak'a with the Imām (while the first group covers them from the enemy). Then the Imām, having offered two Rak'a, finishes his Salāt (prayer). Then each member of the two groups offer the second Rak'a alone after the Imām has finished his Salāt (prayer). Thus each one of the two groups will have offered two Rak'a. But if the fear is too great, they can offer Salāt (prayer) standing on their feet or riding on their mounts, facing the Qiblah or not."

Nāfi added: I do not think that 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar narrated this except from Allāh's Messenger ﷺ.

[See Vol. 5, Hadīth No. 4129 and 4131 for details about Salāt-al-Khauf]

(45) CHAPTER. "And those of you who die and leave behind wives..." (V.2:240)
4536. Narrated Ibn Az-Zubair: I said to ‘Uthmān, “This Verse which is in Sūrat Al-Baqara:

“And those of you who die and leave behind wives... (up to)... without turning them out...” has been abrogated by another Verse. Why then do you write it (in the Qur’ān)?” ‘Uthmān said, “Leave it (where it is), O the son of my brother, for I will not shift anything of it (i.e., the Qur’ān) from its original position.”

(46) CHAPTER. “And (remember) when Ibrāhīm (Abraham) said: My Lord! Show me how You give life to the dead...” (V.2:260)

4537. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “We have more right to be in doubt than Ibrāhīm (Abraham) when he said, ‘My Lord! Show me how You give life to the dead.’ He (Allāh) said, ‘Do you not believe?’ He (Ibrāhīm) said, ‘Yes (I believe), but to be stronger in Faith.’” (V.2:260)

(47) CHAPTER. Allāh’s Statement: “Would any of you wish to have a garden with date-palms and vines ... (till) ... that you may give thought.” (V.2:266)
4538. Narrated ‘Ubaid bin ‘Umar: Once ‘Umar (bin Al-Khattāb) said to the Companions of the Prophet, “What do you think about this Verse:

‘Would any of you wish to have a garden?”

They replied, “Allāh knows better.” ‘Umar became angry and said, “Either say that you know or say that you do not know!” On that Ibn ‘Abbās said, “O chief of the believers! I have something in my mind to say about it.” ‘Umar said, “O son of my brother! Say, and do not underestimate yourself.” Ibn ‘Abbās said, “In this Verse there has been put forward an example for deeds.” ‘Umar said, “What kind of deeds?” Ibn ‘Abbās said, “For deeds.” ‘Umar said, “This is an example for a rich man who does good deeds out of obedience to Allāh and then Allāh sends him Satan whereupon he commits sins till all his good deeds are lost.”

4539. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The poor person is not the one for whom a date-fruit or two, or a morsel or two (of food) is sufficient but the poor person is he who does not (beg or) ask the people (for something) or show his poverty at all. Recite if you wish, (Allāh's Statement):

‘...They do not beg of people at all...’”
(V. 2:273)

4540. Narrated ‘Aishah ٌ: When the Verses of Sūrat Al-Baqarah regarding Ribā (usury), were revealed, Allāh's Messenger ﷺ recited them before the people and then he prohibited the trade of alcoholic liquors.

4541. Narrated ‘Aishah ٌ: When the last Verses of Sūrat Al-Baqarah were revealed, Allāh's Messenger ﷺ went out and recited them in the mosque and prohibited the trade of alcoholic liquors.

(1) (Ch. 49) Ribā: See the glossary.
(51) CHAPTER. “...Then take a notice of war from Allâh and His Messenger...”
(V.2:279)

4542. Narrated ‘Aishah: When the last Verses of Sûrat Al-Baqarah were revealed, the Prophet read them in the mosque and prohibited the trade of alcoholic liquors.

(52) CHAPTER. “And if the debtor is in a hard time (has no money), then grant him time till it is easy for him to repay...”
(V.2:280)

4543. Narrated ‘Aishah: When the last Verses of Sûrat Al-Baqarah were revealed, Allâh’s Messenger stood up and recited them before us and then prohibited the trade of alcoholic liquors.

(53) CHAPTER. “And be afraid of the Day when you shall be brought back to Allâh...”
(V.2:281)

4544. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: The last Verse (in the Qur’ân) revealed to the Prophet was the Verse dealing with Ribâ (usury).
(54) CHAPTER. “And whether you disclose what is in your ownselves or conceal it...”
(V.2:284)
4545. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar:
This Verse:
“And whether you disclose what is in your ownselves or conceal it...” (V.2:284) was abrogated.

(55) CHAPTER. “The Messenger (Muḥammad ﷺ) believes in what has been sent down to him from his Lord...”
(V.2:285)

4546. Narrated Marwān Al-Asghar: A man from the Companions of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, who I think was Ibn ‘Umar said, “The Verse:
‘And whether you disclose what is in your ownselves or conceal it...’ was abrogated by the Verse following it.”
In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

(Explanation of some Arabic words not translated) 4547. Narrated 'Aishah ﺔﺴﻰ ﺎﷲ ﻋﻨﺎ بها:

Allah’s Messenger ﷺ recited the Verse:

“It is He Who has sent down to you (Muhammad ﷺ) the Book (this Qur’an). In it are Verses that are entirely clear, they are the foundation of the Book [and those are the Verses of Al-Ahkām (commandments), Al-Farā’id (obligatory duties) and Al-Hudūd (laws for the punishment of thieves, adulterers etc.)]; and others not entirely clear. So, as for those in whose hearts there is a deviation (from the truth) they follow that which is not entirely clear thereof, seeking Al-Fitnah (polytheism and trials) and seeking for its hidden meanings; but none knows its hidden meanings save Allah. And those who are firmly grounded in knowledge say: ‘We believe in it; the whole of it (clear and unclear Verses) are from our Lord.’ And none receive admonition except men of understanding.” (V.3:7)

Then Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If you see those who follow thereof that is not entirely clear, then they are those whom Allah has named [as having deviation (from the truth)] So beware of them.”

(2) CHAPTER. “...And I seek refuge with You (Allah) for her and her offspring from Shaitân (Satan), the outcast.” (V.3:36)

4548. Narrated Sa’id bin Al-Músaiyab: Abū Hurairah said, “The Prophet said, ‘No child is born but that, Shaitân (Satan) touches it when it is born, whereupon it starts crying loudly because of being touched by Shaitân, except Mary and her son.’” Abū Hurairah then said, “Recite, if you wish:

‘...And I seek refuge with You (Allah) for her and her offspring from Shaitân, the outcast.’” (V.3:36)

(3) CHAPTER. “Verily, those who purchase a small gain at the cost of Allah’s Covenant and their oaths, they shall have no portion in the Hereafter (Paradise) ... (till) ... and they shall have a painful torment.” (V.3:77)

4549, 4550. Narrated Abū Wâ’il: ‘Abdullâh bin Mas‘ûd said, “Allah’s Messenger said, ‘Whoever takes an oath when asked to do so, in which he may deprive a Muslim of his property unlawfully, will meet Allah, Who will be angry with him.’ So Allah revealed in confirmation of this statement:

‘Verily, those who purchase a small gain at the cost of Allah’s Covenant and their oaths, they shall have no portion in the Hereafter...’” (V.3:77)
The narrator added: Then Al-Ash'ath bin Qais came and said, “What is Abū 'Abdur-Rahmān narrating to you?” We replied, “Such and such.” Al-Ash'ath said, “This Verse was revealed in my connection. I had a well in the land of my cousin (and he denied my possessing it). On that the Prophet was told me, ‘Either you bring forward a proof or he (i.e., your cousin) takes an oath (to confirm his claim).’ I said, ‘I am sure he would take a (false) oath, O Allāh’s Messenger.’ He said, ‘If somebody takes an oath when asked to do so through which he may deprive a Muslim of his property unlawfully and he is a liar in his oath, he will meet Allāh Who will be angry with him.’”

4551. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Abū ’Aṣfa: A man displayed some merchandise in the market and in order to cheat a man from the Muslims, took an oath that he had been offered a certain price for it, while in fact he had not. So, then was revealed:

“Verily, those who purchase a small gain at the cost of Allāh’s Covenant…” (V.3:77)

4552. Narrated Ibn Abū Mulaika: Two women were stitching shoes in a house or a room. Then one of them came out with an awl driven into her hand, and she sued the other for it. The case was brought before Ibn ‘Abbas. Ibn ‘Abbās said, ‘Allāh’s Messenger said, ‘If people were to be given what they claim (without proving their claim) the life and property of the nation would be lost.’
Will you remind her (i.e., the defendant), of Allah and recite before her:

'Verily, those who purchase a small gain at the cost of Allah's Covenant and their oaths...' (V.3:77)

So, they reminded her and she confessed. Ibn 'Abbás then said, "The Prophet said, 'The oath is to be taken by the defendant (in the absence of any proof against him)."

(4) CHAPTER. "Say (O Muhammad), 'O people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians)! Come to a word that is just between us and you, that we worship none but Allah...'" (V.3:64)

4553. Narrated Ibn 'Abbás: Abū Sufyān narrated to me personally, saying, 'I set out during the truce that had been concluded between me and Allah's Messenger. While I was in Sham, a letter sent by the Prophet was brought to Heraclius. Dihya Al-Kalbī had brought and given it to the governor of Başrah, and the latter forwarded it to Heraclius. Heraclius said, 'Is there anyone from the people of this man who claims to be a Prophet?' The people replied, 'Yes.' So, I along with some of Quraishī men, were called and we entered upon Heraclius, and we were seated in front of him. Then he said, 'Who amongst you is closely related to the man who claims to be a Prophet?' I replied, 'I am the nearest relative to him.' So they made me sit in front of him and made my companions sit behind me. Then he called upon his translator and said (to him), 'Tell them (i.e., Abū Sufyān's companions) that I am going to ask him (i.e., Abū Sufyān) regarding that man who claims to be a Prophet. So, if he tell me a lie, they should contradict him (instantly). By Allâh! Had I not been afraid that my companions would consider me a liar, I would have told lies. Heraclius then said to his translator, ‘Ask him: What is his (i.e., the Prophet’s) family status amongst you?’ I said, ‘He belongs to a noble family amongst us.’ Heraclius said, ‘Was any of his ancestors a king?’ I said, ‘No.’ He said, ‘Did you ever accuse him of telling lies before his saying what he has said?’ I said, ‘No’. He said, ‘Do the nobles follow him or the poor people?’ I said, ‘It is the poor who follow him.’ He said, ‘Is the number of his followers increasing or decreasing?’ I said, ‘They are increasing.’ He said, ‘Does anyone renounce his religion (i.e., Islam) after embracing it, being displeased with it?’ I said, ‘No.’ He said, ‘Have you ever had a war with him?’ I replied, ‘Yes.’ He said, ‘What was the outcome of the battles?’ I said, ‘The fighting between us was undecided and victory was shared by him and us by turns. He inflicts casualties upon us and we inflict casualties upon him.’ He said, ‘Did he ever betray?’ I said ‘No, but now we are away from him in this truce and we do not know what he will do in it.’” Abû Sufyân added, “By Allâh, I was not able to insert in my speech a word (against him) except that. Heraclius said, ‘Did anybody else (amongst you) ever claimed the same (i.e., Islam) before him?’ I said, ‘No.’ Then Heraclius told his translator to tell me (i.e., Abû Sufyân), ‘I asked you about his family status amongst you, and you told me that he comes from a noble family amongst you. Verily, all Messengers come from the noblest family among their people. Then I asked you whether any of his ancestors was a king, and you denied that. Thereupon I thought that had one of his ancestors been a king, I would have said that he (i.e., Muḥammad ﷺ) was seeking to rule the kingdom of his ancestors. Then I asked you regarding his followers, whether they were the noble or the poor among the people, and you said that they were only the poor (who follow him). In fact, such are the followers of the Messengers. Then I asked you whether you have ever accused him of telling lies before he said what he said, and your reply was in the negative. Therefore, I took, for granted that a man who did not tell a lie about others, could never tell a lie about Allāh. Then I asked you whether anyone of his followers had renounced his religion (i.e., Islām) after embracing it, being displeased with it, and you denied that. And such is Faith, when its delight enters the hearts and mixes with them completely. Then I asked you whether his followers were increasing or decreasing. You claimed that they were increasing. That is the way of True Faith till it is complete in all respects. Then I asked you whether you had ever fought with him, and you claimed that you had fought with him and the battle between you and him was undecided and the victory was shared by you and him in turns; he inflicted casualties upon you, and you inflicted casualties upon them. Such is the case with the Messengers; they are put to trials and the final victory is for them. Then I asked you whether he had ever betrayed; you claimed that he had never betrayed. Indeed, Messengers never betray. Then I asked you whether anyone had said this statement before him; and you denied that. Thereupon I thought if somebody had said that statement before him, then I would have said that he was but a man copying some sayings said before him.” Abū Saʿfīyān said, “Heraclius then asked me, ‘What does he order you to do?' I said, 'He orders us (to offer) Salāt (prayers) and (to pay) Zakāt and to keep good relationship with the kith and kin and to be chaste.' Then Heraclius said, 'If whatever you have said is true, he is really a Prophet, and I knew that he (i.e., the Prophet ﷺ) was going to appear, but I never thought that he would be from amongst you. If I were certain that I can reach him, I would like to meet him and if I were with him, I would wash his feet; and his kingdom will expand (surely) to what is under my feet.' Then Heraclius asked for the letter of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and read it wherein was written:

In the Name of Allāh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. (This letter is) from Muḥammad ﷺ the Messenger of Allāh, to Heraclius, the ruler of Byzantine. Peace be upon him, who follows the Right Path. Then after, I invite you to Islām, and if you embrace Islām you will be safe (will be saved from Allāh’s punishment); embrace Islām, and Allāh will double your reward, but if you reject this invitation of Islām, you will be committing a sin (by misleading your) Arisīyīn (peasants). And (I recite to you Allāh’s Statement):

‘O people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians)! Come to a word that is just between us and you, that we worship none but Allāh... (till) ... bear witness that we are Muslims.’ (V.3:64) When Heraclius finished reading the letter, voices grew louder near him and there was a great hue and cry, and we were ordered to go out.” Abū Sufyān added, “While coming out, I said to my companions, ‘The matter of Ibn Abū Kabsha (1) (i.e., Muḥammad ﷺ) has become so prominent that even the king of

(1) (H. 4553) Abū Kabsha was not the father of the Prophet ﷺ but it was a mockery done by Abū Sufyān out of hostility against the Prophet ﷺ.
Banu Al-Asfar is afraid of him.’ So I continued to believe that Allah’s Messenger would be victorious, till Allah made me embrace Islam.’ Az-Zuhri said, ‘Heraclius then invited all the chiefs of the Byzantine and got them assembled in his house and said, ‘O group of Byzantine! Do you wish to have a permanent success and guidance and that your kingdom should remain with you?’ (Immediately after hearing that), they rushed towards the gate like onagers, but they found them closed. Heraclius then said, ‘Bring them back to me.’ So he called them and said, ‘I just wanted to test the strength of your adherence to your religion. Now I have observed of you that which I like.’ Then the people fell in prostration before him and became pleased with him.”

(5) CHAPTER. “By no means shall you attain Al-Birr (piety, righteousness; it means here Allah’s Reward, i.e., Paradise) unless you spend (in Allah’s Cause) of that which you love…” (V.3:92)

4554. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Out of all the Ansar, living in Al-Madina, Abū Talha had the largest number of (date-palm trees) gardens, and the most beloved of his property to him was Bāiruṭā’ garden which was facing the mosque (of the Prophet). Allah’s Messenger used to enter it and drink of its good water. When the Verse:

"By no means shall you attain Al-Birr (piety, righteousness); it means here Allah’s Reward i.e., Paradise), unless you spend (in Allah’s Cause) of that which you love…” (V.3:92) Abū Talhā got up and said, “O Allah’s Messenger, Allah says:-
‘By no means shall you attain Al-Birr unless you spend (in Allah’s Cause) of that which you love...’ (V.3:92) and the most beloved of my property to me is the Bairuha’ garden, so I give it as a charitable gift in Allah’s Cause and hope to receive its reward from Allah. O Allah’s Messenger! Dispose it of (i.e., utilize it) in the way Allah orders you (to dispose it of).’ Allah Messenger said, “Bravo! That is a fruitful property! That is a fruitful property! I have heard what you have said and I think it would be proper if you distribute that (garden) amongst your relatives.” Then Abū Talha distributed that garden amongst his relatives and his cousins. Narrated Yahyâ bin Yaḥyâ: I learnt from Mālik, ‘... a fruitful property.’ (See H. 1461)

4555. Narrated Anas: Abū Ṭalḥa distributed the garden between Hassan and Ubayy, but he did not give me anything thereof, although I was a nearer relative to him.

(6) CHAPTER. “Say (O Muḥammad): Bring here the Taurāt (Torah) and recite it, if you are truthful.” (V.3:93)

4556. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: The Jews brought to the Prophet a man and a woman from among them who... had committed illegal sexual intercourse. The Prophet ﷺ said to them, “How do you usually punish the one amongst you who has committed illegal sexual intercourse?” They replied, “We blacken their faces with coal and beat them.” He said, “Don’t you find the order of Ar-Rajm (i.e., stoning to death) in the Taurát (Torah)?” They replied, “We do not find anything in it.” ‘Abdullâh bin Salâm (after hearing this conversation) said to them, “You have told a lie! Bring here the Taurát and recite it if you are truthful.” (So the Jews brought the Taurát). And the religious teacher who was teaching it to them, put his hand over the Verse of Ar-Rajm and started reading what was written above and below the place hidden with his hand, but he did not read the Verse of Ar-Rajm. ‘Abdullâh bin Salâm removed his (i.e., the teacher’s) hand from the Verse of Ar-Rajm and said, “What is this?” So when the Jews saw that Verse, they said, “This is the Verse of Ar-Rajm.” So, the Prophet ﷺ ordered that both the adulterer and the adulteress be stoned to death, and they were stoned to death near the place where biers used to be placed near the mosque. I saw her companion (i.e., the adulterer) falling over her so as to protect her from the stones.

(7) CHAPTER. “You (true believers in Islamic Monotheism, and real followers of Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ and his Sunna) are the best of peoples ever raised up for mankind...” (V.3:110) mankind...” means, the best for the people, as you bring them with chains on their necks till they embrace Islam (thereby save them from the eternal punishment in Hell-fire and make them enter Paradise in the Hereafter).

(See H. 3010)

(8) CHAPTER. “When two parties from among you were about to lose heart…” (V.3:122)

4558. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنهما: The Verse :-

“When two parties from among you were about to lose heart, but Allah was their Wali (Supporter and Protector)…” (V.3:122) was revealed concerning us, and we were the two parties, i.e., Banū Ḥarītha and Banū Salama, and we do not wish (that it had not been revealed) or I would not have been pleased (if it had not been revealed), for Allah says: ‘... Allah was their Wali (Supporter and Protector).’

(9) CHAPTER. “Not for you (O Muḥammad ﷺ but for Allāh) is the decision…” (V.3:128)

4559. Narrated Sālim’s father that he heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ on raising his head from the bowing in the last Rak’a in the Fajr prayer, saying, “O Allah, curse such and such person and such and such person, and such and such person,” after saying, “Allah heard those who sent praises to Him, O our Lord! All the praises are for You.” So Allah revealed: “Not for you (O Muḥammad ﷺ) (but for Allāh) is the decision... (till) ... Verily, they are Zalimūn (polytheists, disobedients, and wrong-doers.)” (V.3:128)
4560. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Whenever Allāh’s Messenger intened to invoke evil upon somebody, or invoke good upon somebody, he used to invoke (Allāh) after bowing [in the Salāt (prayer)]. Sometimes after saying, “Allāh heard those who sent praises to Him, O our Lord! All the praises are for You,” he would say, “O Allāh! Save Al-Walīd bin Al-Walīd and Salama bin Hīshām, and ‘Ayyāsh bin Abū Rabī’ā. O Allāh! Inflict Your severe torture on Muḍar (tribe) and strike them with (famine) years like the years of Yūsuf [Joseph].” The Prophet used to say in some of his Fajr prayers, “O Allāh! Curse so-and-so and so-and-so,” naming some of the Arab tribes till Allāh revealed:—

“Not for you (O Muḥammad, but for Allāh) is the decision…” (V.3:128)

4561. Narrated Al-Barā’ bin ‘Āzib: The Prophet appointed ‘Abdullāh bin Jubair as the commander of the infantry (or the cavalry archers) during the battle of Uḥud. They returned defeated, and that is what is meant by:

"And the Messenger (Muḥammad ﷺ) was in your rear calling you back." None remained with the Prophet ﷺ then, but twelve men.

(11) CHAPTER. Allāh’s Statement: “...He sent down security for you. Slumber...” (V.3:154)

4562. Narrated Abū Talḥa: Slumber overtook us during the battle of Uḥud while we were in the front files. My sword would fall from my hand and I would pick it up, and again it would fall down and I would pick it up again.

(12) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

"Those who answered (the Call of) Allāh and the Messenger (Muḥammad ﷺ) after being wounded; for those of them who did good deeds and feared Allāh, there is a great reward.” (V.3:172)

(13) CHAPTER. His Statement:

"Those (i.e., believers) unto whom the people (hypocrites) said, 'Verily the people (Mushrikiūn) have gathered against you (a great army), therefore, fear them...’” (V.3:173)

4563. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: “Allāh (Alone) is Sufficient for us and He is..." the Best Disposer of affairs,” was said by Ibrâhîm (Abraham) when he was thrown into the fire; and it was said by Muhammad ﷺ when they (i.e., hypocrites) said, “Verily, the people (Mushrikûn) have gathered against you (a great army) therefore, fear them.” But it only increased their faith and they said: “Allâh (Alone) is Sufficient for us, and He is the Best Disposer of affairs (for us).’ (V.3:173)

4564. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The last statement of Ibrâhîm (Abraham) when he was thrown into the fire was:

“Allâh (Alone) is Sufficient for me and He is the Best Disposer of (my) affairs.”

(14) CHAPTER. “And let not those who covetously withhold of that which Allâh has bestowed on them of His Bounty …” (V.3:180)

4565. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Anyone whom Allâh has given wealth but he does not pay its Zakât, then, on the Day of Resurrection, his wealth will be presented to him in the shape of a bald-headed poisonous male snake with two poisonous glands(1) in its mouth and it will encircle itself round his neck and bite him over his cheeks and say, ‘I am your wealth; I am your treasure.’” Then the Prophet ﷺ recited this (following) Divine Verse: “And let not those who covetously withhold of that which Allâh has bestowed on them of His Bounty …” till the end of the Verse. (V.3:180). (See H. 1403)

(15) CHAPTER. “…And you shall certainly hear much that will grieve you from those who received the Scripture before you (Jews and Christians) and from those who ascribe partners to Allah…” (V.3:186)

4566.Narrated Usãma bin Zaid & L: Allah's Messenger rode a donkey, equipped with Qaifa Fadakiya (a thick cloth-covering made in Fadak) and I was riding behind him. He was going to pay a visit to Sa'd bin 'Ubãda in Banû Al-Hārith bin Al-Khazraj; and this incident happened before the battle of Badr. The Prophet passed by a gathering in which 'Abdullãh bin Ubayy bin Salûl was present, and that was before 'Abdullãh bin Ubayy embraced Islám. Behold, in that gathering there were mix-up people of different religions: there were Muslims, Mushrikûn, idol-worshippers, and Jews, and in that gathering 'Abdullãh bin Rawába was also present. When a cloud of dust raised by the donkey reached that gathering, 'Abdullãh bin Ubayy covered his nose with his garment and then said, "Do not cover us with dust." Then Allah’s Messenger greeted them and stopped and dismounted and invited them to Allah (i.e., to embrace Islám) and recited to them the Noble Qur'ân. On that, 'Abdullãh bin Ubayy bin Salûl said, "O man! There is nothing better than that what you say, if it is the truth, then do not trouble us with it in our gatherings. Return to your mount (or residence) and if somebody comes to you, relate (your tales) to him.” On that 'Abdullãh bin Rawáha said, “Yes, O Allah’s Messenger! Bring it (i.e., what you want to say) to us in our gatherings, for we love that.” So, the Muslims, Al-Mushrikūn and the Jews started abusing one another till they were on the point of fighting with one another. The Prophet ﷺ kept on quietening them till they became quiet, whereupon the Prophet ﷺ rode his animal (mount) and proceeded till he entered upon Sa’d bin ‘Ubāda. The Prophet ﷺ said to Sa’d, “Did you not hear what ‘Abū Ḥubāb said?” He meant ‘Abdullah bin Ubayy. “He said so-and-so.” On that Sa’d bin ‘Ubāda said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Excuse and forgive him, for by Him Who revealed the Book to you, Allah brought the Truth which was sent to you at the time when the people of this town (i.e., Al-Madina) had decided unanimously to crown him and tie a turban on his head (electing him as chief). But when Allah opposed that (decision) through the Truth which Allah gave to you, he (i.e., ‘Abdullāh bin Ubayy) was grieved with jealously, and that caused him to do what you have seen.” So, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ excused him, for the Prophet ﷺ and his Companions used to forgive Al-Mushrikūn and the people of Scripture as Allah had ordered them, and they used to put up with their mischief with patience. Allah ﷻ said:

“...And you shall certainly hear much that will grieve you from those who received the Scripture before you (Jews and Christians) and from those who ascribe partners to Allah...” (V.3:186) And Allah ﷻ also said:

“Many of the people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians) wish that if they could turn you away as disbelievers after you have believed, out of envy from their own selves...” (V.2:109)

So, the Prophet ﷺ used to stick to the principle of forgiveness for them as long as Allah ordered him to do so till Allah permitted fighting them. So, when Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ fought the battle of Badr, and Allāh killed the nobles of Quraish infidels through him, Ibn Ubayy bin Salūl and Al-Mushrikūn and idolaters who were with him, said: “This matter (i.e., Islām) has appeared (i.e., became victorious).” So they gave the Bai’a (pledge) (for embracing Islām) to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and became Muslims.

(16) CHAPTER “Think not that those who rejoice in what they have done (or brought about)…” (V.3:188)

4567. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī رضيـ الله عنه: During the lifetime of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ, some men among the hypocrites used to remain behind him (i.e., did not accompany him) when he went out for a Ḡazwa and they would be pleased to stay at home behind Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ. When Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ returned (from the battle) they would put forward (false) excuses and take oaths, wishing to be praised for what they had not done. So there was revealed:

“Think not that those who rejoice in what they have done (or brought about) and love to be praised for what they have not done…” (V.3:188)

4568. Narrated ‘Alqama bin Waqqās: Marwān said to his gatekeeper, “Go to Ibn ‘Abbās, O Raft”, and say, ‘If everybody who rejoices in what he has done (or brought about) and likes to be praised for what he has not done, will be punished, then all of us will be punished.’” Ibn ‘Abbās said, “What connection have you with this case?(1) It was only that the Prophet ﷺ called the Jews and asked them about something, and they hid the truth and told him something else, and showed him that they deserved praise for the favour of telling him the answer to his question, and they became happy with what they had concealed.

Then Ibn ‘Abbās recited:-

“(And remember) when Allah took a Covenant from those who were given the Scripture ... (till) ... those who rejoice in what they have done (or brought about) and love to be praised for what they have not done.” (V.3:187,188)

Narrated Ḥumaid bin ‘Abdur-Raḥmān bin ‘Auf that Marwān had told him (the above narration).

(17) CHAPTER. Allah’s Statement: “Verily! In the creation of the heavens and the earth, and in the alternation of night and day, there are indeed signs for men of understanding.” (V.3:190)

4569. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: I heard the Prophet ﷺ say, “Allah is well-pleased with a man who doesn’t ask Allah for what Allah has not decreed for him, and He is displeased with a man who desires what Allah has decreed, but has no power to get it.” (H.4568) According to the knowledge of understanding the meaning of the Qurʼān and Hadith, we must consider the general meaning of the Verse and not only the cause for which the Verse was revealed.
stayed overnight in the house of my aunt Maimūna (the wife of the Prophet ﷺ). Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ talked with his wife for a while and then went to bed. When it was the last third of the night, he got up and looked towards the sky and said:

“Verily! In the creation of the heavens and the earth, and in the alternation of night and day, there are indeed signs for men of understanding.” (V.3:190) Then he stood up, performed ablution, brushed his teeth with a Siwāk, and then offered eleven Rak‘a prayer. Then Bilāl pronounced the Adhān (i.e., call for the Fajr prayer). The Prophet ﷺ then offered two Rak‘a (Sunna) Salāt (prayer) and went out (to the mosque) and offered the (compulsory congregational) Fajr prayer.

(18) CHAPTER. “Those who remember Allāh (always and in prayers), standing, sitting, and lying down on their sides; and think deeply about the creation of the heavens and the earth....” (V.3:191)

4570.Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās ﷺ: (One night) I stayed overnight in the house of my aunt Maimūna (the wife of the Prophet ﷺ), and said to myself, “I will watch the Salāt (prayer) of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ.” My aunt placed a cushion for Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and he slept on it in its lengthwise direction and (woke up) rubbing the traces of sleep off his face, and then he recited the last ten Verses of Sūrat Al-‘Imrān till he finished it. Then he went to a hanging waterskin and took it, performed the ablution and then stood up to offer the Salāt (prayer). I got up and did the same as he had done, and stood beside him (by his left side). He put his hand on my head and held me by the ear and twisted it (pulled me, and made me stand by his right side). He offered two Rak'a, then two Rak'a, then two Rak'a, then two Rak'a, then two Rak'a, then two Rak'a and finally the Witr (i.e., one Rak'a) Salāt (prayer).

(19) CHAPTER. “Our Lord! Verily, whom You admit to the Fire, indeed, You have disgraced him and never will the Zalimān (polytheists and wrong-doers) find any helpers.” (V.3:192)

4571. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Abbās that once he stayed overnight (in the house) of his aunt Maimūna, the wife of the Prophet. He added: I lay on the cushion transversely in its breadthwise direction and Allāh’s Messenger lay along with his wife in its lengthwise direction. Allāh’s Messenger slept till the middle of the night, either a bit before or a bit after it, and then woke up rubbing the traces of sleep off his face with his hands; and then he recited the last ten Verses of Sūrat Al-Imrān, got up and went to a hanging water-skin. He then performed the ablution from it, and it was a perfect ablution, and then stood up to offer the Salāt (prayer). I, too, did the same as he had done, and then went to stand beside him (on his left side).” Allāh’s Messenger put his right hand on my head and held and twisted my right ear, (pulled me, and made me to stand by his right side).” He then offered two Rak’a, then two Rak’a, then two Rak’a, then two Rak’a, then two Rak’a, and finally one Rak’a, of Witr. Then he lay down again till the Mu'adhdhin (i.e., the call-maker) came to him, whereupon he got up and offered a light two Rak'a Ṣalāt (prayer), and went out (to the mosque) and offered the (compulsory congregational) morning prayer.

(20) CHAPTER. “Our Lord! Verily, we have heard the call of one (i.e., Muhammad ﷺ) calling to Faith…” (V.3:193)

4572. Narrated Ibn `Abbās ṣṣ. that once he stayed overnight in the house of his aunt Maimūna, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ. He added: I lay on the cushion transversally in its breadthwise direction while Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ lay along with his wife in its lengthwise direction. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ slept till the middle of the night, either a bit before or a bit after it, and then woke up rubbing the traces of sleep off his face with his hands, and then recited the last ten Verses of Sūrat Al-‘Imran. Then he got up and went to a hanging water-skin, performed ablution from it — and performed it perfectly. Then he stood up to perform the Ṣalāt (prayer). I also did the same as he had done; and then went to stand beside him (on his left side). Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ put his right hand on my head and held and twisted my right ear (pulled me and made me to stand by his right side). He then offered two Rak’a, then two Rak’a, then two Rak’a, then two Rak’a, and finally, one Rak’a of Witr. Then he lay down again till the Mu'adhdhin (i.e., the call-maker) came to him, whereupon he got up and offered a light two Rak’a Ṣalāt (prayer), and went out (to the mosque) and offered the (compulsory congregational) morning prayer.

(4) SŪRAT AN-NISĀʾ
(The Women)

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

(1) CHAPTER. “And if you fear that you shall not be able to deal justly with the orphan girls…” (V.4:3)

Narrated ‘Aishah: There was an orphan (girl) under the care of a man. He married her and she owned a date-palm (garden). He married her just because of that (garden) and not because he loved her. So the Divine Verse came regarding his case:

“And if you fear that you shall not be able to deal justly with the orphan girls…” (V.4:3)

[The subnarrator added: I think he (i.e., another subnarrator) said, “That orphan girl was his partner in that date-palm (garden) and in his property.”]
4574. Narrated ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair that he asked ‘Aishah regarding the Statement of Allah:

“And if you fear that you shall not be able to deal justly with the orphan girls…”
(V.4:3)

She said, “O son of my sister! An orphan girl used to be under the care of a guardian with whom she shared property. Her guardian, being attracted by her wealth and beauty, would intend to marry her without giving her a just Mahr (bridal-money), i.e., the same Mahr as any other person might give her (in case he married her). So, such guardians were forbidden to do that unless they did justice to their female wards and gave them the highest Mahr their peers might get. They were ordered (by Allah) to marry women of their choice other than those orphan girls.” ‘Aishah added, “The people asked Allah’s Messenger’s instructions after the revelation of this Divine Verse; whereupon Allah revealed: ‘They ask your legal instruction concerning women’.”
(V.4:127)

‘Aishah further said, “And the Statement of Allah:

‘...And yet whom you desire to marry…’
(V.4:127) as anyone of you refrains from marrying an orphan girl (under his guardianship) when she is lacking in property and beauty.” ‘Aishah added, “So, they were forbidden to marry those orphan girls for whose wealth and beauty they had a desire unless with justice, and that was because they would refrain from marrying them if they were lacking in property and beauty.”
(2) CHAPTER. “...But if he (the guardian) is poor, let him have for himself what is just and reasonable (according to his work). And when you release their property to them, take witness in their presence; and Allâh is All-Sufficient in taking account.” (V.4:6)

4575. Narrated 'Âishah regarding the Statement of Allâh : "...And whoever amongst the guardian is rich, he should take no wages, but if he is poor, let him have for himself what is just and reasonable (according to his work)."

This Verse was revealed regarding the orphan's property. If the guardian is poor, he can take from the property of the orphan what is just and reasonable, according to his work and the time he spends on managing it.

(3) CHAPTER. “And when the relatives and the orphans and the poor are present at the time of division...” (V.4:8)

4576. Narrated 'Ikrima: Ibn 'Abbas said (regarding the Verse) "And when the relatives and the orphans and the poor are present at the time of division...": "This Verse and its order is valid and not abrogated."

(4) CHAPTER. “Allâh commands you as regards your children’s (inheritance)...” (V.4:11)

4577. Narrated Jâbir: The Prophet  and Abû Bakr came on foot to pay me a visit (during my illness) at Banû Salama's (dwellings). The Prophet  found me unconscious, so he asked for water and performed the ablution from it and sprinkled some water over me. I came to my senses and said, "O Allah's Messenger! What do you order me to do as regards my wealth?" So there was revealed:

"Allah commands you as regards your children's (inheritance)…" (V.4:11)

(5) CHAPTER. Allah's Statement "In that which your wives leave, your share is a half..." (V.4:12)

4578. Narrated Ibn 'Abbãs: (In the pre-Islamic period) the children used to inherit all the property but the parents used to inherit only through a will. So, Allah cancelled that which He liked to cancel and decreed that the share of a son was to be twice the share of a daughter, and for the parents one-sixth for each one of them\(^1\) or one-third\(^2\) for each one, and for the wife one-eighth\(^1\) or one-fourth\(^2\), and for the husband one half\(^1\), or one-fourth\(^1\).

(6) CHAPTER. "...You are forbidden to inherit women against their will, and you should not treat them with harshness, that you may take back part of the Mahr (bridal-money given by the husband to his wife at the time of marriage) you have given them..." (V.4:19)

---

(1) (H. 4578) If the deceased had a child.
(2) (H. 4578) If the deceased had no child.
4579. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas regarding the Divine Verse:-

“O you who believe! You are forbidden to inherit women against their will, and you should not treat them with harshness that you may take back part of the Mahr (bridal-money given by the husband to his wife at the time of marriage) you have given them…” (V.4:19)

(Before this revelation) if a man died, his relatives used to have the right to inherit his wife, and one of them could marry her if he would, or they would give her in marriage if they wished, or, if they wished, they would not give her in marriage at all, and they would be more entitled to dispose her than her own relatives. So the above Verse was revealed in this connection.

(7) CHAPTER. “And to everyone, We have appointed heirs of that (property) left by parents and relatives. To those, also, with whom you have made a pledge (brotherhood), give them their due portion [by Wasiya (wills)]. Truly, Allah is Ever a Witness over all things.” (V.4:33)

Ma’mar said, “Mawâli means the heirs. And also those with whom you have made a pledge (brotherhood) is the ally. A paternal uncle’s son is called Mawlâ, so also a manumitter of a slave, a freed slave, a king, or a religious master.”

4580. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas regarding the Verse: “To everyone, We have appointed heirs…” (V.4:33) ‘Mawâli’ means heirs.

And regarding: “...To those also with whom you have made a pledge (brotherhood)…” (he said): When the emigrants came to Al-Madina, an emigrant used to be the heir of an Anṣārī with the exclusion of the latter’s relatives, and that was because of the bond of brotherhood which the Prophet ﷺ had established between them (i.e., the emigrants and the Anṣār). So, when the Verse: ‘To everyone, We have appointed heirs’ was revealed, (the inheritance through bond of brotherhood) was cancelled. Ibn ‘Abbas then said:

“To those also with whom you have made a pledge (brotherhood)…” is concerned with the covenant of helping and advising each other. So, allies are no longer to be the heir of each other, but they can bequeath each other some of their property by means of a will (Wasiya).

(8) CHAPTER. “Surely! Allah wrongs not even of the weight of an atom (or a small ant)” (V.4:40)

4581. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī رضي الله عنه: During the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ, some people said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Shall we see our Lord on the Day of Resurrection?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Yes, do you have any difficulty in seeing the sun at midday when it is bright and there is no cloud in the sky?” They replied, “No.” He said, “Do you have any difficulty in seeing the moon on a full moon night when it is bright and there is no cloud in the sky?” They replied, “No.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “(Similarly) you will have no difficulty in seeing Allah ﷻ on the Day of Resurrection as you have no difficulty in seeing either of them. On the Day of Resurrection, a call-maker will announce, ‘Let every nation follow that which they used to worship.’ Then none of those who used to worship anything other than Allah, like idols and other deities, but will fall in Hell (Fire), till there will remain none but those who used to worship Allah, both those who were righteous pious ones, and the mischievous evil ones and some of the people of the Scripture. Then the Jews will be called upon and it will be said to them, ‘What did you use to worship?’ They will reply, ‘We used to worship ‘Uzair (Ezra), the son of Allah.’ It will be said to them, ‘You are liars, for Allah has never taken anyone as a wife or a son.
What do you want now?’ They will say, ‘O our Lord! We are thirsty, so give us something to drink.’ They will be directed and addressed thus, ‘Will you drink,’ whereupon they will be gathered unto Hell (Fire) which will look like a mirage, whose different sides will be destroying each other.
Then they will fall into the Fire. Afterwards, the Christians will be called upon and it will be said to them, ‘What did you use to worship?’ They will reply, ‘We used to worship ‘Isa (Jesus), the son of Allah.’ It will be said to them, ‘You are liars, for Allah has never taken anyone as a wife or a son.’
Then it will be said to them, ‘What do you want?’ They will say what the former people have said. Then, when there remain (in the gathering) none but those who used to worship Allah (Alone, the real Lord of ‘Alamin (mankind, jinn and all that exists)), whether they were righteous pious ones or mischievous evil ones. Then (Allah) the Lord of ‘Alamin, will come to them in a shape nearest to the picture they had in their minds about Him. It will be said, ‘What are you waiting for?’ Every nation has followed what it used to worship. They will reply, ‘We left the people in the world when we were in great need of them and we did not take them as friends. Now we are waiting for our Lord Whom we used to worship.’ Allah will say, ‘I am your Lord.' They will say twice or thrice, ‘We do not worship anything besides Allah.’”

(9) CHAPTER. “How (will it be) then when We bring from each nation a witness and We bring you (O Muḥammad ﷺ) as a witness against these people?” (V.4:41)

4582. Narrated ‘Abdullāh (bin Mas‘ūd رضي الله عنه): Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said to me, “Recite (of the Qur’ān) for me.” I said, “Shall I recite it to you although it had been revealed to you?” He said, “I like to hear (the Qur’ān) from others.” So I recited Sūrat An-Nisā’ till I reached:

“How (will it be) then, when We bring from each nation a witness, and We bring you (O Muḥammad ﷺ) as a witness against these people?” (V.4:41) Then he said, “Stop!” And behold, his eyes were overflowing with tears.

(10) CHAPTER. “...And if you are ill, or on a journey, or one of you comes after answering the call of nature...” (V.4:43)

The word ‘Sa‘īdan’ means the surface of the earth. And Jabir said, “The Tawāḥīt (i.e., false deities) whom the people used to go for judgement in their disputes (were numerous). One in Juhaina, one in Aslam, and one in every (other) tribe. Those were sooth-sayers whom Shaitân (Satan) used to inspire.”

‘Umar said, “‘Al-Jibt’ means magic, and ‘Taghût’ means Shaitân.”

‘Ikrima said, “‘Al-Jibt’ in the Ethiopian language means Shaitân, and ‘Taghût’ means a foreteller.”

4583. Narrated ‘Aishah: The necklace of Asmã’ was lost; so, the Prophet sent some men to look for it. The time for As-Salât (the prayer) became due and they had not performed ablution and could not find water, so they offered As-Salât without ablution. Then Allâh revealed (the Verse of Tayammum).

(11) CHAPTER. “Obey Allâh and obey the Messenger (Muhammad) and those of you (Muslims) who are in authority…” (V.4:59)

4584. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Verse:

“...Obey Allâh and obey the Messenger (Muhammad) and those of you (Muslims) who are in authority…” (V.4:59) was revealed in connection with ‘Abdullah bin Hudhãfa bin Qais bin ‘Adi when the Prophet appointed him as the commander of a Sariya (army unit).

(12) CHAPTER. “But no, by your Lord, they can have no Faith, until they make you (Muhammad ﷺ) judge in all disputes between them…” (V.4:65)

4585. Narrated ‘Urwa: Az-Zubair quarrelled with a man from the Ansâr concerning of a natural mountainous stream at Al-Harra. The Prophet ﷺ said, “O Zubair! Irrigate (your land) and then let the water flow to your neighbour.” The Ansârī said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! (Is this because) he (Zubair) is your cousin?” At that, the Prophet’s face became red (with anger) and he said, “O Zubair! Irrigate (your land) and then withhold the water till it fills the land up to the walls, and then let it flow to your neighbour.” So, the Prophet ﷺ enabled Az-Zubair to take his full right after the Ansârī provoked his anger. The Prophet ﷺ had previously given an order that was in favour of both of them. Az-Zubair said, “I don’t think but this Verse was revealed in this connection:

‘But no, by your Lord, they can have no Faith, until they make you (Muhammad ﷺ) judge in all disputes between them.’” (V.4:65)

(13) CHAPTER. “...Then they will be in the company of those on whom Allâh has bestowed His Grace, of the Prophets…” (V.4:69)

4586. Narrated ‘Aishah: I heard Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “No Prophet gets sick but he is given the choice to select either this world or the Hereafter.” ‘Aishah added, “During his fatal illness, his voice became very husky and I heard him saying, ‘In the company of those on whom Allâh has bestowed His Grace, of the Prophets, the Siddiqun (those followers of the Prophets who were first and foremost to believe in them), the martyrs and the righteous.’ (V.4:69) And from this I came to know that he has been given the option.”

(14) CHAPTER. Allah’s Statement “And what is wrong with you that you fight not in the Cause of Allah… (till) … whose people are oppressors…” (V.4:75)

4587. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: My mother and I were among the weak and oppressed (Muslims at Makkah).

4588. Narrated Ibn Abî Mulaika: Ibn ‘Abbâs recited: “Except the weak ones among men, women and children…” (V.4:98) and said, “My mother and I were among those whom Allah had excused.”

(15) CHAPTER. “Then what is the matter with you that you are divided into two parties about the hypocrites? Allah has cast them back (to disbelief) because of what they have earned…” (V.4:88)
4589. Narrated Zaid bin Thabit: regarding the Verse – “Then what is the matter with you that you are divided into two parties about the hypocrites?” (V.4:88):

Some of the Companions of the Prophet returned from the battle of Uhud (i.e., refused to fight) whereupon the Muslims got divided into two parties; one of them was in favour of their execution (killing) and the other was not in favour of it. So, there was revealed: ‘Then what is the matter with you that you are divided into two parties about the hypocrites?’ (V.4:88)

Then the Prophet said, “It (i.e., Al-Madina) is Tayyibah (good), it expels impurities as the fire expels the impurities of silver.”

CHAPTER.

“When there comes to them some matter touching (public) safety or fear, they make it known…” (V.4:83)

(16) CHAPTER. “And whoever kills a believer intentionally, his recompense is Hell…” (V.4:93)

4590. Narrated Sa'id bin Jubair: The people of Kufa disagreed (disputed) about the above Verse. So, I went to Ibn 'Abbás and asked him about it. He said, “This Verse: ‘And whosoever kills a believer intentionally, his recompense is Hell...’
(V.4:93) was revealed last of all (concerning premeditated murder) and nothing abrogated it."

(17) CHAPTER. "And say not to anyone who greets you (by embracing Islam), 'You are not a believer..." (V.4:94)

4591. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas regarding the Verse —

"And say not to anyone who greets you (by embracing Islam), 'You are not a believer..." (V.4:94):

There was a man amidst his sheep. The Muslims pursued him, and he greeted them by saying: "As-Salamu 'Alaikum (peace be upon you)." But they killed him and took over his sheep. Thereupon Allah revealed in that concern, the above Verse up to:

"... seeking the perishable goods of this worldly life..." (V.4:94) i.e., those sheep.

(18) CHAPTER. "Not equal are those of the believers who sit (at home)..." (V.4:95)

4592. Narrated Zaid bin Thabit that the Prophet dictated to him:

"Not equal are those of the believers who sit (at home) and those who strive hard and fight in the Cause of Allah..." (V.4:95).

Zaid added: Ibn Umm Maktûm came while the Prophet was dictating to me and said, "O Allâh's Messenger! By Allâh, if I had the power to fight (in Allâh's Cause), I would," and he was a blind man. So, Allâh revealed to His Messenger while his thigh..."
was on my thigh, and his thigh became so heavy that I was afraid it might fracture my thigh. Then that state of the Prophet ﷺ was over and Allah revealed:

"...Except those who are disabled (by injury or are blind or lame)...." (V.4:95)

4593. Narrated Al-Barā' ibn ‘Abbās: When the Verse:

"Not equal are those of the believers who sit (at home)...." (4:95) was revealed, Allah's Messenger ﷺ called for Zaid who wrote it. In the meantime Ibn Umm Maktūm came and complained of his blindness, so Allah revealed: "...Except those who are disabled (by injury or are blind or lame)...." (V.4:95)

4594. Narrated Al-Barā' ibn ‘Abbās: When the Verse:

"Not equal are those of the believers who sit (at home)...." (V.4:95) was revealed, the Prophet ﷺ said, “Call so-and-so.” That person came to him with an inkpot and a wooden board or a shoulder scapula bone. The Prophet ﷺ said (to him), “Write: ‘Not equal are those of the believers who sit (at home) and those who strive hard and fight in the Cause of Allah...’” Ibn Umm Maktūm who was sitting behind the Prophet ﷺ then said, “O Allah's Messenger! I am a blind man.” So, there was revealed in the place of that Verse, the Verse:
“Not equal are those of the believers who sit (at home), except those who are disabled (by injury, or are blind or lame) and those who strive hard and fight in the Cause of Allâh…” (V.4:95)

4595. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: Not equal are those believers who sit (at home) and did not join the battle of Badr and those who joined the battle of Badr.

(19) CHAPTER. “Verily! As for those whom the angels take (in death) while they are wrongdoing themselves (as they stayed among the disbelievers even though emigration was obligatory for them), they (angels) say (to them): In what (condition) were you?…” (V.4:97)

4596. Narrated Muhammed bin ‘Abdur-Rahmân Abûl-Aswad: The people of Al-Madîna were forced to prepare an army (to fight against the people of Sham during the caliphate of ‘Abdullâh bin Az-Zubair at Makkah), and I was enlisted in it. Then I met ‘Ikrima, the freed slave of Ibn ‘Abbâs, and informed him (about it), and he forbade me strongly to do so (i.e., to enlist in that army), and then said, ‘Ibn ‘Abbâs informed me that some Muslim people were with Al-Mushrikûn, increasing the number of Al-Mushrikûn against Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ. An arrow used to be shot which would hit one of them (the Muslims in the company of Al-Mushrikûn) and kill him, or he would be struck and killed (with a sword).” Then Allâh revealed: “Verily! As for those whom the angels take (in death) while they are wronging themselves (as they stayed among the disbelievers even though emigration was obligatory for them), they (angels) say (to them): ‘In what (condition) were you? They reply: ‘We were weak and oppressed on earth’. They (angels) say: ‘Was not the earth of Allâh spacious enough for you to emigrate therein?’ Such men will find their abode in Hell — what an evil destination!” (V.4:97) (See H. 7085)

(20) CHAPTER: “Except the weak ones among men, women…” (V.4:98)

4597. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs L2: “Except the weak ones…” (V.4:98) and added, “My mother was one of those whom Allâh excused.”

(21) CHAPTER. “These are they whom Allâh is likely to forgive them…” (V.4:99)

4598. Narrated Abû Hurairah: While the Prophet was offering the ‘Ishâ’ prayer, he said, “Allâh heard those who sent praises to Him,” and then said before falling in prostration, “O Allâh, save Ayyâsh bin Rabî’a. O Allâh, save Salama bin Hîshâm. O Allâh, save Al-Wâlid bin Al-Wâlid. O Allâh, save the weak ones among the believers. O Allâh, let Your punishment be severe on the tribe of Mu‘âr. O Allâh, inflict upon them years (of drought and famine) like the years of (Prophet) Yûsuf (Joseph).”
(22) CHAPTER. "But there is no sin on you if you put away your arms because of the inconvenience of rain..." (V.4:102)

4599. Narrated Ibn 'Abbās regarding the Verse:
"Because of the inconvenience of rain, or because you are ill..." (V.4:102)
(It was revealed in connection with) 'Abdur-Rahmān bin 'Aūf who was wounded.

(23) CHAPTER. Allāh's Statement: "They ask your legal instruction concerning women, say: Allāh instructs you about them, and about what is recited unto you in the Book concerning orphan girls..." (V.4:127)

4600. Narrated 'Aishah regarding the Verse—
"They ask your legal instruction concerning the women, say: Allāh instructs you about them... (till) ... and yet whom you desire to marry..." (V.4:127):
(This Verse has been revealed regarding the case of) a man who has an orphan girl, and he is her guardian and her heir. The girl shares with him all his property, even a date-palm (garden), but he dislikes to marry her, and dislikes to give her in marriage to somebody else who would share with him the property she is sharing with him; and for this reason that guardian prevents that orphan girl from marrying. So, this Verse was revealed.
(24) CHAPTER: “If a woman fears cruelty or desertion on her husband’s part…” (V.4:128)

4601. Narrated ‘Āishah regarding the Verse —
“If a woman fears cruelty or desertion on her husband’s part…” (V.4:128):

It is about a man who has a woman (wife) and he does not like her and wants to divorce her but she says to him, “I make you free as regards myself.” So, this Verse was revealed in this connection.

(25) CHAPTER. “Verily, the hypocrites will be in the lowest depths (grade) of the Fire…” (V.4:145)

4602. Narrated Al-Aswad: While we were sitting in a circle in ‘Abdullāh’s gathering, Hudhaifa came and stopped before us, and greeted us and then said, “People better than you became hypocrites.” Al-Aswad said, “Glory be to Allāh! Allāh says: ‘Verily! The hypocrites will be in the lowest depths (grade) of the Fire…” (V.4:145)

On that ‘Abdullāh smiled and Hudhaifa sat somewhere in the mosque. ‘Abdullāh then got up and his companions (sitting around him) dispersed. Hudhaifa then threw a pebble at me (to attract my attention). I went to him and he said, “I was surprised at ‘Abdullãh’s smile though he understood what I said. Verily, people better than you became hypocrites and then repented and Allãh forgave them.”

(26) CHAPTER. Allãh’s Statement: “Verily, We have sent revelation to you, (O Muhammad) ... (till) ... as We sent revelation to Nûh (Noah) and Yûnus (Jonah), Hârûn (Aaron) and Sulaimãn (Solomon)...” (V.4:163)

4603. Narrated ‘Abdullãh: The Prophet said, “None has the right to say that I am better than Yûnus (Jonah) bin Matta.”

4604. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Whoever says that I am better than Yûnus (Jonah) bin Matta, is a liar.”

(27) CHAPTER. “They ask you for a legal verdict. Say: ‘Allãh directs (thus) about Al-Kalâla (those who leave neither descendants nor ascendants as heirs). If it is a man that dies, leaving a sister, but no child, she shall have half the inheritance. If (such a deceased was) a woman who left no child, her brother takes her inheritance...’” (V.4:176)
Al-Kalâla is the one who has neither a father (ascendants) nor any son (descendants) to be his heir.

4605. Narrated Al-Barâ' b. Zayd: The last Sûrah that was revealed was Barâ'a, (No.9) and the last Verse that was revealed was, “They ask you for a legal verdict. Say: ‘Allâh directs (thus) about Al-Kalâla (those who leave neither descendants nor ascendants as heirs)...’” (V.4:176)

(5) SÛRAT AL-MÂ'IDAH
(The Table spread with Food)

In the Name of Allâh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

(1) CHAPTER. “[Game (also) being unlawful] when you assume Ihrâm for Hajj or Umra (pilgrimage)”... (V.5:1)
“So, because of their breach of their covenant...” (V.5:13)

Sufyân said: There is no Verse harder on me in the entire Qur'an than this Verse: “(Say: O Muhammad (ﷺ)) O people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians)! You have nothing (as regards guidance) till you act according to the Taurât (Torah), the Injeel (Gospel), and what has been sent down to you from your Lord (the Qur'an)...’” (V.5:68)
4606. Narrated Tariq bin Shihab: The Jews said to ‘Umar, “You (i.e., Muslims) recite a Verse (V.5:3), and had it been revealed to us, we would have taken the day of its revelation as a Day of Festival (celebration).” ‘Umar said, “I know very well when and where it was revealed, and where Allah’s Messenger was when it was revealed. (It was revealed on) the day of ‘Arafat (Hajj Day), and by Allah, I was at ‘Arafat.” Sufyan, a subnarrator said: I am in doubt whether the Verse:

“This day I have perfected your religion for you…” was revealed on a Friday or not.

4607. Narrated ‘Aishah , the wife of the Prophet : We set out with Allah’s Messenger on one of his journeys, and when we were at Baidā' or at Dhāt-al-Jaish, a necklace of mine was broken (and lost). Allāh’s Messenger stayed there to search for it, and so did the people along with him. Neither were they at a place of water, nor did they have any water with them. So the people went to Abū Bakr Aṣ-Ṣiddīq and said, “Don’t you see what ‘Aishah has done? She has made Allāh’s Messenger stay and the people stay where there is no water and they have no water with them.” Abū Bakr came while Allāh’s Messenger was sleeping with his head on my thigh. He said (to me), “You have detained Allāh’s Messenger and the people where there is no water, and they have no water with them.” So he admonished me and said what Allāh wished him to say, and he hit me on my flank with his hand. Nothing prevented me from moving (because of pain) but the position of Allāh’s Messenger on my thigh. Allāh’s Messenger got up when dawn broke and there was no water. So Allāh revealed the Verse of Tayammum. Usaid bin Ḥudair said, “It is not the first blessing of yours, O the family of Abū Bakr.” Then the camel on which I was riding got up from its place, and the necklace was found beneath it.

4608. Narrated ‘Āishah: A necklace of mine was lost at Al-Baida’ while we were on our way to Al-Madīna. The Prophet made his camel kneel down and dismounted and laid his head on my lap and slept. Abū Bakr came to me and hit me violently on the chest and said, “You detained the people because of a necklace.” I kept as motionless as a dead person because of the position of Allāh’s Messenger (on my lap) although Abū Bakr had hurt me (with the slap). Then the Prophet woke up and it was the time for the morning (prayer). Water was sought, but in vain; so the following Verse was revealed:

“O you who believe! When you intend to offer Ḥṣalāt (the prayer)…” (V.5:6)

Usaid bin Ḥuḍair said, “Allāh has blessed the people for your sake, O the family of Abū Bakr. You are but a blessing for them.”

(4) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh مَثَلَّا: “...So go you and your Lord and fight you two, we are sitting right here.” (V.5:24)

4609. Narrated ‘Abdullāh (bin Mas‘ūd) رضي الله عنه: On the day (of the battle) of Badr, Al-Miṣṣād said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! We do not say to you as the Children of Isrā’îl said to Mūsā (Moses): ‘Go you and your Lord and fight you two; we are sitting right here...’ (V.5:24) but (we say), ‘Proceed, and we are with you.’ That seemed to delight Allāh’s Messenger greatly.”
(5) CHAPTER. "The recompense of those who wage war against Allāh and His Messenger, and do mischief in the land is only that they shall be killed or crucified or their hands and feet be cut off from opposite sides..." (V.5:33)

To wage war against Allāh means to reject faith in Him.

4610. Narrated Abū Qilāba that he was sitting behind 'Umar bin 'Abdul 'Azîz and the people repeatedly mentioned (about Al-Qasâma) and they said (various things), and said that the caliphs had permitted it. 'Umar bin 'Abdul-'Azîz turned towards Abû Qilaba who was behind him and said. "What do you say, 0 'Abdullâh bin Zaid?" or said, "What do you say, 0 Abû Qilaba?" Abû Qilaba said, "I do not know that killing a person is lawful in Islām except in three cases: A married person committing illegal sexual intercourse, one who has murdered somebody unlawfully, or one who wages war against Allâh and His Messenger."

'Anbasa said, "Anas narrated to us such and such." Abû Qilaba said, "Anas narrated to me in this respect, saying: Some people came to the Prophet and they spoke to him saying, 'The climate of this land does not suit us.' The Prophet said, 'These are camels belonging to us, and they are to be taken out to the pasture. So, take them out and drink of their milk and urine.' (1) They took them and set out and drank of their urine and milk.

(1) (H. 4610) As a medicine for their disease. and having recovered, they attacked the shepherd, killed him and drove away the camels. Why should there be any delay in punishing them as they murdered (a person) and waged war against Allah and His Messenger and frightened Allah’s Messenger?” ‘Anbasa said, “Glory be to Allah!” Abu Qilaba said, “Do you suspect me?” ‘Anbasa said, “No, Anas narrated that (Hadith) to us.” Then ‘Anbasa added, “O the people of such and such (country), you will remain in good state as long as Allah keeps this (man) and the like of this (man) amongst you.”

(6) CHAPTER. Allah’s Statement:
“...And wounds, equal for equal (Al-Qisas i.e., the law of equality in punishment)…”
(V.5:45)

4611. Narrated Anas (bin Mâlik): Ar-Rubal’ (the paternal aunt of Anas bin Malik) broke the incisor tooth of a young Ansâri girl. Her family demanded Al-Qisas and they came to the Prophet who passed the judgement of Al-Qisas. Anas bin An-Nâṣr (the paternal uncle of Anas bin Malik) said, “O Allah’s Messenger! By Allah, her tooth will not be broken.” The Prophet said, “O Anas! (The law prescribed in) Allah’s Book is Al-Qisas”. So, (later on) the people (i.e., the relatives of the girl) gave up their claim and accepted blood-money. On that Allah’s Messenger said, “Some of Allah’s worshippers are such that if they take an oath, Allah will fulfil it for them.”
(7) CHAPTER. “O Messenger (Muḥammad ﷺ)! Proclaim (the Message) which has been sent down to you from your Lord...” (V.5:67)

4612. Narrated ‘A’ishah: Whoever tells that Muḥammad ﷺ concealed part of what was revealed to him, is a liar, for Allāh says:

“O Messenger (Muḥammad ﷺ)! Proclaim (the Message) which has been sent down to you from your Lord...” (V.5:67)

(8) CHAPTER. Allāh’s Statement: “Allāh will not punish you for what is unintentional in your oaths...” (V.5:89)

4613. Narrated ‘A’ishah: This Verse:

“Allāh will not punish you for what is unintentional in your oaths...” (V.5:89) was revealed about a man’s statement (during his talk), “No, by Allāh,” and “Yes, by Allāh.”

4614. Narrated ‘A’ishah that her father (Abū Bakr) never broke his oath till Allāh revealed the order of the legal expiation for oath. Abū Bakr said, “If I ever take an oath (to do something), and later find that to do something else is better, then I accept Allāh’s Permission and do that which is better (and do the legal expiation for my oath).”
(9) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh:

"O you who believe! Make not unlawful the Tayyibât (all that is good as regards foods, things, deeds, beliefs, persons) which Allâh has made lawful to you..." (V.5:87)

4615. Narrated 'Abdullãh bin 'Utibah: We used to participate in the holy fighting carried on by the Prophet and we had no women (wives) with us. So we said (to the Prophet), "Shall we castrate ourselves?" But the Prophet forbade us to do that and thenceforth he allowed us to marry a woman (temporarily) by giving her even a garment (as Mahr), and then he recited:

"O you who believe! Make not unlawful the Tayyibât (all that is good as regards foods, things, deeds, beliefs, persons) which Allâh has made lawful for you..." (1)

(10) CHAPTER. Allâh’s Statement:

"Intoxicants (all kinds of alcoholic drinks), gambling, Al-Ansâb(2) and Al-Azâm (arrows for seeking luck or a decision) are an abomination of Satan’s handiwork...” (V.5:90)

(1) (H. 4615) Temporary marriage (Mut’a) was allowed in the early days of Islâm, but later, at the time of the battle of Khaibar, it was prohibited.

(2) (Chap. 10) An-Nusáb (pl. Ansâb) were stone-altars whereon sacrifices were slaughtered at fixed places or graves etc. during fixed period of occasions and seasons in the name of idols, jinn, angels, pious men, saints, etc., in order to honour them, or to expect some benefit from them.
6616. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: (The Verse of) prohibiting alcoholic drinks was revealed when there were in Al-Madina five kinds of (alcoholic) drinks, none of which was produced from grapes. (1)

6617. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: We had no alcoholic drinks except that which was produced from dates and which you call Al-Fadikh. While I was standing offering drinks to Abû Talha and so-and-so and so-and-so, a man came and said, “Has the news reached you?” They said, “What is that?” He said, “Alcoholic drinks have been prohibited.” They said, “Spill (the contents of) these pots, O Anas!” Then they neither asked about it (alcoholic drinks) nor returned to it after the news from that man.

6618. Narrated Jâbir: Some people drank alcoholic beverages in the morning (of the day) of the battle of Uhud and on the same day they were killed as martyrs, and that was before these hard drinks (wine, etc.) were prohibited.

(1) (H. 4616) Those drinks were produced from honey, dates, wheat, barley and corn.

4619. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: I heard ‘Umar while he was on the pulpit of the Prophet, saying, “Now then, O people! The revelation about the prohibition of alcoholic drinks has been revealed; and alcoholic drinks are extracted from five things: grapes, dates, honey, wheat and barley. And the alcoholic drink is that which confuses and stupefies the mind.”

(11) CHAPTER. “Those who believe and do righteous good deeds, there is no sin on them for what they ate (in the past)” (V.5:93)

4620. Narrated Anas: The alcoholic drink which was spilled was Al-Fadikh. I used to offer alcoholic drinks to the people at the residence of Abū Ṭalḥa. Then the order of prohibition of alcoholic drinks was revealed, and the Prophet ordered somebody to announce that. Abū Ṭalḥa said to me, “Go out and see what this voice (this announcement) is.” I went out and (on coming back) said, “This is somebody announcing that alcoholic beverages have been prohibited.” Abū Ṭalḥa said to me, “Go and spill it (i.e., the wine).” Then it (alcoholic drinks) was seen flowing through the streets of Al-Madina. At that time, the wine was Al-Fadikh. Some people said, “Few persons (Muslims) were killed (during the battle of Uhud) while wine was in their stomachs.” So Allah revealed:

“Those who believe and do righteous good deeds there is no sin on them for what they ate (in the past)…” (V.5:93)

(12) CHAPTER. Allah’s Statement: “…Ask not about things which, if made plain to you, may cause you trouble…” (V.5:101)

4621. Narrated Anas: The Prophet delivered a Khutba (religious talk) the like of which I had never heard before. He said, “If you but knew what I know then you would have laughed little and wept much.” On hearing that, the Companions of the Prophet covered their faces and the sound of their weeping was heard. A man asked, “Who is my father?” The Prophet said, “So-and-so.” So, this Verse was revealed:

“...(O you who believe!) Ask not about things which, if made plain to you, may cause you trouble…” (V.5:101)

4622. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbás: Some people were asking Allâh’s Messenger questions mockingly. A man would say, “Who is my father?” Another man whose she-camel had been lost would say, “Where is my she-camel?” So, Allâh revealed this Verse in this connection:

“O you who believe! Ask not about things which, if made plain to you, may cause you trouble…” (V.5:101), and he recited the whole Verse.
(13) CHAPTER. ‘Allāh has not instituted things like Bahirah or a Sā‘ibah, or a Wasilah or a Ḥām…”¹ (V.5:103)

4623. Narrated Sa‘īd bin Al-Mūsaiyab: ‘Bahira’ was a she-camel whose milk used to be spared for the idols and nobody was allowed to milk it; ‘Sā‘iba’ was a she-camel which they (i.e., infidels) let loose for free pasture for their false gods (i.e., idols etc.) and nothing was allowed to be carried on it. Abū Hurairah said: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “I saw ‘Amr bin ‘Āmir Al-Khuzâ‘i (in a dream) dragging his intestines in the Fire, and he was the person who established the tradition of setting freed animals (for the sake of their false deities)”. ‘Wasila’ was a she-camel set free for idols because it has given birth to a she-camel at its first delivery, and then again gave birth to a she-camel as its second delivery. People (in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance) used to let that she-camel loose for their idols if it gave birth to two she-camels successively without giving birth to a male camel in between. ‘Ḥām’ was a stallion-camel freed from work for their ids, after it has finished a number of copulations assigned for it. They would let it loose for their idols and excuse it from burdens so that nothing would be carried on it, and they called it 'Al-Ḥāmī.' Abū Hurairah said, "I heard the Prophet saying so."

4624. Narrated 'Āishah: Allah's Messenger said, "I saw Hell and its different portions were consuming each other, and saw 'Amr dragging his intestines (in it), and he was the first person to establish the tradition of letting loose (for the idols) — she-camels — As-Sawā'ib (plural of As-Sā'iba)."

(14) CHAPTER. "And I was a witness over them while I dwelt amongst them; but when You took me up, You were the Watcher over them, and You are a Witness to all things." (V.5:117)

4625. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: Allah's Messenger delivered a Khutba (religious talk) and said, "O people! You will be gathered before Allāh bare-footed, naked and not circumcised." Then (quoting Qur'ān) he said:
“...As We began the first creation, We shall repeat it, (it is) a promise binding upon Us. Truly, We shall do it” (V.21:104)

The Prophet ﷺ then said, “The first of the human beings to be dressed on the Day of Resurrection, will be Ibrāhīm (Abraham). Verily! Some men from my followers will be brought and then (the angels) will drive them to the left side (Hell-fire). I will say, ‘O my Lord! (They are) my Companions!’ A reply will come, ‘You do not know what they did after you.’ Then I will say as the pious slave [the Prophet ‘Īsā (Jesus)] said:

‘...And I was a witness over them while I dwelt amongst them; but when You took me up, You were the Watcher over them.’ (V.5:117)

“Then it will be said, ‘These people continued as apostates since you left them.’”

(15) CHAPTER. Allah’s Statement:
“If You punish them, they are Your slaves.” (V.5:118)

4626.Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas ﷺ said, “The Prophet ﷺ said, “You will be gathered (on the Day of Resurrection), and some people will be driven (by the angels) to the left side (and taken to Hell) whereupon I will say as the pious slave “Īsā (Jesus) said:

‘And I was witness over them while I dwelt amongst them ... (till) ... the All-Mighty, the All-Wise.’ (V.5:117,118)
(6) SÚRÁT AL-AN'ÁM
(The Cattle)

In the Name of Allâh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

(Explanation of some Qur'ánic words not translated).
(1) CHAPTER. “And With Him are the keys of the Ghaib(1), (all that is hidden), none knows them but He...” (V.6:59)

4627. Narrated ‘Abdullâh, Allah’s Messenger said, “The keys of Al-Ghaib (the Unseen) are five: Verily, Allâh! With Him (Alone) is the knowledge of the Hour, He sends down the rain, and knows that which is in the wombs. No person knows what he will earn tomorrow, and no person knows in what land he will die. Verily, Allâh is All-Knower, All-Aware (of things).” (V.31:34)

(1) Al-Ghaib: (literally means a thing not seen). This word includes vast meanings: Belief in Allâh, angels, Holy Books, Allâh’s Messengers, Day of Resurrection and Al-Qadar (Divine Preordainments), it also includes what Allâh and His Messenger informed about the knowledge of the matters of the past, present and future things. e.g., news about the creation of the heavens, and earth, botanical and zoological life, the news about the nations of the past, and about Paradise and Hell etc.
(2) CHAPTER. “Say: He has power to send torment on you from above…” (V.6:65)

4628. Narrated Jābir: When this Verse was revealed: “Say: He has power to send torment on you from above…” (V.6:65), Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “O Allāh! I seek refuge with Your Face (from this punishment).” And when the Verse: “...Or (send torment) from under your feet...” (was revealed), Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “(O Allāh!) I seek refuge with Your Face (from this punishment).” (But when there was revealed):

“...Or to cover you with confusion in party strife, and make you to taste the violence of one another...” (V.6:65), Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “This is lighter (or, this is easier).”

(1) (H. 4628) All what has been revealed in Allāh’s Book (the Qur’ān) as regards the [Sifāt), Qualities of Allāh the Most High—like His Face, Eyes, Hands, Shins (Legs), His Coming, His Istawa (rising over) His Throne and others; His Qualities, or all that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ qualified Him in the true authentic Prophet’s Ahadith (narrations) as regards His Qualities like [Nazul (J,)] His Descent or His Laughing and others etc. The religious scholars of the Qur’ān and the Sunna believe in these Qualities of Allāh and they confirm that these are really His Qualities, without [Ta’wil interpreting their meanings into different things etc. or [Tashbih giving resemblance or similarity to any of the creatures or [Ta’tl i.e., completely ignoring them i.e., there is no Face, or Eyes or Hands, or Shins etc. for Allāh. These Qualities befit or suit only for Allāh Alone, and He does not resemble to any of (His) creatures. As Allāh’s Statements (in the Qur’ān): (1) “There is nothing like unto Him, and He is the All-Hearer, the All-Seer (V.42:11). (2) “There is none comparable unto Him” (V.112:4).
(3) CHAPTER. “It is those who believe (in the Oneness of Allâh and worship none but Him Alone) and confuse not their belief with Zulm (wrong i.e., by worshipping others besides Allâh)...” (V.6:82)

4629. Narrated ‘Abdullâh b. ‘Amr: When:
“...And confuse not their belief with Zulm (wrong)....” (V.6:82) was revealed, the Prophet’s Companions said, “Which of us has not done Zulm (wrong)?” Then there was revealed:
“...Verily! Joining others in worship with Allâh is a great Zulm (wrong) indeed.” (V.31:13)

(4) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh:
“...And Yûnûs (Jonah) and Lût (Lot), and each one of them We preferred above Al-Alamîn (mankind and jinn) (of their times)” (V.6:86)

4630. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Nobody has the right to say that I am better than Yûnûs (Jonah) bin Matta”.

4631. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Nobody has the right to say that I am better than Yûnûs (Jonah) bin Matta.”
(5) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah:
“They are those whom Allah had guided. So, follow their guidance…” (V.6:90)

4632. Narrated Mujāhid that he asked Ibn ‘Abbās, “Is there a prostration in Sūrat Sad?” (V.38:24). Ibn ‘Abbās said, “Yes,” and then recited:

'We bestowed... (up to) So, follow their guidance…” (V.6:84,90)

Then he said, “He [Dawūd (David)] is one of them (i.e., those Prophets).” Mujāhid narrated: I asked Ibn ‘Abbās (regarding the above Verse). He said, “Your Prophet (Muḥammad ﷺ) was one of those who were ordered to follow them”.

[For details see Fath Al-Bārī]

(6) CHAPTER. Allah’s Statement:
“And unto those who are Jews, We forbade every (animal) with undivided hoof...” (V.6:146)

Ibn ‘Abbās said: “Every (animal) with undivided hoof,” means the camel and the ostrich.

4633. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنهم: The Prophet ﷺ said, “May Allah curse the Jews! When Allah forbade them to eat

(1) (H. 4632) “And Dawūd (David) guessed that We have tried him and he sought forgiveness of his Lord, and he fell down prostrate and turned (to Allah) in repentance.” (38:24) the fat of animals, they melted it and sold it, and utilized its price!

(7) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah:

"...Come not near to Al-Fawâihis (shameful sins, illegal sexual intercourse), whether committed openly or secretly..." (V.6:151)

4634. Narrated Abû Wâ’il: ‘Abdullâh (bin Mas’ûd) said, (The Prophet said,) “None has more sense of Ghaîra(1) than Allâh, therefore, He has prohibited shameful sins (illegal sexual intercourse) whether committed openly or secretly. And none loves to be praised more than Allâh does, and for this reason He praises Himself.” I asked Abû Wâ’il, “Did you hear it from ‘Abdullâh?” He said, “Yes.” I said, “Did ‘Abdullâh ascribe it to Allâh’s Messenger?” He said, “Yes.”

(8) CHAPTER.

(9) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh:
“Say: ‘Bring forward your witnesses...’”
(V.6:150)

The word Halumma in the dialect of the people of Hijāz (in Saudi Arabia) is used for single, two, and more than two persons.

(10) CHAPTER. “The day that some of the signs of your Lord do come, no good will it do to a person to believe...” (V.6:158)

4635. Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The Hour will not be established until the sun rises from the west; and when the people see it, then whoever will be living on the surface of the earth will have Faith, and that is (the time) when no good will it do to a person to believe then, if he believed not before.” (V.6:158)

4636. Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The Hour will not be established till the sun rises from the west; and when the people see it, then whoever will be living on the surface of the earth will have Faith, and that is (the time) when no good will it do to a person to believe then, if he believed not before.” (V.6:158) west; and when it rises (from the west) and the people see it, they all will believe then. And that is (the time) when no good will it do to a person to believe then.” Then he recited the whole Verse. (V.6:158)(1)

"Say (O Muḥammad): ‘(But) the things that my Lord has indeed forbidden are Al-Fawāḥish (great evil sins, every kind of unlawful sexual intercourse) whether committed openly or secretly.’” (V.7:33)

4637. Narrated ‘Abdullāh (bin Mas‘ūd) Ṣaid: “None has more sense of Ghaira(1) than Allāh, and for this He has forbidden Al-Fawāḥish (great evil sins, every kind of unlawful sexual intercourse) whether committed openly or secretly. And none loves to be praised more than Allāh does, and for this He praises Himself.”

(2) CHAPTER. “And when Mūsā (Moses) came at the time and place appointed by Us, and his Lord (Allāh) spoke to him, he said,

(1) (H. 4637) Ghaira: See the glossary.
4638. Narrated Abū Sa'īd Al-Khudri: A man from the Jews, having been slapped on his face, came to the Prophet and said, "O Muḥammad! A man from your Companions from the Ansār has slapped me on my face!" The Prophet said, "Call him." When they called him, the Prophet said, "Why did you slap him?" He said, "O Allah's Messenger! While I was passing by the Jews, I heard him saying, 'By Him Who selected Mūsā (Moses) above the human beings.' I said, 'Even above Muḥammad (s)?' I became furious and slapped him on the face." The Prophet said, "Do not give me superiority over the other Prophets, for on the Day of Resurrection the people will become unconscious, and I will be the first to regain consciousness. Then I will see Mūsā (Moses) holding one of the pillars of the Throne. I will not know whether he has come to his senses before me or that the shock he had received at the mountain, (during his worldly life) was sufficient for him."

_Al-Manna_ (a kind of sweet gum) and _As-Salwa_ (i.e., quail, a kind of bird)…" (7:160)

4639. Narrated Sa'īd bin Zaid: The Prophet said, "_Al-Kam'a_ (truffle — i.e., a kind of edible fungus) is like the _Manna_ (sweet resin or gum) (as it grows naturally without human care) and its water is a (medicinal) cure for the eye diseases." (See H. 4478)
(3) CHAPTER. “Say (O Muḥammad ﷺ): ‘O mankind. Verily, I am sent to you all as the Messenger of Allah — to Whom belongs the dominion of the heavens and the earth. Lā ilāha illa Huwa (none has the right to be worshipped but He). It is He Who gives life and causes death. So believe in Allah and His Messenger (Muḥammad ﷺ), the Prophet who can neither read nor write (i.e., Muḥammad ﷺ), who believes in Allah and His Words [(this Qur’ān), the Taurāt (Torah) and the Injeel (Gospel) and also Allah’s Word: “Be! — and he was, i.e., ʿĪsā (Jesus) son of Maryam (Mary)] and follow him so that you may be guided.’”
(V.7:158)

4640. Narrated Abū Ad-Dardā’: There was a dispute between Abū Bakr and ‘Umar, and Abū Bakr made ‘Umar angry. So ‘Umar left angrily. Abū Bakr followed him, requesting him to excuse him, but ‘Umar refused to do so and closed his door in Abū Bakr’s face. So, Abū Bakr went to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ while we were with him. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “This friend of yours must have quarrelled (with somebody)”. In the meantime ‘Umar repented and felt sorry for what he had done, so he came, greeted (those who were present) and sat with the Prophet ﷺ and related the story to him. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ became angry and Abū Bakr started saying, “O Allah’s Messenger! By Allah, I was more at fault (than ‘Umar).” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Are you (people) leaving for me my companion (Abū Bakr)? Are you (people) leaving for me my companion? When I said, ‘O people I am sent to you all as the Messenger of Allah,’ you said, ‘You tell a lie.’ While Abū Bakr said, ‘You have spoken the truth.’”
(4) CHAPTER. Allâh’s Saying:

“And say ... Hittatun ...” [i.e., (O Allâh) forgive our sins] (V.7:161)

4641. Narrated Abû Hurairah ﺮضي الله عنہا: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “It was said to the Children of Isrâ’il, ‘Enter the gate prostrate (bowing with humility) and say Hittatun (O Allâh) forgive our sins. (V.7:161) We shall forgive you, your wrongdoings’. But they changed (Allâh’s Order) and entered, dragging themselves on their buttocks and said, ‘Habbatun (a grain) in a Shâ’ra (a spike or a hair).’” (See H. 4479)

(5) CHAPTER. “Show forgiveness, enjoin what is good, and turn away from the foolish (i.e., don’t punish them).” (V.7:199)

4642. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs ﷺ: ‘Uyaina bin Hişn bin Hudhaifa came and stayed with his nephew Al-Ḥurr bin Qais, who was one of those whom ‘Umar used to keep near him, as the Qurra’ (learned men knowing Qur’an by heart) were the people of ’Umar’s meetings and his advisors whether they were old or young. ’Uyaina said to his nephew, “O son of my brother! You have an approach to this chief, so get me the permission to see him”. Al-Ḥurr said, “I will get the permission for you to see him.” So Al-Ḥurr asked the permission for ’Uyaina and ’Umar admitted him. When ’Uyaina entered upon him, he said, “Beware! O the son of Al-Khattāb! By Allāh, you neither give us sufficient provision nor judge among us with justice.” Thereupon ’Umar became so furious that he intended to harm him, but Al-Ḥurr said, “O chief of the believers! Allāh said to His Prophet ﷺ:

‘Show forgiveness, enjoin what is good, and turn away from the foolish.’ (V.7:199) and this (i.e., ’Uyaina) is one of the foolish.” By Allāh, ’Umar did not overlook that Verse when Al-Ḥurr recited it before him; he observed (the orders of Allāh’s Book strictly).

4643. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Az-Zubair: (The Verse): “Show forgiveness; enjoin what is good…” was revealed by Allāh except in connection with the character of the people.

4644. ‘Abdullāh bin Az-Zubair said: Allāh ordered His Prophet ﷺ to forgive the people their misbehaviour (towards him).
CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

"They ask you (O Muhammad) about Al-Anfal (the spoils of war). Say: ‘The spoils are for Allah and the Messenger. So fear Allah and adjust all matters of difference among you.’” (V.8:1)

Ibn ‘Abbas said: Al-Anfal means war booty.

4645. Narrated Sa‘îd bin Jubair: I asked Ibn ‘Abbas regarding Sûrat Al-Anfal. He said, “It was revealed in connection with the battle of Badr.”
CHAPTER. "Verily! The worst of (moving) living creatures with Allah are the deaf and the dumb, those who understand not (i.e., the disbelievers)." (V.8:22)

4646. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas regarding the Verse:

"Verily! The worst of (moving) living creatures with Allah are the deaf and the dumb, those who understand not."

(The people referred to here) were some persons from the tribe of Bani ‘Abd Ad-Dâr.

(2) CHAPTER. "O you who believe! Answer Allah (by obeying Him) and (His) Messenger when he calls you to that which will give you life, and know that Allah comes in between a man and his heart (i.e., He prevents an evil person to decide anything). And verily, to Him you shall (all) be gathered." (V.8:24)

4647. Narrated Abî Sa‘îd bin Al-Mu‘alla while I was offering Salât (prayer), Allah’s Messenger passed by and called me, but I did not go to him till I had finished the Salât (prayer). Then I went to him, and he said, “What prevented you from coming to me? Didn’t Allah say:

‘O you who believe! Answer Allah (by obeying Him) and (His) Messenger when he calls you?’"

He then said, “I will teach you the greatest Sûrah in the Qur’ân before I leave (the mosque).” When Allāh’s Messenger got ready to leave (the mosque), I reminded him. He said, “It is:

Al-hamdu lillahi Rabbi 'alamin [All the praises and thanks be to Allāh, the Lord of the ‘alamin (mankind, jinn and all that exists)] which is ... As-Sab’a Al-Mathānī (Surat Al-Fātiha) (the seven repeatedly recited Verses).” (See H. 4474, 4703 and 5006)

(3) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

“And (remember) when they said, ‘O Allāh! If this (the Qur’ān) is indeed the truth (revealed) from You, then rain down stones on us…” (V.8:32)

Ibn ‘Uyaina said, Allāh did not use the word ‘Ma far’ in the Qur’ān except when it means a shower of torture; and Arabs call the rain ‘Ghaith’ as occurs in the Statement of Allāh:

“And it is He Who sends down the Ghaith (rain) after they have despaired (given up all hope)” (V.42:28)

4648. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Abū Jahl said, “O Allāh! If this (the Qur’ān) is indeed the truth (revealed) from You, then rain down stones on us from the sky, or bring on us a painful torment.” So Allāh revealed:

“And Allāh would not punish them while you (Muḥammad) are amongst them, nor will He punish them while they seek (Allāh’s) forgiveness. And why should not Allāh punish them while they hinder (men) from Al-Masjid Al-Ḥarām (at Makkah)…” (V.8:33,34)
(4) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh:

“And Allāh would not punish them while you (Muḥammad ﷺ) are amongst them, nor will He punish them while they seek (Allāh’s) forgiveness.” (V.8:33)

4649. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Abū Jahl said, “0 Allāh! If this (the Qur’ān) is indeed the truth (revealed) from You, then rain down stones on us from the sky, or bring on us a painful torment.” So Allāh revealed:

“And Allāh would not punish them while you (Muḥammad ﷺ) are amongst them, nor will He punish them while they seek (Allāh’s) forgiveness. And why should not Allāh punish them while they hinder (men) from Al-Masjid Al-Ḥarām (at Makkah)…” (V.8:33,34)

(5) CHAPTER. “And fight them until there is no more Fitnah (disbelief and polytheism, i.e., worshipping others besides Allāh) and the religion (worship) will be all for Allāh (Alone) (in the whole of the world)…” (V.8:39)

4650. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar that a man came to him (while two groups of Muslims were fighting) and said, “0 Abū ‘Abdur-Rahmān! Don’t you hear what Allāh has mentioned in His Book:

وَلَيْتُمُّوا يَدْعُوا أَنْفُسَهُمْ مُهَامًا مِّنْهُمْ وَلَا يَتَّخِذُونَ مِنْهُمْ حُكَّامًا وَلَا يَتَّخِذُونَ مِنْهُمْ مُدْصَلِثَاءٍ وَلَا يَتَّخِذُونَ مِنْهُمْ أَمْيَالًا وَلَا يَتَّخِذُونَ مِنْهُمْ وَسُرَّاءٍ وَلَا يَتَّخِذُونَ مِنْهُمْ كَنَايَةً وَلَا يَتَّخِذُونَ مِنْهُمْ عَمَّارِيَاتٍ وَلَا يَتَّخِذُونَ مِنْهُمْ مَعَصَرَاتٍ وَلَا يَتَّخِذُونَ مِنْهُمْ مَدَارِيَاتٍ وَلَا يَتَّخِذُونَ مِنْهُمْ مَيَامَاتٍ وَلَا يَتَّخِذُونَ مِنْهُمْ مَتَابَاتٍ وَلَا يَتَّخِذُونَ مِنْهُمْ وَسُرَّاءٍ وَلَا يَنُورُونَهُمْ فِي مَآءٍ وَلَا يَذْهَبُونَ عَلَى مَآءٍ وَلَا يَنُورُونَهُمْ فِي مَآءٍ وَلَا يَذْهَبُونَ عَلَى مَآءٍ وَلَا يَنُورُونَهُمْ فِي مَآءٍ وَلَا يَذْهَبُونَ عَلَى مَآءٍ وَلَا يَنُورُونَهُمْ فِي مَآءٍ وَلَا يَذْهَبُونَ عَلَى مَآءٍ وَلَا يَنُورُونَهُمْ فِي مَآءٍ وَلَا يَذْهَبُونَ عَلَى مَآءٍ وَلَا يَنُورُونَهُمْ فِي مَآءٍ وَلَا يَذْهَبُونَ عَلَى مَآءٍ وَلَا يَنُورُونَهُمْ فِي مَآءٍ وَلَا يَذْهَبُونَ عَلَى مَآءٍ وَلَا يَنُورُونَهُمْ فِي مَآءٍ وَلَا يَذْهَبُونَ عَلَى مَآءٍ وَلَا يَنُورُونَهُمْ فِي مَآءٍ وَلَا يَذْهَبُونَ عَلَى مَآءٍ وَلَا يَنُورُونَهُمْ فِي مَآءٍ وَلَا يَذْهَبُونَ عَلَى مَآءٍ وَلَا يَنُورُونَهُمْ فِي مَآءٍ وَلَا يَذْهَبُونَ عَلَى مَآء١
'And if two parties (or groups) among the believers fall to fighting…' (V.49:9)

So what prevents you from fighting as Allah has mentioned in His Book?’ Ibn ‘Umar said, “O son of my brother! I would rather be blamed for not fighting because of this Verse than to be blamed because of another Verse where Allah says:

‘And whoever kills a believer intentionally…’” (V.4:93)

Then that man said, “Allah says:

‘And fight them until there is no more Fitnah (disbelief and polytheism, i.e., worshipping other besides Allah) and the religion (worship) will be all for Allah (Alone)…’” (V.8:39)

Ibn ‘Umar said, “We did this during the lifetime of Allah’s Messenger when the number of Muslims was small, and a man was put to trial because of his religion; Al-Mushrikün (pagans etc.) would either kill or chain him; but when the Muslims increased (and Islam spread), there was no persecution.” When that man saw that Ibn ‘Umar did not agree to his proposal, he said, “What is your opinion regarding ‘Ali and ‘Uthmân?” Ibn ‘Umar said, “What is my opinion regarding ‘Ali and ‘Uthmân? As for ‘Uthmân, Allah forgave him and you disliked to forgive him, and ‘Ali is the cousin and son-in-law of Allah’s Messenger.” Then he pointed out with his hand and said, “And that is his daughter’s (house) which you can see.”
against Al-Mushrikun [polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ)], and his fighting with them was (against) Fitnah (and his fighting was) not like your fighting which is carried on for the sake of ruling.”

(6) CHAPTER. “O Prophet (Muḥammad ﷺ)! Urge the believers to fight…” (V.8:65)

4652.Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: When the Verse:

“...If there are twenty steadfast persons amongst you, they will overcome two hundreds…” (V.8:65) was revealed, then it became obligatory for the Muslims that one (Muslim) should not flee from ten (non-Muslims). Sufyān (the subnarrator) once said, “Twenty (Muslims) should not flee before two hundred (non-Muslims).” Then there was revealed:

“Now Allah has lightened your (task)…” (V.8:66). So it became obligatory that one hundred (Muslims) should not flee before two hundred (non-Muslims). Once Sufyān added, “The Verse:

‘...Urge the believers to the fight. If there are twenty steadfast persons amongst you (Muslims)…” was revealed. Sufyān said, “Ibn Shubruma said, ‘I see that this order is applicable to the obligation of enjoining Al-Ma'rūf (Islamic Monotheism and all that Islam ordains) and forbidding Al-Munkar (disbelief, polytheism and all that Islam forbids).’”

(7) CHAPTER. “Now that Allah has lightened your (task), for He knows that there is weakness in you…” (V.8:66)

4653.Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: When the Verse:

“If there are twenty steadfast persons amongst you (Muslims), they shall overcome two hundred (non-Muslims)” was revealed, it became hard on the Muslims when it became compulsory that one Muslim ought not to flee (in war) before ten (non-Muslims). So (Allāh) lightened the order by revealing:

“Now Allāh has lightened your (task) for He knows that there is weakness in you. So if there are of you a hundred steadfast persons, they shall overcome two hundred (non-Muslims)...” (V.8:66)

So when Allāh reduced the number of enemies which Muslims should withstand, their patience and perseverance against the enemy decreased as much as their task was lightened for them.

(9) Sūrat At-Tauba or Barā‘a
(The Repentance)

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم

(9) سورة براءة

المرشد: أخبرنا جرير بن حازم قال: أخبرني الزبير بن العارض، عن عكرمة، عن ابن عباس، رضي الله عنهما قال: لما نزلت: إن يكُنْ بِسْمِ عِشْرَةِ مُصْرِفٍ يَقِلُوْا بَالْيَتِينَاءِ شق ذلك على المسلمين حتى فرض عليهم أن لا يفر واحد من عشرة فجاء التحقيق فقال: أجل حالف أن فيكم ع陹م وائم أنت فلك ضعف فإن يكُن بسَمِ عِشْرَةِ مُصْرِفٍ يَقِلُوْا بَالْيَتِينَاءِ قال: فلما خَفَفَ الله عِنْهُم مِن الاعتِدَاد نقض من الصبر بقدر ما حفَق عنهم.

[راجع: 4652]
(1) CHAPTER. Allāh’s Statement: “Freedom from (all) obligations (is declared) from Allāh and His Messenger (ﷺ) to those of the Mushrikūn [polytheists, pagans, idolaters, disbelievers in the Oneness of Allāh and in His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ)] with whom you made a treaty.” (V.9:1)
4654. Narrated Al-Bara‘i: The last Verse that was revealed was: "They ask you for a legal verdict. Say: 'Allah directs (thus) about Al-Kalalah (those who leave neither descendants nor ascendants as heirs)...'" (V.4:176)

And the last Sūrah which was revealed was Bara‘a (No. 9).

4655. Narrated Humaid bin ‘Abdur-Rahmān: Abū Hurairah said, "During that Hajj (in which Abū Bakr was the chief of the pilgrims), Abū Bakr sent me along with announcers on the day of Nahr (10th of Dhul-Hijja) in Mina to announce: "No Mushrik [polytheist, pagan, idolater, and disbeliever in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muḥammad] shall perform Hajj after this year, and none shall perform the Tawaf around the Ka’bah in a naked state." Humaid bin ‘Abdur-Rahmān added: Then Allāh’s Messenger sent ‘Alī bin Abī Ṭalib after Abū Bakr and ordered him to recite aloud in public Sūrat Bara‘a. Abū Hurairah added, "So ‘Alī, along with us, recited Bara‘a (loudly) before the people at Mina on the day of Nahr and announced: "No Mushrik shall perform Hajj after this year, and none shall perform the Tawaf around the Ka’bah in a naked state."
4656. Narrated Ḥumaid bin ‘Abdur-Rahmān: Abū Hurairah said, “Abū Bakr sent me in that Ḥajj in which he was the chief of the pilgrims along with the announcers whom he sent on the day of Nahr to announce at Mina: “No Mushrik [polytheist, pagan, idolater, and disbeliever in the Oneness of Allāh and in His Messenger Muḥammad (ﷺ)] shall perform Ḥajj after this year, and none shall perform the Tawāf around the Ka'bah in a naked state.”

4657. Narrated Ḥumaid bin ‘Abdur-Rahmān: Abū Hurairah said that Abū Bakr sent him during the Ḥajj, in which Abū Bakr was made the chief of the pilgrims by Allāh’s Messenger before (the year of) Ḥajjat-al-Wadā’, in a group (of announcers) to announce before the people: “No Mushrik [polytheist, pagan, idolater, and disbeliever in the Oneness of Allāh and in His...
Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ) shall perform the Hajj after this year, and none shall perform the Tawaf around the Ka’bah in a naked state.” Ḥumaid used to say: The day of Nahr is the day of Al-Hajj Al-Akbar, because of the narration of Abū Hurairah.

(5) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh (سَبِيلَ اللَّهِ) :
“Fight you the leaders of disbelief (chiefs of Quraish — Mushrikūn of Makkah) for surely their oaths are nothing to them…” (V.9:12)

4658. Narrated Zaid bin Wahb: We were with Hudhaifa and he said, “None remains of the people described by this Verse (V.9:12) except three, and of the hypocrites except four.” A bedouin said, “You, the Companions of Muḥammad ﷺ tell us (things) that we do not know. What about those who break open our houses and steal our precious things.” He (Hudhaifa) replied, “Those are Al-Fussāq (rebellious wrong-doers — not disbelievers or hypocrites). Really, none remains of them (hypocrite) but four, one of whom is a very old man who, if he drinks water, does not feel its coldness.”(1)

(6) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh (سَبِيلَ اللَّهِ) :
“.And those who hoard up gold and silver (Al-Kanz—the money, the Zakāt of which has not been paid) and spend it not in the Way of Allāh—announce to them a painful torment.” (V.9:34)

4659. Narrated Abū Hurairah: زُكِّيّض الله ﻋَنّهُ: “There remains of the hypocrites …” (V.9:34)

(1) (H. 4658) i.e., does not enjoy it because of Allāh’s punishment he has incurred.
Allah's Messenger said, "The Kanz (money, gold, silver etc., the Zakat of which has not been paid) of anyone of you will appear in the form of bald-headed poisonous male snake on the Day of Resurrection." (See H. 1403)

4660. Narrated Zaid bin Wahb: I passed by (i.e., visited) Abü Dhar at Ar-Rabadha and said to him, "What has brought you to this land?" He said, "We were at Sham and I recited the Verse: 'They who hoard up gold and silver (Al-Kanz—the money, the Zakat of which has not been paid) and spend it not in the Way of Allah—announce to them a painful torment.' (V.9:34) whereupon Mu‘awiya said, 'This Verse is not for us, but for the people of the Scripture.' Then I said, 'But it is both for us (Muslim) and for them.'"

(7) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah:

"On the Day when that (Al-Kanz—money gold and silver, etc., the Zakat of which has not been paid) will be heated in the fire of Hell, and with it will be branded their foreheads..." (V.9:35)

4661. Narrated Khâlid bin Aslam: We went out with ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar and he said, "This (Verse) was revealed before the prescription of Zakât, and when Zakât was prescribed, Allah made it a means of purifying one’s wealth."
(8) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh : "Verily, the number of months with Allâh is twelve months (in a year) so was it ordained by Allâh on the Day when He created the heavens and the earth; of them four are sacred, (i.e., the 1st, the 7th, the 11th, and the 12th months of the Islâmí calendar). That is the right religion; so wrong not yourself therein…” (V.9:36)

4662. Narrated Abû Bakr: The Prophet  said, “Time has come back to its original state which it had when Allâh created the heavens and the earth; the year is twelve months, four of which are sacred. Three of them are in succession, Dhûl-Qa’dâ, Dhûl-Hijja and Al-Muḥarram, and (the fourth being) Rajab Muḍâr (named after the tribe of Muḍâr as they used to respect this month) which stands between Jumâda (Ath-thâni) and Sha’bân.”

(9) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh : “…The second of two, when they (Muḥammad  and Abû Bakr) were in the cave, and he () said to his companion (Abu Bakr) (رضي الله عنه) ‘Be not sad (or afraid), surely Allâh is with us.’” (V.9:40)

4663. Narrated Abû Bakr: I was in the company of the Prophet  in the cave, and on seeing the traces of Al-Mushrikûn, I said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! If one of them (Mushrikûn) should lift up his foot, he will see us.” He said, “What do you think of two, the third of whom is Allâh (as their Protector and Helper)”.
4664. Narrated Ibn Abi Mulaika: When there happened the disagreement between Ibn Az-Zubair and Ibn 'Abbãs, I said (to the latter), "[Why don't you give the Bai'a (pledge) to him as] his father is Az-Zubair, and his mother is Asmã', and his aunt is 'Aishah, and his maternal grandfather is Abû Bakr, and his grandmother is Safiyya?"

4665. Narrated Ibn Abi Mulaika: There was a disagreement between them (i.e., Ibn 'Abbãs and Ibn Az-Zubair) so I went to Ibn 'Abbas in the morning and said (to him), "Do you want to fight against Ibn Zubair and thus make lawful what Allah has made unlawful (i.e., fighting in Makkah)"? Ibn 'Abbãs said, "Allah forbid! Allah ordained that Ibn Az-Zubair and Bani Umaiyya would permit (fighting in Makkah), but by Allah, I will never regard it as permissible." Ibn 'Abbãs added, "The people asked me to give the Bai'a (pledge) to Ibn Az-Zubair. I said, 'He is really entitled to assume authority for his father, Az-Zubair was the helper of the Prophet, his (maternal) grandfather Abû Bakr was (the Prophet's) companion in the cave, his mother Asmã' was 'Dhatun-Nitaq', his aunt 'Aishah was the Mother of the believers, his paternal aunt Khadija was the wife of the Prophet, and the paternal aunt of the Prophet was his grandmother. He himself is pious and chaste in Islãm, well-versed in the knowledge of the Qur'an. By Allah! (Really, I left my relatives, Bani Umaiyya for his sake though) they are my close relatives, and if they should be my rulers, they are equally apt to be so and are descended from a noble family.”

4666. Narrated Ibn Abt Mulaika: We entered upon Ibn 'Abbās and he said, “Are you not astonished at Ibn Az-Zubair's assuming the caliphate?” I said (to myself), “I will support him and speak of his good traits as I did not do even for Abū Bakr and 'Umar, though they were more entitled to receive all good than he was.” I said, “He (i.e., Ibn Az-Zubair) is the son of the aunt of the Prophet ﷺ, and the son of Az-Zubair, and the grandson of Abū Bakr and the son of Khadija's brother, and the son of 'Aishah's sister.” Nevertheless, he considers himself to be superior to me and does not want me to be one of his friends. So I said, “I never expected that he would refuse my offer to support him, and I don't think he intends to do me any good, therefore, if my cousins should inevitably be my rulers, it will be better for me to be ruled by them than by some others.”
(10) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh

"...And (for) to attract the hearts of those who have been inclined (towards Islâm); and to free the captives..." (V.9:60)

Mujâhid said, “To attract their hearts by giving them gifts.”

4667. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd: Something was sent to the Prophet ﷺ and he distributed it amongst four (men) and said, “I want to attract their hearts, (to Islâm thereby).” A man said (to the Prophet ﷺ), “You have not done justice.” Thereupon the Prophet ﷺ said, “There will emerge from the offspring of this (man) some people who will renounce the religion.”

(11) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh

Those who defame such of the believers who give charity (in Allâh’s Cause) voluntarily...” (V.9:79)

4668. Narrated Abû Mu‘ûd: When we were ordered to give in Sâdaqa (charity), we used to start to work as porters (to earn something we could give in charity). Abû ‘Aquil came with one-half of a Sâ’ (special measure for food grains) and another person brought more than he did. So, the hypocrites said, “Allâh is not in need of the Sâdaqa of this (i.e., ‘Aquil); and this other person did not give Sâdaqa but for showing off.” Then Allâh revealed:

“Those who defame such of the believers who give charity (in Allâh’s Cause) voluntarily and those who could not find to give charity (in Allâh’s cause) except what is available to them…” (V.9:79)

4669. Narrated Shaqiq: Abū Mas‘ūd Al-Anṣārī said, “Allāh’s Messenger used to order us to give in Ṣadaqa (charity). So one of us would exert himself to earn one Mudd (special measure of wheat or dates, etc.) to give in charity; while today one of us may have one hundred thousand.” Shaqiq said: As if Abū Mas‘ūd referred to himself.

(12) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh 

‘Whether you (O Muḥammad ﷺ) ask forgiveness for them (hypocrites) or ask not forgiveness for them — (and even) if you ask seventy times for their forgiveness — Allāh will not forgive them…” (V.9:80)

4670. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: When ‘Abdullāh bin Ubayy died, his son ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Abdullāh came to Allāh’s Messenger and asked him to give him his shirt in order to shroud his father in it. He gave it to him, and then ‘Abdullāh asked the Prophet to offer the funeral prayer for him (his father). Allāh’s Messenger got up to offer the funeral prayer for him, but ‘Umar got up too and got hold of the garment of Allāh’s Messenger and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Will you offer the funeral prayer for him though your Lord has forbidden you to offer the prayer for him?” Allāh’s Messenger said, “But Allāh has given me the choice by saying: ‘Whether you (O Muḥammad ﷺ) ask forgiveness for them (hypocrites) or ask not forgiveness for them — (and even) if you ask seventy times for their forgiveness —’ (V.9:80) so I will ask more than seventy times." ‘Umar said, “But he (‘Abdullāh bin ‘Ubayy) is a hypocrite!” However, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ did offer the funeral prayer for him whereupon Allāh revealed:

“And never (O Muḥammad ﷺ) pray (funeral prayer) for anyone of them (hypocrites) who dies, nor stand at his grave…” (V.9:84)

4671. Narrated ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb رضي الله عنه: When ‘Abdullāh bin Ubayy bin Salūl died, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was called in order to offer the funeral prayer for him. When Allāh’s Messenger got up (to offer the prayer), I got hold of him and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Do you offer the prayer for Ibn Ubayy although he said so-and-so on such-and-such a day?” I went on mentioning his sayings. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ smiled and said, “Keep away from me, O ‘Umar!” But when I spoke too much to him, he said, “I have been given the choice, and I have chosen (this); and if I knew that if I asked forgiveness for him more than seventy times, he would be forgiven; I would ask it for more times than that.” So Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ offered the funeral prayer for him and then left, but he did not stay long before the two Verses of Sūrat Barā’a were revealed:

“And never (O Muḥammad ﷺ) pray (funeral prayer) for any of them (hypocrites) who dies... (up to) ... while they were Fāsiqūn.” (V.9:84)

Later I was astonished at my daring to speak like that to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ; and Allāh and His Messenger ﷺ know better.
4672. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar:

When ‘Abdullāh bin Ubayy died, his son ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Abdullāh came to Allah’s Messenger who gave his shirt to him and ordered him to shroud his father in it. Then he stood up to offer the funeral prayer for the deceased, but ‘Umar bin Al-Khattāb took hold of his (the Prophet’s) garment and said, “Do you offer the funeral prayer for him though he was a hypocrite, and Allah has forbidden you to ask forgiveness for hypocrites?” The Prophet said, “Allāh has given me the choice (or Allah has informed me) saying:

‘Whether you (O Muḥammad) ask forgiveness for them (hypocrites) or ask not forgiveness for them — (and even) if you ask seventy times for their forgiveness — Allāh will not forgive them…”’ (V.9:80)

Then he added, “I will (appeal to Allāh for his sake) more than seventy times.” So Allāh’s Messenger offered the funeral prayer for him and we, too, offered the prayer along with him. Then Allāh revealed:

“And never (O Muḥammad) pray funeral prayer for any of them (hypocrites) who dies, nor stand at his grave. Certainly they disbelieved in Allāh and His Messenger, and died while they were Fāsiqūn [rebellious, disobedient to Allāh and His Messenger ()].” (V.9:84)
"They will swear by Alläh to you (Muslims) when you return to them, that you may turn away from them..." (V.9:95)

4673. Narrated 'Abdullah bin Ka'b: I heard Ka'b bin Malik at the time he remained behind and did not join (the battle of) Tabuk, saying, "By Alläh, no blessing has Alläh bestowed upon me, besides my guidance to Islâm, better than that of helping me speak the truth to Alläh's Messenger, otherwise I would have told the Prophet a lie and would have been ruined like those who had told a lie when the Divine Revelation was revealed:

'They will swear by Alläh to you (Muslims) when you return to them... (up to)... Al-Fâsiqûn (rebellious, disobedient to Alläh).’" (V.9:95,96)

CHAPTER. The Statement of Alläh

"They (the hypocrites) swear to you (Muslims) that you may be pleased with them... (up to)... Al-Fâsiqûn (rebellious, disobedient to Alläh).” (V. 9:96)

(15) CHAPTER. The Statement of Alläh

"And (there are) others who have acknowledged their sins...” (V.9:102)

4674. Narrated Samura bin Jundab: Allah's Messenger said, "Tonight two (visitors) came to me (in my dream) and took me to a town built with gold bricks and silver bricks. There we met men, (by) half of their bodies, look like the most handsome human beings you have ever seen, and (by) the other half, the ugliest human beings you have ever seen. Those two visitors said to those men, 'Go and dip yourselves in that river.' So they dipped themselves therein and..." then came to us, their ugliness having disappeared and they were in the most handsome shape. The visitors said, 'This is the Garden of 'Adn (Paradise) and that is your dwelling place.' Then they added, 'As for those people who were half ugly and half handsome, they were those who have mixed deeds that were good with deeds that were evil; but Allâh forgave them.'"

(16) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh

"It is not (proper) for the Prophet (ﷺ) and those who believe to ask for Allâh's forgiveness for the Mushrikûn [polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allâh and in His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ)]..." (V.9:113)

4675. Narrated Al-Mûsaiyab: When Abû Talib's death approached, the Prophet ﷺ went to him while Abû Jahl and 'Abdullâh bin Abi Umaiyya were present with him. The Prophet ﷺ said, "O uncle, say: 'La ilaha illallah' (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh) so that I may argue for your case with it before Allâh." On that, Abû Jahl and 'Abdullâh bin Abî Umaiyya said, "O Abû Talib! Do you want to renounce 'Abdul-Muttalib's religion?" Then the Prophet ﷺ said, "I will keep on asking (Allâh for) forgiveness for you unless I am forbidden to do so." Then there was revealed:

"It is not (proper) for the Prophet (ﷺ) and those who believe to ask for Allâh's forgiveness for Al-Mushrikûn [polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad (ﷺ) even though they be of kin, after it has become clear to them that they are the dwellers of the Fire…” (V.9:113)

(17) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah ﷺ:
“Allah has forgiven the Prophet (ﷺ), the Muhãjirûn and the Anṣãr…” (V.9:117)

4676. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin Ka’b: I heard Ka’b bin Malik talking about the Verse:
“And (He did forgive also) the three who did not (join the Tabûk expedition)…” (V.9:118) saying in the last portion of his talk, “(I said), ‘As a part (sign) of my repentance, I would like to give up all my property in the Cause of Allah and His Messenger.’ The Prophet ﷺ said to me, ‘Keep some of your wealth as it is good for you.’”

(18) CHAPTER. And (He did forgive also) the three [who did not join the Tabûk expedition] till for them the earth, vast as it is, was straitened…” (V.9:118)

4677. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin Ka’b: I heard Ka’b bin Malik, who was one of the three who were forgiven, saying that he had never remained behind Allah’s Messenger ﷺ in any Ghazwa which he had fought except two Ghazawât, Ghazwa Al-‘Usra (Tabûk) and Ghazwa Badr. He added, “I decided to tell the truth to Allah’s Messenger in the forenoon, and scarcely did he return from a journey he made, except in the forenoon, he would go first to the mosque and offer a two Rak’a Salah (prayer). The Prophet forbade others to speak to me or to my companions, but he did not prohibit speaking to any of those who had remained behind excepting us. So, the people avoided speaking to us, and I stayed in that state till I could no longer bear it, and the only thing that worried me was that I might die and the Prophet would not offer the funeral prayer for me, or Allah’s Messenger might die and I would be left in that social status among the people that nobody would speak to me or offer the funeral prayer for me. But Allah revealed His forgiveness for us to the Prophet in the last third of the night while Allah’s Messenger was with Umm Salama. Umm Salama sympathized with me and helped me in my disaster. Allah’s Messenger said, ‘O Umm Salama! Ka’b has been forgiven!’ She said, ‘Shall I send someone to him to give him the good tidings?’ He said, ‘If you did so, the people would not let you sleep the rest of the night.’ So, when the Prophet had offered the Fajr prayer, he announced Allah’s forgiveness for us. His face used to look as bright as a piece of the (full) moon whenever he was pleased. When Allah revealed His forgiveness for us, we were the three whose case had been deferred, while the excuse presented by those who had apologized had been accepted. But when there were mentioned those who had told the Prophet lies and remained behind (the battle of Tabuk) and had given false excuses, they were described with the worse description one may be described with. Allah said:
‘They (the hypocrites) will present their excuses to you (Muslims), when you return to them. Say (O Muhammad ﷺ): Present no excuses, we shall not believe you. Allâh has already informed us of the news concerning you. Allâh and His Messenger will observe your deeds…’” (V.9:94)

(19) CHAPTER. “O you who believe! Be afraid of Allâh, and be with those who are true (in words and deeds).” (V.9:119)

4678. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin Ka‘b: I heard Ka‘b bin Mâlik talking about the story of the battle of Tabûk when he remained behind, “By Allâh, I do not know anyone whom Allâh has helped for telling the truth more than me. Since I mentioned that truth to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ till today, I have never intended to tell a lie. And Allâh revealed to His Messenger:

‘Verily! Allâh has forgiven the Prophet, the Muhâjirûn … (up to) … and be with those who are true (in words and deeds).’” (V.9:117-119)

[See Vol. 5, Hadîth No.4418]
(20) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

“Verily, there has come unto you a Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) from amongst yourselves (i.e., whom you know well). It grieves him that you should receive any injury or difficulty…” (V.9:128)

4679. Narrated Zaid bin Thābit Al-Ansâri who was one of those who used to write the Divine Revelation: Abū Bakr sent for me after the (heavy) casualties among the warriors (of the battle) of Yamāmā [where a great number of Qurra’ (those who know the Qur’ān by heart) were killed]. ‘Umar was present with Abū Bakr who said, “‘Umar has come to me and said, ‘The people have suffered heavy casualties on the day of (the battle of) Yamāmā, and I am afraid that there will be more casualties among the Qurra’ at other battlefields, whereby a large part of the Qur’ān may be lost, unless you collect it. And I am of the opinion that you should collect the Qur’ān.’” Abū Bakr added, “I said to ‘Umar, ‘How can I do something which Allah’s Messenger ﷺ has not done?’ ‘Umar said (to me), ‘By Allah, it is (really) a good thing.’ So ‘Umar kept on pressing, trying to persuade me to accept his proposal, till Allāh opened my bosom for it and I had the same opinion as ‘Umar.’” (Zaid bin Thābit added: ‘Umar was sitting with him (Abu Bakr) and was quiet. Abū Bakr said (to me), “You are a wise young man and we do not suspect you (of telling lies or of forgetfulness); and you used to write the Divine Revelation for Allah’s Messenger ﷺ. Therefore, look for the Qur’ān and collect it (in one manuscript).” By Allāh, if he (Abū Bakr) had ordered me to shift one of the mountains (from its place), it would not have been harder for me than what he had ordered me concerning the collection of the Qur’ān. I said to both of them, “How dare you do a thing which the Prophet has not done?” Abū Bakr said, “By Allah, it is (really) a good thing.” So, I kept on arguing with him about it till Allāh opened my bosom for that which He had opened the bosoms of Abū Bakr and ‘Umar. So, I started to search for the Qur’ānic material and to collect it from parchments, scapula, leafstalks of date-palms and from the memories of men (who knew it by heart). I found with Khuzaima two Verses of Sūrat At-Tauba which I had not found with anybody else, (and they were):

“Verily, there has come unto you a Messenger (Muḥammad) from amongst yourselves (i.e., whom you know well). It grieves him that you should receive any injury or difficulty. He (Muḥammad) is anxious over you (to be rightly guided).” (V.9:128)

The manuscript on which the Qur’ān was collected, remained with Abū Bakr till Allāh took him unto Him, and then with ‘Umar till Allāh took him unto Him, and finally it remained with Ḥafṣa, ‘Umar’s daughter.

(The Prophet Yunus)

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

(1) CHAPTER.

(Explanation of some Quranic words not translated).
(2) CHAPTER. “And We took the Children of Isrā'īl across the sea, and Fir'aun (Pharaoh) and his hosts followed them in oppression and enmity, till when the drowning overtook him, he said, 'I believe that Lā ilāha illa (Huwa) (none has the right to be worshipped but) He (Allāh), in Whom the Children of Isrā'īl believe, and I am one of the Muslims (those who submit to Allāh's Will).’” (V.10:90)

4680. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: When the Prophet.arrived at Al-Madīna, the Jews were observing the Ṣaum (fast) on 'Ashūra' (10th of Muharram) and they said, “This is the day when Mūsā (Moses) became victorious over Fir'aun (Pharoah).” On that, the Prophet said to his Companions, “You (Muslims) have more right to celebrate Mūsā's victory than they have, so observe the Ṣaum on this day.”

(11) SūRAH HŪD
(The Prophet Hūd)

In the Name of Allāh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.
(1) CHAPTER. “No doubt! They did fold up their breasts, that they may hide from Him. Surely, even when they cover themselves with their garments, He knows what they conceal and what they reveal. Verily, He is the All-Knower of the (innermost secrets) of the breasts.” (V.11:5)

4681. Narrated Muḥammad bin ‘Abbād bin Ja’far that he heard Ibn ‘Abbās reciting: “No doubt! They did fold up their breasts…” (V.11:5) and asked him about its explanation. He said, “Some people used to hide themselves while answering the call of nature in an open space lest they be exposed to the sky, and also when they had sexual relation with their wives in a open space, lest they be exposed to the sky; so the above revelation was sent down regarding them."

4682. Narrated Muḥammad bin 'Abbād bin Ja'far: Ibn 'Abbas recited:

"No doubt! They did fold up their breasts…"

I said, "O Abul 'Abbas! What is meant by, 'They did fold up their breasts?'" He said, "A man used to feel shy on having sexual relation with his wife, or on answering the call of nature (in an open space), so this Verse was revealed:

'No doubt! They did fold up their breasts.'"

4683. Narrated 'Amr: Ibn 'Abbās recited:

"No doubt! They did fold up their breasts in order to hide from Him. Surely, even when they cover themselves with their garments…" (V.11:5)

(2) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

"...And His Throne was on the water..."
(V.11:7)

4684. Narrated Abū Hurairah Ṭābi': Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, "Allāh said, 'Spend (O man), and I shall spend on you.'" He also said, "Allāh’s Hand is full, and (its fullness) is not affected by the continuous spending night and day," He also said, "Do you see what He has spent since He created the heaven and the earth? Nevertheless, what is in His Hand is not decreased, and His Throne was on the water; and in His Hand there is the Balance (of justice) whereby He raises and lowers (people).

(3) CHAPTER. "And to the Madyan (Midian) people (We sent) their brother Shu‘aib." (11:84)
(4) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

“...The witnesses will say, ‘These are the ones who lied...’” (V.11:18)

4685. Narrated Ṣafwān bin Muḥriz:
While Ibn 'Umar was performing the ʿTawāf (around the Ka'bah), a man came up to him and said, “O Abū ‘Abdur-Rahmān!” or said, “O Ibn ‘Umar! Did you hear anything from the Prophet ﷺ about An-Najwa?” (1) Ibn ‘Umar said, “I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, ‘The believer will be brought near his Lord’.”

(Hishām, a subnarrator said, reporting the Prophet’s words,) “The believer will come near (his Lord) till his Lord covers him with His Screen and makes him confess his sins. (Allāh will ask him,) ‘Do you know (that you did) such and such sin?’ He will say twice,
‘Yes, I know (I did commit those sins).’ Then Allāh will say, ‘I did screen your sins in the world and I forgive them for you today.’ Then the record of his good deeds will be folded up.\(^{(1)}\) As for the others or the disbelievers, it (their evil acts) will be announced publicly before the witnesses: ‘...These are ones who lied against their Lord...’” (V.11:18) (See H. 2441)

(5) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh تِلَّا حَمَّـٰلُ الْقُوْلَاتُ: “Such is the Seizure of your Lord when He seizes the (population of) towns while they are doing wrong. Verily, His Seizure is painful and severe.” (V.11:102)

4686.Narrated Abū Mūsā رضي الله عنه: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Allāh gives respite to a Zālim (polytheist, wrong-doer oppressor, etc.) but when He Seizes (catches) him, He never releases him.” Then he recited:

“What is the Seizure of your Lord when He seizes the (population of) towns while they are doing wrong: Verily, His Seizure is painful, and severe.” (V.11:102)

(1) (H. 4685) See Vol. 3, Hadīth No.2441. (Then the Book of his good deeds will be given to him).
(6) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

"And perform As-Salāt (Iqāmat-as-Ṣalāt) at the two ends of the day, and in some hours of the night; [i.e., five compulsory Ṣalāt (prayers)]. Verily, the good deeds remove the evil deeds (small sins)…" (V.11:114)

4687. Narrated Ibn Mas'ūd: A man kissed a woman and then came to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and told him of that, so this Divine Revelation was revealed to the Prophet ﷺ:

"And perform As-Salāt (Iqāmat-as-Ṣalāt), at the two ends of the day, and in some hours of the night; [i.e., the five compulsory Ṣalāt (prayers)]. Verily, the good deeds remove the evil deeds (small sins). That is a reminder (an advice) for the mindful (those who accept advice)…” (V.11:114)

The man said, “Is this instruction for me only?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “It is for all those of my followers who encounter a similar situation.”

1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh ﷺ:

"...and perfect His Favour on you and on the offspring of Ya’qūb (Jacob)…" (V.12:6)

4688. Narrated ʿAbdullāh bin ʿUmar رضي الله عنهما: The Prophet ﷺ said, "The honourable, the son of the honourable, the son of the honourable, the son of the honourable, i.e., Yūsuf (Joseph), the son of Yaqūb (Jacob), the son of Ishāq (Isaac), the son of ʾIbrāhīm (Abraham)."

2) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh ﷺ:

"Verily, in Yūsuf (Joseph) and his brethren, there were Ayāt (proofs, evidences, verses, lessons, signs, revelations, etc.) for those who ask." (V.12:7) 4689. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger was asked, “Who are the most honourable of the people?” The Prophet said, “The most honourable of them with Allah are those who keep their duty to Allah and fear Him.” They said, “We do not ask you about that.” He said, “Then the most honourable of the people is Yūsuf (Joseph), Allah’s Prophet, the son of Allah’s Prophet, the son of Allah’s Prophet, the son of Allah’s Khalīl” [i.e., Ibrāhīm (Abraham)].” They said, “We do not ask you about that.” The Prophet said, “Do you ask about metals (the virtues of the ancestry) of the Arabs?” They said, “Yes.” He said, “Those who were the best amongst you in the pre-Islamic period are the best amongst you in Islam if they comprehend the religious knowledge.” (See H. 3358)

(3) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

“He said, ‘Nay, but your own selves have made up a tale. So (for me), patience is most fitting. And it is Allah (Alone) Whose help can be sought against that (lie) which you describe.’” (V.12:18)

4690. Narrated Az-Zuhri: ‘Urwā bin Az-Zubair, Sa‘īd bin Al-Mūsaiyab, ‘Alqama bin Waqqās and ‘Ubadullāh bin ‘Abdullāh related the narration of ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet, when the slanderers had said about her what they had said and Allah later declared her innocence. Each of them related a part of the narration (wherein) the Prophet said (to ‘Aishah), “If you are innocent, then Allah will declare your innocence; but if you have committed a sin, then ask for Allah’s forgiveness and repent to Him." ‘Aishah said, “By Allah, I find no example for my case except that of Yūsuf’s (Joseph’s) father (when he said), ‘So (for me) patience is most fitting. And it is Allāh (Alone) whose help can be sought against that (lie) which you describe.’” Then Allāh revealed the ten Verses: “Verily! those who brought forth the slander are a group among you…” (V.24:11)

4691. Narrated Umm Rūmān who was ‘Aishah’s mother: While I was with ‘Aishah, ‘Aishah got fever, whereupon the Prophet ﷺ said, “Probably her fever is caused by the story related by the people (about her).” I said, “Yes.” Then ‘Aishah sat up and said, “My example and your example is similar to that of Yaqūb (Jacob) and his sons:

“...Nay, but your own selves have made up a tale. So (for me), patience is most fitting. And it is Allāh (Alone) Whose help can be sought against that (lie) which you describe.’” (V.12:18)

(4) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh ﷺ:

“And she, in whose house he was, sought to seduce him (to do an evil act). She closed the doors and said, ‘Come on, O you.’ He said: ‘I seek refuge in Allāh (or Allāh forbid)’…” (V.12:23)
4692. Narrated Abü Wā'il: 'Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd recited “Haita laka (Come on, O you),” and added, “We recite it as we were taught it.”

4693. Narrated 'Abdullāh (bin Mas'ūd) رضي الله عنه: When the Prophet ﷺ realized that the Quraish had delayed in embracing Islām, he said, “O Allāh! Protect me against their evil by afflicting them with seven (years of drought, famine) like the seven years of (Prophet) Yūsuf (Joseph).” So they were struck with a year of drought (famine) that destroyed everything till they even ate bones, and a man would look towards the sky and see something like smoke between him and it. Allāh said:

“Then wait you for the Day when the sky will bring forth a visible smoke.” (V.44:10)

And Allāh further said:

“Verily! We shall remove the torment for a while. Verily! You will revert (to disbelief).” (V.44:15)

Will Allāh relieve them from torture on the Day of Resurrection? (The punishment of) the smoke had passed and Al-Batsa (the destruction of Al-Mushrikūn in the battle of Badr) had also passed. (See H. 1007)
(up to)... the women said: Allah forbid.’” (V.12:50,51)

4694. Narrated Abü Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “May Allah bestow His Mercy on (Prophet) Lût (Lot), certainly he used to lean on powerful support; and if I were to remain in prison for the period Yūsuf (Joseph) had remained and then the offer of freedom came to me, I would surely have accepted it, and we shall have more right (to be in doubt) than Ibrâhim (Abraham): When Allah said to him, ‘Do you not believe?’ Ibrâhim said, ‘Yes, (I believe) but to be stronger in Faith.’” (V.2:260) (See H. 3377)

(6) CHAPTER. “(They were reprieved) until, when the Messengers gave up hope...” (V.12:110)

4695. Narrated ‘Urwa bin Aţ-Zubair that when he asked ‘Aishah about the Statement of Allah ﷻ, she told him (its meaning), ‘Urwa added, “I said, ‘Did they (Messengers) suspect that they were betrayed (by Allah) or that they were treated as liars by (their people)?’” ‘Aishah said, “(They suspected) that they were treated as liars by (their people).” I said, “But they were sure that their people treated them as liars and it was not a matter of suspicion.” She said, “Yes, they were sure about it.” I said to her, “So they (the Messengers) suspected that they were betrayed (by Allâh).” She said, “Allâh forbid! The Messengers never suspected their Lord of such thing.” I said, “What about this Verse then?” She said, “It is about the Messengers’ followers who believed in their Lord and trusted their Messengers, but the period of trials was prolonged and victory was delayed till the Messengers gave up all hope of converting those of the people who disbelieved them; and the Messengers thought that their followers treated them as liars; thereupon Allâh’s help came to them.” (See H. 3389)

4696. Narrated ‘Urwa: I told her (‘Aishah) (regarding the above narration) that they (Messengers) were betrayed (by Allâh). She said: “Allâh forbid” or said something similar. (See H. 3389)

(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

"Allāh knows what every female bears, and by how much the wombs fall short (of their time or number)…” (V.13:8)

4697. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The keys of Al-Ghaib(1) (Unseen) are five which none knows but Allāh: None knows what will happen tomorrow but Allāh; none knows what is in the wombs (a male child or a female) but Allāh; none knows when it will rain but Allāh; none knows at what place one will die; none knows when the Hour will be established but Allāh.”

[See the Qur’an, V.31:34.]

(1) (H. 4697) Al-Ghaib: (literally means a thing not seen). This word includes vast meanings: Belief in Allāh, angels, Holy Books, Allāh’s Messengers, Day of Resurrection and Al-Qadar (Divine Preordainments), it also includes what Allāh and His Messenger ﷺ informed about the knowledge of the matters of the past, present and future things. e.g., news about the creation of the heavens, and earth, botanical and zoological life, the news about the nations of the past, and about Paradise and Hell etc.
CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

As a goodly tree, whose root is firmly fixed... (V.14:24)

4698. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: While we were with Allah’s Messenger, he said, “Tell me of a tree which resembles a goodly tree, whose root is firmly fixed...”
Muslim man. Its leaves do not fall and it does not, and does not, and does not, and it gives its fruits every now and then." It came to my mind that such a tree must be the date-palm, but seeing Abū Bakr and 'Umar saying a thing, I disliked to speak. So, when they did not say anything, Allāh's Messenger said, "It is the date-palm tree." When we got up (from that place), I said to 'Umar, "O my father! By Allāh, it came to my mind that it must be the date-palm tree." 'Umar said, "What prevented you from speaking?" I replied, "I did not see you speaking, so I disliked to speak or say anything." 'Umar then said, "If you had said it, it would have been dearer to me than so-and-so."

(2) CHAPTER. "Allāh will keep firm those who believe with, the word that stands firm..." (V.14:27)

4699. Narrated Al-Barā' bin 'Azīb: Allāh's Messenger said, "When a Muslim is questioned in his grave, he will testify that Lā ilāha illā llāh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh) and that Muhammad is Allāh's Messenger, and that is what is meant by Allāh's Statement:

'Allāh will keep firm those who believe, with the word that stands firm in this world [i.e. they will keep on worshipping Allāh...

(1) (H. 4698) The narrator seems to have forgotten what the Prophet said, therefore he just repeats the expression 'does not' three times to indicate that the Prophet described the tree with three other qualities.
(Alone) and none else] and in the Hereafter.  (V.14:27)

[See Vol. 2, Hadith No.1369]

(3) CHAPTER. “Have you not seen those who have changed the Blessings of Allâh into disbelief?…” (V.14:28)

“Have you not seen those who have changed the Blessings of Allâh into disbelief (by denying Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ and his Message of Islâm)?” (V.14:28) he said, “Those were the disbelievers (pagans etc.) of Makkah.”

(15) SÛRAT AL-_HIJR
(The Rocky Tract)

In the Name of Allâh, the Most Gracious,
the Most Merciful.

الله: حَدَّثَنَا سُفْيَانُ، عَنْ عُمَروٍ، عَنْ عَطِاءٍ: سَمَّىَ ابْنُ عَبَّاسِ ﷺ ﴿لَّهُمَّ تَرَّ إِلَى الْعَزِيزِ الْخَبِيرِ﴾ قَالَ: هُمُ كَفَّارٌ أَهْلِ مَكَّةَ. [رَجُعٍ: ۳۹۷۷]

(1) (H. 4699) i.e., immediately after their death (in their graves), when the angels (Munkar and Nakîr) will ask them three questions: As to (1) Who is your Lord?; (2) What is your religion?; and (3) What do you say about this man (Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ) who was sent to you? The believers will give the correct answers, i.e., (1) My Lord is Allâh; (2) My religion is Islâm; and (3) This man Muḥammad ﷺ is Allâh’s Messenger, and he came to us with clear signs and we believed in him – while the wrong-doers who believed not in Muḥammad ﷺ, the Message of Allâh, will not be able to answer these questions] (See H. 1338).
(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

"Except him (devil) that gains hearing by stealing, he is pursued by a clear flaming fire." (V.15:18)

4701. Narrated Abū Hurairah

The Prophet said, "When Allah has ordained some affair in the heaven, the angels beat with their wings in obedience to His Statement, which sounds like a chain dragged over a rock. (Ali and other subnarrators said, "The sound reaches them.") So much so that when fear is banished from their (angels') hearts, they (angels) say, 'What is it that your Lord has said?' They say, 'The truth. And He is the Most High, the Most Great.' (V.34:23)

Then he who gains a hearing by stealing (i.e., the devil) will hear Allah's Statement. Those who gain a hearing by stealing, (stand one over the other like this). (Sufyān, to illustrate this, spread the fingers of his right hand and placed them one over the other horizontally.) A clear flaming fire may overtake and burn the eavesdropper before conveying the news to the one below him; or it may not overtake him till he has conveyed it to the one below him, who in his turn, conveys it to the one below him, and so on till they convey the news to the earth. (Or probably Sufyân said, “Till the news reaches the earth.”) Then the news is inspired to a sorcerer (or a foreteller) who would add a hundred lies to it. His prophecy will prove true (as far as the heavenly news is concerned). The people will say, ‘Didn’t he tell us that on such and such a day, such and such a thing will happen? We have found that is true because of the true news heard from heaven.’"

Narrated Abū Hurairah: (The same Hadith above, starting: ‘When Allāh has ordained some affair…’) In this narration the word ‘foreteller’ is added to the word ‘wizard.’ (See H. 4800)
(2) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah: “And verily, the dwellers of Al-Hijr (Rocky Tract, i.e., Thamud people) denied the Messengers.” (V.15:80)

4702. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: (While we were going for the battle of Tabūk and when we reached the places of the Dwellers of Al-Hijr,) Allah’s Messenger said to his Companions who were at Al-Hijr, or said about the Dwellers of Al-Hijr (to us), “Do not enter (the dwelling places) of these people unless you enter weeping, but if you weep not, then do not enter upon them, lest you be afflicted with what they were afflicted with.”

[See Vol. 5, Hadith No.4420]

(3) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah: “And indeed, We have bestowed upon you seven Al-Mathānī (i.e., seven repeatedly recited Verses i.e., Sūrat Al-Fatiha) and the Grand Qur’ān.” (V.15:87)

4703. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Mu‘allā: While I was offering Salāt (prayer), the Prophet passed by and called me, but I did not go to him till I had finished my Salāt (prayer). When I went to him, he said, “What prevented you from coming?” I said, “I was offering Salāt (prayer).” He said, “Didn’t Allāh say:

‘O you who believe! Answer Allāh (by obeying Him) and (His) Messenger.’” (V.8:24)

He then said, “May I teach you the greatest Sūrah in the Qur’ān before I go out of the mosque?”. When the Prophet intended to go out (of the mosque), I reminded him and he said, “That is: ‘Alḥamdu lillãhi Rabbil ‘alamin [All the praises and thanks be to Allâh, the Lord of the ‘alamin (mankind, jinn, and all that exists)] which is the seven repeatedly recited Verses (Al-Mathâni, Sûrat Al-Fatiha) and the Grand Qur’ân which has been given to me.” (See H. 4474)

4704. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The Umm-ul-Qur’ân (i.e., the Mother of the Qur’ân) is the seven repeatedly recited Verses (Al-Mathâni; Sûrat Al-Fatiha) and the Grand Qur’ân.”

(4) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh’s Message

“Who have made the Qur’ân into parts (i.e., believed in one part and disbelieved in the other).” (V.15:91)

4705. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: Those who have made the Qur’ân into parts are the people of the Scripture, who divided it into portions and believed in one part of it and disbelieved the other.

4706. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas concerning:

“As We have sent down on the divider (Quraish pagans or Jews and Christians).” (V. 15:90)
They believed in one part of it and disbelieved in the other, (and they) are the Jews and the Christians.

(5) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

“And worship your Lord until there comes unto you the certainty (i.e., death).” (V.15:99)

Sālim said: “The certainty”, means “the death.”

4707. Narrated Anas bin Malik ﭽ: Allah's Messenger ﭽ used to invoke Allah saying, "O Allah! I seek refuge with You from miserliness, from laziness; from old senile age, from the punishment in the grave; from the Fitnah (trial and affliction) of Ad-Dajjāl; and from the Fitnah (trial and affliction) of life and death."

(2) CHAPTER. “And we decreed for the Children of Israel.” (17:4)
"Glorified (and Exalted) is He (Allah) [above all that (evil) they associate with Him], Who took His slave (Muḥammad) for a Journey by Night from Al-Masjid-al-4709. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger was presented with two cups, one containing wine and the other containing milk on the night of his Journey by Night at Jerusalem. He looked at both and took the milk. Jibril (Gabriel) said, "Thanks to Allah Who guided you to the Fitrah (i.e., Islam); if you had taken the wine, your followers would have gone astray."

4710. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: The Prophet said, "When the people of Quraish disbelieved me concerning my [Al-Isrā’ (Journey by Night)], I stood up in Al-Hijr (the unroofed portion of the Ka'bah) and Allah displayed Bait-ul-Maqdis in front of me, and I started describing it to them (Quraish) while looking at it."

(4) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah: “And indeed, We have honoured the Children of Adam…” (V.17:70)
CHAPTER. "And when We decide to destroy a town (population), We (first) send a definite order (to obey Allāh and be righteous) to those among them [or We (first) increase in number those of its population] who lead a life of luxury. Then they transgress therein…” (V.17:16)

4711. Narrated 'Abdullāh:
During the Pre-Islāmic Period of Ignorance if any tribe became great in number, we used to say, "Amīra the children of so-and-so."(1)

(1) (H. 4711) In narration No.4711 the word ‘Amīra’ means increase in number. The same word occurs in the Verse above (17:16), if we apply the same meaning to the word,=

Narrated Al-Humaidi: Sufyân narrated to us something and used the word ‘Amara’.

(5) CHAPTER. “O offspring of those whom We carried (in the ship) with Nūh (Noah)! Verily, he was a grateful slave.” (V.17:3)

4712. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Some (cooked) meat was brought to Allâh’s Messenger and the meat of a forearm was presented to him as he used to like it. He ate a morsel of it and said, “I will be the chief of all the people on the Day of Resurrection. Do you know the reason for it? Allâh will gather all the human beings of early generations as well as late generations on one plain so that the announcer will be able to make them all hear his voice, and the watcher will be able to see all for them. The sun will come so close to the people that they will suffer such distress and trouble as they will not be able to tolerate it or to bear it. Then the people will say, ‘Don’t you see to what state you have reached? Won’t you look for someone who can intercede for you with your Lord?’ Some people will say to some others, ‘Go to Ādâm.’ So, they will go to Ādâm and say to him, ‘You are the father of mankind; Allâh created you with His Own Hand, and breathed into you the soul which He created for you; and ordered the angels to prostrate before you; and they did, so (please) intercede for us with your Lord. Don’t you see what condition we have reached? Don’t you see what your Lord has become angry as

=then the translation of the Verse will be: We (first) increase in number those of its population who are given the luxury of this life.
He has never become before, nor will ever become thereafter. He forbade me (to eat of the fruit of) the tree, but I disobeyed Him. Myself! Myself! Myself! Go to someone else; go to Nūh (Noah).’ So they will go to Nūh and say (to him), ‘O Nūh! You are the first (of Allāh’s Messengers) to the people of the earth, and Allāh has named you a thankful slave; please intercede for us with your Lord. Don’t you see in what state we are?’ He will say, ‘Today my Lord has become angry as He has never become before nor will ever become thereafter. I had (in the world) the right to make one definitely accepted invocation, and I made it against my nation. Myself! Myself! Myself! Go to someone else; go to Ibrāhīm (Abraham).’ They will go to Ibrāhīm (Abraham) and say, ‘O Ibrāhīm (Abraham)! You are Allāh’s Messenger and His Khalīl(1) from among the people of the earth; so please intercede for us with your Lord. Don’t you see in what state we are?’ He will say to them, ‘My Lord has today become angry as He has never become before, nor will ever become thereafter. I had told three lies. [Abū Haiyyān (the subnarrator) mentioned them in the Hadith] Myself! Myself! Myself! Go to someone else; go to Mūsā (Moses).’ The people will then go to Mūsā (Moses) and say, ‘O Mūsā (Moses)! You are Allāh’s Messenger and Allāh gave you superiority above the others with His Message and with His direct Talk to you; (please) intercede for us with your Lord. Don’t you see in what state we are?’ Mūsā (Moses) will say, ‘My Lord has today become angry as He has never become before, nor will become thereafter, I killed a person whom I had not been ordered to kill. someone else; go to ‘Isā (Jesus).’ So they will go to ‘Isā (Jesus) and say, ‘O ‘Isā (Jesus)! You are Allāh’s Messenger and His Word (“Be”—and he was) which He sent to Maryam (Mary), and a Rūḥ (soul) created by Him and you talked to the people while still young in the cradle. Please intercede for us with your Lord. Don’t you see in what state we are? ‘Isā (Jesus) will say, ‘My Lord has today become angry as He has never become before, nor will ever become thereafter.’ ‘Isā (Jesus) will not mention any sin, but will say, ‘Myself! Myself! Myself! Go to someone else; go to Muḥammad ﷺ.’ So, they will come to me and say, ‘O Muḥammad! You are Allāh’s Messenger and the last of the Prophets, and Allāh forgave you all the past, present and future sins. (Please) intercede for us with your Lord. Don’t you see in what state we are?’” The Prophet ﷺ added, “Then I will go beneath Allāh’s Throne and fall in prostration before my Lord. And then Allāh will guide me to such praises and glorifications to Him as He has never guided anybody else before me. Then it will be said, ‘O Muḥammad! Raise your head. Ask, and it will be granted. Intercede! It (your intercession) will be accepted.’ So I will raise my head and say, ‘My followers, O my Lord! My followers, O my Lord’. It will be said, ‘O Muḥammad! Let those of your followers who have no accounts, enter through such a gate of the gates of Paradise as lies on the right; and they will share the other gates with the peoples.’” The Prophet ﷺ further said, “By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, the distance between every two gateposts of Paradise is like the distance between Makkah and and Himyar, or between Makkah and Baṣrah (in Sham).”

(6) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

"...And to Dawūd (David) We gave the Zabūr (Psalms)." (V.17:55)

4713. Narrated Abū Hurairah

The Prophet said, "The recitation [of Zabūr (Psalms)] was made light and easy for Dawūd (David) that he used to have his riding animal be saddled while he would finish the recitation before the servant had saddled it."

(7) CHAPTER. "Say (O Muḥammad ﷺ): ‘Call upon those besides Him whom you pretend (to be gods)…” (V.17:56)

4714. Narrated ‘Abdullāh regarding the explanation of the Verse — “...means of access to their Lord (Allāh)…” (V.17:57):

Some persons from mankind used to worship some persons from jinn, then those jinn who were worshipped became Muslims (embraced Islām), but those human beings stuck to their (old) religion.
65 - THE BOOK OF COMMENTARY

Al-A’mash added:

“Say (O Muḥammad ﷺ): ‘Call upon those besides Him — whom you pretend (to be gods).’” (V.17:56)

(8) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah it:

“Those whom they call upon [like ʿĪsā (Jesus) the son of Maryam (Mary), ʿUzair (Ezra) angels, etc.] desire (for themselves) means of access to their Lord (Allāh)...” (V.17:57)

4715. Narrated ‘Abdullāh regarding the Verse — “Those whom they call upon [like ʿĪsā (Jesus) the son of Maryam (Mary), ʿUzair (Ezra) angels, etc.] desire (for themselves) means of access to their Lord...” (V.17:57):

(It was revealed regarding) some jinn who used to be worshipped (by human beings). They (jinn) later embraced Islām (while those people kept on worshipping them).

(9) CHAPTER. “And We made not the vision which We showed you (O Muḥammad as an actual eye-witness and not as a dream on the night of Al-Isrā’), but a trial for mankind...” (V.17:60)

4716. Narrated Ibn ʿAbbās regarding — “And We made not the vision which We showed you (O Muḥammad as an actual eye-witness and not as a dream on the night of Al-Isrā’) but a trial for mankind...” (V.17:60):

It was an actual eye-witness, and not as a dream at the night of Al-Isra’, which was shown to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ during the night he was taken on a journey. And the cursed tree is the tree of Az-Zaqqūm (a bitter pungent tree which grows at the bottom of Hell).
CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh (10) "Verily, the recitation of the Qur'ân in the early dawn (i.e. the morning — Fajr prayer) is ever witnessed (attended by the angels in charge of mankind of the day and the night)." (V.17:78)

Mujâhid said: (The Qur'ân at dawn) means the Fajr (morning compulsory congregational) Salât (prayer).

4717. Narrated Ibn Al-Mûsaiyab: Abû Hurairah said, “The Prophet said, ‘A Salât (prayer) performed in congregation is twenty-five times more superior in reward to a Salât performed by a single person. The angels of the night and the angels of the day are assembled at the time of the morning Salât (prayer).’” Abû Hurairah added, “If you wish, you can recite: ‘Verily, the recitation of the Qur'ân in the early dawn (i.e. the morning — Fajr prayer) is ever witnessed (attended by the angels in charge of mankind of the day and the night).’” (V.17:78)

(11) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh (11) “It may be that your Lord will raise you to Maqâm Mahmûd (a station of praise and glory, i.e., the honour of intercession on the Day of Resurrection).” (V.17:79)

4718. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: On the Day of Resurrection the people will fall on their knees; and every nation will follow its Prophet and they will say, “O so-and-so! Intercede (for us with Allah),” till (the right of) intercession will be given to the Prophet (Muhammad) and that will be the day when Allâh will raise him to Al-Maqâm Al-Mahmûd (a station of praise and glory, 4719. Narrated Jabir bin `Abdullãh رضي الله عنه : Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, “Whoever, after listening to the Adhãn [call for Salãt (prayer)] says, ‘O Allah, the Lord of this complete call and of this Salãt, which is going to be established! Give Muhammad Al-Wasila and Al-Fadila, and raise him to Maqãm Mahmãd (a station of praise and glory, i.e., the honour of intercession on the Day of Resurrection) which You have promised him,’ will be granted my intercession for him on the Day of Resurrection.”

(12) CHAPTER. “And say ‘Truth (i.e., Islamic Monotheism or this Qurãn or Jihad against polytheists) has come and Bãtil (falsehood i.e., Satan or polytheism, etc.) has vanished...” (V.17:81)

4720. Narrated `Abdullãh bin Mas'ãd رضي الله عنه : Allah’s Messenger ﷺ entered Makkah (in the year of the Conquest) and there were three hundred and sixty idols around the Ka’bah. He then started hitting them with a stick in his hand and he was saying:

“Truth (i.e., Islamic Monotheism or this Qurãn or Jihad against polytheists) has come and Bãtil (falsehood i.e., Satan or polytheism etc.) vanished. Surely Bãtil is...”
ever bound to vanish.” (V.17:81)

"Al-Haqq" (the truth i.e. the Qur'an and Allâh's Revelation) has come, and Al-Bâtil [falsehood—Iblîs (Satan)] can neither create anything nor resurrect (anything).” (V.34:49)

(13) CHAPTER. “And they ask you (O Mu'âmmad ﷺ) concerning the Rûh (the Spirit)…” (V.17:85)

4721. Narrated 'Abdullâh ﷺ:
While I was in the company of the Prophet ﷺ on a farm and he was reclining on a palm-leaf stalk, some Jews passed by. Some of them said to the others, “Ask him (the Prophet ﷺ) about the Rûh (Spirit).” Some of them said, “What urges you to ask him about it?” Others said, “(Don’t ask him) lest he should give you a reply which you dislike.” But they said, “Ask him.” So, they asked him about the Rûh (Spirit). The Prophet ﷺ kept quiet and did not give them any answer. I knew that he was being inspired Divinely so I stayed at my place. When the Divine Revelation had been revealed, the Prophet ﷺ said:

“And they ask you (O Mu'âmmad ﷺ) concerning the Rûh (the Spirit). Say: The Rûh is one of the things, the knowledge of which is only with my Lord. And of knowledge, you (mankind) have been given only a little.’” (V.17:85)

[See Hadîth No. 125 and 7297]

(14) CHAPTER. “...And offer your Salât (prayer) neither aloud nor in a low voice…” (V.17:110)

4722. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs ﷺ:
(regarding) — “And offer your Salât (prayer) neither aloud, nor in a low voice…” (V.17:110):

This Verse was revealed while Allâh's Messenger ﷺ was hiding himself in Makkah.
When he offered Salāt (prayer) with his Companions, he used to raise his voice with the recitation of the Qur'an, and if Al-Mushrikūn (pagans etc.) happened to hear him, they would abuse the Qur'an, the One who revealed it and the one who brought it. Therefore Allah said to His Prophet:

"...And offer your Salāt (prayer) neither aloud..." i.e., your recitation of the Qur'an lest Al-Mushrikūn (pagans etc.) should hear you, and abuse the Qur'an, "...nor in a low voice..." so that your Companions could not hear you, "...but follow a way between." (V. 17:110)

4723. Narrated 'Aisyah: The (above) Verse was revealed in connection with the invocations.

(1) CHAPTER.

"But man is ever more quarrelsome than anything." (V.18:54)

4724. Narrated ‘Ali that one night Allâh’s Messenger came to him and Fatîma, and said, “Don’t you both offer the (Tahâjjud) prayer?” ‘Ali said, “When Allâh wishes us to get up, we get up.” The Prophet then recited:

“...But man is ever more quarrelsome than anything.” (V.18:54)

(See Vol. 2, Hadîth No.1127)

(1) (H. 4724) The Prophet blamed himself for awakening them and then recited. (V.18:54)
(2) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

“And (remember) when Mūsā (Moses) said to his boy-servant: ‘I will not give up (travelling) until I reach the junction of the two seas or (until) I spend years and years in travelling.’” (V.18:60)

4725. Narrated Sa‘īd bin Jubair: I said to Ibn ‘Abbās, “Nauf Al-Bikālī claims that Mūsā (Moses), the companion of Al-Khīḍr was not the Mūsā of the Children of Isrā’el.” Ibn ‘Abbās said, “The enemy of Allāh (Nauf) told a lie.” Narrated Ubayy bin Ka‘b that he heard Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “Mūsā (Moses) got up to deliver a speech before the Children of Isrā’el and he was asked, ‘Who is the most learned person among the people?’ Mūsā (Moses) replied, ‘I (am the most learned.)’ Allāh admonished him for he did not ascribe knowledge to Allāh Alone. So Allāh revealed to him:
‘At the junction of the two seas there is a slave of Ours who is more learned than you.’

Mūsa (Moses) asked, ‘O my Lord, how can I meet him?’ Allāh said, ‘Take a fish and put it in a basket and then proceed (set out, and where you will lose the fish, you will find him).’ So Mūsa (Moses) (took a fish and put it in a basket and) set out along with his boy-servant Yūsha‘ bin Nūn, till they reached a rock (on which) they both lay their heads and slept. The fish moved vigorously in the basket and got out of it and fell into the sea and there it took its way through the sea (straight) as in a tunnel. (V.18:61) Allāh stopped the current of water on both sides of the way created by the fish, and so that way was like a tunnel. When Mūsa (Moses) got up, his companion forgot to tell him about the fish, and so they carried on their journey during the rest of the day and the whole night. The next morning, Mūsa (Moses) asked his boy-servant ‘Bring us our early meal; truly, we have suffered much fatigue, in this, our journey.’ (V.18:62)

Mūsa (Moses) did not get tired till he had passed the place which Allāh had ordered him to seek after. His boy-servant then said to him, ‘Do you remember when we betook ourselves to the rock? I indeed forgot the fish, none but Satan made me forget to remember it. It took its course into the sea in a strange way.’ (V.18:63)

There was a tunnel for the fish, and for Mūsa (Moses) and his boy-servant there was astonishment. Mūsa (Moses) said, ‘That is what we have been seeking.’ So, they went back retracing their footsteps. (V.16:64) They both returned, tracing their footsteps till they reached the rock. Behold! There they found a man covered with a garment. Mūsa (Moses) greeted him. Al-Khīdār said astonishingly, ‘Is there such a greeting in your land?’ Mūsā (Moses) said, ‘I am Mūsā.’ He said, ‘Are you the Mūsā (Moses) of the Children of Isrā‘el?’ Mūsā (Moses) said, ‘Yes,’ and added, ‘I have come to you so that you may teach me something of that knowledge which you have been taught.’

Al-Khīḍr said, ‘You will not be able to have patience with me.’ (V.18:67)

‘O Mūsā (Moses)! I have some of Allāh’s Knowledge which He has bestowed upon me, but you do not know it; and you too, have some of Allāh’s Knowledge which He has bestowed upon you, but I do not know it.’ Mūsā (Moses) said, ‘If Allāh wills, you will find me patient, and I will not disobey you in aught.’ (V.18:69)

Al-Khīḍr said to him, ‘Then, if you follow me, ask me not about anything until I myself mention it to you.’ (V.18:70) After that both of them proceeded along the seacoast, till a ship passed by and they requested the crew to let them go on board. The crew recognized Al-Khīḍr and allowed them to get on board free of charge. When they got on board, suddenly Mūsā (Moses) saw that Al-Khīḍr had pulled out one of the planks of the ship with an adze. Mūsā (Moses) said to him, ‘These people gave us a free lift, yet you have scuttled their ship so as to drown its people! Verily, you have committed a thing Ir (a Munkar — evil, bad, dreadful thing).’ (V.18:71)

Al-Khīḍr said, ‘Did I not tell you that you would not be able to have patience with me?’ (V.18:72) Mūsā (Moses) said, ‘Call me not to account for what I forgot and be not hard upon me for my affair (with you).’” (V.18:73)

Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘The first excuse given by Mūsā (Moses’s), was that he had forgotten. Then a sparrow came and sat over the edge of the ship and dipped its beak...
once in the sea. Al-Khidr said to Müsa (Moses), ‘My Knowledge and your knowledge, compared to Allah’s Knowledge is like what this sparrow has taken out of the sea.’ Then they both got out of the ship, and while they were walking on the sea-shore, Al-Khidr saw a boy playing with other boys. Al-Khidr got hold of the head of that boy and pulled it out with his hands and killed him. Müsa (Moses) said, ‘Have you killed an innocent person who had killed none! Verily, you have committed a Nukr (a great Munkar—prohibited, evil dreadful thing).’

(V.18:74) He said, ‘Did I not tell you that you would not be able to have patience with me?’ (V.18:75) (The subnarrator said, ‘The second blame was stronger than the first one). Müsa (Moses) said, ‘If I ask you about anything after this, keep me not in your company, you have received an excuse from me.’ (V.18:76)

Then they both proceeded until they came to the inhabitants of a town. They asked them for food but they refused to entertain them. (Then) they found there a wall on the point of falling down. (V.18:77)

(Al-Khidr) set it up straight with his own hands. Müsa (Moses) said, ‘We came to these people, but they neither fed us nor received us as guests. If you had wished, you could surely have exacted some recompense for it.’ (Al-Khidr) said, ‘This is the parting between me and you… (up to) … that is the interpretation of (those things) over which you were unable to hold patience.’”

(V.18:78-82)

Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “We wished Müsa (Moses) had more patience so that Allah might have described to us more about their story.”
(3) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah:

“But when they reached the junction of the two seas, they forgot their fish, and it took its way through the sea as in a tunnel.”

(V.18:61)

4726. Narrated Ibn Jiráj: Yá'lã bin Muslim and ‘Amr bin Dinãr and some others narrated the narration of Sa‘îd bin Jubair.

Narrated Sa‘îd: While we were at the house of Ibn ‘Abbãs, Ibn ‘Abbãs said, “Ask me (any question).” I said, “O Abu ‘Abbãs! May Allah let me be sacrificed for you! There is a man at Kûfã, who is a story-teller called Nauf; who claims that he (Al-Khîdãr’s companion) is not Mûsã (Moses) of Bânî Isrã’il.” As for ‘Amr, he said to me, “Ibn ‘Abbãs said, (Nauf) the enemy of Allah told a lie.” But Yâ’lã said to me: Ibn ‘Abbãs said: Ubâyîn bin Ka’b said: Allah’s Messenger ð said, “Once, (Mûsã) (Moses) preached the people till their eyes shed tears and their hearts became tender, whereupon he finished his Khûfãba (religious talk). Then a man came to Musã (Moses) and asked, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! Is there anyone on the earth who is more learned than you?’ Mûsã (Moses) replied, ‘No.’ So, Allah admonished him, for he did not ascribe all knowledge to Allah. It was said (on behalf of Allah), ‘Yes, there is a slave of Ours who knows more than you.’ Mûsã (Moses) said, ‘O my Lord! Where is he?’ Allah said, ‘At the junction of the two seas.’ Mûsã (Moses) said, ‘O my Lord! Tell me of a sign whereby I will recognize the place’.” ‘Amr said to me: Allah said, “That place will be where the fish will leave you.” Yâ’lã said to me, “Allah said (to Mûsã) (Moses), ‘Take a dead fish (and your goal will be) the place where it will become alive.’” So Mûsã (Moses) took a fish... and put it in a basket and said to his boy-servant “I don’t want to trouble you, except that you should inform me as soon as this fish leaves you.” He said (to Mūsa) (Moses), “You have not demanded too much.” And that is as mentioned by Allāh:

“And (remember) when Mūsa (Moses) said to his boy-servant..” (V.18:60) Yūsha‘ bin Nūn. (Sa‘īd did not state that). The Prophet said, “While the boy-servant was in the shade of the rock at a wet place, the fish slipped out (alive) while Mūsa (Moses) was sleeping. His boy-servant said (to himself), ‘I will not wake him,’ but when he woke up, he forgot to tell him. The fish slipped out and entered the sea. Allāh stopped the flow of the sea where the fish was, so that its trace looked as if it was made on a rock.” ‘Amr, forming a hole with his two thumbs and index fingers, said to me, “Like this, as if its trace was made on a rock.” Mūsa (Moses) said, “We have suffered much fatigue on this, our journey.” (This was not narrated by Sa‘īd). Then they returned back and found Al-Khīḍr. ‘Uthmān bin Abī Sulāimān said to me, (they found him) on a green carpet in the middle of the sea. Al-Khīḍr was covered with his garment with one end under his feet and the other end under his head. When Mūsa (Moses) greeted, he uncovered his face and said astonishingly, ‘Is there such a greeting in my land? Who are you?’ Mūsa (Moses) said, ‘I am Mūsa (Moses).’ Al-Khīḍr said, ‘Are you the Mūsa (Moses) of Bānī Isrā’ēl?’ Mūsa (Moses) said, ‘Yes.’ Al-Khīḍr said, ‘What do you want?’ Mūsa (Moses) said, ‘I came to you so that you may teach me something of that knowledge which you have been taught.’ Al-Khīḍr said, ‘Is it not sufficient for you that the Taurāt (Torah) is in your hands and the Divine Revelation comes to you, O Mūsa (Moses)? Verily, I have a knowledge that you ought not learn, and you have a knowledge which I ought not learn.' At that time a bird took with its beak (some water) from the sea; Al-Khidr then said, 'By Allah, my knowledge and your knowledge besides Allah's Knowledge is like what this bird has taken with its beak from the sea.' Until, when they went on board the ship, they found a small boat which used to carry the people from this sea-side to the other sea-side. The crew recognized Al-Khidr and said, 'The pious slave of Allah.' (We said to Sa'id: "Was that Khidr?" He said, "Yes.") The shipmen said, 'We will not get him on board with fare.' Al-Khidr scuttled the ship and then plugged the hole with a piece of wood. Mūsā (Moses) said, 'Have you scuttled it in order to drown its people? Verily, you have committed a thing Imr (a Munkar — evil, bad, dreadful thing). (V.18:71) (Mujahid said, "Mūsā (Moses) said so protestingly.") Al-Khidr said, 'Did I not tell you, that you would not be able to have patience with me?' (V.18:72) The first inquiry of Mūsā (Moses) was done because of forgetfulness, the second caused him to be bound with a stipulation, and the third was done intentionally. Mūsā (Moses) said, 'Call me not to account for what I forgot, and be not hard upon me for my affair (with you).’ (V.18:73) (Then) they found a boy and Al-Khidr killed him. Ya’lū said: Sa’īd said, ‘They found boys playing and Al-Khidr got hold of a handsome infidel boy, laid him down and then slew him with a knife. Mūsā (Moses) said, ‘Have you killed an innocent person who had killed none?’ (18:74). Then they proceeded and found a wall which was on the point of falling down, and Al-Khidr set it up straight. Ya’lū moved his hand thus and said, ‘Al-Khidr raised his hand and the wall became straight. Ya’lū... said: ‘I think Saʿīd: said, ‘Al-Khīdr touched the wall with his hand and it became straight!’ Mūsā (Moses) said to Al-Khīdr, ‘If you had wished, you could have taken wages for it.’ Saʿīd said, ‘Wages that we might have eaten.’ And there was a king behind them.’ (V.18:79) And there was in front (ahead) of them. Ibn ‘Aḥān recited: “As there was a king in front (ahead) of them…” It is said on the authority of somebody other than Saʿīd that the king was Hudad bin Budad. They say that the boy was called Ḥaisūr. “…As there was a king in front (ahead) of them who seized every ship by force.” (V.18:79) So, I wished that if that ship passed by him, he would leave it because of its defect, and when they have passed they would repair it and get benefit from it. Some people said that they closed that hole with a bottle, and some said with tar. ‘His parents were believers, and he (the boy) was a disbeliever and we (Khīdr) feared lest he would oppress them by rebellion and disbelief.’ (V.18:80) (i.e., that their love for him would urge them to follow him in his religion). ‘So we (Khīdr) desired that their Lord (Allāh) should change him for them for one better in righteousness and near to mercy.’ (V.18:81). This was in reply to Mūsā’s (Moses) saying: Have you killed an innocent person?” (V.18:74) ‘Near to mercy’ means they will be more merciful to him than they were to the former whom Khīdr had killed. Someone other than Saʿīd said that they were compensated with a girl. Dawūd bin Abī ‘Aṣīm said on the authority of more than one that this next child was a girl.

(4) A. CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh (swt): “So, when they had passed further on (beyond that fixed place), Mūsā (Moses) said to his boy-servant, ‘Bring us our morning meal; truly, we have suffered much fatigue in this, our journey... (up to) ... retracing their footsteps!” (V.18:62,63)

(4) B. CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah ﷺ: ٤٧٢٧. Narrated Sa‘îd bin Jubair: I said to Ibn ‘Abbas, “Nauφ Al-Bakâli claims that Mûsa (Moses) of Bani Isrâ’îl was not Mûsa, (Moses) the companion of Al-Khîdr.” Ibn ‘Abbas said, “Allâh’s enemy tells a lie!” Ubayy bin Ka‘b narrated to us that Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Mûsa (Moses) got up to deliver a Khutba (religious talk) before Bani Isrâ’îl and he was asked: Who is the most learned person among the people? Mûsa (Moses) replied, ‘I (am the most learned).’ Allâh then admonished Mûsa (Moses) for he did not ascribe all knowledge to Allâh Alone. (Then) came the Divine Revelation:

‘Yes, one of Our slaves at the junction of the two seas is more learned than you.’

‘Mûsa (Moses) said, ‘O my Lord! How can I meet him?’ Allâh said, ‘Take a fish in a basket and wherever the fish is lost, follow it (you will find him at that place).’ So Mûsa (Moses) set out along with his boy-servant Yûsha’ bin Nûn, and they carried with them a fish till they reached a rock and rested there. Mûsa (Moses) put his head down and slept.
(Sufyān, a subnarrator said that somebody other than ‘Amr said), ‘At the rock there was a water spring called Al-Hayāt, and none came in touch with its water but became alive. So, some of the water of that spring fell over that fish, so it moved and slipped out of the basket and entered the sea.’ When Mūsā (Moses) woke up, he asked his boy-servant, ‘Bring our morning meal...’ (V.18:62). The narrator added: Mūsā (Moses) did not suffer from fatigue except after he had passed the place he had been ordered to observe. His boy-servant Yuṣṣa‘ bin Nūn said to him, ‘Do you remember when we betook ourselves to the rock? I did indeed forget the fish...’ (V.18:63) The narrator added: So they came back, retracing their steps and then they found in the sea, the way of the fish looking like a tunnel. So, there was an astonishing event for his boy-servant and there was tunnel for the fish. When they reached the rock, they found a man covered with a garment. Mūsā (Moses) greeted him. The man said astonishingly, ‘Is there any such greeting in your land?’ Mūsā (Moses) said, ‘I am Mūsā (Moses).’ The man said, ‘Mūsā (Moses) of Bani Isrā‘il?’ Mūsā (Moses) said, ‘Yes,’ and added, ‘may I follow you so that you teach me something of the knowledge which you have been taught (by Allāh)?’ (V.18:66). Al-Khidr said to him, ‘O Mūsā! (Moses) You have something of Allāh’s Knowledge which Allāh has taught you and which I do not know; and I have something of Allāh’s Knowledge which Allāh has taught me and which you do not know.’ Mūsā (Moses) said, ‘But I will follow you.’ Al-Khidr said, ‘Then, if you follow me, ask me not about anything till I myself mention it to you’ (V.18:70). After that both of them proceeded along the sea-shore. There passed by them a ship whose crew recognized Al-
Khîdîr and received them on board. A sparrow came and sat on the edge of the ship and dipped its beak into the sea. Al-Khîdîr said to Mûsâ (Moses), ‘My knowledge and your knowledge and all the creation’s knowledge compared to Allah’s Knowledge is not more than the water taken by this sparrow’s beak.’ Then Mûsâ (Moses) was startled by Al-Khîdîr’s action of taking an adze and scuttling the boat with it. Mûsà (Moses) said to him, ‘Have you scuttled it in order to drown its people?’ (V.18:71)

‘Then they both proceeded and found a boy playing with other boys. Al-Khîdîr took hold of him by the head and cut it off. Mûsà (Moses) said to him, ‘Have you killed an innocent person who has killed none? Verily, you have committed a thing Nukr (a great Munkar — prohibited, evil, dreadful thing)!’ (V.18:74)

He said, ‘Did I not tell you that you can have no patience with me ... (up to) ... but they refused to entertain them. Then they found therein a wall about to collapse...’ (V.18:75-77)

‘Al-Khîdîr moved his hand thus and set it upright (repaired it). Mûsà (Moses) said to him, ‘When we entered this town, they neither gave us hospitality nor fed us; if you had wished, surely, you could have taken wages for it.’ (Al-Khîdîr said) ‘This is the parting between you and me. I will tell you the interpretation of (those) things about which you were unable to hold patience.’ (V.18:78)

Allâh’s Messenger said, “We wished that Mûsà (Moses) could have been more patient, so that He (Allâh) could have described to us more about their story.”

Ibn ‘Abbâs used to recite:

“...As there was a king in front (ahead) of them who seized every ship by force.”
As for the boy, he was a disbeliever.

(5) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah:
“Say (O Muhammad ﷺ): ‘Shall We tell you the greatest losers in respect of (their) deeds?’” (V.18:103)

4728. Narrated Mu‘āb: I asked my father, “Was the Verse — ‘Say (O Muhammad ﷺ): Shall We tell you the greatest losers in respect of their deeds?’ (V.18:103) revealed regarding Al-Harūriyya?” He said, “No, but it was revealed regarding the Jews and the Christians, for the Jews disbelieved Muhammad ﷺ and the Christians disbelieved in Paradise and say that there are neither meals nor drinks therein. Al-Harūriyya are those people who break their pledge to Allah after they have confirmed that they will fulfil it, and Sa‘d used to call them Al-Fāsiqīn (evildoers who foresake Allah’s obedience).”

(6) CHAPTER. “They are those who deny in the Ayāt (proofs, evidences, verses, lessons, signs, revelation, etc.) of their Lord and the Meeting with Him (in the Hereafter). So their works are in vain…” (V.18:105)

4729. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “On the Day of Resurrection, a huge fat man will come who will not weigh, the weight of the wing of a mosquito before Allah.” And then the Prophet ﷺ said: “Read (or recite): ‘And on the Day of Resurrection, We shall assign no weight for them.’” (V.18:105)
In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

“And warn them (O Muḥammad ﷺ) of the Day of grief and regrets…” (V.19:39)

4730. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “On the Day of Resurrection, Death will be brought forward in the shape of a black and white ram. Then a caller will call, ‘O people of Paradise!’ Thereupon they will stretch their necks and look carefully. The caller will say, ‘Do you know this?’ They will say, ‘Yes, this is Death.’ By then all of them would have seen it. Then it will be announced again, ‘O people of Hell!’ They will stretch their necks and look carefully. The caller will say, ‘Do you know this?’ They will say, ‘Yes, this is Death.’ And by then all of them would have seen it. Then it will be announced again, ‘O people of Paradise! Eternity (for you) and no death. O people of Hell! Eternity (for you) and no death.’”

Then the Prophet ﷺ recited: “And warn them (O Muḥammad ﷺ) of the Day of grief and regrets, when the case has been decided, while (now) they are in a state of carelessness and they believe not.” (V.19:39)

(2) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh ﷺ

“And we (angels) descend not except by the Command of your Lord (O Muḥammad ﷺ). To Him belongs what is before us and what is behind us and what is between those two…” (V.19:64)

4731. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet ﷺ said to Jibrīl (Gabriel), “What prevents you from visiting us more often than you visit us now?” So there was revealed:
“And we (angels) descend not except by the Command of your Lord (O Muḥammad ﷺ). To Him belongs what is before us and what is behind us…” (V.19:64)

4732. Narrated Khabbāb: I came to Al-‘Āṣ bin Wā’il As-Sahmī and demanded something which he owed me. He said, “I will not give you (your money) till you disbelieve in Muḥammad (ﷺ).” I said, “No, I shall not disbelieve in Muḥammad (ﷺ) till you die and then be resurrected.” He said, “Will I die and then be resurrected?” I said, “Yes”. He said, “Then I will have wealth and children there, and I will pay you (there).” So this Verse was revealed:

“Have you then seen him who disbelieved in Our Ayāt (this Qur’an and Muḥammad ﷺ) and said: ‘I shall certainly be given wealth and children?’” (V.19:77)

(4) CHAPTER. “Has he known the Unseen, or has he taken a convenant from the Most Gracious (Allāh)?” (V.19:78)

4733. Narrated Khabbāb: I was a blacksmith in Makkah. Once, I made a sword for Al-‘Āṣ bin Wā’il As-Sahmī. When I went to demand its price, he said, “I will not give it to you till you disbelieve in.
Muhammad (ﷺ).” I said, “I shall not disbelieve in Muhammad (ﷺ) till Allâh make you die and then bring you to life again.” He said, “If Allâh should make me die and then resurrect me, I would have wealth and children.” So Allâh revealed:

“Have you seen him who disbelieved in Our Ayât (this Qur’ân and Muḥammad (ﷺ)) and said: ‘I shall certainly be given wealth and children.’ Has he known the Unseen or has he taken a covenant from the Most Gracious (Allâh)?” (V.19:77,78)

(5) CHAPTER. “Nay, We shall record what he says, and We shall increase his torment (in the Hell).” (V.19:79)

4734. Narrated Masrûq: Khabbâb said, “During the pre-Islamic period, I was a blacksmith and Al-ʾĀs bin Wâ’il owed me a debt.” So, Khabbâb went to him to demand the debt. He said, “I will not give you (your due) till you disbelieve in Muḥammad (ﷺ).” Khabbâb said, “By Allâh, I shall not disbelieve in Muḥammad (ﷺ) till Allâh makes you die and then resurrects you.” Al-ʾĀs said, “So leave me till I die and then be resurrected, for I will be given wealth and children whereupon I will pay your debt.” So this Verse was revealed:

“Have you seen him who disbelieved in Our Ayât (this Qur’ân and Muḥammad (ﷺ)) and (yet) says: ‘I shall certainly be given wealth and children.’” (V.19:77)
(6) CHAPTER. “And We shall inherit from him (at his death) all that he talks of (i.e., wealth and children which Allâh has bestowed upon him in this world), and he shall come to Us alone.” (V.19:80)

4735. Narrated Khabbâb: I was a blacksmith and Al-'As bin Wâ'il owed me a debt, so I went to him to demand it. He said to me, “I will not pay you your debt till you disbelieve in Muhammâd (s).” I said, “I will not disbelieve in Muhammâd (s) till you die and then be resurrected.” He said, “Will I be resurrected after my death? If so, I shall pay you (there) if I should find wealth and children.” So there was revealed:

“Have you seen him who disbelieved in Our Ayât (this Qur’ân and Muhammad (s)) and said: ‘I shall certainly be given wealth and children.’ Has he known the Unseen or has he taken a covenant from the Most Gracious (Allâh)? Nay! We shall record what he says, and We shall increase his torment (in the Hell). And We shall inherit from him all that he talks of (i.e., wealth and children which Allâh has bestowed upon him in this world), and he shall come to Us alone.” (V.19:77-80)

65- THE BOOK OF COMMENTARY

(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah:

"And I have chosen you for Myself." (V.20:41) (i.e., for My Revelation and My Message, or created you for Myself or strengthened and taught you as to how to preach My Message to My worshippers)."

4736. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “Adam and Mūsā (Moses) met, and Mūsā (Moses) said to Adam, ‘You are the one who made people miserable and turned them out of Paradise’. Adam said to him, ‘You are the one whom Allah selected for His Message and whom He selected for Himself and upon whom He revealed the Taurat (Torah).’ Mūsā (Moses) said, ‘Yes.’ Adam said, ‘Did you blame me for a thing which Allah has ordained for me before my creation?’ Mūsā (Moses) said, ‘Yes.’ So, Adam overcame Mūsā (Moses) with this argument.”

(2) CHAPTER. “And indeed We revealed to Mūsā (Moses) (saying): ‘Travel by night with ‘Ibādi (My slaves) and strike a dry path for them in the sea, fearing neither to be overtaken [by Fir'aūn (Pharaoh)], nor being afraid (of drowning in the sea).’ Then Fir'aūn (Pharaoh) pursued them with his hosts, but the sea-water completely overwhelmed them and covered them up. And Fir'aūn (Pharaoh) led his people astray, and he did not guide them.” (V.20:77-79)

4737. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: When Allah’s Messenger arrived at Al-Madina, he found the Jews observing Saum (fast) on the day of ‘Āshūra’ (10th of Muḥarram). The Prophet asked them (about it) and they replied, “This is the day when Mūsā (Moses) became victorious over Fir'aūn (Pharaoh).” The Prophet said (to the Muslims), “We are nearer to Mūsā (Moses) than they, so observe Saum (fast) on this day.”

(3) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh (تَمَنَّ اللَّهُ تَمَنُّ):

“(3) ..So let him not get you both out of Paradise, so that you be distressed.” (V.20:117)

4738. Narrated Abū Ḥurairah: The Prophet said, “Mūsā (Moses) argued with Adam and said to him (Adam), ‘You are the one who got the people out of Paradise by your sin, and thus made them miserable.’ Adam replied, ‘O Mūsā (Moses)! You are the one whom Allah selected for His Message and for His direct Talk. Yet, you blame me for a thing which Allah had ordained for me before He created me?’ Allah’s Messenger further said, “So, Adam overcame Mūsā (Moses) by this argument.”
(21) SūRAT AL-ANBIYĀ' (The Prophets)

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

4739. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Amr: The Sūrah of Bani Isrãel, Al-Kahf, Maryam, Ṭa-hã and Al-Anbiyã are from the earliest revealed Sūrah which I learnt by heart, and they are my first property.
1 (1) CHAPTER. “As We began the first creation, We shall repeat it. (It is) a promise binding upon Us. Truly, We shall do it.” (V.21:104)

4740. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas رضي الله عنهما: The Prophet ﷺ delivered a Khutba (religious talk) and said, “You (people) will be gathered before Allah (on the Day of Resurrection) barefooted, naked and uncircumcised.” (The Prophet ﷺ then recited):

“...As We began the first creation, We shall repeat it. (It is) a promise binding upon Us. Truly, We shall do it,” (V.21:104) and added, ‘The first man who will be dressed on the Day of Resurrection, will be Ibrahim (Abraham). Verily! Some men from my followers will be brought and taken towards the left side, whereupon I will say, ‘O Lord, (these are) my companions!’ It will be said, ‘You do not know what new things they introduced (into the religion) after you.’ I will then say as the righteous pious slave ‘Isa (Jesus) said, ‘I was a witness over them while
I dwelt amongst them... (up to)... and You are a Witness to all things.' (V.5:117) Then it will be said, 'O Muhammad these people continued as apostates since you left them.'”

(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh ﷺ:
“...And you shall see mankind as in a drunken state...” (V.22:2)
4741. Narrated Abu Sa‘īd Al-Khudrī: The Prophet said, “On the Day of Resurrection, Allah will say, ‘O Adam!’ Adam will reply, ‘Labbaik our Lord, and Sa‘daik.’ (I respond to Your Call; I am obedient to Your Orders) Then there will be a loud call (saying), ‘Allah orders you to take out from among your offspring the group for the (Hell) Fire.’ Adam will say, ‘O Lord! Who are the group for the (Hell) Fire?’ Allah will say, ‘Out of each thousand, take out 999.’ At that time every pregnant female will drop her load (have a miscarriage) and a child will have grey hair. ‘And you shall see mankind as in a drunken state, yet they will not be drunken, but severe will be the Torment of Allah.’” (V.22:2) (When the Prophet mentioned this), the people were so distressed (and afraid) that their faces got changed (in colour) whereupon the Prophet said, “From Ya‘jūj and Ma‘jūj (Gog and Magog) nine hundred and ninety-nine will be taken out and one from you. You Muslims (compared to the large number of other people) will be like a black hair on the side of a white ox, or a white hair on the side of a black ox, and I hope that you will be one-fourth of the people of Paradise.” On that, we said, “Allahu Akbar!” Then he said, “(I hope that you will be) one-third of the people of Paradise.” We again said, “Allahu Akbar!” Then he said, “(I hope that you will be) half of the people of Paradise.” So we said, “Allahu Akbar.”
4742. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas regarding the Verse —

“And among mankind is he who worships Allah as it were, upon the very edge (i.e., in doubt)…" (V.22:11):

A man used to come to Al-Madīna and if his wife brought a son and his mares produced offspring, he would say, “This religion (Islam) is good,” but if his wife did not give birth to a child and his mares produced no offspring, he would say, “This religion is bad.”

4743. Narrated Qais bin ‘Ubaugh: Abū Dhar regarding the Verse — “These two opponents (believers and disbelievers) dispute with each other about their Lord…” (V.22:19) was revealed in connection with Hamza and his two companions and ‘Utba and his two companions on the day when they came out to combat on the day of the battle of Badr.\(^1\)

\(^1\) (H. 4743) Hamza and his companions were Muslims while the others were Al-Mushrikin (pagans).
4744. Narrated Qais bin ‘Ubād: ‘Alī said, “I will be the first to kneel down before the Most Gracious (Allāh) on the Day of Resurrection because of the dispute.” Qais said: This Verse — “These two opponents (believers and disbelievers) dispute with each other about their Lord...” (V.22:19) was revealed in connection with those who came out for the battle of Badr, i.e., ‘Alī, Ḥamza, ‘Ubayda, and Shaiba bin Rabī‘a, ‘Utba bin Rabī‘a and Al-Walid bin ‘Utba.

"And for those who accuse their wives, but have no witnesses except themselves…"
(V.24:6)

4745. Narrated Sahl bin Sa'd: 'Uwaimir came to 'Āsim bin 'Adi who was the chief of Bani 'Ajlân and said, "What do you say about a man who has found another man with his wife? Should he kill him whereupon you would kill him (i.e., the husband), or what should he do? Please ask Allâh's Messenger about this matter on my behalf." 'Āsim then went to the Prophet and said, "O Allâh's Messenger!" (And asked him that question) but Allâh's Messenger disliked the question and considered it shameful.
When 'Uwaimir asked 'Āṣim (about the Prophet's answer) 'Āṣim replied that Allāh's Messenger disliked such questions and considered it shameful. 'Uwaimir then said, "By Allāh, I will not give up asking unless I ask Allāh's Messenger about it." 'Uwaimir came (to the Prophet) and said, "O Allāh's Messenger! A man has found another man with his wife! Should he kill him whereupon you would kill him (the husband, in Al-Qisāṣ) or what should he do?" Allāh's Messenger said, "Allāh has revealed regarding you and your wife's case in the Qur'an." So Allāh's Messenger ordered them to perform the Mulā'ana according to what Allāh had mentioned in His Book. So, 'Uwaimir did Mulā'ana with her and said, "O Allāh's Messenger! If I kept her I would oppress her." So 'Uwaimir divorced her, and so divorce became a tradition after them for those who happened to be involved in a case of Mulā'ana. Allāh's Messenger then said, "Look! If she ('Uwaimir's wife) delivers a black child with deep black large eyes, big hips and fat legs, then I will be of the opinion that 'Uwaimir has spoken the truth; but if she delivers a red child looking like a Wahara then we will consider that 'Uwaimir has told a lie against her." Later on she delivered a child carrying the qualities which Allāh's Messenger had mentioned as a proof for 'Uwaimir's claim; therefore the child was ascribed to its mother henceforth.

should be) the invoking of the Curse of Allāh on him if he is of those who tell a lie (against her).” (V.24:7) 4746. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: A man came to Allāh’s Messenger and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Suppose a man saw another man with his wife, should he kill him whereupon you might kill him (i.e., the killer) in Al-Qiṣāṣ), or what should he do?” So, Allāh revealed concerning their case what is mentioned of the order of Mulā’ana. Allāh’s Messenger said to the man, “The matter between you and your wife has been decided.” So, they did Mulā’ana in the presence of Allāh’s Messenger and I was present there, and then the man divorced his wife. So it became a tradition to dissolve the marriage of those spouses who were involved in a case of Mulā’ana. The woman was pregnant and the husband denied that he was the cause of her pregnancy, so the son was (later) ascribed to her. Then it became a tradition that such a son would be the heir of his mother, and she would inherit of him what Allāh prescribed for her.

(3) CHAPTER. “But it shall avert the punishment (of stoning to death) from her...” (V.24:8)

4747. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Hilāl bin Umaiyya accused his wife of committing illegal sexual intercourse with Sharīk bin Sahmā and filed the case before the Prophet. The Prophet said (to Hilāl), “Either you bring forth a proof (four witnesses) or you will receive the legal punishment (lashes) on your back.” Hilāl said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! If anyone of us saw a man over his wife, would he go to seek after witnesses?” The Prophet kept on saying, “Either you bring forth the witnesses or you will receive the legal punishment (lashes) on your back.” Hilal then said, “By Him Who sent you with the Truth, I am telling the truth and Allah will reveal to you what will save my back from legal punishment.” Then Jibril (Gabriel) came down and revealed to him:

“And for those who accuse their wives…” (V.24:6-9)

The Prophet recited it till he reached: ‘... (her husband) speaks the truth?’ Then the Prophet left and sent for the woman, and Hilal went (and brought) her and then took the oaths (confirming the claim). The Prophet was saying, “Allah knows that one of you is a liar, so, will any of you repent?” Then the woman got up and took the oaths and when she was going to take the fifth one, the people stopped her and said, “It (the fifth oath) will definitely bring Allah’s Curse on you (if you are guilty).” So, she hesitated and recoiled (from taking the oath) so much so that we thought that she would withdraw her denial. But then she said, “I will not dishonour my family all through these days,” and carried on (the process of taking oaths). The Prophet then said, “Watch her; if she delivers a black-eyed child with big hips and fat shins then it is Sharik bin Sahmâ’s child.” Later, she delivered a child of that description. So the Prophet said, “If the case was not settled by Allah’s Law, I would punish her severely.”

(4) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah:

“And the fifth (testimony) should be that the Wrath of Allah be upon her if he (her husband) speaks the truth.” (V.24:9) ordered them both to do Mulā'ana(1) as Allāh decreed and then gave his decision that the child would be for the mother, and a divorce decree was issued for the couple involved in a case of Mulā'ana.

(5) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh, it:

"Verily! Those who brought forth the slander (against 'Āishah the wife of the Prophet ﷺ) are a group among you.” (V.24:11)

4749.Narrated 'Āishah regarding the Verse “And as for him among them who had the greater share…” (V.24:11) was ‘Abdullāh bin Ubayy bin Salūl.

(6) CHAPTER. “Why then did not the believers, men and women, when you heard it (the slander) think good of their own people and say: ‘This (charge) is an obvious lie… (up to) … Then with Allāh they are the liars.” (V.24:12-13)

4750. Narrated 'Āishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: Whenever Allāh's Messenger ﷺ intended to go on a journey, he would to draw lots among his wives and would take with him the one on whom the lot fell. Once he drew lots when he wanted to carry out a Ghazwa, and the lot fell upon me. So, I proceeded with Allāh's Messenger ﷺ after Allāh’s Order of veiling (the women) had been revealed and thus I was carried in my Howdaj (on a camel) and dismounted while still in it. We carried on our journey, and when Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ had finished his Ghazwa and returned and we approached Al-Madina, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ ordered to proceed at night. When the army was ordered to resume the homeward journey, I got up and walked on till I left the army (camp) behind to answer the call of nature. After finishing, I went towards my Howdaj, but behold! A necklace of mine made of Jaz, Azfār (a kind of black bead) was broken and I looked for it and my search for it detained me. The group of people who used to carry me on the camel, came and carried my Howdaj on to the back of my camel on which I was riding, thinking that I was therein. At that time women were light in weight and thin and lean for they used to eat little (food), so those people did not feel the difference in the heaviness of the Howdaj lifting it up, and I was still a young lady. They drove away the camel and proceeded. Then I found my necklace after the army had gone. I came to their camp but found nobody therein so I went to the place where I used to stay, thinking that they would discover my absence and come back in my search. While I was sitting at my place, I felt sleepy and slept. Șafwân bin Al-Mu’attal As-Sulamî Adh-Dhakwâni was behind the army. He had started in the last part of the night and reached my stationing place in the morning. When he saw the figure of a sleeping person, he came to me and recognized me on seeing me for he used to see me before veiling. I got up because of his saying: ‘Innâ lillãhi wa inna ilaihi raji’an’,(2) which he uttered on recognizing me. I covered my face with my garment, and by Allâh, he did not say to me a single word except, ‘Innà lillâh wa innà ilaihi râji’un,’ till he made his she-camel kneel down whereupon he put his leg on the front legs of the camel and I mounted it. Then Sâfwân set out walking, leading the she-camel that was carrying me by the rope till we reached the army who had halted to take rest at midday. Then whoever was meant for destruction, fell into destruction, (some people accused me falsely) and the leader of the false accusers was ‘Abdullâh bin Ubayy bin Salûl. After this we arrived at Al-Madînâ and I became ill for one month while the people were spreading the forged statements of the people who brought forth the slander and I was not aware of anything thereof. But what aroused my doubt while I was sick, was that I was no longer receiving from Allâh’s Messenger the same kindness as I used to receive when I fell sick. Allâh’s Messenger would enter upon me, say a greeting and add, “How is that (lady)?” and then depart. That aroused my suspicion but I was not aware of the propagated evil till I recovered from my ailment. I went out with Umm Mistâh to answer the call of naur towards Al-Manâsî, the place where we used to relieve ourselves, and we used not to go out for this purpose except from night to night, and that was before we had lavatories close to our houses. And this habit of ours was similar to the habit of the old Arabs (living in the deserts or in the tents) concerning the evacuation of the bowels, for we considered it troublesome and harmful to take lavatories in the houses. So, I went out with Umm Mistâh who was the daughter of Abî Ruhm bin ‘Abd Manâf, and her mother was the daughter of Sakhr bin ‘Anîr who was the aunt of Abî Bakr As-Siddîq, and her son was Mistâh bin Uthâthâ. When we had finished, Umm Mistah and I came back towards my house. Umm Mistah stumbled over her robe whereupon she said, "Let Mistah be ruined!" I said to her, "You are saying a bad word. Why are you abusing a man who took part in (the battle of) Badr?" She said, "O Hantah (you there)! Didn't you hear what he has said?" I said, "And what did he say?" Then she told me the rumours of the false accusers which added to my ailment. When I returned home, Allah's Messenger came to me, and after greeting, he said, "How is that (lady)?" I said, "Will you allow me to go to my parents?" At that time I intended to be sure of the news through them. Allah's Messenger allowed me and I went to my parents and asked my mother, "O my mother! What are the people talking about?" My mother said, "O my daughter! Don't worry much about this matter. By Allah, there is no charming lady who is loved by her husband who has other wives, but that those wives would find fault with her or forge false news about her." I said, "Subhan Allah! Are the people really talking of this matter?" That night I kept on weeping and could not sleep till morning. My tears never stopped, nor did I sleep, and morning broke while I was still weeping. Allah's Messenger called 'Ali bin Abi Talib and Usama bin Zaid when he saw the Divine Revelation delayed, in order to consult them as to the idea of divorcing his wife. Usama bin Zaid told Allah's Messenger of what he knew of the good reputation of his wives and added, "O Allah's Messenger! Keep your wife, for, By Allah, we do not know anything about her but good." 'Ali bin Abi Talib said, "O Allah's Messenger! Allah does not impose restrictions on you; and there are many of women other than she, yet you may ask the women-servant who will tell you the truth." 'Aishah added: So Allah's Messenger called for Barira and said, "O Barira! Did you ever see anything which might have aroused your suspicion (as regards 'Aishah)?" Barira said, "By Allah Who has sent you with the Truth, I have never seen anything faulty except that she is a girl of immature age who sometimes sleeps and leaves the dough of her family unprotected so that the domestic goats come and eat it." So Allah's Messenger got up (and addressed) the people and asked for somebody who would support him in punishing 'Abdullâh bin Ubayy bin Salûl. Allah's Messenger while on the pulpit, said, "O Muslims! Who will support me to punish that man ('Abdullah bin Ubayy bin Salûl) who has hurt me by slandering the reputation of my family? By Allah, I know nothing except good about my family, and they have accused a person about whom I know nothing except good, and he never entered my house except in my company." Sa'd bin Mu'âdh Al-Ansârî got up and said, "O Allah's Messenger! By Allah, I will relieve you from him. If he be from the tribe of (Bani) Al-Aus, then I will chop his head off; and if that man is from our brethren, the Khazraj, then order us and we will fulfil your order." On that, Sa'd bin 'Ubâda, chief of the Khazraj, and before this incident, he had been a pious man, got up, motivated by his zeal for his tribe. He said to Sa'd (bin Mu'âdh), "By Allah the Eternal, you have told a lie! You cannot kill him and you will never be able to kill him!" On that, Usaid bin Hudair, the cousin of Sa'd (bin Mu'âdh) got up and said to Sa'd bin 'Ubâda, "You are a liar! By Allah the Eternal, we will surely kill him; and you are a hypocrite, defending the hypocrites!" On this, two tribes of Al-Aús and Al-Khazraj got excited till they were on the point of fighting with... each other while Allāh’s Messenger was standing on the pulpit. Allāh’s Messenger continued quietening them till they became silent whereupon he became silent, too. On that day I kept on weeping so much that neither did my tears stop, nor could I sleep. In the morning my parents were with me, and I had wept for two nights and a day without sleeping and with incessant tears till they thought that my liver would burst with weeping. While they were with me and I was weeping, an Ansāri woman asked permission to see me. I admitted her and she sat and started weeping with me. While I was in that state, Allāh’s Messenger came to us, greeted, and sat down. He had never sat with me since the day they forged the accusation. No Divine Revelation regarding my case came to him for a month. Allāh’s Messenger recited the Tashah-hud after he had sat down, and then said, “Then after, O ‘Aishah! I have been informed such and such about you, if you are innocent, Allāh will reveal your innocence, and if you have committed a sin, then repent to Allāh and ask Him to forgive you, for when a person confesses his sin and asks Allah for forgiveness, Allāh accepts his repentance.”

When Allāh’s Messenger had finished his speech, my tears ceased completely and there remained not even a single drop of it. Then I requested my father, “Reply to Allāh’s Messenger on my behalf.” He said, “By Allāh, I do not know what to say to Allāh’s Messenger.” Then I said to my mother, “Reply to Allāh’s Messenger.” She said, “I do not know what to say to Allāh’s Messenger.” I was a young girl and did not have much knowledge of the Qur’ān, I said, “By Allāh, I know that you heard this story (of the Ifk) so much so that it has been planted in your minds and you have taken it as a truth. Now, if I tell you I am innocent—and Allah knows that I am innocent—you will not believe me; and if I confessed to you falsely that I am guilty, and Allah knows that I am innocent, you would believe me. By Allah, I cannot find of you and I an example except that of Yusuf’s (Joseph)’s father [i.e., Ya’qub (Jacob) عليه السلام]: ‘So (for me) patience is most fitting. And it is Allah (Alone) Whose help can be sought against that (lie) which you describe.”’ (V.12:18)

Then I turned to the other side and lay on my bed, and I knew that I was innocent and that Allah would reveal my innocence. But, by Allah, I never thought that Allah would send down Divine Revelation about my affair, that would be recited (forever), as I considered myself too inferior to be talked of by Allah with something that was to be recited; but I hoped that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ might have a vision in which Allah would prove my innocence. By Allah, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ had not left his seat and nobody had left the house when the Divine Revelation came to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ. So, there overtook him the same state which used to overtake him (when he used to receive Divine Revelation). He was sweating so much so that the drops of sweat were dropping like pearls, though it was a (cold) wintry day. And when that state of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ was over he was smiling and the first word he said was: “‘Aishah, Allah has declared your innocence.” My mother said to me, “Get up and go to him.” I said, “By Allah, I will not go to him and I will not thank anybody but Allah ﷺ.” So Allah ﷺ revealed:

“Verily! Those who brought forth the slander (against ‘Aishah ﷺ) are a group among you. Consider it not a bad...” (V.24:11-20)

When Allah revealed this declaration of my innocence, Abu Bakr As-Siddiq, who used to provide for Mistah bin Uthatha because of his kinship and poverty, said, “By Allah, I will never provide for Mistah anything after what he has said about ‘Aishah”. So Allah revealed:

“And let not those among you who are blessed with graces and wealth swear not to give (any sort of help) to their kinsmen, Al-Masakin (poor), and those who left their homes for Allah’s Cause. Let them pardon and forgive. Do you not love that Allah should forgive you? And Allah is Oft-forgiving, Most Merciful.” (V.24:22)

Abu Bakr said, “Yes, by Allah, I like that Allah should forgive me” and resumed giving Mistah the aid he used to give him before, by saying, “By Allah, I will never withhold it from him at all.” ‘Aishah further said: Allah’s Messenger also asked Zainab bint Jahsh about me saying, “0 Zainab! What do you know and what did you see?” She replied, “0 Allah’s Messenger! I refrain to claim hearing or seeing what I have not heard or seen. I know nothing except goodness about ‘Aishah.” ‘Aishah added (of all the wives of Allah’s Messenger), Zainab was competing with me (in her beauty and the Prophet’s love), yet Allah protected her (from being malicious) for she had piety. But her sister, Hamna, kept on fighting on her behalf, so she was destroyed as were those who invented and spread the slander.

CHAPTER. “And why did you not, when you heard it, say: It is not right for us to speak of this…” (V.24:16)

4753. Narrated Ibn An Mulaika: Ibn ‘Abbās asked permission to visit ‘Aishah before her death, and at that time she was in a state of agony. She then said, “I am afraid that he will praise me too much.” And then it was said to her, “He is the cousin of Allah’s Messenger and one of the prominent Muslims.” Then she said, “Allow him to enter.” (When he entered) he said, “How are you?” She replied, “I am...

alright if I fear (Allah).” Ibn Abbās said, “If Allah will, you are alright, as you are the wife of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ; and he did not marry any virgin except you, and proof of your innocence was revealed from the heaven.” Later on Ibn Az-Zubair entered after him and ‘Aishah said to him, “Ibn ‘Abbās came to me and praised me greatly, but I wish that I was a thing forgotten and out of sight.”

4754. Narrated Al-Qāsim: Ibn ‘Abbās asked ‘Aishah’s permission to enter. Al-Qāsim then narrated the whole Hadîth (as the above) but did not mention: “a thing forgotten and out of sight.”

“And warns you not to repeat the like of it, forever.” (V.24:17)

4755. Narrated Masrūq: ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها said that Hassan bin Thabit came and asked permission to visit her. I said, “How do you permit such a person?” She said, “Hasn’t he received a severe torment (penalty)”? (Sufyān, the subnarrator, said: She meant the loss of his sight.) Thereupon Hassan said the following poetic verse:
“A chaste pious woman who arouses no suspicion. She never talks about chaste heedless women behind their backs.”

On that she said, “But you are not so.”

(10) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah ﷻ:
“And Allah makes the Ayāt (proofs, evidences, verses, lessons, signs, revelations, etc.) plain to you. And Allah is All-Knowing, All-Wise.” (V.24:18)

4756. Narrated Masruq: Hassan came to ‘Aishah and said the following poetic verse:

“A chaste pious woman who arouses no suspicion. She never talks against chaste heedless women behind their backs.’ ‘Aishah said, “But you are not”. I said (to ‘Aishah), “Why do you allow such a person to enter upon you after Allah has revealed:

‘...And as for him among them who had the greater share therein...’” (V.24:11)

She said, “What punishment is worse than blindness?” She added, “And he used to defend Allah’s Messenger against Al-Mushrikin (with his poetry).”

and praising Allah as He deserved, he said, “Amma ba’du (now then): O people! Give me your opinion regarding those people who made a forged story against my wife. By Allah, I do not know anything bad about her. By Allah, they accused her of being with a man about whom I have never known anything bad, and he never entered my house unless I was present there, and whenever I went on a journey, he went with me.” Sa’d bin Mu‘adh got up and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Allow me to chop their heads off!” Then a man from the Al-Khazraj (Sa’d bin ‘Ubada) to whom the mother of (the poet) Hassan bin Thabit was a relative, got up and said (to Sa’d bin Mu‘adh), “You have told a lie! By Allah, if those persons were from the As tribe, you would not like to chop their heads off.” It was probable that some evil would take place between the As and the Khazraj in the mosque, and I was unaware of all that. In the evening of that day, I went out for some of my needs (i.e., to relieve myself), and Umm Mistah was accompanying me. On our return, Umm Mistah stumbled and said, “Let Mistah be ruined!” I said to her, “O mother! Why do you abuse your son?” On that Umm Mistah became silent for a while, and stumbling again, she said, “Let Mistah be ruined!” I said to her, “Why do you abuse your son?” She stumbled for the third time and said, “Let Mistah be ruined!” Whereupon I rebuked her for that. She said, “By Allah, I do not abuse him except because of you.” I asked her, “Concerning what of my affairs?” So, she disclosed the whole story to me. I said, “Has this really happened?” She replied, “Yes, by Allah.” I returned to my house, astonished (and distressed) that I did not know for what purpose I had gone out. Then I became sick and said to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, “Send me to my father’s house.” So, he sent a slave with me, and when I entered the house, I found Umm Rûmân (my mother) downstairs while (my father) Abû Bakr was reciting something upstairs. My mother asked, “What has brought you, O (my) daughter?” I informed her and mentioned to her the whole story, but she did not feel it as I did. She said, “O my daughter! Don’t worry much about this matter, for there is never a charming lady loved by her husband who has other wives, but that they feel jealous of her and speak badly of her.” But she did not feel about it as I did. I asked (her), “Does my father know about it?” She said, “Yes.” I asked, “Does Allah’s Messenger ﷺ know about it, too?” She said, “Yes, Allah’s Messenger does, too.” So the tears filled my eyes and I wept. Abû Bakr, who was reading upstairs heard my voice and came down and asked my mother, “What is the matter with her?” She said, “She has heard what has been said about her (as regards the story of Al-I/k).” On that Abû Bakr wept and said, “I beseech you by Allah, O my daughter, to go back to your home.” I went back to my home and Allah’s Messenger ﷺ had come to my house and asked my maid-servant about me (my character). The maid-servant said, “By Allah, I do not know of any fault or defect in her character except that she sleeps and let the sheep enter (her house) and eat her dough.” On that, some of the Prophet’s Companions spoke harshly to her and said, “Tell the truth to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ.” Finally, they told her of the affair (of the slander). She said, “Subhân Allah! By Allah, I know nothing against her except what goldsmith knows about a piece of pure gold.” Then this news reached the man who was accused, and he said, “Subhân Allah! By Allah, I have never uncovered the private parts of any woman.” Later that man was martyrred in Allah’s Cause. Next morning, my parents came to pay me a visit and they stayed with me till Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) came to me after he had offered the ‘Asr prayer. He came to me while my parents were sitting around me on my right and my left. He praised and glorified Allah and said, “Now then, O ‘Aishah! If you have committed a bad deed, or you have wronged (yourself), then repent to Allah, as Allah accepts the repentance from His slaves.” An Ansârî woman had come and was sitting near the gate. I said (to the Prophet ﷺ), “Isn’t it improper that you speak in such a way in the presence of this lady?” Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) then gave a piece of advice and I turned to my father and requested him to answer him (on my behalf). My father said, “What should I say?” Then I turned to my mother and asked her to answer him. She said, “What should I say?” When my parents did not give a reply to the Prophet (ﷺ), I said, “I testify that La ilaha illallâh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah) and that Muhammad (ﷺ) is His Messenger!” And after praising and glorifying Allah as He deserves, I said, “Now then, by Allah, if I were to tell you that I have not done (this evil action), and Allah is a witness that I am telling the truth, that would not be of any use to me on your part because you (people) have spoken about it and your hearts have absorbed it (as truth); and if I were to tell you that I have done this sin, and Allah knows that I have not done it, then you will say, ‘She has confessed her guilt.’ By Allah, I do not see a suitable example for me and you except the example of [I tried to remember Yu’qûb’s (Jacob’s) name but couldn’t] Yûsuf’s (Joseph’s) father when he said: ‘So (for me) patience is most fitting. And it is Allah ( Alone) Whose help can be sought against that (lie) which you describe.' At that very hour the Divine Revelation came to Allah's Messenger and we remained silent. Then the Revelation was over and I noticed the signs of happiness on his face while he was removing (the sweat) from his forehead and saying, ‘Have the good tidings O 'Aishah! Allah has revealed your innocence.’ At that time I was extremely angry. My parents said to me, ‘Get up and go to him.’ I said, ‘By Allah, I will not do it and will not thank him nor thank either of you, but I will thank Allah, Who has revealed my innocence. You have heard (this story) but neither of you have denied it, nor you have changed it (to defend me).’ (‘Aishah used to say): ‘But as regards Zainab bint Jahsh, (the Prophet's wife), Allah protected her because of her piety, so she did not say anything except good (about me), but her sister, Hamna, was ruined among those who were ruined. Those who used to speak evil about me were Mistah, Hassân bin Thâbit, and the hypocrite, 'Abdullah bin Ubayy, who used to spread that news and tempt others to speak of it, and it was he and Hamna who had the greater share therein. Abû Bakr took an oath that he would never do any favour to Mistah at all. Then Allah revealed the Divine Verse: ‘Let not those among you who are blessed with graces and wealth (i.e., Abû Bakr) swear not to give (any sort of help) to their kinsmen, Al-Masâkin (the poor) and the poor... (up to) ...Do you not love that Allah should forgive you? And Allah if Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.’’ (V.24:22) On that, Abû Bakr said, ‘Yes, by Allah, O our Lord! We wish that You should forgive us.’ So, Abû Bakr again started giving to Mistah the expenditure which he used to give him before.”
(12) CHAPTER. "... and to draw their veils all over their Juyubihinna (i.e., their bodies, faces, necks and bosoms) ..." (V.24:31)

4758. Narrated 'Aishah: May Allâh bestow His Mercy on the early emigrant women. When Allâh revealed:

"... and to draw their veils all over their Juyubihinna (i.e., their bodies, faces, necks and bosoms) ..." (V.24:31) they tore their Murât (woolen dresses or waist-binding clothes or aprons etc.) and covered their heads and faces with those torn Murâts.

4759. Narrated Şafiyya bint Shaiba: 'Aishah used to say: "When (the Verse): ‘... and to draw their veils all over their Juyubihinna (i.e., their bodies, faces, necks and bosoms, etc.)...’ (V.24:31) was revealed, (the ladies) cut their waist-sheets from their margins and covered their heads and faces with those cut pieces of cloth."
In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

(25) SURAT AL-FURQAN
(The Criterion)

1. Those who will be gathered to Hell (prone) on their faces..." (V.25:34)

4760. Narrated Anas bin Malik:
A man said, “O Allah’s Prophet! Will Allah gather a disbeliever (prone) on his face on the Day of Resurrection?” He (ﷺ) said, “Will not the One Who made him walk on his feet in this world, be able to make him walk on his face on the Day of Resurrection?” (Qatada, a subnarrator, said: Yes, By the Power of our Lord!)

(2) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah Üi: “And those who invoke not any other ilah (god) along with Allah, nor kill such person...” (V.25:68)

4761. Narrated ‘Abdullah رضي الله عنه: I, or somebody, asked Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, “Which is the biggest sin in consideration with Allah?” He said, “That you set up a rival (in worship) to Allah, though He Alone created you.” I asked, “What is next?” He said, “To kill your son, lest he should share your food with you.” I asked, “What is next?” He said, “To commit illegal sexual intercourse with the wife of your neighbour.” Then the following Verse was revealed to confirm the statement of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ:

“Those who invoke not, any other ilah (god) along with Allah, nor kill such person as Allah has forbidden except for just cause, nor commit illegal sexual intercourse...”’ (V.25:68) (See H. 4477)
4762. Narrated Al-Qāsim bin Ābi Bazza that he asked Sa‘īd bin Jubair, “Is there any repentance for the one who has murdered a believer intentionally?” Then I recited to him:

“...Nor kill such life as Allāh has forbidden except for a just cause...” Sa‘īd said, “I recited this very Verse before Ibn ‘Abbās as you have recited it before me. Ibn ‘Abbās said, ‘This Verse was revealed in Makkah and it has been abrogated by a Verse in Sūrat An-Nisā’ which was later revealed in Al-Madīna’. ”

4763. Narrated Sa‘īd bin Jubair: The people of Kūfa differed as regards the killing of a believer, so I entered upon Ibn ‘Abbās (and asked him) about that. Ibn ‘Abbās said, “the Verse (in Sūrat An-Nisā’, V.4:93) was the last thing revealed in this respect and nothing cancelled its validity.”

4764. Narrated Sa‘īd bin Jubair: I asked Ibn ‘Abbās about Allāh’s saying:

“...His recompense is Hell...” (V.4:93)

He said, “No repentance is accepted from him (i.e., the murderer of a believer).” I asked him regarding the Saying of Allāh:

(1) (H. 4762) In Sūrat Al-Furqān, Allāh gives the chance to one who has murdered a believer to repent: “Except those who repent and believe (in Islamic Monotheism), and do righteous deeds, for those, Allāh will change their sins into good deeds, and Allāh is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.” (V.25:70) While in Sūrat An-Nisā’, Allāh says: “And whoever kills a believer intentionally, his recompense is Hell to abide therein; and the Wrath and Curse of Allāh are upon him, and a great punishment is prepared for him...” (V. 4:93) Ibn ‘Abbās thinks that the latter Verse has abrogated the former. In Ḥadīth No. 4764, he says that the former Verse was applicable only to Al-Mushriḵān (pagans) before embracing Islam. The latter Verse is concerned with those who have embraced Islam. See Ḥadīth No.4764, 4765, 4766.
“And those who invoke not any other ilah (god) along with Allāh…” (V.25:68)

He said, “This Verse was revealed concerning Al-Mushrikūn (pagans) of the pre-Islāmic period.”(1)

(3) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh:
“...And whoever kills a believer intentionally, his recompense is Hell…” (V.4:93)

And also His Statement:
“...Nor kill such life as Allāh has forbidden, except for just cause... (up to) ...except those who repent and believe (in Islamic Monotheism).’’ (V.25:68-70)

So I asked Ibn ‘Abbās and he said, “When this (V.25:68,69) was revealed the people of Makkah said, “We have invoked other gods with Allāh, and we have murdered such lives which Allāh has made sacred, and we have committed illegal sexual intercourse.” (before embracing Islām). So Allāh revealed:

‘Except those who repent and believe (in Islāmic Monotheism), and do righteous deeds... (up to) ...and Allāh is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.’” (V.25:70)

(4) CHAPTER. “Except those who repent and believe (in the Islāmic Monotheism) and do righteous deeds, for those, Allāh will change their sins into good deeds, and Allāh is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.” (V.25:70)

4766. Narrated Sa’īd bin Jubair: ‘Abdur-
Rahmān bin Abzā ordered me to ask Ibn ʿAbbās regarding the two Verses (the first of which was):

“And who ever kills a believer intentionally…” (V.4:93)

So, I asked him, and he said, “Nothing has abrogated this Verse.” About (the other Verse):

“And those who invoke not any other ilāh (god) along with Allah…” he said, “It was revealed concerning Al-Mushrikūn.” (1)

(5) CHAPTER. “... So the torment will be yours for ever” (V.25:77)

4767. Narrated ʿAbdullāh: Five (great events) (2) have passed: the Smoke, the Moon, the Romans, the Mighty Grasp and the Constant Punishment which occurs in:

“... So the torment will be yours for ever.” (V.25:77)

(1) (H. 4766) See Hadīth No.4765.
(2) (H. 4767) The events referred to here are all mentioned in the Noble Qurʾān.
(a) The smoke here means what Al-Mushrikūn of Makkah imagined to see in the sky because of their severe hunger when Allāh afflicted them with drought (famine). (V.44:10)
(b) The event of the splitting of the moon which took place in the lifetime of the Prophet and was witnessed by Al-Mushrikūn, his companions and some believers. (V.54:1): one of the miracles from Allāh to the Prophet .
(c) The Romans were defeated by the Persian Mushrikūn whereupon the Quraish Mushrikūn of Makkah rejoiced. (V.30:2-4)
(d) The Mighty Grasp is that which Allāh sent upon Al-Mushrikūn of Quraish in the battle of Badr. (V.74:16)
(e) Constant punishment will definitely be inflicted upon those who rejected Faith. ʿAbdullāh regards this future inevitable event as definite as any past event, therefore he includes it in the four other events.

(26) SūRAH AŚH-SHU‘ARĀ’
(The Poets)

In the Name of Allāh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

And He said: "Disgrace me not on the Day when all the creatures will be resurrected." (V.26:87).

Narrated Abū Hurairah:

The Prophet ﷺ said, "On the Day of Resurrection, Ibrāhīm (Abraham) will see his father covered with Ghabara and Qatara (i.e., having a dark face)."
4769. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, "Ibrahim (Abraham) will meet his father (on the Day of Resurrection) and will say, 'O my Lord! You promised me that You would not let me in disgrace on the Day when people will be resurrected.' Allah will say, 'I have forbidden Paradise for the disbelievers.'"

4770. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: When the Verse "And warn your tribe (O Muhammad) of near kindred. And be kind and humble to the believers who follow you..." (V.26:214-215) was revealed, the Prophet ascended the As-Safā (mountain) and started calling, "O Bani Fihr! O Bani 'Adi!" addressing various tribes of Quraish till they were assembled. Those who could not come themselves, sent their messengers to see what was there. Abū Lahab and other people from Quraish came, and the Prophet then said, "Suppose I told you that there is an (enemy) cavalry in the valley intending to attack you, would you believe me?" They said, "Yes, for we have not found you telling anything other than the truth." He then said, "I am a plain warner to you of a coming severe punishment." Abū Lahab said (to the Prophet ﷺ), “May you perish all this day. Is it for this purpose you have gathered us?”

Then it was revealed:

“Perish the two hands of Abū Lahab (an uncle of the Prophet), and perish he! His wealth and his children (etc.) will not benefit him!” (V.111:1,2)

4771. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ got up when the Verse “And warn your tribe (O Muḥammad ﷺ) of near-kindred” (V.26:214) was revealed and said, “O Qurāish people! (or he said a similar word) Buy yourselves! I cannot save you from Allāh (if you disobey Him). O Bānī ‘Abd Manāf! I cannot save you from Allāh (if you disobey Him). O ‘Abbās! The son of ‘Abdul-Muttalib! I cannot save you from Allāh (if you disobey Him). O Ṣafīyya, the aunt of Allāh’s Messenger! I cannot save you from Allāh (if you disobey Him). O Fāṭima, the daughter of Muḥammad ﷺ! Ask what you wish from my property, but I cannot save you from Allāh (if you disobey Him).”

(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

"Verily! You (O Muhammad ﷺ) guide not whom you like, but Allâh guides whom He wills…” (V.28:56)

4772. Narrated Al-Mûsaiyab: When Abû Tâlib was on his deathbed, Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ came to him and found with him, Abû Jahl and ‘Abdu’llâh bin Abî Umaiyya bin Al-Mughîra. Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “O uncle! Say: “Lâ ilâha illallâh (none has the right to be worshipped but Allâh) a sentence with which I will defend you (argue for your case with it) before Allâh.” On that Abû Jahl and ‘Abdu’llâh bin Abî Umaiyya said to Abû Tâlib, “Do you want to denounce Abdul-Muttalib’s religion?” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ kept on inviting him to say that sentence while the other two kept on repeating their sentence before him till Abû Tâlib said as his last statement (he said to them), “I am on the religion of ‘Abdu’llâh bin Abî Umaiyya.” So, Allâh revealed:

“It is not (proper) for the Prophet and those who believe to ask Allâh’s forgiveness for Mushrikûn (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allâh) even though they be of kin, after it has become clear to them that they are the dwellers of the Fire (because they died in a state of disbelief).” (V.9:113)

And then Allâh revealed especially about Abû Tâlib:

“Verily! You (O Mu’âmmad ﷺ) guide not whom you like, but Allâh guides whom He wills…” (V.28:56) (See H. 1360)

(30) Sūrat Ar-Rūm
(The Romans)

In the Name of Allāh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.
4774. Narrated Masruq: While a man was delivering a speech in the tribe of Kinda, he said, “Smoke will prevail on the Day of Resurrection and will deprive the hypocrites their faculties of hearing and seeing. The believers will be afflicted with something like cold only thereof.” That news scared us, so I went to (Abdullâh) Ibn Mas’ûd while he was reclining (and told him the story) whereupon he became angry, sat up and said, “He who knows a thing can say it, but if he does not know, he should say, ‘Allâh knows better,’ for it is an aspect of knowledge to say, ‘I do not know,’ if you do not know a certain thing. Allâh said to His Prophet:

‘Say (O Muhammad ﷺ): No wage do I ask of you for this (the Qur’an), nor I am one of the Mutakallifûn (those who pretend and fabricate things which do not exist).’” (V.38:86)

“The Quraish delayed in embracing Islâm for a period, so the Prophet ﷺ invoked evil on them, saying, ‘O Allâh! Help me against them by sending on them seven (years of drought) famine like those of Yûsuf (Joseph).’ So they were afflicted with such a severe year of drought (famine) that they were destroyed therein and ate dead animals and bones. They started seeing something like smoke between the sky and the earth (because of severe hunger). Abû Sufyân then came (to the Prophet ﷺ) and said, ‘O Muhammad! You came to order us for to keep good relations with kith and kin, and your kinsmen have now perished, so please invoke Allâh (to relieve them).’” Then Ibn Mas’ûd recited:

“Then wait you for the Day when the sky will bring forth a visible smoke… (up to) … You will revert.” (V.10-15)
Ibn Mas'ūd added, “Then the punishment was stopped, but truly, they reverted to heathenism (their old way). So Allāh (threatened them thus):

‘On the Day when We shall seize you with the greatest grasp.’ (V. 44:16)

“And that was the day of the battle of Badr. Allāh’s saying: ‘Līzāma (the punishment)’ refers to the day of (the battle of) Badr. Allāh’s Statement:

‘Alif-Lām-Mim. The Romans have been defeated... (up to) ... will be victorious.’ (V.30:1-3)

“(This Verse) indicates that the defeat of Byzantines has already passed.”

CHAPTER. Allāh’s Statement: “…No change let there be in Khalq-illāh (i.e., the religion of Allāh — Islāmic Monotheism)…” (V.30:30)

Khalqul-Awwalin i.e., religion of the Awwalin — ancients (V.26:137) and Al-Fīṭrah i.e., Islām — i.e., Islāmic Monotheism.

4775. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “No child is born except on Al-Fīṭrah (pure Islāmic Monotheism), and then his parents convert him to Judaism or to Christianity or to Magianism as an animal gives birth to a perfect baby animal. Do you find it mutilated?” Then he recited:

“... Allāh’s Fīṭrah (i.e., Allāh’s Islāmic Monotheism) with which He has created mankind. No change let there be in the Khalq-illāh (i.e., the religion of Allāh — Islāmic Monotheism), that is the straight religion.” (V.30:30) (See H. 1359)

(1) CHAPTER. “... Join not in worship others with Allāh. Verily! Joining others in worship with Allāh is a great Zu’līm (wrong) indeed.” (V.31:13)

4776. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: When there was revealed:

“It is those who believe (in the Oneness of Allāh and worship none but Him Alone) and confuse not their Belief with Zu’līm (wrong)...” (V.6:82) it was very hard for the Companions of Allāh’s Messenger, so they said, “Which of us has not confused his Belief with Zu’līm (wrong)?” Allāh’s Messenger said, “The Verse does not mean this. Don’t you hear Luqmān’s statement to his son: ‘Verily! Joining others in worship with Allāh is a great Zu’līm (wrong) indeed.’” (V.31:13)

(2) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh: “Verily, Allāh! With Him (Alone) is the knowledge of the Hour...” (V.31:34)

4777. Narrated Abū Hurairah: One day, while Allāh’s Messenger was sitting with the people, a man came to him walking and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! What is Faith?” The Prophet said “Faith is to believe in Allāh, His Angels, His Books, His Messengers, and the Meeting with Him, and to believe in the Resurrection.” The man asked, “O Allāh’s Messenger! What is Islam?” The Prophet replied, “Islam is to worship Allāh Alone and not to worship anything besides Him, to perform Iqâmat-as-Ṣalât(1), to pay Zakât and to observe Šaum (fasts) during the month of Ramaḍān.” The man further asked, “O Allâh’s Messenger! What is Iḥsân (perfection or benevolence)?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Iḥsân is to worship Allâh as if you see Him, and if you do not achieve this state of devotion, then (you must consider that) Allâh is looking at you.” The man further asked, “O Allâh’s Messenger! When will the Hour be established?”

The Prophet ﷺ replied, “The answerer has no better knowledge than the questioner. But I will describe to you its portents.

When a lady slave gives birth to her mistress, that will be of its portents; when the bare-footed naked people become the chiefs of the people; that will be of its portents. The Hour is one of the five things which nobody knows except Allâh.” (The Prophet ﷺ then recited), “Verily, Allâh! With Him (Alone) is the knowledge of the Hour. He sends down the rain, and knows that which is in the wombs. No person knows what he will earn tomorrow, and no person knows in what land he will die,...” (V.31:34)

Then that man left. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Call him back to me.” They went to call him back but could not see him. The Prophet ﷺ said, “That was (the angel) Jibrîl (Gabriel) who came to teach the people their religion.”

[See also, Vol. 1, Hadîth No.50]

4778. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Umar ﺑرر ﺑرر The Prophet ﷺ said, “The keys of Al-Ghaib (the Unseen) are five.” And then he recited:-

“Verily, Allâh! With Him (Alone) is the knowledge of the Hour...” (V.31:34)

CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah:
 “No person knows what is kept hidden for them of joy...” (V.32:17)

4779. Narrated Abn Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Allah said, ‘I have prepared for My pious worshippers such things as no eye has ever seen, no ear has ever heard of, and nobody has ever thought of.’” Abú Hurairah added, “If you wish you can read:

‘No person knows what is kept hidden for them of joy’. ” (V.32:17)
4780. Narrated Abū Hurairah

The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allāh said, ‘I have prepared for My pious worshippers such things as no eye has ever seen, no ear has ever heard of, and nobody has ever even imagined of.’ All that is reserved, besides which, all that you have seen is nothing.”

Then he recited:

“No person knows what is kept hidden for them of joy as a reward for what they used to do.” (V.32:17)

(33) SūRAT AL-ＡḤZĀB
(The Confederates)

In the Name of Allāh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

(1) CHAPTER.

4781. Narrated Abū Hurairah

The Prophet ﷺ said, “There is no believer but I, of all the people, I am the closet to him both in this world and in the Hereafter. Recite if you wish:

‘The Prophet is closer to the believers than their own selves...’ (V.33:6) so if a believer (dies) leaves some property, then his relatives will inherit that property; but if he is in debt or he leaves poor children, let those (creditors and children) come to me (that I may pay the debt and provide for the children), for then I am his Maulâ (supporter and protector).”

(2) CHAPTER. “Call them (adopted sons) by (the names of) their fathers. That is more just with Allah…” (V.33 : 5)

4782. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: We used not to call Zaid bin Hâritha, the freed slave of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ except Zaid bin Muhammad till the Qur’anic Verse was revealed “Call them (adopted sons) by (the names of) their fathers. That is more just with Allah.” (V.33:5)

(3) CHAPTER. “Of them, some have fulfilled their obligations (i.e., have been martyred) and some of them are still waiting, but they have never changed (i.e., they never proved treacherous to their covenant which they concluded with Allah) in the least.” (V.33 : 23)

4783. Narrated Anas رضي الله عنه: We think that the Verse:

“Among the believers are men who have been true to their covenant with Allah [i.e. they have gone out for Jihâd (holy fighting) and showed not their backs to the disbelievers]...” (V.33:23) was revealed in favour of Anas bin An-Nadr.
4784. Narrated Zaid bin Thabit: When we collected the fragmentary manuscripts of the Qur'an into copies, I missed one of the Verses of Sūrat Al-Ahzāb which I used to hear Allāh’s Messenger reciting. Finally, I did not find it with anybody except Khuzaima Al-Anṣārī, whose witness was considered by Allāh’s Messenger equal to the witness of two men. (And that Verse was:)

"Among the believers are men who have been true to their covenant with Allāh…" (33:23).

4785. Narrated ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet: Allāh’s Messenger came to me when Allāh ordered him to give option to his wives. So Allāh’s Messenger started with me, saying, “I am going to mention to you something, but you should not hasten (to give your reply) unless you consult your parents.” He knew that my parents would not order me to leave him. Then he said, “Allāh says:

‘O Prophet (Muhammad)! Say to your wives…’” (V.33:28,29)

On that I said to him, “Then why should I consult my parents? Verily, I desire Allāh, His Messenger and the home of the Hereafter.”
(5) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah:

"But if you desire Allah and His Messenger, and the home of the Hereafter, then verily, Allah has prepared for Ḥaṣaṣīnāt (good-doers) amongst you an enormous reward."

(V.33:29)

Regarding the Verse:

'And remember (O you the members of the Prophet's family, the Graces of your Lord), that which is recited in your houses of the Verses of Allah and Al-Hikmah..." (V.33:34) Qatada said: Al-Hikmah means the Qur'an and the Prophet's Sunna.

4786. Narrated ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet: When Allah's Messenger was ordered to give option to his wives, he started with me, saying, "I am going to mention to you something, but you shall not hasten (to give your reply) unless you consult your parents." The Prophet knew that my parents would not order me to leave him. Then he said, "Allah says:

'O Prophet (Muhammad)! Say to your wives: If you desire the life of this world and its glitter... (up to) ... an enormous reward.'" (V.33:28,29)

I said, "Then why should consult I my parents? Verily, I desire Allah, His Messenger and the home of the Hereafter."

Then all the other wives of the Prophet did the same as I did.
(6) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

"And (remember) when you said to him (Zaid bin Häritha — the freed slave of the Prophet ﷺ on whom Allah has bestowed grace (by guiding him to Islam) and you (O Muhammad ﷺ too) have done favour (by manumitting him): 'Keep your wife to yourself and fear Allah.' But you did hide in yourself (i.e., what Allah has already made known to you that He will give her to you in marriage) that which Allah will make manifest, you did fear people (i.e., Muhammad ﷺ married the divorced wife of his manumitted slave) whereas Allah had a better right that you should fear Him...

(V.33:37)

4787. Narrated Anas bin Mãlik:

The Verse:

"And (remember) when you said to him (Zaid bin Häritha — the freed slave of the Prophet ﷺ on whom Allah has bestowed grace (by guiding him to Islam) and you (O Muhammad ﷺ too) have done favour (by manumitting him): 'Keep your wife to yourself and fear Allah.' But you did hide in (i.e., what Allah has already made known to you that He will give her to you in marriage) yourself that which Allah was about to make manifest..." (V.33:37) was revealed concerning Zainab bint Jahsh and Zaid bin Häritha.
(7) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah: “You (O Muhammad ﷺ) can postpone (the turn of) whom you will of them (your wives), and you may receive whom you will. And whomsoever you desire of those whom you have set aside (her turn temporarily), it is no sin on you (to receive her again)…” (V.33:51)

4788. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: I used to look down upon those ladies who had given themselves to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and I used to say, “Can a lady give herself to a man?” But when Allah revealed:

4789. Narrated Mu‘adh: ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها said, “Allah’s Messenger ﷺ used to take the permission of that wife with whom he was supposed to stay overnight if he wanted to go to one other than her, after this Verse was revealed:

“You (O Muhammad ﷺ) can postpone (the turn of) whom you will of them (your wives), and you may receive whom you will. And whomsoever you desire of those whom you have set aside (her turn temporarily) it is no sin on you (to receive her again)…” (V.33:51) I asked ‘Aishah, “What did you use to say (in this case)?” She said, “I used to say to him, ‘If I could deny you the permission (to go to your other wives) I would not allow your favour to be bestowed on any other person than I.’”
(8) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh

"...O you who believe! Enter not the Prophet's houses, except when leave is given to you for a meal... (up to) ... Verily! With Allâh that shall be an enormity."

(V.33:53)

4790. Narrated 'Umar S.A.W.: I said, "O Allah's Messenger! Good and bad persons enter upon you, so I suggest that you order the Mothers of the believers (i.e., your wives) to observe veils."

Then Allâh revealed the Verses of Al-Hijâb. (1)

4791. Narrated Anas bin Malik: When Allâh's Messenger ﷺ married Zainab bint Jahsh, he invited the people to a meal. They took the meal and remained sitting and talking. Then the Prophet (showed them) as if he is ready to get up, yet they did not get up. When he noticed that (there was no response to his movement), he got up, and the others, too, got up except three persons who kept on sitting. The Prophet (came back in order to enter his house, but he found

(1) (H. 4790) i.e. The observing of veils (a complete body cover excluding the eyes) by the Muslim women. See chapter No.12 and Hadith No.4758 and 4759.
those people still sitting (so he went away again). Then they left, whereupon I set out and went to the Prophet to tell him that they had departed, so he came and entered his house. I wanted to enter along with him, but he put a screen between me and him. Then Allah revealed:

“O you who believe! Enter not the Prophets’ houses…” (V.33:53)

4792. Narrated Anas bin Malik: I, of all the people know best this verse of Al-Hijab. When Allah’s Messenger married Zainab bin Jahsh, she was with him in the house and he prepared a meal and invited the people (to it). They sat down (after finishing their meal) and started chatting. So, the Prophet went out and then returned several times while they were still sitting and talking. So Allah revealed the Verse:

“O you who believe! Enter not the Prophet’s houses, except when leave is given to you for a meal, and then not (so early as) to wait for its preparation… (up to) … from behind a screen…” (V.33:53)

So the screen was set up and the people went away.

4793. Narrated Anas: A wedding banquet of bread and meat was held on the occasion of the marriage of the Prophet ﷺ to Zainab bint Jahsh. I was sent to invite the people (to the banquet), and so the people started coming (in groups); they would eat and then leave. Another batch would come, eat and leave. So I kept on inviting the people till I found nobody to invite. Then I said, “O Allah’s Prophet! I do not find anybody to invite.” He said, “Carry away the remaining food.” Then a batch of three persons stayed in the house, chatting. The Prophet ﷺ left and went towards the dwelling place of ‘Aishah and said, “Peace and Allah’s Mercy be on you, 0 the people of the house!” She replied, “Peace and the Mercy of Allah be on you, too. How did you find your wife? May Allah bless you.” Then he went to the dwelling places of all his other wives and said to them the same as he said to ‘Aishah, and they said to him the same as ‘Aishah had said to him. Then the Prophet ﷺ returned and found a group of three persons still in the house, chatting. The Prophet ﷺ was a very shy person, so he went out (for the second time) and went towards the dwelling place of ‘Aishah. I do not remember whether I informed him that the people have gone away. So, he returned and as soon as he entered the gate, he drew the curtain between me and him, and then the Verse of Al-Hijab was revealed.

4794. Narrated Anas: When Allah’s Messenger ﷺ married Zainab bint Jahsh, he made the people eat meat and bread to their fill (by giving a Walima banquet). Then he went out to the dwelling places of the Mothers of the believers (his wives), as he used to do in the morning of his marriage. He would greet them and invoke good on them, and they (too) would return his greeting and invoke good on him. When he returned to his house, he found two men talking to each other; and when he saw them, he went out of his house again. When those two men saw Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ going out of his house, they quickly got up (and departed). I do not remember whether I informed him of their departure, or he was informed (by somebody else). So he returned, and when he entered the house, he lowered the curtain between me and him, and the Verse of Al-Hijâb was revealed.

4795. Narrated ‘Aishah ﻪ: Sauda (the wife of the Prophet ﷺ) went out to answer the call of nature after it was made obligatory (for all the Muslims ladies) to observe the veil. She was a fat huge lady, and everybody who knew her before could recognize her. So, ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭâb saw her and said, “O Sauda! By Allâh, you cannot hide yourself from us, so think of a way by which you should not be recognized on going out.” Sauda returned while Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ was in my house taking his supper, and a bone covered with meat was in his hand. She entered and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! I went out to answer the call of nature and ‘Umar said to me so-and-so.” Then Allâh revealed upon him (the Prophet and when the state of Revelation was over and the bone was still in his hand as he had not put it down, he said (to Sauda), “You (women) have been allowed to go out for your needs.”

(9) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

‘Whether you reveal anything or conceal it, verily, Allah is Ever All-Knower of everything... (up to) ... Verily, Allah is Ever All-Witness over everything.”

(V.33:54,55)

4796. Narrated ‘Aishah: Aflah, the brother of Abi Al-Quais, asked permission to visit me after the order of Al-Hijab was revealed. I said, “I will not permit him unless I take permission of the Prophet about him, for it was not the brother of Abi Al-Quais but the wife of Abi Al-Quais that nursed me.” The Prophet entered upon me and I said to him, “O Allah’s Messenger! Aflah, the brother of Abi Al-Quais asked permission to visit me but I refused to permit him unless I took your permission.” The Prophet said, “What stopped you from permitting him? He is your uncle.” I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! The man was not the person who had nursed me, but the woman, the wife of Abi Al-Quais had nursed me.” He said, “Admit him, for he is your uncle. Taribat Yaminuki (may your right hand be in dust)”. ‘Urwa, the subnarrator added: For that ‘Aishah used to say, “Consider those things which are illegal because of blood relations as illegal because of the corresponding foster suckling relations.”

[See Vol.8, Hadith No.6156, and ch. 93.]
(10) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh

"Allâh sends His Salât (Graces, Honours, Blessings and Mercy) on the Prophet (Muḥammad ﷺ) and also His angels (ask Allâh to bless and forgive him) ...

(V.33:56)

Abû Al-'Aliya said, “Allâh’s Blessings (in this Verse) means His Compliments to him before the angels, and the blessings of angels means their invocations.”

4797. Narrated Ka'b bin 'Ujra: It was said, “0 Allah’s Messenger! We know how to greet you, but how to send Salât on you?”

The Prophet ﷺ said, “Say: Allâhumma salli 'ala Muḥammadin wa 'ala aIi Muḥammadin, kamâ šallaita 'ala aIi Ibrâhîma, Innaka Hamîdun Majîd. Allâhumma bârîk 'ala Muḥammadin wa 'ala aIi Muḥammadin, kamâ bârakta 'ala aIi Ibrâhîma, Innaka Hamîdun Majîd.”(1)

4798. Narrated Abû Sa'id Al-Khudrî: We said, “0 Allah’s Messenger! (We know) this greeting (to you) but how shall we send Šalât on you?” He said, “Say: Allâhumma salli 'ala Muḥammadin 'abdika wa rasūlika kamâ

(1) (H. 4797) “O Allâh! Send Your Šalât (Blessings, Graces, Honours and Mercy) on Muhammad and his family or the followers of Muhammad ﷺ as You sent Your Šalât (Blessing, Graces, Honours and Mercy) on Ibrâhîm’s (Abraham) or the followers of Abraham family. O Allâh! Send Your Blessings on Muhammad and his family as you sent Your Blessings on Ibrâhîm’s family. You are Praiseworthy, Most Gracious.” See Vol. 4, Hâdhâh No. 3357; Vol. 8, Hâdhâh No.6357, 6358 for details.)
Al-Laith said: "'Alâ Muḥammadân wa 'ala âli Muḥammadân kâma bârakta 'ala âli 'Ibrâhîma.'" Narrated Ibn Abî Hâzîm and Ad-Darawardi: Yazîd said, "Kâma sallaita 'ala 'Ibrâhîma, wa bârik 'ala Muḥammadân wa âli Muḥammadân kâma bârakta 'ala 'Ibrâhîma.'" (2)

(1) CHAPTER. "Be you not like those who annoyed Mûsâ (Moses)." (V.33:69)

4799. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Mûsâ (Moses) was a shy man, and that is what the Statement of Allah ﷻ means:

'O you who believe! Be not like those who annoyed Mûsâ (Moses), but Allah cleared him of that which they alleged, and he was honourable before Allah.'" (V.33:69)

(1) (H. 4798) "O Allah! Send Your Šalât upon Muḥammad, Your slave and Your Messenger, as You sent Your Šalât on Ibrâhîm’s (Abraham) family or the followers of Abraham, and send Your Blessings upon Muḥammad and his family or the followers of Muḥammad ﷺ, as You sent Your Blessings upon Ibrâhîm."

(2) (H. 4798) The same invocation as in Hadîth No. 4797 and Hadîth No. 4798 with a little modification in form. Note: Šalât from Allah means (here) His Blessings, Mercy, Graces and Honours, (upon Muḥammad ﷺ).

٦٥ — THE BOOK OF COMMENTARY

[See Vol.4, Hadith No.3404 for details]
(1) CHAPTER. "...So much so that when fear is banished from their (angels') hearts, they (angels) say: 'What is it that your Lord has said?' They say: 'The truth. And He is the Most High, the Most Great.'" (V.34:23).

4800. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Prophet said, "When Allah decrees some order in the heaven, the angels flutter their wings indicating complete surrender to His Saying, which sounds like chains being dragged on rock. And when the (state of) fear is banished from their (angels') hearts they (angels) say, 'What is it that your Lord has said?' They say: 'The truth, and He is the Most High, the Most Great.'" (V.34:23) Then the stealthy listeners (devils) hear this order and these stealthy listeners are like this, one over the other, (Suḥyān, a subnarrator demonstrated that by holding his hand upright and separating the fingers). A stealthy listener hears a word which he will convey to that which is below him and the second will convey it to that who is below him, till the last of them will convey it to the wizard or foreteller. Sometimes a flame (fire) may strike the devil before he can convey it, and sometimes he may convey it before the flame (fire) strikes him, whereupon the wizard adds to that word a hundred lies. The people will then say, ‘Didn’t he (i.e., magician) tell such and such a thing on such and such a date?’ So that magician is said to have told the truth because of the Statement which has been heard from the heavens.’

(2) CHAPTER. ‘...He (Muhammad ﷺ) is only a warner to you in face of a severe torment.’ (V.34:46)

4801. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: One day the Prophet ﷺ ascended Aṣ-Ṣafā mountain and said, ‘Yā Sabāḥāh!’ (1) All the Quraish gathered round him and said, ‘What is the matter?’ He said, ‘Look, if I told you that an enemy is going to attack you in the morning or in the evening, would you not believe me?’ They said, ‘Yes, we will believe you.’ He said, ‘I am a warner to you in face of a terrible punishment.’ On that Abū Lahab said, ‘May you perish! Is it for this thing that you have gathered us?’ So Allāh revealed:

‘Perish the two hands of Abū Lahab!...’ (V.111:1)

(1) CHAPTER. Allāh's Statement: "And the sun runs on its fixed course for a term (appointed). That is the Decree of the All-Mighty, the All-Knowing." (V.36:38)

4802. Narrated Abū Dhar: Once, I was with the Prophet ﷺ in the mosque at the time of sunset. The Prophet ﷺ said, "O Abū Dhar! Do you know where the sun sets?" I replied, "Allāh and His Messenger know better." He said, "It goes and prostrates underneath (Allāh’s) Throne; and that is Allāh’s Statement:

'And the sun runs on its fixed course for a term (appointed). And that is the Decree of the All-Mighty, the All-Knowing’” (V.36:38)

4803. Narrated Abū Dhar: I asked the Prophet ﷺ about the Statement of Allāh:

"And the sun runs on its fixed course for a term (appointed)…” (V.36:38)

He said, “Its course in underneath (Allāh’s) Throne.” (See H. 3199)

(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh عَلَیهَ مَرْحَمَةٍ: "And, verily, Yûnus (Jonah) was one of the Messengers." (V.37:139)

4804. Narrated ʿAbdullâh ﷺ: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Nobody has the right to be better than [Yûnus (Jonah)] Ibn Matta.”

4805. Narrated Abû Hurairah ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “He who says that I am better than Yûnus (Jonah) bin Matta, tells a lie.”

(38) Sûrat Ṣâd

In the Name of Allâh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

4806. Narrated Al-ʿAwwâm: I asked Mujâhid regarding the prostration in Sûrat Ṣâd. He said, “Ibn ʿAbbâs was asked the same question and he said, ‘They are those whom Allâh had guided. So follow their guidance...’” (V.6:90)

Ibn ʿAbbâs used to perform a prostration (on reading this Sûrah). (See H. 3421)

4807. Narrated Al-ʿAwwâm: I asked Mujâhid regarding the prostration in Sûrat Sad. He said, “I asked Ibn ‘Abbas, ‘What evidence makes you prostrate?’ He said, ‘Don’t you recite:

‘And among his progeny, Dāwūd (David) and Sulaimān (Solomon)...’ (V.6:84). They are those whom Allāh had guided. So follow their guidance.’ (V.6:90)

So Dāwūd (David) was the one of those Prophets whom Prophet (Muhammad ﷺ) was ordered to follow. Dāwūd (David) prostrated, so Allāh’s Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) performed this prostration too.”

(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

“He (Solomon) said: “My Lord! Forgive me. And bestow upon me a kingdom such as shall not belong to any other after me. Verily, You are the Bestower.” (V.38:35)
4808. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Last night a demon from the jinn came to me (or the Prophet said, a similar sentence) to disturb my Salāt (prayer), but Allāh gave me the power to overcome him. I intended to tie him to one of the pillars of the mosque till the morning so that all of you could see him, but then I remembered the statement of my brother Sulaimān (Solomon):

‘And bestow upon me a kingdom such as shall not belong to any other after me...’” (V.38:35) The narrator added: Then he (the Prophet) dismissed him, rejected.

(2) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh:

“...Nor am I one of the Mutakallifūn (those who pretend and fabricate things which do not exist).” (V.38:86)

4809. Narrated Masrūq: We came upon ‘Abdullāh bin Mas’ūd and he said, “O people! If somebody knows something, he can say it, but if he does not know it, he should say, ‘Allāh knows better.’ Allāh knows better, for it is an aspect of knowledge to say about something which one does not know, ‘Allāh knows better.’ Allāh said to His Prophet: ‘Say (O Muhammad): No wage do I ask of you for this (the Qu’ran) nor am I one of the Mutakallifūn (those who pretend and fabricate things which do not exist).’” (V.38:86) years (of drought-famine) like those seven (years of drought) of Yūsuf (Joseph).’ So the drought (famine) years overtook them and everything was destroyed till they ate dead animals and skins. People started imagining to see smoke between them and the sky because of severe hunger. Allāh said:

‘Then wait you for the Day when the sky will bring forth a visible smoke. Covering the people. This is a painful torment.’ (V.44:10,11)

“(So they invoked Allāh, saying) ‘Our Lord! Remove the torment from us, really we shall become believers. How can there be for them an admonition (at the time when the torment has reached them), when a Messenger explaining things clearly has already come to them? Then they had turned away from him (Messenger Muhammad ﷺ) and said: He is one (Muḥammad ﷺ) taught (by a human being), a madman? Verily, We shall remove the torment for a while. Verily! You will revert (to disbelief).’” (V.44:12-15)

(It was asked of ‘Abdullāh), “Will the punishment be removed on the Day of Resurrection?” ‘Abdullāh said, “The punishment was removed from them for a while but they reverted to disbelief, so Allāh destroyed them on the day (of the battle) of Badr. Allāh said:

‘On the Day when We shall seize you with the greatest grasp (punishment). Verily, We will exact retribution.’” (V.44:16)

1. CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

   Say: “O ʿIbādi (My slaves) who have transgressed against themselves (by committing evil deeds and sins)! Despair not of the Mercy of Allāh…” (V.39:53)

4810. Narrated Ibn ʿAbbās: Some Al-Mushriḵūn (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad ﷺ, who committed murders in great number and committed illegal sexual intercourse excessively, came to Muhammad ﷺ and said, “O Muhammad! Whatever you say and invite people to, is good; but we wish if you could inform us whether we can make an expiation for our (past evil) deeds.”

So the following Divine Verses were revealed: “And those who invoke not any other ilãh (god) along with Allah, nor kill such person as Allah has forbidden, except for just cause, nor commit illegal sexual intercourse....” (V.25:68)

And there was also revealed:

“Say: O Ibâdi (My slaves) who have transgressed against themselves (by committing evil deeds and sins)! Despair not of the Mercy of Allah....” (V.39:53)

(2) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah ﷻ:

“They made not a just estimate of Allah such as is due to Him....” (V.39:67)

4811. Narrated ‘Abdullah A (Jewish) rabbi came to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and he said, “O Muḥammad! We learn that Allah will put all the heavens on one finger, and the earths on one finger, and the trees on one finger, and the water and the dust on one finger, and all the other created beings on one finger. Then He will say, ‘I am the King.’” Thereupon the Prophet ﷺ smiled so that his premolar teeth became visible, and that was the confirmation of the rabbi. Then Allah’s Messenger ﷺ recited:

“They made not a just estimate of Allah such as is due to Him.” (V.39:67).
And on the Day of Resurrection, the whole of the earth will be grasped by His Hand and the heavens will be rolled up in His Right Hand..." (V.39:67)

4812. Narrated Abū Hurairah: I heard Allah’s Messenger saying, “Allāh will grasp the whole (planet of) earth, (by His Hand) and roll all the heavens up with His Right Hand, and then He will say, ‘I am the King; where are the kings of the earth?”

And the Trumpet will be blown, and all who are in the heavens and all who are on earth will swoon away, except him whom Allāh wills...” (V.39:68)

4813. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “I will be the first to raise my head after the second blowing of the Trumpet and will see Mūsā (Moses) holding (or clinging to) the Throne (of Allāh), and I will not know whether he had been in that state all the time or after the blowing of the Trumpet.”
4814. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Between the two blowings of the Trumpet there will be forty.” The people said, “O Abû Hurairah! Forty days?” I refused to reply. They said, Forty years?” I refused to reply and added: “Everything of a human body will waste away or perish or decay except the last coccyx bone (of the tail) and from that bone Allâh will reconstruct the human body.”

(40) SûRAT GHÂFIR or AL-MÛ’MIN
(The Forgiver or The Believer)

In the Name of Allâh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.
Narrated 'Urwa bin Az-Zubair: I asked 'Abdullãh bin 'Amr bin Al-'As to inform me of the worst thing Al-Mushrikûn (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allâh and in His Messenger Muhammad ﷺ) had done to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ. He said: “While Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ was performing Salât (prayer) in the courtyard of the Ka'bah, 'Uqba bin Abî Mu'âit came and seized Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ by the shoulder and twisted his garment round his neck and throttled him severely. Abû Bakr came and seized 'Uqba’s shoulder and threw him away from Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “Would you kill a man because he says: ‘My Lord is Allâh,’ and has come to you with clear signs (proofs) from your Lord?” (V.40:28)
(41) Sūrat Hā Mīm as Sajdah
(The Prostration) or Sūrat-Fussilat
(They are explained in detail)
In the Name of Allāh, the Most Gracious,
the Most Merciful.

Sa‘īd said: A man said to Ibn ‘Abbās, ‘I find in the Qur‘ān certain things which seem to me contradictory, for example Allāh says:
‘...There will be no kinship among them that Day, nor will they ask of one another.’ (V.23:101) (yet He says:) ‘And they will turn to one another and question one another.’ (V.37:27)

‘...But they will never be able to hide a single fact from Allāh.’ (V.4:42) [Yet He reports what Al-Mushrikiyūn (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbeliever in the Oneness of Allāh and in His Messenger μuḥāmmad) will say:] ‘...By Allāh, our Lord, we were not those who joined others in worship with Allāh.’ (V.6:23) According to this Verse, they will hide some facts.

Allāh says:
‘Or is the heaven that He constructed?... (up to) ... He spread the earth.’ (V.79:27-30) In this Verse He mentions the creation of the heavens before the creation of the earth. Then He says: ‘Say (O Muḥāmmad): ‘Do you verily, disbelieve in Him Who created the earth in two Days... (up to) ...willingly.’ (V.41:9-11) So He mentions in this Verse the creation of the earth before the heavens. And He says: ‘...Verily, Allāh is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.’ (V.4:23)
‘...Allāh is Ever Most Powerful, All-Wise.’ (V.4:56) ‘...Allāh is Ever All-Hearer, All-See.’ (V.4:58) This seems to be something that was and has passed.’

Then Ibn ‘Abbās answered, ‘‘There will be no relationship between them.’ ‘That is on the first blowing of the Trumpet. ‘And so the Trumpet will be blown, and all who are in the heavens and all who are on the earth will swoon, away except him whom Allāh wills..." (V.39:68) Then there will be no relationship between them, and at that time one will not ask another. Then, when the Trumpet will be blown for the second time, they will turn to one another and question one another.

As for His Statement: ‘...We were not who joined others in worship with Allāh.’ ‘But they will not be able to hide a single fact from Allāh.’ Allāh will forgive the sins of those who were sincere in their worship, whereupon Al-Mushrikiin will say (to each other), ‘Come, let’s say we never worshipped others besides Allāh.’ But their mouths will be sealed and their hands will speak (the truth). At that time it will be evident that no speech can be concealed from Allāh, and those who disbelieved and disobeyed the Messenger will wish that they were buried in the earth, but they will never be able to hide a single fact from Allāh. (V.4:42).

Allāh created the earth in two days and then created the heavens, then He turned towards the heavens and gave it perfection in two (other) days. Then He spread the earth, and its spreading means the bringing of water and pasture out of it. He then created the mountains, the camels and the hillocks and whatever is in between them (the earth and the heaven) in two (other) days. That is the meaning of Allāh’s saying: ‘He spread it.’ And His Saying: ‘And He created the earth in two days.’ So the earth and whatever is on it, was created in four days; and the heavens were created in two days.

(Concerning His Saying:) ‘And Allāh is Oft-Forgiving.’ He named Himself like that (so the naming has passed) but the contents of His Saying is still valid, for if Allāh ever wants to do something, He surely fulfils what He wants. So you should not see contradiction in the Qur'an, for all of it is from Allāh.” the world), lest your ears, and your eyes, and your skins should testify against you...”
(V.41:22)

4816. Narrated Ibn Mas'ūd (regarding) the Verse:

“And you have not been hiding yourself, lest your ears, and your eyes and your skins should testify against you...”
(V.41:22)

While two persons from Quraish and their brother-in-law from Thaqīf (or two persons from Thaqīf and their brother-in-law from Quraish) were in a house, they said to each other, “Do you think that Allāh hears our talks?” Some said, “He hears a portion thereof” Others said, “If He can hear a portion of it, He can hear all of it.” Then the following Verse was revealed:

“And you have not been hiding yourself, lest your ears, and your eyes, and your skins should testify against you...”
(V.41:22).

(2) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

“And that thought of yours which you thought about your Lord, has brought you to destruction, and you have become (this Day) of those utterly lost!”
(V.41:23)

4817. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: There gathered near the House (i.e., the Ka'bah) two Quraishi persons and a person from Thaqīf, or two persons from Thaqīf and one from Quraish, and all of them with very fat bellies but very little intelligence. One of them said, “Do you think that Allāh hears what we say?” Another said, “He hears us when we talk in a loud voice, but He doesn’t hear us when we talk in a hidden low voice.” The third said, “If He can hear when we talk..."
in a loud voice, then He can also hear when we speak in a low voice.” Then Allâh, the Honourable, the Majestic revealed:

“And you have not been hiding yourself, lest your ears, and your eyes, and your skins should testify against you…” (V.41:22)

CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh ﷺ:

"Then if they bear (the torment) patiently, then the Fire is the home for them…..” (V.41:24)

(42) Sûrât Há Mîm ‘Ain Sîn Qâf or Sûrât Ash-Asâhûrâ, (The Consultation)

In the Name of Allâh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.
(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh Almighty:

"...Except to be kind to me for my kinship with you..." (V. 42: 23)

4818. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās that he was asked (regarding):

"...Except to be kind to me for my kinship with you..." (V. 42: 23) Sa‘īd bin Jubair (who was present then) said, "It means here (to show what is due for) the relatives of Muhammad ﷺ."

On that Ibn ‘Abbās said: You have hurried in giving the answer! There was no branch of the tribe of Quraish but the Prophet ﷺ had relatives therein. The Prophet ﷺ said, "I do not want anything from (you) except to be kind to me for my kinship with you."

(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

"And they will cry: 'O Malik (Keeper of Hell)! Let your Lord make an end of us.' He will say, 'Verily, you shall abide forever.'" (V.43:77)

4819. Narrated Ya’la: I heard the Prophet reciting while he was on the pulpit:

“They will cry, ‘O Malik (Keeper of Hell)! Let your Lord make an end of us...’” (V.43:77)

(2) CHAPTER. “Shall we then (warn you not and) take away the Reminder (this Qur’ān) from you, because you are a people Musrīfūn.” (V.43:5)

(1) (Chap. 2) Musrīfūn: These who transgress the limits, as sinners, polytheists, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad.
65— THE BOOK OF COMMENTARY

And the Statement of Allah:

"Then we destroyed men stronger (in power) than these — and the example of the ancients has passed away (before them)."

(V.43:8)

(44) SURAT (AL-MIM) AD-DUKHAN
(The Smoke)

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious,
the Most Merciful.

(1) CHAPTER.

"Then wait you for the Day when the sky will bring forth a visible smoke." (V.44:10)

(4820. Narrated Abdullah ibn Amr: Five (things) have passed, i.e., the smoke, the defeat of the Romans, the splitting of the moon, Al-Basha (the defeat of the infidels in the battle of Badr)."

Then we destroyed men stronger (in power) than these — and the example of the ancients has passed away (before them)."
and Al-Lizām (the punishment).

(2) CHAPTER. “Covering the people, this is a painful torment.” (V.44:11)

4821. Narrated ʿAbdullāh: It (i.e., the imagined smoke) was because, when the Quraish refused to obey the Prophet, he invoked Allāh to afflict them with years of drought (famine) similar to those of (Prophet) Yūsuf (Joseph); and so they were stricken with drought and severe (hunger) exhaustion so much so that they ate even bones. A man would look towards the sky and imagine seeing something like smoke between him and the sky because of severe (hunger) exhaustion.

So Allāh revealed:

“Then wait you for the Day when the sky will bring forth a visible smoke covering the people; this is a painful torment.” (V.44:10,11)

Then someone (Abū Sufyān) came to Allāh’s Messenger and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Invoke Allāh to send rain for the tribes of Muḍār as they are on the verge of destruction.” On that the Prophet said (astonishingly), “(Shall I invoke Allāh) for the tribes of Muḍār? Verily, you are a brave man!” But the Prophet prayed for rain and it rained for them. Then the Verse was revealed:

“Verily! you will revert (to disbelief).” (V.44:15)

(When the famine was over and) they restored prosperity and welfare, they reverted to their ways (of heathenism) whereupon Allāh revealed:

“The Day when We shall seize you with the greatest seizure (punishment). Verily,
We will exact retribution.” (V.44:16)

The narrator said, “That was the day of the battle of Badr.”

(3) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah:
“(They will say) Our Lord! Remove the torment from us, really we shall become believers!” (V.44:12)

4822. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: It is an aspect of knowledge that, when you do not know something, you say: ‘Allāh knows better.’ Allāh said to his Prophet ﷺ:
“Say (O Muḥammad ﷺ): No wage do I ask of you for this (the Qur‘ān), nor am I one of the Mutakallīfūn (those who pretend and fabricate things which do not exist).” (V.38:86)

When the Quraish troubled and stood against the Prophet ﷺ, he said, “O Allāh! Help me against them by sending on them seven years (of drought-famine) like the seven (years of drought) of Yūsuf (Joseph).” So they were afflicted with a year of drought (famine) during which they ate bones and dead animals because of too much suffering, and one of them would see something like smoke between him and the sky because of (hunger) exhaustion. Then they said:
“Our Lord! Remove the torment from us, really we shall become believers.” (V.44:12)

And then it was said (to the Prophet ﷺ by Allāh), “If We remove it from them they will revert.” So the Prophet ﷺ invoked his Lord, Who removed the punishment from them, but later they reverted (to heathenism), whereupon Allāh punished them on the day of the battle of Badr, and that is what Allāh’s Statement indicates:

“Then wait for the Day that the sky will bring forth a visible smoke... (up to) ...Verily, We will exact retribution.” (V.44:10-16)
4823. Narrated Masruq: I came upon ‘Abdullah and he said, “When Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ invited Quraish (to Islâm), they disbelieved him and stood against him. So he (the Prophet ﷺ) said, ‘O Allâh! Help me against them by sending on them seven years (of drought-famine) like those seven (years of draught) of Yûsuf (Joseph).’ So they were afflicted with such a year of drought that destroyed everything, and they started eating of dead animals, and if one of them got up he would see something like smoke between him and the sky from the severe fatigue (exhaustion) and hunger.” ‘Abdullah then recited:

“Then wait you for the Day when the sky will bring forth a visible smoke covering the people, this is a painful torment... (till he reached)... Verily, We shall remove the torment for a while. Verily! You will revert.” (V.44:10-15)

‘Abdullah added: “Will the punishment be removed from them on the Day of Resurrection?” He added, “The greatest grasp was the day of the battle of Badr.”

(5) CHAPTER. “Then they had turned away from him (Messenger Muḥammad ﷺ) and said: (He is) taught (by a human being), a madman!” (V.44:14)

4824. Narrated ‘Abdullâh: Allâh sent (the Prophet) Muḥammad ﷺ and said:

“Say (O Muḥammad ﷺ): No wage do I ask of you for this (the Qur’ân), nor am I one of the Mutakallifun (those who pretend and fabricate things which do not exist).” (V.38:86)

When Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ saw the Quraysh standing against him, he said, “O Allâh! Help me against them by sending on them seven (years of drought-famine) like those seven (years of drought) of Yûsuf (Joseph).” So they were afflicted with a year of drought that destroyed everything, and they ate bones and hides. (One of them said), “And they ate hides and dead animals, and (it seemed to them that) something like smoke was coming out of the earth.” So Abû Sufyân came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “O Muḥammad! Your people are on the verge of destruction! Please invoke Allâh to relieve them.” So the Prophet ﷺ invoked Allâh for them [and it rained and the drought (famine) disappeared]. He said to them, “You will revert (to heathenism) after that.” ‘Abdullâh then recited:

> Then wait you for the Day when the sky will bring forth a visible smoke ... (up to) ... Verily! You will revert.” (V.44:10-15)

He added, “Will the punishment be removed from them in the Hereafter? The smoke and the grasp and the Al-Lizâm have all passed.” One of the subnarrator said, “The splitting of the moon.” And another said, “The defeat of the Romans (has also passed).”

(6) CHAPTER. “On the Day when We shall seize you with the greatest seizure (punishment). Verily, We will exact retribution.” (V.44:16)

4825. Narrated ‘Abdullâh ﷺ: Five things have passed: Al-Lizâm, the defeat of the Romans, the greatest grasp, the splitting of the moon, and the smoke.
4826. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘Allah said, ‘The son of Adam annoys Me for he abuses Ad-Dahr (the Time) though I am Ad-Dahr (the Time), in My Hands are all things, and I cause the revolution of day and night.’’ \(^{(1)}\)

\((45)\) SURĀT (HĀ MĪM) AL-JĀTHIYAH
(The Kneeling)

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

4826. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘Allah said, ‘The son of Adam annoys Me for he abuses Ad-Dahr (the Time) though I am Ad-Dahr (the Time), in My Hands are all things, and I cause the revolution of day and night.’’ \(^{(1)}\)

\((46)\) SURĀT AL-AHQĀF
(The Curved Sand-hills)

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

\(^{(1)}\) (H. 4826) Ad-Dahr: ‘I am Ad-Dahr’ means ‘I am the Creator of time, and I manage the affairs of all creation including time.’ One should not attribute anything, whether cheerful or disastrous, to time, for everything is in the Hands of Allah, and only He is the Disposer of everything.
(1) CHAPTER. “But he who says to his parents: ‘Fie upon you both! Do you hold out the promise to me that I shall be raised up (again)… (up to) … the tales of the ancient.” (V.46:17)

4827. Narrated Yūsuf bin Māhak: Marwān had been appointed as the governor of Ḥijāz by Mu‘āwiya. He delivered a Khutba and mentioned Yazid bin Mu‘āwiya so that the people might give the Bai‘a (pledge) to him as the successor of his father (Mu‘āwiya). Then ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Abū Bakr told him something whereupon Marwān ordered that he be arrested. But ‘Abdur-Rahmān entered ‘Aishah’s house and they could not arrest him. Marwān said, “It is he (‘Abdur-Rahmān) about whom Allah revealed this Verse:

‘But he who says to his parents: ‘Fie upon you both! Do you hold out the promise to me…?’”

On that, ‘Aishah said from behind a screen, “Allāh did not reveal anything from the Qur‘ān about us except what was connected with the declaration of my innocence (of the slander).”

(2) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh تعالى:

“Then, when they saw it as a dense cloud coming towards their valleys…” (V.46:24)
4828. Narrated ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: I never saw Allah’s Messenger ﷺ laughing loudly enough to enable me to see his uvula, but he used to smile only.

4829. ‘Aishah added: And whenever he ﷺ saw clouds or winds, signs of deep concern would appear on his face. I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! When people see clouds they usually feel happy, hoping that it would rain, while I see that when you see clouds, one could notice signs of dissatisfaction on your face.” He said, “O ‘Aishah! What is the guarantee for me that there will be no punishment in it, since some people were punished with a wind? Verily, some people saw (received) the punishment, but (while seeing the cloud) they said, ‘This cloud will give us rain.’”

(1) CHAPTER. "...And sever your ties of kinship." (V.47:22)

4830. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, "Allāh created His creation, and when He had finished it, the womb got up and caught hold of Allāh, whereupon Allāh said, 'What is the matter?' On that, it said, 'I seek refuge with you from Al-Qat'ah (those who sever the ties of kith and kin). On that Allāh said, 'Will you accept (be satisfied) if I bestow My Favours on him who keeps your ties, and withhold My Favours from him who severs your ties?' On that it said, 'Yes, O my Lord!' Then Allāh said, 'That is for you.'" Abū Hurairah added, "If you wish, you can recite: 'Would you then, if you were given the authority, do mischief in the land and sever your ties of kinship.'" (V.47:22)

4831. Narrated Abū Hurairah: (As above, Hadith No 4830, but added) Then Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, "Recite if you wish: 'Would you then, if you were given the authority, do mischief in the land, and sever you ties of kinship?'" (V.47:22)

4832. Narrated Mu‘āwiya bin Abī Al-Muzarrid: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, "Recite if you wish: 'Would you then...'" (V.47:22)
(48) SŪRAT AL-FATH
(The Victory)

In the Name of Allāh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh
"Verily, We have given you (O Muḥammad ﷺ) a manifest victory." (V.48:1)

4833. Narrated Aslam: While Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was proceeding at night during one of his journeys and 'Umar bin Al-Khāṭṭāb was travelling beside him, 'Umar asked him about something but Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ did not reply. He asked again, but he did not reply, and then he asked (for the third time) but he did not reply. On that, 'Umar bin Al-Khāṭṭāb said to himself, “Thakilat Ummu 'Umar (may 'Umar's mother lose her son)! I asked Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ three times but he did not reply.” 'Umar then said, “I made my camel run faster and went ahead of the people, and I was afraid that some Qur’ānic Verses might be revealed about me. But before getting involved in any other matter, I heard somebody calling me. I said to myself,
'I fear that some Qur’ānic Verses have been revealed about me,' and so I went to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and greeted him.

He (Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ) said, “Tonight a Sūrah has been revealed to me, and it is dearer to me than that on which the sun rises
(i.e., the world).” Then he (ﷺ) recited:
‘Verily, We have given you (O Muhammad ﷺ) a manifest victory.’” (V.48:1)

4834. Narrated Anas: ‘Verily,
We have given you (O Muhammad ﷺ) a manifest victory,’ refers to Al-Hudaibiya (peace treaty).

4835. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Mughaffal:
On the day of the conquest of Makkah, the Prophet ﷺ recited Sūrat Al-Fath in a vibrating and pleasant voice. Mu‘āwiyah, the subnarrator said, “If I could immitate the recitation of the Prophet ﷺ I would do so.”
(2) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh:

“That Allâh may forgive you your sins of the past and the future and complete His Favour on you and guide you on the Straight Path.” (V.48:2)

4836. Narrated Al-Mugîira: The Prophet used to offer night Ṣalât (prayers) till his feet became swollen. Somebody said, to him, “Allâh has forgiven you your sins of the past and the future.” On that, he said, “Shouldn’t I be a thankful slave (of Allâh)?”

4837. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet used to offer Ṣalât (prayer) at night (for such a long time) that his feet used to crack. I said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Why do you do it since Allâh has forgiven you your sins of the past and the future?” He said, “Shouldn’t I love to be a thankful slave (of Allâh)?” When he became old, he offered Ṣalât (prayer) while sitting, but if he wanted to perform a bowing, he would get up, recite (some other Verses) and then perform the bowing.

(3) CHAPTER. “Verily, We have sent you (O Muḥammad) as a witness, as a bearer of glad tidings, and as a warner.” (V.48:8) 4838. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin ‘Amr bin Al-‘As: "This Verse:

"Verily, We have sent you (O Muhammad) as a witness, as a bearer of glad tidings and as a warner." (V.48:8) which is in the Qur’an, appears in the Torah thus:

"Verily We have sent you (O Muhammad) as a witness, as a bearer of glad tidings and as a warner, and as a protector for the illiterates (i.e., the Arabs). You are my slave and My Messenger, and I have named you Al-Mutawakkil (one who depends upon Allãh). You are neither hard-hearted nor of fierce character, nor one who shouts in the markets. You do not return evil for evil, but excuse and forgive. Allãh will not take you unto Him till He guides through you a crooked (curved) nation on the Right Path by causing them to say: La ilãha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allãh). With such a statement, He will cause to open blind eyes, deaf ears and hardened hearts.” (See H. 2125)

(4) CHAPTER. “He it is Who sent down As-Sakinalt (tranquillity and calmness) into the hearts of the believers…” (V.48:4)

4839. Narrated Al-Barã: While a man from the Companions of the Prophet was reciting (the Qur’an) and his horse was tied in the house, the horse got startled and started jumping. The man came out, looked around but could not find anything, yet the horse went on jumping. The next morning he mentioned that to the Prophet. The Prophet said, “That was the As-Sakinalt (tranquillity and reassurance along with angels) which descended because of the recitation of the Qur’an.” (See H. 5011)
4840.Narrated Jābir: We were one thousand and four hundred on the Day of Al-Hudaibiya.

4841. Narrated ‘Uqba bin Ṣuhbān: ‘Abdullāh bin Mughaffal Al-Muzani who was one of those who witnessed (the event of) the tree [those who gave the Bai’a (pledge) to the Prophet beneath the tree at Al-Hudaibiya] said, “The Prophet forbade the throwing of small stones (with two fingers).”

4842. ‘Abdullāh bin Al-Mughaffal Al-Muzani also said, “The Prophet also forbade urinating at the place where one takes a bath.”

4843. Narrated Thābit bin Ad-Dahhāk who was one of the Companions of the tree [i.e., those who gave the Bai’a (pledge) to the Prophet beneath the tree at Al-Hudaibiya]:

4844. Narrated Ḥabīb bin Ḥāfīd: I went to Abū Wā’il to ask him (about those who had rebelled against ‘Ali). On that Abū Wā’il said, “We were at Šiffin (a city on the bank of the Euphrates, the place where the battle took place between ‘Ali and...” Muʿāwiya). A man said, ‘Will you be on the side of those who are called to consult Allâh’s Book (to settle the dispute)?’ ‘Ali said, ‘Yes (I agree that we should settle the matter in the light of the Qur’ân).’ Some people objected to ‘Ali’s agreement and wanted to fight. On that Sahl bin Hunaif said, ‘Blame yourselves! I remember how, on the Day of Al-Ḥudaibiya (i.e., the peace treaty between the Prophet ﷺ and the Quraish Mushrikûn), if we had been allowed to choose fighting, we should have fought (the Mushrikûn).’ At that time ‘Umar came (to the Prophet ﷺ) and said, ‘Aren’t we on the right (path) and they (the Mushrikûn) in the wrong? Won’t our killed persons go to Paradise, and theirs in the Fire?’ The Prophet replied, ‘Yes.’ ‘Umar further said, ‘Then why should we let our religion be degraded and return before Allâh has settled the matter between us?’ The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘O the son of Al-Khâṭîb! No doubt, I am Allâh’s Messenger, and Allâh will never neglect me.’ So ‘Umar left the place angrily and he was so impatient that he went to Abû Bakr and said, ‘O Abû Bakr! Aren’t we on the right (path) and they (the Mushrikûn) on the wrong?’ Abû Bakr said, ‘O son of Al-Khâṭîb! He is Allâh’s Messenger, and Allâh will never neglect him.’ Then Sûrat Al-Fath (The Victory) was revealed.”

(49) SÛRAT AL-HUJURÂT
(The Dwellings)

In the Name of Allâh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.
4845.Narrated Ibn Abi Mulaika: The two righteous persons were about to be ruined. They were Abu Bakr and 'Umar who raised their voices in the presence of the Prophet when a mission from Bani Tamim came to him. One of the two recommended Al-Aqra' bin 'Abd bin 'Abbas, the brother of Banu Mujashi (to be their governor) while the other recommended somebody else. (Nafi', the subnarrator said, I do not remember his name). Abu Bakr said to 'Umar, “You wanted nothing but to oppose me!” 'Umar said, “I did not intend to oppose you.” Their voices grew loud in that argument, so Allah revealed:

“O you who believe! Raise not your voices above the voice of the Prophet…” (V.49:2)

Ibn Az-Zubair said, “Since the revelation of this Verse, 'Umar used to speak in such a low tone that the Prophet had to ask him to repeat his statements.” But Ibn Az-Zubair did not mention the same about his (maternal) grandfather (i.e., Abu Bakr).

4846. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet missed Thabit bin Qais for a period (so he inquired about him). A man said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I will bring you his news.” So he went to Thabit and found him sitting in his house and bowing his head. The man said to Thabit, “What is the matter with you?” Thabit replied that it was an evil affair, for he used to raise his voice above the voice of the Prophet and so all his good deeds had been annulled, and he considered himself as one of the people of the Fire. Then the man returned to the Prophet and told him that Thabit had said so-and-so. Mūsā (bin Anas) said, “The man returned to Thabit with great glad tidings. The Prophet said to the man, ‘Go back to him and say to him: ‘You are not from the people of the Hell-fire, but from the people of Paradise.’”

(2) CHAPTER. “Verily! Those who call you from behind the dwellings, most of them have no sense.” (V.49:4)

4847. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Az-Zubair: A group of Bānī Tamīm came to the Prophet (and requested him to appoint a governor for them).

Abū Bakr said, “Appoint Al-Qa‘qā bin Ma‘bad.” ‘Umar said, “Appoint Al-Aqra‘ bin Ḥābis.” On that Abū Bakr said (to ‘Umar), “You did not want but to oppose me!” ‘Umar replied, “I did not intend to oppose you!” So both of them argued till their voices grew loud. So the following Verse was revealed:

“O you who believe! Make not (a decision) in advance before Allāh and His Messenger (ﷺ)...” (V.49:1)
CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh may He be Exalted:

“And if they had patience till you could come out to them, it would have been better for them...” (V.49:5)

٦٥ - كتاب التفسير
(1) CHAPTER. Allâh’s Statement:

…”It (Hell) will say: ‘Are there any more (to come)?’” (V. 50:30)

4848. Narrated Anas: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The people will be thrown into the (Hell) Fire and it will say: ‘Are there any more (to come)?’” (V. 50:30) till Allâh will put His Foot over it and it will say, ‘Qat! Qat! (Enough! Enough!).’”

4849. Narrated Abû Hurairah (that the Prophet ﷺ said): “It will be said to the Hell, ‘Are you filled?’ It will say, ‘Are there any more (to come)?’ On that Allâh will put His Foot on it, and it will say ‘Qat! Qat! (Enough! Enough!).’”

4850. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Paradise and the Fire (Hell) argued, and the Fire (Hell) said, ‘I have been given the privilege of receiving the arrogants and the tyrants.’ Paradise said, ‘What is the matter with me? Why do only the weak and the humble among the people enter me?’ On that, Allah said to Paradise, ‘You are My Mercy which I bestow on whoever I wish of My slaves.’ Then Allah said to the (Hell) Fire, ‘You are My (means of) punishment by which I punish whoever I wish of my slaves. And each of you will have its fill.’ As for the Fire (Hell), it will not be filled till Allah will put His Foot over it whereupon it will say, ‘Qat! Qat!’ (Enough! Enough!) At that time it will be filled, and its different parts will come closer to each other; and Allah will not wrong any of His created beings. As regards Paradise, Allah will create a new creation to fill it with.”

(2) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

“...And glorify the praises of your Lord, before the rising of the sun and before (its) setting (i.e., the Fajr, Zuhr and ‘Asr prayers).” (V.50:39)

4851. Narrated Jarir bin ‘Abdullah: We were in the company of the Prophet on a fourteenth night (of the lunar month), and he looked at the (full) moon and said, “You will see your Lord as you see this moon, and you will have no trouble in looking at Him. So, whoever can, should not miss the offering of Salāt (prayers) before sunrise (Fajr prayer) and before sunset (‘Asr prayer).” Then the Prophet recited:

“And glorify the praises of your Lord before the rising of the sun and before (its) setting.” (V.50:39)
4852. Narrated Mujãhid, Ibn ‘Abbãs said, “Allãh ordered His Prophet ã to glorify His praises after all Salir (prayers).” He referred to Allãh’s Statement: “… After the Salir (prayers)…” (V.50:40) [See Vol. 1, Hadith No.843]

... (52) Sūrat At-Tūr
(The Mount)

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَٰنِ الرَّحِيمِ
4853.Narrated Umm Salama: I complained to Allah's Messenger ﷺ that I was sick, so he said, "Perform the Tawâf (of the Ka'bah at Makkah) while riding behind the people (who are performing the Tawâf on foot)." So I performed the Tawâf while Allah's Messenger ﷺ was offering the Salât (prayer) by the side of the Ka'bah and was reciting:

"By the Ṭûr (Mount). And by the Book Inscribed." (V.52:1,2)

4854. Narrated Jubair bin Mu't'im: I heard the Prophet ﷺ reciting Sûrat At-Ṭûr in the Maghrib prayer, and when he reached the Verse:

"Were they created by nothing? Or were they themselves the creators? Or did they create the heavens and the earth? Nay, but they have no firm Belief. Or are with them the treasures of your Lord? Or are they the tyrants with the authority to do as they like." (V.52:35-37) my heart was about to fly (when I realized this firm argument).
In the Name of Allāh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

(1) CHAPTER.

4855. Narrated Masrūq: I said to 'Āishah رضي الله عنها: “O Mother! Did Prophet Muhammad ﷺ see his Lord?” ‘Āishah said, “What you have said makes my hair stand on end! Know that if somebody tells you one of the following three things, he is a liar: Whoever tells you that Muhammad ﷺ saw his Lord, is a liar.” Then ‘Āishah recited the Verse:
"No vision can grasp Him, but He grasps all vision. He is Al-Latif (the Most Subtle and Courteous), Well-Acquainted with all things." (V.6:103)

"It is not given to any human being that Allah should speak to him unless (it be) by Revelation or from behind a veil..." (V.42:51)

'Aisha further said, "And whoever tells you that the Prophet ﷺ knows what is going to happen tomorrow, is a liar." Then she recited:

"...No person knows what he will earn tomorrow..." (V.31:34)

She added: "And whoever tells you that he (i.e., Prophet ﷺ) concealed (some of Allah’s Orders), is a liar." Then she recited:

"O Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ)! Proclaim (the Message) which has been sent down to you from your Lord..." (V.5:67)

'Aishah added: "But the Prophet ﷺ saw Jibril (Gabriel) in his true form twice."

CHAPTER. "And was at a distance of two bows' length or (even) nearer." (V.53:9)

4856. Narrated ‘Abdullah b. Umar regarding the Verses:

"And was at a distance of two bows' length or (even) nearer. So (Allah) revealed to His slave [Muhammad ﷺ through Jibril (Gabriel)] whatever He revealed." (V.53:9,10) Ibn Mas‘ūd narrated to us that the Prophet ﷺ had seen Jibril (Gabriel) with six hundred wings.

CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah ﷻ:

"So (Allah) revealed to His slave [Muhammad ﷺ through Jibril (Gabriel)] whatever He revealed." (V.53:10) 4857. Narrated Ash-Shaibani: I asked Zirr about the Statement of Alläh:

“And was at a distance of two bows’ length or (even) nearer. So (Alläh) revealed to His slave [Muḥammad  through Jibril (Gabriel) ] whatever He revealed.” (V.53:10) He said, “‘Abdullâh (bin Mas’ûd) informed us that Muḥammad  had seen Jibril (Gabriel) with six hundred wings.”

CHAPTER. “Indeed he (Muḥammad  did see of the Greatest Signs of his Lord (Alläh).” (V.53:18) 4858. Narrated ‘Abdullâh (regarding the revelation): “Indeed he (Muḥammad  did see of the Greatest Signs of his Lord (Alläh).” (V.53:18)

The Prophet  saw a green screen covering the horizon.

(2) CHAPTER. “Have you then considered Al-Lât and Al-‘Uzza? (1)” (V.53:19)

4859. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs (regarding Alläh’s Statement about Al-Lât and ‘Al-Uzza): Lât was originally a man who used to mix Sawîq (2) for the pilgrims.

4860. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Alläh’s Messenger  said, “Whoever takes an oath in which he (forgetfully) mentions Al-Lât and ‘Al-Uzza, should say: ‘La ilähâ illallah’ (none has the right to be worshipped but Alläh). And whoever says

(1) (Ch. 2) Lât and ‘Uzza were two idols worshipped by the pagan Arabs during the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance.

to his companion, ‘Come along, let us gamble,’ must give in charity (as an expiation for his sin).”

(3) CHAPTER. “And Manāt (another idol of the pagan Arabs) the other third.” (V.53:20)

She said, “Out of reverence to the idol Manāt which was placed in Al-Mushallal, those (Al-Mushrikūn) who used to assume Ihram in its name, used not to perform Sa‘y between As-Safā and Al-Marwa, so Allāh revealed:

‘Verily! A-Safā and Al-Marwa (two mountains at Makkah) are of the Symbols of Allāh...’ (V.2:158)

“Thereupon, Allāh’s Messenger and the Muslims used to perform Sa‘y (between them).” Sufyān said: The (idol) Manāt was at Al-Mushallal in Qudaid. ‘Aishah added, “The Verse was revealed in connection with the Ansār. They and (the tribe of) Ghassān used to assume Ihram in the name of Manāt before they embraced Islām.” ‘Aishah added, “There were men from the Ansār who used to assume Ihram in the name of Manāt which was an idol between Makkah and Al-Madīnāh. They said, ‘O Allāh’s Messenger! We used not to perform the Tawāf (Sa‘y) between A-Safā and Al-Marwa out of reverence to Manāt’.”

(1) (H. 4861) Because there were two other idols between A-Safā and Al-Marwa which did not belong to them.
(4) CHAPTER. “So, fall you down in prostration to Allah, and worship Him (Alone).” (V.53:62)

4862. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: The Prophet performed a prostration when he finished reciting Sûrat An-Najm, and all the Muslims and Al-Mushrikûn” (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muhammad) and jinn and human beings prostrated along with him.

4863. Narrated ‘Abdullâh: The first Sûrah in which a prostration was mentioned, was Sûrat An-Najm (the Star). Allah’s Messenger prostrated (while reciting it), and everybody behind him prostrated except a man whom I saw taking a handful of dust in his hand and prostrated on it. Later, I saw that man killed as an infidel, and he was Umaiyya bin Khalaf.
In the Name of Allâh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

(1) CHAPTER. “...And the moon has been cleft asunder (the people of Makkah requested Prophet Muhammad ﷺ to show them a miracle, so he showed them the splitting of the moon). And if they see a sign, they turn away...” (V.54:1,2)

4864.Narrated Ibn Mas’ûd: During the lifetime of Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ the moon was split into two parts; one part remained over the mountain, and the other part went beyond the mountain. On that, Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Witness (this miracle).”(1)

4865. Narrated 'Abdullāh: The moon was cleft asunder while we were in the company of the Prophet ﷺ, and it became two parts. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Witness, witness (this miracle).”

4866. Narrated Ibn 'Abbās رضي الله عنهما: The moon was cleft asunder during the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ.

4867. Narrated Anas رضي الله عنه: The people of Makkah asked the Prophet ﷺ to show them a sign (miracle). So he showed them (the miracle) of the cleaving of the moon.

4868. Narrated Anas: The moon was cleft asunder into two parts.

(2) CHAPTER. “Floating under Our Eyes, a reward for him who had been rejected!” (V.54:14)
Qatada said, “Allāh preserved Nūḥ’s (Noah’s) ark till the early converts of this nation saw it.”

4869. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Mas’ūd: The Prophet used to recite: “Fahal min-Muddakir [then is there any that will remember (or receive admonition)]?”

CHAPTER. “And We have indeed made the Qur’ān easy to understand and remember; then is there any one who will remember (or receive admonition)?” (V.54:17)

4870. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: The Prophet used to recite: “...Then is there any that will remember (or receive admonition)?”

CHAPTER. “… As if they were uprooted stems of date-palms. Then, how (terrible) was My Torment and My Warnings?” (V.54:20, 21)

4871. Narrated Abū Ishāq: A man asked Al-Aswad, “Is it ‘Fahal min-Muddakir’ or... Mudhdhakir?” Al-Aswad replied, “I have heard ‘Abdullāh bin Mas’ūd reciting it, ‘Fahal min-Muddakir’; I too, heard the Prophet reciting it ‘Fahal min-Muddakir’ with ‘d’.”

(3) CHAPTER. “… And they became like the dry stubble of a fold-builder. And indeed, We have made the Qur’ān easy to... understand and remember; then is there any that will remember (or receive admonition)."

(V.54:31,32)

4872. Narrated 'Abdullãh b. 'Umar: The Prophet ﷺ recited:
"Fahal min-Muddakir'.

(4) CHAPTER. "And verily, an abiding torment seized them early in the morning. Then, taste you My Torment and My Warnings." (V.54:38,39)

4873. Narrated 'Abdullãh b. 'Umar: The Prophet ﷺ recited: 'Fahal min-Muddakir'.

4874. Narrated 'Abdullãh b. 'Umar: I recited before the Prophet ﷺ: 'Fahal min-Mudhdhakir'. The Prophet said, "(It is) 'Fahal min-Muddakir.'"

(5) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh the Most High:
"Their multitude will be put to flight." (V.54:45)

4875. Narrated 'Ibn Abbâs: Allâh's Messenger ﷺ while in a tent on the day of the battle of Badr, said, "O Allâh! I request you (to fulfil) Your Promise and Your Covenant! O Allâh! If You will that none should worship You after today...” On that Abū Bakr held the Prophet ﷺ by the hand and said, “That is enough, O Allâh’s Messenger! You have appealed to your Lord too pressingly.” While the Prophet ﷺ was putting on his armour and then he went out, reciting:

“Their multitude will be put to flight, and they will show their backs.” (V.54:45)

(6) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh ﷺ:

“Nay, but the Hour is their appointed time (for their full recompense), and the Hour will be more grievous and more bitter.” (V.54:46)

4876. Narrated Yûsuf bin Mâhak: I was in the house of ‘Aishah, Mother of the believers. She said, “This revelation:

‘Nay, but the Hour is their appointed time (for their full recompense), and the Hour will be more grievous and more bitter.’ (V.54:45) was revealed to Muhammad ﷺ at Makkah while I was a playful little girl.”

4877. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs رضي الله عنهما: While in his tent on the day of the battle of Badr, the Prophet ﷺ said, “O Allâh! I request You (to fulfil) Your Promise and Your Covenant. O Allâh! If You will that none should worship You after today...”
On that, Abū Bakr held the Prophet by the hand and said, “That is enough, O Allah’s Messenger! You have appealed to your Lord too pressingly.” The Prophet was wearing his armour and then he went out reciting:

“Their multitude will be put to flight, and they will show their backs. Nay, but the Hour is their appointed time (for their full recompense), and the Hour will be more grievous and more bitter.” (V.54:45,46)

(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

“And besides these two, there are two other gardens (i.e., in Paradise).” (V.55:62)

4878. Narrated ʿAbdullāh bin Qais: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Two gardens of silver, their utensils and whatever is in them, and two other gardens of gold, their utensils and whatever is in them. And nothing will prevent the people who will be in the ‘Adn Paradise from seeing their Lord except the curtain of Majesty over His Face.”

(2) CHAPTER. “Hūr (beautiful fair females) guarded in pavilions.” (V.55 :72)

4879. Narrated ʿAbdullāh bin Qais: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “In Paradise there is a pavilion made of a single hollow pearl, sixty miles wide, in each corner of which there are wives who will not see those in the other corners; and the believers will visit and enjoy them.
4880. And there are two gardens of silver, their utensils and whatever is in them; and two gardens of so-and-so (i.e. of gold) their utensils and whatever is in them, and nothing will prevent the people who will be in the 'Adn Paradise from seeing their Lord except the curtain of Majesty over His Face.'

(1) CHAPTER.

4882. Narrated Sa‘īd bin Jubair: I asked Ibn ‘Abbās about Sūrat At-Tauba, and he said, “Sūrat At-Tauba? It is the exposure (of all the evils of the infidels and the hypocrites). And it continued revealing (the oft-repeated expression): ‘... and of them... and of them,’ till they started thinking that none would be left unmentioned therein.” I said, “(What about) Sūrat Al-Anfāl?” He replied, “Sūrat Al-Anfāl was revealed in connection with the battle of Badr.” I said, “(What about) Sūrat Al-Hashr?” He replied, “It was revealed in connection with Bānī An-Nādīr.”

(2) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh: “What you (O Muslims) cut down of the palm-trees (of the enemy)…” (V.59:5)
4884.Narrated Ibn 'Umar: ‘Allah’s Messenger burnt and cut down the palm-trees of Banî An-Nadîr which were at Al-Buwaira (a place near Al-Madina). Thereupon Allah revealed:

“What you (O Muslims) cut down of the palm-trees (of the enemy), or you left them standing on their stems, it was by Leave of Allah, and in order that He might disgrace Al-Fâsiqûn (the rebellious, disobedient to Allah).” (V.59:5).

(3) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah:

“What Allah gave as booty (Fâ’î) to His Messenger...” (V.59:7)

4885.Narrated 'Umar: The properties of Banî An-Nadîr were among the booty that Allah gave to His Messenger ; such booty were not obtained by any expedition on the part of Muslims, neither with cavalry, nor with camelry. So those properties were for Allah’s Messenger only, and he used to provide thereof the yearly expenditure for his wives, and dedicate the rest of its revenues for purchasing arms and horses as war material to be used in Allah’s Cause.

(4) CHAPTER. “And whatsoever the Messenger (Muhammad) gives you take it...” (V.59:7)

4886.Narrated 'Alqama: 'Abdullâh (bin Mas'ûd) said, “Allah curses those ladies who practise tattooing and those who get themselves tatooped, and those ladies who get their hair removed from their eyebrows and faces (except the beard and moustache) and those who make artificial spaces between their teeth in order to look more beautiful whereby they change Allâh’s Creation.” His saying reached a lady from Bani Asad called Umm Ya’qub who came (to ‘Abdullâh) and said, “I have come to know that you have cursed such and such (ladies)?” He replied, “Why should I not curse these whom Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ has cursed and who are (cursed) in Allâh’s Book!” Umm Ya’qub said, “I have read the whole Qur’ân, but I did not find in it what you say.” He said, “Verily, if you have read it (i.e., the Qur’ân), you have found it. Didn’t you read:

‘...And whatsoever the Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) gives you take it and whatsoever he forbids you, you abstain (from it)...’” (V.59:7)

She replied “Yes, I did.” He said, “Verily, Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ forbade such things.” She said, “But I see your wife doing these things!” He said, “Go and take a look at her.” She went and watched her but could not see anything in support of her statement. On that he said, “If my wife was as you thought, I would not keep her in my company.”(1)

4887. Narrated ‘Abdullâh (bin Mus‘ûd):

Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ has cursed the lady who uses false hair.

(1) (H. 4886) i.e., I would divorce her.
(5) CHAPTER. “And (it is also for) those who, before them, had homes (in Al-Madina) and had adopted the Faith…” (V.59:9)

4888. Narrated ‘Umar رضي الله عنه: I recommend that my successor should take care of, and secure the rights of the early emigrants; and I also advise my successor to be kind to the Ansār who had homes (in Al-Madina) and had adopted the Faith before the Prophet ﷺ emigrated to them, and to accept the good from their good ones and excuse their wrongdoing.

(6) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh ﷻ: “...And give them (emigrants) preference over themselves…” (V.59:9)

4889. Narrated Abū Hurairah رضي الله عنه: A man came to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! I am suffering from fatigue and hunger.” The Prophet ﷺ sent (somebody) to his wives (to get something), but the messenger found nothing with them. Then Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said (to his Companions), “Isn’t there anybody who can entertain this man tonight so that Allāh may be Merciful to him?” An Ansārī man got up and said, “I (will entertain him), O Allāh’s Messenger!” So, he went to his wife and said to her, “This is the guest of Allah’s Messenger, so do not keep anything away from him.” She said, “By Allah, I have nothing but the children’s food.” He said, “When the children ask for their dinner, put them to sleep and put out the light; we shall not take our meals tonight.” She did so. In the morning the Anṣārī man went to Allah’s Messenger who said, “Allah was pleased with (or He bestowed His Mercy) on so-and-so and his wife (because of their good deed).” Then Allah revealed:

“...And give them (emigrants) preference over themselves, even though they were in need of that...” (V.59:9)
4890. Narrated ‘Ali: Allah’s Messenger sent me along with Az-Zubair and Al-Miqdād and said, “Proceed till you reach a place called Ra‘ūdat-Khakh where there is a lady travelling in a Howdah on a camel. She has a letter. Take the letter from her.” So we set out, and our horses ran at full pace till we reached Ra‘ūdat-Khakh, and behold, we saw the lady and said (to her), “Take out the letter!” She said, “I have no letter with me.” We said, “Either you take out the letter or we will strip you of your clothes (to search for the letter).” So, she took the letter out of her hair braid. We brought the letter to the Prophet, and behold, it was addressed by Ḥāṭīb bin Abī Balṭa’a to some Al-Mushrīkūn (polytheists, pagans, idolaters, and disbelievers in the Oneness of Allah and in His Messenger Muḥammad) at Makkah, informing them of some of the plans and affairs of the Prophet. The Prophet said, “What is this, O Ḥāṭīb?” Ḥāṭīb replied, “Do not be hasty with me, O Allah’s Messenger! I am an Ansārī man and do not belong to them (Quraish infidels) while the emigrants who were with you had their relatives who used to protect their families and properties at Makkah. So, to compensate for not having blood relation with them, I intended to do them some favour so that they might protect my relatives (at Makkah), and I did not do this out of disbelief or an inclination to desert my religion.” The Prophet then said (to his Companions), “He (Ḥāṭīb) has told you the truth.” ‘Umar said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Allow me to chop his head off!” The Prophet said, “He is one of those who witnessed (fought in) the battle of Badr, and what do you know, perhaps Allah looked upon the people of Badr (Badr warriors) and said, ‘Do what you want as I... have forgiven you.’” ‘Amr, a subnarrator, said: This Verse was revealed about him (Hatib):

“O you who believe! Take not My enemies and your enemies (i.e. disbelievers and polytheists) as friends...” (V.60:1)

Narrated ‘Ali: Sufyān was asked whether (the Verse), “Take not My enemies and your enemies...” was revealed in connection with Hāṭib. Sufyān replied, “This occurs only in the narration of the people. I memorized the Hadith from ‘Amr, not overlooking even a single letter thereof, and I do not know of anybody who remembered it by heart other than myself.”

(2) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

“...When believing women come to you as emigrants...” (V.60:10)

4891. Narrated ‘Urwa: ‘Āishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ, said, “Allah’s Messenger ﷺ used to examine the believing women who emigrated to him in accordance with this Verse:

‘O Prophet! When believing women come to you to give you the Bai’a (pledge) to you... (up to) ... Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.’” (V.60:12)

‘Āishah said, “And if any of the believing women accepted the condition (assigned in the above mentioned Verse), Allah’s Messenger ﷺ would say to her, “I have accepted your Bai’a.” He would only say that, for, by Allah, his hand never touched any lady during that Bai’a. He did not receive their pledge except by saying, “I have accepted your Bai’a for that.”
(3) CHAPTER. “O Prophet! When believing women come to you to give you the Bai’a (pledge)…” (V.60:12)

4892. Narrated Umm ‘Atiyaa: We gave the Bai’a (pledge) to Allah’s Messenger and he recited to us:

“They will not associate anything in worship with Allah,” and forbade us to bewail the dead. Thereupon a lady withdrew her hand [refrained from giving the Bai’a (pledge)] and said, “But such and such lady lamented over one of my relatives, so I must recompense her (by doing the same over the dead relatives of hers)”. The Prophet did not object to that, so she went and returned to the Prophet and he accepted her Bai’a.

4893. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās regarding the Saying of Allah: “And they will not disobey you in any Ma‘rūf (Islamic Monotheism and all that which Islam ordains)...” (V.60:12)

That was one of the conditions which Allah imposed on (the believing) women [who came to give the Bai’a (pledge) to the Prophet].

4894. Narrated ‘Ubāda bin As-Šāmit: While we were with the Prophet, he said, “Will you give me the Bai’a (pledge) that you will not worship anything besides Allah, will not commit illegal sexual intercourse, and will not steal?” Then he recited the Verse concerning the women.

[Sufyān, the subnarrator, often said that the Prophet ﷺ added, “Whoever among you fulfils his pledge, will receive his reward from Allah, and whoever commits any of those sins and receives the legal punishment (in this life), his punishment will be an expiation for that sin; and whoever commits any of those sins and Allah screens him, then it is up to Allah to punish or forgive them.”]

4895. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: I witnessed the ‘Eid-ul-Fitr Salāt (prayer) with Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, Abū Bakr, ‘Umar and ‘Uthmān; and all of them offered Salāt (prayer) before delivering the Khutba (religious talk), (i.e. they prayed first) and then delivered the Khutba. Once, the Prophet ﷺ, [after completing the Salāt (prayer) and the Khutba] came down — as if I am now looking at him waving at the men with his hand to sit down — and walked through them till he, along with Bīlāl, reached (the rows of) the women. Then he recited:

“O Prophet! When believing women come to you to give you the Bai’a (pledge), that they will not associate anything in worship with Allah, that they will not steal, that they will not commit illegal sexual intercourse, that they will not kill their children, and that they will not utter slander, intentionally forging falsehood (by making illegal children belonging to their husbands) and that they will not disobey you in Ma'ruf (Islamic Monotheism and all that which Islam ordains), then accept Bai'a (pledge),...” (V.60:12)

Having finished, he said, “Do you agree to that?” One lady, other than whom none replied the Prophet ﷺ, said, “Yes, O Allah’s Messenger!” (The subnarrator, Al-Hasan did not know who the lady was). Then the Prophet ﷺ said to them: “Will you give in charity?” Thereupon Bilāl spread out his garment and the women started throwing big rings and small rings into Bilāl’s garment.

(61) SŪRAT AṢ-ṢAFF
(The Row or the Ranks)

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

(1) CHAPTER. “[And (remember) when ‘Īsā (Jesus), son of Mary said: “O Children of Israel! I am the Messenger of Allah unto you, confirming the Torah (which came) before me, and giving glad tidings of a Messenger to come] after me, whose name shall be Ahmad.” (61:6) 4896. Narrated Jubair bin Mut‘im: I heard Allah’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “I have (five) names: I am Muhammad and I am Aḥmad, and I am Al-Māhī, through whom Allah will obliterate eliminate Kufr (disbelief), and I am Al-Hāshir (who will be the first to be resurrected, the people being resurrected thereafter) (on the Day of Resurrection), and I am Al-'Āqib (i.e., there will be no Prophet after me).” (See H. 3532)

(62) SŪRAT AL-JUMU’AH
(The Friday)

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah:
“And [He has sent him (Prophet Muhammad) also to] others among them (Muslims) who have not yet joined them…” (V.62:3)

4897. Narrated Abū Hurairah:
While we were sitting with the Prophet, Sūrat Al-Jumu‘ah was revealed to him, and when the Verse, “And [He (Allah) has sent him (Prophet Muhammad) also to] others among them (Muslims) who have not yet joined them…” (V.62:3) was recited by the Prophet, I said, “Who are they, 0 Allah’s Messenger?” The Prophet did not reply till I repeated my question thrice. At that time, Salman Al-Fārisi was with us. So Allah’s Messenger put his hand on Salman, saying, “If Faith were at (the place of) Ath-Thuraiyya (pleiades, the highest star), even then (some men or man) from these people (i.e., Salman’s folk) would have taken it.”

4898. Narrated Abū Hurairah:
The Prophet said, “Then some from these people (i.e. Salman’s folk) would have taken it.”
(See Hadith No.4897)

(2) CHAPTER. “And when they see some merchandise or some amusement…”
(V.62:11)

4899. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنهما: A caravan of merchandise arrived at Al-Madīna on a Friday while we were with the Prophet ﷺ. All the people left (the Prophet ﷺ, and headed for the caravan) except twelve persons. Then Allāh revealed:

“And when they see some merchandise or some amusement, they disperse headlong to it…” (V.62:11)

(63) SÚRAT AL-MUNÁFIQÍN
(The Hypocrites)

In the Name of Allāh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh ﷻ:
“When the hypocrites come to you (O Muhammad ﷺ) they say: ‘We bear witness that you are indeed the Messenger of Allāh…’” (V.63:1)

4900. Narrated Zaid bin Arqam: While I was taking part in a Ghazwa. I heard ‘Abdullāh bin Ubayy (bin Abī Salūl) saying, “Don’t spend on those who are with Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ that they may disperse and go away from him. If we return (to Al-Madīna),

(1) (H. 4900) See the glossary.
indeed, the more honourable will expel the meeker amongst them.” I reported that (saying) to my uncle or to ‘Umar who, in his turn, informed the Prophet of it. The Prophet called me and I narrated to him the whole story. Then Allah’s Messenger sent for ‘Abdullâh bin Ubayy and his companions, and they took an oath that they did not say that. So Allah’s Messenger disbelieved my saying and believed his. I was struck with such a distress as I had never been struck the like of it before. I stayed at home and my uncle said to me, “You just wanted Allah’s Messenger to disbelieve your statement and hate you.” So Allah revealed (the Sürah beginning with):

“When the hypocrites come to you…” (V.63:1) The Prophet then sent for me and recited it and said, “O Zaid! Allah confirmed your statement.”

(2) CHAPTER. “They have made their oaths a screen (for their hypocrisy).”(1) (V.63:2)

(1) (Ch. 2) “An-Nifaq”

HYPOCRISY AND ITS VARIOUS MANIFESTATIONS

Hypocrisy is of two types, namely:
A – Hypocrisy in Belief
B – Hypocrisy in deeds and actions.

A – HYPOCRISY IN BELIEF

There are six aspects of hypocrisy in Belief:
(1) To belie the Messenger (Muḥammad).
(2) To belie some of all that was brought by the Messenger (Muḥammad), (e.g., the Qur’an, Sunna, legal laws and principles of Islam, etc.).
(3) To hate the Messenger (Muḥammad).
(4) To hate some of all that was brought by the Messenger (Muḥammad), e.g. Islam Monotheism, etc.
(5) To feel happy at the disgrace or becoming low of the religion of Allah’s Messenger (Muḥammad).
(6) To dislike that the religion of Allah’s Messenger (Islam Monotheism) become victorious. = 4901. Narrated Zaid bin Arqam: "I was with my uncle and I heard 'Abdullãh bin Ubayy bin Salül, saying, "Don't spend on those who are with Allãh's Messenger that they may disperse and go away from him." He also said, "If we return to Al-Madina, indeed, the more honourable will expel the meaner." So I informed my uncle of that and then my uncle informed Allãh's Messenger thereof. Allãh's Messenger sent for 'Abdullah bin Ubayy and his companions. They took oath that they would not say anything of that sort. Allãh's Messenger deemed their statement true and rejected mine. Thereof I was struck with such a distress as I had never been struck the like of it before, and stayed at home. Then Allãh revealed (Sûrat Al-Munãfiqûn):

(V.63:1)

"When the hypocrites come to you..."

(V.63:7)

"They are the ones who say: 'Spend not on those who are with Allãh's Messenger...’"

(V.63:8)

Allãh's Messenger sent for me and recited that Sûrah for me and said, "Allãh has confirmed your statement."

= A person having these six types (of hypocrisy) will be in the lowest depths (grade) of the Fire (Hell). [See V.4:145].

B - HYPOCRISY IN DEEDS AND ACTIONS

There are five aspects of hypocrisy in deeds and actions, and their proof is from the statement of Allãh's Messenger (S): The signs of a hypocrite are these:

(1) Whenever he speaks, he tells a lie.
(2) Whenever he promises, he always breaks it (his promise).
(3) If you trust him, he proves to be dishonest (if you keep something as trust with him, he will not return it).
(4) And in another narration of the Prophet (S): Whenever he quarrels, he behaves in a very imprudent, evil, insulting manner.
(5) Whenever he makes a covenant, he proves treacherous.
(3) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah:

"That is because they believed, then disbelieved, therefore their hearts are sealed, so they understand not." (V.63:3)

4902. Narrated Zaid bin Arqam: When 'Abdullãh bin Ubayy said, "Do not spend on those who are with Allah’s Messenger,” and also said, “If we return to Al-Madina,” I informed the Prophet ﷺ of his saying. The Ansãr blamed me for that, and ‘Abdullãh bin Ubayy swore that he did not say so. I returned to my house and slept. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ then called me and I went to him. He said, “Allah has confirmed your statement.” And the Verse:

"They are the one who say: Spend not…” (V.63:7) was revealed.

CHAPTER. “And when you look at them, their bodies please you, and when they speak, you listen to their words.” (V.63:4)

4903. Narrated Zaid bin Arqam: We went out with the Prophet ﷺ on a journey and the people suffered from lack of provisions. So ‘Abdullãh bin Ubayy said to his companions, “Don’t spend on those who are with Allah’s Messenger, that they may disperse and go away from him.” He also said, “If we return to Al-Madina, indeed, the more honourable will expel therefrom the meaner.” So I went to the Prophet and informed him of that. He sent for ‘Abdullah bin Ubayy and asked him, but ‘Abdullah bin Ubayy swore that he did not say so. The people said, “Zaid told a lie to Allah’s Messenger.” What they said distressed me very much. Later, Allah revealed the confirmation of my statement in His Saying:

“When the hypocrites come to you…” (V.63:1)

So the Prophet called them that they might ask Allah to forgive them, but they turned their heads aside. (Concerning Allah’s Saying: “Blocks of wood propped up…” Zaid said: They were the most handsome men.)

(4) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah:

“And when it is said to them: ‘Come, so that the Messenger of Allah may ask forgiveness from Allah for you,’ they turn aside their heads, and you would see them turning away their faces in pride.” (V.63:5)

4904. Narrated Zaid bin Arqam: While I was with my uncle, I heard ‘Abdullah bin Ubayy bin Salil saying, “Do not spend on those who are with Allah’s Messenger, that they may disperse and go away (from him). And if we return to Al-Madina, indeed, the more honourable will expel therefrom the meaner.” I mentioned that to my uncle, who, in turn, mentioned it to the Prophet. The Prophet, called me and I told him about that. Then he sent for ‘Abdullah bin Ubayy and his companions, and they swore that they did not say so. The Prophet disbelieved my statement and believed theirs. I was distressed as I have never been before, and I remained in my house. My uncle said to me, “You just wanted the Prophet to consider you a liar and hate you.” Then Allah revealed:

“When the hypocrites come to you (O Muhammad), they say: ‘We bear witness that you are indeed the Messenger of Allah…’” (V.63:1)

So the Prophet sent for me and recited it and said, “Allah has confirmed your statement.”

(5) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

“It is equal to them whether you (Muhammad) ask for their forgiveness…” (V.63:6)

4905. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh: We were in a Ghazwa (Sufyân once said, in an army) and a man from the emigrants kicked an Ansârî man (on the buttocks with his foot). The Ansârî man said, “O the Ansâr! (Help!)” and the emigrant said, “O the emigrants! (Help!).” Allah’s Messenger heard that and said, “What is this call for, which is the characteristic of the Period of Ignorance?” They said, “O Allah’s Messenger! A man from the emigrants kicked one of the Ansâr (on the buttocks with his foot).” Allah’s Messenger said, “Leave it (that call) for it is a detestable thing.” Abdullah bin Ubayy heard that and said, “Have they (the emigrants) done so? By Allah, if we return to Al-Madînâ, indeed, the more honourable will expel therefrom the meaner.” When this statement reached the Prophet, ‘Umar got up and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Let me chop off the head of this hypocrite (Abdullâh bin Ubayy)!” The Prophet said, “Leave him, lest the people say that Muhammad kills his companions.” The Ansār were then more in number than the emigrants when the latter came to Al-Madina, but later on the emigrants increased in number.

(6) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

“They are the ones who say: ‘Spend not on those who are with Allāh’s Messenger, until they desert him...’” (V.63:7)

CHAPTER. “And to Allāh belong the treasures of the heavens and the earth, but the hypocrites comprehend not.” (63:7)

4906. Narrated Mūsā bin ‘Uqba: ‘Abdullāh bin Al-Faḍl told me that Anās bin Mālik said, “I was much grieved over those who had been killed in the battle of Al-Harra.” When Zaid bin Arqām heard of my intense grief (over the killed Ansār), he wrote a letter to me saying that he heard Allāh’s Messenger saying, ‘O Allāh! Forgive the Ansār and the children of Ansār.’ The subnarrator, Ibn Al-Faḍl, is not sure whether the Prophet also said, “And their grand-children.” Some of those who were present, asked Anās (about Zaid). He said, “He (Zaid) is the one about whom Allāh’s Messenger said, ‘He is the one whose (sound) hearing was testified by Allāh.’” 4907. Narrated Jābir bin 'Abdullāh: We were in a Ghazwa (1) and a man from the emigrants kicked an Ansār (on the buttocks with his foot). The Ansār man said, “O the Ansār! (Help!)*” The emigrant said, “O the emigrants! (Help!).” When Allāh’s Messenger heard that, he said, “What is that?” They said, “A man from the emigrants kicked a man from the Ansār (on the buttocks with his foot). On that the Ansār said, ‘O the *Ansār!’ and the emigrant said, ‘O the emigrants!’” The Prophet said, “Leave it (that call) for it is a detestable thing.” The number of Ansār was more (than that of the emigrants) at the time when the Prophet came to Al-Madīna, but later the number of emigrants increased. ’Abdullāh bin Ubayy said, “Have they, (the emigrants) done so? By Allāh, if we return to Al-Madīna, indeed, the more honourable will expel therefrom the meaner.” ’Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Let me chop off the head of this hypocrite!” The Prophet said, “Leave him, lest the people say Muhammad kills his companions.”

(65) SÚRAT AT-TALÁQ
(The Divorce)

In the Name of Alláh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

وَقَالَ مُجَاهِدٌ: "وَبَلْ أَنْحَأْ:"
جَرَاءٌ أُمْرُهَا.

(1) CHAPTER.

4908. Narrated Sálim that ‘Abdulláh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهما: told him that he had divorced his wife while she was in her menses, so ‘Umar informed Alláh’s Messenger ﷺ of that. Alláh’s Messenger ﷺ became very angry at that and said, “(Ibn ‘Umar) must return her to his house and keep her as his wife till she becomes clean and then menstruates and becomes clean again, whereupon, if he wishes to divorce her, he may do so while she is still clean and before having any sexual relations with her, for that is the legally prescribed period for divorce as Allâh has ordered.”

(2) CHAPTER. “... And for those who are pregnant (whether they are divorced or their husbands are dead), their ‘Iddâ (prescribed period) is until they lay down their burdens, and whoever keeps his duty to Allâh and fears Him, He will make his matter easy for him.” (V.65:4)

4909. Narrated Abû Salama: A man came to Ibn ‘Abbâs while Abû Hurairah was sitting with him and said, “Give me your verdict regarding a lady who delivered a baby forty days after the death of her husband.” Ibn ‘Abbâs said, “This indicates the end of one of the two prescribed periods.” I said “For those who are pregnant, their prescribed period is until they deliver their burdens.” Abû Hurairah said, “I agree with my cousin (Abû Salama).” Then Ibn ‘Abbâs sent his slave, Kuraib to Umm Salama to ask her (regarding this matter). She replied, “The husband of Subai’a Al-Aslamiyya was killed while she was pregnant, and she delivered a baby forty days after his death. Then her hand was asked in marriage and Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ married her (to somebody). Abû As-Sanâabil was one of those who asked for her hand in marriage.”
66) SŪRAT AT-TAHRĪM
(The Banning)

In the Name of Allāh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

(1) CHAPTER. “O Prophet! Why do you forbid (for yourself) that which Allāh has allowed to you?…” (V.66:1)

4910. [See H. 4909 and its Chap. No. 2]
4911. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: If someone says to his wife, ‘You are unlawful to me.’ He must make an expiation (for his oath). Ibn 'Abbas added: ‘Indeed in the Messenger of Allah (Muhammad) you have a good example to follow…’ (V.33:21)

4912. Narrated 'Aishah: Allah’s Messenger used to drink honey in the house of Zainab, the daughter of Jahsh, and would stay there with her. So Hafsa and I agreed secretly that, if he come to either of us, she would say to him, ‘It seems you have eaten Maghafir (a kind of foul-smelling resin), for I smell in you the smell of Maghafir.’ (We did so) and he replied, ‘No, but I was drinking honey in the house of Zainab, the daughter of Jahsh, and I shall never take it again. I have taken an oath as to that, and you should not tell anybody about it.’

(2) CHAPTER. “... seeking to please your wives…” (V.66:1) “Allāh has already ordained for you (O men), the dissolution of your oaths...” (V.66:2)

4913. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: For the whole year I had the desire to ask 'Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb regarding the explanation of a Verse (in Sūrat At-Tahrim), but I could not ask him because I respected him very much. When he went to... perform the Hajj, I, too, went along with him. On our return, while we were still on the way home, 'Umar went aside to answer the call of nature by the Arak trees. I waited till he finished and then I proceeded with him and asked him, "O chief of the believers! Who were the two wives of the Prophet who aided one another against him?" He said, "They were Ḥafṣa and 'A'ishah." Then I said to him, "By Allāh, I wanted to ask you about this a year ago, but I could not do so owing to my respect for you." 'Umar said, "Do not refrain from asking me. If you think that I have knowledge (about a certain matter), ask me; and if I know (something about it), I will tell you." Then 'Umar added, "By Allāh, in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance we did not pay attention to women until Allāh revealed regarding them what He revealed regarding them; and assigned for them what He has assigned. Once, while I was thinking over a certain matter, my wife said, "I recommend that you do so-and-so." I said to her, "What have you got to do with this matter? Why do you poke your nose in a matter which I want to see fulfilled?" She said, "How strange you are, O son of Al-Khattāb! You don’t want to be argued with, whereas your daughter, Ḥafṣa surely, argues with Allāh’s Messenger so much that he remains angry for a full day!" 'Umar then reported; how he at once put on his outer garment and went to Ḥafṣa and said to her, "O my daughter! Do you argue with Allāh’s Messenger so that he remains angry the whole day?" Ḥafṣa said, "By Allāh, we argue with him." 'Umar said, "Know that I warn you of Allāh’s punishment and the anger of Allāh’s Messenger. O my daughter! Don’t be betrayed by the one who is proud of her beauty because of the love of Allāh’s Messenger for her (i.e., ‘Aishah).’ ‘Umar added, ‘Then I went out to Umm Salama’s house who was one of my relatives, and I talked to her. She said, ‘O son of Al-Khattab! It is rather astonishing that you interfere in everything; you even want to interfere between Alläh’s Messenger and his wives!’ By Alläh, by her talk she influenced me so much that some of my anger subsided. I left her (and went home).
At that time I had a friend from the Ansar who used to bring news (from the Prophet ﷺ) in case of my absence, and I used to bring him the news if he was absent. In those days we were afraid of one of the kings of Ghassan tribe. We heard that he intended to move and attack us, so fear filled our hearts because of that. (One day), my Ansār friend unexpectedly knocked at my door, and said, ‘Open! Open!’ I said, ‘Has the king of Ghassan come?’ He said, ‘No, but something worse; Alläh’s Messengers has isolated himself from his wives.’ I said, ‘Let the nose of ‘Aishah and Hafsa be stuck to dust (i.e., humiliated)!’ Then I put on my clothes and went to Alläh’s Messenger’s residence, and behold! He was staying in an upper room of his, to which he ascended by a ladder, and a black slave of Alläh’s Messenger ﷺ was (sitting) at the first ladder-step. I said to him, ‘Say (to the Prophet ﷺ) ‘Umar bin Al-Khattab is here.’ Then the Prophet ﷺ admitted me and I narrated this story to Alläh’s Messenger ﷺ. When I reached the story of Umm Salama, Alläh’s Messenger ﷺ smiled while he was lying on a mat made of palm-tree leaves with nothing between him and the mat. Underneath his head there was a leather pillow stuffed with palm-fibres, and leaves of a Saut tree were piled at his feet, and above his head hung a few water-skins. On seeing the marks of the mat imprinted on his side, I wept. He said, ‘Why are you weeping?’ I replied, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! Caesar and Khusrau are leading the life (i.e., luxurious life) while you, Allah’s Messenger though you are (is living in destitute).” The Prophet then replied, ‘Won’t you be satisfied that they enjoy this world and we the Hereafter?’”

(3) CHAPTER. “And (remember) when the Prophet disclosed a matter in confidence to one of his wives (Hafsa)… (up to) … The All-Aware.” (V.66:3)

4914.Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās : I intended to ask ‘Umar so I said, “Who were those two ladies who tried to back each other against the Prophet?” I had hardly finished my speech when he said, “They were ‘Āishah and Hafṣa.”

(4) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah : “If you two (wives of the Prophet , namely, ‘Āishah and Hafṣa) turn in repentance to Allah, (it will be better for you), your hearts are indeed so inclined (to oppose what the Prophet likes).” (V.66:4)
4915. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās [رضي الله عنهما]: I intended to ask ‘Umar about those two ladies who back each other against ‘Allāh’s Messenger [رسول اللہ ﷺ]. For one year I was seeking the opportunity to ask this question, but in vain, until once when I accompanied him for Hajj. While we were in Zahrān, ‘Umar went to answer the call of nature and told me to follow him with some water for ablution. So I followed him with a container of water and started pouring water for him. I found it a good opportunity to ask him, so I said, “O chief of the believers! Who were those two ladies who had backed each other (against the Prophet [رسول اللہ ﷺ]?” Before I could complete my question, he replied, “They were ‘Aishah and Ḥafṣa.”

(5) CHAPTER. “It may be, if he divorced you (all), that his Lord (Allah) will give him instead of you, wives better than you...” (V.66:5)

4916. Narrated ‘Umar [رضي الله عنه]: The wives of the Prophet [رسول اللہ ﷺ], out of their jealousy, backed each other against the Prophet [رسول اللہ ﷺ], so I said to them, “It may be, if he divorced you (all), that Allāh will give him instead of you, wives better than you...” (V.66:5)
So this Verse was revealed.

(1) CHAPTER. “Cruel, and moreover base-born (of illegitimate birth).” (V.68:13)

It was revealed in connection with a man from Quraish who had a notable Zanamah (sign) similar to the notable sign which usually hung on the neck of a sheep (to recognise it).

4918. Narrated Hãritha bin Wahb Al-Khuza‘î: I heard the Prophet ℒ lượt saying, “May I tell you of the people of Paradise? Every weak and poor obscure person whom the people look down upon, but if he takes an oath to do something, his oath is fulfilled by Allãh. And may I inform you of the people of the Hell-fire? They are all those violent, arrogant and stubborn people.”

(2) CHAPTER. “(Remember) the Day when the Shin shall be laid bare…” (V.68:42)

4919. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd ℒ lượt saying, “Our Lord Allãh will lay bare His Shin, and then all the believers, men and women, will prostrate themselves before Him, but there will remain those who used to prostrate in the world for showing off and for gaining good reputation. Such one will try to prostrate (on the Day of Judgement) but his back (bones) will become a single (vertebra) bone, (so he will not be able to prostrate).”

(1) CHAPTER. “Nor shall you leave Wadd nor Suwâ’ nor Yaghûth nor Ya‘ūq nor Nasr’…” (V.71:23)

4920. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: All the idols which were worshipped by the people of Nûh (Noah) were worshipped by the Arabs later on. As for the idol Wadd, it was worshipped by the tribe of Kalb at Daumat-al-Jandal; Suwâ’ was the idol of Banî Hudhail, and Yaghûth was the idol of (the tribe of) Murâd and then by Banî Ghutaif at Al-Jauf near Sabā; Yāʿūq was the idol of Ḥamdān, and Nāsr was the idol of Ḥimyar, the branch of Dhil-Kalāʿ. The names (of the idols) formerly belonged to some pious men of the people of Nūh, and when they died, Satan inspired their people to (prepare) and place idols at the places where they used to sit, and to call those idols by their names. The people did so, but the idols were not worshipped till those people (who initiated them) had died and the origin of the idols had become obscure, whereupon people began worshipping them.

(1) CHAPTER.

4921. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: Allāh’s Messenger went out along with a group of his Companions towards ‘Ukāz market. At that time something intervened between the devils and the news of the heaven, and flames were fired upon them, so the devils returned. Their fellow-devils said, “What is wrong with you?” They said, “Something has intervened between us and the news of the heaven, and fires (flames) have been shot at us.” Their fellow-devils said, “Nothing has intervened between you and the news of the heaven, but an important event has happened. Therefore, travel all over the world, east and west, and try to find out what has happened." And so they set out and travelled all over the world, east and west, looking for that thing which intervened between them and the news of the heaven. Those of the devils who had set out towards Tihama, went to Allah’s Messenger at Nakhla (a place between Makkah and Tā’if) while he was on his way to ‘Ukāz market. (They met him) while he was offering the Fajr prayer with his Companions. When they heard the Qur’ān being recited (by Allah’s Messenger), they listened to it and said (to each other), “This is the thing which has intervened between you and the news of the heavens.” Then they returned to their people and said, “O our people! Verily We have heard a wonderful Recitation (the Qur’ān). It guides to the Right Path, and we have believed therein, and we shall never join (in worship), anything with our Lord (Allah).”

Then Allah revealed to His Prophet (Sūrat Al-jinn):

“Say (O Muḥammad) ‘It has been revealed to me that a group (from three to ten in number) of jinn listened (to this Qur’ān)…”’ (V.72:1)

The statement of the jinn was revealed to him.

(1) CHAPTER.

4922. Narrated Yaḥyā bin Abī Kathīr: I asked Abū Salama bin ‘Abdur-Rahmān about the first Sūrah revealed of the Qur’ān. He replied, “O you, (Muḥammad ﷺ) enveloped (in garments)! (Al-Muddaththir No. 74)” I said, “They say it was, ‘Read! In the Name of your Lord, Who has created,’ [i.e., Sūrat Al-‘Alaq (the Clot, No. 96)].” On that, Abū Salama said, “I asked Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh about that, saying the same as you have said, whereupon he said, ‘I will not tell you except what Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ had told us.’ Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, ‘I was in seclusion in the cave of Hīrā’, and after I completed the limited period of my seclusion, I came down (from the cave) and heard a voice calling me. I looked to my right, but saw nothing, I looked to my left, but saw nothing, I looked to my front, but saw nothing, I looked to my back, but saw nothing. Then I looked up and saw something. So, I went to Khadija (the Prophet’s wife) and told her to envelop me in garments and pour cold water on me. So they enveloped me and poured cold water on me.

Then, it was revealed:

O you (Muhammad ﷺ) enveloped (in garments) Arise and warn and magnify your Lord (Allah)!’” (V.74:1-3)

4923. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “I was in a seclusion in the cave of Ḥirā’...” (similar to the narration related by ‘Ali bin Al-Mubārak, No. 4922).

4924. Narrated Yahyā: I asked Abū Salama, “Which Sūrah of the Qur’ān was revealed first?” He replied, “O you (Muhammad ﷺ), enveloped (in garments)! (Al-Muddaththir No. 74).” I said, “I have been informed that it was, ‘Read! In the Name of your Lord! Who has created...’ (Sūrat Al-‘Alaq No. 96).” Abū Salama said, “I asked Jābir, ‘Which Sūrah of the Qur’ān was revealed first?’ He said, “O you (Muhammad ﷺ), enveloped (in garments) Arise and warn and magnify your Lord (Allah)!’” (V.74:1-3) garments)!’ I said, ‘I have been told that it was ‘Read! In the Name of your Lord, who has created.’ He said, ‘I will not tell you but what Allah’s Messenger said. Allah’s Messenger said, ‘I was in seclusion in the cave of Hira’ and when I completed the limited period of my seclusion, I came down till I reached the valley. I heard a voice calling me, so I looked in front of me, behind me, to my right, and to my left, and behold! I saw (an angel) sitting on a throne between the sky and the earth. So, I went to Khadija and told her to envelop me in garments and pour cold water on me. Then, it was revealed to me:

‘O you (Muhammad) enveloped (in garments)! Arise and warn! And magnify your Lord (Allah)!’” (V.74:1-3)

(4) CHAPTER. “And purify your garments!” (V.74:4)

4925. Narrated Jabir bin ‘Abdullah: I heard the Prophet describing the period of pause of the Divine Revelation. He said in his talk, ‘While I was walking, I heard voices from the sky. I looked up, and behold! I saw the same angel who came to me in the cave of Hira’, sitting on a chair between the sky and the earth. I was too much afraid of him (so I returned to my house) and said, ‘Wrap me up, wrap me up in garments!’ So they enveloped me. Then Allah revealed:

‘O you (Muhammad) enveloped (in garments)! ... (up to) ... And keep away from Ar-Ruiz (the idols)’ (This happened) before the Salat (prayers) became compulsory.”
(5) CHAPTER. “And keep away from Ar-Rujz (the idols)” (V.74:5)

It is said that ‘Rujz’ and ‘Rijs’ means punishment (i.e., the worshipping of idols that leads to punishment.)

4926. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh that he heard Allah’s Messenger describing the period of pause of the Divine Revelation, and in his description he said, “While I was walking, I heard a voice from the sky. I looked up towards the sky, and behold! I saw the same angel who came to me in the cave of Hîrâ’, sitting on a chair between the sky and the earth. I was so terrified by him that I fell down on the ground. Then I went to my wife and said, ‘Envelop me in garments! Envelop me in garments!’ They enveloped me, and then Allah revealed:

‘O you (Muhammad) enveloped in garments! Arise and warn... (up to) ... And keep away from Ar-Rujz (the idols).’” (V.74:1-5)

Abû Salama said: ‘Rujz’ means idols. After that, the Divine Revelation started coming strongly and more frequently.

(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh ﷻ ﷺ:
“Move not your tongue concerning (the Qur’ân, O Muhammäd ﷺ) to make haste therewith.” (V.75:16)

4927. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ used to move his tongue when the Divine Revelation was being revealed to him. [Sûfîn, a subnarrator, demonstrated (how the Prophet ﷺ used to move his lips) and added, “In order to memorize it.”] So Allâh revealed:

“Move not your tongue concerning (the Qur’ân, O Muhammäd ﷺ) to make haste therewith.” (V.75:16)

CHAPTER. “It is for Us to collect it and to give you (O Muhammäd ﷺ), the ability to recite it (the Qur’ân).” (V.75:17)

4928. Narrated Mûsâ bin Abî ‘Âishah that he asked Sa’ïd bin Jubair regarding (the Statement of Allâh), “Move not your tongue concerning (the Qur’ân, O Muhammäd ﷺ) to make haste therewith.” He said, “Ibn ‘Abbâs said that the Prophet ﷺ used to move his lips when the Divine Revelation was being revealed to him. So the Prophet ﷺ was ordered not to move his tongue, which he used to do, lest some words should escape his memory. ‘It is for Us to collect it’ means, ‘We will collect it in your chest;’ and ‘the ability to recite it’ means, ‘We will make you recite it.’ But when We have recited it (i.e., when it... has been revealed to you), follow its recital; it is for Us to explain it and make it clear, (i.e., We will explain it through your tongue)."

(2) CHAPTER. "And when We have recited it to you [O Muhammad ﷺ through Jibrîl (Gabriel)], then follow its ([the Qur’ân’s] recital." (V.75:18)

And Ibn ’Abbâs said: "We have recited it" means "We have explained it." "Follow its recital" means, "Act on its order."

4929. Narrated Ibn ’Abbâs (as regards) Allâh’s Statement — “Move not your tongue concerning (the Qur’ân, O Muhammad ﷺ) to make haste therewith.” (V.75:16):

When Jibrîl (Gabriel) descended with the Divine Revelation to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ, he (Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ) moved his tongue and lips, and that state used to be very hard for him, and that movement indicated that he was being inspired Divinely. So, Allâh revealed in Surat Al-Qiyámah which begins with: “I swear by the Day of Resurrection…” (V.75:16)

The Verses “Move not your tongue concerning (the Qur’ân, O Muhammad ﷺ) to make haste therewith. It is for Us to collect it and to give you (O Muhammad ﷺ) the ability to recite it (the Qur’ân).” (V.75:16,17):

Ibn ’Abbâs added: “It is for Us to collect it, and to give you the ability to recite it (the Qur’ân),” means, “When We have revealed it, listen.” “Then it is for Us to explain it,” means, “It is for Us (Allâh) to explain it through your tongue.” So whenever Jibrîl (Gabriel) came to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ, he would keep quiet (and listen), and when the angel left, the Prophet ﷺ would recite that revelation as Allâh promised him.

(77) Sūrat Al-Mursalāt
(Those sent forth)

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

(1) CHAPTER.

4930. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: We were with the Prophet when Sūrat (starting with) Wal-Mursalāt was revealed to him. While we were receiving it from his mouth, a snake suddenly came and we ran to kill it, but it outstripped us and entered its hole quickly. Allāh’s Messenger said, “It has escaped your evil, and you, too, have escaped its evil.”

4931. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: While we were with Allāh’s Messenger in a cave, Sūrat (starting with) Wal-Mursalāt was revealed to him and we received it directly from his mouth as soon as he had received the Revelation. Suddenly, a snake came out and Allāh’s Messenger said, “Get at it and kill it!” We ran to kill it but it outstripped us. Allāh’s Messenger said, “It has escaped your evil as you, too, have escaped its evil.”
(2) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah (V.77:32)

"Verily! It (Hell) throws sparks (huge) as Al-Qasr (a fort or a huge log of wood)."

4932. Narrated Ibn 'Abbâs: (as regards the explanation of) “Verily! It (Hell) throws sparks (huge) as Al-Qasr (a fort or a huge log of wood).” (V.77:32):

We used to collect wood in the form of logs, three cubits long or shorter, for heating purposes in winter, and we used to call such wood Al-Qasr.

(3) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah (V.77:33)

“As if they were yellow camels or bundles of ropes.”
4933. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: (regarding) the explanation of “… It throws sparks as Al-Qāsr …” (V. 77:32):

We used to collect logs of wood, three cubits long or longer, to store for heating purposes in winter, and we used to call it Al-Qāsr, it also means a castle or a fort.

“As if they were ḥaḍālat ṣufr (yellow camels or bundles of ropes)” (V.77:33): means the ropes of a ship which are made in bundles till it become as wide as men’s waists.

(4) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh: “That will be a Day when they shall not speak (during some part of it).” (V.77:35)

4934. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: While we were with the Prophet ☪ in a cave, Sūrat (starting with) Wal-Mursalāt was revealed to him and he recited it, and I heard it directly from his mouth as soon as he recited its Revelation. Suddenly, a snake sprang at us, and the Prophet ☪ said, “Kill it!” We ran to kill it but it escaped quickly. The Prophet ☪ said, “It has escaped your evil, and you, too, have escaped its evil.”
(1) CHAPTER. “The Day when the Trumpet will be blown, and you shall come forth in crowds (groups after groups).” (V.78:18)

4935. Narrated Al-A‘mash: Abū Hurairah ṣallāllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam said, “‘Allāh’s Messenger ṣallāllāhu ‘alayhi wa sallam said, ‘Between the two sounds of the Trumpet, there will be forty.’” Somebody asked Abū Hurairah, “Forty days?” But he refused to reply. Then he asked, “Forty months?” He refused to reply. Then he asked, “Forty years?” Again, he refused to reply. Abū Hurairah added, “Then (after this period), ‘Allāh will send water from the sky and then the dead bodies will grow like vegetation grows. There is nothing of the human body that does not wastes away or perish or decay except one bone; that is the last coccyx bone (of the tail); and from that bone ‘Allāh will reconstruct the human body on the Day of Resurrection.’”

(The Sun)

4942. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin Zam’a that he heard the Prophet ® delivering a Khutba (religious talk), and he mentioned the she-camel and the one who killed it. Allâh’s Messenger ® recited:

“When the most wicked man among them went forth (to kill the she-camel).” (V.91:12)

Then he said, “A tough man whose equal was rare and who enjoyed the protection of his people, like Abi Zam’a, went forth to (kill) it.” The Prophet ® then mentioned about women (in his Khutba) and said, “It is not wise for anyone of you to lash his wife like a slave, for he might sleep with her the same evening.” Then he advised them not to laugh when somebody breaks wind, and said, “Why should anybody laugh at what he himself does?”
In the Name of Allāh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

(1) CHAPTER. “By the day as it appears in brightness.” (V.92:2)

4943. Narrated ‘Alqama: I went to Shām with a group of the companions of ‘Abdullāh (bin Mas‘ūd). Abū Ad-Dardā’ heard of our arrival so he came to us and said, “Is there anybody among you who can recite (the Qur‘ān)?” We replied in the affirmative. Then he asked, “Who is the best reciter?” They pointed at me. Then he told me to recite, so I recited the Verse:

“By the night as it envelops. By the day as it appears in brightness. By Him Who created male and female.” (V.92:1-3)

Abū Ad-Dardā’ then said to me, “Did you hear it (like this) from the mouth of your friend (‘Abdullāh bin Mas‘ūd)?” I said, “Yes.” He said, “I, too, heard it (like this) from the mouth of the Prophet ﷺ, but these people do not consider this recitation as the correct one.”
(2) CHAPTER. “By Him Who created male and female.” (V.92:3)

4944. Narrated Ibrāhīm: The companions of ‘Abdullāh (bin Mas‘ūd) came to Abī Ad-Dardā’, (and before they arrived at his home), he looked for them and found them. Then he asked them, “Who among you can recite (the Qur’an) as ‘Abdullāh recites it?” They replied, “All of us.” He asked, “Who among you knows it by heart?” They pointed at ‘Alqama. Then he asked ‘Alqama, “How did you hear ‘Abdullāh bin Mas‘ūd reciting Sūrat Al-Lail (The Night)?” ‘Alqama recited:

“By the male and the female.” Abū Ad-Dardā’ said, “I testify that I heard the Prophet reciting it likewise, but these people want me to recite it:

‘By Him Who created male and female.’ but by Allāh, I will not follow them.”

(3) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāhː

“As for him who gives (in charity) and keeps his duty to Allāh and fears Him.” (V.92:5)

4945. Narrated ‘Alī: We were in the company of the Prophet in a funeral procession at Baqi ‘Al-Gharqad. He said, “There is none of you but has his place written for him in Paradise or in the Hell-fire.” They said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Shall we depend (on this fact and give up work)?” He said, “Carry on doing (good deeds), for everybody will find it easy to do (such deeds that will lead him to his destined place).” Then he recited:

“As for him who gives (in charity) and keeps his duty to Allāh and fears Him, and believes in Al-Husnā [the Best i.e., either Lā ilāha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh) or reward from Allāh (i.e., Allāh will compensate him for what he will spend in Allāh’s Way or bless him with Paradise). ... (up to) ... the path for evil.” (V.92:5-10)

CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah
‘... and believes in Al-Husnā.”[1] (V.92:6)

Narrated Abū ‘Abdur-Rahmān: ‘Ali (r) said, “We were sitting with the Prophet ﷺ.” (He then mentioned the Hadith No.4945).

4946. Narrated ‘Alī: While the Prophet ﷺ was in a funeral procession, he took a small stick and started scraping the earth with it and said, “There is none among you but has his place written for him, either in the Hell-fire or in Paradise.” They (the people) said, “O Allah’s Messenger ﷺ! Shall we depend (on this fact and give up work)?” He replied, “Carry on doing (good deeds), for everybody will find easy to do (such deeds that will lead him to his destined place).” The Prophet ﷺ then recited:

“As for him who gives (in charity) and keeps his duty to Allah and fears Him, and believes in Al-Husnā.” (V.92:5,6)

(5) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah Jibāl:
"But he who is greedy miser and thinks himself self-sufficient." (V.92:8)

4947. Narrated 'Ali ibn Abī Ṭālib: We were in the company of the Prophet ﷺ and he said, "There is none among you but has his place written for him, either in Paradise or in the Hell-fire." We said, "O Allah's Messenger! Shall we depend (on this fact and give up work)?" He replied, "No! Carry on doing good deeds, for everybody will find easy to do (such deeds that will lead him to his destined place)." Then the Prophet ﷺ recited:

"As for him who gives (in charity) and keeps his duty to Allah and fears Him and believes in Al-Husnā. We will make smooth for him the path of ease (goodness) ... (up to) We will make smooth for him the path for evil." (V.92:5-10)

(6) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah Jibāl:
"And belies Al-Husnā ..." (V.92:9).

4948. Narrated ‘Ali ibn Abī Ṭālib: While we were in a funeral procession in Baq‘ Al-Gharqad, Allah's Messenger ﷺ came and sat down, and we sat around him. He had a small stick in his hand and he bent his head and started scraping the ground with it. He then said, "There is none among you and no created soul, but has his place written for him either in Paradise or in the Hell-fire, and also written for him whether he will be wretched or blessed (in the Hereafter)." A man said, "O Allah's Messenger! Shall we depend upon what is written for us and give up doing (good) deeds? For whoever among us is destined to be blessed (in the Hereafter), will join the blessed people, and whoever among us is destined to be wretched will do such deeds as are characteristic of the people who are destined to be wretched.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Those who are destined to be blessed (in the Hereafter) will find it easy to do the deeds characteristic of those destined to be blessed, while those who are to be among the wretched (in the Hereafter), will find it easy to do the deeds characteristic of those destined to be wretched.” Then he recited:

“As for him who gives (in charity) and keeps his duty to Allah and fears Him, and believes in Al-Hasnā.” (V.92:5-6)

(7) CHAPTER. “We will make smooth for him the path for evil.” (V.92:10)

4949. Narrated 'Ali رضي الله عنه: While the Prophet ﷺ was in a funeral procession, he picked up something and started scraping the ground with it and said, “There is none among you but has his place written for him either in the Hell-fire or in Paradise.” They said, “0 Allah’s Messenger! Shall we not depend upon what has been written for us and give up doing (good) deeds?” He said, “Carry on doing (good) deeds, for everybody will find easy to do such deeds that will lead him to his destined place) for which he has been created. So, he who is destined to be among the blessed (in the Hereafter), will find it easy to do the deeds characteristic of such people, while he who is destined to be among the wretched ones, will find it easy to do the deeds characteristic of such people.” Then he recited:

“As for him who gives (in charity) and keeps his duty to Allah and fears Him, and believes in Al-Hasnā.” (V.92:5,6)
(93) Sūrat ad-Ḍuḥā
(The Forenoon – After the Sunrise)

In the Name of Allāh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh: “Your Lord (O Muḥammad ﷺ) has neither forsaken you nor hates you.” (V.93:1-3)

4950. Narrated Jundub bin Sufyān: Once Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ became sick and could not offer his night prayer (i.e., Tahajjud prayers) for two or three nights. Then a lady (the wife of Abū Lahab) came and said, “O Muḥammad! I think that your Satan has forsaken you, for I have not seen him with you for two or three nights!” On that Allāh revealed:

“By the forenoon (after sunrise); and by the night when it darkens (and stands still); your Lord (O Muḥammad ﷺ) has neither forsaken you nor hates you.” (V.93:1-3)

(2) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh: “Your Lord (O Muḥammad ﷺ) has neither forsaken you nor hates you.” (V.93:1-3)

(The Arabic word that is translated as ‘has forsaken you’ can be read in two ways: with emphasis (i.e., Wadda’aka) or without emphasis (i.e., Wada’aka). The meaning of both is the same, i.e., [your Lord] has (not) forsaken you.) Ibn ‘Abbās said: The Verse means: ‘He has not forsaken you, nor does He hate you.’
4951. Narrated Jundub Al-Bajali: A lady said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I see that your friend has delayed (in conveying Qur’an) to you.” So there was revealed:

"Your Lord (O Muhammad ﷺ) has neither forsaken you nor hates you." (V.93:3)

(94) SÛRAT ASH-SHARH
(The Opening Forth)

In the Name of Allâh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

(95) SÛRAT AT-TÎN
(The Fig)

In the Name of Allâh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.
4952. Narrated Al-Bara' ibn Yazid: While the Prophet was on a journey, he recited Sūrat Wat-Tīn Waz-Zaitūn (No. 95) in one of the first two Rak'ā of the 'Ishā prayer.

(96) SŪRAT AL-ʿALAQ
(The Clot)

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

"In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. Allah's Messenger, while he was on a journey, recited Sūrat Wat-Tīn Waz-Zaitūn in one of the first two Rak'ā of the 'Ishā prayer."
4953. Narrated ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: The commencement (of the Divine Revelation) to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ was in the form of true dreams in his sleep, for he never had a dream but it turned out to be true and clear as the bright daylight. Then the love of seclusion was bestowed upon him, so he used to go in seclusion in the cave of Hira’ where he used to worship (Allah Alone) continuously for many nights before returning to his family to take the necessary provision (of food) for the stay. He would come back to (his wife) Khadija again to take his provision (of food) likewise, till one day he received the Guidance while he was in the cave of Hira’. An angel came to him and asked him to read. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ replied, “I do not know how to read.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Then the angel held me (forcefully) and pressed me so hard that I felt distressed (could not bear it any more). He then released me and again asked me to read, and I replied, ‘I do not know how to read.’ Thereupon he held me again and pressed me a second time till I felt distressed (could not bear it any more). He then released me and asked me to read, but again I replied, ‘I do not know how to read.’ Thereupon he held me for the third time and pressed me till I felt distressed (could not bear it any more), and then he released me and said, ‘Read in the Name of your Lord, Who has created (all that exists). Read! And your Lord is the Most Generous, Who has taught (the writing) by the pen. Has taught man that which he knew not.’” (V.96:1-5)

Then Allah’s Messenger ﷺ returned with that (the Revelation) and his (heart severely... beating; and the muscles between his neck and shoulders were trembling till he came upon Khadija (his wife) and said, 'Cover me!' They covered him, till his fear was over, and after that he said to Khadija, "O Khadija! What is wrong with me? I was afraid that something bad might happen to me." Then he told her all that had happened. Khadija said, "Nay! But receive the good tidings! By Allah, Allah will never disgrace you, for by Allah, you keep good relations with your kith and kin, speak the truth, help the poor and the destitute, entertain your guests generously and assist the deserving calamity-stricken." Khadija then took him to Waraqa bin Naufal, the son of Khadija's paternal uncle. Waraqa who became a Christian in the pre-Islamic period and used to write Arabic and also write some portion of the Injeel (Gospel) in Arabic as much as Allah wished him to write. He was an old man and had lost his eyesight. Khadija said (to Waraqa), "O my cousin! Listen to what your nephew has to say." Waraqa said, "O my nephew! What have you seen?" The Prophet asked, "Will these people drive me out?" He replied in the affirmative and said, "Any one (man) who came with something similar to what you have brought was treated with hostility." If I were to remain alive till your day (when you start preaching), then I would support you strongly." But a short while later Waraqa died and the Divine Revelation was paused (stopped) for a while so that Allah's Messenger was much grieved.
4954. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullah رضي الله عنهما: While Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was talking about the period of pause in Divine Revelation, he said in his narration, “Once while I was walking, all of a sudden I heard a voice from the sky. I looked up and saw to my surprise, the same angel as had visited me in the cave of Hira’. He was sitting on a chair between the sky and the earth. I got scared of him and came back home and said, ‘Wrap me! Wrap me!’ So they covered him and then Allāh revealed:

“O you (Muḥammad ﷺ), enveloped (in garments)! Arise and warn! And magnify your Lord (Allāh)! And purify your garments! And keep away from Ar-Rujz (the idols)” (V.74:1-5)

Abū Salama said, “(Rujz) are the idols which the people of the pre-Islamic period used to worship.” After this, the Revelation started coming strongly and frequently.

[See Vol.1, Ḥadīth No.3 and 4]

4955. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: The commencement of the Divine Revelation to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was in the form of good, righteous (true) dreams. And then the angel came to him and said, “Read! In the Name of your Lord, Who has created (all that exists). He has created man from a clot (a piece of thick coagulated blood). Read!
And your Lord is the Most Generous.” (V.96:1-3)

(3) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh  تعالى: “Read! And your Lord is the Most Generous.” (V.96:3)

4956. Narrated ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها: The commencement of (the Divine Revelation to) Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ was in the form of true dreams. And then angel came to him and said, “Read! In the Name of your Lord, Who has created (all that exists). He has created man from a clot (a piece of thick coagulated blood). Read! And your Lord is the Most Generous. Who has taught (the writing) by the pen.” (V.96:1-4)

CHAPTER. “Who has taught (the writing) by the pen.” (V.96:4)

4957. Narrated ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ returned to Khadija and said, “Wrap me! Wrap me!” (Then the subnarrator narrated the rest of the narration).

(4) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh  تعالى: “Nay! If he (Abû Jahl) ceases not, We will catch him by the forelock, a lying sinful forelock!” (V.96:15,16)

4958. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs رضي الله عنهما: Abû Jahl said, “If I see Muḥammad offering Salât (prayer) at the Ka’bah, I will tread on his neck.” When the Prophet heard of that, he said, “If he does so, the angels will snatch him away.”

(97) SŪRAT AL-QADR
(The Night of Decree)

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

“Verily, We have sent it (this Qur'ān) down in the night of Al-Qadr (Decree).” (V.97:1)

(98) SŪRAT LAM YAKUN
(or AL-BAIYYINAH (The Clear Evidence)

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

(1) CHAPTER.
4959. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet said to Ubayy (bin Ka'b), "Allāh has ordered me to recite to you:

'Those who disbelieve from among the people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians) and Al-Mushrikin\(^1\) were not going to leave (their disbelief)…'" (V. 98:1)

Ubayy said, "Did Allāh mention me by name?" The Prophet said, "Yes." On that, Ubayy wept.

(2) CHAPTER.

4960. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet said to Ubayy, "Allāh has ordered me to recite Qur'ān to you." Ubayy asked, "Did Allāh mention me by name to you?" The Prophet said, "Allāh has mentioned your name to me." On that Ubayy started weeping. (The subnarrator) Qatada added: I have been informed that the Prophet recited:

"Those who disbelieve from among the people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians)…"

(3) CHAPTER.

4961. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Allāh's Prophet said to Ubayy bin Ka'b, "Allāh has ordered me to recite Qur'ān to you." Ubayy said, "Did Allāh mention me by name to you?" The Prophet said, "Yes." Ubayy said, "Have I been mentioned by the Lord of 'Al-Ālāmin (the mankind, jinn and all that exists)?" The Prophet said, "Yes". Then Ubayy burst into tears.

(99) SÚRAT AZ-ZALZALAH
(The Earthquake)

In the Name of Allâh, the Most Gracious,
the Most Merciful.

(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh (SWT):
"So whosoever does good equal to the weight of an atom (or a small ant), shall see it.”
(V.99:7)

4962. Narrated Abû Hurairah (R.A.) said, “Horses are kept for one of three purposes: A man may keep them (for Allâh’s Cause to receive a reward (in the Hereafter); another may keep them (as a means of his livelihood) protection (from begging others) and a third may keep them (out of pride and to show off) to be a burden for him. As for the man for whom the horse is a source of reward, he is the one who ties (keeps) it for Allâh’s Cause, and he ties it with a long rope in a pasture or a garden, then, whatever it eats or drinks in that pasture or garden will be added to his good deeds. And if it breaks its rope and jumps over one or two hills, then, for all its footsteps and its manure, good deeds will be written for him. And if it passes by a river and drinks of its water, though its owner had no intention to water it from that river, even then he will have good deeds written for him. So, that horse will be (a source of) reward for such a man.”

“If a man ties (keeps) a horse for earning his livelihood and abstaining from asking others for help and he does not forget Allâh’s right, i.e., pays its Zakât and gives it to be used in Allâh’s Cause, then that horse will be a means of protection for him. But if a man ties it out of pride and to show off and to excite others, then that horse will be burden (of sins) for him.” Then Allah’s Messenger was asked regarding donkeys. He replied, “Nothing has been revealed to me except this comprehensive Verse which includes everything:

‘So whosoever does good equal to the weight of an atom (or a small ant), shall see it. And whosoever does evil equal to the weight of an atom (or a small ant), shall see it.’” (V.99:7,8)

(2) CHAPTER. “And whosoever does evil equal to the weight of an atom (or a small ant), shall see it.” (V.99:8)

4963. Narrated Abü Hurairah: The Prophet was asked about donkeys and he replied, “Nothing has been revealed to me regarding donkeys except this comprehensive Verse, which includes everything:

‘So whosoever does good equal to the weight of an atom (or a small ant), shall see it. And whosoever does evil equal to the weight of an atom (or a small ant), shall see it.’” (V.99:7,8)

(A River in Paradise)

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

(Qur'ān 108:1)

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم

وَقَالَ ابن عَبَّاس: «شَأْنُكَ»:

(1) CHAPTER.

4964. Narrated Anas: When the Prophet ﷺ was made to ascend to the heavens, he ﷺ said (after his return), "I came upon a river (in Paradise) the banks of which were made of tents of hollow pearls. I asked Jibrīl (Gabriel), ‘What is this (river)?’ He replied, ‘This is Al-Kāuthar.’" 4965. Narrated Abū ‘Ubaida: I asked ‘Aishah regarding the Verse:

“Verily, We have granted you (O Muḥammad) Al-Kauthar.”

She replied, “Al-Kauthar is a river which has been given to your Prophet, on the banks of which there are (tents of) hollow pearls; and its utensils are as numberless as the stars.”

4966. Narrated Abū Bishr: Sa’īd bin Jubair said that Ibn ‘Abbās said about Al-Kauthar, “That is the good which Allāh has bestowed upon His Messenger (Muḥammad).” I said to Sa’īd bin Jubair, “But the people claim that it is a river in Paradise.” Sa’īd said, “The river in Paradise is part of the good which Allāh has bestowed on His Messenger.”

(109) SŪRAT AL-KĀFIRŪN

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

“When there comes the Help of Allah (to you, O Muḥammad kä against your enemies) and the Conquest (of Makkah).” (V. 110:1)

(1) CHAPTER.

4967.Narrated ‘Āishah: When the Sūrat An-Nasr, “When there comes the Help of Allah and the Conquest,” had been revealed to the Prophet (ﷺ), he did not offer any ṣalāt (prayer) except that he said therein, “Subḥānaka Rabbānā wa biḥamdiḥika; Allāhumma ighfārli (I testify the Uniqueness of our Lord, and all the praises are for Him; O Allah, forgive me!).”

(2) CHAPTER.

4968. Narrated ‘Āishah: Allah’s Messenger (ﷺ) used to say very often in bowing and prostration [during his ṣalāt (prayers), “Subhānaka Allāhummama Rabbanā wa bihamdika; Allāhummama iğfīrli,” according to the order of the Qur’ān. (See H. 4967)

(3) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh علیه: “And you see that the people enter Allāh’s religion (Islam) in crowds.” (V.110:2)

4969.Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: ‘Umar asked the people regarding Allāh’s Statement:

“When there comes the Help of Allāh (to you O Muhammad ﷺ against your enemies) and the Conquest (of Makkah).” (V.110:1)

They replied, “It indicates the future conquest of towns and palaces (by Muslims).” ‘Umar said, “What do you say about it, O Ibn ‘Abbas?” I replied, “(This Sūrah) indicates the termination of the life of Muhammad ﷺ. Through it he was informed of the nearness of his death.”

(4) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh علیه: “So, glorify the praises of your Lord, and ask His forgiveness. Verily! He is the One Who accepts the repentance and forgives.” (V.110:3)

4970.Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: ‘Umar used to make me sit with the elderly men who had fought in the battle of Badr. Some of them felt it (did not like that) and said to ‘Umar, “Why do you bring in this boy to sit with us while we have sons like him?” ‘Umar replied, “Because of what you know of his position (i.e., his religious knowledge).” One day ‘Umar called me and made me sit in the gathering of those people; and I think that he called me just to show them (my religious knowledge). ‘Umar then asked them (in my presence), “What do you say about the interpretation of the Statement of Allah?”

‘When there comes the Help of Allah (to you O Muhammad ﷺ against your enemies) and the Conquest (of Makkah).” (V.110:1)

Some of them said, “We are ordered to praise Allah and ask His forgiveness when Allah’s Help and the Conquest (of Makkah) come to us.” Some others kept quiet and did not say anything. On that, ‘Umar asked me, “Do you say the same, O Ibn ‘Abbãs?” I replied, “No.” He said, “What do you say then?” I replied, “That is the sign of the death of Allah’s Messenger which Allah informed him of. Allah said:

(111) SÚRÁ TABBAT YADÁ ABI LAHAB or AL-MASAD
(Perish the Two Hands of Abú Lahab or The Palm Fibre)

In the Name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

(1) CHAPTER.
4971. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: When the Verse:

“And warn your tribe (O Muḥammad) of near kindred (and your chosen group from among them).” (V.26:214) was revealed, Allāh’s Messenger went out, and when he had ascended As-Safā mountain, he shouted, “Ya ʻSabāhāh!” The people said, “Who is that?” Then they gathered around him, whereupon he said, “Do you see? If I inform you that cavalymen are proceeding up the side of this mountain, will you believe me?” They said, “We have never heard you telling a lie.” Then he said, “I am a plain warner to you of a coming severe punishment.” Abū Lahab said, “May you perish! You gathered us only for this reason?” Then Abū Lahab went away. So the Sūrat Al-Masad:

“Perish the two hands of Abū Lahab!” was revealed. (V.111:1)

(2) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh: "... and perish he! His wealth and his children will not benefit him!" (V.111:1-2)

4972. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet and ascended the mountain and shouted, “Ya ʻSabāhāh!” So the Quraish people gathered around him. He said, “Do you see? If I tell you that an enemy is going to attack you in the morning or in the evening, will you believe me?” They replied, “Yes.” He said, “Then I am a plain warner to you of a coming severe punishment.” Abū Lahab

(1) (H. 4971) "Ya ʻSabāhāh!" This is an Arabic expression used when one appeals for help or draws the attention of others to some danger.
said, “Is it for this reason that you have gathered us? May you perish!” Then Allah revealed:

“Perish the two hands of Abū Lahab!” till the end of the Sūrah.

(3) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh: “He (Abū Lahab) will be burnt in a Fire of blazing flames!” (V.111:3)

4973. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Abū Lahab said, “May you perish! Is it for this that you have gathered us?” So there was revealed:

“Perish the two hands of Abū Lahab!” (V.111:1)

(4) CHAPTER. “And his wife too, who carries wood.” (V.111:4)

Mujāhid said, “‘Carries the wood’ means that she used to slander (the Prophet) and goes about with calumnies.”

“In her neck is a twisted rope of Masad (palm fibre).” (V.111:5) i.e., the iron chain which is in the Fire (of Hell).

(112) SŪRAT QUL HUWALLĀHU AHAD

(Say: He is Allāh, the One or The Purity)

In the Name of Allāh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

(It is said that ‘Ahad’ in Arabic in the Verse, cannot be pronounced as ‘Ahadun’, i.e., ‘Wāhidun.’)
(1) CHAPTER.

4974. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Allāh said: ‘The son of Ādam tells a lie against Me, though he hasn’t the right to do so. He abuses Me, though he hasn’t the right to do so. As for his telling a lie against Me, it is his saying that I will not recreate him as I created him for the first time. In fact, to repeat or to recreate a thing is easier for the one who has created it for the first time. (So, it is easier for Me to repeat or recreate a creation which I created first). As for his abusing Me, it is his saying that Allāh has begotten a son (or children), while I am the One As-Samad (the Self-Sufficient Master Whom all creatures need, neither I eat nor I drink) I beget not, nor was I begotten, and there is none like or co-equal or comparable unto Me.’”

(2) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh:

“Allāh-us-Samad (The Self-Sufficient Master, Whom all creatures need, He neither eats nor drinks).” (V.112:2)

4975. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allāh’s Messenger said, “Allāh said: ‘The son of Ādam tells a lie against Me, and he hasn’t the right to do so; and he abuses Me, and he hasn’t the right to do so. His telling a lie against Me is his saying that I will not recreate him as I created him for the first time; and his abusing Me is his saying that Allāh has begotten a son (or children), while I am As-Samad (Self-Sufficient Master, Whom all creatures need, neither I eat nor I drink) Who begets not, nor was He begotten, and there is none like or co-equal or comparable unto Me.’”
CHAPTER. "He begets not, nor was He begotten, and there is none co-equal or comparable unto Him." (V.112:3, 4)

(113) Sūrat al-Fālāq
(The Daybreak)

In the Name of Allāh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

4976. Narrated Zīr r bin Ḥūbaish: I asked Ubayy bin Ka'b regarding the Mu'awwidhatain (two Sūrah of taking refuge with Allāh). He said, "I asked the Prophet about them, He said, 'These two Sūrahs have been recited to me and I have recited them (and are present in the Qur'ān).'' So, we say as Allāh's Messenger said (i.e., they are a part of the Qur'ān)."

(114) Sūrat an-Nās
(The Mankind)

In the Name of Allāh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.
4977. Narrated Zirr bin Hubaish: I asked Ubayy bin Ka'b, “O Abū Al-Mundhir! Your brother, Ibn Mas'ūd said so-and-so (i.e., the two Mu'aw vidhāt do not belong to the Qur'ān).” Ubayy said, “I asked Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ about them, and he said, ‘They have been revealed to me, and I have recited them (as a part of the Qur'ān).’” So Ubayy added, ‘So we say as Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ has said.’
(1) CHAPTER. How the Divine Revelation used to be revealed and what was the first thing revealed (to the Messenger ﷺ).

4978, 4979. Narrated ‘Āishah and Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet ﷺ remained in Makkah for ten years, during which the Qur’ān used to be revealed to him; and he stayed in Al-Madīna for ten years.

4980. Narrated Abū ‘Uthmān: I was informed that Jibrīl (Gabriel) came to the Prophet ﷺ while Umm Salama was with him. Jibrīl started talking (to the Prophet ﷺ). Then the Prophet ﷺ asked Umm Salama, ‘Who is this?’ She replied, ‘He is Dihya (Al-Kalabi).’ When Jibrīl had left, Umm Salama said, ‘By Allāh, I did not take him for anybody other than him (i.e., Dihya) till I heard in the Khutba (religious talk) of the Prophet ﷺ wherein he informed about the news of Jibrīl.’ The subnarrator asked Abū ‘Uthmān, ‘From whom have you heard that?’ Abū ‘Uthmān said, ‘From Usāma bin Zaid.’

4981. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘There was no Prophet among the Prophets but was given miracles because of which people had security or had Belief, but what I have been given, is the Divine Revelation which Allāh has revealed to me. So I hope that my followers will be more than those of any other Prophet on the Day of Resurrection.”

4982. Narrated Anas bin Mālik:
Allāh sent down His Divine Revelation to His Messenger continuously and abundantly during the period preceding his death till He took him unto Him. That was the period of the greatest part of revelation; and Allāh’s Messenger died after that.

4983. Narrated Jundub:
Once, the Prophet fell ill and could not offer the night prayer (Tahajjud prayer) for a night or two. A woman (the wife of Abū Lahab) came to him and said, “O Muḥammad! I do not see but that your Satan has left you.” Then Allāh revealed (Sūrat Ad-Ḍuḥā):

“By the forenoon (after sunrise); and by the night when it (darkens and stands still);
Your Lord (O Muḥammad) has neither forsaken you nor hates you.” (V.93:1-3)

(2) CHAPTER. The Qur’ān was revealed in the language of Quraish and the Arabs.
“... An Arabic Qur’ān...” (V.12:2)
“In the plain Arabic language.” (V.26:195)

4984. Narrated Anas bin Mālik:
The Caliph ‘Uthmān ordered Zaid bin...
Thabit, Sa'id bin Al-'As, 'Abdullah bin Az-Zubair and 'Abd-Rahman bin Al-Harith bin Hisham to write the Qur'an in the form of a book (Mushaf) and said to them, “In case you disagree with Zaid bin Thabit (Al-Anşari) regarding any dialectic Arabic utterance of the Qur'an, then write it in the dialect of Quraish, for the Qur'an was revealed in their (Quraish) dialect.” So they did it.

4985. Narrated Ṣafwān bin Ya'la bin Umāyya. Ya'la used to say, “I wish I could see Allah’s Messenger at the time he is being inspired Divinely.” When the Prophet was at Al-Jīrāna and was shaded by a garment hanging over him and some of his Companions were with him, a man perfumed with scent came and said, “O Allah's Messenger! What is your opinion regarding a man who assumes Ḥāram and puts on a cloak after perfuming his body with scent?” The Prophet waited for a while, and then the Divine Revelation came to him. ‘Umar pointed out to Ya'la, telling him to come. Ya'la came and pushed his head (underneath the screen which was covering the Prophet) and behold! The Prophet's face was red and he was breathing heavily for a while and then he was relieved. Thereupon he said, “Where is the questioner who asked me about Ḥajj a while ago?” The man was sought and then was brought before the Prophet who said (to him), “As regards the scent which you perfumed your body with, you must wash it off thrice, and as for your cloak, you must take it off; and then perform in your ‘Umra all those things which you perform in Hajj.”

(3) CHAPTER. The collection of the Qur’ân.

4986. Narrated Zaid bin Thâbit: Abu Bakr Aš-Ṣiddiq sent for me when the people of Yamâmâ had been killed (i.e., a number of the Prophet’s Companions who fought against Mūsâlima). (I went to him) and found ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭâb sitting with him. Abu Bakr then said to me: “‘Umar has come to me and said: ‘Casualties were heavy among the Qurrâ’ of the Qur’ân (i.e., those who knew the Qur’ân by heart) on the day of the battle of Yamâmâ, and I am afraid that more heavy casualties may take place among the Qurrâ’ on other battlefields, whereby a large part of the Qur’ân may be lost. Therefore I suggest you (Abu Bakr) order that the Qur’ân be collected.’” I said to ‘Umar, “How can you do something which Allah’s Messenger did not do?”’ ‘Umar said, “By Allah, that is a good thing to be done.” ‘Umar kept on urging me to accept his proposal till Allah opened my chest for it and I began to realise the good in the idea which ‘Umar had realised.” Then Abu Bakr said to me: “You are a wise young man and we do not have any suspicion about you, and you used to write the Divine Revelation for Allah’s Messenger. So you should search for (the fragmentary scripts of) the Qur’ân and collect it (in one book).” By Allah! If they had ordered me to shift one of the mountains, it would not have been heavier for me than this ordering me to collect the Qur’ân. Then I said to Abu Bakr, “How will you do something which Allah’s Messenger did not do?” Abu Bakr replied, “By Allah, it is a good thing to be done." Abu Bakr kept on urging me to accept his idea until Allah opened my chest for what He had opened the chests of Abu Bakr and 'Umar, may Allah bless them. So I started looking for the Qur'an and collecting it from (what was written on) palm-leaf stalks, thin white stones and also from the men who knew it by heart, till I found the last Verse of Surat At-Tauba (Repentance) with Abi Khuzaima Al-Ansari, and I did not find it with anybody other than him. The Verse is:

"Verily, there has come unto you a Messenger (Muhammad) from amongst yourselves (i.e., whom you know well). It grieves him that you should receive any injury or difficulty..." (till the end of "Surat Bara'a (At-Tauba) (V.9:128,129). Then the complete manuscript of the Qur'an remained with Abu Bakr till he died, then with 'Umar till the end of his life, and then with Hafsa, the daughter of 'Umar, may Allah bless her.

4987. Narrated Anas bin Malik:

Hudhaifa bin Al-Yaman came to 'Uthman at the time when the people of Sham and the people of Iraq were waging war to conquer Arminiya and Adharbijan. Hudhaifa was afraid of their (the people of Sham and Iraq) differences in the recitation of the Qur'an. So he said to 'Uthman, "O chief of the believers! Save this nation before they differ about the Book (the Qur'an) as Jews and the Christians did before them." So 'Uthman sent a message to Hafsa saying, "Send us the manuscript of the Qur'an so that we may compile the Qur'anic materials in perfect copies and return the manuscript to you." Hafsa sent it to 'Uthman. 'Uthman then ordered Zaid bin Thabit, 'Abdullah bin Az-Zubair, Sa'id bin Al-'As and 'Abdur-Rahman bin Harith bin Hisham to copy the (original) manuscript perfectly. 'Uthman said to the three Quraishī men, “In case you disagree with Zaid bin Thābit on any point in the Qur‘ān, then write it in the dialect of Quraish as the Qur‘ān was revealed in their tongue.” They did so, and when they had written many copies, ‘Uthmān returned the original manuscripts to Haša. ‘Uthmān sent to every Muslim province one copy of what they had copied, and ordered that all the other Qur‘ānic materials, whether written in fragmentary manuscripts or whole copies, be burnt.

4988. Zaid bin Thābit added, “A Verse from Sūrat Al-Ahzāb was missed by me when we copied the Qur‘ān and I used to hear Allah’s Messenger ﷺ reciting it. So we searched for it and found it with Khuzaima bin Thābit Al-Anṣārī. (That Verse was):

“A among the believers are men who have been true in their covenant with Allah.” (V.33:23)

(4) CHAPTER. The scribe of the Prophet ﷺ.

4989. Narrated Zaid bin Thābit: Abū Bakr sent for me and said, “You used to write the Divine Revelations for Allah’s Messenger ﷺ. So you should search for (the Qur‘ān and collect it).” I started searching for the Qur‘ān till I found the last two Verses of Sūrat At-Tauba with Abī Khuzaima Al-Anṣārī and I could not find.
these Verses with anybody other than him. (They were):

“Verily, there has come unto you a Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) from amongst yourselves. (i.e., whom you know well.) It grieves him that you should receive any injury or difficulty...” (V.9:128,129)

4990. Narrated Al-Barâ’: There was revealed:

“Not equal are those believers who sit (at home), and those who strive hard and fight in the Cause of Allâh...” (V.4:95)

The Prophet ﷺ said, “Call Zaid for me and let him bring the board, the inkpot and the scapula bone (or the scapula bone and the inkpot).” Then he said, “Write: ‘Not equal are those believers who sit...’”, and at that time ‘Amr bin Umm Maktûm, the blind man, was sitting behind the Prophet ﷺ. He said, “O Allah’s Messenger! What is your order for me (as regards the above Verse) as I am a blind man?” So, instead of the above Verse, the following Verse was revealed:

“Not equal are those believers who sit (at home), except those who are disabled (by injury or are blind or lame, etc.) and those who strive hard and fight in the Cause of Allâh.” (V.4:95)

(5) CHAPTER. The Qur’ân was revealed to be recited in seven different ways(1).

4991. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Abbâs رضي الله عنهما: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Jibrîl (Gabriel) recited the Qur’ân to me in one

(1) (Ch. 5) This does not mean that everything in it can be recited in seven different ways, but it means that some of its words can be read in seven different ways which is the maximum number of variations.
way. Then I requested him (to read it in another way), and continued asking him to recite it in other ways, and he recited it in several ways till he ultimately recited it in seven different ways.”

4992. Narrated ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb

I heard Hishām bin Hakim reciting Sūrat Al-Furqān during the lifetime of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and I listened to his recitation and noticed that he recited it in several different ways which Allah’s Messenger ﷺ had not taught me. I was about to jump over him during his Salāt (prayer), but I controlled my temper, and when he had completed his Salāt (prayer), I put his upper garment around his neck and seized him by it and said, “Who taught you this Sūrah which I heard you reciting?” He replied, “Allah’s Messenger ﷺ taught it to me.” I said, “You have told a lie, for Allah’s Messenger ﷺ has taught it to me in a different way from yours.” So, I dragged him to Allah’s Messenger and said (to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ), “I heard this person reciting Sūrat Al-Furqān in a way which you haven’t taught me!” On that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Release him, (O ‘Umar!) Recite, O Hishām!” Then he recited in the same way as I heard him reciting. Then Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “It was revealed in this way,” and added, “Recite, O ‘Umar!” I recited it as he had taught me. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ then said, “It was revealed in this way. This Qurān has been revealed to be recited in seven different ways, so recite of it whichever (way) is easier for you (or read as much of it as may be easy for you).”
(6) CHAPTER. The compilation of the Qur'an (i.e., the arrangement of its Sūrah).

4993. Narrated Yusuf bin Māhak: While I was with ‘Āishah, the Mother of the believers, a person from ‘Irāq came and asked, “What type of shroud is the best?” ‘Āishah said, “May Allah be Merciful to you! What does it matter?” He said, “O Mother of the believers! Show me (the copy of) your Qur'an.” She said, “Why?” He said, “In order to compile and arrange the Qur'an according to it, for people recite it with its Sūrah not in proper order.” ‘Āishah said, “What does it matter which part of it you read first? (Be informed) that the first thing that was revealed thereof was a Sūrah from Al-Mufassal, and in it was mentioned Paradise and the (Hell) Fire. When the people embraced Islām, the Verses regarding legal and illegal things were revealed. If the first thing to be revealed was: ‘Do not drink alcoholic drinks,’ people would have said: ‘We will never leave alcoholic drinks’; and if there had been revealed: ‘Do not commit illegal sexual intercourse’, they would have said, ‘We will never give up illegal sexual intercourse.’ While I was a young girl of playing age, the following Verse was revealed in Makkah to Muḥammad ﷺ:

‘Nay, but the Hour is their appointed time (for their full recompense), and the Hour will be more grievous and more bitter.'
(V. 54:46)

"Sūrat Al-Baqarah (The Cow) and Sūrat An-Nisā' (The Women) were revealed while I was with him." Then 'Aishah took out the copy of the Qur'ān for the man and dictated to him the Verses of the Sūrah (in their proper order).

4994. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd: Sūrat Bani Isrā'īl, Al-Kahf (The Cave), Maryam, Ṭāhā, Al-Anbiya (The Prophets) are amongst my first earnings and (in fact) they are my old property. (Meaning that they were the earliest Sūrah to be revealed).

4995. Narrated Al-Bārā': I learnt, 'Glorify the Name of your Lord the Most High' (Sūrat Al-'Ālā No. 87), before the Prophet ﷺ came (to Al-Madīnah).

4996. Narrated Shaqīq: 'Abdullāh said, "I learnt An-Naẓā'ir(1) which the Prophet ﷺ used to recite in pairs in each Rak'a." Then 'Abdullāh got up and 'Alqama accompanied him to his house, and when 'Alqama came out, we asked him (about those Sūrah). He said, "They are twenty Sūrah that start from the beginning of Al-Mufassāl, according to the arrangement done by Ibn Mas'ūd, and end with the Sūrah starting with Ḥā Mīm.

(1) (H. 4996) An-Naẓā'ir are the Sūrah that deal with the same topic or that are equal in length.
4997. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet was the most generous person, and he used to become more so (generous) particularly in the month of Ramaḍān because Jibril (Gabriel) used to meet him every night of the month of Ramaḍān till it elapsed. Allah’s Messenger used to recite the Qur’ān for him. When Jibril met him, he used to become more generous than the fair winds sent (by Allāh) with glad tidings (of rain) (in doing good).

4998. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Jibril (Gabriel) used to repeat the recitation of the Qur’ān with the Prophet once a year, but he repeated it twice with him in the year he died. The Prophet used to stay in Ḳittāf for ten days every year (in the month of Ramaḍān), but in the year of his death, he stayed in Ḳittāf for twenty days.

(8) CHAPTER. (What is said regarding) the Qurra’ (the reciters of the Qur’ān by heart)
4999. Narrated Masrûq: ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Amr mentioned ‘Abdullâh bin Mas’ûd and said, “I shall ever love that man, for I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, ‘Take (learn) the Qur’an from four: ‘Abdullâh bin Mas’ûd, Sâlim, Mu‘âdh and Ubayy bin Ka‘b’.”

5000. Narrated Shaqiq bin Salama: Once, ‘Abdullâh bin Mas’ûd delivered a Khutba (religious talk) before us and said, “By Allah, I learnt over seventy Sûrah direct from the mouth of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ. By Allah, the Companions of the Prophet ﷺ came to know that I am one of those who know Allah’s Book best of all of them, yet I am not the best of them.” Shaqiq added: I sat in his religious gathering and I did not hear anybody opposing him (in his speech).

5001. Narrated ‘Alqama: While we were in city of Hims (in Syria), Ibn Mas’ûd recited Sûrat Yusuf. A man said (to him), “It was not revealed in this way.” Then Ibn Mas’ûd said, “I recited it in this way before Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ and he confirmed my recitation by saying, ‘Well done!’ ” Ibn Mas’ûd detected the smell of wine from the man’s mouth, so he said to him, “Aren’t you ashamed of telling a lie about Allâh’s Book and (along with this) you drink alcoholic liquors too?” Then he lashed him according to the Islamic law.

5002. Narrated ‘Abdullãh (bin Mas‘úd) رضي الله عنه: By Allah, other than Whom none has the right to be worshipped! There is no Sûrah revealed in Allah’s Book but I know at what place it was revealed; and there is no Verse revealed in Allah’s Book but I know about whom it was revealed. And if I know that there is somebody who knows Allah’s Book better than I, and he is at a place that camels can reach, I would go to him.

5003. Narrated Qatada: I asked Anas bin Malik رضي الله عنه, “Who collected the Qur’an at the time of the Prophet?” He replied, “Four, all of whom were from the Ansâr: Ubayy bin Ka‘b, Mu‘ãdh bin Jabal, Zaid bin Thâbit and Abû Zaid.”

5004. Narrated Anas (bin Malik) رضي الله عنه: When the Prophet died, none had collected the Qur’an but four persons: Abû Ad-Dardâ’, Mu‘ãdh bin Jabal, Zaid bin Thâbit and Abû Zaid. We were the inheritors (of Abû Zaid) as he had no offspring.

5005. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs رضي الله عنهما: ‘Umar رضي الله عنه said, “Ubayy was the best of us in the recitation (of the Qur'an), yet we leave some of what he recites.” Ubayy says, “I have taken it from the mouth of Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ and will not leave for anything whatever.” But Allâh said:

“Whatever a Verse (revelation) do We abrogate or cause to be forgotten, We bring a better one or similar to it…” (V.2:106)

(9) CHAPTER. The superiority of Fâtiha-til-Kitâb (The Opening Surah of the Book).

5006. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd Al-Mu‘alla: While I was offering Salât (prayer), the Prophet ﷺ called me but I did not respond to his call. Later I said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! I was offering Salât (prayer).” He said, “Didn’t Allâh say:

‘Answer Allâh (by obeying Him) and (His) Messenger when he (ﷺ) calls you?’” (V.8:24)

He then said, “Shall I not teach you the greatest Surah in the Qur’ân?” He said, “(It is), ‘All the praises and thanks be to Allâh, the Lord of ‘Alâmîn (mankind, jinn and all that exists).’ (i.e., Sûrat Al-Fâtiha) As-Sab’ Al-Mathânî (the seven repeatedly recited Verses) and the Grand Qur’ân which has been given to me.”
While we were on one of our journeys, we dismounted at a place where a slave-girl came and said, “The chief of this tribe has been stung by a scorpion and our men are not present; is there anybody among you who can treat him by reciting something (Raq)?”

Then one of our men went along with her, though we did not think that he knew any such treatment. But he treated the chief by Ruqyah (reciting something from the Verses of the Qur’an), and the sick man was cured whereupon he gave him thirty sheep and gave us milk to drink (as a reward). When he returned, we asked our friend, “Did you know how to treat with Ruqyah?” He said, “No, but I treated him only with the recitation of the Umm-ul-Kitāb (i.e., Surat Al-Fatiha).” We said, “Do not say anything (about it) till we reach or ask the Prophet (ﷺ).” So when we reached Al-Madina, we mentioned that to the Prophet (ﷺ) (in order to know whether the sheep which we had taken were lawful to take or not). The Prophet (ﷺ) said, “How did he come to know that it (Surat Al-Fatiha) could be used for treatment? Distribute your reward and assign for me one share thereof as well.”

(10) CHAPTER. The superiority of Surat Al-Baqarah (The Cow) [No.2].

Whosoever recited the (last) two verses (of Surat Al-Baqarah) at night, that will be sufficient for him.” (See H.4008)
5009. Narrated Abū Mas'ūd: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whosoever recited the last two Verses of Sūrat Al-Baqarah at night, that will be sufficient for him.”

5010. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ ordered me to guard the Zakāt revenue of Ramadan. Then somebody came to me and started stealing of the foodstuff. I caught him and said, “I will take you to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ!” Then Abū Hurairah described the whole narration and said: That person said (to me), “(Please don’t take me to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and I will tell you a few words by which Allah will benefit you.) When you go to your bed, recite Ayat Al-Kursi (V.2:255), for then there will be a guard appointed from Allah who will protect you all night long, and Satan will not be able to come near you till dawn.” (When the Prophet ﷺ heard the story) he said (to me), “He (who came to you at night) told you the truth although he is a liar; and it was Satan.”

(11) CHAPTER. The superiority of Sūrat Al-Kahf (The Cave) [No.18].

5011. Narrated Al-Barāʾ: A man was reciting Sūrat Al-Kahf and his horse was tied with two ropes beside him. A cloud came down and spread over that man, and it kept on coming closer and closer to him till his horse started jumping (as if afraid of something). When it was morning, the man came to the Prophet ﷺ and told him of that experience. The Prophet ﷺ said, “That was
As-Sakinah (tranquillity or peace and reassurance along with angels) which descended because of (the recitation of) the Qur'an.

(12) CHAPTER. The superiority of Sūrat Al-Fath (The Victory) [No. 48].

5012. Narrated Aslam: Allah’s Messenger was travelling on one of his journeys, and ‘Umar bin Al-Khattāb was travelling along with him at night. ‘Umar asked him about something, but Allah’s Messenger did not answer him. He asked again, but he did not answer. He asked for the third time, but he did not answer. On that, ‘Umar said to himself, “May your mother lose you! You have asked Allah’s Messenger three times, but he did not answer at all!”’ ‘Umar said, “So I made my camel go fast till I was ahead of the people, and I was afraid that something might be revealed about me. After a little while I heard a call-maker calling me, I said, ‘I was afraid that some Qur’anic Verse might be revealed about me.’ So I went to Allah’s Messenger and greeted him.” He said, “Tonight there has been revealed to me a Surah which is dearer to me than that on which the sun shines (i.e., the world).’” Then he recited:

‘Verily! We have given you (O Muhammad) a manifest Victory.’ (Sūrat Al-Fath) (V.48:1)

(13) CHAPTER. The superiority of Qur-Huwa Allāhu Ahad. (“Say (O Muhammad): He is Allah, (the) One.”) [i.e., Sūrat Al-Ikhlās] [No. 112].
5013. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd Al-Khudrî: A man heard another man reciting (Sûrat Al-Ikhlas):

“Say (0 Muhammad): He is Allah, (the) One” (V.112:1) repeatedly. The next morning he came to Allah’s Messenger and informed him about it as if he thought that it was not enough to recite. On that Allah’s Messenger said, “By Him in Whose Hand my soul is, this Sûrah is equal to one-third of the Qur’ân!”

5014. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd Al-Khudrî: My brother, Qatâda bin An-Nu‘mân said, “A man performed the night Salât (prayer) late at night in the lifetime of the Prophet and he read: ‘Say: (0 Muhammad) He is Allah, (the) One’ (V.112:1), and read nothing besides that.” The next morning a man went to the Prophet and told him about that. (The Prophet replied the same as above in Hadith 5013).

5015. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd Al-Khudrî: The Prophet said to his Companions, “Is it difficult for any of you to recite one-third of the Qur’ân in one night?” This suggestion was difficult for them so they said, “Who among us has the power to do so, O Allah’s Messenger?” Allah’s Messenger replied, “‘Allah (the) One, the Self-Sufficient Master, Whom all creatures need.’ [Sûrat Al-Ikhlas (V.112:1-4)] is equal to one-third of the Qur’ân.”
1. CHAPTER. The superiority of Al-Mu'awwidhāt (Sūrat Al-Falaq and Sūrat An-Nās) [No. 113 & 114].

5016. Narrated ‘Āishah: Whenever Allah's Messenger became sick, he would recite Mu'awwidhāt (Sūrat Al-Falaq and Sūrat An-Nās) and then blow his breath over his body. When he became seriously ill, I used to recite (these two Sūrah) and rub his hands over his body, hoping for its blessings.

2. 5017. Narrated ‘Āishah: Whenever the Prophet went to bed every night, he used to cup his hands together and blow over it after reciting Sūrat Al-Ikhlās, Sūrat Al-Falaq and Sūrat An-Nās, and then rub his hands over whatever parts of his body he was able to rub, starting with his head, face and front of his body. He used to do that three times. (See H. 5748)
(15) CHAPTER. The descent of As-Sakinah (peace, reassurance and tranquillity) and angels at the time of the recitation of the Qur'an.

5018. Narrated Usaid bin Ḥudair that while he was reciting Sūrat Al-Baqarah (The Cow) at night, and his horse was tied beside him, the horse was suddenly startled, and troubled. When he stopped reciting, the horse became quiet, and when he started again, the horse was startled again. Then he stopped reciting and the horse became quiet, too. He started reciting again and the horse was startled and troubled once again. Then he stopped reciting and his son, Yayā was beside the horse. He was afraid that the horse might trample him. When he took the boy away and looked towards the sky, he could not see it. The next morning he informed the Prophet who said, “Recite, O Ibn Ḥudair! Recite, O Ibn Ḥudair!” Ibn Ḥudair replied, “O Allah's Messenger! My son, Yayā was near the horse and I was afraid that it might trample him, so I raised my head, and went to him. When I looked up towards the sky, I saw something like a cloud containing what looked like lamps, so I went out in order not to see it.” The Prophet said, “Do you know what that was?” Ibn Ḥudair replied, “No.” The Prophet said “Those were angels who came near to you for your voice, and if you had kept on reciting till dawn, it would have remained there till morning when, people would have seen it as it would not have disappeared.”
(16) CHAPTER. Whoever said that the Prophet ﷺ did not leave anything after his death, except what is between the two binders (of the Qur’an).

5019. Narrated ‘Abdul-‘Aziz bin Rufai: Shaddad bin Ma‘quil and I entered upon Ibn Abbas. Shaddad bin Ma‘quil asked him, “Did the Prophet ﷺ leave anything (besides the Qur’an)?” He replied, “He did not leave anything except what is between the two bindings (of the Qur’an).” Then we visited Muhammad bin Al-Ḥanafiyya and asked him (the same question). He replied, “The Prophet did not leave except what is between the two bindings (of the Qur’an).”

(17) CHAPTER. The superiority of the Qur’an above other kinds of speech.

5020. Narrated Abū Mūsā Al-Ash’arī: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The example of him (a believer) who recites the Qur’an (and acts on its orders) is like that of a citron which tastes good and smells good. And he (a believer) who does not recite the Qur’an (but acts on its orders) is like a date-fruit which is good in taste but has no smell. And the example of a dissolute wicked person who recites the Qur’an (and does not act on its orders) is like the Raihāna (sweet basil) which smells good but tastes bitter. And the example of a dissolute wicked person who does not recite the Qur’an (not acts on its orders) is like the colocynth which tastes bitter and has no smell.” (See Fath Al-Bari, for details)
5021. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet

The Prophet ﷺ said, “Your life in comparison to the lifetime of the past nations is like the period between the time of ‘Asr prayer and sunset. Your example and the example of the Jews and Christians is that of person who employed labourers and said to them, “Who will work for me till the middle of the day for one Qirāt (a special weight)?” The Jews did. He then said, “Who will work for me from the middle of the day till the ‘Asr prayer for one Qirāt each?” The Christians worked accordingly. Then you (Muslims) are working from the ‘Asr prayer till the Maghrib prayer for two Qirāt each. They (the Jews and the Christians) said, ‘We did more labour but took less wages.’ He (Allāh) said, ‘Have I wronged you in your rights?’ They replied, ‘No.’ Then He said, ‘This is My Blessing which I give to whom I wish.’”

5022. Narrated Ṭalḥa: I asked ‘Abdullāh bin Abī Aufa, “Did the Prophet ﷺ make a will (to appoint his successor or bequeath wealth)?” He replied, “No.” I said, “How is it prescribed then for the people to make wills, and they are ordered to do so while the Prophet ﷺ did not make any will?” He said, “He made a will wherein he recommended Allāh’s Book (the Qur’an).”
(19) CHAPTER. Whoever does not recite the Qur'ān in a pleasant tone. And the Statement of Allāh: “Is it not sufficient for them that We have sent down to you the Book (the Qur'ān) which is recited to them...” (V.29:51)

5023. Narrated Abū Hurairah Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Allāh does not listen to anything as He listens to the Prophet reciting the Qur'ān in a nice, loud and pleasant tone.” The companion of the subnarrator (Abū Salama) said, “It means, reciting it aloud.”

(See H. 7482 and 7544, Vol. 9)

5024. Narrated Abū Hurairah Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Allāh does not listen to anything as He listens to the Prophet reciting the Qur'ān in a nice, loud and, pleasant tone.” Sufyān said: This means, the Prophet ﷺ who regards the Qur'ān as something that makes him dispense with much worldly pleasures, etc.

(See H. 7482 and 7544, Vol. 9)

(20) CHAPTER. Wish to be the like of the one who recites the Qur'ān.

5025. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنه: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Not to wish to be the like except of two men: A man whom Allāh has given the knowledge of the Book (the Qur'ān) and he stands up [in Šalāt (prayer) and] recites it during the hours of...”
the night, and a man whom Allah has given wealth, and he spends it in charity during the hours of the night and the hours of the day."

5026. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "Not to wish to be the like of except the like of two men: A man whom Allah has taught the Qur'an and he recites it during the hours of the night and during the hours of the day, and his neighbour listens to him and says, 'I wish I had been given what has been given to so-and-so, so that I might do what he does'; and a man whom Allah has given wealth and he spends it on what is just and right, whereupon another person may say, 'I wish I had been given what so-and-so has been given, for then I would do what he does.'"

(See H. 7528)

(21) CHAPTER. The best among you (Muslims) are those who learn the Qur'an and teach it (to others).

5027. Narrated 'Uthman: The Prophet ﷺ said, "The best among you (Muslims) are those who learn the Qur'an and teach it (to others)."
5028. Narrated 'Uthmân bin 'Affân رضي الله عنهم: The Prophet ﷺ said, "The most superior among you (Muslims) are those who learn the Qur'ãn and teach it (to others)."

5029. Narrated Sahl bin Sa'd: A lady came to the Prophet ﷺ and declared that she had decided to offer herself to Allâh and His Messenger ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ said, "I am not in need of women." A man said (to the Prophet ﷺ), "Please marry her to me." The Prophet ﷺ said (to him), "Give her a garment (as Mahr)." The man said, "I cannot afford it." The Prophet ﷺ said, "Give her anything, even if it were an iron ring." The man apologised again. The Prophet ﷺ then asked him, "What do you know by heart of the Qur'ãn?" He replied, "I know such and such portion of the Qur'ãn (by heart)." The Prophet ﷺ said, "Then I marry her to you for that much of the Qur'ãn which you know by heart."

(22) CHAPTER. The recitation of the Qur'ãn by heart.

5030. Narrated Sahl bin Sa'd: A lady came to Allâh's Messenger ﷺ and said, "O Allâh's Messenger! I have come to you to offer myself to you." He raised his eyes and looked at her and then lowered his head. When the lady saw that he did not make any decision, she sat down. On that, a man from his Companions got up and said, "O Allâh's Messenger! If you are not in need of this woman, then marry her to me.” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Do you have anything to offer her (as Mahr)?” He replied, “No, by Allāh, O Allāh’s Messenger!” The Prophet ﷺ said to him, “Go to your family and see if you can find something.” The man went and returned, saying, “No, by Allāh, O Allāh’s Messenger! I have not found anything.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Try to find something, even if it is an iron ring.” He went again and returned, saying, “No, by Allāh, O Allāh’s Messenger, not even an iron ring, but I have this waist-sheet of mine.” The man had no upper garment, so he intended to give her half his waist-sheet. So, Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “What would she do with your waist-sheet? If you wear it, she will have nothing of it over her body, and if she wears it, you will have nothing over your body.” So that man sat for a long period and then got up, and Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ saw him going away, so he ordered somebody to call him. When he came, the Prophet ﷺ asked him, “How much of the Qur’ān do you know?” He replied, “I know such Sūrah and such Sūrah and such Sūrah,” and went on counting them. The Prophet ﷺ asked him, “Can you recite them by heart?” He replied, “Yes.” The Prophet ﷺ said “Go, I have married this lady to you for the part of the Qur’ān which you know by heart.”

(23) CHAPTER. The learning of the Qur’ān by heart and the reciting of it repeatedly.

5031. Narrated Ibnu ‘Umar رضي الله عنهم:
Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The example of the person who knows the Qur’ān by heart is like the owner of tied camels. If he keeps them tied, he will control them, but if he releases them, they will run away.”

5032. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: The Prophet ﷺ said, “It is a bad thing that some of you say, ‘I have forgotten such and such Verse of the Qur’ān,’ for indeed, he has been caused (by Allāh) to forget it. So you must keep on reciting the Qur’ān because it escapes from the hearts of men faster than camels do when they are released from their tying ropes.”

5033. Narrated Abū Mūsā: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Keep on reciting the Qur’ān, for, by Him in Whose Hand my soul is, the Qur’ān runs away (is forgotten) faster than camels that are released from their tying ropes.”

(24) CHAPTER. The recitation of the Qur’ān on an animal.

5034. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Mughaffal:

(1) (H. 5032) Because of neglecting the Qur’ān and not reciting it frequently.
I saw Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ reciting Sûrat Al-Fath on his she-camel on the day of the conquest of Makkah.

(25) CHAPTER. Teaching the Qur’ân to the children.

5035. Narrated Sâ‘îd bin Jubair: Those Sûrah which you people call the Mufassal, (1) are the Muhkam. (2) And Ibn ‘Abbas said, “Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ died when I was a boy of ten years, and I had learnt the Muhkam (of the Qur’ân).”

5036. Narrated Sâ‘îd bin Jubair: Ibn ‘Abbas ﷺ said, “I have learnt all the Muhkam Sûrah during the lifetime of Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ.” I said to him, “What is meant by the Muhkam?” He replied, “The Mufassal.” (from Sûrah No. 49 to 114)

(26) CHAPTER. Forgetting the Qur’ân. And can one say: “I forgot such and such a Verse?”

And the Statement of Allâh ﷻ says: “We shall make you to recite (the Qur’ân), so you (O Muhammad ﷺ) shall not forget (it), except what Allâh may will…” (V.87:6,7)

---

(1) (H. 5035) Al-Mufassal are the Sûrah which start from the Sûrat Al-Hujurat to the end of the Qur’ân.

(2) (H. 5035) Al-Muhkam are those Sûrah which contain no abrogated decrees or orders.
5037. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet heard a man reciting the Qur’an in the mosque and said, “May Allah bestow His Mercy on him, as he has reminded me of such and such Verses of such a Sûrah.”

Narrated Hishâm: (The same Hadith, adding): which I missed from such and such Sûrah.

5038. Narrated ‘Aishah: Allâh’s Messenger heard a man reciting the Qur’an at night, and said, “May Allah bestow His Mercy on him, as he has reminded me of such and such Verses of such and such Sûrah, which I was caused to forget.”

5039. Narrated ‘Abdullãh: The Prophet said, “Why does anyone of the people say, ‘I have forgotten such and such Verses (of the Qur’an)?’ He, in fact, is caused (by Allâh) to forget.”

(27) CHAPTER. Whoever thinks that there is no harm in saying: Sûrat Al-Baqarah (The Cow) or Sûrat so-and-so.

5040. Narrated Abû Mas‘ûd Al-Ansârî: The Prophet said, “Whosoever recited the last two Verses of Sūrat Al-Baqarah at night, that will be sufficient for him (for that night)."

5041. Narrated ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb: I heard Hishām bin Ḥakīm bin Hizām reciting Sūrat Al-Furqān during the lifetime of Allah’s Messenger and I listened to his recitation and noticed that he recited it in several different ways which Allah’s Messenger had not taught me. So I was on the point of attacking him in the Salāt (prayer), but I waited till he finished his Salāt (prayer), and then I seized him by the collar and said, “Who taught you this Sūrah which I have heard you reciting?” He replied, “Allah’s Messenger taught it to me.” I said, “You have told a lie; By Allah! Allah’s Messenger taught me (in a different way) this very Sūrah which I have heard you reciting.” So I took him, leading him to Allah’s Messenger and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I heard this person reciting Sūrat Al-Furqān in a way which you haven’t taught me, and you have taught me Sūrat Al-Furqān. The Prophet said, “O Hishām, recite!” So he recited in the same way as I heard him recite it before. On that Allah’s Messenger said, “It was revealed to be recited in this way.” Then Allah’s Messenger said, “Recite, O ‘Umar!” So I recited it as he had taught me. Allah’s Messenger then said, “It was revealed to be recited in this way.” Allah’s Messenger added, “The Qur’ān has been revealed to be recited in seven different ways, so recite of it that which is easier for you.”
5042. Narrated ‘Aishah: The Prophet heard a reciter reciting the Qur’an in the mosque at night. The Prophet said, “May Allah bestow His Mercy on him, as he has reminded me of such and such Verses of such and such Sūrah, which I missed!”

(28) CHAPTER. The recitation of Qur’an in ‘Tartil’ (clearly and in slow style).

And the Statement of Allāh (swt):

“...And recite the Qur’an (aloud) in a slow (pleasant tone and) style.” (V.73:4)

And also His Statement:

“And it is hated to recite Qur’an very quickly as one recites poetry.

5043. Narrated Abū Wā’il: We went to ‘Abdullāh in the morning and a man said, “Yesterday I recited all the Mufassal Sūrah.”

On that ‘Abdullāh said, “That is very quick, and we have the (Prophet’s) recitation, and I remember very well the recitation of those...”

Sarah which the Prophet \( S \) used to recite, and they were eighteen Sarah from the Mufassal, and two Sarah from the Sarah that start with \( Ha Mim \)."

5044. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās regarding His (Allah’s) Statement:

“Move not your tongue concerning (the Qur’an, O Muhammad  \( S \)) to make haste therewith.” (V.75:16)

And whenever Jibril (Gabriel) descended to Allah’s Messenger \( S \) with the Divine Revelation, Allah’s Messenger \( S \) used to move his tongue and lips, and that used to be hard for him, and one could easily recognise that he was being inspired Divinely. So Allah revealed the Verse which occurs in the Sarah starting with:

“I swear by the Day of Resurrection.” (V.75:1) i.e., “Move not your tongue concerning (the Qur’an, O Muhammad  \( S \)) to make haste therewith. It is for Us to collect it and to give you (O Muhammad  \( S \)) the ability to recite it (the Qur’an).” (V.75:16,17) which means: It is for Us to collect it (in your mind) and give you the ability to recite it by heart.

“So, when Jibril came to him, Allah’s Messenger \( S \) would listen to him attentively, and as soon as Jibril left, he would recite the Revelations, as Allāh had promised him.

(29) CHAPTER. Prolonging certain sounds while reciting the Qur'ān.

5045. Narrated Qatada: I asked Anas bin Mālik about the recitation of the Prophet ﷺ. He said, “He used to prolong (certain sounds) very much.”

5046. Narrated Qatada: Anas was asked, “How was the recitation (of the Qur'ān) of the Prophet ﷺ?” He replied, “It was characterised by the prolongation of certain sounds.” He then recited:

“In the Name of Allāh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful,” prolonging the pronunciation of “In the Name of Allāh,” ‘the Most Gracious,’ and ‘the Most Merciful’.

(30) CHAPTER. At-Tarjī’ (to recite the Qur’ān in a sort of attractive vibrating tone).

5047. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Mugaffal: I saw the Prophet ﷺ reciting (the Qur’ān) while he was riding on his she-camel, or camel which was moving, carrying him. He was reciting Sūrat Al-Fath, or part of Sūrat Al-Fath very softly and in an attractive vibrating tone.

(31) CHAPTER. To recite the Qur’ān in a charming voice.

5048. Narrated Abū Mūsa that the Prophet ﷺ said to him, “O Abū Mūsa!
You have been given one of the musical wind instruments of the family of Dawūd (David)."(1)

(32) CHAPTER. Whoever likes to hear the Qur'ān from another person.

5049.Narrated ‘Abdullāh that the Prophet  said to him, “Recite the Qur'ān to me.” ‘Abdullāh said, “Shall I recite (the Qur'ān) to you while it has been revealed to you?” He said, “I like to hear it from others.”

(33) CHAPTER. The saying of the listener (to the recitation of the Qur'ān) to the reciter: “Enough!”

5050. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Mas‘ūd: The Prophet  said to me, “Recite (the Qur'ān) to me.” I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Shall I recite (the Qur'ān) to you while it has been revealed to you?” He said, “Yes.” So I recited Sūrat An-Nisā’ (The Women), till I reached the Verse:

“How (will it be) then, when We bring from each nation a witness and We bring you (O Muhammad ) as a witness against these people?” (V.4:41)

He said, “Enough for the present.” I looked at him and behold! His eyes were overflowing with tears.

(1) (H. 5048) The musical instruments stand here for the nice voice.
(34) CHAPTER. What is the proper period for reciting the whole Qur'ān.

And the Statement of Allah

"...So, recite you of the Qur'ān as much as may be easy for you..." (V.73:20)

5051. Narrated Sufyān: Ibn Shubruma said, “I wanted to see how much of the Qur'ān can be enough [to recite in Ṣalāt (prayer)] and I could not find a Sūrah containing less than three Verses, therefore I said (to myself), “One ought not to recite less than three (Qur'ānic) Verses in Ṣalāt.”

Narraed Abū Mas'ūd: The Prophet said, “If somebody recites the last two Verses of Sūrat Al-Baqarah at night, it will be sufficient for him.”

5052. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr bin Al-'Āṣ: My father got me married to a lady of a noble family, and often used to ask my wife about me, and she used to reply, “What a wonderful man he is! He never comes to my bed, nor has he approached me since he married me.” When this state continued for a long period, my father told the story to the Prophet who said to my father, “Let me meet him.” Then I met him and he asked me, “How do you observe Saum (fast)?” I replied, “I observe Saum daily.” He asked, “How long does it take you to finish the recitation of the whole Qur'ān?” I replied, “I finish it every night.” On that he said, “Observe Saum for three days every month and recite the Qur’an (and finish it) in one month.” I said, “But I have strength to do more than that.” He said, “Then observe Saum for three days per week.” I said, “I have the power to do more than that.” He said, “Then observe Saum for one day and leave for two days. I said, I have the strength to do more than that. He said, then, fast the most superior type of fasting, (that is), the fasting of (Prophet) Dawud (David) عليه السلام, who used to observe Saum every alternate day; and finish the recitation of the whole Qur’an in seven days.” I wish I had accepted the permission of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ as I have become a weak old man. It is said that ‘Abdullāh used to recite one-seventh of the Qur’an during the daytime to some of his family members for he used to check his memorization of what he would recite at night, so that it would be easier for him to recite at night. And whenever he wanted to gain some strength, he used to give up observing Saum (for some days and count those days to observe Saum) for a similar period, for he disliked to leave those things which he used to do during the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ.

5053. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Amr: The Prophet ﷺ asked me, “How long does it take you to finish the recitation of the whole Qur’an?”
5054. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin 'Amr: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said to me, “Recite the whole Qurʾān in one month's time.” I said, “But I have strength (to do more than that).” Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, “Then finish the recitation of the Qurʾān in seven days, and do not finish it in less than this period.”

5055. Narrated 'Abdullāh (bin Mas'ūd): Allah's Messenger ﷺ said (to me), “Recite the Qurʾān to me.” I said, “Shall I recite (it) to you while it has been revealed to you?” He said, “I like to hear it from another person.” So I recited Sūrat An-Nisāʾ (The Women) till I reached the Verse:

“...How (will it be) then, when We bring from each nation a witness and We bring you (O Muhammad ﷺ) as a witness against these people?” (V.4:41)

Then he said to me, “Stop!” or said, “Enough!” Thereupon I saw his eyes overflowing with tears.
5056. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin Mas’ûd: The Prophet ﷺ said to me, “Recite the Qur’an to me.” I said to him, “Shall I recite (it) to you while it has been revealed to you?” He said, “I like to hear it from another person.”

5057. Narrated ‘Ali: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “In the last days (of the world) there will appear young people with foolish thoughts and ideas. They will give good talks, but they will go out of Islãm as an arrow goes out through the game, their faith will not exceed their throats (i.e., they will not have Faith). So, wherever you find them, kill them, for there will be a reward for their killers on the Day of Resurrection.”

5058. Narrated Abû Sa‘îd Al-Khudri: I heard Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “There will appear some people among you whose Sa‘îd (prayer) will make you look down upon yours, and whose Saum (fasting) will make you look down upon yours, and whose (good) deeds will make you look down upon yours, but they will recite the Qur'an which will not exceed their throats (they will not act on it) and they will go out of Islam (i.e. discard Islam) as an arrow goes out through the game whereupon the archer would examine the arrowhead but see nothing, and look at the unfeathered part of arrow but see nothing, and look at its feathers but see nothing, and finally he suspects to find something in its lower part.”

5059. Narrated Abū Mūsa: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The example of a believer who recites the Qur'an and acts on it, is like a citron which tastes nice and smells nice. And the example of a believer who does not recite the Qur'an but acts on it, is like a date-fruit which tastes good but has no smell. And the example of a hypocrite who recites the Qur'an is like a Raihāna (sweet basil) which smells good but tastes bitter. And the example of a hypocrite who does not recite the Qur'an is like a colocynth which tastes bitter or bad and has a bitter bad smell.”

(37) CHAPTER. Recite (and study) the Qur'an together as long as you agree about its interpretation.

5060. Narrated ‘Abdullāh: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Recite (and study) the Qur'an as long as you agree about its interpretation, but if you have any difference of opinion (as regards its interpretation and meaning) then you should stop reciting it (for the time being).”

5061. Narrated Jundub (bin Abdullãh):
The Prophet said, “Recite (and study) the Qur'an as long as you agree about its interpretation, but when you have any difference of opinion (as regards its interpretation and meaning) then you should stop reciting it (for the time being).”

5062. Narrated 'Abdullah that he heard a man reciting a Verse of the Qur'an which he had heard the Prophet reciting in a different way. So he took that man to the Prophet (and told him the story). The Prophet said, “Both of you are reciting in a correct way, so carry on reciting.” The Prophet further added, “The nations which were before you were destroyed (by Allãh) because they differed.”

(1) CHAPTER. Awakening the desire for marriage which is recommended in the Statement of Allâh ﷺ: “…then marry (other) women of your choice…” (V.4:3)

5063. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: A group of three men came to the houses of the wives of the Prophet ﷺ asking how the Prophet ﷺ worshipped (Allâh), and when they were informed about that, they considered their worship insufficient and said, “Where are we from the Prophet ﷺ as his past and future sins have been forgiven.” Then one of them said, “I will offer the Salât (prayer) throughout the night forever.” The other said, “I will observe Saum (fast) throughout the year and will not break my Saum (fast).” The third said, “I will keep away from the women and will not marry forever.” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ came to them and said, “Are you the same people who said so-and-so? By Allâh, I am more submissive to Allâh and more afraid of Him than you; yet I observe Saum (fast) and also do not observe Saum (fast), I do offer Salât (prayer) and also do sleep and I also marry women. So he who does not follow my As-Sunna (legal ways) in religion, is not from me (not one of my followers).”

5064. Narrated ‘Urwa that he asked ‘Aishah about the Statement of Allâh ﷺ: “If you fear that you shall not be able to deal justly with the orphan girls, then marry (other) women of your choice, two or three or four; but if you fear that you shall not be able to deal justly (with them), then only one, or (slaves) that your right hands possess. That will be nearer to prevent you from doing injustice.” (V.4:3)

‘Āishah said, “O my nephew! (This Verse has been revealed in connection with) an orphan girl under the guardianship of her guardian who is attracted by her wealth and beauty and intends to marry her with a Mahr less than what other women of her standard deserve. So they (such guardians) have been forbidden to marry them unless they do justice to them and give them their full Mahr, and they are ordered to marry other women instead of them.”

(2) CHAPTER. The Statement of the Prophet ﷺ:

“Whoever is able to marry, should marry, for that will help him lower his gaze and guard his modesty (i.e. his private parts from committing illegal sexual intercourse etc.).” And should a person marry (even if) he has no desire for marriage?

5065. Narrated ‘Alqama: While I was with ‘Abdullâh, ‘Uthmân met him at Minâ and said, “O Abû ‘Abdur-Râhmân! I have something to say to you.” So both of them went aside and ‘Uthmân said, “O Abû ‘Abdur-Râhmân! Shall we marry you to a virgin who will make you remember your past days?” When ‘Abdullâh felt that he was not in need of that, he beckoned me (to join him) saying, “O ‘Alqama!” Then I heard him saying (in reply to ‘Uthmân), “As you have said that, (I tell you that) the Prophet ﷺ once said to us, ‘O young people! Whoever among you is able to marry, should marry, and whoever is not able to marry, is recommended to observe Saum (fast) as fasting will diminish his sexual power.”

(3) CHAPTER. Whoever is not able (cannot afford) to marry, is recommended to fast.

5066. Narrated ‘Abdullãh: We were with the Prophet while we were young and had no wealth. So Allãh’s Messenger said, “O young people! Whoever among you is able to marry, should marry, because it helps him lower his gaze and guard his modesty (i.e. his private parts from committing illegal sexual intercourse etc.), and whoever is not able to marry, should fast, as fasting will diminish his sexual power.”

(4) CHAPTER. About (marrying) several women.

5067. Narrated ‘Atã: We attended along with Ibn ‘Abbãs the funeral procession of Maimûna at a place called Sarîf. Ibn ‘Abbãs said, “This is the wife of the Prophet, so when you lift her bier, do not jerk it or shake it much, but walk smoothly because the Prophet had nine wives and he used to observe the night turns with eight of them, and for one of them there was no night turn.”
5068. Narrated Anas: The Prophet used to go round (have sexual relations with) all his wives in one night, and he had nine wives.

5069. Narrated Sa‘īd bin Jubair: Ibn ‘Abbās asked me, “Are you married?” I replied, “No.” He said, “Marry, for the best person of this (Muslim) nation (i.e., Muhammad) had the largest number of wives.”

(5) CHAPTER. Whoever emigrated or did a good deed with the intention of marrying a woman, then he will be rewarded according to his intentions.

5070. Narrated ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb: The Prophet said, “The rewards (of deeds) are according to the intention, and everybody will get the reward for what he has intended. So whoever emigrates for Allāh’s and His Messenger’s sake, his emigration will be for Allāh and His Messenger; and whoever emigrates for worldly benefits, or to marry a woman, then his emigration will be for the thing for what he emigrated for.”(1)

(1) (H. 5070) His reward will be according to his intentions, not to his apparent deed,
(6) CHAPTER. The marrying of a poor man who has the knowledge of the Qur’ān and is a Muslim.

Sahl bin Sa’d narrated this from the Prophet ﷺ.

5071. Narrated Ibn Mas’ūd رضي الله عنه: We used to fight in the holy battles in the company of the Prophet ﷺ and we had no wives with us. So we said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Shall we get castrated?” The Prophet forbade us to do so.

(7) CHAPTER. The saying of a man to his brother (in Islām): “Have a look at either of my wives (and if you wish), I will divorce her for you.”

This is narrated by ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Auf.

5072. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin ‘Auf came (from Makkah to Al-Madina) and the Prophet ﷺ made a bond of brotherhood between him and Sa’d bin Ar-Rabī’ Al-Anṣārī. Al-Anṣārī had two wives, so he suggested that ‘Abdur-Rahmān take half, his wives and property. ‘Abdur-Rahmān replied, “May Allāh bless you with your wives and property. Kindly show me the market.” So ‘Abdur-Rahmān went to the market and gained (in bargains)...

some dried yoghurt and some butter. After a few days the Prophet saw 'Abdur-Rahmân with some yellow stains on his clothes and asked him, “What is that, O 'Abdur-Rahmân?” He replied, “I had married an Ansâri woman.” The Prophet asked, “How much Mahr did you give her?” He replied, “The weight of one (date) stone of gold.” The Prophet said, “Offer a Walima (wedding banquet) even with one sheep.”

(8) CHAPTER. What is disliked of not marrying and of getting castrated.

5073. Narrated Sa’d bin Abi Waqqás: Allâh’s Messenger did not allow ‘Uthmân bin Ma’ûn to keep away from marrying (and other pleasures) and if he had allowed him, we would have gotten ourselves castrated(1).

5074. Narrated Sa’d bin Abi Waqqás: The Prophet did not allow ‘Uthmân bin Ma’ûn to keep away from marrying, and had he allowed him, we would have got ourselves castrated(1).

5075. Narrated ‘Abdullâh: We used to participate in the holy battles led by Allâh’s Messenger and we had nothing (no wives) with us. So we said, “Shall we get ourselves castrated?” He forbade us that and then allowed us to marry a woman temporarily by giving her even a garment (1) and then he recited to us:

(1) (H. 5074) Sa’d, by saying, “We would have ourselves castrated,” did not mean the actual castration, but he meant excessive abstention from all kinds of pleasures, for castration is forbidden in Islâm.

‘O you who believe! Make not unlawful the Tayyibât (all that is good as regards foods, things, deeds, beliefs, persons etc.) which Allâh has made lawful to you.’ (V.5:87)

5076. Narrated Abû Hurairah: I said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! I am a young man and I am afraid that I may commit illegal sexual intercourse and I cannot afford to marry.” He kept silent, and then I repeated my question once again, but he kept silent. I said the same (for the third time) and he remained silent. Then I repeated my question (for the fourth time), and only then the Prophet said, “O Abu Hurairah! The pen has dried after writing what you are going to confront. (2) So (it does not matter whether you) get yourself castrated or not.” (3)

(9) CHAPTER. To marry virgins.

Ibn ‘Abbâs said to ‘Aîshah, “The Prophet did not marry any virgin besides you.”

5077. Narrated ‘Aishah: I said,

(1) (H. 5075) This sort of marriage (i.e., Nikâh-al-Mut’a) was later on forbidden forever. (See H.5115)
(2) (H. 5076) Your fate has been destined for you.
(3) (H. 5076) (This means:) You cannot change your destined fate by getting castrated, so there is no benefit in doing so.
"O Allah’s Messenger! Suppose you landed in a valley where there is a tree of which something has been eaten and then you found trees of which nothing has been eaten, of which tree would you let your camel graze?" He said, "(I will let my camel graze) of the one of which nothing has been eaten before." (The subnarrator added: ‘Aishah meant that Allah’s Messenger had not married a virgin besides herself).
virgin or a matron?” I replied, “A matron.” He said, “Why didn’t you marry a young girl so that you may play with her and she with you?” When we were about to enter (Al-Madīna), the Prophet said, “Wait so that you may enter Al-Madīna) at the afternoon so that the lady of unkempt hair may comb her hair and the one whose husband has been absent may shave her pubic region.”

5080.Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنهما: When I got married, Allah’s Messenger said to me, “What type of lady have you married?” I replied, “I have married a matron.” He said, “Why, don’t you have a liking for the virgins and for fondling them?” Jābir also said: Allah’s Messenger said, “Why didn’t you marry a young girl so that you might play with her and she with you?”

(11) CHAPTER. The marrying of a young lady to an elderly man.

5081. Narrated 'Urwa: The Prophet asked Abū Bakr for 'Āishah’s hand in marriage. Abū Bakr said, “But I am your brother.” The Prophet said, “You are my brother in Allāh’s religion and His Book, but she (‘Āishah) is lawful for me to marry.”
(12) CHAPTER. What type of women should one seek in marriage? And what type of women is better? And what type of women one is recommended to select so as to beget good offspring, without there being any compulsion to do so.

5082. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “The best women are the riders of the camels and the righteous among the women of Quraish. They are very kind to their children in their childhood and very careful in guarding of the property of their husbands.”

(13) CHAPTER. Having female captives (for sexual purposes) and marrying and manumitting one’s own slave-girl.

5083. Narrated Abū Burda’s father: Allah’s Messenger said, “Any man who has a slave-girl whom he educates properly, teaches good manners, manumits and marries her, will get a double reward. And if any man of the people of the Scriptures (Jews and Christians) believes in his own Prophet and then believes in me too, he will (also) get a double reward. And any slave who fulfils his duty to his master and to his Lord (Allah), will (also) get a double reward.”
5084. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said: “Abraham did not tell lies except three lies. (One of them was) when Abraham passed by a tyrant and (his wife) Sārah was accompanying him. [Abū Hurairah then mentioned the whole narration (See H. No. 3363, Vol. 4, Sāhih Al-Bukhari) and said:] (The tyrant) gave her Hājar. Sārah said, “Allāh saved me from the hands of the Kāfir (i.e. infidel) and gave me Ajar (Hājar) to serve me.” (Abū Hurairah added:) That (Hājar) is your mother, O Banū Mā‘-As-Samā‘ (i.e., the Arabs)!

5085. Narrated Anas: The Prophet stayed for three days between Khaibar and Al-Madina, and there he consummated his marriage to Safiyya bint Huyai. I invited the Muslims to the wedding banquet in which neither meat nor bread was offered. He ordered for leather dining-sheets to be spread, and dates, dried yoghourt and butter were laid on it, and that was the Prophet's wedding banquet. The Muslims wondered, “Is she (Safiyya) considered as his wife or his slave-girl?” Then they said, “If he orders her to veil herself, she will be one of the Mothers of the believers; but if he does not order her to veil herself, she will be a slave-girl.” So when the Prophet proceeded from there, he made a space for her behind him (on his she-camel) and put a screening veil between her and the people. (See H. 371)
(14) CHAPTER. Whoever regarded the manumission of a slave-girl as her Mahr.

5086. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: Allah’s Messenger manumitted Safiyya and regarded her manumission as her Mahr.

(15) CHAPTER. The marrying of the poor by virtue of the Statement of Allâh: “If they be poor, Allâh will enrich them out of His Bounty.” (V.24 :32)

5087. Narrated Sahîl bin Sa’d As-Sâ‘îdi: A woman came to Allah’s Messenger and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I have come to give you myself in marriage (without Mahr).” Allah’s Messenger looked at her. He looked at her carefully and fixed his glance on her and then lowered his head. When the lady saw that he did not say anything, she sat down. A man from his Companions got up and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! If you are not in need of her, then marry her to me.” The Prophet said, “Have you got something to offer (as a Mahr)?” The man said, “No, by Allah, O Allah’s Messenger!” The Prophet said (to him), “Go to your family and see if you have something.” The man went and returned, saying, “No, by Allah, I have not found anything.” Allah’s Messenger said, “(Go again) and look for something, even if it is an iron ring.” He went again and returned, saying, “No, by Allah, O Allah’s Messenger! I could not find even an iron ring, but this is my Izâr(1)

(waistsheet).” He had no Rida (1). He added, “I give half of it to her.” Allâh’s Messenger said, “What will she do with your Izâr? If you wear it, she will be naked, and if she wears it, you will be naked.” So that man sat down for a long while and then got up (to depart). When Allâh’s Messenger saw him going, he ordered that he be called back. When he came, the Prophet said, “How much of the Qur’ân do you know?” He said, “I know such Sûra and such Sûra.” “Do you know them by heart?” He replied, “Yes.” The Prophet said, “Go, I marry her to you for that much of the Qur’ân which you have.”

(16) CHAPTER. (Both husband and wife) should have the same religion.

And the Statement of Allâh:

“And it is He Who has created man from water; and has appointed for him kindred by blood and kindred by marriage.” (V.25:54)

5088. Narrated 'Aishah: Abû Hudâifa bin 'Utba bin Rabî’a bin 'Abd-Shams who had witnessed the battle of Badr along with the Prophet, adopted Sâlim as his son, to whom he married his niece, Hind bin Al-Walid bin 'Utba bin Rabî’a; and Sâlim was the freed slave of an An sûrî woman, just as the Prophet, had adopted Zaid as his son. It was the custom in the pre-Islamic

(1) (H. 5087) A garment to cover the upperpart of the body.
period that if somebody adopted a boy, the people would call him the son of the adoptive father and he would be the latter's heir. But when Allâh revealed the Divine Verses:

"Call them (adopted sons) by (the names of) their fathers (up to) and Mawâlikum (your freed slaves)." (V.33 :5), the adopted persons were called by their father's names. The one whose father was not known, would be regarded as a Maulâ and your brother in religion. Later on Sahla bint Suhail bin 'Amr Al-Ourashi Al-'Amiri - and she was the wife of Hudhaifa bin 'Utba - came to the Prophet and said, "0 Allah's Messenger! We used to consider Salim as our (adopted) son, and now Allâh has revealed what you know (regarding adopted sons)." The subnarrator then mentioned the rest of the narration. (See H. 4000)

5089. Narrated 'Âishah \(\text{بنت أبي} \) the Prophet: Allâh's Messenger entered upon Dubâ'a bint Az-Zubair and said to her, "Do you have a desire to perform the Hajj?" She replied, "By Allâh, I feel sick." He said to her, "Intend to perform Hajj and stipulate something by saying, '0 Allah, I will finish my Ihram at any place where You stop me (i.e. I am unable to go further)." \(^{(1)}\) She was the wife of Al-Miqdâd bin Al-Aswad.

5090. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said, "A woman is married for four (things), i.e. her wealth, her family

---

(1) (H. 5089) If the ailment gets aggravated, she would abandon her Ihram.
status, her beauty and her religion. So you should take possession of (marry) the religious woman (otherwise) you will be a loser.

5091. Narrated Sahl: A man passed by Allah’s Messenger and Allah’s Messenger asked (his companions), “What do you say about this (man)?” They replied, “If he asks for a lady’s hand, he ought to be given her in marriage; and if he intercedes (for someone), his intercession will be accepted; and if he speaks, he will be listened to”. Allah’s Messenger kept silent, and then another man from among the poor Muslims passed by, and Allah’s Messenger asked (them), “What do you say about this man?” They replied, “If he asks for a lady’s hand in marriage, no one will accept him, and if he intercedes (for someone), his intercession will not be accepted; and if he speaks, he will not be listened to.” Allah’s Messenger said, “This poor man is better than so many of the first as to fill the earth.” (See Hadith No. 6447, Vol 8).

(17) CHAPTER. Equality in wealth (is not essential for the marriage). And the marriage of a poor man with a well-to-do lady.

5092. Narrated ‘Urwa that he asked ‘Aishah regarding the Verse:
“If you fear that you shall not be able to deal justly with the orphans.” (V.4:3)
She said, “O my nephew! This Verse refers to the orphan girl who is under the guardianship of her guardian who likes her beauty and wealth and wishes to (marry her...
and) curtails her Mahr. Such guardians have been forbidden to marry them unless they do justice by giving them their full Mahr, and they have been ordered to marry other than them. The people asked for the verdict of Allah's Messenger so after that, so Allah revealed: 'They ask your legal instruction concerning the women... whom you desire to marry.' (V.4:127) So Allah revealed to them that if the orphan girl had beauty and wealth, they desired to marry her and for her family status. They can only marry them if they give them their full Mahr. And if they had no desire to marry them because of their lack of wealth and beauty, they would leave them and marry other women. So, as they used to leave them, when they had no interest, in them, they were forbidden to marry them when they had such interest, unless they treated them justly and gave them their full Mahr.

(18) CHAPTER. What evil omen of a lady is to be warded off. And the Statement of Allah: Verily, among your wives and your children, there are enemies for you. (i.e. may stop you from the obedience of Allah) (V.64:14)

5093. Narrated 'Abdullah bin 'Umar: Allah's Messenger said, "There is an evil omen in a woman, a house and a horse." (1)

(1) (H. 5093) The evil omen of a woman is her bad character, of a house is the bad neighbours, and of a horse that one does not use it for Jihad in Allah's Cause.
5094. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: Evil omen was mentioned before the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ said, “If there is evil omen in anything, it is in a house, a woman and a horse.”

5095. Narrated Sahl bin Sa'd: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If at all there is evil omen, it is in a horse, a woman and a house.”

5096. Narrated Usāma bin Zaid ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “After me I have not left any Fitnah (trial and affliction) more harmful to men than women.”

(19) CHAPTER. (About) a free lady as the wife of a slave.

5097. Narrated 'Āishah رضي الله عنها: Three principles were established because of Barira: (i) When Barira was manumitted she was given the option (to remain with her slave husband or not). (ii) Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The Wala’ of the slave is for the one who manumits (the slave).” (iii) When Allah’s Messenger entered (the house), he saw a cooking pot on the fire but he was given bread and meat soup from the soup of the home. The Prophet said, “Didn’t I see the cooking pot (on the fire)?” It was said, “That is the meat given in charity to Barira, and you do not eat the (things given in) charity.” The Prophet said, “It is an object of charity for Barira, and it is a present for us.” (See H. 5430)

(20) CHAPTER. Not to marry more than four (at a time) as is decreed in the Statement of Allah:

“...two or three or four...” (V.4:3)\(^{(1)}\)

‘Ali bin Al-Hussain said: “It means, two or three or four.” And the Statement of Allah:

“(Angels) with wings, two or three or four.” (V.35:1) namely, two, three or four\(^{(1)}\).

5098. Narrated ‘Aishah (regarding) the Verse—

“And if you fear that you shall not be able to deal justly with the orphans...” (V.4:3):

It is about the orphan girl who is in the custody of a man who is her guardian, and he intends to marry her because of her wealth, but he treats her badly and does not manage her property fairly and honestly. Such a man should marry women of his liking other than her, two or three or four.

(1) (Ch. 20) The Arabic word for ‘or’ in the Verses mentioned here are ‘wa’ which means ‘and’ in other contexts. This is why the Verses are followed by comments to indicate that the word ‘wa’ occurring here, means ‘or’ (not ‘and’).
(21) CHAPTER. (The Verse:)
“...your foster-mothers who gave you suck.”
(V.4:23)

And foster suckling relations render marriage unlawful, just as the corresponding birth (blood) relations.

5099. Narrated 'Aishah, the wife of the Prophet, that while Allah's Messenger was with her, she heard a voice of a man asking permission to enter the house of Hafsa. 'Aishah added: I said, "O Allah’s Messenger! This man is asking permission to enter your house." The Prophet said, "I think he is so-and-so," naming the foster (suckling) uncle of Hafsa. 'Aishah said, "If so-and-so," naming her foster (suckling) uncle, "were living, could he enter upon me?" The Prophet said, "Yes, for foster (suckling) relations make all those things unlawful which are unlawful through corresponding birth (blood) relations."

5100. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: It was said to the Prophet, "Won't you marry the daughter of Hamza?" He said, "She is my foster suckling niece (suckling brother's daughter)."

5101. Narrated Umm Habiba, daughter of Abū Sufyān: I said, "O Allah's Messenger! Marry my sister, the daughter..."
of Abū Sufyān.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Do you like that?” I replied, “Yes, for even now I am not your only wife and I like that my sister should share the good with me.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “But that is not lawful for me.” I said, “We have heard that you want to marry the daughter of Abū Salama.” He said, “(You mean) the daughter of Umm Salama?” I said, “Yes.” He said, “Even if she were not my step-daughter, she would be unlawful for me to marry as she is my foster suckling niece. I and Abū Salama were suckled by Thuwāiba. So you should not present to me your daughters or your sisters (in marriage).”

Narrated ‘Urwa: Thuwāiba was the freed slave girl of Abu Lahab whom he had manumitted, and then she suckled the Prophet ﷺ. When Abu Lahab died, one of his relatives saw him in a dream in a very bad state and asked him, “What have you encountered?” Abu Lahab said, “I have not found any rest since I left you, except that I have been given water to drink in this (the space between his thumb and other fingers) and that is because of my manumitting Thuwāiba.”

(22) CHAPTER. Whoever said: “No suckling is to be carried on after the baby is two years old,”. As the Statement of Allah ﷻ:

“...two whole years, (that is) ‘for those (parents) who desire to complete the term of suckling (breast feeding)...’ (V.2:233)

And what amount of suckling renders marriage unlawful.
5102. Narrated 'Aishah that the Prophet entered upon her while a man was sitting with her. Signs of anger seemed to appear on his face as if he disliked that. She said, “Here is my (foster suckling) brother.” He said, “Be sure as to who is your foster suckling brother, for foster suckling relationship is established only when milk is the only food of the child.”

(23) CHAPTER. The milk belongs to the husband (if one drinks the milk of a lady then the husband of that lady is just like his father, i.e., he will be his foster suckling father).

5103. Narrated 'Aishah that Aflah, the brother of Abū Al-Qu'ais, her foster suckling uncle, came, asking permission to enter upon her after the Verse of Al-Hijab (the use of veils by women) was revealed. ‘Aishah added: I did not allow him to enter, but when Allah’s Messenger came, I told him what I had done, and he ordered me to give him permission.

(24) CHAPTER. The witness of a wet nurse.

5104. Narrated 'Uqba bin Al-Harith: I married a woman and then a black lady came to us and said, “I have suckled you both (you and your wife).” So I came to the Prophet and said, “I married so-and-so and then a black lady came to us and said to me, ‘I have

(1) (H. 5102) Suckling which brings about foster relations is that which is done when the baby is under two years of age, and the baby should at least have taken a good suck for five times.
suckled both of you.’ But I think she is a liar.” The Prophet  turned his face away from me and I moved to face his face, and said, “She is a liar.” The Prophet  said, “How (can you keep her as your wife) when that lady has said that she has suckled both of you? So abandon (i.e., divorce) her (your wife).”

(25) CHAPTER. What women are lawful for one to marry and what are unlawful. And the Statement of Allâh the Most High:

Forbidden to you (for marriage) are: your mothers, your daughters.. (up to).. Ever All-Knowing, All-Wise.” (V.4:23,24)

And Anas said, “‘Also (prohibited are) the women already married,’ means those free ladies who have their own husbands, are also unlawful for you to marry, except those whom your right hands possess.” So, he (Anas) considers that there is no harm if a man gets his slave girl divorced by his slave. And Allâh said:

“Do not marry Al-Mushrikûn (idolatress etc.) till they believe (i.e., worship Allâh Alone).” (V.2:221)

And Ibn ‘Abbâs said, “It is prohibited to marry more than four wives as it is prohibited to marry one’s own mother, daughter or sister.”

5105. Ibn ‘Abbâs further said, “Seven types of marriages are unlawful because of blood relations, and seven because of marriage relations." Then Ibn 'Abbās recited the Verse:

"Forbidden to you (for marriage) are your mothers..." (V.4:23)

Abdullāh bin Ja'far married the daughter and wife of ‘Alī at the same time (they were step-daughter and mother). Ibn Sirīn said, "There is no harm in that." But Al-Ḥasan Al-Baṣrī disapproved of it at first, but then said that there was no harm in it. Al-Ḥasan bin Al-Ḥasan bin 'All married two of his cousins in one night. Ja'far bin Zaid disapproved of that because it would bring about hatred (between the two cousins), but it is not unlawful, as Allāh said,

"Lawful to you are all others [beyond those (mentioned)]." (V.4:24)

Ibn 'Abbās said, "If somebody commits illegal sexual intercourse with his wife's sister, his wife does not become unlawful for him".

And narrated Abū Ja'far, "If a person commits homosexuality with a boy, then the mother of that boy is unlawful for him to marry."

Narrated Ibn 'Abbās, "If one commits illegal sexual intercourse with his mother-in-law, then his married relation to his wife does not become unlawful." Abū Naṣr is reported to have said that Ibn 'Abbās in the above case, regarded his marital relation to his wife unlawful, but Abū Naṣr is not known well for hearing Ḥadīth from Ibn Abbās.

Iμrān bin Ḥusain, Jābir bin Zaid, Al-Ḥasan and some other Irāqīs, are reported to have judged that his marital relations to his wife would be unlawful. In the above case Abū Hurairah said, "The marital relation to one's wife does not become unlawful except if one has had sexual intercourse (with her mother)." Ibn Al-Musayyab, 'Urwa, and Az-Zuhri allow such a person to keep his wife. 'Ali said, “His marital relations to his wife does not become unlawful.”

(26) CHAPTER. (The Statement of Allah:) ‘...your step-daughters under your guardianship, born of your wives, to whom you have gone in (consummated your marriage)...” (V.4:23)

And Ibn 'Abbas said (regarding the Verse) that the words 'Dukhul', 'Matis', and 'Limās' all means the sexual intercourse. And whoever says that the grand-daughters (born of one's wife) are also unlawful to marry like her daughters, as indicates the statement of the Prophet to Umm Ḥabiba, “Do not present to me your sisters,” Similarly, the wife of a grandson and the wife of a son are equally unlawful to marry. Will a step-daughter of a man be called a step-daughter if she is not under his guardianship? The Prophet gave a step-daughter of his to some people to take care of. The Prophet called his grandson (Al-Ḥasan bin 'Ali) his son.

5106. Narrated Umm Ḥabiba: I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Do you like to marry (my sister) the daughter of Abū Sufyān?” The Prophet said, “What shall I do (with her)?” I said, “Marry her.” He said, “Do you like that?” I said, “(Yes), for even now I am not your only wife, so I like that my sister should share you with me.” He said, “She is not lawful for me (to marry).”(1) I said, “We have heard that you want to marry.” He said, “The daughter of Umm Salama?” I said, “Yes.” He said, “Even if she were not my step-daughter, she should be unlawful for me to marry, for Thuwaiba suckled me and her

(1) (H. 5106) Because it is prohibited to marry the sister of one's wife if that wife is still alive.
father (Abū Salama). So you should neither present your daughters nor your sisters to me.”

(27) CHAPTER: “(It is prohibited to have) two sisters in wedlock (as wives) at the same time, except for what has already passed.”

(V.4:23)

5107. Narrated Umm Ḥabība: I said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Marry my sister, the daughter of Abū Sufyān.” He said, “Do you like that?” I said, “Yes, for even now I am not your only wife; and the most beloved person to share the good with me is my sister.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “But that is not lawful for me (i.e., to be married to two sisters at a time.)” I said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! By Allāh, we have heard that you want to marry Durrā, the daughter of Abū Salama.” He said, “You mean the daughter of Umm Salama?” I said, “Yes.” He said, “By Allāh! Even if she were not my step-daughter, she would not be lawful for me to marry, for she is my foster niece, for Thuwaiba has suckled me and Abū Salama; so you should neither present your daughters nor your sisters to me.”

(1) (H. 5106) This means that the daughter of Umm Salama was the foster suckling niece of the Prophet ﷺ.
(28) CHAPTER. A woman should not marry a man who is already married to her paternal aunt (her father's sister).

5108. Narrated Ḥābir: Allāh's Messenger forbade that a woman should be married to a man along with her paternal aunt (her father's sister) or maternal aunt (her mother's sister).

5109. Narrated ʿAbū Hurairah: Allāh's Messenger said, "A woman and her paternal aunt (her father's sister) should not be married to the same man; and similarly, a woman and her maternal aunt (her mother's sister) should not be married to the same man."

5110. Narrated ʿAbī Hurairah: The Prophet forbade that a woman should be married to a man along with her paternal aunt or with her maternal aunt (at the same time). Az-Zuhrī (the sub-narrator) said: There is a similar order for the paternal aunt of the father of one's wife.

5111. For ʿUrwa told me that ʿĀishah said, "What is unlawful because of blood relations, is also unlawful because of the corresponding foster suckling relations."

(29) CHAPTER. Ash-Shighār [a type of marriage in which persons exchange their daughters (or sisters) in marriage without paying Mahr].
5112.Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger forbade Ash-Shighar, which means that somebody marries his daughter to somebody else, and the latter marries his daughter to the former without paying Mahr.

(30) CHAPTER. Is it permissible for a woman to present herself for marriage to somebody?

5113. Narrated Hishãm’s father: Khaula bint Hakim was one of those ladies who presented themselves to the Prophet for marriage. ‘Āishah said, “Doesn’t a lady feel ashamed for presenting herself to a man?” But when the Verse:

“(O Muhammad) You can postpone (the turn of) whom you will of them (your wives),” (V.33:51) was revealed, ‘Āishah said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! I do not see, but, that your Lord hurries in pleasing you.”

(31) CHAPTER. The marriage of a Muhrim.

5114. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs: The Prophet got married while he was in the state of Ihrâm.
(32) CHAPTER. Allâh’s Messenger prohibited Nikhâh-al-Mut’a(1) lately.

5116. Narrated Abû Jamra: I heard Ibn ‘Abbâs (giving a verdict) when he was asked about the Mut’a with the women, and he permitted it (Nikhâh-al-Mut’a). On that a freed slave of his said to him, “That is only, when it is very badly needed and women are scarce.” On that, Ibn ‘Abbâs said, “Yes.”

5117, 5118. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh and Salama bin Al-Akwa: While we were in an army, Allâh’s Messenger came to us and said, “You have been allowed to do the Mut’a (marriage), so do it.”

5119. Salama bin Al-Akwa said: Allâh’s Messenger said, “If a man and a woman agree (to marry temporarily), their marriage

(1) (Chap. 32) Nikhâh-al-Mut’a means temporary marriage for a limited period of time. This type of marriage was allowed in the early days of Islâm in cases of necessity, but the Prophet finally prohibited it forever. (See H. 5115 and 4216) should last for three nights, and if they like to continue, they can do so; and if they want to separate, they can do so." I do not know whether that was only for us or for all the people in general. Abū ‘Abdullāh (Al-Bukhārī) said: ‘Ali made it clear that the Prophet ﷺ said, "The Mut’a marriage has been cancelled (made unlawful)."

(33) CHAPTER. A woman can present herself to a righteous man (for marriage).

5120. Narrated Thābit Al-Bunānī: I was with Anas while his daughter was present with him. Anas said, "A woman came to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and presented herself to him, saying, ‘O Allāh’s Messenger, have you any need for me (i.e. would you like to marry me)?’ " Thereupon Anas’ daughter said, “What a shameless lady she was! Shame! Shame!” Anas said, “She was better than you; she had a liking for the Prophet ﷺ so she presented herself for marriage to him.”

5121. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: A woman presented herself to the Prophet ﷺ (for marriage). A man said to him, “O Allāh’s Messenger! (If you are not in need of her) marry her to me.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “What have you got?” The man said, “I have nothing.” The Prophet ﷺ said (to him), “Go and search (for something) even if it were an iron ring.” The man went and returned saying, “No, I have not found anything, not even an iron ring; but this is my (Izâr) waistsheet, and half of it is for her.” He had no Ridā’ (upper garment). The Prophet ﷺ said, “What will she do with your waistsheet?”
If you wear it, she will have nothing over her; and if she wears it, you will have nothing over you." So the man sat down and when he had sat a long time, he got up (to leave). When the Prophet saw him (leaving), he called back, or the man was called (for him), and he said to the man, "How much of the Qur'an do you know (by heart)?" The man replied "I know such Sūrah and such Sūrah (by heart)," naming the Sūrah. The Prophet said, "I have married her to you for what you know of the Qur'an (by heart)."

(34) CHAPTER. The presentation of one's own daughter or sister (for marriage) to a religious man.

5122. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar: ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb said, "When Ḥafṣa bint ‘Umar became a widow after the death of (her husband) Khunais bin Ḥudhāfa as-Sahmī who had been one of the companions of the Prophet - and he died at Al-Madina - I went to ‘Uthmān bin ‘Affān and presented Ḥafṣa (for marriage) to him. He said, 'I will think it over.' I waited for a few days, then he met me and said, 'It seems that it is not possible for me to marry at present.' "‘Umar further said, ‘I met Abū Bakr As-Ṣiddiq and said to him, 'If you wish, I will marry my daughter Ḥafṣa to you.' Abū Bakr kept quiet and did not say anything to me in reply. I became more angry with him than with ‘Uthmān. I waited for a few days and then Allāh's Messenger asked for her hand, and I gave her in marriage to him. Afterwards I met Abū Bakr who said,
Perhaps you became angry with me when you presented Hafsa to me and I did not give you a reply?’ I said, ‘Yes.’ Abū Bakr said, ‘Nothing stopped me to respond to your offer except that I knew that Allāh’s Messenger had mentioned her, and I never wanted to let out the secret of Allāh’s Messenger. And if Allāh’s Messenger had refused her, I would have accepted her.’

5123. Narrated Zainab bint Salama:
Umm Ḥabība said to Allāh’s Messenger, “We have heard that you want to marry Durra bint Abū Salama.” Allāh’s Messenger said, “Can she be married along with Umm Salama (her mother)? Even if I have not married Umm Salama, she would not be lawful for me to marry, for her father is my foster suckling brother.”

(35) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh:
“And there is no sin on you if you make a hint of betrothal or conceal it in yourself, Allāh knows... (up to)... Oft-Forgiving, Most Forbearing.” (V2:235)

5124. Ibn ‘Abbās said: “Hint your intention of marrying” is made by saying (to the widow) for example: ‘I want to marry, and I wish that Allāh will make a righteous lady available for me’. Al-Qāsim said: One may say to the widow: ‘I hold all respect for you, and I am interested in you; Allāh will bring you much good,’ or something similar.

‘Ātā said: One should hint his intention, and should not declare it openly. One may say: ‘I have some need. Have good tidings. Praise is to Allāh; you are fit to remarry.’ She (the widow) may say in reply: ‘I am listening to what you say,’ but she should not make a promise. Her guardian should not make a promise (to somebody to get her married to him) without her knowledge. But if, while still in the ‘Iddat period, she makes a promise to marry somebody, and he ultimately marries her, they are not to be separated by divorce (i.e., the marriage is valid).

(36) CHAPTER. (It is permissible) to look at a woman before marrying her.

5125. Narrated ‘Āishah: Allah’s Messenger said (to me), “You were shown to me in a dream. An angel brought you to me, wrapped in a piece of silken cloth, and said to me, 'This is your wife.' I removed the piece of cloth from your face, and there you were. I said to myself, 'If it is from Allâh, then it will surely be accomplished.'

5126. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: A woman came to Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! I have come to you to present myself to you (for marriage).” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ glanced at her. He looked at her carefully and fixed his glance on her and then lowered his head. When the lady saw that he did not say anything, she sat down. A man from his companions got up and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! If you are not in need of her, then marry her to me.”

The Prophet ﷺ said, “Have you got anything to offer?” The man said, “No, by Allâh, O Allâh’s Messenger!” The Prophet ﷺ said (to him), “Go to your family and try to find something.” So the man went and returned, saying, “No, by Allâh, O Allâh’s Messenger! I have not found anything.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Go again and look for something, even if it were an iron ring.” He went and returned, saying, “No, by Allâh, O Allâh’s Messenger! I could not find even an iron ring, but this is my Izâr (waistsheet).” He had no Rûdâ (upper garment). He added, “I give half of it to her.” Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “What will she do with your Izâr? If you wear it, she will have nothing over herself thereof (will be naked); and if she wears it, then you will have nothing over yourself thereof.” So the man sat for a long period and then got up (to leave). When Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ saw him leaving, he ordered that he be called back. When he came, the Prophet ﷺ asked (him), “How much of the Qur'an do you know (by heart)?” The man replied, “I know such سورة and such سورة and such سورة,” naming the سورة. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Can you recite them by heart?” He said, “Yes.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Go, I let you marry her for what you know of the Qur'an.”

(37) CHAPTER. Whoever said, A marriage is not valid except through the Wali (i.e. her father or her brother or her relative etc.)

By virtue of the Statement of Allah ﷻ:

“And when you have divorced women and they have fulfilled the term of their prescribed period, then do not prevent them...” (V.2:232)

And this order includes the matron as well as the virgin. Allah ﷻ also said:

“Do not marry Al-Mushrikât (idolatresses etc.) till they believe (i.e., worship Allah Alone).” (V.2:221)

And Allah ﷻ also said:

“Marry those among you who are single.” (V.24:32)

5127. Narrated 'Urwa bin Az-Zubair: ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ told him that there were four types of marriage during the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance. One type was similar to that of the present day, i.e., a man used to ask somebody else for the hand of a girl under his guardianship or for his daughter's hand, and give her Mahr and then marry her. The second type was that a man would say to his wife after she had become clean from her period, “Send for so-and-so and have sexual relations with him.” Her husband would then keep away from her and would never sleep with her till she got pregnant from the other man with whom she was sleeping. When her pregnancy became evident, her husband would sleep with her if he wished. Her husband did so (i.e., let his wife sleep with some other man) so that he might have a child of noble breed. Such marriage was called Al-Isbrd. Another type of marriage was that a group of less than ten men would assemble and enter upon a woman, and all of them would have sexual relation with her. If she became pregnant and delivered a child and some days had passed after her delivery, she would send for all of them and none of them would refuse to come, and when they all gathered before her, she would say to them, “You (all) know what you have done, and now I have given birth to a child. So, it is your child, O so-and-so!” naming whoever she liked, and her child would follow him and he could not refuse to take him. The fourth type of marriage was that many people would enter upon a lady and she would never refuse anyone who came to her. Those were the prostitutes who used to fix flags at their doors as signs, and he who wished, could have sexual intercourse with them. If anyone of them got pregnant and delivered a child, then all those men would be gathered for her and they would call the Qaif (persons skilled in recognizing the likeness of a child to his father) to them and would let the child follow the man (whom they recognized as his father) and she would let him adhere to him and be called his son. The man could not refuse all that. But when Muhammad was sent with the Truth, he abolished all the types of marriages observed in the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance except the type of marriage the people recognize today.

5128. Narrated ‘Aishah as regards the Verse—

“And about what is recited unto you in the Book, concerning the orphan girls whom you give not the prescribed portions (as regards Mahr and inheritance) and yet, whom you desire to marry…” (V.4:127):

This Verse is about the female orphan who is under the guardianship of a man with whom she shares her property and he has more right over her (than anybody else) but does not like to marry her, so he prevents her, from marrying somebody else, lest he should share the property with him.

5129. Narrated (‘Abdullâh) bin ‘Umar: When Ḥafṣa, ‘Umar’s daughter became a widow because of the death of her (husband) Ibn Hudhâfa As-Sahmi, who was one of the companion of the Prophet and the one of the Badr warriors and died at Al-Madina, ‘Umar said, “I met ‘Uthinân bin ‘Affân and gave him an offer saying, ‘If you wish, I will marry Ḥafṣa to you.’ He said, ‘I will think it over.’ I waited for a few days, then he met me and said, ‘I have made up my mind not to marry at present’.” ‘Umar added, “Then I met Abû Bakr and said to him, ‘If you wish, I will marry Ḥafṣa to you’.” (See H. 5122)
5130. Narrated Al-Hasan concerning the Verse –
“...do not prevent them [from marrying their (former) husbands]...” (V.2:232):
Ma‘quïl bin Yasãr told me that it was revealed in his connection. He said, “I married my sister to a man and he divorced her, and when her days of ‘Idda (three menstrual periods) were over, the man came again and asked for her hand, but I said to him, ‘I married her to you and made her your bed (your wife) and favoured you with her, but you divorced her. Now you come to ask for her hand again? No, by Allah, she will never go back to you (again)!” That man was not a bad man and his wife wanted to go back to him. So Allah revealed this Verse:
‘...do not prevent them [from marrying their (former) husbands]...’ (V.2:232)
So I said, ‘Now I will do it (let her go back to him), O Allah’s Messenger’.” So he married her to him again.

(38) CHAPTER. If the guardian himself is the suitor (of the lady in his charge) (can he marry her to himself or should another guardian marry her to him)?
Al-Mughira bin Shu‘ba asked for the hand of a lady in marriage and he was the nearest guardian to her, so he asked another man to marry her to him. And ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin ‘Auf asked Umm Ḥakim, Qârîz’s daughter, “Do you entrust the question of your marriage to me?” She said, “Yes.” He said to her, “I have married you.” ‘Aṭâ [being asked about a lady whom the only (near) relative she had wanted to marry] said, “Let him make some people witness his saying, ‘I have married you,’ or ask a man from her kinsfolk (to marry her to him).” And Sahl said, “A woman said to the Prophet, ‘I present myself (for marriage) to you.’ Then a man said, ‘O Allâh’s Messenger! If you are not in need of her then please marry her to me’.

5131. Narrated ‘Aishah (regarding His Statement) –

“They ask your legal instruction concerning women. Say: Allâh instructs you about them…” (V. 4:127):

It is about the female orphan who is under the guardianship of a man with whom she shares her property and he does not want to marry her and dislikes that someone else should marry her, lest he should share the property with him, so he prevents her from marrying. So Allâh forbade such a guardian to do so (i.e. to prevent her from marrying).

5132. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: While we were sitting in the company of the Prophet a woman came to him and presented herself (for marriage) to him. The Prophet looked at her, lowering his eyes and raising them, but did not give a reply. One of his Companions said, “Marry her to me. O Allâh’s Messenger!” The Prophet asked (him), “Have you got anything?” He said, “I have got nothing.” The Prophet said, “Not even an iron ring?” He said, “Not even an iron ring, but I will tear my garment into two halves and give her one half and keep the other half.” The Prophet said, “No. Do you know some of the Qur’ân (by heart)?” He said, “Yes.” The Prophet said, “Go, I have agreed to marry her to you with what you know of the Qur’ân (by heart).”
(39) CHAPTER. Giving one’s young children in marriage (is permissible).

By virtue of the Statement of Allâh:
“...and for those who have no (monthly) courses (i.e. they are still immature)...”
(V.65:4)

And the ‘Idda for the girl before puberty is three months (in the above Verse).

5133. Narrated ‘Aishah that the Prophet wrote the marriage contract with her when she was six years old and he consummated his marriage when she was nine years old, and then she remained with him for nine years (i.e. till his death).

(40) CHAPTER. The marrying of a daughter by her father to a ruler.

And ‘Umar said, “The Prophet asked for the hand of (my daughter) Hafsa, and I married (her to) him.”

5134. Narrated ‘Aishah that the Prophet wrote the marriage contract with her when she was six years old and he consummated his marriage when she was nine years old. Hishâm said: “I have been informed that ‘Aishah remained with the Prophet for nine years (i.e. till his death).”

(41) CHAPTER. The ruler is regarded as a guardian (of the lady who has no relative to be her guardian) as is inferred from the statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “We have married her (that lady) to you for what you know of the Qur’an (by heart).”

5135. Narrated Sahl bin S’ad: A woman came to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “I present myself (to you) (for marriage).” She stayed for a long while, then a man said, “If you are not in need of her, then marry her to me.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Have you got anything in order to pay her Mahr?” He said, “I have nothing with me except my Izâr (waistsheet).” The Prophet ﷺ said, “If you give her your Izâr, you will have no Izâr to wear, (so go) and search for something.” He said, “I could not find anything.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Try (to find something), even if it were an iron ring.” But he was not able to find (even that). The Prophet ﷺ said (to him), “Have you in your memory something of the Qur’an?” He said, “Yes, such Sûrah and such Sûrah,” naming those Sûrah. The Prophet ﷺ said, “We have married her to you for what you know of the Qur’an (by heart).”

(42) CHAPTER. The father or the guardian cannot give a virgin or matron in marriage without her consent.

5136. Narrated Abû Hurairah ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ said, “A matron should not be given in marriage except after consulting her; and a virgin should not be given in marriage except after her permission.” The people asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! How can we know her permission?” He said, “Her silence (indicates her permission).”
5137. Narrated 'Aishah: I said, "O Allah's Messenger! A virgin feels shy." He said, "Her consent is (expressed by) her silence."

(43) CHAPTER. If a man gives his daughter in marriage while she is averse to it (in disagreement), then such marriage is invalid.

5138. Narrated Khansâ’ bint Khidâm Al-Anşâriya that her father gave her in marriage when she was a matron and she disliked that marriage. So she went to Allah’s Messenger and he declared that marriage invalid.

5139. Narrated ‘Abdur-Rahmân bin Yazid and Majammi’ bin Yazid. The same Hadîth No. 5138 above: A man called Khidâm married a daughter of his (to somebody) against her consent.

(44) CHAPTER. The giving of an orphan girl in marriage.
According to the Statement of Allāh :

“If you fear that you shall not be able to deal justly with the orphan girls, then marry (other)…” (V.4:3)

And if somebody says to the guardian (of a woman), “Marry me to so-and-so,” and the guardian remained silent or said to him “What have you got?” And the other said, “I have so much and so much (Mahr),” or kept quiet, and then the guardian said, “I have married her to you,” then the marriage is valid (legal). This narration was told by Sahl on the authority of the Prophet ﷺ.

5140. Narrated ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair that he asked ‘Aishah ﷺ, saying to her, “O Mother! (in what connection was this Verse revealed):

‘If you fear that you shall not be able to deal justly with orphan girls (to the end of the verse)... that your right hands possess’?” (V.4:3)

‘Aishah ﷺ said, “O my nephew! It was about the female orphan under the protection of her guardian who was interested in her beauty and wealth and wanted to marry her with a little or reduced Mahr. So such guardians were forbidden to marry female orphans unless they deal with them justly and give their full Mahr; and they were ordered to marry women other than them.” ‘Aishah ﷺ added, “(Later) the people asked Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ for instructions, and then Allāh revealed:

‘They ask your legal instruction concerning the women... And yet whom you desire to marry.’ (V.4:127)

So Allāh revealed to them in this Verse that if a female orphan had wealth and beauty, they desired to marry her and were interested in her noble descent and the reduction of her Mahr; but if she was not desired by them because of her lack in... fortune and beauty they left her and married some other woman. So, as they used to leave her when they had no interest in her, they had no right to marry her if they had the desire to do so, unless they deal justly with her and gave her a full amount of Mahr.”

(45) CHAPTER. If the suitor says (to the guardian of a woman), “Marry me to so-and-so,” and the guardian says, “I have married her to you for such and such amount of Mahr,” then the marriage is valid even if he does not ask the husband, “Have you agreed or have you accepted (her)?”

5141. Narrated Sahl: A woman came to the Prophet and presented herself to him (for marriage). He said, “I am not in need of women these days.” Then a man said, “0 Allâh’s Messenger! Marry her to me.” The Prophet asked him, “What have you got?” He said, “I have got nothing.” The Prophet asked (him), “How much of the Qur’ân do you know (by heart)?” He said, “So much and so much. The Prophet said, “I have married her to you for what you know of the Qur’ân (by heart).”

(46) CHAPTER. None should ask for the hand of a lady who is already engaged to his brother (Muslim), but one should wait till the first suitor marries her or leaves her.

5142. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet decreed that one should not try to cancel a bargain already agreed upon between some persons (by offering a bigger price). And a man should not ask for the hand of a lady who is already engaged to his Muslim brother, unless the first suitor gives her up, or allows him to ask for her hand.

5143. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Beware of suspicion, as suspicion is the worst of false talk, and do not do spying on one another, and do not look for others' faults and listen to the evil talk of the people about others' affairs, and do not hate one another, but be brothers.” [See H. 6064 and 6066]

5144. “And none should ask for the hand of a lady who is already engaged to his (Muslim) brother, but one should wait till the first suitor marries her or leaves her.” [See H. No. 2140, Vol 3.]

(47) CHAPTER. (What is said regarding the meaning of the cancelling of the engagement.

5145. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar: When Ḥafṣa became a widow, 'Umar said, “I met Abū Bakr and said to him, ‘If you wish I will many Ijafa hint 'Umar to you.’ I waited for a few days then Allāh’s Messenger asked for her hand. Later Abū Bakr met me and said, ‘Nothing stopped me from returning to you concerning your offer except that I knew that Allāh’s Messenger had mentioned (his wish to marry) her, and I could never let out the secret of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ. If he had left her, I would have accepted her’."

(48) CHAPTER. Al-Khuṭba (for Nikāḥ) (a speech delivered at the time of concluding the marriage contract).

5146. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Two men came from the east and delivered speeches, and the Prophet ﷺ said, “Some eloquent speech has the influence of magic (e.g., some people refuse to do something and then a good eloquent speaker addresses them and then they agree to do that very thing after his speech).”

(49) CHAPTER. Beating the tambourine during the Nikāḥ (marriage ceremony) and the Walima (wedding banquet).

5147. Narrated Ar-Rabi’, the daughter of Mua’wīyidh bin ‘Afrā’: After the consummation of my marriage, the Prophet ﷺ came and sat on my bed as far from me as you are sitting now, and our little girls started beating the tambourines and reciting elegiac verses mourning my father(1) who had been killed in the battle of Badr. One of them said, “Among us is a Prophet who knows what will happen tomorrow.” On that the

(1) (H. 5147) Her father and two uncles had been killed in the battle of Badr. By saying, “My fathers” she meant that her two uncles were as dear to her as her father was.
Prophet ﷺ said, “Leave this (saying)(1) and keep on saying the verses which you had been saying before.”

(50) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh ﷻ:

“And give to the women (whom you marry) their Mahr (obligatory bridal money given by the husband to his wife at the time of marriage) with a good heart...” (V.4:4)

“...what are the maximum and minimum amounts of money to be paid as Mahr.

And the Statement of Allâh ﷻ:

“If you have given one of them a cantar (of gold i.e. a great amount) as Mahr (bridal money given by the husband to his wife at the time of marriage) take not the least bit of it, back”. (V.4:20)

And also the Statement of Allâh ﷻ:

“Nor appointed to them their Mahr.” (V.2:236)

And Sahîl said: The Prophet ﷺ said (to a man), “You should bring even an iron ring (as Mahr).”

5148. Narrated Anas: Ṭabdûd bin ‘Auf married a woman and gave her gold equal to the weight of a date stone (as Mahr). When the Prophet ﷺ noticed the signs of cheerfulness of the marriage (on his face) and asked him about it, he said, “I have married a woman and gave (her) gold equal to a date stone in weight (as Mahr).”

(1) (H. 5147) The Prophet ﷺ forbade the girl to say so, because none knows the future except Allâh.
(51) CHAPTER. To marry (a lady to) a man for what he knows of the Qur’an (by heart) and without paying any Mahr.

5149. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d As-Sâ’idi:
While I was (sitting) among the people in the company of Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ a woman stood up and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! She has given herself (in marriage) to you; please give your opinion about her.” (1) The Prophet ﷺ did not give her any reply. She again stood up and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! She has given herself (in marriage) to you; please give your opinion about her.” The Prophet ﷺ did not give her any reply. She again stood up for the third time and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! She has given herself in marriage to you; so give your opinion about her.” So a man stood up and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Marry her to me.” The Prophet ﷺ asked him, “Have you got anything?” He said, “No.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Go and search for something even if it were an iron ring.” The man went and searched and then returned saying, “I could not find anything, not even an iron ring.” Then the Prophet ﷺ said, “Do you know some of the Qur’an (by heart)?” He replied, “I know (by heart) such Sûrah and such Sûrah.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Go! I have married her to you for what you know of the Qur’an (by heart).”

(52) CHAPTER. To give Mahr in the form of material things (other than money) and in the form of a ring made of iron.

(1) (H. 5149) The speaker uses the third person instead of the first person which she intends.
5150. Narrated Sahl bin Sa'd: The Prophet said to a man, “Marry, even with (a Mahr equal to) an iron ring.”

(53) CHAPTER. The conditions stipulated in the marriage (contract).

And 'Umar said: The rights are decided by the conditions (stipulated during the wedding). And Al-Miswar bin Makhrama said: The Prophet mentioned his son-in-law. He said, “He told me the truth whenever he talked to me, and whenever he promised me, he kept his promise.”

5151. Narrated 'Uqba: The Prophet said: “The conditions most entitled to be abided by are those (of wedding contract) with which you are given the right to enjoy the (women’s) private parts (i.e. the stipulations of the marriage contract).”

(54) CHAPTER. The conditions that are not lawful in the marriage contract.

And Ibn Mas'ud said: A woman should not stipulate (at the time of the wedding) the divorce of her (Muslim) sister (the other wife of her would-be husband).

5152. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “It is not lawful for a woman (at the time of wedding) to ask for the divorce of her sister (i.e. the other wife of her would be husband) in order to have everything for herself for she will take only what has been foreordained (by Allāh) for her.”
(55) CHAPTER. The Ṣufra (yellow coloured perfume) for a bridegroom.

This has been said by 'Abdur-Rahmān bin 'Auf on the authority of the Prophet ﷺ.

5153. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: 'Abdur-Rahmān bin 'Auf came to Allah's Messenger ﷺ and he had marks of Ṣufra (yellow perfume). Allah's Messenger ﷺ asked him (about those marks). 'Abdur-Rahmān bin 'Auf told him that he had married a woman from the Ansār. The Prophet ﷺ asked, “How much Mahr did you pay her?” He said, “I paid gold equal to the weight of a date stone.” Allah's Messenger ﷺ said to him, “Give a wedding banquet, even with one sheep.”

(56) CHAPTER.

5154. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: The Prophet ﷺ offered a wedding banquet on the occasion of his marriage to Zainab, and provided a good meal for the Muslims. Then he went out as was his custom on marrying, he came to the dwelling places of the Mothers of the believers (i.e. his wives) invoking good (on them), and they were invoking good (on him). Then he departed (and came back) and saw two men (still sitting there). So he left again. I do not remember whether I informed him or he was informed (by somebody else) of their departure.”

(57) CHAPTER. How to invoke good upon a person who has married recently?
5155. Narrated Anas: The Prophet saw the traces of Sufra (yellow perfume) on Abdur-Rahmân bin ‘Auf and said, “What is this?” ‘Abdur-Rahmân said, “I have married a woman and have paid gold equal to the weight of a date stone (as her Mahr).” The Prophet said to him, “May Allah bless you. Offer a wedding banquet even with one sheep.”

(58) CHAPTER. The invocation of those women who prepare the bride (for her and for the bridegroom).

5156. Narrated ‘Aishah: When the Prophet married me, my mother came to me and made me enter the house where I saw some women from the Ansâr who said, “(Best wishes and Allah’s Blessings) may you prosper and have blessings and a good luck.” (See H. 3894)

(59) CHAPTER. Whoever preferred to consummate his marriage before going on a military campaign.

5157. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet said, “A Prophet among the Prophets went for a military expedition and said to his people: ‘A man who has married a lady and wants to consummate his marriage with her and he has not done so yet, should not accompany me.’” [See H. No. 3124. Vol. 4.]
(60) CHAPTER. Whoever consummated his marriage with a lady of nine years of age.

5158. Narrated 'Urwah: The Prophet ﷺ wrote the (marriage contract) with 'Aisha while she was six years old and consummated his marriage with her while she was nine years old and she remained with him for nine years (i.e. till his death).

(61) CHAPTER. The consummation of marriage during a journey.

5159. Narrated Anas: The Prophet ﷺ stayed for three days at a place between Khaibar and Al-Madina, and there he consummated his marriage with Safiyya bint Huyai. I invited the Muslims to a banquet which included neither meat nor bread. The Prophet ﷺ ordered for the leather dining sheets to be spread, and then dates, dried yoghurt and butter were provided over it, and that was the Walima (a wedding banquet) of the Prophet. The Muslims asked whether Safiyya would be considered as his wife or as a slave girl of what his right hands possessed. Then they said, “If the Prophet ﷺ screens her from the people, then she is the Prophet’s wife but if he does not screen her, then she is a slave girl.” So when the Prophet ﷺ proceeded, he made a place for her (on the camel) behind him and screened her from people.

(62) CHAPTER. Consummation of marriage during the daytime without a marriage procession or lighting of fires.

5160. Narrated 'Aishah: When the Prophet ﷺ married me, my mother came... to me and made me enter the house (of the Prophet) and nothing surprised me but the coming of Allāh’s Messenger to me in the forenoon.

(63) CHAPTER. The Anmāt (curtains, beddings, etc.) and similar things designed for the women.

5161. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: Allāh’s Messenger сказал, “Did you have Anmāt?” I said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! From where can we have Anmāt?” The Prophet said, “Soon you will have them (Anmāt).”

(64) CHAPTER. The women who present the lady to her husband and their invocations for Allāh’s blessings upon them.

5162. Narrated ‘Aishah that she prepared a lady for a man from the Ansār as his bride and the Prophet said, “O ‘Aishah! Haven’t you got any amusement (during the marriage ceremony) as the Ansār like amusement?”

(65) CHAPTER. The giving of a present to the bridegroom.

5163. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: “Whenever the Prophet passed by (my mother) Umm Sulaim, he used to enter her..."
(dwelling place) and greet her. Anas further said: Once the Prophet was a bridegroom during his marriage with Zainab, Umm Sulaim said to me, “Let us give a gift to Allâh’s Messenger.” I said to her, “Do it.” So she prepared Haisa (a sweet dish) made from dates, butter and dried yoghourt and she sent it with me to him. I took it to him and he said, “Put it down,” and ordered me to call some men whom he named, and to invite whomever I would meet. I did what he ordered me to do, and when I returned, I found the house crowded with people and saw the Prophet keeping his hand over the Haisa and saying over it whatever Allâh wished (him to say). Then he called the men in batches of ten to eat of it, and he said to them, “Mention the Name of Allâh, and each man should eat of the dish the nearest to him.” When all of them had finished their meals, some of them left and a few remained there talking, which made me feel unhappy. Then the Prophet went out towards the dwelling places (of his wives) and I too, went out after him and told him that those people had left. Then he returned and entered his dwelling place and let the curtains fall while I was in (his) dwelling place, and he was reciting the Verses:

‘O you who believe! Enter not the Prophet’s house unless permission is given to you for a meal, (and then) not (so early as) to wait for its preparation. But when you are invited, enter, and when you have taken your meals, disperse without sitting for a talk. Verily, such (behaviour) annoys the Prophet; and he is shy of (asking) you to go, but Allâh is not shy of (telling you) the truth...” (V.33-53)

Abû ‘Uthmân said: Anas said, “I served the Prophet for ten years.”
(66) CHAPTER. To borrow the clothes, etc. for the bride.

5164.Narrated ‘Aishah that she borrowed a necklace from Asmə‘ and then it got lost. So Allah’s Messenger sent some people from his companions in search of it. In the meantime the stated time for the Salāt (prayer) became due and they offered their Salāt (prayer) without ablution. When they came to the Prophet, they complained about it to him, so the Verse regarding Tayammum was revealed.

Usaid bin Ḥudair said, “(O ‘Aishah!) may Allah bless you with a good reward, for by Allah, never did a difficulty happen in connection with you, but Allah prepared a way out from it for you, and brought Allah’s Blessings for the Muslims.”

(67) CHAPTER. What a man should say on having a sexual intercourse with his wife.

5165. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The Prophet said, “If anyone of you, when having sexual intercourse with his wife, says: Bismillah, Allāhumma jannibnish-Shaitān wa jannibish-Shaitān ma razaqtana,” and if it is

(1) (H. 5165) This invocation means: ‘In the Name of Allah! O Allah! Protect me from Satan and protect from Satan what You bestow upon us (i.e. an offspring).’
destined that they should have a child, then Satan will never be able to harm him.”

(68) CHAPTER. The Walima (wedding banquet) is obligatory.

And ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin ‘Auf said, “The Prophet ﷺ said to me, “Give a wedding banquet, even with one sheep.”

5166. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: I was ten years old when Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ arrived at Al-Madīnah. My mother and aunts used to urge me to serve the Prophet ﷺ regularly, and I served him for ten years. When the Prophet ﷺ died I was twenty years old, and I knew about the order of Al-Hijāb (veiling of ladies) more than any other person when it was revealed. It was revealed for the first time when Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ had consummated his marriage with Zainab bint Jahsh. When the day dawned, the Prophet ﷺ was a bridegroom and he invited the people to a banquet, so they came, ate, and then all left except a few who remained with the Prophet ﷺ for a long time. The Prophet ﷺ got up and went out, and I too went out with him so that those people might leave too. The Prophet ﷺ proceeded and so did I, till he came to the threshold of ‘Aishah’s dwelling place. Then thinking that these people have left by then, he returned and so did I along with him till he entered upon Zainab and behold, they were still sitting and had not gone. So the Prophet ﷺ again went away and I went away along with him. When we reached the threshold of ‘Aishah dwelling place, he thought that they had left, and so he returned and I too, returned along with him and found those people had left. Then the Prophet drew a curtain between me and him, and the Verses of Al-Hijab were revealed.

(69) CHAPTER. Al-Walima (the wedding banquet) is recommended to be given even if one sheep is presented therein.

5167. Narrated Anas: When 'Abdur-Rahmân bin 'Auf married an Ansâri woman, the Prophet asked him, “How much Mahr did you give her?” 'Abdur-Rahmân said, “Gold equal to the weight of a date stone.” Anas added: When they (i.e. the Prophet and his Companions) arrived at Al-Madina, the emigrants stayed at the Ansâr’s houses. 'Abdur-Rahmân bin 'Auf stayed at Sa’d bin Ar-Rabi’s house. Sa’d said to 'Abdur-Rahmân, “I will divide and share my property with you and will give one of my two wives to you.” 'Abdur-Rahmân said, “May Allah bless you, your wives and property (I am not in need of that; but kindly show me the way to the market).” So 'Abdur-Rahmân went to the market and traded there gaining a profit of some dried yoghurt and butter, and married (an Ansâri woman). The Prophet said to him, “Give a Walima (wedding banquet), even with one sheep.”

5168. Narrated Anas: The Prophet did not give a better Walima (wedding banquet) on the occasion of marrying any of his wives than the one he gave on marrying Zainab, and he gave that Walima (wedding banquet) with one sheep.

5169.Narrated Anas: Allah's Messenger manumitted Safiyya and then married her, and her Mahr was her manumission, and he gave a Walima (wedding banquet) with Hais (a sort of sweet dish made from butter, cheese and dates).

5170. Narrated Anas: The Prophet consummated his marriage with a woman (Zainab), so he sent me to invite men to the meals. (See H. 4791)

(70) CHAPTER. Whoever gave a bigger Walima (wedding banquet) on marrying some of his wives than on marrying the other wives of his.

5171. Narrated Thābit: The marriage of Zainab bint Jahsh was mentioned in the presence of Anas and he said, "I did not see the Prophet giving a better Walima (wedding banquet) on marrying any of his wives than the one he gave on marrying Zainab. He gave that Walima (wedding banquet) with one sheep."

(71) CHAPTER. Whoever gave a Walima (wedding banquet) of less than one sheep.

5172. Narrated Šafīyya bint Šaibā: The Prophet gave a Walima (wedding banquet) with two Mudd of barley on marrying some of his wives. (1 Mudd = 3/4 of a kilogram).
(72) CHAPTER. It is obligatory to accept the invitation to a Walīma (wedding banquet) and other invitations. And whoever gave a Walīma (wedding banquet) for seven days or somewhat like.

The Prophet ﷺ did not decree that the Walīma should be given for one or two days.

5173. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar رضي الله عنهم: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “If anyone of you is invited to a Walīma (wedding banquet), he must go for it.”

5174. Narrated Abū Mūsā: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Set the captives free, accept the invitation (to a wedding banquet), and visit the patients.”

5175. Narrated Al-Bār’ bin ‘Azīb رضي الله عنهم: The Prophet ﷺ ordered us to do seven (things) and forbade us from seven. He ordered us to visit the patients, to follow the funeral procession, to reply to the sneezer (i.e., say to him: ‘Yarhamukallāh (May Allāh bestow His Mercy upon you)’, if he says ‘Al-ḥamdu’llillāh (Praise be to Allāh)’, to help others to fulfil their oaths, to help the oppressed, propagate As-Salām [(greeting) i.e. to greet one another], and to accept the invitation (to a wedding banquet). He forbade us to wear golden rings, to use silver utensils, to use Mayāthr (cushions of silk stuffed with cotton and placed under the rider on the saddle), the Qassiyā (linen clothes containing silk brought from an
(73) CHAPTER. If somebody refuses an invitation [to a Walima (wedding banquet)] he indeed disobeys Alläh and His Messenger ﷺ.

5176. Narrated Sahil bin Sa’d: Abû Usaid As-Sâ’dî invited Alläh’s Messenger ﷺ to his wedding party and his wife who was the bride, served them on that day. Do you know what drink she gave Alläh’s Messenger ﷺ? She had soaked some dates for him (in water) overnight, and when he had finished his meal she gave him that drink (of soaked dates).

5177. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The worst food is that of a Walima (wedding banquet) to which only the rich are invited while the poor are not invited. And he who refuses an invitation (to a banquet) disobeys Alläh and His Messenger ﷺ.

5178. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “If I am invited to a meal of trotters...”

(1) (H. 5175) Gold rings and silk clothes are forbidden for men but not for women while the silver utensils are forbidden for all.
meal of trotters I will accept it; and if I am given a trotter as a present I will accept it.”

(75) CHAPTER. To accept the invitation to a wedding party or any other party.

5179. Narrated Nāfi’: ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar ṭaṣlīhiya, “Allāh’s Messenger ṭaṣlīhiya said, ‘Accept the marriage invitation if you are invited to it’.”

Ibn ‘Umar used to accept the invitation whether to a wedding banquet or to any other party, even when he was fasting.

(76) CHAPTER. The attendance of women and children at a wedding party.

5180. Narrated Anas bin Mālik ṭaṣlīhiya, “Once the Prophet ṭaṣlīhiya saw some women and children coming from a wedding party. He got up energetically and happily and said, “By Allāh! You (i.e., the Ansār) are the most beloved of all people to me.”

(77) CHAPTER. Should a person return if he sees something disapproved of (from the standpoint of religion) in the party?

Ibn Mas‘ūd saw a picture in a house and went away. Ibn ‘Umar invited Abū Ayyūb, and the latter saw a curtain on the wall. So Ibn ‘Umar said, “We have been overpowered by the women in this matter.” Abū Ayyūb said, “I was afraid that some people might do such a deed but I never thought that you would do so, By Allāh, I will not eat anything of your food.” And so Abū Ayyūb returned.

5181. Narrated ‘Āishah the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: I bought a cushion having on it pictures (of animals). When Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ saw it, he stood at the door and did not enter. I noticed the sign of disapproval on his face and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! I repent to Allāh and His Messenger. What sin have I committed?” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “What is this cushion?” I said, “I have bought it for you so that you may sit on it and recline on it.” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The makers of these pictures will be punished on the Day of Resurrection, and it will be said to them, ‘Give life to what you have created (i.e., these pictures).’” The Prophet ﷺ added, “The angels of (mercy) do not enter a house in which there are pictures.” [See Fath Al-Bārî for details about pictures].

(78) CHAPTER. The attendance and serving of the lady (bride) herself for the men at (her) marriage party.

5182. Narrated Sahl: When Abū Usaid As-Sādî got married, he invited the Prophet ﷺ and his Companions. None prepared the food for them and brought it to them but his wife. She soaked some dates in water in a stone pot overnight, and when the Prophet ﷺ had finished his food, she provided him with that drink (of soaked dates).
(79) CHAPTER. An-Naqi' (juice obtained from dried dates soaked in water) and other drinks that are not intoxicant, served at a wedding party.

5183. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: Abu Usaid As-Sa’idi invited the Prophet to his wedding party and his wife served him on that day, and she was the bride. She said (or Sahl said), “Do you know what she soaked for Allah’s Messenger? She soaked some dates for him (in water) in a drinking bowl overnight.”

(80) CHAPTER. To be polite and kind to the women.

And the saying of the Prophet : “The woman is like a rib.”

5184. Narrated Abu Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “The woman is like a rib; if you try to straighten her, you will break her. So if you want to get benefit from her, do so while she still has some crookedness.”

(81) CHAPTER. The exhortation of taking care of the women.
5185.Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Whoever believes in Allah and the Last Day should not harm his neighbour.”

5186. (The Prophet added:) “And I command you to take care of the women in a good manner for they are created from a rib and the most crooked portion of the rib is its upper part; if you try to straighten it, you will break it, and if you leave it, it will remain crooked, so I command you to take care of the women in a good manner.”

5187. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: During the lifetime of the Prophet, we used to avoid chatting leisurely and freely with our wives lest some Divine Revelation might be revealed concerning us. But when the Prophet died, we started chatting leisurely and freely (with them).

(82) CHAPTER. “(O you who believe)! Ward off from yourself and your families a Fire (Hell) whose fuel is men and stones…” (V.66:6)

5188. Narrated ‘Abdullāh (bin ‘Umar): The Prophet said, “Everyone of you is a guardian and everyone of you is responsible (for his wards). A ruler is a guardian and is responsible (for his subjects); a man is a guardian of his family and responsible (for them); a wife is a guardian of her husband’s house and she is responsible (for it); a slave is a guardian of his master's property and is responsible (for that). Beware! All of you are guardians and are responsible (for your wards).” (See H. 893)

(83) CHAPTER. To treat one's family in a polite and kind manner.

5189. Narrated ’Aishah رضي الله عنها: Eleven women sat (at a place) and promised and contracted that they would not conceal anything of the news of their husbands. The first one said, “My husband is like the meat of a lean weak camel which is kept on the top of a mountain which is neither easy to climb, nor is the meat fat, so that one might put up with the trouble of fetching it.”(1) The second one said, “I shall not relate my husband's news, for I fear that I may not be able to finish his story, for if I describe him, I will mention all his defects and bad traits.” The third one said, “My husband is a tall man; if I describe him (and he hears of that) he will divorce me, and if I keep quiet, he will neither divorce me nor treat me as a wife.” The fourth one said, “My husband is a moderate person like the night of Tihama which is neither hot nor cold. I am neither afraid of him, nor am I discontented with him.” The fifth one said, “My husband, when entering (the house) is a leopard, and when going out, is a lion. He does not ask about whatever is in the house.”(2) The sixth one said, “If my husband eats, he eats too much (leaving the dishes empty), and if he

(1) (H. 5189) Her husband was bad in behaviour, worthless, arrogant and miserly.
(2) (H. 5189) She compares her husband with a leopard which is well-known for being shy, harmless and fond of too much sleep. She compares him with a lion when he is out for fighting. Besides, he does not interfere in the home affairs, e.g., he does not ask her how much she has spent, nor does he criticise any fault he may notice.
drinks he leaves nothing, and if he sleeps he sleeps alone (away from me) covered in garments and does not stretch his hands here and there so as to know how I fare (get along).” The seventh one said, “My husband is a wrongdoer or weak and foolish. All the defects are present in him. He may injure your head or your body or may do both.” The eighth one said, “My husband is a tall generous man wearing a long strap for carrying his sword,(1) His ashes are abundant(2) and his house is near to the people who would easily consult him.”(3)

The tenth one said, “My husband is Malik, and what is Malik? Malik is greater than whatever I say about him. (He is beyond and above all praises which can come to my mind). Most of his camels are kept at home (ready to be slaughtered for the guests) and only a few are taken to the pastures. When the camels hear the sound of the lute (or the tambourine) they realize that they are going to be slaughtered for the guests.” The eleventh one said, “My husband is Abu Zar’a, and what is Abu Zar’a (i.e., what should I say about him)? He has given me many ornaments and my ears are heavily loaded with them and my arms have become fat (i.e., I have become fat). And he has pleased me, and I have become so happy that I feel proud of myself. He found me with my family who were mere owners of sheep and living in poverty, and brought me to a respected family having horses and camels and threshing and purifying grain(4).

(1) (H. 5189) He is noble and brave.
(2) (H. 5189) He is so generous that he always makes fires for his guests to entertain them, and hence, the abundant ashes he has at home.
(3) (H. 5189) He lives near to the people so that he is always at hand to solve their problems and help them in hardships and give them good advice.
(4) (H. 5189) They were rich farmers, her husband took her out of poverty into prosperity.
Whatever I say, he does not rebuke or insult me. When I sleep, I sleep till late in the morning, and when I drink water (or milk), I drink my fill. The mother of Abū Zar'a and what may one say in praise of the mother of Abū Zar'a? Her saddle bags were always full of provision and her house was spacious. As for the son of Abū Zar'a what may one say of the son of Abū Zar'a? His bed is as narrow as an unsheathed sword and an arm of a kid (of four months) satisfies his hunger. As for the daughter of Abū Zar'a she is obedient to her father and to her mother. She has a fat well-built body and that arouses the jealousy of her husband's other wife. As for the (maid) slave-girl of Abū Zar'a, what may one say of the (maid) slave-girl of Abū Zar'a? She does not uncover our secrets but keeps them, and does not waste our provisions and does not leave the rubbish scattered everywhere in our house.

The eleventh lady added, “One day it so happened that Abū Zar'a went out at the time when the milk was being milked from the animals, and he saw a woman who had two sons like two leopards playing with her two breasts. (On seeing her) he divorced me and married her. Thereafter I married a noble man who used to ride a fast tireless horse and keep a spear in his hand. He gave me many things, and also a pair of every kind of livestock and said, ‘Eat (of this), O Umm Zar'a, and give provision to your relatives.’” She added, “Yet, all those things which my second husband gave me could not fill the smallest utensil of Abū Zar'a’s.”

‘Āishah then said: Allah’s Messenger said to me, “I am to you as Abū Zar'a was to his wife Umm Zar'a.”

---

1. (H. 5189) She was well-off and generous.
2. (H. 5189) He was a slender man who ate little.
3. (H. 5189) She was trustworthy, careful and clean.
5190. Narrated ‘Urwa: ‘Āishah said, “While the Ethiopians were playing with their small spears, Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ screened me behind him and I watched (that display) and kept on watching till I left on my own.” So you may estimate of what age a little girl may listen to amusement. (1)

(84) CHAPTER. The advice of a man to his daughter regarding her husband.

5191. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbâs رضي الله عنهما: I had been eager to ask ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭâb about the two ladies from among the wives of the Prophet ﷺ regarding whom Allâh تعلَّم said:

“If you two (wives of the Prophet ﷺ) turn in repentance to Allâh (it will be better for you) your hearts are indeed so inclined to oppose what the Prophet ﷺ likes.”

(V.66:4)

Till ‘Umar performed the Ḥajj and I too, performed the Ḥajj along with him. (On the way) ‘Umar went aside to answer the call of nature, and I also went aside along with him carrying a tumbler full of water, and when ‘Umar had finished answering the call of nature, I poured water over his hands and he performed the ablution. Then I said to him, “O chief of the believers! Who were the two ladies from among the wives of the Prophet ﷺ regarding whom Allâh تعلَّم said:

“If you two (wives of the Prophet ﷺ) turn in repentance to Allâh (it will be better for you) your hearts are indeed so inclined (to oppose what the Prophet ﷺ likes)?”

(V.66:4)

(1) (H. 5190) ‘Āishah was fifteen years old then.
He said, “I am astonished at your question, O Ibn ‘Abbās. They were ‘Aishah and Ḥafṣa.” Then ‘Umar went on narrating the Ḥadīth and said, “I and an Anṣārī neighbour of mine from Banī Umayya bin Zaid who used to live in ‘Awālī-al-Madīna, used to visit the Prophet ﷺ in turn. He used to go one day and I another day. When I went, I would bring him the news of what had happened that day regarding the Divine Revelation and other things, and when he went, he used to do the same for me. We, the people of Quraish used to have the upper hand over our wives, but when we came to the Anṣār, we found that their women had the upper hand over their men, so our women also started learning the ways of the Anṣārī women. I shouted at my wife and she retorted against me and I disliked that she should answer me back. She said to me, ‘Why are you so surprised at my answering you back? By Allāh, the wives of the Prophet ﷺ answer him back and some of them may leave (does not speak to) him throughout the day till the night.’ The (talk) scared me and I said to her, ‘Whoever amongst them has done so will be ruined!’ Then I proceeded after dressing myself, and entered upon Ḥafṣa and said to her, ‘Does anyone of you keep the Prophet ﷺ angry till night?’ She said, ‘Yes.’ I said, ‘You are a ruined losing person! Don’t you fear that Allāh may get angry for the anger of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and thus you will be ruined? So do not ask more from the Prophet ﷺ and do not answer him back and do not give up talking to him. Ask me whatever you need and do not be tempted to imitate your neighbour (i.e., ‘Aishah) in her manners for she is more charming than you and more beloved to the Prophet ﷺ.’ ‘Umar added, “At that time a talk was circulating among us that (the tribe of Ghassān were preparing their horses to invade us. My Ānṣārī companion, on the day of his turn, went (to the town) and returned to us at night and knocked at my door violently and asked if I was there. I became horrified and came out to him. He said, 'Today a great thing has happened.' I asked, 'What is it? Have (the people of) Ghassān come?' He said, 'No, but (what has happened) is greater and more horrifying than that: Allāh’s Messenger has divorced his wives.' " ‘Umar added, "The Prophet kept away from his wives and I said, ‘Hafṣa is a ruined loser.’ I had already thought that most probably this (divorce) would happen in the near future. So I dressed myself and offered the morning Salāt (prayer) with the Prophet and then the Prophet entered an upper room and stayed there in seclusion. I entered upon Hafṣa and saw her weeping. I asked, ‘What makes you weep? Did I not warn you about that? Did the Prophet divorce you all?’ She said, ‘I do not know. There he is retired alone in the upper room.’ I came out and sat near the pulpit and saw a group of people sitting around it and some of them were weeping. I sat with them for a while but could not endure the situation, so I went to the upper room where the Prophet was and said to a black slave of his, ‘Will you get the permission (of the Prophet) for ‘Umar (to enter)?’ The slave went in, talked to the Prophet about it and then returned saying, ‘I have spoken to the Prophet and mentioned you but he kept quiet.’ Then I returned and sat with the group of people sitting near the pulpit, but I could not bear the situation and once again I said to the slave, ‘Will you get the permission for ‘Umar?’ He went in and returned saying, ‘I mentioned you to him but he kept quiet.’ So I returned again and sat with the group of people sitting near the pulpit, but I could not bear the situation, and so I went to the slave and said, ‘Will you get the permission for ‘Umar?’ He went in and returned to me saying, ‘I mentioned you to him but he kept quiet.’ When I was leaving, behold! The slave called me, saying, ‘The Prophet has given you permission.’ Then I entered upon Allâh’s Messenger and saw him lying on a bed made of stalks of date palm leaves and there was no bedding between it and him. The stalks left marks on his side and he was leaning on a leather pillow stuffed with date-palm fibres. I greeted him and while still standing I said, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! Have you divorced your wives?’ He looked at me and said, ‘No.’ I said, ‘Allâhu Akbar!’ And then, while still standing, I said chatting, ‘Will you heed what I say, O Allah’s Messenger? We, the people of Quraish used to have power over our women, but when we arrived at Al-Madina we found that the men (here) were overpowered by their women.’ The Prophet smiled and then I said to him, ‘Will you heed what I say, O Allah’s Messenger? I entered upon Habâs and said to her, ‘Do not be tempted to imitate your companion (‘Aishah), for she is more charming than you and more beloved to the Prophet.’’ The Prophet smiled for a second time. When I saw him smiling, I sat down. Then I looked around his house, and by Allâh, I could not see anything of importance in his house except three hides, so I said, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! Invoke Allâh to make your followers rich, for the Persians and the Romans have been made prosperous and they have been given (the pleasures of the world), although they do not worship Allâh.’ Thereupon the Prophet sat up as he was reclining, and said, ‘Are you of such an opinion, O the son of Al-Khaṭṭâb? These are the people who have received the rewards for their good deeds in this world.' I said, 'O Allah’s Messenger! Ask Allah to forgive me.' Then the Prophet kept away from his wives for twenty-nine days because of the story which Hafṣa had disclosed to 'Aishah. The Prophet had said, 'I will not enter upon them (my wives) for one month,' because of his anger towards them, when Allah had admonished him. So, when twenty-nine days had passed, the Prophet first entered upon 'Aishah. 'Aishah said to him, 'O Allah’s Messenger! You had sworn that you would not enter upon us for one month, but now only twenty-nine days have passed, for I have been counting them one by one.' The Prophet said, 'The (present) month is of twenty-nine days.' 'Aishah added, 'Then Allah revealed the Verses of the option. And out of all his wives he asked me first, and I chose him.' Then he gave option to his other wives and they said what 'Aishah had said.'

(1) (H. 5191) The Prophet had decided to abstain from eating a certain kind of food because of a certain event, so Allah blamed him for doing so. Some of his wives were the cause of him taking that decision, therefore he deserted them for one month.

(2) (H. 5191) See the Qur’an: (33:28,29).
(85) CHAPTER. A woman should not observe Saum (fast) (optional ones) except with the permission of her husband.

5192. Narrated Abü Hurairah: The Prophet said, “A woman should not observe Saum (fast) (optional ones) except with her husband’s permission if he is at home (staying with her).”

(86) CHAPTER. If a woman spends the night deserting her husband’s bed (without a reasonable cause, she is sinful).

5193. Narrated Abü Hurairah: The Prophet said, “If a man invites his wife to sleep with him and she refuses to come to him, then the angels send their curses on her till morning.”

5194. Narrated Abü Hurairah: The Prophet said, “If a woman spends the night deserting her husband’s bed (does not sleep with him), then the angels send their curses on her till she comes back (to her husband).”

(87) CHAPTER. A woman should not allow anyone to enter her husband’s house except with his consent.

5195. Narrated Abü Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger said, “It is not lawful for a lady to observe Saum (fast) (Nawâfil) without the permission of her husband when he is at home; and she should not allow... anyone to enter his house except with his consent; and whatever she spends of his wealth (on charitable gifts in Allâh’s Cause) without being ordered by him, he will get half of the reward.”

(88) CHAPTER.

5196. Narrated Usâma: The Prophet ﷺ said, “I stood at the gate of Paradise and saw that the majority of the people who entered it were the poor, while the wealthy were stopped at the gate (for the accounts). But the people destined for the Fire were ordered to be taken to the Fire. Then I stood at the gate of the Fire and saw that the majority of those who entered it were women.”

(89) CHAPTER. To be unthankful to Al-‘Ashîr, i.e., the husband. Al-‘Ashîr also means the companion.

This is narrated by Abû Sa‘îd on the authority of the Prophet ﷺ.

5197. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Abbâs رضي الله عنهما: During the lifetime of Allâh’s Messenger the sun eclipsed, Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ offered the Salât (prayer) of (the eclipse) and so did the people along with him. He performed a long Qiyâm (standing posture) during which Sûrat Al-Baqarah could have been recited; then he performed a prolonged bowing, then raised his head and stood for a long time which was slightly less than that of the first Qiyām (and recited Qur'ān). Then he performed a prolonged bowing again but the period was shorter than the period of the first bowing, then he stood up and then prostrated. Again he stood up, but this time the period of standing was less than the first standing. Then he performed a prolonged bowing but of a lesser duration than the first, then he stood up again for a long time but for a lesser duration than the first. Then he performed a prolonged bowing but of lesser duration than the first, and then he again stood up, and then prostrated and then finished his Salāt (prayer). By then the sun eclipse had cleared. The Prophet then said, “The sun and the moon are two signs among the signs of Allah, and they do not eclipse because of the death or birth of someone, so when you observe the eclipse, remember Allah [offer the eclipse Salāt (prayer)].” They (the people) said, “O Allah’s Messenger! We saw you stretching your hand to take something at this place of yours, then we saw you stepping backward.” He said, “I saw Paradise (or Paradise was shown to me), and I stretched my hand to pluck a bunch (of grapes), and had I plucked it, you would have eaten of it as long as this world exists. Then I saw the (Hell) Fire, and I have never, seen such a horrible sight as that before, and I saw that the majority of its dwellers were women.” The people asked, “O Allah’s Messenger! What is the reason for that?” He replies, “Because of their disbelief (ungratefulness).” It was said. “Do they disbelieve in Allah (are they ungrateful to Allah)?” He replied, “They are ungrateful to their husbands and ungrateful to Al-Ihsān (good favours done to them). Even if you do good to one of them all your life, when she sees something (not of her liking) from you, she will say, "I have never seen any good from you".

5198. Narrated Imran: The Prophet ﷺ said, "I looked at Paradise and saw that the majority of its residents were the poor; and I looked at the (Hell) Fire and saw that the majority of its residents were women."

(90) CHAPTER. Your wife has a right over you.

This has been narrated by Abu Juhaifa on the authority of the Prophet ﷺ.

5199. Narrated 'Abdullah bin 'Amr bin Al-'Ash: Allah's Messenger ﷺ said, "O 'Abdullâh! Have I not been informed that you fast all the day and stand in Salât (prayer) all night?" I said, "Yes, O Allah's Messenger!" He said, "Do not do that! Observe the Saum (fast) sometimes and also leave them (the fast) at other times; stand up for the Salât (prayer) at night and also sleep at night. Your body has a right over you, your eyes have a right over you and your wife has a right over you."

(91) CHAPTER. The woman is a guardian in her husband's house.

5200. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: The Prophet ﷺ said, "All of you are guardians and are responsible for your wards. The ruler is a guardian and the man is a guardian of his family; the lady is a guardian and is responsible for her husband’s house and his offspring; and so all of you are guardians and are responsible for your wards.”

(92) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah

"Men are protectors and maintainers of women." (V.4:34)

5201. Narrated Anas: Allah’s Messenger took an oath that he would not visit his wives for one month, and he sat in an upper room belonging to him. Then, on the twenty-ninth day he came down. It was said, “O Allah’s Messenger! You had taken an oath not to visit your wives for one month.” He said, “The (present) month is of twenty-nine days.”

(93) CHAPTER. The decision of the Prophet not to share the beds with his wives and to stay away from their houses.

Mu’awiyah bin Haida said that the Prophet said, “When you desert your wife (abstain from sleeping with her) you should stay (with her) at home.” But the first verdict is more correct. (1)

5202. Narrated Umm Salama: The Prophet took an oath that he would

(1) (Chap. 93) It is permissible anyhow, to stay at home or somewhere else on abstaining from sleeping with one’s wife.
not enter upon some of his wives for one month. But when twenty-nine days had elapsed, he went to them in the morning or evening. It was said to him, “O Allah’s Prophet! You had taken an oath that you would not enter upon them for one month.” He replied, “The month can be of twenty-nine days.”

5203. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: One morning we saw the wives of the Prophet weeping, and everyone of them had her family with her, I went to the mosque and found that it was crowded with people. Then ‘Umar bin Al-Khattab came and went up to the Prophet who was in his upper room. He greeted him but nobody answered. He greeted again, but nobody answered. Then the gatekeeper called him and he entered upon the Prophet, and asked, “Have you divorced your wives?” The Prophet said, “No, but I have taken an oath not to go to them for one month.” So the Prophet stayed away (from his wives) for twenty-nine days and then entered upon them.

(94) CHAPTER. The (kind of) beating of women which is disapproved of.

And the Statement of Allah: ﱐ}
“Beat them (lightly your wives, if it is useful) [i.e., without causing them severe pain.]” (V.4:34)

5204. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin Zam’a : The Prophet said, “None of you should flog his wife as he flogs a slave and then have sexual intercourse with her in the last part of the day.”

(95) CHAPTER. A woman should not obey her husband if he orders her to do something sinful.

5205. Narrated ‘A’ishah : An Ansârî woman gave her daughter in marriage and the hair of the latter started falling out. The Ansârî women came to the Prophet and mentioned that to him and said, “Her (my daughter’s) husband suggested that I should let her wear false hair.” The Prophet said, “No, (don’t do that) for Allâh sends His curses upon such ladies who lengthen their hair artificially (by wearing false hair).”

(96) CHAPTER. “If a woman fears cruelty or desertion on her husband’s part...” (V.4:128)

5206. Narrated ‘A’ishah (regarding the Verse) –

“If a woman fears cruelty or desertion on her husband’s part...” (V.4-128):

It concerns the woman whose husband does not want to keep her with him any longer, but wants to divorce her and marry some other lady, so she says to him: “Keep me and do not divorce me, and then marry another woman, and you may neither spend on me, nor sleep with me.” This is indicated by the Statement of Allāh ﴿تعالَ﴾:

“There is no sin on them both if they make terms of peace between themselves and making peace is better.” (V. 4:128)

(97) CHAPTER. The coitus interruptus.

5207. Narrated Jābir: We used to practise coitus interruptus during the lifetime of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ.

5208. Narrated Jābir: We used to practise coitus interruptus while the Qur’ān was being revealed.

5209. Jābir added: We used to practise coitus interruptus during the lifetime of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ while the Qur’ān was being revealed. (1)

5210. Narrated Abū Sālīd Al-Khuṭṭār: We got female captives in the war booty and we used to do coitus interruptus with them. So we asked Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ about it and he said, “Do you really do that?” repeating the question thrice. “There is no person that is destined to exist but will come into existence, till the Day of Resurrection.”

(1) (H. 5209) Though the Qur’ān was still being revealed, our practice of coitus interruptus was not prohibited by...
(98) CHAPTER. To draw lots among one’s wives when one intends to go on a journey (in order to take one of them with).

5211. Narrated al-Qasim: ‘Aishah said that whenever the Prophet intended to go on a journey, he drew lots among his wives (so as to take one of them along with him). During one of his journeys the lot fell on ‘Aishah and Hafsa. When night fell the Prophet would ride beside ‘Aishah and talk with her. One night Hafsa said to ‘Aishah, “Won’t you ride my camel tonight and I ride yours, so that you may see (me) and I see (you) (in new situation)?” ‘Aishah said, “Yes (I agree).” So ‘Aishah rode, and then the Prophet came towards ‘Aishah’s camel on which Hafsa was riding. He greeted Hafsa and then proceeded (beside her) till they dismounted (on the way). ‘Aishah missed him, and so, when they dismounted, she put her legs in the Idhkhir and said, “O Lord (Allah)! Send a scorpion or a snake to bite me for I am not to blame him (the Prophet).”

(99) CHAPTER. (What is said regarding) the woman who gives up her turn with her husband to one of his other wives, and how to divide the turns.

5212. Narrated ‘Aishah: “Sauda bint Zam’a gave up her turn to me (‘Aishah), and so the Prophet used to give me (‘Aishah) both my day and the day of Sauda.”
(100) CHAPTER. To deal justly between the women (one’s wives), and Allâh says:
“You will never be able to do perfect justice between your wives... (up to)... And Allâh is ever All-Sufficient for His creatures needs, All-Wise.” (V.4:129,130)

(101) CHAPTER. If somebody marries a virgin and he has already a matron wife (with him).

5213. Narrated Anas: As-Sunna (legal way of the Prophet ﷺ) is that if someone marries a virgin and he has already a matron wife (with him), then he should stay with the virgin for seven days (and then by turns); and if someone marries a matron (and he has already a virgin wife with him) then he should stay with her for three days (and then by turns).

(102) CHAPTER. If someone marries a matron and he has already a virgin wife (with him).

5214. Narrated Anas: It is from As-Sunna (legal ways of the Prophet ﷺ) that if someone marries a virgin and he has already a matron wife, then he should stay for seven days with her (the virgin) and then by turns; and if someone marries a matron and he has already a virgin wife, then he should stay with her (the matron) for three days, and then by turns.
(103) CHAPTER. Whoever had sexual intercourse with all his wives and then took one bath only.

5215. Narrated Anas bin Malik : The Prophet used to pass by (have sexual relation with) all his wives in one night, and at that time he had nine wives.

(104) CHAPTER. If a man goes to all his wives (have sexual relations with them) in one day.

5216. Narrated 'Aishah : Whenever Allah's Messenger finished his Asr prayer, he would enter upon his wives and stay with one of them. One day he went to Hafsah and stayed with her longer than usual.

(105) CHAPTER. If a man takes the permission of his wives so as to stay in the house of one of them to be treated (during his ailment) and he is allowed by them (those wives will have no right to claim their lost turns).

5217. Narrated 'Aishah that during his fatal ailment, Allah's Messenger used to ask his wives, "Where shall I stay tomorrow? Where shall I stay tomorrow?" He was looking forward to 'Aishah's turn. So all his wives allowed him to stay where he wished, and he stayed at 'Aishah's house till he died there. 'Aishah added : He died on the day of my usual turn at my house.
Allah took him unto Him while his head was between my chest and my neck and his saliva was mixed with my saliva. (1)

(106) CHAPTER. If a man loves some of his wives more than the others.

5218. Narrated Ibn `Abbas that `Umar entered upon Hafsa and said, “O my daughter! Do not be misled by the manners of her who is proud of her beauty because of the love of Allah’s Messenger for her.” By ‘her’ he meant ‘Aishah. ‘Umar added, “Then I told that to Allah’s Messenger and he smiled (on hearing that).”

(107) CHAPTER. (It is not recommended for) one to claim that one has more things or better qualities than one really has.

And what is forbidden as regards the pride of a lady over the other wives of her husband.

5219. Narrated Asmā': A lady said, “O Allah’s Messenger! My husband has another wife, so is it sinful of me to claim that he has given me what he has not given me (in order to tease her)?” Allah’s Messenger said, “The one who pretends that he has been given what he has not been given, is just like the (false) one who

(1) (H. 5217) i.e., She chewed a green Siwâk and gave it to the Prophet .
wears two garments of falsehood." [1]

(108) CHAPTER. Al-Ghaira (i.e. honour, prestige or self-respect)

Sa’d bin ‘Ubâda said: “If I saw a man with my wife, I would strike him with the sharp edge of the sword.” The Prophet ﷺ said (to his Companions), “Are you astonished by Sa’d’s (Ghaira) sense of honour? (By Allah) I have a greater sense of Ghaira then he has, and Allah has still more greater sense of Ghaira than I have.”

5220. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin Mas’ûd

The Prophet ﷺ said, “There is none having a greater sense of Ghaira (honour or self-respect etc) than Allah. And for that He has forbidden the doing of evil actions (illegal sexual intercourse etc). There is none who likes to be praised more than Allah does.”

5221. Narrated ‘Aishah

Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “O followers of Muḥammad! There is none, who has a greater sense of Ghaira (honour or self-respect etc.) than Allah, so He has forbidden that His slave commits illegal sexual intercourse or His slave-girl commits illegal sexual intercourse. O followers of Muḥammad! If you but knew what I know, you would laugh little and weep much!” [See Hadith No.1044, Vol.2].

5222. Narrated Asmã’: I heard Allah’s Messenger saying, “There is nothing (none) having a greater sense of Ghaira (self-respect) than Allah.”

And narrated Abû Hurairah that he heard the Prophet (saying the same).

5223. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Allah has a sense of Ghaira, and Allah’s Sense of Ghaira is provoked when a believer does something which Allah has prohibited.

5224. Narrated Asmã’ bint Abû Bakr: When Az-Zubair married ṭ extremists, he had no property or any slave or anything else, except a camel which drew water from the well, and his horse. I used to feed his horse with fodder and drew water and sew the bucket for drawing it, and prepare the dough, but I did not know how to bake bread. So our Ansâri neighbours used to bake bread for me, and they were honourable ladies. I used to carry the date-stones on my head from Zubair’s land given to him by Allah’s Messenger and this land was two-third Farsakh (about two miles) from my house. One day, while I was coming with the date-stones on my head, I met Allah’s Messenger along with some Ansâri people. He called me and then, (directing... his camel to kneel down) said, "Ikh! Ikh!" so as to make me ride behind him (on his camel). I felt shy to travel with the men and remembered Az-Zubair and his sense of Ghairā, as he was one of those people who had the greatest sense of Ghairā. Allāh's Messenger noticed that I felt shy, so he proceeded. I came to Az-Zubair and said, "I met Allāh's Messenger while I was carrying a load of date-stones on my head, and he had some companions with him. He made his camel kneel down so that I might ride, but I felt shy in his presence and remembered your sense of Ghairā (See H. 5220 and its Chap. 108). On that Az-Zubair said, "By Allāh, your carrying the date-stones (and you being seen by the Prophet in such a state) is more shameful to me than your riding with him." (I continued serving in this way) till Ābū Bakr sent me a servant to look after the horse, whereupon I felt as if he had set me free (manumitted me).

5225.Narrated Ānas: While the Prophet was in the house of one of his wives, one of the Mothers of the believers(1) sent a meal in a dish. The wife at whose house the Prophet was, struck the hand of the servant, causing the dish to fall and break. The Prophet gathered the broken pieces of the dish and then started collecting on them the food which had been in the dish and said, "Your mother (my wife) felt jealous." Then he detained the servant till a (sound) dish was brought from the wife at whose house he was. He gave the sound dish to the wife whose dish had been broken and kept the broken one at the house where it had been broken.

(1) (H. 5225) The wives of the Prophet were called ‘The Mothers of the believers’.
5226. Narrated Jābir bin Abdullah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “I entered Paradise and saw a palace and asked whose palace is this? They said, ‘This palace belongs to ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb.’ I intended to enter it, and nothing stopped me except my knowledge about your sense of Ghairah (honour, self-respect etc.) (O ‘Umar).’ ‘Umar said, “O Allah’s Prophet! How dare I think of my Ghairah (honour, self-respect etc.) being offended by you?”

5227. Narrated Abū Hurairah: While we were sitting with Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, (he) Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “While I was sleeping, I saw myself in Paradise and suddenly (I saw) a woman performing ablution beside a palace. I asked, ‘Whose palace is this?’ It was said, ‘This palace belongs to ‘Umar.’ Then I remembered his sense of Ghairah and returned.” On that ‘Umar started weeping in that gathering and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! How dare I think of my Ghairah (self-respect) being offended by you?”
5228. Narrated ‘Aishah that Allah's Messenger said to her, "I know when you are pleased with me or angry with me." I said, "Whence do you know that?" He said, "When you are pleased with me, you say, 'No, by the Lord of Muhammad,' but when you are angry with me, then you say, 'No, by the Lord of Abraham.'" Thereupon I said, "Yes (you are right), but by Allah, O Allah's Messenger, I leave nothing but your name." (1)

5229. Narrated ‘Aishah: I never felt so jealous of any wife of Allah's Messenger as I did of Khadija because Allah's Messenger used to remember and praise her too often and because it was revealed to Allah's Messenger that he should give her (Khadija) the glad tidings of her having a palace of Qasab(2) in Paradise. (See H. 3816)

5230. Narrated Al-Miswar bin Anas: He related: I and his daughter's jealousy, and his demand that she should be treated justly.

(1) (H. 5228) She does not feel less affectionate at the time of her anger. The only consequence of her anger is not to mention his name.

(2) (H. 5229) Qasab, see the glossary.
Makhrama: I heard Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ who was on the pulpit, saying, “Banu-Hishâm bin Al-Mughira have requested me to allow them to marry their daughter to ‘Alî bin Abî Ṭalib, but I don’t give permission, and will not give permission unless ‘Alî bin Abî Ṭalib divorces my daughter in order to marry their daughter, because Fâtimah is a part of my body, and I hate what she hates to see, and what annoys her, annoys me.”

(111) CHAPTER. Men will decrease and women will increase.

And Abû Mûsâ said: The Prophet ﷺ said, “You will see (in future) one man followed by forty women taking refuge with him and appealing for help because of the scarcity of men and the great number of women.”

5231. Narrated Anas: I will narrate to you a Hadîth I heard from Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ and none other than I will tell you of it. I heard Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ saying, “From among the portents of the Hour are the following: (1) Religious knowledge will be taken away; (2) General ignorance (in religious matters) will increase; (3) Illegal sexual intercourse will prevail: (4) Drinking of alcoholic drinks will be in plenty. (5) Men will decrease in number, and women will increase in number, so much so that fifty women will be looked after by one man.” [See H. No. 81, Vol. I].

(112) CHAPTER. A man should not stay with a woman in seclusion unless he is a...
Dhu-Mahram (a person who is legally not allowed to marry that woman, e.g. her father or brother, etc.). (And it is unlawful for one) to enter upon a woman whose husband is absent.

5232. Narrated ‘Uqba bin ‘Amir: Allah’s Messenger said, “Beware of entering upon the ladies.” A man from the Ansār said, “Allah’s Messenger! What about Al-Hamu’ (the in-laws of the wife) (the brothers of her husband or his nephews, etc.)?” The Prophet replied: The in-laws (Al-Hamu’) of the wife are death itself.

5233. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet said, “No man should stay with a lady in seclusion except in the presence of a Dhu-Mahram.” A man stood up and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! My wife has gone out intending to perform the Hajj and I have been enrolled (in the army) for such and such campaign.” The Prophet said, “Return and perform the Hajj with your wife.”

(113) CHAPTER. What is allowed (as regards) a private meeting between a man and a woman when they are not secluded from the people.

5234. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: It is mainly the brothers of the husband or the in-laws of the wife who are meant here and these are only those who could have married that woman if she had not been married.

(2) (H. 5232) The stay of a relative of a married woman in seclusion with her may cause great disadvantage and lead to illegal sexual intercourse that would ruin the family. Therefore the Prophet compared the brother-in-law of a wife to death if he stays in seclusion with her.
An `Anṣārī' woman came to the Prophet  and he took her aside and said (to her) “By Allāh, you (Anṣār) are the most beloved people to me.”

(114) CHAPTER. It is forbidden that effeminate men should enter upon women.

5235. Narrated Ḫumm Salama that while the Prophet  was with her, there was an effeminate man in the house. The effeminate man said to Ḫumm Salama’s brother, `Abdullāh bin Abī Umaiyya, “If Allāh should make you conquer At-Tā’if tomorrow, I recommend that you take the daughter of Ghailān (in marriage) for (she is so fat) that she shows four folds of flesh when facing you and eight when she turns her back.” Thereupon the Prophet  said (to us), “This (effeminate man) should never enter upon you (O women).” (See H. 4324)

(115) CHAPTER. The looking of a woman at the Ethiopians and the like (is permissible) if it does not lead to bad consequences.

5236. Narrated ‘Aishah : The Prophet  was screening me with his Ridā’ (garment covering the upper part of the body) while I was looking at the Ethiopians who were playing in the courtyard of the mosque. (I continued watching) till I was satisfied. So you may deduce from this event how a little girl (who has not reached the age of puberty) who is eager to enjoy amusement should be treated in this respect. (See H. 454)
(116) CHAPTER. The going out of women for their needs.

5237. Narrated ‘Aishah: Once Sauda bint Zam'a went out at night for some need, and ‘Umar saw her, and recognizing her, he said (to her), “By Allah, O Sauda! You cannot hide yourself from us.” So she returned to the Prophet and mentioned that to him while he was sitting in my dwelling taking his supper and holding a bone covered with meat in his hand. Then the Divine Revelation was revealed to him and when that state was over, he (the Prophet) was saying: “O women! You have been allowed by Allāh to go out for your needs.”

(117) CHAPTER. The permission taken by a woman from her husband to go to the mosque.

5238. Narrated Salim’s father: The Prophet said, “If the wife of anyone of you asks permission to go to the mosque, he should not forbid her.”

(118) CHAPTER. What is lawful as regards visiting or looking at those women who have foster suckling relations with you.

5239. Narrated ‘Aishah: My foster uncle came and asked permission (to enter) but I refused to admit him till I asked Allāh’s Messenger about that. He said, “He is your uncle, so allow him to come in.” I said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! I have been suckled by a woman and not by a man.” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “He is your uncle, so let him enter upon you.” And that happened after the order of Al-Ḥijāb (compulsory veiling) was revealed. All things which become unlawful because of blood relations are unlawful because of the corresponding foster suckling relations.

(119) CHAPTER. A woman should not look at or touch the body of another woman to describe her to her husband.

5240. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Mas‘ūd رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “A woman should not look at or touch another woman to describe her to her husband in such a way as if he was actually looking at her.”

5241. Narrated ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنه: The Prophet ﷺ said, “A woman should not look at or touch another woman to describe her to her husband in such a way as if he was actually looking at her.”

(120) CHAPTER. The saying of a man: “I will go round (i.e. have sexual relations with) all my wives tonight.”
5242. Narrated Abu Hurairah (The Prophet) (Abu Hurairah), son of the Prophet Daud (David), said, “Tonight I will go round (i.e. have sexual relations with) one hundred women (wives), everyone of whom will give birth to a male child who will fight in Allah’s Cause.” On that an angel said to him, “Say: ‘If Allah will.’” But Sulaiman (Solomon) did not say it and forgot to say it. Then he had sexual relations with them but none of them gave birth to any child except one who gave birth to a half person. The Prophet said, “If Sulaiman (Solomon) had said: ‘If Allah will,’ Allah would have fulfilled his (above) desire and that saying would have made him more hopeful.” (See H. 2819)

(121) CHAPTER. If a man is away or absent from his family for a long time, then on returning home, he should not enter his house at night, lest he should find something which might arouse his suspicion as regards his family, or lest he should discover their defects.

5243. Narrated Jabir bin ‘Abdulläh (The Prophet disliked that one should go to one’s family at night (on returning from a journey).

5244. Narrated Jabir bin ‘Abdulläh: Allah’s Messenger said, “When anyone of you is away from his house for a long time, he should not return to his family at night.”
5245. Narrated Jābir: I was with Allāh’s Messenger  in a Ghazwa, and when we returned, I wanted to hurry, while riding a slow camel. A rider came behind me. I looked back and saw that the rider was Allāh’s Messenger . He said (to me), “What makes you in such a hurry?” I replied, “I am newly married.” He said, “Did you marry a virgin or a matron?” I replied, “(Not a virgin but) a matron.” He said, “Why didn’t you marry a young girl with whom you would have played and she would have played with you?” Then when we approached (Al-Madīnah) and were going to enter (it), the Prophet  said, “Wait till you enter (your homes) in the night i.e., at the time of 'Ishā’ (prayer) so that the ladies with unkempt hair may comb their hair, and those whose husbands have been absent (for a long time) may shave their pubic hair.” (The subnarrator, Hashim said: A reliable narrator told me that the Prophet  added in this Ḥadīth: “(Seek to beget) children! children, O Jābir!”).

5246. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh رضي الله عنهما: The Prophet  said, “If you enter (your town) at night (after coming from a journey), do not enter upon your family till the woman whose husband was absent (from the house) shaves her pubic hair and the woman with unkempt hair, combs her hair.” Allāh’s Messenger  further said, “(O Jābir!) Seek to have offspring, seek to have offspring!”
(123) CHAPTER. The woman (whose husband is absent for a long time) should shave her pubic hair, and those whose hair is unkempt should comb their hair.

5247. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: We were with the Prophet in a Ghazwa, and when we returned and approached Al-Madina, I wanted to hurry while riding a slow camel. A rider overtook me and pricked my camel with a spear which he had, whereupon my camel started running as fast as any other fast camel you may see. I looked back, and behold, the rider was Allāh’s Messenger. I said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! I am newly married.” He asked, “Have you got married?” I replied, “Yes.” He said, “A virgin or a matron?” I replied, “(Not a virgin) but a matron.” He said, “Why didn’t you marry a young girl so that you would have played with her and she with you?” When we reached (near Al-Madina) and were going to enter it, the Prophet said, “Wait till you enter your home in the night i.e. at the time of Isha (prayer) so that the lady whose hair is unkempt may comb her hair and that the lady whose husband has been away may shave her pubic hair.”

(124) CHAPTER. “And not to reveal their adornments except to their husbands, . . .” (V.24:31)

5248. Narrated Abū Ḥāzim: The people differed as to with which thing Allāh’s Messenger was treated on the day (of the battle) of Uḥud. So they asked Sahl bin Sa’d As-Sā’īdī who was the only surviving Companion (of the Prophet) at Al-Madina. He replied, “Nobody is left at Al-Madina who knows it better than I. Fāṭima was washing the blood off his face and ‘Ali was bringing water in his shield, and then a mat of date-palm leaves was burnt and (the ash) was inserted into the wound.”

(125) CHAPTER. “And those among you who have not come to the age of puberty.”
(V.24:58)

attend the Ṣalāt (prayer) of ‘Eid-ul-Adhā or ‘Eid-ul-Fitr with Allāh’s Messenger?” Ibn ‘Abbās replied, “Yes, and had it not been for my close relationship with him, I could not have offered it.” (That was because of his young age). Ibn ‘Abbās further said, Allāh’s Messenger went out and offered the Ṣalāt (prayer) and then delivered the Khutba.”

Ibn ‘Abbās did not mention the Ādḥān (the call for Ṣalāt (prayer)) or the Ḥqāma. He added, “Then the Prophet went to the women and instructed them and gave them religious advice and ordered them to give alms and I saw them reaching out (their hands to) their ears and necks (to take off the ear-rings and necklaces, etc.) and throwing (it) towards Bilāl. Then the Prophet returned with Bilāl to his house.”

(126) CHAPTER. The man’s poking his daughter in the flank while admonishing her.

5250. Narrated ‘Āishah: Abū Bakr admonished me and poked me with his hands in the flank, and nothing stopped me from moving at that time except the position of Allâh’s Messenger whose head was on my thigh. (See H. 334)
(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allâh:

"O Prophet! When you divorce women, divorce them at their 'Idda' (prescribed periods) and count (accurately) their 'Idda (prescribed periods)." (V.65:1)

The divorce according to As-Sunna (the Prophet's legal way is that one should divorce his wife when she is clean from her periods and he has not had sexual intercourse with her (after her period) and there should be two witnesses for the divorce.

5251. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar: that he had divorced his wife while she was menstruating during the lifetime of Allâh’s Messenger . ‘Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭâb asked Allâh’s Messenger about that. Allâh’s Messenger said, “Order him (your son) to take her back and keep her, till she is clean from her menses and then to wait till she gets her next period (menses) and becomes clean again, wherein, if he wishes to keep her, he can do so, and if he wishes to divorce her he can divorce her before having sexual intercourse with her; and that is the 'Idda (prescribed period) which Allâh has fixed for the women meant to be divorced.”

(2) CHAPTER. If a woman is divorced during her menses, then that divorce is counted as one legal divorce.

5252. Narrated Anas bin Strîn: Ibn ‘Umar said: I divorced my wife while she was menstruating. ‘Umar mentioned that to the Prophet , The Prophet said, (to my father), “Let your son take her back.” I asked (Ibn ‘Umar), “Is such a divorce counted (i.e., as one legal divorce)?” Ibn ‘Umar said, “Of course.”

Narrated Yunus bin Jubair: Ibn ‘Umar said, “The Prophet ﷺ said to ‘Umar, ‘Order him (Ibn ‘Umar) to take her back’.” I asked, “Is such a divorce counted (as one legal divorce)?” Ibn ‘Umar said, “What do you think if someone becomes helpless and foolish?”

5253. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: (The divorcing of my wife during her menses) was counted as one legal divorce.

(3) CHAPTER. Whoever divorced (his wife), and should a man tell his wife face to face that she is divorced.

5254. Narrated Al-Awzâ‘i: I asked Az-Zuhri, “Which of the wives of the Prophet ﷺ sought refuge with Allah from him?” He said, “I was told by ‘Urwa that ‘Aishah ﷺ said, ‘When the daughter of Al-Jaun was brought to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ as his bride) and he went near her, she said, “I seek refuge with Allah from you.” He said, “You have sought refuge with the Most Great; return to your family’.”

5255. Narrated Abû Usaid: We

(1) (H. 5252) If, out of foolishness somebody divorces his wife while she is menstruating, the divorce is valid. (Fath Al-Bâri).
(2) (H. 5253) i.e., one of the three divorces.
(3) (H. 5254) “Return to your family” is an indirect way of saying: “You are divorced.”
went out with the Prophet to a garden called Ash-Shaut till we reached two walls between which we sat down. The Prophet said, “Sit here,” and went in (the garden).

Al-Jaunia (a lady from Bani Jaun) had been brought (as a bride for the Prophet) and lodged in a house in a date-palm garden in the home of Umaima bint An-Nu‘man bin Sharahil, and her wet nurse was with her. When the Prophet entered upon her, he said to her, “Give me yourself (in marriage) as a gift.” She said, “Can a princess give herself in marriage to an ordinary man?” The Prophet raised his hand to pat her so that she might become tranquil (as she did not know that he is Allah’s Messenger). She said, “I seek refuge with Allah from you.” He said, “You have sought refuge with One Who gives refuge. Then the Prophet said, “O Abu Usaid! Give her two white linen dresses to wear and let her go back to her family (i.e. she is divorced).”

5256, 5257. Narrated Sahl and Abu Usaid: The Prophet married Umaima bint Sharahil, and when she was brought to him, he stretched his hand towards her. It seemed that she disliked that, whereupon the Prophet ordered Abu Usaid to prepare her and dress her with two white linen dresses [and let her return to her family (i.e. she is divorced)]. (See Hadith No. 5637).
5258. Narrated Abū Ghallāb Yūnus bin Jubair: I asked Ibn ‘Umar, “(What is said regarding) a man divorces his wife during her period?” He said, “Do you know Ibn ‘Umar? Ibn ‘Umar divorced his wife while she was menstruating. ‘Umar then went to the Prophet and mentioned that to him. The Prophet ordered him to take her back and when she becomes clean, he could divorce her if he wanted.” I asked (Ibn ‘Umar), “Was that divorce counted as one legal divorce?” He said, “If one becomes helpless and foolish (will he be excused? Of course not).”

(4) CHAPTER. Whoever thinks it permissible to divorce one’s wife thrice (at a time), depending on the Statement of Allāh

The divorce is twice; after that either you retain her on reasonable terms or release her with kindness.” (V.2:229)

Ibn Az-Zubair said regarding a patient divorcing his wife: I am not of the opinion that his irrevocably divorced wife will be his heir.

Ash-Sha‘bī said: I think she will be his heir. Ibn Shubruma said: If the prescribed period (‘Idda – legal period after the divorce) is over, can she marry? Ash-Sha‘bī said: Yes. Ibn Shubruma said: If her second husband should die too (would she be the heir of two husbands)? On that Ṣaybānī withdrew his verdict.

(1) (H. 5258) i.e., one of the three divorces? (See Fath Al-Bārī).

5259. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d As-Sā‘īdī: ‘Uwaimir bin ‘Ajlān came to Abū ‘Aim bin Adi Al-Anṣārī and asked, “O ‘Aim! Tell me, if a man sees his wife with another man, should he kill him, whereupon you would kill him in Qisas(1), or what should he do? O ‘Aim! Please ask Allāh’s Messenger about that.”

‘Aim asked Allāh’s Messenger about that. Allāh’s Messenger disliked that question and considered it disgraceful. What ‘Aim heard from Allāh’s Messenger was hard on him. When he returned to his family, Uwaimir came to him and said, “O ‘Aim! What did Allāh’s Messenger say to you?” ‘Aim said, “You never bring me any good. Allāh’s Messenger disliked to hear the problem which I asked him about.”

‘Uwaimir said, “By Allāh, I will not leave the matter till I ask him about it.” So ‘Uwaimir proceeded till he came to Allāh’s Messenger who was in the midst of the people and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! If a man finds with his wife another man, should he kill him, whereupon you would kill him (in Qisas): or otherwise, what should he do?”

Allāh’s Messenger said, “Allāh has revealed something concerning the question of you and your wife. Go and bring her here.” So they both carried out the judgement of Li‘ān, while I was present among the people (as a witness). When both of them had finished, ‘Uwaimir said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! If I should now keep my wife with me, then I have told a lie”. Then he pronounced his decision to divorce her thrice, before Allāh’s Messenger ordered him to do so. (Ibn Shihāb said, “That was the

(1) (H. 5259) See the glossary.
5260. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: The wife of Rifā‘a Al-Quražī came to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Rifā‘a divorced me irrevocably. After him I married ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Az-Zubair Al-Quražī who proved to be impotent.” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said to her, “Perhaps you want to return to Rifā‘a? Nay (you cannot return to Rifā‘a) until you enjoy the sexual relation (consummate your marriage) with Abdur-Rahmān and he with you.”

5261. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها: A man divorced his wife thrice (by expressing his decision to divorce her thrice), then she married another man who also divorced her. The Prophet ﷺ was asked if she could legally marry the first husband (or not). The Prophet ﷺ replied, “No, she cannot marry the first husband unless the second husband enjoys the sexual relation (consummate his marriage) with her, just as the first husband had done.”

(1) (H. 5259) See the glossary for ‘Li‘ān.’
(5) CHAPTER. Whoever gave option to his wives. And the Statement of Allâh تعالى:

"O Prophet (Muḥammad صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّم)! Say to your wives: ‘If you desire the life of this world and its glitter, – then come! I will make a provision for you and set you free in a handsome manner (divorce)”.

(V.33:28)

5262. Narrated ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها: Allâh’s Messenger صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّم gave us the option (to remain with him or to be divorced), and we selected Allâh and His Messenger صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّم. So, giving us that option was not regarded as divorce.

5263. Narrated Masrûq: I asked ‘Āishah رضي الله عنها about the option: She said, “The Prophet صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّم gave us the option. Do you think that that option was considered as a divorce?” I said, “It matters little to me if I give my wife the option once or a hundred times after she has chosen me.”

(6) CHAPTER. If a man says (to his wife): “I have parted with you,” or “I have released you,” or any other expression which may indicate divorce, then the real meaning of what he says depends on his intention.

The Statement of Allâh تعالى:

“And set them free (divorce them) in a handsome manner.” (V.33:49)

“And set you free in a handsome manner (divorce)”. (V.33:28)

(The divorce is twice) “After that, either you retain her on reasonable terms or release her with kindness.” (V.2:229)

“Or part with them in a good manner.” (V.65:2)
And ‘Aishah said: The Prophet ﷺ knew that my parents would never order me to part with him.

(7) CHAPTER. Whoever said to his wife: “You are Harām (unlawful) for me.”

And Al-Hasan said: Its meaning depends on his intention.

And a religious learned man said: If somebody divorces (his wife) thrice then she becomes unlawful for him. So it is called ‘Harām’ (unlawful) by virtue of divorce and separation. This is not like the one who bans certain food for himself because one cannot call lawful food unlawful, but a divorced lady can be called unlawful.

And some (learned men) said regarding a woman divorced thrice: She will not be lawful for that husband till she marries somebody else (and her new husband divorces her).

5264. Ṣafi said: When Ibn ‘Umar was asked about a person who had given three divorces, he said, “Would that you gave one or two divorces, for the Prophet ﷺ ordered me to do so. If you give three divorces then she cannot be lawful for you until she has married another husband (and is divorced by him).”

5265. Narrated ‘Aishah: A man divorced his wife and she married another man who proved to be impotent and divorced her. She could not get her satisfaction from him, and after a while he divorced her. Then she came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! My first husband divorced me and then I married another man who entered upon me to consummate his marriage but he proved to be impotent and did not approach me except once during which he benefited nothing from me. Can I re-marry my first husband in this case?” Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “It is unlawful to marry your first husband till the other husband consummates his marriage with you.”

(8) CHAPTER. “O Prophet! Why do you forbid (for yourself) that which Allah has allowed to you…?” (V.66:1)

5266. Narrated Sa‘îd bin Jubair that he heard Ibn ‘Abbãs saying, “If a man makes his wife unlawful for him, it does not mean that she is divorced.” He added, “Indeed in the Messenger of Allah (Muhammad ﷺ), you have a good example to follow…” (V.33:21)

5267. Narrated ‘Ubaid bin ‘Umair: I heard ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها saying, “The Prophet ﷺ used to stay for a long while with Zainab bint Jahsh and drink honey at her house. So Ḥafṣa and I decided that if the Prophet ﷺ came to any one of us, she should say to him, ‘I detect the smell of Maghāfîr (a nasty smelling gum) in you. Have you eaten Maghāfîr? So the Prophet ﷺ visited one of them and she said to him similarly. The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Never mind, I have taken some honey at the house of Zainab bint Jahsh, but I shall never drink of it anymore.’ So there was revealed: ‘O Prophet! Why do you forbid (for yourself) that which Allāh has allowed to you... (up to)... If you two (wives of Prophet ﷺ) turn in repentance to Allāh,’ (V.66:1-4) addressing ‘Aishah and Hafṣa. ‘When the Prophet  disclosed a matter in confidence to one of his wives (Hafṣa).’ (V.66:3) namely his saying: ‘But I have taken some honey’.

(1) (H. 5266) By saying to her, “You are unlawful for me.”

5268. Narrated ‘Aishah رضي الله عنها:
Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was fond of honey and sweet edible things and (it was his habit) that after finishing the ‘Asr prayer he would visit his wives and stay with one of them at that time. Once he went to Hafṣa, the daughter of ‘Umar and stayed with her more than usual. I got jealous and asked the reason for that. I was told that a lady of her folk had given her a skin filled with honey as a present, and that she made a syrup from it and gave it to the Prophet ﷺ to drink (and that was the reason for the delay). I said, “By Allāh, we will play a trick on him (to prevent him from doing so).” So I said to Sauda bint Zam’a, “The Prophet ﷺ will approach you, and when he comes near you, say: ‘Have you taken Maghāfir (a bad-smelling gum)?’ He will say, ‘No.’ Then say to him: ‘Then what is this bad smell which I smell from you?’ He will say to you, ‘Hafṣa made me drink honey syrup.’ Then say: ‘Perhaps the bees of that honey had sucked the juice of the tree of Al-‘Urfut.‘(1) I shall also say the same. O you, Safiyya, say the same.” Later Sauda said, “By Allāh, as soon as he (the Prophet ﷺ) stood at the door, I was about to say to him what you had ordered me to say because I was afraid of you.” So when the Prophet ﷺ came near Sauda, she said to him, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Have you taken Magâfir?” He said, “No.” She said, “Then what is this bad smell which I detect on you?” He said, “Hafṣa made me drink honey syrup.” She said, “Perhaps its bees had sucked the juice of Al-‘Urfut tree.” When he came to me, I also said the same, and when he went to Ṣafîyya, she also said the same. And when the Prophet ﷺ again went to Ḥafṣa, she said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Shall I give you more of that drink?” He said, “I am not in need of it.” Sauda said, “By Allâh, we deprived him (of it).” I said to her, “Keep quiet.”

(9) CHAPTER. There is no divorce before marriage. And the Statement of Allâh ﷻ

“O you who believe! When you marry believing women and then divorce them before you have sexual intercourse with them, no ‘Iddâ [divorce prescribed period (V.65:4)] have you to count in respect of them. So give them a present and set them free i.e. divorce in handsome manner.”

(V.33:49)

Ibn ‘Abbâs said: Allâh has mentioned the divorce after the wedding. It is reported that ‘Alî, Sa’îd bin Al-Musaiyab, ‘Urwa bin Az-Zubair, and many others said that a woman cannot be divorced before being married. (1)

(1) (Ch. 9) i.e., If one says: “If I marry so-and-so, she will be divorced,” his saying will not be of any effect if he marries her.
(10) CHAPTER. If, under compulsion somebody says about his wife, “She is my sister,” there is no blame on him.

The Prophet ﷺ said: “Prophet Abraham said about his wife Sarah: ‘She is my sister’. He meant his sister in Allah’s religion.”

(11) CHAPTER. (What is said regarding) a divorce given in a state of anger, under compulsion or under the effect of intoxicants or insanity. And what is the verdict about them. And what if one ascribes partners to Allah or divorces his wife or does other things by mistake or through forgetfulness. We may refer to the saying of the Prophet ﷺ:

“The deeds are evaluated according to one’s intentions, and everybody will receive the reward of what he has intended.”

Ash-Sha’bi recited:

“(Our Lord)! Punish us not if we forget or fall into error.” (V.2:286)

And what is not valid of the confession of a person suffering from whispers in his heart.

And the Prophet ﷺ said to the man who confessed against himself: “Are you mad?”

And ‘Ali said: Hamza cut open the flanks of my two she-camels and then the Prophet ﷺ started admonishing Hamza. But behold, Hamza was heavily drunk and his eyes were red. Hamza then said: “Are not all of you... but the slaves of my father?" Thereupon the Prophet realized that Hamza was not in his senses, so he came out and we too, came out along with him.

‘Uthmân said: A divorce given by an insane man or a drunk is not valid.

Ibn ‘Abbâs said: A divorce given by a drunk or given under compulsion is not valid.

And ‘Uqba bin ‘Amir said: A divorce meditated by a man because of the whisperings of his heart is not valid.

And ‘Aṭâ said: If some started with (the word of) divorce only then there is its conditions (otherwise not).

And Nâfi’ said: A man declared that if his wife went out of her house, she would be irrevocably divorced.

Ibn ‘Umar said (regarding the above case): If she went out, her divorce would be irrevocable, but if she did not go out, nothing would happen to her.

Regarding a man saying: “If I do such-and-such a thing, then my wife is divorced thrice.” Az-Zuhri said: Such a man is to be asked as to what he had said, and what he had really intended in his mind while swearing the above oath. If he had mentioned a fixed time and he had really intended what he said when he took the oath, then his statement would be taken into account and would be considered as his religion and his honesty.

And Ibrãhim said: If someone says (to his wife), “I am not in need of you. Then the verdict is to be given according to his intention. And a divorce is valid when expressed in the language of the nation to which the person belongs.

And Qatada said: If someone says (to his wife), “If you become pregnant, then you are divorced thrice,” he should have sexual intercourse with her once only every time she becomes clean after her menstruation, and if her pregnancy becomes apparent, she will be regarded as divorced irrevocably.

And Al-Hasan said: If a man says to his wife, "Go to your family," then his intention is to be taken into consideration.

And Ibn ‘Abbās said: Divorce is only to be resorted to when it is very essential. But the manumission of slaves is recommended whenever it is meant for Allāh’s sake.

And Az-Zuhri said: If a man says (to his wife), “You are not my wife,” then the verdict is to be given according to his intention, i.e. if he has intended a divorce, then it will be according to what he has intended.

And ‘Ali said: Don’t you know that the pen is raised from three (are exempted from the accounts): – an insane person till he becomes sane; a child till he reaches the age of puberty; and a sleeping person till he wakes up? ‘Ali also said: All divorces are legally valid except that of a person who has no intelligence (e.g., insane or drunk).

5269. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allāh has forgiven my followers the evil thoughts that occur to their minds, as long as such thoughts are not put into action or uttered.”

And Qatādah said: If someone divorces his wife just in his mind, such an unuttered divorce has no effect.

5270. Narrated Jābir: A man from the tribe of Bani Aslam came to the Prophet ﷺ while he was in the mosque and said, “I have committed illegal sexual intercourse.” The Prophet ﷺ turned his face to the other side. The man turned towards the side towards which the Prophet ﷺ had turned his face, and gave four witnesses against himself. On that the Prophet ﷺ called him and said, “Are you insane?” (He added), “Are you married?” The man said, “Yes.” On that the Prophet ﷺ ordered him to be stoned to the death in the Musâllâ. When the stones hit him with their sharp edges, he fled, but he was caught at Al-Ḥarra and then killed.

5271. Narrated Abu Hurairah ﺑ: A man from Banî Aslâm came to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ while he was in the mosque and called (the Prophet ﷺ) saying, “O Allah’s Messenger! I have committed illegal sexual intercourse.” On that the Prophet ﷺ turned his face from him to the other side, whereupon the man moved to the side towards which the Prophet ﷺ had turned his face, and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I have committed illegal sexual intercourse.” The Prophet ﷺ turned his face (from him) to the other side whereupon the man moved to the side towards which the Prophet ﷺ had turned his face, and repeated his statement. The Prophet ﷺ turned his face (from him) to the other side again. The man moved again (and repeated his statement) for the fourth time. So when the man had given witness four times against himself, the Prophet ﷺ called him and said, “Are you insane?” He replied, “No.” The Prophet ﷺ then said (to his Companions), “Go and stone him to death.” The man was a married one.
5272. Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh Al-Anṣārī added: I was one of those who stoned him. We stoned him at the Musalla in Al-Madīna. When the stones hit him with their sharp edges, he fled, but we caught him at Al-Ḥarra and stoned him till he died. (See H. 5270)

(12) CHAPTER. Al-Khul (1) and how a divorce is given according to it.

And the Statement of Allāh: "It is not lawful for you (men) to take back (from your wives) any of your Mahr, which you have given them, except when both parties fear that they would be unable to keep the limits ordained by Allāh." (V. 2:229)

‘Umar allowed Al-Khul even without taking the permission of the authorities. And ‘Uthmān permitted the husband in the case of Khul to take from his wife everything other than the ribbon of her hair.

Regarding the Verse:
"Except when both parties fear that they would be unable to keep the limits ordained by Allāh." (V. 2:229)

Ṭawūs said: That is what Allāh has ordained to be the right of each of them on the other regarding their family relationship and friendly companionship. And Tawūs did not say as the ignorant people say: Al-Khul is not permissible unless the woman says to her husband, “I will not clean myself from Janāba (i.e. I will not have sexual relations with you).”

5273. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The wife of Thābit bin Qais came to the

(1) (Chap. 12) ‘Al-Khul’ means the parting of a wife from her husband by giving him a certain compensation.
Prophet ﷺ and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I do not blame Thābit for defects in his character or his religion, but I, being a Muslim, dislike to behave in an un-Islamic manner (if I remain with him).” On that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said (to her), “Will you give back the garden which your husband has given you (as Mahr)?” She said, “Yes.” Then the Prophet ﷺ said to Thābit, “O Thābit! Accept your garden, and divorce her once.”

5274. Narrated ‘Ikrima: The sister of ‘Abdullāh bin Ubayy narrated (the above narration, 5273) with the addition that the Prophet ﷺ said to Thābit’s wife, “Will you return his garden?” She said, “Yes,” and returned it, and (then) the Prophet ﷺ ordered Thābit to divorce her.

5275. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The wife of Thābit bin Qais came to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! I do not blame Thābit for any defects in his character or his religion, but I cannot endure to live with him.” On that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Will you return his garden to him?” She said, “Yes.”
5276.Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: The wife of Thābit bin Qais bin Shammās came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! I do not blame Thābit for any defects in his character or his religion, but I am afraid that I (being a Muslim) may become unthankful for Allāh’s Blessings.” On that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said (to her), “Will you return his garden to him?” She said, “Yes.” So she returned his garden to him and the Prophet ﷺ told him to divorce her.

5277. Narrated ‘Ikrima that Jamila... Then he related the whole Hadith, (i.e. 5276).

(13) CHAPTER. Ash-Shiqq (the breach between the man and his wife). Is Khul’ to be recommended if necessary?
And the Statement of Allāh ﷻ:
“If you fear breach between them twain (the man and his wife)…” (V.4:35)

5278. Narrated Al-Miswar bin Makhrama: I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, “Banū Al-Mughira have asked my leave to let ‘Ali marry their daughter, but I give no leave to this effect.”

(14) CHAPTER. Selling a female slave does not necessarily lead to her divorce.

5279. Narrated ‘Āishah the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: Three traditions were established concerning that in which Barîra was involved: When she was manumitted, she was given the option to keep her husband or leave him; Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Al-Wala’”(1) is for the one who manums.” Once Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ entered the house while some meat was being cooked in a pot, but only bread and some soup of the house were placed before him. He said, “Don’t I see the pot containing meat?” They said, “Yes, but that meat was given to Barîra in charity (by someone), and you do not eat what is given in charity.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “That meat is a charity for her, but for us it is a present.” (See H. 5430)

(15) CHAPTER. A female slave, whose husband is a slave, has the option to keep him or leave him (when she is manumitted).

5281. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbãs: That was Mughith, the slave of Bani so-and-so, i.e., Barîra’s husband - as if I am now looking at him following her (Barîra) along the streets of Al-Madina.

(1) (H. 5279) Wala’: See the glossary.
5282. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Barira’s husband was a black slave called Mughith, the slave of Bani so-and-so - as if I am seeing him now, walking behind her along the streets of Al-Madina.

5283. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Barira’s husband was a slave called Mughith - as if I am seeing him now, going behind Barira and weeping with his tears flowing down his beard. The Prophet ﷺ said to ‘Abbās, “O ‘Abbās! are you not astonished at the love of Mughith for Barira and the hatred of Barira for Mughith?” The Prophet ﷺ then said to Barira, “Why don’t you return to him?” She said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Do you order me to do so?” He said, “No, I only intercede for him.” She said, “I am not in need of him.”

(16) CHAPTER. The intercession of the Prophet ﷺ for Barira’s husband.

5284. Narrated Al-Aswad: ‘Aishah mentioned that to the Prophet ﷺ who said (to ‘Aishah), “Buy and manumit her, for Al-Walā’” is for the one who manumits." Once some meat was brought to the Prophet ﷺ and it was said, "This meat was given in charity to Barira." The Prophet ﷺ said, "It is an object of charity for Barira and a present for us."

Narrated Adam: Shu'ba related the same Hadith and added: Barira was given the option regarding her husband. (See H. 5430)

(18) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah ﷺ:

"Do not marry Al-Mushrikat (idolatresses) till they believe (i.e. worship Allah Alone). And indeed a slave woman who believes is better than a (free) Mushrikah (idolatress) even though she pleases you." (V.2:221)

5285. Narrated Nāfi': Whenever Ibn 'Umar was asked about marrying a Christian lady or a Jewess, he would say: "Allāh has made it unlawful for the believers to marry Al-Mushrikat (ladies who ascribe partners in worship to Allāh), and I do not know of a greater thing, as regards to ascribing partners in worship, etc. to Allāh, than that a lady should say that Jesus is her Lord although he is just a slave from the slaves of Allāh".

(19) CHAPTER. Marrying Al-Mushrikat (pagan ladies) who had embraced Islam; and their 'Idda.

5286. Narrated Ibn 'Abbās: Al-Mushrikūn(1) were of two kinds as regards their relationship to the Prophet ﷺ and the believers. Some of them were those with whom the Prophet ﷺ was at war and used to fight against, and they used to fight him; the others were those with whom the Prophet ﷺ... had a treaty, and neither did the Prophet fight them, nor did they fight him. If a lady from the first group of Al-Mushrikin(1) emigrated towards the Muslims, her hand would not be asked in marriage unless she got the menses and then became clean. When she became clean, it would be lawful for her to get married, and if her husband emigrated too before she got married, then she would be returned to him. If any slave or female slave emigrated from them to the Muslims, then they would be considered free persons (not slaves) and they would have the same rights as given to other emigrants. The narrator then mentioned about Al-Mushrikin(1) involved with the Muslims in a treaty, the same as occurs in Mujahid's narration. If a male slave or a female slave emigrated from such Al-Mushrikin(1) as had made a treaty with the Muslims, they would not be returned, but their prices would be paid (to Al-Mushrikin(1)).

5287. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Qariba, the daughter of Ābi Umāiyah, was the wife of ‘Umar bin Al-Khāṭāb. ‘Umar divorced her and then Mu‘āwiya bin Ābi Sufyān married her. Similarly, Umm Al-Ḥakam, the daughter of Ābi Sufyān was the wife of ʻĪyāḍ bin Ghanm Al-Fihri. He divorced her and then ʻAbdullāh bin ‘Uthmān Ath-Thaqafī married her.

(20) CHAPTER. (What) if an idolatress (Al-Mushrikah) or a Christian woman becomes a Muslim while she is the wife of a Dhimmi (i.e., a non-Muslim under the protection of a Muslim government), or a Mushrik at war with the Muslims?

Ibn ‘Abbās said: If a Christian... woman embraces Islam before her husband by a short while, she will by no means remain as his wife legally.

‘Ata was asked about a woman from Al-Mushrikûn who had a treaty with the Muslims: She embraced Islam, and during her ‘Idda, her husband embraced Islam too? Could he retain her as his wife? ‘Ata said: No, unless she is willing to re-marry him with a new marriage and a new Mahr.

Mujahid said: If the husband embraces Islam during the ‘Idda (of his wife), he can marry her.

And Allah ﷻ said:

“They are not lawful (wives) for the disbelievers, nor are the disbelievers lawful (husbands) for them.” (V.60:10)

Al-Ḥasan and Qatāda said regarding a Magian couple who embraced Islam: Their marriage remains valid, but if one of them becomes a Muslim and the other refuses to become a Muslim, the wife is regarded as divorced, and the husband has no right to keep her as a wife.

Ibn Juraij said: I asked ‘Ata, “If a Mushrikah comes to the Muslims (i.e., embraces Islam), will the husband be compensated for losing her as is indicated by the Statement of Allah:

‘But give the disbelievers that (amount of money) which they have spent (as their Mahr)?’” (V.60:10)

‘Ata replied, “No, for this was valid only between the Prophet ﷺ and those Al-Mushrikûn who made a treaty with him.” And Mujahid said: All this was valid in a treaty between the Prophet ﷺ and the Quraish.

5288. Narrated ‘Aishah ﷺ, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: Whenever believing women came to the Prophet ﷺ as emigrants, he used to test them in accordance with the Order of Allah ﷻ:
“O you who believe! When believing women come to you as emigrants, examine them...” (V.60:10)

So if anyone of those believing women accepted the above mentioned conditions, she accepted the conditions of Faith. When they agreed on those conditions and confessed that with their tongues, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ would say to them, “Go, I have accepted your Bai’a (pledge) (for Islam).” ‘Aishah added: By Allah, the hand of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ never touched the hand of any woman, but he only used to take their Bai’a (pledge) orally. By Allah, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ did not take the Bai’a (pledge) of the women except in accordance with what Allah had ordered him. When he accepted their Bai’a (pledge) he would say to them, “I have accepted your Bai’a (pledge).” (See H.2713)

(21) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ:

“Those who take an oath, not to have sexual relations with their wives, must wait four months.” (V.2:226)

5289. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ took an oath that he would abstain from his wives, and at that time his leg had been sprained (dislocated). So he stayed in the Məshrubɑ (an attic room) of his for 29 days. Then he came down, and they (the people) said, “O Allah’s Messenger! You took an oath to abstain... from your wives for one month." He said, "The month is of twenty-nine days."

5290. Narrated Nafi': Ibn 'Umar used to say about At-Il'a(1) which Allah Almighty defined (in the Qur'an), "If the period of 'Il'a expires, then the husband has either to retain his wife in a handsome manner or to divorce her as Allah Almighty has ordered."

5291. Ibn 'Umar added: "When the period of four months has expired, the husband should be put in prison so that he should divorce his wife, but the divorce does not occur unless the husband himself declares it. This has been mentioned by 'Uthman, Ali, Abu Ad-Dardã, 'Aishah and twelve other Companions of the Prophet (22)."

(22) CHAPTER. What are the regulations concerning the property and the family of a lost person?

Ibn Al-Musaiyah said: If a person is lost from a file in a battle, his wife should wait for one year (before she re-maries).

Ibn Mas'ud bought a slave-girl and searched for her owner for one year (in order to give him her price) but he could not find him for he was lost. So Ibn Mas'ud started giving one or two Dirhams (to poor people), and said, "O Allah! Accept this (alms) on behalf of such-and-such person; and if he returns, the reward for this giving

---

(1) (H. 5290) 'Il'a' means the oath taken by a husband that he would not approach his wife for a certain period.
will come to me, and I shall pay that person the price of the slave-girl.” Ibn Mas'ūd further said: “You should do so with a Luqata (something found).” Ibn ‘Abbās narrated similarly.

Az-Zuhri said regarding a captive whose place (of stay) is known: His wife should not re-marry, nor should his property be distributed, but when news about him ceases to come, then his case is to be treated as the case of a lost person.

5292. Narrated Yazīd, the Maula of Munba'īth: The Prophet ﷺ was asked regarding the case of a lost sheep. He said, “You should take it, because it is for you, or for your brother, or for the wolf.” Then he was asked about a lost camel. He got angry and his face became red and he said (to the questioner), “You have nothing to do with it; it has its feet and its water container with it; it can go on drinking water and eating trees till its owner meets it.” And then the Prophet ﷺ was asked about a Luqata (money found by somebody). He said, “Remember and recognize its tying material and its container, and make public announcement about it for one year. If somebody comes and identifies it (then give it to him), otherwise add it to your property.”
(23) CHAPTER. Az-Zihâr.(1)

And the Statement of Allah:

“Indeed Allah has heard the statement of her (Khula bint Tha’laba) that disputes with you (O Muḥammad ﷺ) concerning her husband (Aus bin Aṣ-Ṣâmit)… (up to)… and for him who is unable to do so, he should feed sixty of the poor.” (V.58:1-4)

Narrated Mālik that he asked Ibn Shihāb about Az-Zihâr of a slave. He said, “It is like Az-Zihâr of a free man.” Mālik said: The fasting of a slave (in the above case) is two months.

And Al-Ḥasan bin Al-Ḥurrah said: Az-Zihâr of a free man or a slave towards a free lady or a slave lady is the same.

Ikrima said: If someone declares Zihâr towards his slave girl, it has no significance, for Zihâr is only valid in cases involving actual wives.

(24) CHAPTER. Using gestures to express the decision of divorcing and other matters.

Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allah will not punish (people) because of the tears they shed (over the dead) but He will punish (them) because of this,” pointing to his tongue.

Ka’b bin Mālik said: The Prophet ﷺ gestured to me with his hand, ordering me to take half (my due).

Asmā’ said: Once the Prophet ﷺ offered the eclipse Ṣalāt (prayer). I asked Ḥāshim while she was offering the Ṣalāt (prayer),

(1) (Ch. 23) Az-Zihâr is the saying of a husband to his wife, “You are to me like the back of my mother,” i.e., “you are unlawful for me to approach.”
“What is the matter with the people?” She pointed towards the sun with her head. I asked, “Is there a sign?” She nodded, agreeing.

Anas said: The Prophet signaled to Bakr with his hand to lead the Salāt (prayer).

Ibn 'Abbas said: The Prophet waved his hand, indicating that there was no harm (in a certain matter).

Abū Qatāda said: The Prophet said (to his Companions) regarding hunting by a Muḥrim, “Did anyone of you (while in the state of Ḥiṣām) order him (a non-Muḥrim) to attack the game, or did anyone of you point at it (to draw his attention)?” They said, “No.” On that the Prophet said: “Then eat of it.” (1)

5293. Narrated Ibn 'Abbas: Allah’s Messenger performed the Tawāf (around the Ka’bah) while riding his camel, and every time he reached the corner (of the Black Stone) he pointed at it with his hand and said “Allāhu Akbar.”

(Zainab said: The Prophet said, “An opening has been made in the wall of Gog and Magog like this and this,” forming the number 90 (with his thumb and index finger).

5294. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Abū Qāsim (the Prophet) said, “There is an hour (or a moment) of particular significance on Friday. If it happens that a Muslim is offering a Salāt (prayer) and

(1) (Chap. 24) This is part of a story where a non-Muḥrim had hunted game, and those who were in the state of Ḥiṣām hesitated to eat thereof, so the Prophet asked them whether they had participated in its hunting with a word or a gesture. When they denied that, he allowed them to eat of it.
invoking Allâh for some good at that very moment, Allâh will grant him his request.”
(The subnarrator placed the top of his finger on the palm of the other hand between the middle finger and the little one). (See H.935)

5295. Narrated Anas bin Malik: During the lifetime of Allâh’s Messenger, a Jew attacked a girl and took some silver ornaments she was wearing and crushed her head. Her relatives brought her to the Prophet while she was in her last breaths, and she was unable to speak. Allâh’s Messenger asked her, “Who has hit you? So-and-so?”, mentioning somebody other than her murderer. She moved her head, indicating denial. The Prophet mentioned another person other than the murderer, and she again moved her head indicating denial. Then he asked, “Was it so-and-so?”, mentioning the name of her killer. She nodded, agreeing. Then Allâh’s Messenger ordered that the head of that Jew be crushed between two stones. (See H.2413) 5296. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: I heard the Prophet saying, “Al-Fîtnah (trial or affliction) will emerge from here,” pointing towards the East.

5297. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin Abî Aufâ: We were with Allâh’s Messenger on a journey, and when the sun set, he said to a man, “Get down and prepare a drink of Sawiq for me.” The man said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Will you wait till it is evening?” Allah’s Messenger again said, “Get down and prepare a drink of Sawiq.” The man said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Will you wait till it is evening, for it is still daytime.” The Prophet again said, “Get down and prepare a drink of Sawiq.” So the third time the man got down and prepared a drink of Sawiq for him. Allah’s Messenger drank thereof and pointed with his hand towards the East, saying, “When you see the night falling from this side, then a fasting person should break his fast.” (See H. 1941)

5298. Narrated ‘Abdullãh bin Ms’Ud: The Prophet said, “The call (or the Ādhan) of Bilãl should not stop you from taking the Sahur-meals, for Bilãl calls (or pronounces the Ādhan) so that the one who is offering the night prayer should take a rest, and it does not indicate the daybreak or dawn.” The narrator, Yazid, described (how dawn breaks) by stretching out his hands and then separating them wide apart.

5299. Narrated Abã Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “The example of a miser and a generous person is like that of two persons wearing iron cloaks from the breast up to the neck. When the generous person spends, the iron cloak enlarges and spread over his skin so much so that it covers his fingertips and obliterates his tracks. As for the miser, as soon as he thinks of spending, every ring of the iron cloak sticks to its place (against his body) and he tries to expand it, but it does not expand. The Prophetﷺ pointed with his hand towards his throat.

(25) CHAPTER. Al-Li‘ân. (1)

The Statement of Allâh Ṭauwâlî: “And for those who accuse their wives... (up to)... if he (her husband) speaks the truth.” (V.24:6-9)

If a dumb man accuses his wife (of an illegal sexual intercourse) by means of writing, pointing or giving a familiar nod, then he is like the one who can speak, for the Prophetﷺ has permitted the use of gestures in performing the orders prescribed by Allâh. That is the saying of some people of Hijâz and some learned men.

And Allâh Ṭauwâlî said:

“Then she (Mary) pointed to him (Jesus). They said, ‘How can we talk to one who is a child in the cradle?’ ” (V.19:29)

And Ad-Dâhâk said: ‘Ilâ-Râmzâ’ means ‘only with signals’.

Some scholars said: Neither a legal prescribed punishment, nor Li‘ân (are permissible to be carried out through gestures). Yet he said: If somebody expresses his decision to divorce his wife by means of writing, pointing or nodding, it is permissible. But there is no difference between divorcing and accusing. If that scholar says that accusation can be only through speech, he will be answered that;

(1) (Ch. 25) See the glossary.
similarly, divorce cannot be given except through speech, otherwise both divorce and accusation are invalid. The same is true about the manumission of slaves. A deaf person is permitted to do Li‘ān.

Ash-Sha‘bī and Qatada said: If someone says, “You are divorced,” and points with his fingers, his gesture is enough to bring about the divorce.

Ibrāhīm said: If a dumb person writes a divorce with his hand, it becomes valid.

And Ḥamād said: If a dumb or a deaf person gives a nod (to indicate something), it is sufficient.

5300. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Allah’s Messenger said, “Shall I tell you of the best families among the Ansār?” They (the people) said, “Yes, O Allah’s Messenger! The Prophet said, ‘The best are Banū An-Najjār, and after them are Banū ‘Abd Al-Ash-hal, and after them are Banū Al-Ḥarīth bin Al-Khazraj, and after them are Banū Sā‘īda.’” The Prophet then moved his hand by closing his fingers and then opening them like one throwing something, and then said, “Anyhow, there is good in all the families of the Ansār.”

5301. Narrated Sahl bin Sa‘d As-Sā‘i’dī, a Companion of Allah’s Messenger: Allah’s Messenger, holding out his middle and index fingers, said, “My advent and the Hour’s are like this (or like these),” namely, the period between his era and the Hour is like the distance between those two fingers, i.e., very short.
5302. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: The Prophet (holding out his ten fingers thrice) said, “The month is thus and thus and thus,” namely thirty days. Then (holding out his ten fingers twice and then nine fingers) he said, “It may be thus and thus and thus,” namely twenty-nine days. He meant once thirty days and once twenty-nine days.

5303. Narrated Abū Mas'ūd: The Prophet (pointing with his hand towards Yemen and said twice, “Faith is there,” and then pointed towards the East, and said, “Verily, sternness and mercilessness are the qualities of those who are busy with their camels and pay no attention to their religion, from where comes out the two sides of the head of Satan, namely, the tribes of Rabi'a and Mūḍar.”

5304. Narrated Sahl: Allāh’s Messenger said, “I and the one who looks after an orphan will be like this in Paradise,” showing his middle and index fingers and separating them.

(26) CHAPTER. If a husband hints that he suspects his paternity to a child.

5305. Narrated Abū Hurairah: A man came to the Prophet and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! A black child has been... born for me.” The Prophet asked him, “Have you got camels?” The man said, “Yes.” The Prophet asked him, “What colour are they?” The man replied, “Red.” The Prophet said, “Is there a grey one among them?” The man replied, “Yes.” The Prophet said, “Whence comes that?” He said, “May be it is because of heredity.” The Prophet said, “May be your (latest) son has this colour because of heredity.”

(27) CHAPTER. Commanding those who are involved in a case of Li‘ân(1) to take the oath (of Li‘ân).

5306.Narrated ‘Abdullah: An Anṣārī man accused his wife (of committing illegal sexual intercourse). The Prophet made both of them take the oath of Li‘ân, and separated them from each other (by divorce).

(28) CHAPTER. The man should start the process of Li‘ân.

5307. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Hilāl bin Umaiyya accused his wife of illegal sexual intercourse and came to the Prophet to bear witness (against her), (taking the oath of Li‘ân). The Prophet was saying, “Allāh knows that either of you is a liar. Will anyone of you repent (to Allāh)?” Then the lady got up and gave her witness.

(1) (Chap. 27) Li‘ân: See the glossary.
5308. Narrated Sahl bin Sa'd As-Sā'īdī: ‘Uwaimir Al-'Ajlānī came to ‘Āṣim bin Adī Al-Anṣārī and said to him, “O ‘Āṣim! Suppose a man saw another man with his wife, would he kill him whereupon you would kill him; or what should he do? Please, O ‘Āṣim, ask about this on my behalf.” ‘Āṣim asked Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ about it. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ disliked that question and considered it disgraceful. What ‘Aim heard from Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was hard on him. When ‘Aim returned to his family, ‘Uwaimir came to him and said, “O ‘Āṣim! What did Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ say to you?” ‘Aim said to ‘Uwaimir, “You never bring me any good. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ disliked the problem which I asked him about.” ‘Uwaimir said, “By Allah, I will not give up this matter until I ask the Prophet ﷺ about it.” So ‘Uwaimir proceeded till he came to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ in the midst of people, and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! If a man sees another man with his wife, would he kill him, whereupon you would kill him, or what should he do?” Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “Allāh has revealed some decree as regards you and your wife’s case. Go and bring her.” So they carried out the process of Li’ān while I was present among the people with Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ. When they had finished their Li’ān, ‘Uwaimir said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! If I should now keep her with me as a wife, then I have told a lie.” So he divorced her thrice prior to being ordered by Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ. (Ibn Shihāb said: So divorce was the tradition for all those who were involved in a case of Li’ān).
(30) CHAPTER. To carry out Li‘ân (1) in a mosque.

5309. Narrated Ibn Juraij: Ibn Shihāb informed me about Li‘ân and the tradition related to it, referring to the narration of Sahl bin Sa‘d, the brother of Banu Sa‘ida. He said, “An Ansārī man came to Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and said, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! If a man saw another man with his wife, should he kill him, or what should he do?’ So Allah revealed concerning his affair what is mentioned in the Qur’an about the affair of those involved in a case of Li‘ân. The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Allah has given His Verdict regarding you and your wife. So they carried out Li‘ân in the mosque while I was present there. When they had finished, the man said, ‘O Allah’s Messenger! If I should now keep her with me as a wife then I have told a lie about her.’ Then he divorced her thrice without being ordered by Allah’s Messenger ﷺ, when they had finished the Li‘ân process. So he divorced her in front of the Prophet ﷺ.” Ibn Shihāb added, “After their case, it became a tradition that a couple involved in a case of Li‘ân should be separated by divorce. That lady was pregnant then, and later on her son was called by his mother’s name. The tradition concerning their inheritance was that she would be his heir and he would inherit of her property, the share Allah had prescribed for him." Ibn Shihāb said that Sahl bin Sa’d As-Sa‘idi said that the Prophet ﷺ said (in the above narration), “If that lady delivers a small red child like a lizard, then the lady has spoken the truth and the man was a liar, but if she delivers a child with black eyes and huge lips, then her husband has spoken the truth.” Then she delivered it in the shape one would dislike (as it proved her guilty).

(31) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “If I were to stone any person to death without witnesses.”

5310. Narrated Al-Qāsim bin Muhammadd: Ibn ‘Abbās رضي الله عنهما said, “Once Li‘ān was mentioned before the Prophet ﷺ whereupon ‘Āṣim bin Adi said something and went away. Then a man from his tribe came to him, complaining that he had found a man with his wife. ‘Āsim said, ‘I have not been put to task except for my statement (about Li‘ān).’ ‘Āsim took the man to the Prophet ﷺ and the man told him of the state in which he had found his wife. The man was pale, thin, and of lank hair, while the other man whom he claimed he had seen with his wife, was brown, fat and had much flesh on his calves. The Prophet ﷺ invoked, saying, ‘O Allah! Reveal the truth.’ So that lady delivered a child resembling the man whom her husband had mentioned he had found her with. The Prophet ﷺ then made them carry out Li‘ān.” Then a man from that gathering asked Ibn ‘Abbās, “Was she the same lady regarding which the Prophet had said, 'If I were to stone to death someone without witness, I would have stoned this lady?'” Ibn `Abbas said, “No, that was another lady who, though being a Muslim, used to arouse suspicion by her outright misbehaviour.”

(32) CHAPTER. The Mahr in the case of Li‘ān.

5311. Narrated Sa‘id bin Jubair: I asked Ibn ‘Umar, “(What is the verdict if) a man accuses his wife of illegal sexual intercourse?” Ibn ‘Umar said, “The Prophet separated (by divorce) the couple of Bani Al-‘Ajlān, and said (to them), ‘Allāh knows that one of you two is a liar; so will one of you repent?’ But both of them refused. He again said, ‘Allāh knows that one of you two is a liar; so will one of you repent?’ But both of them refused. So he separated them by divorce.” [Ayyūb, a sub-narrator said: ‘Amr bin Dinār said to me, “There is something else in this Hadith which you have not mentioned. It goes thus: The man said, ‘What about my money (i.e. the Mahr that I have given to my wife)?’ It was said, ‘You have no right to restore any money, for if you have spoken the truth (as regards the accusation), you have also consummated your marriage with her; and if you have told a lie, you are less rightful to have your money back’. ”]
(33) CHAPTER. The saying of the Imam (ruler) to those who are involved in a case of Li‘ān: “Surely one of you two is a liar; so will one of you repent (to Allah)?”

5312. Narrated Sa‘d bin Jubair: I asked Ibn ‘Umar about those who were involved in a case of Li‘ān. He said, “The Prophet ﷺ said to those who were involved in a case of Li‘ān, ‘Your accounts are with Allah. One of you two is a liar, and you (the husband) have no right over her (she is divorced).’ The man said, ‘What about my property (Mahr)?’ The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘You have no right to get back your property. If you have told the truth about her then your property was for the consummation of your marriage with her; and if you told a lie about her, then you are less rightful to get your property back.’”

Sufyān, a subnarrator said: I learned the Hadith from ‘Amr.

Narrated Ayyūb: I heard Sa‘d bin Jubair saying, “I asked Ibn ‘Umar, ‘If a man (accuses his wife for an illegal sexual intercourse and) carries out the process of Li‘ān (what will happen)?’ Ibn ‘Umar set two of his fingers apart. (Sufyān set his index finger and middle finger apart.) Ibn ‘Umar said, ‘The Prophet ﷺ separated the couple of Bani Al-Ajlān by divorce and said thrice: Allah knows that one of you two is a liar; so will one of you repent (to Allah)?’”

(34) CHAPTER. The separation (divorce) between those who are involved in a case of Li‘ān.

5313. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ separated (divorced) the wife from her husband who accused her for an illegal sexual intercourse, and made them take the oath of Li‘ān.

made an Ansār man and his wife carry out
Li‘ān, and then separated them by divorce.

(35) CHAPTER. The child is to be given to the lady (accused by her husband for an illegal sexual intercourse).

5315. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet made a man and his wife carry out Li‘ān, and the husband repudiated her child. So the Prophet got them separated (by divorce) and decided that the child belonged to the mother only.

(36) CHAPTER. The statement of the Imām:
“O Allāh! Reveal the truth.”

5316. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās: Those involved in a case of Li‘ān were mentioned before Allāh’s Messenger ‘Āşim bin Adī said something about that and then left. Later on a man from his tribe came to him and told him that he had found another man with his wife. On that ‘Āsim said, “I have not been put to task except for what I have said (about Li‘ān).” ‘Āsim took the man to Allāh’s Messenger and he told him of the state in which he found his wife.
The man was pale, thin and lank-haired, while the other man whom he had found with his wife was brown, fat with thick calves and curly hair. Allah's Messenger said, "O Allah! Reveal the truth." Then the lady delivered a child resembling the man whom her husband had mentioned he had found with her. So Allah's Messenger ordered them to carry out Li'an. A man from that gathering said to Ibn 'Abbâs, "Was she the same lady regarding whom Allah's Messenger said, 'If I were to stone to death someone without witnesses, I would have stoned this lady'?" Ibn 'Abbâs said, "No, that was another lady who, though being a Muslim, used to arouse suspicion because of her outright misbehaviour."

(37) CHAPTER. If a person divorces his wife thrice and she marries another man after the completion of her 'Idda but the second husband does not consummate his marriage with her.

5317. Narrated 'Aishah: Rifâ'a Al-Qurâzî married a lady and then divorced her whereupon she married another man. She came to the Prophet and said that her new husband did not approach her, and that he was completely impotent. The Prophet said (to her), "No (you cannot re-marry your first husband) till you taste the second husband and he tastes you (i.e. till he consummates his marriage with you)."
(38) CHAPTER. “And those of your women as have passed the age of monthly courses, for them the 'Iddah (prescribed period), if you have doubt, (about their periods)…”

(V.65:4)

Mujahid said: If you have any doubt whether they still have monthly courses or not. The period of 'Iddah for those ladies who have reached the menopause, or have never menstruated, is three months.

(39) CHAPTER. “For those who are pregnant (whether they are divorced or their husbands are dead) their 'Iddah (period) is until they laydown their burdens.” (V.65:4)

5318. Narrated Umm Salama, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: A lady from Bani Aslam, called Subai’a, became a widow while she was pregnant. Abú As-Sanábil bin Ba’kak demanded her hand in marriage, but she refused to marry him and said, “By Allah, I cannot marry him unless I have completed one of the two prescribed periods.” About ten days later (after giving birth to her child), she went to the Prophet ﷺ and he said (to her), “You can marry now.”
5319. Narrated 'Ubaidullāh bin 'Abdullāh that his father had written to Ibn Al-Arqam a letter asking him to ask Subai'a Al-Aslamiya how the Prophet had given her the verdict. She said, “The Prophet gave me his verdict that after I gave birth, I could marry.”

5320. Narrated Al-Miswar bin Makhrama: Subai'a Al-Aslamiya gave birth to a child a few days after the death of her husband. She came to the Prophet and asked permission to re-marry, and the Prophet gave her permission, and she got married.

(40) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh

And divorced women shall wait (as regards their marriage) for three menstrual periods.” (V.2:228)

Ibrahim said regarding such a woman as married during the period of 'Idda and had three monthly courses while with him (her second husband). She is regarded as divorced from her first husband.

(41) CHAPTER. The story of Fātima bint Qais.
And the Statement of Allāh  ﷺ:

“And fear Allāh your Lord (O Muslims), and turn them not out of their (husband’s) homes...” (V.65:1)

5321, 5322. Narrated Qāsim bin Mūhammad and Sulaimān bin Yāṣār that Yahyā bin Sā’īd bin Al-ʿĀṣ divorced the daughter of ʿAbdur-Rahmān bin Al-Ḥakām. ʿAbdur-Rahmān took her to his house. On that ʿAīshah sent a message to Marwān bin Al-Ḥakām who was the ruler of Al-Madīna, saying, “Fear Allāh, and urge (your brother) to return her to her house.” Marwān (in Sulaimān’s version) said, “Abdur-Rahmān bin Al-Ḥakām did not obey me (or had a convincing argument).” (In Al-Qāsim’s version) Marwān said, “Have you not heard of the case of Fāṭima bint Qāis?” ʿAīshah said, “The case of Fāṭima bint Qāis is not in your favour.” Marwān bin Al-Ḥakām said to ʿAīshah, “The reason that made Fāṭima bint Qāis go to her father’s house is just applicable to the daughter of ʿAbdur-Rahmān.”

5323, 5324. Narrated Al-Qāsim: ʿAīshah ʿAbbās’ daughter, said, “What is wrong with Fāṭima? Why doesn’t she fear Allāh?” by saying that a divorced lady is not entitled to be provided with residence and sustenance (by her husband).
5325, 5326. Narrated Qāsim: ‘Urwa said to ‘Aishah, the daughter of Al-Ḥakam: “Do you know so-and-so, her husband divorced her irrevocably and she left (her husband’s house).” ‘Aishah said, “What a bad thing she has done!” ‘Urwa said (to ‘Aishah), “Haven’t you heard the statement of Fāṭima?” ‘Aishah replied, “It is not in her favour to mention.” ‘Urwa added, ‘Aishah reproached (Fāṭima) severely and said, “Fāṭima was in a lonely place, and she was prone to danger, so the Prophet allowed her (to go out of her husband’s house).”(1)

5327, 5328. Narrated ‘Urwa: ‘Aishah disapproved of what Fāṭima used to say.(2)

(42) CHAPTER. If a divorced lady is afraid that she may be attacked in her husband’s house or that she may abuse her husband’s family (she has the right to leave her husband’s house).

(43) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh:

(1) (H. 5325) Fāṭima was divorced and came to the Prophet and said, “My husband has divorced me twice, and I am afraid that somebody may attack me in my house.” The Prophet allowed her to move to her parent’s house.

(2) (H. 5327) See Hadith 5323.
“And it is not lawful for them to conceal what Allah has created in their wombs.”

It means) the menses or pregnancy.

5329. Narrated 'Aishah : When Allah’s Messenger  decided to leave Makkah after the Hajj, he saw Safiyya, sad and standing at the entrance of her tent. He said to her, “'Aqrab (or) Halqa! You will detain us. Did you perform Tawaf-al-Ifada on the day of Nahr? She said, “Yes.” He said, “Then you can depart.”

(44) CHAPTER. “And their husbands have the better right to take them (divorced ladies) back,” (V.2:228) during the period of the ‘Idda. And how will a person retain his wife he has divorced once or twice?

And His Statement:

“...do not prevent them...” (V.2:232)

5330. Narrated Al-Hasan : Ma’quil gave his sister in marriage and later her husband divorced her once.

5331. Narrated Al-Hasan: The sister of Ma’quil bin Yasâr was married to a man and then that man divorced her and remained away from her till her period of the ‘Idda expired. Then he demanded for her hand in marriage, but Ma’quil got angry out of pride and haughtiness and said, “He kept away from her when he could still retain her, and now he demands her hand again?” So Ma’quil disagreed to re-marry her to him. Then Allah revealed:
“When you have divorced women and they have fulfilled the term of their prescribed period, do not prevent them from marrying their (former) husbands....”
(V.2:232)

So the Prophet ﷺ sent for Ma‘quil and recited to him (Allah’s Order) and consequently Ma‘quil gave up his pride and haughtiness and yielded to Allah’s Order.

5332. Narrated Nafi’: Ibn ‘Umar bin Al-Khattab رضي الله عنه divorced his wife during her menses. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ ordered him to take her back till she became clean, and when she got another period while she was with him, she should wait till she became clean again and only then, if he wanted to divorce her, he could do so before having sexual relations with her. And that is the period Allah has fixed for divorcing women. Whenever ‘Abdullah (bin ‘Umar) was asked about that, he would say to the questioner, “If you divorced her thrice, she is no longer lawful for you unless she marries another man (and the other man divorces her in his turn).” Ibn ‘Umar further said, “Would that you (people) only give one or two divorces, because the Prophet ﷺ has ordered me so.”

(45) CHAPTER. To take back one’s wife (if she is divorced) while in her menses.

5333. Narrated Yūnus bin Jubair: Ibn ‘Umar divorced his wife while she was having her menses. ‘Umar asked the Prophet ﷺ who said, “Order him (your son) to take her back, and then divorced her before her period of the ‘Idda has elapsed.’ I asked Ibn ‘Umar, ‘Will that divorce (during the menses) be counted?’ He replied, ‘If somebody become helpless and behaves foolishly (will his foolishness be an excuse for his misbehaviour)?’ [See Hādith No.5252].

(46) CHAPTER. A widow should mourn for four months and ten days.

And Az-Zuhri said: I think that a widowed girl should not put perfume, for she has to observe the period of the ‘Idda.

Narrated Ḥumaid bin Nāfi’: Zainab bint Abū Salama told me these (following) three narrations:

5334. Zainab said: I went to Umm Ḥabība, the wife of the Prophet when her father, Abū Sufyān bin Ḥarb had died. Umm Ḥabība asked for a perfume which contained yellow scent (Khalūq) or some other scent, and she first perfumed one of the girls with it and then rubbed her cheeks with it and said, ‘By Allah, I am not in need of perfume, but I have heard Allāh’s Messenger saying, ‘It is not lawful for a lady who believes in Allāh and the Last Day to mourn for a dead person for more than three days unless he is her husband for whom she should mourn for four months and ten days.’"
5335. Zainab further said: I went to Zainab bint Jahsh when her brother died. She asked for perfume, and used some of it and said, “By Allah, I am not in need of perfume. I have heard Allah’s Messenger saying on the pulpit, ‘It is not lawful for a lady who believes in Allah and the Last Day to mourn for more than three days except for her husband for whom she should mourn for four months and ten days.’ ”

5336. Zainab further said: I heard my mother, Umm Salama saying that a woman came to Allah’s Messenger and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! The husband of my daughter has died and she is suffering from an eye disease, can she apply kohl to her eyes?” Allah’s Messenger replied, “No,” twice or thrice. (Every time she repeated her question) he said, “No.” Then Allah’s Messenger added, “It is just a matter of four months and ten days. In the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance a widow among you should throw a globe of dung when one year has elapsed.”

5337. Humaid said: I said to Zainab, “What does throwing a globe of dung when one year had elapsed mean?” Zainab said, “When a lady was bereaved of her husband, she would live in a wretched small room and put on the worst clothes she had and would not touch any scent till one year had elapsed. Then she would bring an animal, e.g. a donkey, a sheep or a bird and rub her skin (body) against it. The animal against which she would rub her skin (body) would scarcely survive. Only then she would come out of her room, whereupon she would be given a globe of dung which she would throw away and then she would use whatsoever the scent she liked or the other.”

(47) CHAPTER. Can a mourning lady use kohl?

5338. Narrated Umm Salama: A woman was bereaved of her husband and her relatives worried about her eyes (which were inflamed from a disease). They came to Allah's Messenger and asked him to allow them to treat her eyes with kohl, but he said, “She should not apply kohl to her eyes. (In the Pre-Islamic Period of Ignorance) a widowed woman among you would stay in the worst of her clothes (or the worst part of her house) and when a year had elapsed, if a dog passed by her, she would throw a globe of dung. Nay, (she cannot use kohl) till four months and ten days have passed.”

5339. Narrated Umm Ḥabība: The Prophet said, “It is not lawful for a Muslim woman who believes in Allah and the Last Day to mourn for more than three days, except for her husband, for whom she should mourn for four months and ten days.”

5340. Narrated Umm 'Atiyya: We were forbidden to mourn for more than three days except for a husband.
(48) CHAPTER. Qust (incense) may be used by a mourning lady after being cleaned from her menses.

5341. Narrated Umm ‘Atiyya: We were forbidden to mourn for more than three days for a dead person, except for a husband, for whom a wife should mourn for four months and ten days (while in the mourning period) we were not allowed to put kohl in our eyes, nor perfume ourselves, nor wear dyed clothes, except a garment of ‘Asb (special clothes made in Yemen). But it was permissible for us that when one of us became clean from her menses and took a bath, she could use a piece of a certain kind of incense. And it was forbidden for us to follow funeral processions.

(49) CHAPTER. A mourning lady can wear clothes of ‘Asb (a kind of Yemenese cloth that is very coarse).

5342. Narrated Umm ‘Atiyya: The Prophet said, “It is not lawful for a lady who believes in Allāh and the Last Day, to mourn for more than three days for a dead person, except for her husband, in which case she should neither put kohl in her eyes, nor perfume herself, nor wear dyed clothes, except a garment of ‘Asb."

5343. Umm ‘Atiyya added: The Prophet said, “She should not use perfume except when she becomes clean from her menses whereupon she can use Qust and Afar (two kinds of incense)."

(50) CHAPTER. "And those of you who die, and leave behind wives... (up to)... and Alläh is Well-Acquainted with what you do." (V.2:234)

5344. Narrated Mujahid: (regarding the Verse).

"And those of you who die and leave wives behind..." (1)

That was the period of the 'Idda which the widow was obliged to spend in the house of the late husband.

Then Alläh revealed:

"And those of you who die and leave behind wives should bequeath for their wives a year's maintenance and residence without turning them out, but if they leave, there is no sin on you for what they do of themselves, provided it is honourable (e.g. lawful marriage)." (V.2:240)

Mujahid said: Alläh has ordered that a widow has the right to stay for seven months and twenty days with her husband's relatives through her husband's will and testament so that she will complete the period of one year (of 'Idda). But the widow has the right to stay that extra period or go out of her husband's house as is indicated by the Statement of Alläh:

"...without turning them out, but if they (wives) leave, there is no sin on you,..." (V.2:240)

(1) (H. 5344) They shall wait concerning themselves, four months and ten days. (V.2:234)
Ibn 'Abbās said: The above Verse has abrogated (cancelled) the order of spending the period of the 'Idda at her late husband's house, and so she could spend her period of the 'Idda wherever she likes. And Allāh says:

"Without turning them out..."

‘Āṭā said: If she would, she could spend her period of the 'Idda at her husband's house, and live there according to her (husband's) will and testament, and if she would, she could go out (of her husband's house) as Allāh says:

"There is no sin on you for what they do of themselves." (V.2:240)

‘Āṭā added: Then the Verses of inheritance were revealed and the order of residence (for the widow) was abrogated (cancelled), and she could spend her period of the 'Idda wherever she would like, and she was no longer entitled to be provided with residence by her husband's family.

5345. Narrated Zainab bint Umm Salama: When Umm Ḥabiba bint Abī Sufyān was informed of her father's death, she asked for perfume and rubbed it over her arms and said, "I am not in need of perfume, but I have heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, 'It is not lawful for a lady who believes in Allāh and the Last Day to mourn for more than three days except for her husband for whom the (mourning) period is four months and ten days'."

(51) CHAPTER. What is said regarding the earnings of a prostitute and the illegal wedding.
Al-Hasan (Al-Baṣri) said: If a person mistakenly marries a lady from the forbidden degrees of consanguinity (i.e. Mahrum) they should be separated with divorce, and she would keep what she has taken of the Mahr. And she would not be entitled to take anything else. Later on Al-Hasan said: She would be entitled to take her full Mahr. (See H. 2237)

5346.Narrated Abū Mas'ūd: The Prophet prohibited taking the price of a dog, the earnings of a soothsayer and the money earned by prostitution. (See H. 2237)

5347. Narrated Abū Juhaifa: The Prophet cursed the lady who practises tattooing and the one who gets herself tattooed, and one who eats (takes) Ribā (1) (usury) and the one who gives it. And he prohibited taking the price of a dog, and the money earned by prostitution, and cursed the makers of pictures. (See H. 2086 and 2238)

5348. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet forbade taking the earnings of a slave-girl by prostitution.

(52) CHAPTER. (What is said regarding) the Mahr of the lady whose husband entered upon her to consummate his marriage. And does, just entering upon one’s bride, and staying with her in seclusion mean the same as the consummation of marriage. And (what) if a man divorced his wife before entering upon her and before consummating his marriage with her.

5349. Narrated Sa‘îd bin Jubair: I said to Ibn ‘Umar, “If a man accuses his wife of illegal sexual intercourse (what is the judgement)?” He said, “Allâh’s Prophet ﷺ separated the couple of Banî ‘Ajlân (when the husband accused his wife for an illegal sexual intercourse). The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Allâh knows that one of you two is a liar; so will one of you repent?’ But they refused. He then again said, ‘Allâh knows that one of you two is a liar; so will one of you repent?’ But they refused, whereupon he separated them by divorce.” Ayyûb (a subnarrator) said: ‘Amr bin Dînâr said to me, “In the narration there is something which I do not see you mentioning, i.e. the husband said, “What about my money (Mahr)?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “You are not entitled to take back your money, for if you told the truth you have already entered upon her (and consummated your marriage with her) and if you are a liar then you are less entitled to take it back.”

(53) CHAPTER. The gift given by a husband to a divorced lady for whom Mahr has not been fixed, by virtue of the Statement of Allâh ﷺ:

“There is no sin on you if you divorce women while yet you have not touched (had sexual relation with) them nor appointed unto them their Mahr (bridal money given by the husband to his wife at the time of marriage) (up to) All-Seer of what you do.” (V.2:236,237)

And Allâh also said:

“And for divorced women, maintenance (should be provided) on a reasonable (scale). This is a duty on Al-Muttaqûn(1)

---

(1) (Chap. 53) Al-Muttaqûn means pious and righteous persons who fear Allâh much=
(the pious). Thus Allah makes clear His Ayât (laws) to you in order that you may understand”. (V.2:241,242)

The Prophet ﷺ did not mention that the gift should be given to the lady whom her husband divorced after they had been involved in a case of Li’ân.

5350. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar Ḥādi: The Prophet ﷺ said to those who were involved in a case of Li’ân, “Your accounts are with Allah. One of you two is a liar. You (husband) have right on her (wife).” The husband said, “My money, O Allah’s Messenger!” The Prophet ﷺ said, “You are not entitled to take back any money. If you have told the truth, the Mahr that you paid, was for having sexual relations with her lawfully; and if you are a liar, then you are less entitled to get it back.”

(抜罪 the pious). Thus Allah makes clear His Ayât (laws) to you in order that you may understand”. (V.2:241,242)
1) CHAPTER. And the superiority of providing for one's family.

And the Statement of Allah:

"And they ask you what they ought to spend. Say: That which is beyond your needs. Thus Allah make clear to you His laws in order that you may give thought in (to) this worldly life and the Hereafter."

(V.2:219,220)

And Al-Hasan said: "Al-'Afwā" means the surplus (i.e. beyond your needs).

5351. Narrated Abū Mas'ūd Al-Anṣārī: The Prophet ﷺ said, "When a Muslim spends something on his family intending to receive Allah's reward, it is regarded as Ṣadāqa (act of charity) for him."

5353. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, "The one who looks after a widow or a poor person is like a Mujāhid (warrior) who fights for Allah's Cause, or like him who performs Ṣalāt (prayers) all the night and observes Saum" (fast) all the day.”

5354. Narrated Sa’d: The Prophet visited me at Makkah while I was ill. I said (to him), “I have property; May I bequeath all my property in Alläh’s Cause?” He said, “No.” I said, “Half of it”? He said, “No.” I said, “One-third of it?” He said, “One-third (is alright), yet it is still too much, for you’d better leave your inheritors wealthy than leave them poor, begging of others. Whatever you spend will be considered a Sadaqa (act of charity) for you, even the mouthful of food you put in the mouth of your wife. Anyhow Alläh may let you recover, so that some people may benefit by you and others be harmed by you.”

(2) CHAPTER. It is obligatory to spend for one’s wife and household.

5355. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “The best alms is that which is given when one is rich, and a giving hand is better than a taking one, and you should start first to support your dependants. A wife says, ‘You should either provide me with food or divorce me.’ A slave says, ‘Give me food and enjoy my service.’ A son says, ‘Give me food; to whom do you leave me?’” The people said, “O Abū Hurairah! Did you hear that from Alläh’s Messenger?” He said, “No, it is from my ownself.”
5356. Narrated Abū Hurairah ﺍ. ﺍ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The best alms is that which you give when you are rich, and you should start first to support your dependants.”

(3) CHAPTER. To provide one’s family with food sufficient for one year in advance. And how one should spend on his dependants.

5357. Narrated ‘Umar ﷺ: The Prophet ﷺ used to sell the dates of the garden of Bani An-Nadir and store food for his family that would cover their needs for a whole year.

5358. Narrated Mālik bin Aus bin Al-Ḥadāthān: Once I set out to visit ‘Umar (bin Al-Khaṭṭāb). (While I was sitting there with him) his gatekeeper, Yarfā’, came and said, “Uthmān, ‘Abdur-Rahmān (bin ‘Auf), Az-Zubair and Sa’d (bin Abi Waqqās) are seeking permission (to meet you).” ‘Umar said, “Yes.” So he admitted them and they entered, greeted, and sat down. After a short while Yarfa came again and said to ‘Umar, “Shall I admit ‘Ali and ‘Abbas?” ‘Umar said, “Yes.” He admitted them and when they entered, they greeted and sat down. ‘Abbas said, “O Chief of the believers! Judge between me and this (‘Ali).” The group, ‘Uthman and his companions said, “O Chief of the believers! Judge between them and relieve one from the other.” ‘Umar said, “Wait! I beseech you by Allah, by Whose Permission both the heaven and the earth stand fast! Do you know that Allah’s Messenger said, ‘Our (Messenger’s) property will not be inherited and whatever we leave is Sadaqa (to be given in charity).’ And by that Allah’s Messenger meant himself?” The group said, “He did say so.” ‘Umar then turned towards ‘Ali and ‘Abbas and said, “I beseech you both by Allah, do you know that Allah’s Messenger said that?” They said, “Yes.” ‘Umar said, “Now, let me talk to you about this matter. Allah favoured His Messenger with something of this property (war booty) which He did not give to anybody else. And Allah said:

“And what Allah gave as booty (Fai’) to His Messenger (Muhammad ﷺ) from them for which you made no expedition with either cavalry or camelry... Allah is Able to do all things.” (V.59:6)

“So this property was especially granted to Allah’s Messenger. But by Allah he neither withheld it from you, nor did he keep it for himself and deprive you of it, but he gave it all to you and distributed it among you till only this remained out of it. And out of this property Allah’s Messenger used to provide his family with their yearly needs, and whatever remained, he would spend where Allâh’s Property (the revenues of Zakât) used to be spent. Allâh’s Messenger kept on acting like this throughout his lifetime. Now I beseech you by Allâh, do you know that?” They said, “Yes.” Then ‘Umar said to ‘Ali and ‘Abbâs, “I beseech you by Allâh, do you both know that?” They said, “Yes.” ‘Umar added, “When Allâh had taken His Messenger unto Him, Abû Bakr said, ‘I am the successor of Allâh’s Messenger.’ So he took charge of that property and did with it the same what Allâh’s Messenger used to do, and both of you knew all about it then.” Then ‘Umar turned towards ‘Ali and ‘Abbâs and said, “You both claim that Abû Bakr was so-and-so! But Allâh knows that he was honest, sincere, pious and right (in that matter). Then Allâh caused Abû Bakr to die, and I said, ‘I am the successor of Allâh’s Messenger and Abû Bakr.’ So I kept this property in my possession for the first two years of my rule, and I used to do the same with it as Allâh’s Messenger and Abû Bakr used to do. Later both of you (‘Ali and ‘Abbâs) came to me with the same claim and the same problem. (O ‘Abbâs!) You came to me demanding your share from (the inheritance of) the son of your brother, and he (‘Ali) came to me demanding his wife’s share from (the inheritance of) her father. So I said to you, ‘If you wish I will hand over this property to you, on condition that you both promise me before Allâh that you will manage it in the same way as Allâh’s Messenger and Abû Bakr did, and as I have done since the beginning of my rule; otherwise you should not speak to me about it.’ So you both said, ‘Hand over this property to us on this condition.’ And on this condition I handed it over to you. I beseech you by Allâh, did I hand it over to... them on that condition?” The group said, “Yes.” ‘Umar then faced ‘Ali and ‘Abbās and said, “I beseech you both by Allāh, did I hand it over to you both on that condition?” They both said, “Yes.” ‘Umar added, “Do you want me now to give a decision other than that? By Him Whose Permission (Order) both the heaven and the earth stand fast, I will never give any decision other than that till the Hour is established! But if you are unable to manage it (that property), then return it to me and I will be sufficient for it on your behalf.” (See H. 3094)

(4) CHAPTER. The expenditure of a woman whose husband is away from her, and the expenditure of her child.

5359. Narrated ‘Āishah: Hind bint ‘Utba came and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Abū Sufyān is a miser so is it sinful of me to feed our children from his property?” Allāh’s Messenger said, “No except if you take for your needs what is just and reasonable.”

5360. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “If the wife gives of her husband's property (something in charity) without his permission, he will get half the reward.”

(5) CHAPTER. “The mothers shall give suck to their children for two whole years, (that is) for those (parents) who desire to complete the term of suckling… (up to)… Allāh is All-Seer of what you do”. (V.2:233)

And Allāh also said:

“And the bearing of him (the child) and the weaning of him is (a period of) 30 months.” (V.46:15)

And Allāh said:

“But if you make difficulties for one another, then some other woman may give suck for him (the child's father). Let the rich man spend according to his means and the man whose resources are restricted… (up to)… after hardship, ease.” (V.65:6,7)

Az-Zuhri said: Allāh has forbidden that a (divorced) mother should hurt her child by saying, “I am not going to suckle it,” for her milk is the best for it and she is usually kinder and more gentle to it than any other woman. Therefore she should not refuse (to suckle) it after her husband has provided her with what Allāh has enjoined upon him. And a father should not hurt his child and its mother by preventing the latter from suckling it just to harm her by giving it to some other woman. But there is no sin on them if both parents willingly agree to have their child suckled by some other woman; and there is no sin on them if they both want to wean their child on condition that their decision be based on mutual understanding and consultation.
(6) CHAPTER. The working of a lady in her husband’s house.

5361. Narrated ‘Ali: Fāṭima went to the Prophet complaining about her sufferings and hurts from the stone hand mill on her hands. She heard that the Prophet had received a few slave girls. But (when she came there) she did not find him, so she mentioned her problem to ‘Aishah. When the Prophet came, ‘Aishah informed him about that. ‘Ali added: So the Prophet came to us when we had gone to bed. We wanted to get up (on his arrival) but he said, “Stay where you are.” Then he came and sat between me and her and I felt the coldness of his feet on my abdomen. He said, “Shall I direct you to something better than what you have requested? When you go to bed say ‘Subhān Allāh’ thirty-three times, ‘Alhamdulillāh’ thirty-three times, and ‘Allāhu Akbar’ thirty-four times, for that is better for you than a servant.”

(7) CHAPTER. A servant for one’s wife.

(8) CHAPTER. A man’s serving his family.

5363. Narrated Al-Aswad bin Yazid: I asked 'Aishah, "What did the Prophet use to do at home?" She said, "He used to work for his family, and when he heard the Adhān [call for the Salāt (prayer)], he would go out."

(9) CHAPTER. If a man does not provide for his family, then the wife can take of his wealth what is sufficient for her needs and the needs of her children and the amount should be just and reasonable.

5364. Narrated 'Āishah: Hind bint 'Utba said, "O Allāh’s Messenger! Abū Sufyān is a miser and he does not give me what is sufficient for me and my children. Can I take of his property without his knowledge?" The Prophet said, "Take what is sufficient for you and your children, and the amount should be just and reasonable."
(10) CHAPTER. A woman should take care of the wealth of her husband, and also of what he gives her for expenditures.

5365. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger said, “The best women who ride the camels, are the women of Quraish.” (Another narrator said) The Prophet said, “The righteous among the women of Quraish are those who are kind to their young ones and who look after their husband's property.” (See H. 3434)

(11) CHAPTER. Providing one's wife with clothes reasonably.

5366. Narrated 'Ali: The Prophet gave me a silk suit and I wore it, but when I noticed anger on his face, I cut it and distributed it among my women-folk.

(12) CHAPTER. A lady should help her husband in looking after his children.

5367. Narrated Jābir bin 'Abdullāh: My father died and left seven or nine girls and I married a matron. Allāh’s Messenger said to me, “O Jābir! Have you married?” I said, “Yes.” He said, “A virgin or a matron?” I replied, “A matron.” He said, “Why not a virgin, so that you might play with her and she with you, and you might amuse her and she amuse you.” I said, “Abdullah (my father) died and left girls, and I dislike to marry a girl like them, so I married a lady (matron) so that she may look after them.” On that he said, “May Allâh bless you,” or “That is good.”

(13) CHAPTER. The expenditure of a poor man on his family.

5368. Narrated Abû Hurairah: A man came to the Prophet and said, “I am ruined!” The Prophet said, “Why?” He said, “I had sexual intercourse with my wife while fasting (in the month of Ramâdân).” The Prophet said to him, “Manumit a slave (as expiation).” He replied, “I cannot afford that.” The Prophet said, “Then fast for two successive months.” He said, “I cannot.” The Prophet said, “Then feed sixty poor persons.” He said, “I have nothing to do that.” In the meantime a basket full of dates was brought to the Prophet. He said, “Where is the questioner?” The man said, “I am here.” The Prophet said (to him), “Give this (basket of dates) in charity (as expiation).” He said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! Shall I give it to poorer people than us? By Him Who sent you with the Truth, there is no family between the two mountains (of Al-Madina) poorer than us.” The Prophet smiled till his premolar teeth became visible. He then said, “Then, you take it.” (See H. 1936)
(14) CHAPTER. (The Statement of Allāh:)

“And on the (father’s) heir is incumbent the like of that (which was incumbent on the father)” (V.2:233)

“And is a woman chargeable with any thing thereof? And Allāh said:

“Allāh puts forward (another) example of two men, one of them dumb…” (V.16:76)

5369. Narrated Umm Salama: I said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Shall I get a reward (in the Hereafter) if I spend on the children of Abū Salama and do not leave them like this and like this (i.e., poor) but treat them like my children?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Yes, you will be rewarded for that which you will spend on them.”

5370. Narrated ʿAishah bint ʿUtba) said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Abū Sufyān is a miser. Is there any harm if I take of his property what will cover me and my children’s needs?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Take (according to your needs) in a reasonable manner.”

(15) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ: “If one dies leaving debts to be repaid or dependants to be taken care of, it is for me (to pay the debts and look after the needy dependants).”
5371. Narrated Abū Hurairah: A dead man in debt used to be brought to Allah’s Messenger, who would ask, “Has he left anything to repay his debts?” If he was informed that he had left something to cover his debts, the Prophet would offer the funeral Salāt (prayer) for him; otherwise he would say to the Muslims (present there), “Offer the funeral Salāt (prayer) for your friend”; but when Allah (enriched) the Prophet by making him victorious (in his Holy-expeditions), he said, “I am closer to the believers than themselves, so, if one of the believers dies in debt, I will repay it, but if he leaves wealth, it will be for his heirs.”

(16) CHAPTER. Freed female slaves or any other women can be wet nurses.

5372. Narrated Umm Habiba, the wife of the Prophet: I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! Will you marry my sister, the daughter of Abū Sufyān.” The Prophet said, “Do you like that?” I said, “Yes, for I am not your only wife, and the person I like most to share the good with me, is my sister.” He said, “That is not lawful for me.” I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! We have heard that you want to marry Durra, the daughter of Abū Salama.” He said, “You mean the daughter of Umni Salama?” I said, “Yes.” He said, “Even if she were not my stepdaughter, she is unlawful for me, for she is my foster niece. Thuwaiba suckled me and Abū Salama. So you should not present to me your daughters and sisters.”

Narrated ‘Urwa: Thuwaiba had been a slave-girl whom Abū Lahab had emancipated.
فَوَاللَّهِ لَوْ أَلْمَ تَكُنِّي رَبِيبَيْنِي فِي حَجْرِي مَا خَلَّتْ لِي، إِنَّهَا ابْنَةُ أَخِي مِنَ الْمُشَاغِلِ، أَرْضَعْتُهَا وَأَبا سَلَمَهُ نُوْبِئَةُ، فَلا نَعْرَضْنَ عَلْيَ بَنَاتِيْنَ وَلَا أَخَوَايْنِ."

وَقَالَ شُعْبُ بْنُ الرَّهْبِيّ، قَالَ عُرْوَةُ: نُوْبِئَةُ أَبُو لَهَبٍ.

[راجع: 510]
(1) CHAPTER. Statement of Allah:

“[O you who believe (in the Oneness of Allah — Islamic Monotheism)] Eat of the lawful things that We have provided you with...”
(V.2:172)

And His Statement:

“[O you who believe (in the Oneness of Allah — Islamic Monotheism)] Spend of the good things which you have (legally) earned.”
(V.2:267)

And His Statement:

“[O (you) Messengers!] Eat of the Aţ-Tayyibât [all kinds of Halal (lawful) foods which Allah has made lawful (meat of slaughtered eatable animals, milk products fats, vegetables, fruits etc.)] and do righteous deeds. Verily, I am Well-Acquainted with what you do.” (V.23:51)

5373. Narrated Abū Mūsā Al-Ash'ārī: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Give food to the hungry, pay a visit to the sick and release (set free) the one in captivity (by paying his ransom).”

5374. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The family of Muḥammad ﷺ did not eat their fill for three successive days till he died.

5375. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Once while I was in a state of fatigue (because of severe hunger), I met ‘Umar bin Al-Khattāb, so I asked him to recite a Verse from Allāh’s Book to me. He entered his house and interpreted it to me. Then I went out and after walking for a short distance, I fell on my face because of fatigue and severe hunger. Suddenly I saw Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ standing by my head. He said, “O Abū Hurairah!” I replied, “Labbaik, O Allāh’s Messenger, and Sa’daik!” Then he held me by the hand, and made me get up. Then he came to know what I was suffering from. He took me to his house, and ordered a big bowl of milk for me. I drank thereof and he said, “Drink more, O Abū Hirr!” So I drank again, whereupon he again said, “Drink more.” So I drank more till my belly became full and looked like a bowl. Afterwards I met ‘Umar and mentioned to him what had happened to me, and said to him, “Somebody, who had more right than you, O ‘Umar, took over the case. By Allāh, I asked you to recite a Verse to me while I knew it better than you.” On that ‘Umar said to me, “By Allāh, if I admitted and entertained you, it would have been dearer to me than having nice red camels.”

(2) CHAPTER. One should mention the Name of Allāh on starting to eat, and one should eat with his right hand.

5376. Narrated ‘Umar bin Abī Salama: I was a boy under the care of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and my hand used to go around the dish while eating. So Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said to me, ‘O boy! Mention the Name of Allāh and eat with your right hand, and eat of the dish what is nearer to you.” Since then I have applied those instructions while eating.
(3) CHAPTER. To eat of the dish what is nearer to you.

Anas said: The Prophet ﷺ said, "Mention the Name of Allah when you start eating, and every man should eat of the dish what is nearer to him".

5377. Narrated 'Umar bin Abi Salama who was the son of Umm Salama, the wife of the Prophet ﷺ: Once I ate a meal with Allah’s Messenger ﷺ and I was eating from all sides of the dish. So Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said to me, “Eat of the dish what is nearer to you.”

5378. Narrated Wahb bin Kaisan Abi Nu’aim: A meal was brought to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ while his stepson ‘Umar bin Abi Salama was with him. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ said to him, “Mention the Name of Allāh and eat of the dish what is nearer to you.”

(4) CHAPTER. Eating from around the dish while taking one’s meal with someone else if he knows that his companion does not dislike that.

5379. Narrated Anas bin Malik: A tailor invited Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ to a meal which he had prepared. I went along with Allah's Messenger and saw him seeking to eat the pieces of gourd from the various sides of the dish. Since that day I have liked to eat gourd. 'Umar bin Abi Salama said: The Prophet said to me, "Eat with your right hand."

(5) CHAPTER. To eat with one's right hand, and to start with the right side in doing other things, etc.

5380. Narrated 'Aishah: The Prophet used to love to start doing things from the right side whenever possible, in performing ablution, putting on his shoes, and combing his hair. (Al-Ash'ath said: The Prophet used to do so in all his affairs.)

(6) CHAPTER. Whoever ate till he was satisfied.

5381. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Abu Talha said to Umm Sulaim, "I have heard the voice of Allah's Messenger which was feeble, and I think that he is hungry. Have you got something (to eat)?" She took out some loaves of barley bread, then took her face-covering sheet and wrapped the bread in part of it, and pushed it under my garment and turned the rest of it around my body and sent me to Allah's Messenger. I went with that, and found Allāh’s Messenger in the mosque with some people. I stood up near them, and Allāh’s Messenger asked me, “Have you been sent by Abū Ṭalha?” I said, “Yes.” He asked, “With some food (for us)”? I said, “Yes.” Then Allāh’s Messenger said to all those who were with him, “Get up!” He set out (and all the people accompanied him) and I proceeded ahead of them till I came to Abū Ṭalha. Abū Ṭalha then said, “O Umm Sulaim! Allāh’s Messenger has arrived along with the people, and we do not have food enough to feed them all.” She said, “Allāh and His Messenger know better.” So Abū Ṭalha went out till he met Allāh’s Messenger. Then Abū Ṭalha and Allāh’s Messenger came and entered the house. Allāh’s Messenger said, “Umm Sulaim! Bring whatever you have.” She brought that very bread. The Prophet ordered that it be crushed into small pieces, and Umm Sulaim pressed a skin of butter on it. Then Allāh’s Messenger said whatever Allāh wished him to say (to bless the food) and then added, “Admit ten (men).” So they were admitted, ate their fill and went out. The Prophet then said, “Admit ten (more).” They were admitted, ate their fill, and went out. He then again said, “Admit ten more!” They were admitted, ate their fill, and went out. He admitted ten more, and so all those people ate their fill, and they were eighty men.
5382. Narrated 'Abdur-Rahmân bin Abû Bakr: We were one hundred and thirty men sitting with the Prophet. The Prophet said, “Have anyone of you any food with him?” It happened that one man had one ‘Sa’ of wheat flour (or so) which was turned into dough then. After a while a tall lanky Mushrik (pagan) came, driving some sheep. The Prophet asked, “Will you sell us (a sheep), or give (it to) us as a gift?” The Mushrik (pagan) said, “No, but I will sell it.” So the Prophet bought from him a sheep which was slaughtered, and then the Prophet ordered that the liver, the kidneys, lungs and heart, etc., of that sheep be roasted. By Allah, none of those one hundred and thirty men but had his share of those things. The Prophet gave to those who were present, and also kept a share for those who were absent. He then served that cooked sheep in two big trays and we all ate together our fill; yet, there remained a part of it in those two trays which I carried on the camel.

5383. Narrated 'Aishah: The Prophet died when we had satisfied our hunger with the two black things, i.e. dates and water.

(7) CHAPTER. “There is no restriction on the blind…” (V.24:61)
An-Nahd (i.e. the custom of collecting food by different persons to make one meal to be eaten by all of them together) and the gathering together by a group of persons to share a meal.

5384. Narrated Suwaid bin An-Nu'mân: We went out with Allāh's Messenger (ﷺ) to Khaibar, and when we were at Aṣ-Ṣahbā', (Yahyā, a subnarrator said, ‘Aṣ-Ṣahbā’ is a place at a distance of one day’s journey to Khaibar.’) Allāh’s Messenger (ﷺ) asked the people to bring there food, but there was nothing with the people except Sawiq. So we all chewed and ate of it. Then the Prophet (ﷺ) asked for some water and he rinsed his mouth, and we too, rinsed our mouths. Then he led us in the Maghrib prayer without performing ablution (again).

(8) CHAPTER. Thin bread and eating at an eating table, or a dining table.

5385. Narrated Qatāda: We were in the company of Anas whose baker was with him. Anas said: “The Prophet (ﷺ) did not eat thin bread, or a roasted sheep till he met Allāh (died).”

5386. Narrated Anas: To the best of my knowledge, the Prophet (ﷺ) did not take his meals in a big tray at all, nor did he ever eat well-baked thin bread, nor did he ever eat at a dining table.
5387. Narrated Anas: The Prophet ﷺ halted to consummate his marriage with Safiyya. I invited the Muslims to his wedding banquet. He ordered that leather dining sheets be spread. Then dates, dried yoghourt and butter were put on those sheets. Anas added: The Prophet ﷺ consummated his marriage with Safiyya (during a journey) whereupon Hais (sweet dish) was served on a leather dining sheet.

5388. Narrated Wahb bin Kaisan: The people of Shām taunted ‘Abdullāh bin Az-Zubair by calling him “The son of Dhātun-Nītaqain” (the woman who has two waist-belts). (His mother) Asmā’ said to him, “O my son! They taunt you with ‘Nītaqain’. Do you know what An-Nītaqain were? That was my waist-belt which I divided in two parts. I tied the water skin of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ with one part, and with the other part I tied his food container.”
5389. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbās that his aunt Umm Ḥufaid bint Al-Ḥarith bin Ḥazn presented to the Prophet butter, dried yoghurt and mastigures. The Prophet invited the people to those mastigures and they were eaten on his dining sheet, but the Prophet did not eat of it, as if he disliked it. Nevertheless, if it was unlawful to eat that, the people would not have eaten it on the dining sheet of the Prophet nor would he have ordered that they be eaten.

(9) CHAPTER. As-Sawiq.¹

5390. Narrated Suwaid bin An-Nu‘mān that while they were with the Prophet at As-Ṣaḥbā’ which was at a distance of one day’s journey from Khaibar, the Ṣalāt (prayer) became due, and the Prophet asked the people for food but there was nothing with the people except Sawiq. He ate of it and we ate along with him, and then he asked for water and rinsed his mouth (with it), and then offered the (Maghrib) Ṣalāt (prayer) and we too offered the Ṣalāt (prayer) but the Prophet did not perform ablution (again after eating the Sawiq).

(10) CHAPTER. The Prophet never used to eat anything unless it was named for him so that he might know what it was.

5391. Narrated Khalid bin Al-Walid that he went with Allāh’s Messenger to the house of Maimūna, who was his and Ibn ‘Abbās’ aunt. He found with her a roasted mastigure which her sister Ḥufaida bint Al-Ḥarīth had brought from Najd.

¹ (Ch. 9) As-Sawiq: See the glossary.
Maimūna presented the mastigure before Allah's Messenger who rarely used to eat any (unfamiliar) food unless it was described and named for him. (But that time) Allah's Messenger stretched his hand towards the (meat of the) mastigure whereupon a lady from among those who were present, said, "You should inform Allah's Messenger of what you have presented to him. O Allah's Messenger! It is the meat of a mastigure." So Allah's Messenger withdrew his hand from the meat of the mastigure. Khālid bin Al-Walid said, "O Allah's Messenger! Is this unlawful to eat?" Allah's Messenger replied, "No, but it is not found in the land of my people, so I do not like it." Khālid said, "Then I pulled the mastigure (meat) towards me and ate it while Allah's Messenger was looking at me.

(11) CHAPTER. The food of one person is sufficient for two persons.

5392. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah's Messenger said, "The food of two persons is sufficient for three, and the food of three persons is sufficient for four persons."
(12) CHAPTER. A believer eats in one intestine (i.e., he is satisfied with a little food).

5393. Narrated Nāfi': Ibn 'Umar never used to take his meal unless a poor man was called to eat with him. One day I brought a poor man to eat with him, the man ate too much, whereupon Ibn 'Umar said, "O Nāfi'! Don't let this man enter my house, for I heard the Prophet ﷺ saying, "A believer eats in one intestine (is satisfied with a little food), and a Kāfir (disbeliever) eats in seven intestines (eats much food)."

5394. Narrated Ibn 'Umar ﷺ: Allāh's Messenger ﷺ said, "A believer eats in one intestine (is satisfied with a little food); and a Kāfir (disbeliever) or a hypocrite eats in seven intestines (eats too much)."

5395. Narrated 'Amr: Abū Nahīk was an avaricious eater. Ibn 'Umar said to him, "Allāh's Messenger ﷺ said, "A Kāfir (disbeliever) eats in seven intestines (eats much)."" On that Abū Nahīk said, "But I believe in Allāh and His Messenger ﷺ."
5396.Narrated Abū Hurairah: Allah’s Messenger said, “A Muslim eats in one intestine (i.e. he is satisfied with a little food) while a Kāfir (disbeliever) eats in seven intestines (eats much).”

5397.Narrated Abū Hurairah: A man used to eat much, but when he embraced Islam, he started eating less. That was mentioned to the Prophet who then said, “A believer eats in one intestine (is satisfied with a little food) and a Kāfir (disbeliever) eats in seven intestines (eats much).”

(13) CHAPTER. To eat while leaning (against something).

5398. Narrated Abū Juḥaifa: Allah’s Messenger said, “I do not take my meals while leaning (against something).”

5399. Narrated Abū Juḥaifa: While I was with the Prophet, he said to a man who was with him, “I do not take my meals while leaning.”
70 – THE BOOK OF FOODS [MEALS]

(14) CHAPTER. (What is said regarding) roasted (meat).
And Allâh said: “He hastened to entertain them with a roasted calf.”
(V.11:69)

5400. Narrated Khâlid bin Al-Walid: “A roasted mastigure was brought to the Prophet ﷺ who stretched his hand towards it to eat it. But it was said to him, “It is a mastigure.” So he withdrew his hand. Khâlid asked, “Is it unlawful to eat?” the Prophet ﷺ said, “No, but it is not found in the land of my people and that is why I do not like eating it.” So Khâlid started eating (it) while Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ was looking at him.

(15) CHAPTER. ‘Al-Khazira’ (a kind of dish prepared from white flour with fat).

An-Nadr said: ‘Al-Khazîra’ (is prepared) from bran while ‘Al-Harîra’ is prepared from milk.

5401. Narrated ‘Ibtân bin Mâlik, who witnessed the Badr Battle and was from the Anṣâr, that he came to the Prophet ﷺ and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! I have lost my eyesight and I lead my people in the ެުހެބައިހ (prayer) (as an Imâm). When it rains, the valley which is between me and my people, flows with water, and then I cannot go to their mosque to lead them in the ެުހެބައިހ.
O Allah's Messenger! I wish that you could come and offer Salāt (prayer) in my house so that I may take it as a praying place. The Prophet ﷺ said, “If Allah will, I will do that.” The next morning, soon after the sun had risen, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ came with Abū Bakr. The Prophet ﷺ asked for the permission to enter and I admitted him. The Prophet ﷺ had not sit till he had entered the house and said to me, “Where do you like me to offer Salāt (prayer) in your house?” I pointed at a place in my house whereupon he stood and said, “Allāhu Akbar.” We lined behind him and he offered two Rak’āt and finished it with Taslīm. We then requested him to stay for a special meal of Khazīra which we had prepared. A large number of men from the adjoining area gathered in the house. One of them said, “Where is Mālik bin Ad-Dukhshun?” Another man said, “He is a hypocrite and does not love Allah and His Messenger.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Do not say so. Haven’t you seen that he has said: Lā ilāha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh) seeking Allāh’s Countenance (i.e. for Allāh’s sake only)? The man said, “Allāh and His Messenger ﷺ know better, but we have always seen him mixing with hypocrites and giving them advice.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Allāh has forbidden the (Hell) Fire for those who testify that Lā ilāha illallah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allāh) seeking Allāh’s Countenance (i.e. for Allāh’s sake only).” (See H. 425)
(16) CHAPTER. (What is said about) Al-Aqit (dried yoghurt). Humaid said: I heard Anas saying, “When the Prophet ﷺ married Safiyya, he gave a banquet offering dates, Aqit and butter.”

5402. Narrated Ibn `Abbas: My aunt presented (roasted) mastigures, Aqit and milk to the Prophet ﷺ. The mastigures were put on his dining sheet, and if it was unlawful to eat, it would not have been put there. The Prophet ﷺ drank the milk and ate the Aqit only.

(17) CHAPTER. (What is said regarding) As-Salq (a kind of beet) and barley.

5403. Narrated Sahl bin Sa’d: We used to be happy on Fridays, for there was an old lady who used to pull out the roots of As-Salq and put it in a cooking pot with some barley. When we had finished the Salat (prayer), we would visit her and she would present that dish before us. So we used to be happy on Fridays because of that, and we never used to take our meals or have a mid-day nap except after the Friday Salat (prayer). By Allah, that meal contained no fat.
(18) CHAPTER. To seize and catch flesh with the teeth (to strip the bone of its flesh) (while eating).

5404. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbãs: The Prophet ate of the meat of a shoulder (by cutting the meat with his teeth), and then got up and offered the Salât (prayer) without performing the ablution anew.

5405. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbãs: The Prophet took out a bone with meat on it from a cooking pot and ate of it, and then offered the Salât (prayer) without performing ablution anew.

(19) CHAPTER. To eat the flesh of a foreleg (by stripping the bone of its meat with the teeth).

5406. Narrated Abû Qatada: We went out towards Makkah with the Prophet....

5407. Narrated Abû Qatada: Once, while I was sitting with the Companions of the Prophet at a place (station) on the road to Makkah and Allãh’s Messenger was at a place ahead of us and all the people were assuming Ihãm while I was not. My companions saw an onager while I was busy mending my shoes. They did not inform me of the onager but they wished that I would see it. Suddenly I looked and saw the onager. Then I headed towards my horse, saddled it and rode, but I forgot to take the lash and the spear. So I said to them (my companions), “Give me the lash and the spear.” But they said, “No, by Allah, we will not help you in any way to hunt it.” I got angry, dismounted, took it (the spear and the lash), rode (the horse), chased the onager and wounded (and slaughtered) it. Then I brought it when it had died. My companions started eating of its (cooked) meat, but they suspected that it might be unlawful to eat of its meat while they were in a state of Ihram. Then I proceeded further and I kept one of its forelegs with me. When we met Allah’s Messenger  we asked him about that. He said, “Have you some of its meat with you?” I gave him that foreleg and he ate the meat till he stripped the bone of its flesh although he was in a state of Ihram.

(20) CHAPTER. To cut the meat with a knife.

5408. Narrated ‘Amr bin Umaiyya that he saw the Prophet  holding a shoulder piece of mutton in his hand and cutting part of it with a knife. Then he was called for the Salât (prayer) whereupon he put down the shoulder piece and the knife with which he was cutting it, and then stood for Salât (prayer) without performing ablution again.
(21) CHAPTER. The Prophet \( \text{افعنى إلى الضلال فأطها واسكن أنني يخرج بها ثم قال: فصل وللم ينوض} \) never criticized any food (that was offered to him).

5409. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet never criticized any food (he was invited to) but he used to eat it if he liked it, and leave it if he disliked it.

(22) CHAPTER. To blow (powdered) barley (to remove the husk).

5410. Narrated Abū Ḥāzim that he asked Sahl, “Did you use white flour during the lifetime of the Prophet?” Sahl replied, “No”. Ḥāzim asked, “Did you use to sift barley flour?” He said, “No, but we used to blow off the husk (of the barley).”

(23) CHAPTER. What the Prophet and his Companions used to eat.

5411. Narrated Abū Hurairah: Once the Prophet distributed dates among his Companions and gave each one seven dates. He gave me seven dates too, one of which was dry and hard, but none of the other dates was more liked by me than that one, for it prolonged my chewing it.
5412. Narrated Sa’d: I was one of (the first) seven (who had embraced Islam) with Allah’s Messenger and we had nothing to eat then, except the leaves of or Al-Habala Al-Hubla tree, so that our stool used to be similar to that of sheep. Now the tribe of Bani Asad wants to teach me Islam; I would be a loser and all my efforts would be in vain (if I learn Islam anew from them).

5413. Narrated Abu Hazim: I asked Sahl bin Sa’d, “Did Allah’s Messenger ever eat white flour?” Sahl said, “Allah’s Messenger never saw white flour since Allah sent him as a Messenger till He took him unto Him.” I asked, “Did the people have (use) sieves during the lifetime of Allah’s Messenger?” Sahl said, “Allah’s Messenger never saw (used) a sieve since Allah sent him as a Messenger until He took him unto Him,” I said, “How could you eat barley unsifted?” he said, “We used to grind it and then blow off its husk, and after the husk flew away, we used to prepare the dough (bake) and eat it.”

5414. Narrated Abu Hurairah that he passed by a group of people in front of whom there was a roasted sheep. They invited him but he refused to eat and said, “Allah’s Messenger left this world without 5415. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet never took his meals at a dining table, nor in small plates, and he never ate thin well-baked bread. (The sub-narrator asked Qatada, “Over what did they use to take their meals?” Qatada said, “On leather dining sheets.”

5416. Narrated ‘Aishah: The family of Muhammad had not eaten bread to their satisfaction for three consecutive days since his arrival at Al-Madina till he died.

(24) CHAPTER. At-Talbina (a kind of dish prepared from flour or bran, and sometimes honey, is added).

5417. Narrated ‘Aishah, the wife of the Prophet, that whenever one of her relatives died, the women assembled and then dispersed (returned to their houses) except her relatives and close friends. She would order that a pot of Talbina be cooked. Then Tharid (a dish prepared from meat and bread) would be prepared and the Talbina would be poured on it. ‘Aishah would say (to the women), “Eat of it, for I heard Allah’s Messenger saying, ‘At-Talbina soothes the heart of the patient and...”
relieves him from some of his sadness (by giving rest and comfort)."

(25) CHAPTER. Ath-\(\text{\textit{Tharid}}\) (a special dish prepared from meat and bread).

5418. Narrated Abû Mûsâ Al-\(\text{\textit{Ash'arî}}\): The Prophet \(\text{\textit{Saw}}\) said, "Many men reached perfection but none among the women reached perfection except Maryam (Mary), the daughter of ‘Imrân, and ‘\(\text{\textit{Asiyah}}\), Pharaoh’s wife. And the superiority of ‘\(\text{\textit{Aishah}}\) \(\text{\textit{Radhi Allahu Anhera}}\) to other women is like the superiority of Ath-\(\text{\textit{Tharid}}\) to other kinds of food.

5419. Narrated Anas \(\text{\textit{Radhi Allahu Anhu}}\): The Prophet \(\text{\textit{Saw}}\) said, "The superiority of ‘\(\text{\textit{Aishah}}\) to other women is like the superiority of Ath-\(\text{\textit{Tharid}}\) to other kinds of food."

5420. Narrated Anas \(\text{\textit{Radhi Allahu Anhu}}\): I went along with the Prophet \(\text{\textit{Saw}}\) to the house of his slave tailor. The tailor presented a dish of Tharid to the Prophet \(\text{\textit{Saw}}\) and resumed his work. The Prophet \(\text{\textit{Saw}}\) started picking the pieces of gourd and I too, started picking them and putting them before him. Since then I have always loved (to eat) gourd. \[See H. No. 5379\].
(26) CHAPTER. A roasted sheep (and the eating of a piece of meat) from the shoulder or from the ribs.

5421. Narrated Qatada: We used to visit Anas bin Malik while his baker was standing (and baking). Anas would say, “Eat! I do not know that the Prophet had ever seen well-baked bread till he met Allah, nor had he ever seen a roasted sheep with his own eyes.”

5422. Narrated ‘Amr bin Umaiyya Ad-Damri: I saw Allah’s Messenger cutting a part of the shoulder of mutton with a knife. He ate of it and then was called for Salât (prayer) whereupon he got up and put down the knife and offered the Salât (prayer) without performing new ablution.

(27) CHAPTER. What our predecessors used to store of food, meat, etc., in their houses and carry with them while on a journey.

‘Aishah and Asmā’ said: We prepared for the Prophet and Abū Bakr, provision (when they both emigrated to Al-Madina).

5423. Narrated ‘Abis: I asked ‘Aishah, “Did the Prophet forbid eating the meat of sacrifices offered on ‘Eid-ul-Adhā for more than three days?” She said, “The Prophet did not do this except in the year when the people were hungry, so he wanted the rich to feed the poor. But later we used to store even a trotter of a sheep to eat it fifteen days later.” She was asked, “What compelled you to do so?” She smiled and said, “The family of Muhammad did not eat to their satisfaction white bread with meat soup for three successive days till he met Allah.”

5424. Narrated Jābir: We used to carry the meat of the Hady (sacrificed animals) to Al-Madina during the lifetime of the Prophet Muhammad.

(28) CHAPTER. Al-Hais (special dish prepared from dried yoghurt, butter and dates).

5425. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Allah’s Messenger said to Abū Ṭalha, “Seek one of your boys to serve me.” Abū Ṭalha mounted me behind him (on his riding animal) and took me (to the Prophet). So I used to serve Allah’s Messenger wherever he stayed. I used to hear him saying very often, “O Allah! I seek refuge with you from, having worries, sadness, helplessness, laziness, miserliness, cowardice, from being heavily in debt and... from being overpowered by other persons unjustly.” I kept on serving till we returned from the battle of Khaibar. The Prophetﷺ then brought Safiyya bint Ḥuyai’ whom he had won from the war booty. I saw him folding up a gown or a garment for her to sit on behind him (on his she-camel). When he reached Ās-Ṣahbā, he prepared Ḥais and placed it on a dining sheet. Then he sent me to invite men, who (came and) ate; and that was his and Safiyya’s wedding banquet. Then the Prophetﷺ proceeded, and when he saw the mountain of Uhud, he said, “This mountain loves us, and we love it.” When we approached Al-Madīna, he said, “O Allah! I make the area between its two mountains a sanctuary as Ibrāhīm (Abraham) has made Makkah a sanctuary. O Allah! Bless their Mudd and Ša’ (special kinds of measure).”

(29) CHAPTER. Eating in a dish decorated with silver.

5426. Narrated ‘Abdur-Rahmān bin Abī Lailā: We were sitting in the company of Ḥudhaifa who asked for water and a Magian brought him water. But when he placed the cup in his hand, he threw it at him and said, “Had I not forbidden him to do so more than once or twice?” He wanted to say, “I would not have done so,” adding, “but I heard the Prophetﷺ saying, ‘Do not wear silk or Dīhāj, and do not drink in silver or gold vessels, and do not eat in plates of such metals, for such things are for the disbelievers in this worldly life and for us in the Hereafter.”

(30) CHAPTER. The mention of food.

5427. Narrated Abū Mūsā Al-Ash’arī: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said, “The example of a believer who recites the Qur’ân (and acts on its orders), is that of a citron which smells good and tastes good; and the example of a believer who does not recite the Qur’ân (but acts on its orders), is that of a date which has no smell but tastes sweet; and the example of a hypocrite who recites the Qur’ân (and does not acts on its orders), is that of Ar-Raiḥân (an aromatic plant) which smells good but tastes bitter; and the example of a hypocrite who does not recite the Qur’ân (nor acts on its orders), is that of a colocynth plant which has no smell and is bitter in taste.” (See Fath Al-Bari for details)

5428. Narrated Anas: The Prophet ﷺ said, “The superiority of ʿĀishah to other ladies, is like the superiority of Ath-Tharîd to other kinds of food.”

5429. Narrated Abû Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ said, “Travelling is a kind of torture, as it prevents one from sleeping and eating! So when one has finished his job, he should return quickly to his family.”
5430. Narrated Qasim bin Muhammad:

Three traditions have been established because of Barira: ‘Aishah mentioned that to Allah’s Messenger who said, “You could accept their condition if you wished, for the Walā’ is for the one who manumits the slave.” Barira was manumitted, then she was given the choice either to stay with her husband or leave him. One day Allah’s Messenger entered ‘Aishah’s house while there was a cooking pot of food boiling on the fire. The Prophet asked for lunch, and he was presented with bread and some extra food from the homemade Udm (e.g., soup). He asked, “Don’t I see meat (being cooked)?” They said, “Yes, O Allah’s Messenger! But it is the meat that has been given to Barira in charity and she has given it to us as a present.” He said, “For Barira it is a charity, but for us it is a present.”

5431. Narrated ‘Aishah: Allah’s Messenger used to love Al-Halwa (sweet edible things) and honey.
5432. Narrated Abu Hurairah: I used to stay with Allah's Messenger to fill my stomach; and that was when I did not eat baked bread, nor wear silk. Neither a male nor a female slave used to serve me, and I used to bind stones over my belly and ask somebody to recite a Qur'anic Verse for me though I knew it, so that he might take me to his house and feed me. Ja'far bin Abi Talib was very kind to the poor, and he used to take us and feed us with whatever was available in his house, (and if nothing was available), he used to give us the empty (honey or butter) skin which we would tear and lick whatever was in it.

(33) CHAPTER. Ad-Dubba' (gourd).

5433. Narrated Anas: Allah's Messenger went to (the house of) his slave tailor, and he was presented (a dish of) gourd of which he started eating. I have loved to eat gourd since I saw Allah's Messenger eating it.

(34) CHAPTER. A man may take the trouble to prepare a meal for his (Muslim) brethren.
5434. Narrated Abū Mas'ūd Al-Anṣārī: There was a man called Abū Shu'aib, and he had a slave who was a butcher. He said (to his slave), “Prepare a meal to which I may invite Allāh’s Messenger  along with four other men.” So he invited Allāh’s Messenger  and four other men, but another man followed them whereupon the Prophet  said, “You have invited me as one of five guests, but now another man has followed us. If you wish you can admit him, and if you wish you can refuse him”. On that the host said, Nay! I allow him, to come in.”

Narrated Muhammad bin Ismā’īl: If guests are sitting at a dining table, they do not have the right to carry food from other tables to theirs, but they can pass on food from their own table to each other; otherwise they should leave it.

(35) CHAPTER. Whoever invited a man to a meal and then went to carry on his job.

5435. Narrated Anas: I was a young boy, when I once was walking with Allāh’s Messenger , he entered the house of his slave tailor and the latter brought a dish filled with food covered with pieces of gourd. Allāh’s Messenger started picking and eating the gourd. When I saw that, I started collecting and placing the gourd before him. Then the slave returned to his work. Anas added: I have kept on loving gourd since I saw Allāh’s Messenger  doing what he was doing.
(36) CHAPTER. Soup.

5436. Narrated Anas bin Malik رضي الله عنه: A tailor invited the Prophet ﷺ to a meal which he had prepared, and I went along with the Prophet ﷺ. The tailor presented barley bread and soup containing gourd and cured meat. I saw the Prophet ﷺ picking the pieces of gourd from around the dish, and since then I have kept on liking gourd.

5437. Narrated Anas رضي الله عنه: I saw the Prophet ﷺ being served with soup containing gourd and cured meat. I saw him picking and eating the pieces of gourd. (See H. 5436)

5438. Narrated 'Aishah رضي الله عنها: The Prophet ﷺ did not do that (i.e., forbade the storage of the meat of sacrifices of Hajj at Mina) except (he did so in the year when the people were suffering from severe hunger), so that the rich would feed the poor. But later we used to keep even trotters to cook, fifteen days later. The family of Muhammad did not eat wheat bread with meat or soup to their satisfaction for three successive days.

(38) CHAPTER. Whoever handed over or presented something to his companion across the dining table.

Ibn Al-Mubarak said: There is no harm in serving one another, but one should not carry food from one dining table to another.

5439.Narrated Anas bin Malik: A tailor invited Allah’s Messenger to a meal which he had prepared. I went with Allah’s Messenger to that meal, and the tailor served the Prophet with barley bread and soup of gourd and cured meat. I saw Allah’s Messenger picking the pieces of gourd from around the dish, and since then I have kept on liking gourd.

(39) CHAPTER. The eating of snake cucumber with fresh dates.

5441 (A). Narrated Abū ‘Uthmān: I was a guest of Abū Hurairah for seven days. Abū Hurairah, his wife and his slave used to get up and remain awake for one-third of the night by turns. Each would offer the night Salāt (prayer) and then awaken the other. I heard Abū Hurairah saying, “Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ distributed dates among his Companions and my share was seven dates, one of which was a Hashafa (a date which dried on the tree before it was fully ripe).

5441 (B). Narrated Abū Hurairah: The Prophet ﷺ distributed dates among us, and my share was five dates, four of which were good, and one was a Hashafa, and I found Al-Hashafa the hardest for my teeth.

5442. ‘Aishah said, “When Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ died, we had been satisfied by the two black things, i.e., dates and water.

5443. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: There was a Jew in Al-Madīna who used to lend me money up to the season of plucking dates. (Jābir had a piece of land which was on the way to Ruma). Once in a year the land was not promising, for the payment of the debts. The Jew came to me at the time of plucking, but gathered nothing from my land. I asked him to give me respite for one year, but he refused. This news reached the Prophet whereupon he said to his Companions, “Let us go and ask the Jew for respite for Jābir.” All of them came to me in my garden, and the Prophet started speaking to the Jew, but he Jew said, “O Abul-Qasim, I will not grant him respite.” When the Prophet saw the Jew’s attitude, he stood up and walked all around the garden and came again and talked to the Jew, but the Jew refused his request. I got up and brought some ripe fresh dates and put it in front of the Prophet. He ate and then said to me, “Where is your hut, O Jābir?” I informed him, and he said, “Spread out a bed for me in it.” I spread out a bed, and he entered and slept. When he woke up, I brought some dates to him again and he ate of it and then got up and talked to the Jew again, but the Jew again refused his request. Then the Prophet got up for the second time amidst the palm trees loaded with fresh dates, and said, “O Jābir! Pluck dates to repay your debt.” The Jew remained with me while I was plucking the dates, till I paid him all his right, yet there remained extra quantity of dates. So I went out and proceeded till I reached the Prophet and informed him of the good news, whereupon he said, “I testify that I am the Messenger of Allah.”
(42) CHAPTER. The eating of a spadix of the palm tree.

5444. Narrated 'Abdullah bin 'Umar: While we were sitting with the Prophet, a spadix of palm tree was brought to him. The Prophet said, “There is a tree among the trees which is as blessed as a Muslim”. I thought that it was the date-palm tree and intended to say, “It is the date-palm tree, O Allah’s Messenger!” but I looked behind to see that I was the tenth and youngest of ten men present there, so I kept quiet. Then the Prophet said, “It is the date-palm tree.”

(43) CHAPTER. Al-'Ajwa (a special kind of date).

5445. Narrated Sa'd: Allâh’s Messenger said, “He who eats seven ‘Ajwa dates every morning, will not be affected by poison or magic on the day he eats them.”
(44) CHAPTER. To eat two dates at a time.

5446. Narrated Jabala bin Suhaime. At the time of Ibn Az-Zubair, we were struck with drought (famine) and he provided us with dates for our food. ‘Abdullâh bin ‘Umar Ṣâ‘î said, used to pass by us while we were eating, and say, “Do not eat two dates together at a time, for the Prophet forbid the taking of two dates together at a time (in a gathering).” Ibn ‘Umar used to add, “Unless one takes the permission of one’s companions.”

(45) CHAPTER. The snake cucumber.

(46) CHAPTER. The goodness of the date-palm tree.

5448. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet said, “There is a tree among the trees which is similar to a Muslim (in goodness), and that is the date-palm tree.”

(47) CHAPTER. The taking of two kinds of fruit or two kinds of food at a time.

(48) CHAPTER. Whoever admitted the guests in batches of ten persons (by turns). And the sitting for the meals in batches of ten persons each.

5450. Narrated Anas: My mother, Umm Sulaim, took a Mudd of barley grain, ground it and made porridge from it, and pressed (over it) a butter skin she had with her. Then she sent me to the Prophet, and I reached him while he was sitting with his companions. I invited him, whereupon he said, “And those who are with me?” I returned and said, “He says, ‘And those who are with me?’” Abū Taḥa went out to him and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! It is just a meal prepared by Umm Sulaim.” The Prophet entered and the food was brought to him. He said, “Let ten persons enter upon me.” Those ten entered and ate their fill. Again he said, “Let ten (more) enter upon me.” Those ten entered and ate their fill. Then he said, “Let ten (more) enter upon me.” He called forty persons in all. Then Allah’s Messenger ate and got up. I started looking (at the food) to see if anything from it has decreased or not.
49) CHAPTER. What is disliked as regarding the eating of garlic or other (bad smelling vegetables).

This has been narrated by Ibn 'Umar on the authority of the Prophet ﷺ.

5451. Narrated 'Abdul 'Aziz: It was said to Anas, رضي الله عنه, "What did you hear the Prophet ﷺ saying about garlic?" Anas replied, "Whoever has eaten (garlic) should not approach our mosque."

5452. Narrated Jābir bin 'Abdullāh رضي الله عنه: Prophet ﷺ said, "Whoever has eaten garlic or onion(1) should keep away from us (or should keep away from our mosque)." (See H. 854)

50) CHAPTER. Al-Kabāth, i.e., the leaves of Al-Arāk.

5453. Narrated Jābir bin 'Abdullāh رضي الله عنه: We were with Allah’s Messenger ﷺ collecting Al-Kabāth at Mar-Az-Zahrān. The Prophet ﷺ said, “Collect the black ones, for they are better.” Somebody said, “(O Allāh’s Messenger!) Have you ever shepherded sheep?” He said, “There has been no Prophet but has shepherded them (sheep).”

(1) (H. 5452) It is said that if garlic or onions are uncooked.
(51) CHAPTER. To rinse the mouth after taking meals.

5454. Narrated Suwaid bin An Nu'man: We went out with Allâh's Messenger ﷺ to Khaibar, and when we reached As-Šahbâ', the Prophet ﷺ asked for food, and he was offered nothing but Sawîq. We ate, and then Allâh's Messenger ﷺ stood up for the Salât (prayer), (after) he had rinsed his mouth with water; and we too had, rinsed our mouths.

5455. Narrated Suwaid: We went out with Allâh's Messenger ﷺ to Khaibar, and when we reached As-Šahbâ', which (Yahyâ says) is one day's journey from Khaibar, the Prophet ﷺ asked for food, and he was offered nothing but Sawîq which we chewed and ate. Then the Prophet ﷺ asked for water and rinsed his mouth, and we too, rinsed our mouths along with him. He then led us in the Maghrib prayer without performing ablution again.

(52) CHAPTER. To lick and suck the fingers before cleaning them with a handkerchief.

5456. Narrated Ibn 'Abbâs: The Prophet ﷺ said, "When you eat, do not wipe your hands till you have licked it, or had it licked by somebody else."

(53) CHAPTER. The handkerchief.
5457. Narrated Sa‘īd bin Al-Ḥarīth that he asked Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh about performing ablution after taking a cooked meal. He replied, “It is not essential,” and added, “We never used to get such kind of food during the lifetime of the Prophet except rarely; and if at all we got such a dish, we did not have any handkerchiefs to wipe our hands with except the palms of our hands, our forearms and our feet. We would perform the Salāt (prayer) thereafter without performing new ablution.”

5458. Narrated Abū Umama: Whenever the dining sheet of the Prophet was taken away (i.e., whenever he finished his meal), he used to say: “Al-hamdu lillahi kathiran tāyiban mubārakan fihi, ghairah makfī wa lā muwada’ wa lā mustaghna ‘anhu Rabbānā.” (1)

5459. Narrated Abū Umama: Whenever the Prophet finished his meals (or when his dining sheet was taken away), he used to say, “All the praises and thanks be to Allāh Who has satisfied our needs and quenched our thirst. Your favour cannot be compensated or denied.” Once he said, “All the praises and thanks be to You, O our Lord! Your favour cannot be compensated, nor can be left, nor can be

---

(1) (H. 5458) All the praises and thanks be to Allāh! Much good and blessed praise! O our Lord. We cannot compensate Your Favour, nor can leave it, nor can dispense with it.
dispensed with, O our Lord!"

(55) CHAPTER. To eat with one’s servant.

5460. Narrated Abü Hurairah: The Prophet said, “When your servant brings your food to you, if you do not ask him to join you, then at least ask him to take one or two handfuls, for he has suffered from its heat (while cooking it) and has taken pains to cook it nicely.”

(56) CHAPTER. A person who thanks Allah after taking his meals is similar (in reward) to a person who shows patience while fasting.

Abü Hurairah narrated the above statement on the authority of the Prophet.

(57) CHAPTER. A man is invited to a meal, whereupon he says, “May this (person) come with me too?”

Anas said: When you visit a Muslim who is not suspicious, then eat of his food and drink of his drink.

5461. Narrated Abü Mas‘ūd Al-Anṣārī: There was an Anṣārī man nicknamed, Abü Shu‘aib, who had a slave who was a butcher. He came to the Prophet while he was sitting with his Companions and noticed the signs of hunger on the face of the Prophet. So he went to his butcher slave and said, “Prepare for me a meal sufficient for five persons so that I may invite the Prophet along with four other men.” He had the meal prepared for him and invited him. A (sixth) man followed them. The Prophet said, “O Abü Shu‘aib! Another man has followed us. If you wish, you may invite him; and if you wish, you may refuse him.” Abū Shu‘aib said, “No, I will admit him.”

(58) CHAPTER. If supper or dinner is served then one should not hurry to finish it [when the time for Salāt (prayer) is due].

5462. Narrated ‘Amr bin Umaiyya that he saw Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ cutting a piece of mutton from its shoulder part he was carrying in his hand. When he was called for Salāt (prayer), he put it down and the knife with which he was cutting it. Then he stood up and offered the Salāt (prayer) without performing new ablution.

5463. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: The Prophet ﷺ said, “If supper is served and the Iqāma for prayer is proclaimed, start with your supper first.”

5464. Narrated Nāfi‘: Once Ibn ‘Umar was taking his supper while he was listening to the recitation of (the Qur‘ān by) the Imam.
5465. Narrated 'Aishah: The Prophet said, "If the Iqama for Salât (prayer) is proclaimed and supper is served, take your supper first."

5466. Narrated Anas: I know (about) Al-Ḥijāb (the order of veiling of women) more than anybody else. Ubayy bin Ka'b used to ask me about it. Allāh's Messenger became the bridegroom of Zainab bint Jahsh whom he married at Al-Madina. After the sun had risen high in the sky, the Prophet invited the people to a meal. Allāh's Messenger remained sitting, and some people remained sitting with him after the other guests had left. Then Allāh's Messenger got up and went away, and I too, followed him till he reached the door of 'Aishah's room. Then he thought that the people must have left the place by then, so he returned and I also returned with him. Behold, the people were still sitting at their places. So he went back again for the second time, and I went along with him too. When we reached the door of 'Aishah's room, he returned and I also returned with him to see that the people had left. Thereupon the Prophet hung a curtain between me and him, and the Verse regarding the order for (veiling of women) Ḥijāb was revealed. (See H. 4791)
(1) CHAPTER. The naming of a newly born child the day it is born, and Al-'Aqiqa for it if has not (yet) been offered, and its Tahnik (2).

5467. Narrated Abū Mūsā: A son was born to me and I took him to the Prophet who named him Ibrahim, did Tahnik for him with a date, invoked Allāh to bless him and returned him to me. (The narrator added: That was Abū Mūsā’s eldest son.)

5468. Narrated ‘Aishah: A boy was brought to the Prophet to do Tahnik for him, but the boy urinated on him, whereupon the Prophet had water poured on the place of urine.

5469. Narrated Asmā’ bint Abū Bakr: I conceived ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Az-Zubair at Makkah and went out (of Makkah) while I was about to give birth. I came to Al-Madina and encamped at Qubā’, and gave birth at Qubā’. Then I brought the child to Allāh’s Messenger and placed it (on his lap). He asked for a date, chewed it, and put his saliva in the mouth of the child. So the first thing to enter its stomach was the saliva of Allāh’s Messenger. Then he did its Tahnik with a date.

(1) (Book 71) Al-'Aqiqa: Aqiqa is the sacrificing of one or two sheep on the occasion of the birth of a child, as a token of gratitude to Allāh (two sheep for a male child and one sheep for the female child).

(2) (Chap. 1) Tahnik is the process of chewing some sweet food (e.g., dates or honey) and inserting it into the baby’s mouth and rubbing its chin to train it to eat, and pronouncing Adhān in the ear of a baby, and giving name to the child.
date, and invoked Allāh to bless him. It was the first child born in the Islamic era, therefore they (Muslims) were very happy with its birth, for it had been said to them that the Jews had bewitched them, and so they would not bring any offspring.

5470. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Abū Ṭalḥa had a child who was sick. The child died, when Abu Ṭalḥa had gone out. When Abū Ṭalḥa returned home, he asked, “How does my son fare?” Umm Sulaim (his wife) replied, “He is quieter than he has ever been.” Then she brought supper for him and he took his supper and slept with her. When he had finished, she said (to him), “Bury the child (as he’s dead).” Next morning Abū Ṭalḥa came to Allāh’s Messenger and told him about that. The Prophet said (to him), “Did you sleep with your wife last night?” Abū Ṭalḥa said, “Yes”. The Prophet said, “0 Allah! Bestow your blessing on them as regards that night of theirs.” Then (later on) Umm Sulaim gave birth to a boy. Abū Ṭalḥa told me to take care of the child till he was taken to the Prophet. Abū Ṭalḥa took the child to the Prophet and Umm Sulaim sent some dates along with the child. The Prophet took the child (on his lap) and asked if there was something with him. They replied, “Yes, a few dates”. The Prophet took a date, chewed it, took some of it out of his mouth, put it into the child’s mouth and did Tahnik for him with that, and named him ‘Abdullah.
5471. Narrated Salman bin ‘Amir Ad-Dabbi, the Prophet ṣṣ said, ‘Aqiqa is to be offered for a (newly born) boy.

5472. Narrated Salman bin ‘Amir Ad-Dabbi: I heard Allāh’s Messenger ṣṣ saying, "‘Aqiqa is to be offered for a (newly born) boy, so slaughter (an animal) for him, and relieve him of his suffering." [Note: It has been quoted in Faḍḥ Al-Bāri that the majority of the religious scholars agrees to the Hadith reported in Sahih At-Tirmidhi that the Prophet ṣṣ was asked about ‘Aqiqa and he ordered two sheep for a boy and one sheep for a girl and that is his Sunna (legal way of ‘Aqiqa).
Narrated Habib bin Ash-Shahid: Ibn Sirin told me to ask Ḥasan from whom he had heard the narration of ‘Al-‘Aqīqa. I asked him and he said, “From Samura bin Jundab.”

(3) CHAPTER. Al-Fara’.(1)

5473. Narrated ʿAbū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Neither Fara’ nor ‘Atira (is permissible)”. Al-Fara’ was the first offspring (of camels or sheep) which Al-Mushrikūn used to offer (as a sacrifice) to their idols. And Al-‘Atira was (a sheep which used to be slaughtered) during the month of Rajab.

(4) CHAPTER. Al-‘Atira.(2)

5474. Narrated ʿAbū Hurairah: The Prophet said, “Neither Fara’ nor ‘Atira (is permissible).” Al-Fara’ was the first offspring (they got of camels or sheep) which they (Mushrikūn) used to offer (as a sacrifice) to their idols. ‘Atira was (a sheep which used to be slaughtered) during the month of Rajab.

---

(1) (Chap. 3) Al-Fara’ may mean one of three things: (a) The first offspring of camels or sheep which the people of the pre-Islamic era used to offer to their idols. (b) A sacrifice which they used to offer when one’s camels became of the number, one wished them to be. (c) A meal given on the occasion on the birth of camels.

(2) (Chap. 4) Al-‘Atira was a sacrifice which Al-Mushrikūn used to offer to their idols during the month of Rajab.
THE BOOK OF SLAUGHTERING AND HUNTING

(1) CHAPTER. The mentioning of Allâh’s Name while hunting.

And Allâh’s Statement:

“Forbidden to you (for food) are dead animals (cattle - beast not slaughtered)... (up to)... so fear them not, but fear Me.”

(V.5:3)

And the Statement of Allâh:

“O you who believe! Allâh will certainly make a trial of you with something in (the matters of) the game.” (V.5:94)

And the Statement of Allâh:

“Lawful to you (for food) are all the beasts of cattle except that which will be announced to you (herein) ... (up to) ... so fear them not but fear Me.” (V.5:1-3)

Ibn ‘Abbâs, giving the meaning of some of the words of the Verses, said: Al-Munkhaniqa is the animal killed by choking; Al-Mauqûdah is the one killed by beating with a piece of wood; Al-Mutaraddiya is the one that dies by falling down a mountain; An-Naṣiha is a sheep killed by goring of horns. But if you find an animal still moving its tail or eyes, slaughter it (by mentioning Allâh’s Name) and eat it.

5475. Narrated ‘Adi bin Hãtim: I asked the Prophet ﷺ about the game killed by a Mi’rad (i.e. a sharp-edged piece of wood or a piece of wood provided with a sharp piece of iron used for hunting). He said, “If the game is killed with its sharp edge, eat of it, but if it is killed with its shaft, with a hit by its broad side then the game is (unlawful to eat) for it has been beaten to death.” I asked him about the game killed by a trained hound. He said, “If the hound catches the game for you, eat of it, for killing the game by the hound, is like its slaughtering. But if you see with your hound or hounds another hound, and you are afraid that it might have shared in hunting the game with your hound and killed it, then you should not eat of it, because you have mentioned Allâh’s Name on (sending) your hound only, but you have not mentioned it on some other hound.”

(2) CHAPTER. The game killed by the Mi’râd.

Ibn ‘Umar said about the animal killed with a Bunduqa (a ball of clay thrown through a hollow stick or some other thing): It is like an animal beaten to death with a piece of wood (i.e. unlawful). Sâlim, Al-Qâsim, Mujâhid, Ibrâhim and Al-Hasan disliked the eating of the game killed with Al-Bunduqa.

Al-Hasan disliked shooting the game with Bunduqa in towns and villages, but saw no harm in using it in other places.

5476. Narrated ‘Adi bin Hálm Zî: I asked Allâh’s Messenger  about Al-Mi’râd. He said, “If you hit the game with its sharp edge, eat it, but if Al-Mi’râd hits the game with its shaft with a hit by its broad side do not eat it, for it has been beaten to death with a piece of wood (i.e. unlawful).” I asked, “If I let loose my trained hound after a game?” He said, “If you let loose your trained hound after a game, and mention the Name of Allâh, then you can eat.” I said, “If the hound eats of the game?” He said, Then you should not eat of it, for the hound has hunted the game for itself and not for you.” I said, “Sometimes I send my hound and then I find some other hound with it?” He said, “Don’t eat the game, as you have mentioned the Name of Allâh on your hound only and not on the other.”
(3) CHAPTER. The game killed by the broad side of Al-Mi‘rād. (i.e. a sharp-edged piece of wood or a piece of wood provided with a sharp piece of iron used for hunting).

5477.Narrated ‘Adī bin Ḥātim ٍزَيَ اَلَّهُ عَنَّا: I said, “O Allah’s Messenger! We let loose our trained hounds after a game?” He said, “Eat what they hunt for you.” I said, “Even if they killed (the game)?” He replied, “Even if they killed (the game).” I said, “We also hit (the game) with Al-Mi‘rād?” He said, “Eat of the game which Al-Mi‘rād kills by piercing its body, but do not eat of the game which is killed by the broad side of Al-Mi‘rād.”

(4) CHAPTER. About hunting with a bow...

Al-Hasan and Ibrāhim said: If somebody hits the game (with a sharp instrument) cutting off one of its arms or legs, then you should not eat the amputated part, but you can eat the rest of the body. Ibrāhim said: If you hit the neck or the middle (part of the body) of the game, eat of it.

Al-A’mash said: Zaid said, “A man from ‘Abdullāh’s family could not hunt an onager, so he ordered his companions to hit it at random and to leave what would be amputated of its body and eat the rest.”

5478. Narrated Abū Tha‘labā Al-Khushani: I said, “O Allah’s Prophet! We are living in a land ruled by the people of the Scripture. Can we take our meals in their utensils? In that land there is plenty of game and I hunt the game with my bow and with my hound that is not trained and with my trained hound. Then what is lawful for me to eat?” He said, “As for what you have mentioned about the people of the Scripture, if you can get utensils other than theirs, do not eat out of theirs, but if you cannot get other than theirs, wash their utensils and eat out of it. If you hunt a game with your bow after mentioning Allâh’s Name, eat of it, and if you hunt something with your trained hound after mentioning Allâh’s Name, eat of it, and if you hunt something with your untrained hound (and get it before it dies) and slaughter it, eat of it.”

(5) CHAPTER. Al-Khadjif (throwing stones with the middle finger and the thumb) and Al-Bunduqa (a ball of clay thrown through a hollow stick or the like).

5479. Narrated ‘Abdullâh bin Maghaffal that he saw a man throwing stones with two fingers (at something) and said to him, “Do not throw stones, for Allâh’s Messenger has forbidden throwing stones, or he used to dislike it.” ‘Abdullâh added: “Throwing stones will neither hunt a game, nor kill (or hurt) an enemy, but it may break a tooth or gouge out an eye.” Afterwards ‘Abdullâh once again saw the man throwing stones. He said to him, “I tell you that Allâh’s Messenger has forbidden or disliked throwing stones (in such a way), yet you are throwing stones! I shall not talk to you for such-and-such a period.”
(6) CHAPTER. Whoever keeps a (pet) dog neither for hunting, nor for guarding livestock.

5480. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: The Prophet said, "Whoever keeps a (pet) dog which is neither a watch dog nor a hunting dog, will get a daily deduction of two Qirāt from his good deeds."

5481. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar: I heard the Prophet saying, "Whoever keeps a dog which is neither for hunting, nor for guarding livestock, will get a daily deduction of two Qirāt from the reward (for his good deeds)."

5482. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin 'Umar: Allah’s Messenger said, "If someone keeps a dog neither for guarding livestock, nor for hunting, will get a daily deduction of two Qirāt from his good deeds."
CHAPTER. If a hound eats (of the game). And the Statement of Allah:—
"They ask you (O Muhammad) what is lawful for them (as food). Say: 'Lawful unto you are At-Tayyibat [all kinds of Halāl (lawful-good) foods which Allah has made lawful (meat of slaughtered eatable animals, milk products, fats, vegetables and fruits)].
And those beasts and birds of prey which you have trained as hounds, training and teaching them (to catch) in a manner directed to you by Allah. So eat of what they catch for you, but mention Allah's Name upon it and fear Allah. Verily Allah is Swift in Reckoning.' "... (V.5:4).

Ibn 'Abbas said: If the hound eats of the game, that game is spoilt, for the hound has caught it for itself.

And Allah says: "Training and teaching them (to catch) in a manner directed to you by Allah. So eat of what they catch for you." (V.5 :4) so they are to be beaten and taught till they give up (that bad habit of eating the game). Ibn 'Umar disliked that (i.e., to eat of the game of which a hound has eaten).

'Atâ said: If the hound drinks the blood (of the game) but it does not eat of its meat, you can eat of it.

5483. Narrated 'Adî bin Hātim: I asked Allah's Messenger, "We hunt with the help of these hounds." He said, "If you let loose your trained hounds after a game, and mention the Name of Allah, then you can eat what the hounds catch for you, even if they killed the game. But you should not eat of it if the hound has eaten of it, for then it is likely that the hound has caught the game for itself. And if other hounds join your hound in hunting the game, then do not eat of it."
(8) CHAPTER. If the hunter hits a game but does not catch it till two or three days have passed.

5484. Narrated ‘Adi bin Ḥātim: The Prophet ﷺ said, “If you let loose your hound after a game and mention Allāh’s Name on sending it, and the hound catches the game and kills it, then you can eat of it. But if the hound eats of it, then you should not eat thereof, for the hound has caught it for itself. And if along with your hound, join other hounds, and Allāh’s Name was not mentioned at the time of their sending, and they catch a game and kill it, you should not eat of it, for you will not know which of them has killed it. And if you have thrown an arrow at the game and then find it (dead) two or three days later and, it bears no mark other than the wound inflicted by your arrow, then you can eat of it. But if the game is found (dead) in water, then do not eat of it.”

5485. Narrated ‘Adi bin Ḥātim that he asked the Prophet ﷺ, “If a hunter throws an arrow at the game and after tracing it for two or three days, he finds it dead but still bearing his arrow (can he eat of it?)” The Prophet ﷺ replied, “He can eat if he wishes.”

(9) CHAPTER. If somebody finds another hound with the game (besides his hound).

5486. Narrated ‘Adi bin Ḥātim: I said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! I let loose my hound after a game and mention Allāh’s Name on sending it.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “If you let loose your hound after a game and you mention Allah’s Name on sending it and the hound catches and kills the game and eats of it, then you should not eat of it, for it has killed it for itself.” I said, “Sometimes when I send my hound after a game, I find another hound along with it and I do not know which of them has caught the game.” He said, “You must not eat of it because you have not mentioned the Name of Allah except on sending your own hound, and you did not mention it on the other hound.” Then I asked him about the game hunted with a Mi'rad (i.e. a sharp-edged piece of wood or a piece of wood provided with a sharp piece of iron used for hunting). He said, “If the game is killed with its sharp edge, you can eat of it, but if it is killed by its broad side (shaft), you should not eat of it, for then it is like an animal beaten to death with a piece of wood.”

(10) CHAPTER. What have been said about hunting.

5487. Narrated ‘Adi bin Hātim: I asked Allah’s Messenger, “We hunt with these hounds.” He said, “If you send your trained hounds after a game and mention Allah’s Name on sending, you can eat of what they catch for you. But if the hound eats of the game, then you must not eat of it, for I am afraid that the hound caught it for itself, and if another hound joins your hounds (during the hunt), you should not eat of the game.”

5488. Narrated Abū Tha‘labā Al-Khushānī: I came to Allah’s Messenger and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! We are living in the land of the people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians) and we take our meals in their utensils, and in the land there is game and I hunt with my bow and trained or untrained hounds; please tell me what is lawful for us of that.” He said, “As for your saying that you are living in the land of the people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians) and that you eat in their utensils, if you can get utensils other than theirs, do not eat in their utensils, but if you do not find (other than theirs), then wash their utensils and eat in them. As for your saying that you are in the land of game, if you hunt something with your bow, and have mentioned Allah’s Name while hunting, then you can eat (the game). And if you hunt something with your trained hound, and have mentioned Allah’s Name on sending it for hunting then you can eat (the game). But if you hunt something with your untrained hound and you were able to slaughter it before its death, you can eat of it.”

5489. Narrated Anas bin Malik
We provoked a rabbit at Mar Az-Zahrân till it started jumping. My companions chased it till they got tired. But I alone ran after it and caught it and brought it to Abū Talha. He sent both its legs to the Prophet ﷺ who accepted them.
5490.Narrated Abū Qatāda that once he was with Allāh’s Messenger (on the way to Makkah). When he had covered some of the way to Makkah, he and some companions of his, who were in the state of ṣaḍḥ (i.e. the state of Ihram), remained behind the Prophet, while Abū Qatāda himself was not in the state of Ihram. Abū Qatāda, seeing an onager, rode his horse and asked his companions to hand him a whip, but they refused. He then asked them to hand him his spear, but they refused. Then he took it himself and attacked the onager and killed it. Some of the companions of Allāh’s Messenger ate of it, but some others refused to eat. When they met Allāh’s Messenger they asked him about that. He said, “It was a meal given to you by Allāh.”

5491. Narrated Abū Qatāda (the same Hadith above, but he added): The Prophet asked, “Is there any of its meat left with you?”

5492. Narrated Abū Qatāda: I was with the Prophet (on a journey) between Makkah and Al-Madīna and all of them (i.e. the Prophet and his companions) were in the state of Ihram, while I was not in... that state. I was riding my horse and I used to be fond of ascending mountains. So while I was doing so I noticed that the people were looking at something. I went to see what it was, and behold it was an onager. I asked my companions, "What is that?" They said, "We do not know." I said, "It is an onager".

They said, "It is what you have seen." I had left my whip, so I said to them, "Hand to me my whip." They said, "We will not help you in that (in hunting the onager)". I got down, took my whip and chased the animal (on my horse) and did not stop till I killed it. I went to them and said, "Come on, carry it!" But they said, "We will not even touch it." At last I alone carried it and brought it to them. Some of them ate of it and some refused to eat of it. I said (to them), "I will ask the Prophet about it (on your behalf)". When I met the Prophet, I told him the whole story. He said to me, "Has anything of it been left with you?" I said, "Yes." He said, "Eat, for it is a meal Allāh has offered to you."

(12) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh : Lawful to you is (the pursuit of) water-game and its use for food... for the benefit of yourselves."... (V.5:96)

‘Umar said: The sea-game means what is fished, and its food means what the sea throws (on its shore).
Abū Bakr said: Floating fish is lawful to eat.

Ibn 'Abbās said: The seafood means the dead fish except what you regard as unclean. Jews do not eat Al-Jirī (a kind of fish having no scales), but we eat it.

Shuraīḥ, a Companion of the Prophet ﷺ said: Every sea animal is regarded as slaughtered.

But ‘Aṭāʾ said: As for (sea) birds, I think they must be slaughtered.

Ibn Juraij said: I said to ‘Aṭāʾ “Is water-game fished in rivers and swamps regarded as sea-game?” He said, “Yes”. Then he recited:

“This (the one) fresh, pleasant to drink and that (the other), saltish and bitter. And from them both you eat, fresh tender meat (fish)...” (V.35:12)

Al-Ḥasan rode on a saddle made of shark-skin.

Ash-Sha'bī said: If my family would eat frogs, I would provide them with frogs to eat.

Al-Ḥasan does not see any harm in eating tortoises.

Ibn ‘Abbās said: Eat of the sea-game whether it is fished by a Christian, a Jew or a Magian.

Abū Ad-Dardāʾ said about Al-Murī: The fish and the sun render the wine lawful.\(^1\)

5493. Narrated Jābir: Ṭaṣḥīḥiyya: We went out in a campaign and the army was called ‘The Army of Al-Khabat’, and Abū ‘Ubaida was our commander. We were struck with severe hunger. Then the sea threw a huge dead fish called Al-'Anbar, the like of which had never been seen. We ate of it for half a month, and then Abū ‘Ubaida took one of its bones (and made an arch of it) so that a rider could easily pass under it.

\(^1\) (Chap. 12) Al-Murī is a drink made from wine mixed with salt and fish and is exposed to the sun till the wine loses its taste.
5494. Narrated Jābir: The Prophet sent us as an army unit of three hundred warriors under the command of Abū 'Ubaida to ambush a caravan of the Qurāish. But we were struck with such severe hunger that we ate the Khabat (desert bushes), so our army was called the Army of Al-Khabat. Then the sea threw a huge fish called Al-'Anbar and we ate of it for half a month and rubbed our bodies with its fat till our bodies became healthy. Then Abū 'Ubaida took one of its ribs and fixed it over the ground and a rider passed underneath it. There was a man amongst us who slaughtered three camels when hunger became severe, and he slaughtered three more, but after that Abū 'Ubaida forbade him to do so.

(13) CHAPTER. The eating of locusts.

5495. Narrated Ibn Abī Aufā: We participated with the Prophet in six or seven Ghazawāt, and we used to eat locusts with him.

(14) CHAPTER. The utensils of Magians and (the eating of) dead flesh.

5496. Narrated Abū Tha'labā Al-Khushānī: I came to the Prophet and said, “O Allah’s Messenger! We are living in the land of the people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians), and we take our meals in their utensils, and there is game in that land and I hunt with my bow and with my trained hound and with my untrained hound.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “As for your saying that you are in the land of the people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians), you should not eat in their utensils unless you find no alternative, in which case you must wash the utensils and then eat in them. As for your saying that you are in the land of game, if you hunt something with your bow, mention Allah’s Name (while hunting the game) and eat; and if you hunt something with your trained hound, mention Allah’s Name on sending and eat; and if you hunt something with your untrained hound and get it alive, slaughter it and you can eat of it.”

5497. Narrated Salama bin Al-Akwa’: In the evening of the day of the conquest of Khaibar, the army made fires (for cooking). The Prophet ﷺ said, “For what have you made these fires?” They said, “For cooking the meat of domestic donkeys.” He said, “Throw away what is in the cooking pots and break the pots. A man from the people got up and said, “Shall we throw the contents of the cooking pots and then wash the pots (instead of breaking them)?” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Yes, you can do either.”
(15) CHAPTER. Mentioning Allâh’s Name on slaughtering an animal, and whoever does not mention Allâh’s Name intentionally (while slaughtering).

Ibn ‘Abbâs said: Whoever forgets to mention Allâh’s Name while slaughtering, there is no harm in it. And Allâh said:

“Eat not (O believers) of that meat on which Allâh’s Name has not been pronounced (at the time of slaughtering of that animal) for sure it is a Fisq (sin and disobedience of Allâh)”. (V.6:121)

Ibn ‘Abbâs added: He who forgets Allâh’s Name, is not called Fâsiq (i.e. considered as a sin and disobedience of Allâh). And Allâh said:

“And certainly the Shayâtîn (devils) do inspire their friends (from mankind) to dispute with you, and if you obey them [by making Al-Maitah (a dead animal) legal (to eat) by eating it], then you would indeed be Mushrikûn (polytheists) [because they (devils and their friends) made lawful to you to eat that which Allâh has made unlawful to eat and you obeyed them by considering it lawful to eat, and by doing so you worshipped them; and to worship others besides Allâh is polytheism]....” (V.6:121)

5498. Narrated Râfi’ bin Khadij : We were with the Prophet ﷺ in Dhul-Hulaifa and there the people were struck with severe hunger. Then we got camels and sheep as war booty (and slaughtered them). The Prophet ﷺ was behind all the people. The people hurried and fixed the cooking pots (for cooking), but the Prophet ﷺ came there and ordered that the cooking pots be turned upside down. Then he distributed the animals, regarding ten sheep as equal to one camel. One of the camels ran away and there were a few horses with the people. They chased the camel but they got tired, whereupon a man shot it with an arrow whereby Allah stopped it. The Prophet said, “Among these animals some are as wild as wild beasts, so if one of them runs away from you, treat it in this way.” I said, “We hope, or we are afraid that tomorrow we will meet the enemy and we have no knives, shall we slaughter (our animals) with canes?” The Prophet said, “If the killing tool causes blood to gush out and if Allah’s Name is mentioned, eat (of the slaughtered animal). But do not slaughter with a tooth or a nail. I am telling you why: A tooth is a bone, and the nail is the knife of Ethiopians.”

(16) CHAPTER. Animals that are sacrificed (slaughtered) on An-Nuṣub(1) and for the idols.

5499. Narrated ‘Abdullãh i: Allah’s Messenger said that he met Zaid bin ‘Amr bin Nufail at a place near Baldãh and this had happened before Allah’s Messenger received the Divine Revelation. Allah’s Messenger received a dish of meat (that had been offered to him by Al-Mushrikün) to Zaid bin ‘Amr, but Zaid refused to eat of it and then said (to Al-Mushrikün), “I do not eat of what you have sacrificed (slaughtered) on your stone-altars (Anṣāb) nor do I eat except that on which Allah’s Name has been mentioned on

(1) (Chap. 16) An-Nuṣub were stone-altars whereon sacrifices were slaughtered at fixed places or graves etc., during fixed periods of occasions and seasons in the name of idols, jinn, angels, pious men, saints etc., in order to honour them or to expect some benefit from them.
slaughtering.” [see Vol.5.H.No.3826, 3827, 3828]

(17) CHAPTER. The saying of the Prophet ﷺ: “So slaughter by mentioning the Name of Allah.”

5500. Narrated Jundub bin Sufyān Al-Bajalī: Once during the lifetime of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ we offered some animals as sacrifices. Some people slaughtered their sacrifices before (`Eid) Salāt (prayer), so when the Prophet ﷺ finished his Salāt (prayer), he saw that they had slaughtered their sacrifices before the Salāt (prayer). He said, “Whoever has slaughtered (his sacrifice) before the (`Eid) Salāt (prayer), should slaughter (another sacrifice) in lieu of it; and whoever has not slaughtered it till we have offered (`Eid) Salāt (prayer); should slaughter (it) by mentioning Allāh’s Name.”

(18) CHAPTER. (About the instruments) that cause the blood (of slaughtered animals) to gush out, e.g., of cane, granite stone, or iron.

5501. Narrated Ka’b that a slave-girl of theirs used to shepherd some sheep at Sal‘ (a mountain near Al-Madina). On seeing one of her sheep dying, she broke a stone and slaughtered it. Ka’b said to his family, “Do not eat (of it) till I go to the Prophet ﷺ and ask him, or, till I send someone to ask him.” So he went to the Prophet ﷺ or sent someone to him. The Prophet ﷺ permitted (them) to eat it.
5502. Narrated ‘Abullâh that Ka’b had a slave-girl who used to graze his sheep on a small mountain called Sal,’ situated near the market. Once a sheep was dying, so she broke a stone and slaughtered it with it. When they mentioned that to the Prophet نبى, he permitted them to eat it.

5503. Narrated Rafi’ bin Khadij that he said, “O Allah’s Messenger! We have no knife.” The Prophet نبى said, “If the killing tool causes blood to gush out, and if Allah’s Name is mentioned, eat (of the slaughtered animal). But do not slaughter with a nail or a tooth, for the nail is the knife of Ethiopians and a tooth is a bone.” Suddenly a camel ran away and it was stopped (with an arrow). The Prophet نبى then said, “Of these camels there are some which are as wild as wild beasts; so if one of them runs away from you and you cannot catch it, treat it in this manner (i.e. shoot it with an arrow).”

(19) CHAPTER. The animal slaughtered by a lady or a lady slave.

5504. Narrated Ka’b bin Mâlik: A lady slaughtered a sheep with a stone and then the Prophet نبى was asked about it and he permitted it to be eaten.
5505. Narrated Mu'adh bin S'ad or Sa'd bin Mu'adh: A slave-girl belonging to Ka'b used to graze some sheep at Sal' (mountain). Once one of her sheep was dying. She reached it (before it died) and slaughtered it with a stone. The Prophet was asked, and he said, “Eat it.”

(20) CHAPTER. Not to slaughter with a tooth, a bone or a nail.

5506. Narrated Râfi bin Khadij: The Prophet said, “Eat what is slaughtered (with any instrument) that makes blood flow out, except what is slaughtered with a tooth or a nail.”

(21) CHAPTER. The animals slaughtered by bedouins or the like.

5507. Narrated ‘Aishah: A group of people said to the Prophet, “Some people bring us meat and we do not know whether they mentioned Allâh’s Name or not on slaughtering the animal.” He said, “Mention Allâh’s Name on it and eat.” Those people had embraced Islâm recently.
(22) CHAPTER. The animals slaughtered by the people of the Scripture (Jews and Christians) and their fat, whether those people were at war with the Muslims or not.

The Statement of Allah: "Lawful to you are At-Tayyibat..." (V.5:4) (See Chap. 7 before H. 5483)

Az-Zuhri said: There is no harm in eating animals slaughtered by Arab Christians. If you hear the one who slaughters the animals mentioning other than Allah's Name, don't eat of it, but if you do not hear that, then Allah has allowed the eating of animals slaughtered by them, though He knows their disbelief.

It is narrated that 'Ali gave a similar verdict.

Al-Hasan and Ibrāhim said: There is no harm in eating an animal slaughtered by an uncircumcised person. Ibn 'Abbās said: Their food means their slaughtered animals.

5508. Narrated 'Abdullāh bin Mughaffal: While we were besieging the castle of Khaibar, somebody threw a skin full of fat and I went ahead to take it, but on looking behind, I saw the Prophet and I felt shy in his presence (and did not take it).

(23) CHAPTER. Any domestic animal that runs away should be treated like a wild animal.
Ibn Mas'ūd permitted that.

Ibn ‘Abbās said: If a domestic animal runs away and you cannot catch it, it is to be treated like game. And if a camel falls down in a well, slaughter it at any place of its body that will be easy for you to reach.

‘Ālī, Ibn ‘Umar and ‘Āishah thought similarly.

5509.Narrated Râfi' bin Khadij: I said, “O Allah’s Messenger We are going to face the enemy tomorrow, and we do not have knives.” He said, “Hurry up (in killing the animal). If the killing tool causes blood to flow out, and if Allah’s Name is mentioned, eat (of the slaughtered animal). But do not slaughter with a tooth or a nail. I will tell you why: As for the tooth, it is a bone; and as for the nail, it is the knife of Ethiopians.” Then we got some camels and sheep as war booty, and one of those camels ran away, whereupon a man shot it with an arrow and stopped it. Allah’s Messenger said, “Of these camels there are some which are as wild as wild beasts, so if one of them (runs away and) makes you tired, treat it in this manner.”

(24) CHAPTER. An-Nahr (literally means slaughtering of the camels only, and is done by cutting the carotid arteries at the root of camel’s neck) and Adh-Dhabh (means slaughtering of animals other than camels, e.g. sheep, cow, etc. by cutting the carotid and jugular blood vein over the neck).

Ibn Juraij said: ‘Ātā’ said, “Neither Dhabh nor Nahr is to be done except in a slaughter-house.” I said, “Is it permissible to slaughter by Nahr what is usually slaughtered by Dhabh?” He said, “Yes, for Allāh mentions the Dhabh of cows, so if you slaughter by Dhabh an animal which is usually slaughtered by Nahr, it is permissible. But I prefer Nahr; and Dhabh means the cutting of the carotid and jugular blood vein.” I said, “Should one go beyond these blood vein and cut the spinal cord?” He said, “I don’t think so. And Nāfī’ told me that Ibn ‘Umar forbade An-Nakh’, i.e. to cut the neck up to the spinal cord and leave the animal till it dies.”

(And the Statement of Allāh ﷺ) “And (remember) when Moses said to his people: ‘Verily: Allāh commands you that you slaughter a cow (by Dhabh)... (up to) ... They slaughtered it (by Dhabh) though they were near not doing it.” (V.2:67 - 71)

Sa‘īd bin Jubair said: Ibn ‘Abbās said, “The Dhakāt is done by cutting the throat and the front part of the neck.”

Ibn ‘Umar, Ibn ‘Abbas and Anas said: If one cuts the head (of the animal), there is no harm.

5510. Narrated Asmā’ bint Abū Bakr رضي الله عنها: We slaughtered a horse (by Nahr) during the lifetime of the Prophet ﷺ and ate it.

5511. Narrated Asmā’: We slaughtered a horse (by Dhabh) during the lifetime of Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ while we were at Al-Madīna, and we ate it.
5512. Narrated Asmā' bint Abū Bakr: We slaughtered a horse (by Nahr) during the lifetime of Allah's Messenger ﷺ and ate it.

(25) CHAPTER. What is disliked of Al-Muthla, Al-Masbūra, and Mujaththama. (1)

5513. Narrated Hishām bin Zaid: Anas and I went to Al-Ḥakam bin Ayyūb. Anas saw some boys shooting at a tied hen. Anas said, "The Prophet ﷺ has forbidden the shooting of tied or confined animals."

5514. Narrated Ibn ‘Umar that he entered upon Yahya bin Sa’īd while one of Yahya's sons was aiming at a hen after tying it. Ibn ‘Umar walked to it and untied it. Then he brought it and the boy and said, "Prevent your boys from tying the birds for the sake of killing them, as I have heard the Prophet ﷺ forbidding the killing of an animal or other living thing after tying them."

(1) (Chap. 25) 'Al-Muthla' is the amputation of all or part of the limbs of an animal while it is still alive.

'Al-Masbūra' is the animal that is shot by an arrow or by something else after it has been caged or tied.

'Al-Mujaththama' is the animal that is tied and used as a target.
5515. Narrated Sa‘id bin Jubair: While I was with Ibn ‘Umar, we passed by a group of young men who had tied a hen and started shooting at it. When they saw Ibn ‘Umar, they dispersed, leaving it. On that Ibn ‘Umar said, “Who has done this? The Prophet cursed the one who did so.”

Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: The Prophet cursed the one who did Muthla to an animal (i.e., cut its limbs or some other part of its body while it is still alive).

5516. Narrated ‘Abdullāh bin Yazīd: The Prophet forbade An-Nuhba(1) and Al-Muthla.

(26) CHAPTER. The meat of chickens.

(1) (H. 5516) An-Nuhba means robbing and taking publicly the property of someone else by force.
Narrated Zahdam: We were in the company of Abū Mūsā Al-Ash'arī and there were friendly relations between us and this tribe of Jarm. Abū Mūsā was presented with a dish containing chicken. Among the people there was sitting a red-faced man who did not come near the food. Abū Mūsā said (to him), "Come on (and eat), for I have seen Allāh's Messenger eating of it (i.e., chicken)". He said, "I have seen it eating something (dirty) and since then I have disliked it, and have taken an oath that I shall not eat it." Abū Mūsā said, "Come on, I will tell you (or narrate to you)."

Once I went to Allāh's Messenger with a group of Al-Ash'arīyin, and met him while he was angry, distributing some camels of Zakāt. We asked for mounts but he took an oath that he would not give us any mounts, and added, 'I have nothing to mount you on.' In the meantime some camels of booty were brought to Allāh's Messenger and he asked twice, "Where are Al-Ash'arīyin?" So he gave us five white camels with big humps. We stayed for a short while (after we had covered a little distance), and then I said to my companions, "Allāh's Messenger has forgotten his oath. By Allāh, if we do not remind Allāh's Messenger of his oath, we will never be successful." So we returned to the Prophet and said, "O Allāh's Messenger! We asked you for mounts, but you took an oath that you would not give us any mounts; we think that you have forgotten your oath.' He said, 'It is Allāh Who has given you mounts. By Allāh, and if Allāh will, if I take an oath and later find something else better than that, then I do what is better and expiate my oath'."
(27) CHAPTER. Horse flesh.

5519. Narrated Asmā': We slaughtered a horse (by Nahr) during the lifetime of Allāh's Messenger and ate it.

5520. Narrated Jābir bin 'Abdullāh: On the day of the battle of Khaibar, Allāh's Messenger made donkey's meat unlawful and allowed the eating of horse flesh.

(28) CHAPTER. (It is unlawful to eat) the meat of donkeys.

This is narrated by Salama from the Prophet.

5521. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: The Prophet made the meat of donkeys unlawful on the day of the battle of Khaibar.

5524. Narrated Jâbir bin ‘Abdullâh: The Prophet prohibited the eating of donkey’s meat on the day of the battle of Khaibar, and allowed the eating of horse flesh.

5525, 5526. Narrated Al-Barâ’ and Ibn Abî Aufâ: The Prophet prohibited the eating of donkey’s meat.

5527. Narrated Abû Tha’labâ: Allâh’s Messenger prohibited the eating of donkey’s meat.

Narrated Az-Zuhri: The Prophet prohibited the eating of beasts of prey having fangs.
5528. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Someone came to Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and said, “The donkeys have been (slaughtered and) eaten. Another man came and said, “The donkeys have been destroyed.” On that the Prophet ﷺ ordered a caller to announce to the people: “Allāh and His Messenger forbid you to eat the meat of donkeys, for it is Rijs (impure).” Thus the pots were turned upside down while they were boiling with the (donkey’s) meat.

5529. Narrated ‘Amr: I said to Jābir bin Zaid, “The people claim that Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ forbade the eating of donkey’s meat.” He said, “Al-Hakam bin ‘Amr Al-Ghifārī used to say so when he was with us, but Ibn ‘Abbas, the great religious learned man, refused to give a final verdict and recited:

‘Say: I find not in that which has been revealed to me anything forbidden to be eaten by one who wishes to eat it, unless it be Maitah (a dead animal) or, blood poured forth or the flesh of swine...’ ” (V.6:145)

5530. Narrated Abū Tha’labah: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ forbade the eating of the meat of beasts of prey having fangs.
(30) CHAPTER. The skin of dead animals.

5531. Narrated ‘Abdullah bin ‘Abãs: Once Allâh’s Messenger passed by a dead sheep and said (to the people), “Why don’t you use its hide?” They said, “But it is dead.” He said, “Only eating it, is prohibited.”

5532. Narrated Ibn ‘Abbas: The Prophet passed by a dead goat and said, “There is no harm if its owners benefit from its skin.”

(31) CHAPTER. The musk (a kind of perfume).

5533. Narrated Abû Hurairah: Allâh’s Messenger said, “None is wounded in Allâh’s Cause but will come on the Day of Resurrection with his wound bleeding. The thing that will come out of his wound will be the colour of blood, but its smell will be the smell of musk.”

5534. Narrated Abu Müsa: The Prophet said, “The example of a good pious companion and an evil one is that of a person carrying musk and another blowing a pair of bellows. The one who is carrying musk will either give you some perfume as a present, or you will buy some from him, or you will get a good smell from him; but the one who is blowing a pair of bellows will either burn your clothes or you will get a bad smell from him.”

(32) CHAPTER. The rabbit.

5535. Narrated Anas bin Malik: Once we provoked a rabbit at Mar Az-Zahrān. The people chased it till they got tired. Then I caught it and brought it to Abū Ṭalḥa, who slaughtered it and then sent both its pelvic pieces (or legs) to the Prophet, and the Prophet accepted the present.

(33) CHAPTER. The mastigure.

5537. Narrated Khālid bin Al-Walid: Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ and I entered the house of Maimūna. A roasted mastigure was served. Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ stretched his hand out (to eat of it) but some woman said, “Inform Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ of what he is about to eat.” So they said, “It is mastigure, O Allāh’s Messenger!” He withdrew his hand, whereupon I said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Is it unlawful?” He said, “No, but this is not found in the land of my people, so I dislike it.” So I pulled the mastigure towards me and ate it while Allāh’s Messenger ﷺ was looking at me.

(34) CHAPTER. If a mouse falls into solid or liquid butter-fat (As-Samn).

5538. Narrated Maimūna: A mouse fell into the butter-fat and died. The Prophet ﷺ was asked about that. He said, “Throw away the mouse and the butter-fat that surrounded it, and eat the rest of the butter-fat (As-Samn).”
5539. Narrated Az-Zuhri regarding an animal, e.g., a mouse or some other animal that had fallen into solid or liquid oil or butter-fat: I had been informed that a mouse had died in butter-fat whereupon Allâh's Messenger ﷺ ordered that the butter-fat near it be thrown away and the rest of the butter-fat can be eaten.

5540. Narrated Maimûna: The Prophet ﷺ was asked about a mouse that had fallen into butter-fat (and died). He said, “Throw away the mouse and the portion of butter-fat around it, and eat the rest.”

(35) CHAPTER. Branding the faces.

5541. Narrated Sâlim that Ibn ‘Umar disliked the branding of animals on the face. Ibn ‘Umar said, “The Prophet ﷺ forbade beating (animals) on the face.”
5542. Narrated Anas ibn Malik: I brought a brother of mine to the Prophet ﷺ to do Tahnik for him while the Prophet ﷺ was in a sheepfold of his, and I saw him branding a sheep. (The subnarrator said: I think Anas said, 'branding it on the ear'.)

(36) CHAPTER. If some people get some war booty and then some of them slaughter some sheep or camels without the permission of their companions, such animals should not be eaten, as is indicated by the Hadith of the Prophet ﷺ narrated by Râfi'.

Tawus and 'Ikrima said regarding a slaughtered stolen animal: Throw it away.

5543. Narrated Râfi' bin Khadij: I said to the Prophet ﷺ, "We will be facing the enemy tomorrow and we have no knives (for slaughtering)." He said, "If you slaughter the animal with anything that causes its blood to flow out, and if Allah's Name is mentioned on slaughtering it, eat of it, unless the killing instrument is a tooth or nail. I will tell you why: As for the tooth, it is a bone; and as for the nail, it is the knife of Ethiopians." The quick ones among the people got the war booty while the Prophet ﷺ was behind the people. So they placed the cooking pots on the fire, but the Prophet ﷺ ordered the cooking pots to be turned upside down. Then he distributed (the war booty) among them, considering one camel as equal to ten sheep. Then a camel belonging to the first party of people ran away and they had no horses with them, so a man shot it with an arrow whereby Allah stopped it. The Prophet ﷺ said, "Of these animals there are some which are as wild as wild beasts. So, if anyone of them runs away like this, do like this (shoot..." it with an arrow)."

(37) CHAPTER. If a camel of some people runs away and one of them shoots it with an arrow and kills it for their own good, then it is permissible. ṭāfī narrates this on the authority of the Prophet  ﷺ.

5544. Narrated ṭāfī bin Khadijā: While we were with the Prophet  ﷺ on a journey, one of the camels ran away. A man shot it with an arrow and stopped it. The Prophet  ﷺ said, "Of these camels some are as wild as wild beasts, so if one of them runs away and you cannot catch it, then do like this (shoot it with an arrow)." I said, "O Allah’s Messenger! Sometimes when we are in battles or on a journey and want to slaughter (animals) and have no knives (then what we should do?)." He said, "Listen! If you slaughter the animal with anything that causes its blood to flow out, and if Allah’s Name is mentioned on slaughtering it, eat of it, provided that the slaughtering instrument is not a tooth or a nail, as the tooth is a bone and the nail is the knife of Ethiopians."

(38) CHAPTER. The eating (of dead animals etc.) out of necessity.

The Statement of Allah  ﷺ: "O you who believe! Eat of the Tayyibat (lawful things etc.) that We have provided you with... then there is no sin on him." (V.2:172,173)

Allah also said:
"But as for him, who is forced by severe hunger, with no inclination to sin (such can eat of these, above mentioned meats), then surely, Allah is Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful." (V.5:3)

And His Statement:

"So eat of that (meat) on which Allah's Name has been pronounced (while slaughtering that animal) if you are believers in His Ayat (proofs, evidences, verses, lessons, signs, revelations etc.)."(V.6:118)

And also the Statement of Allah:

"Say (O Muhammad ﷺ): I find not in that which has been inspired to me anything forbidden." (V.6:145)

And His Statement:

"So eat of the lawful and good food [the meat of cattle beast which Allah has made lawful to you (Muslims), and the animal is slaughtered according to Islamic way] which Allah has provided for you." (V.16:114)
(1) CHAPTER. The legal way of Al-Udhiya.

Ibn ‘Umar said: It is (the Prophet’s) legal way, and it is a charitable deed.

5545. Narrated Al-Barā’ bin ‘Abbās: The Prophet (ﷺ) said (on the day of ‘Eid-ul-Adhā), “The first thing we will do on this day of ours, is to offer the (‘Eid) Salāt (prayer) and then return to slaughter the sacrifice. Whoever does so, he acted according to our Sunna (legal way), and whoever slaughtered (the sacrifice) before the (‘Eid) Salāt (prayer), what he offered was just meat he presented to his family, and that will not be considered as Nusuk (sacrifice).” (On hearing that) Abū Burdâ bin Niyār got up, for he had slaughtered the sacrifice before the (‘Eid) Salāt (prayer), and said, “I have got a six-month-old kid.” The Prophet (ﷺ) said, “Slaughter it (as a sacrifice) but it will not be sufficient for anyone else (as a sacrifice after you).” Al-Barā’ added: The Prophet (ﷺ) said, “Whoever slaughtered (the sacrifice) after the (‘Eid) Salāt (prayer), he slaughtered it at the right time and followed the legal way of the Muslims.”

5546. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: The Prophet (ﷺ) said, “Whoever slaughtered the sacrifice before the (‘Eid) Salāt (prayer), he just slaughtered it for himself, and whoever slaughtered it after the (‘Eid) Salāt (prayer), he slaughtered it at the right time and followed the legal way of the Muslims.”
(2) CHAPTER. The distribution of the animals (for sacrifice by the Imam) among the people.

5547. Narrated 'Uqba bin 'Amir Al-Juhanī that the Prophet distributed among his Companions some animals for sacrifice (to be slaughtered on 'Eid-ul-Adhā). 'Uqba's share was a Jadha'a (a six-month-old goat). 'Uqba said, “O Allāh's Messenger! I get my share of Jadha'a (a six-month-old kid)” The Prophet said, “Slaughter it as a sacrifice.”

(3) CHAPTER. Sacrifices (slaughtered) on behalf of a traveller and women.

5548. Narrated 'Āishah (رضي الله عنها) that the Prophet entered upon her when she had her menses at Sarif before entering Makkah, and she was weeping (because she was afraid that she would not be able to perform the Hajj). The Prophet said, “What is wrong with you? Have you got your period?” She said, “Yes.” He said, “This is a thing Allāh has decreed for all the daughters of Adam, so perform all the ceremonies of Hajj like the others, but do not perform the Tawaf around the Ka'bah.” 'Āishah added: When we were at Mina, beef was brought to me and I asked, “What is this?” Uley (the people) said, “Allāh's Messenger has slaughtered some cows as sacrifices on behalf of his wives.”

(4) CHAPTER. Meat is desired on the day of Nahr.

5549. Narrated Anas bin Mālik (رضي الله عنه): The Prophet said on the day of Nahr, “Whoever has slaughtered his sacrifice before the (‘Eid) Ṣalāt (prayer), should repeat it (slaughter another sacrifice).” A man got up and said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! This is a day on which meat is desired.” He then mentioned his neighbours (etc.) and added: “I have a six-month-old kid which is to me better than the meat of two sheep.”

The Prophet allowed him to slaughter it as a sacrifice, but I do not know whether this permission was valid for other than that man or not. The Prophet then went towards two rams and slaughtered them, and then the people went towards some sheep and distributed them among themselves.

(5) CHAPTER. Whoever said that sacrifices (should be offered) on the day of Nahr.

5550. Narrated Abū Bakra: The Prophet said, “Time has come back to its original state which it had on the day Allāh created the heavens and the earth. The year is of twelve months, four of which are sacred, three of them are in succession, namely Dhul-Qa‘da, Dhul-Ḥijja and Muharram, (the fourth being) Rajab Muddar which is between Jumāda (Ath-thānī) and Sha‘bān. The Prophet then asked, “Which month is this?” We said, “Allāh and His Messenger know better.” He kept silent so long that we thought that he would call it by a name other than its real name. He said, “Isn’t it the month of Dhul-Ḥijja?” We said, “Yes.” He said, “Which town is this?” We said, “Allāh and His Messenger know better.” He kept silent so long that we thought that he would call it by a name other than its real name. He said, “Isn’t it the town (of Makkah)?” We replied, “Yes.” He said, “What day is today?” We replied, “Allāh and His Messenger know better.” He kept silent... so long that we thought that he would call it by a name other than its real name. He said, “Isn’t it the day of Nahr?” We replied, “Yes.” He then said, “Your blood, properties and honour are as sacred to one another as this day of yours, in this town of yours, in this month of yours. You will meet your Lord, and He will ask you about your deeds. Beware! Do not go astray after me, by cutting the necks of one another. It is incumbent upon those who are present to convey this message to those who are absent, for some of those to whom it is conveyed may comprehend it better than some of those who have heard it directly.” (Muhammad, the subnarrator, on mentioning this used to say: The Prophet \( \text{س} \) then said, “No doubt! Haven’t I conveyed (Allah’s) Message (to you)? Haven’t I conveyed Allah’s message (to you)?”

(6) CHAPTER. Al-Adhā and the slaughtering of sacrifices at the Muṣallā (the place of offering 'Eid prayer).

5551. Narrated Nāfi’: ‘Abdullāh (bin ‘Umar) used to slaughter his sacrifice at the slaughtering place (i.e. the slaughtering place of the Prophet \( \text{s} \)).

5552. Ibn ‘Umar said, “Allāh’s Messenger \( \text{s} \) used to slaughter (camels and sheep, etc.) as sacrifices at Al-Muṣallā.”
CHAPTER. The Prophet slaughtered two horned rams which, it is mentioned, were fat ones.

Abū Umāma (bin) Sahl said: We used to fatten our sacrifices at Al-Madina and the Muslims also used to fatten theirs.

5553. Narrated Anas bin Malik: The Prophet used to offer two rams as sacrifices, and I also used to offer two rams.

5554. Narrated Anas: Allah's Messenger came towards two horned rams having black and white colours and slaughtered them with his own hands.

5555. Narrated ‘Uqba bin ‘Amir that the Prophet gave him some sheep to distribute among his Companions to slaughter as sacrifices (of ‘Eid-ul-Adhā). A kid was left and he told the Prophet of that whereupon he said to him, “Slaughter it as a sacrifice
(8) CHAPTER. The statement of the Prophet ﷺ. Abū Burda: “Slaughter a kid as a sacrifice (of ‘Eid-ul-Adha), but it will not be sufficient for anybody else after you.”

5556. Narrated Al-Bara’ bin ‘Ázib: An uncle of mine called Abū Burda, slaughtered his sacrifice before the ‘Eid prayer. So Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ said to him, “Your (slaughtered) sheep was just mutton (not a sacrifice).” Abū Burda said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! I have got a domestic kid.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Slaughter it (as a sacrifice) but it will not be permissible for anybody other than you.” The Prophet ﷺ added, “Whoever slaughtered his sacrifice before the (‘Eid) prayer, he only slaughtered for himself, and whoever slaughtered it after the (‘Eid) Salât (prayer), he offered his sacrifice properly and followed the legal ways of the Muslims.”

5557. Narrated Al-Bara’: Abū Burda slaughtered (the sacrifice) before the (‘Eid) Salât (prayer) whereupon the Prophet ﷺ said to him, “Slaughter another sacrifice instead of that.” Abū Burda said, “I have nothing except a Jadha’a (kid).” (Shu’ba said: Perhaps Abū Burda also said that Jadha’a (kid) was better than an old sheep in his opinion.) The Prophet said, “(Never mind) slaughter it to make up for the other one, but it will not be sufficient for anyone else after you.”

(9) CHAPTER. Whoever slaughtered his sacrifice with his own hands.

5558.Narrated Anas: The Prophet slaughtered two rams, black and white in colour (as sacrifices), and I saw him putting his foot on their sides and mentioning Allâh’s Name and Takbîr (Allâhu Akbar). Then he slaughtered them with his own hands.

(10) CHAPTER. Whoever slaughtered the sacrifices on behalf of others. Some man helped Ibn ‘Umar in slaughtering his camel. Abû Mûsâ ordered his daughters to slaughter their sacrifices with their own hands.

5559.Narrated ‘Āishah: Allâh’s Messenger entered upon me at Sarîf while I was weeping (because I was afraid that I would not be able to perform the Hajj). He said, “What is wrong with you? Have you got your period?” I replied, “Yes.” He said, “This is a thing Allâh has decreed for all the daughters of Adam, so do what all the pilgrims do but do not perform the Tawâf.
around the Ka'bah.” ‘Aishah added: Allâh’s Messenger ﷺ slaughtered some cows as sacrifices on behalf of his wives. (See H. 294)

(11) CHAPTER. To slaughter the sacrifice after the (‘Eid) Salât (prayer).

5560. Narrated Al-Barâ’ [I heard the Prophet ﷺ delivering a Khutba, and he said (on the Day of ‘Eid-ul-Adhâ), “The first thing we will do on this day of ours is that we will offer the ‘Eid prayer, then we will return and slaughter our sacrifices; and whoever does so, then indeed he has followed our legal way and whoever slaughtered his sacrifice [before the (‘Eid) prayer], what he offered was just meat that he presented to his family and that was not a sacrifice.” Abû Burda got up and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! I slaughtered the sacrifice before the (‘Eid) Salât (prayer) and I have got a Jadha’a (kid) which is better than an old sheep.” The Prophet ﷺ said, “Slaughter it to make up for that, but it will not be sufficient for anybody else after you.”

(12) CHAPTER. Whoever slaughters his sacrifice before the ‘Eid prayer should repeat it (slaughter another sacrifice).

5561. Narrated Anas [The Prophet ﷺ said, “Whoever slaughtered the sacrifice before the ‘Eid prayer, should repeat it (slaughter another one).” A man said “This is the day on which meat is desired.” Then he mentioned the needs of his neighbours (for meat) and the Prophet ﷺ seemed to accept his excuse. The man said, “I have a Jadha’a which is to me better than... two sheep.” The Prophet allowed him (to slaughter it as a sacrifice). But I do not know whether this permission was general for all Muslims or not. The Prophet then went towards two rams and slaughtered them, and the people went towards their sheep and slaughtered them.

5562. Narrated Jundab bin Sufyân Al-Bajali: I witnessed the Prophet on the Day of Nahr. He said, “Whoever slaughtered the sacrifice before offering the ‘Eid prayer, should slaughter another sacrifice in its place; and whoever has not slaughtered their sacrifice should slaughter now (i.e. after the ‘Eid prayer).”

5563. Narrated Al-Barâ’: One day Allâh’s Messenger offered the ‘Eid Salât (prayer) and said, “Whoever offers our Salât (prayer) and faces our Qiblah should not slaughter the sacrifice till he finishes the ‘Eid prayer.” Abû Burda bin Niyâr got up and said, “O Allâh’s Messenger! I have already done it. The Prophet said, “That is something you have done before its due time.” Abû Burda said, “I have a Jadha’a (kid) which is better than two old sheep; shall I slaughter it?” The Prophet said, “Yes, but it will not be sufficient for anyone after you.”

(13) CHAPTER. To put one’s foot on the side of the animal at the time of slaughtering.
5564. Narrated Anas: The Prophet used to offer as sacrifices, two horned rams, black and white in colour, and used to put his foot on their sides and slaughter them with his own hands.

(14) CHAPTER. To say Takbīr (Allāhu Akbar) while slaughtering (a sacrifice).

5565. Narrated Anas: The Prophet offered as sacrifices, two horned rams black and white in colour. He slaughtered them with his own hands and mentioned Allāh’s Name over them and said Takbīr and put his foot on their sides.

(15) CHAPTER. If someone sends his Ḥady to be slaughtered then nothing lawful is rendered unlawful for him.

5566. Narrated Masrūq that he came to ‘Aishah and said to her, “O Mother of the believers! There is a man who sends a Ḥady to Ka’bah and stays in his city and requests that his Ḥady camel be garlanded while he remains as a Muhrīm from that day till the people finish their Ḥajj (after completing all the ceremonies of Ḥajj)” (What do you say about it?) Masrūq added, I heard the clapping of her hands behind the curtain. She said. “I used to twist the garlands for Al-Hady of Allāh’s Messenger and he used to send his Ḥady to Ka’bah but he never used to regard as unlawful what was lawful for men to do with their wives till the people returned (from Al-Ḥajj).”
(16) CHAPTER. What may be eaten of the meat of sacrifices and what may be taken as journey food.

5567. Narrated Jābir bin ‘Abdullāh: During the lifetime of the Prophet we used to take with us the meat of the sacrifices (of ‘Eid-ul-Adhā) to Al-Madīna. (The narrator often said: The meat of Al-Hady).

5568. Narrated Abū Sa‘īd (Al-Khudrī) that once he was not present (at the time of ‘Eid-ul-Adhā) and when he came, some meat was presented to him, and the people said (to him), “This is the meat of our sacrifices.” He said, “Take it away: I shall not taste it.” (In his narration) Abū Sa‘īd added: I got up and went to my brother, Abī Qatāda (who was his maternal brother and was one of the warriors of the battle of Badr) and mentioned that to him. He said, “A new verdict was given in your absence (i.e., meat of sacrifices was allowed to be stored and eaten later on).”

5569. Narrated Salama bin Al-Akwa: The Prophet said, “Whoever has slaughtered a sacrifice should not keep anything of its meat after three days.” When it was the next year the people said, “O Allāh’s Messenger! Shall we do as we did last year?” He said, “Eat of it and feed of it to others and store of it, for in that year the people were having a hard time and I wanted you to help (the needy)."

5570. Narrated ‘Āishah: We used to salt some of the meat of sacrifice and present it to the Prophet at Al-Madina. Once he said, “Do not eat (of that meat) for more than three days.” That was not a final order, but (that year) he wanted us to feed of it to others, Allah knows better.

5571. Narrated Abū ‘Ubaid, the freed slave of Ibn Azhar that he witnessed the day of ‘Eid-ul-Adhā with ‘Umar bin Al-Khattāb. ‘Umar offered the ‘Eid prayer before the Khutba and then delivered the Khutba before the people, saying, “O people! Allah’s Messenger has forbidden you to observe Saum (fast) on each of these two ‘Eid, for one of the day of breaking your Saum, and the other is the one, on which you eat the meat of your sacrifices.”

5572. Abū ‘Ubaid said (in continuation of H. No. 5571): Then I witnessed the ‘Eid with Uthmān bin ‘Affān, and that was on a Friday. He offered the (‘Eid) Salāt (prayer) before the Khutba, saying, “O people! Today you have two ‘Eids (festivals, i.e., Friday and ‘Eid) together, so whoever of those who live at Al-‘Awālī (suburbs) would like to wait for the Jumu‘ah prayer, he may wait, and whoever would like to return (home) is granted my permission to do so."

5573. Then I witnessed (the ‘Eid) with ‘Alī bin Abi Ṭālib, and he too offered the ‘Eid prayer before the Khutba and then delivered the Khutba before the people and said, “Allah’s Messenger has forbidden you to eat the meat of your sacrifices for more than three days.”

5574. Narrated Sālim: ‘Abdullāh bin ‘Umar said, “Allah’s Messenger said, “Eat of the meat of sacrifices (of ‘Eid-ul-Adhā) for three days.” When ‘Abdullāh departed from Minā, he used to eat (bread with) oil, lest he should eat of the meat of Hady (which is regarded as unlawful after the three days of the ‘Eid)."
(1) CHAPTER. The Statement of Allāh’s (Subhānahu wa Ta‘ālā): “Intoxicants (all kinds of alcoholic drinks), gambling, Al-‘Ansāb⁹¹ and Al-Azālām (arrows for seeking luck or decision) are an abomination of Shaitān’s (ṣaṭan) handiwork. So avoid (strictly all) that (abomination) in order that you may be successful…” (V.5:90)

5575.Narrated Ibn ‘Umar: Allah’s Messenger (Sallallāhu ‘Alayhi wa Sallam) said, “Whoever drinks alcoholic drinks in the world and does not repent from it (i.e. stops drinking alcoholic drinks, and begs Allah to forgive him before his death), will be deprived of it in the Hereafter.”

5576. Narrated Abū Hurairah: The night on which Allah’s Messenger was taken for a night journey (Al-‘Isra), two cups, one containing wine and the other milk, were presented to him at Jerusalem. He looked at them and took the cup of milk. Jibril (Gabriel) said, “Praise be to Allah who guided you to Al-Fitrāh (Islam and the right path); if you had taken (the cup of) wine, your nation would have gone astray.”

⁹¹ (Chap. 1) ‘Ansāb is the plural of ‘An-Nuṣub’ which were stone-altars at fixed places or graves, etc., where on sacrifices were slaughtered during fixed periods of occasions and seasons in the name of idols, jinn, angels, pious men, saints, etc., in order to honour them, or to expect some benefit from them.
5577. Narrated Anas: I heard from Allah's Messenger a narration which none other than I will narrate to you. The Prophet said, "From among the portents of the Hour are the following: (1) Ignorance (of religion) will prevail, (2) Religious knowledge will decrease, (3) Open illegal sexual intercourse will prevail, (4) Alcoholic drinks will be drunk (in abundance), (5) Men will decrease in number and women will increase in number so much so that for every fifty women there will be one man to look after them." [See H. No. 80, 81, Vol I]

5578. Narrated Abu Hurairah: The Prophet said, "An adulterer, at the time he is committing illegal sexual intercourse is not a believer; and a person, at the time of drinking an alcoholic drink is not a believer; and a thief, at the time of stealing, is not a believer."

Ibn Shihab said: 'Abdul Malik bin Abi Bakr bin 'Abdur-Rahman bin Al-Harith bin Hisham told me that Abi Bakr used to narrate that narration to him on the authority of Abu Hurairah. He used to add that Abi Bakr used to mention, besides the above cases, "And he who robs (takes illegally something by force) while the people are looking at him, is not a believer at the time he is robbing (taking it)."
(2) CHAPTER. Alcoholic drinks may be prepared from grapes and other things.

5579. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: "Alcoholic drinks were prohibited (by Allâh) when there was nothing of it in Al-Madîna.

5580. Narrated Anas: "Alcoholic drinks were prohibited at the time we could rarely find wine made from grapes in Al-Madîna, for most of our liquors were made from unripe and ripe dates.

5581. Narrated Ibn 'Umar: 'Umar stood up on the pulpit and said, "Now then, prohibition of alcoholic drinks have been revealed, and these drinks are prepared from five things, i.e., grapes, dates, honey, wheat or barley. And an alcoholic drink is that, that disturbs the mind.

(3) CHAPTER. Prohibition of alcoholic drinks have been revealed and these drinks are prepared from unripe and ripe dates.

5582. Narrated Anas bin Mâlik: I was serving Abû 'Ubaida, Abû Tâlîha and Ubayn bin Ka'b with a drink prepared from ripe and unripe dates. Then somebody came to them and said, "Alcoholic drinks have been prohibited.” (On hearing that) Abū Ṭalḥa said, “Get up, O Anas, and pour (throw) it out!” So I poured (threw) it out.

5583. Narrated Anas: While I was waiting on my uncles and serving them with (wine prepared from) dates – and I was the youngest of them – it was said, “Alcoholic drinks have been prohibited.” So they said (to me), “Throw it away.” So I threw it away.

5584. Narrated Anas bin Mālik: Alcoholic drinks were prohibited. At that time these drinks used to be prepared from unripe and ripe dates.

(4) CHAPTER. The Alcoholic drinks prepared from honey is called Al-Biṭ'.

ْبَابُ: الْحَمْرُ مَنَّ الْمَسْلُ وَهُوَ الْبِيْنُ
Narrated Ma'n: I asked Mālik bin Anas about Al-Fuqqa’. (1) He said, “If it does not intoxicate, then there is no harm in it.”
